

BO LOVE LIFE 161

Chapter 161: Luo Zheng, What Are You Crying For?

Xi Mubai laughed at himself at the instant that he dialed the number.

I must be possessed. How can I believe such an absurd thing!?!

“Beep...”

His heart shivered slightly when the call went through.

A soft and gentle female voice then filled his ears, as if it were all destined. “Who’s speaking?”

Xi Mubai’s heart wrenched up and he gripped his mobile phone tightly and tried to stop himself from losing control of his emotions. “Is your name... Mu Nianqing?” He said painstakingly, as if it took him all of his energy to say those words.

After a few seconds of silence, the female voice began to speak again. “Yes, my name is Mu Nianqing, do we know each other? Who are you...”

When she admitted that she was Mu Nianqing, Xi Mubai’s hands trembled and blood gushed through his veins. His mobile phone slipped out of his hand and fell onto the ground.

Xi Mubai fell into shock, and was unable to recover for a long time.

She asked intermittently, “Hey, are you still there? Sir, why are you looking for me...”

No one responded for a long time. Mu Nianqing then hung up, leaving a beeping sound in Xi Mubai’s ears, which echoed slightly in the ward.

After falling into her memory, Luo Zheng felt like she was constantly floating on the ocean like a boat. She finally reached the shore when she could not take it any longer.

The memories then stopped and all her emotions were placated.

“Ouch...”

Luo Zheng’s eyelashes fluttered and she muttered while her lips moved.

Her eyelids were heavy, and she took a long time to open them.

She was greeted with the sight of white walls and she raised her head to look around. The decor was simple and elegant, and she was being put on the drip.

Luo Zheng was so weak that she could not prop herself up at all. At this moment, she heard someone whispering into her ear, “She’s come to! Hurry and notify the doctor. Get him to come and check on her.”

Luo Zheng finally noticed the nurse who was standing in front of the bed. She took a deep breath and calmed herself down. Her mind was spinning and she tried to recall everything that happened beforehand.

At last, she recalled helping Bo Hancheng take Blue Vixen and grabbed the dagger that he used to kill that man... in order to not let him go to jail. She harmed herself and tried to take the rap for him. What happened after that?

Her head was throbbing in pain and she tried to recall the last scene of Bo Hancheng carrying her into the car... Her mind went blank and she was not clear about what happened, but she was certain that she must have been in a coma for a long time!

“Miss Luo, how are you feeling? You have been sedated and you went into deep sleep for two days, which is very worrying! Fortunately, you’ve come to. Is there anything you need?”

She was in the VIP ward of the best hospital. Since the nurse had been through strict training, her service was definitely top notch!

Is there anything I need?

Luo Zheng slowly began to regain her rationality and she suddenly called, “Brother Cheng...”

At the next moment, her face turned pale as she seemed to have suddenly thought of something.

Not bothered by the fact that her body was weak, Luo Zheng gritted her teeth and tried to prop herself up in a bid to get out of bed.

“Miss Luo, you’ve just come to and your body is still weak. You need to rest...”

Seeing this, the nurse stepped forth to remind her gently in a bid to help Luo Zheng lie down.

“Don’t stop me! I want Brother Cheng...”

The thought of the fact that Bo Hancheng might go to jail and repeat the tragedy of the previous life, the devil deep within Luo Zheng could not stop trying to break out of the shackles and the cage.

She shook the nurse off and reluctantly sat up while staggering forward.

At this moment, Luo Zheng lowered her head to look at her hand.

However, due to the fact that she was having an infusion, her actions caused the needle to become crooked and draw blood instead.

“Miss Luo, you are still on the drip, you can’t behave like this! What do you need? I’ll help you...”

The nurse was worried and wanted to stop Luo Zheng.

“Step aside...”

Luo Zheng pulled off the intravenous needle and got up to leave, ignoring the fact that she was bleeding.

She had overestimated herself in the end and began to feel her head spinning as soon as she stood up.

At last, Luo Zheng lost her balance and fell onto the ground.

Luo Zheng was overwhelmed with endless grievance, helplessness and fear. Unable to take it anymore, she covered her face with her hands and began wailing, sobbing and crying.

“Luo Zheng, what are you crying for?”

Chapter 162: Hugging Brother Cheng's Legs

Luo Zheng did not expect herself to be so weak that she could not even walk normally.

She had clearly decided previously, that she would take the rap for Mr. Bodyguard and yet... in the blink of an eye, she slipped into a coma for two days. She reckoned that the police may have already arrested Bo Hancheng and he might have been sentenced!

The more she thought about it, the more afraid and frightened she became. She suddenly felt useless for being unable to stop the tragedy from happening.

While on the verge of despair, she could not help but cry helplessly.

Hence, Luo Zheng did not notice that the door of the hospital ward had already been quietly opened by the slender man who slowly walked towards the bed.

“Luo Zheng, what are you crying for?”

It was just an ordinary sentence but it made Luo Zheng feel startled, as the familiar voice filled her ears.

All of a sudden, hope seemed to have blossomed within her like a flower, while she was feeling hopeless.

Luo Zheng raised her head in shock and met a pair of abyss-like eyes. He was just one step away from her and he looked handsome, cold and stunning. His gaze was breathtaking and she could not help but be conscientious.

“Brother Cheng, you didn't go to jail!”

Her eyes were full of tears and she suddenly burst into smiles which were extremely precious.

Bo Hancheng thought that if it were not for the genuine thoughts that she revealed during the drug relapse... he would have definitely been fooled and thought that she was smiling for him!

He might have really believed that he was the... only one in her heart.

Unfortunately, it was all false and she was just putting on an act!

“Do you want me to go to jail?” he questioned composedly.

Hope for him to go to jail? Of course not!

Luo Zheng was overjoyed and hence did not sense that something was amiss about him. She extended her arm forcefully and accurately hugged his thigh.

Although everyone was watching in shock and puzzlement, she did not seem to find anything wrong with the position that they were in... Not only did she fail to realize how awkward it is, she even looked up and smiled at him foolishly. “Brother Cheng, has the matter already been settled? You'll be fine, right...”

She really did seem like a pet who was anxious, worried and staring at him eagerly.

Bo Hancheng did not ignore her and instead answered calmly, "Yes."

He then paused and glanced at his thigh to see that she was hugging him so naturally, so much that his heart raced. "Let go..."

After hearing this, Luo Zheng snapped back to reality and realized that she was holding onto his thigh. She then looked at the nurses and doctors around her to see that they were staring at her peculiarly.

She smiled awkwardly and let go while feeling a little envious. Brother Cheng has got a really nice pair of legs!

Luo Zheng felt much more relieved after ensuring that he was fine. She was suddenly overwhelmed with pain that was present in her arms, head, abdomen and everywhere else!

Seeing that he was right in front of her, Luo Zheng extended her arms and said coquettishly, "Brother Cheng, I fell down because of you. Carry me!"

She thought that he would accept her since she had risked her life for him and proved herself to be genuine to him.

Yet, he stared at her coldly and ignored her request. Instead, he said to the nurse, "Help her up and give her a checkup." The nurse nodded politely and proceeded to help Luo Zheng.

Luo Zheng finally realized that there was something off about his behavior and emotions... though she was unsure if she was just being sensitive. She felt that he was extremely cold and distant towards her, and was even more aloof to her now than before she approached Scarface!

Their relationship did not improve and instead, he became colder.

Her presence was dispensable to him!

Feeling aggrieved, Luo Zheng shunned the nurse and said stubbornly like a child, "I want Brother Cheng to carry me. If Brother Cheng doesn't carry me, I won't get up!"

Chapter 163: Am I Really The One You Want To See?

The small threat that she issued was akin to that between a junior and an elder. She did not seem detestable at all.

The nurse was in a dilemma and had no choice but to glance at Bo Hancheng.

Bo Hancheng glanced at Luo Zheng for a long time before stepping forward.

Luo Zheng raised her chin in joy while humping in her heart.

She thought, I knew it, Mr. Bodyguard wouldn't ignore me!

At the next instant, Luo Zheng's face stiffened and she watched him bend forward. However, he did not carry her and instead grabbed the duvet on the bed.

While Luo Zheng was feeling bewildered, he threw the duvet over her head and covered her body.

By the time Luo Zheng reacted, she popped her head out and looked up at him angrily.

Staring at her calmly and coldly, he questioned, "You want to lie on the ground? Fine, I'll grant you your wishes. You shall lie on the ground!"

The way he behaved was largely similar to the way they used to interact with each other at the very beginning.

However, at that time, he did not know or trust her, and found her to be suspicious. Hence, she could understand his behavior... but why is he acting like this now? He clearly praised her for not letting him down, so why did their relationship become so distant all of a sudden!?!

Unable to understand the reason, Luo Zheng felt even more wronged. She said, "Brother Cheng, the ground is so cold and I'm severely ill. Can you really bear to see me get sicker?"

The nurse was a young girl and she could not help but be sympathetic towards Luo Zheng when she saw how pale, beautiful, soft, petite and adorable she was.

However, Bo Hancheng was just as indifferent as before. He said harshly, "You're the one who's throwing a fit, why wouldn't I bear to?"

No, there must be something wrong!

Luo Zheng was well aware that something must have happened halfway, but she could not figure it out yet.

She watched as he turned around and said to the doctor, "Give her a checkup and treat her with whatever you deem fit."

He was about to leave after giving those instructions.

At this time, Luo Zheng could not care about anything else and immediately got up from the ground. She staggered and chased after after him before hugging him tightly and exclaiming, "Brother Cheng, don't go, I shouldn't have thrown a tantrum or angered you! But it's not my fault. I've been sleeping for so long and I only fell onto the ground because I was eager to see you. Yet, you don't even want to carry me..."

Bo Hancheng lowered his head and stared at her fair arm that was around his waist. All of a sudden, his heart sank slightly.

At last, he placed his hand on top of hers and slowly pushed her hands away with force.

"Brother Cheng..."

"Luo Zheng, am I really the one you want to see?"

He interjected before standing up.

While Luo Zheng was feeling bewildered, he kept his eyes fixed onto her and questioned, "Or do you only treat me like a substitute?"

Luo Zheng was extremely confused and she noticed that his eyes were icy cold, so much that it made her heart palpitate. "Brother Cheng, what are you talking about? What substitute? You are the one I want to see!"

Bo Hancheng could not tell if her reactions were genuine.

Be it genuine or not, her behavior now was definitely way better than when she was suffering a relapse!

Bo Hancheng smirked derisively when he suddenly thought of something. He was really affected by her and she had disrupted his thoughts.

He thought, why does it matter to me who she has in her heart? Anyway, I only want her body and I'm not interested in finding out who she loves!

At this moment, he seemed to have heard something falling onto the ground all of a sudden.

Bo Hancheng looked down to see that blood was flowing out of the back of her hand because she had forcefully pulled the needle out of her hand, thus staining her fair skin.

The blood flowed down her hand and accumulated at her fingers like a small stream. It then dripped onto the ground like flowers blossoming!

Sensing what he was staring at, Luo Zheng looked in the direction of his gaze.

Did it hurt? Of course it did!

However, it was insignificant compared to Mr. Bodyguard!

Chapter 164: Brother Cheng, You're My Only Man

At the next moment, Luo Zheng smiled slyly before stretching her hand out pitifully and placing it in front of him so that he could see it clearly.

She then said miserably, "Brother Cheng, what should I do now? My hand is bleeding non-stop! It hurts..."

Now that I've played the beauty and sympathy card, I refuse to believe that Mr. Bodyguard wouldn't waver!

Bo Hancheng's eyes turned gloomy and he stared at Luo Zheng for a long time while her blood dripped onto the ground loudly.

Luo Zheng's wound made him feel sympathetic and he almost could not hold it any longer.

"Ah!"

Luo Zheng shrieked as he bent forward and picked her up all of a sudden.

Luo Zheng's heart jumped out of her chest and she frantically threw her arms around his neck. She smiled and said, "Brother Cheng, I knew you wouldn't ignore me!"

"Luo Zheng, don't be so smug and self-righteous!"

He answered coldly and strode back to the hospital bed, where he then put her down.

Luo Zheng somehow felt uneasy and hence laid sideways on the hospital bed, watching as he beckoned for the nurse to bring the first aid kit, after which he grabbed her hand and wiped the blood off of her hand. He then helped bandage her wound.

“It hurts... Brother Cheng, be gentler...”

Luo Zheng said deliberately.

She realized that he had paused in his actions. Although he did not say anything, he was clearly gentler with his movements and he obviously cared about her feelings.

She thought, it's a good sign, he still cares about me! Before too long, the wound was bandaged and the nurse took the first aid kit away.

Luo Zheng rolled her eyes and stared at Bo Hancheng who was right in front of her. His face was as gentle as jade and she could not help but feel tempted.

She stood up surprisingly and tried to kiss him.

“Mm...”

However, he raised his hand and pressed it against her mouth, causing her to end up kissing nothing. He warned, “Keep throwing a fit and I'll throw you out...”

Throw me out? Throw me out!?!

Luo Zheng was greatly startled and she could sense that he looked extremely stern. She knew he wasn't joking and hence, could not help but be dumbfounded.

So, can someone tell me what went wrong!?!

She smacked his palm away and protested, “I wasn't trying to throw a fit, I just wanted to kiss you, Brother Cheng!”

“Am I supposed to let you kiss me just because you want to? Hah... Luo Zheng, what do you take me for?”

Bo Hancheng retorted coldly.

Luo Zheng was dumbfounded and she wondered if she was hallucinating. She could not help but feel like he was full of resentment towards her.

“I take you as my man!”

She answered it calmly without hesitation to express her intentions.

“Your only man?”

Bo Hancheng asked derisively.

Luo Zheng nodded without hesitating and exclaimed, “Of course, Brother Cheng, you're my only man!”

Listening to Luo Zheng's answer, Bo Hancheng did not feel better and instead felt even more glum.

"Is your so-called only, referring to the past or the future?"

Bo Hancheng continued to ask, full of anger.

Greatly taken aback, Luo Zheng wondered, what does this mean?

In the past, she used to imagine Xi Mubai as her man but now, she was certain that Bo Hancheng was the only one... Luo Zheng gave it some thought and decided that she would leave with peace of mind if Bo Hancheng were to find someone he loves and marries her in the future.

In this life, she would stay away from love and marriage. She no longer needed to be tied down by emotions and relationships!

Hence, apart from Bo Hancheng, she would definitely not have any other men in the future, if nothing goes wrong!

"Brother Cheng, I definitely mean now! Believe me, you're the only man I have now. As for the future, who can be sure about that, don't you agree?"

Luo Zheng answered truthfully and answered after giving it some thought, thinking that her answer was correct.

To her surprise, his face grew increasingly sullen and gloomy.

What she meant was that she could not guarantee that she would not have another man in the future. Little liar, she really is a little liar. Nothing about her is genuine!

Chapter 165: B*tch, Compensate Me For My Leg!

"Brother Cheng, did I... say something wrong?"

Seeing that he was staring at her with a gloomy and sullen expression, Luo Zheng tried to clarify her doubts.

Bo Hancheng questioned derisively, "What do you think you said wrong?"

Luo Zheng was puzzled.

"Conduct the checkup..." Bo Hancheng instructed the doctor, not wanting to care about Luo Zheng anymore.

The doctor had been waiting for a long time. He immediately stepped forth with the medical equipment.

Luo Zheng's heart trembled and she thought hard about what went wrong while cooperating with the doctor who was giving her a checkup.

At this very moment, Chu Ci called and Bo Hancheng went outside to answer while feeling uneasy.

"Brother Cheng..."

"If she doesn't listen, just throw her out."

Luo Zheng was just about to call him but he left without looking back.

Just as Luo Zheng was in disbelief, he strode away.

Chu Ci called to talk to him about Scarface. Or rather, he called to tell him about Old K, the druglord Old K!

Earlier before, he was only feeling doubtful about Scarface's identity at the start and simply thought that he was extraordinary. However, he did not guess that Scarface was Old K... until he had a few face offs with him.

Back in Britain, Old K had never shown his face but they had dealt with each other before and hence, Bo Hancheng was familiar with his tricks... However, he did not expect Old K to flee to Beijing and create a false persona, Scarface, to continue hiding and fool everyone while going about his illegal activities.

Everyone thought that Scarface was just Old K's subordinate. Who would have guessed that he was Old K!?!

Two days ago, Old K fled in his helicopter and was nowhere to be found since then... There was definitely someone in Beijing who helped him with those arrangements but Bo Hancheng was unsure of who that person was!

Bo Hancheng left while Luo Zheng suppressed her impatience and cooperated with the doctor.

After a long time, the checkup was finally completed and the doctor prescribed her with plenty of medicine. The nurse then proceeded to collect the medicine and instructed Luo Zheng to be mindful because she might suffer a relapse anytime soon.

The mention of the relapse made Luo Zheng feel all squirmish and empty.

She had once been addicted to drugs and she was well aware that she ought not to think about it because the more she did, the more uneasy she felt. She would need a dose of drugs to relieve her urges.

Hence, she could not think about drugs and ought to think about something else, like... Mr. Bodyguard!

Luo Zheng could not help but be flustered as she thought about it. Ever since she regained her consciousness, her interaction with Bo Hancheng was terrible!

She had no idea what went wrong in the process and why he was giving her the cold shoulder. She tried to play coquettish, act cute and pitiful. However, none of those worked at all.

She could not figure out why he was so hard to please. She thought, he can just tell me what he's thinking. Why must he play the guessing game!?!

Men are so hard to understand. When will I ever figure it out!?!

"Why aren't you back yet? Who called you? Why do you have to talk for so long!?!"

Luo Zheng's body was recovering and she could now walk properly, unlike before.

Seeing that he was not replying to her, Luo Zheng could not help but let her imagination run wild. At last, she got out of bed because she could not tolerate it any longer.

“Miss Luo, you can’t run around. You need to get some rest! Mr. Bo instructed...”

“Did he tell you to throw me out if I don’t cooperate? In that case, just throw me out!”

It was evening time and the cold wind was blowing in the air. It looked like it was going to rain soon.

In Beijing, summer was mostly rainy.

She looked around to see that Bo Hancheng was nowhere in sight. When she glanced at a spot on the balcony, she stepped forward and leaned against the railing.

Ever since her rebirth, the only thing that she focused on was finding Bo Hancheng and repaying him for his kindness.

However, their relationship did not get better and he actually avoided me!

“Luo Zheng, you b*tch, compensate me for my leg!”

She suddenly heard a shrill voice coming from behind while she was focused on looking for Bo Hancheng.

Luo Zheng frowned and leaned against the railing. She turned around to see Xi Qianqian dashing towards her while seated in a wheelchair that was not too far away!

Luo Zheng began to get a huge headache.

Xi Qianqian, you’re definitely an idiot and a lunatic!

Chapter 166: Xi Qianqian Wants to Harm Zheng

She had no choice but to admit that the world was really small.

It was just her “luck” to have run into Xi Qianqian at the hospital!

Luo Zheng dodged to the side in order to avoid letting the crazy Xi Qianqian hit her.

Bang!

At the next instant, Xi Qianqian’s wheelchair slammed into the railing together with her legs.

Pain was written all over her face and she screamed loudly.

Seeing this, Luo Zheng smirked and thought to herself, I’ve never seen such a stupid woman who’d harm herself like this!

“Little b*tch, who said you could dodge? How dare you hide from me!”

Realizing that she was embarrassing herself, Xi Qianqian glowered at Luo Zheng like she was staring at her enemy whom she wanted to devour.

She thought about how she complained to Xi Mubai about it previously but he refused to help her at all... she could not help but feel indignant. Yet, in the blink of an eye, she ran into Luo Zheng here at the hospital!

Seeing that Luo Zheng was wearing the patient's uniform, she scanned her from head to toe to see that the latter was perfectly fine... unlike herself. Her leg was almost crippled. How could she feel fine!?!

"Xi Qianqian, you're severely ill! Am I supposed to let you hit me instead of dodging?"

Luo Zheng was feeling incredibly frustrated as she listened to Xi Qianqian's words. She burst into satirical laughter and immediately snapped sarcastically.

She then glanced at Xi Qianqian's leg and sneered, "Tsk, tsk, you want me to compensate you for your leg? You really think you're something, eh!?! Xi Qianqian, just like the old saying, your plans backfired and you ended up harming yourself while trying to harm others!"

"B*tch, it's you! You're the one who harmed me..." Xi Qianqian was infuriated to hear her snide remarks and she barked angrily.

"You keep calling me b*tch, don't you have something else to say? Or is your brain too underdeveloped for you to expand your vocabulary!?! Forget it, it's up to you to do what you want. I don't have time to entertain you..." Luo Zheng folded her arms and tried to leave after making that remark coldly.

Xi Qianqian was a spoiled brat who wanted the entire world to revolve around her!

"B*tch, hold it right there! If you don't stop, I'll tell my brother that you were the one who harmed me! Let's see if my brother will care about you when that happens..."

Xi Qianqian said that on purpose because she knew that Luo Zheng loved and admired Xi Mubai whom she thought was Luo Zheng's weakness.

Unfortunately, she forgot that her threat wouldn't work because if it were effective, Luo Zheng would have saved her in the underground gambling den!

So, some people really are so opinionated that they always think they're right!

Luo Zheng sneered and glowered at her. "Didn't you already tell him?"

She did not know Xi Qianqian inside out but she knew her quite well... To Xi Qianqian, losing mobility in her leg and being unable to dance for the rest of her life, was definitely terrible!

In addition, she was venting all her anger on Luo Zheng whom she detested greatly... under such circumstances, she had definitely already complained to Xi Mubai and wouldn't have to wait until now!

Xi Qianqian choked, not knowing how Luo Zheng knew that she had already told on her to her brother.

However, she was fuming with anger and when she looked at Luo Zheng acting all nonchalant, she gritted her teeth in exasperation and exclaimed, "Yes, I have told my brother! Just you wait and see, my brother will detest you to the core and ignore you forever..."

"Oh? That's great! We'll never get in touch again then. I... would kill for such a chance!"

While Xi Qianqian was in disbelief, Luo Zheng gibed slowly and was grinning widely.

Seeing this, Xi Qianqian could not help but be angry and jealous.

Not long ago, she had just seen Luo Zheng being all detestable and horrendous with her thick makeup... In the blink of an eye, she seemed to have become an entirely different person. She was incredibly gorgeous!

Thinking about it, Xi Qianqian glanced at the railing and had a menacing gaze in her eyes.

Luo Zheng was standing right by the railing that wasn't too high. As long as she gave Luo Zheng a little push, the latter would definitely fall over!

Chapter 167: Brother, She Wants To Harm Me And Push Me Down The Stairs

She thought, this is the second floor anyway, she's not going to fall to her death. We'll just treat it as a small lesson and a form of interest... Of course, if she is unlucky, she might end up becoming crippled. That'd be wonderful!

Xi Qianqian suddenly stood up and tried to bear with the pain in her leg before falling onto Luo Zheng.

"B*tch, go and die!"

Xi Qianqian barked coldly while placing her hands on Luo Zheng's body.

Luo Zheng's body was weak to begin with and she was caught off guard. Hence, she got pushed and lost her balance... all of a sudden, she fell backwards and hit her waist against the railing, almost falling off the building.

Fortunately, at the critical moment, Luo Zheng quickly reached out and grabbed the railing, barely maintaining her balance.

Seeing this Xi Qianqian tried to push her again because she was feeling indignant that her plan had not worked.

Luo Zheng's eyes turned icy cold and she seemed to have suddenly thought of something. She then raised her leg and kicked Xi Qianqian's leg forcefully.

She kicked Xi Qianqian's leg, right on the spot where she got shot.

"Hey... my leg! My leg..."

At the next moment, Xi Qianqian screamed and she was overwhelmed with excruciating pain that caused her to fall onto the ground.

Luo Zheng's face was as cold as ice and when she regained her balance, she bent forward and grabbed Xi Qianqian's hair. "Xi Qianqian, you're out of your mind!"

Although they were on the second floor and Luo Zheng might not die if she fell, wouldn't it be extremely dangerous if she were to fall on her head?

In the end, she got a fresh impression of Xi Qianqian. In the past, she used to think that she was just a spoiled brat and never knew that Xi Qianqian was that vicious!

“You b*tch... why my leg is ruined... while nothing happens to you at all... I won't let you off...”

Xi Qianqian's face twisted into a grimace because of how much pain she was in. However, she nonetheless barked angrily.

“You're not going to let me off? Xi Qianqian, who do you think you are? What rights have you got to say that!?!” Luo Zheng sneered.

Is she trying to harm me just because I didn't save her in the underground gambling den?

She greatly detested the Xi Family and was pleased to see her getting her retribution... Even if it were a stranger, she wouldn't save her at all since she could barely save herself.

She was not a Saint and would never be a Saint!

She was shot in the leg but she was the one who brought it all upon herself. Does she really not know?

Besides, she should be the one confronting Xi Qianqian instead.

In her previous life, Xi Qianqian owed her plenty of things and she had yet to ask her to pay for it. Yet, Xi Qianqian attacked her!

“Stop! Who are you? Let go of my Qianqian...”

At this moment, a middle-aged woman yelled frantically.

She then scurried towards them.

Luo Zheng turned to the side and an icy cold gaze formed in her eyes.

The middle-aged woman was Mrs. Xi!

Without a doubt, Xi Mubai was following her.

However, Xi Mubai was not staring at Xi Qianqian. Instead, he kept his eyes fixed on Luo Zheng and he was completely bewildered.

Great, the Xi Family members were gathering together, except Mr. Xi!

Glancing at Mrs. Xi, Luo Zheng shrugged Xi Qianqian away and stood by the side coldly.

Mrs. Xi helped Xi Qianqian back onto her wheelchair and asked concernedly, “Qianqian, are you alright? Qianqian...”

Xi Qianqian first took a glance at Mrs. Xi before noticing that her brother was walking towards her. Her eyes then lit up.

At the next moment, tears ran down her pale face. “Mother, I'm so scared! Luo Zheng... she wants... she wants to hurt me...”

She then grabbed Xi Mubai's shirt and said, “Brother, you must do me justice! I was just asking why she didn't save me and caused me to get shot... she flew into a rage and tried to push me down...”

Suddenly reminded of something when she heard Luo Zheng's name, she looked up and glowered at him. "You're Luo Zheng? You're so young and yet so vicious! Little vixen, haven't you harmed my children enough!?!"

Chapter 168: Mrs. Xi Calls The Police And Wants Zheng To Go To Jail!

Tsk, tsk, like mother like daughter, indeed!

Luo Zheng had interacted with Mrs. Xi before, of course.

Well, in her previous life, Mrs. Xi was her mother-in-law!

At that time, the Xi Family wanted to make a comeback after going bankrupt and Xi Mubai agreed to the engagement with Luo Zheng.

Although the Mu Family duped her of her mother's shares, Old Mr. Luo was still willing to give the Xi Family some help, on Luo Zheng's account.

However, even then, Mrs. Xi was still very disgusted with her. She felt that her son was extremely outstanding and that Luo Zheng was not worthy of him at all... Hence, Luo Zheng had to bear with the suffering in order to please her future mother-in-law. Whenever she had a bit of money, she would give them all to her mother-in-law.

Mrs. Xi, together with Xi Qianqian, were both used to living a life of luxury and even though they had gone bankrupt, they still spent lavishly.

When she gave money to them, they would force a smile but whenever she did not give them any money, they would start picking on her!

The more Luo Zheng thought about her past, the more she felt like she was retarded.

Suppressing her emotions, Luo Zheng glowered at Mrs. Xi before glancing at Xi Mubai. "Xi Qianqian, do you know that defamation and deliberate murder are both crimes!?!"

Luo Zheng's tone was calm and it was as if she were just talking about something as simple as the weather.

Xi Qianqian's expression changed and she continued to complain, "Brother, help me teach her a lesson! This b*tch has been trying to kill me again and again. She doesn't deserve to fancy you..."

Xi Mubai listened and he had no idea what was going on.

He had always loved and doted on his younger sister. Hence, he should have come forth without hesitation!

However, when he thought of the fact that he had even dialed the number in his dream and the person who picked up admitted that she was Mu Nianqing... he suddenly found everything to be really absurd and his mind was in a whirlwind. He couldn't figure it out!

He casually made eye contact with her and she looked at him derisively, causing him to hold his breath.

Luo Zheng was clad in a patient's uniform, looking thin, frail and gaunt. Her chin looked rather sharp and her face was pretty and clean, making her look rather pitiful.

She was arrogant, confident and calm; a stark contrast to what she was like in the dream.

No, she was different just two weeks ago.

In the past year, she was still pursuing him enthusiastically like in his dream.

Just half a month ago, she suddenly changed and stopped admiring him. Instead... she started going against him!

He thought about how she had cried desperately in his dream, to the point where it was heartbreaking. He too had ignored her.

All of a sudden, Xi Mubai felt his heart becoming empty and he was overwhelmed with pain, as if he had lost something.

"Mother, look at Brother, he doesn't want to help me at all! I'm his sister and the b*tch almost killed me. How can he do this!?!"

Xi Qianqian was in complete disbelief that her brother was so indifferent.

However, her brother was the only one who could deal with Luo Zheng since the latter loved him greatly!

"Mubai, you... "

Mrs. Xi stared at her son and was just about to say something.

She suddenly thought about how Xi Mubai had been calling Luo Zheng's name while being comatose the past two days... her heart sank and she scanned Luo Zheng from head to toe. She thought, she's just a b*tch who's detestable!

She would never accept such a vicious girl as her daughter-in-law!

"Qianqian, don't be afraid! Since she wanted to harm you, we won't let her off easily! I'll call the police now and get them to come over and arrest her.... "

Mrs. Xi then whipped out her mobile phone and tried to call the police.

Seeing this, Xi Qianqian was hesitant and wanted to stop her mother. "Mother, why don't we wait a while!?! Let my brother teach her a lesson and get her to apologize to me. I can be magnanimous and forgive her for everything that she had done previously..."

"Ah!"

Luo Zheng sneered and wished she could give her an applause!

Call the police? Great idea!

"Little vixen, you're about to face your doom and yet, you still have the cheek to laugh! Don't think I don't know that you're relying on the Luo Family to support yourself. I'm telling you, the Xi Family is not afraid of the Luo Family at all. This concerns a life. Even if the Luo Family intervenes, the matter will not rest! You've hurt my daughter so badly, and you even wanted to push her down. If I don't put you behind bars, you won't know how formidable I am... "

Chapter 169: Mother, No...

Mrs. Xi sounded confident and haughty while staring at Luo Zheng with a threatening gaze that was full of disdain and menace.

In response, Luo Zheng simply folded her arms and agreed with a smile, "Well, I'll wait for you to report this to the police! I'd also like to know what the jail term would be for deliberate murder!"

"You little vixen, you think I'm kidding, aren't you? Just you wait and see. The police will be here soon!"

Mrs. Xi lost her rationality after facing Luo Zheng's retort. She grabbed her mobile phone and tried to dial the numbers.

"Beep... "

Seeing that the call was about to be connected, Xi Qianqian looked extremely anxious while seated in the wheelchair.

She was desperate to put Luo Zheng behind bars but when she saw how confident Luo Zheng was... she thought about the fact that there might be some complications cropping up and hence, could not help but be worried!

However, at this moment, she looked at the smirk on Luo Zheng's face and said, "This is the best hospital in Beijing. There must be surveillance cameras everywhere! After all, in case some patients are mentally unsound and end up harming others, they would be able to provide evidence! That would come in handy when someone acts like a mad dog and tries to twist facts... "

Luo Zheng continued smilingly, "So, once the police arrive, we shall get hold of the surveillance camera footage to find out the truth. This is a crime! With concrete evidence, she'd definitely go to jail!"

Xi Qianqian grew increasingly terrified with every word she said. At last, she turned pale in embarrassment.

In fact, she no longer cared about Luo Zheng's insults, for she was constantly thinking about the surveillance camera footage... no wonder Luo Zheng is so dauntless. Turns out she has a counterattack!

However, at this moment, the call went through and Mrs. Xi asked arrogantly, "Is this the police? I want to make a police report!"

"Mother, you can't make a police report... "

Xi Qianqian yelled in a shrill voice that was almost deafening.

Mrs. Xi got a great shock and was about to look at her daughter. However, Xi Qianqian had already grabbed her mobile and was yelling, "Do not call the police!"

As soon as she finished, she slammed the mobile phone onto the ground to cut off the call.

Upon seeing this, Mrs. Xi asked in bewilderment, “Qianqian, what are you doing? This little vixen has bewitched your brother and wants to kill you! You can’t give in...”

She was about to pick up the phone, but Xi Qianqian grabbed her arm to stop her.

Luo Zheng burst into laughter after hearing her mother’s words. She nodded frantically and exclaimed, “Yes, yes, yes, you mustn’t give in! Call the police, hurry and call the police. I’d like to see who the police are going to arrest when they’re here!”

Mrs. Xi’s heart sank and she was just about to lash out at Luo Zheng. However, she seemed to have understood something when she saw how pale her daughter was.

Glaring at Luo Zheng coldly, she hollered with menace, “Little vixen, are you threatening my daughter!?!”

Luo Zheng raised her chin high and questioned with a look of bewilderment, “Threaten? What can I threaten her with!?! Why don’t you ask your obedient daughter what she has done wrong?”

She then tilted her head and pretended to be innocent. “Well, I’m not trying to chide you but Auntie, don’t you know what your daughter’s personality is like? Or is it that you’ll never blame your daughter even if she kills someone? Is the victim to be blamed instead of your daughter!?!”

As soon as she made this remark, Mrs. Xi’s face stiffened and she suddenly recovered from the shock.

Looking down at her daughter with a complicated expression, she asked, “Qianqian, what does she mean? Didn’t you say that she wanted to push you down...”

Chapter 170: Shaming Herself

At this juncture, she noticed how guilty her daughter looked and how dauntless Luo Zheng was. Her heart wrenched up.

After all, she was not stupid, and knew her daughter well. What else was there to be confused about? Xi Qianqian was accusing Luo Zheng for what she was doing to the latter!

Mrs. Xi’s face and neck suddenly turned hot and red.

Her skin was tingling with pain, as if she had been slapped!

“Hey, why aren’t you guys saying anything?”

Luo Zheng smiled and glanced at the pair of mother and daughter.

She then strode forwards and bent forward to pick up her mobile phone. She then handed it to Mrs. Xi and asked, “Aren’t you eager about calling the police? Go ahead and do it!”

Mrs. Xi looked at her mobile phone and turned pale. Her expression was continuously changing like a Beijing opera actor.

At this very moment, her mobile phone began to ring and the digits "110" were shown on the caller display. Clearly, the police were calling again to make clarifications because the call was disrupted earlier on.

"Ah, the police called just in time. If you don't wish to make a report, why don't I do it for you..."

Before she could even finish speaking, Mrs. Xi snatched the mobile phone and frantically answered the call with a mirthless smile, "Sir, I dialed the number by accident, I'm really sorry! It's just a trivial matter, I don't need your help. I really don't..."

Finally, after dealing with the police, Mrs. Xi ended the call and took a deep breath.

She then glanced at Luo Zheng indignantly and hollered, "This time, I will spare you once on the account of Old Mr. Luo! Besides, my Qianqian is soft-hearted and does not want to stoop to your level and hold it against you. You'd better know your limits..."

After she finished speaking, she pretended to be magnanimous and left while nudging Xi Qianqian along.

Luo Zheng's eyes glistened with an icy cold gaze.

Trying to leave? Not so easy!

She cocked her head sideways to look at Xi Mubai, finding it a little interesting.

Right from the start, Xi Mubai acted like he was an outsider who was watching the events unfold without expressing his opinion at all.

Tsk, tsk, this isn't like him at all! He's supposed to be spoiling his sister!

In reality, Xi Mubai was indeed uneasy, not because of his mother or sister, but because of Luo Zheng!

He was watching Luo Zheng being all calm and smiling beautifully with confidence and pride... At the same time, in contrast with the dream, there was no lewd video of her and she did not become the subject of criticism.

In the dream, she squatted on the ground and wailed helplessly.

Brother Mubai... Brother Mubai... Brother Mubai.

She kept calling him over and over again, getting louder and louder each time. Xi Mubai placed a hand on his chest and felt a sudden chill down his spine.

This should not be the case, this shouldn't be reality!

It was not someone else, but Luo Zheng, the man-obsessed dimwit whom he hated the most. She was stupid and retarded... while he was Xi Mubai, the prestigious and prideful man who would never be with someone like Luo Zheng!

"Hold it right there..."

At this moment, Luo Zheng ignored Xi Mubai and simply stopped smiling while yelling at Mrs. Xi and her daughter.

Mrs. Xi and Xi Qianqian turned around to meet her icy cold eyes. "Spare me once? Hah, thick-skinned people like you are rare! Who are you to spare me? What rights have you got to do so!?!"

Luo Zheng then stepped forward and continued calmly, "Are you guys giving up on calling the police? Great, I'll do it for you! I'd like to sue someone for deliberate murder. Although she failed... she'd definitely be jailed for attempting to do so. I'll see you in court!"

As soon as she finished speaking, Mrs. Xi's and Xi Qianqian's bodies froze and Xi Qianqian was the first to react. "Luo Zheng, how dare you!"

"Of course I'd dare to! Who made you think... that I wouldn't dare to do it?"
