

BO LOVE LIFE 431

Chapter 431: Let Him Go

“So, what should we do with this person?”

Tang Wenjian noticed something fishy.

How could they not know each other?

He was clearly related to Luo Zheng!

“Let him go, he... has nothing to do with me!”

Luo Zheng looked down and said seriously.

She began to feel a little tired.

Ever since her rebirth, she had been wooing Bo Hancheng and she slowly deviated further away from her expectations... In the end, she was met with abject failure. Enough was enough!

Besides, she had contacted him before this. What happened in the end?

It was his fiancée who picked up the call.

The girl who called herself his “fiancée” on the other end of the line spoke so matter-of-factly and with confidence that she didn’t seem to be faking it!

All along, she had been staying by Bo Hancheng’s side to seek his happiness.

As for the idea of being his partner in bed, it was built on the fact that he didn’t have any emotional entanglements... Now, with Mu Nianqing and a fiancée, she really felt that she was nothing but a joke.

What was ridiculous was that he had no idea at all!

“Be good, we’ll go back to settle some private matters. Be good and follow me now...”

Bo Hancheng looked at her and comforted her softly.

He then glanced at Tang Wenjian and the rest and said coldly, “Don’t you guys want five billion yuan? Sure! I have a card here. There’s no limit to the amount in the card and it can be transferred to any bank account at any time. Besides, once the money from this card is transferred to an account, the account will be protected and your privacy will be guaranteed. You guys can raise the money without worry!”

Tang Wenjian and the rest were overjoyed.

Five billion was not a small sum. Even if he were to transfer it to an overseas bank account, it would not be easy for him to transfer the money. He had to be wary of being tracked!

They had indeed heard about the card Bo Hancheng mentioned and knew that it was the truth.

However, there were only three of these limited-edition cards in the world. Who was this man? He actually had such a prestigious card!

“Besides, I can arrange for you to go abroad! As long as you let go of Luo Zheng now...”

While speaking, Bo Hancheng stared at her.

He could clearly sense that the girl's face was pale and she was seriously struggling to hang on. She was afraid that the Blue Vixen would attack and he could not afford to waste any time!

"Well said, you're not Gu Changye! Just now, you said two things that even Gu Changye might not be able to do..."

Tang Wenjian was not a fool and he was doubtful.

If it were any other day, he would definitely not believe it at all. However, he had lived for so many years and hence, had a sharp eye for judgment!

Judging from his aura, he was no ordinary wealthy man. Hence, she subconsciously trusted him.

Bo Hancheng's expression was cold and he questioned coldly, "What do you want? Just say it."

"Since you look so capable, why don't you tell the police in Beijing to stop chasing us? After all, this place is not safe. If the police come, we definitely won't be able to leave..."

Tang Wenjian tried to find another idea.

If he could fulfill the request, it would prove that the first two conditions were true!

If it were true, they wouldn't have spared Luo Zheng.

Hence, she had a new source of wealth.

One ought to know that a kidnapping incident happened a decade ago that almost alarmed the entire world.

Rumor had it that the kidnapping included the rich and powerful, including... the President's son!

Chapter 432: Bo Hancheng, My Life Is My Fault, My Death... Is My Fault!

In the end, many died and only a few survived.

However, only half of the kidnappers had been arrested and the leader had yet to face justice. He was considered a legend amongst those wanted by the law!

Luo Zheng was suffering from the blue poison and her thoughts were a little muddled. However, she was extremely anxious when she saw that Bo Hancheng did not leave.

She could not help but stagger forward but was stopped by someone. She had no choice but to chase him away. "I said that I don't know him. Let him go! Let him go..."

She paused and glanced at Bo Hancheng before continuing angrily, "Go! Hurry and go..."

Bo Hancheng looked at her and said softly, "Sister Zheng, nothing will happen. Trust me."

Just as she was about to take out her mobile phone, Tang Wenjian suddenly smiled and said, "I'm a person who throws caution to the wind. So, as I'll have to apologize for having you suffer a little, Mr. Bo. It's to ensure that you'll remain under our control..."

As soon as he finished speaking, Tang Wenjian whipped out a dagger and threw it in front of Bo Hancheng. "Your left hand or right hand, Mr. Bo, your choice."

Upon hearing her words, Bo Hancheng's eyes turned gloomy and he stared at the dagger on the ground without moving.

"No!"

Before Bo Hancheng could even react, Luo Zheng turned him down.

"No? Miss Luo, didn't you say that you don't know him? Since you don't know him, what does it have to do with you whether his hand is crippled or not?"

Tang Wenjian then stepped forward and raised the gun in his hand. The gun was pointed at Luo Zheng's head and the safety was also switched off.

"Whatever you say, I'll agree. Don't scare her!"

Seeing this, Bo Hancheng's face grew sullen and he looked extremely dangerous.

Feeling oppressed by his gaze, Tang Wenjian began to feel nervous but he still smiled sinisterly. "As long as you cooperate well, Mr. Bo, I won't shoot her. Miss Luo will be fine too..."

Bo Hancheng smirked and picked up the dagger on the ground before spinning it in his palm.

Despite having a gun aimed at her head, Luo Zheng's pupils constricted and she said resolutely, "Bo Hancheng, my life is my business. My death... is also my business. It has nothing to do with you at all! We've already broken up completely. From now on, we have nothing to do with each other. I don't need you to care about me!"

"I didn't pick up the call just now. Sorry, Sister Zheng..."

To her surprise, Bo Hancheng ignored Luo Zheng.

As soon as he finished speaking, no one could tell that he had cut the tendons of his left hand and blood flowed out!

"No..."

Luo Zheng stared at him, feeling extremely distressed.

However, that was not all. Tang Wenjian said, "I'm still worried about hurting one hand. Why don't you stab your leg too?"

Bo Hancheng listened without hesitation and stabbed his leg, as if it were not his body.

"Is this enough?"

He asked calmly, not bothered at all.

"Tang Wenjian, I told you, he's not Gu Changye! It's useless to make things difficult for him. He can't give you any benefits..."

Luo Zheng felt a splitting headache and she stared at Bo Hancheng, finding him to be extremely eye-catching.

“Enough, Mr. Bo. Please continue what happened just now. Inform the police to stop chasing us...”

After confirming that Bo Hancheng’s hands and feet were injured, Tang Wenjian laughed sinisterly.

To Bo Hancheng, they were no different from dead people!

Bo Hancheng whipped out his mobile phone and made a call. He then instructed calmly, “Tell them to stop chasing the criminals. I have my ways to handle this...”

Chapter 433: Sister Zheng, Can You Bear To Not See Me Again?

After hanging up, Bo Hancheng asked coldly, “Are you satisfied now?”

“Of course I’m satisfied. Let’s see if what Mr. Bo said is true...”

Tang Wenjian sneered and ordered someone to destroy Bo Hancheng’s mobile phone.

“I’m sorry, Mr. Bo, I’ll have to apologize to you first before this is confirmed...”

Tang Wenjian ordered his subordinates to watch Bo Hancheng carefully before glancing at Luo Zheng.

He chuckled and said, “Miss Luo, you’re truly capable to have seduced such a man!”

Cold sweat formed on Luo Zheng’s forehead and she had no time to bother about Tang Wenjian. Her mind was extremely heavy.

Seeing this, Bo Hancheng stepped forward and warned sternly, “I’ll do everything you want. What I want is her safety! If anything happens to her, I’ll definitely make you guys die with her...”

Everyone was shocked by his words. Tang Wenjian confirmed that it was inconvenient for him to move and hence, no one stopped him.

Bo Hancheng stepped forward and pulled her into his arms before asking softly, “Is it a relapse?”

The familiar scent of tobacco mixed with the faint scent of cologne wafted into Luo Zheng’s nose, making her feel relieved.

She pushed him away and bit her lip. “Bo Hancheng, why did you come?”

“Because you’re here!”

He pressed his forehead against hers and sighed softly.

The reason he found out where Luo Zheng was because of the Mu Family.

Although they could call the police, they definitely could not spread the news about the abduction... Otherwise, Luo Zheng would be in danger once the news got out.

According to the Mu Family’s abilities, they would definitely have to sell the company if they wanted to take out five billion yuan.

Clearly, Mu Tianwei was not willing to sell the company to save Luo Zheng and hence, decided to make a police report... After making a police report, he even let the media know that he was a businessman.

Previously, Mu Tianwei and Tang Wenjian were cooperating with each other. To their surprise, the two of them wanted to take advantage of each other... In the end, Tang Wenjian naturally ended up losing. Not only did he owe the world a huge debt, he even took on the commercial fraud charge.

For the past few days, the police had been waiting!

He followed the trail and searched for Tang Wenjian's whereabouts before finding this place.

"Bo Hancheng, can you not do this? If you want to cut it off, cut it off cleanly. That's what you said! Hurry and leave, we... will never see each other again in the future."

Luo Zheng's mind was in a mess and she pushed him away forcefully.

She usually wanted to keep him close but at this moment, she actually pushed him away!

She then glanced at the ground to see that there was already a pool of blood.

Blood dripped from his hand and his legs were stained with blood too. It was a shocking sight!

However, he still said coldly, "Sister Zheng, can you bear not to see me again?"

In the beginning, he was just a substitute to her.

That person, the important Mr. Bodyguard, is no longer in this world... I'm the only one left. Can she really be ruthless and cut ties with me?

Or should she say that she wanted to make a clean break even if there was no substitute? Had she ever asked herself whether she would allow it?

"I can, I can!"

Luo Zheng turned around and ignored him.

He chuckled and said, "Hah, you're really heartless! When you're wooing me, you're willing to do anything for me. When you abandoned me, you wouldn't even take a glance at me... "

As soon as he finished speaking, Bo Hancheng extended his hand and pinched her chin before raising it gently to force her to face him. "Sister Zheng, who's more detestable? You can't get over others but you want to leave yourself. How can there be such a cheap thing in this world!?!"

Chapter 434: Come Back... Come Back...

"Sister Zheng, who's more detestable? You can't let go of others but you want to leave yourself. There's... no such cheap thing in this world!"

He sounded rather alluring.

Luo Zheng was suffering from a relapse and her thoughts were disorienting. Hence, she had no choice but to persist.

Indeed, she was the one who took the initiative to provoke him. However, he was the one who chose not to stay with her. What was this now?

“Bo Hancheng, go! Go...”

At last, she repeated those words.

Bo Hancheng scanned his surroundings to see that everyone was staring at him menacingly. He pulled her hand away and placed it on her forehead. “Hold on, I’ll leave. I’ll take you with me...”

He was alone when he entered the abandoned factory because he wanted to ensure her safety.

In order not to let Tang Wenjian and the rest discover that something was amiss, there were no people around and they were all outside the abandoned factory.

At this moment, the person sent by Tang Wenjian rushed forward and answered, “Brother Tang, we received news that the police have stopped chasing us!”

“Is that true?”

Tang Wenjian was overjoyed and his gloominess dissipated a little.

“It’s absolutely true. Not only did the police stop chasing the fugitives, even the media reports have been suppressed and they have stopped spreading the news!”

Upon hearing the news, Tang Wenjian and the rest were overjoyed.

Bo Hancheng glanced at her pale face and said coldly, “Your agenda has been achieved. Let her go now...”

Upon hearing his words, Tang Wenjian turned around and looked at Bo Hancheng. “I’ll let her go, of course. However, I’ll have to trouble you to escort us abroad, Mr. Bo!”

He was trying to say that he had to replace Luo Zheng with Bo Hancheng.

This was Tang Wenjian’s plan. If Bo Hancheng really managed to stop the police from arrest, his identity would definitely be different.

With such a trump card in hand, what’s there to be afraid of in the future? Of course, there will be no obstacles!

“I can be a hostage, but my woman must leave this place...”

Bo Hancheng insisted.

Tang Wenjian did not immediately agree. However, he still gave in and said with a sinister smile, “Although the police have stopped chasing us, we can’t safely get to the airport! Let’s leave Miss Luo here first and send someone to pick her up after we get out...”

Bo Hancheng remained silent and thought to himself, as long as I leave the abandoned factory, I can turn things around instantly.

Chu Ci was waiting for her outside and nothing would go wrong. However, he decided to leave her here just in case she got injured!

Bo Hancheng was just about to leave.

To his surprise, she grabbed his arm before he could even get up. "Bo Hancheng, you're not allowed to leave! I'll go with them..."

At this moment, Luo Zheng was feeling extremely uncomfortable and the only thing she could do was to stay awake.

"Miss Luo, you can't let Mr. Bo down for his kind intentions! If you're like this now, Mr. Bo will definitely feel sorry for you!"

Tang Wenjian added coldly.

At the critical juncture, it was obvious who would benefit the most!

"Be good and wait here."

Bo Hancheng rubbed her head and pried her fingers away.

He then got up slowly and looked away from her before stepping forward slowly.

"Bo Hancheng... come back... come back..."

Chapter 435: Scolding Her? How Are You Worthy!?!

"Bo Hancheng... come back... come back..."

Luo Zheng broke out into a cold sweat and staggered forward to stop him.

Seeing this, Old Zhao gave her a hard shove. "Little b*tch, stop ruining our plans!"

Bang!

She fell onto the ground like a broken kite.

"Who are you calling a b*tch?"

Bo Hancheng asked coldly with a sullen expression.

Old Zhao's face was swollen because of Luo Zheng. Hence, he said impolitely, "Hey, are you trying to protect your lover? I'm just calling her a little b*tch. What can you do? She's a little b*tch, a little b*tch, a prostitute..."

She was at a complete loss over what to do.

Bo Hancheng stepped forward and grabbed Old Zhao's arm before twisting it.

With a cracking sound, Old Zhao's arm snapped and his face turned pale from the pain.

"Insult her? How are you worthy!?!"

Bo Hancheng said coldly, as if he were looking at an ant.

He was clearly bleeding from his leg but he was still sharp and agile, as if he could kill someone within seconds!

Tang Wenjian was shocked and he subconsciously pulled the trigger.

Bang!

Bo Hancheng ducked and managed to dodge the bullet!

“Mr. Bo, you’re really skilled!”

Tang Wenjian seemed to be praising him and his heart sank. He then added, “However, Mr. Bo, I’m still a little wary, moreso if you have such skills!”

Indeed, Bo Hancheng had been groomed as the successor of the president since he was a child and hence, he was well-versed in martial arts. Besides, he had also gone to the military to train and earned a significant military rank.

If it weren’t for the fact that they were unsure of the number of people Tang Wenjian and the others had, as well as being unable to guarantee Luo Zheng’s safety... Under normal circumstances, a one-on-one fight wouldn’t be a problem at all and they could take them down anytime!

“So, either you get shot by me, or... your lover gets shot by me!”

Tang Wenjian dropped the question.

“Just come at me.”

Bo Hancheng’s eyes were cold and he was not afraid at all.

“Great! I like dealing with straightforward people like Mr. Bo...”

Tang Wenjian gestured to Old Zhao.

“Old Zhao, come here! Remember, don’t hit his vitals. Mr. Bo is an important hostage, we can’t risk his life...”

Upon hearing his instructions, Old Zhao walked forward in satisfaction.

He whipped out his gun and aimed it at Bo Hancheng before pulling the trigger.

Bang!

Bo Hancheng remained still and allowed himself to be shot in the shoulder!

Luo Zheng held her eyelids open and stared at the scene in front of her, her heart wrenching up.

Why? Why?

To him, she was not even his partner in bed. Why did he have to take the risk, suffer this humiliation and tolerate this offense!?!

He was clearly not Mr. Bodyguard who was in love with her, but his words and actions made her feel like she was hallucinating again.

“Sorry, Mr. Bo!”

Old Zhao said hypocritically after shooting.

Bo Hancheng frowned and asked impatiently, “Can you leave now?”

“Sure, sure, of course!”

Tang Wenjian said with a smile, as if he were not facing a hostage but a good friend!

They then stepped forward and took Bo Hancheng as a hostage before walking out slowly.

Before leaving, Bo Hancheng turned around to look at Luo Zheng who was lying on the ground and staring at him. “Sister Zheng, will you wait for me to come back?”

Chapter 436: The Sound of Gunshots and Danger!

Tears welled up in Luo Zheng’s eyes and she cocked her head towards the side to avoid his gaze. “Bo Hancheng, I won’t feel grateful to you for what you’ve done. I’ll hate you! I hate you...”

“Do you hate me? Indeed, you should hate me.”

Bo Hancheng muttered and looked away before walking out of the abandoned factory.

It wouldn’t be long before this matter was resolved.

If she left the abandoned factory with Tang Wenjian and the rest, she would definitely end up in a terrible state... Luo Zheng did not need to know about this. She would be safer staying here.

To his surprise, something happened as soon as they reached the entrance of the abandoned factory.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The gunshots were heard from outside and it was obvious that Tang Wenjian’s men were being attacked!

Bo Hancheng’s face grew sullen and his thoughts raced.

Chu Ci? No, that’s unlikely!

He made an agreement with Chu Ci that they would hide outside the abandoned factory... and he knew Chu Ci well. He wouldn’t be so unruly!

Unless... someone else was here!

“What’s going on? Damn it, someone is playing with us!”

Tang Wenjian and the other’s expressions changed as they cursed aloud.

Almost immediately, they targeted Bo Hancheng. Due to the fact that it was inconvenient for mobility, they did not tie Bo Hancheng up and only trapped him in the middle!

At this moment, they were determined to use Bo Hancheng as a shield.

Bo Hancheng was well aware that regardless of who this person was, he had to retaliate now... Otherwise, he would miss the best opportunity. Tang Wenjian and the rest were also ruthless and cruel!

Hence, Bo Hancheng's eyes glistened and he quickly turned around.

Bo Hancheng was rather formidable when he punished Old Zhao.

Compared to now, it was nothing.

Everyone knew that Bo Hancheng was clearly injured. However, how did he manage to snatch the gun away from one of them?

The gun in his hand seemed to have given life to him. There was no need for him to aim it at all. He could kill in an instant!

From the beginning to the end, Bo Hancheng retreated because he was wary of Luo Zheng.

Although they had yet to leave the abandoned factory, they were already a distance away from Luo Zheng. The people outside had already been resolved and there was nothing to worry about.

As for Tang Wenjian's men, most of them had been killed with a single shot, however, there were only six bullets in the gun. Only Old Zhao and Tang Wenjian were left.

Bo Hancheng ignored him and dodged Old Zhao's attack. He snatched another gun from his opponent and aimed it at Tang Jianwen.

"Ah..."

Tang Wenjian screamed and the gun in his hand fell onto the ground. He clutched his wrist and screamed in pain.

In just a few seconds, Bo Hancheng took the initiative and completely reversed the situation!

Bo Hancheng then picked up the guns on the ground and emptied the bullets.

This was Beijing, in a country that was different from Britain and had a completely different legal system. They could not kill anyone at will... Hence, although these people were shot and injured, they still managed to survive.

If they were in Britain, they would definitely have died!

Of course, Luo Zheng was not far away and he did not want to kill anyone in front of her.

After all, Luo Zheng was obviously terrified when he killed the person who tried to assassinate her in the underground gambling den!

Luo Zheng staggered and limped towards him.

Seeing this, Bo Hancheng's eyes turned gloomy and he was just about to hurry forward.

Clap! Clap! Clap!

At this moment, applause sounded from behind them.

A flirtatious voice then praised derisively, "You're indeed the Third Young Master Bo. Your skills are extraordinary. I'm really impressed!"

Chapter 437: Bo Hancheng VS Gu Changye, Who Will She Choose?

"As expected of the Third Young Master. Your skills are extraordinary. I'm truly impressed!"

Not far away, at the entrance of the abandoned factory.

Gu Changye appeared slowly. His amber eyes were beautiful and his handsome face was as exquisite as a lotus.

He was different from Bo Hancheng.

Bo Hancheng was like a born emperor while Gu Changye was like a handsome young master.

"I didn't expect Miss Luo to be so important to the Third Young Master. You're actually willing to put yourself in danger for her. How shocking!"

Gu Changye glanced at Tang Wenjian and the rest who were lying on the ground and saw that Bo Hancheng was covered in wounds and bleeding.

Upon hearing his words, Bo Hancheng looked at Gu Changye and his eyes turned gloomy. "Young Master Gu, I'm also surprised to see you here!"

"I can't help it. Miss Luo asked me for help. I had no choice but to come!"

Gu Changye glanced at Luo Zheng and was about to step forward.

Seeing this, Bo Hancheng extended his hand to stop Gu Changye. Gu Changye's face grew sullen and the two of them immediately began fighting.

Luo Zheng's blood was boiling and she almost couldn't take it any longer. She dragged her red and swollen ankle and walked towards them.

Seeing the two of them fighting, her vision turned blurry and she could not see clearly.

Fortunately, the two of them were just probing each other. After a simple exchange, they retreated.

Although Bo Hancheng's expression was calm, he was still injured and his face was pale.

Gu Changye, on the other hand, felt that Bo Hancheng was definitely stronger than him.

His subordinates immediately whipped out their guns and surrounded Bo Hancheng!

"This is Third Young Master Bo. Be polite and don't be so rude!"

Gu Changye raised his hand and gestured for his subordinate to retreat.

He then glanced at Luo Zheng and asked smilingly, "Miss Luo, I'm here to pick you up personally. Are you... going to leave with me?"

Ever since Luo Zheng threatened him on the phone, he had been displeased and deliberately tried to stall for time so that they would torture Luo Zheng, so as to get some revenge for her impertinence.

Of course, it was impossible for him to take the risk alone and so he brought his subordinates along.

Gu Changye's idea was simple. It all depended on how much Luo Zheng wanted to live.

He would then barge in and teach Tang Wenjian and the rest a lesson.

If Luo Zheng was lucky, she would be able to survive. If she wasn't, she would have no one else to blame for being unlucky... It would be impossible for Tang Wenjian to use Luo Zheng to threaten him!

Although Luo Zheng threatened to reveal his secrets to the public once she died.

Who knew how genuine her threat was?

Gu Changye had always believed that only dead people would keep secrets forever!

Before Luo Zheng could even answer Gu Changye, Bo Hancheng turned around and stared at her. "Are you leaving with him?"

There were two options in front of Luo Zheng.

Gu Changye and Bo Hancheng.

In the past, she would definitely hold Bo Hancheng's hand without hesitation. However, at this moment... even though the blue poison was acting up, her remaining rationality reminded her to make the right choice.

She questioned him time and time again during the Gu Family banquet.

Bo Hancheng, Mu Nianqing and I, who do you choose?

She didn't expect things to have changed so much in the blink of an eye. The only difference was... this time, she had the right to choose!

"Little imp, come here. Listen to me... "

Chapter 438: Her Brother Cheng is Convincing Her...

Bo Hancheng's heart sank as if he had expected her to hesitate.

He extended his hand towards Luo Zheng.

Gu Changye, on the other hand, continued to smile sinisterly and stepped forward to stand beside Bo Hancheng. "Miss Luo, have you forgotten about our relationship?"

His words were deliberately suggestive and misleading.

Luo Zheng raised her hand and clutched her chest in a bid to relieve her discomfort.

She then glanced at Bo Hancheng before glancing at Gu Changye.

The conflict between the two of them slowly ran through her mind like water.

She made up her mind bit by bit.

Luo Zheng then walked towards them and turned around to face Gu Changye.

“What an obedient child, you’ve made the right decision!”

Gu Changye smirked in satisfaction.

He then extended his hand towards her.

Due to the fact that the girl was facing Bo Hancheng with her back while she faced him, Gu Changye could clearly see her... When push came to shove, the girl wasn’t firm with her decision. There was still some hesitation!

When he extended his hand, he even saw a look of repulsion in her eyes.

How interesting. She shuns me and can’t bear to part with Bo Hancheng!

However, she still chose me. Everyone has secrets that they can’t reveal, right?

Staring at Gu Changye’s hand, Luo Zheng bit her lip and walked towards him.

To her surprise, Bo Hancheng said in a clear and alluring voice, “Sister Zheng, if you don’t like Mu Nianqing, I’ll send her away. No matter who’s in the wrong, I’ll make her leave...”

So, is he abandoning Mu Nianqing and choosing me again?

Luo Zheng thought about it but did not turn around. She continued to take another step forward to shorten the distance between her and Gu Changye.

“Sister Zheng, I may have hurt you with my words and actions. If you bear a grudge against me, I can pay you back double. It doesn’t matter how heavy it is...”

The man’s words made her shiver. Is this considered giving in?

Her Brother Cheng was such a proud man and always meant what he said. It turns out... he could give in!

However, Luo Zheng, don’t look back, you can’t look back. The relationship between the two of you has developed beyond your control.

If she were to continue pestering him, she wouldn’t be the only one who would be hurt. He would be hurt too.

She forced herself to ignore him and continued to walk towards Gu Changye. She then slowly extended her hand towards him.

She slowly raised her hand and was about to hold onto Gu Changye.

“Sister Zheng, haven’t you been thinking about Mr. Bodyguard and even treated me as a substitute from the very beginning? However, I’ll continue to be his substitute. Are you... satisfied?”

Bo Hancheng watched as Luo Zheng walked towards Gu Changye and chose another man resolutely. He felt angry at himself and also a little lonely.

He could only take a step back.

Being a substitute was his last step back. He had given up on his pride, pride, and pride... In his life, he rarely lowered his head like this!

Stop it, stop it. Bo Hancheng... why did you say that!?!

Luo Zheng's heart was filled with agony and tears welled up in her eyes. She was just short of turning around to leave with him.

However, she couldn't go back!

Seemingly having sensed her hesitation, Gu Changye smiled and grabbed her hand forcefully. "It's rare to hear the Third Young Master say such things! The rumors about the Bo Family are really misleading..."

Chapter 439: Zheng Refused Bo Hancheng...

Bo Hancheng came from the Bo Family in Britain.

Everyone said that the Bo Family was born heartless and ruthless. They could not love others!

It seemed that was not the case.

Luo Zheng, I was right, she's my weakness!

In order to save her, Bo Hancheng was able to take the risk alone. That alone was enough to prove that he was extraordinary... Besides, he seemed to have said those words just now!

Luo Zheng was not in the mood to listen carefully. What did Gu Changye say? With her back facing Bo Hancheng, she extended her other hand and grabbed Gu Changye's shoulder.

"Go! Hurry and go, I don't want to see Bo Hancheng..."

Luo Zheng urged, not wanting to stay any longer.

Seeing this, Gu Changye was extremely satisfied. He glanced at Bo Hancheng and smiled deliberately. "Third Young Master Bo, thank you for letting me win! I also want to bear with it and cut off my love, but unfortunately... she doesn't want to leave with you!"

He then glanced at her and bent forward to pick her up.

At the instant that he picked her up, Gu Changye chuckled and whispered into her ear, "Miss Luo, I'm afraid you don't know who you rejected just now, let alone what you rejected!"

What did she say? Refuse Bo Hancheng's affection!

Third Young Master Bo, there were plenty of beauties in Britain who were throwing themselves at him but could not see him at all... Now that he had come to Beijing to hide his identity, he definitely had a motive.

Bo Hancheng was not easily aroused.

It was rare for Bo Hancheng to be turned down, but Luo Zheng had. No one would believe this!

Bo Hancheng, Third Young Master Bo, the future presidential candidate... at least at this moment, he lost to him, Gu Changye!

However, Gu Changye knew that he was sizing him up.

Luo Zheng was clearly on the verge of relapsing, if she had not already.

Hence, she was probably not sober. Besides, the two of them should be at odds with each other. Hence, it was not surprising that this would happen!

Women are really strange creatures.

Previously, during the Gu Family's banquet, Luo Zheng could ignore everyone's mockery and contempt for wanting to stay by Bo Hancheng's side.

In the blink of an eye, she could ignore Bo Hancheng's wounds and turn him down so ruthlessly.

I really can't understand women.

Of course, if he could guess what she was thinking, Qi Sumei wouldn't have been able to get away with what she had for so long!

At the thought of Qi Sumei getting along with Gu Jingxuan and the thought of his mother destroying his future, Gu Changye's amber eyes turned gloomy and he hugged her tightly.

She was the only one who knew his secrets!

However, he had forgotten to ask her how she found out.

"Even so, are you still going to leave with Gu Changye?"

At this moment, Bo Hancheng said coldly with an inexplicable loneliness.

Shocked, Gu Changye looked down at Luo Zheng and said, "Yeah, Miss Luo, even I'm touched by what he said! Are you sure you won't regret leaving with me?"

Luo Zheng, are you sure?

Go to hell with me and abandon your bright future.

Although Bo Hancheng's future was almost hellishly complex, compared to hers, the difference was... that Luo Zheng's was undoubtedly brighter than theirs.

She was filled with darkness and naturally yearned for light.

Perhaps, it doesn't belong to me but as long as I can dispel the cloud, what's wrong with it?

"Yes, I want to leave with Gu Changye!"

Luo Zheng forced herself to speak and did not turn around to look at Bo Hancheng.

Somehow, she didn't want to look at him or... she didn't dare to!

"Bo Hancheng, I'm very grateful that you saved me. I'm just sorry, that's all!"

Chapter 440: Luo Zheng, I Must Have Lost My Mind!

"Bo Hancheng, I'm very grateful that you saved me. I'm just sorry, that's all!"

Luo Zheng grabbed Gu Changye's shirt and dug her nails into his shoulder.

She looked up and met Gu Changye's ambiguous gaze. "Go! Gu Changye, hurry and take me away..."

"Okay, Miss Luo, I'll take you away now."

Gu Changye said in a low voice, clearly pleased with her decision.

He then glanced at the man in front of her. Gu Changye's lips were still pursed. "Third Young Master Bo, I'll take my leave now. See you later!"

He then hugged her tightly and walked out slowly.

Bo Hancheng's body was still bleeding profusely.

Staring at Luo Zheng who was hiding in another man's arms without turning back, Bo Hancheng tried to stop her.

Gu Changye's subordinates immediately surrounded Bo Hancheng with ill intentions.

"Hah."

He chuckled coldly.

Luo Zheng's heart skipped a beat and she could not help but turn around.

"Don't look back, you're the winner. Later, you'll lose..."

To his surprise, Gu Changye tightened his grip around Luo Zheng and locked her in his chest.

At this moment, Luo Zheng could hear his words clearly even though she was not sober enough.

"Luo Zheng, I must have lost my mind to let you trample all over me like this!"

Luo Zheng frowned and her heart began to ache.

For a moment, she thought.

Am I... being too cruel?

Bo Hancheng tried his best to save her and ended up being badly wounded... He even said those words to show that he cared about her.

However, she still chose Gu Changye.

Why?

Luo Zheng's mind was in a mess and she could not understand what was going on. She felt flustered, helpless and uneasy.

Luo Zheng was still in a daze after Gu Changye carried her into the car.

Most of them left the abandoned factory and sat in the car.

Due to the relapse, her desire for the blue poison grew stronger again.

If the relapse from before would make one's willpower become muddled, the difference now would be that the Blue Vixen could arouse the deepest desire in one's heart.

She then bore with the torment and fell into the abyss.

"Is she suffering a relapse? How pathetic!"

Gu Changye smirked while staring at her pale face.

"Miss Luo, how do you feel now? Do you really want it... "

While speaking, he put an arm around her shoulder like an angel who had committed a heinous crime!

"I want... I want... give it to me... can you give it to me... "

She nodded, feeling a little confused while pleading with him.

However, she then struggled to hold on and immediately shook her head. "No... I can't... I don't want anything... "

She kept going back and forth, struggling to make a decision.

"So what? As long as you say it, I'll give it to you..."

Gu Changye teased her and found it to be rather interesting.

Just like what Luo Zheng said, it was a joyous occasion for him to make others suffer!
