

Bodyguard 1141

Chapter 1141: Humbly Asking For Advice

“Yao Yao, where are my clothes...” Tang Yun breathed in relief when Lin Yi turned around! She didn’t mind if Lin Yi continued looking, but this was not the place! She was right in front of Mengyao, Yushu, and Xiaoxiao. She’d rather die than let everyone see her show off her body to Lin Yi like this!

“Why are you shy all of a sudden, Tang Yun sis? Didn’t you say you always do it with Shield Bro?” Yushu was still smiling.

Tang Yun’s face reddened even more. That was when she was bragging and fighting with Yushu and Mengyao. She didn’t expect Yushu to pull it up!

Her face was red as an apple, and Mengyao smiled faintly. It seemed that nothing had happened between Lin Yi and her, after all. At the very least, she should be in the same situation with Lin Yi as Yushu and her were. She felt herself feel relieved. “Shu, stop causing trouble, or I’ll tear off your lips!”

“Oh!” Yushu subconsciously covered her lips, shutting up. She turned to Lin Yi. “Shield Bro, how was it?”

Tang Yun was just calming down as she held her chest, ready to go up with Mengyao to get clothes. Yushu’s words almost made her trip!

Lin Yi was calming down as well- and out came Yushu!

“I don’t know!” Lin Yi said, a little frustrated.

“Wha?!” Lin Yi’s eyes went wide open- Yushu’s? What was she saying, since when did he touch hers? Yushu should be more careful with her words! He subconsciously turned around and caught Tang Yun in the corner of his eyes.

Tang Yun had also slowed down her footsteps a little as she heard Yushu’s words, subconsciously turning to Lin Yi- the two made eye contact at that moment, and Tang Yun’s face reddened once more. She was still naked in the living room!

Mengyao couldn’t watch this anymore. “Shu, stop!”

“Oh...” Yushu finally shut up.

“That’s how Shu is, don’t mind her. You’ll get used to it! She doesn’t mean anything bad by it, she’s just joking, especially in front of Lin Yi. She does that to me too...” Mengyao smiled as she checked out, Tang Yun’s chest. Yes, it was a lot bigger than hers. They didn’t seem so big before? She couldn’t help but feel a bit envious.

In the changing room, Mengyao opened the closet. “Pick one- anyone is fine. I’ll get a bra for you!”

“Ah, so many!” Tang Yun felt overwhelmed by colors- there were so many varieties of clothes in there, she didn’t even think it was possible for a girl to own so much! Was she a princess?

“Yun Yun, what’s your size?” Mengyao asked.

“I wear D...” Tang Yun said a little embarrassedly.

“I only have B here... I don’t think you can wear it...” Mengyao looked at Tang Yun’s chest a little enviously. “I don’t remember you being this big before?”

“I...” Tang Yun blushed. It was true that she was barely a C before- she had started drinking papaya milk every day and massaging herself these days after seeing Yushu’s size, that was why they grew!

She was in puberty, too- this wasn’t a surprise at all.

“How come... They’re so big now?” Mengyao couldn’t help it. “I remember them being smaller...”

“I...” Tang Yun froze, not expecting Mengyao to have noticed. She felt a little embarrassed. “After that time you and Shu called me out, I started drinking papaya milk every day, and massaging them... And they actually became bigger...”

“Um... Does that really work?” Mengyao was enticed.

“Yeah, it works.” Tang Yun could tell what she was thinking. With a red face, she spoke. “You can try it too...”

“But what bra do I wear now?” Tang Yun was a bit speechless- she couldn’t just stand here naked all day.

“Shu’s wouldn’t work, she’s at least F or G now...” Mengyao said, frustrated. “Maybe you could wear your own from before? I put it in the washer but didn’t wash it yet. I’ll go get it!”

Tang Yun was feeling awkward at first, but after Mengyao pushed her a bit, she decided to listen to her and try on outfit after outfit...

Lin Yi waited until Tang Yun was upstairs before he turned around, and saw Yushu and Xiaoxiao sneaking upstairs. “Don’t cause trouble! Or we’ll leave you two behind.”

“Oh!” Yushu wanted to have some fun upstairs, but since Lin Yi caught her, and she had to stay put.

Xiaoxiao had the same thoughts, thinking of going upstairs with Shu.

A while later, some footsteps came down- it was Tang Yun and Mengyao.

Tang Yun was wearing a bright yellow long sleeve T-shirt, coupled with sunglasses. She felt like a beach girl.

This made her match up with Yushu and Mengyao's outfits! Lin Yi knew that she was as pretty as Mengyao and Yushu, but her dressing up really made her pretty in Lin Yi's eyes.

"How is it, Lin Yi? Tang Yun's pretty, right?" Mengyao was quite pleased- this was her masterpiece!

"Yeah, pretty. Thanks, Yao Yao." Lin Yi didn't expect that the Miss would be able to get along so well with Tang Yun. Although some part of this was because he'd saved House Chu from danger, the fact that the Miss had opened up made Lin Yi very glad.

Chapter 1142: Scratched Car

As long as they didn't fight each other all the time, Lin Yi would be able to live on in the villa peacefully. As for his relationship with Miss and Yushu, he never thought about it—he decided to go with the flow! Although he didn't know if he was still a follower or bodyguard.

If he remembered correctly, he'd resigned from Pengzhan already. He stayed was because he made a promise to Yushu. He was staying as a friend.

"There's no need to thank me— there are too many clothes anyway. We might as well wear it all together; otherwise, it'd be a waste!" Mengyao said.

Lin Yi smiled. That was how the Miss was, always acting the other way even though she was nice. It was quite interesting to see.

"Let's go then? I can't wait already!" Xiaoxiao said.

"Okay, let's go." Lin Yi nodded.

Tang Yun, Shu, and the Miss very naturally and cooperatively gave the co-driver seat to Xiaoxiao- they all knew her situation was, and they were all on this trip to finish Xiaoxiao's wish. They wanted her to be happy, and so even Shu didn't try to fight for it.

Lin Yi's land rover went on the roads, and behind him was Jianwen's Ferrari. Behind that, however, was Yang Ganglou's Audi Q7.

They didn't mind, following right behind them as if they were a group.

"Yao Yao, An Jinawen's car is here," Yushu said as she looked behind her.

"I see them. Let them be." The Miss frowned, not saying much.

"Lin Yi, honey, go on the dirt roads later! They're here on a race car. We'll make them suffer!" Xiaoxiao grinned.

"Ha, I was thinking the same thing!" Yushu called out as well.

Lin Yi only smiled as he turned the wheel, choosing the worst mud road that led to the beach. Tiny cars took this road, and only the farmer trucks that came into the city to sell crops would go here.

It was unpaved, so naturally, it wasn't a right road.

This wasn't much to Lin Yi's rover, but it was to Jianwen's race car.

"An Bro, how come this road's so shitty? I can't keep up anymore..." Taizao complained to Jianwen as the road got worse.

"That's why I let you drive. I'd be driving myself if it were a good road! Weren't you the racing king of the underground racing scene in Songshan?" Jianwen glared. "Hurry up and catch up, don't lose them! Don't waste this chance where I can hit on Mengyao!"

"Yes..." Taizao had no choice, and he struggled on. This road, however, was too shitty, even for a racing king—especially for a racing king.

"They're still following?" Xiaoxiao was a bit curious—how was Jianwen still managing to keep up?

"The driver Su Taizao is probably an expert. He's choosing the flatter surfaces and doing a WS drive. He'll be able to keep up for now," Lin Yi had been observing.

Taizao was able to keep up barely, but it was a huge struggle!

A clack sounded, and Taizao stopped the car, his face bitter as he looked at Jianwen. "An Bro, it's bad—something scratched the bottom! Something hit us!"

"Ah? Can't you open your damn eyes when you drive?" Jianwen raged upon hearing that his car was damaged. This was not the time!

"I... It's already a miracle that we can manage to follow this far on these roads, but our car's bottom piece is just too low..." Taizao smiled bitterly.

"Why didn't you say so earlier? What do we do now?" Jianwen didn't mind the car—he could buy many with the money he had. But the fact that it was dragging their time was a big deal!

"Maybe we should drive Ganglou's Q7 first, and let him wait here for the tow truck?" Taizao suggested.

"Alright, we'll go with that!" Jianwen got off the car.

Taizao and Ganglou talked a bit, and Ganglou naturally complied.

"This SUV really is different!" Jianwen sat on the Audi Q7, feeling a lot more comfortable. The ride earlier was very bumpy in comparison.

"They changed cars." Lin Yi knew that Jianwen wouldn't give up easily in the first place.

Xiaoxiao, on the other hand, was a bit disappointed. She wanted to mess with Jianwen and Taizao, and at least get their car to flip over. They were just beginning, after all, and the roads that followed would be much tougher... But they changed their cars!

"Whatever, they can follow us if they want! We'll mess with them later!" Xiaoxiao gritted her teeth.

Mengyao just realized something. The fact that the idiot Jianwen was following them made the entire trip more interesting! Of course, that required them to have Xiaoxiao and Yushu, the two demon kings. She wouldn't know how to deal with this otherwise.

Songshan's beach area was split into a normal district and a resort: the resort area was the safer one since there were safety nets preventing beasts in the water from entering. It made the area safer.

But there were a lot of people there, and that made the water quality worse. After all, with the number of people bathing there every day, it couldn't be too good.

Lin Yi was planning on going to the normal area. There weren't many people here, and people who did come here didn't choose to swim. After all, only people like Yushu would get excited upon seeing a shark, asking him to cook one up for her.

Taizao was driving behind Lin Yi's rover, and Lin Yi was going more and more off-track as the sky got darker. Taizao wasn't brave, to begin with, and he started to get afraid!

"An Bro, what is this place? It's so dark, and there aren't even any road lights... Something's wrong! I'm scared..." Taizao had already locked the doors as he spoke.

"Then be a little braver, what's there to be afraid of? Isn't Lin Yi right in front of us? Even the four girls in his car aren't afraid, what's a guy like you complaining about?" Jianwen hmped impatiently.

Chapter 1143: Mimic Shu

Jianwen was a tough guy type. He cut out kidneys and killed people, and that meant that he didn't fear many things.

"But... What if Lin Yi's luring us to this place on purpose, trying to mess with us?" Taizao was still worried. "Could there be ghosts here?"

"Ghosts my *ss. Stop saying sh*t!" Jianwen glared. "Is your bed peeing still not fixed yet? Do you still pee your bed, you coward?"

"I... I don't anymore... The problem's fixed..." Taizao blushed, shaking his head.

"Then follow them! Stop complaining!" Jianwen raged. "Don't lose them!"

"Alright!" Taizao nodded.

"Wow, it's so peaceful and quiet here. It's the best place for romance!" Xiaoxiao was quite pleased with the view. There was an endless sea and an endless beach. It was quiet and peaceful.

Mengyao and Tang Yun looked at each other, a bitter smile on their faces. Only Xiaoxiao would be able to say something like this... Although, there was Shu as well.

"You guys choose a spot. We're camping here tonight." Lin Yi stopped the car on the beach.

"They all look the same. We'll just randomly pick one?" Tang Yun looked outside the window. It was already dark, and it seemed like everywhere was the same.

"Alright, we'll do it here then." Lin Yi nodded and readied the supplies.

The Miss and Shu had shopped for two big tents already. One was enough for the five of them, but the Miss didn't have that type of relationship with Lin Yi, and so they couldn't live in the same tent. She'd be too shy, anyway.

"Tang Yun, you sleep with Shu and I at night? Let Lin Yi and Xiaoxiao stay in the same tent?" Mengyao pulled Tang Yun over, discussing with her quietly.

This had been her plan when she bought the tent—letting Lin Yi and Xiaoxiao live together.

"Yeah, of course!" Tang Yun said without thinking. She was a bit disappointed that her first outing wouldn't be with Lin Yi, but she still had a lot of time with him. Xiaoxiao, on the other hand, didn't— she might die anytime!

"Oh, I wanna go live with Shield Bro, too!" Yushu interrupted.

"You live under the same roof with Lin Yi every day, why are you butting in now? Go get the tent!" Mengyao glared, feeling ashamed for her.

"Oh..." Yushu turned around to deal with the tent.

The two tents had quite a bit of distance to each other, and Mengyao couldn't help but feel curious.

"Shu, what's with the distance?"

"Oh, I was just worried that some weird noises would come out from Shield Bro's tent at night, interrupting our sleep..." Yushu said.

"Idiot Shu, what did you say? That's not what you told me earlier!" Xiaoxiao's face went red instantly as she glared. "You told me that you'd be playing poker at night, and you said you didn't want to disturb us..."

"Yeah, we didn't want to disturb your xxx time!" Yushu nodded naturally.

Mengyao and Tang Yun looked at each other. These two really were an amazing pair—fighting each other all the time but teaming up when there was an enemy.

"Bullshit..." Xiaoxiao was extremely red.

"Oh yeah? I know what you're planning!" Yushu said.

"How do you know? Are you a parasite in my intestines?"

"Because we're pretty similar- I can simulate you. I'm Mimic Shu." Yushu said.

"Then, I get it. You want to do it with Lin Yi too, that's why you came up with that!" Xiaoxiao said.

"Yeah, yes! That's exactly what I was thinking! I even want to do 3P!" Yushu said.

"Fine then, that's what I was thinking!" Xiaoxiao said. "Why don't you come to visit us at night, we can do a 3P together!"

Mengyao and Tang Yun decided to stop these two before they got even more ridiculous.

"Shu!"

“Xiaoxiao!”

The two scolded their own.

“Can you two not discuss these things?” Mengyao said, amused and frustrated.

“Yeah, Lin Yi’s starting a fire there—we should help.” Tang Yun said.

One didn’t need to light a fire in the summer, but Lin Yi wanted dinner to feel a bit more atmospheric.

Jianwen and Taizao had driven onto the beach as well—they looked for a spot near to Lin Yi’s camp, thinking of joining Mengyao, but we’re also worried that Mengyao didn’t want them. They put some distance between them as a result.

“An Bro, it’s too isolated out here! It’s creeping me out!” Taizao said, not wanting to get out of the car.

“Can you please not be such an embarrassment? What’s scary about the beach? There are no sea monsters!” Jianwen got down, annoyed. “Lin Yi’s starting a fire over there already, we need to do something and get all the camping equipment Ganglou bought! We need to make some good food to attract Mengyao!”

The two got out their stuff from the Audi Q7- it was filled with barbeque equipment and other picnic based stuff, along with some pre-made meat skewers of lamb, ribs, wings, and veggies.

“Ha, not bad, Yang Ganglou! The beach is best for barbeque parties!” Jianwen said as he looked at the stuff inside. He really didn’t know how to cook, after all, but barbeque wasn’t hard at all- who didn’t know how to heat up food?

“Do we barbeque them now, An Bro?” Taizao asked as he put the items onto the ground, shining the car lights on it.

The car lights made Taizao a lot more comfortable. After all, there were no lights here on the beach.

“Yeah, let’s do it here then, start the fire. I’m starving already. We spent the entire day spying on Chu Mengyao’s house!” Jianwen said.

“Alright, let me check the manual, see how I should grease his...”

“Light a fire. Why do you need a manual for that?” Jianwen said impatiently.

Chapter 1144: We Want to Eat Seafood

“Who lights up fires these days, that’s something cavemen do! People use electricity these days!” Taizao said gleefully. “Look at Lin Yi, lighting a fire there like an idiot, not eco-friendly at all! Also, he might burn himself, too!”

“Fuck, you damn idiot. Where are we supposed to get electricity out here? You didn’t buy one with a cable, did you?” Jianwen was a little panicking.

“Ah... Ganglou probably wouldn't make a low-level mistake like this!” Taizao said, worried. There weren't any sockets on the beach!

“Then what's going on here? Don't tell me that we'll be able to use it without plugging it in somewhere!” Jianwen was pissed off.

“An Bro, this is solar-powered, it should be fine....” Taizao was reading the manual. “See, Yang Ganglou's a pretty smart man. He wouldn't make low-level mistakes like this!”

“Sun my ass, there's no sun right now! We might as well get a moon-powered one!” Jianwen was getting pissed off now- solar-powered? It was night time!

“An Bro, calm down! I'll call him right now, ask what's going on!” Taizao wiped the sweat off his brow. Why did this damn Ganglou buy something like this??

“Hurry then!” Jianwen said impatiently.

“Ganglou, what's with this solar-powered barbeque equipment? It's nighttime right now, how are we supposed to use it?” Taizao scolded right away.

“Taizao Bro, this is the newest high tech product out there now, it's three in one, the hottest model!” Ganglou said, feeling wronged. “Not only is it solar-powered, but you can use your hands to start a fire, too, and you can also connect it to the car for electricity...”

“Ah, so that's what it was! Why didn't you say so earlier?” Taizao said, thinking that this was pretty high tech. He let out a breath of relief. “How's An Bro's car coming along?”

“It's being repaired right now. I'm working on it!” Ganglou said.

“Alright, work on it then—I'll start the barbeque with An Bro.” Taizao hung up and turned to Jianwen. “An Bro, this isn't just reliant on solar energy, you can use your hands, or you can connect it to the car for electricity...”

“I see. It seems I've misjudged him—this is pretty good stuff. Hurry and plug it to the car, we're starting!” Jianwen said, happy again.

As expected, it started heating up after getting connected, even glowing rainbow colors.

Taizao took out the meat skewers and chicken wings and all that, putting them on the barbeque equipment and starting the barbeque. The sweet smell of meat filled the air!

“You work on that first- I'll go get Chu Mengyao's group to come to eat!” With that, Jianwen walked over to Lin Yi's side, where Mengyao was helping him. “You guys are here too? Lil sis Yao Yao, we're doing a barbeque over there, you guys want to come and eat? I'll let Taizao get you guys your favorite food!”

Mengyao frowned. She thought that it would take a while before Jianwen came over to bother them, but he was here right after they reached!

“We already prepared—you guys enjoy. Thanks for the offer, though.” Mengyao said, not being too cold or passionate.

“Haha, it’s fine—it’s just us two, and we have a lot. We’ve got mutton skewers, ribs, veggies, wings...” Jianwen said as he started advertising.

“Huh? Seafood??” Jianwen blinked. He didn’t go through the stuff in his trunk, but he saw that it was all lamb and chicken and cow, there was no seafood! “What’s the point of doing a seafood barbeque at the beach, right? Why do you have to eat seafood?”

“Of course we have to eat seafood at the beach, that’s how you set the mood! You eat it with the sea breeze, that’s the point. You can eat regular barbeque anywhere. We can even do it in our backyard! If you don’t have seafood, then scram, don’t interrupt us!” Yushu’s words rendered Jianwen speechless.

“But... But there’s no seafood here too?” Jianwen asked bitterly.

“Isn’t their plenty of seafood in the sea? What a joke!” Yushu said as she pointed at the sea.

“UGh... I see... Alright, you guys wait...” Jianwen had no choice- he had to go back and discuss strategy with Taizao.

He felt that he’d messed up—he should’ve asked them what they wanted to eat back at the villa, it was already too late now!

“Shu, you’re so bad—you’re not trying to get them to go into the sea to get seafood, right?” Mengyao couldn’t help but smile- wasn’t this torture?

“I’m not trying to do anything at all—but he could do that if he wanted to!” Yushu shook her head gravely.

Mengyao shook her head as well. From what she knew of Jianwen’s personality, he would probably send Taizao to fish out seafood, but what were they supposed to fish out when it was so dark?

As expected, that was exactly what they were discussing!

Lamb skewers and chicken wings were great, but the girls weren’t interested, so there was no point! Jianwen’s purpose here was to attract Mengyao’s attention, after all, and now that she wanted seafood, he had to try and fulfill her desires!

“You go drive the car to the beach and shine a light on it. We’ll two will go down and try to get some seafood!” Jianwen gritted his teeth.

“Alright!” Taizao would naturally carry out any of Jianwen’s orders. He didn’t want to go down the sea in the middle of the night to fish for seafood, but Jianwen was going himself. He had to follow suit!

Jianwen and Taizao changed into swimwear, and, in the light of the headlights, they jumped into the sea!

But where the hell were they supposed to get seafood in a situation like this? They wouldn’t be able to get anything in shallow waters like this in the day, let alone the night! They’d had to go to deeper areas, but it was completely dark in those places right now. He may be brave, but Jianwen didn’t want to go too deep. He would die if he wasn't careful! This wasn't a swimming area, who knew what dangers lurked down there?

And so, the two only searched around in the shallow areas, only finding a couple of conches and clams. There were fish and crabs nearby, but those weren't something you could just find at night.

Chapter 1145: You Went Yourself

"An Bro, how is it over there?" Taizao had been searching around but didn't find anything. He even scratched his feet after stepping on something!

"All conches and clams, nothing else!" Jianwen said with a bitter face.

"This should be about enough, right? I don't think we can find anything else now!" Taizao was already feeling cold. This wasn't peak summer, and the sunlight wasn't that strong. The seas at night would be a lot colder as a result, especially since it didn't absorb enough heat. Taizao was already freezing and would've jumped out if it weren't for Jianwen.

"Alright, we'll just use these first. This should be enough for two, and we'll let that troublemaker girl and Yao Yao eat first, whatever!" Jainwen was a human as well—he was already freezing.

Jainwen and Taizao got on shore and realized that their haul wasn't bad at all. It was a full basket of things they had, and they could even cook a seafood soup. Jianwen went to Mengyao with that basket happily.

"Yao Yao, I got some seafood, they're all fresh from the sea!" Jainwen said as he presented his haul.

But Yushu spoke up before Mengyao could. "What sort of seafood is this? They're all a bunch of small clams and conches, how are we supposed to eat something this small?"

"This... This is all there was, back in the sea..." Jainwen said bitterly. Just these small things took him a lot of energy and effort to get, and it was great for their situation already!

"Oh, you guys eat it then. We've got big seafood here, and we don't need yours!" Yushu said as she took out a crate from behind the car- there was a bunch of seafood in there, a great variety!

"Wha?!" Jainwen's eyes went wide.

"Who said I was going to go fishing for seafood? You're the one who jumped in yourself, and I didn't tell you to!" Yushu rolled her eyes in disdain.

"I... I..." Jianwen wanted to scream- he fell for it again! But there was nothing he could do, and it was his fault for misunderstanding... This wasn't Yushu's fault at all. She didn't tell him to do anything, after all!

"Shield Bro, let's barbeque some seafood!" Yushu didn't want to waste time on Jianwen anymore as she brought the box of seafood to Lin Yi's fire. He had already prepared everything.

Jianwen stomped his feet in frustration as he brought back the seafood.

“An Bro, why are you back? What did Chu Mengyao think? Was she touched that we went fishing for seafood in the middle of the night?” Taizao didn’t hear the conversation from before.

“Touched my ass!” Jianwen was already calmed down, but Taizao’s words made him pissed off again. “They had seafood. They had a whole box they bought from the market- we were idiots for jumping down to fish!”

“Ah? Why didn’t they say so then?” Taizao blinked, regretting that he’d gone down the sea for nothing.

“It’s my fault for not asking!” Jianwen thought that Yushu intentionally hid it from him, but it was also his fault for not asking properly- it was now two times he messed up! If he had asked properly what Mengyao wanted back when he was at her house, he’d go and buy all the stuff she wanted! If she had asked properly if they had seafood, they didn’t have to go down the sea!

“Then... What do we do? An Bro?” Taizao asked.

“We’ll eat it ourselves!” Jianwen said, troubled. “Otherwise, our efforts would’ve been wasted!”

Lin y was starting the barbeque on top of the fire, and the pleasant smells came drifting to Jianwen’s side- the two started drooling in envy!

“We’ll start too!” Jianwen gritted his teeth. “We even have lamb skewers and chicken wings, yeah? We’re not worse off than them!”

“You’re right. I’ll go prepare!” Taizao went and got ready, but only did he finish preparing everything did he realize that the car’s battery was out of electricity! He spent too much of it when they were fishing for seafood earlier!

“An Bro, this is bad! The car’s out of electricity!” Taizao said after messing around with the car, his face bitter.

“What? No electricity? How’d you mess that up? Can you stop causing trouble?!” Jianwen said, even more frustrated.

“We forgot to turn the engine off...” Taizao said carefully.

“You... Whatever~!” Jianwen wanted to scold him, but he had no energy. He was starving already! “Isn’t there a manual way we could use our hands to power it? Go power it manually!”

“Ah? Me?!” Taizao looked at the equipment- he could power it with his hands while continuing to rotate the lever, but wouldn’t he be completely exhausted by the time all the food was heated?

“Of course, it can’t be me!” Jianwen glared. “Hurry up, stop wasting time! It’s just the lever, right? Just think of it as jacking off!”

“...” Taizao had no choice- he went over and started using his hands to move the lever quickly, and the equipment started generating heat along with a rainbow-colored light. “What idiot designed this? Working so hard to generate that bit of electricity. All the energy I’m putting out is getting used for that stupid light!”

“Hurry and work on the lever!” Jianwen said as he started flipping the skewers.

"So romantic... I didn't think that I, Feng Xiaoxiao, would be able to experience this one day..." Xiaoxiao said as she looked at the variety of seafood emanating with an amazing smell. She thought that she wouldn't know what friendship and love were like in her life before she died, but now she had everything all of a sudden.

The friends she used to have were all those superficial friends that raced with her- they weren't true friends, and she wouldn't go and have a camping trip with them in the first place. Who knew if they were people she was safe to be around with?

"The clams are ready!" Lin Yi said as he brought down a couple of clams from the rack, putting them into a plate for the eager Yushu. "You guys eat first!"

"Yeah, the food's here!" Yushu said excitedly as she passed the plate to Mengyao, Xiaoxiao, and Tang Yun, putting it on the sand. "I'll get some drinks."

"You guys eat first, I'll open one for Lin Yi." Tang Yin picked one clam up and pulled out the meat, giving it to Lin Yi.

Chapter 1146: Feng Xiaoxiao's Misunderstanding

Xiaoxiao regretted not making the first move—Tang Yun was one step ahead! What a failure of a small wife she was!

But she didn't give up yet. She went with Yushu to get drinks from the car, planning on getting it to Lin Yi.

But just as she got to the car, Yushu tossed all of the drinks into Xiaoxiao's hands, "Here, take it there."

"Huh?" Xiaoxiao blinked, but Yushu was already quickly running in Lin Yi's direction with one bottle in her hand!

Yushu got to Lin Yi, and popped the drink open and gave it to Lin Yi just as Tang Yun put the clam meat into Lin Yi's mouth. She smiled. "Shield Bro, time to wash down your big wife's clam with your small wife's drink!"

"Greedy Shu, you have no morals! I was just about to give Lin Yi honey the drink!" Xiaoxiao said as she held on to all the drinks, glaring. "What small wife are you. You're not even official! You just say that you are!"

"Hehe, so what? You're the one who was too slow." Yushu said casually.

"Hmph!" Xiaoxiao glared at Yushu, not speaking.

"Alright then, I'll let you do it..." Yushu said after some thought, letting Xiaoxiao have the chance instead. She thought that she was about to die soon—what was the point of fighting with her?

Mengyao and Tang Yun looked at each other- the two of them saw that same bitter smile on their faces! Xiaoxiao and Yushu did need to fight a bit every day.

But getting used to it, it wasn't that big a deal at all—the two didn't mean anything bad by it, and it was just petty squabbles that they had.

After finishing the seafood barbeque, Lin Yi killed the fire and tidied up the trash, putting them all in a plastic bag that they would bring home with them. There was no one here to collect the trash, after all.

As planned, Lin Yi and Xiaoxiao went into the same tent, while Mengyao, Yushu, and Tang Yin went into the other one.

The two tents weren't too far off, nor were they too close, but in such a quiet beach, it would be very hard to hide their sounds if they were actually to do anything at night.

After dinner, Mengyao and Tang Yun pulled Yushu into their tent, leaving Xiaoxiao and Lin Yi.

"We'll go back too?"; The mood was a bit romantic and awkward.

"Yeah..." Xiaoxiao said with a blush. She felt a bit scared now that this was happening—was the legendary thing about to happen soon?

Xiaoxiao was both excited and shy at the same time.

Since she'd decided on Lin Yi already, then it was natural that she would make him her first and last man- the only man in her life!

Xiaoxiao's situation forced her to push away all hesitation and thoughts. Once she'd decided, she had to commit! Other people may have the chance to regret and change their man, but Xiaoxiao didn't have that luxury. None of the members of her mother's family could escape this curse of fate. It had been like that since a long time ago!

And so, she had to decide seriously who her partner was. Once she did, there was no turning back!

Even so, she was getting cold feet as he spent her time alone with Lin Yi in the tent!

She may be brave, but this was the sort of thing that made most girls hesitant and shy!

"What's wrong?" Lin Yi noticed that there was something wrong with Xiaoxiao—the Xiaoxiao now was all fidgeting beside him as if she was sulking or something. This was different from her usual self.

"It's... It's nothing..." Xiaoxiao's heart was still in a struggle!

She kept asking herself: did she like Lin Yi or not? Was this because of revenge, or did she fall in love with him?

She didn't have that many considerations before—from her view, it didn't matter if she was trying to have revenge or if she loved him. Of they did it, then he would love her even more, and he would be sadder still at her death!

But now Xiaoxiao was a bit hesitant! This was a precious thing, after all, the first time... For a girl, it was especially precious! She kind of wanted it, but doing it was a different story.

"Ha... What, you're scared I'll eat you?" Lin Yi joked after seeing how awkward the mood was.

Lin Yi's normal joke had a different context in Xiaoxiao's mind!

Normally, eat you up didn't mean much, but in context...

There were three routes!

The first was that Lin Yi was hungry, and he wanted to eat her into his stomach. This was the original meaning, the same as what a lion would say to a goat.

The second was that he wasn't hungry, but he hated her so much that he wanted to eat her to fulfill his hatred! This happened between two enemies when one would say that he'd fucking eat him or something.

The third was that he wanted to push her down—this was a common way to say this online and in real life! Many people used it!

After all, when a couple was at that point- it was difficult to just say the real words out loud. Using this phrase made it a lot less embarrassing and got to the point.

OR when the girl wanted it, and she wanted to give herself to her boyfriend but didn't want to just say it so coarsely... she'd say, just eat me up!

The first and second type didn't suit the situation right now, but Lin Yi and Xiaoxiao were a couple, and so she thought of the third meaning—she blushed heavily as a result.

"I... I..." Xiaoxiao didn't know what to say.

One look at that blush, and Lin Yi understood—Xiaoxiao had misunderstood him! But Lin Yi didn't have that intention. He was just making a joke, asking her why she was so worried, did she think he was an animal that was going to swallow her?

But Xiaoxiao misunderstood, and he couldn't really explain it. He smiled awkwardly. "I was just joking, let's go—the sea breeze is big here, let's get in the tent."

Chapter 1148: The Plan Begins

"Oh? This means that nothing happened between Lin Yi and Yao Yao?" Jianwen said happily.

"That should be it- their tent is completely capable of holding five people, so if Lin Yi did have anything going on with them, why would he move out with Xiaoxiao on his own?" Taizao analyzed.

"Mm, that's true! So this means that our chances are pretty good? Chu Mengyao probably doesn't like Lin Yi at all. She thinks of him as a shield?" Jianwen slapped his thigh. "Yes, I finally understand why that woman calls him Shield Bro all the time! They treat him as a shield. They have nothing going on with him at all!"

"An Bro, you are a master of deduction! You can be a detective. You're detective potential!" Taizao felt that the words made sense. "I knew it, Chu Pengzhan, being the tiger he was, still wouldn't just give his daughter to him even when Lin Yi has a daughter- that's just stupid unless Lin Yi was some guy from a powerful family, but he was just a shield!"

“Great! We didn’t waste our trip! I believe that if we continue working hard, I’ll get her heart for sure!” Jianwen was utterly motivated. “The plan begins!”

“Plan A? Now?” Taizao paused. “But Yang Ganglou, who’s supposed to carry it out, isn’t here?”

“You’re here, aren’t you? Don’t you know how to carry it out? We made the plan together, so you should know!” Jianwen frowned.

“Ugh... Yes, but the sky’s all black, I’m scared if it’s on my own...” Taizao said as he looked at the darkness outside- other than the moon, there was nothing on the beach!

“Are you serious? You’re pretending to be a ghost. It should be them who’s afraid of you! What do you have to be afraid of? People would be running away from you if they saw you!” Jianwen snarled. “Why are you such a damn wuss?”

“I... Fine!” Taizao took on the task—he couldn’t just let Jianwen be the ghost, right? He was supposed to be the hero who saved Mengyao from him!

At the thought, he got out of his tent and went to the car to prepare.

Mengyao’s tent.

The three girls were applying a face mask, and it was Tang Yun’s first time enjoying something like this, curious and excited. She’d never done it before since they couldn’t afford luxuries like this!

“It’s cold and feels weird...” Tang Yun said as she touched her face curiously, covered by the mask.

“It’s not fair, you never used any face masks, but your skin is still good! It took Yao Yao and me such a long time to maintain, but our skin is only still as good as yours...” Yushu said a little troubled as she inspected Tang Yun’s neck.

“It’s because we’re young... When we get older, I’ll not have skin as good as yours..” Tang Yun smiled but got a bit sadder at the thought.

“It’s not too late now- you can still start and maintain your skin with us, it will still be good in the future, no?” The Miss seemed to have felt the sadness in her words.

It was a little embarrassing to say these things out loud, but she wasn’t someone who would pretend to be something she was not. So what if she was poor?

“Shield Bro has money- he started a medicine company now, and he’ll be a big rich billionaire in the future! My money will be coming from him in the future! Aren’t you a big wife? How come you’re less than a small wife now?” Yushu said.

“Looks pretty easy to me.” Miss finally spoke up.

“Pfft!-” Tang Yun laughed.

“Although, it seems like Lin Yi earns his money with a lot less trouble than my dad does...” Mengyao said seriously. “My dad’s business isn’t that much- but Lin Yi’s company has hundred of millions and hundred of millions of money flowing around after just starting it...”

Hundred million? This was a concept too far away from Tang Yun- she never interacted with it before, it was a number that reached the skies! A few thousand was a huge number to them, let alone a hundred million!

She never thought about how much money he had when she was with him, but even now, she still didn’t think of chasing after his money.

“I guess... I’ll think about that stuff in the futur...” Tang Yun shook her head.

“Nope.” Tang Yun shook her head.

“You’re so generous.” Yushu looked at Tang Yun, thinking that she was lying.

“Not as generous as you—always talking about being the small wife,” Tang Yun retorted.

“It was just a joke at the start...” Miss was getting embarrassed. “Back then, we were worried about Lin Yi’s safety, so that’s why we said it... It’s not like that at all.”

“Yao Yao sis, why don’t you admit it? You said you liked Shield Bro, didn’t you?” Yushu was panicking a little.

“When did I say that? I said I don’t like him!” Mengyao corrected.

“Is that so? Did I remember wrong?” Yushu scratched her head, feeling down. “Man, how am I supposed to be a small wife, then?”

Tang Yun was also aware of the Miss’ personality after interacting with her this past while- she knew that she didn’t mean what she said and that she wanted to save face. Whether or not Mengyao liked Lin Yi was clear to Tang Yun, who was Lin Yi’s girlfriend and especially sensitive to these things. But, since she wasn’t going to admit it, there was no reason for Tang Yun to expose her.

At least, the Miss was nice to her all the time now, with no hostility.

Everything lay in the choices of Lin Yi- if he did choose Mengyao and Yushu over her, there wasn’t much she could do.

Chapter 1149: Who’s Scaring Who?

Lin Yi had expressed to her his feelings more than once, but she felt that Lin Yi was too good for her. It made her feel insecure! Especially when she was unable to help out with anything. She felt like a vase, something you could only look at but not use!

“Let’s not talk about that...” Mengyao shook her head. “It’s May first already, one more month left before graduation. What school are you thinking of applying to, Tang Yun?”

“I don’t know.” Tang Yun shook her head. “But I’ll apply to the one Lin Yi applies to. What about you guys?”

“Us...” Mengyao curled her lips. She wanted to be in the same college with Lin Yi as well, naturally, but she just said that she didn’t like him. Why would she do this if she didn’t like him?

“Maybe we could go to the same college? We’ll be good friends together and look after each other?” Tang Yun’s heart felt a little sourness. It seemed that Mengyao had feelings for Lin Yi after all, but Tang Yun wasn’t the type of enemy who would use unfair tactics. After seeing her intentions, Tang Yun decided to be generous and open and make the invitation.

“Yeah, that’s good too. I don’t have many friends... Other than Shu, it’s just you and Lin Yi...” Mengyao calmed down a bit as she spoke.

“What do you guys think Lin Yi and Xiaoxiao are doing over there right now?” Yushu interrupted.

“How are we supposed to know?” The Miss frowned. Lin Yi doing that with another girl didn’t make her too comfortable, and even though she was about to die soon, Mengyao was still hesitant about it.

Of course, she still understood logically that she should support the two’s relationship.

“Well, do you want Master Spy Shu to go check for you, see what they’re up to?” Yushu said as she peeked outside the door.

“You go if you want. We’re not the ones sending you...” Mengyao wanted to know now, after what Yushu said- but she was too embarrassed to admit it.

“I don’t know... I’m not involved...” Tang Yun shook her head.

“Okay, I’ll go check then.” Yushu was getting excited. She wouldn’t be Chen Yushu if she didn’t peek!

Mengyao and Tang Yun looked at each other. Tang Yun was the most involved with Lin Yi- she knew about what they might do, and she had accepted it in her heart. It didn’t matter whether or not she checked.

Mengyao, on the other hand, couldn’t go join in with Shu- wouldn’t that mean she cared for Lin Yi? She didn’t!

Taizao was already wearing a black raincoat, his hands with rubble gloves as his heart thumped- he was heading for Mengyao’s tent!

Jianwen had already made the preparations. The moment Mengyao screamed, he would jump out and rush to save her! After all, it seemed that Lin Yi and that Feng girl should be doing that kind of stuff, and he wouldn’t have time to save Mengyao if she screamed. This task fell on him!

Taizao was actually very scared. He was pretending to be a ghost, but he was more worried still that he'd bump into a real one! He was only a fake, after all, and he knew that very well, he would be screwed if he met a real one!

"Please, gods in heaven, don't let me meet a ghost..." Taizao chanted as he walked on.

Yushu walked out to see a black figure exiting Jianwen's tent—she wondered what that was all about.

And so, she didn't go to Xiaoxiao and Lin Yi's place, but crouched down on the sand to hide—she wanted to know what this black figure was up to!

Taizao was already scared enough, and he wouldn't be looking left and right! Put that with Yushu's excellent hiding abilities. He wasn't able to see her at all!

"Is this An Jianwen or Su Taizao? What is he planning to do? What's with the raincoat, it's not raining? Is he trying to dive?" Yushu mumbled to herself as she kept her eyes on him.

Taizao pressed on forward carefully, looking back sometimes as if worried something was following him.

"This Yang Ganglou, what stupid idea is this? Not coming and making me be the ghost... it's damn scary out here!" Taizao mumbled as he gritted his teeth, trying to finish the mission.

Seeing Taizao getting closer and closer to their tent, Yushu decided to ask what this guy was planning to do!

And so, she climbed up from the sand, and ran behind Taizao, tapping his shoulder.

"What... What's touching me?" Taizao's body tensed up—he'd been looking behind him after a couple steps the whole time, and there was nothing there! What could this be?

"It's you. An Bro, don't scare me... It's you right..." Taizao said weakly. "An Bro, I'm not a brave person, don't scare me... How am I supposed to scare Chu Mengyao as a ghost if you scare me first..."

Yushu now knew that he was Taizao, but she didn't expect for him to be such a coward! So he was planning on scaring Yao Yao sis. That's why he was wearing this outfit, and putting on the raincoat hood as well, along with rubber gloves!

So he wanted to be a ghost? Fine, she'd show him what a ghost looked like

"An Bro, what is it... Why don't you talk?" Taizao was carefully turning back- but his hairs all stood up from the shivers once he saw the sight!

A pale-faced ghost in white, sticking her tongue out at him, right behind him!

Yushu's face was covered in a facial mask, and she was wearing white sleeping robes, too- put that with her stuck out tongue, and she looked the same as the traditional ghost of legends, especially when they were under the moonlight! Taizao was worried about ghosts in the first place, so seeing this only eradicated him!

“Ghost- Ah!! It’s a ghost!!” Taizao screamed as he ran away!

Yushu grinned evilly, putting out a victory hand sign. This guy really was a coward. Why was he pretending to be a ghost with those guts?

Chapter 1150: Ghosts Everywhere

Mengyao was getting worried that Yushu hadn’t gotten back yet after so long. Where was she?

There weren’t any dangers on the beach at night, but it was dark. What if some accident had happened? She scolded her all the time, but she cared about her.

“Yun Yun, where do you think Shu went? It’s been so long?” Mengyao was getting worried.

“Yeah, what if something happened?” Tang Yun was the same. She was love rivals with the two, but they were still good friends! She didn’t want anything to happen to them, or she wouldn’t have called Lin Yi to save Mengyao back then otherwise.

“I’ll go take a look!” Mengyao said after some hesitation.

“I’ll go with you?” Tang Yun sat up.

“It’s fine. I’ll go alone—she’d get worried if she came back to see no one in the tent,” Mengyao said.

Mengyao walked out of the tent, but it took only a couple of steps before she noticed a black figure running towards her, screaming ‘ghosts! Ghosts!’ as he ran.

Taizao didn’t dare look back as he charged forward, feeling that he was the most unfortunate man alive, bumping into a real ghost? Could his actions have angered the spirit since he mimicked it?

Taizao didn’t dare stop—he kept running from the ghost behind him!

Taizao raised his head subconsciously, and he saw that the white-faced ghost from earlier was right in front of him, some distance away!

“Ahhhh, F*CK!” Taizao was already in a panic. How did this ghost move so fast? He didn’t even see anything, and now it was in front of her! But then, she was a ghost. Of course, she’d be faster!

Taizao thought that Mengyao was Yushu! It was under the moonlight, after all, and in a panic, one wouldn’t differentiate between the two girls’ white faces and white sleeping gowns. Yushu wasn’t as tall as Mengyao, but he wasn’t in the state to consider such details!

He was even more afraid once he confirmed that Mengyao was the ghost from before. He noticed another tent some distance away- Yushu, Mengyao, and Tang Yun’s tent!

A burst of energy hit him as he charged to the tent to take cover- there was no time to deal with the mission now, and he didn't care if they would laugh at a man like him for running! He'd rather hide behind the girls than die!

Mengyao was also quite confused at his actions! A black figure was charging over scared her. It was the middle of the night. It'd scare anyone!

But hearing the guy scream made it clear that he was Su Taizao! She was no longer afraid of then. Why would she be afraid of a guy like him?

What was that he was screaming about? Ghosts?

Taizao was screaming about ghosts, and so Mengyao looked behind Taizao- there were no ghosts, only a happy and excited Shu waving her hand!

Shu ran over to Mengyao, smiling so hard she couldn't even walk steadily.

"Shu, what're you doing? What's up with Su Taizao?" Mengyao didn't know why the guy was running like a madman, but it had to be Shu! It was clearly here look at that smile on her face!

"Hehe, Yao Yao, you think I look like a ghost?" Yushu spat out her tongue. "Woooooh, I'm a ghost..."

"Pfft-!" Mengyao started laughing a well- so this was why Taizao was running around, Yushu was the ghost he was talking about! "I was wondering why he looked so scared to see me, he thought I was a ghost!"

"Haha, yeah, Yao Yao- we're sisters after all! Nice teamwork!" Yushu nodded happily. "Su Taizao probably thought I could teleport or something, jumping right in front of him! Oh, where is he?"

"Ah- I think he charged into our tent!" Mengyao jumped. "What about Tang Yun?"

"Oh? He went into the tent? Then we've got some fun on our hands! I wonder if Yun Yun sis would be able to finish the job?" Yushu's eyes lit up.

"Finish the job?" Mengyao paused.

"Yeah, we'll be able to see if Yun Yun sis is a good candidate to be our sister from now on!" Yushu nodded seriously.

Mengyao understood some part of that. There was an underlying meaning to the term 'sister'! Mengyao cleared her throat. "Don't just say stuff like that, Shu. We need to go check on Tang Yun!"

Taizao was already in the tent—he thought that he was safe now! He breathed out in relief. "Great, I'm home!"

Taizao's sudden visit took Tang Yun by complete surprise!

If he didn't speak up, she wouldn't even know that this was Su Taizao! It was dimmer in here than outside, after all, and Tang Yun didn't understand why this guy was in her tent. Where were Mengyao and Yushu?

Tang Yun stared at Taizao, confused. He also raised his head at the same time, catching his breath when he saw Tang Yun, sitting some distance in front of him!

“Shit, why’s the ghost in the tent?!!” Taizao jumped up—wasn’t this Mengyao, Yushu, and Tang Yun’s tent? Where were they, why was there a ghost here?!
