Chapter 1001: To Agree Without Prior Discussion

To Agree Without Prior Discussion

Feng Xiaoxiao frowned as she snatched the flower from Yufeng's hand, ran towards Lin Yi and handed him the flower: "Lin Yi, this flower is for you!"

"Ugh...." both Yushu and Xiaoxiao were sending him flowers simultaneously. Lin Yi couldn't help but smile bitterly.

The reason why Lin Yi didn't kick Yufeng out of the room was to observe him from the dark. He was trying to figure out what he was planning. Out of the blue came a mystic class practitioner and they were all fallen into the same class, no less! Lin Yi couldn't find himself to believe that Yufeng was not here for him or Mengyao.

On top of that, Lin Yi wanted to use Yufeng as a tactic to temporary stop the war between Xiaoxiao and Yushu, otherwise, the night was going to be a disaster!

However, it seemed like Lin Yi had made a mistake here, Feng Xiaoxiao and Chen Yushu were directing Yufeng's attack to his direction!

Lin Yi received the flower from Yushu then Xiaoxiao but he didn't keep the flowers for long until he sent them out to Mengyao who was currently still singing. "You sing very well, this is for you!"

Mengyao was tickled pink when she heard Lin Yi complimented her, a smile blossomed from her face! She extended her arms to receive the flowers and held them near her chest. "Thanks...."

Chu Mengyao was putting all her attention on singing just now, she didn't know where did the flowers come from but Lin Yi gave it to her personally. The sensation was sweeter than eating honey, it seemed like Lin Yi wasn't that bad, either! He knew how to please her....

The flowers were sent out by Lin Yi. As unsatisfied as Feng Xiaoxiao was, she couldn't do anything at all. On the contrary, Chen Yushu was rather pleased with Lin Yi's action because it was all the same, giving to Mengyao was like giving it to her too.

Xie Yufeng's expression turned slightly ugly, his flowers were used by others like a bottom drawer!

No matter how stupid Xie Yufeng was, he could tell that Chen Yushu and Feng Xiaoxiao were jealous of each other—not because of him, but for Lin Yi! It seemed like Lin Yi's popularity wasn't half bad, either. He appeared to have an intimate relationship with all the girls here, didn't he?

Xie Yufeng went into deep thought for a while, Lin Yi was a very capable foe!

However, Xie Yufeng was confident as well. He still felt that he was more handsome and better than him in every aspect! Before he came to this school, he already had Wang Congming to investigate Lin Yi!

When Lin Yi first entered the school, it didn't take long for him to give the school's big tyrants, Zhong Pinliang and Zou Ruoming, their punishments. Could it be that because of this reason, the ladies were all falling for him?

This was possible! Xie Yufeng was a practitioner himself, he too prioritized strength before anything, this thinking was inscribed inside his bones! As far as he was concerned, the girls must have fallen for her due to his strength. It wasn't strange at all for a girl this age to admire a man who could fight, was it?

Hmph, what was so proud of defeating a few school gangsters? With his strength, it was just a piece of a cake too!

Xie Yufeng was a little impatient now, he wanted to demonstrate his power to Feng Xiaoxiao and Chen Yushu now so badly. Although he shouldn't reveal his practitioner's strength, with his physique—unless his opponents were no professional fighters or masters or a gang of fighters, otherwise, he was confident that there were no ways he would lose!

As far as he was concerned, no matter how strong the school gangsters were, they weren't taught how to fight, with just a few hits they would be defeated for sure! Besides if Lin Yi wasn't around, he could use his qi secretly as nobody was able to tell he was the one using it.

Unless there were practitioners on the field, otherwise no ordinary human could differentiate pure qi!

But the problem was that Lin Yi had already built a foundation in the school, he had punished the troublemakers until they were all tamed and knew how strong he was, nobody would dare cross his line again, this made Yufeng lose his golden opportunity to demonstrate his strength!

He sincerely hoped that some blind gangsters would go trouble Chen Yushu and Feng Xiaoxiao a little just so he could go save the world like a hero rescuing the damsel in distress!

Didn't Lin Yi win over Tang Yun's heart by defeating Zou Ruoguang?

Now, Xie Yufeng could only advance with a soft tactic, he looked at Feng Xiaoxiao. "You are Feng Xiaoxiao, right? I've heard of your big name, one of the Songshan First school's school beauties..."

"Where did you hear that from? Or you created this yourself?" Feng Xiaoxiao rolled her eyes and replied impatiently. "Haven't you heard that I'm the last member of the Big Four?"

"Ha, I heard that you are one of the four big school beauties...." Xie Yufeng chuckled. "What's your hobby? I like playing basketball, billiards and also singing...."

"Oh, not bad, do you gamble?" Xiaoxiao asked back.

"Ugh... no... I don't have bad habits like this." seeing how Feng Xiaoxiao took the initiative to learn more about him, he thought that Feng Xiaoxiao was ready to accept him so he quickly denied as he shook his head.

"Do you do car racing?" Feng Xiaoxiao asked again.

"No, I never do something this dangerous!" Xie Yufeng shook his head sub-consciously.

"Oh, I'm truly sorry, we don't have any topics in common at all, I love car racing!" Feng Xiaoxiao smiled.

“Ha?” Xie Yufeng startled—he knew that he had fallen into her trap! First, Feng Xiaoxiao named an evil practice and after he denied that, she asked him with another practice that was somewhat bad, knowing that he would surely deny without thinking much then Feng Xiaoxiao jumped in and said that she loves the habit!

Knowing that he was tricked by Feng Xiaoxiao. Yufeng was a little pissed but what was spoken couldn't be taken back anymore as he clenched his teeth. “But I do collect branded cars, I have many cars in my garage. Ferarri and Porsche are just ordinary....”

Initially, Feng Xiaoxiao was prepared to go on a three hundred rounds full war with Chen Yushu but who knew out of nowhere came this annoying bastard. No matter how many times she pushed him away, did this guy have no self-awareness? Still talking to her with cars and hobbies without giving a break?

If you want to talk so much, why don't you go annoy the big boobed Chen Yushu?

“Chen Yushu, I'm going to the washroom, do you want to join me?” Feng Xiaoxiao turned to Yushu and asked.

“Oh, good timing!” Yushu nodded. She suffered as much as Feng Xiaoxiao did with Xie Yufeng beside them mumbling. She was also prepared to have a death match with Feng Xiaoxiao but who knew this Yufeng interrupted the fight, this made her unable to continue the war with Xiaoxiao!

Chapter 1002: Temporarily Joining Hands

Temporarily Joining Hands

So, Lin Yi, Tang Yun, and Mengyao were all dumbfounded as they stared at Feng Xiaoxiao and Chen Yushu who left the room together.

“What are you planning?” Yushu asked Xiaoxiao after leaving the room- she knew that Xiaoxiao was never this considerate to invite her to the washroom together.

“Do you find the Xie Yufeng annoying?” Xiaoxiao asked.

“Of course, he's interrupting us!” Yushu nodded.

“I think so too, so I've decided to finish him off before finishing you!” Xiaoxiao said. “What do you think?”

“You want us to join hands?” Yushu was no stupid.

“We'll form an alliance first, after finishing off Xie Yufeng, we continue what was left behind!” Xiaoxiao nodded.

“Nice, it's decided!” Yushu agreed. “Do you have any ideas?”

“Not yet, I'm thinking!” Xiaoxiao shook her head.

The duo was talking while heading the washroom. Both of them never intended to use the washroom anyway, they just stood in front of the washroom and started thinking up a good strategy.

“Pretty girls, you’re waiting for someone?” The drunk fierce-looking man just came out of the male washroom and saw Chen Yushu and Feng Xiaoxiao standing in front of the female’s washroom, his eyes brightened up suddenly!

They were such angelic girls. They were so much better than the ladies in his room now. They looked so pure and innocent, and the man couldn’t help but hit on them!

The man’s name was Lei Zhenyu—he was one of the Tiandi entertainment guests, doing freight matching in the city. He was also considered as the leader of a gang so he was super unscrupulous in doing things. Whenever he saw pretty girls in the club, he would drag them into the room. If things were smooth, then nothing happened but when things went south, he would just spend his fortune to quiet them down!

Women that always went to the club were normally not pure anymore—they were no longer virgins, so even if they were forced to do it, it didn’t matter much. As long as they were compensated after, they wouldn’t want to cross a force as influential as Lei Zhenyu so they would never report to the police! So, Lei Zhenyu was getting cockier day by day.

Lei Zhenyu’s sudden appearance gave Xiaoxiao and Yushu a good fright, both of them looked at each other and instantly understood the intentions behind those eyes!

“We came here with another man, I’m afraid we can’t accompany you!” Xiaoxiao looked at Lei Zhenyu with apologetic eyes.

“Yeah yeah, as much as we wanted to stay by your side but the man we followed here is very strong, I’m afraid that you won’t be able to offend him so I don’t think we can follow you!” Yushu blinked her eyes helplessly.

When both of them were done, they eyed each other again, there was a trace of admiration in between them. Both of them were so in sync and became partners in one go! They wanted to use this ugly-looking man to deal with Xie Yufeng!

Lei Zhenyu’s eyes lit up when he heard Xiaoxiao and Yushu. The girls not only didn’t reject his invitation directly, but they were also keen to join him, however, they came here with a guy and the guy was pretty strong himself! He was over the moon as he waved his hand nonchalantly. “Hmph, in the underworld of Songshan city, who is more powerful than I, Lei Zhenyu?! He dares to fight me?”

“It can’t do, Lei bro. Although we wanted to accompany you, the guy is something!” Xiaoxiao shook her head with a bitter expression.

“Yeah yeah, he’s super strong. Lei bro you do look very strong yourself but I don’t think you can be his opponent!” Yushu reminded worriedly.

“F*ck! You two go back and tell him that, I Lei Zhenyu have chosen both of you if he has something to say, come look for me in Lei bro freight station, I’m going to make him pay!” Lei Zhenyu was pissed when he heard Xiaoxiao and Yushu kept on insisting how strong was the guy.

“We do not have the courage to do that, Lei bro. Why don’t you come with us and tell him....” Xiaoxiao asked.

“Sure! I’ll follow you two!” Lei Zhenyu was drunk and he didn’t even consider the fact that Xiaoxiao and Yushu were provoking him and scheming something behind as he waved his hand and followed the duo back to the room!

At the same time, two men were walking out of the washroom. One was a baldie, another one was a guy with an aquiline nose. “Lei bro, why are you here... Eh?” the baldie asked.

When the baldie had his eyes landed on Xiaoxiao and Yushu, a light flashed across his eyes! Masterpiece, he couldn’t believe how powerful was Lei bro—he found two extremely pretty girls after going to the washroom. He wondered if he was able to enjoy himself after Lei bro was done with them.

“Oh, these two girls are willing to play with me but they came here with a man, I’ve to go take care of something!” Lei Zhenyu said loudly.

Xie Yufeng wanted to join Xiaoxiao and Yushu to the washroom—it was a golden opportunity to interact with them individually, after all! Who knew he could get something out from it! However, he couldn’t just follow the girls out, it’d be too obvious!

He waited for a moment, stood up and acted like he wanted the washroom too as he left the room.

In the walkway, Xiaoxiao and Yushu were not far to be seen but they were surrounded by three fierce-looking men!

Were the girls troubled? Xie Yufeng’s brain was dead for a split second! He was so excited he didn’t know what to do, was this a blessing given by God? One minute ago, he was still depressed not having an opportunity to show his strength but who knew it came so quickly!

Xie Yufeng wanted to express his gratitude to them so much, their sudden appearance meant so much to him! Nice, the purpose of you living is to show how great a person I am!

With that thought, Xie Yufeng charged forward hastily with a concerning voice. “Xiaoxiao, Shu, how are you guys? What are these people?”

Initially, Xiaoxiao and Yushu wanted to lead these people to Xie Yufeng and give him a good lesson but who knew this idiot came out from the room to look trouble for himself! He was looking for a death wish!

Both of them looked at each other with a smile, Xie Yufeng wanted to die so badly!

“Oh, the man is looking for us already!” Yushu said nervously. “Sorry, Lei bro, we gotta go...”

“Lei bro, we have to go back now... see you next time!” Xiaoxiao said repentantly.

There was an itch in his heart, it was so hard to find girls this obedient. Besides, they were willing to be his women voluntarily, he didn’t have to force his way in! But the only problem was the man, they were afraid of him!

Chapter 1003: Feigning Innocence

Lei Zhenyu was delighted to see Xie Yufeng. Looking at his physique, how could this person be stronger than him?

“Kid, you are their man?” Lei Zhenyu thought that when Feng Xiaoxiao mentioned ‘man,’ she meant boyfriend so he went straight to the point and asked if he was the boyfriend.

Xie Yufeng was overjoyed and thought that this guy was pretty quick-witted. He had decided to show him mercy and reduce the kicks and punches on this guy. Initially, he had wanted to permanently handicap him but now staying in the hospital for half a year should be more than enough!

“Who are you? Xiaoxiao, Shu, is he harassing you two?” Xie Yufeng didn’t deny the claim, in fact he was happy with the new title Lei Zhenyu had given him.

“Kid, we are done with you already, Lei bro has taken a liking to your girls, you can f*ck off now!” The baldie almost burst into laughter after looking at Xie Yufeng’s face- he had the classic pretty boy face. This type of face was obviously just for show, it was surely not for fighting! He was confident that he alone was able to beat up three to four people like Xue Yufeng!

“Xiaoxiao, Shu, come behind me, let me handle this!” Xie Yufeng was afraid that the trio would flee when he arrived, and then chasing them would be pointless- it wouldn’t show how strong he was!

However, these three were acted like they were doing him a favour, not only did they choose not to escape, they even provoked him with their senseless brains- this made Xie Yufeng so happy until he didn’t know what to say! This trio appeared at the right time so perfectly and they were so willing to stay back, of course, Yufeng would cooperate with them otherwise he would feel sorry for himself!

“Kid, are you sure you’re not backing off?” Lei Zhenyu froze when he saw Xie Yufeng didn’t have the intention to leave after seeing three of them here.

“Abandoning the women behind is an act of cowardness!” Xie Yufeng smiled faintly, “You three, if you guys don’t want to sit in a wheelchair for the rest of your life, better get the f*ck out of my sight!”

“Aye?” Lei Zhenyu was amazed by Xie Yufeng’s tone, “Kid, are you dumb? You dare to threaten me? Why don’t you go around and ask about my big name, Lei Zhenyu! I couldn’t wait any longer to play with these girls, so I was going to let you off the hook, but you have to come find troubles yourself, don’t you?”

“Sure, no more bullshit, three of you come all at once!” Xie Yufeng said faintly.

Xie Yufeng was no match to three of them if he didn’t use his pure qi- after all, he was no experienced fighter, he always fully relied on his spiritual practice on a battle. However, he was able to tell that these three were just ordinary gangsters, even if he used his true power, they wouldn’t even know what happened to them so he was cocky enough to ask them to attack him all at once!

Feng Xiaoxiao and Chen Yushu only frowned and eyed each other, both of them were looking at Xie Yufeng with doubtful eyes. Xie Yufeng actually came to them himself and even asked them to come at him all together, this made Xiaoxiao and Yushu realise something was wrong!

Who did he think he is? Could he be a professional fighter? If that was the case then their plan was a big failure, not only did they fail to kick Xie Yufeng out of sight, they even provided him with an opportunity to show off!

“Lei bro, since this kid is looking for a death wish, let’s finish him off!” the baldie stared at Lei Zhenyu and advised.

“Okay, let’s go, I’ll play with the girls after killing him!” Lei Zhenyu nodded- he never put Xie Yufeng in his eyes as he charged at Yufeng with big steps with his hand stretched towards his hair!

“F*ck off!” Xie Yufeng cursed lightly and sent a kick to Lei Zhenyu’s chest- it sent him flying backwards! Of course, Xie Yufeng only used a very small part of his pure qi, he wasn’t ready to permanently injure him just yet, the process had to be slow or else the impact wouldn’t be there! He had to torture Lei Zhenyu little by little, only then could he build a heroic image in Chen Yushu’s and Feng Xiaoxiao’s mind!

It’d be too boring to send Lei Zhenyu unconscious with one kick, Chen Yushu and Feng Xiaoxiao wouldn’t know his true power if the opponent was being defeated too easily, it couldn’t show how strong he actually was!

After all, the opportunity didn’t come all the time so Xie Yufeng would hold onto it very precious- he had to present his qualities in front of Yushu and Xiaoxiao properly!

“F*ck! This kid must be a practitioner, go beat him up together!” Lei Zhenyu called out as blood rush up to his mouth from his lungs. He crawled up from the ground, pissed off as he pointed at Xie Yufeng and ordered the baldie and the guy with the aquiline nose to charge at Yufeng!

Lin Yi, who was still in the room, felt uneasy when Xie Yufeng left the room with Xiaoxiao and Yushu and had yet to return.

Lin Yi hadn’t figured out Xie Yufeng’s real intention yet, so he wouldn’t let his guard down that easily. Xie Yufeng was trying to hit on Feng Xiaoxiao and Chen Yushu, he knew that Yufeng probably wouldn’t do anything bad to harm them but who knew what would happen? What if there was an accident?

Lin Yi hesitated for a while and followed Xie Yufeng out of the room after a few seconds. He couldn’t allow Feng Xiaoxiao and Chen Yushu out of his sight for too long, especially when there was this uncertain factor, Xie Yufeng, existing around him!

Lin Yi saw Xie Yufeng sending Lei Zhenyu flying with a kick when he stepped out of the room. Meanwhile, Chen Yushu and Feng Xiaoxiao were both standing behind Yufeng!

Lin Yi couldn’t help but frown at this scene. Could it be that Chen Yushu and Feng Xiaoxiao faced some difficulties on their way to the washroom and this Xie Yufeng was trying to help them?

“Xiaoxiao, Shu!” Lin Yi shouted as he walked towards them.

“Lin Yi!” Xiaoxiao was surprised to see Lin Yi as she cheered. She couldn’t believe Lin Yi was already looking for her when she just left the room not long, it was obvious that he still cared and worried about her, this made Xiaoxiao over the moon.

“Shield bro!” Chen Yushu had almost the same thought as Feng Xiaoxiao, it seemed like Shield bro did care about the safety of his second wife!

“Eh?” Xie Yufeng froze at the name.

What was Lin Yi doing out here? He could have come out earlier, but he had to choose this timing, the time where he'd just offended the gangsters and the time where he could build a heroine image within the girls' heart, could it be that Lin Yi was trying to snatch the merits away from him?!

At this moment, Xie Yufeng regretted his previous actions- he shouldn't have bullshitted with Lei Zhenyu so long and should have straight away given him permanent damage with that kick! If he defeated the opponents without so much bullshit, things like this wouldn't even happen, would it?

No, he had to finish them off quickly, he couldn't allow Lin Yi to interfere!

At the same time, Lei Zhenyu, baldie and the aquiline nosed guy were charging at him already. Xie Yufeng got into a fighting posture, ready to strike an ultimate skill defeating them all at once but when he was about to attack, his body tensed up suddenly!

Pure qi! He couldn't afford to use pure qi now! He had almost gotten busted by showing his true strength to Lin Yi himself!

Chapter 1004: The Gloomy Xie Yufeng

No matter what happened, ordinary people could never figure out the difference between the practitioner and ordinary human but when a practitioner was present, just a little use of pure qi would be detectable it!

Xie Yufeng knew that Lin Yi was a practitioner so even if he channelled a little pure qi, Lin Yi would know surely learn his hidden strength!

Xie Yufeng jumped up from the surprise, and cursed his misfortune! If his strength was exposed on the first day he arrived at school, didn't everything just go to waste for nothing? How would his father see him in the future? He couldn't even handle such a tiny task, how could his father allow him to take up a larger responsibility next time?

Hence, Xie Yufeng quickly released the pure qi that he gathered to strike, however, a problem surfaced again! Without the help of his pure qi, Xie Yufeng was obviously no match to the three men across him!

These three men were evidently gangsters who engaged themselves in fights all the time, defeating one shouldn't be a problem but he had to take care of three of them, was that supposed to be a joke? He wasn't a physical practitioner, a spiritual practitioner was no different from an ordinary human without their pure qi! At most, they were only a little stronger than ordinary human!

Xie Yufeng and Lin Yi were different from each other, even after losing his pure qi, Lin Yi was stronger than ordinary people by folds because of his experience in the battlefields and missions. Linyi even mastered the art of assassination so his agility alone was already abnormal so when it comes to fighting, even if his opponent was a physical practitioner, he could easily win against them without using his true strength!

But it wasn't the case for Xie Yufeng! He was stuck in between, nowhere to go!

"Guys, let's call it an end for today if any of you are still unsatisfied with the outcome, you may leave your contact numbers for a duel in an arranged date!" Xie Yufeng's face changed and spoke up because he had zero chance of winning without his pure qi!

“F*ck, are you an idiot? Who says you can end as you wish? Didn’t you send me flying with a kick? Didn’t you invite us to come to you all at once? Brothers, f*ck him!” Lei Zhenyu was overjoyed when he heard Xie Yufeng. This kid was finally afraid!

“One has to always maintain a cordial relationship for the rainy days! Are you sure you want to go all out today?” Xie Yufeng wrinkled his eyebrows. Although he was ashamed by his actions, he had no choice to go soft this time! He couldn’t afford to use pure qi in front of Lin Yi, but he didn’t want to get beaten up by the trio too.

“Rainy days? You were the one who urged us to come at once!” Lei Zhenyu noticed the sullen face of Xie Yufeng and started laughing, “Kid, why don’t you kneel down before me, kowtow three times, call me your grandfather and then crawl under my crotch, I will let this pass if you do that!”

“Hahahaha! Crawl under his crotch!” the baldie and aquiline nosed guy followed and burst into laughter.

Xie Yufeng’s face blanched instantly- he hated Lin Yi to the bones! Why did he have to come out from the room, what was the point of coming out? He genuinely hoped that Lin Yi would bring Yushu and Xiaoxiao back to the room but Lin Yi didn’t intend to do so- it was as if he was there for the show, not moving an inch from the spot he stood!

“Lin Yi, you bring Feng Xiaoxiao and Chen Yushu back to the room, I don’t want them to injure the girls!” Xie Yufeng had no choice and hoped that Lin Yi would take up his suggestion and act the way he wanted!

He needed Lin Yi to leave, even just a few seconds, he could go rampage and finish them off with handicaps!

On the other hand, Lin Yi was looking at Xie Yufeng in rather high spirits! He was curious at Xie Yufeng’s action, just what was he doing? He was in a fighting posture, ready to go all out just now but all of a sudden, he started talking softly. Just what was he trying to achieve?

Besides, Lin Yi was able to tell that Xie Yufeng was about to use his pure qi just now but he stopped it at the last second.... Just why was he hiding his true strength?

“Oh, I’m just a passenger.” Lin Yi replied faintly, not intending to leave the spot at all.

“Kid, you sure have a lot to talk before kicking the bucket, huh?” Lei Zhenyu was kicked in the chest earlier, the pain was still throbbing right now- he was pissed at cocky Xie Yufeng was even until now as he sent a kick directly to him!

Xie Yufeng was caught in surprise, he wanted to dodge but who knew his path was cut by the baldie and aquiline nosed guy from the left and right! Initially, he thought that even if he was forbidden to use pure qi, with his agility he could easily dodge the attacks and reduce as much suffering as possible until the security guards came to rescue!

However who knew the baldie and aquiline nosed guy came locking his movement from both sides, he couldn’t even move at all!

At the next moment, only the sound of wailing could be heard, Xie Yufeng’s forehead was filled with cold sweat after the attack- Lei Zhenyu gave him a critical hit in his crotch area!

“Kid, aren’t you very tough? Aren’t you very good at acting? I’ll disable you!” as Lei Zhenyu was provoking, he gave another kick at Xie Yufeng’s crotch again!

Xie Yufeng’s entire body was shivering. He wanted to kill Lei Zhenyu instantly with a tight slap but Lin Yi was still standing there, he could only endure the pain for House Yu’s future! He was a practitioner, his body was slightly stronger than an ordinary person. Although Lei Zhenyu’s kicks were extremely painful, it dealt no serious harm to his sexual organ!

Otherwise, Xie Yufeng was ready to commit suicide!

Xie Yufeng knelt down and the trio started raising their fists and sent them raining at Yufeng continuously without mercy!

“Act tough, huh? Aren’t you very cocky?”

“In the underworld of Songshan city, you still dare to oppose Lei bro, go die!”

“Did you know, the KTV’s boss, Zou Tiandi is Lei bro’s alliance, they can easily kill you like a plaything!”

Without the protection of the pure qi, Xie Yufeng was beaten into a swollen pig head!

There was a smile at the corner of Lin Yi’s mouth, but he was still standing there and looking at the scene!

Now, Lin Yi was able to confirm his doubt now- he knew why Xie Yufeng was hiding! Xie Yufeng didn’t want to reveal his true strength to Lin Yi, the purpose of his transfer was something to be observed too! Lin Yi was eighty per cent sure that Yufeng came to this school solely for him!

Otherwise, why would he endure the suffering and wouldn’t show his true strength in front of him?

But Lin Yi didn’t expose it out. Since Xie Yufeng was trying to be the pig in this game, he would surely allow him to act like one! Lin Yi was happy to pretend as well, standing at the corner as he enjoyed the show.

“Help!” Xie Yufeng finally cried out, asking for help! This time, he couldn’t care about his face anymore. He had already been abused until this point, there was no point in saving it anymore, was there? Why not call for help and save himself from the never-ending suffering!

Chapter 1005: Happy Collaborating!

“Xiaoxiao, Shu, let’s return, it’s dangerous here, they are fighting,” Lin Yi totally ignored Xie Yufeng’s call for help. Despite the fact that Lin Yi knew that he was a mystic class master, even if he wasn’t, with Xie Yufeng’s lousy attitude, Lin Yi was more than happy to see someone fixing him up!

Ugh, he didn’t know how strong was Lei Zhenyu’s kick but if he was able to kick Xie Yufeng to an eunuch, then it’d be good news as he could never hit on girls again!

However, Lin Yi knew that as imaginative as he was, it was not achievable- unless he was the one doing it, otherwise there was no way a few ordinary people could injure a mystic class master.

“Yeah, it’s super dangerous, should we report this to the police?” Yushu nodded.

"I think we should just call the ambulance instead, he'll need to be admitted to the hospital!" Xiaoxiao said.

"Police!" Yushu's instinct told her to oppose Xiaoxiao.

"Call the ambulance!" Xiaoxiao wasn't losing, either.

"Call the ambulance!" Xiaoxiao said.

"Forget about it," Yushu said.

"Forget about it," Xiaoxiao said.

"Oh, he can die already!" Yushu said.

"Yeah, that's good!" Xiaoxiao said.

"You never intended to call the ambulance?" Yushu said.

"You never intended to report to the police?" Xiaoxiao said.

"You're so bad!" Yushu said.

"Same same!" Xiaoxiao said.

Both of them eyed each other and smiled. It was a happy collaboration.

Lin Yi's face twitched for two seconds after hearing the exchange between Yushu and Xiaoxiao. It seemed like Xie Yufeng was unlucky this time- he met two little witches.

Hence, Xie Yufeng was still getting beaten up, meanwhile, Lin Yi brought the two witches, Yushu and Xiaoxiao back to the room's direction.

Xie Yufeng's call for help was drowned out by the loud music from the KTV room and couldn't be heard.....

Move faster, faster! Xie Yufeng let out a breath of relief when he saw Lin Yi out of his sight. He had been waiting for Lin Yi to leave all this time so he could his pure qi and tear these three gangsters into million pieces!

How dare these people treat me like this, I'll show you guys the true power of a mystic class master! Xie Yufeng clenched his teeth and cursed internally.

At last, Lin Yi, Xiaoxiao and Yushu finally went back to the room, Xie Yufeng who was lying on the ground jumped up abruptly, his body was emitting a mysterious aura, could it be the supremacy aura? From his weakest and lowest status, he transformed into an overpowering person who looked down on all beings!

"Are you guys done with the beating?" Xie Yufeng had pure qi protecting his physical body now, naturally, Lei Zhenyu's and his gangs' punches were ignored completely as he looked at Lei Zhenyu and asked solemnly.

“Eh? Motherf*cker, this kid is still so cocky, you haven’t had enough? Brothers, give him everything we have, this kid is looking for a death wish, let’s fulfil his desire!” Lei Zhenyu was enraged by Xie Yufeng’s reaction.

Xie Yufeng was looking at them with disdain, he knew, he knew that these three people have to pay for the price with their blood!

However, the moment when Xie Yufeng was about to throw his punches, Lin Yi opened the door again. He stuck his head out of the room and started mumbling as if he was talking to himself, “Who knew if Xie Yufeng has died or not, he’s our classmate, after all, we can’t just let him die, can we..... Let me check him out, I hope he’s not dead yet!”

Xie Yufeng was taken aback by Lin Yi’s words, he wasn’t feeling touched or whatsoever but he was angry at Lin Yi! Why do you have to come out right now, you aren’t saving me at all, what you are doing is putting me in great harm!

Xie Yufeng sub-consciously released the gathered pure qi from his body, he really couldn’t be careless in front of Lin Yi. It would be harder for House Yu to advance their next plan if his identity was exposed now!

“Ah.....they almost killed me....” Xie Yufeng was afraid that Lin Yi could see through his tricks, so he quickly got back down to the ground, and covering his head with both his hands as he curled into a ball.

“Eh?” Lei Zhenyu, the baldie and aquiline nosed guy were stunned in amazement- they had no idea what was Xie Yufeng doing! He was being all cocky suddenly and emitting the dominating aura but after a blink of an eye, he went back to a coward?

However they were only stunned for half a second, the kicks and punches continued raining on Xie Yufeng mercilessly without a gap!

Xie Yufeng was soaked in grief- he didn’t know why was he this unlucky. When he wanted to fight back, Lin Yi appeared out of nowhere! Leaving without helping or asking was fine, but don’t come back when you aren’t helping at all, aren’t you digging me a grave?

“Ugh.... you can still talk, it seems like you are not dead yet, I’ll come back later!” A smirk appeared at the corner of Lin Yi’s lips naturally as he turned back and entered the room. In fact, sometimes, it was undeniable that Lin Yi was more mischievous than Chen Yushu and Feng Xiaoxiao!

This was also the reason why the two witches didn’t go against Lin Yi... Feng Xiaoxiao had failed her few attempts and while Chen Yushu knew that Shield bro was much stronger than her in this field...

Xie Yufeng had an urge to kill himself by biting off his own tongue! You are going to check me out again? What are you looking at actually, can’t you just stay in the room and mind your own business?

Although Xie Yufeng had sent his prayer, he knew that Lin Yi would never do the things that he asked for, otherwise, he would have asked Lin Yi to commit suicide and House Yu would be avenged already!

Just to make sure that Lin Yi wouldn’t find out his hidden strength, Xie Yufeng didn’t have the balls to use his pure qi anymore. He endured the pain with his face crumpled up altogether and his teeth clenched. He started humming, "Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtle, Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtle, Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtle, heroes in a half shell, turtle power...."

How he wished that he became a teenage mutant ninja turtle now with a durable and tough big shell on his back!

"F*ck, this kid is still humming? I think we aren't giving him enough!" Lei Zhenyu couldn't clearly hear what Xie Yufeng was singing but when he heard the humming sound from him, his blood started boiling as he ordered, "Continue beating, beat him up until he can't sing anymore!"

Hence, the punches were getting stronger and stronger! Xie Yufeng was beaten until the state of extreme exhaustion!

Xie Yufeng swore silently, I'm afraid of revealing my identity today, I'll let you guys go easy today! But you people are dead for sure!

After a while, Lei Zhenyu was finally worn out from all those beating. He was slightly surprised at how tough was Xie Yufeng. Even after beating him up for quite some time, he didn't even pass out, it seemed like his durability was at the next level!

Although they were gangsters from the underground, they were also afraid of the gathered people calling the police, so when there was a group of people starting to surrounded them, they retreated, leaving Xie Yufeng on the cold hard ground alone!

Chapter 1006: Underground Arena, Part 1

Xie Yufeng crawled up from the floor. Although a few gangsters couldn't really deal him any serious harm, scratches and bruises were inevitable!

Lin Yi! Lei Zhenyu! If I, Xie Yufeng don't kill you both, I swear I won't become a human anymore!

"How pitiful is this person, how did he offend those gangsters from the underground, is he really alright?" A passenger sighed as he saw the ugly sight.

"Yeah, will he die? He should better go to the hospital and do a full body checkup, who knows if there was any internal damage!" Another passenger added.

"What are you guys looking at!" Xie Yufeng clenched his teeth and glared daggers at the people before moving away from the spotlight.

He no longer had the face to return Lin Yi's room now, he could only go back to his own room.

Xie Yufeng came into the room to see everyone in puzzlement! In this room, Xie Yufeng was the main character, he was the one who invited the class to KTV, after all. Naturally, the whole class also put him as the centre of attention, they were all stunned when Xie Yufeng came back with a green nose and swollen face!

Meanwhile, Li Panghu and Wang Congli quickly walked towards Xie Yufeng as they asked hastily, "Master Xie, did something happen? Your face..."

“Nothing, I just accidentally slipped over on the slippery floor!” Xie Yufeng waved his hand as he impatiently explained.

“Slipped?” Li Panghu and Wang Congli knew how strong Xie Yufeng was. How could a peak early phase mystic class master fall down from a slippery floor? However, it seemed like Xie Yufeng didn’t want to further explain himself so they didn’t insist either.

On Lin Yi’s side, he had only said what he said to frighten Xie Yufeng, he never stepped out of the room ever after that. This guy was hiding his true strength, then he had to bear all the consequences from hiding it.

In the room, Chen Yushu and Feng Xiaoxiao were quarrelling again, fighting over nothing. Lin Yi could only smile bitterly, both of them were evenly matched, and neither of them were willing to admit defeat. Hence, there was no winner from all their fights.

However, their topics were from the south of the sky to the north of the sea- it was very far apart. At first, they were both fighting for Lin Yi, then things took another turn to who was stronger!

“I previously had Yaoyao sis’s admirer, Zhong Pinliang, ran an errand for me- he went all the way one-kilometre from school to buy me grilled squid!” Yushu boasted.

“Pftttt lame, I had someone treat me to a dinner worth a few hundred million!” Xiaoxiao didn’t want to lose.

Chu Mengyao saw that both of them were enjoying themselves very much, so she didn’t bother them and passed the mic to Tangyun after she was tired of singing, “Do you want to sing?”

“I... Never mind?” Tangyun had never come to places like this before, nor did she sing regularly at home. She did listen to some pop songs, but it was just listening. Asking her to sing well was impossible.

“Why don’t you give it a try? Otherwise, I’ll be the only singer in this room...” Chu Mengyao eyed Shu and shook her head as she lowered her voice, “This Feng Xiaoxiao.... What’s wrong with her?”

“Have Lin Yi explain it to you guys tonight, it’s not good to say it here...” Tangyun was a careful person, she didn’t want to let the cat out of the bag.

“I see... okay,” Chu Mengyao nodded. Since Tangyun said that Lin Yi should explain then she must have her own reason to let Xiaoxiao do whatever she liked.

“Aren’t both of you tired?” Lin Yi asked Chen Yushu and Feng Xiaoxiao, “You guys are so in sync, why not form a team instead, who knows whether you guys might triumph in the competition?”

“No thanks, I don’t like people that are similar to me,” Chen Yushu shook her head and rejected.

“One mountain cannot accommodate two tigresses, do you think that I will like you?” Feng Xiaoxiao rejected too.

“He.....” Lin Yi smiled, “Then do you guys want to sing? If not, let’s go back to sleep!”

“Sing, why not!” Chen Yushu jumped up from her seat when she heard Lin Yi and eyed Feng Xiaoxiao, “Now it’s my time to perform....”

Under the dazzling sky was Songshan city, neon lights flashed in the city's hustle and bustle. The car lot outside the entertainment buildings were filled with cars as people came and left, it was lively! However, under this ambient atmosphere, there was a place enclosed with darkness and blood!

"Good beating! Kill him! Purple Wolf sure win, Purple Wolf do your best!"

This was an abandoned factory but it was transformed into an underground boxing arena. The arena was surrounded by circles by circles of audience seats, and on the seats were crazy young teens shouting. In front of the teens were the VIP seats, people who were sitting at the front had the faces of a boss, their auras were dense and steady. Cigars could be found hanging from all the bosses' mouths, they were all staring at the bloody scene with a faint smirk on their face...

"Boss Li, who did you bet on today?" A fat guy who had a cigar in his mouth asked a middle-aged man with sunglasses beside him.

"Obviously Purple Wolf? They won three times straight in a row today. I bet three million on them today!" Boss Li smiled. Although three million sounded like a lot, he never seemed to put the three million in his eyes at all- it was just a sneeze to him.

"Hehe, me too I bet Purple Wolf but not that much, only two million!" The fat guy smiled as he replied, "It was just for the mood, losing an amount only equal to a few red wines doesn't really matter to me."

"You're right, I enjoy the blood boiling process very much! This arena is good, it has my blood pumping, they are different from those fake ones. In this place people are really killing each other for real! Their punches have the intention to kill!" The guy with the sunglasses nodded in agreement.

In the middle of the arena, there were two people fighting, both were wearing helmets with different images on them and were fighting hand combat!

One was wearing the purple wolf image helmet- he was obviously from the Purple Wolf gang. On the other hand, the other one was wearing a black bear image helmet- he was none other than the fighter from the Black Bear gang!

The Black Bear representative was injured by the Purple Wolf person until his whole body was covered in blood. The Purple Wolf fighter sent a final heavy punch towards the Black Bear opponent, sending him flying and landing on the platform heavily!

"Wooo—" the crowd cheered at the final blow, some were overjoyed but some were crying at the result! Naturally, the overexcited ones were the one who bet on Purple Wolf and while the crying ones were on the loser side! Also, there were people who didn't involve themselves in the gambling and were just there to watch the adrenaline-pumping boxing fight!

Spending two hundred yuan just to seek excitement was not cheap yet while this abandoned factory could hold up to ten thousands of people, there were only empty seats on the first few days. Word spread very quickly after that, one to ten, ten to hundred and hundred to thousand, more and more, people were introduced to this place, resulting in a full house every night. All the tickets were sold out!

Chapter 1007: Underground Arena, Part 2

On a closer look, one night of ticket sales can bring in several million yuan of profit. With a quick turnover, it was a highly profitable business!

The ticket sales however wasn't where the most profit lay, but rather it was the bets on the fights! Even without knowing the winner, the bank was always the winner!

The audience was heated and the momentum of the show was good. The mastermind behind this underground arena, An Jianwen, couldn't help but smirk. He asked his henchman, "Xiao Luozi, how much did we earn without counting today? What's the total?"

"Ah... Master Jiawen, we earned a total of 16.7 million, this is accounting for the compensation of four million yuan that we paid out yesterday!" The henchman called Xiao Luozi was a sneaky looking fellow, that carried around a ledger. He greeted An Jianwen with a lot of respect.

"Ah yes, Professor Yin, are you sure that Black Bear can beat Purple Wolf? I don't think he is as capable as you say he is. He was almost beaten to death, did you see him bleed?" An Jianwen nodded. He turned to look at a middle aged man around 40 years old.

That middle aged man was the professor, sent by the Fire Wolf Gang, to assist An Jianwen. The Professor was a biochemical research expert with a specialty is human transformation and potential. He developed a drug that could help people temporarily forget the feeling of pain. It brought out the fighting force in human potential. Those who took the drug wouldn't feel pain. They would only focus on attacking, until they used up the very last of their energy!

That Black Bear was the first user of this drug. In all of the previous arena matches, they were hired fighters that had to go through trials. There were winners and losers, injuries and deaths, but An Jianwen still earned no matter what since he was the House.

Ever since a few days ago, when the Purple Wolf appeared in the fighting ring, An Jianwen began scheming a plan to earn more money!

Purple Wolf was quite powerful. He was a fighting instructor hired from the Southern region. These two days were full of successful wins for Purple Wolf, he kept winning fight after fight. Now that he had set a name for himself, a lot of people were betting their money on Purple Wolf!

Wealthy people came here not for the money, but to kill time. They hoped to win, but that was not their primary concern. But who wouldn't want to win when they gambled?

As for the other fighter today, this Black Bear, he appeared to be very scrawny and weak. He resembled nothing like his name, Black Bear! He was the obvious weaker opponent, the underdog, so how could he win against the reigning champion, Purple Wolf? It was just unrealistic thinking!

So just based on the appearance of Black Bear, many people were betting heavily on Purple Wolf's victory. Many had seen Purple Wolf's matches before, so since he was fighting against someone as weak as Black Bear, they were sure this was a certain win!

It was for that reason, there was especially more bets placed than normal. Bets as low as ten thousand and as high as a hundred thousand were placed. The total amount resulted in a very handsome payout!

This made An Jianwen very happy. If Black Bear was to win, then he would take home 20 million yuan!

“Relax, young master, have you seen Black Bear climb back up time after time? He had always come back and will eventually wear Purple Wolf out!” Professor Yin calmly replied, “Look, Black Bear just got up again!”

Initially Professor Yin didn't like An Jianwen's attitude, but after several days of working together closely, he discovered that An Jianwen was quite ruthless. He is quite good at earning money, and he helped find volunteers for the drug treatment. This brought in very valuable rewards for Fire Wolf Gang. Even the Fire Wolf Gang leader praised An Jianwen for his ability to earn money. Undeniably, Professor Yin couldn't underestimate An Jianwen.

As a result, Professor Yin had to change his attitude to become more respectful to An Jianwen!

Everytime Black Bear was knocked down, he climbed back up and walked toward Purple Wolf!

In actuality, Purple Wolf was able to knock down Black Bear in one hit, but he couldn't land a hit! On the other hand, even if Black Bear's strikes couldn't knock anyone down, his punches were landing most of the time. As the damage accumulated, Purple Wolf was wondering how Black Bear found the strength to pull out punches like that! Especially, when Black Bear was so scrawny.

He didn't speak up, but he knew that his internal organs were bleeding!

Purple Wolf was very frustrated as he kept on seeing Black Bear get up.

How is this Black Bear like an unkillable cockroach? When his attacks connected, he still stood up! Purple Wolf was sure that he had broken Black Bear's ribs. So how could he still stand up in this condition? Didn't he feel pain?

Watching Black Bear charge toward him, Purple Wolf could only continue the fight. In this underground arena, there were no rules. You couldn't surrender and there is only one result. It was either he died or you died! Until one of them couldn't get up, that was how you could get out of the match!

“Bang!” Black Bear charged forward. His punch landed on Purple Wolf's head. Purple Wolf saw stars, and his eardrums echoed! He has a concussion! He had already had minor injuries to the head from the prolonged fight. As for Black Bear, he just didn't seem to care about his injuries. It was truly a fight to the death! Both parties were taking hard hits head on!

Black Bear's attack landed on Purple Wolf's head, but he was also knocked back by Purple Wolf's attack. He landed on the floor with a thud.

Purple Wolf felt as if his brain was about to explode. The pressure built up in his brain was past his pain threshold. He knew that if he didn't go to the hospital soon, he would truly be game over! He was in a race against time to get it treated!

Once again, Black Bear miraculously got up from the ground. He charged at Purple Wolf again!

“Grr-” Black Bear charged over to strike Purple Wolf's head again!

“Bang!” The sound echoed in Purple Wolf's ears. A large amount of blood gushed out from Purple Wolf's orifices, it was deep red blood that flowed onto the rink. Then Purple Wolf laid on the floor motionless!

When Purple Wolf was knocked back, Black Bear was also sent flying back and landed on the ground!

The crowd goes wild! Even the reigning champion Purple Wolf was knocked down! He was bleeding out from multiple places!

“Get up Purple Wolf! Get up Purple Wolf!”

“Kill Black Bear!”

“Get Up! Get Up!”

“That fucker, I spent five hundred thousand on this bet! It was all my savings! Stand up! Don’t play dead!”

The next scene caused a huge upset. The one standing wasn’t Purple Wolf, it was Black Bear!

Black bear stood up, with both his arms raised. His eyes were red, his whole body was red. It was like he was internally bleeding from his capillaries all around, but he had won!

“10! 9! 8! 7... 3! 2! 1! Black Bear Wins!” The loud speaker announced as it counted down for Purple Wolf to stand up, but he never stood up.

Chapter 1008: Feeling Appreciated

In actuality, he couldn’t stand up anymore. He was already dead!

The frustration among the floor became apparent, and the rowdy crowd started to angrily shout. They were all the people who had placed bets on Purple Wolf. Now that Purple Wolf was dead, their money was as good as gone. They lost all their money to the House.

“Keke!” An Jianwen looked at the new winning champion, Black Bear. He laughed loudly, “Not bad, he really won. This Black Bear isn’t bad at all. He has potential. Next time, he can change his identity as a killer!”

“Master Jianwen, Black Bear is a one time use only,” the Professor shook his head.

“Oh? What is that?” An Jianwen curiously asked.

“He was able to persist until now, relying on the drugs to help keep him going. The moment the effects of the drug wear off, he can only wait to die. His internal organs are already all destroyed. There is no way of continuing his survival!” Professor Yin replied.

“If that’s the case... That’s too bad!” An Jianwen was sad, “Ah, that is a pity!”

“Master Jianwen, you are a person who sees the big picture. One or two people dying here or there, what is there to pity? You don’t have to be sad!” Xiao Luozi tried to carefully reassure his master. He was sent by the Fire Wolf Gang to assist An Jianwen. He was the one who would have to claim responsibility if he was caught!

But, Fire Wolf Gang treated their men very well. They have already arranged for Xiao Luozi’s family to be handsomely compensated. Xiao Luozi wouldn’t have any regrets on being the scapegoat!

“Who says that I am feeling sympathetic?” An Jianwen rolled his eyes, “I’m just worried for his internal organs, they were all destroyed! That is at least worth a hundred thousand yuan right there!”

“...” Xiao Luozi’s face twitched. This Master Jianwen is very heartless, seems like this Black Bear’s organs were all worthless and couldn’t be sold...

“Quickly, send someone down to check on Purple Wolf and Black Bear. See if their organs are still good. Cut it out of them to sell, it will be a good income supplement!” An Jianwen waved his hand for Xiao Luozi.

“Ah, yes!” Xiao Luozi nodded his head, and got to work!

An Jianwen was bold and ambitious. As for operating this underground arena, it was his way of making a living. The underground fighters that die would have their organs cut out and sold! An Jianwen only sold liver back then, but now he sold all parts. He will cut out the cornea, liver, heart, as long as the organs can be sold, he will sell it. The remainder of the body will just be fed to his crocodiles.

So in one night of underground arena fights, An Jianwen generated profit as much as he could from the audience and the underground fighters. This was why Fire Wolf Gang’s leader valued An Jianwen for his skills! When An Jianwen got into trouble before, Fire Wolf Gang wasn’t afraid. What they had was human resources, it wasn’t hard to find a scapegoat! As long as you were capable, it was easy to earn this type of money.

An Jianwen has underground boxers, they were recruited from various places like the online blackmarket to fight. As for the rest of the fighters, they were seduced by the rewards, and were usually security workers and farmers. They were told that they could win up to several hundred thousand yuan. If they participated, they were guaranteed a hundred thousand. Any fights that they won would give them extra cash as a reward. That way, once participating fighters joined, they would get greedy and wouldn’t say no to more money!

There was a benefit to using these types of drifters. They were almost untraceable, since most of the security workers were part timers. They might work one day and quit the next. The high turnover rate made it hard for people to notice them missing!

The delinquents that joined were even better choices. Many of them had done something to warrant a need for them to run or escape. Even their classmates wouldn’t know their whereabouts if their friend had committed some crime and had chosen to escape!

If anyone was looking for those fighters, An Jianwen could just vouch for them and say that they earned money from just boxing. As for the whereabouts, An Jianwen would just say that they are enjoying life with the money earned.

So for the underground arena, it couldn’t function without boxers. There wasn’t a lack of customers and if the police turned to look in a different direction, then this was a golden business! This is one of the business types that didn’t require funding. An Jianwen’s specialty were these types of unfunded business ventures.

“Master Jianwen, for Purple Wolf, aside from his cornea that is ruined, all the other organs are still in a good state! Black Bear only has his cornea and left kidney functional; the rest of the sellable parts are ruined!” Xiao Luozi reported back to An Jianwen.

“Ah... Black Bear is dead?” An Jianwen nodded.

“He wasn’t dead when we found him, but he’s on the operation table now!” Xiao Luozi replied.

“Not bad, he still has use. Yes, his organs would still be worth at least several hundred thousand yuan!” An Jianwen nodded, “Tomorrow, you and Boxer Lee will go out and find some fools willing to fight in the boxing match. I will go and have fun with women!”

“Yes, Master Jianwen, enjoy yourself!” Xiao Luozi nodded as he escorted An Jianwen away!

An Jianwen had earned quite a lot of money over the past several days but even so, Lin Yi had recovered his strength, which upset An Jianwen a lot. He couldn’t take advantage of the opportunity to marry Chu Mengyao. He was upset, but before Boxer Lee said that he could give his support, then he wouldn’t dare to go against Lin Yi. With his money that he had earned over the past several days, he would book himself into the Starlight Hotel along with several virgin girls. He would go with Sutai to go party with the girls and relieve his emptiness.

From An Jianwen’s point of view, these virgins were pure, but they weren’t Chu Mengyao. His dream girl was Chu Mengyao! Oh, Chu Mengyao, you can’t escape from my grasp, wait until I’ve established myself in the Fire Wolf Gang. Then, I can control you, and Lin Yi? He won’t be considered shit.

At present, An Jianwen was Fire Wolf Gang’s lowest tier earning spokesperson. Most of his information came from his father’s mouth. Fire Wolf Gang is a huge organization, they had plenty of veteran fighters. They were even more impressive than the hidden houses! So when An Jianwen heard that the Fire Wolf Gang was backed by another huge power, he didn’t know how to react. If it was more powerful than the hidden houses, then it was an existence that was only heard of in stories!

Boxer Lee was assigned to protect Fire Wolf Gang. He was a mid tier mystic power level physical practitioner, and these practitioners were rare. Only the Fire Wolf Gang could afford to have those practitioners on payroll!

Presently, Boxer Lee didn’t have any chance to show off his qualities. Boxer Lee was just there to hold down the fort. He was there to handle any unruly opponents, if that ever came up. Under normal circumstances, Boxer Lee would accompany An Jianwen, doing whatever he does!

With a strong body guard by his side, An Jianwen didn’t need to do anything. So An Jianwen had been living his best life while drinking and eating. An Jianwen felt at ease being guarded all the time!

Chapter 1009: As A Reward

There was one thing that bothered An Jianwen. He had discovered a strange phenomenon. Every late night when it was quiet or when he was very excited, he would vent loudly several times to the sky. While even this was unexplainable to him, but he still treated it like it was nothing...

Chen Yu Shu and Feng Xiaoxiao were singing karaoke. The two were just screaming from the top of their lungs. Whatever song Chen Yushu was singing, Feng Xiaoxiao would also sing. When they were done singing the song, they would choose another song. Chen Yushu would sing the song that Feng Xiaoxiao had ordered and vice versa. Like a competition, these two were just switching on and off. Chu Mengyao didn’t have a single chance to interfere.

When the two girls were finally done singing, the group decided that it was time to leave the KTV.

“Today, I will let you go, but tomorrow we will have our three hundred rounds!” Feng Xiaoxiao laughed at Chen Yushu.

Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu glanced at each other and bitterly laughed it off. They each tried to occupy Feng Xiaoxiao as much as they could.

Lin Yi was on the first floor bar counter, ready to pay the bill. Even though Lin Yi could just call Zou Tiandi on the phone to pick up the bill, Lin Yi wasn't willing owe him a favour for such a little amount of money. After handing over the money, he met up with Chu Mengyao, Chen Yushu, Tang Yun, and Feng Xiaoxiao at the front of the KTV.

Uncle Fu didn't leave from his spot and had remained parked in front of the KTV. Even if Uncle Fu had lost his power, he still remained a dutiful driver!

“Yaoyao, Xiao Shu, you can sit in the car with Uncle Fu. I will drive Yunyun and Xiaoxiao home,” Lin Yi replied to his Missy.

“Okay,” the Miss nodded. She wanted Lin Yi to return home early, so she could ask about Feng Xiaoxiao. It was hard to ask with her present though, so she just pouted and kept silent.

Especially Chen Yushu, she was still slightly irritated with Feng Xiaoxiao. They weren't able to determine the winner of their karaoke!

Lin Yi, Tang Yun, Feng Xiaoxiao got into the beetle. Lin Yi started up his car and said, “Xiaoxiao, are you going back to school to get your car or am I driving you home?”

“You can drive me home, then come pick me up in the morning?” Feng Xiaoxiao glanced at Lin Yi.

“Tomorrow, I have to pick up Tang Yun. You can just call for a cab,” Lin Yi calmly replied.

“Oh, then you can pick me up along route then. I am still your youngest wife, you don't have to be so harsh to me!” Feng Xiaoxiao already proclaimed herself to be Lin Yi's mistress. Tang Yun had already agreed, but she was also becoming more bold.

If it was any other day, Tang Yun wouldn't have been happy with Feng Xiaoxiao acting spoiled in front of her. Even if she didn't say anything about it, she would feel uncomfortable at the flirty nature of their exchanges. That was until she learned of Feng Xiaoxiao's illness, then her attitude changed completely. She was hoping that Feng Xiaoxiao could have happy memories in the last leg of her life!

No matter what Feng Xiaoxiao did, Tang Yun maintained her forgiving attitude. She kept telling herself that she needed to truly accept Feng Xiaoxiao so that they are both sisters as Lin Yi's women.

“Where is your house?” Lin Yi asked.

“It is isn't far away from the school, very close to it. In front of Ning Shi road,” said Feng Xiaoxiao.

“Oh, then I will pick you up tomorrow. Only just this one time, there won't be a next,” Lin Yi agreed to picking her up. Ning Shi road wasn't too far, it was along the route of travel.

“Lin Yi, you are the best. I want to kiss you as reward!” Feng Xiaoxiao cheerfully shouted loudly.

“Your reward seems to be taking advantage of Lin Yi though?” Tang Yun wasn’t laughing along.

“I... Sister Tang Yun, you are laughing at me!” Feng Xiaoxiao blushed. She had to whisper back in a low voice, “Sister Tang Yun, do you really accept me or is it just pique? We might be in a crisis now, Chen Yushu is very slick, we should work together to fight against the enemy! Otherwise, she would want to become Lin Yi’s mistress. If we fight against each other, then an enemy can slip in!

“Well...” Tang Yun had already accepted Feng Xiaoxiao, but she didn’t want to reveal it to her. She faked the impression that she was thinking about it before replying “I’ll try...”

“Hehe, Sister Tang Yun, you can relax. I will protect your interests!” Feng Xiaoxiao patted her chest as she gives her guarantee. “I am a person who can distinguish resentment and rewards. Who treats me nicely, I will keep that in mind. I will fight against Chen Yushu to the end!”

“Haha...actually, Yushu just likes to stir up trouble. There’s nothing between her and Lin Yi...”. The relationship between Tang Yun, Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu were quite good, she didn’t want the new addition, Feng Xiaoxiao, to disrupt the order.

“Oh... then that will depend on their attitude!” Feng Xiaoxiao raised her fist.

Lin Yi was in the driver’s seat, he pretended not to have heard anything. Truthfully, if Feng Xiaoxiao and Chen Yushu were to fight it out then that would be a huge pain to Lin Yi. Seems like he has to clarify with his Miss and Chen Yushu about the situation. Otherwise if things got out of hand with Yushu stirring the pot, there would be unforeseen problems.

By the time, Tang Yun got back to the hospital, it was quite late already. However, People’s First Hospital was operating on a 24hr schedule, so there were people coming and going all the time. Even at night, there were still a lot of patients. The ambulance was also operating all the time, so Lin Yi was not worried about Tang Yun’s safety.

As Tang Yun entered the hospital, she disappeared from view after turning the corner. That was when Lin Yi started up the car to drive Feng Xiaoxiao home.

Feng Xiaoxiao sat on the shotgun seat after Tang Yun got off. She didn’t feel embarrassed at all.

Lin Yi wanted to say somebody, but held his tongue. Truthfully, he had feelings for Feng Xiaoxiao. However those feelings weren’t positive because he had always been wary of her. He hadn’t adjust his behavior to reflect his attitude towards her!

To smile at her like he did for Tang Yun, was something that made Lin Yi feel awkward. He was afraid of breaking his cover.

Before, when Lin Yi interacted with Feng Xiaoxiao, he had always replied nonchalantly.

“Lin Yi, what did my dad contact you for?” Feng Xiaoxiao asked first. She didn’t know what excuse to start a topic to talk about.

In one afternoon, Feng Xiaoxiao’s dream came true. She had dreamt of this day for so long. She was finally Lin Yi’s girlfriend. Even if it was just the mistress role, but the concept was the same. Feng Xiaoxiao didn’t mind at all!

But, it was just a little too fast. Feng Xiaoxiao felt that something was off! Tang Yun shouldn't have taken the bait so easily. Feng Xiaoxiao can't shake that feeling in her gut.

Chapter 1010: Heart Moved

"He wanted to meet me... What did you tell your father?" Lin Yi acted like the meeting with Feng Tianlong never took place.

"Nothing... I didn't say anything..." Feng Xiaoxiao used to be bold, but when Lin Yi finally established a 'relationship' with her, it had made her heart flutter, "It could be because he wants to thank you for rescuing me in Yanjing City?"

"Oh..." Lin Yi nodded, he took the chance and continued to pry, "Oh yeah, when you fainted last time. What was that about? Are you sick?"

"Oh... No, that was nothing..." Feng Xiaoxiao shook her head. She didn't want Lin Yi to know that she had a terminal illness. She didn't want her 'revenge' plan to become Lin Yi's pity. Then what was the point of her 'revenge'?

Heh, Lin Yi, you made me so miserable. I definitely won't let you go. I will let you experience my pain through heartbreak. I will make you fall in love with me, then I will use that to hurt you!

Lin Yi nodded, without saying much throughout the drive.

"Lin Yi, since there aren't many cars on the road. Can you drift? So I can experience it?" Feng Xiaoxiao turned to look at Lin Yi.

"Why would I drift for no reason? Do you know how dangerous it is to drift?" Lin Yi frowned, "Nine out of ten cars crash from drifting, do you not want to live?"

"Ah... don't want to live?" Feng Xiaoxiao shook her head as she sighed.

Lin Yi was startled when he gave it a second thought! Feng Xiaoxiao had hinted at something in her expression. But it was Lin Yi who couldn't catch on. He sighed in a depressed tone, he feels pity for having said that taboo word to her...

This was coming from an extremely cheerful girl, from the moment he met her, Lin Yi has never known her to show any negative emotions. If Lin Yi haven't experienced Feng Xiaoxiao's strange behavior or if Feng Xiaotian didn't explain the situation, Lin Yi wouldn't believe that this pretty girl was on the verge of dying!

If by chance he could let go of Tang Yun's worries and his guilt, Lin Yi would find himself falling for this girl in front of him.

Lin Yi also didn't want her to die, but his hands were tied! Even Old Lin didn't know what to do with this sickness. Lin Yi couldn't even guess how to begin investigating! Even if he was titled the Miracle Doctor, but there were things even he was limited to do. He could save someone from a terminal illness, if he knew what he was fighting against. But how could anyone fight against an unknown illness, it was just hopeless.

“Say, Lin Yi, do you like me?” Feng Xiaoxiao had given up on Lin Yi showing her how to drift, she knew Lin Yi’s stubborn personality. As long as he promised to do so, he wouldn’t change his mind afterwards.

“...” Lin Yi didn’t reply.

“Oh, so you don’t like me at all? Not even a little? A small bit?” Feng Xiaoxiao continued to ask.

“...” Lin Yi maintained his silence.

“So, when you were feeling me at the auction, you didn’t have any feelings?” Feng Xiaoxiao blurted out.

“Yes,” Lin Yi finally responded when things were starting to get out of hand.

“So do you have any feelings for me?” Feng Xiaoxiao continued to tease once she finally got a response from the numbskull.

“A little,” Lin Yi nodded.

“Then, why did you reject me?” Feng Xiaoxiao had suspicions regarding Lin Yi’s answers.

“Well, it wasn’t until today that I started to like you,” said Lin Yi, “When we were in Yanjing City, there were feelings, but I wasn’t too sure what it meant,”

Lin Yi wasn’t lying about having feelings toward Feng Xiaoxiao. Except, those feelings were suppressed as he had his guard up against her. It was only until today that he finally lowered his guard.

“Oh! I’m happy to know that! I’m so happy I can just die!” Feng Xiaoxiao started waving her hands around up in the car, “Seems like putting in hard work does reap the reward! So you agree to take me as your mistress right?”

“Tang Yun agreed?” Lin Yi countered.

“Ya, sister Tang Yun had agreed to it. Otherwise, why else would she agree to letting me ride alone with you in the car?” Feng Xiaoxiao excitedly replied.

“Didn’t you force her, or set up a trap for her to accept you?” Lin Yi asked.

“Uh... That... Of course not!” Feng Xiaoxiao naturally denied all accusations, “Sister Tang Yun sees good qualities in me, I’m a good person. That’s why she accepted me,”

“Sigh...” Lin Yi almost crashed his car into the tree. Good person? Lin Yi knew exactly what type of person she was. But he wouldn’t blow her cover.

“What are you smiling about?” Feng Xiaoxiao sensed that Lin Yi’s smirk had another meaning, “I’m speaking the truth, it was sister Tang Yun that had chosen to accept me!”

Lin Yi shrugged, “I really don’t know why you think like that. You are a pretty girl, so it shouldn’t be hard for you to find a boyfriend, why do you choose to be anyone’s mistress!”

“What’s wrong with that?” Feng Xiaoxiao proudly talked back, “Haha, if I want it, then it is better to steal it from others. Like that Chen Yushu, she is so annoying. Lin Yi don’t get bewitched by her good looks!”

Lin Yi shook her head. Who would've thought that Feng Xiaoxiao and Chen Yushu would be rivals. This would be a big headache for Lin Yi in the future.

"I'm at Ning shi road, where is your house?" Lin Yi parked his car on the side.

"In front of that intersection, turn left, then in about five hundred meters, you will reach it," Feng Xiaoxiao pointed.

Five hundred meters wasn't far when it came to driving. In a blink of an eye, Lin Yi had driven right up to the door.

The district was decently huge, but it wasn't the luxurious type. Evidently, it showed that Feng Xiaoxiao wasn't as wealthy... On a deeper level, Lin Yi tried to analyze her situation. Feng Xiaoxiao was raised by a single father. Even if Feng Tianlong had a high salary, it was still a government job that relied on his survival. The salary was probably around one million yuan, so they shouldn't have been able to afford the villas here.

"It is right here..." Feng Xiaoxiao pointed at a building in front, "That's my house, the one on the third floor, penthouse."

"Be careful when you go up stairs, when you get home, send me a message," Lin Yi nodded.

It was a phrase Lin Yi was used to saying. The security in this district was very good, and it was regularly patrolled by security officers so there shouldn't be any criminals. In addition, every house had electric doors, with elevators that came with security cameras.

"You... would you like to come up to sit around?" Feng Xiaoxiao wasn't satisfied with them splitting apart. She was afraid that this was all a dream. She was afraid that when she got up stairs, she would find out that none of this was real.

Even if Feng Xiaoxiao had intentions of revenge close to her heart and wanted to make Lin Yi regret falling in love. At least she could enjoy the feeling of love for the first time too! Two birds with one stone!

Chapter 1011: Feelings of Love

Feng Xiaoxiao laughed at the thought to herself. If she continued doing what she was doing now, with her father's support, she would just be digging deeper into this rabbit hole. Even now, she didn't know whether what she was doing was right or wrong. If Lin Yi did fall for her, then he would be heartbroken?

"No, I won't come today. It's getting late, you should rest up soon," Lin Yi declined quickly. "Shouldn't your dad be back already? It wouldn't look great if I'm there at this hour!"

"He's not home tonight. He is at the dormitory. It seems like there was a mission tonight, so he needed to stay on site. If he left at night, he was afraid of waking me up," Feng Xiaoxiao shook her head. Her dad led a busy life, and she had gotten used to living alone.

"So it's like that... Well I won't come up today. I'll see you tomorrow," Lin Yi turned to leave with a smile.

"Oh... Okay," Feng Xiaoxiao was disappointed in his reply. "Then can I give you a kiss?"

Feng Xiaoxiao lifted her head to look into Lin Yi's eyes. Under the light from the full moon, Lin Yi could clearly see her face and his heart skipped a beat. He had the urge to give Feng Xiaoxiao a peck on the lips but controlled himself. It seemed like his relationship with Feng Xiaoxiao was moving a little too fast.

"Hm... Get up stairs and get a good night's sleep," Lin Yi tried to laugh it off and gave her a pat.

"Oh..." Feng Xiaoxiao was thoroughly disappointed. She wanted to know how it felt to be intimate with someone else. She had never experienced it before. She never had those urges with another man before. Her previous experiences with any interactions with male companions disgust her, but Lin Yi made her feel different, made her feel special.

"I'm leaving," Lin Yi continued to laugh, "I want to see you go up before I leave,"

"Fine," Feng Xiaoxiao hesitated. She didn't know where her courage stemmed from, but she tiptoed and pecked Lin Yi on the cheeks. She didn't wait long enough to hear Lin Yi's reaction, she just skipped away while cracking a giggle. She was afraid of Lin Yi being angry, so she just waved goodbye, "Hehe, I'm leaving! It doesn't feel that bad!"

Having the last word, Feng Xiaoxiao ran toward her apartment entrance.

Lin Yi smiled as he watched Feng Xiaoxiao's shadow disappear. He touched his face, the part where she had kissed. This exhilarating feeling didn't feel bad at all. He had a sudden urge to hug Feng Xiaoxiao from behind, but he knew that if he did that, it wouldn't stop there. Based on this lady's personality, she wouldn't reject his advances. That is one of the main differences between her and Tang Yun. Tang Yun's personality is that she is persistent. While Feng Xiaoxiao is passionate. When he had touched her breast in Nanjing, Feng Xiaoxiao didn't have a huge adverse reaction to him, which was how he came to that reasoning.

However, Lin Yi didn't act on his impulses. This impulse was just his hormones acting up, it wasn't true love from the depths of his heart. So if Lin Yi had feelings for Feng Xiaoxiao, he wouldn't do anything too rushed. He wants it to be all natural.

When Feng Xiaoxiao got into her apartment, Lin Yi went back to his car and drove away.

Feng Xiaoxiao ran all the way to the elevator, her heart was pounding out of her chest. Her face was red like a boiled lobster. She had acted very boldly. That was her first time taking the initiative to kiss a man, and she gave a kiss on his cheek. She was so embarrassed!

This skin to skin feeling of contact made Feng Xiaoxiao crave for more. It is no wonder there were so many passionate couples that were intimate, this sensation was exhilarating!

Feng Xiaoxiao felt her hot cheeks. How does it feel to get kissed? She kissed Lin Yi, and it was amazing, but did Lin Yi feel that same happiness as her?

With the kiss still on her mind, she walked to the elevator and to her own apartment door.

Even if Feng Xiaoxiao didn't live in one of those luxurious apartments, this was one of the large duplexes where one unit has two floors. It was built in the early eras of Songshan City, so by now, it was worth several million yuan.

Feng Tianlong didn't have a lot of places to spend his money and he knew that his daughter didn't have long to live, so he didn't intend to save any money. He wanted his daughter to live in the best environment!

Feng Xiaoxiao entered her apartment, and ran straight for the washroom. She splashed her face with water, as she needed to lower her body temperature.

"Sigh..." After washing her face, Feng Xiaoxiao was able to take a breather. She looked in the mirror and saw her pretty face. Feng Xiaoxiao raised her fist and said to herself, "Xiaoxiao you are the best, keep at it! Lin Yi is starting to like you..."

After Feng Xiaoxiao said that to herself, she was drowned in her emotions. What was this sensation that she was feeling? Could it be that in the process of making her enemy fall in love with her, she too fell in love with Lin Yi? Ah... Well this shouldn't be a problem. Since she was going to die anyway, she might as well enjoy the experience. The more invested she was, then the feeling would be even better!

With that firm belief, Feng Xiaoxiao didn't bother to control her emotions.

She left the washroom, Feng Xiaoxiao sent Lin Yi a text message, 'Honey, I'm home.'

By the time Feng Xiaoxiao had sent the message, Lin Yi was nearly home. He was starting to get worried about why it was taking so long for her to send a message. When he received the message, he finally calmed down.

Lin Yi replied back in a text to Feng Xiaoxiao, with a smile, 'I'm almost back too.'

Shortly after Lin Yi's text message, his phone rang. Lin Yi thought that Feng Xiaoxiao decided to call him, and he picked up. Since he was driving, he didn't look at the caller's name and instinctively said while laughing, "Xiaoxiao, what's wrong?"

"You say Xiaoxiao with such enthusiasm. I'm not Xiaoxiao. This is Yun Yun!" Judging from her voice, she sounded angry. However, when she said 'Yun Yun', she couldn't resist the urge to laugh, "Calling myself Yun Yun in third person, this is so weird..."

"Ahh, I just received Xiaoxiao's text message and then your call came in. So I thought you were her," Lin Yi knew that Tang Yun wouldn't be jealous. She was a very kind girl, when she found out about Feng Xiaoxiao's sad background, she felt only pity and sadness for the girl. Otherwise, that day with Feng Tianlong, she wouldn't willingly accept Feng Tianlong's request.

"I was about to ask you, are you home yet? I can't put my mind at ease..." Tang Yun was afraid that Lin Yi would get ambushed since he was driving alone. He had made so many enemies from different forces, she was full of worries. No one knew whether they would give up on their hope of taking revenge.

"Almost home," Lin Yi replied, "Oh yeah, when Xiaoxiao was there, I didn't get to ask you. What did you and Xiaoxiao talk about? Did you come to an agreement of some sort? How come she is the mistress? Isn't that like she picked up a huge bargain?"

"Haha!" Tang Yun heard the question and chuckled, "I knew that you would be interested! It was quite the conversation we had! So it was like this, when you went to buy dinner, I was with Xiaoxiao waiting for you. We started talking about the mistress problem..."

Chapter 1012: Loves the Silly

Tang Yun didn't bother hiding the conversation she had with Feng Xiaoxiao. She told him the entire agreement, word for word.

When Lin Yi heard Tang Yun explain her thoughts, he didn't think that Tang Yun could be so cunning! Not only did she protect her current position, she made Feng Xiaoxiao think that she had gotten a huge bargain!

"Yunyun, I didn't think that you are so cunning!" Lin Yi revealed a wide smirk.

"Hm!" Tang Yun hubristically voiced her thoughts, "If I'm not cunning, then I would have my spot stolen! Last time Feng Xiaoxiao taught me a lesson, I can't be so naive towards people anymore..."

"Haha," Lin Yi didn't continue teasing with Tang Yun. He was glad that through this opportunity, Tang Yun was able to mature.

"Oh right, what did you say to Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu? It seems like Chen Yushu and Feng Xiaoxiao have a sort of rivalry going on," Tang Yun curiously asked.

"I said the truth," Lin Yi continued, "Both Yaoyao and Xiao Shu are understanding people. When they knew about Xiaoxiao's special condition, they didn't give her any further trouble!"

"Ah, I can see that happening! Oh right, you need to remind them to ease into it slowly. Don't just become friends in one day or else Feng Xiaoxiao will become suspicious. It's best if they slowly accepted her on their own. Then they can become like me! Me and Xiaoxiao are on the right key!" Tang Yun cheerfully proposed.

"I understand, I'll talk to them about it," Lin Yi knew the importance behind Tang Yun's warning. Chen Yushu and Chu Mengyao are smart people, they should know how to execute the act perfectly.

"You are still driving right? Then I won't take too much of your time. Drive home safely, I'll see you tomorrow!" Tang Yun replied.

"Yes, see you tomorrow," said Lin Yi.

Lin Yi was almost back to the villa by the time he hung up. In a short few minutes, he parked his car by the courtyard.

When Lin Yi walked into the villa, Yaoyao and Yushu were sitting in the living room watching television.

Chen Yushu was so absorbed into her show, she was cheering violently with her body. She didn't notice Lin Yi walk in, until she got small kick from Chu Mengyao.

"Ahhh?" Chen Yushu was taken by surprised. Then she looked at Lin Yi and remembered that she had a series of questions to ask him, "Shield bro, you are back? I want to ask about the situation with Feng Xiaoxiao? Do you not like me anymore? Is that why you found someone similar to me in shape, to play threesome with?"

"Xiao Shu!" Chu Mengyao glared, "What is your mind filled with? How could you say such vulgar things? You are a girl! You have to mind your words, otherwise how will you marry?"

“Wha, Shield Bro doesn’t want me anymore! Forget about marrying, I don’t want to live anymore!”
Chen Yushu whined sadly.

“Okay, Xiao Shu, you can stop messing around now,” Lin Yi looked at Chen Yushu, “So you figured out that something was wrong, right?”

“Ah?” Chen Yushu waited for a response.

She knew that Feng Xiaoxiao’s appearance was suspicious. Theoretically, Lin Yi wouldn’t accept another girl to be his mistress, even more unthinkable was that Tang Yun wouldn’t be the type to share!

If Tang Yun was willing to allow Lin Yi have a mistress, then she wouldn’t have bickered with them at Fatty Lai’s house.

Chu Mengyao was also shocked, but she played along even when she felt like it was a suspicious situation. She didn’t talk to Chen Yushu about it, she wanted to wait for Lin Yi to explain himself. It was that Chen Yushu beat her to ask the question, and was surprised she had thought the same way.

“Hmph, so lame. Shield bro, why must you always break my cover...” Chen Yushu scolded.

“Haha, I do enjoy it when you act silly,” Lin Yi smiled.

Even though Lin Yi claimed that he had discovered Chen Yushu was acting weird towards Feng Xiaoxiao, the fact that they were bickering made him cast doubts. Since the threats were all verbal and non substantial, Lin Yi was able to disregard her troublesome acts. He knew her personality, and it was highly doubtful that she would join forces with someone she dislikes.

“Ah, okay fine,” Chen Yushu was happy at the reply. “Shield bro, what is up with Feng Xiaoxiao?”

Chen Yushu was gloating that she was appreciated by Lin Yi for her ‘silly acts’ but then she realized that Feng Xiaoxiao also had the same persona. So did that mean Lin Yi also liked her too? Then who did he like more?

“Let me tell you about Feng Xiaoxiao, but you have to promise me to keep it a secret,” Lin Yi beckoned Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu.

“Relax, my alias is Secret Shu, all your secrets are safe with me. I won’t spill even if I get tortured,” Chen Yushu quickly added.

Chu Mengyao didn’t need to add anything more to that, she just nodded to symbolize that she too will keep that secret.

“Xiaoxiao... her time is nearly up...” Lin Yi sighed. He joined them on the sofa as he told his story.

“What? Time is nearly up?” Chu Mengyao was shocked. “Lin Yi, do you mean that Feng Xiaoxiao is...”

“Yeah, Feng Xiaoxiao has a terminal illness, that even I can’t treat... she has around a year left in her lifespan!” Lin Yi sighed deeply again.

Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu widened their eyes as they stared at Lin Yi with disbelief.

Lin Yo continued, "Her father is a good friend of mine, his wish was that he wanted Xiaoxiao to experience a romantic relationship. So I agreed to fulfill his request and will oblige to Feng Xiaoxiao's demands until the day she leaves us..."

Lin Yi didn't stop the story there. He explained in detail about how kind Tang Yun was, and how she took the initiative and agreed to it ...

"It was Tang Yun who took the initiative?" Chu Mengyao couldn't believe that Tang Yun could be so generous. She willingly gave up Lin Yi to share with another girl...

"Mhmm," Lin Yi nodded.

"Yaoyao sis, Feng Xiaoxiao is such a sad person!" There was a slight hint of regret in her tone, they shouldn't have bickered with Feng Xiaoxiao so often. She was a person with limited time, she had at most a year left. While they have their whole lives ahead of them, they could have Lin Yi any time they want.

"Yeah... I couldn't believe it myself, Feng Xiaoxiao has a hereditary illness..." Chu Mengyao sighed. "Now, I know why Tang Yun was able to accept her..."

"So all that I've told you, I hope that you can help keep it a secret. Even keep it hidden from Feng Xiaoxiao. She is a strong willed girl, if she found out that we are doing this out of pity, then she might do something extreme!"

Chapter 1013: Couldn't Wait

"Lin Yi, don't worry, both me and Yushu know the consequences of our actions," Chu Mengyao nodded sternly, "On top of that, me and Yushu will promise to not take any hostile actions against Feng Xiaoxiao. You can even bring her here as guest and we won't have any objections,"

"Well... that might not be necessary. As long as your attitude towards her changes gradually, and not suddenly, then she won't suspect it..." Lin Yi shook his head, "Xiaoxiao isn't that dumb so if you changed your attitude towards her so rapidly, then she would know something was suspicious,"

"You are right about that!" Chu Mengyao nodded. "Do you have any suggestions on how we can make it look inconspicuous?"

Chu Mengyao is a very forgiving person. Once she understood Feng Xiaoxiao's condition, she felt sympathetic towards her. If there was anything she could do within her power, she was willing to do so. Her willingness to help out stems from her attitude, but her tone is very dull when she says it.

"No need to force it, just act naturally," Lin Yi had no better suggestion. He made moves only when it was necessary to move. At least now, there will be less confrontations with Feng Xiaoxiao.

"Mhm, leave it to me," Chen Yushu patted her chest, "I will continue with my fighting act with her, so I can convert a rival into a friend!"

Lin Yi's eyes followed the range of motion of Chen Yushu's hand. Isn't she afraid of ricochet from hitting her breasts too hard? Nevertheless Lin Yi admires Chen Yushu's strategy, as it could be quite effective.

"Ah, then Yushu, I will have to bother you with that task," Lin Yi nodded in approval.

“Yes, I love helping Shield Bro out. But, remember that when Xiaoxiao leaves, you will need to compensate me handsomely!” Chen Yushu craftily added her demands.

“...” Lin Yi was stunned. Chen Yushu was hinting at waiting for Feng Xiaoxiao to pass on, but Lin Yi knew that she was harmless behind her meaningless words. Lin Yi stood up and said “I’ll go check up on Uncle Fu. I’ll let you continue watching your shows, and if you have any more questions then you can discuss with Yunyun.”

“Okay,” Chu Mengyao had the intention of connecting more with Tang Yun from the beginning, so when Lin Yi finished speaking, she naturally nodded.

Lin Yi stood up and walked toward Uncle Fu’s room. These few days Uncle Fu had been living in the villa, it was more convenient for Lin Yi to treat him this way.

When Uncle Fu saw Lin Yi walk towards him, he stood up immediately. He only had respect towards Lin Yi. Lin Yi is his lifesaver, and was the one who helped restore his meridians.

This kindness that Lin Yi bestowed on Uncle Fu, was the equivalent of being revived.

Uncle Fu had admiration for Chu Pengzhan as they had been friends for a long time; his feelings toward Chu Mengyao was out of love, he treats her as if she were his own daughter since he watched her grow up.

“Xiao Yi, you came back!” Uncle Fu respectfully greeted Lin Yi. Lin Yi had strongly requested that he should be called ‘Xiao Yi’, otherwise, Uncle Fu would’ve called him something more ridiculous.

“Uncle Fu, how do you feel now?” Lin Yi inquired. He wasn’t exactly comfortable with being called any honorifics and had to correct Uncle Fu twice. However, it was Uncle Fu’s natural instinct to do so, even Lin Yi couldn’t change behavior!

Even Lin Yi acknowledged that what he was doing to heal Uncle Fu is viewed as if giving a new life to another individual, in the world of martial arts.

“Oh healing progress is not bad, just need to fix one more meridian, then I should be back to normal!” Uncle Fu spoke up.

“Okay, then we will push through tonight and fix that meridian!” Lin Yi couldn’t wait. Having an Earth Class user on his side wasn’t something to look down upon! Once Uncle Fu was at his full strength, Lin Yi would have a strong ally. Now even House Yu or House Xiao, wouldn’t be able to bully them around!

“Then, I must burden you with another troublesome task!” Uncle Fu nodded as he sat in a meditative position on the bed. He prepared his body for Lin Yi’s pure energy to seep into his body.

“General Wu!” Lin Yi beckoned the beast. General Wu obediently ran to Uncle Fu’s room and sat in position to guard the area! These few days, General Wu had been doing this so routinely that it knew what to do.

“Woof Woof!” General Wu barked back to Lin Yi. This was his way of telling Lin Yi that he was in position.

Lin Yi stretched his body to warm up and sat by Uncle Fu's bed. He activated his Art of Dragon Mastery and started injecting energy into Uncle Fu's damaged meridian! Over these past few days, Lin Yi was responsible for restoring the damaged meridians and tonight was the last meridian!

Lin Yi's energy steadily flowed into Uncle Fu's body. Even with the naked eye, one can tell that Uncle Fu's body was being pumped with energy that coursed through his meridians.

"Ahh..." Uncle Fu felt very relaxed throughout this process. With Lin Yi supplying him energy, he did his best to absorb it all. Up until a few days ago, Uncle Fu didn't believe that Lin Yi could endlessly supply him with energy like a battery; Lin Yi's pure energy proved that it was harmless, and beneficial to his healing so he had to accept this fact!

Lin Yi supplying the pure energy as a means of treating someone was a familiar task to him!

After around the time it would take to prepare a tea ceremony, Uncle Fu's last damaged meridian was fixed by Lin Yi's pure energy. Uncle Fu could now train as a spiritual arts user!

Even without having pure energy course through Uncle Fu's meridian, Lin Yi could feel the thickness of Uncle Fu's meridian! If there was energy running through these meridians, Uncle Fu was definitely going to become an Earth Class fighter!

This was just like the moment when Lin Yi had dropped a few grades in power level, but he still had the experience of his previous battles!

As long as Uncle Fu was able to regain his energy back, then he could be a full fledged Earth Class fighter, but it will still be harder to break through the upgrade barrier everytime.

Once Lin Yi had fully restored the damaged meridian, he had the sudden urge to rush the treatment. He couldn't wait to restore Uncle Fu as an Earth Class fighter! Prior to all meridians were healed, Lin Yi was suppressing the energy amount that went into healing Uncle Fu!

Now that Uncle Fu's meridians were aligned, Lin Yi unleashed the dampener.

"Today is the day!" With momentum on his side, Lin Yi grinded his teeth as he continued to supply more energy into Uncle Fu's body. Time didn't wait for anyone. With the sudden appearance of Xie Yufeng, Lin Yi sensed an imminent danger!

Even Xie Yufeng's abilities were slightly above his own and he didn't know if Xie Yufeng had the backing of someone even more powerful.

Chapter 1014: Creating A Fighter

Even Lin Yi felt a sense of urgency. He really wanted another veteran fighter by his side. This way he wouldn't have to be afraid of any possible hidden threats!

Which is why Lin Yi decided that today was the day he would recover Uncle Fu's strength back to full capacity. This was all due to Xie Yufeng's subtle actions today. Lin Yi didn't want to expose too much of his abilities, but accidents were hard to predict so before Xie Yufeng decided to act on his terms, Uncle Fu must be fully restored!

In terms of vulnerability, this was the time where he would be in a weakened state. This was the calm that occurred before a storm, so there wasn't an excessive worry that vengeance would come knocking on their door.

Even while deep in thought, Lin Yi didn't slow down on the energy transfer. With the Art of Dragon Mastery, he maintained a constant flow of energy into Uncle Fu's body pushing him from just the state of recovery.

When Uncle Fu sensed that his meridians were fully healed, he wanted to jump up for joy, and stretch his legs. That was when he paused and noticed that the energy stream wasn't decreasing with any intention of slowing down.

"Xiao Yi... You..." Uncle Fu was taken by surprised.

Lin Yi smiled as a reply. He didn't answer verbally, instead he focused on transferring energy into Uncle Fu's body. Uncle Fu understood the meaning of this action! Lin Yi wanted to use his own body as a catalyst to transfer energy!

Uncle Fu had been in this situation before! His wife was also a practitioner who used pure energy as a means of self healing and a booster to upgrade. Every time his wife would spend a year to gather the energy, and inject it into his body, but it only increased his level by a small fraction!

Once his wife was done with feeding the energy, she would train herself. Uncle Fu didn't feel too guilty because this was the way House Sun was operated!

However, Lin Yi was different; he would heal strangers that he didn't know. He would give them the full treatment, and risk losing the majority of his energy capacity. How could Uncle Fu remain calm knowing that Lin Yi was willing to take this huge risk?

Uncle Fu was surprised that Lin Yi's energy could be used immediately. With the endless stream of energy influx, he sensed that his power was slowly recovering! This sensation was similar to when he was training his physical arts. What a refreshing feeling!

When he noticed Lin Yi's smile, that meant he had set his goal. When he set his goal, he actually tried to accomplish it. Lin Yi wasn't that old in age, but his determination was solid! At this point, Uncle Fu felt like he was being an inconvenience to Lin Yi, but he didn't dare interrupt the flow of energy. That would be much more dangerous!

Now that things have progressed this far, Uncle Fu doesn't want to waste Lin Yi's efforts, so he started chanting his own sect's mantra. In hopes of making the energy absorption more effective, he timed it with Lin Yi's energy flow.

The moment Uncle Fu started on the chant, his body's absorption rate increased, like a gate had just been unlocked. Any physical martial artist obtained their energy by absorbing and converting nature's pure energy. This time, Uncle Fu was absorbing pure energy, but it was Lin Yi's pure energy!

Lin Yi felt that Uncle Fu was absorbing his energy a lot quicker. Lin Yi shrugged it off, as he figured that Uncle Fu was doing his best to match him! Lin Yi didn't have any intentions of slowing down! Higher absorption rate meant that it would be finished quicker! Lin Yi was very joyful about it!

Working intensively harder, Lin Yi was burning through his energy. As long as the end result was a renewed Uncle Fu, it didn't matter how much energy he used. He can easily regain it all back in the pendant interdimensional space in one night's time!

Seconds turned into minutes, Lin Yi didn't stop as long as Uncle Fu could still intake!

The two were like monks in mediational state. There was no talking, only stern faces remained!

Uncle Fu sensed that he was about to reenter into the Golden class! He was so surprised as he didn't dare think that it was possible. In a few minutes time, he was able to jump from the status of an average person to a Golden class power level. To forcefully power someone up, he couldn't help but think how much pure energy it would require!

With so much pure energy, Uncle Fu thought that Lin Yi was transferring it all for free to himself! Uncle Fu felt emotional and swore to himself privately that he would do his best to repay Lin Yi! This generous gift was simply too generous!

Lin Yi sensed the change in power level stabilizing in Uncle Fu, he smiled for a little bit.

Almost the time to breakthrough! Uncle Fu bordered the energy threshold for Golden Class. He recalled the time when he had to train for months on end to reach this same class level. Was he also this excited the first time he achieved it?

"Boom!" Uncle Fu broke through the threshold barrier and his body quaked from the transition. It was a successful transition from being powerless person to a Golden Class fighter.

Smiling formed on Uncle Fu's face. Was it always this easy for spiritual masters to reach Golden Class?

With the new breakthrough, Lin Yi couldn't keep up with the increase in demand that Uncle Fu required.

Checking on the remaining energy within him, Lin Yi frowned. He used a third of his energy to recover Uncle Fu's meridians and to help breakthrough into Golden Class, which left Lin Yi with the minimum operating amount of energy.

He was close to reaching his critical threshold.

Now what should he do? Give up now? Lin Yi was reluctant to do so. He didn't want to give up on making Uncle Fu a powerhouse. It all depended on what he chose to do now!

But, with barely any energy remaining, how can he continue?

A lightbulb appeared in Lin Yi's head, he remembered that he did something similar when he had to transfer energy over to General Wu! He had to enter his conscience into the inter dimensional realm of the pendant while maintaining his energy transfer state. Once inside the pendant, he can use his Art of Dragon Mastery to replenish his own energy supply. Then, that same energy would be transferred over to Uncle Fu.

What an idiot, as Lin Yi scold himself. Lin Yi focused his collective conscience and dove into the pendant realm.

He was running out of energy fast!

Once in the interdimensional realm, he focused on the chant specific to the Art of Dragon Mastery, which caused the dense energy to surge through his own body and in turn, converted into Uncle Fu's body.

The transfer rate was evidently faster than before! The reason was simple, the energy in the pendent interdimensional realm far exceeds the amount of energy in Lin Yi's body.

Chapter 1015: Difficult to understand

At this moment, Lin Yi's body was like a transfer station and transferred the energy within the jade space into Fu Bo's body.

Even though Lin Yi absorbed the energy really quickly, the energy didn't even stop within his body and flowed right into Fu Bo's body instead! Fu Bo's body was like a bottomless pit, constantly consuming the energy transported by Lin Yi

Of course, Lin Yi wasn't that surprised. Back then, General Weiwu already needed a lot of energy, let alone a huge guy like Fu Bo.

Although Fu Bo's face was full of surprise, it quickly turned into shock. He originally thought that Lin would stop after transferring some energy as a foundation. After all, there was a saying which said that the Master could only take you in but training had to be done for yourself so as for future training, Fu Bo was still determined to depend on himself.

He did not expect Lin Yi to continuously transfer energy to him. However, the current situation seemed to be different from what he had imagined as Lin Yi's energy was still being transported without any signs of stopping!

This made Fu Bo really surprised. Could Lin Yi withstand this? This was because Fu Bo had felt that he himself would soon reach the barrier of the early stages of the Yellow Rank. This kind of upgrade speed, perhaps was the first in history? Well... except for General Weiwu!!

Thinking of General Weiwu, Fu Bo really admired Chu Pengzhan. Where did Mr Chu find someone ruthless like Lin Yi? This was a bit too fierce, they could make a master just by sitting at home!

Although Fu Bo didn't know who Lin Yi really was and which super influential sect he was from, but he could tell that making masters by sitting at home wasn't simple. At least the background behind Lin Yi wouldn't be smaller than his own sect, probably even stronger!

Thinking of this, Fu Bo's gaze became hot. Him wanting revenge... wasn't an impossible thing anymore. It was just that Lin Yi may or may not intervene and he would have to work hard on his own.

"Boom!" Without warning, Fu Bo broke through once again! He went from the peak of the early stage of the Yellow Class, straight to the middle stage! Fu Bo couldn't help but feel secretly shocked at this upgrade speed. Too fast. To think that back then he took years to go from the early stage to the middle stage. But now, how long had this been? Just about three hours? And he went from an ordinary person to a master of the middle stage of the Yellow Class!

Thinking of those who trained so hard for their entire lives yet still couldn't improve their strengths, Fu Bo couldn't help but feel grief. As the saying went, comparisons were odious. Some people, not to mention upgrading from the early stage of the Yellow Class to the middle stage, even if it's from the early stage to the peak point of the early stage, they would still go through a very difficult cultivation process.

Yet, Fu Bo broke through without any pressure within a few hours!

Fu Bo reached the middle stage of the Yellow Class, however this caused a lot of damage to Lin Yi. The amount of energy that Fu Bo needed to upgrade was obviously much more than General Weiwu. Therefore, Lin Yi felt that his body was like a sieve where energy was seeping through his body without stopping at all, the huge amounts of energy made Lin Yi's meridians stretch in pain.

However, in order to create a master of the Earth Class, he endured the pain. Once this matter was successful, then it would be a historical breakthrough. No one would've thought that he had created a trump card of a master of the Earth Class.

Lin Yi felt excited just thinking about this.

As time went by, the energy absorbed by Fu Bo continued to increase sharply. Another few hours went by and Fu Bo went from the middle stage of the Yellow Class to the middle stage peak. Following this, was the unimaginable break through once again!

When the marble white colour of dawn appeared outside on the edge of the sky, Fu Bo had already gained the strength of the late stage of the Yellow Class.

Just a few days ago, Fu Bo had still dispiritedly believed that he was crippled, the strength of the late stage of the Yellow Class he had gained with great difficulty was gone just like that. Yet now he not only was able to immediately gain that strength again, but this time it would be Spiritual strength, which was even stronger than Physical!

On this end, Fu Bo was enjoying the thrill of the upgrade in rank, but Lin Yi on the other hand was not feeling as good. After all, large amounts of energy had passed through his body, giving him the feeling of just having a thread as support.

Continue! He must continue!

Lin Yi gritted his teeth and continued to operate the Art of the Dragon Mastery, allowing the energy within his body to continue to be steadily transported in to Fu Bo's body.

At last, Fu Bo's strength advanced towards the late stage of the Yellow Class.

A smile crossed the corner of Lin Yi's mouth. He's almost about to complete a leap of a high level, which made him somewhat excited.

Lin Yi could clearly feel the change in the level of the strength within Fu Bo's body. Therefore, along with the improvement of Fu Bo's strength, Lin Yi's heart was also filled with excitement.

Under the strong transportation of Lin Yi's energy, Fu Bo's strength finally broke through to the peak of the late stage of the Yellow Class!

Lin Yi's face showed a slight hint of joy. It has only been a few hours and Fu Bo had gone from an ordinary person to a master of the late stage of the Yellow Class. It's even faster than riding a plane!

It seems that he would have to work harder, Fu Bo was almost about to become a master of the Mystic Class! From the late stage of the Yellow Class, the early stage of the Mystic class was only one step away! Thinking of this, Lin Yi worked even harder to operate the Art of the Dragon Mastery, allowing the energy to rapidly enter Fu Bo's body.

However, following this, strange things started to occur.

The energy that Lin Yi was transporting within Fu Bo's body stopped abruptly, just like adding fuel to a car and suddenly the fuel tank is full. Although Lin Yi's Art of the Dragon Mastery didn't stop, the energy could no longer pass through him into Fu Bo's body, and was absorbed by Lin Yi's own body instead.

Why was this happening? Lin Yi couldn't help but frown. He could be sure, as his hand was still on Fu Bo's body, that it was impossible for this kind of interruption to occur. Yet this situation still happened!

Lin Yi stopped operating the Art of the Dragon Mastery, and the energy within the Jade Room stopped flowing into Lin Yi's body as well.

He rested for a while and once again operated the Art of the Dragon Mastery, wanting to pass the energy to Fu Bo through his own body. However, Lin Yi helplessly discovered that instead of passing it to Fu Bo, the energy was still absorbed by his own body.

Seeing the current situation, Lin Yi helplessly returned to reality from the Jade Room. After all, Lin Yi couldn't transport any more energy to Fu Bo so Fu Bo's strength could only stay at the late stage of the Yellow Class. This was also something that Lin Yi found difficult to understand even after giving it much thought.

Chapter 1016: Within Reason

Uncle Fu felt the energy within his body stop transferring, but since Lin Yi hadn't opened his eyes yet he didn't know what he was doing, and didn't dare interrupt him. He had many questions, but he knew to keep them to himself.

But when Lin Yi opened his eyes- he quickly spoke up, "Yi, you gave me all of your strength... You..."

"I'm fine," Lin Yi shook his head, "I don't know what's wrong, but you seemed to be stuck in Golden Class late phase peak- I can't continue to give you any."

"Haha, Golden class late phase peak- that's as strong as before my injury as a physical practitioner- I'm satisfied enough already, even if I can't go higher it's fine- I'll still be able to continue training, and this is already much stronger than my original expectations!" Uncle Fu said gratefully, "Yi, thank you!"

"But... You're an Earth class, and I wanted you to become an Earth class again- Golden class late phase peak isn't supposed to be the final destination!" Lin Yi waved his hand, only giving a smile to Uncle Fu's gratitude.

"Ah!" Uncle Fu was speechless at Lin Yi's words!

Lin Yi was expecting that much? Earth class?! Lin Yi wanted to turn him into an Earth class?? Uncle Fu didn't even dare imagine that- Lin Yi was indeed that crazy!

"What's wrong?" Lin Yi got pulled back to reality at his shout.

"It's nothing..." He shook his head, "Yi, you really have some wild thoughts... Earth class... That isn't something so simple. What would you do after you've given me all your qi? Even if you gave it all to me, you're just a Mystic mid phase- how is it possible that you could create an Earth class?"

"My qi.." Lin Yi smiled bitterly. His situation was unique- it really was hard to explain this to Uncle Fu! The energy within his body wasn't his own, it came from the jade space! The energy there was unlimited, and he could even make ten Earth class masters, not just one!

Lin Yi didn't understand- why did everything stop right when they hit golden class late phase peak?

"Yi, it's already a miracle that I've become a Golden class late phase peak- I'm already really grateful!" Uncle Fu said, even more grateful when he saw how much effort the kid had put in, "I used to be a spiritual practitioner before too. I can train on and break through to Earth phase- it's still possible!"

Lin Yi sighed. Uncle Fu was right, but Lin Yi was already expecting an Earth class to be by his side! Uncle Fu's strength level pausing here really did make him feel like they had lost something- this was something right at his fingertips, and now it was gone! Of course he'd be disappointed!

Especially when everything was prepared and ready, too- he had all the energy he needed, energy that applied to everyone- he could've continued!

So why did it stop?

This really was something he couldn't explain!

"Uncle Fu, what did you feel the moment the energy stopped?" Lin Yi hesitated.

"Hmm," Uncle Fu raised his head, "There wasn't really any special feeling, but I did feel an abrupt stop to the energy you were transferring..."

"Hm..." Lin Yi smiled bitterly. Uncle Fu basically gave him no information- he still didn't know what was wrong...

"Yi, you don't have to think about me anymore- Your strength..." Uncle Fu was still worried, "You seemed to have downgraded?"

"Ah, I'm fine... Hm?" Lin Yi suddenly jerked up- was this because he had no energy inside his body right now? Could it be that this was why Uncle Fu was unable to break through? Did he need energy within his own body in addition to the one provided by the jade space?

This guess seemed a little too simple, but it was the only possibility right now! After all, he had no other factors to consider! It seemed like everything was ready, and just one single thing was lacking!

"Uncle Fu, I'll go rest a bit and regain my strength- you do the same too," Lin Yi didn't spend too much time talking- he needed to quickly recover and then he would know whether this was the reason Uncle Fu couldn't break through.

“Alright, Lin Yi, you go rest!” Uncle Fu nodded.

Lin Yi quickly exited the room and went to his own.

The Miss and Shu were already asleep. Since Lin Yi would heal Uncle Fu every night, the two had already gotten used to it.

Lin Yi returned to his room and quickly went into the jade space- he needed to quickly replenish the lost energy within his body- the sky was already getting bright! He had no time to waste.

A while later, the sun was up- it was already noon!

Uncle Fu had already sent Mengyao and Yushu to school, and the two of them, while curious why Lin Yi wasn't awake yet, left it alone once Uncle Fu told them that he had used a lot of qi to heal him.

Mengyao and Yushu didn't ask anymore questions, and he sent them to school before quickly coming back for Lin Yi, worried. There was Weiwu here, but he felt like he needed to guard Lin Yi just in case.

A click sounded from Lin Yi's door, and he walked out.

On the sofa, the tense Uncle Fu looked at Lin Yi immediately, “Yi, how was it?”

“I'm okay- my strength's all back now!” Lin Yi couldn't help but feel a little bit of regret – he was still a mid phase Mystic, and it seemed that he wouldn't be able to break through just because he had lost all his energy!

The few times that did happen was because he'd already spent time training, and the energy within him had reached its capacity, waiting for him to reach the next wall. He needed to use up all his energy only under those conditions!

But now, it hadn't been a few days since he'd broken through into Mystic, and he still had to use all his energy to heal Uncle Fu right now- hurting his own energy. He had to practice, too, which he hadn't been able to do. It was only natural that he wouldn't be able to breakthrough this time!

Chapter 1017: Helpless Result

But even so, Lin Yi still felt a little disappointed- he still had wishful thinking that he could just keep transferring energy to Uncle Fu and then just recover- It would allow him to reach his goals instantly.

Yet now, it seemed like he was really thinking too far ahead!

Breaking himself and then repairing really did help him level up before, but that was it- it just helped. It was a supplement- he had to reach the wall right before breaking through, otherwise it would not happen at all!

This sort of thing really would be like a cheat- and in the end, it didn't work! He even found it funny that he'd be as naive as to think he could just cheat the system like that. He'd be able to become Sky class easily, if that were the case!

“Recovered...” Uncle Fu took a deep breath. He was very clear on how much Lin Yi had sent over to him- not only did he repair all his nerves, he even turned him from a normal man into Gold Class late phase peak- how much energy did that require?

Even if Lin Yi didn't lose his strength as a Mystic, he must at least be extremely tired and frail right now- and yet he was recovered!

But thinking about the things that Lin Yi had done before, he could only respond with a bitter smile. Lin Yi wasn't someone you used common sense on.

“Uncle Fu, now that my strength is back, let's do another experiment and see if you can break through!” Lin Yi said.

“Experiment? You just recovered your strength... Is this really okay?” Uncle Fu looked at Lin Yi, a little shocked.

“We have to experiment!” Lin Yi nodded, determined. He never gave up halfway- the things he decided to do, he would always be complete them.

“Hm.. Alright!” Uncle Fu nodded, seeing the determination in his eyes, “It seems like I'll have to agree! Thank you for the trouble, Yi!”

Lin Yi shook his head, smiling, “It's not a trouble at all, Uncle Fu- I just want a strong ally by my side, then these Xiaos and Yus wouldn't be a threat at all!”

“HAH!” Uncle Fu couldn't help but laugh at the word, “True, with my peak situation back then, House Yu and House Xiao would be merely common houses, not a threat at all...”

“Even now they're not really threats... I am just worried about the hidden house behind House Yu.” Lin Yi said.

“Hidden house, yes...” Uncle Fu didn't say anything, but there was still some pride in his voice- it seemed like he used to be something as strong as a hidden house, right?

Lin Yi put his hands on Uncle Fu's shoulders, “Uncle Fu, we're about to start!”

“Alright, I understand!” Uncle Fu took back his smile, a serious look appearing on his face. He didn't want Lin Yi to waste his qi anymore, but he really did look forward to being able to break through again.

Lin Yi started channelling his art of the dragon mastery, and started sending all his qi to Uncle Fu's body. Yet, something weird happened once more- he felt that the energy that he was sending wasn't entering Uncle Fu's body at all!

“Uncle Fu, are you channeling your arts?” Lin Yi paused.

“I am, I am!” Uncle Fu nodded, “You haven't started yet?”

“I'll try again,” Lin Yi frowned. He continued channeling the Art of Dragon Mastery, but the result was still the same- his qi really refused to pass through his hands into Uncle Fu, as if Uncle Fu didn't want his qi at all!

This was the exact same as yesterday- his qi couldn't be used by Uncle Fu!

Half an hour passed.

Lin Yi's qi wasn't used at all, but his face was still red, his head full of sweat!

Uncle Fu wasn't having it easy, either- he was also sweating because of the Lin Yi's channeling and his own worry in his heart.

"Fu..." Lin Yi breathed out unwillingly- it seemed that he had no choice but to give up now! There weren't any ways he could get the qi through to him!

"It's alright- I can always train on my own, there's no problem at all," Uncle Fu said upon seeing Lin Yi's tired face.

"But..." Lin Yi really didn't want to give up- it was such a waste!

Could it be that Uncle Fu's practitioner arts were not the same type as his own? Even so, wasn't his own Dragon Mastery arts universal? Why wasn't it working all of a sudden?

Lin Yi stood up, and started moving around his stiff body when he laid eyes on Weiwu. He paused, "General Weiwu, come here!"

"Woof!" Weiwu had been particularly close with Lin Yi after he turned him into a Golden Class- he ran over instantly and leaped into his arms.

Lin Yi was thinking that if his practitioner arts were considered different from Uncle Fu's, then he'd practically be in-sect brothers with Weiwu! Could he upgrade Weiwu instead?

He held him tight and started channelling his Art of Dragon Mastery- to his disappointment, only a small amount of energy entered his body, and the same situation appeared! The qi stopped entering!

Lin Yi couldn't get even an inch of that energy into Weiwu's body, the dog was still a Golden Class late phase peak! That bit of energy that he just got into the dog was only the amount that Weiwu had just used up earlier!

Weiwu probably used up that energy when fighting Yu Bide- but since he didn't know any practitioner's art he couldn't recover himself, so the energy he used up would stay used up unless Lin Yi refilled him! He couldn't get past the maximum capacity within Weiwu.

Lin Yi went into deep thought- Weiwu as well! Why couldn't he get him to break through!

"Yi, Golden Class late phase peak is already good enough!!" Uncle Fu consoled once he saw that disappointment in Lin Yi's face.

"Haha, I know..." Lin Yi sighed, "Uncle Fu, I'll leave you and go to school then."

He had no choice but to give up now! It seemed that he really was too naive- if his energy really was that powerful then he could be mass producing masters right now!

Yes, he did... But they were all stuck at Golden class late phase peak!

Chapter 1018: Elder Jiao's Explanation

Although, Golden Class End Phase Peak was already something extremely powerful in the common world. It was an extreme rarity.

But that didn't help the Lin Yi now!

His enemies now all came from the noble houses, not the common world- they were all Mystic classes, and neither Uncle Fu nor General Weiwu could help him there!

He gave up. It seemed that this shortcut wasn't possible after all- effort was still required.

Uncle Fu knew that Lin Yi must be terribly disappointed with the way he was sighing and shaking his head. He sighed as well, "Yi, I'll go to Mister Chu's company then. Will you be driving to school on your own?"

"Yeah, I'll go myself," Lin Yi said, "I'll take a shower, you go first, Uncle Fu."

"Alright," Uncle Fu said, not worrying now that Lin Yi had regained his strength. He left the villa.

Lin Yi went back to his room and hastily went into the jade space to talk to Elder Jiao, "Elder Jiao, I thought my energy is all-powerful! How come I can't turn Uncle Fu into an earth class? I can't make Weiwu stronger, either?"

Lin Yi hadn't thought of communicating with Elder Jiao before since he was hurrying to regain his strength, but now that he'd failed he had to ask.

"I'm not sure." Elder Jiao said...

"I see..." Lin Yi smiled bitterly. Even Elder Jiao didn't know?

"I'm not done," Elder Jiao said, evidently not pleased by the interruption, "I have some guesses..."

"Please, Elder Jiao!" Lin Yi said.

"Your situation- I'm not sure, but I've seen something similar before," Elder Jiao said slowly, "In some sects in the Wulin world, there are some secret techniques that passed on power- we can also call it passing inheritance, or an abhisheka!"

"Oh? Inheritance? Abhisheka?" Lin Yi blinked.

"Correct! It's when an old practitioner, right before his death, passes on all of his practicing onto his disciple using a secret technique, allowing his disciple to become stronger with great speed!" Elder Jiao said, "But, after that, the disciple will always be one level lower than his master, and would require training on his own part to reach his master's strength."

"Oh? One level lower..." Lin Yi thought about it.

"Yes. If all practitioners could just pass inheritance onto others, then their sect would be immensely strong, with an endless supply of masters! Other sects would fall!" Elder Jiao said, "But, despite all that, this kind of sect isn't very big."

"Hm... So Elder Jiao, you're saying that I'm the same as this inheritance passing type?" Lin Yi nodded.

“It should be, more or less!” Elder Jiao said, “But, after you finish passing it on, you’re still able to regain your strength quickly in the jade space- others can’t!”

“I see,” Lin Yi felt that this hidden card of his was a little like cheating.

“And so, since you’re just a Mystic, you’ll only be able to make a master one level lower than you, according to the logic of passing inheritance. Golden class end phase peak is the limit!”

“Man, should’ve talked with you earlier- I wouldn’t have to waste my energy on the experiments then,” Lin Yi said, knowing that what they had just concluded on was probably true.

“How would you know it wouldn’t work unless you tried it? It was only after seeing your experiment fail that I came up with this conclusion,” Elder Jiao said, “Otherwise, I would still be hoping for you to create an Earth phase yourself!”

“Yeah... But if Uncle Fu were to be able to enter the jade space that be nice...” Lin Yi said to himself.

But, Lin Yi quickly stopped that thought right as it came- even if there were other people who could enter this jade space, like Uncle Fu, he wouldn’t let him! After all, this was his final card, his trump card, and while Uncle Fu was trustworthy, this sort of secret would be better off kept from everyone except himself. It’d only add risk if he told anybody.

Lin Yi had sweated a lot during the experiment, and he had also given up on creating an Earth phase now that he had discussed with Elder Jiao. It wasn’t realistic- unless he had the strength of a sky class! Although, if he were a sky class, what was the point of mass creating earth classes?

Lin Yi took off his clothes and turned on his phone before showering.

He had switched it off earlier in case someone were to interrupt him. He wondered if anyone wanted to contact him during that time...

Donghai, Miracle Doctor Kang’s home.

Xiao Ji and Xiao Ben stood outside Miracle Doctor Kang’s villa, and in their hands were valuable gifts. They were here to visit.

Miracle Doctor Kang didn’t let them in right away upon hearing his servant’s report- he only gathered Kang Guifeng, Kang Cuipu, Kang Zhaolong, and Kang Zhaoming together to start a family meeting.

“House Xiao is here for Zhaolong’s marriage, this much is definite. Guifeng, what do you think?” Miracle Doctor Kang said to his eldest son.

“Father, far as I can tell, House Xiao is now like a beaten dog. Uncle Pi’s become a vegetable, and the Xiaos still owe Lin Yi a bunch of debt- the death of their house is close. We should stay away from them!” Guifeng said. From his angle, the Xiaos had lost their value completely!

Miracle Doctor Kang nodded. He didn’t let the Xiaos enter because of that reason as well! House Xiao’s misfortunes were noted by him these days, after all, they were completely done for! They didn’t even feel like a noble house at this point, they weren’t even a normal big house!

To avoid putting it bluntly, House Xiao was still a noble house, but everyone knew that the next noble house meeting would end in House Xiao getting cut off! A fallen house no stronger than a regular rich house? It was impossible.

“Guifeng’s right- House Xiao is in a tragic state!” Miracle Doctor Kang said. “We wanted to use their strength to enter into the world of noble houses, but they can’t even handle themselves now! Not only will they be unable to provide us with any benefits, they still have a huge amount of debt on their shoulders- and this marriage alliance would only pull us into that debt as well! Cuipu, what are your thoughts?”

He looked at his second son.

“There is a saying, that a dead camel is still larger than a horse. House Xiao may not necessarily be completely useless, I think. If we were to merge together, House Xiao may still be able to maintain their position as a noble house, and we’d be the dominant party...” Cuipu was an uneducated man and so his ideas were a mess.

Chapter 1019: House Kang’s Thoughts on House Xiao

“Absurd! Merge? Would we be House Kang or House Xiao then?” Miracle Doctor Kang waved his hand, interrupting his son impatiently, “Alright, enough! Zhaolong, give me your thoughts!”

“Yes, grandpa!” Zhaolong said respectfully, “Grandpa, what second uncle said does make sense as well, but what we should do isn’t to merge, but to replace them! Now that they’ve fallen, we need to let them fall even more! Only when it’s a solid fact that they’ll be removed from the noble houses will we have the potential to rise up! Looking at the current non-noble houses right now, us House Kang is the one with the most potential!”

“Oh? Not bad!” Miracle Doctor Kang started laughing, “Hahaha! Zhaolong’s right! House Xiao has fallen... We’ll have to push them down even more! The more they fall, the more chance we have! Well said, well said! Brilliant idea!”

“You flatter me, grandpa!” Zhaolong said humbly with a smile.

Cuipu frowned. His words didn’t make sense for shit! Zhaolong only said to give him some face, he knew himself that his words were bullshit! He had no strategy or plans.

“Zhaoming? What about you, what do you think?” Miracle Doctor Kang looked at Zhaoming.

“Grandpa, big brother is right, but I think that we shouldn’t burn the bridge just yet,” Zhaoming felt that his father had just lost face, and so, as a son, he needed to make a comeback. He wanted to make a good impression on his grandpa, too, so he’d been thinking deeply for a long time before saying this.

“Oh? Tell me, why shouldn’t we?” Zhaoming’s words did have value to Miracle Doctor Kang. He may just be a tyrant rich kid, but he was much more useful than his father Cuipu!

“Grandpa, there’s a saying that even dried fish can turn things around one day!” Zhaoming said, “House Xiao may have fallen now, but they’re still a noble house, and we can’t know for sure what connections they have- what if they were to rise again? We can’t be too sure!”

“Rise again?” Miracle Doctor Kang shook his head. From his view, House Xiao was done for- it was impossible for them to turn things around. But, Zhaoming did do a lot for House Kang recently, and so he didn’t scold him, “Then what do you think we should do?”

“I think that the marriage between House Xiao can’t be broken, except that it shouldn’t be brother’s marriage!” Zhaoming smiled embarrassedly at this point, “We can turn brother’s marriage onto me, and I’ll step down and accept that pretty Xiao girl. I’m just a tyrant young master, after all, so if House Xiao still falls, I’ll can kick her out of the family without consequence, since that’s my reputation from the start! I play with women, so other people wouldn’t be able to say anything! But brother? He can’t do that! We’ll be stuck in a marriage with them even after they fall!”

Miracle Doctor Kang seemed to be in thought after hearing that. Zhaolong, on the other hand, started laughing, “Brother, you have your eye on Wang Xinyan? There’s plenty of girls everywhere, no matter what, that’s your sis-in-law. You shouldn’t be thinking about things like that!”

Kang Zhaoming clearly had that intention in mind, so he blushed when exposed. He tried to explain, “I’m doing it for the good of House Kang!”

“We’ll do it according to Zhaolong’s method,” Miracle Doctor Kang said after Zhaolong spoke, not commenting on Zhaoming’s idea any further, “Zhaoming, Zhaolong’s right- you shouldn’t put too much focus on women if you want to do great things.”

“Yes, grandpa...” Zhaoming actually did think it was a viable plan! Of course, getting Xinyan would be great, but what if House Xiao wasn’t removed from the noble families?

After all, House Yu had suffered as well- what if they wanted good karma, and let House Xiao go for a while first? Or what if they treated House Xiao as the enemy of an enemy? House Xiao still had value!

But Zhaoming knew that nothing he said would be useful anymore, since his grandpa thought that he just wanted to play with Xinyan. Well, he did, of course.

Now that House Kang had decided on how they were going to treat House Xiao, there was nothing that could change it.

Guifeng walked out the house himself, walking towards the Xiao brothers.

The two had been waiting outside for a long time, and it had been thirty minutes since the servant saw them. It started to frustrate the brothers.

“Little brother, do you think House Kang would refuse us? Fuck, such shallow people! They tried their damned hardest to stick to us when we were strong, and now that something’s happened, this is how they treat us?” Xiao Ji ill-tempered, and so he started cussing, “How long has it been, thirty minutes? Where the hell is everyone, what the fuck is House Kang doing?!”

“...” Xiao Ben looked at his raging brother and sighed, “Brother, calm down! It’s more than just something that’s happened, Uncle Pi’s a vegetable now, and we’ve lost our only pillar! We still have a huge debt due to that brat Lin Yi. We have way too much trouble surrounding us, and it’s only normal that they wouldn’t want to meet us!”

“Normal? Shameless and shallow, I’d say?” Xiao Ji hmped, “What the hell.”

“Brother, someone’s here! Enough!” Xiao Ben’s eyes were sharp- he saw the door opened, and quickly told Xiao Ji to stop before he was heard.

Xiao Ji shut up immediately- he only wanted to curse at them to relieve some anger, but now that they were out he didn’t dare. After all, they were here to beg them, not the other way around!

But the person who came out, surprising the two brothers, was not Mirarcle Doctor Kang, but his eldest son Kang Guifeng, the father of Zhaolong! Xiao Ben relaxed. Sending such a big name to greet them... Perhaps there was hope.

With the thought, he smiled and moved forward, “Big brother Kang, why’ve you come out yourself? You didn’t have to!”

Xiao Ji blinked as well, not expecting Kang Guifeng to greet them himself. His rage lessened significantly, “Big brother Kang!”

“May I know what business you two, Xiao brothers, have with House Kang?” Guifeng’s face, however, wasn’t friendly at all. He spoke in a cold voice, as if they weren’t close at all!

Chapter 1020: Bad Memory

Guifeng’s attitude, however, visibly shocked the two brothers!

After all, their children were soon to be married- they were relatives soon! Even though they weren’t actually in-laws yet, Guifeng didn’t have to be this cold, did he? It was like he didn’t know the two brothers at all!

“Brother Kang, what do you mean? House Kang and House Xiao will soon be bound by marriage- is there anything wrong with us visiting?” Xiao Ben said, pretending.

“Marriage? Since when did that happen?” Guifeng paused, “I don’t think so? Xiao Ben, have you remembered wrong?”

“I...” Xiao Ben didn’t know how to respond to this- Guifeng was just flat out denying everthing! He didn’t look so friendly anymore, either, “Brother Kang, aren’t your son, Zhaolong, and my niece, Xinyan, already engaged?”

“Engaged? Ah, my horrible memory... Is it true?” Guifeng looked confused as he slapped his forehead, “I really can’t remember, can you remind me which day the engagement was made, and in which hotel? Where people there at the engagement party?”

“What?” Xiao Ben and Xiao Ji froze.

The engagement was just an agreement, it wasn’t written on paper, and there was no engagement party! They didn’t do any of that at all, there was no hotel or people!

They understood at this point- Guifeng was intentionally pushing away the engagement!

House Xiao had fallen, and Guifeng most likely didn’t want to be related to them anymore, so he brought out this ridiculous act!

“Brother Kang, wasn’t this an agreement on both our parts?” Xiao Ben pushed down his anger.

He knew that breaking into rage now would only lessen their already slim chances, and that would be exactly what the Kang's wanted- to break the engagement using that rage.

"Agreement?" Guifeng frowned confusedly, "I don't quite remember?"

"You..." Xiao Ben was pissed, and Xiao Ji was about to go on a rampage and begin yelling.

"Ah, I'm sorry! My memory hasn't been good, you see, I don't quite remember everything... This past while, many scammers came to me saying we have an engagement, but they couldn't bring out any proof..." Guifeng shook his head troubled, "How about this, Xiao Ben, you Xiaos are considered a noble house, and I know that you wouldn't lie. But, I can't feel safe without proof! If you bring out proof to show that our two children are engaged, then I'd give my blessings! After all, you're a noble house, it's an honor to be allied through marriage!"

"F..." Xiao Ji was about to explode when Xiao Ben gave him a glare.

"Haha, if that's the case, we don't need any proof! Why don't we redo the engagement then? We of House Xiao think that House Kang is rather nice, too!" Xiao Ben was a smart man as he followed up on Guifeng's words.

"Uh..." Guifeng froze, not expecting for Xiao Ben to catch him off guard like this! He was frustrated of his own mistakes.

Xiao Ji, on the other hand, only looked at his brother in admiration. Brilliant, truly brilliant! Fortunately for them, he hadn't started barking yet, or the whole thing would've flopped!

"Haha, you're right, Xiao Ben, but unfortunately, I can't say yes!" Guifeng shook his head, rejecting.

"Why not? Could it be that what Kang Bro said earlier was simply just courtesy?" Xiao Ben continued pressing on.

"No, that's not it. It's just that our Zhaolong did in fact have an engagement with someone, except I just can't remember who! So, before proof has been given, I won't be able to make new engagements for him in this while! What if someone with actual proof came and accused us of breaking the agreement?" Guifeng said, "So, Old bro Xiao Ben, please do look for proof! I'm old now, I really can't trust this old brain of mine, nor my memory!"

With that, he left and went for the villa. He waved his hand, "I still have something to attend to- farewell!"

Xiaoben's face darkened. The situation was clear- they were breaking off the engagement and abandoning House Xiao!

Yet, one couldn't blame House Kang for their actions- it was only natural that they would do this after what happened to House Xiao! Big houses all wanted support through an alliance marriage, not a burden!

"Fuu..." Xiao Ben sighed, "Let's go back, brother. It's over."

“Fucking shit! You blind dogs, wait until our rise back to glory, I’ll make you bastards lick my toes then! I don’t need you!” Xiao Ji started blasting, “You old shit Miracle Doctor Kang, breaking your word! You old shit! Hope you die tomorrow!!”

But the doors remained close, and nobody responded. Guifeng never planned on coming back out again.

“Let’s go!” Xiao Ben said helplessly.

“House Kang, just wait! You’ll regret this!” Xiao Ben said, walking behind Xiao Ben after relieving his stress.

Guifeng, who was behind the door, smiled mockingly as he looked at the two, “House Xiao? You’ve become rats in an alley- there’s no hope for a comeback anymore! In your dreams!”

Xiao Ben and Xiao Ji got in the car, though Xiao Ji was still yelling and cursing House Kang in every possible way- it was as if he had something to say to all the ancestors of House Kang!

“Alright, brother, stop cursing at them- this is our misfortune!” Xiao Ben sighed, “Now we should be focusing on our future!”

“You’re right!” Xiao Ji nodded. He was uncultured, but he knew that being angry didn’t help even if he cursed the entirety of House Kang.

“Have you found out about Uncle Pi’s origins?” Xiao Ben asked.

“I’ve told Xiao Wangba and Xiao Wangdao to search our family logs, but it’s been too long, and without a target... We don’t know when we’ll find it,” Xiao Ji said.

“If only Uncle Pi could wake up and speak...” Xiao Ben said.

“It’s all because of that bitch, Gou Huli!” Xiaoji said, pissed off.
