

Bodyguard 1061

Chapter 1061: Last Bet

“Borrowed it from the arena, they have loan sharks here!” The young man said impatiently, “Go ask them later, I’m busy betting right now, talk to you later! You should’ve asked earlier, I’m busy!”

“No no no, little bro, it’ll be too late later!” Yu Ren couldn’t wait until after the bet! That’d be too late for him to bet!

“Man, just borrow money from the arena! The most you can borrow is five hundred thousand, just sign some papers and you’re done!” The man said impatiently, but on purpose.. If he were to look too passionate, Yu Ren would suspect something.

As expected, the more he acted this way the more worried Yu Ren was! He didn’t care anymore, when the collector came he asked to borrow money! This sort of chance was really hard to come by, it was a sure earn! Yu Ren needed this!

But you couldn’t just borrow money that quickly, you needed to get the collector to call a staff member and prepare the procedures to get Yu Ren the money! The others continued their bets as that went on!

What pained him the most was that, while the money came to him, the match had already started and he couldn’t bet anymore! That meant that he had to wait for the last fight!

He regretted it so much, why didn’t he borrow money earlier, he’d lost his chance!

Why did this Yu Ren believe so convictedly that he would earn this money for sure? Because the same situation happened- Red Dragon completely destroyed this White Sheep, who was getting covered in wounds!

White Sheep fought back, but his punches were weak! He wasn’t a match at all, and his entire body was covered in purples and greens and reds!

“Go Red Dragon, Go!” The crowd cheered- these people had put their bets on him, and the dragon didn’t disappoint! He was winning, very quickly!

Yu Ren was in full regret! Would the third match have Red Dragon in there? After all, wouldn’t the boss be losing a lot of money if this went on? Would the dragon be switched?

Without a doubt, the dragon won again, and everyone cheered! The sheep was daed! This wasn’t fake, it was real!

The cheers came, and the money came from the dragon’s efforts! Everyone felt their blood boil, since they earned big fortunes just from this fight!

Everyone felt that the dragon would get switched away, but something unexpected happened!

The dragon didn’t exit the arena, but rested beside it! That meant that he would still be in the next game!

Everyone was excited again- was the dragon fighting again? Wouldn't that mean more money!

Soon after, the third fighter came- a Black Cat, the opponent!

People started making phone calls!

"Secretary Wang? Get all the company's money out into here on my account, this is important... Yes, yes, all of it!" A bald boss said to his secretary.

"Mister Sun? Get all our movable assets and funds, two hundred million! Yes, yes, you know who I am, I'll send all the papers over, just get the money on my account!" A big boss said as he barked into the phone.

"Dad, it's me, bring out all the money from home, hurry, this is a huge business deal!" A princely looking guy said.

"Son, it's your dad, hurry and bring the investment money overseas back, right now! What? Cancelling the contract has a penalty, I know, who cares? Let me tell you this, you bring that out now and tonight you'll see my name on the top billionaire's list!" Another boss looking guy said.

"Li' Bro? I'm scarface, get me five hundred million, borrow it..." It was someone from the mafie, borrowing money from underground sources!

Everyone was doing the same thing! They all knew that this was the biggest chance in their lives, the dragon would fight in the next one! They knew it would probably be his last fight, the boss wouldn't put him out tomorrow, it'd bankrupt him!

Of course, no one was worried that the third match would cause Red Dragon to fake his fight, since no one expected the boss to do something like that. That is, of course, he paid the dragon to die in his fake fight!

That was impossible! Red Dragon wouldn't agree to that and die for the arena, what use was the money when he died? He was a master fighter, a god of the arena!

Yu Ren wasn't sure if he should put all five hundred grand in, but now that he saw everyone going crazy to borrow money- even the young man, who put one and a half million in, all of his money...

The pork seller as well, putting all six hundred thousand!

Yu Ren couldn't help it anymore! He gritted his teeth and threw everything in!

Yu Ren thought that since everyone was so confident, there wouldn't be a mistake!

However, the third fight overcame everyone's expectations!

Red Dragon was strong, yes, he fought like a true hero, but the enemy wasn't weak either! He didn't fall instantly like his predecessors!

Of course, the audience didn't think much- thinking back to yesterday, that enemy of Red Dragon was tough as well, but still lost in the end!

Chapter 1062: Complete Loss

Everyone was a little worried, but with yesterday's experience they weren't too scared!

Yu Ren, however, was! He turned to the pork seller, "Why isn't the dragon winning easily now? It seemed like the fighter there is strong too?"

"Don't worry, it was the same yesterday- last fight, after all, the enemy has to be strong to excite us!" The pork seller said calmly.

"Oh..." Yu Ren nodded, worried...

But, the third fight ended in an unexpected way!

After a few heavy hits from the cat, the Red Dragon started spinning around, dizzy!

"Ah..." The crowd exclaimed in fear!

They never thought that the dragon would get beaten by the cat!

"Go, Red Dragon! Go, Red Dragon!" The crowd started cheering with insanity, not believing that the dragon would fall! After all, he suffered quite a few blows yesterday too, but still won without a doubt!

But today was different- yesterday's medicine was strong, but it was used on some thug! Fighting a near- golden class physical practitioner like Red Dragon wasn't possible! However, the one fighting Red Dragon now was a Mystic mid phase physical practitioner!

Master Li could be able to slap this dragon around easily!

But he didn't do that- that would be too absurd! People would doubt him, and so he pressed down his strength and made it look like he was around the same level as the dragon, that the two were equals!

Fighter Li used his own slow pace, and slowly pushed the dragon back!

Red Dragon seemed to have realized that the opponent this time around wasn't normal, but since he wasn't a full fledged golden class yet he didn't know how to analyze a practitioner enemy! He thought that they were at the same level!

He had suffered a heavy hit, but he thought that it was due to him being careless! He adjusted himself and sent another fist at the cat!

A slam sounded, and his fist landed with Fighter Li's, resulting in a big burst of sound!

With that, the dragon's arm broke, useless now!

Fighter Li smiled coldly. What a loser, thinking that he was some tough shot when he was this weak? If it weren't for his fear of the audience getting suspicious, the dragon would be dead by now!

Everyone started panicking when they saw that! They didn't know that one of his arms was now useless, so they still wished for him to make a comeback!

"Go, Red Dragon! Beat him down! Kill the cat! Go Red Dragon!"

"Red Dragon go! Red Dragon!!!"

The audience was going wild with fevor, throwing all their passion onto cheering for the dragon- they wanted him to break the cat's skull! All their money was on this guy, so if he lost now, they'd lose everything!

Yu Ren started sweating more and more- never would he have expected such a heroic dragon to get beat up all of a sudden, it didn't seem like he could win!

Please don't lose! Yu Ren prayed with all his might, but nothing was changing!

An Jianwen, on the other hand, was quite gleeful as he sipped his red wine, looking at the scene, "Not bad, Fighter Li- he knows how to put on an act!"

"That's right, congratulations, Master Wen! Congratulations! This match would get you more than five billion into your account!" Scorprion really admired Jianwen now, this man really was good at making money!

"Hmph, of course, don't you know who I am! This is the sort of thing I'm best at!" Jianwen said, happy. He was now part of the firewolves, and his name was bigger than his elder brother, An Jiande, now! He was one of the core financial pillars of the group!

"That's true, working with you, Master Wen, it's an honor!" The professor started licking his ass as well!

It was inevitable- after all, whoever earned the firewolves money, was whoever the big shot was! The professor's research needed Jianwen's support, too!

Jianwen had the biggest guts out of all the people he had met! Bringing people into the arena and doing experiments like this? This wasn't something the firewolves would do so willingly! It would cause big trouble if they just did things this way!

But since there were scapegoats around, the professor didn't care- after all, the earnings the arena had been generating was already far beyond their expectations! The target the firewolves set for Jianwen was one billion a year using this arena!

But it wasn't one month yet, and Jianwen already made five billion! This was an insane amount, and it was just an estimate! Who knew how much the money would actually be!

Under the heavy punches of Black Cat, the dragon finally got punched out! His chest caved in, looking quite serious, and if he would still be alive it'd be a miracle!

Everyone was silent! The crowd didn't know what to say!

They never thought that hte powerful dragon would lose just like this! They didnt' even cheer for him to stand up, because it didn't seem possible!

His entire ribcage was shattered, flattened! He couldn't get up to save his life!

They couldn't believe what they were seeing, but they had to accept the result- for the cat had already raised his hands, and the fight had ended... He had won!

After some silence, the crowd burst into pain and curses!

Everyone, almost everyone, had betted on the dragon to win! Who in their right mind would bet for the cat? And so they all lost, and all the big shot rich people now were all laden with debt!

Some padded their chest, some cried, some wanted to die...

Yu Ren didn't know how to react! Five hundred thousand- what on earth was he supposed to do to get that back and return it? He only had twenty thousand in his savings, for his daughter, Yuan Yaun's marriage gift.....

Chapter 1063: Excited Feng Xiaoxiao

Just as Yu Ren didn't know what to do, someone brought him to an office at the back of the arena!

"Yu Ren, you borrowed five hundred grand from the arena. When are you planning to pay that back?" The scorpion said with an old face.

He had received instructions from Master Wen to quickly finish this thing, they had to celebrate Fighter Li's win!

Yu Ren didn't know what to say! He didn't expect for people to start asking him to return the money right after the fight was done!

But, five hundred thousand... There was no way he could just pull that out, that was too much! It was a big sum for him!

"This money... Didn't you guys win it back already... Maybe... What if you just let it go? It's my first time, I didn't know the rules..." Yu Ren said carefully.

"Ha?" Little Scorpion was overjoyed at the words! "Hahahaha! I say, Yu Ren you old man, are you out of your mind? Yes, we took the money back, but you lost the bet! If you win, would you be willing to not keep the money?"

"I..." Yu Ren was speechless. Yes, he lost now, but he would keep the money if he had won, it was the same thing!

"Yu Ren, I know all about your information. Bring out five hundred thousand, and nothing will happen!" Scorpion smiled coldly, "Otherwise, don't blame us for what we do! We focus on honor a lot in this arena, and we don't dilly dally! Don't think you have a chance to get out of this! Five days is what you have, or we'll get people to bring your entire family onto the arena!"

His family, on the arena? Yu Ren felt his heart go cold at the words!

"You... You're saying to bring me onto the arena?" Yu Ren paused. How could he fight on the arena with a body like his, he'd die with one hit!

"Not you, your entire family onto the arena! Heh!" Scorpion laughed cruelly.

Yu Ren almost knelt down in fear from the threat! He was scared, very scared!

This guy was different from normal thugs! He met normal gangsters in the markets who asked for money, but they had a bottom line, and at most would disturb your business- they wouldn't kill anyone!

But Scorpion was different- Yu Ren saw with his own eyes how three people died in those three fights- those were human lives! Yu Ren knew that this threat wasn't an empty threat!

"You... You guys are doing illegal things!" Yu Ren struggled.

"Wha? Illegal? HAHA!" Scorpion started laughing, "You can call the police, but remember what the consequences are! We're a criminal organization, not a group of thieves! You can call the police, but you'll know what happens. Your wife and daughter will be sold to some place in the south, and you know what'll happen there! Haha!"

Yu Ren felt his body shiver- this man before him was a demon! This scared him to the core, more so than death! Just thinking of the humiliation that awaited his family made him stop thinking about the police completely!

At this point, a lackey brought the dragon's dead corpse into the office, "Scorpion Bro, what do we do with this dead man?"

"See if he has any good organs on him, cut them out and sell them. Throw the rest to the crocodiles!" Scorpion said with one look at the corpse.

"Yes, Scorpion Bro!" The lackey brought the body out, following orders.

Yu Ren was shocked! These people were too cruel, selling his organs when he was dead! They were evil, evil men!

But this solidified his fear- these people really did dare to do anything at all!

In actuality, they showed that in front of Yu Ren on purpose, so that they could scare him! Otherwise, if they had to ask Scorpion what to do with the corpses every day, that'd tire the hell out of him!

"Yu Ren, five days, got it? Five days, or to the arena, you go!" Scorpion said impatiently, "You can go away now, don't think of running. We'll have people spying on your family!"

Yu Ren felt his body tremble. He did think of running! Of course he'd hide since he couldn't piss those guys off, he'd throw the business away and leave Songshan with his family, start a new life!

But, this wasn't a realistic dream anymore! Yu Ren sighed, he had to go home and think of something!

He really did regret everything now, he shouldn't have listened to the meat seller! Arena? He shouldn't have come at all!

He left the arena, and Scorpion watched with a cold smile on his face!

A while later, it was Friday. Lin Yi had been driving Tang Yin and Xioaxiao to and from school every day, and he was getting used to a life like this.

Yufeng seemed to have calmed down a lot, after getting beaten up by Chentian. He was a lot more low-key, not making any disturbances. Lin Yi didn't care.

Zhong Pinliang spent a few days looking at Yufeng, who had bruises all over his face. A cold smile appeared on his face. What an idiot. Messing with someone who you don't know the power of? This was what you got!

Pinliang was now a smarter man, someone with schemes. He was silent, but he had always been paying attention to the conflict between Yufeng and Lin Yi.

"Liang Bro, that Xie Yufeng seems to have given up?" Xiaofu was paying attention as well.

"Hmph, an idiot. Ignore him," Pinliang felt that he was no longer at the same level as some idiot like Yufeng. His next step was a big and large retaliation, not some children's game!

Feng Xiaoxiao was quite happy today- Lin Yi promised to bring her car racing, after all!

So when they were in class, she was constantly in an excited state, her face red and occasionally, she would let out a cheer! Lin Yi didn't know what to think!

He was a couple with her, but in reality, the two weren't there yet!

Chapter 1064: Underground Racing

The first reason was that they spent most of their time at school, and Lin Yi couldn't do anything too big in class! The other times they were together, there was Tang Yin, and Lin Yi didn't have any chance to get close with Xiaoxiao.

Plus, he didn't really want to go to the next step with her, that wouldn't be fair to Tang Yin! His first girl was her, after all, and they were true girlfriend and boyfriend. He had a big and important place in his heart for her.

Of course, if she was willing to do 3P or whatever with Xiaoxiao, Lin Yi wouldn't mind. He wasn't a close minded person- he wouldn't be a killer if that was the case.

"Xiaoxiao, what are you doing?" Lin Yi had to remind her that they were in class.

"Heh heh, it's nothing, I just want it to be night soon! I'm so excited for the race!" Xiaoxiao hoped that time went by slower since she was about to die, but not today!

"You've done all the preparations for the race?" Lin Yi asked. He could use Zhou Ruoming to contact the organizers, but this was more Xiaoxiao's field than his. Plus, he'd rather not contact that guy if possible.

"Yep, I've done all the preparations and registered, the deposit as well!" Xiaoxiao said, "Tonight, it's the first race!"

"Oh? The deposit?" Lin Yi blinked, "Wasn't it two hundred thousand a race? Where did your money come from?"

Lin Yi knew her situation- this caught him by surprise. He was sure that he would be able to win, but the organizers didn't, so they made everyone hand in a deposit, giving it back if they won.

"Don't forget, I got five million from that idiot Iron Fist Wu!" Xiaoxiao said with a smile.

Lin Yi remembered then that Xiaoxiao really did have a huge sum of money already!

The race was tonight at six, and there was a study hall in the last period. Clearly they wouldn't be able to be there, and he'd already told the Miss and Yushu that he was going with Xiaoxiao tonight.

Xiaoxiao had already packed her bag- her purpose of coming to school today was to wait for this event at night!

"Where are we going?" Lin Yi asked as they got in the car.

"Bolong Mountain Road. That's paradise for racers!" Xiaoxiao said, "You know where it is?"

"Not sure." Lin Yi shook his head, "Maybe you should drive."

Lin Yi got down the car and gave her the seat. They were using her Audi TT today- he switched cars with her at her house earlier.

Xiaoxiao got in the seat and drove to the mountain road- she was very familiar with the place!

But all she did before was watch the races, not participate in them!

Xiaoxiao felt that the car race was really exciting, but she knew her level. She'd lose for sure if she went in the race! She didn't have that much money lying around.

Bolong Mountain Road was a tourist spot near Songshan, and due to lack of funding they shut down the business! The reason was that there were simply too many mountains around Songshan, and all of them looked better than Bolong Mountain Road, especially that Double Sparrow Mountain after development, which had a vacation village there. Naturally, no one wanted to go to this mountain road anymore!

But the roads were still there, and so even though it was a little rusty without ledge guards, the roads were still in good condition! With no other use left, nobody would spend any money repairing them.

Xiaoxiao's car drove to the empty spot below the mountain road- there were already many cars parked there, all with different classes and levels, from the cheapest to the most expensive of race cars.

Beside this empty space, there were groups of threes and twos, all in circles and chatting, drinking, hitting on girls.

Most of them were all people with weird hair and colors, like the old Xiaoxiao.

Looking at these hipsters, Lin Yi had to frown. To tell the truth, he had no good feelings towards these crazy young people, not studying and going out to race. What about their parents, weren't they a disappointment to them?

Of course, other than these non mainstream hipsters, there were also normal citizens, the big bros and gangsters with tattoos and singlets and buzzcuts.

There were many different types of people, and they gathered around their own kind. A small group of high level race car owners were there as well, all wearing good clothing and suits, the elite of the upper pyramid! There were white collars, and some wererich kids from big houses. All of these were people looking for excitement.

Xiaoxiao's car wasn't the worst here, but it wasn't considered a good car. They came to the empty space, not attracting much attention except for some hipsters who knew her car.

"Yeah," Xiaoxiao nodded, "Is everything ready?"

"Yes, Feng Sis, I've contacted Pit Bro. The first match will be yours!" The hipster said. Pit Bro was the organizer of this race, and had some gangster background. He was a big shot of Songshan too!

Of course, all of these were trash to Lin Yi. Even people like Cihua were nothing to him, let alone some guy with 'some' background of gangsters! Lin Yi didn't even care- two hundred thousand was a small number to him, and he was too lazy to go talk to the Pit Bro guy to save that money.

"Who's my opponents?" Xiaoxiao nodded, asking. The sunglasses on her made her look like the big sis of some gangster group, amusing Lin Yi.

"According to the rules, they'd be some newbies as well. Feng Sis, it's not that I doubt you, but it's your first time in a race..." The hipster quickly explained.

Chapter 1065: Suspicious Opponent

"I know!" Xiaoxiao said, not minding. It'd be better, actually. If the other racers were all pros, than she wouldn't have a chance!

This was also so that it would be fair- the organizers of the race would always put the people at the same level in one match, since if the difference in ability was too great it wouldn't be interesting to watch. It wouldn't be exciting.

The last class ended at around four, so it was now twenty minutes until six, the time of the race.

The music started sounding- the race was starting!

"Will the participants TT000 and 2B941 please make preparations." An announcer spoke through the speakers after the music.

"2B941? You're the Idiot?" Xiaoxiao was a little annoyed at the plate- in Chinese, the licence plate sounded like it was calling her an idiot! So she was a 2B now, an idiot?

Lin Yi smiled, shrugging, "Just a licence plate, why do you care so much? Let's go."

"You drive?" Xiaoxiao nodded.

Only then did the hipster notice the Lin Yi that came from the co-driver seat, his eyes wide. "You... Aren't you that master racer..?"

"Ha..." Lin Yi nodded.

"Yeap, he's now my husband!" Xiaoxiao said proudly as she grabbed Lin Yi's arm, happy at the shocked face of the hipster.

"Great going, Feng Sis! If it's him, then you'd win for sure!" The hipster said respectfully.

“Haha, of course!” Xiaoxiao nodded and got on the car.

Lin Yi drove his car, following the instructions of Xiaoxiao, and stopped at the junction of the mountain road. Nobody paid her Audi TT much mind, since this was the newbie match, and the cars here wouldn't be too amazing. Xiaoxiao's wasn't even modified, so it wouldn't be very powerful at all.

As for the 2B941, no one knew what it looked like.

However, Lin Yi driving was a new face, compared to the familiar face of Xiaoxiao. They started cheering, assuming Lin Yi was some pretty face rich boy Xiaoxiao fished up.

At around five fifty, a land rover pulled up, the licence plate- 2B941! The land rover was a bigger car, but the racer's skills were no laughing matter. It drove in with alarming speed, stopping with a drift right on the junction!

The drift was so intense that there were only two centimeters before it crashed into Xiaoxiao's car!

Xiaoxiao jumped in shock, making a sound from the scare. She sweated from the incident- the big car just drifted over, barely stopping in time!

Xiaoxiao was getting annoyed. Who drove like this? She pulled down the window and rageed. “Do you know how to drive? What're you doing, drifting in like this?”

“Heh, little girl, you're pretty feisty!” The sunglasses man popped his head out, a smile on his face. “Wanna get on my car, girlie? Let you feel the wind?”

“Die!” Xiaoxiao glared. This baldy seemed to be quite the driver- at least, if Xiaoxiao were to race him she'd have no chance.

Of course, they agreed that Xiaoxiao would drive with Li Yi supporting her, but looking at this bald sunglasses guy and she knew that she wouldn't stand a chance. She gave up, “Lin Yi, honey, maybe you should drive- this baldy 2B seems really good.”

“Heh, girlie, how'd you know how good I am, you've never been in my bed before! Come with me tonight, I promise you you'll xxxx!” The bald man said with a eerie smile.

“It's okay, I'll drive while hugging you.” Lin Yi said with a smile.

“While hugging me?” Xiaoxiao's eyes were wide, in disbelief!

Racing was dangerous enough as is, yet Lin Yi wanted to drive in a position like that? Just how dangerous was that, did he just want to make her happy?

But, even though Lin Yi was just trying to be sweet and joking, Xiaoxiao did feel the sweetness! In order to make her happy, Lin Yi didn't care about danger, this made her extremely happy!

“No... It's too dangerous...” Xiaoxiao shook her head, “What if the car kills us because of that?”

“It's not dangerous.” Lin Yi shook his head, not minding it. He smiled, “I haven't had 3p with you yet, I can't die.”

Xiaoxiao was a daredevil herself, saying crazy stuff like that, but letting Lin Yi say that made her blush, "Really? It's not dangerous?"

"Trust me," With that, he got out the car and went to Xiaoxiao's side, only to see that the land rover was too close- he can't open Xiaoxiao's door!

Lin Yi frowned and knocked on the window, impatient. "Move your car over a bit, don't block the road!"

"Who are you, pretty face?" The baldy clearly was pissed that Lin Yi talked to him that way. He glared, not complying.

"Told you to move your car, can't you hear?" Lin Yi didn't want to stoop to his level, but this man was annoying him.

The baldy shut his window, as if he didn't care at all.

"Beat him up, beat him up!" The young people all started cheering- this sort of conflict was what they liked to see the most! There were plenty of blood in races like these, but they usually happend after the race, not before.

"Ooh, beat him up!" The other people cheered as well.

Lin Yi naturally wouldn't care about these cheers. Seeing that the man didn't want to move, he kicked the car!

With a slam, and another slam, the car was already dented by Lin Yi's kicks, two big curves in them!

"Ooooh!" Lin Yi's actions made the crowd cheer wildly!

Chapter 1066: Powerful Method

They'd seen their share of powerful people before, but not one like Lin Yi who slammed holes in someone's car just because they didn't move!

The sunglasses guy was silent now- he didn't expect for Lin Yi to be this tough, he seemed to be a master, too! A look of coldness flashed across his eyes, although shielded by the sunglasses, unable to be seen by the crowd!

Seeing Lin Yi kick his car away, the baldy didn't continue barking. He didn't leave his car, but went deep into thought instead!

Was this person Feng Xiaoxiao's bodyguard? The situation was getting complicated!

The people who saw the baldy get his car kicked started laughing when they realized that he wasn't coming out to fight back!

This person was a chicken! The guy was kicking his car already, and he didn't even make one sound, was this what a man should be liek?

"Useless!"

“Trash! Weren’t you barking a second ago?”

“Where’s your bravery? Didn’t you call him pretty boy? Call him pretty again!”

“That’s right, who’s the pretty boy now? That’s something called handsomeness, unlike someone’s bald-headed meanness! You’re the soft balled pretty boy!”

“You’re the 2B after all!”

The baldy was about to burst in anger as the crowd jeered at him, but he held it in! This wasn’t the time to be mad, there were still chances for him to get his revenge- he couldn’t lose this race because of his anger!

Lin Yi gave a dim look at the sunglasses baldy in the car, a small but faint smile on his face. The baldy was already suspicious enough to Lin Yi- the guy wasn’t reacting at all after he’d kicked his car, this wasn’t a normal man’s reaction!

And this didn’t match his personaliy from earlier!

Lin Yi was being suspicious, but the baldy was being rather troubled. He also felt that Lin Yi was suspecting him, but he had no choice!

He came here to look more like a gangster that raced around these parts, that was what inspired him to speak that way to Xiaoxiao like a thug hittin on a girl. This was to fit in!

But the guy with Xiaoxiao was such an arrogant man, kicking the car after a couple of words! This was a violent madman, and he wondered where on earth Feng Xiaoxiao got herself such a raging bull!

But it was too late to regret it- he didn’t want to get into conflict with Lin Yi right now. If they fought right before the race, that would affect the match- if they were to cancel their race and split the two into different matches, it wouldn’t be what he wanted at all!

He’d waited a long time for this, for Xiaoxiao to be in his field- he didn’t want to give this up! It was fine to get insulted and jeered at, as long as it didn’t affect the race, then his goal would be achieved!

Fortunately for him, Lin Yi left him alone and went back to his car now that he wasn’t reacting.

Xiaoxiao frowned as well, frowning. The land rover was much heavier than her Audi, and in a race like this they’d lose for sure! This road hadn’t been repaired for a long time, too, and the rover was in an advantage if it raced against the Audi!

“Honey, maybe we should apply and get a different race? His car...” Xiaoxiao said worriedly with one look at the rover.

“It’s fine...” Lin yi waved his hand dully. Usually he’d listen to her suggestion, but he felt that there was something wrong with this baldy. He wanted to see what he was planning, of course.

Lin Yi adjusted the seat- now both of them could sit there.

Lin Yi went in and told Xiaoxiao to sit on him, “Come, Xiaoxiao!”

Seeing the confidence in Lin Yi's face, she got on- this made it feel like he would be driving while holding her!

This was, naturally, a dangerous move. Even if they weren't racing, doing this on a normal road was something one should not be doing- and they were in a race right now, too!

"Ohhh..." The crowd started cheering!

They'd seen some high level driving behavior before, like the guy driving with the co-driver girl helping him out 'down there'- but compared to Lin Yi's stunt, those weren't much at all!

Hugging together in a four armed and four legged state- if one of them were out of sync that'd result in a huge car accident!

The sunglasses guy saw the scene as well, and an odd look passed by his face! Never would he have thought that Lin Yi would attempt a stunt so dangerous- although, this saved him the trouble! This way, Xiaoxiao's car would lose control even more easily!

However, whether or not Lin Yi died in this race wasn't something the crowd cared about. In this race, many lost their lives in a year- but no one spread the news of that death due to the rules of restriction.

"Everybody quiet down, the race is about to start!" The voice boomed across the area It was the voice of a judge-like man, and a boy came over and stood some distance in front of the cars, flag in hand.

"We'll go when he waves the flag," Xiaoxiao explained, "How do we do this?"

"I'll control the gas and brakes. As for the steering wheel, I'll guide your hands to steer!" Lin Yi said,

"Alright, no problem!" Xiaoxiao said excitedly.

Actually, doing this wasn't much different from Lin Yi doing it alone, except for the extra danger it brought- he only wanted Xiaoxiao to experience what it was like being a racer.

Xiaoxiao liked this method as well, and she squeezed her body into the embrace of Lin Yi's- she felt very comfortable like this, since there wasn't much intimacy in actions between them other than holding hands. Today was the first!

Chapter 1067: Plot Against Feng Xiaoxiao "

"Don't move!" The Feng Xiaoxiao in his lap made Lin Yi have a biological response- he frowned with a bitter smile.

"Oh?" Feng Xiaoxiao froze, feeling something hard poking against her... She understood immediately why he told her not to move!

Xiaoxiao's face went red, but her heart was quite happy. She may be officially a couple with Lin Yi, but there were many traces of force involved! If it weren't for Tang Yun's generosity, fulfilling that bet, Xiaoxiao wouldn't be in a relationship like this in the first place!

So she always worried that Lin Yi didn't like her, but it seemed now that the worry was unnecessary- Lin Yi did have interest in her after all.

"Maybe we... could try it in the car?" Xiaoxiao said something brave.

"What are you talking about? You want to die?" Lin Yi didn't know if he should cry or laugh- Xiaoxiao's thoughts were ridiculous!

Lin Yi was good, but he didn't dare do something that insane! They might actually die!

"Heh heh... Once I was watching this race, someone did do it in the car..." Xiaoxiao said embarrassedly.

"And then?" Lin Yi asked.

"And then they died!" Xiaoxiao said awkwardly.

"And you still want to try?" Lin Yi glared.

"I was thinking you're a great driver, a Mystic, right... There's qi protecting your body..." Xiaoxiao spat out her tongue.

"Who has the time to focus on qi?" Lin Yi shook his head, "Driving requires all your focus, and you should be enjoying the adrenaline racing brings you, not thinking about other stuff."

"Alright then," Xiaoxiao agreed- it would be more comfortable doing those things at home, racing was something to be enjoyed separately! Wasn't this her dream, after all?

Lin Yi's passion down there died from the stupid stuff Xiaoxiao said, and he started the car. With his left hand holding Xiaoxiao's on the steering wheel, he used his right hand to hug her, "Listen to my instructions later when I tell you to steer!"

"Okay!" Xiaoxiao nodded.

"Five, four, three, two, one..." The countdown from the loudspeaker sounded, and when it reached one, the boy with the flag waved it!

The Audi and Land Rover burst out at the same instant, except the Audi had a clear advantage since it was a straight road- it took a few hundred meters until the two got closer!

The rover was fast, and it didn't take long until it passed the Audi.

"So what if your car's better!" Xiaoxiao gritted her teeth as she held on tightly to the steering wheel- there was no choice, her car wasn't as good!

"Ha..." Lin Yi hugged Xiaoxiao's right hand, patting her and telling her to calm down, but amidst her frustration and jerking around, he accidentally tapped his hand onto her chest... it was an awkward situation! He really didn't do it on purpose!

But Xiaoxiao didn't seem to mind at all! "Drive, drive! Accelerate, go!"

Lin Yi smiled, not worried. "Don't worry, his car is big, but the moment we get on the mountain road he'll be at a disadvantage!"

On the mountain road, the surface wasn't the smoothest, and the rover had the upper hand- but while these kind of mountain cars had quite an advantage over race cars on a road like this, the front road's quick turns would give the smaller car the advantage!

The rover was big with a lot of horsepower, but stepping on the gas on a surface like this would kill the person driving!

So Lin Yi didn't mind the rover taking the lead for now.

The rover was now in the lead, but it wasn't easy. The baldy kept an eye on the Audi behind him.

He didn't want Lin Yi to get too far away, so he didn't drive at maximum speed. Otherwise, from here to the mountain road, he could've stepped on the gas at 300km/hr for the next two kilometers.

His phone rang, and he picked up.

"Hello?" The baldy said as he drove on, clearly not caring about this race much.

"Little brother, how come I see a guy in the Feng girl's car? What's his deal?" A man said.

"Second brother, that man must be a bodyguard Feng Tianlong found for the Feng girl," The baldy sighed, "It seems like he has some kung fu skill, but it is possible that he's her boyfriend too. They seem intimate."

"Alright, just kill them both then. You're confident about this, right?" The second brother sighed.

"Don't forget who I am, I'm the world's F1 retired racer!" The baldy said dully, "I was planning on killing them together too- it's his fault for mixing with Feng Tianlong's daughter!"

"I trust your skills! I've prepared a helicopter, waiting at the mountain top. I'll bring you to leave when the deed is done!" The brother said.

"Alright, I'm at the curve, let's stop talking. I'll find a chance to kill them both!" The baldy said. "But now I need to wait for these two short-lived punks, I should've used a different car if I had known they were going to be so slow!"

The baldy did check Xiaoxiao's file, and knew that she always used an Audi. But if she were to go into a race she would've gotten a better car wouldn't she? Apparently not! It was that exact same Audi she was using on this race!

As Lin Yi said, the rover got a lot slower at the curve- they'd die if they didn't step on the brakes- practitioners excluded, of course!

Lin Yi may be a master practitioner, but Lin Yi suspected that this man was the same as well!

He had to be! That perfect drift he did when he powerslide onto them wasn't something anybody could do- he controlled the speed and angle perfectly, with any more fluctuation and he would've slammed into Xiaoxiao's car!

So, before he even attempted the drift, the driver of the rover had already made all the calculations so that he could achieve such a performance!

Chapter 1068: Lin Yi's Suspicions

Lin Yi's action of kicking the car, on the other hand, was also a test for the baldy!

According to what Xiaoxiao and the young man said, the first match was usually prepared for newbies- this baldy with the sunglasses was clearly a veteran, not a newbie!

His silence and lack of resistance made Lin Yi even more suspicious- normally people would react negatively to some extent, depending on how strong the enemy was- yet this man said nothing! It didn't match his gangster personality from earlier.

"He's slowing down, he's slowing down!" Xiaoxiao said happily.

"Ha..." Lin Yi only smiled. Yet another suspicious move.

With his skills, the baldy shouldn't be slowing down, this was just the first cycle on the mountain road, it wasn't a tough drive at all as long as you were stable on the steering wheel- even normal drivers would have no trouble handling it, let alone a master of drifting like this baldy here!

Yet he slowed down! This sort of slightly obvious action, however, was only noticed by Lin Yi- Xiaoxiao, who was under a rush of adrenaline, would have trouble noticing.

What confused Lin Yi was the intentions of the baldy! Did he want to get that two hundred thousand from Xiaoxiao, or what?

Lin Yi himself, wouldn't believe it if there was another reason, because he had come racing with Xiaoxiao completely out of whim! Unless, of course, this man had been observing Xiaoxiao or Lin Yi, and had been looking for a chance to strike!

Yet, there were too many coincidences- looking at the things that happened, its possible that an enemy had laid out those plans. Lin Yi was always on alert, and he was already wary of this man, regardless of his intentions.

Slow down then, if he wanted. A smile came on Lin Yi's face as he slammed down on the gas, and, with a roar from the Audi's engine, Lin Yi and Xiaoxiao's car burst forward!

They were reaching the mountain road, but Lin Yi wasn't slowing down at all- he was actually still accelerating!

The people who were watching with binoculars all cheered! You didn't have to slow down when going up the mountain road, but they'd never seen someone go faster at that point! That was suicide!

Xiaoxiao understood that as well. She used to only watch people race, but even in her practice sessions she had driven this path before, just without the pressure of a race.

She knew that when going up the mountain road, you weren't supposed to accelerate! People went faster on straight roads, not on curved mountain roads like what Lin Yi was doing!

“Honey, how come you’re going faster?” Xiaoxiao said, worried.

“How do I get past him if I don’t go faster?” Lin Yi said dully, as if it were a natural thing to do!

After a couple more levels of acceleration, he passed by the rover in an instant, still going faster even after they got on the mountain road! A quick turn was right in front of them, but Lin Yi was still going faster!

“Ahhh!!” Xiaoxiao started shrieking- but it wasn’t out of fear, it was out of excitement!

It was the first time she experienced acceleration right before a quick turn, and this sort of danger was extreme- but she still trusted Lin Yi! It was blind trust, but what she was thinking was that even if she died, she’d be dying with Lin Yi, and then she would have nothing to regret in this life! If they were able to become a couple in the afterlife, she’d even laugh with joy!

“Fuck, a fucking madman!” The baldy jumped, shocked at the sight of the Audi still accelerating when reaching the quick turn! Either this guy was the top of the top of racers, or he was insane! Who the hell drove like this, stepping on the gas pedal at a turn? Did he want to die?

But, what happened next proved his guess- Lin Yi was in fact a top class racer!

Right at the quick turn, Lin Yi didn’t slow the car down, but did a powerslide through the turn in one fluid motion- it wasn’t weaker than that drift move the baldy did earlier!

The baldy’s face grew stern- he wasn’t expecting Xiaoxiao to have brought a master racer here, this wasn’t within his expectations!

He was thinking before that Xiaoxiao was merely a small-time prey, dancing within his palms. Her death and life was within his control. Yet now, everything was beyond his expectations- she was no longer just prey, and it was no cat and mouse chase- it was a duel!

The baldy smiled coldly. It didn’t matter how good their skill was- since an Audi was the car they had chosen, then the outcome was for certain- he would lose! There was simply not much an Audi could do when compared to a strong land rover!

As long as the baldy was serious, then it would be Lin Yi who would suffer the loss!

The baldy started accelerating as well when the Audi continued speeding- he was planning on waiting for the opponent, but now he had been overtaken!

He accelerated, and similarly, didn’t slow down at all when reaching the quick turn! He was still accelerating!

This move stunned the crowd once more- they cheered and screamed!

It wasn’t supposed to be much of a race, but it had turned into the most entertaining duel yet! The crowd started calling their friends who hadn’t reached yet, bragging that they had just missed the most exhilarating scene ever!

Drifts and powersides! The baldy continued accelerating and drifting!

And the big distance between them grew smaller and smaller, very quickly!

Lin Yi frowned- it seemed that he had underestimated his opponent after all! Lin Yi may not have been a professional racer, but he had been trained rigorously- if he were to join a world class tournament, he'd be able to place in the top spots!

This sort of strength was more than enough for the underground races, the baldy excluded! It didn't take long for him to realize that the sunglasses man's skill wasn't below his own! This level of ability when it came to racing only belonged to other professional racers or assassins who went through the same sort of intense training!

A slight look of worry appeared in Lin Yi's eyes. If Xiaoxiao were not here, then he could go to the extreme in this duel with the racer, but using just ability alone to fight the enemy now was impossible!

Their skills were the same, and so the difference came to the car- the enemy's car definitely had more power than his!

Chapter 1069: Pushing to Death

The rover behind them was getting closer and closer, and Lin Yi sighed softly. It seemed that he had to give up on the race- otherwise, the consequences would be very dire indeed.

But, even though Lin Yi was planning on giving up the race, the rover did not seem to plan on giving up on Lin Yi! It continued on and on, accelerating and accelerating at Lin Yi!

"Honey, he's catching up, what do we do, what do we do?" Xiaoxiao said, jumping at the sight of the charging rover.

Lin Yi frowned and grabbed Xiaoxiao's hand, doing a tight turn on the steering wheel and steered the car closer the mountain wall, leaving space for the rover to pass!

With the way the rover was charging, Lin Yi would get hit and fly off the mountain if he didn't dodge! This guy didn't care about their lives at all, or perhaps, that was exactly his intention!

"What's wrong?" Xiaoxiao paused, not understanding why Lin Yi wanted to start stop the mountain wall.

"Something's wrong with that car- might be one of my enemies," Lin Yi's voice was very composed despite the danger they were in.

Of course, Lin Yi assumed that the baldy was looking to get him, not Xiaoxiao- from his view, he was the one dragging Xiaoxiao into all this trouble! After all, all those enemies from earlier in Songshan were all aiming at him!

"Ah?" Xiaoxiao paused, subconsciously calling out as she looked behind to see the rover aim its head at their car!

Lin Yi saw it as well, and quickly slammed on the gas pedal again, bursting the Audi forward- yet, even so, the car was still hit by the rover!

A slam sounded, and Lin Yi knew that the damage caused to the back of the Audi was severe! He was right, the baldy wasn't here to race, he was here to kill!

“Turn around, hug my body and don’t let go!” Lin Yi quickly said.

“Oh, okay..!” Xiaoxiao didn’t know why, but she wasn’t afraid at all- there was a bad guy trying to get them, but she wasn’t afraid at all, it was just as if she were in an action movie! Lin Yi’s presence made her feel ever more safe!

This was about to become a very rare instance in her life, she would soon survive a life and death experience with her loved one- something that many couples dreamed of! And so, Xiaoxiao even started to feel a little grateful towards this baldy, granted that they got out of this alive and peaceful.

Xiaoxiao gave the wheel to Lin Yi, twisted her body, and hugged him front-to-front! Her body was small in the first place, so though space was tight, it wasn’t an inconvenience.

But her chest was squeezed in Lin Yi’s embrace, and it pumped blood into Lin Yi’s brain- especially with the way she was sitting on him, it was reminiscent of a legendary sport... This made him feel even more excited.

Xiaoxiao was feeling the same- if it was possible, she really wanted to take their position further... Since she had already decided on Lin Yi, then it didn’t matter if he was good or bad, her condition gave her no time to dilly dally with these things! So she wanted their relationship to develop faster – she didn’t want to die before knowing what it felt like to do it with someone, that would just suck!

With that attitude, she didn’t have any reservations of a woman anymore- she didn’t care if it was embarrassing or not, since she had already decided on him!

With a slam, the rover hit Lin Yi again, putting a frown on his face! In a situation like this, he couldn’t use his normal level of skill anymore, and he couldn’t drift at the turns as well! If he were to get slammed by the rover again mid-drift, it’d mean death!

And so Lin Yi used the regular approach when reaching the turn, slowing down and pushing the steering wheel- even so, he almost got pushed out of control by the rover!

“Ah-!” Xiaoxiao shrieked, panicking amidst the shaking and vibrating, “What do we do, honey?”

Lin Yi was driving, but he was still thinking of solutions at the same time! If Xiaoxiao were not here, he could have just stopped the car and attacked the rover! A Mystic wasn’t invincible, but a normal car’s impact was manageable with the protection of qi- he had the confidence to kick that entire car off the mountain!

But Xiaoxiao was here, and he couldn’t just leave her in the car and jump off- and if he were to jump off with Xiaoxiao, he’d have to cover his qi on her body, so it would be impossible to attack the rover.

Just as he was looking at his options, the rover slammed into them again!

The opponent was obviously coming at them, so there was no point in dodging- if he messed it up they might even just drive off the mountain!

“Ah, my car!” Xiaoxiao saw that the back glasspane had already cracked into spider web shape- it hurt her heart so much! This was her beloved car!

Another quick turn came up, one that was much tighter and sudden compared to all their previous turns. One look at the rover bumping at them and Lin Yi's heart tightened. If he didn't do anything, then their car would definitely get slammed off the mountain at this turn!

"Hold on and don't move!" Lin Yi started channeling his Art of Dragon Mastery. In a situation like this, the consequences of an injury to Xiaoxiao would be unthinkable, and so Lin Yi had to make sure that his qi was right there to repair her the instant she received those wounds!

And then Lin Yi- he made a very brave decision!

Xiaoxiao seemed to have notice the emergency of the situation as well- she quickly latched onto Lin Yi, like a sloth, almost completely sticking onto him.

But Lin Yi had no time to enjoy the happy and soft body that pressed onto him- he abruptly stepped on the brakes, using the mountain wall to help stop his speeding car right at the turn.

The baldy had been waiting for this chance as well! Without a doubt, the turn in front of them was the best spot to take care of his problem! A mocking smile appeared on his face when he saw Lin Yi stop his car!

In a situation like this, stopping or not stopping didn't matter- death awaited! Could it be that this guy thought that the weight of his Audi would stop the impact the rover?

The baldy stepped hard on the gas! Even if the Audi was stopped, he had confidence that he could push this car off the mountain without problems!

Chapter 1070: Heavy Promise

Yet, right before the rover was about to hit the Audi, Lin Yi let go of the brakes again, letting the car slide forward! This, in turn, created an illusion!

Since the backlights were already shattered, the baldy thought that Lin Yi's car hadn't been moving, when in fact it had always been edging forward to the mountain's edge! It was just that the baldy was driving so fast he couldn't tell!

This was all happening in an instant- Lin Yi used that to his advantage and created an illusion!

And so, by the time the rover hit the Audi, it was already almost over the mountain even before the impact!

Lin Yi stepped on the gas pedal, and the Audi fell off the mountain- the baldy behind him still didn't realize the imminent danger, and was still stepping on that gas pedal to burst Lin Yi off the mountain!

Yet the Audi had already fell down! Just as the baldy felt something wrong, his two wheels had already popped off the ledge, and it was too late- his car flew off as well!

"Ah--!" Xiaoxiao screamed as the Audi fell off the mountain!

After a couple of rolls and slams, the two would have been dead without a doubt if it weren't for the qi protecting Xiaoxiao, even despite the airbags that had all popped out. In an intense roll such as this, the car had become completely bent out of shape, and the safety protocols had no effect whatsoever. The car had begun catching fire as well, and if they didn't jump out immediately, a bigger danger awaited them!

Ignoring Xiaoxiao's screams, he used his qi to kick open the door, and jumped out in mid roll carrying Xiaoxiao!

"Fu..." Lin Yi patted her on the back, with a relaxed smile, "Alright, Xiaoxiao, it's okay now."

"Ah!" Xiaoxiao opened her eyes wide- she was thinking that she was just about to die, so she wasn't too clear-headed, "Honey, are we dead?"

"Nope," Lin Yi smiled, "I wouldn't let you die."

"Really?" Xiaoxiao blinked, instantly remembering the sickness she had, falling silent.

Lin Yi seemed to have felt that as well, sighing and nodded, "Yes."

It was a heavy promise, and Lin Yi was saying big words, but he really didn't want Xiaoxiao to die! Gradually, he really did start to love this weird troublemaker, and if possible, he'd like to spend his life with her, but this was only a temporary illusion...

"Pinky promise!" Xiaoxiao took out her hand, as if wanting to prove something.

Lin Yi only felt his heart grow heavier with the stubbornness Xiaoxiao was showing, as if she wanted to use this sort of psychological lie to make her resist the injustice of fate.

"Alright," Lin Yi took out his pinky and hooked it to Xiaoxiao's. She seemed a little happy.

A while later, she suddenly remembered what had just happened, "We're not dead... That was so exciting, honey, you're so good! It felt like bungee jumping, like we were on the edge of death..."

"Your car..." Lin Yi pointed at the car that had long since exploded.

"Oh, right, where did that land rover guy go? What a jerk, messing with my car like that! I'll dig his eyeballs out and step on them! Lin Yi honey, you have to help me!" Xiaoxiao said, pissed after seeing her car turn into a ball of flames.

This was a car she had spent many years of allowance on, and it was gone!

Lin Yi breathed out slightly as he looked at the fallen rover some distance away. The baldy had good luck- his car may have flown off the mountain as well, but due to the Audi that blocked its momentum a bit, it only fell down onto the mountain road below the ledge, not flying off the mountain entirely.

"Over there. We'll go ask him to pay compensation," Lin Yi pointed to the messed up body of the rover some distance away.

The baldy was busy trying to save his own life, so naturally he didn't see Lin Yi and Xiaoxiao jump out their car. After he stabilized himself at the mountain road, he started laughing!

“Hahahaha, you can’t kill me! That bastard, pulling tricks, using smart moves to drag me down with him?! Not that easy!” The baldy laughed heartily as he looked at the burning chunk of Audi metal below him.

He took out his phone and quickly sent a recording to a number- this recording was of the moment the Audi flew off the mountain, and when it exploded!

The message was received, and the phone rang!

As expected, the receiver was very excited!

“Hello?” The baldy smiled coldly, “Dragonpeak? You got the videos right?”

“Who are you, what happened to Xiaoxiao?” Feng Tianlong said hastily. Dragonpeak was his codename in missions, and it seemed that this enemy knew him well!

As he talked on the phone, he made a hand gesture to his men to trace the GPS location! Nowadays one could use a phone number to pinpoint accurately the location of the caller.

Tianlong called Xiaoxiao right after seeing the video, but it was switched off- the same with Lin Yi’s, as well!

To ensure that they weren’t interrupted during the race, both of them had turned their phones off.

Seeing her daughter fly off the mountain in the video and exploding into metal tightened Tianlong’s heart! His daughter didn’t have much time left, so even one more day with his daughter was priceless to him!

Tianlong’s first thought was that this was his enemy! After all, knowing to send this video the his phone- this had to be a powerful man.

“Who am I? Don’t you know, Feng Tianlong? Hahahaha! My brother died in your hands, and so now I’ll let you taste what it’s like to lose a loved one, haha!” The baldy laughed cruelly, “How does it feel? Fresh right? A loud bam and your daughter’s dead! This feels great! If you come now maybe you can see some ash, if not even the ash will get burnt up!”

“You’re from the Red Conches?” Tianlong guessed after some hesitation.
