

Bewedded Not Beloved Chapter 441 – 450

Chapter 441

I heard it right, Xue Wen actually wants to cooperate with me?

What is he working with me? As far as I know, although Cora has always asked Xue Wen to hold an important position in the Ron family, Cora sees him very closely. Xue Wen is concerned about every expenditure except for the company's salary. , And Xue Wen basically spends his money outside playing with women.

Moreover, he is not enterprising but only greedy for pleasure. He has worked in Mira for so many years and has no results. He is a small manager of a branch office, even if Cora wants to promote her husband, But because there was really no achievement, every time her proposal was rejected.

.So such Xue Wen wants to cooperate with me, I don't know where his confidence and strength come from.

I must have laughed perfunctorily: "Sorry, I'm going to have lunch."

I walked forward and Xue Wen called my name.

"Livia, I know a big secret of Mira, I use this secret as an investment to cooperate with you, what do you think?"

No matter what secret Xue Wen has, I don't bother to cooperate with such people.

I looked back at him: "No, Mr. Xue."

. I no longer tell him more about stepping into the alley.

There is a back door in Chuan Chuan shop. I went in through the back door, and Lina was impatient to wait.

The bottom of our pot has come up, and she also took a few large baskets of delicious food, and when she saw me, she rushed over: "You went to the moon to buy Coke? Why did you do this for so long?"

I handed her Vanilla Coke, and she flipped the bag: "Is it ice?"

"How do you drink ice during your menstrual period these days? You really don't think of yourself as a girl." I gave her a blank look and then sat down at the table.

"That's all, you have been there for a long time." Smith Xie muttered, "I waited for you to come, but I starved to death."

"I ran into Xue Wen when I was buying Coke."

"Huh?" Lina looked up at me while drinking Coke, "What the hell is Xue Wen?"

"Cora's husband!"

"Oh, oh," Lina nodded: "He is too inexistent. I have forgotten his name. I ran into him when I met him. What's the matter, did I run into him mixing with other women? "

Even Lina knows him so well, which shows how lustful Xue Wen is?

"Why? He talked to you, wanting you not to tell Cora about you meeting him?"

"That's not the case. He said he had a fallout with Cora."

“It is normal for him to fall out with Cora. Everywhere Cora is domineering, he wants to control her husband. It’s a big jealousy. Her husband will make a big quarrel when she looks at other women outside. Had it not been for Cora’s wealth, Xue Wen would have been unable to bear her for a long time.”

While I was cooking the beef, I said to Lina, “Xue Wen said just now that he wants to cooperate with me.”

“Cooperate with what? He wants to join you to fight the Ron family sisters? He doesn’t see if he has such ability.”

“He said he has a big secret about Mira.”

Before I finished my words, Lina put down the spoon in his hand and looked at me with wide eyes.

“What’s the secret?”

“I didn’t ask him, besides, he will definitely sell it. If it’s not that easy, just tell me.”

Originally, Lina said she was starving to death, but now she heard what I said, she seemed to have no intention of eating.

She touched her chin with one hand, her eyes rolled in her eye sockets: “I feel Xue Wen is a little desperate. He must have spent the money outside, but what he said may be true, he knows He doesn’t have the real material in his hands, why would you cooperate with him? Or we just listen to him, what kind of secret is he?”

“Whatever it is, I don’t want to cooperate with him.”

“Why? I know you hate Xue Wen. This kind of person is lascivious and incompetent, relying on it. My wife is still stealing food outside, but my dear, you are looking for a partner and not a blind date. You care about the character of the other person and ask him to tell If your secret is strong enough to be a threat to Mira, that's fine. Don't be emotional about this kind of thing."

In some ways, Lina is better than me, and calmer than me, able to analyze things rationally.

"But Xue Wen has already left. If I take the initiative to find him, he will definitely sell him."

"I just ran into you when he couldn't leave, and now he has nothing to do. With this chance, how could he let it go for nothing?"

Is Xue Wen still outside? Lina and I continue to eat, and it has been more than an hour until the end of a meal.

We checked out and walked out of the Chuanchuan shop. When I was full, I had forgotten Xue Wen. I was about to cross the road to drive when a person suddenly appeared from the intersection.

"Livia, oh, President Smith." It was Xue Wen, with a big smile on his face: "It's so cold outside today!"

I exchanged glances with Lina, and Lina said that Xue Wen was really waiting for me to come out. It seems that he is very sincere. It can be seen that he has recently spent almost all his money.

Lina walked forward blankly as if not seeing him, holding my hand.

I know that Lina is trying to get caught up. The more we care about him, the more we catch him.

Xue Wen was really anxious and followed all the way: “Livia, President Smith, how do you treat me as a transparent person? I am a big living person in front of you anyway. President Smith, even if Livia calms down, think about it. Kan Mira has acquired a large amount of your Smith’s shares. Now that she has become your Smith’s major shareholder, you will be held down by her. Are you willing?”

“It’s my business whether I’m willing to be reconciled.” Lina opened the car door and said slowly: “What does it have to do with you? We don’t seem to be very familiar with you!”

“At that time, you went to your house every day to look for Livia. How many times have we bumped into each other, why are you unfamiliar?” Xue Wen stretched out his hand to block Smith’s hand and pulled the car door: “Livia must have suggested me to her just now. I’ve told you the story, Mr. Joe, or you would consider it too! The one in my hand is a big secret, very valuable.”

“Not interested.” Lina glared at Xue Wen and stunned, and immediately let go when he was blocking the door.

Lina opened the car door and sat in: “Livia, you come to drive, I’m too full to eat.”

“I don’t have a driver’s license.” The driver’s license was detained last time, and I don’t have time to learn.

We talked to ourselves and drove away from Xue Wen. I saw Xue Wen’s expression in the rearview mirror, disappointed and embarrassed.

Of course, he was desperately desperate for backing now, and finally ran into us and let him have an idea, but we didn’t give him any chance.

“I didn’t mean to cooperate with him? What should you do if you block the road so hard?”

Chapter 442

“Don’t worry, now Xue Wen is struggling to death, and finally found a life-saving straw. Do you think he will let go for nothing?”

“So what?”

Lina smiled without answering, very profound.

I leaned on the back of the chair and fell asleep when I was too full.

Lina patted me suddenly, I opened my eyes, she turned her mouth in the rearview mirror, and I looked over.

I saw a car closely following our car, because the car sticker was too tight, so I recognized Xue Wen as the driver at a glance.

“I’m right.” Lina said: “Now Xuewen is like a vicious wolf drinking blood and blood. He finally smelled a little bit of blood, how could he easily let it go?”

I was relieved when he followed, otherwise the line would be broken, and he would have to get the bridge when we went to find him.

“Then you can keep driving.”

“Livia has also learned how to squeeze, and the ru child can teach and the ru child can teach.” Lina stretched the voice.

Lina didn’t drive the car home, but came to a shopping mall. She stopped the car and tilted her head at me: “Go, let’s go shopping.”

I know that Lina has no intention of shopping, and it is nothing more than walking Xue Wen.

But during this time, my string is too tight, and it's good to go shopping.

Women, when they see beautiful things, they will instantly forget some troubles.

Although it's impossible to forget my troubles all at once, or even if I forget, I will remember them soon, but it doesn't matter.

Crazy shopping can be exchanged for short-term psychological comfort, which is also great for me.

Lina and I buy, buy, and buy, don't think that Lina is usually a tomboy, but when we buy Dong things, we show the essence of a woman.

There is a brand that I like very much. I like their skirts and high heels, while Smith I like their trousers and bags.

The two of us were standing in the middle of the store, and I pointed to the things I liked and said to the clerk: "Wrap this and this for me, and show me the other one."

Lina pointed to the things she liked and said to the clerk: "Wrap up that and that and that. Give me a try."

When the clerk saw the big customer, he was so busy that he smiled like a flower.

When I changed my clothes and looked in the mirror, I saw in the mirror that Xue Wen was poking his head in front of the store.

The clerk also saw him and asked us in a low voice: "Miss, is the gentleman at the door with you?"

“Yes.” Lina hehe, and then beckoned to Xue Wen, Xue Wen walked in hurriedly, and Lina said to the clerk: “This gentleman pays.”

Xue Wen’s face turned white immediately. Lina and I hurriedly bought out the items displayed in this store. This is a famous store, which is a lot of money, let alone the current Xue Wen, even if it is. When he and Cora didn’t fall out in the past, he couldn’t get so much at once.

He accompanied the smiling face: “I won’t bother girls shopping. I will invite two of you to dinner later.”

“I just ate it, isn’t this about shopping for digestion.” Lina glanced at him from the mirror.

Xue Wen quit the store with a smile, but he still didn’t leave and hovered in front of the store.

We finished shopping, put on new clothes, and let the clerk pack the rest and send it home.

The result of crazy shopping is an empty wallet and a heart filled with beautiful things.

I continued to wander in the mall hand in hand with Lina, and Lina asked me: “Should I go to buy another watch?”

“Should I buy another bracelet?”

The two of us flipped through our pockets and smiled at each other.

Xue Wen has been following us sneakily, looking very disgusting.

All of his things are shameful virtues. I really don't know why Cora still treats him like a treasure, defending women all over the world.

If Xue Wen was not generous to those women, who would be willing to approach him?

Ron Xuewen was almost gone, and Lina and I were tired from shopping.

"Let's find a place to sit down and drink something, I'm exhausted." I said to Lina.

Lina readily agreed: "I'm dying of thirst, I want to drink passion fruit tea."

There was a cafe right in front of us. Lina and I walked in and sat down. We just picked up the menu and before we started ordering, Xue Wen rushed in and sat down on the chairs beside us.

"Two beauties, I invite you to have a cup of coffee!" Xue Wen smiled and took away the menu in Lina's hand: "If you want to drink, please order."

"You are really good at calculating. Just now we bought clothes in the store, but I didn't see you rushing to pay the bill." Lina flicked the menu with his finger: "How much does it cost? Just order all of them. Drinking will not deflate your wallet, but it will hold us to death."

Xue Wen smiled without embarrassment at all: "The two are both female middle school heroes. How can my assets compare to the two, or else how would I think about working with you."

"What's the cooperation?" Lina ordered a pot of passion fruit tea, and I ordered a cup of ice coffee.

“I told Livia at the beginning, I have a big secret about Mira, how the two of you are making some big moves recently, let me play one, I can definitely buy shares in this secret!”

“You also want to spend some of your secrets about the odds and ends, Xue Wen, I think you are crazy for lack of money, right?”

“Yes, I was indeed short of money lately, that girl Cora, who froze all my assets for me.”

“Do your assets still need to be frozen?” Lina smiled.

The thing we ordered came up, and I was really thirsty. I kept drinking the ice coffee, and Lina also sipped her passion fruit tea with a straw.

We seemed indifferent to his secrets, completely letting Xue Wen lose our appetite.

He sighed: “Two, I know that the two of them must have been holding back their strengths against Mira without going abroad. Thinking about Mira, it is despicable enough. They took your shares by that means. Also, Mira did not manage his strength and used all the funds to buy Smith’s shares, thinking that he could cover the sky in Rovandel with one hand, but forgot how much he weighed.”

“Don’t talk nonsense.” Lina interrupted Xue Wen’s long talk: “I haven’t made any big moves with Livia recently. You can tell your secret first. I will estimate that you can give you cash, but you who buy shares? Don’t think about it.”

Xue Wen’s eyes brightened, and it is estimated that he also wants to get cash.

He stretched out a finger, Lina glanced at it and smiled: “What’s your secret is worth 1 million?”

“No, no,” Xue Wen immediately shook his head: “1 million? My secret is worth 100 million!”

Chapter 443

Xue Wen Lion opened his mouth, almost not shocking Lina and me.

“One hundred million?” Lina choked and coughed for a long time, and I quickly patted her on the back: “Xue Wen, you are so poor and crazy. You really dare to speak, why don’t you have one billion for one hundred million?”

“Wait After telling my secret, you feel that this one billion is worth your money.” The smile on Xue Wen’s face is really annoying. If I had a fly swatter in my hand, I would definitely shoot it.

Lina and I drank all the drinks in the glass at once, and then I took out a few pieces of money from my wallet and slapped them on the table: “Pay the bill, don’t find the rest.”

Then Smith and I got up at the same time. I really dare to say, one hundred million, if Lina and I have so much money, what would they worry about?

“Don’t don’t don’t, I’ll give you two drinks.” Xue Wen hurriedly picked up the money I put on the table and stuffed it into my hand, and then took out his wallet.

He really knows how to calculate, how much does it cost to drink?

“No need.” I put the money he gave me and continued to pat on the table, and then walked out of the cafe with Lina.

Xue Wen panicked and followed us in a hurry.

“Two of you, don’t be frightened when you hear the price I am driving. Livia promises that this secret I told you will feel that after you listen to it, you will feel that it is less than 100 million.”

“Xue Wen.” I stopped and looked at him: “Where do you think I have been driven out by Mira and Mira has taken the shares, and I still have 100 million for you?”

“Your father left you with more than that much property ? Right?”

“I tell you the truth there is not much cash, only a few properties. You won’t let me sell the house for you?”

“Don’t say it so miserable, your skinny camel is bigger than a horse.”

I I don’t want to stand in the mall with Xue Wen to be poorer than anyone else. Lina pulls my hand impatiently and said: “Okay, don’t talk to him, it’s better to go home and lie down in this time.”

Xue Wen stopped us again. He has followed us for an afternoon, and it is estimated that his patience has been burned.

“Let’s do it, two of you, what kind of price is more suitable for you, you can ask for a similar price.”

Xue Wen made it like a vegetable market, and he also bargained.

Lina directly threw him a hygienic eyeball: “I don’t know what your secret is. You let us make a price. If I open 10 yuan, can you sell it?”

“Don’t be kidding, don’t delay everyone’s time, I promise After you listen to my secret, no matter what the price is, it is absolutely worth it.” Xue Wen was anxious and grabbed my wrist.

Lina squeezed his hand, and when he grinned, he pulled his hand from my wrist: "Speak as you speak, don't move your hands or feet."

"It hurts, Joe always is really powerful." Xue Wen was still flattering, he said while rubbing his wrist.

"In this way, you tell your secret first. I will pay depending on the situation. I will pay you if it is worth the money. I will not pay a dime if it is not worth it. If you pester us again, I will call the police. Or how about my fist coming to talk to you?" Lina shook his fist, Xue Wen licked his lips in embarrassment: "Is this secret worth telling me? Even if it is worth 100 million, give it to me. 1 million, what can I do?"

He is really not stupid, he is very clever in this respect, but he is not very good in business.

"That's all right, I'll just tell you this." Xue Wen leaned over to me, I instinctively hid back, and Lina pinched his face accurately: "I want to molest in front of me. Livia, I think you are tired of living."

"No, no, I can't say it out loud!"

Lina let go, and Xue Wen whispered: "Livia, what do you think of your father? Dead?"

I didn't expect that the secret he was talking about was related to this. I immediately became nervous and stared at him.

It seems that he was very satisfied with my reaction, and his voice was lowered: "Do you think your father died in a car accident? Yes, it was a car accident, but the car accident was caused by man. Do you know who that person is? "

I suddenly remembered that Dad used to mention this when an old friend was eating with me, but he later had a stroke, and he didn't remember anything when I mentioned it to him.

"Who is that person?" I asked immediately.

"So the point is here, so now do you think my secret is worth 100 million?"

"I hate others selling Guanzi." Lina said: "A price of 10 million, you love to say nothing, we ourselves You can check it."

"You can't find it if you kill it." Xue Wen was very confident: "10 million is too little. If you look for a private detective or something by yourself, the total cost will be about the same, but I But at the big risk of this day, I told you about this."

"Don't tell me." Lina took my hand and walked towards the door of the mall.

My heart is very complicated. Of course, I want to know the secret that Xue Wen said immediately, but I also know that I can't rush everything.

Xue Wen paused and chased him again. The heel of his leather shoes seemed to be inlaid with nails, and the sound was particularly harsh when he hit the marble floor.

"Wait, wait." He grabbed my sleeves again, this time he didn't dare to pull my wrist: "Well, if it wasn't for my lack of money, I would not sell this secret to a cheap sale. 20 million, if you can give it, the secret will rot in my stomach."

Lina and I looked back at Xue Wen at the same time, his eyes were round and there were red blood in them.

It can be seen that the price of 20 million is already the bottom line for him.

This secret seems to be a big secret.

I glanced at Lina, and Lina asked me: “You have the final say.”

In fact, Lina and I don’t have so much cash. I thought about it and said to Xue Wen: “Cash 5 million plus the property rights of a villa.”

“Now the real estate is in a downturn, I don’t know if your house can be sold. Fall, what do I want the house for?”

“Forget it, just put your secrets in your stomach.”

I turned around and took Joe’s to the door.

This time Xue Wen didn’t follow. Lina and I walked to the garage and got on the car, and we didn’t see Xue Wen.

“Livia.” Lina said to me as he took the seat belt: “In fact, we still have 20 million in our money.”

“You don’t want to bid, even if you can get the sponsor, do we have one Didn’t you get the cash?” “But what if Xue Wen took the bridge ?” “Just take it, I can’t help it.”

Chapter 444

A lot of things are now gambling. What is the gambling?

The bet is a kind of luck or one’s own mentality, maybe both!

Lina drove the car out of the parking lot, and I was ready that Xue Wen would never show up again.

But suddenly a person rushed out from the car. Fortunately, Lina's car was not driving fast, otherwise he would crash into it.

Lina hurriedly braked and patted his chest: "My mother is going to scare me to death."

I was also scared to death. The man who rushed out of the car ran over to our car window and turned out to be Xue Wen.

Lina squeezed my hand and blinked at me. I knew there was a way.

Joey slowly rolled down the car window. I leaned back in the chair and pretended to ask him casually: "What? Do you know it was dangerous just now. If we hit you, we will be held responsible."

"Good, good." Xue Wen sighed: "The two are both strong women and entrepreneurs. I am not the opponent of the two. 5 million in cash is 5 million. When can the money be given to me?"

Xue Wen was really short of money and couldn't bear to be like this.

I said: "Tell out your secret, cash will be able to call you within an hour."

"Okay," Xue Wenla opened the door and got into the car, and I said, "Find a place!"

Xue Wen shook his head straight: "You don't have to find a place so troublesome, just say it in the car."

For the car started by Lina, I said to Lina: "Find a street park and drive over! You can't park at the gate of someone's parking lot."

There is a street park not far in front, and there are no people there now.

Lina parked the car in the parking lot and didn't get off. The two of us turned and looked at Xue Wen who was sitting in the back seat: "Well, since you are in a hurry to say it, let's say it now!"

Xue Wen licked his lips: "Second, I am sitting in the car now. I have sincerity. You will pay the money to my account now, I will say immediately."

Lina dialed the secretary's phone and gave a brief instruction: "I will give you a bank card number right away, and you can dial 5 million into this card number."

Then she hung up the phone, Xue Wen had found a small note, wrote his bank account number, and handed it to Lina with both hands.

Lina took a picture and sent it to her secretary: "What? Don't worry now! The secretary will do it now. You will receive the money in half an hour."

"Okay, I can trust you." Xue Wen nodded, then looked around and knocked on the car window again: "Mr. Smith, your car is well sealed, right?"

"Shut you inside and fill it with water. The water won't leak a bit, and it's guaranteed to drown you."

Xue Wen laughed haha, "Mr Joe is really humorous."

"Then just say it!"

Xue Wen said haha: "Don't worry, don't worry."

I know he is waiting for the 5 million to arrive, so well, he will wait with him if we wait.

If his secret is of no use, if he dared to swallow Lina 5 million in vain, how he swallowed Lina would make him vomit it.

Xue Wen has been talking to us haha. I asked about our recent stock market and said that we are a prodigal. If I didn't spend so much money on clothes and bags, I could give him more cash.

In short, after about half an hour, Xue Wen's phone rang, and he looked down and smiled.

"Yes, Joe is always trustworthy, then your house." He looked at me again.

"You can't let me do the real estate transfer to you now, I will find someone to do it early tomorrow morning."

"I can trust you, Livia. After all, you grew up with me, right?"

His smile is really wretched, I know Lina is also patient, otherwise the shoes on her feet would have been taken off and thrown away.

Lina closed the car windows tightly and turned on the air conditioner. Xue Wen shuddered and hugged his arms: "Is it a little earlier to turn on the air conditioner in this weather?"

"I'm afraid you will be bored later, so turn on the air conditioner first. The money has been received, and the house promised to transfer tomorrow. Don't you say wait for me to pry your mouth open with a crowbar?" Lina held it in his hand. A lighter, opened and closed, opened and closed, made the small car interior smell like gasoline.

Xue Wen sniffed and finally spoke: "Livia, in fact, your father's car accident was not accidental. It was someone who bought your father's driver. The accident was on purpose."

My breathing was almost stagnant and I didn't dare to make a little sound. I wanted to listen to what Xue Wen was going to say.

"The driver deliberately drove into the safety island."

After the accident, I also went to investigate and watched the surveillance of the road section at that time. It was really weird. At that time, there was no one on the road. Suddenly the driver turned the car and hit the guard box on the safety island.

The driver was fine, but the father who was sitting in the co-pilot flew out of the car window and received a heavy blow to the head.

Afterwards, a police officer also went to investigate and asked the driver why he turned suddenly. The driver said he saw a white shadow dangling from him, and the dad who was sitting in the co-pilot also saw him and filmed him, so he had to turn. As a result, an accident occurred.

Dad has passed away and there is no way to be refined, and the driver did not find anything famous after investigating, this matter is gone, I also feel very strange.

"Do you have evidence? Who did this?" Lina asked.

"That's the point, President Smith, you can ask the essence."

At this time, no one wants to listen to Xue Wen's flattery. I urged him: "If you know who it is, you can speak quickly."

“But if you are guessing out of thin air, without real evidence, I will separate a lot of the 5 million and get it back. If you force it, you will choke you to death.”

“I have Xue Diploma and can get money.” Xue Wen suddenly shook his cell phone proudly: “What I can get, others can’t get it.”

Lina glared at him. If he sells Guanzi again, I guess Lina will get started.

Xue Wen turned on the phone and played a piece of audio. It was a man talking to a woman: “Miss Livia, this is a big deal of money and life. I am under psychological pressure. After so long, I remembered it when I closed my eyes. Mr. Ron’s bloody face is definitely not enough for that little money.”

“You are blackmailing me! You are too greedy, how many times did I give you money? You ask for it again and again, there is no end to it!”

I was surprised to find that the female voice in the audio was actually Mira.

I looked up at Lina in astonishment and continued listening.

Chapter 445

“Second Miss, do you know that I am under a lot of pressure because of this incident. I have a mood disorder. It cost a lot of money just to see a psychologist for medicine and injection, let alone my physical trauma. You know. How expensive are the current psychiatrists, and I still can’t go to the hospital to look upright, and I’m looking for a private doctor who’s expensive and dying to see hundreds of times, not to mention a lot of medicine... ..”

“Okay, okay.” The female voice in the audio interrupted the man impatiently: “Don’t think I have any handle in your hand. You hit the car and the person died because of you. The last shot When the two are separated, you can’t escape when the police investigate them.”

“Second young lady, are you playing rascals with me? Okay, anyway, I am full and the family is not hungry, but you are different. You have a face and a face. If your mother knew that your husband was killed by you, do you think it adds up? Will you get a dime?”

I heard that there was no way to continue listening, because I could clearly distinguish that the man in the audio was the driver of the original Ron family. After the accident, he lay in the hospital for a while, and then resigned.

And I can hear the female voice clearly, the voice is clearly Mira, I am too familiar with it.

How is it possible, although I can distinguish the voices of the two of them, the logic of this matter does not make sense!

Not to mention whether Mira has the guts to kill, but the object she wants to kill is her father, why did she do this?

The audio is very long, about 10 minutes, and I can't calm down after listening to it.

Lina put his hand on my shoulder and squeezed it vigorously: “I wiped it, Mira is even more inhuman than I thought. I can't even think of it for God's death to be related to Mira.”

I couldn't think of it. If Cora did this thing, I still think there is a little possibility.

Because Cora is timid, but she doesn't use her impulse to do things, and she always feels that her father is not good to her and is too biased towards me.

So if she was instigated by others, she might actually do such a thing.

But Mira doesn't make sense at all. Mira has been smart since he was a child and has a calm and competitive personality. No matter what he does, he is exceptionally good.

Dad valued her very much and raised her as a boy.

For me, I think my father is more compassionate, and I hide it in the palm of my hand to protect it, but for Mira I think he has the willingness to cultivate Mira in the direction of his successor.

Ron and poetry are also very proficient, and she is proficient in all kinds of piano, chess, calligraphy and painting. Later, she chose business management instead of the art that she was good at at university.

I settled for a while before the god raised his head and looked at Xue Wen dumbfounded: "Where did you get this thing? Isn't this too ridiculous?"

"Unbelievable, I was shocked when I heard it at first." Xue Wen put away the phone: "So I say this kind of big secret today is for you to guess it for a lifetime."

"Then where did you get this thing? Doubt its authenticity."

"Don't doubt, I copied this audio from the driver's phone."

"Why would you copy it from his phone?"

"The driver had some money, so he dared to go to a membership-based nightclub. His mobile phone happened to fall in a private room and I picked it up. I wondered how the driver became rich after resigning, so I I asked someone to open his mobile phone and found these things inside. Then I copied the audio and handed the mobile phone to the front desk to return it to him, so that the driver would have no doubts, and the water would not leak."

In this regard, Xue Wen's brain is quite good. If he puts more thoughts on his official duties, he probably won't be ridiculed and squeezed out by the people of Quan Ron.

"But what can this prove?" Lina said: "This kind of audio presentation is not used as evidence. If there is no other evidence, how about Mira? Besides, Mira killed her own father, her What's the motive? It makes no sense!"

"Motivation is another secret. That 5 million is far from enough."

It's really greedy and not enough to swallow the elephant. I am still immersed in the huge shock of disappearing. What I am thinking is not looking for evidence, but trying to find the possibility of Mira doing this kind of thing, nuclear motivation. .

I looked at Xue Wen, his smile was very confident.

"Xue Wen." I sank for a long time before saying to him: "Just take away 5 million and one of my villas by this, do you think what I gave is worth it?"

"Of course it's far more than this. Don't worry, Livia, we are also considered relatives anyway. I have a conscience. This thing will not cost you so much money. Of course, I have something more amazing. Look at you too. For the sake of refreshing, I will give you these two together."

Xue Wen took out another mobile phone from his other pocket, and Lina looked at him sideways: "How many mobile phones do you have?"

"Eggs are not put in a basket. This is the philosophy of life."

Xue Wen squinted his eyes and opened his other mobile phone. This time it was not audio, but video.

The viewing angle should be that the camcorder should be placed in a very hidden corner, with something blocking it, but I can still see the people in the video.

There are two people in the video, a man and a woman, it is the driver and Mira.

I recognized Mira sitting in a chair. She was in her room. She lowered her head, and her long hair covered half of her face.

I heard her talking to the driver in a low voice: "I heard that you are short of money recently."

The driver also lowered his head and said, "How does the second lady know?"

"You have been working in our house for a long time. I don't think you are in the right mood, so I wanted to ask you."

"The second lady still cares about our employees."

"What happened to you? Just tell me how much money you lack!"

The driver was flattered: "I lost some money when I bought stocks. The main reason is that I lost all the money that my wife had in the box. She doesn't know yet!"

"How many?" Drama School

The driver hesitated: "It looks like 100,000 yuan."

"Oh, the money is really a lot!"

Chapter 446

The driver didn't speak, probably because he didn't know what Mira meant.

Mira paused, and then said, "It seems that you don't trust me enough and dare not tell me that as far as I know, you have lost much more money. Did you borrow usury again?"

"Second Miss, this has nothing to do with my job." The driver raised his head, looking flustered.

"I know I know. Don't panic. I didn't mean that. I mean, how much money you lack and tell me the truth. I'll see if I can help you. For so many years."

When the driver heard this, he was overjoyed: "Really? Second Miss, you are really willing to lend me money. You must know that I have been forced by those debt collectors these days, and I almost have nowhere to go."

"So you have been absent-minded in driving during this time." Mira was faint, and the driver's face changed immediately after hearing this.

"I'm sorry, second lady, yes, I'm sorry, I will definitely drive with full energy in the future. Last time I just scratched the car, but fortunately nothing happened."

"Don't be nervous, I haven't said anything yet, I'm just asking."

"Second Miss, I admit that my personal affairs during this period of time have affected some emotions. I can guarantee that there will be no more yes next time."

"Then how much do you owe?"

"300,000." The driver hummed.

“This money is not too much, but not too much. If you rely solely on your dead salary, it may not be enough for more than ten years.”

“In those more than ten years, I had been smashed by loan sharks.”

“So you will be dead if I don’t save you.” Mira finally raised her head. I can clearly see that the light in her eyes is cold, and even I can see some cold-blooded meaning.

“The second lady is willing to lend me money?”

“I lent you the money, how long do you think you can return it to me? 10 years and 20 years?” Mira asked the driver back, but the driver was speechless.

“I said that I will not lend you this money, but I can give it to you, and it will be more.”

The driver looked very confused and didn’t understand what Mira was talking about. In fact, I basically got it.

“Second Miss, what is it for me? I don’t understand.”

“Because our family has been working for so long, has always been driving my dad?”

“Yes, the second lady.”

“In fact, you just have to work harder and be more attentive in your usual work.”

“Really?” The driver was a little shocked.

“Also, there is one small thing to do,”

“What’s the matter? Second Miss, you said I will do it if I can.”

“It’s very simple. Dad is used to the car you often drive. Let’s drive that car next time!”

The driver was a little confused: “The old lady is talking about the old car? The old car has a little problem. I sent it for repair several times, but the old problem is always not repaired.”

“What’s the specific problem?”

“The steering wheel always runs off the track. It doesn’t seem like a big problem, but it’s also quite dangerous.”

“Actually, I don’t think there is a big problem. Have you told your dad about this?”

“I haven’t said it yet, I should tell my husband if I am thinking about getting a new car.”

Mira’s back stiffened suddenly, and then she opened the drawer of the desk and took out something from it, took a brush and wrote a line, then tore it off and handed it to the driver. What should be the check? of.

The driver received the check, and he was really surprised by the estimated amount. Please: “Second Miss, what does this mean?”

The driver stammered in shock, presumably there was a surprising number on the check.

The more I looked, the more I felt my scalp numb and my fingers were shaking.

Mira took a look in private. She got up and walked to the door and pushed the door to make sure that the door was closed tighter. She walked back and stood in front of the driver: "In fact, what I asked you to do is very simple. , You are still driving that car these few days, I remember my father has a party to go to the outskirts of the city tomorrow night, you will take another way except the national highway."

"That road." The driver thought for a while: "The road was under construction some time ago, and then the road was washed away by floods. It's not easy to walk. We generally don't go there."

"One million for another way, think about it."

"Miss, I don't understand what it means. The old car is broken and you let me take my husband down the accident-prone road." The driver paused halfway through his words, and his eyes widened. Staring at Mira in surprise, "Second Miss, isn't that what I understand, right?"

"What if I said that you understand that?" Mira stood up fiercely, at the angle he was standing, the camera just took all her expressions at the moment.

At this moment, Mira took on an unfamiliar appearance that I had never seen before. The light in his eyes was fierce. She seemed to have become a she-wolf who bites others, and the person he was about to bite was her. His biological father.

I really don't understand, I don't understand very, very much.

The driver's voice was very flustered: "Second Miss, I don't understand what you mean? Although I owe money outside, I have no influence on my work at all. I treat my husband wholeheartedly."

"I'm not testing you, don't worry, only you and I know what I say today, and there will never be a second person. You do what I said, and I will double the money to you, money It's not a problem, as long as you do it beautifully without leaving any traces."

"Second Miss, I really don't understand, Mr. is your father!"

"Speak less and do more. Don't ask anything you shouldn't ask. If you don't want to make a door call to the police, I can't do anything. You are a smart person. You don't push your money out in vain and say you owe it. With so much money, it's only once in your life. If you miss it, you will miss it. Never expect to turn around in the future."

The sound of Mira seemed to be dreaming, but it seemed to have magical power.

I found Mira is really suitable for brainwashing others, even Lina couldn't help but interrupt: "Mira tmd really seems to be the leader of a cult leader."

Really, it is estimated that under her encouragement, the followers will go forever on the road of no return.

The driver himself was struggling with himself for a long time, and then murmured: "In fact, it is not impossible to have a small car accident. Besides, there is something wrong with the car, and it can't be found out if it is checked."

Chapter 447

"Small car accident?" Mira sneered: "What kind of car accident do you think is worth 2 million?"

The driver seemed to not understand the meaning of Mira even more: "What does the second lady mean?"

“Heavy rain is forecast tomorrow. You are driving on a very muddy road in a faulty car. At this moment, there seems to be a bright light on the opposite side of the heavy rain. You think a big car is coming, so you rush to the direction. , I accidentally crashed into a big tree on the side of the road or a stone, and the car crashed and killed.”

This paragraph of Mira was told slowly, and every word she said was chilly and chilling.

Is Mira crazy?

The protagonist she arranged for the car accident was her father, what did she want to do?

Ordinarily, my father did not pass away at that time, no one knew what the division of father’s estate was like, and she didn’t know that I was not my father’s biological daughter.

Regardless of the motivation or the relationship between her and her father, this person shouldn’t be her.

I clearly saw the driver fought a cold war: “Car crashes and kills people, do I have to die for 2 million?”

“You are a driver. Of course, you know when to turn and when to crash. The damage to you is the least, and the person who is going to die will die in what position.” Mira’s voice is very calm, it is too calm, her face The expression on the top is also very calm, as if reading a story in a story book.

In short, it has nothing to do with her.

“Second Miss, but sir...” The driver stopped talking.

“I said, just ask what you should ask, don’t ask if you shouldn’t ask, if you want to take the money, you will do as I say tomorrow. I choose you because you have good skills and know what to do afterwards. No one will find out. In short, everything must be done without leakage.”

“but.”

“There is no time for you to hesitate. If you go directly to tell my dad what I said to you today, then just go and say it.”

The driver was really hesitant and entangled. Mira stuffed the check into the driver’s hand: “You take it first, and things are done beautifully. It will be more than you think.”

Then the driver walked out, and Mira also walked out of the room after a while.

Now I can see clearly, clearly, and understand the ins and outs very clearly.

The accident was really arranged by Mira. The driver was hesitant at first, but she just brainwashed him.

This shows that Mira is in her extremely normal state, planning and regulating this matter.

The video ended like this, my heart was beating wildly in my chest, and my blood boiled and shunted in my blood vessels.

But the next second was like an iceberg coming, and the blood was frozen again.

I can’t describe my feelings at the moment, shock, astonishment, anger, and then never anger but anger, even now I want to lift a knife and put it on Mira’s neck to ask her why she did it.

I have lost my mind, but Lina hasn't. She grabbed Xue Wen by the arm:
"Where did you get this video from? Is it the driver?"

"The driver has no foresight, how does he know that the driver will say such a thing to him?"

"Then where did you get it?"

I raised my head and looked at Xue Wen, and there was a flash of embarrassment in his eyes. Am I wrong?

He groaned and scratched his scalp: "I placed the camera in Mira's room."

"why?"

"Mira is so arrogant, and she usually ignores her when she talks to her. What is the difference between her and other ordinary women? Isn't it the same when she takes off her clothes? I want to see if she takes off her clothes and other women How is it different?"

"You are really shameless. You can peek at Ron and poems and take a peek at Mira. What are you looking for high-sounding reasons? Besides, Mira is your sister-in-law, you actually did such a shameless thing, and asked if you were in Livia at that time. Is there a camera in your room?" Lina pinched Xue Wen by the collar.

"No, no." Xue Wen held up his hands as if surrendering: "Livia is still small, I won't be so inhumane, mainly because the person from Mira is usually arrogant and doesn't even pinch me at the corner of his eyes. Her brother-in-law, Livia usually call me brother-in-law, Mira never looked at me straight."

Lina released his hand: "You'd better not let me know, if I know you are doing that kind of dirty thing to the squire, I will kill you."

“I’m not doing it right. If I didn’t put a camera on it, how could I receive such a hot stuff? Besides, if it wasn’t for this video, how do you know how my old husband died? How? Isn’t it a big hit? Secret, I charge you 5 million is not too much, right!”

My head is dizzy and my head is swollen.

Xue Wen and Lina swayed back and forth in my sight, making me dizzy.

I have never been a conspiracy theorist, and I am not very suspicious. I never thought that someone would be deliberately framed by my father.

Even if I really thought of that level, if the master behind me hadn’t seen it with my own eyes and heard it with my own ears, I wouldn’t believe it was related to Mira.

She is more insidious than I thought. No matter what reason she harmed her father, this kind of flute poem is really terrible.

When I spoke again, my voice became hoarse: “Do you know why? Why does Mira do this?”

“How do I know why? I can’t ask her.”

“Why didn’t you give it to me earlier?”

“I only got this thing later, and I didn’t pay attention to it before. Two days ago, I found the driver’s mobile phone in the nightclub. After copying the audio and thinking about something wrong, I turned it out. Sure enough, I found this.”

I don’t want to listen to Xue Wen showing smugly anymore, I waved: “Okay, you pass the video and audio to me, and you go!”

I don't want to see Xue Wen anymore, he makes me sick.

However, Mira made a wave of chills in my heart.

She is terrible, terrible beyond my imagination.

No matter what her motive is, no matter how she hates Dad.

Dad is the one who gave birth to her, how can she do such a thing?

I couldn't help it, and wanted to drive to her and ask her carefully.

However, I also know that at this moment I can't make a fool of myself.

Chapter 448

I haven't spoken all the time, and Lina didn't speak to me either. I know she gave me enough space for me to be quiet.

I really need to be quiet, because the impact of this incident exceeds all the things that have happened to me since I was young.

Including that I am not my father's biological daughter, but I know that none of them seems to have been so hit.

I am not sad for myself, I am sad for my father.

Whatever the reason, Mira is a daughter he loves very much.

What's hidden here that I don't know?

What kind of secrets made Mira kill his father?

Lina drove the car to the lake, and I sat on the bench by the lake and looked at the calm lake in a daze.

Now the sky is slowly getting dark, and the whole lake is like a huge brown sugar, but I don't think it will be sweet.

Lina took off her coat and put it on my shoulders. I didn't move, and I kept looking at the dark lake.

After I heard Lina's loud sneeze, it seemed to drag me out of my own illusory world.

I immediately raised my head to look at Lina. She rubbed her nose with her hands: "It's okay with the nose."

"Return to the car." I said, I knew that if I had to return the clothes to Lina, she would definitely say that she was healthy.

I know the friends around me, but I don't know the flute and poems that have been living together for so many years.

On our way back to the city center, Mira received a call from Simon. He knew that we hadn't gone abroad to invite us to dinner together.

Lina held the phone in his hand and didn't answer him immediately. He turned to look at me, and I nodded with her.

Just then my phone rang, and I took it out to see that Ruan Ling was calling.

Ruan Ling may have been my windfall in Mira, she is really loyal, and I think she not only regards me as her boss, she also regards me as a friend.

After I was kicked out of Mira from Mira, Ruan Ling kept in close contact with me, and she would report to me if there was any trouble.

I don't know what news she wants to report to me this time. Sometimes her news is really accurate and timely, which is very useful to me.

Her voice was anxious. Before I could speak, she suddenly typed out like a machine gun from the end of the phone: "President, I found out what happened to the share transfer agreement? Who are you with now? "

"Joe Joe."

"Okay, then I'll just say it. The transfer agreement was really a house transfer agreement when you signed it at Ronjia, but the one you signed at the lawyer's office later was a transfer agreement for Mira shares."

how come? I was shocked. I signed the agreement with Simon, because I had already signed one copy before, and I also showed it to Simon. Later I signed both copies without reading them. my name.

Ruan Ling seems to know what I want to say later: "President, your transfer agreement must have been subcontracted."

My heart sank, but subconsciously, I didn't speak because Lina was talking to Simon on the phone, and if I wanted to adjust the package, only Simon was by my side that day, and he was the one who was the most qualified to adjust.

"There is one more thing about the president. I found a private investigator and investigated Mira's whereabouts during this period and found that she had frequent contact with one person.

"Who?"

“Wang Qiming, chairman of the Lawyers Association, is also a very famous barrister.”

I don't know this person, and I don't know what Mira's frequent contact with Wang Qiming has to do with this matter of mine.

Ruan Ling continued, “Do you know the president? This Wang Qiming only has one apprentice, and that apprentice is Simon.”

“This doesn't explain anything.” My voice was low.

“But every time Mira and Wang Qiming met, Simon was there, and the next few times Mira and Simon met alone. President, I know you are very affected, but Simon really has a lot of doubts.”

If I heard Ruan Ling telling me about Simon before the Mira incident, then I might be really shocked.

But now I seem to have been turned into a copper wall and iron wall by the flute and poems, and ordinary shells can't penetrate me.

I said to Ruan Ling on the phone as calmly as possible: “I see, thank you.”

I hung up, and Lina hung up.

“Brother RonRon asked us to have a buffet at night, okay? Livia? We all have a drink tonight. We will be drunk and Fangxiu will be reborn tomorrow morning.

“Okay, eat the buffet.” I nodded and smiled at Lina.

“By the way, who called you just now?” Lina asked me.

“Ruan Ling.”

“What did I tell you? I don’t think you said anything, you keep humming haha.”

“Look at the road, watch the road!” I patted Lina’s arm: “Looking at you just talking, you almost made a red light.”

In fact, I seem to have some doubts about Simon in my heart. Although I don’t know his motives, everything is possible.

I don’t know everyone, including myself.

Simon asked us to go to a seafood maker. All the seafood is delivered directly from the sea. The lobster is delivered from Boston, and the salmon is delivered from Norway, so it is expensive, not only the ingredients but the postage.

When we arrived, Simon had arrived. He was wearing a warm shirt and a casual suit with a light gray bottom and dark green plaid outside.

Simon’s dressing style is the same as his personality, it is so low-key and warm, not like Naven always gives people an aggressive feeling.

But at this moment, I really miss Naven.

Maybe he is very sharp, very confusing, even moody.

But at least he is very real, he is not fake.

Lina dragged my hand and walked towards Simon: “Brother Boat!”

Simon stood up and greeted us with a smile: “You guys came very quickly.”

“nearby.”

“I am also nearby.”

“Fate, isn’t it a coincidence, isn’t it, isn’t it a coincidence?” Lina laughed loudly, I knew she was working hard in an active atmosphere.

I remained calm and nodded to Simon with a smile: “You came quite early.”

“Stop talking, let’s go get something to eat, my stomach is starving to death.” Lina said.

“I’ll get you some seafood porridge first, drink some porridge first, and then eat fish sashimi. This is good for the stomach.” Simon thoughtfully pushed the porridge bowl in front of me: “No see in a few days, Livia, you again Thin.”

Chapter 449

I just sat down and drank the porridge. The porridge was very fresh and sweet.

The abalone in the porridge was still fresh and springy, the shrimp curled up, and the tender gravy overflowed.

I also tasted the aroma of white pepper. In short, this seafood porridge was smooth and fresh. It rolled directly into my stomach from my throat. It was very suitable and very comfortable.

The porridge bowl was not big, so I ate all the small bowl of porridge in one go.

I have a good appetite, and Simon’s expression is happy: “It seems that you have a good appetite today. You can compete with Lina.”

No matter how good my appetite is, I'm not an opponent of Lina. She is taller than mine and has a larger stomach capacity, and she eats very fast.

I only ate a small bowl of porridge, and she had eaten it all and got up and went to the dining area to get something to eat.

"What do you want to eat, I will help you get it." Simon handed over the tissue, I took it and thanked him with a smile: "It's okay, I want to get it myself."

Today's seafood is as fresh as ever, even if a lot of raw fish are put together, there is no hint of fishy smell.

I took a lot of what I like to eat, and I don't know why my appetite suddenly improved.

Suddenly, I felt that a stranger didn't even know me. Under such a shock, I was able to eat so many things in the face of Simon, which I am increasingly confused about.

I have a good appetite. Lina is naturally happy. We cooked crabs in hot pot after eating the sashimi. After we finished the crabs, the black truffle and foie gras were also very delicious. I also ate a small half of lamb chops and finally used their home Cheesecake and red velvet cake base.

Then I couldn't even eat my favorite Yangzhi Ganlu. I sat on the seat and held my belly with both hands. I really had eaten the realm of supporting the wall in and out.

Lina still has potential to tap. She went there to get the barbecue, and Simon and I were sitting quietly on the table.

Simon looked at me, and then handed me something. I took it and saw that it was a box of JianweiMira tablets.

He was really careful and couldn't be more careful, even this thing was prepared for the buffet.

I really need this now, because I think my stomach is full. I took one tablet and then gave him the Mira tablet.

Simon said: "You should keep this medicine if you live with Lina now. She will often feed you to support you."

I laughed: "This is true, then I will put it away."

I put the medicine in the bag, and before I looked up, Simon said to me again: "Although I don't know the reason why you and Lina came back, I think now that I have decided to leave, I will leave here completely!"

I didn't speak, took out a small mirror from my bag and looked at myself in the mirror.

My face is rosy, my eyes are shiny, and my lips are shiny.

I finally didn't look like a yellow-faced refugee.

"In fact, I am also sorting out some of my affairs in Rovandel, and then plan to go there later."

I raised my head and looked at him: "What then?"

"Then take care of mother," Simon looked at me deeply: "Take care of you."

The look in his eyes actually moved me. I knew that Simon had always liked me, and his liking didn't give me pressure. It was like a babbling stream, flowing silently beside me.

If it were in the past, I would be very grateful for Simon's silent care, but in fact, I should have seen long ago that everyone has desires and greed for what he wants.

It's impossible to accompany someone who doesn't love yourself so desperately as I imagined.

Love is about getting, and you will let it go if you don't love it.

In fact, I can really understand Simon, and at this moment, I seem to understand why Simon did it like that. .

"Don't forget that I once had a child of Naven." I told Simon.

"It's nothing, no matter who you have had a child, you are still you, and I am still me."

"No, I am not me anymore, and you are no longer you." I put away the mirror and gnawed at my nails unconsciously.

Simon stood up, walked over the entire table, and then pulled off my nail-biting hand: "Look, this problem of yours has not been corrected. Every time you feel upset, you will bite your nails."

"You really know me, but do you know all of me?"

He didn't understand, because I was questionable when I saw Simon's eyes looking at me.

"Then I ask, if you know a secret you don't want me to know, what do you think of me?"

Simon has always been a particularly calm person. He can hide and conceal his thoughts, but his eyes betray him.

I am observant now, and I can see even the most subtle and unnoticeable look in my eyes.

Simon was a little flustered, because he should have never seen me like this.

I looked back at Lina, she was waiting for the barbecue, the skin of grilled salmon.

She likes to eat such weird things very much, and it is estimated that the skin of grilled salmon is what she asked the chef to do.

I took a look and turned my head. Yang Zhi Ganlu came up. After taking a stomachic and digestive tablet, I suddenly felt that I didn't hold up that much. I ate the dessert with a small spoonful of spoonfuls, and it was cold and cold. Slightly sour, very appetizing.

Simon is a person who doesn't like to ask questions, so I won't say anything here, and he didn't mean to continue to ask questions.

But I don't have too much time, because when Lina comes over, I don't know how to speak.

When I ate a bowl of Yangzhi Nectar for a little bit, I raised my head and looked at Simon: "Why did you do that?"

He froze for a moment, then his whole body froze.

I think he should know what I'm asking, so he didn't even say what you're talking about, which is so wasteful that you can't waste it anymore, and then just kept looking at me like that.

I think his inner activities must be particularly rich at this moment. I can't guess what he is thinking, but I can hear the stormy waves in his heart.

However, he was still lucky.

He suddenly smiled awkwardly: "I just want to take care of you. No matter what happens to you, I will treat you like before."

"I'm not talking about this." I looked directly into Simon's eyes: "Do you know what I'm talking about?"

"I don't know, if you hold it too hard, don't eat so much." Simon wanted to take the small spoon from my hand.

I don't like to play dumb puzzles, I like to tell the answer directly.

I held the small spoon in my hand tightly and looked up at him: "Why do you want to subcontract my mother's house transfer agreement?"

Chapter 450

In fact, before I came to the buffet, I didn't expect to have a showdown with Simon, I just followed my heart, and wherever this matter went.

When I asked this sentence, Simon was stunned, and his hand that had stopped in the air hung there without falling.

Before I waited for his answer, I heard Joe's voice resounding above our heads like thunder: "What do you mean, what is the contract? What is the house transfer agreement?"

I originally wanted to avoid what Smith Lina would not let her know for the time being, because after all, in addition to my relationship with Simon, Lina also grew up with us when she was young, and she and Simon also have a deep relationship.

So I didn't want to destroy Simon's consistent image in her mind, but I still couldn't hide it.

Now that you know it, then know it.

I paid attention to Simon's facial expression. His expression changed from panic to earthy face. He knew that the incident had happened.

Lina put down the barbecue in his hand, sat down beside me, and kept asking me, "What the hell do you mean by tweaking? Livia, what are you talking about? You make it clear, are you dying of me?"

"Lina, why don't you listen to what Brother Boat told us?"

I turned my face to Simon and looked at him intently.

I want to hear if his answer is the same as mine.

Simon lowered his head and then suddenly picked it up, drank the cocktail on his table.

Simon never drinks. This is the wine Lina helped him just now, and he refused to drink it.

After he drank the wine, his face was slightly red, he looked at me for a moment, and after a while he finally spoke.

"When did you know it?"

"just."

“Who told you that?”

“This is not important.”

He paused, and nodded mockingly: “Yes, this is not important. Who tells you what is important, what is important is what I do, Livia, do you want to listen to my explanation?”

“If I don’t listen to why I’m sitting here, but I hope you can make a long story short, the reason for the motivation and purpose.” I don’t know if my tone is considered tough, but I see Simon’s face pales little by little.

He licked his lips, took up the cocktail in front of Lina and drank it in one breath. Lina did not stop him, and looked at him with his mouth wide open.

“Livia, are you thinking in your heart that I have colluded with Mira to devour your property?”

I don’t say anything, because since he has already admitted, there will be any possibility of his motivation.

“No.” He shook his head: “Yes, I admit that the agreement was negotiated by me, and it was my collusion with Mira and your stepmother, but they paid me and I didn’t want it, and I asked them to extend this time, you The agreement was signed a few months ago. If they want to take it away, they would take it away a few months ago.”

I still watched him without speaking.

“Actually, Livia, I don’t think you are suitable for managing a company. I know you don’t care about 30% of the shares. Instead of you working so hard, you might as well give them all of them to live the life you want.”

“Then what day do I want?” I was calm.

“For example.” His eyes suddenly became bright: “We buy a farm abroad, raise horses, and raise cows. You like painting and sculpture. You can sketch and create there. We can open exhibitions in the future. We are not short of money, and we can live some uncontested lives. It is better than you are here now.”

Simon drew a particularly beautiful blueprint for me, and planned my future life.

In fact, what he said is indeed quite desirable. Simon knows me very well. If it were before, I would have longed for this kind of life, but it is a responsibility to live alone.

Dad handed over the shares to me. It is my own business whether I do it or not. If I do it wrong, it is because I am not this piece of material. It has failed my dad’s trust in me, but other people have no right to help me decide. all.

I understand. Simon doesn’t like me being a strong woman. Naturally, he doesn’t want me to live with Naven, but he is not able to directly compete with Naven.

So he was planning to deploy. He knew me well. He knew that if I was frustrated, I would immediately leave Rovandel to start a new life abroad.

I looked at Simon for a long time, and suddenly I laughed: “You think I don’t have the ability to manage the company, so you made up your mind for me and used a trick to let me give all the shares my father gave me. Mira?”

“Do you care about those? Livia? What I know about you, you always don’t care about those foreign objects.”

“One yard into one yard, this is not the same thing at all!” I was suddenly a little excited, and my voice became louder: “You have no right to help me decide what? You, as my friend, do your calculations with Mira. I, everything you just said seems to be for my good. How do you know that I am not suitable to be a strong woman? How do you know that I cannot manage the company well? How do you know that I cannot fulfill my father's last wish?"

"But you worked so hard..."

"Isn't it hard to do things? Raising cows, raising horses, carving and painting? Isn't it hard to leave the hometown? I was betrayed by one of my best friends, but he still keeps saying that it's good for me, don't I work hard? "I stood up, and I was calm at the time when I heard Ruan Ling tell me this, but now I got the confirmation in Simon's mouth.

The fire in my heart started to burn, and it destroyed myself first. I don't know if I can destroy others.

It was the first time I was so gaffe, so excited, so loud in front of Simon: "You always feel that you are different from others. You will respect the choices I make, and you will agree with me and support me, but you are not like other men. What a difference! I know you like me, but love is not made by conspiracy and tricks! You used to be silently by my side and I am grateful to you, but I have never forced you, and now you are so deliberate, it is even more impossible for us !"

"Livia, it's not because of what I did, but because you have Naven in your heart. No matter what I do, you will ignore me!" Simon also stood up suddenly, his face lightened slightly. Red, with blue veins violent on the forehead.

The handsome and elegant Simon, I finally saw his agitated appearance.
