

Bodyguard 1191

Chapter 1191: Call Him Over

If it weren't for the honest looking style Goudan had, Yushu wouldn't even bother with him.

"So, you're intent on protecting the lion?" Goudan frowned, thinking that this girl was quite tyrannical. So he had to use force after all?

Mengyao frowned slightly- this was a difficult matter. Yushu was right, but this guy at the front wasn't wrong either to want revenge on the lion.

"Dear sir, the lion is just an animal. How is he supposed to know who to bite and who not to? If it weren't for the owner, it wouldn't just go biting people!" Mengyao explained. "Look at him now, now that he's in my house he's not biting anyone!"

"That's..." Goudan was at a loss of words. He wasn't good with words in the first place! But if he were to leave just like this, it wouldn't sit well with him! Even if they were right, he couldn't just let this lion go just like that! He sighed. "Alright, since he bit my friend's mother's leg, I'll break his leg then!"

"No way!" Yushu was getting worried- she just found herself a yard guardian. What was he supposed to do if he got his leg broken? She was starting to get pissed now that the talk with this guy wasn't getting through to him. She wasn't the type to be amicable and avoid confrontation, after all. "If you still won't leave, I'll let this lion's boss punish you!"

"The lion's boss?" Goudan paused. "The lion has a boss? Alright, fine- if his boss comes out to pay for his disciple's mistake, that works too!"

"This is the lion's boss, General Weiwu! If you don't leave, I'll let this dog out! Why are you so stubborn?" Yushu pointed at General Weiwu.

"That dog?" Goudan looked at Weiwu. He didn't look down on him or anything, but just how animals had he killed? Of course, he wouldn't be scared. "Open the door and let him out then, I'll break his leg- that works."

Goudan was an honest and straightforward man- he didn't come for money or anything; he just wanted to settle the matter! Like many victims, he just wanted the perpetrator to pay for what they did! Money was secondary.

"If you can, you come in yourself!" Of course, Yushu wouldn't open the door for him.

Goudan didn't want to do this the rough way, but since Yushu wasn't reasonable, he had no choice! He held onto the iron front gate and pulled it lightly, pulling it out as if it were a soft material.

"Holy-!" Yushu's eyes went wide. "You're that powerful?"

Weiwu was feeling lazy at first, but seeing him display such strength made him stand upright as he went on alert, focusing on him!

This person was dangerous! Just looking at what happened to the gate made him come to the conclusion that this was beyond his league! He didn't dare attack, but stood in front of Mengyao and Yushu, defending their safety. The lion... He might not be able to protect him.

Weiwu's behavior, naturally, was seen by Yushu- one look at him, and she knew that it was in a boss fight mode! Weiwu might not be a match for Goudan!

Seeing Goudan coming for Weiwu, Yushu called out to stop him! "Wait a minute!"

Goudan was about to grab Weiwu when he froze at the call. He raised his head. "What? Do you want me to beat the lion or the dog?"

Goudan naturally thought that Yushu had seen his strength, and didn't want Weiwu to be fighting anymore.

"Wait, if you want to touch this dog, you need to get his boss' approval first!" Yushu felt that she needed Lin Yi to deal with this problem now.

"This dog's boss? Isn't he yours?" Goudan blinked, confused. Where were all these bosses coming from?

Yes, he's mine, but he also has a boss!" Yushu said. "This dog's boss is really strong, and if he knows what you did to his dog, he wouldn't just let you leave! Don't think that breaking the iron gates is very amazing. Our Shield Bro can do that with ease! The last time the iron gate caught my boobs in it, Shield Bro pulled them open too!"

Yushu accidentally gave too much information.

"Shu!" Mengyao didn't know if she should be amused- why was she bringing out these embarrassing things?

As expected, Goudan was blushing already! Wasn't this girl too brave, saying stuff like that? He spoke helplessly. "Alright then, tell the dog's boss to come out- I'll talk with him, that has to be fine, right?"

Goudan felt that Yushu really was complicating things! When he went to House Xiao, they were all going crazy, and so he just did things the rough way! But now, the opponent was using her words, not her fists, so he couldn't just beat them up this time, could he? They were girls, too, and they weren't even really involved in what the lion did! Goudan recognized that much.

But the problem was that, even if he were reasonable, this girl in front of him wasn't! Goudan wasn't smart, too. Of course, he wouldn't be able to beat her in a fight of words! She was mixing things around, and now he was going to fight some Shield Bro for some reason? What about the lion?

"If Shield Bro comes, you'd be conquered! I'd advise leaving now. Otherwise, you'll regret getting beat up!" Yushu threatened. "You even broke our door. You know what happened to the last guy who did that?"

"I don't..." Goudan shook his head.

"Shield Bro killed him in one hit!" Yushu said.

“Ugh...” Goudan was thinking- why did this guy seem to have a similar style of going about things, killing with one hit? But he wasn’t afraid. “I just want to settle this issue. Tell the Shield Bro guy to come out!”

“Oh, okay then- since you want to get beat up so badly, I’ll let your wish come true!” With that, Yushu turned to Weiwu. “General Weiwu, go tell Shield Bro that someone wants to get beat up by him!”

Chapter 1192: You Know Him?

Goudan felt speechless upon hearing Yushu’s words- the dog couldn’t speak! Did she watch too many cartoons?

Lin Yi was currently training in his room, practicing. He didn’t put his focus on the yard, and he knew that Mengyao and Yushu were training the lion with Weiwu, so there wouldn’t be any danger. Weiwu would alert him if anything happened.

Hearing Weiwu bark, he quickly returned to reality and walked out of the villa, bumping into Weiwu.

“What’s wrong?” Lin Yi asked as he walked- the yard didn’t seem to be in as much danger as he thought, the two girls seemed fine.

“Shield Bro, some villager came to cause you trouble!” Yushu pointed at Goudan.

“Cause trouble?” Lin Yi blinked as he looked in her direction... He paused, surprised!

“Ah? Boss?” Goudan’s eyes were wide as well as he stared at Lin Yi- never would he have thought that he’d meet Lin Yi here!

“Er Goudan? You came?” Lin Yi didn’t know if he should be amused- it seemed that Yushu had misunderstood him as a villain because he didn’t explain properly.

“Boss, I finally found you!” Goudan was extremely excited and passionate. He hugged Lin Yi instantly. “Boss, this is great. I finally found you!”

Lin Yi naturally thought that Goudan had come using the address Old Lin gave him. He never would’ve thought that he had come for the lion! But Yushu and Mengyao, on the other hand, were very much confused.

“What’s going on?” Mengyao was confusedly looking at them- they knew each other?

“Oh, see, I told you, anyone, who saw Shield Bro would submit! Look, Yao Yao, I’m Prophet Shu, after all!” Yushu said gleefully.

“...” Mengyao was a bit speechless, but she had to admit that Yushu’s sixth sense was rather accurate...

“Right, why did you take so many days to come? Old Lin said you departed a few days before?” Lin Yi asked curiously. He knew that he wasn’t weak and that nothing bad would’ve happened, but it had been quite a few days.

“Boss, when I got off the train, I got scammed by a girl...” Goudan said bitterly. “Not only did I lose the money, but I even lost the address...I couldn’t find you!”

“Oh? Then how did you find me? Did You find the scammer?” Lin Yi blinked, not expecting Goudan just to get scammed right after getting off! Although it wasn’t a surprise that that happened since it was his first time out in the city.

“No, I came here to look for the lion, and I didn’t think I would find you here!” Goudan suddenly paused. “Boss, you’re not this dog’s boss, are you?”

“Dog?” Lin Yi blinked and looked at Weiwu, smiling. “I guess so...”

“Ugh... I see...” Goudan was in a difficult spot indeed! If it was another guy protecting this dog, then Goudan would use his fist to kill any stubborn resistance, but this was Lin Yi, his boss! He wanted to get some payback for Miss Yu, but he couldn’t et that from his boss Lin Yi!

“Right, what is this thing with the lion?” Lin Yi remembered what Goudan was talking about.

“Well, you see...” Goudan told everything to him.

“So you’re saying you injured both masters at House Pi?” Lin Yi didn’t know if he should be amused or what- he’d been researching about those two masters with Uncle Fu these days, and while he was confident that he’d be able to fight on par with them, he had no guarantee of victory. Goudan coming along and solving everything was out of his expectations!

“Yeah, I didn’t want to beat him, but the old guy kept wanting me to, saying his skin itched, and so I had no choice! But I accidentally went heavy on him and broke his leg...” Goudan scratched his head embarrassedly.

“His skin wasn’t itchy. His name is Pi Yangyang...” Lin Yi was pretty sympathetic about how the guy had met his match- even his name made you want to beat him up. He was pretty unlucky. He understood right away since Uncle Fu already told him the name.

“Hahahaha!” Yushu started laughing loudly. “Pi Yangyang... You actually thought he was saying that his skin was itching, haha!”

Mengyao was also holding back her laughter-what sort of name was this?

“Huh? His name is Pi Yangyang?” Only then did Goudan realize after the explanation, “So he wasn’t itching or anything? Now I’m feeling bad...”

“He didn’t fight back?” Lin Yi looked at Goudan, curious. He’d believe that Goudan could beat Yangyang, but how did he manage to break his leg like that? Did Yangyang just lay there and let him beat him up?

“No, he kept protecting his body...” Goudan said.

“You got lucky.” Lin Yi shook his head with a bitter smile, although he didn’t feel bad for Yangyang in the slightest. It had nothing to do with him.

“Shield Bro, you know him? He’s your follower?” Yushu knew that the two knew each other at this point, and they seemed to be quite close, too.

“Yeah, we know each other, from the same village. We grew up together.” Lin Yi said. “Let me introduce you guys- he’s Zhou Jiaming, called Er Goudan!” Er Goudan, this is Chu Mengyao, my employer, and this is her best friend, Chen Yushu...”

“Nice to meet you...” Goudan said, a little embarrassed. So this was his boss’s employer? He was raising his voice and causing a scene, too... The boss wasn’t pissed about that, was he?

Chapter 1193: Female Scammer Visits

“Oh, since you’re Shield Bro’s follower, you’re my follower too! Hi, I’m Shield Bro’s small wife, nice to meet you! You can call me little sis-in-law!” Yushu said as she sized up Goudan, Lin Yi’s best friend from the village.

“Small sis-in-law? Small wife?” Goudan wasn’t familiar with stuff like this, but he didn’t ask too many questions on their first meeting. “Nice to meet you... I’m sorry for before...”

“It’s okay. We’re a family now!” Yushu didn’t mind. “But since you’re Shield Bro’s follower, then the lion is considered your follower too. You wouldn’t need to confront it for revenge now that he’s your follower, right?”

“I... I guess not...” Goudan shook his head after thinking about it. Since this lion was his follower, he was the lion’s boss- he would be confronting himself then! Of course, he wouldn’t do that.

“Hello!” Mengyao officially nodded to Goudan, extending her hand, “My name is Chu Mengyao, don’t listen to Lin Yi- I used to be his employer, but now we’re good friends. I asked him to stay here and protect Shu and me!

She didn’t know why, but she didn’t want to be labeled as Lin Yi’s employer. She liked that title at first, and always used it to threaten him, but she started to dislike it as time went by.

“My... My hand is dirty...” Goudan blushed, too embarrassed to hold her hand.

Mengyao didn’t mind. She smiled and pulled her hand back to prevent awkwardness.

“Lin Yi, since Yu Yuanyuan’s mom got bitten by the tiger. Maybe you could hurry and check it for her and heal it?” Mengyao also was aware of the situation with Goudan. Since Lin Yi was a very good doctor, he must have a way.

“Yeah, that sounds good- I’ll go see what I can do!” Lin Yi nodded.

“Boss, no need to rush it...” Goudan was getting embarrassed. It wasn’t that he wasn’t worried about Miss Yu, but he couldn’t just let Lin Yi drop all his matters and go fix his problems, could he? “Boss, this is the medicine you wanted me to bring to you, here it is! You need this to save someone, right? Use this to heal the person first. I’ve already delayed you a lot by being late...”

Goudan took out a bottle of liquid for Lin Yi.

“Don’t worry. This isn’t an emergency.” Lin Yi sighed after taking the bottle. “It’s all old injuries, so it wouldn’t be a problem for another small delay. Your friend’s mom should still be in pain, however. We should tend to her first!”

“Then... Then thanks, boss!” Goudan said gratefully.

“No need for thanks between us!” Lin Yi slapped him on the shoulder. “Wait a bit. I’ll change my clothes and go with you.”

“Alright!” Goudan nodded.

Lin Yi turned and entered the villa, leaving Mengyao, Yushu, and Goudan.

“Why didn’t you kill that old Xiao girl, too!” Yushu said regrettably as she looked at Goudan. “She really is annoying!”

“That’s... I can’t just kill someone without reason...” Goudan scratched his head. Boss’s small wife sure was fierce, as expected of his boss!

“Man, what a waste! They got lucky!” Yushu shook her head.

“Um... I wanted to ask- are you really Lin Yi’s small wife?” Goudan said as he looked at the pretty Yushu- he didn’t understand why someone so pretty would want to be a small wife! Even though the husband was someone as heroic as Lin Yi, Goudan was still surprised.

“That’s right!” Yushu nodded seriously. “Didn’t you see I already live with Shield Bro now? Don’t ask something so shallow!”

“Shu, what are you saying?” Mengyao interrupted helplessly, glaring at her before turning to Goudan. “Don’t listen to her. Lin Yi has a girlfriend already.”

“Oh...” Goudan didn’t know who to believe- he should save this question for Lin Yi.

As they waited for Lin Yi, a knocking came from outside the villa!

Mengyao, Yushu, and Goudan heard the knocking and turned- it was a girl in front of the villa!

This girl didn’t know Mengyao or Yushu, but Goudan knew her! His eyes reddened instantly.

It was You Xiaoke!

To be honest, Xiaoke didn’t feel that it was right to visit Goudan now- she didn’t have enough money yet, and she was thinking of waiting a while and continuing her thieving duties after things calmed down!

But something went wrong with the orphanage again, even more unfortunate than last time!

The orphanage’s kid was helping out in the kitchen when a knife fell on his foot- it didn’t seem like at first since it wasn’t a big injury. They only bandaged it.

But it started swelling a few days later, and only then did she come to Xiaoke, who gave her some medicine, to no effect. The wound was getting rotten, too, and Xiao Yan even started getting a fever.

It frightened Xiaoke! Worried that it might've been the rust on the knife resulting in this infection, Xiaoke quickly brought her to the hospital, and now the orphanage had no money left. They were already saving money to eat, so who had that much to go pay for the doctor?

Xiaoke didn't have a choice anymore- she thought about it, and remembered the kind man in the train station, Goudan! This was a kind and passionate person who used all his money on him! She thought that it was bad to ask him for money again, but she had no choice, no other way! And so she came.

"I didn't expect that we'd meet each other so soon again?" Goudan walked over- the only thing keeping him from beating her up being her pretty face.

Chapter 1194: Borrowing Money Again

"Yeah, I came to find you..." Xiaoke naturally didn't know that Goudan thought she was a scammer, not sensing the tone Goudan was using.

"Came to find me?" Goudan thought that this was a coincidence, thinking that Xiaoke had come here to scam people, not thinking that she came for him!

"Yeah... I really must thank you for what you did last time! But... I'm in some trouble again... My friend got hurt, and he needs a big amount of medical fees... Can you lend me a bit more? Don't worry. I'll return it all for you with interest when I earn money!" Xiaoke said with a pat on her chest.

"What? You want to borrow money again?" Goudan's eyes went wide. Did this girl think he was a damn idiot? He'd already fallen for it once. If he did so again, then he'd really be stupid!

"I really have no choice... I know you're a good guy, can you lend me some more..." Xiaoke said pitifully.

"Goudan, the scammer you mentioned was her? This can't be that much of a coincidence, right?" Yushu knew that these two knew each other before- and probably that Goudan had gotten his money scammed by her!

"I... I'm not a scammer, I really will return it. I always kept your address with me... Otherwise, I wouldn't be able to find you!" Xiaoke jumped after hearing Yushu's words, instantly realizing what was up with Goudan's attitude. He thought he lied to her. No wonder his tone was so rough!

"Address?" Goudan blinked. "You're saying you came here using the address I gave you?"

Goudan thought that it was a coincidence, but Xiaoke's explanation cleared that up. Even so, Goudan really found it hard to believe her after all! He'd spent a while with Yuanyuan, who told her a lot of the world and about common scammer tactics, especially with what happened to Yu Ren. She decided to raise his awareness of scammers.

"Yeah, here-" Xiaoke took out the address and showed it to Goudan.

"You said that your friend got hurt, and he needs medical fees, right?" Goudan asked.

"Yes." Xiaoke nodded.

“Lair! You think I’m an idiot, how come your family and friends are always in the hospital? Can’t you use a different scam excuse?” Goudan exposed her right away.

“I...” Xiaoke didn’t know what to say- but she didn’t know how to explain this either... But it seemed now that she wouldn’t be getting any money from here anymore. “If you don’t believe me, then it’s fine... I’ll think of some other way, but the money I owe you, I’ll return to you for sure!”

“Wait! Do you think you can run just like that? I’m going to bring you to the police station!” Goudan really couldn’t do anything physical to a girl like this, so the only way was to send her to the station.

“That-! You can’t...” Xiaoke jumped- what would all those orphans do if that happened? How was it supposed to function without her, especially when these were tough times?

And so, Xiaoke subconsciously turned to run, only to have her arm grabbed by Goudan. “Where do you think you’re going?”

With Goudan’s strength, there was no way she was getting out- she realized that it was impossible after trying to move out of the iron grip a few times. “Not now, I can’t go to jail. I can’t! What about a while later, after I arrange everything? If you want to go with you to the police station, I’ll go with you then...”

“Where am I supposed to go find you after you leave?” Goudan didn’t buy it.

“I’ll be able to find you. I have your address...” Xiaoke said carefully.

“You think I’m an idiot?!” Goudan was getting pissed. “You’re like a fox, a cunning fox! I can’t let you go!”

Lin Yi had just finished changing and was leaving the villa with two bottles of injury medicine when he heard Goudan yelling. It was someone he knew- You Xiaoke! Goudan was holding her arm.

“What’s going on? You guys know each other?” Lin Yi walked over with a smile.

Xiaoke didn’t think that she’d be able to see Lin Yi here, and she felt like she’d met her savior! “Lin Yi, help! He’s trying to get me to the police station...”

“Police station?” Lin Yi blinked but remembering something instantly. “Er Goudan, that scammer you mentioned, isn’t her right?”

She called Lin Yi by his name, so this meant they knew each other.

Lin Yi frowned. With what he knew of Xiaoke. Things weren’t as it seemed. He was getting scammed by Xiaoke? She was a master thief, the best at stealing, so there was no need for her to scam anyone?

If she wanted his money, she would’ve just silently got it. Why would she go the roundabout way of scamming? With her situation in the orphanage, too, it was understandable that she’d be trying to raise money outside when someone from the orphanage was sick.

And, even if Xiaoke really did scam Goudan, why would she come back a second time? “Xiaoke, why did you come here?”

Xiaoke put all her hope on Lin Yi as she explained her situation.

Lin Yi didn't think she was lying after hearing her out. He'd seen the orphanage, after all, and her words were most likely true. Someone was hurt!

If it was an infection from rust, it'd get really serious if you didn't treat it. And so he decided to go take a look at Xiao Yan at the hospital, delaying the thing with Miss Yu since she'd had that injury for a while now.

Chapter 1195: Talk Between Bros

With that thought, Lin Yi spoke up. "You say that a kid at the orphanage got an infection? I'll go check it out for you and treat her."

Xiaoke paused- Lin Yi was a doctor? She didn't know that. "You're... A Doctor?"

"Didn't I heal your injuries back then?" Lin Yi smiled.

"Didn't you... use qi for that?" Xiaoke blinked. "Isn't that different?"

"I'm also a doctor." Lin Yi smiled.

Lin Yi could simply give Xiaoke some money and let her bring Xiao Yan to the hospital herself since it wasn't a big deal. But he wanted to confirm if Xiaoke was lying or not.

He did lean towards believing her, but she was a thief, after all, and he didn't know her that well. There was no guarantee that she was telling the truth all the time. Doing this would help verify what she said to Goudan, too.

Of course, if Xiaoke were telling the truth, he wouldn't mind helping her- he'd been touched by her spirit, after all. As he spent time here, he felt like he synchronized with the people around him. He wasn't that cold person he used to be anymore.

Lin Yi didn't try to resist his change in his heart, either. He needed to adapt to this life.

"Then... Thank you!" Xiaoke said, not doubting Lin Yi's words.

"You're welcome." Lin Yi smiled and turned to Goudan. "Let's go see together?"

"Alright!" Goudan wanted to see if she was a liar or not, too. If she were, he'd punish her then. If not, then he had wronged her, and that'd make him feel better about losing the money. At least his kindness wasn't wasted.

"Shield Bro, I want to go too!" Yushu wanted to see what the orphanage was like, too.

"Then we'll go together." Lin Yi didn't stop her. Mengyao and Yushu weren't very wasteful, but their understanding of money was shallow. Letting them see the orphans' lives would be quite educational. "I'll drive Shu's Beetle with Goudan. Xiaoke, you can sit with Shu's car?"

It had been a long time since Lin Yi met Goudan, and naturally, there were things he wanted to talk to him about in private.

“Alright.” Mengyao nodded as the three of them went for the Audi S5.

The two cars drove out of the villa, with Lin Yi in front.

“Is Yu Yuanyuan a girl you like?” Judging from the way Goudan talked about her, he could tell something was up. “How did you meet her?”

“Haha...” Goudan scratched his head embarrassedly. “You saw through me after all, Boss. I do like her quite a bit. I want to bring her back to be my wife...”

“Oh?” Lin Yi didn’t expect that Goudan would be touched enough to want to marry her. He was curious. “How long have you been here? A couple of days? What happened?”

“Well, it’s a long story...” Goudan told everything to Lin Yi, from when he got scammed on the train, and when he went to the burger shop and leading to his fight with Fighter Li...”

Lin Yi almost choked on his cough she listened to this story- what a story it was! Goudan went to the arena and killed the Fighter Li guarding that place? The guy sure was unlucky to have met him.

“Did the arena come to cause you trouble later?” Lin Yi asked, surprised.

“No, but they sent someone to pay us money.” Goudan shook his head

Lin Yi nodded. It was natural. They were probably horrified of what happened.

“And then Miss Yu got bitten by the lion, and you came looking for justice?” Lin Yi asked.

“Yeah, I didn’t expect to be able to meet you, boss!” Goudan was a bit excited.

“Then what about Yu Yuanyuan? Does she like you?” Lin Yi knew that this was the first time Goudan liked someone, and he didn’t want him to get hurt. Yuanyuan’s attitude was important.

“I think so, probably...” Goudan nodded after some thought. “Plus, her parents treat me very nicely, too, and her father even wants me to stay here and help him with his shop...”

“But, can you leave West Star village? The fountain? You have to go back eventually.” Lin Yi reminded with a frown. “Will Yu Yuanyuan go back with you?”

“She... I don’t know...” Goudan blinked, remembering his special situation despite not having thought about it much recently. He couldn’t leave the fountain for too long.

Yuanyuan liking her was something Goudan was pretty certain of, but telling a girl to go to some village and give up city life? This really wasn’t something to look forward to. Even Goudan didn’t want to leave after witnessing what a city was like, let alone Yuanyuan.

And so, Goudan was in a difficult position.

“Find a chance to talk to her about it- this sort of thing should be addressed,” Lin Yi knew that Goudan might lose her if they were to make the talk, but blurring through everything wasn’t a good solution at all. “You’ve used your strength twice, right? The parasites in your body will start attacking you if they don’t have the fountain’s nourishment. You probably won’t last long this time.”

“Yeah...” Goudan sighed. “I’ll find a time to talk to her about it.”

Lin Yi nodded. He could only give him pointers, this wasn't his issue, after all. It all depended on the relationship between the two. Thinking of Yuanyuan, Lin Yi couldn't help but remember Tang Yin, a determined and stubborn girl.

She was willing to throw everything behind and go back to the village last time, and this really touched him- he swore that he'd treat her well for her entire life. Thinking back to her time with her- although a bit normal and bland- it was a happy and fond memory.

Sometimes, you didn't need too many twists and turns in a relationship – a nice calm one was the best.

Chapter 1196: Give Me One Too

Lin Yi parked the car in front of the orphanage. One look at that run-down building and Lin Yi felt that things were hard on Xiaoke, for her to be holding up this entire place on her own.

In the car, Xiaoke had been talking to Mengyao and Yushu about a lot of things regarding the orphanage as well, telling them about the kids there and how sad their situation was. Although, words didn't do them justice at all.

If it weren't for Lin Yi coming here today, Mengyao and Yushu would never find out about this orphanage in Songshan for their entire lives! They did donate money before, but it was always to some far away poor district. They would have never thought that there'd be a poor place like this right in the middle of Songshan city!

"It looks run-down, doesn't it..." Xiaoke felt awkward- these two were clearly rich people, and coming here wouldn't bode well with them at all.

"Is this the orphanage? Are there a lot of kids here? They live here every day?" Mengyao said, unable to hold back the questions as she saw the place.

"Yes, this is it!" Xiaoke nodded, "The kids here never received a parent's love since their childhood, and the headmaster and I are the only ones who try our best to take care of them, but we lack funding, so the life we provide for them isn't the best..."

Xiaoke had just arrived when Xiao Ken came running out of the red brick building, "Xiaoke sis, you're finally back! Xiao Yan fainted!"

"What?!" Xiaoke jumped in shock after hearing the words- she was having a fever right when she left, and her mood wasn't really good either. Xiaoke really was getting worried. She didn't think that leaving to find Goudan would result in her fainting!

Lin Yi and Goudan got off the car, as well, and Goudan believed everything Xiaoke said to him upon seeing the building. He felt a bit bad for misunderstanding the situation earlier- she really was a nice person, and if she had known that the money would be used for the orphans, he wouldn't even have wanted to ask the money back!

Lin Yi heard Xiao Ken's words, as well, "Bring me there!"

Xiao Ken knew Lin Yi, and so he didn't hesitate much as he nodded, bringing him into the dorms of the orphanage. This was the factory type of longhouse, and there were dozens of beds in the house. The house was old, and the beds were rusted, but the sheets were folded neatly.

Xiao Yan was on one of the beds.

The girl was around ten years old, and she was already helping out in the kitchen! But that was how it was in the orphanage. They had no extra money to be hiring help at all; all the chores being done here were all led by Xiao Ken and the kids! Xiaoke could earn money, but the headmaster was old and wasn't very healthy anymore.

The girl's face was pale, and her forehead heated. Lin Yi extended her hand and checked the girl's tongue and nerves before breathing out in relief. "It's infection from rust. I'll handle the wound first and write you guys a recipe- Yao Yao and Shu, you guys, mind going to the pharmacy for me?"

"Sure!" Mengyao nodded without thinking about it- she really felt touched with the situation here. She didn't really believe beforehand, but coming here and seeing the sick Xiao Yan herself, she realized just how hard life was here. If she was able to help her, she'd do it!

She'd decided- she'd give all her allowance to this orphanage, trying her best to help out for these kids!

Lin Yi helped the sleeping Xiao Yan treat her wounds before putting on the Miracle Doctor Guan medicine, leaving the rest to Xiaoke, "Alright, it should be fine now. I'll leave half a bottle here if there's a wound in the future use it right away. It will have gotten this bad if you do that next time."

"One bottle is one hundred ninety-nine, no way I can afford that?" Xiaoke sighed. "We use the cheapest red medicine here..."

"That medicine is fine for some small wounds, but this is a knife wound. You can't let problems happen just to save money, right?" Lin Yi didn't know what to say to Xiaoke's words. "With the money, you steal all the time, you can't even afford a bottle of medicine?"

"With how tight things are out there, of course, I wouldn't go out stealing money- if I could, I wouldn't be borrowing money! The orphanage needs to use the money in too many places. Of course, I need to calculate the costs. That injury medicine is so expensive, too! One hundred ninety-nine? What about ninety-nine? What a black-hearted businessman!" Xiaoke said, dissatisfied.

"..." Lin Yi was at a loss for words- since when did he become a black-hearted businessman? His medicine was much cheaper than Miracle Doctor Kang's by a hundred!

But Lingshan's tightening up of security was something he'd heard about. It seemed like Xiaoke wasn't a good enough thief yet.

Mengyao and Yushu naturally knew about Miracle Doctor Guan's injury medicine and the guy who made and sold it- they tried to contain in their laughter. Mengyao spoke up. "Yeah, what a black-hearted businessman! But Lin Yi knows the owner of that company. He could give you guys some?"

"Really?" Xiaoke looked quite happy upon hearing the words- if the orphanage could get their hands on some of the medicine, then it'd be great. The kids wouldn't have to be worried about infections or anything anymore!

“Yeah, really.” Lin Yi nodded, looking at the Miss oddly. She was kind, and this made him happy too- if she were like those girls with a princess disease, then Lin Yi really wouldn’t bother with her.

With that, Lin Yi wrote a recipe for Mengyao and Yushu, “Just get the ingredients using what I wrote here.”

“Oh, right, help me write a recipe too later!” Yushu suddenly thought of something as she took the recipe.

“You’re not even sick, why do you need a medicine recipe?” Lin Yi looked at her oddly, amused. “You can’t just eat medicine for the sake of it.”

“It’s not for a sickness- I thought that maybe there’s a recipe that makes you taller?” Yushu blinked, “I want to grow taller!”

“Taller? Why?” Lin Yi didn’t expect that Yushu would come up with this request.

1197: Big Business

“Xiaoxiao’s a small wife, and I am too, but she’s a bit taller than me, so that’s not fair!” Yushu said. “And even Yun Yun sis and Yao Yao are both taller than me...”

“Uh... We’ll talk about that later.” Lin Yi felt awkward at this random request, “Go get the ingredients first!”

Mengyao wanted to ask if there were any recipes for enlargement of the chest, but she couldn’t ask stuff like that. She wasn’t as thick faced as Yushu... Although, Yushu being shameless as she was, she could always let her do the asking for her!

With that, the two girls headed to the pharmacy, with Mengyao wondering how to approach the topic with Yushu.

“That’s it? Is he fine now? Thanks!” Xiaoke saw that Lin Yi was good at medicine after all, and she was very excited as she held on to Lin Yi’s hand, swinging it around. “Can we go to you the next time a kid here has a sickness or something?”

“...” Lin Yi was a bit speechless. “This is just an emergency, send them to the hospital next time. I’ll help if the hospital can’t take care of the problem.”

Lin Yi didn’t want to make this a precedent, and let all the kids come to him when they had the flu or a fever. He wouldn’t be able to do anything else then.

“Ah... Okay then...” Xiaoke was disappointed, but she knew that she was only associates with Lin Yi, she couldn’t force him. Although, he did say that he would help if the hospital couldn’t take care of it! This made her very happy. After all, many of these children were abandoned because of those incurable diseases they had that were never cured in history. Either that, or it’d require a huge sum of money, which wouldn’t guarantee it getting cured!

Many of these children were in that category, and this was also why, after so many years of thieving, There wasn't any extra money to go around! Some of the money was expended to the treatment of their diseases! Sometimes it felt clear like it was wasting money, but it was hope- she didn't want to give up hope on curing the children! They were already lonely and sad. She needed to get the money to cure their sickness!

Lin Yi's hope, however, did give Xiaoke some hope. She wasn't disappointed anymore, "It's a promise then?"

"Alright." Lin Yi nodded, changing the topic, "Then how are you going to earn money now that you can't steal?"

"I'll try to get by for now!" Xiaoke shrugged, "I applied for missions on Thieves' Door, and if they choose me, I'd be able to do a big haul and earn one year's worth of money!"

"Thieves' Door? Big haul?" Lin Yi frowned. He knew about Thieves' Door. "Just your three-legged cat skill level, and you think you're good enough to do a big haul on Thieves' Door? Don't lose your life over it."

"I'll be careful!" Xiaoke hmped, "How am I a three-legged cat? My speed is at the very top one top two spots on Thieve's Door! We Flying Sparrow Sect are really famous!"

Lin Yi nodded and kept it at that. He could help her now, but he couldn't look after her forever. She needed to know how to handle things herself.

Er Goudan now knew that she hadn't been lying to him, and he felt a bit embarrassed. "You Xiaoke, I've misunderstood you! You're not a scammer!"

"Haha!" Xiaoke didn't mind at all now that she saw Goudan's attitude. "Don't worry, once I get rich I'll return the money to you for sure!"

"No need- consider it a donation to the orphanage! You're my boss' friend, too!" Goudan didn't want her to return it now.

Mengyao and Yushu had left the orphanage. Mengyao looked back at the run-down place upon getting on the car. "Shu, the kids here really have it rough, but they've got a big sis that cares about them! You Xiaoke really is a strong person."

"Yeah, Yao Yao! I've decided I'll organize a big donation event, and let our classmates make donations! If they don't have the money, they can donate books or something." Yushu said, as touched as Mengyao was.

"Oh?" Mengyao blinked, not expecting that Yushu would say something so unexpected amidst her fooling around. Mengyao was only thinking of donating her allowance, but Yushu had thought of an entire donation event!

The power of unity was stronger than personal strength. She didn't think that Yushu had a plan already!

"That's a good idea- I'll talk to dad about it once I get back. I'll ask him to talk to the headmaster and support our donation charity," Mengyao nodded in approval.

“That’s great! I heard that Xie Yufeng’s pretty rich, Mengyao scammed a couple hundred thousand from him! We’ll make him donate more!” Yushu put her thoughts on Yufeng right away.

Mengyao smiled- Yushu took on the role of the prankster again.

“Right, you said that you wanted a medicine recipe to become taller?” Mengyao said with a straight face as she drove.

“Yeah, Yao Yao, look at me, I’m so perfect from top to bottom, but I lack the height! Otherwise, I’d be Perfect Shu!” Yushu said regrettably.

“Perfect Shu? Cow Boobs Shu, maybe!” Mengyao intentionally changed the topic to her boobs.

“Oh? What’s wrong, you’re jealous?” Yushu asked.

“So what if I am?” Mengyao rolled her eyes. This was the first time she admitted it- yes, she always acted as if she didn’t care, but who wouldn’t be at least a bit envious?

“Hehe, I know, Yao Yao, you want me to ask Shield Bro if he has any recipes for making your boobs bigger, but you’re too shy, so you want me to ask him?” Yushu hit the mark right from looking at Yao Yao’s face.

“Wha... Of course not.” Yao Yao blushed a bit after Yushu exposed her.

“Then I won’t ask?” They’d been sisters for so long- Yushu was confident about this.

“Then, just ask a bit, I guess since there’s nothing to do might as well work on self-betterment or something...” Mengyao acted as if she didn’t mind.

“Alright, Shu promises to complete the mission!” Yushu grinned. “Once I become taller, and you become well endowed, we’ll be unstoppable and trampled over Tang Yun sis and Feng Xiaoxiao!”

“Why would I fight with them? I just want to look better in clothes,” Mengyao cleared her throat.

Chapter 1198: Misunderstanding and Fake News

But the two had come to an agreement- upon arriving at the pharmacy, Mengyao grabbed some medicine and ingredients, spending money on a couple bottles of Miracle Doctor Guan’s injury medicine after thinking about it. She could ask Lin Yi to get Fatty Lai to give the orphanage some, but buying a few just in case would be good.

Coming back to the orphanage, Lin Yi told Xiaoke about the things she should focus on when it came to brewing the medicine. Xiao Yan’s injury was something small in Lin Yi’s eyes, after all.

They left the orphanage, and Lin Yi went with Goudan to go to Yuanyuan. Today was destined to be a busy day, and with the medicine that Goudan brought him, he even wanted to go and cure Fen and Tang Jucheng’s sicknesses, as well as introduce Xiaobo to Goudan! Fatty lai, as well. He had Lin Yi’s approval now.

But there was no need for Mengyao and Yushu to follow them to Yuanyuan's, and so Lin Yi asked them to go back to the villa first.

House Xiao sent the two House Pi masters and went back to the villa, starting their discussion.

"Second brother, we need to keep the fact that both House Pi's masters are in hospital a secret, we can't let our business partners know! Otherwise they might want to re-evaluate our strength!" Xiao Ji said nervously.

"We do need to keep it a secret, but brother, you need to know that secrets can't be contained forever- people will know eventually," Xiao Ben sighed, "But luckily- even though the House Pi masters aren't a match for the warrior, they're way more than enough for the smaller houses.

"You're right! But, I think that we have a chance after that Mister Warrior went to Lin Yi- we should make a move on the Chu house now! Otherwise, when Lin Yi recovers and knows that our two Pi masters are at the hospital, we'll all be in trouble!" Xiao Ji said, "We need to hurry!"

"Yes, that makes sense- here, sis-in-law, you go to the Chu house and check, see what their progress is and if Mister Warrior has injured Lin Yi," Xiao Ben nodded.

"Me?" Huli was worried that she'd meet the warrior and make him pissed off again.

"Yes, only you- use the excuse that you wanted to check on your lion," Xiao Ben said, "We can't really go since we're not close with the Chu girls, it's harder."

"Alright then!" Huli gritted her teeth after thinking about it. It was worth the risk if they could attack House Chu!

Huli left the House Xiao, got in her Ferrarri, calmed down, and drove to the Chu house.

Mengyao and Yushu came back home to see the iron gate that Goudan messed up, not sure if they should find it funny now. This guy was Lin Yi's follower, so they couldn't ask him to pay for the gate anymore. They'd have to hire someone to fix it.

After returning home, Yushu felt troubled that she couldn't find the lion or General Weiwu. She walked around and finally saw the lion napping in the storage room.

"Damn! You lazy lion, this is what you do when your owner isn't home? You want to die?" Yushu was quite frustrated- she'd only left for a short while and this happened!

The lion was napping!

"Woof woof," Weiwu caled out helplessly.

"Shu, forget it- it's the lion's first day of training, and you've put him through some tough stuff the entire morning, it doesn't have as high an endurance as General Weiwu. It needs to rest too," Mengyao came over and generally understood Weiwu's meaning.

Weiwu was a golden class dog, but the lion wasn't! And Lin Yi didn't have the intention of levelling him up yet, evidently not trusting him enough. A normal lion was no match for Weiwu's stamina, naturally.

"Oh," Yushu hadn't thought about that before, "Fine, you sleep then! Continue training tomorrow!"

The two were there thinking about the lion when Huli called out from outside, "Anyone home?"

"Why's that old lady here again?" Yushu rolled her eyes as she heard Huli's voice, walking over, irritated.

Huli first analyzed the situation around the house- the gate was destroyed just like how House Xiao's was, and it made her quite happy. It seemed that a confrontation did happen after all!

If there had been no conflict, then why would there be a broken iron gate?

It seemed to have been over, though, whatever the conflict had been about. Things were quiet now, so Huli called out.

Yushu saw Huli standing outside the villa and frowned, "What are you here for again? What do you want, you want to perform chopping your head off for us?"

Huli wanted to start barking at Yushu, but she remembered that she had a mission today, and so she couldn't. Otherwise she wouldn't get any information!

With that thought, she held in her rage, smiling, "How can I live if I chop my head off..."

"Oh, well then what are you here for?" Yushu was already irritated that the lion was taking a lazy nap. Of course she wouldn't be pleased looking at Huli's face!

"Ha, where's the lion?" Huli said after some hesitation.

"Dead!" Yushu was already pissed at the lion, and so she just spat out some random negative comment.

"Ah? Dead??" Huli felt quite pleased- that traitorous lion, it'd be best if he died! But she kept her composure, "Oh, then what about Lin Yi?"

"He went to the hospital, what do you want?" Mengyao walked over as well. She didn't like this person at all, and she didn't want her hanging around. She still needed to ask Uncle Fu to help with the door!

"Hospital?" Huli's eyes lit up. What great news! Wasn't this what she wanted? It seemed like Mister Warrior had injured Lin Yi and put him to the hospital! She left right away, pleased with the news, "It's nothing, I'm leaving!"

Chapter 1199: Came Again

Chu Mengyao watched Gou Huli leave in confusion. She didn't know why Gou Huli suddenly came here again.

Gou Huli didn't know that when Chu Mengyao said going to the hospital, he meant that they went to receive treatment for Yu Yuanyuan's mother, but Gou Huli thought that Lin Yi was injured and was hospitalised!

Gou Huli quickly drove back to House Xiao and reported excitedly after entering the door, "Good news, good news!"

"Huli, what's up? What good news?" Xiao Ji looked at Gou Huli and more or less guessed what it was.

“Mr. Warrior is fighting with House Chu, Lion is dead and Lin Yi is hospitalised! That little Chu girl and Chen girl looked so annoyed as if they swallowed gunpowder!” Gou Huli replied happily.

“Oh? Even the heaven is helping House Xiao!” Xiao Ji heard her words and laughed, “Brother, let’s get some helpers and get Pengzhan Industries!”

“Mhm, not bad! We should go there right now and talk with Chu Pengzhan. If he’s smart, he’ll give us some benefits. If not, we’ll pressure them through the stock market! We have many alliances right now and by that time, there will be many people who want to divide Pengzhan Industries with us without needing us to fund!” Xiao Ben pondered and said.

In fact, ever since masters from House Pi joined House Xiao, more and more small families flattered to them. Xiao Ji and Xiao Ben’s pride became extremely inflated as they enjoyed the feeling of being superior. When they recalled the times they were humiliated at House Chu, they would clench their teeth and want to take revenge but they never had a suitable chance. Now, the chance came and they wouldn’t let it go.

Xiao Ji and Xiao Ben didn’t hesitate and immediately went to Pengzhan Industries. They shouldn’t procrastinate and immediately made a prompt decision.

Chu Pengzhan didn’t expect Xiao Ji and Xiao Ben to visit at a time like this. Although Chu Pengzhan knew that House Xiao made a comeback and at first, he was worried that House Xiao would take revenge, but they lived together in harmony for a period of time and he gradually relaxed.

He assumed that House Pi hadn’t wanted to become Lin Yi’s enemy for no good reason as it wouldn’t bring them any benefits, hence the brothers of House Xiao didn’t make a move either.

“Mr. Xiaos, what brings you here today?” The grudge between Chu Pengzhan and House Xiao was impossible to resolve, they were enemies and Chu Pengzhan wasn’t polite with his words. Looking at Xiao Ji and Xiao Ben’s faces alone, he knew that they didn’t have kind intentions.

“Chu Pengzhan, thanks to you, our House Xiao almost perished!” Xiao Ji came in and settled on the couch in Chu Pengzhan’s office carelessly and snorted coldly.

“Mr. Xiao, it wouldn’t have ended up like this if House Xiao wasn’t so greedy,” Chu Pengzhan wasn’t angry at all. He was a conserved person and he only smiled lightly at Xiao Ji’s unreasonable words.

“But the heaven blessed us! House Xiao didn’t only not perish, but it’s getting better every single day! What do you say? Chu Pengzhan, are you jealous? Are you envious? Wahahaha!” Xiao Ji was pleased with himself and laughed loudly.

“Spit it out already,” Chu Pengzhan knew that the brothers didn’t come here to show off, they should have other business.

“Chu Pengzhan, don’t assume that we let you go just because we didn’t come back for you! We didn’t come because we were too busy. I’m telling you, the grudges between us are huge!” Xiao Ji hit the table in front of him and replied sternly.

Chu Pengzhan frowned. He didn’t expect the brothers to come again after so long and indeed, they were here for trouble! But who gave them the courage to come here?

Did they become so arrogant merely because they have two masters from House Pi? But why didn't they come immediately after the masters came, but waited for so long?

"Mr. Xiao, did you forget the pain after your wound healed? It's only been a while and you forgot the lesson taught to you last time?" Chu Pengzhan thought through it thoroughly after what happened last time. He should be more strong-willed when needed and the worst scenario was to put his all into it. Lin Yi could sacrifice everything for House Chu, why should he be held back by it?

"Chu Pengzhan, I'm not scared to tell you that we came for what happened last time!" Xiao Ji laughed coldly, "Chu Pengzhan, don't blame us for not giving you another option! You have two choices right now; one is to give us part of your industries and second, wait for House Xiao and our alliances to pressure you through the stock market!"

Chu Pengzhan frowned. Without a doubt, Xiao Ji's appetite is as big as a lion just like last time. However, House Xiao must have something up their sleeves to do something so crazy, or they wouldn't be here saying something so stupid!

However, industries wasn't something Chu Pengzhan could give if Xiao Ji wanted. Hence, Chu Pengzhan smiled slightly and replied, "It looks like Mr. Xiao is certain about it? Is it because of the two masters from House Pi? But don't forget that the previous masters from House Pi were beaten up by Little Yi."

"Lin Yi? Hahahaha! So you are still relying on Lin Yi?" Xiao Ji scorned and laughed, "Well, the person you are relying on is hospitalised! Mr. Warrior beat him up and he's in the hospital right now!"

"Hospitalised?" Chu Pengzhan paused.

"What? Don't believe it? If you don't, give a call to Lin Yi!" Xiao Ji replied carelessly.

Chu Pengzhan's face changed as he finally understood why House Xiao came to blackmail him again. They know that Lin Yi is injured! They came to take advantage of him again like last time!

But Lin Yi was perfectly fine, how was he injured? And he was beaten up by that Mr. Warrior? How would Mr. Warrior beat him? Chu Pengzhan thought that it would be more believable if the masters from House Pi beat him up, but where did this Mr. Warrior pop out from?

Although Chu Pengzhan was suspicious towards it, but he still picked up his phone and called Lin Yi. From Lin Yi, he will be able to receive the most accurate news.

"Little Yi, where are you?" Chu Pengzhan asked. Although his tone of voice sounded normal, but he was panicking inside.

"I'm at the hospital!" Lin Yi replied, "What's wrong? Uncle Chu, why all of a sudden?"

"What! You are at the hospital?" Chu Pengzhan was shocked and his tone of voice changed. Chu Pengzhan didn't imagine that Lin Yi was really at the hospital! Chu Pengzhan had recently become much more calm and steady recently, but right now, cold sweat filled his forehead!

Chapter 1200: Xiao Ji's Deduction

Looking at Chu Pengzhan's face, Xiao Ji and Xiao Ben exchanged a glance and smiled. It looked like Gou Huli's news was accurate; Lin Yi was indeed in the hospital!

"What's wrong, Uncle Chu?" Lin Yi heard Chu Pengzhan's cry in surprise and froze, "Did something happen to Yaoyao?"

"Yaoyao?" Chu Pengzhan quickly calmed down. He panicked because he was worried, but now that he calmed down, he thought, why would Lin Yi ask about Yaoyao if he was really injured? He didn't sound like he was injured at all! Chu Pengzhan quickly asked, "Little Yi, what are you doing at the hospital?"

"Oh, my friend's mother is injured and I'm paying her a visit," Lin Yi said, "Uncle Chu, did something happen?"

"Nothing, it's okay," Chu Pengzhan heard Lin Yi's words and sighed in relief. Lin Yi was fine, meaning that House Xiao's news was wrong. But since they knew that Lin Yi was in the hospital, it meant that they had eyes there.

"So? I wasn't wrong, was I? That brat, Lin Yi, is in the hospital!" Xiao Ji was pleased.

"Haha, indeed he went to the hospital. But he's there to help someone with their injuries, not because he's injured," Chu Pengzhan smiled lightly and became more confident, "I'm afraid that Mr. Xiao's news is wrong?"

"Pretend, keep pretend!" Xiao Ji mocked Chu Pengzhan and sneered, "Chu Pengzhan, you were panicking and it sold you out. Stop pretending, Songshan is only so big, how will you be able to seal the news away from everyone?"

"Whatever you say. Mr. Xiao, there's nothing I can do if you insist on thinking so," Chu Pengzhan shrugged, "I'm busy, please do as you wish."

"Chu Pengzhan, don't fail to appreciate my kindness!" Xiao Ji heard that Chu Pengzhan was chasing them away, he immediately raged, "Don't make us force you!"

"Mr. Xiao, give it all you have. If it's simply attacking my business, then do as you wish," Chu Pengzhan smiled, "If you want to keep threatening me here, do so. I'll be doing my work, you can continue with it!"

"Chu Pengzhan! Just you wait! I'll make you kneel down for forgiveness!" Xiao Ji was furious. How could Chu Pengzhan be so firm in a situation like this?

"Brother, if Mr. Chu is so stubborn, then there's nothing we can do," Xiao Ben replied indifferently, "But public security seemed to be bad recently. I've heard that there are people missing? Lin Yi's injured, be careful that your daughter will stray away..."

"Xiao Ben, what do you mean?" Chu Pengzhan frowned. No matter how placid he had shown he was, it didn't mean he didn't know how to get angry, "Xiao Ben, are you forcing me? Don't think that I, Chu Pengzhan, is scared of you just because you have two masters from House P!"

Chu Pengzhan was confident when he said this. When House Pi's masters first came to House Xiao, he discussed this with Uncle Fu. When he heard that Uncle Fu regained his powers, he was relieved!

Uncle Fu said that he was now an internal master and he could match an external style master of a level, or someone who's at the first stage of mystic division! If not, they had General Weiwu, a dog at the peak of the final stage of golden division. No matter what, two of them should be able to kill those masters at the first stage of mystic division!

And Lin Yi, who was at the middle stage of mystic division, he could somewhat compete with an external style master at the peak of the final stage of mystic division. If he fought with all he's got, he wouldn't necessarily lose. Hence, he wasn't scared of House Xiao at all after confirming that Lin Yi was fine.

"Well, very well! Chu Pengzhan, just wait and see!" Xiao Ben nodded without speaking further as he dragged his brother out of Chu Pengzhan's office.

Although Chu Pengzhan also believed that Lin Yi was injured, how did he become so confident? The panic in Chu Pengzhan's eyes didn't escape Xiao Ben's observations. So what did Lin Yi say to him?

Xiao Ben was smarter than Xiao Ji and he thought, did they neglect something?

After leaving the door, Xiao Ji was still cursing, "Brother, why is Chu Pengzhan so stupid? Does he really think that Lin Yi could save him?"

"Brother, this is strange..." Xiao Ben pondered and replied, "Chu Pengzhan's shock when he heard that Lin Yi was at the hospital wasn't fake but he was still so confident, why is that?"

"Well, that's reasonable. Is there something behind it?" Xiao Ji calmed down and thought that Xiao Ben was reasonable. Although his personality was rather straightforward and rough, he often listened to Xiao Ben.

"Let me think..." Xiao Ben sat in the car, closed his eyes and put his hands on his temples. He thought that something was really strange.

Xiao Ji didn't disturb him and settled next to Xiao Ben, ordering the driver, "Let's go."

"House owner, are we going back home or the hospital?" The driver didn't know where to go and asked.

"Hospital... That's right, hospital!" Xiao Ben suddenly cried and opened his eyes.

"Second master, are we going to the hospital?" The driver heard Xiao Ben's exclaimed and jumped before asking carefully.

"No, home!" Xiao Ben said, then turned to Xiao Ji, "Brother, I think I understand now!"

"Oh?" Xiao Ji quickly asked, "Brother, what's going on?"

"Isn't Lin Yi at the hospital now? Old Pi and Mr. Pi are both there too. Do you think that Lin Yi bumped into them?" Xiao Ben analysed, "If Lin Yi knows that Old Pi and Mr. Pi are both injured too, he wouldn't be scared, would he? Chu Pengzhan wouldn't have to worry too because our masters are also in the hospital!"

“That’s possible!” Xiao Ji heard Xiao Ben’s words and nodded convincingly, “That should be it! But we booked single rooms, how did Lin Yi see them?”

“I don’t know, but of course, this is only a guess,” Xiao Ben continued, “There’s another possibility, and that’s Lin Yi’s injuries, he can recover quickly. So even if Chu Pengzhan knows that Lin Yi is injured, he’s not afraid of us!”

“Oh? He can recover quickly?” Xiao Ji muttered.

“Yes. Do you remember what happened last time? Lin Yi was severely injured by Ma Zhu? I don’t think it’s fake, everything went smoothly when we went to look for trouble and almost forced Chu Pengzhan into a dead end, but Lin Yi suddenly appeared, killed House Yu’s men, injured Uncle Pi as if nothing happened. What does that say about him?” Xiao Ben frowned.
