

BO LOVE LIFE 141

Chapter 141: He's As Precious As My Life, And I'd Rather Die Than Betray Him!

Hate?

Luo Zheng sneered with her heart as cold as ice.

Xi Qianqian, what right do you have to hate me? Be good and remember this. Don't forgive me or let me live well!

Because, I hate you just as much. I won't forgive you or let you live well either!

As happy as a lark, Scarface gazed at Luo Zheng and continued, "Next, another minute! The time starts now..."

As soon as he spoke the crowd broke into a frenzy because they were all afraid of dying. Fear had overwhelmed them and ruined their rationality.

However, Luo Zheng did not seem to have any intention of identifying Bo Hancheng.

The thought of Scarface shooting Xi Qianqian's leg and crippling her made them realize that they might be next, and could possibly die!

Hence, everyone glared at Luo Zheng with anger and hatred in their maniacal eyes.

Bang!

Someone took the lead to remove his watch and threw it at Luo Zheng.

Luo Zheng was caught off guard and the metal watch slammed against her chest, causing her to feel a dull pain.

Seeing this, Scarface did not stop them and was instead even more thrilled and interested in seeing how much longer Luo Zheng could last!

The people were desperate to survive and began to get agitated because they did not get a response.

After someone took the lead, the rest followed suit. They began to throw all the things they could get a hold of at Luo Zheng.

In response, Luo Zheng retreated backwards in a disheveled manner until she reached a safe spot.

However, Scarface shot his subordinates a glance and hinted for them to stop Luo Zheng from retreating and to ensure that she remained where she was... Hence, Luo Zheng had no choice but to bear with the pain of having the items thrown at her.

In the process, she was struck in the forehead by a hard object which caused her to get cut and it started to bleed.

"B*tch, so damned selfish! You're dragging me down with you to die..."

“Stone her to death! Even if we can’t live, she has to die too...”

“If I make it out of here and find out who she is, I will torture her to death...”

...

Everyone was criticizing Luo Zheng in a frenzy.

Most patrons of underground gambling dens were not kind souls and some were even heavily addicted to gambling... Hence, they only cared about their own lives at this point, exposing the ugliest side of themselves.

“Zheng, what’s the point? Even if you get stoned to death here, do you really think he will stand up for you?”

Scarface was attacking her emotionally because he thought that she would definitely be weak and have her feelings hurt easily since she was a girl who was not a professional spy.

Hence, he was certain that she would definitely cave in under the immensely hostile gazes!

However, she had an icy cold gaze in her eyes and remained tight-lipped with no intentions to beg for mercy.

She even seemed to be thinking about something. All of a sudden, she faced the crowd and said, “Brother Cheng, don’t come out! If you don’t come out, I’ll be the only one who dies. You can just avenge me in the future! But if you come out, we all have to die. That would be useless, wouldn’t it?”

Luo Zheng then smiled beautifully in a picturesque manner.

Although Luo Zheng felt that Bo Hancheng might not be amongst the crowd... she knew that it would be unlikely that he would stand out even if he was in there.

Maybe, he cares about me, but not to the extent of losing his life! She thought.

However, Luo Zheng still wanted to be careful and to take precautions. What if Mr. Bodyguard is silly? It was not that she wasn’t afraid of dying, but she would rather not have the both of them sacrifice their lives together!

Therefore, after carefully analyzing and weighing the pros and cons, she decided that the best choice would be for him to stay hidden!

As for this group of gamblers, their lives had nothing to do with her. She was a selfish person, and was definitely not a saint. It would be impossible for her to sacrifice the life of Bo Hancheng in exchange for their safety!

“Zheng, you are really stubborn!”

Seeing how determined she was, Scarface could not help but be furious despite being attracted to her, because she was feeling that way because of another man.

He really did feel good about Luo Zheng, which was why he chose to give her a chance to start anew after using Jiang Yutong as a warning.

Unfortunately, she still chose... to die in the end!

Everyone got even angrier and they wished they could rip Luo Zheng apart. They continued to grab more of their belongings and pelted them at Luo Zheng.

Luo Zheng was getting more and more wounded and was about to lose her balance.

“Stop...”

A voice exclaimed coldly, filling the ears of everyone.

A slender figure walked out from the corridor by the side, and not out of the crowd.

He strode towards them with gloomy eyes and a solemn expression, full of dominance like a king.

“Brother Cheng...”

Chapter 142: Scarface Is Old K?

Before they could even react, Luo Zheng’s expression changed and she immediately scurried forwards.

What she was worried about the most, still happened in the end!

Although she felt happy about the fact that Bo Hancheng had stepped out because it meant that he did care about her... she was more infuriated than anything else!

She thought, I clearly told him not to come out, why is he so disobedient!?! That makes my sacrifice go in vain!

“Brother Cheng, why are you showing yourself? Leave! Hurry and leave...”

Luo Zheng frantically pushed Bo Hancheng away in exasperation. Her cheeks were all puffed up and she looked extremely adorable.

Bo Hancheng ignored her words and simply stared at her.

He realized that she was in a disheveled state, covered in bruises and welts. Blood was also dripping from her forehead and staining her delicate face.

“Brother Cheng, what are you waiting for?”

Luo Zheng was bent on shielding him and escorting him out.

She was determined even though the chances of escaping were slim!

However, he stood rooted to the ground, refusing to retreat regardless of her nudging.

Luo Zheng barked angrily and anxiously, “Brother Cheng... ah! Don’t touch...”

Before she could even finish speaking, she felt a sudden pain on her forehead as Bo Hancheng pressed his finger against her bleeding wound.

“Does it hurt?” He asked softly and ambiguously.

If it were not for the fact that he was Mr. Bodyguard, Luo Zheng would have rolled her eyes at him.

I got a cut on my forehead, how could it not hurt? I'm not made of metal!

However, she did not want him to worry so she shook her head anxiously and said, "Brother Cheng, it doesn't hurt. You'd better hurry and leave..."

"Leave? It's so rare of Third Master Bo to be here! How could we not catch up?"

Scarface spoke coldly.

Some people stepped forth immediately and surrounded Bo Hancheng.

Luo Zheng's heart sank and she felt that they were doomed!

"Bo Hancheng, you're such a fool!" Luo Zheng hollered at him angrily.

Upon hearing her words, Bo Hancheng looked into her eyes to see that they were all full of himself.

Regardless of how stone-hearted he may be, he still felt sympathetic towards her. He rubbed her head gently and said, "Little imp, you're the foolish one!"

Not waiting for Luo Zheng to process his words, he shielded her and asked Scarface, "Should I call you Scarface, or Old K?"

Everyone including Scarface, was shocked to hear his words.

Luo Zheng's eyes widened in shock and she stared at Scarface in astonishment. She suddenly sunk deep into thought.

She was more or less certain that Scarface was the drug lord Old K!

She was certain about that, not only because she trusted Bo Hancheng, but also because her intuitions told her so... Although she had only spent a short amount of time with Scarface tonight, she could tell that he was intelligent, vicious, and ruthless.

Scarface's face stiffened for a few seconds and he suddenly sneered, "Third Young Master Bo, are you too obsessed with nabbing Master K that you've gone bonkers? How could I be Old K!?!"

"You know very well, whether you're Old K or not."

Bo Hancheng answered calmly with composure.

Scarface's face grew sullen and his heart skipped a beat... In the past, when he was still in Britain, he was almost captured by Bo Hancheng.

He had no choice but to leave his home country and flee to Beijing.

To his surprise, he had merely had one showdown with Bo Hancheng and yet, the latter already recognized him!

He decided then that he could not let this man leave this place alive!

However, he thought that killing Bo Hancheng would be too easy of a punishment and he wanted to see Bo Hancheng being put through a living hell... anyway, it would be up to Scarface to torture him once he landed in his hands.

“Do you really think I’d be so stupid as to court my own death by coming here alone?”

Bo Hancheng retorted sarcastically, seemingly able to read Scarface’s mind.

At the same time, his subordinate hurried in and reported softly, “Master Scarface, bad news. There seems to be people surrounding us outside! There is also news of the police making their way down here now...”

Chapter 143: Dead Or Alive, I’ll Be By Your Side And You’ll No Longer Be Alone...

Upon hearing his words, Scarface glared at Bo Hancheng coldly. “Third Young Master Bo, you’re really shrewd eh!”

“You flatter me.”

Bo Hancheng observed his surroundings while replying to Scarface briefly.

“Master Scarface, hurry and retreat! Any later and you might fall in the hands of the police...”

His loyal subordinate urged.

Scarface looked at the crowd before turning to look at Bo Hancheng. “Third Young Master Bo, you must remember, these people... have died for you! Kill them all...”

Everyone panicked and flew into a frenzy. Horror was written all over their faces and they were afraid of dying.

Scarface laid the order because he wanted to induce fear within the people and make things difficult for Bo Hancheng.

“Kill him, if you want to stay alive!”

As soon as he said those words, everyone turned to look at Bo Hancheng murderously.

Greatly startled, Luo Zheng immediately shielded Bo Hancheng by standing in front of him, losing her temper at Scarface.

Scarface was pleased with her reaction.

The “Blue Vixen” that Li Mazi had given him not too long ago, came in handy at this juncture.

However, before he left, Scarface stopped in his tracks and glanced at Luo Zheng. “Zheng, if you stay here, you’ll definitely die! As long as you leave with me, I can forgive you and forget about everything that happened before this! Are you willing to leave with me?”

No one expected Scarface to show Luo Zheng some pity at this moment.

Even Luo Zheng could not help but be shocked. Why does it seem like Scarface... truly loves me? She wondered.

Luo Zheng did not reject him immediately and seemed to be considering it.

Upon sight of this, Bo Hancheng's eyes turned gloomy and he frowned while subconsciously clenching his fists.

At the next moment, Luo Zheng suddenly walked towards Scarface.

Great, Luo Zheng!

Bo Hancheng thought to himself in a self-deprecating manner, feeling rather disappointed.

He could have stayed in hiding right from the start since he was Scarface's target.

Hence, he had taken a huge risk by choosing to stand out!

He knew that very clearly.

Yet, Luo Zheng suffered the harsh beatings and scoldings by the crowd all because she did not want to betray him... He did not want to seem like a coward and allow her to suffer the pain that she did not deserve.

Hence, he ignored Chu Ci's persuasion and lost his cool. He then stepped out of his hiding place.

Seeing how disheveled and wounded she was, and the smile that she was still trying to force... he decided to ignore everything else.

For the first time in his life, he wanted a woman really badly... even though she was just an underage girl and was not considered a woman yet. He still would not change his mind!

Yet, in the blink of an eye, she seemed to be leaving with Scarface for the sake of survival. How ironic.

He definitely would not allow her to betray him. No one can enter his life and then just leave irresponsibly!

Just as Bo Hancheng frowned and was about to grab Luo Zheng to stop her from leaving,

Luo Zheng stood in front of him and yelled at Scarface, "As long as you don't harm Brother Cheng, I can leave with you!"

Everyone was flabbergasted. Scarface barked in a low and rumbling voice, "No! Impossible!"

Bo Hancheng was the reason he had to flee and go into hiding, which caused him so much misery. How could he not hurt Bo Hancheng?

Luo Zheng was not surprised by his answer. She took a step back and held onto Bo Hancheng's hand... she unclenched his fist and interlocked her fingers with his. "In that case, I can't leave with you too!"

As soon as Luo Zheng finished speaking, she looked up into his gloomy eyes and exclaimed, "Brother Cheng, don't be afraid! Regardless of whether we survive, I'll stay with you. You'll no longer be alone..."

Chapter 144: Little Imp, Do You Trust Me?

Just like how in my previous life, you died in the fire for my sake. This time, I definitely won't let you die alone!

Staring at her glistening eyes and her look of determination to stay by his side even till death, Bo Hancheng suddenly felt like something blossomed in his heart and spurred him to hold her hand. "Okay, I'm not afraid."

"Zheng, you've really failed me again! Do you really think I won't bear to kill you?"

Scarface glared at Luo Zheng who was defending Bo Hancheng, with a sinister smile on his face.

He then slowly turned around and instructed ruthlessly, "Ruin her too!"

Scarface then left hastily, leaving his subordinate behind to fulfill his instructions.

"Kill him! As long as you kill him, we can all stay alive..."

"Exactly! Master Scarface said that it's either him or us that stays alive!"

"Hurry and do it! If we act too late, we'll be the ones dying, let's do it together..."

...

The crowd suddenly remembered what Scarface said and was just about to step forward.

Pleased to see this, Scarface's subordinate did not rush to shoot them.

"Brother Cheng..."

Luo Zheng's face turned pale and she gripped onto Bo Hancheng tightly. She could not help but feel a little terrified when she saw the crowd that was rushing towards them.

However, at this moment, he said in a warm voice, "Little imp, do you trust me?"

Luo Zheng looked up at him in puzzlement.

At this moment, he was actually smiling and seemed to be fearless!

"I trust you..."

"If you trust me, run across the corridor behind me when I count to three, got it?"

Luo Zheng's answer was drowned out by his instructions.

At the next instant, Bo Hancheng let go of Luo Zheng's hand and pushed her behind. "1..."

"2..."

"3..."

...

As soon as he finished speaking, Luo Zheng felt him pushing her towards the corridor while telling her, "Run, don't look back..."

Steeled by her faith in him, Luo Zheng ran towards the corridor as fast as she could.

In the process of running, she reckoned that Bo Hancheng wanted her to do that because he had a solution to deal with the situation at hand. If she were to stay, she might end up becoming a burden for him!

“Bang... Bang... Bang...”

Gunshots sounded in the air.

Luo Zheng’s face turned pale and she stopped in her tracks abruptly before turning behind.

Unfortunately, after entering the corridor, she could not see anything inside because of the corner.

Just as she was pondering about whether or not to go back, Bo Hancheng exclaimed, “If you don’t want to die, squat on the ground with your hands on your head and stay inside the room!”

Luo Zheng thought, I knew it, Mr. Bodyguard is heroic and suave. He’d definitely be alright!

She was suddenly reminded of the fact that Scarface had addressed Bo Hancheng as Third Young Master Bo and looking at the way he was able to control the situation, she wondered, is his identity... a superintendent? Yes, he must be a superintendent. Otherwise, why would he be investigating the drug ring and want to arrest the drug lord Old K!?!

A superintendent is really cool!

Luo Zheng no longer rushed to leave and instead stopped in the corridor, patiently waiting for Bo Hancheng to come out.

At this moment, she heard the sounds of footsteps.

Luo Zheng’s heart skipped a beat and she hurriedly squatted down in the corner of the wall. She saw a man walking towards her sneakily and saying in a shaky voice, “Master Scarface, you must ensure that after I get into this mishap, you will treat my family well and not make things difficult for them... ”

She had no idea what Scarface answered but she heard the man saying determinedly, “Master Scarface, rest assured, I’ll definitely give it my all to complete the task!”

He did not notice Luo Zheng’s presence because he left in a hurry.

On the contrary, Luo Zheng appeared rather nervous.

To her astonishment, he whipped out a sharp and shiny dagger which he covered with his other hand... It revealed a faint glow and looked mysterious!

“Oh no! He’s going to attack Brother Cheng... ”

Chapter 145: Brother Cheng Is Sad About Zheng Getting Poisoned!

Seeing that the man was soon going to leave her sight, Luo Zheng immediately got up to follow him.

However, she felt a sudden ache in her abdomen when she stood up. Something flowed out of her lower body and Luo Zheng felt the urge to cuss.

Damn it, my body is so useless. Of all the times, why must Aunt Flo visit me now!?!

Bearing the discomfort, Luo Zheng supported herself against the wall, regained her balance and quickly returned to the hall.

However, just across the corner, she noticed that Bo Hancheng was standing a few steps away from her... Most importantly, that man was speaking to Bo Hancheng.

He looks like Mr. Bodyguard's subordinate?

However, Luo Zheng suddenly thought of something and immediately reminded him, "Brother Cheng, be careful, there's something wrong with him!"

Upon hearing her words, Bo Hancheng's face grew sullen. The man was way too close to him and as soon as he raised his hand, plenty of powder flew out.

The powder was like a psychedelic agent and Bo Hancheng immediately staggered forwards as soon as he inhaled it.

Seeing this, Luo Zheng got so flustered that she immediately ran forwards.

At this moment, the man raised his dagger and tried to stab Bo Hancheng... Despite being drugged, Bo Hancheng was still agile and had the reflexes to react in the nick of time.

He grabbed the man's wrist and twisted it, causing the latter to drop the dagger in pain.

At the critical juncture, the man stuck his other hand out to reveal a blue syringe which clearly contained "Blue Vixen", the addictive drug!

No one expected that the purpose of the man sent by Scarface was not to assassinate Bo Hancheng, but rather to inject the Blue Vixen poison into his body to ruin him!

Due to the fact that Bo Hancheng was drugged, all of his attention was on the dagger and hence, he could not see the syringe behind it. He had no time to care about it either.

Luo Zheng's pupils constricted and before she could even think, she slammed herself against Bo Hancheng to push him further away from that man.

The man stabbed the syringe into Luo Zheng's neck accurately.

Realizing that he had stabbed the wrong person, the man got a great shock before quickly pushing the syringe down in a bid to inject it into Luo Zheng's body.

When he was halfway done, Luo Zheng vigorously struggled to push him away. Bo Hancheng chased after him and kicked him onto the ground.

"Luo Zheng..."

After kicking the man, Bo Hancheng stared at Luo Zheng who was swaying unsteadily and hurriedly grabbed her waist.

"Brother Cheng, I'm fine, it's just that my neck hurts! Bastard, he actually stabbed me with a syringe, I hate getting injections!"

Luo Zheng tried her best to force a smile, not wanting Bo Hancheng to realize that something was wrong, lest he feel guilty.

However, she was so silly that she did not realize that Bo Hancheng would have definitely identified the blue poison since he had been hunting Old K down!

With a sullen expression on his face, Bo Hancheng ignored Luo Zheng and pushed her hair away to look at her neck.

The tip of the needle was rather thin and it only left a small mark behind, along with a few droplets of blood.

Once the blue poison is injected, there would be no way to remove it!

“Brother Cheng...”

“Why did you do that? Speak!”

Luo Zheng looked at his angry face and got a shock just as she was about to call his name.

Before Luo Zheng could even answer, he raised her chin forcefully and asked coldly, “Luo Zheng, are you that fearless? Is your life worth nothing? You don’t cherish your life, do you?”

He rarely lost his temper.

Perhaps, even Bo Hancheng did not understand why he was asking her those questions.

He should have been happy to see that she was willing to die with him but when she truly ignored her own safety to save him, he still felt incredibly upset!

She’s so young and she’s clearly still a child. How can she be so dauntless and stubborn!?!

Luo Zheng was almost frightened by his appearance.

However, her heart warmed up in the end and she knew that he was worried about her. She reached out to hug his waist, and rubbed her cheek against his chest. “Brother Cheng, I didn’t! Look, I’m alright. It’s just some blue poison. I’ll kick it...”

Chapter 146: You’re Afraid Of Me

Bo Hancheng glanced at Luo Zheng who was laying in his arms. Despite feeling uneasy and scared, she still forced herself to smile and comfort him. He could not help but feel a sudden heartache.

Luo Zheng made it sound simple but deep down, she knew how difficult it was to kick a blue poison addiction!

She thought about Li Mazi clearly stating how poisonous the Blue Vixen was when he presented it to Scarface... a small dosage would result in a severe addiction and injecting the entire syringe into someone would cause their lives to be destroyed with no hope of being cured!

Not knowing how much Blue Vixen was injected into her body, Luo Zheng cocked her head towards the side to look at that man.

She turned as pale as a sheet and exclaimed, "Brother Cheng, be careful!"

He still had half a syringe of Blue Vixen in his hand and while Luo Zheng was hugging Bo Hancheng, he tried to attack again!

Bo Hancheng's face grew sullen and he took a few steps back while protecting Luo Zheng.

He whipped out an army knife that was cold and shiny.

He stepped forward and ruthlessly slit his assailant's wrist. The man screamed as blood flowed out of his wrist and he dropped Blue Vixen onto the ground.

Luo Zheng almost cheered and jumped for joy. Her eyes glistened as she looked at Bo Hancheng in awe. He's amazing!

Just as she was about to lean forward, she discovered that Bo Hancheng did not stop and instead, bent forward to stab that man in the chest.

Luo Zheng's pupils constricted immediately and got a great shock.

After getting stabbed, that man is definitely going to die!

Just as Luo Zheng was stunned, Bo Hancheng continued to twist the dagger while it was inside the man's chest, causing his blood to flow all over the ground.

"You deserve to die!"

Bo Hancheng was overwhelmed with anger and he stared at the man coldly.

Luo Zheng then watched as the man vomited blood while his eyes popped up. He then laid motionlessly on the ground, no longer showing signs of being alive!

Next, Bo Hancheng remained silent for a few seconds before pulling the dagger out from the man's chest.

Tit-tat...

Fresh red blood flowed down the tip of the dagger and onto the ground.

With a calm expression, Bo Hancheng wiped the dagger against the man's body before putting his knife away.

He then got up again and looked at Luo Zheng before striding towards her. Luo Zheng was stunned and her heart jumped out of her chest after staring at the blood in his hands.

Somehow, she felt a sense of fear.

She finally realized that she did not truly know Bo Hancheng well!

"Luo Zheng, how do you feel?"

Bo Hancheng extended his hand while asking, in a bid to caress Luo Zheng's face.

Surprisingly, before he could even touch Luo Zheng, she took a step back with fear written all over her face.

Bo Hancheng was not the only one who was shocked, for Luo Zheng was surprised by her own behavior too.

I'm afraid... of Mr. Bodyguard? No, how can that be!?!

I must have instinctively done that because the scene of him killing that man was too gory!

Luo Zheng took a deep breath and calmed herself down before walking towards him again.

Bo Hancheng glanced at her with a smirk and said in a voice that was as cold as snow, "You're afraid of me."

There was no hint of doubt in his voice but rather, he was certain that was the case and even seemed to be teasing her.

Luo Zheng immediately shook her head and denied it, "No, why would I be afraid of you, Brother Cheng!?!"

Bo Hancheng did not doubt it at all, though he was not extremely disappointed.

After all, Luo Zheng behaved beyond his expectations just now. Now that she saw him killing someone... it would only be normal for her to be afraid. Well, anyone would be terrified.

"I'll send someone to bring you back later. The rest of this, will have nothing to do with you..."

Chapter 147: Don't Ignore Me, Brother Cheng...

Bo Hancheng spoke calmly while thinking about how Luo Zheng's drug addiction could be resolved.

Just as he was about to turn around and beckon Chu Ci, Bang!

A soft body pounced onto him and hugged him tightly from behind. "Brother Cheng, don't get the wrong idea. I'm really not afraid of you! I just tend to get giddy when I see blood..." Luo Zheng found a lame excuse to explain her behavior just now.

As meek as a kitten, she immediately rubbed her face against his back and said, "I'm just not used to such gory scenes! Next time, I definitely won't let you down, Brother Cheng. Brother Cheng, don't ignore me..."

He kept his back facing Luo Zheng and allowed her to hug him while he stared at the tiny hand that was around his waist.

All of a sudden, Bo Hancheng sighed helplessly and smiled faintly.

Do I mean that much to her? He wondered.

Sometimes, being too important to someone can be a burden too!

He pried her hands away and stood up again before saying calmly, "I'm not ignoring you, you... didn't disappoint me at all! Luo Zheng, you've already done really well..."

It was rare of him to compliment her. Luo Zheng raised her head in surprise and asked with glistening eyes, "Really?"

"Yes, really." Bo Hancheng admitted without restraint.

As happy as a lark, she pouted and said, "Since I've done such a good job, shouldn't you be giving me a reward, Brother Cheng?"

Bo Hancheng smiled and thought, little imp is really cute, isn't she?

She's so straightforward, sincere and enthusiastic. I'd probably never find someone else like her again!

Bo Hancheng slowly bent forward and was about to kiss Luo Zheng.

"Oh! Excuse me, did I enter at the wrong timing? Why don't I leave and let you two continue?"

Chu Ci barged in with his subordinates all of a sudden.

He made the remark coldly when he was greeted with that sight.

However, he did not intend to really retreat.

In the end, Bo Hancheng did not kiss her in front of everyone and instead rubbed her head with the hand that was not stained with blood. "Be good, I'll give you the reward when we're back."

With a look of disappointment in her eyes, Luo Zheng glowered at Chu Ci, "Annoying monster!"

"You..."

Chu Ci almost flew into a rage when he heard the way that she addressed him.

However, he had no choice but to clench his jaw silently when he saw the threatening glance in Bo Hancheng's eyes. "Lass, I'm not going to hold it against you!"

As he stepped forward, Chu Ci finally saw the body on the ground. He stepped forward and took a sniff before asking, "Damn, how did he die? Third Brother, he's not worthy of being killed by you! Why did you get yourself involved in murder? The police are coming now, you're going to be in trouble..."

Chu Ci actually felt rather guilty.

Ever since Luo Zheng's hearing device was broken, Bo Hancheng could no longer keep his cool and behaved like an entirely different person... He even ignored Chu Ci's attempts at persuasion and insisted on barging into the underground gambling den to rescue her.

However, the initial plan was to send Mu Nianqing to listen out for information about Old K... in order not to alarm them, they decided that they wouldn't rescue her.

Hence, Chu Ci did not arrange for too many subordinates to be on standby!

Surprisingly, Bo Hancheng chose to send Luo Zheng and even changed the plan halfway. Hence, he had to respond and adapt... In the end, he took control of the men outside the gambling den and slowly made their way inside.

At the same time, he also called the police early to make Scarface afraid.

As expected, Scarface left his subordinates behind and fled in a helicopter.

Chu Ci followed Bo Hancheng's instructions and immediately shot Scarface's subordinates after Luo Zheng left the hall... He felt that it would be better for Bo Hancheng not to be exposed since they were in Beijing and not Britain.

Hence, even if he shot the subordinates, he didn't shoot them in fatal spots because he didn't want to kill anyone!

Yet, there was a mistake.

One of his subordinates turned out to be a spy sent to assassinate Bo Hancheng!

Fortunately, he didn't harm Bo Hancheng in the end.

He thought the matter was over and decided to come in to clean up the mess. He did not expect to find out that Bo Hancheng had suddenly killed someone!

Is it because... of Luo Zheng?

Chu Ci glared at Luo Zheng with a complicated expression before quipping, "You actually made Third Brother kill for you. Miss Luo, you're really something!"

Chapter 148: Chu Ci Feels The Sorrow Of Being A Singleton

Upon hearing his words, Luo Zheng's face turned pale and she thought about how severe a murder sentence would be. Her heart sank.

Seeing this, Bo Hancheng stepped forward and shielded Luo Zheng. Staring at Chu Ci coldly, he barked, "The problem lies with you!"

The man who got killed was probably one of Scarface's spies who were sent to be Chu Ci's subordinate... That was because Chu Ci failed to discipline his subordinates, thus allowing Scarface to take advantage!

Chu Ci's expression was sullen but he did not retort. "Third Brother, I didn't expect that such a thing would happen!"

Indeed, he was to be blamed for this and Luo Zheng was not at fault... He simply said those words because he felt that Bo Hancheng was placing too much concern on Luo Zheng.

If Bo Hancheng were to be involved in a murder case, he might risk having his identity exposed!

Others would definitely get the wrong idea when they found out about the British presidential candidate appearing in Beijing and getting himself involved in such a matter.

Hence, he had to find a way to suppress it!

However, at this moment, Luo Zheng suddenly stepped forward to take a look at the man who was lying on the ground. While she was feeling afraid, there was determination in her eyes!

“Summon a car to take her to the hospital for a full body checkup.” Bo Hancheng glanced at her slender figure and sent out such orders.

Chu Ci looked a little puzzled and scanned Luo Zheng from head to toe. “Which part of Miss Luo is injured?”

Due to the fact that Chu Ci rushed there in a hurry, he did not hear the details of what happened.

Hence, he had no idea that Luo Zheng was drugged with the poison and hence decided to nitpick on her because he was already biased against her in the first place.

“She took the blue poison for me and the poison has already entered her system. We must think of a way for her to kick the addiction...”

As Bo Hancheng said those words, Chu Ci glanced at Luo Zheng with shock written all over his face. He stopped feeling prejudiced and immediately ordered his subordinate to do so accordingly.

After that, Bo Hancheng stepped forward and asked Luo Zheng from behind, “Little imp, can you still hang in there?”

Luo Zheng was just thinking about something when she heard Bo Hancheng’s question. She turned around slowly and met his eyes.

As usual, he had an icy cold gaze which was full of worry!

“Brother Cheng, you killed him for me, right?” Luo Zheng asked surprisingly.

Bo Hancheng remained silent while Chu Ci answered, “Of course. Third Brother has always been sensible and conscientious! If it weren’t because of you, he wouldn’t have killed that man. Who would want to be involved in a murder?”

Chu Ci spoke in a mellower tone than usual, on the account that Luo Zheng was loyal and approached Scarface because of Bo Hancheng, and even took the poison on his behalf.

Besides, he could tell that Bo Hancheng was obviously interested in Luo Zheng.

Although he said that on purpose, he just wanted Luo Zheng to feel guilty and further prevent her from betraying Bo Hancheng!

Ah, he really is “kindhearted”, isn’t he?

“Chu Ci, have you got too much time on your hands?” Bo Hancheng glared at him with gloomy eyes.

What a sellout! Chu Ci criticized in his heart but he dared not say it out loud.

He then watched Bo Hancheng’s face grow warmer as he comforted her, “Don’t listen to his nonsense. Me killing him... has nothing to do with you!”

Somehow, Chu Ci felt bitter, as if he had been ignored! He was truly feeling the sorrow of being a singleton!

Luo Zheng's face turned sullen and seemed to be thinking about something.

She then kept her eyes fixed on Bo Hancheng's bloodstained hand... Most importantly, he was still holding onto the weapon that he used to kill, the army dagger!

No one expected Luo Zheng to suddenly grab the dagger.

Bo Hancheng used to be a soldier and hence had quick reflexes and sharp senses. When Luo Zheng extended her hand, he obviously felt it... However, he did not know what she wanted to do and loosened his grip on the dagger, for fear that he would cut her.

Luo Zheng successfully obtained the dagger and her pale hand was stained by the blood on it!

Chapter 149: This Time, Let Me Protect You, Alright?

The blood stuck to Luo Zheng's hand and the sticky sensation made her feel disgusted.

On top of that, the metallic odor of blood wafted up into Luo Zheng's nose, making her feel even more queasy since she was already feeling uncomfortable.

Upon seeing this, Chu Ci asked, "Miss Luo, what are you doing?"

Luo Zheng ignored him, for all she thought about was that she could not let Mr. Bodyguard go to jail!

No one knew how scared she was deep down.

In the previous life, he killed Xi Mubai and Mu Nianqing for her... after which, the police arrived, surrounded him and tried to arrest him.

Next, the sounds of explosions filled the air and he died in the flames!

Luo Zheng finally thought about this.

There definitely wouldn't be a bomb in her matrimonial home with Xi Mubai and since the police were there to arrest him, they definitely wouldn't install a bomb ahead of time either.

Hence, the only possibility would be that Bo Hancheng had brought the bomb along with him... He knew that he would definitely be punished by the law for killing two people. Xi Mubai was the eldest son of the Xi Family while Mu Nianqing was the queen of modeling.

Given how important those two were, he would either be given a death sentence or be jailed for a lifetime!

She thought, even if she didn't understand Bo Hancheng well, he could guess that he was a proud and arrogant man... Hence, he definitely wouldn't allow himself to be jailed for life and the only thing he could do was die!

Hence, he chose to detonate the bomb and kill himself.

Luo Zheng began to tear up as she thought about it. She looked at Bo Hancheng with tears in her eyes and said, "Brother Cheng, I..."

"Give me the dagger..."

The two of them spoke at the same time and Bo Hancheng reached his hand out towards Luo Zheng.

"No!"

Luo Zheng shook her head and took a step back until she reached the corpse.

No one knew how important Bo Hancheng was to her!

At that time, she had been wooing Xi Mubai for ten years and had painstakingly managed to marry him... However, on their nuptial night, he gave her a sense of hopelessness and chained her up while he ruined the Luo Family.

For three whole days, she could not drink or eat and her life began to grow weaker.

Those three days felt like an eternity to her and she almost went crazy.

In the end, he brought the pregnant Mu Nianqing towards her... No one could imagine how hopeless she felt. She truly felt like she was better off dead!

"Luo Zheng, you want me to love you? Over my dead body!"

She was devoted to him for ten whole years and yet, all she got was that. It was the greatest joke ever!

However, she met Mr. Bodyguard moments before her death. He was her only saving grace and he gently unlocked the shackles that she was tied to. He even committed a crime for her and gave her a chance at surviving.

"I'm your bodyguard, Missy. Of course I'd want you to live well."

She was so incompetent, selfish and unworthy. Yet, he treated her like a treasure and even gave up his life for her.

No one knew how deeply etched it was in her memory... Hence, after her rebirth, she started obsessing over him!

"Luo Zheng, give me that dagger. Be obedient!"

Bo Hancheng could sense that Luo Zheng's emotions were unstable and he reiterated his sentence.

After all, the blue poison had already entered her body and it should be taking effect.

It was her first time getting drugged and yet she was drugged with the Blue Vixen poison. He was well aware that Luo Zheng probably could not take it... especially now where she needed to be comforted and be free from agitation.

Hence, he simply tried to step forward and approach Luo Zheng.

However, he heard her murmuring softly, "Mr. Bodyguard, I won't let anything happen to you again! This time, let me be the one to protect you, alright?"

Mr. Bodyguard...

Bo Hancheng clenched his fists tightly with a menacing expression.

A Blue Poison relapse would cause one's innermost thoughts to surface. In other words... the thing she cared about most, would surface!

Mr. Bodyguard was undoubtedly the person she cared about the most!

As soon as he thought of it, a sudden change occurred.

Luo Zheng raised her hand and stabbed herself.

She stabbed her other arm!

Chapter 150: Zheng Wants To Take The Rap For Mr. Bodyguard...

Blood spurted out of her wound immediately.

There was a deep cut in her pale arm, which affected her beauty.

"Luo Zheng, you're out of your mind!"

Bo Hancheng's eyes turned gloomy and he stopped hesitating. Instead, he stepped forward and tried to snatch the dagger back.

Despite being overwhelmed with pain, Luo Zheng still insisted on holding onto the dagger before shunning and dodging from his hand... Perhaps because of the blue poison, her body was heating up rapidly as if something was spurring her on from within her.

Her mind turned blank and she grew giddy, almost losing her rationality.

Fortunately, the pain in her arm agitated her senses and she finally managed to sober up. "Brother Cheng... Listen to me... listen to me..."

Luo Zheng staggered forwards and swayed unsteadily, though she was still staring at him stubbornly.

Seeing this, Bo Hancheng hurriedly retracted his hand and grabbed hers. He questioned coldly, "What do you want to say? Speak, I'm listening."

He thought that Luo Zheng was hurting herself because of the blue poison that eroded her rationality.

To his surprise, Luo Zheng suddenly looked up and smiled radiantly when she saw the corpse on the ground. "Brother Cheng, even if we have to be embroiled in a murder case, you can't go to jail! So, this is the best solution..."

Initially, Chu Ci was still pondering about how he should solve the issue.

He gasped in shock when he saw Luo Zheng harming herself. At this moment... he suddenly understood something and his eyes were full of disbelief.

He thought, she definitely isn't acting. Seems like she has really given up on Xi Mubai and is now courting Third Brother.

"Brother Cheng, hurry and leave, I'll stay behind. When the police arrive later, I'll tell them that someone threatened me and tried to violate and kill me! So, he stabbed me during the scuffle and I accidentally killed him out of self-defense..."

Feeling a little drowsy, Luo Zheng paused for a few seconds before continuing, "According to the law, I would only be charged for justifiable homicide and that shouldn't warrant too heavy of a sentence. Besides, I'm underage, so I probably won't go to jail! Even if I do, the jail term wouldn't be too long. Besides, Grandpa will definitely help me. The Luo Family is one of the four richest families in Beijing and they might just release me..."

It turned out that she was harming herself because she wanted to create evidence!

She was doing all of that just to help him clear his name and be free of any crime. It was such a silly solution but... she was sincere, enthusiastic, and straightforward. How could he not care about her?

"This solution definitely works! How did I fail to think of that..." Chu Ci snapped his fingers, feeling enlightened all of a sudden.

As soon as he finished speaking, he felt a gloomy aura coming from Bo Hancheng who seemed just like a devil that was crawling out of hell, making him shiver.

Perhaps, he had no choice but to admit that Luo Zheng was completely different from what she used to be like in the past! Her solution sounded feasible but there was no need for her to do it herself!

She is either doing it on purpose to deliberately show Third Brother that she cares about him so that he will be touched and let her stay... or she really cares about Third Brother and said those words without consideration for herself.

In the past, he would definitely think that it was the former... but after seeing how she had taken the poison in place of Bo Hancheng, he felt that the latter was more possible!

However, Third Brother has just arrived in Beijing not too long ago and yet, Luo Zheng stopped loving Xi Mubai so quickly. Even if it were love at first sight, isn't it a little too quick?

"Luo Zheng, you're so silly! I don't need you to do that..."

At this moment, Bo Hancheng said coldly after some silence.

However, at this moment, he tugged the corner of his shirt to rip off a piece of it and wrapped it around Luo Zheng's bleeding arm... He then bent forward to pick her up steadily and gently.

Coincidentally, the car arrived in time and he carried her towards it.

However, when he walked past Chu Ci, he exclaimed heartlessly, "You shall handle the rest of the matters! Chu Ci, if you mess up again, it'll be the end of our cooperation..."
