

Bodyguard 1111

Chapter 1111: Dine and Dash

But no matter what, she was already at the hospital- there was no way she could run back to the train station now, she needed to pay the money first!

She got in line and paid the surgery fee, but realized, in surprise, that there was a note in the package- on it was a phone number and an address!

So he left her a note already! She breathed out in relief, the worry disappearing. Now she only needed to get enough money and she'd be able to pay it back to this address!

She carefully put the note away, and went to Xiao Ken with the receipt.

Goudan was waiting at the train station, worried that she wouldn't be able to find him if he left. The money wasn't very important, but the address was very much so!

And so he didn't dare leave- he sat on the bench, and time passed by, darkening and getting bright again, and darkening again... Two days passed, and Xiaoke still hadn't returned!

Only then did Goudan realize- that he'd been scammed!

"This big liar girlie, she tricked me!" Goudan said, frustrated as he looked at the big train station.

It'd been so long, and Xiaoke still hadn't appeared- he was honest and simple, but even he understood what this meant!

He was quite troubled- the girlie could just steal the money, but couldn't she give the note back? What was he supposed to do with his big task of getting the medicine to Boss Lin Yi now?

He sighed loudly and got up, patting his ass and helplessly leaving the place. He needed to find something to eat for now- it had already been two days, and he was about to starve to death! Fortunately for him, his body was abnormally healthy- a normal person would have probably been dead by now!

A while later, he smelled a nice chicken smell- raising his head, he saw the big words, 'Burgers and Fried Chicken,' on the restaurant signboard!

This sort of fastfood was something he'd seen on the TV before, but he had never had it! This wasn't something that would appear in Starwest village, and so he felt that it was really fresh! Combining that thought with his two day fast, and he was already drooling!

Goudan quickly stepped into the restaurant- there was a female waitress there and no one else there.

The sky was dark, so it was normal that there hadn't been anyone there.

"Hi, what's good here?" Goudan was quite hungry- he was already drooling when he looked at the chicken pieces on the warmer, "I want this, and this, and another of this, and this... And then a burger!"

“Alright, wait a moment...” Yu Yuanyuan nodded, her expression tired as she took out all the food he ordered, putting them in the tray.

She had always felt that this job was really dry, but now she was going to miss it very much! There were only two days left for her before she became Fighter Li’s woman- she wouldn’t be able to show up here anymore!

And so she really treasured her last moments at work- she wouldn’t get a chance like this again!

“Sir, that’ll be fifty six kuai,” Yuayuan said as she passed the tray.

“Alright...” Goudan was quite surprised- the food in the city was quite expensive! This meal was already enough for a family to eat for a couple of days! He was just about to take out money from his clothes, but only then did he remember that he had gotten cheated by that girl!

His face looked awkward- if he ate without money, wouldn’t that be a dine and dash?

“What’s wrong?” Yuanyuan noticed the change in his expression.

“I... I don’t have money...” Goudan said, embarrassed, “My money... it got scammed off me...”

“Scamned?” Yuayuan blinked and looked at Goudan suspiciously. Looking at what he was wearing, the man seemed honest- he didn’t look like the type who would dine and dash. Plus, fast food joints had a pay up front system, too, so that wasn’t possible!

“In the train station, a girlie told me that her kid had appendicitis, and she needed money for the surgery... I gave her all of my one thousand nine hundred something to lend to her, and she said she would return it, so I waited on the train station bench for two days... She never came back...” Goudan couldn’t help but get a bit angry here, “It’s so frustrating! I haven’t eaten for two days to wait for her, but she just left...”

“Ah??” Yuanyuan paused- wasn’t this guy a little too honest? Waiting for two days for some stranger to return the money to him? Did he really believe anything people said? Appendicitis? The girl was clearly a scammer!

But, one look at the clothing Goudan was wearing, and she knew that he’d just entered the city. People like him were very honest, and it wasn’t that big of a surprise that he had gotten scammed. She couldn’t help but feel sympathy when she heard that he hadn’t eaten for two days, “This food... Consider it my treat. Hurry up and eat, don’t starve...”

She was about to go to Fighter Li’s anymore, and she knew that money wouldn’t help her anymore. The guy didn’t lack money at all, so she didn’t mind doing a good deed here!

In simple terms, Goudan was in the same situation as his father Yu Ren- both got scammed, and she felt like she wanted to help him if possible.

“I... I couldn’t...” Goudan scratched his head, not expecting Yuanyuan to buy him food like this! This girl wasn’t as pretty as the girlie who scammed him, but she was a goddess among goddesses in his eye! Much prettier than all the girls in his village!

Plus, Xiaoke's image in Goudan's eyes had already collapsed, while the kindness in front of him was at its peak- he wondered why two pretty girls living in the same city would have such a big gap between them?

"It's alright- you're kind, and you just got scammed. Hurry and eat- it'll get cold." Yuanyuan said.

"Then... Then I'll dig in! I'll pay you back once I find that scammer girlie!" Goudan said as he drooled over the chicken.

With that, he took the tray to a table and happily ate up everything.

Seeing Goudan eat his chicken and burger without worry made her remember her horrible fate- just how unlucky was she? Goudan's scam made him lose a few thousand kuai, but his father's scam made him lose her...

Chapter 1112: Why're You Crying?

She suddenly felt like crying- if it weren't for Fighter Li and Scorpion letting her parents go, she'd have killed herself already! She couldn't even die now, for her life wasn't her own to take!

At that moment, she felt her tears drip down onto her cheek, and she started sobbing...

Goudan was just enjoying his pleasant meal when he heard the girl cry- he jerked his head up to see that it was the girl at the counter!

"Miss shopkeeper, what's wrong?" Goudan quickly got up and walked over.

Yuanyuan didn't speak, and continued crying- Goudan's question actually made her crying worse. It reminded her of her situation.

"Girlie, please talk to me! What's wrong? Weren't you fine just a second ago, why are you suddenly crying?" Goudan was panicking- the girl wasn't replying at all! "Could it be because I didn't pay? Don't worry, I'll pay it back to you, I promise! It hurts me to see you cry!"

"Waah... Wauh...." Yuanyuan started crying even louder.

Yu Ren was thinking of his daughter- there wasn't much time he had left with her, and so he closed shop and went to his daughter's burger shop.

Entering the shop, he panicked- his daughter was crying! He went over a few steps, "Yuanyuan, what's wrong? Why are you crying?"

"Dad..." Yuanyuan jumped into her dad's arms, crying even louder now.

Yuanyuan, what's wrong?" Yu Ren asked carefully.

"You, I, I don't have any money to give you back, and you said you'd buy me the meal, why're you crying... If you regret it, I won't eat it anymore ..." Goudan felt helpless.

Yu Ren paused- was this guy here to do a dine and dash? But didn't he say that his daughter was buying him the meal?

“You... You can go eat your food, this has nothing to do with you...” Yuanyuan said, worried that her dad would think it was Goudan who made her cry.

“If it has nothing to do with me, why’d you suddenly cry? You were fine just now, why so suddenly..?” Goudan didn’t know where this was coming from.

“Kid, since this has nothing to do with you, you should go back to your meal..” Yu Ren already guessed the reason why she was crying- it had nothing to do with this guy, so he asked him to go back.

“I’ve eaten your food- I can’t just freeloader of it. Is something wrong? Tell me, perhaps I’ll be able to help you!” Goudan guessed that she might’ve gotten into some trouble.

“You can’t help me... No one can...” Yuanyuan said to him, as if taking out her frustration, “Just stop asking...”

“What do you mean, I can’t help you?” Goudan felt a surge of boldness coming- he didn’t feel very good when looking at Yuanyuan cry, and he was the type of person who remembered their roots! She bought him a meal, and now that she was in trouble there was no way he’d just leave her like that!

“I’m about to get taken away to be somebody’s mistress, how can you help me?” Yuanyuan had no choice but to blurt it out. She didn’t want to say it, but Goudan kept pushing and asking- this wasn’t something she wanted to announce!

“Mistress?” Goudan blinked, “Somebody’s taking you away? Why are they taking you away?”

“Don’t ask so many questions, this has nothing to do with you- just finish your meal and leave!” Yuanyuan didn’t want to involve an honest man into her issue.

“Please tell me- what’s wrong? I don’t believe that someone could just come take you away while I’m sitting here!” Goudan’s stubbornness was surfacing as he widened his eyes.

Goudan had some nice feelings regarding Yuanyuan, after all- he felt that she was a kind girl, much nicer than that scammer girl! She bought him food, and he couldn’t just ignore her when she was in trouble, this wasn’t how he was raised!

“Fine, if you want to listen, I’ll tell it to you...” Yuanyuan saw that Goudan was insisting passionately, so she gave in. She was feeling frustrated from keeping everything pent up for these two days, and it brought her relief if she spilled everything.

In truth, she didn’t believe that Goudan would be able to do anything- he had just entered the city, what did he know of the coldness and cruelty here? And so she told him about how her father got scammed into an arena betting event, and about the debt, and about how Fighter Li was forcing her to become his mistress.

Goudan grew furious while listening to the story. He looked at Yu Ren bitterly, “What is this Scorpion and Fighter Li? One cocky bastard, and another arena performer? I thought they would be some powerful men, but they were just a couple of small fries- and yet you’re still shipping your daughter away to settle the debt? What sort of father are you, are you a man?”

"I... I'm not, but what can I do? Scorpion is of the underground world, and that Fighter Li is strong- he's able to break through an iron door, what am I supposed to do? They can kill our entire family easily!" Yu Ren smiled bitterly.

"And so you accept this fate? Giving them your daughter?" Goudan was quite pissed- what sort of father was this?

"What else can I do?" He shook his head, helpless. "Kid, you don't understand- you're too honest, you don't know how strong those people are!"

"Strong? Some city guy and a performer- how strong could they be?" Goudan said, looking down on them, "These sorts of people prey on the weak- if you look soft they'll come get you, if you act tough then they'll hit you- If I were you, I'd fight to the death with them!"

"Fight? I'm not on their level at all, I'd die!" Yu Ren felt that this guy was too unreasonable. He shook his head...

"Why do you keep talking about my dad like that? You just came to the city, how would you know how strong they are? You make it sound so easy, why don't you go fight them to the death then?" Yuanyuan was getting angry. Her father wasn't brave and this was his fault, but getting called out like that by a stranger made her uncomfortable for sure. His words had sense to them, but he didn't know how complicated the situation was, or how strong the enemy was!

"Give me that Fighter Li or whatever he's called- give me his address, I'll kill him with one punch!"

Chapter 1113: Goudan Versus Fighter Li (Part One)

"Fine!" Yuanyuan was getting angry- one punch? What was this person saying? She had a good impression of Goudan, thinking he was honest. He got scammed, but at least he was a passionate and kind person!

Even if you're passionate, you shouldn't but into stuff like this where you had no control, talking about stuff that wouldn't help! And so, in a fury, Yuanyuan gave Fighter Li's name card to Goudan- the arena's address was on it.

Fighter Li left it with her after leaving that day- he was just afraid that Yuanyuan would run away, and so he wanted to remind her not to forget her promise.

Goudan took the name card, and without a word, put the last chicken drumstick in his mouth and left the burger shop.

"Hey, where are you going?" Yuanyaun jumped up- the guy looked like he really was going to Fighter Li to fight to the death and she started to panic! She only said everything out of anger, and just wanted to retort what he was saying- she didn't expect that he would really go for it!

If it was somebody else walking out like that, she wouldn't think much of it- after all, many people would just put on that act and leave. Who knew if they'd go fight or just go home after leaving?

But Goudan was different! From what he did earlier, paying somebody else's medical fees, she could see that he was a really kind person! She didn't want him to actually go and fight to the death!

She felt that she was already unlucky enough- if she were to get Goudan involved in this for no reason, then her conscience would really hurt! She didn't want to see this! And so she ran out the door, wanting to call him back- but Goudan was, of course, already gone.

"No! Why is this person so hot-blooded?" Yuanyuan stomped her foot, panicking- yet there was nothing she could do.

"Yuanyuan, we should follow him- the kid is a bit simple, but he's a nice person. We can't involve him in this!" Yu Ren was a coward, but he was understanding. He didn't want Goudan to get into trouble because of something he caused! This had nothing to do with him!

"Okay!" Yuanyuan was panicking as well- she left the burger shop and locked it, ignoring that it hadn't been closing time yet since there was a bigger emergency. They got a cab and left for the arena!

But, Yuanyuan locking up the shop already slowed her down a lot. Plus, there was no way a taxi would be as fast as Goudan- their speed was restricted to the limit on the city roads, but a human running wasn't restricted! He was even able to catch up to wild beasts, so there was no way he wouldn't reach the arena first.

The address was quite detailed, and he only needed to ask some stranger to confirm the location before charging to where the arena was!

The underground arena was held in an abandoned factory, but right now it was bright with lights. At the entrance, there were two big men with their walkie talkies, evidently alert.

Goudan walked over, and the two stopped him.

"Who are you, state your business!" One of the men took a look at Goudan.

The arena had already started, and Goudan coming at this time had raised their suspicions.

"Move, I'm looking for someone," Goudan, naturally, wasn't afraid of these two men. They were tall, but they were really only capable of scaring away some normal people. In Goudan's view, he didn't even worry about wild boars or bears.

"Arrogant bastard, you're here to cause trouble, aren't you? Open your eyes wide and look at where you are- you'd be signing a death wish if you do anything!" The man smiled as he looked at Goudan, as if he were an idiot.

But Goudan had better things to do. He came here to do one simple thing- and that was to kill Fighter Li.

He gave the man a slap, and the guy flew away with a cry of pain, flopping onto the floor! With that, he entered the arena!

The arena was filled with lights and people, and on the stage were two men fighting it out- the crowds were cheering as well, but these people had nothing to do with him. He came here for Fighter Li!

But where was he supposed to find this guy in a big arena like this? He thought about it, and decided to just jump onto the arena stage!

On the side of the arena was the judge and some staff, and they barely had time to react to Goudan's speed. He was on the stage before they knew it!

The people who were betting and cheering suddenly froze upon seeing an extra guy on the stage- they called out in surprise! No one knew where this village looking boy came from!

The two fighters were also taken in surprise- where did this guy jump out from?

"Where is Fighter Li? Come out and I'll kill you in one shot!" Goudan came here to do a simple thing- if he killed this guy, then Yuanyuan wouldn't be forced to be his mistress anymore. How could a dead man force anybody to do anything?

The fighters didn't know what was going on- what was this crazy guy talking about?

The two looked at each other and stopped their fight. They walked over to Goudan- if they wanted to continue on, they needed to toss this crazy person off first!

"Kid, you're here to cause trouble? You know the consequences of interrupting our fight?" One of the fighters with a red cap threatened.

"You're Fighter Li?" Goudan looked at the red cap.

"Fighter Li? What Fighter Li?" The red capped man paused.

"If you're not Fighter Li, then get off. I'm here to kill him," Goudan waved his hand impatiently, telling him to leave.

"Quite the cocky one, aren't you? Here to kill Fighter Li? We'll see who- ah!" The red cap felt his body fly out before he finished his sentence! In a second, he fell into the audience section, causing a stir in the crowd!

Chapter 1114: Er Goudan Versus Fighter Li (Part Two)

Goudan patted his hands and turned to the guy with a green cap, "Are you Fighter Li?"

The green cap frowned- he didn't know where this guy came from, but he was obviously strong enough to toss someone into the sky! He shook his head, not advancing.

"Kid, you're looking for me?" Fighter Li had already received reports from the two men outside, saying that someone had charged in to cause trouble. He was the guardian of this arena, so naturally he had to check what was going on! He just happened to see the red cap getting thrown into the air.

"You're Fighter Li?" Goudan raised his head, looking at the second floor- there was Fighter Li, standing there.

"What are you here to do, kid? If it's to cause trouble, you've come to the wrong place! State your purpose here, and I'll let you live!" Fighter Li smiled coldly, murderous intent coming out. Some kid saying that he wanted to kill him over and over again? He was a petty man to begin with- no way he would tolerate this.

“I’m here to kill you!” Goudan frowned impatiently, “What’re you doing up there? Come down quickly and let me kill you!”

“Ha!” Fighter Li was actually amused instead of pissed off now- was this guy retarded, saying something so stupid? He wanted him to come down so he could kill him? What a stupid joke! But Fighter Li talked back, “I don’t even know you, but you’re here to kill me?”

The audience started laughing as well- it was thrilling to watch the fights, but interesting little accidents like this were amusing as well, especially with how Goudan claimed he would kill Fighter Li!

“Are you the Fighter Li who wants to take Yu Yuanyuan away?” Goudan frowned, making sure that this was the right guy. He didn’t want to kill the wrong person.

“Oh? You’re here to stand up for Yu Yuanyuan? Good, you’re brave indeed, acting all cocky in front of this Iron Fist Fighter Li! You’re not leaving today!” Fighter Li looked angry for a moment. This wasn’t her boyfriend or anything, was he? What did this have to do with him? His killing intent switched on at the thought- he was going to make him stay here and die!

“You’re right, I’m here to save Yu Yuanyuan. This Grandpa Goudan here uses his fist to punch away construction machines, and I use my legs to kick away atomic bombs, perhaps I can call myself Iron Fist Goudan, but you? You’re a piece of shit, a poop! Iron Fist Fighter Li? What a joke!” Goudan couldn’t help but spit out phlegm, aiming at the second floor- this guy’s boasting was too absurd! The phlegm splattered onto Fighter Li’s forehead.

“Wayayayaya!! I’ll kill you!” Fighter Li wiped his forehead and jumped off from the top, landing solidly onto the arena! As a Mystic mid phase physical practitioner, this was no trouble at all! He immediately sent a fist in Goudan’s direction upon getting onto the ring- he was very pissed already, and he wanted to kill him with one shot!

Goudan didn’t dodge- he only sent a fist at the one Fighter Li was throwing at him!

A large clack, followed by a large boom sounded!

The sound was crisp, and Fighter Li’s body was flung out from the arena, one of his arms had twisted into an unnatural angle. The clack was the sound of his arm twisting!

In the air was a streak of blood, spat out by Fighter Li- he sprayed it as he fell, landing heavily on the ground. He had foam in his mouth, mixed with the red blood. He was completely still- it seemed like there was no hope for him anymore.

“Ahh!!” The audience gasped in shock- they had seen their fair share of dead people here, but someone dying by being punched into the air while spitting blood? That was a first! This was something you only saw on TV!

And so, the audience cheered!

Of course, nobody knew that Fighter Li was the guy that killed Red Dragon- they just assumed he was some low level fighter!

Goudan didn't stay now that he'd achieved his purpose. This arena may be used to people dying, but he didn't want these people panicking and calling the cops. Quickly, he jumped off the arena and disappeared out of the place.

But just as he left the arena, a taxi parked in front of him. It was Yu Ren and Yu Yuanyuan!

The two came down and ran over to Goudan. Yuanyuan spoke up, "Are you okay? Did you meet Fighter Li?"

"Quickly, run! I killed him already!" Goudan said quietly.

"Ah? Killed him?" Yuanyuan's eyes went wide in disbelief.

"Killed him!" Goudan nodded.

"The taxi..." Yuanyuan just realized that she had paid for the taxi, and didn't asked the driver to wait- it was already gone!

Goudan scratched his head. He extended his arms, and used one arm each to carry the father and daughter as he sprinted away with them.

Yuanyuan was taken by surprise- was this guy human? He was running this fast with two people in his arms!

Yu Ren was shocked as well- he didn't think humans could run this fast!

Goudan sprinted one kilometer before stopping. The weight of Yuanyuan and Yu Ren weren't much to him at all, he could do the same to a wild boar that was a couple hundred kilos.

"How do you run so fast? Are you human?" Yuanyuan was quite shocked even after Goudan put her down, holding her chest with a pale face.

"I got used to it running in the mountains," Goudan said, "Alright, now that I've killed him, he won't cause trouble for you again!"

"You really killed him? You're not afraid of the law?" Yuanyuan didn't think that Goudan would really killed someone! She didn't believe it at first, but seeing his speed made her believe that he was no common man!

"Didn't you say that people died regularly in the arena? They wouldn't be able to call the cops, right? Goudan jumped, "Would they come catch me then?"

"I... I don't know!" Yuanyuan sighed. Goudan wasn't injured, but they had still involved him in their family affairs! People dying in the arena was common, and they might not call the police, but Yuanyuan was afraid that Goudan now had enemies that would come for revenge!

Chapter 1115: Yu Ren's Thoughts

At the thought, Yuanyuan spoke up, "Fighter Li gave me some money earlier- come to my house later and take it, take it and run! They might not be able to find you. I'm afraid that Fighter Li's men won't let you go!"

"Of course I wouldn't be afraid of trash like that- if they were to come, I would just kill them one by one!" Goudan did not care about the people from the arena, "Plus, if I leave, what would you guys do? What if they tried take their revenge out on you, wouldn't I have caused trouble for you instead?"

"That's..." Yuanyuan didn't think that far- what was the worst they could do, kill her?

Yet, who would want to die if they had another option? One look at that nonchalant look on Goudan's face and she wanted him to stay- but she didn't want to cause him trouble!

"That's, this, those- I don't have a place to live anyway! It'd actually suit me fine to live at your place a couple of days!" Goudan said honestly. He had no money and no ID, and he even lost Lin Yi Boss' address. Where was he supposed to go?

"Kid, you really killed Fighter Li?" Yu Ren had been sighing this whole time.

"That Fighter Li was a piece of crap- I killed him with one shot!" Goudan nodded.

"Then what are you going to do in the future? Why did you come to Songshan?" Yu Ren felt that Goudan was a nice person- he started thinking about their future plan. If he could let Goudan stay at his shop and work there, it'd be a good thing! The guy looked strong, and he'd be a great helper.

Yu Ren's Five Gold Shop sold some construction materials too, but he couldn't move the materials to his customer's doors, so business wasn't great. This Goudan looked like he had a lot of strength, so carrying a toilet bowl around or something wouldn't be trouble at all! He wanted him to stay!

His presence would also protect them from their enemies- what's there to lose?

"I... Uncle, to tell the truth, I came here to look for my boss, but my money and the address were in the same package, and the girl scammed it from me! I can't contact him now, too- I don't know what I'm supposed to do," Goudan suddenly remembered this stupid thing that happened. He felt down.

Lin Yi was still waiting for his medicine, and great, he lost his address and couldn't give it to him!

"Oh? What about this, what if you stay at my shop and help out first, live a while at my place? After settling down, you could go look for your boss?" Yu Ren thought.

"Alright, uncle- don't worry! I won't just freeload off of you, I'll work! I'm strong!" Goudan nodded happily.

"Alright, it's a deal! What's your name, and what's your boss' name?" Yu Ren nodded. He could even save money if he didn't need to pay him now!

"My name is Zhou Jiaming, my boss is called Lin Yi!" Goudan said.

"Lin Yi... I don't know him," Yu Ren shook his head. Songshan was big, unlike the village, "Maybe we should go to my house first?"

"That sounds great!" Goudan nodded.

Yuanyuan didn't disagree with how things were developing- she was actually a little happy when her father suggested this! She didn't like him in that way or anything just yet, but it was hard not to have some interest in the hero who saved the damsel in distress. She didn't mind him living at their house at all.

And so he did.

Yuanyuan's mother was always looking sour these past few days- she knew about the thing that happened to Yu Ren and her daughter, and while she really hated Yu Ren for going gambling, there was nothing she could do but await their fate!

Their thief-prevention door had been repaired already, but even the cheapest option cost them three hundred- it was enough to hurt her heart.

She knew that there wasn't much time left for Yuanyuan to be in the house- Fighter Li was about to bring her away, and so she resigned her housemaid job to stay with Yuanyuan a couple of days.

She finished cooking and waited for Yuanyuan and Yu Ren to come home, but they were nowhere to be found. It was already half an hour past the normal off-shift time, and she couldn't help but give Yuanyuan a call.

"Mom, what is it?" Yuanyuan's voice was a lot relaxed- she felt so stressed these couple of days, but Fighter Li's death cleared everything up. Freedom sure felt amazing!

"Yuanyuan, where are you? Why aren't you home yet?" Miss Yu took a breath of relief once she heard her daughter's voice. She thought that Fighter Li had taken her already.

"Mom, dad and I are coming home- there'll be a guest today. I'll tell you the good news when I get back!" Yuanyuan said as she looked at Goudan.

"Oh? Good news?" Miss Yu blinked. Looking at the situation they were in, there really wasn't much that could be considered good news. Could it be that Fighter Li's situation had changed? She quickly asked the question, "Yuanyuan, has there been a change with Fighter Li?"

"I'm on the subway right now, can't talk much. Tell you later," Yuanyuan wasn't stupid- the people dying in the arena were plenty, but she couldn't just talk about that in public.

The arena, on the other hand, was in a massive state of panic!

Scorpion didn't expect that the godlike Fighter Li would just get one-shotted by some 'Grandpa Goudan'! Wasn't this too unrealistic?

He quickly got the staff to drag Fighter Li's corpse down and let the fighters from before continue their match, so the bets wouldn't be interrupted. He quickly ran to the office of the arena after getting the preliminary things sorted out.

Jianwen also saw what happened from the cameras- Fighter Li's death really was out of his expectations, especially with how he died! Wasn't he a Mystic mid phase peak, a physical practitioner? How did he die just like that?

"Master Wen, bad news! Fighter Li was just killed!" Scorpion stumbled into the office.

"I know, I saw the whole thing!" Jianwen frowned. He had been watching everything from the cameras from the moment Goudan entered- he didn't think that he'd be so powerful!

Chapter 1116: He Brought it on Itself

Jianwen was a smart man- he saw Goudan kill his man and leave the arena, but he didn't get anyone to stop him. Fighter Li was a Mystic mid phase peak physical practitioner, and even he couldn't do anything to this Goudan person. Who else in this arena could?

Stopping him would mean death!

"Master Wen, what do we do now?" Scorpion was panicking, "With Fighter Li dead, the arena isn't protected anymore!"

"That's a small matter- what matters the way we should explain this? As long as they're fine with it, they'll send us a new fighter very soon!" Jianwen wasn't sad at all. So be it if he died, they weren't really on good terms in the first place. The problem was that it would be hard to explain this to the Firewolves!

"Master Wen, it's actually quite easy to explain this!" Scorpion had already thought about it. It was true that if the Firewolves wanted the arena to continue earning them money, they'd send another fighter – the problem was how they were supposed to get the news across. But Scorpion had an idea.

"Oh? Tell me!" Jianwen quickly said.

"Master Wen, we'll just tell the truth- it's all Fighter Li's fault, he brought it on himself. He had an interest in a common house's girl, but didn't expect that the girl has a guy this strong backing her up- he came here for revenge and killed him with one shot!" Scorpion said, "Master Wen, you still need to push him down when you report this to the top, you should say that Fighter Li didn't listen to your advice, you have to complain to them that you told him not to go snatch some common girl! And now it was his fault that he got killed!"

"Not bad, Scorpion! Smart!" Jianwen nodded, "Alright, I'll make the phone call!"

"Heh, thank you, Master Wen!" Scorpion grinned, "It's all thanks to your teaching."

"Yeah- you go down first," Jianwen waved his hand, telling Scorpion to leave first. He never let anyone listen to his conversations with the Firewolves as well as those with his father.

He called his father, An Mingyue, once Scorpion left.

"Hello? Jianwen, why are you calling at this hour?" Mingyue was currently eating with the second-in-command of the Firewolves' north branch.

"Dad, there's been an accident! Fighter Li was killed!" Jianwen said.

"What? Fighter Li was killed? What happened, how could this have happened?" Mingyue frowned intensely.

This meal today with the second-in-command was in the name of the leader of the north branch- it meant that they were pleased with Jianwen's results these days. He had earned a couple billion from such a small amount of time, he was like a giant money sponge!

Jianwen's speed was the fastest in the history of the Firewolves, and the north branch was about to give Jianwen benefits- Mingyue was very happy about it, but something had to have happened just then!

The second-in-command heard Mingyue's words, his face turning dark, "Mingyue, what's wrong? How did Fighter Li die?"

"I... I'm not sure yet, let me ask the details..." Mingyue started breaking out in cold sweat. Firewolves were powerful, but this was a Mystic mid phase peak physical practitioner- this was a big deal already, he couldn't just die! This wasn't something they'd just let slip!

"Give me the phone- I'll talk to An Jianwen myself and see what happened!" The second leader said as he asked for the phone directly. This Fighter Li's strength was very important to the north branch Firewolves- he couldn't just die like that!

"Alright..." Mingyue had no choice, he had to listen to the second leader. He was worried that Jianwen would get punished, but he couldn't say no to him. He was even regretting coming here for dinner today, he could've discussed this with his son first and lowered the damage!

"Helo? An Jianwen? What happened? Fighter Li is a master from our north branch, how come he's now dead after transferring to your place? How did this happen?" Second leader said right after taking the phone.

"Hello, is this the second leader?" Jianwen was tense- this was his first time talking to the upper echelon of the Firewolves, but he still managed to be humble and respectful.

"It's me. How did Fighter Li die, give me the details!"

"Second leader, I finally found a boss to complain to!" Jianwen said, as if he had been frustrated the whole time, "Second leader, that Fighter Li didn't listen to me at all, always causing trouble and kicking things around- and now he's dead because someone came to our doorstep to kill him! You need stand up for me, second leader! This whole thing is messing up the arena's business!"

"Oh?" The second-in-command blinked. This tone coming from Jianwen made it sound like it wasn't his fault that Fighter Li died? He still expected for Jianwen to be apologizing, he didn't think that he would be complaining about Fighter Li! He frowned, a little unhappy, "An Jianwen, why do you seem quite happy after Fighter Li got killed? Are you aware that a Firewolves master's death on your hands is partly your responsibility?"

"My responsibility? That can't be!" Jianwen said, frustrated, "Second leader, it's him who went to cause this trouble, it has nothing to do with me! He went and hit on a girl from a common house, and her man came and killed him with one shot, what was I supposed to do to stop this? Fortunately for us her man was reasonable, knowing to deal his revenge to the one who caused the feud- otherwise, he'd tear down my entire arena, and I'd be at a huge loss!"

"What? That was what happened?" The second leader paused, not expecting that Fighter Li was the one who caused all this trouble, and that Jianwen had nothing to do with it! Jianwen actually almost got pulled into this entire mess, too! He couldn't really give him a scolding or anything at this point, "Why didn't you stop him from harrassing the girl? Our underground arena is an illegal business in the first place, we have to lay low!"

Chapter 1117: Special Valentine's – Side Story 1

It was February 14th, the traditional Valentine's Day of Western Culture.

The sky was filled with feather-like snow, and everything was white.

In the countries all over the world, there was an air of celebration. Couples walked through the streets, sweet and happy.

But in one place, on some border of a European small country, the weather was already below thirty eight celsius. This place was an exception.

There was no celebration here. It was quiet and covered in snow, with an air of danger.

Lin Yi dug out a couple of mud balls from the fire in front of him and tossed it to the young girl beside him, "Eat up."

The mud ball was still permeating with heat when it came out, but it was cooling down quickly.

The girl skillfully tore out the mud- inside was a sparrow, cooked. The mud had already stuck onto the feathers that got pulled out with them, and the meat had a nice primordial smell to it.

The girl put the bird at Lin Yi's mouth happily, "Open up—"

"Not hungry," Lin Yi frowned, rejecting the girl's goodwill. He stood up and spoke faintly, "Wait here, I'll go get more branches. This isn't enough for a fire overnight."

"Don't leave, I'm afraid!" The girl called out to stop him.

Lin Yi didn't respond. He turned and left the cave.

"Eagle, wait for me, I'll help you!" The girl put down the bird meat and followed Lin Yi.

Lin Yi slowed down his footsteps, giving the girl a look, but not stopping her.

The land was covered in snow, and the branches as well- it was hard to look for them. Lin Yi, however, wasn't planning on looking for bits and pieces of fallen wood- he jumped on top of a tree and started breaking branches.

The girl only looked at Lin Yi, unable to help. She stomped her feet, a little frustrated!

If it weren't for her stubbornness, the two wouldn't have gotten separated from the party at all!

Lin Yi broke a couple of branches and jumped down once it seemed enough. He got a softer branch and started tying them all together.

"I can... help you?" The girl said, feeling bad that Lin Yi was doing all the work.

“No need,” Lin Yi said with a poker face as he finished the work and put the load on his back.

The girl felt so useless- she came to help, but couldn't do anything.

“Eagle, I'm sorry... I didn't know that I would cause so much trouble...” These past few days, Lin Yi didn't even speak to the girl much, other than for cooking or making fires. She thought he was angry.

“Oh...” Lin Yi replied faintly and went into the cave.

“Hey, I apologized already, why're you still ignoring me?” The girl was panicking.

The girl was the representative of a big family in China, and she came here to talk about partnership- it was just a typical disciple exchanging event between powerful families.

There were not really any risks to this mission- Lin Yi was just invited by Feng Tianlong to participate in this.

It wasn't an official mission, but due to the strength of the family backing this girl, Feng Tianlong naturally invited an outsider operative like Lin Yi for the mission.

Who would've thought that- after finishing the discussions- something this big would happen when they just went to admire the view!

They saw a couple of kids wearing rugged clothing, looking like they were refugees. The girl then asked the people they were with to give them some clothes and food, and while Lin Yi disagreed, the girl just called him heartless.

He wanted to say something to that, but kept it to himself.

He was just a protection unit, and the others were all the girl's men. They listened to her.

They were all busy kissing her ass- who would listen to an outsider like Lin Yi?

And so they opened up all their luggage packs, flipping through everything to get some food and clothing, worried that the girl wouldn't be pleased!

Lin Yi frowned, but kept his mouth shut. One shouldn't show their wealth in the open, this was such a fundamental principle- these ass kissers were all idiots!

The kids took the food and clothes and left happily.

But a while later, an accident happened- a huge force with firepower surged over! The kids who took the girl's kindness weren't grateful, they told their parents where they were, and a huge mugging took place!

There were practitioners among their group too, but in front of so many guns, they seemed a lot weaker.

The enemy's goal was to take everything away from the group.

And, without much ability to fight back under so much firepower, they had to surrender- after all the masters in her group weren't strong enough to handle bullets.

But Lin Yi didn't care at all whether these people lived or died- he had no reason to protect the things in the luggage!

In simple terms, he came as a precaution, a just-in-case sent by Tianlong. Tianlong made it clear, he was just here to guard the girl!

So if the girl died, it was on Lin Yi. As for the other people, so be it if they died. Lin Yi had always been like this.

But these people only wanted the money- they weren't interested in killing, and so they didn't cause any more harm other than knocking someone down or injuring them!

Seeing this made Lin Yi breathe out in relief, but he still stood in front of the girl just in case.

"Can you guys please stop? We can give you all the money, but please stop injuring our people!" The girl felt guilty and was panicking as she called out.

Lin Yi frowned- but the girl had already attracted their attention before he could stop her!

"Get the girl!" The armed man didn't notice her earlier, but she was the only female here. In a world where females are rare, they saw women like treasures, and the leader was quite interested in this one.

Lin Yi wanted to stop her because of that! These people didn't want to kill, but that didn't mean that they wouldn't want to take a girl home by force! They just didn't want to kill on a big scale because it would force a large, deliberate war- if the current local government really did decide to do act because they killed people like this, then they would have a lot more to deal with!

Chapter 1118: Special – Sidestory – 2

Several of the armed forces individuals started moving toward the young female after receiving orders! The young girl didn't expect her word to be so ineffective. She didn't solve the problem and brought herself more trouble instead, she was at a loss.

"You people... What do you want? I already gave all my fortune to you. Why don't you just let me go?" The young girl didn't think that these armed robbers would be so inhumane.

"Young lady, our leader likes what he sees in you. If you know what is good for you, then you will give up resisting and come back with us. Otherwise, you will get the worse end of it later!" A big man with submachine gun sneered as he replied back.

"Run!" Lin Yi grab ahold of the young female's hand and started running!

Many of these armed forces were early state Golden class fighters, they didn't pose a problem to Lin Yi. However, he wouldn't win by just fighting. He could only escape with the young girl first.

The young girl was overwhelmed by Lin Yi's actions. She was stunned by Lin Yi, but Lin Yi didn't care too much about it. He picked up the young girl and ran quickly in the opposite direction!

As for those people that came with the young girl, Lin Yi couldn't care less about their safety. His duty was to protect the mark, the young girl. As long as she was safe, he could still give an explanation to Feng Tianlong.

"If you don't want to die, let go of the young girl!" The man carrying the submachine gun shouted a warning, he was angry that Lin Yi would actually run away with the girl.

Would Lin Yi bother with him? This was valuable time for them to escape! The sooner they escaped then the less danger they would be in.

"If you continue to run, I will open fire!" The angry submachine gunner started aiming it at Lin Yi.

Naturally, Lin Yi will continue running. Soon, he could hear the sound of rapid gunfire coming from behind him! "Da Da Da!"

Lin Yi didn't even bother to turn back to look. On him, the jade pendant gave a weak warning, so he started dodging the oncoming bullets from behind.

The young girl didn't think that the armed forces would really start shooting. It was a submachine gun too! She thought they were only using guns to deter action, but they are actually using the guns!

"Let me go, I don't want to be deadweight..." the young girl naturally knew of Lin Yi's identity. She knew that he was as a bodyguard assigned to her. In a life and death situation, they had no relation to each other!

Amongst the followers in her company, there were only those who worshipped the young lady. Only Lin Yi ignored the young lady and, occasionally, voices his objecting views. Which was why the young girl's initial impression of Lin Yi was terrible. She thought that his personality was very cold, and that he didn't appreciate her at all! Is he even a man?

However, at this moment, her followers were all on the floor begging for mercy. Some were already knocked out. In the critical moment, only Lin Yi worried for her safety. This sparked a trace of good feelings for Lin Yi in the young girl's heart.

Not a deadweight? Lin Yi wanted to open his mouth to explain.

Lin Yi was a person who regards promises heavily. If he made a promise to someone, he would do his utmost to keep it. When he promised Feng Tianlong to protect the safety of the girl, he will do everything to keep his promise.

"Let me go, they have guns!" The young girl shouted. She thought that even if the submachine gun was firing randomly, they wouldn't have a chance to survive. If he let her go, then she could at least try to deal with the armed soldiers.

Lin Yi didn't respond the young girl. He was focusing his thoughts on the warning coming from the jade pendant. This way he could determine the bullets coming from behind him. If he was even slightly wrong, then he would instantly get hit! And it wasn't just one or two bullets, but a beehive of continuous bullets!

The young girl saw that Lin Yi didn't respond so she started moving around. She tried to wiggle her way out of Lin Yi's grasp.

“Stop Moving!” Lin Yi frowned. The young girl’s soft body within Lin Yi’s grasp started flowing out a sweet perfume scent. This interfered with Lin Yi’s concentration. As a young man, his blood was pumping and with the young girl wiggling around, it did cause his heart to beat irregularly!

Good thing, Lin Yi had strong self control. He didn’t think of anything perverse with the young girl. However, with the continuous moving, Lin Yi couldn’t withstand the body friction.

“Let me go!” The young girl persisted.

“If you don’t want to die, then don’t move!” Lin Yi coldly replied.

“Let me go, then I won’t move” The young girl replied.

“Bang...”

The moment Lin Yi lost focus, he got shot in his leg! This type of injury wasn’t harmful to Lin Yi, but the pain was bothersome. As of Lin Yi’s skills right now, he was equivalent to early phase Golden Class.

With the constant wiggling from the young girl, Lin Yi got angry as he smacked her butt as a lesson! He didn’t want to bring harm to the girl, but with Lin Yi’s unmoderated strength, several more strikes might kill the girl.

“Ahh-” The young girl screamed. She didn’t think that Lin Yi would strike her, even on the butt!

The young girl felt wronged. Within her House, she was treated like a princess. How could she suffer this treatment? She got smacked in the butt by a man!

Embarrassed and angry, she continued to vent out, “Let me go now, if you don’t let me go, I will report you! You vulgar vulture!”

“The mouth is on you, you can say whatever you want,” Lin Yi calmly replied.

Lin Yi wasn’t considered Feng Tianlong’s company. So he wasn’t limited to his rules. As for how the young girl wanted to report him, Lin Yi didn’t care too much.

Seeing that her threats were ineffective against Lin Yi, she just let it go. She pouted as she was intimately hugged by Lin Yi as he ran.

Lin Yi’s weaving and dodging wasn’t faster than the speed of bullets. However, there were many armed forces closing in on them so the gun fire wasn’t continuous. It didn’t take long for Lin Yi to ditch the pursuers.

Lin Yi wasn’t slow at all, but the armed forces were still able to catch up. This was because they had a car! Lin Yi was afraid that they would call for backup to chase them!

On the snowy ground, Lin Yi would leave behind footprints. No matter how far Lin Yi ran, they could find him!

After a little bit of running, Lin Yi stopped.

“You... are letting me go now?” The young girl asked when Lin Yi stopped moving.

Lin Yi didn't reply. He held onto the young girl more tightly as he jumped up and landed on a tree branch. He didn't bother to continue running on the snow. He wanted to travel by jumping from tree to tree instead. Only by doing it this way, could it provide enough cover to stop the armed forces from chasing him down!

Lin Yi also chose to jump onto the tree because just ahead of them was a cliff! This way Lin Yi could create the fake conclusion that they jumped to their death to escape. It would be enough to trick the armed forces.

"Ah!" The young girl didn't think that Lin Yi would jump onto a tree. She was shocked, "You... What are you doing?"

Lin Yi continued to ignore the young girl, he surveyed the tree branches for appropriate landing spots.

Chapter 1119: Special – Sidestory – 3

After creating more distance, Lin Yi settled on a towering tree that had a lot of forestry growth! Lin Yi knew that the armed forces might be able to track his blood, so he had to get that wound on his leg treated!

This level of gun wound injury wasn't a problem for Lin Yi, but the bullet was still inside. After jumping around for a long time, the wound was more severe than it was initially.

Lin Yi set the young girl on the side of the tree trunk. The trunk was very solid and there was enough space on the tree to make it safe. Even if the young girl didn't know martial arts, she wouldn't easily fall off.

The young girl didn't say anything, she didn't think that Lin Yi would really help her escape from danger. She was deeply grateful to Lin Yi in her heart, it seemed like he was really different from her followers. The young girl previously thought that if she stayed behind, she could negotiate with the armed forces for a way to live, but if they kept running then they would definitely be killed!

But from the looks of it, her fears didn't happen. She was able to sigh out in relief. She sincerely said, "Thank you!"

Lin Yi was nonchalant about the young girl's gratitude. The young girl was pretty, but in his eyes, she was the employer. No matter how attractive the employer, it was meaningless. Lin Yi wouldn't develop any feelings for her nor will she change his values!

Lin Yi stood up and started taking off his pants...

The young girl was very grateful towards Lin Yi, but when she saw him take off his pants it freaked her out, "You! What are you doing?"

The young girl didn't think that she had escaped danger only to get into more danger!

Could it be that he thought that since he had saved her, then he could bring himself onto her? The young girl's face looked pale. She thought that he was a good person, but it didn't seem true...

Lin Yi continued to take off his pants and disregard the girl.

“You... Don’t be like that. If you continue, I will jump off from the tree!” The young girl felt a sense of urgency. She was able to escape from the mouths of wolves, only to fall into the lion’s mouth. What shitty luck!

“My leg is injured, can’t you see? I need to treat it!” Lin Yi pointed out to his injury. He was annoyed at being questioned all the time.

“Oh?” The young girl didn’t know how to react to Lin Yi’s words. She looked at the area where he pointed at. That was where she noticed Lin Yi’s injury on his pants, which was soaked in blood! The girl started panicking, “You were hit? How severe is it?”

“If you didn’t move, then how else would I have gotten shot?” Lin Yi’s eyes rolled. In a rude tone, he commanded, “Don’t bother me, I need to extract the bullet!”

“Oh...” The young girl felt regret. It was all because of her that Lin Yi to get shot! Now that she realized it, she felt apologetic, “Sorry, do you want me to help you?”

“No need,” Lin Yi replied plainly. From the side of his boots, he pulled out a small knife. He dug into his injury to pull out the bullet. Then he poured a small bottle of powder on the injury.

The young girl was watching the whole time, she wanted to say something but she heard the sound of engine motor.

“Don’t speak!” Lin Yi waved his hands, “They caught up to us.”

The young girl nodded. She instantly focused to eliminate the sound of her breath.

The car just casually patrolled around, then it drove off in a different direction. They didn’t notice anything peculiar, so they didn’t get close to their tree!

“They left...” the young girl carefully spoke up.

“Yes,” Lin Yi responded, as he pulled up his pants.

“Then, should we go back?” the young girl asked.

“Back where? From what I can guess, all your followers have been arrested. It is without a doubt that they will use those followers as hostage to negotiate with the local government. They will request a large sum as a reward too,” Lin Yi replied, “If you go back now, you will just be locked up.”

“Then... We will just remain here, in the tree?” the young girl had a strange expression.

“We can’t go back temporarily,” Lin Yi shook her head.

“Can’t go back? Didn’t they just leave?” the young girl hesitated.

“They will come back,” Lin Yi replied.

When the young girl heard Lin Yi’s warning, it didn’t seem possible. However, she still nodded, because it seemed like Lin Yi wouldn’t hurt her.

As expected, after ten minutes, a jeep returned. After patrolling around for awhile, it parked by a nearby tree.

The young girl widen her eyes. Lin Yi's prediction was spot on, these people were back to kill her. If she was by herself, she would've jumped off from the safety of the tree and walked around. Then, she would've been discovered immediately!

"Escaped to where? Could they have jumped off the cliff?" A voice rang out from the jeep, seems like it was sent from the armed forces. He didn't have a good expression as he continued to survey the area, "Keep searching! See if you find the pretty girl!"

"Leader, I suspect that they jumped off the cliff. There are no footprints anywhere!" The submachine gunner carefully spoke.

"I ordered you to search, so you continue searching!" The armed forces leader wasn't willing to accept that, "If they are dead, then I want to see the corpse! Bring that girl back to me. When I'm done messing with her, you can have her!"

"Yes!" The submachine gunner suddenly got excited by the incentive, "I will look at the bottom of the cliff!"

The young girl's face paled. She was embarrassed. She didn't think that these people would be so vulgar. If it weren't for Lin Yi by her side, her innocence would've been ruined.

Lin Yi wasn't wrong. Trying to negotiate with armored terrorists wasn't possible. In their eyes, there was no room for negotiations!

The young girl was able to take a deep breath. Her followers that she thought were loyal to her, were all just ass-kissers. At the most critical moment, they abandoned her.

"We can go now," Lin Yi watched the jeep drive away. The warning from his jade pendant disappeared. This would mean that they had a brief window of opportunity to leave the area.

"Okay..." The young girl obediently obeyed.

Lin Yi didn't get off from the tree, instead they continued to jump from tree to tree. This area was still being patrolled by the armed forces, so it was hard to guarantee that they wouldn't come back for a closer inspection. To avoid anymore trouble, Lin Yi had to make his move fast.

The injury on his leg was starting to heal while he was jumping between tree branches. Since he was an early phase Golden Class master, it wasn't a hard task.

Lin Yi went to pick up the young girl, "Sorry about this, I need to carry you again,"

Chapter 1120: Special – Sidestory – 4

"I..." The young girl blushed. She has never been so intimate with another gender before, she knew that if she wanted to survive, then she needed to remain with Lin Yi, jumping from tree to tree.

However, being carried in Lin Yi's embrace was a little embarrassing. She thought that the way he carried her would make it inconvenient, so she suggested that he carry her on the back instead...

"Oh... works," Lin Yi was someone who could laugh in the face of danger, he chuckled at the suggestion.

"You can still laugh? I thought you are incapable of laughing. You seemed like you were born cold-hearted!" The young girl didn't think that their relationship would become better. Because Lin Yi was not an ass-kisser, no matter what the young girl suggested, he had objected to it. It felt like he was here solely for the business negotiations and regarded everything else as shit!

Which was why the young girl felt that Lin Yi wasn't an understanding person. With a brunt attitude and rude looking face, she felt that he wasn't very flexible. It was now that the young girl felt like she understood Lin Yi. He did this for her wellbeing!

In a foreign country, she has no contact here. Lin Yi was the expert in this situation. If she had listened to his advice from the start, then she wouldn't have revealed her wealth, which wouldn't have brought unnecessary trouble.

Lin Yi didn't reply to the young girl, he just turned his back so that she could climb onto his back.

At the age of 16 years old, her chest wasn't fully matured. As she climbed onto Lin Yi's back, her chest coming so close contact with another gender still made her uncomfortable. But looking at how serious their situation was, she didn't have the luxury to think about it!

It was as Lin Yi had said, if she was discovered then her innocence couldn't be protected.

After a slight hesitation, she climbed on and wrapped her arms around his neck.

Lin Yi tried to stand up, he couldn't avoid touching the girl's butt.

The young girl blushed, but Lin Yi couldn't see her expression. Even if her butt felt very comfortable, and her chest was warm, Lin Yi didn't too deeply about it. Their lives were the most important right now!

Lin Yi jumped through countless trees. Around half an hour later, Lin Yi finally stopped moving. He was close to the mountain range, which should be quite far from the influence of the armed forces.

Lin Yi let go of the girl down as he rest, "We are almost out of the area of their influence, do you have a cell phone on you? Contact the embassy to send a helicopter to rescue us.

"It was in my bag, which I didn't bring with me. Do you have anything?" The young girl was able to relax. She was on edge for the whole time she was on his back.

Lin Yi frowned, he pulled out his own phone, "My phone doesn't have any signal. Only your satellite phone has the reception to make a call out!"

Lin Yi only had a domestic phone, which could use the local network to make calls. However, they were near the edge of the mountains and forest, which was far out of the network reception. Only a satellite phone had the network reach. However, the young girl didn't carry it on her!

“Oh!” the young girl was surprised. She had an apologetic look, “I... I didn’t know. That satellite phone was too heavy for me. I thought that any general use phone would work. I placed it in the luggage... Sorry...”

Lin Yi shook his head, if he had to guess then this was the young girl’s first time traveling out of country. She was quite inexperienced so he didn’t say anything else. The satellite phone was huge, so she didn’t think it would be useful. It was also heavy, which made it hard to travel around with!

“My phone has GPS capabilities, once we wait for our friends to figure out something is wrong then they can send out help,” Lin Yi wasn’t too worried. He opened up the GPS and it was passive positioning, which made it hard for Lin Yi to actively send out his current coordinates.

“Thank you...” The young girl hesitated, she sincerely owed Lin Yi all her gratitude.

“No need for that,” Lin Yi calmly replied, “There seems to be a cave up ahead,” Let’s rest there and I will look for something to eat...”

“Wait... What is your name?” The young girl mustered up the courage to ask.

“Eagle, I thought you knew?” Lin Yi replied.

“I mean, real name...” The young girl explained.

“Zero One,” Lin Yi replied.

“Zero One? What is that?” The young girl asked.

“Codename,” Lin Yi replied.

“If you don’t want to tell me, then fine!” The young girl pouted, “I’m Yu Ning,”

“Oh...” Lin Yi nodded. He turned around to look for food. It was best that he made preparations. It was hard to tell when rescue might come, if they didn’t prepare for the worst, then they might just die there.

The cave was very shallow, sitting from the inside they could tell what was the situation outside. The young girl sat curled up inside the cave. She watched as Lin Yi disappeared from view. When he was gone, the young girl felt lonely and depressed.

This was the first time she was so intimate and secretive with another man, however, he didn’t feel the same. He was absolutely calm. Could it be that he was the vengeful type?

That was when this happened...

Yu Ning was following Lin Yi, trying to offer her help. However, Lin Yi moved too fast. He finished fast, gathering all the firewood he needed and was already heading back at the cave. Yu Ning was just trailing far behind him, unable to assist.

The two of them returned back to the cave, they sat around the fire. Lin Yi closed his eyes and utilized his Art of Dragon Mastery to gather the essence of natural aura around them. This was a place where essence was denser than in the city. Lin Yi didn’t want to waste this good opportunity to train. He will just take this as a complimentary win!

Yu Ning watched as Lin Yi sat in a meditative state, she was bored and curious!

Yu Ning was very isolated, she didn't have much contact with other outsiders. She did come in contact with other wealthy sons but those pursuers were all interacting with her for their own purpose, they were trying to appeal to her. None of them act like Lin Yi.

Of course, Yu Ning did not think that Lin Yi was that ingenious to deliberately use this to make him seem attractive. If Lin Yi was deliberately doing this before, then now that the two of them are alone together, and she had already expressed her intentions, why was Lin Yi still like this?
