

BO LOVE LIFE 71

Chapter 71: Willing

“Yeah! You’ve decided to take me, haven’t you Brother Cheng? I’m willing!”

Luo Zheng was beautiful but the things she said were so bold and brazen.

Bo Hancheng’s eyes turned gloomy immediately and he stared at her in bewilderment.

However, he could not deny that she had indeed messed up his mind and made it impossible for him to remain composed.

Luo Zheng had other ideas in mind.

Although she no longer wanted to get into a relationship with any men from now on, that did not mean that she wanted to stay alone... she couldn’t repeat her mistake of staying a virgin until her death like she did in her previous lifetime!

Since she had to face it sooner or later, she decided to be conscientious with choosing her target.

Her Mr. Bodyguard had a great figure and a perfect face. He could be considered the best option available... Wouldn’t she be a fool to let him go? Since he didn’t want to be in a romantic relationship too, they were both after the same thing!

On the surface, she seemed to be giving herself to him but in reality, he was giving himself to her too.

The rest was not important since they were both willing parties.

“If Old Mr. Luo were to find out that Miss Luo is willing to be my clandestine lover, what would he think?”

At this very moment, Bo Hancheng spoke softly, yet just as coldly.

Luo Zheng’s face stiffened and she threw her arms around his neck. She buried herself in his arms and exclaimed, “Brother Cheng, we should just keep this between us. What’s the point of letting others know? If this leaks, it’s going to affect us badly!”

“Is that so?”

He sounded calm and dauntless.

Luo Zheng nodded and rubbed her face against him affectionately. “Yeah, yeah, let’s keep it a secret. Once you find someone you fancy, we can end our relationship!”

“In that case, should I be thanking you for sparing a thought for me?”

Bo Hancheng asked calmly in a hoarse voice.

“Brother Cheng, you’re welcome! It’s only right for me to spare a thought for you.”

Luo Zheng sounded dignified and self-righteous because she didn't find anything wrong with what she said.

She then squinted and stared at his earlobe before inching forward in a bid to touch it.

"What are you doing?"

Bo Hancheng's body turned stiff.

"Brother Cheng, your ear is turning red. Are you... feeling shy? Ah! It can't be. Are you that innocent? I'll feel shy like this!"

Luo Zheng seemed to have discovered a shocking fact.

She then looked at his reddened ear again and barked, "Hey, you're turning red! Brother Cheng, you really are shy..."

"Shut up!"

Bo Hancheng rarely lost control and his voice turned extremely cold.

"Don't get angry! I didn't know you were so shy..."

"Luo Zheng, if you dare to spout any nonsense again, I really won't spare you!"

Luo Zheng tried to explain but stopped doing so because of his threat.

Silence filled the air for a few seconds.

She then buried her head in his neck and said softly, "I know that I'm pretty and you can't help but let your imagination run wild! But I'll only turn 18 in six months' time..."

After a moment of hesitation, she said earnestly, "But if Brother Cheng doesn't mind..."

"Ah! It hurts... Be gentler—"

Before Luo Zheng could finish speaking, Bo Hancheng grabbed her chin tightly causing her to wince in pain.

"Your mind truly is active, eh?"

Chapter 72: Untitled

He asked coldly with a frown, "Or are you okay with doing this with anyone?"

Upon hearing this, Luo Zheng frowned and retorted, "Of course not! Bo Hancheng, how can you say that about me?"

After a while, she subconsciously said in an aggrieved manner, "Others are so disgusting and annoying, how could I be willing? I only agreed because it was you! Like I said, you are special..."

Luo Zheng was really a little angry because he often got the wrong idea about her, as if she was that terrible!

She did have some hidden intentions, however.

For example, he wanted to have a no-strings-attached relationship with her where he need not bear any responsibility, and it was the same for her too... Of course, that was assuming that they were both willing parties. If he were not willing, she wouldn't force it!

He wouldn't be at a loss anyway. Wouldn't that be fine?

Seeing her reaction, Bo Hancheng asked in satisfaction, "Seems like I'm the first?"

"Well, you're not only the first, you're the only one!"

Luo Zheng replied truthfully with pride written all over her beautiful face.

"Little imp, you've got such a glib tongue!"

Bo Hancheng slowly lowered his head, and the dismay within him vanished a little.

All men liked virgins, even if they didn't have feelings for them.

Upon hearing her words, Luo Zheng squinted and asked, "Really?"

"I can conduct a check to find out."

Bo Hancheng's tone was cold and he gave off a lofty vibe.

Check? What else is there to check!?!

Luo Zheng was still feeling smitten and enchanted by him.

"Mm..."

Luo Zheng widened her eyes in shock as she fell speechless.

His body temperature was rather low and he exuded a refreshing and pleasant scent. Somewhere deep within his soul, he was harboring thoughts of devouring her.

All of a sudden, she seemed to have returned to the previous life. On the first night of snowfall, he did the same to her. Although it was only once, it remained deeply etched in her memory. She remembered clearly that this was exactly how it felt.

She suddenly felt like she was hallucinating and her mind went blank while she turned a little giddy.

What? I can't faint!

Otherwise, that would be too... too embarrassing!

"Are you that distracted?"

Bo Hancheng teased after sensing that she was behaving abnormally.

He was certain that she wasn't lying!

Luo Zheng opened her eyes and tried to explain, "Brother Cheng, I wasn't distracted, I just..."

She couldn't bring herself to speak the truth!

After thinking about it for a moment, Luo Zheng asked, "Brother Cheng, should we start afresh?"

Chapter 73: He Doesn't Want Her

She could not take it lying down at all. If she were to lose to him at the beginning, what is going to happen in the future?

No, I must save my pride!

"No need, I'm not interested!"

He glanced at her and said coldly.

"Huh?"

Luo Zheng was full of questions because she did not understand what he meant.

Not interested?

Who was the one who got annoyed at me for being distracted? Yet, he's saying that he isn't interested now. Calm down, calm down, I must calm down!

However, at this very moment, Bo Hancheng released his grip on her and took a step back.

Luo Zheng immediately fell out of his arms but fortunately did not fall onto the ground because her back was against the car.

"Brother Cheng, what are you doing?"

Luo Zheng almost fell down and she subconsciously grew infuriated.

"The test results are unsatisfactory!"

Bo Hancheng said solemnly.

While Luo Zheng was feeling confused, he said, "You're not fit to be my person yet!"

He then got into the driver's seat and started the engine, leaving Luo Zheng dumbfounded.

Seeing that he was about to drive away, Luo Zheng finally snapped out of her trance and hurried forward. "Bo Hancheng, it's okay if we can't be lovers, we can be something else! If not, we can exchange mobile phone numbers and keep in touch as friends... "

Before Luo Zheng could even finish speaking, he drove away without looking at her.

Damn it, what does he mean?

He's already kissed, hugged and touched me. Yet, all he said is... he isn't satisfied with the test results?

Ah, he even said that I don't meet the standards. I'm beautiful and rich. How am I not worthy!?!

Luo Zheng felt like crying.

He turned down my card and even declined when I threw myself at him!

I just want to repay his kindness. Is it that difficult?

Why is Mr. Bodyguard such a... blockhead in his youth?

At the same time, Bo Hancheng gripped the steering wheel tightly with no expression.

His eyes were dark and gloomy like an icy cold abyss.

Apart from during the monthly relapses, he would often exercise excellent self-control and rarely lost control of himself.

However, he actually got aroused by just a simple kiss just now.

He even felt a strong urge which almost made him ignore everything and let himself go!

Throughout the years, she was not the first to throw herself at him or the first who tried to get into his pants... he had met plenty of women back in Britain but he never once looked at any of them.

However, things went beyond his expectations today.

Had he not left just now, he wouldn't dare to imagine what might happen!

Luo Zheng...

The image of Luo Zheng would pop up in his head whenever he thought of her name.

She was charming, daring, coquettish, and at the instant that she called him "Brother Cheng"... Bo Hancheng's desires grew stronger and stronger.

Perhaps, it was time for him to find a lover now.

However, he suddenly realized that there wasn't a lack of candidates.

Not long ago, Chu Ci sent a girl to him who had a special physique that could allow her to be his antidote.

What's her name again? I think it's... Mu Nianqing!

Chapter 74: Destroy The Four Greatest Families

It was nighttime.

Chu Ci ordered a glass of red wine and swirled it in his hand while wearing a mysterious mask. He stared at Bo Hancheng and asked with an insidious look, "Third Brother, out of the four greatest families in Capital City, which one are you planning to destroy first?"

The tall and slender Bo Hancheng stood quietly in front of the French Window.

His back was eye-catching enough and he was clearly not to be belittled.

Although it was already late at night, the lights in Capital City were still shining brightly, appearing posh and luxurious.

“The Xi Family.”

Bo Hancheng answered calmly, his voice as clear as wine.

“The Xi Family? I thought you’d choose to destroy the Luo Family first. It seems like I’ve guessed incorrectly! However, the Xi Family is used to using the dog-eat-dog tactic in the business industry. It’s really detestable!”

Chu Ci briefly analyzed the situation while chuckling, sounding as if he were talking about destroying a toy and not a renowned family!

He then added softly, “We’ll first destroy the Xi Family, then the Gu Family, the Luo Family and lastly... the Chu Family!”

“We don’t have to worry about the destruction of the four major families for now! Third Brother, when are you planning to go back to Britain? Someone there is feeling aroused ever since you left...”

Britain was a presidential country while the Bo Family had a legacy and history of hundreds of years!

Being in the Bo family was akin to being in the English Royal family. Which members of established families did not crave power?”

Bo Hancheng did not answer for a long time.

Feeling a little hesitant, Bo Hancheng seemed a little distracted though he was still interested.

“It’s rare of you to be troubled by love, Third Brother.”

Suddenly reminded of something, he asked, “You suddenly told me to investigate Miss Luo Zheng previously. What was that about?”

Indeed, Bo Hancheng was vexed because of Luo Zheng.

He could not understand the reason for Luo Zheng’s attitude towards him.

Now that Chu Ci had asked about it, Bo Hancheng considered it for a while before giving him a summary.

“What? Luo Zheng is willing to be your lover? Damn it. That can’t be possible!”

Chu Ci reacted agitatedly after hearing his words.

Bo Hancheng turned around and glanced at him coldly while he quickly explained, “I do know quite a bit about Miss Luo Zheng! She carries a torch for Xi Mubai, and she’s completely obsessed with him. How could she so easily move on!?!”

In addition, he was also well aware that Bo Hancheng would never lie and hence, he found it even more unbelievable!

Bo Hancheng listened while his abyss-like eyes exuded an icy cold gaze. "Does she really fancy Xi Mubai that much?"

Chu Ci even teased in disdain. "Third Brother, you have lived in Britain ever since you were young and you never once returned to Capital City so you obviously don't know! Luo Zheng began carrying a torch for Xi Mubai ever since she was in high school and she got crazier in the subsequent years. She was so obsessed that everyone knew about it! Well, she's a girl after all. 18 years old is the age where one gets curious about the opposite gender.

"Is that so?"

Bo Hancheng questioned coldly with no emotion.

Was he hallucinating?

He could feel his temperature dropping to zero!

After thinking about how Luo Zheng took the initiative to see Bo Hancheng, he reckoned that something must have gone wrong. Hence, he suggested, "Third Brother, it's not impossible to find out if Luo Zheng has any other intentions. I do have something I can use to find out more about her for you, if you want."

Testing?

Bo Hancheng's eyes turned gloomy because he had tried observing her before.

For example, he had suggested that she become his nude model and his partner in bed... Yet, she didn't turn him down, which was highly unusual!

If she weren't that special, he would have forgotten about her!

"Test what?"

"All the way." Bo Hancheng said.

"Humans can pretend to be dauntless but there's one thing that many fear and that is death. As long as her life is in danger, she will definitely... show her true colors!"

Chapter 75: How Can She Compare To My Nianqing!?!

Due to Mu Tianwei's reminder, Li Shufen, Mu Cuiyun and Su Xuanxuan tried their best not to provoke Luo Zheng any longer.

After all, Luo Zheng would be turning 18 years old in half a year's time.

If they were to strain their relationship with Luo Zheng while nitpicking on her... Luo Zheng might just choose not to transfer the shares over to them. If that were to happen, they would end up causing all of their efforts to go in vain!

Anyway, Mu Tianwei had already forged a strong impression of being a benevolent father in Luo Zheng's heart and he was certain that they would definitely get their wishes fulfilled.

Most importantly, Mu Nianqing actually got herself acquainted with the Bo Family from Britain and could very likely become the First Lady. That made the Mu Family too overjoyed to bother about Luo Zheng.

Luo Zheng was also pleased to be free from them and hence kept herself busy with revision in preparation for her exam the following month.

Even without thinking about it too deeply, she could easily guess that her only value were the assets that her mother had left behind for her.

Bright and early in the morning, Luo Zheng headed downstairs in a bid to go out after she was done with freshening up.

Due to the fact that she did not wish to face the Mu Family members, she had been leaving the house early and returning only at night. She would also have her meals away from home.

“Zheng, I heard from Xuanxuan that you and the headmistress of your class have made a bet with each other on you getting into the top ten for the upcoming exam?”

Mu Tianwei stepped forward and showed his concern to Luo Zheng after seeing that she had come downstairs.

He had naturally already heard about it from the school ever since the bet was made.

Luo Zheng smiled and said smugly, “Yeah, Father, as long as I win the bet, the headmistress will have to resign! You have no idea how much I detest her...”

“Zheng, I believe that you’ll definitely win the bet!”

Mu Tianwei tried his best to encourage her like a benevolent father.

Luo Zheng almost threw up in disgust after hearing his words, feeling a strong urge to tear his mask away to reveal his true colors... However, at this moment, Mu Cuiyun said, “Yeah, Zheng is so smart, it should be no problem for her to get into the top ten!”

Even Li Shufen chimed in smilingly, “Yeah, we’re all waiting for the good news. Don’t embarrass us!”

“Auntie, Grandma, rest assured, I won’t disappoint you guys!”

Luo Zheng spoke confidently before turning around and leaving.

As soon as she turned around, her smile stiffened and her eyes were filled with disdain and disgust.

Hah, such great actors they are. They obviously know how terrible my grades are and yet, they’re still lying so brazenly!

If it weren’t for her personal experience, she really couldn’t imagine that the Mu family would keep up with the pretense for more than ten years... It was such a long time. They were so disgusting as all they did were fabricate lies to dupe her.

Once the exams are over, I shall take my time to deal with them and chase them out of the Luo Family!

“Look, she’s so stupid! She really thinks she’s Nianqing, doesn’t she? She’s thinking of getting into the top ten? Psht, if she gets into the last ten, she should thank the heavens!”

Mu Cuiyun remarked in disdain towards Luo Zheng.

She immediately looked at Mu Tianwei with a smile and praised, “Brother, you’ve raised her really well. She’s nothing but a piece of garbage now! After the exams next month, she will have to drop out to abide by the bet. She will have to live the rest of her life as a high school graduate. She probably wouldn’t even get to marry into a good family.”

Mu Tianwei remained silent, though he was deep in thought.

He was undoubtedly scheming something. Hence, he could clearly sense that there was something different about Luo Zheng!

Li Shufen was also proud. She immediately said, “Yeah, isn’t she just a wild brat whom nobody wants? If Nianqing becomes the First Lady in the future, how can Luo Zheng even compare to her?”

After hearing her words, Mu Tianwei’s heart sank and he lowered his voice to remind her, “Mother, just keep it to yourself, don’t say it out loud!”

Li Shufen remained silent, though she was unsure if Mu Tianwei was referring to Luo Zheng or Mu Nianqing.

Chapter 76: Digging Her Own Grave

In the afternoon, the skies suddenly turned gloomy and it seemed like it was going to rain.

Resting her chin in her hands, Luo Zheng sat by the window and looked out, slowly getting distracted.

She had especially noted down the schedule of the art lessons in Capital University and hence, she knew that there was an art class going on at this time.

Just like she had expected, Bo Hancheng was in the classroom.

She initially thought about skipping this class to go see Mr. Bodyguard.

However, when she was reminded of the fact that she could not sit in for major lessons and would have to wait outside the classroom instead, she decided to drop the idea.

Of course, that was not the main point. The main reason was because Bo Hancheng was often cold and aloof towards her, thus making it hard for her to get close to him.

Luo Zheng, don’t be discouraged. Brother Cheng is not an ordinary man who can be befriended so easily. He’s the most, most... the most special man in the world!

Luo Zheng encouraged herself in her heart and decided to rush straight to Capital University after school ended.

“Dong...”

While Luo Zheng was feeling distracted, she felt a sudden strike against her forehead.

She looked down to see that it was a piece of chalk that had hit her.

Her heart sank and she conscientiously raised her head, only to be greeted with the sullen expression of her math teacher. "Luo Zheng, if you don't want to pay attention, get out of the classroom!"

Among all the teachers, the strictest were the math teachers, most of whom were bespectacled middle-aged women in their thirties and forties that dressed in old-fashioned clothes.

Therefore, most of the students nicknamed the math teachers the "Terminators" ... Compared to the class headmistress, Luo Zheng had a neutral attitude towards the math teachers whom she neither liked nor disliked.

"Teacher, I've been listening."

Luo Zheng stood up and answered truthfully.

In the first half of the lesson, she had really been listening, but she could not help but get distracted during the second half because she knew how to answer all the questions.

"In that case, please come forth to write the solution to the question that I have just explained..."

She clearly did not believe Luo Zheng and was deliberately trying to put her on the spot.

The question that she was referring to was a critical question which was tough to answer even after hearing the explanation!

At this moment, many students in the class laughed and looked at Luo Zheng, though they felt a little sympathetic towards her... Anyone could tell that the math teacher intended to make an example out of Luo Zheng.

However, Luo Zheng did not hesitate and walked up to the chalkboard where she picked up the chalk, glanced at the question and began writing the solution. Her handwriting was neat and beautiful.

At the beginning, the math teacher looked at Luo Zheng with contempt, knowing that her grades were too horrible for her to be able to solve the question... However, she gradually realized that Luo Zheng could write out the solution in one go with a perfect problem-solving process.

At the end, her face was burning hot. She initially wanted to teach Luo Zheng a lesson... Yet, she ended up digging her own grave and embarrassing herself!

"Teacher, I've already written the solution. May I go back now?"

Luo Zheng asked calmly.

The math teacher could barely suppress her emotions. Pretending to be alright, she exclaimed, "Go on! In the future, continue to listen attentively so that we can make greater progress..."

Luo Zheng nodded earnestly and returned to her seat.

Soon, the students looked at Luo Zheng again, though they obviously saw her in a different light now.

They were perplexed, shocked and dumbfounded.

Luo Zheng could not be bothered about what they thought. She turned to look out of the window again, only to see that the rain was getting heavier.

School was about to end soon. Luo Zheng frowned.

If it rains, should I still go to Capital University?

While thinking, she suddenly thought of something and her eyes lit up.

A rainy day? This is an opportunity!

Taking a stroll in the rain with Mr. Bodyguard is definitely going to be romantic. It's going to help with scoring brownie points too.

Just as she was deep in thought, the sounds of the bell rang.

The only quality of the math teacher was that she would never drag her lessons on and make them stay behind!

Luo Zheng packed up and stood up to leave.

Pak~

A heavy book of notes landed in front of her.

Slightly stunned, Luo Zheng looked up to meet a pair of eyes. She said in a hoarse voice, "Luo Zheng, these are some notes that I have compiled. You may borrow them for your revision! Remember to return them to me after the exams..."

Chapter 77: Luo Zheng, What Are You Getting Up To Again?

The bespectacled boy in front of her seemed to be about 17 or 18 years old and he looked rather youthful. He was dressed in a simple outfit and had a pair of black-framed glasses on which made him look neat and trim.

He did not say anything else after leaving the notes behind. Before Luo Zheng could even answer, he turned around and put his bag on his shoulder, after which he walked towards the door.

"Eh? Why did the class monitor all of a sudden lend his notes to Luo Zheng?"

Just like Luo Zheng, the classmates beside her were curious and bewildered too.

Luo Zheng's reputation in the class had always been particularly poor. In addition, she had also bet against the headmistress of the class lately... For various reasons, she was alienated and was an outcast, for no one wanted to befriend her.

Hence, the monitor's behavior was puzzling!

The monitor?

Luo Zheng frowned and looked at the notes on the table before falling deep in thought.

When she was in her first year of university in her previous life, she rarely attended school and was never on the same page as her classmates... Later on, Mu Sen exposed the lewd video that he had taken of her, thus leaving her with no choice but to withdraw from school.

Why did the class monitor help me?

“Jiang Musheng, what do you mean?”

Li Li questioned in a sharp voice.

Luo Zheng and the headmistress of the class had made a huge bet. As her daughter, Li Li would obviously be upset at Jiang Musheng for helping Luo Zheng!

In Class 9, Jiang Musheng was the class monitor and hence ranked first in terms of academics, while Li Li was the deputy monitor and was one of the top ten... Usually, they often interacted with each other because they were both role models. Li Li thought that they were on good terms with each other.

That was why she felt shocked by Jiang Musheng’s behavior!

Unfortunately, Li Li’s question fell on death ears and Jiang Musheng simply left.

Jiang Musheng...

Luo Zheng recited his name in her heart.

The monitor really is different from the rest.

I’ll remember this favor that he has done me!

...

While it was drizzling, Luo Zheng left the school and hailed a cab to Capital University.

As soon as she arrived at Capital University, she calculated the time and reckoned that Bo Hancheng should have just finished teaching. She then scurried to the arts building.

Although it was not raining heavily, Luo Zheng was almost drenched and was overwhelmed with chills.

It seemed that her plan to take a stroll in the rain with him was not going to work out. If she were to get drenched, wouldn’t it be a huge loss?

She thought, when I see Mr. Bodyguard later, I must make him see how drenched I’ve gotten because of him. He’d definitely be touched and accept me!

Filled with joy, she made a turn at the corner and arrived at the bottom of the arts building.

Bang!

However, Luo Zheng knocked into someone as soon as she made a turn.

Seeing that he was losing his balance, Luo Zheng grabbed his arm without hesitation.

She then helped him regain his balance before apologizing sincerely, “I’m sorry, I wasn’t being careful.”

She then let go of his arm and continued to proceed forward.

He then grabbed Luo Zheng's wrist to stop her... Next, he asked in a gentle and slightly derisive tone, "Luo Zheng, what tricks are you getting up to again this time?"

Luo Zheng didn't have the time to look at him because of how abrupt the matter happened.

Her pupils constricted after hearing his voice.

At the next instant, she turned to look at the youth while the raindrops fell into her eyes, forming a beautiful ripple.

Standing in front of her, Xi Mubai held onto an umbrella with one hand while holding her with the other. His handsome face was full of disdain for her and time seemed to have rewound.

Luo Zheng thought to herself,

Damn it, if I knew it was him, I wouldn't have held him at all. I would have pushed him back down!

Chapter 78: You Are The Person I Hate The Most, Being Near You Makes Me Feel Dirty...

I really didn't expect to knock into Xi Mubai on a rainy day in such a manner... Damn it, should I blame it on Capital University being too small or are rivals just always bound to meet? I can't seem to avoid him at all!

"Tricks? On who? You?"

Luo Zheng scoffed derisively and thought, he got the wrong idea and thought that I ran into him on purpose!

Well, the situation does seem really cliché.

"Senior Mubai, I'm really sorry for letting you down but I... really am not interested in playing tricks on you!"

Luo Zheng stared at him and sounded dignified.

She then glanced at the hand on her wrist and reminded, "So, please let go, don't hinder me from finding someone!"

She thought that Xi Mubai wouldn't hold her back since he was arrogant and lofty.

Yet, Xi Mubai did not let go and instead tightened his grip on her wrist. "Who are you looking for? Bo Hancheng?"

Not expecting him to be aware, Luo Zheng squinted while water dripped from her hair. She stared at him coldly and hollered, "Senior Mubai, this is none of your business!"

She was clearly admitting it. Xi Mubai's heart sank.

He then scrutinized her in disgust and barked, "Why? Are you giving up on yourself and switching to wooing Bo Hancheng instead, just because I'm not interested in you? Luo Zheng, you're nothing but man-crazy!"

In the past, he would never pay attention to Luo Zheng when she appeared in front of him all the time... However, this time, she ignored him and he weirdly couldn't keep his cool!

However, he wouldn't think that he cared about Luo Zheng... He thought that it was mostly because he was helping his close friend, Luo Tingxue out.

After all, Luo Tingxue had personally asked him to persuade Luo Zheng not too long ago.

Since he agreed to it, he couldn't stand aside without doing anything now that he had run into Luo Zheng!

"Xi Mubai, narcissism is an illness that needs to be treated!"

The confused Luo Zheng thought to herself, isn't he always aloof and distant towards me? What nonsense is he spouting now!?!

"Let go of me! Let go..."

Luo Zheng struggled and tried to pull her wrist away forcefully, for she could not be bothered to let him pester her any longer.

However, he tightened his grip again after she struggled, making her feel overwhelmed with excruciating pain!

"Xi Mubai, did you forget to take your medicine before you left the house? Look carefully, I'm Luo Zheng, the Luo Zheng you detest the most! Aren't you resistant towards the people you hate? SO, let go of me lest I dirty your hand!"

"How did you know that?"

Xi Mubai's eyes turned gloomy and he questioned her.

He had always kept a distance from the people he hated because it was a personal habit... He was the only one who knew that and even his parents had no idea. How did Luo Zheng know?

Upon hearing his words, Luo Zheng froze and felt as if her heart had been pierced by needles.

Of course she knew. In her previous life, the two of them would keep a distance from each other even after they got engaged... Whenever she tried to get closer to him, he would shun her like the plague.

Finally, she couldn't tolerate it any longer and decided to question him to find out the reason.

"Luo Zheng, I have a habit of staying away from the people I hate! You are the person I hate the most. I feel dirty even when you're near me... How can I tolerate letting you touch me?"

The words that he said back then were still fresh in her memory.

Yet, he was now holding onto her tightly and refusing to let go. How ironic!

“Xi Mubai, I don’t have the time to waste with you! Let go of me...”

“Luo Zheng, are you going to vie with Tingxue for the person she likes!?!”

Before Luo Zheng could even finish speaking, she unexpectedly heard his cold voice.

Luo Zheng froze and asked, “Vying with Cousin for the person she likes?”

“Bo Hancheng is Tingxue’s crush! Luo Zheng, Tingxue is your cousin. She’s showing concern for you despite the past conflicts. If you have a little conscience, you’d better not be so shameless!”

Chapter 79: Xi Mubai, You Are Not Qualified To Judge Me!

Xi Mubai’s words were chilly amidst the rain.

Cheap and shameless?

Luo Zheng stared at him while listening to his words. She could not help but recall her previous life when she saw the hatred in his eyes.

It turns out he had always despised her, in both lifetimes.

Luo Tingxue cares about me... so she doesn’t want me to do anything cheap? What a joke!

“Xi Mubai, who are you to say this to me?”

Luo Zheng questioned coldly while staring at him in a distant manner, devoid of all admiration towards him.

She then pursed her lips before sneering, “Firstly, Cousin and Bo Hancheng are not lovers, nor are they engaged. She can pursue him but when I do, it’s called snatching? Well, what do we do now? I’m really going to snatch him away!”

Upon hearing her words, Xi Mubai’s eyes turned gloomy and he chastised, “Luo Zheng, please have some self-awareness. No matter how you try to snatch him away, your efforts are just going to be futile! He’s never going to choose you! If you compete with Tingxue, you will never win!”

“It doesn’t matter if he doesn’t choose me, but he won’t choose Luo Tingxue either...”

Luo Zheng raised her chin and said with certainty.

Mr. Bodyguard is so handsome and perfect. Luo Tingxue will definitely fall in love with someone else... and end up letting Mr. Bodyguard down. I will not allow that to happen!

“Xi Mubai, I have no time to talk to you, let go!”

Luo Zheng was in low spirits and she desperately wanted to break away from him.

Seeing that Luo Zheng was smitten with Bo Hancheng, Xi Mubai could not help but feel displeased. He added mercilessly, “Luo Zheng, if you keep being so obsessed, nobody will ever love you!”

“Luo Zheng, you want me to love you? Over my dead body!”

He looked just like he did in the previous life. Luo Zheng's eyes widened and she froze abruptly.

Back then, he looked at her in their matrimonial home and she watched as he left together with Mu Nianqing who was pregnant with his child...

"Luo Zheng, you..."

Sensing that Luo Zheng did not seem to be in a good mood, Xi Mubai realized that he had gone overboard with his words and hence wanted to say something to make up for it.

Pak~

However, at this moment, Luo Zheng raised her hand and slapped him. "Xi Mubai, you're in no place to restrict me!"

Her loud and crisp slap gave Xi Mubai a great shock.

In complete disbelief, he stared at her angrily and barked, "Luo Zheng, how dare you hit me!"

Luo Zheng stared at him with hatred in her eyes. "I don't need others to love me, never again! Xi Mubai, you are not qualified to restrict me or judge me... The last person who should do so is you!"

Luo Zheng then pulled her wrist out of his hand with all her might and turned around to leave.

As a subject of envy and admiration, Xi Mubai had never been treated so harshly before.

Everyone complimented him for being gentlemanly and well-mannered, but only those who were close to him knew that he was a cold and indifferent person... He also had high standards and expectations when choosing a partner and was particularly demanding. He also looked down on ordinary girls like Luo Zheng!

To him, she was an idiot, man-obsessed and silly. He wouldn't bother taking another look at her at all.

Yet, she was the one who just gave him a slap right now. What an absolute humiliation!

"Luo Zheng, hold it right there! You're not allowed to move..."

Xi Mubai stopped in front of her and placed a hand on her shoulder to stop her.

Due to the fact that it was raining and it was almost evening, there were only a few students in the vicinity and hence, no one really noticed them.

Luo Zheng grew infuriated and she looked up at him. "Xi Mubai, what the hell do you want? You clearly detest me and yet you keep touching me. F*** off!"

Chapter 80: Shaming Xi Mubai

Luo Zheng's attitude was harsh while Xi Mubai felt rather embarrassed and the only thing he could do was to respond with silence.

In his heart, he simply thought of Luo Zheng as 'boorish', a new label that he had given her.

She was a girl and yet she cursed so crudely. He truly disliked it and initially wanted to just ignore her.

However, the pain on his face reminded him that he had just been slapped by a girl for the first time in his life and to make matters worse, the girl was Luo Zheng. He could not calm down at all.

After staying silent for a few seconds, he reminded her, "Luo Zheng, you slapped me. Are you just going to let it slip like this?"

Upon hearing his words, Luo Zheng stared at him coldly and sneered, "So? Would you like to slap me back? I'm telling you, you may dream on!"

Mu Nianqing had yet to appear and the Xi Family has not faced their downfall yet. It was only the beginning of her revenge on him... Slapping him was barely enough to cover the interest of what he had to pay her back. Does he still think he's at a loss?

"Luo Zheng, do you think we're the same?"

Xi Mubai sized her up with a complicated expression, and felt that she was truly different from what she used to be like in the past.

Although he did feel humiliated to have been slapped by her... he couldn't bring himself to slap her back!

"Senior Mubai, you're morally upright, lofty, gentlemanly, gentle, mellow and kind. Of course we're not the same! So, Senior Mubai, why are you still refusing to let go of me, if you're not planning to slap me back?"

Luo Zheng calculated the time she had left and thought to herself in dejection that Bo Hancheng may have already left Capital University.

Of course, if she doesn't end up seeing Bo Hancheng, Xi Mubai would be the ultimate culprit... in that case, she ought to make him pay the price!

He thinks I'm humiliating him, isn't he? Hah, I shall let him know what humiliation really is!

Xi Mubai tensed up and he began to feel rather flustered.

What could he possibly want from Luo Zheng?

He simply felt that he couldn't let her leave after slapping him!

"Oh, I get what you mean, Senior Mubai."

Luo Zheng cocked her head towards the side and smiled at Xi Mubai, seemingly having thought of something.

She then lowered her head and flipped through her purse.

She was undeniably beautiful, dressed in red without the heavy makeup.

Xi Mubai's heart actually skipped a beat.

As far as looks were concerned, she was really beautiful and nowhere inferior to Luo Tingxue. Even if she was only 17 years old and her features had yet to fully develop, he could already imagine how stunningly gorgeous she should be in the future. He was certain that she would attract the attention of many men.

At this moment, it was raining and Luo Zheng was drenched from head to toe, causing her dress to be stuck against her skin. Xi Mubai looked at her before turning away with an awkward expression.

However, she looked a little pale because of the rain.

He somehow found her to be pitiful.

Xi Mubai grew a little soft-hearted and tipped his umbrella towards her to give her some shelter.

However, at this moment, Luo Zheng pulled out her wallet from her bag, and then took out a few dollar bills which she then handed to Xi Mubai. "Senior Mubai, is this enough?"

Xi Mubai froze and he asked embarrassedly, "Luo Zheng, what do you mean?"

"I accidentally hit you just now, Senior Mubai! However, I don't really want to apologize, so... I can only make it up to you in such a manner! A few hundred yuan... should be enough, right?"

As soon as Luo Zheng spoke, Xi Mubai's face grew sullen.

He felt mocked and humiliated by Luo Zheng whom he had just taken pity on!

"What's the matter, Senior Mubai? Do you think it's too little? I only have that much cash! Why don't you tell me your bank account number and the amount that you want me to compensate? I'll transfer it to you! Of course, please don't quote me a sky-high price that I can't afford... "
