

BO LOVE LIFE 111

Chapter 111: Hugging Her

Luo Zheng stared at his emotionless face in shock while he continued, "You may try now."

Well, she couldn't kiss him just now even after tiptoeing and her neck started aching because she kept looking up... Now that he had lifted her up, she would be able to kiss him easily.

She was initially planning to use that as an excuse to make him take the initiative to kiss her!

However, her fantasy was shattered and she said a little listlessly, "Oh, I'll kiss you now, Brother Cheng."

She then pecked his cheek gently without hesitation.

"Are you done?"

Bo Hancheng felt a little ticklish and she had already finished kissing him before he could even explain what it felt like.

Somehow, he felt a little empty and dissatisfied deep down.

She looked at him innocently and answered obediently, "Yes, I'm done."

She then blinked and asked out of concern, "Brother Cheng, why don't you seem happy at all? Do you not like my kiss?"

Damn it!

He almost couldn't help but admit that he... liked it too much!

In the end, he managed to hold himself back and answer, "Little imp, you do have some self-awareness after all! Since you're done, hurry and get down."

He then let go of her and placed her back onto the ground.

This perfunctory little imp. She really only gave me a quick peck on the cheek!

Luo Zheng stood up and stared at his icy cold face. She had no idea how she had even provoked him... but she immediately remembered that she was about to face Scarface who might put her life in danger.

She reached a hand out to him and said longingly, "Brother Cheng, I still want to hug you..."

She looked extremely adorable, like a pet that had been abandoned by its master. Bo Hancheng could not help but reach his hands out in a bid to hug her. However, in the end, he still decided to be merciless and smacked her arms away. "No, stay away from me!"

Clearly, she's just an underage girl, but why does she keep arousing me? The inability to control himself made him feel extremely frustrated!

Luo Zheng asked aggrievedly in confusion, "What's wrong with hugging me? I'm not a virus!"

Men are just as hard to understand as women are!

...

Soon, Chu Ci sent someone to bring her a more conservative maid outfit.

While Luo Zheng was changing Chu Ci glanced at Bo Hancheng ambiguously and asked, "Seriously speaking, did you and Luo Zheng... do it?"

Bo Hancheng retorted calmly, have you got nothing better to do?"

Chu Ci somehow sensed that something was wrong, especially since Bo Hancheng seemed a little... displeased!

Luo Zheng exited after changing to the maid outfit that was much less revealing than the previous one.

However, Bo Hancheng still frowned in disdain. Chu Ci exclaimed in distress, "Third Brother, maid outfits were meant for spicing things up. How can it not be at least a little revealing? This one is the most conservative I can find!"

Bo Hancheng remained silent and they headed to the nightclub.

Along the way, Chu Ci explained to Luo Zheng about what she had to look out for when getting close to Scarface.

Soon, they arrived at their destination.

The nightclub, City That Never Sleeps, was a luxurious and large one which was boisterous and bustling. There was everything imaginable in there.

There were various types of transactions that went on in there, including prostitution and social escort services.

The women there have all voluntarily signed the contracts to sell themselves in exchange for a life of luxury. Hence, they had undergone professional training and they were all vastly different, thus catering to the tastes of the guests.

Scarface was picky when it came to women and he would personally pick them out, because he wanted them to be clean, pretty and pure.

"Mr. Bo, Master Chu, the preparation of the plan is complete!"

A woman reported to them as soon as they alighted from the car.

She was Chu Ci's subordinate who was arranged to work in City That Never Sleeps.

She then politely gestured for them to enter and was about to take Luo Zheng in.

"Luo Zheng, I'm giving you one last chance to choose. You still have time... to change your mind!"

Chapter 112: Change Her Mind... Or Not?

Bo Hancheng grabbed Luo Zheng's wrist and asked.

Greatly taken aback, Chu Ci tried to stop him. "Third Brother, Scarface is almost here! If she backs out now, the plan will definitely fall through if my candidate doesn't arrive in time!"

He looked at Luo Zheng and exclaimed sternly, "Of course, if you are afraid, there would be no point in you going. You might as well give up sooner!"

"Monster, I don't need you to worry about me!"

Luo Zheng then smirked and glanced at Bo Hancheng gleefully. "Brother Cheng, you can't bear to let me go, right?"

The fact that he had given her a chance to back out meant that... he had started to care about her, right?

Bo Hancheng kept a straight face and did not admit it. He then asked calmly, "Do you want to back out... or not?"

Silence filled the air for a few seconds.

Luo Zheng smiled and shook her head before moving her wrist away from his hand. "Since I've promised you this, Brother Cheng, I won't go back on my word!"

She then retreated and her face soon became blurry under the dim moonlight. "Brother Cheng, wait for me to come back!"

She then turned around resolutely and followed Chu Ci's subordinate to the City That Never Sleeps.

The rain suddenly stopped but the atmosphere was dim, damp and humid.

"Third Brother, Luo Zheng is from the Luo Family. You... should stay away from her!"

Chu Ci said solemnly while his face glistened mysteriously beneath his mask.

This time, Bo Hancheng headed to Beijing with the purpose of destroying the four greatest families.

The Gu, Xi, Chu, and Luo Families. Although the Luo Family was the last, it was still one of them!

Luo Zheng either ignores the Luo Family or Bo Hancheng doesn't lay a hand on the Luo Family... Chu Ci was unsure if Luo Zheng could ignore the Luo Family.

He was also certain that Bo Hancheng would not spare the Luo Family!

Since the two of them were destined to become enemies in the future, it would be better... to cut off all ties in the beginning!

Bo Hancheng said quietly, "I know."

He did think about avoiding Luo Zheng when she first started pestering him... Unfortunately, she was too persistent and chased him repeatedly.

Hence, he decided to keep Luo Zheng by his side.

He did not think about the consequences. After all, he didn't think he cared much about Luo Zheng!

Chu Ci found out that Luo Zheng and the Luo Family have already fallen out, isn't that so?

"It's still early. We're in no hurry! Third Brother, I'm more interested in finding out if you will save Luo Zheng from Scarface."

Bo Hancheng did not answer his question.

He suddenly discovered that even he was unsure of what his answer would be!

...

The City That Never Sleeps had been around for a long time and although it was a legal business on the surface, no one could control it at all.

Its existence was high-profile, mysterious and luxurious, but no one knew who the owner was!

Luo Zheng followed the woman into the nightclub.

She was greeted with an ostentatious sight with plenty of men and women discussing deals, gambling and chatting.

"Miss, I made proper arrangements beforehand. One of the girls is on leave during the selection this time so you shall replace her! The person in charge is called Sister Hong. If she asks about you, say that you are new! Rest assured, you look so beautiful, she'll definitely let you stay after I talk to her..."

The woman reminded her softly. As Chu Ci's subordinates, she mainly wanted to collect some useful information.

"Also, prepare a good performance like a dance or a song to sing, to attract Scarface..."

Chapter 113: Only One Chance

Performance?

Luo Zheng frowned. Scarface was extremely picky when it came to women. She even had to put up a performance to attract him!

The City That Never Sleeps...

Staring at everything around her, Luo Zheng's eyes glistened and she subconsciously clenched her fists.

In the previous life, she had visited the City That Never Sleeps before with the eldest son of the Gu Family, Gu Changye... Unfortunately, the memory of that wasn't too pleasant and hence, she never wanted to remember it.

Soon, Luo Zheng and the woman boarded the elevator to go to the 11th floor!

They arrived at the private room and Luo Zheng covered her face when the glaring light shone at her eyes.

She then raised her head and got a great shock.

There were 20 to 30 girls in the room, all of whom were fair and dressed in maid outfits. It was a complete feast for the eyes.

There were even some girls whose maid outfits were extremely revealing and barely covered their private areas.

Luo Zheng was dressed demurely compared to them!

“Aunt Hong, this is the stand-in I’ve found, her name is Zheng! Look how beautiful she is. She’s mixed blood too! I can’t bear to give her away...”

The woman introduced in a sultry voice which made her seem like a completely different person from before.

She was just like a... pimp. Yes, like a pimp!

Luo Zheng could not help but shudder in disgust. If she wasn’t born in the 21st century, she would have thought that she was getting sold to a brothel!

She first looked at the numerous girls who were striking poses with their eyes full of joy and excitement.

Of course, there were also some who were staring at her with animosity.

At this moment, Luo Zheng had no choice but to be sure that they were all willing to do it!

Luo Zheng suddenly felt a strong sense of competition. Although she was pretty, the girls were not that far behind either. She feared that she would disappoint Bo Hancheng if she did not stand out from the crowd.

“She’s a newcomer? She’s beautiful, but she hasn’t trained professionally yet, I’m afraid she doesn’t know how to serve guests...”

Auntie Hong scrutinized Luo Zheng and remarked apprehensively.

Any girl who entered the nightclub and chose this industry was trying to get rich and find herself a wealthy man!

However, there was a rule that they had to follow. Those who have been selected by the guests and bought by them, would never be able to return to City That Never Sleeps to make a living again, because there was only one chance.

“Auntie Hong, this little girl’s family is poor and short of money, just do some merit by letting her stay and try...”

The woman was almost making Luo Zheng out to seem like the sole breadwinner of her family.

Auntie Hong smiled and said, “Which one of these girls here aren’t doing this for money?”

However, she felt that Luo Zheng was really outstanding and most importantly, elegant, clean and fresh. She reckoned that Luo Zheng might be what the guest wanted.

“Is she still a virgin?”

Auntie Hong asked.

Luo Zheng felt disgusted to be objectified but had no choice other than to nod obediently and answer, "Yes, I am."

"Well! Who knows if she's had reconstructive surgery? Fancy her pretending to be pure and innocent!"

One of the girls gibed arrogantly with folded arms.

Although the rest of the girls did not speak, they seemed equally disdainful.

Luo Zheng was speechless. What kind of mindset is this? I don't get it at all!

"Yutong, the guest is arriving soon. Hush!"

Jiang Yutong was trained by Auntie Hong herself, and the latter had always had high hopes for her. Hence, Auntie Hong was more forgiving towards her.

Auntie Hong glanced at the woman and said, "I do trust your taste! Zheng, stand here..."

"Thank you, Auntie Hong..."

Luo Zheng remained obedient and proceeded to stand in the designated position.

Auntie Hong then strutted around in her stilettos and continued, "I have taught you what you need to know. As for whether you get chosen or not, it will depend on your own abilities..."

Chapter 114: The Eldest Son Of The Gu Family, Gu Changye

Luo Zheng could clearly sense the strong tension in the air. The girls were all clad in maid outfits and sizing each other up, appearing haughty, arrogant and confident.

They were mostly looking at each other in a hostile manner.

Luo Zheng finally learned that according to the rules here, every guest could only buy two girls at a time!

At that instant, Luo Zheng changed her mindset and thought to herself, this is nothing like a brothel at all. This is like the process of an emperor selecting his concubine... The girls here are acting so excited, as if it's a glorious thing to be selected by Scarface!

Luo Zheng could not help but wonder what she should do to attract Scarface's attention.

Soon, the door of the room was pushed open and a few men who were dressed in black entered with silver cases in their hands. Auntie Hong then smilingly invited another man in.

The man was about thirty years old, and had a huge scar across his face which looked like a centipede, making him look fierce and menacing.

All of a sudden, the girls looked at each other in dismay and began to hesitate after seeing Scarface... Although they were after a life of luxury, that did not mean that they did not cherish their lives.

Scarface was obviously a gangster who was not to be trifled with!

If they were to end up offending him, what consequences would they face?

While the girls were stuck in a dilemma, Luo Zheng widened her eyes in shock.

The only reason was because she had seen Scarface before!

...

At that time, she accompanied Gu Changye, the eldest son of the Gu Family, to City That Never Sleeps before.

They were also in a private room and she was Gu Changye's beau for the night. Gu Changye instructed Luo Zheng to play the piano while he chatted and caught up with old friends.

All of a sudden, Scarface entered the private room and greeted them.

He then looked up to see that Luo Zheng was playing the piano and began to gawk at her in a threatening manner, like he was a hunter that had spotted his prey.

Just as Luo Zheng was frightened, Gu Changye stood up and shielded her.

His friends then persuaded Scarface to leave, after which they apologized to Luo Zheng.

She still vaguely remembered the words that Scarface's friend said. "Master Gu, Miss Luo, I'm really sorry! My brother got that scar on his face from fighting with others years ago. That's why he looks so fierce and intimidating! However, he doesn't have any malicious intent towards Miss Luo and purely admires her. He may seem rough on the surface but he likes beautiful, clean, and kind girls, especially those who can play the piano..."

...

It had been a long time since that happened and Luo Zheng almost could not remember what that friend looked like.

However, Scarface's scar was deeply etched in her memory and so she could recognize him at just one glance!

She was certain that she had recognized him correctly, though she was a little confused about it. If Scarface was the only trusted subordinate of Old K... what about Gu Changye? What is his relation to them!?!

Gu Changye...

The thought of him made Luo Zheng turn pale as fear overwhelmed him.

Gu Changye was the person she feared most!

In her previous life, there was almost no one whom Luo Zheng feared, except Gu Changye!

She was extremely clear.

Gu Changye was a pervert, demon and lunatic. Despite the fact that it had been a long time since it happened, the pain and torture that he had inflicted on her, seemed to have taken place just yesterday!

He exuded a sinister aura and being near him for even just one second was like torture for her.

Hence, in this lifetime, she was bent on avoiding Gu Changye and staying away from him!

“Ah, so these are the girls you’ve trained. They’re all so timid. How can I have a good time?”

Chapter 115: The Girl Scarface Likes

Scarface looked around at the girls and laughed coldly.

He then sat down on the couch and put his legs up nonchalantly.

“Master Scarface, they’re newly trained so they’re indeed a little insensible! Please calm down, it’s not worth getting angry...” Auntie Hong broke out into cold sweat and tried to please him.

She then turned around and glowered at the girls, seemingly trying to warn them not to miss this opportunity!

However, none of them dared to make a decision and were all still hesitating.

However, at this moment, Scarface sneered in disdain and snapped his fingers.

The last subordinate who entered then opened a silver case.

All of a sudden, they were all greeted with the bedazzling sight of thick wads of cash!

“My time is limited. Start performing now! The money will go to whoever impresses me...”

Scarface sounded a little impatient.

At midnight, he had to leave to discuss a drug deal, after which he would unwind and relax... He had already become sick of the woman whom he had chosen previously and thought that bringing a new one along would bring him some glory.

The girls were willing to enter City That Never Sleeps, all for the sake of a luxurious life. Seeing how generous Scarface was, they were obviously tempted.

After all, they had entertained plenty of guests and been through various types of training... They were merely stunned by his appearance and now that he had offered such an attractive prize, only a fool wouldn’t vie to be one of the two girls he picks.

One of the girls immediately stepped forth and began dancing, appearing extremely attractive because of her sexy figure.

“Go away.”

Scarface ordered coldly before she even finished.

The girl tried to explain, “Master, I can perform something else...”

Scarface waved and his subordinates stepped forth to pull the girl away before she even finished speaking.

Next, the other girls stepped forth and they either sang or danced... After all, that was all they learned in City That Never Sleeps.

Hence, they only relied on their faces, figures and voices to please and attract men.

They felt that those who did not get chosen, faced such a fate because they lacked what it took to make the cut. Hence, they performed various routines.

However, Scarface was not in the least bit impressed and simply told them to scram.

The remaining ones who sang were similarly chased away regardless of how sultry and mesmerizing they sounded.

Luo Zheng was the only one left in the end, together with the girl who criticized her for pretending to be pure.

Scarface stared at the two of them and hollered impatiently, "Damn it, what are these!?! Cheap sluts!"

He then glowered at them and warned, "You guys have already wasted so much of my time. You two better pray that you can please me!"

Luo Zheng thought about what Gu Changye's friend said in the previous life and seemed to have guessed something after staring at Scarface. She then decided to take a bet.

Auntie Hong was anxious and afraid that Scarface might hurt them out of anger.

She stared at Jiang Yutong and thought, I trained her myself and have the highest hopes for her. She should be able to satisfy Scarface!

Jiang Yutong was just thinking about what a man like Scarface could like.

Before she could decide, Luo Zheng stepped forward!

She immediately stared at Luo Zheng in disdain and thought, she really doesn't know any better. She hasn't gone through any training and is just here to be a substitute... the other girls have all been eliminated and yet she thinks she can attract Scarface with only that pretty face?

Luo Zheng walked towards Scarface and instead of singing or dancing, she bent forward gracefully to pour him some tea with a smile on her face.

"Master Scarface, the weather is chilly on this rainy night. Have some hot tea to warm yourself up..."

Chapter 116: Luo Zheng's Performance

To everyone's surprise, Luo Zheng did not sing, dance or show any intentions of seducing him.

She served him a cup of hot tea like a wife who had been waiting all day for her husband's return.

Slightly stunned, Scarface stared at the hot tea and asked, "Is this tea for me?"

Jiang Yutong was puzzled at first but she proceeded to feel amused. This is City That Never Sleeps... since the guests are here, they are obviously out to choose a lover. What is she pretending to be? A demure and virtuous wife!?!

Auntie Hong frowned and thought to herself that Luo Zheng was being unruly. She then smiled and said, "Master Scarface, Zheng has only arrived two days ago and she hasn't undergone any training yet so she doesn't know how to serve men! Don't be angry, I'll get her to leave now..."

"Who are you to intervene when I'm choosing a woman?"

Scarface glared at Auntie Hong coldly with a menacing expression.

Auntie Hong immediately fell silent, not daring to utter another word.

Just as the complacent Jiang Yutong was about to step forward smugly, Scarface looked at Luo Zheng again and his impatience surprisingly faded. "Is your name Zheng?" he asked in a gentle tone that was rather rare of him.

Remaining in position, Luo Zheng answered, "Yes, Master Scarface."

"What would you like to perform?"

Scarface asked again with a dull luster in his eyes, full of curiosity like he had finally found another prey.

Luo Zheng remained composed and answered smilingly, "Master Scarface, Auntie Hong is right, I'm just a newcomer and I don't know how to serve you! If you don't mind, I can play a piano piece..."

"Are you going to play the piano?"

Scarface stared at her beautiful face and suppressed his heartbeat.

He then glanced at Auntie Hong and asked, "What's the matter? Is there no piano here?"

Auntie Hong immediately understood what he meant and hence, frantically exclaimed, "I do, I do. I'll get someone to bring it here immediately!"

She then swiftly made her way out of the private room and heaved a sigh of relief.

What kind of a taste does he have?

The girls that I've trained personally are all seductresses. They're sexy, sultry, beautiful, gorgeous and of various different types... Who would have thought that Scarface would be impressed with Zheng instead!?!?

Scarface was still scrutinizing Luo Zheng who was dressed conservatively, unlike the other girls. She was calm and collected, with no intentions of seducing him.

He thought, not bad, she really is something!

Luo Zheng was still holding onto the teacup and even after a long time, she was still elegant, graceful and solemn like a painting.

Scarface began to get more and more satisfied. When he reached out to grab the teacup, he wrapped his hand around hers.

Luo Zheng's pupils constricted and she instinctively retracted her hand.

At the next instant, the teacup fell onto the ground and shattered into pieces while the hot tea scalded Scarface's hand. There was water all over the floor too.

Seeing what had happened, Luo Zheng almost wished she could slap herself for ruining the great image she had painted!

However, she had really subconsciously retracted her hand.

Her disgust towards men had long become instinctive!

Luo Zheng responded quickly after turning stiff for a few seconds. She quickly pulled out the paper towel, and gently wiped the water away from Scarface's hand... only to see that his hand had turned red and swollen from the hot tea, which was a bit shocking.

Despite feeling anxious, Luo Zheng remained calm and apologized weakly, "Master Scarface, does your hand hurt badly? I'm really sorry, it's all my fault. I'll clean it up and pour another cup for you..."

Before Luo Zheng could even finish, a voice berated her, "Look at you, you're so clumsy that you scalded Master Scarface! If you can't even perform such a trivial task well, what else can you do?"

Chapter 117: Don't Be Afraid, I Won't Be Far From You

Jiang Yutong finally found the opportunity to please Scarface after chiding Luo Zheng.

Luo Zheng bent forward and slowly picked up the broken porcelain pieces while thinking about her strategy. Hence, she did not notice that Scarface was glowering at Jiang Yutong menacingly, causing her to freeze in shock and stop in her tracks fearfully!

Luo Zheng could mostly guess what kind of a woman Scarface wanted.

It was not that the previous girls were not attractive enough, but rather, they were too seductive and tramp-like for Scarface's liking. The thought of it made Luo Zheng criticize him in her head.

This person is really strange. All the girls in City That Never Sleeps definitely have undergone special training to learn to please men well. Yet, the better they served Scarface, the more disgusted he was!

After thinking about the encounter she had with him in her previous life, Luo Zheng was certain that she could continue acting vulnerable, pure and kind hearted.

Well, to put it simply, he just wants a meek and pretentious girl who is talented in playing the piano. I have to act like a demure lady... and I can't suck up to him, flatter or please him. I have to behave like a virtuous wife!

Despite being confident, Luo Zheng still felt a little flustered and could not calm herself down.

If only Mr. Bodyguard was here now! She thought.

It was as if he could hear her thoughts. She heard him whispering into her ear, "Don't be afraid, I'm not too far away from you."

Brother Cheng...

Luo Zheng's eyes glistened with joy and she smiled.

During the journey to City That Never Sleeps, Chu Ci got someone to install an earpiece that was safely obscured in her ear.

He could hear everything that was going on around her and could also communicate with her through the device... it was just for safety purposes and they would avoid communication unless necessary!

"With Mr. Bodyguard around, I won't be afraid!"

Luo Zheng got distracted and didn't notice that the broken porcelain piece had cut her, causing her to bleed.

Luo Zheng frowned when she finally sensed the pain.

Scarface grabbed her wrist and pulled her up... after which she stood up but before she could even regain her balance, he pulled her forcefully and caused her to fall onto the spot beside him.

"How did you hurt your hand?"

Scarface was displeased to see her blood stained fingers.

He then put an arm around Luo Zheng and pulled her into his embrace. "Your hands are meant for playing the piano, not to perform lowly tasks like serving tea and drinks!"

Scarface clearly meant that he had chosen Luo Zheng!

Jiang Yutong could not help but stiffen indignantly.

Luo Zheng felt extremely uneasy while seated beside Scarface and she tried her best to keep a distance away from him.

Sensing that, Scarface retracted his arm and glanced at Luo Zheng coldly. "Why? Are you pretending to be innocent and pure in front of me?"

Realizing that she was in danger, Luo Zheng thought twice before she spoke. "Master Scarface, since I voluntarily entered City That Never Sleeps, what rights do I have to pretend to be pure? I just rarely interact with men so I'm not too used to it... "

Luo Zheng then forced herself to gently hold onto his arm with a grin on her face. "I believe I'll slowly get used to it after following you around, Master Scarface."

Luo Zheng was acting in an appropriate manner. A little more and it would seem intentional and a little less would seem hypocritical.

Gu Changye deserved credit for it.

In her previous life, she had once served Gu Changye for three whole months in order to get into Xi Mubai's good books. He was just like a devil who had an erratic temper and would often torture her and make her life a living hell.

Hence, Scarface was really nothing compared to him.

"Are you still a virgin?"

Scarface asked while staring at Luo Zheng intently.

Luo Zheng felt disgusted when Auntie Hong asked her that question but she felt utterly resentful when Scarface did the same.

"Yes, Master Scarface, don't you like it?"

Chapter 118: She's The One I Choose!

Luo Zheng looked at him indifferently without shunning.

She was thinking about it in displeasure.

Virgin, virgin, virgin, that damned virginity. Be it in the previous life or the present, I've always been a virgin!

"I do! If I still don't like you even though you're such a clean girl, wouldn't there be something wrong with me?"

Scarface gazed at Luo Zheng while caressing her face, as if she were an art piece.

However, Luo Zheng felt a great sense of terror that gave her the goosebumps and she could not help but wonder if Scarface was really the druglord Old K's subordinate. Why does he feel more and more dangerous!?!

He was just like a venomous snake that was crawling up and down her body and making it hard for her to even breathe.

Fortunately, Auntie Hong sent someone to bring a piano into the private room at this moment and entered the private room. The piano was then placed in the middle.

Scarface let go of her and pointed at the piano. "Perform."

Clad in a maid outfit, Luo Zheng stood up and walked towards the piano elegantly... She tried to recall the song that she played when Scarface barged into the room that she and Gu Changye were in, during her previous life.

She then started playing the piano slowly and the melodious music echoed in the private room.

A look of nostalgia formed in Scarface's eyes when he listened to the piano piece and his face became so tender that even the long scar on his face no longer seemed menacing.

Soon, he stared at Luo Zheng who was playing the piano, and suddenly stood up.

He then took a few steps forward and pressed Luo Zheng's shoulder with his hand while bending over slightly. "From now on, you'll be my woman!"

Luo Zheng paused and shuddered even though she had already achieved her goal. Scarface continued, "Do not stop, finish this song!"

Bearing with the disgust of being touched by him, Luo Zheng casually continued.

After a while, the song was finished and Luo Zheng heaved a sigh of relief. Scarface remarked, "You've played the song 'Dream Wedding' really well. Excellent!"

Luo Zheng was a little stunned. In the previous life, she did not have many great qualities except her talent in playing the piano. Hence, she was confident that she played well.

However, she was rather surprised that the violent and boorish Scarface could tell what the song was... she could basically be certain by now, that he had a penchant for the piano. How peculiar!

Luo Zheng was suddenly lifted up by Scarface. "Master Scarface, please put me down, I can walk on my own..."

Luo Zheng turned pale, feeling repulsed by his behavior.

There was a dim luster in Scarface's eyes and he did not put Luo Zheng down. Instead, he glanced at Auntie Hong and said, "She's the one I choose!"

His subordinate immediately handed a check to Auntie Hong who said gleefully, "Yes, yes, yes, Zheng will be yours from now on, Master Scarface. She will have nothing to do with City That Never Sleeps!"

Scarface carried Luo Zheng away.

Jiang Yutong's eyes widened in shock and she dug her fingernails deep into the flesh of her palm, in complete disbelief that she had lost to Luo Zheng, the newbie who pretended to be pure and demure!

She darted forwards and gazed at Scarface pitifully. "Master Scarface, I'd like to serve you too. Could you... give me a chance?"

Auntie Hong was greatly taken aback. Although the guests were allowed to select two girls, Scarface had a special taste and only selected Luo Zheng.

Jiang Yutong's behavior annoyed him but what could she do? She had heard that Scarface had always been mysterious and seemed to have some ties with the actual owner of the City That Never Sleeps!

Luo Zheng was speechless. She had no choice but to do so because she wanted to be chosen by Scarface. How could she be so eager to court death?

Scarface glanced at Jiang Yutong and seemed to have considered something. He suddenly said, "I'm taking her with me too."

He clearly treated her differently than Luo Zheng. Jiang Yutong was more like a possession and a toy of his!

Jiang Yutong followed closely behind Scarface, no longer feeling dejected.

She then stared at Luo Zheng who was laying in his arms, with her eyes full of animosity.

She thought, it doesn't matter. As long as I get to be by Scarface's side, I'll have plenty of tricks to pull to climb the ladder... I'm the most outstanding one out of all these girls and it's only a matter of time before I step all over Zheng!

Chapter 119: Fallen For Her

"Tsk, tsk, I didn't expect Miss Luo to be so capable!"

Upon hearing everything that had happened, Chu Ci praised Luo Zheng.

He then glanced at Bo Hancheng and continued ambiguously, "Third Brother, why does Scarface have such a unique taste in women?"

Scarface was not at all impressed by the girls who had been trained so Chu Ci was very prepared to see Luo Zheng fail. To his surprise, Luo Zheng managed to react quickly to the situation and impressed Scarface according to plan. She completely changed their opinion of her!

Bo Hancheng did not respond and instead, an icy cold gaze formed in his eyes because he heard that Scarface was carrying Luo Zheng.

Although he wanted to put Luo Zheng to the test, it did not include letting Scarface carry her... Luo Zheng was his woman and yet, Scarface had the audacity to take advantage of her!

"Don't worry, it's just carrying her! Scarface is going to proceed with the deal later, he won't have the time to do that..."

Chu Ci smiled awkwardly and tried to comfort him.

Before he could finish speaking, Bo Hancheng glowered at him coldly, causing him to fall silent.

At this moment, Scarface was about to leave City That Never Sleeps together with Luo Zheng, for the underground gambling den which was also the location of negotiation.

Luo Zheng then said uneasily, "Master Scarface, don't be impatient. I'd like to go to the washroom..."

She then heard a loud thud which sounded like it was Scarface putting Luo Zheng down to allow her to go to the washroom.

Bo Hancheng listened as Luo Zheng left Scarface. He then asked, "What happened?"

After a few seconds of silence, she answered softly, "Brother Cheng, I think he wanted to... grope me just now! Hmph, he's just an old lecher..."

She suddenly felt that something was crushed.

Luo Zheng could not see it but Chu Ci could and hence could not help but be shocked.

Bo Hancheng crushed the glass of red wine in his hand, causing the red liquid to flow down his fingers.

At this moment, Luo Zheng said shyly, "Brother Cheng, it's alright, I'll just bear with it! Could you... turn off the listening device now? I really need to use the washroom, I don't want you to hear it..."

Bo Hancheng expressed assent in displeasure. "Okay."

He then glanced at the blood on his hand which seemed to have become one with the red wine, and he suddenly called, "Luo Zheng."

"Brother Cheng, I'm here! What's the matter? Tell me."

Luo Zheng frantically answered, full of enthusiasm.

Bo Hancheng did not think too much about it and instead said, "Be careful with what you're doing. If you can't take it anymore, you may leave anytime."

"I really can? But what if I miss any information about Old K..."

"It doesn't matter, you don't have to force yourself."

Bo Hancheng gently interrupted.

Silence filled the air for a while before Luo Zheng chuckled and said in a tender voice, "Brother Cheng, I was initially a little scared and I also thought about backing out but now... I'm suddenly not afraid anymore! Do you know why?"

"Because you care about me, Brother Cheng! Don't deny it because I can feel it. Brother Cheng... I'm really elated! So, I'll step forth and brave through it regardless of how dangerous it may be. I'll help you achieve your goals..."

She spoke quickly and joyfully, as if she were the brightest shining star.

Her voice was like a drug that he was addicted to and although she seemed to be far away, she also felt rather near.

Bo Hancheng grew flustered and felt that he could not listen to her anymore. Hence, he switched off the device, as if he were escaping reality.

He looked up to meet Chu Ci's gaze. Chu Ci said sullenly, "Third Brother, have you... developed feelings for Luo Zheng?"

Bo Hancheng glared at him and said derisively, "What do you mean by feelings?"

Suddenly stunned, Chu Ci realized that his question was really amusing. Hence, he shook his head and said, "Well, you're from the Bo Family, how can you have feelings..."

The Bo Family was a presidential family and hence had a set of family rules.

One of the most important rules was that the successor of the Bo Family will never develop feelings for anyone!

Catching feelings was the beginning of developing a weakness.

To be the President, this weakness must be eradicated and he must never have any genuine feelings!

Chapter 120: Why Make Life Hard For A Fellow Woman?

“Brother Cheng, are you still there? Brother Cheng...”

Luo Zheng leaned against the basin and gently called out.

She was suddenly filled with joy.

Although he sounded cold and aloof, she could still tell that he was concerned about her... Compared to finding Old K's whereabouts, he was more worried about her safety. What a great gain!

After feeling nervous, she decided to persist all the way until the end and obtain some information about Old K.

“Who are you talking to?”

Jiang Yutong asked abruptly as she slowly made her way there.

Luo Zheng frowned in shock and said, “No one, you heard wrongly.”

Not planning to communicate with her any further, she decided to go in.

“Zheng, don't think that you're better than everyone else just because Master Scarface has chosen you! I'm telling you, this is only the beginning. It's only a matter of time before I surpass you...”

Jiang Yutong felt provoked by Luo Zheng's disrespectful attitude towards her.

She heard from Auntie Hong that Scarface's identity was special... Although he was dubious, he had a high status and was rich and powerful.

After entering City That Never Sleeps, Jiang Yutong had entertained and encountered plenty of guests, and hence, she was not bothered by the triads at all... Her goal was to become rich and as long as she could obtain a luxurious life, she would not mind betraying even herself!

Out of all the girls that Auntie Hong had trained, she was the most outstanding one and all she lacked was an appropriate opportunity.

However, she still ended up losing to a newbie who was meant to be a substitute. How could she not be indignant?

If she did not become the apple of Scarface's eye right from the start, it would be hard for her to stand out in the future!

Women could see through other women and hence, Jiang Yutong could tell that Luo Zheng was extremely intelligent.

She thought, on the surface, Luo Zheng didn't please Scarface but in reality, she had already guessed his intentions and was pretending to be a pure and demure girl. How disgusting!

Amused, Luo Zheng glanced at her and said slowly, “You don't have to see me as an opponent, you can definitely surpass me.”

Because tonight, she will leave Scarface and Jiang Yutong will be left all alone!

“Zheng, are you humiliating me?”

Jiang Yutong refused to believe that Luo Zheng meant what she said. Instead, she grew angry and embarrassed.

“Girl, being brainless is an illness that has to be treated!”

Luo Zheng folded her arms and said coldly.

“How dare you scold me... ”

“Scarface is a dangerous person. If you want to stay alive, you’d better leave while you can!”

Luo Zheng calmly interrupted Jiang Yutong out of goodwill.

Why should women make life hard for other women? I don’t want to see a silly woman like her courting her own death!

“Do you think I’m a fool? You actually want me to leave Master Scarface? I bet you’re just afraid of falling out of favor! Well, that makes sense. You’re just a newbie and you’re not as outstanding as I am. You don’t know how to please men either. It’s only a matter of time before you fall out of favor!”

Jiang Yutong spoke smugly, thinking that Luo Zheng was persuading her to leave because she was worried that she might be surpassed.

Luo Zheng smirked, feeling impressed by how silly Jiang Yutong could be.

“Okay, continue being a fool, as long as it makes you happy.”

Luo Zheng ignored her after answering her calmly.

Jiang Yutong thinks she’s so smart but she’s actually just brainless... Can’t she tell that Scarface is ruthless? What will the consequences be after he gets sick of her?

Since she’s so willing to court her own death, she can’t blame me!

The two of them then left the washroom, one after another.

A car was parked outside and Scarface was standing in front of it.

It was no longer raining but the skies were gloomy and there were occasional chilly gusts of wind. It was as if they were in an abyss.

Jiang Yutong glanced at Luo Zheng before striding towards Scarface and exclaiming coquettishly, “Master Scarface, I feel really cold!”
