

BO LOVE LIFE 191

Chapter 191: Save Me, Save Me...

Luo Zheng naturally had no idea what he was thinking about and all she could do was kick her legs in the air and murmur between sobs, "Yes... I don't want you... Bo Hancheng... Go away... I don't want you..." She continually repeated this and struggled while moving her tender body about violently in a bid to break free from his restraint.

Unfortunately, her legs were too thin and he could easily grab them with one hand... He then forcefully pulled her legs apart.

Luo Zheng was weak after all and could not retaliate at all with her legs wrapped around his waist. She had no choice but to yell, "Bo Hancheng, weren't you asking me if I'm regretting it? Yes, I'm telling you that I regret it! Let go of me, I'm going back on my word about becoming your woman..."

"Hah, you're going back on your word? Whose woman do you want to be then!?!"

Bo Hancheng's patience was growing thin and he continuously tightened his grip on Luo Zheng's leg.

Overwhelmed with pain, Luo Zheng frowned and felt inexplicably aggrieved.

She had clearly been sparing a thought for him right from the start... Yet, not only did he end up humiliating her, he even got so rough with her. How detestable!

If he was not her Mr. Bodyguard, would she have really allowed herself to be a pushover in front of him!?!

"It's my freedom to be who I want to be. Anyway, I just don't want to be your woman! Jerk, all you do is bully me..." Luo Zheng was like a wild kitten as she struggled with all her might while panting heavily in exhaustion.

"You're going back on your word because of Xi Mubai, aren't you?" Bo Hancheng's voice was clear and his tone was firm while he asked the rhetorical question.

Luo Zheng was stunned and her face was stained with tears. However, she felt extremely conflicted... Damn it, what does he mean? Why does he have to get Xi Mubai involved!?!

Just as she was thinking about it, the door of the ward was slowly pushed open.

The female nurse reminded her while holding onto the medicine, "Miss Luo, it's time for you to take your medicine..." Before she could even finish speaking, she stood rooted to the ground in shock because of the scene in front of her.

Luo Zheng's legs were bare and wrapped around his waist.

He was still properly dressed but the position that they were in, seemed rather suggestive... as if they were in the midst of an intimate session. A mere glance would be enough to make one's turn shy and embarrassed.

Bo Hancheng tugged the blanket over Luo Zheng to shield her while ordering the nurse to leave.

Fortunately, the nurse was female too. Otherwise, Bo Hancheng would definitely do more than just get her to leave after she walked in on them.

Although Bo Hancheng was covering Luo Zheng’s body and preventing anyone else from seeing her, he still wouldn’t tolerate it.

The nurse got a great shock and frantically turned around to leave.

However, Luo Zheng stuck her head out of the blanket and flailed her arms in the air. “Nurse, don’t leave! Save me, save me, he’s bullying me...”

The nurse was taken aback and suddenly stopped walking, feeling hesitant.

“Scram!”

Bo Hancheng hollered with a sullen expression and frighteningly gloomy eyes.

Luo Zheng’s heart seemed to have stopped beating. She thought of asking help because she reckoned that he would definitely hold himself back with the nurse around... She dared not imagine what would happen next if they were left alone!

“Don’t leave... Ah!”

Luo Zheng was just about to make the nurse stay but Bo Hancheng suddenly turned over and whispered into her ear, “Hah, how do you want her to save you? By calling the police?”

Coincidentally, the nurse thought about this too and hence asked anxiously, “Miss Luo, do you need me to call the police?”

Chapter 192: Brother Cheng Gives In Out Of Sympathy

Call the police!?!

Luo Zheng’s mind went blank because she did not think of it.

However, at this moment, he murmured like a devil, “Go ahead, let her call the police! As soon as the police come, I’ll be charged for sexual assault, oh and... whatever happened before! These charges will warrant a jail term of 30 to 50 years, or perhaps... a life sentence! Little imp, you’re really ruthless...”

Upon hearing this, Luo Zheng panicked as horror was written all over her pale face... but this time, she was scared for Bo Hancheng and not herself!

“Is this what you want?” He questioned while chuckling in a derisive manner.

Luo Zheng frantically shook her head without hesitation and threw her arms around his neck to hold him tightly. “No, that’s not what I want! Brother Cheng, don’t get the wrong idea...”

The thought of the scenario Bo Hancheng described made Luo Zheng instinctively want to protect him at all costs. The tragedy of her previous life must never happen again. She will not allow him to be harmed!

“Miss Luo, are you alright?” the female nurse asked worriedly.

However, she couldn't step forward since Luo Zheng and Bo Hancheng were in a suggestive position.

“Sis Nurse, please don't call the police! Please don't...” Luo Zheng quickly stopped her.

Shocked to hear her words, the nurse repeated, “Miss Luo, are you sure... you don't need me to call the police?”

“I'm sure I don't need the police. I really don't need you to! He he he ... he is my boyfriend! Yes, we just had a tiff and I said that on purpose in a moment of anger...” Luo Zheng quickly explained to change the nurse's mind while he stared at her with a smirk.

She then continued apologetically, “Miss, I'm so sorry to have almost troubled you! I'm alright now, you may go out...”

The nurse had no choice but to leave with the medicine while feeling shocked, after confirming that Luo Zheng wasn't lying. She finally regained her rationality after leaving the hospital ward.

She suddenly realized that the man inside was the prestigious Mr. Bo whom the director of the hospital had instructed them to treat with respect.

She then remembered that he had been staying by Luo Zheng's side when she was unconscious, and reckoned that their relationship was beyond ordinary.

The nurse was certain that they were just having a tiff after giving it some thought. Staring at the medicine in her hand, she reckoned that she would have to send it to Luo Zheng at a later time!

After getting her only lifeline to leave, Luo Zheng realized that she was all alone with no one to help her.

She raised her head fearfully and held his clear gaze.

She could not understand if it was just her hallucination. Compared to just now, he was much less intimidating... it was as if he had become less menacing in the blink of an eye and was slowly returning to his normal self.

In reality, Bo Hancheng was deliberately making it sound more serious than it really was because he wanted to see Luo Zheng's reaction.

He was still rather satisfied with Luo Zheng's reaction in the end and felt a little less displeased. He actually wanted to teach her a lesson.

“Little imp, we'll continue to settle the scores, alright?” Bo Hancheng lowered his head and pressed it against the tip of Luo Zheng's nose.

However, the weak and feeble Luo Zheng was filled with discomfort because of the shock. She immediately shivered uncontrollably and curled up into a ball. “Don't do this...”

“We haven't even started and you already can't take it? How can that be...” Bo Hancheng looked down at her.

He was overwhelmed with the urge to make her his!

He glanced at her tender lips that were stained with some blood, finding them to be extremely attractive and alluring. Maybe I shouldn't be so strict, stern and harsh with her.

She's still a child after all.

Somehow, Bo Hancheng sighed and continued to hover over her while gently touching her lips.

However, this time, he actually kissed her properly and licked her wounds tenderly with care.

Luo Zheng was a little confused but she could not help but widen her eyes in shock. She glanced at him, unsure of what was going on.

However, she was still a little terrified of him and wanted to look away.

"No... I don't want you..."

Chapter 193: Fainted

Their lips were closely pressed together and Luo Zheng struggled constantly while whimpering and trying to speak incoherently.

Unfortunately, he did not back away and instead pressed his hand against the back of her head to make her touch him! On top of that, he even moved his large palm upwards.

"Ah..."

Luo Zheng was filled with an inexplicable thrill that made her moan in pleasure. The tension in the air and his masculinity made her find it hard to breathe.

Unable to take it any longer, Luo Zheng's mind turned pale and she blacked out before finally losing her consciousness. At the next moment, she closed her eyes and passed out.

Bo Hancheng noticed that Luo Zheng had closed her eyes but he didn't think much of it until he realized that something was amiss a few seconds later.

"Luo Zheng..."

He stopped kissing her and gently patted her face in a bid to wake her up because he thought that she was feigning ignorance. However, his heart sank because he did not get any response.

After taking a closer look, he realized that her face was extremely pale and a little moist while her entire body was covered in cold sweat!

For the first time in his life, Bo Hancheng regretted his decision.

He clearly knew that her body was still weak because of the blue poison and yet, he still decided to do that to her at this juncture. Fortunately... he didn't actually do it. Otherwise, she would have definitely been severely injured!

At that instant, his lust and desires completely vanished.

He hurriedly helped Luo Zheng change into her patient's uniform, pulled the duvet over her and called for the doctor to come forth immediately.

The doctor anxiously rushed to the ward and carefully performed a physical examination on Luo Zheng's body before clearing his voice and answering, "Mr. Bo, Miss Luo's body is still very frail now and she can't be too emotionally agitated. It's best that she lies down and gets some rest."

Bo Hancheng's face turned as dark as ink and he added, "Why did she pass out all of a sudden?"

"Miss Luo passed out mostly because she was deprived of oxygen due to sudden breathing difficulties." The doctor glanced at Luo Zheng's lips while answering.

As an experienced person, he could not help but feel shy and awkward because he could already guess the reason for her symptoms.

He was a little shocked too.

He thought, Tsk, tsk, I really couldn't tell that Mr. Bo who always looks so stern and asexual on the surface... would actually be so thirsty in reality. That little girl is so weak. How can she take it?

Bo Hancheng's face was composed and his eyes were a little gloomy.

After hearing the doctor's explanation, he thought about what happened in real life.

The answer was obvious. Luo Zheng was too weak and hence passed out when he was kissing her... It seems that he had to train her and increase her physical fitness once she kicked the drug addiction.

That would ensure that he wouldn't have to worry about her passing out when they kiss again in the future.

"On top of that, Miss Luo might suffer a drug relapse anytime. In order to prevent her condition from worsening, try not to let her engage in any... strenuous activity!"

In order to ensure that Luo Zheng would be alright, the doctor conscientiously reminded Bo Hancheng about it, in a bid to gain his understanding.

Adults ought to know what he meant by strenuous activity!

Upon hearing his words, an awkward expression formed on Bo Hancheng's face and his ears turned red, hinting for the doctor to leave.

Seeing that he had understood his instructions, the doctor left politely and instructed the nurse to enter and feed Luo Zheng some medicine.

The nurse who entered was the very same female nurse who came in just now. Due to the fact that Luo Zheng had fainted, the doctor decided to administer her with syrup instead so as to make it easier for her to ingest it.

However, as soon as she scooped some medicine with a spoon and moved it to Luo Zheng's lips,

Luo Zheng, who was in a daze, seemed to have dreamed about something as she frantically flailed her hands about, almost spilling the medicine.

She then muttered in a clear voice, "Don't go... Mr. Bodyguard... I don't want you to die..."

Chapter 194: Bo Hancheng ... I only Care About You... You're Not Allowed To Ignore Me...

While murmuring, Luo Zheng was still twisting and wriggling her body about uneasily, almost falling off the bed. That made Bo Hancheng feel chilly all of a sudden as an icy cold gaze formed in his eyes.

Seeing this, the female nurse shivered and tried to feed Luo Zheng some medicine but to no avail. She had no choice but to say carefully, "Mr. Bo, Miss Luo might be suffering a drug relapse. She needs to take the medicine as soon as possible! However, I can't feed her at all..."

Bo Hancheng frowned and walked towards the bed.

He looked down at Luo Zheng from above while the latter flailed her arms about and muttered, "I'm sorry... Mr. Bodyguard... I'm really sorry..." A teardrop then rolled down her cheek and her pale face looked extremely pitiful.

"Hah, Luo Zheng, great, well done!" Bo Hancheng smirked and said derisively.

When she was poisoned, she clamored about Xi Mubai. Now that she is going through a relapse, she was thinking of Mr. Bodyguard... I really wonder how many people there are in her heart!

He reckoned that his decision was wrong. Keeping her around would only bring about trouble and disturbance to his peace!

All of a sudden, Bo Hancheng turned around to leave and ignored Luo Zheng.

However, a scene flashed through his mind and he was reminded that she was poisoned because she wanted to protect him after all.

He decided that he ought to take up the responsibility and help Luo Zheng kick the addiction.

After that, they would cut off all ties with each other and never contact each other again!

At the thought of this, Bo Hancheng turned around and walked towards the bed. While the nurse was watching in bewilderment, he grabbed the bowl of medicine from her.

He first drank a spoonful of medicine before leaning forward to press his lips against hers and pry them open in order to feed it to her slowly.

Coughs

Luo Zheng frowned and extended her arms in a bid to push him away but to no avail.

He then continued to feed her the medicine using his mouth. After he was done, he put the bowl down and turned around to leave.

Luo Zheng immediately grabbed his hand and muttered, "Brother Cheng..."

He initially thought that she was referring to Mr. Bodyguard... but to his surprise, she actually called out 'Brother Cheng' which was him!

Bo Hancheng's heart quivered and he turned around to look at her.

“Bo Hancheng... you’re the only one I care about... You’re not allowed to ignore me...” She muttered, sounding a little self-righteous and smug at the same time. It was as if she were a queen giving out orders.

Soon, her lips quivered and she fell silent.

Bo Hancheng could not help but fall silent after hearing this.

Right from the start, she had an agenda for getting close to him... Initially, he was nonchalant and thought that he wouldn’t care.

Bit by bit, she barged into his world and he could no longer ignore her!

He only had two options – to chase her away or keep her around.

He then stared at her palm that was on his.

Her hand was extremely tiny and could be easily covered by his own.

Hah, should I be feeling thankful?

Turns out, I still have a place in her dreams!

Unfortunately, he was behind Xi Mubai and Mr. Bodyguard, and hence, he felt dispensable... but even then, he still could not help but feel overjoyed.

Why should I be happy? What’s there to be happy about!?!

She even said that I’m the only one she cares about... In that case, why am I not the only one in her heart? Seems like she’s just making use of me!

No one can use me, not even... Luo Zheng!

“Little liar!”

Bo Hancheng exclaimed coldly.

All of a sudden, he realized that he was acting out of the ordinary and could not help but feel annoyed because he thought that he ought not to waste too much time and effort on Luo Zheng!

He mercilessly pushed her hand away with force and stuffed it back beneath the blanket.

He then turned around and left the ward without stopping this time.

...

Chapter 195: Is Mu Nianqing His Savior?

At 8:30 in the evening, Xi Mubai arrived at “Star Path” modeling agency.

The person whom he was there to see was none other than Mu Nianqing. The strange dream that overlapped with reality made him feel a strong urge to find out the truth and verify in person, if it was just a coincidence and not reality!

He had someone investigate Mu Nianqing in private, after which he found out that Mu Nianqing was a part-time model who had just clinched a contract with Star Path Modeling agency.

He gazed at the backstage from afar to see that there were numerous girls practicing their catwalk. He did not step forward immediately and simply whipped out his mobile phone to dial the number that he dreamed of.

He saw the mobile phone ringing, followed by a girl who walked forward to answer the call.

“Hello, who’s speaking?” Mu Nianqing asked softly in a mellow tone.

She had received a call from the same number and called them back in the afternoon. Since the person knew her name, she reckoned that it should be someone she was familiar with!

Ever since that night where Luo Zheng replaced her and went to the underground gambling den, she had been feeling anxious and uneasy... She knew that Bo Hancheng had clearly just arrived in Beijing and hence, she could not figure out when he got to know Luo Zheng.

Most importantly, the two of them seemed to share an intimate relationship!

However, to Bo Hancheng, she was just like a lowly person sent by Madam Bo, to be his partner in bed... So, she couldn’t pry or probe into his matters and could only find another opportunity to get close to Bo Hancheng.

On the other hand, she wanted to get to know Luo Zheng, her step sister sooner... Fortunately, Luo Zheng is a dimwit and would easily spill the beans about everything! She thought.

Bo Hancheng, my Third Young Master Bo. How could a man-obsessed fool like her harbor designs on a perfect man like him? However, the most important thing to do now was to strengthen her foundation and climb the ladder.

Chu Ci was the one who set up Star Path Modeling Agency and hence, it was obvious that he was trying to groom her. She decided to seize the opportunity and did not slack off at all. She decided that making a name for herself would be the only way she could deserve to be with Bo Hancheng!

“Hello, Miss Mu, my name is Xi Mubai and I have something to ask of you.” Xi Mubai ended the call and walked towards Mu Nianqing.

As he approached Mu Nianqing, he realized that she looked exactly the same as the girl in his dreams... Before this, he was certain that he had never met her before.

Yet, she looked exactly like that girl he dreamed of. How could he not be shocked?

“Xi Mubai?” Mu Nianqing found his name to be a little familiar.

At the next moment, she suddenly realized something.

The Xi family was one of the four major families in Beijing, while Xi Mubai was the one and only son of the Xi Family. He was Young Master Xi... She did not pay much attention to the four families and hence, took a while to realize this.

Isn’t Xi Mubai my stepsister’s crush?

“Mr. Xi, I don’t think we know each other, but why are you looking for me?” Mu Nianqing recovered from the shock and asked.

“Is your name really... Mu Nianqing?”

She did not expect Xi Mubai to ask such a question. Even at this moment, he still found it to be incredible and way too absurd!

“My name is Mu Nianqing! So am I not the person you’re looking for, Mr. Xi?”

Mu Nianqing felt rather peculiar about the fact that he had to verify if she was Mu Nianqing. She wondered if he was looking for someone else with the same name.

After all, he was the Young Master of one of the four major families and getting herself associated with him would be advantageous... Mu Nianqing decided that she had to get acquainted with him and become his close friend even if he was looking for someone else!

Xi Mubai suppressed his complicated feelings and exclaimed coldly, “No, you’re the person I’m looking for!”

Chapter 196: Xi Mubai’s Life Savior “Luo Luo”

If the dream is true, could it be that Mu Nianqing is the life savior I had been searching hard for?

“In this case, why don’t we go upstairs and talk?” Mu Nianqing said mellowly, gesturing for him to follow her upstairs.

Seeing the people around him, he thought that it was indeed not an appropriate place to talk. Xi Mubai did not turn her down and hence, followed her upstairs and entered the room while everyone gawked curiously.

Chu Ci’s modeling agency was very generous to its artists, and would arrange for them to have proper lodging and meals. Mu Nianqing stayed in that room that was decorated warmly and seemed rather comfortable.

Xi Mubai looked around and took the teacup from Mu Nianqing. “He smiled warmly and asked, “Miss Mu, you let me in without hesitation. Aren’t you worried that I might be a crook?”

“Mr. Xi, you’re the Young Master of the Xi Family and I’m just an insignificant model. I don’t think you’d be of any harm to me.” Mu Nianqing smiled quietly and expressed her knowledge of his identity.

Xi Mubai was slightly stunned to hear that she knew who he was.

“Actually, if I didn’t study abroad, I would have been admitted to Capital University too. Young Master Xi, you’d be my senior! Capital University is very famous, and you’re popular in school too, so I’d of course, know who you are. It’s not surprising that I recognized you.”

Her explanation was apt and he did not feel disgusted at all. Instead, he got a good impression of her. Of course, that was not the point. Xi Mubai did not delve into it, and simply pretended to be casual. He then unlocked his mobile phone and played a song.

“The dark sky droops accompanied by the bright stars

the fireflies fly
the fireflies fly
Who are you thinking about?
The stars in the sky are tearing up
The withered roses on the ground
The cold wind blows
The cold wind blows
As long as you're here with me
the fireflies fly
the flowers sleep
A beautiful pair
Unafraid of the dark
only afraid of heartbreak
Regardless of the hassle or the direction."

...

Feeling peculiar about the nursery rhyme she had just heard, Mu Nianqing asked in bewilderment, "Young Master Xi, what does this mean?"

"Have you ever heard this song?" Xi Mubai's gaze was deep and he asked a little eagerly.

Mu Nianqing gave it some thought and reckoned that he must have had a reason for asking so. She nodded gently and answered, "Of course I have. This is a nursery rhyme called "Fireflies fly", right?"

Almost at the same time, Xi Mubai asked, "Then, have you ever sung it before?"

At this moment, Mu Nianqing vaguely determined that Xi Mubai was looking for someone. On top of that, he had no idea who the person was.

She did not expect him to adopt such a strange approach to looking for someone, by using a nursery rhyme as evidence... She could tell that the person meant a lot to him!

If she could impersonate that person and assume her identity, wouldn't it be perfect?

After giving it some thought, Mu Nianqing admitted, "Yes, I've sung it before but I can't remember when I did so. Young Master Xi, why are you asking me about that?"

“Did you go to ‘Pine Mountain’ on a rainy night two years ago? Back then, there was a mudslide because of the rainstorm. Were you there?” Xi Mubai was so agitated that he almost held his breath, for fear that he would miss her answer.

Mu Nianqing was stunned for a moment, and she said hesitantly, “I...”

If he were asking another question, she would definitely be able to answer him. However, she found it hard to assume the identity of the person that he was trying to find!

Xi Mubai was no fool and he could tell that Mu Nianqing did not know what he was talking about. Hence, he suddenly felt a little disappointed and doubtful at the same time... she was clearly the one who saved him in his dream.

In his dream, not only did she know about that incident, she could even clearly state all the details, including how she managed to rescue him... Yet, reality was the complete opposite!

Could it be... that she’s not my savior?

“Luo Luo...”

All of a sudden, Xi Mubai got reminded of something and solemnly called out that name.

That was the only clue that was left behind by the girl who saved him. She told him herself, that her name was “Luo Luo” ... On that rainy night, he did not get a clear glimpse of her looks and her name was the only thing he could remember!

“What?” Mu Nianqing asked instinctively.

However, that made Xi Mubai certain that she was not Luo Luo nor the person who saved him!

“Young Master Xi, sorry, I don’t remember much about what happened two years ago. Could you tell me more...”

Chapter 197: His Little Wife Needs to Grow Up Slowly...

Mu Nianqing was not willing to give up the rare opportunity and wanted to ask for more details. She reckoned that she could intelligently assume the identity after finding out about the details!

After all, the Xi family was not an ordinary affluent family, but one of the four major families!

However, Xi Mubai shook his head and said with a tinge of disappointment in his mellow voice, “Nothing much, I may have gotten the wrong person. You are not her.”

Dreams are just dreams, how could it be true? Mu Nianqing is clearly not the right person! I must be out of my mind. What’s wrong with me? How could I believe a dream!?!

That’s right. If Mu Nianqing is not Luo Luo, how could she have been so clear about the details of the incident in Pine Mountain?

However, reality was a complete opposite because she was entirely clueless. It was simply unfathomable.

“Unfortunately, I can’t help you, Young Master Xi.” Mu Nianqing said mellowly while thinking about something. All of a sudden, an idea popped up in her mind.

At the next moment, she added, “Seriously speaking, I happened to have a car accident and accidentally hit my head, so my memory is a little muddled up! I doubt it’d be so coincidental. I don’t think I’m the one you’re looking for, Young Master Xi...” She wasn’t lying about the accident because it really did happen.

The rest were obviously untrue.

She may not remember some details of the events that took place two years ago but she was 100% sure about the matter that Xi Mubai asked about.

She had never gone to Pine Mountain before...

“You lost your memory in a car accident?”

Xi Mubai listened and asked with a frown.

Mu Nianqing didn’t directly admit to it, lest she ruin her own chances. Instead, she answered ambiguously, “I didn’t lose my memory but I’m a little confused. So, there may be some things that I can’t remember.”

She smiled elegantly and said, “If you don’t mind, I want to take the liberty to ask you this. Young Master Xi, did the person whom you’re looking for... offend you in any way?”

Offend? Obviously not!

Xi Mubai’s reactions showed that he obviously cared about that person. If she guessed correctly, he should owe her a huge favor!

As expected, he smiled bitterly and asked, “Offended me? How could it be? She was really obedient, sensible and puerile.”

That year, he decided to go to Pine Mountain to get a breather because he was not in a good mood.

In the late autumn, the maple leaves on the Pine Mountain were flying all over the sky, and stained with crimson. He felt relaxed and happy, like he was in a fairyland.

However, in the afternoon, there was a sudden heavy rain. Instead of rushing down the mountain, he first found a place to seek shelter... To his surprise, the rain got heavier and caused a mudslide in the middle of the night.

His leg was severely injured, and he was trapped alone on the mountain, almost isolated and helpless. He was even on the verge of death.

While he was in despair, a girl who seemed like an angel that descended from the sky, came to his side.

She was clearly so thin and petite but she was the one who pulled him out of danger and brought him to a safer place... He was running a high fever, and she hugged him to warm him up. They snuggled up to each other and became extremely close.

Back then, he was physically weak and was trying his best to stay awake. While listening to her words of encouragement, he pressed on and waited for help.

However, whenever he asked who she was, she would refuse to answer and simply write the “Luo Luo” on his palm.

Later on, he couldn’t take it any longer and fell asleep while Luo Luo continuously called his name and tried to wake him up. She even sang the nursery rhyme gently into his ear. “The dark sky droops... The withered roses on the ground... The cold wind blows... As long as you’re here with me...”

At the end of the rhyme, she suddenly asked gently, “Xi Mubai, will you remember me?” At that time, he smiled gently but did not answer her.

However, deep down, he thought seriously that he would never forget “Luo Luo” for the rest of his life... He had to repay her kindness for saving him. He would give Luo Luo whatever she wanted.

Even if she wanted him, he would probably be willing... to give himself to her!

However, he could tell from Luo Luo’s puerile voice that she was clearly still young... He reckoned that he needed to wait for some time for her to grow up.

Chapter 198: Luo Luo Is Mu Nianqing

“Xi Mubai, I’m very lonely, don’t forget me.” In the end, she hugged him and repeated those words again and again.

He wanted to answer by saying that he wouldn’t forget her but he was out of energy and hence, slipped into a daze. To his surprise, he woke up in the hospital and there was no news of Luo Luo ever since then.

The rescue members told him that he was the only one on the mountain when they saved him, and that there wasn’t any girl with him... For the past few years, he had been thinking about Luo Luo and trying to find her. However, the world was vast and full of people. Hence, he had no chance to meet her!

He subtly remembered the words that Luo Luo said to him before he slipped into a coma.

“Xi Mubai, I’ll look for you, you must remember me!” He would definitely recognize her as long as she stepped forth.

Unfortunately, she did not go to him and never once did!

“Young Master Xi, I guess if it’s meant to be, you’ll definitely reunite with her one day!” Mu Nianqing said seriously, giving him a good impression.

Staring at the girl in front of him, Xi Mubai began to ponder.

Perhaps, she really is Mu Nianqing? But how can someone forget her own pet name?

“I hope I can really reunite with her sooner, like what you said, Miss Mu.”

Xi Mubai was incredibly flustered and did not want to stay any longer.

He then stood up and left. However, before he left, he glanced at Mu Nianqing and asked, "Miss Mu, do you have a pet name?"

Pet name?

Mu Nianqing thought about the rare opportunity and smiled while feigning ignorance. "Well, I do have a pet name. Actually if I heard you correctly, the name you called out just now is my pet name."

Upon hearing this, Xi Mubai's expression changed and he asked in apprehension, "You mean, your name is... Luo Luo?"

Mu Nianqing answered firmly, "Yes, Luo Luo is my pet name."

Somehow, Xi Mubai didn't quite believe it. He asked, "In that case, when I called you just now, why didn't you..."

"Why didn't I react? Young Master Xi, I don't know you well, so I naturally wouldn't respond when you suddenly call out my pet name! Of course, it's also because I haven't used it in a long time and it sounds a little weird even to myself. I'm sorry to have embarrassed myself, Young Master Xi..."

Mu Nianqing gently interrupted Xi Mubai without losing her composure.

"Of course, this cannot prove that I'm the one you're looking for, Young Master Xi! After all, the world is huge and there are plenty of people with the same name, let alone pet name..."

For some unknown reason, Xi Mubai felt strange about her explanation. He was at least 80% sure that Mu Nianqing was his life savior.

However, deep down, he seemed to be ruling out the fact... that she was Luo Luo!

Perhaps, it was way too coincidental to the point of being suspicious. He could not believe it at all, despite it overlapping with the dream.

At the thought of this, Xi Mubai decided to leave because he had to remain calm. Of course, before he left, he gave her his name card. "Miss Mu, you may contact me if you need anything in the future."

He only treated her as his life-saving benefactor, and did not have any romantic feelings in the dream... The only thing he could do was give her whatever she needed in return for her kindness.

Mu Nianqing handed his business card back to him and smiled helplessly. "Young Master Xi, am not familiar with you and I can't accept such a huge favor. Regardless of whether I'm the one you're looking for, let's be friends, alright?"

Xi Mubai nodded, but did not take his business card back and simply left.

Mu Nianqing stayed in the room alone and smiled proudly at his business card. She had to make use of the Xi Family's gratitude! She gave herself two options during the conversation just now.

She would either assume Luo Luo's identity if Xi Mubai couldn't find the latter... or if he manages to find Luo Luo, she would just apologize for recalling wrongly.

In any case, he would not be able to find fault with her!

The only strange thing was, why did he look for her when there were so many girls in Beijing?

And that Luo Luo.

Luo Luo... Luo Luo... Luo Luo...

Why does it sound so familiar? I seem to have heard it somewhere before!

Chapter 199: Snatching Away Her Sweetheart

Her memories of the previous life were flashing through her mind and Luo Zheng felt like she was an outsider who was trapped in it.

She particularly remembered the incident that took place that year.

In the beginning, she fell in love with Xi Mubai's paintings and not him.

His paintings were full of the vicissitudes of life, sadness, loneliness, and melancholy. She could not help but be obsessed with it while feeling a strange pain in her heart.

At that time, she was still living in the lies fabricated by the Mu Family. Mu Tianwei had been trying to destroy her by spoiling her and pampering her.

Although she lived a carefree life, she would often feel empty from time to time, as if she were just a walking zombie that did not have a soul.

She felt her soul being touched when his painting appeared in front of her. She stared at the painter's name, Li Ge, and kept it in her mind.

Later on, she tried her best to collect all of Li Ge's paintings but unfortunately failed to do so. She only had one of them.

Firstly, it was because Li Ge was a renowned painter and his paintings were very expensive ... Secondly, Li Ge had long retired and stopped painting, Hence, it was hard to find his painting!

The only thing that she was curious about was Li Ge's name, family and background, which no one knew about.

He was out of reach, mysterious and low-key, and everyone knew nothing about it.

One day, she heard her classmates discussing.

"Li Ge's style of painting is very similar to that of Senior Mubai! Do you guys think that Senior Mubai could be Li Ge?"

Their remark was casual but not to Luo Zheng.

Since Li Ge no longer painted, she decided to secretly go and look at Xi Mubai's paintings.

As a legendary figure on campus, Xi Mubai's paintings were often posted by others. However, the style was almost the same.

At that moment, she rejoiced and deduced that Xi Mubai was Li Ge.

Later on, she met Xi Mubai.

He was extremely good-looking, cleanly-shaved, gentle and beyond her imagination... coupled with his soulful paintings which greatly attracted her.

Luo Zheng was a loyal person who would give it her all once she fell in love with someone.

The same was true for paintings. She laid the foundation for the tragedy that would fall upon her ten years later, because of her love for him!

At that time, her father proposed to marry another woman and she agreed out of filial piety.

Hence, her stepmother, Zhao Manru and her stepsister Mu Nianqing moved into the Mu Family home.

At the beginning, she felt that Mu Nianqing was kind and considerate, and even took good care of herself. They shared a close relationship and she treated Mu Nianqing like her own sister.

Young girls always want to share with others.

She didn't have many close friends and barely had any best friends. Hence, she told Mu Nianqing all about her love for Xi Mubai when the latter asked.

She included how she met Xi Mubai and interacted with him.

In short, she told Mu Nianqing everything without missing out any details.

It happened that Mu Nianqing had just returned from Britain and was transferring to Capital University. Hence, she became acquainted with Xi Mubai.

She knew that Xi Mubai hated her and so, she asked Mu Nianqing to help her send a love letter to him... Mu Nianqing was a little embarrassed and conflicted but she still promised to help and talk to Xi Mubai for Luo Zheng.

Somehow, she and Xi Mubai got closer and closer over time.

Clearly, Xi Mubai was her sweetheart and yet, he treated Mu Nianqing specially, as if she were his life savior... Later on, she found out that Xi Mubai actually fell in love with Mu Nianqing!

She was terrified, in despair, helpless, and decided to ignore Mu Nianqing for good.

But what happened later on?

Mu Nianqing apologized to her and even promised that she wouldn't snatch her sweetheart away because she didn't have any feelings for Xi Mubai!

Because of this, she was utterly grateful towards Mu Nianqing and even trusted her blindly. She was even willing to give everything to Mu Nianqing.

At last, she slowly lost everything she had!

"Ah!"

All of a sudden, Luo Zheng woke up drenched in sweat and she felt an excruciating pain in her chest. She was feeling so terrible that she wanted to cry!

Chapter 200: Zheng Gets Caught Running Away

Luo Zheng clutched her chest over the thin fabric of her shirt and exclaimed with resentment, “Mu Nianqing!”

Compared to Xi Mubai, she detested Mu Nianqing even more!

She hated Mu Nianqing, not only because of Xi Mubai, but also because she was the one who destroyed her life in her previous life!

It was rather amusing because she really did treat Mu Nianqing like her sister at the beginning... She was always generous with Mu Nianqing and would give her whatever she wanted.

But how did Mu Nianqing repay her in the end?

She lied to her, plotted against her and humiliated her.

If her meeting with Xi Mubai in her previous life was considered the beginning of the tragedy ... Well, Mu Nianqing would be the greatest culprit who ruined everything!

At that time, she knew the truth and really didn't understand it. Why did Mu Nianqing have to go against her that way?

Hence, she broke down and continuously questioned Mu Nianqing, only to get an absurd answer.

She still remembered the time when they fell out. Mu Nianqing said to her coldly with resentment, “Luo Zheng, you still have the cheek to ask me why I'm doing this to you? Who told you to snatch the person whom I love most, away from me!?! Do you know how much I gave up for him? Yet, he never took another glance at me. But what about you? You didn't do anything at all, but... he fell for you!”

Her favorite? Is it Xi Mubai!?!

However, she was clearly the one whom Xi Mubai fell in love with!

Luo Zheng was filled with bewilderment as she asked.

However, Mu Nianqing smiled in disdain and remarked, “Xi Mubai? Hah, he doesn't deserve me at all! Luo Zheng, look, how ridiculous are you. You don't even know who he is! So why? You don't know him at all and you're inferior to me. Yet, you could win his heart! Luo Zheng, how could I not hate you?”

At that time, she could not believe it and she simply thought that Mu Nianqing was lying.

After all, it was really amusing!

She loved Xi Mubai but Xi Mubai loved Mu Nianqing who loved a mysterious man... Yet, the mysterious man actually loved Luo Zheng!

Because of this, Mu Nianqing ruined her and it was a shame that she never knew who the mysterious man was.

She also felt that it was just Mu Nianqing's excuse.

At that time, she had a terrible reputation and everyone would shun her. Hence, who would fall in love with her?

Furthermore, Mu Nianqing didn't even take Xi Mubai seriously so the mysterious man she fell in love with was definitely extraordinary... Out of all the men she knew, she admitted that Xi Mubai was the most outstanding one and she couldn't think of anyone who was better than him.

Hence, she could not clear this doubt at all, even in this life!

The only person who loved her deeply, was perhaps only... Mr. Bodyguard!

Thinking of Bo Hancheng, Luo Zheng woke up like she had just had a dream. She looked around and realized that she was still in the ward.

The surrounding lights were dim and would not irritate her eyes. Perhaps, it was that way to ensure that she could sleep well.

Perhaps because she had slept for too long, Luo Zheng felt as if she was in a dream. She could not help but think about what happened before the coma.

Suddenly, Luo Zheng's expression stiffened, and she realized that she seemed to have fainted... from kissing Mr. Bodyguard!?!

Luo Zheng, Luo Zheng, you really are useless!

Recalling the situation at that time, she reckoned that it must have been very embarrassing. Luo Zheng could not help but blush as her pale face turned rosy.

Whenever she thought about how he had acted out of the ordinary, she couldn't help but tremble.

At that instant, Luo Zheng made up her mind to leave the hospital while Bo Hancheng was away.

He was really terrifying and she felt that she needed some time to adapt to it. Well at least, she wouldn't dare to interact with him again anytime soon!

She carefully got out of bed and put on her shoes but after just taking a few steps, she felt her stomach rumbling. It was inevitable for her to be famished since she had not eaten for a few days and was put on a liquid diet.

Luo Zheng opened the door of the ward, and sneaked out while pressing herself against the wall like a thief.

She painstakingly made it through the corridor and realized that she would be able to reach the elevator once she made a turn.

Unfortunately, Luo Zheng only paid attention to the front and not the back. A slender figure walked out and stopped at the end of the corridor.

Bang!

Luo Zheng slammed herself into him!

“Hah, could you tell me where you’re sneaking off to in the middle of the night?”
