

BO LOVE LIFE 411

Chapter 411: I'm in pain... My Body Hurts So Much... Let Me Off

"Are you really... willing to let me go?"

Luo Zheng's eyes glistened and she was in slight disbelief.

"Yes, really." He said in a low voice with a touch of loneliness in his abyss-like eyes.

Grabbing the towel tightly and using it to cover her body, Luo Zheng slowly moved her swollen and reddened ankles to walk out of the bathroom. Taking a step at a time and keeping her guard up against him, she said, "This is what you said, you're not allowed to go back on your word."

Bo Hancheng's handsome face grew sullen as he could tell that she was eager about leaving. He was also trying to suppress his emotions.

However, when Luo Zheng walked past him, he still reached out in a bid to pick Luo Zheng up.

At this moment, Luo Zheng was extremely tense and she almost retreated forcefully. "Don't touch me!"

Her voice was sharp and full of resistance.

Bang!

At the next moment, Luo Zheng stumbled and fell heavily onto the ground.

"Luo Zheng..."

Bo Hancheng's expression changed and he was about to come over and pick her up.

"Don't come here... Don't come here..."

Luo Zheng cocked her head towards the side to avoid him and continuously muttered, no longer looking at what she should not be looking at.

Upon seeing this, Bo Hancheng stretched his hand out and kept it in midair for a moment before retracting it.

He then glanced at Luo Zheng who was hanging her head low and clearly refusing to look at him. His eyes turned a little gloomy and he turned around to walk out of the bathroom.

Luo Zheng was overwhelmed with pain from head to toe. Although they didn't go all the way, she was still in pain.

Sex turned out to be painful.

She had previously been craving for the taste of men, but in hindsight, she must be completely stupid for having those thoughts!

She swore that she would never need a man in the future nor would she need to get intimate, because it would be only harming herself.

Just as she was thinking about it, the door of the bathroom was pushed open again and Luo Zheng got a great shock. She grabbed the towel with one hand, and propped herself up with the other. She was inexplicably traumatized by Bo Hancheng, without her realization.

She looked in front to see that Bo Hancheng was approaching her, after which she continuously retreated. "What do you want to do? Bo Hancheng, what do you want to do..."

Luo Zheng was a little confused and she was afraid that he had changed his mind. She wrapped her arms tightly around herself and pleaded, "Bo Hancheng... I feel so painful... I'm in so much pain... Let me go... Take it that I'm begging you..."

Seeing that she was still so resistant to his touch, Bo Hancheng felt upset and frustrated.

"I have contacted the doctor and asked him to come over to give you a checkup. Be good, I'll carry you out..."

While speaking, Bo Hancheng slowly stepped forward and extended his arms towards her.

Pak~

At the next moment, Luo Zheng smacked his arm away and raised her head to look at him with immense exasperation that she did not hide. "What does this mean? You've just agreed to let me go!"

He was wearing a snow-white bathrobe, and looking down at her from above. Seeing how stubborn she was, he said in a slightly low voice, "Look at yourself now. It's a problem for you to even walk. How do you plan to leave?"

Luo Zheng bit her lip and clenched her fists. "You don't need to worry about this! Even if I have to, I will climb out of this place! Every minute and second spent with you is a form of torture..."

"Luo Zheng, you..."

Despite knowing that Luo Zheng was saying those words in a moment of pique, he couldn't bring himself to ignore it.

"What's wrong with me? Or are you regretting your decision to not continue, Mr. Bo!?! If that's the case, I can cooperate..."

Luo Zheng got up slowly while speaking and was swaying unsteadily from side to side but she refused to admit defeat.

"Although, I feel very disgusted about letting you touch me, I'm willing to do anything so long as I can leave this place..."

Chapter 412: Get Lost, Get Lost Now...

"Although, I feel very disgusted about letting you touch me, I'm willing to do anything so long as I can leave this place..."

After saying that sentence, Luo Zheng's face turned pale, and she looked a little sickly.

Bo Hancheng laughed with anger and stepped forward to grab her wrist. "You feel disgusted when I touch you?"

"Yes, I feel disgusted, absolutely disgusted! So, please don't hold yourself so cheap again, Mr. Bo. Let me leave immediately..."

Luo Zheng struggled, hating how weak she was that she couldn't break free from his control.

"You're right, I shouldn't be holding myself cheap again and interfere with your affairs! As for your hymen, you may have really reconstructed it with surgery. The effects are indeed realistic. How many men have you fooled using this method, eh?"

While questioning her, he moved his thin lips towards her and kissed her earlobe, neck, collarbone, and even nibbled on them to leave behind some rose-colored hickeys.

"You're disgusting... don't touch me... stay away from me..."

Luo Zheng's body quivered as she tried to resist him angrily but to no avail. Instead, she was pushed against the door of the bathroom by him.

He desperately wanted her and he was filled with lust even at this point.

He clearly knew that she was clean and should be treated with care, but whenever he was with her, all of his composure, rationality and self-control would vanish completely, bit by bit.

"Bo Hancheng... you are not him... you will never be him..."

Luo Zheng felt extremely aggrieved, and Bo Hancheng's rough and abusive treatment made her suffocate.

"Him?"

Bo Hancheng sneered with an icy cold gaze.

All his demons were unleashed within him, devouring the light. He stared at Luo Zheng and questioned softly, "Hah, you're referring to your Mr. Bodyguard, aren't you?"

Luo Zheng bit her lip without saying a word while Bo Hancheng straightened her body. "Luo Zheng, answer me. You approached me from the beginning, all because of Mr. Bodyguard... right?"

Feeling a slight ache in her heart, she looked up at the familiar face of Bo Hancheng who had an unfamiliar gaze in his eyes.

In the end, she still answered with a nod, "Yes, I approached you because of him."

"So, in your eyes, I am just a substitute? Your Mr. Bodyguard is dead, so... you decided to make me his substitute, right?"

After asking that question, Bo Hancheng was filled with ruthless thoughts and intentions, as if he would really destroy her as long as she said yes!

With tears in her eyes, Luo Zheng insisted firmly, "Yes, you are a substitute. He died... so I decided to look for you, are you satisfied? Are you satisfied with this answer..."

There was a sudden silence in the air.

Bo Hancheng clenched his fists, and suppressed the urge to tear Luo Zheng into pieces, his eyes filled with an icy cold gaze. "Luo Zheng, are you not afraid that... I will kill you?"

While listening, Luo Zheng's pale lips curled into a smirk and she asked in derision, "Will you?"

After a pause, her contempt intensified and she reached out to place her hand on his shoulder.

"Or should I ask, can you bear to kill me?"

She looked extremely provocative and he found her to be rather irksome to the eyes.

After staring at her for a long time, Bo Hancheng suddenly took a step back and said coldly, "Scram..."

A second after he said those words, Bo Hancheng's fist brushed past Luo Zheng's ear and was slammed against the bathroom door behind with a heavy thud.

"As you wish, I will let you go! Get lost, get lost right now..."

He was incredibly infuriated and had lost his usual composure. All that was left was immense anger and menace.

"Fine, I'll get lost right now!"

Chapter 413: Untitled

"Fine, I'll get lost right now!"

Luo Zheng's face was pale, and her tone was very calm.

At the next moment, she limped and dragged her swollen ankle across the floor as she slowly made her way out of the bathroom. She then took out a clean set of clothes and put them on calmly.

At last, she hid her emotions and slowly left the bedroom without looking back.

Bang!

The bedroom door was closed, and Bo Hancheng finally snapped out of his trance.

He stared at the mess in the bathroom, and looked out again, only to realize that Luo Zheng was no longer around.

He walked out of the bathroom with a sullen expression and stood in front of the French window.

He could also see Luo Zheng leaving the mansion and continuously walking on with an unsteady gait into the darkness, like a broken kite that he wanted to grasp.

Luo Zheng... Luo Zheng... Luo Zheng...

He repeated her name deep down, over and over again.

At the thought of her answer, Bo Hancheng felt a strong, murderous intent and he seemed to have fallen into paranoia.

He had no choice but to let her leave while he was still a little rational.

Otherwise, he really could not guarantee her safety if she agitated him with her hostile words!

In her eyes, he was just a substitute.

He could have any woman he wanted and yet, he allowed her to trample all over him again and again.

Hah, in that case, I don't want her!

...

The distance from Royal Orchid Garden to the city center was undoubtedly extremely far.

Luo Zheng took one step at a time while her body became weaker and weaker. Her ankle was badly swollen and towards the end, her pace became extremely slow.

The summer nights were not long.

Finally, Luo Zheng fainted when she reached the city center of Beijing.

All of a sudden, plenty of people came forth and began gossiping about Luo Zheng... after which, just as everyone was about to call the police and ambulance, a slender figure squeezed through the crowd and walked towards Luo Zheng hurriedly. "Luo Zheng? Why are you here!?! Hurry and wake up..."

Luo Zheng's eyelids were heavy and when she heard the clear male voice, she could vaguely identify who it was. However, she couldn't bring herself to open her eyes and look at him!

In the hospital, family members of patients, nurses and doctors come and go from time to time.

Luo Zheng only regained consciousness again in the afternoon.

She vaguely heard a female doctor criticizing someone. "As her boyfriend, how could you be so rough? Even if you are young and impulsive and want to do that kind of stuff, you should have been careful. The girl is so weak and delicate. How could she have been able to bear with it? You two should still be students. Do your parents know about this? Can you take responsibility..."

The man then said composedly, "Well then, is she... alright?"

"The checkups that we've done so far show that there aren't any major problems with her but the bones in her feet have been dislocated and there are too many wounds on her body. Due to the sexual intercourse that she had, her hymen was almost badly torn! So, she must rest in bed, as for the rest... we have to conduct blood tests on her. Is it because you are scared of spending money that you don't want to let the little girl go through the physical examinations..."

The female doctor continued to talk about the other things.

She was almost criticizing him like an elder, rattling on and on.

However, the man was rather patient and simply expressed assent without rebutting much.

“We really shouldn’t judge a book by its cover. You look so gentle and refined on the surface. Why were you so rough? If she’s my daughter, I’d teach you a hard lesson!”

The female doctor then left in exasperation and the silence in the ward was finally restored.

Closing the door of the ward, Jiang Musheng turned his head to look at Luo Zheng whose eyes were filled with tears. “Are you awake? How do you feel...”

Luo Zheng sat up and rubbed her temples, feeling a dull ache. “I didn’t expect it to be you, Jiang Musheng!”

Chapter 414: I Don’t Fancy You, I Have A Fiancee...

Jiang Musheng’s expression was complicated. He first poured a glass of water and handed it to Luo Zheng before pouring out some pills and placing them on her palm.

“Where have you been the past few days? Were you... kidnapped? Do you want to call the police...”

While speaking, he watched as Luo Zheng finished the medicine and could not help but turn pale.

He had an uneasy expression and he was holding onto some ointment which he then handed to Luo Zheng. He said gently, “The doctor said that you’re badly injured and... some part of you is badly ruptured and you need to apply the ointment in time.”

Jiang Musheng paused and stared at Luo Zheng who was wearing the hospital gown that exposed the hickey on her neck. “I know, such incidents will definitely make you feel uncomfortable. However, if you don’t report it to the police, the criminal will get away with it...”

Luo Zheng snorted with laughter.

All of a sudden, Luo Zheng laughed while Jiang Musheng turned red with embarrassment.

After laughing, a tinge of confusion formed on her pale face and she said, “Jiang Musheng, I wasn’t kidnapped, let alone raped! So, I don’t need to call the police, I’ll be fine...”

Upon hearing her words, Jiang Musheng fell silent for a moment before asking “You did it... voluntarily?”

It was no wonder that the female doctor berated him and made serious conjectures about him.

In fact, Luo Zheng had a lot of bruises on her body and she looked like she had been abused... The point was, her hymen was slightly torn, and she almost lost her virginity.

Slightly stunned, Luo Zheng fiddled with the ointment in her hand and she was suddenly speechless.

Thinking that Luo Zheng was forcing herself to laugh, Jiang Musheng said, “It’s okay if you don’t want to talk about it...”

As soon as he spoke, Luo Zheng held her emotions back, and said calmly, “Just take it that I did it voluntarily!”

After all, Jiang Musheng was not much older than Luo Zheng and hence he felt a little embarrassed.

However, he couldn't help but suggest seriously, "Luo Zheng, if your relationship is not suitable for you, don't force it. Otherwise, you will be the one getting hurt in the end..."

Relationship?

Luo Zheng was startled again, and she suddenly found that word to be something fresh.

Be it in the previous life or the present, she had never had a serious relationship before!

"Drink some water and rest more."

Jiang Musheng said as he filled the glass again and handed it to Luo Zheng once more.

She looked up at Jiang Musheng, finding it strange that he wasn't disgusted at all even though he now knew about her private matters.

She stared at the tall and slender Jiang Musheng who treated her with concern time and time again.

Luo Zheng tilted her head towards the side to think about it for a while before asking, "Jiang Musheng, do you... fancy me?"

At the next moment, Jiang Musheng's hand trembled and he almost spilled the water in the glass. Clearly, he had been shocked by her question.

Seeing this, Luo Zheng was more or less certain and she asked solemnly, "If that is the case, can you stop fancying me? Jiang Musheng, we are not suitable for each other, we are really not compatible..."

She wasn't interested in romance and relationships but the incident today was enough to destroy all possibility of a romance between them!

Besides, Jiang Musheng was a good guy and good guys were rare to come by. Since she was not good enough for him, she couldn't harm him.

"Classmate Luo, we are indeed not suitable for each other."

Jiang Musheng's tone was a little jovial, which was rather rare of him.

While Luo Zheng was feeling bewildered, he handed her the glass of water.

Feeling awkward, Luo Zheng was just about to drink the water to cover up her bewilderment. However, she heard him say in a clear voice, "You don't need to read too much into things. I already have a fiancée."

Coughs

This time, Luo Zheng was really a little startled and she almost choked on the water.

What did Jiang Musheng just say? He, he, he... he has a fiancée!

Chapter 415: If My Sister Is Still Alive, She Should Be As Old As You...

With a serious expression, Jiang Musheng explained, "She's my childhood sweetheart and we got engaged when we were children. She went to school a year earlier than me. She is now studying performance arts in a fine arts university in my hometown."

Awkward, awkward, really awkward!

Luo Zheng felt really embarrassed, not because of her narcissism, but because of Jiang Musheng's trust in her!

"Do you want to know why I lent you my notes and trusted you again and again?"

Jiang Musheng decided to ask, as if he had seen through Luo Zheng's thoughts.

Luo Zheng nodded subconsciously because she really wanted to know.

"In the beginning, I was not optimistic about the bet you made with the class teacher. Although there is indeed an issue with her character, your grades are indeed terrible."

Jiang Musheng's voice was very clear, gentle and pleasing to the ears.

"Later on during math class, the teacher asked you to go up to the rostrum to answer the questions and I noticed that your problem-solving process and logic were different from what the teacher taught. It is simpler, clearer, and correct. Those were not taught in the textbook, so you couldn't have cheated. That was enough to prove that you really have what it takes! So, I believe that you will not let me down."

After Jiang Mu finished speaking, Luo Zheng was a little dumbfounded and she couldn't help but ask, "Is that all you think about me? It's really just that simple?"

"Otherwise, how complicated should it be..."

Jiang Musheng answered with a smile. At last, he couldn't help but rub the top of her hair.

"If there is another reason, it should probably be because you remind me of my sister. If my sister is still alive, she should be as old as you are..."

Luo Zheng felt that the relationships and interactions between humans were really special.

She had only interacted with Jiang Musheng briefly twice or thrice but she could feel a touch of warmth.

Even at this moment, she did not feel any abhorrence when he touched her.

"Jiang Musheng, why didn't you tell me that earlier!?! I thought..."

Luo Zheng felt relieved that things were not like what she had imagined.

Fortunately, Jiang Musheng didn't have a crush on her and the matter was resolved satisfactorily.

"The students in class probably think the same."

Jiang Musheng said with a wry smile, appearing a little helpless.

"Besides, you ran away during the monthly exam and got labeled as a cheater. The teacher claimed that your exam script is invalid and that you were barred from the exam. Besides, there had been rumors going around about you almost killing your own sister. They said that you're mentally unsound! So, they just bet that you were spouting nonsense and speculating if you'd go back to school..."

Jiang Musheng had a solemn expression when he was talking about that.

Luo Zheng smirked and exclaimed, “Yes, of course I’m going back! Otherwise, I’ll be letting them get their way.”

“Are you confident?”

Jiang Musheng asked, thinking that the exam was not fair to Luo Zheng.

“When the time comes, you can just watch the show.”

Luo Zheng said with a smile and a firm expression as she cocked her head towards the side.

Seeing that she was indeed confident, Jiang Musheng felt a sense of relief. Just as he was about to say something, the phone suddenly rang.

Luo Zheng looked over to see a photo of a girl smiling radiantly and snuggling up beside Jiang Musheng. She looked rather puerile, innocent and beautiful.

Somehow, a familiar scene flashed past her mind.

“That is my girl... ”

Jiang Musheng introduced softly, sounding a little shy.

“Is she your fiancée? She’s so beautiful! Go, go, go talk to her on the phone, don’t show off your relationship to me! I want to get some rest...”

Luo Zheng smiled genuinely and urged Jiang Musheng who was turning shy and blushing.

Jiang Musheng was about to answer the phone, and just before he left, he looked at Luo Zheng seriously. “Some things should be quit! Although I don’t know how you got addicted... it will destroy you!”

Chapter 416: Zheng Gets Kidnapped

Luo Zheng was stunned and just as she was about to respond, Jiang Musheng answered the call with a gentle expression and walked out.

“Lass, why did you call at this time? Is there anything wrong?”

Jiang Musheng closed the door of the ward after he exited, and the silence was restored.

Glancing at the ointment in her hand, Luo Zheng thought about Jiang Musheng’s words.

All of a sudden, she thought about what the female doctor said about him stopping her from undergoing the blood test... If she was right, he should have guessed that she had been drugged, and was worried that the staff at the hospital might find out.

They would then call the police and send her to the drug rehabilitation center!

It was really rare for there to be such a kind young man in this world full of evil people. She once again... owed him another favor!

Luo Zheng wanted her body to recover sooner and she truly felt an excruciating pain down there, which affected her walking ability.

Hence, Luo Zheng tried to bear with the embarrassment and applied the ointment on her private area.

The more she thought about it, the more embarrassed she felt. He looked rather cold, aloof, noble and restrained on the surface...

All of a sudden, Luo Zheng's mind turned blank and her face turned hot.

Damn it, what am I letting my imagination run wild for!?!

In the evening, Jiang Musheng sent her some food for dinner and left afterwards.

Luo Zheng was the only one left in the ward where she tossed and turned in bed, and was about to fall asleep.

Ka-cha...

All of a sudden, the door opened, and it seemed rather abrupt on this silent night.

Luo Zheng tilted her head to see that the visitor was a male doctor who had entered with a cart of medical supplies. He then took out the syringe.

At first, Luo Zheng did not suspect anything but when he walked towards her bed after a few seconds, she suddenly thought of something.

She remembered that the doctor in charge of attending to her was female... Besides, there were almost no male doctors that would treat female patients with gynecological issues. The male doctor was silent and was wearing a white mask.

At the thought of it, Luo Zheng tried to ask, "Doctor, do I need an injection?"

There was a look of panic on the doctor's face and he answered, "Yes, you still need one more shot."

"Doctor, the thing is, I get nervous whenever I have to get an injection! So, can I... go to the washroom first?"

While speaking Luo Zheng was about to get out of bed and she was staring at the door of the ward. She then got up and was about to leave.

To her surprise, the male doctor grabbed her arm immediately and said sinisterly, "Little girl, it's just an injection, it'll be quick!"

As soon as he finished speaking, he flung Luo Zheng back onto the bed.

All of a sudden, Luo Zheng reached out to grab the cup on the table with one hand and smashed it against the man with all her might. She then pressed the call button with the other, trying to attract the attention of the nurse.

Of course, at the same time, she did not forget to exclaim, "Someone, help! Help... "

"Damn it! Little bitch, shut up and stop yelling... "

The male doctor barked fiercely, leaning over and grabbing Luo Zheng's long hair before covering her mouth with one hand, and piercing the needle into her vein with the other.

After the shot, Luo Zheng blacked out and slipped into unconsciousness.

Suddenly, she heard the man saying menacingly, "You shall pay for your father's debts. He ruined my company and caused my family to fall apart! I will kill his daughter..."

After doing this, the male doctor curled Luo Zheng's body up and placed her on the medical supplies cart before covering her with a white cloth to make her look unassuming.

He then wheeled her out of the ward.

There were nurses that rushed over but the male doctor was wearing a mask and pushing the cart. He slowly walked past and left the hospital!

Chapter 417: Save Me, Save Me! I'm Really Scared...

In the outskirts of Beijing, there were many abandoned factories which were usually deserted and unoccupied.

There were ashes on the ground where Luo Zheng was lying feebly on, clad in the hospital gown.

A person picked up a glass of cold water and poured it on Luo Zheng's face.

Luo Zheng shuddered slightly and slowly awakened, before opening her eyes a little.

The first scene that she was greeted with was the broken roof that was made of slabs of stone.

"Oh, you're finally awake? You made us wait for a really long time!" said an icy cold voice which filled her ears.

Luo Zheng suddenly sobered up and was about to try and get up, only to realize that she did not have any strength at all. It was as if she had been drugged and the effects had yet to wear off.

"Little girl, stop struggling, it's useless!"

Seeing that Luo Zheng was moving about continuously, the first man who spoke gave her a warning with sinister intentions.

Luo Zheng propped herself up and finally had the time to raise her head and look around.

She was greeted with the mess in the abandoned factory where all kinds of random items were piled up and covered in dust. It was obviously deserted.

She looked in front to see that there were seven or eight people, most of whom were men in their thirties and forties. They all looked fierce, ruthless and menacing.

"Who are you people?" she questioned.

Luo Zheng's body was filled with pain and her body was placed against an unknown crate.

At the next moment, Tang Wenjian, who pretended to be a male doctor, sneered while holding onto his mobile phone. "You don't need to know who I am! All you need to know is that Mu Tianwei played tricks to harm my company and forced me to go bankrupt. He even caused me to be convicted of commercial fraud and turned me into a fugitive who's currently in hiding..."

While speaking, Tang Wenjian dialed a number on his mobile phone and said in a harsh and diabolic tone, "You, are Mu Tianwei's precious daughter. Now that you're in our hands, Mu Tianwei should be willing to sell even his company for you!"

I'm Mu Tianwei's precious daughter?

Luo Zheng found his words to be extremely ridiculous and amusing. Perhaps, in the eyes of others, Mu Tianwei was a "benevolent father".

Hence, they want to use me to blackmail Mu Tianwei!

However, in reality, in the eyes of Mu Tianwei and the Mu Family, I'm just a bastard child whom they had deliberately spoiled rotten, all for the sake of encroaching on my mother's assets.

That was what happened in the previous life. I stupidly transferred my assets to Mu Tianwei whose expression changed right after he succeeded. I still remember that disgusting and horrible face of his!

Not to mention, not long ago, Mu Tianwei even sacrificed me to please Gu Changye.

Just as she was thinking about it, Tang Wenjian who had flown off into an unhinged rant noticed the call had connected. He yelled, "Mu Tianwei, you didn't expect it to be me, did you? I'm telling you, your daughter is in my hands. If you dare to hang up, I'll kill her right now..."

Luo Zheng did not know what Mu Tianwei said, but Tang Wenjian handed the mobile phone to Luo Zheng.

"Say something, let him hear that you're with me!"

Luo Zheng's mind was filled with thoughts and she deliberately said in a sobbing tone, "Father, save me, save me! I'm so scared, hurry up and save me..."

There were a few seconds of silence on the other end of the line, followed by Mu Tianwei's comforting words. "Zheng, don't be afraid, I will definitely save you! Hang in there for a while, I will agree to their conditions, no matter what they want. As long as they don't hurt you..."

Before he could finish speaking, Tang Wenjian had already snatched the mobile phone away. Luo Zheng no longer had to continue acting.

How disgusting. He made it sound so real. Simply revolting!

Chapter 418: My Mother Had A Child Out Of Wedlock, My Father Is Just A Heartless Man!

I can't imagine it at all. He had been pretending all along in the past ten or twenty years. Isn't he disgusted at all? Luo Zheng thought to herself. She couldn't understand why a beautiful and outstanding woman like her mother, who was from a powerful and wealthy family in Beijing, would give birth to her.

What happened then that made her fall pregnant with me?

Even if she wanted to cover up her pregnancy, she could have easily married another man. Of all men, why Mu Tianwei?

Be it in her previous life or the present, Luo Zheng had never had any feelings for her biological father.

Or rather, she felt disgusted and resentful towards him,

The only thing she knew was that he was from Britain.

Even though he had sent some people to look for her, she never had the intention to acknowledge him... because, he had let her mother down and caused her, a top socialite and heiress of Beijing, to end up getting pregnant out of wedlock.

In the end, she had to marry Mu Tianwei in a hurry, giving him an advantage over her.

He only thought of his own daughter and sent someone to find her after ten to twenty years. What was the point of that?

Her mother had already passed away and she had already grown up. Even if he had found her, it still wouldn't change the fact that he was heartless!

Tang Wenjian looked rather smug as he thought that he had finally found Mu Tianwei's weakness. Hence, he said proudly, "Mu Tianwei, don't call the police! If you dare to call the police, be careful, we might just torture your precious daughter to death..."

Mu Tianwei should have asked Tang Wenjian what he wanted.

At the next moment, Tang Wenjian said with greed and resentment, "What do I want? Money, of course! Five billion yuan, not a single cent less. Transfer it to my overseas bank account! You caused me to be in huge debt and I can only hide abroad from now on as a fugitive on the run. I definitely deserve five billion..."

Something happened at this juncture, and a cold and sinister gaze formed in Tang Wenjian's eyes. "What? You can't afford five billion!?! Let me tell you, you must cough up the money even if you can't. Figure out a solution yourself! I'm only going to give you one day to prepare the ransom. If you dare to defy my orders, I will rape your precious daughter right away! Your daughter should still be underage, eh? Think about it, there are eight of us here. Do you think she can stand it..."

Luo Zheng was terrified at the thought of it.

She looked at the men around her, who were all disheveled.

She could tell from the conversation that they were all in dire straits now, because of Mu Tianwei.

Well, it made sense. Mu Tianwei was a greedy yet incompetent person. Hence, it wouldn't be strange for him to be a ruthless businessman at all.

He forced those people into bankruptcy and turned them into fugitives that were wanted by the police. They could be considered to be desperadoes who were at their wits' end and definitely wouldn't be merciful if Mu Tianwei didn't give them what they wanted.

She would be the one at a loss!

Now, the only thing she could pin her hopes on was the greed of the Mu Family members. She was still underage and the Mu Family had yet to obtain her mother's assets.

However, given 5 billion was not a small amount. According to the current state of the Mu family, they would definitely have to sell the company to raise the ransom, but the proceeds from the sale might not even be enough!

It would all depend on whether Mu Tianwei was willing to use the company as collateral.

If he was, all of his past efforts would go down in vain.

If he did not then he would be giving up on Luo Zheng!

What an interesting choice, eh?

The Mu Family members were all somber and tensed up.

“Five billion yuan? Is that a joke!?! Use five billion to save that little bastard? No! I can’t agree to it, over my dead body...”

Li Shufen was so infuriated that she suffered a heart attack, and quickly gulped down a few quick-acting pills, which slowly made her sober up again.

Once she was sober, she jerked forward and backward while continuously smashing her cane against the ground.

While comforting Li Shufen, Mu Cuiyun asked Mu Tianwei anxiously, “Brother, you can’t be so silly! If you sell the company, the Mu Family’s assets, which we had been accumulating for so many years, will be completely wiped out...”

Chapter 419: A Mother Becomes Worthy Because Of Her Son!

Mu Tianwei frowned and stared at the mobile phone in his hand.

He understood Tang Wenjian well. When the latter was forced into a desperate situation, he definitely wouldn’t lie and would go all out!

Back then, the two were partners and he knew how vicious Tang Wenjian was.

Hence, when they became estranged over a conflict of interests, Mu Tianwei knew that he would be in trouble for offending Tang Wenjian and thus, decided to leave him with no means of survival.

In the end, Tang Wenjian was convicted of commercial fraud and was sentenced to jail!

However, there had been no news of his whereabouts.

They initially thought that he had fled abroad and would never come back again in this life, but he didn’t expect... that he was still lurking about, somewhere in the country!

“We mustn’t sell the Mu Family’s company!” Mu Tianwei said ruthlessly all of a sudden.

Mu Cuiyun was at ease after hearing his words. Li Shufen remained silent and looked at Mu Tianwei. “What do we do about the little bastard then? She is still in the hands of the kidnappers! If the Mu Family doesn’t pay the ransom, they might get angry and kill her...”

With a look of dismay, she continued, "If she dies, what should we do with Luo Huawei's legacy? What a shame. There's only such a short amount of time left before the little bastard is of age and inherits Luo Huawei's assets. She can then transfer them to us..."

Hearing Li Shufen's lamentation, Mu Tianwei felt incredibly frustrated. "Even if Zheng didn't get kidnapped, she might not be willing to give the assets away! Previously, I took her to the Gu Family home and she should have guessed that I was the one who gave her to Gu Changye. That's why she never came back! And now, she even knows that Nianqing is my daughter..."

"After finding out, she was so vicious as to stab Nianqing! Brother, Nianqing is the hope of our family. Her uterus is injured but I don't know if it's serious? I was still hoping that Nianqing could give birth to a son, and then rise in status because of her son. She can then become the First Lady as soon as possible..."

Mu Cuiyun said, her tone full of resentment.

"You're right. The little bastard knows about this. I'm afraid she has already planned something else in her head. Even if I sell the company and save her, our efforts will be in vain if she doesn't want to give her assets to us in the future..." said the smart and shrewd Li Shufen who did not bother hiding her viciousness.

"Not necessarily, if Luo Zheng dies unexpectedly, it might be possible for Brother to inherit Luo Huawei's assets since he's her father! Why don't we go ahead with the situation and let the little bastard die..."

Mu Cuiyun suddenly got an idea but to her surprise, Li Shufen agreed to it.

Mu Tianwei was the only one who seemed to have thought of something and was hesitating for a long time.

"Tianwei, surely you can't still have reservations? You have to know that Luo Zheng is not your child, but Luo Huawei's illegitimate daughter! You have raised her for so many years, and you have always been as benevolent as you could! Now that she has unfortunately been kidnapped, we can't be blamed..."

Li Shufen understood her son's thoughts and hence, pulled Mu Tianwei's arm, and tried to talk some sense into him.

With a sullen expression, Mu Tianwei seemed to have thought of some things from the past. He said in resentment, "Nothing of that sort. How can I not bear to? I was just thinking, if there is any way to make it seem logical..."

Back then, Luo Huawei had confessed from the beginning that she was pregnant with someone else's child, and of course he knew about that.

He had never asked about that man, only because... he loved Luo Huawei!

He initially thought that if he treated her well with all his heart, Luo Huawei would be moved.

However, later on, he found out that Luo Huawei did not give up. When she heard some news about the man, she made up her mind to go to Britain to find out what happened.

However, she died in a plane crash while on her way there.

Chapter 420: Untitled

It was only after she died that he found out that she had long left a will for Luo Zheng to inherit her wealth. She would only inherit it when she was 18 years old.

Luo Huawei had been defending herself from the start!

B*tch, b*tch, she's a b*tch.

Filled with resentment, Mu Tianwei's face grew sullen and he made a decision. "Call the police. Find the media and blow this matter up. The bigger the better! It's best if Tang Wenjian finds out immediately..."

He knew Tang Wenjian well. Once he really called the police and caused a stir, he would definitely fly into a rage and kill Luo Zheng!

Luo Huawei, just you wait and see. The bastard child you gave birth to will go and accompany you immediately!

...

The sun was setting and time passed slowly.

Luo Zheng sat on the ground and felt an excruciating pain all over her body. There was also the blue poison in her body. Although it was not the time to act up, it was enough to torture her.

She scanned her surroundings and fixed her gaze on those people who were smoking and drinking. All of them were extremely excited.

From time to time, someone would look at her lewdly.

According to her understanding of the Mu Family, the possibility of Mu Tianwei selling the company and rescuing her was almost zero.

She was afraid that not only would they not save her, they would even take the opportunity to think of something else.

Hence, she had to leave a way out for herself.

At last, she fixed her gaze on an abandoned piece of metal that was sharp and accessible. Luo Zheng carefully moved her body and reached out to take it slowly.

All of a sudden, someone called out to Old Zhao.

She was greeted with the sight of him walking towards her with a glass of wine in his hand.

"Hey, little girl, you're so pretty! Damn it, ever since I was set up by Mu Tianwei, I've been hiding and never touched a woman..."

Old Zhao bent forward and handed the bottle to Luo Zheng.

"Here, little girl, accompany me for a drink! I didn't expect Mu Tianwei to give birth to such a beautiful daughter..."

After all, what Luo Zheng was worried about would always happen unexpectedly.

Staring at the bottle of wine in front of her, Luo Zheng's eyes turned gloomy and she reached out to take it without hesitation.

To his surprise, Old Zhao leaped onto her and began tearing her clothes apart.

"Ah! Get lost..."

Luo Zheng turned pale and screamed while pushing him away.

"My daughter, be good and let Uncle dote on you..."

Seeing that Luo Zheng was resisting, Old Zhao was even more aroused and wanted to force her.

Bang!

At the next moment, Luo Zheng smashed the bottle of wine onto his head before he could even press it down again.

All of a sudden, the bottle shattered and blood flowed out of Old Zhao's head.

Slap!

He slapped her face.

All of a sudden, Luo Zheng felt giddy and a metallic taste formed in her mouth. She fell onto the ground like a broken kite.

"Damn it, how dare you hit me? Are you tired of living!?! I'll teach you a lesson..."

Old Zhao rubbed his head and touched the blood on his hand. However, he still wanted to force Luo Zheng.

Luo Zheng gripped the bottle tightly and was thinking about perishing together with him.

At this moment, Tang Wenjian stepped forward and grabbed Old Zhao. "What are you doing? She's a hostage! If you want to touch a woman, you'll have plenty in the future. If you ruin her, wouldn't that be going against money?"

Old Zhao could only admit that he was unlucky to have been interrupted by Tang Wenjian.
