

BLACK PLAIN 989

Chapter 989 The Consequence Of Falling A Thousand Meters Off The Ground

As Jade's group descended through the skies of that region, Minos, Abby, Maida, and the two Spiritual Emperors of the Carline family remained there.

However, now with the arrival of these two reinforcements, the situation of Minos' two enemies had changed considerably, and their expressions could not help but show it.

Against just Minos and Abby, they were already feeling great difficulties, so now, with two more people of the same level as them, any chance they had here had been obliterated!

"Damn!"

"You will pay for this, Carlines!" Clayton Silva shouted in despair, cursing these people who had betrayed the region and sided with the sordid Minos.

However, those two were not worried about the threats made by two dying people on the edge of the precipice of life.

Both were at level 61, and so were their enemies. Moreover, the two were at their peak state, while Minos' two enemies were already highly worn out.

In fact, as they circled that area, preparing to attack their opponents, Minos continued to absorb his opponents' energies while ignoring their reinforcements.

"Bastards!"

"I'll at least take one of you with me!" The Brown family member said this while releasing a strong killing intent, looking in the direction of Minos and Abby.

"Oh?"

"I want to see you try!" Minos' eyes flashed brightly as finally, his two reinforcements began to attack.
PANDA-NOVEL.COM

Then, in the blink of an eye, various energy forms appeared again in the surroundings, as Minos and Abby constantly dodged enemy attacks, but now with more freedom to counterattack.

Their two reinforcements were helpful, and every time the two enemies approached Minos and Abby, they made life even more difficult for those enemies.

By having more space, Minos was acting more effectively, further eroding his opponents' physical and mental defenses, making it easier for his team to win!

...

As the battle in the skies over that region continued, Jade's group finally landed in the vicinity where Minos' enemies should have fallen.

In that area, when looking from afar, one would see several piles of flesh in the middle of a semi-desert area. In contrast, bloodstains could be seen over an area of tens of square meters.

But these stains were not regular since the beings that fell there, especially the beasts, had fallen at different points, creating a disorganized 'painting' in the area.

And seeing this up close, the people in Jade's group almost vomited the contents of their stomachs, as none of them had ever seen anything like this.

They had already fought many battles and seen deaths occur in various forms. But they had never seen anyone die from falling from great heights. And seeing the pieces of flesh that remained of their enemies' beasts, they were face to face with a grotesque scene.

Spiritual beasts were naturally large beings. And, given that each of those beings was previously the size of a 50 square meter house, 5 meters high, falling a thousand meters had resulted in the complete obliteration of their bodies!

Not only that, but the smell of blood mixed with these beings' feces was already contaminating the air, making an odor no better than the smell of impurities released by cultivators. PANDA NOVEL

As it was not pleasant to smell other people's impurities, those people from the Carline family were not in a comfortable situation!

"Damn!"

"That smell is too intense!" One of them commented as he brought one of his hands to his nose.

"Hmm, but I must say that is truly shocking. I never thought that beasts with such large and strong bodies would end up like that."

"Look at that..." He pointed in the direction of the body of a level 59 Spiritual King. "A mere human didn't have his body obliterated, but such massive beasts did."

But this man was just ignorant of Natural Laws.

A larger being might seem more resilient concerning specific parameters, but being large and massive was a significant disadvantage when it came to free falls!

In fact, some small animals, such as rats, could even survive falls of a few dozen meters. But the same fall would obliterate an elephant.

And for the massive beasts used by the Brown family group, the situation had only worsened, reaching the current result.

That was also why the humans in Thomas' group had not suffered as much as the beasts, and several could still be recognized even after death.

In any case, while they were impressed by the result of Minos' mere glances, those people finally began to check the condition of the human bodies there. PANDA NOVEL

After a while, they finally confirmed the death of each of the level 59 Spiritual Kings, among them King Brown, who died while having a look of fear in his eyes and holding a teleportation array cut in half.

"Sigh..."

'This is all your fault, Thomas.' Jade thought to herself as she looked at the highly bruised body of that regional peak Spiritual King. 'You were a fool who let Minos grow up and a clown for insisting on your mistakes.'

'Well, now you've paid for all that.' She took the spatial ring from that man just before looking at the people in her group and ordering them to collect the items from the dead.

'At least now Minos will be able to carry on with his plans without further interference, and we can get back to doing business instead of fighting relentlessly.' She smiled quietly. 'That will be better!'

However, as she thought about the bright future ahead of them, the voice of one of her family members alerted her to something.

"Look out! There's a survivor!"

"What?"

"How could it be? How could anyone survive that fall?"

People in the surrounding area began to say things in disbelief as they turned to the body moving with difficulty in that area.

Jade then looked at such a person with an incredulous expression on her face but soon understood the situation. "That's the enemy Spiritual Emperor who wasn't fighting those two earlier!"

"Oh?"

"So, Spiritual Emperors have such endurance?"

"It doesn't matter!"

"What do we do now, Your Majesty?" Someone there asked Jade, as their group already surrounded that individual.

"Let's kill him!" She ordered without hesitation. "He is extremely injured, and knowing Minos, I am sure that such a person is more vulnerable than we imagined."

"Kill a Spiritual Emperor?" Some there felt doubts emerge in their hearts because they had never done anything so daring before.

"Would you people rather let him recover and then kill us?" She shouted at them, unhappy that her family had such cowardly individuals.

After hearing that, those men swallowed their saliva in anticipation just before they began to circulate their energies into their techniques.

Golden Threads!

Hammer of Heaven!

...

Blue Lightning!

Then, several attacks formed in the air just before they were thrown against that Spirit Emperor, who was not even conscious at the moment.

BOOM!

Strong winds spread across the area as the dust was lifted into the air by the shockwaves left by those people's attacks.

Meanwhile, drops of blood began to fly around the surroundings, departing from the now mutilated body of that Spiritual Emperor.

That individual would usually be invincible against those people. But with his defenses at a minimum, nay, in a shameful state, his body could not withstand the attacks of mere Spiritual Kings.

Consequently, he died amid his nightmares, still being tortured by Minos!

"Phew!"

"It's finally over!" Someone there said so, feeling that there was no more to worry them in that place.

King Brown was dead. All the peak Spiritual Kings of the Brown Kingdom who had come from the Flaming Empire were also on their way to the underworld. At the same time, they had eliminated a Spiritual Emperor, and as they looked up to the skies, they knew that it was all over.

After all, at this very moment, two human bodies were rapidly falling from the sky, while a beast and four humans were slowly descending from their positions.

'They're finished too, huh?' Jade smiled as she looked at young Stuart, 'What shall we do now?'

After that, Minos finally got off Maida's back, heading towards his opponents' two dead bodies.

...