Chapter 1201: Differences In Injuries

“What does it say?” Xiao Ji frowned, “Did House Chu fake it last time? Lin Yi pretended to be injured and tricked us?”

“No!” Xiao Ben waved his hands, “What you said is possible, but it’s not very likely! Chu Pengzhan is a busy man, why would he deal with us for so long if Lin Yi had recovered? Does he have that much free time? And what benefits did that bring him? He didn’t get anything! There’s actually not much difference if Lin Yi stepped out sooner or later.”

“If you say that... It’s reasonable!” Xiao Ji nodded and asked again, “Does that mean that Lin Yi could recover quickly?”

“Yes, so I assume that perhaps Lin Yi told Chu Pengzhan that although he was injured, he would recover soon. That is why Chu Pengzhan wasn’t afraid of us at all!” Xiao Ben agreed, “This is the only possibility behind Chu Pengzhan’s confidence!”

“Then what should we do now?” Xiao Ji said, “Now that both masters from House Pi are hospitalised, there’s nothing we can threaten Chu Pengzhan with!”

“We can discuss with our business partners first and see if we can control and pressure Pengzhan Industries through stocks. As long as we give House Pi enough profits, I believe their masters will step out for us after they recover!” Xiao Ben said, “But of course, we need to give them profits!”

“Mhm, that’s also right! Let’s do that then!” Xiao Ji heard it and felt relieved.

In the hospital, Lin Yi met Yu Yuanyuan, a rather delicate girl. Although she was nowhere near Tang Yun, Miss and the others, she was rather pretty. If she really marry Er Goudan, Er Goudan would be in luck.

He could tell that Yu Yuanyuan was a girl who only played her own part and looked rather quiet.

“Yuanyuan, this is my boss! You can also call him boss!” Er Goudan brought Lin Yi to Mrs. Yu’s room and introduced Lin Yi to Yu Yuanyuan.

“Hello, boss,” Yu Yuanyuan nodded at Lin Yi politely. Looking from Lin Yi’s way of dressing, he didn’t have the rustic aura Er Goudan had, was he really Er Goudan’s boss?

Lin Yi smiled, “Hello. Should we look at your mother’s injuries first?”

“Okay...” Yu Yuanyuan quickly moved aside and let Lin Yi walk through, surprising Mrs. Yu. Although she heard from Er Goudan say that his boss was a miracle doctor and could heal her leg, but she was suspicious as Lin Yi looked rather young.

“Have you done any X-rays? Let me have a look first,” Lin Yi looked at Mrs. Yu’s leg but her leg was covered in plaster, making him unable to see anything.

“We do!” Yu Yuanyuan nodded, “My Dad has them, he went to get us food. I’ll give him a call now.”

“No rush, he should be back soon if he only went to buy food,” Lin Yi waved his hand and asked Mrs Yu, “Aunt, how do you feel now? Does it hurt?”

“It does, it’s been hurting all this times! The doctor said the bones are broken into pieces, how could it not hurt?” Mrs. Yu sighed, “Boy, if it’s difficult, don’t worry about it. Just do what you can, I’ve already prepared myself...”

“Haha, we’ll see when I see the X-ray first.” Lin Yi smiled, “Don’t worry, aunt, since you are Er Goudan’s senior, and perhaps his mother-in-law, I will make you stand up again no matter how difficult it is! Our home town is rather far from here, how can you go if your leg is like this? We have mountains there and it’s quite fun, we’ll make Er Goudan hunt wild animals for you!”

As Lin Yi chatted, he pointed out Er Goudan and Yu Yuanyuan’s relationship. He also subtly hinted where Er Goudan’s home town was, which was a warning to Yu family and Yu Yuanyuan beforehand.

Although Er Goudan was an honest person, he wasn’t stupid. He heard Lin Yi’s words and casted a thankful glance towards Lin Yi as he knew that Lin Yi was helping him.

“I’m sorry to bother you!” Mrs. Yu heard Lin Yi’s words and sighed in relief. If Lin Yi said that, it must mean that he was certain he could cure it! Mrs. Yu knew Er Goudan’s personality well and knew that he never talked big. His boss should also be an up straight person, or he wouldn’t call Lin Yi boss.

Yu Yuanyuan heard Lin Yi’s words and blushed. Although both of them had feelings for each other, but they never broke the thin barrier between them. Now that Lin Yi said it, Yu Yuanyuan lowered her head shyly and didn’t dare to look at Er Goudan.

However, Yu Yuanyaun hearing her mother not deny Lin Yi’s words made her happy. It meant that she had agreed to let her be with Er Goudan!

After a while, Yu Ren came in with a few lunch boxes in his hands and was surprised to see Lin Yi there.

“Uncle Yu, this is my boss, Lin Yi, he’s here to check Aunt’s injury!” Er Goudan introduced Lin Yi to Yu Ren, “Uncle Yu, where are the X-rays? Boss wants to see them!”

Yu Ren didn’t doubt Lin Yi’s youth. Er Goudan was a steady man and he wouldn’t do anything unreliable. Although he was surprised that he could contact Lin Yi, it obviously wasn’t the time to question that right now.

Yu Ren brought the X-rays back and passed it to Lin Yi, Lin Yi took them out and studied them carefully.

The entire leg was in pieces, which meant that the lion had bit off the entire leg. Although it was set back together, it’s inevitable that one part will be missing. Even if it completely heals, she will be limping. If it didn’t heal, then it would be difficult for her to even stand up.

Lin Yi wanted to use the injury medicine alongside with acupuncture, but it looked like it wouldn’t be effective. After all, a piece of bone was missing, medicine and acupuncture wouldn’t fix that!

But luckily she was injured only a short time ago and it had not completely healed again. Lin Yi could use his energy to heal Mrs. Yu's injuries! If they waited until her injuries were completely healed, Lin Yi wouldn't be able to fix it even if he used his pure energy! After it was completely healed, they could only be changed through medics and it was different to fresh wounds.

Just like Mr. Tang and Fen's nerve system, they were healed after the damage and Lin Yi couldn't fix it even with pure energy, he could only try to repair it through medicine.

Chapter 1202: Healed!

"I can treat it, but I need to break the plaster on your leg, is that fine?" Lin Yi looked at Mrs Yu and asked.

"Yes... Of course you can..." Mrs. Yu hesitated for a while before nodding. Although she didn't know how Lin Yi was going to treat her leg, but she agreed, thinking that Lin Yi wouldn't do anything bad.

Yu Yuanyuan was also nervous. The way Lin Yi used seemed strange and he even needed to break the plaster. Didn't they have to use a plaster to heal broken bones? Why is he breaking it?

"It's fine, boss knows what to do. He won't do it if he's not 100 percent sure!" Er Goudan looked at Yu Yuanyuan and comforted her.

The plaster wasn't hard to Lin Yi at all as he used his hands to break it off. Soon, he broke off majority of plaster on Mrs. Yu's leg.

At this time, the doctor on shift came in and his expression drastically changed when he saw Lin Yi breaking the plaster, "You... You... What are you doing?"

"Treatment. I'm Lin Yi, Guan Xueming's student. Dean Qin knows about it, you can call to check with him," Lin Yi replied indifferently. After what happened to Fen, he explained before the doctor even started to ask.

As expected, the doctor's glance immediately changed after hearing that Lin Yi was Guan Xueming's student. Although he didn't know what Lin Yi was doing, Guan Xueming was a renowned professor and the name, Miracle Doctor Guan, had been a bomb. The doctor didn't say anything else, but headed for the door, called Dean Qin and asked a few questions to confirm Lin Yi's identity. Then, he closed the door and stopped interrupting Lin Yi!

Miracle Doctor Guan's Injury Medicine was a holy medicine for treating wounds, so Guan Xueming's student must have a profound understanding of injuries too. Hence, the doctor wasn't worried at all.

Although he wanted to watch it, but Lin Yi didn't ask him to stay and he didn't want to steal any knowledge from Lin Yi. Not to mention that he didn't study Chinese medicine, he wouldn't be able to learn anything anyway.

Yu Ren, Mrs Yu and Yu Yuanyuan all saw that the doctor leave quietly after Lin Yi gave him a name, they became more relieved as Er Goudan's boss was indeed someone extraordinary!

After Lin Yi broke the plasters, he took off all the gauze wrapped around her leg. Mrs. Yu clenched her teeth in pain but swallowed the groans. She was worried that it would affect Lin Yi and make him lose concentration.

“It hurts a little right? It’s fine, you’ll be fine in a while and you’ll be able to walk,” Lin Yi smiled and said.

Mrs. Yu heard the first sentence and thought it was normal, but she widened her eyes in shock after hearing the later part. She can walk in a while? How is that possible? Even a miracle doctor couldn’t treat her wounds in an instant!

After Lin Yi finished speaking, he pierced a few silver needles on Mrs. Yu’s injury. He placed his hands on her leg and chanted the Art of Dragon Master. Lin Yi didn’t enter sleep mode as Mrs. Yu’s wounds didn’t need a lot of pure energy. Even if he needed to make up for it, he could do that when he slept at night. There was no need for him to sleep right now.

Mrs. Yu looked at Lin Yi strangely and suddenly felt warmth flowing through her leg, feeling extremely comfortable and her leg didn’t feel as painful as before! Mrs. Yu immediately lifted her head up in surprise, “I think it’s working?”

“Haha, I’m using acupuncture and pure energy to heal it, it won’t hurt at all,” Lin Yi said.

“Pure energy?” Mrs. Yu and Yu Ren exclaimed at the same time. They knew what pure energy was from dramas and wuxia novels, but did it really exist in real life?

After hearing his explanation, Mrs. Yu, Yu Ren and Yu Yuanyuan all recalled Er Goudan’s shocking action. If he could kill Boxer Li within a single blow, he was obviously not weak. And his boss should be even stronger, what could Lin Yi be other than a high level martial artist?

“Zhou Jiaming, you are also a martial artist, aren’t you?” Yu Yuanyuan looked at Er Goudan admiringly.

“I... Not really. I’m just stronger than normal people, I’m not a martial artist...” Er Goudan spoke the truth as there was a huge difference between him and Lin Yi.

“But you are a hero in my eyes...” Yu Yuanyuan whispered shyly.

“Huh? Hehe...” Er Goudan scratched his head and smiled honestly. It looked like their relationship changed quite a lot after Lin Yi’s words.

“Healed?” Mrs. Yu was shocked, so was Yu Ren, Yu Yuanyuan and even Er Goudan!

They never thought that it would only take a while for Lin Yi to say that it was healed. Even Er Goudan was shocked. Although Old Lin was a renowned doctor in the village, but it took him at least ten days to half a month to heal a leg injury. Curing someone’s leg in merely half an hour was something they had never heard of before!

“Aunt, you should get down and exercise for a bit. You must be sick of lying down for so many days, aren’t you?” Lin Yi smiled at Mrs. Yu.

"I..." Mrs. Yu wanted to say something, but she glanced at her leg and realised that there were no more wounds left on it! Her skin was as pale as before without any scars! Mrs. Yu finally felt that there was no more pain! Mrs. Yu was touched and couldn't speak, "My leg... My leg..."

"Mum, what's wrong with your leg..." Yu Yuanyuan quickly walked over but cried in surprised and covered her mouth with her hands after seeing her mother's leg, "Oh my!"

Yu Ren and Er Goudan followed her, widening their eyes in shock after seeing that the wounds had completely disappeared.

Mrs. Yu saw the shocking change on her leg and became more confident. She clenched her teeth as she sat up and got off the bed.

At first, she couldn't stand steadily and almost fell, but after a moment, she found out that her leg had been completely cured without any problems! It stopped hurting and she walked perfectly fine as if she had never been bitten by a lion!

Chapter 1203: Excited Kang Xiaobo

"I'm really fine now? Yuanyuan, Old Yu, look, is my leg really fine now?" Mrs. Yu couldn't believe it as she paced around the room, scared that she was in a dream.

"Aunt, you are fine now!" Er Goudan was the happiest out of them. Lin Yi cured Mrs. Yu's leg, making him feel like he had earned face.

"Aunt, you can go now and start the procedure to go home. I still have something else to do, I'll leave first!" Lin Yi still had Mr. Tang and Fen's treatments in mind and planned to go treat them.

"But... You can't go. You cured my, I want to thank you for it. Old Yu and I will cook tonight for you?" Mrs. Yu heard that Lin Yi was leaving and panicked.

"I'm really busy. Er Goudan came here to grab some medicine for me. I need to use it on my girlfriend's father, I can't delay treatment," Lin Yi explained, giving Mrs. Yu a reason that he must go.

"Is that so..." Mrs. Yu heard Lin Yi words and didn't ask him to stay as he had expected. Lin Yi was in a hurry to give treatment to his girlfriend's father, how could she stop him? It was just like how Er Goudan was in a hurry to ask Lin Yi to treat for her, he was in a hurry too! But knowing that Lin Yi came here first, Mrs. Yu was extremely touched. It looked Lin Yi certainly treated Er Goudan well like a brother! That Yu Yuanyuan could find a good man and a big brother like this was her and Er Goudan's luck!

"Haha, Aunt, didn't I say it already? With Er Goudan here, we aren't strangers anymore. I'm Er Goudan's boss, and I'm also Yu Yuanyuan's big brother. Don't be so polite with me, we'll eat together when the chance comes!" Lin Yi laughed.

"Alright, if you say so, I won't keep you here. When you are free, tell me and I'll prepare good food for you!" Mrs Yu quickly said.

"I know how to make fried chicken and burgers..." Yu Yuanyuan smiled and added, "Big brother, come to our place and I'll make it for you!"

Yu Yuanyuan thought 'big brother' was a nice way to address him.

"Okay, but I have two little girls who might want some too, I'll bring them along when we are free." Lin Yi smiled.

"Little girls?" Yu Yuanyuan paused.

"They are boss' friends. One of them is his small wife!" Er Goudan explained. He met Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu before, they were as beautiful as fairies.

"Small wife?" Yu Yuanyuan was confused.

"He misunderstood it. It's a girl who loves to mess around. She was joking and he believed it," Lin Yi smiled bitterly.

"Is that so..." Yu Yuanyuan nodded and didn't ask further.

It was none of her business whether Lin Yi had a small wife or not, it was fine as long as her relationship with Er Goudan was well.

The doctor who came in to check before had just finished his patrol and was about to return to his office when he saw Mrs. Yu walking out of her room, watching Lin Yi leave. The doctor felt like he had been struck by lightning.

No way! What on earth happened? How did her leg heal? That's too unbelievable! Her leg was bitten by a lion but she could even walk now? What kind of skills did Lin Yi have?

Lin Yi left the room and went to Tang Jucheng's room, but he found out that there was no one there other than a nurse who was cleaning. The room was empty and even Tang Yun's luggages were gone.

"Excuse me, where did the patient go?" Lin Yi knocked on the door and asked.

"Yunyun, where are you?" Lin Yi called Tang Yun and asked.

"I'm on my way to the new house. It's all done and dusted so we left the hospital, getting ready to move to our new home."

"Move? Why didn't you tell me?" Lin Yi blamed Tang Yun a little, "I could've helped if you had told me earlier!"

"It's fine, haha," Tang Yun laughed, "Fen's family is moving today too, Kang Xiaobo borrowed a car from Fatty Lai so we decided to move together..."

"Is that so," Lin Yi nodded as he was happy to hear that they had a car, "Yunyun, I can treat Uncle Tang's leg now. I have the medicine with me, should I go to your new house right now?"

"Really? You can cure it?" Tang Yun was delighted, "Okay, come to our new place, we'll be there soon!"

“Okay.” Lin Yi laughed and hung up.

After calling Tang Yun, he dialed Kang Xiaobo’s number.

“Boss, where are you? You are still not here?” Kang Xiaobo picked up and asked confusedly.

“I’m not there yet? Why didn’t you tell me that Yunyun’s family is moving today?” Lin Yi questioned back.

“Huh? You didn’t know?” Kang Xiaobo was shocked.

“How would I know if you don’t tell me?” Lin Yi didn’t know whether he should laugh or cry.

“I... I thought Tang Yun would tell you! How should I know that she wouldn’t tell you about it?” Kang Xiaobo laughed bitterly, “Boss, it’s not my fault...”

“It’s alright, I just wanted to tell you to bring Fen over to Yunyun’s place. I have the medicine for her leg, I’m going to be treating Uncle Tang so we can treat her too,” Lin Yi informed.

“Really? Boss, thank you so much!” Kang Xiaobo’s heart felt warm after hearing his words. Lin Yi had always thought about Fen’s injury and he was extremely touched.

Although, Kang Xiaobo didn’t care if Fen was really crippled or not, he would love her even if she was crippled for the rest of her life. After being informed about the good news, he jumped happily. He hugged Fen who was standing to him and could not even speak from excitement.

“What... What are you doing?” Fen was shocked by Kang Xiaobo’s sudden action. Her parents were still there yet he was so bold, what was he doing?

Although her parents confirmed her relationship, but it was inappropriate to act so close in front of her parents.

“Fen, boss has your medicine, your leg will be cured soon and you can walk like a normal person!” Kang Xiaobo didn’t care. He hugged her excitedly and yelled.

Chapter 1204: Have Skills

“What!” Fen cried. In this moment, she was overwhelmed with excitement. It had been so many years and it was almost impossible for it to be cured, but Kang Xiaobo told her that it could be cured!

Before, when she broke up with Kang Zhaoming, her life was dark and she didn’t even care if her leg could be healed or not. But after she began dating Kang Xiaobo, she would always cry alone at night despite her not saying anything.

How stupid was she? She was crushed by a car for a bad man and became crippled! Now she thought back, she was so unworthy and she felt bad for Kang Xiaobo. The fact that she was no longer a virgin already made her feel guilty enough and she felt even worse as she became crippled because of Kang Xiaoming.

She thought that she was not good enough for Kang Xiaobo and blamed herself dearly. The more Kang Xiaobo showed that he didn't mind, the more depressed she became and it almost became a sore part in her heart. But in this moment, Kang Xiaobo said that there was still hope for her leg!

Fen wouldn't believe it if this came out of the mouth of somebody else, but Lin Yi said it, Kang Xiaobo's boss said it! And Fen believed it!

At first, during Miracle Doctor Kang's banquet, Lin Yi gave her and Kang Xiaobo the courage to stand in front of Kang Zhaoming's family for the very first time. Following it, Kang Xiaobo gradually attained his own business, his status, and they owned a house and became rich! Everything was all thanks to Lin Yi! Her lover's boss!

So when Kang Xiaobo reported the good news to Fen, she didn't question it and cried in joy, "That's great! Xiaobo, thank boss for me please..."

"Ha, of course! I already thanked him!" Kang Xiaobo laughed.

Tang Yun and Fen's family both started furnishing around the same time. Fatty Lai took care of it and the team worked night shifts, their new houses were completed. Not only were the furniture and household electronics ready, even the daily necessities, bowls, pans and cutlery were ready.

Lin Yi arrived and secretly praised Fatty Lai for being reliable when he was asked to do something.

"Little Yi, stay here since you are here already. I'll cook tonight as housewarming for the new house!" Mrs. Tang smiled at Lin Yi and liked him the more she looked at him. She was extremely satisfied with her son-in-law. Not to mention the benefits he brought to her family, and today, he even said that he could cure Old Tang's leg!

Tang Jucheng's leg recovered and he became happy too. He could now start a small business with Mrs. Tang so their family could improve too!

"Okay!" Lin Yi didn't decline the offer. Since he wanted to be with Tang Yun, there was no need to be so polite with her mother. Lin Yi could see that the more polite he was, Mrs. Tang felt worse as she thought that Lin Yi still saw them as an outsider, so it was better to be more casual.

"That's great! Yunyun, go treat your Dad and Fen with Little Yi. I'll go to the supermarket with Fen's mom to buy some ingredients!" Mrs. Tang replied happily.

Lin Yi knew Tang Jucheng and Fen's leg injury well as he had done thorough research beforehand. Now, he only needed the medicine which could stimulate their nerves to repair their nerves. Along with acupuncture, it wasn't difficult to make their legs return to normal!

"Lin Yi, is there anything you need me to do?" Tang Yun brought Lin Yi to Tang Jucheng's room and asked.

"Nothing, you can just watch from the side and don't let others disturb me!" Lin Yi smiled and asked Tang Jucheng, "Uncle Tang, are you ready? I'll be stimulating your nerves and it'll hurt a lot!"

"It's fine, this is nothing," Tang Jucheng smiled carelessly, "I've gone through the surgery, what am I afraid of? As long as I can stand up, I can endure any pain. Otherwise, it's so inconvenient for me and I can't do anything..."

“Okay!” Lin Yi nodded and started the treatment.

“Ssssss-” When the silver needle dipped in the medicine pierced into the acupoints on his legs, Tang Jucheng couldn’t help but inhale sharply. It wasn’t as simple as a little bit of pain, it was in fact extremely painful! Nerves were sensitive and Lin Yi used medicine to stimulate the nerves on his legs, making Tang Jucheng immediately sit up in pain while sweat filled his forehead.

Tang Yun saw her father’s face and her heart skipped a beat. She looked at Lin Yi nervously but relaxed when she saw that Lin Yi’s face didn’t change at all, “Dad, hold on, don’t disturb his treatment...”

“Okay...” Tang Jucheng clenched his teeth as he knew that he would disturb Lin Yi if he moved around.

Lin Yi smiled, “Uncle Tang, don’t be nervous. Think of some interesting things and time will fly... For example, you can talk about the things that happened when you were dating Aunty?”

Tang Yun glared at Lin Yi; how could he be so cheeky to say this in front of her Dad?

“Yunyun, you didn’t know that your Mom was a flower in the factory, did you? Your Dad, I, certainly have some skills to have her as my wife!” Tang Jucheng recalled his proud past and his leg felt better.

“Haha, it’s fine. You are old enough to date, why are you so shy?” Tang Jucheng grinned and replied carelessly, “But Yunyun, you are prettier than your Mom!”

“Of course! Uncle Tang, Yunyun is also the prettiest in our school! I also have enough skills to date her!” Lin Yi boasted shamelessly.

“Ha?” Tang Yun was shocked and almost tripped over. What on earth was he saying? How was he so impudent? Tang Yun raised her eyebrows and was about to stop him from boasting.

But Tang Jucheng laughed, “Yes, you have the skills too. Yunyun has high standards and if not, she wouldn’t like you so desperately!”

“Dad, since when was I desperate?” Tang Yun widened her eyes and didn’t know whether to laugh or cry.

“Last time you misunderstood that Little Yi didn’t want you anymore, didn’t you cry your eyes out?” Tang Yun laughed.

Tang Yun’s face turned dark. How could he expose that? Although Lin Yi knew that she was extremely upset, it was different if her father said it. Where could she put her face?

Chapter 1205: Distraction

But Lin Yi grinned and took back all the needles on Tang Jucheng's legs, "Alright, Uncle Tang, do you want to try walking?"

"Is it finished already?" Tang Jucheng was surprised. Lin Yi was talking to him and distracting him, and before he knew it, the treatment had finished and Tang Jucheng suffered no longer.

Tang Yun finally understood that Lin Yi was joking around with Dad was to help him suffer less by distracting him. She no longer blamed Lin Yi but it was too embarrassing.

Tang Jucheng got off the bed and was ready to walk around the room. In fact, he could already walk slowly. Although he was crippled, but walking slowly was fine.

But this time, he almost fell down after he got off the bed.

"Dad!" Tang Jucheng jumped and quickly supported Tang Jucheng up. She asked confusedly, "Dad, what's wrong? Wasn't your left leg injured? Why does it look like your right leg is crippled too?"

Tang Yun helped Tang Jucheng to take a few more steps, but one of his legs was still not working. If Tang Yun didn't help him, he would've fallen onto the ground already!

"Uncle Tang, you haven't thought of yourself as a normal person in your heart yet!" Lin Yi watched and laughed, "You walked as if your left leg was crippled, but now that both of your legs are normal, you use too much strength on one leg and nothing in the other, of course you won't be able to walk properly!"

"Oh? Is that so?" Tang Jucheng thought of how he walked and indeed, it was exactly as what Lin Yi said. But he didn't do it on purpose, he walked like this before and it turned into a habit, so he still walked like this subconsciously!

No wonder he was still crippled, it was because of this! Tang Jucheng tried to walk with the same strength in both legs and as expected, he no longer swayed from side to side, but walked normally!

Tang Yun covered her mouth in surprise at the scene in front of her, "Dad, your leg is fine now!"

"It's really fine now! Haha!" Tang Jucheng took a few more steps and laughed happily, "It's cured, cured!"

"Of course. You just have to become more accustomed to walking normally again," Lin Yi smiled, "Yunyun, let's go, Fen should be here already."

Kang Xiaobo and Fen went to Fen's place first to put things down before coming here. They were waiting in the living room and didn't disturb them knowing that Lin Yi was treating Tang Jucheng's leg.

The bedroom's door opened, Lin Yi walked at the front while Tang Jucheng and Tang Yun walked behind. Although Tang Jucheng walked slowly, he no longer needed Tang Yun to hold his arm. Tang Yun however, was still worried that he would fall and guarded by his side.

But even so, Kang Xiaobo and Fen were shocked. Tang Jucheng's leg injury was even more severe than Fen's, he was the type that could only lie in bed. But as he walked step by step, he could finally walk steadily!

Kang Xiaobo stood up and he looked excited, "Uncle Tang, congratulations! Your leg is all healed?"

"Yes, it's healed! I can finally walk again! Haha!" Tang Jucheng was genuinely happy and he was proud of having a son-in-law like Lin Yi! His family was a poor family living in a shantytown, but now their living standard had become much better thanks to Lin Yi!

The main thing was that Lin Yi cherished his daughter very much, it was the most comforting thing to him.

Kang Xiaobo's excitement was excitement for Fen. If Tang Jucheng's leg healed, then Fen's leg would be too!

"Boss... Shouldn't you rest for a while first?" Although Kang Xiaobo was in a hurry, but he must be tired, he should probably rest first.

"It's fine. You can't wait, can you?" Lin Yi laughed.

"Haha... No, not really..." Kang Xiaobo was embarrassed but took Fen to the bedroom.

"Uncle Tang, practice walking slowly first, I'll go treat Fen first." Lin Yi told Tang Jucheng.

"Alright. Don't worry about me, go treat Fen!" Tang Jucheng walked around for a while and gradually grasped the technique as he became much more agile. But after all, these legs were his own and it was easier to control. Without too much practice, he could already walk well!

He was also benefited from the recovery training from before. Although he was crippled, he still trained the muscles in his legs and became familiar with it.

Lin Yi walked into the bedroom, looked at Fen and struggled with making a decision. Majority of the nerves on the leg were on the thighs. He didn't mind it when he treated Tang Jucheng as they were both men. Tang Jucheng could keep his underwear on and there was nothing too much to hide in front of Lin Yi and his daughter.

But Fen was different. She was a girl and she wasn't too close to Lin Yi, it was hard for her to only wear an undergarment in front of Lin Yi!

"Boss, what's wrong?" Kang Xiaobo saw Lin Yi frowned and thought that Lin Yi was tired. He quickly suggested, "Boss, you should rest for a while first, it's fine. You already have the medicine and it'll only take so long to treat her. There's no rush!"

"No, Xiaobo, you misunderstood me!" Lin Yi waved his hands, "She needs to take off her pants for the treatment with only undergarment left. Fen's a girl, isn't it inconvenient for her?"

"Boss, are you worried about that? It's fine! You are the doctor and Fen's the patient. In front of a doctor, it's fine to be naked let alone having an undergarment on!" Kang Xiaobo replied genuinely,

“Boss, I trust you and also Tang Yun, my beautiful sister-in-law is watching from the side, I know you don’t have any other thoughts towards Fen!”

Chapter 1206: Feng Xiaoxiao Fainted Again

“Xiaobo, what are you on about?” Lin Yi heard Kang Xiaobo’s words and laughed, “I wasn’t thinking about how you would feel, but I’m worried that Fen’s too embarrassed to do it! What you said is no use!”

Tang Yun didn’t know what to say either. Naturally she knew that Lin Yi wouldn’t have any dirty thoughts of Fen. She heard that when Lin Yi treated Chu Pengzhan’s illness, she was fully naked. Even so, Lin Yi didn’t do anything to Chu Mengyao, how would he have that kind of thoughts towards Fen?

Hence, Tang Yun trusted Lin Yi and she turned to Fen, “Fen, do you want me to help you take your pants off?”

“Okay...” Fen nodded. Although she was a bit shy, but she knew that Lin Yi needed to do that out of kind intentions and he wouldn’t have dirty thoughts. She was nothing in comparison to Tang Yun and Tang Yun was next to them, Lin Yi would be blind to have thoughts about her!

As she pondered, she no longer felt embarrassed as she unbuckled her belt and Tang Yun helped her to take off her pants. Her pale legs were revealed and it was rather sexy and pretty.

Tang Yun and Fen both stole a glance at Lin Yi, but found out that his eyes were clear as ever without any sexual desire in it as he focused on studying the acupoints. They glanced at Kang Xiaobo, he looked like saliva was about to drip out which made Tang Yun smile slightly, and Fen looked helpless.

Fen glared at Kang Xiaobo and said, “Can you stop being so perverted?”

“Hehe, I was thinking that how pretty my wife will be once your leg is healed. I am certainly lucky!” Kang Xiaoxiao grinned.

Fen turned around and ignored him.

Although Fen and Kang Xiaobo had been dating for a while, they had never crossed that line. It wasn’t that Kang Xiaobo didn’t want to, but because he felt like it wasn’t the time yet. Now she no longer felt guilty, but her leg wasn’t completely healed and wouldn’t feel comfortable in such a situation.

So when Fen revealed her pretty legs, Kang Xiaobo drooled.

“Stop laughing, go hug your wife or tell her jokes,” Lin Yi ordered Kang Xiaobo, “When I pierce the needle later, it’ll hurt a lot, try to distract her!”

“Oh okay!” Kang Xiaobo heard Lin Yi’s words and quickly walked over. He hugged Fen and began to tell her a joke, “Once upon a time, there was a person called Zhong Pingliang. He fell in love with the beautiful girl in his class, Chu Mengyao...”

Kang Xiaobo began to tell her what happened to Zhong Pingliang. It all happened in his class and Fen wouldn't know about it. However, Fen had never been to high school and she was enjoying the story.

Lin Yi quickly pierced needles in and Fen's face distorted in pain. However, Kang Xiaobo distracted her quite well and the treatment continued smoothly.

There were many rumours about Lin Yi in the school, but before, Tang Yun didn't like Lin Yi and even disliked him, she didn't really care about those rumours. Now that she was dating Lin Yi, Lin Yi kept a low profile and the rumours about him decreased.

So Tang Yun didn't really know that Lin Yi peed on Zhong Pingliang and others' heads, and the glorious fight with Heibao bro during exercise time. Now that Kang Xiaobo retold the stories, even Tang Yun laughed on the side.

"I didn't know Zhong Pingliang was this unlucky!" Tang Yun exclaimed, but all the bad guys were unfortunate to meet Lin Yi. Zou Ruoming, Zhao Qibing and the others, weren't they all disciplined by Lin Yi?

"Haha..." Lin Yi smiled and pulled out all the needles on Fen's leg, "Alright, let's try walking."

"Huh? It's over already?" Although Fen's forehead was filled with sweat from pain and had hoped that Lin Yi would finish the treatment soon, she also wanted Lin Yi to cure it once and for all. She wanted to become a normal person badly!

Lin Yi picked up his phone and was taken aback by the caller's ID. The called was from Feng Tianlong, why did he call him at a time like this?

"Hello, Uncle Feng!" Lin Yi quickly picked up.

"Little Yi, where are you? Xiaoxiao fainted again! Can you come here as soon as possible? The doctors here said that they've done what they could..." Feng Tianlong's voice was different as it was filled with sorrow and panic.

"Huh? Where is she?" Lin Yi was shocked. Although he knew that the day was close, but he didn't know the day would come so soon!

"I'm at her apartment, can you come now? I'll send Little Li to pick you up?" Feng Tianlong asked nervously.

"It's fine, I'll rush over now! Uncle Feng, don't panic, I'll be there in a while, it'll be fine!" Lin Yi hung up and furrowed his brows. Although he comforted Feng Tianlong that Feng Xiaoxiao will be fine, but in fact, he wasn't certain about it at all!

"Lin Yi, what's wrong? What happened?" Tang Yun saw Lin Yi's expressions change and quickly asked.

"Boss, what's wrong?" Kang Xiaobo asked too.

“Xiaoxiao fainted again, he wants me to go and check,” Lin Yi said, “Yunyun, help me tell Aunty that I won’t have dinner here. Say sorry for me, I need to go first!”

“Wait, I’ll go with you!” Tang Yun heard Lin Yi’s words and her heart skipped a beat, she was also worried that Feng Xiaoxiao would die.

“But... Okay!” Lin Yi saw the care in Tang Yun’s eyes and knew that she wasn’t faking it. She was really worried for Feng Xiaoxiao! Normally speaking, a majority of girls would be happy to know that the girl who liked their boyfriend was dead, why would they care?

However, Tang Yun was different. Tang Yun was genuinely worried about Feng Xiaoxiao just like how worried she was when Chu Mengyao was poisoned. She didn’t fake any of it as she was truly caring!

Lin Yi thought that he was lucky enough to have such a generous and kind girlfriend!

“Boss, I’ll go too...” Kang Xiaobo’s relationship with Feng Xiaoxiao is quite good. When Feng Xiaoxiao first pursued Lin Yi, he even helped her with plans. Now that he heard Feng Xiaoxiao fainted, he also wanted to visit.

“Stay here with Fen. Her leg just recovered, you should walk around with her. Yunyun and I will go!” Lin Yi rejected Kang Xiaobo. He knew that this time, Feng Xiaoxiao didn’t faint like usual, but she was on the verge of dying. Hence, more people wouldn’t make it easier this time!

Chapter 1207: Strange

“Alright...” Kang Xiaobo nodded and didn’t say anything else, he knew that he had to listen to Lin Yi’s words.

They left the bedroom, Tang Yun quickly told her Dad and ran down with Lin Yi. They went down the stairs and got in the car before Tang Yun took in a deep breath, “Lin Yi, you can save Xiaoxiao, right?”

“I’m not sure yet, I need to check her condition...” Lin Yi smiled bitterly.

Tang Yun heard Lin Yi’s words and fell silent. How would she not understand what he said? Lin Yi meant that he wasn’t certain that he could save her! If Lin Yi had it within his grasp, such as when Lin Yi first promised to treat her father’s leg, he spoke fully and promised that he could heal it, but now Lin Yi said he had to look at Feng Xiaoxiao first!

Tang Yun knew that Feng Xiaoxiao was seriously in danger this time!

Lin Yi drove quickly and rushed past a few red lights, arriving at Feng Xiaoxiao’s residential district soon. Lin Yi and Tang Yun weren’t unfamiliar with it and after parking, Lin Yi sprinted to Feng Xiaoxiao’s apartment.

Feng Tianlong opened the door looking haggard, Lin Yi asked in a panic, “How is she doing, Uncle Feng?”

“This is Feng Xiaoxiao’s main doctor, Head Liu. Head Liu, please tell Little Yi about Xiaoxiao’s situation!” Feng Tianlong ordered a doctor in white standing close to him.

“Okay, Mr. Feng!” Head Liu nodded. Although he didn’t know what Lin Yi did, but he knew Feng Tianlong’s identity. He didn’t hide anything and reported, “Sir, Miss Feng’s illness re-occured suddenly. We have done everything we could but all the methods were useless. All life indicators are not looking well on her, her physical functions are all dropping...”

“Hm, let me see,” Lin Yi heard his words and quickly walked to Feng Xiaoxiao’s bed. Feng Xiaoxiao’s body was connected quite a few tubes and all kinds of wires. Rows of machines operated on her and Lin Yi frowned at it, “Take off all these!”

“Take them off?” Head Liu froze.

“Listen to him, take it all off!” Although Feng Tianlong didn’t know what Lin Yi meant, but since Lin Yi could save her last time, that meant that he must be able to save her this time as well. Hence, they just had to listen to his orders.

“Okay, Mr. Feng!” Head Liu heard Feng Tianlong’s agreement and began to take off the wires and tubes connected to Feng Xiaoxiao with other nurses.

Tang Yun saw Feng Xiaoxiao lying on the bed with an extremely pale face and felt upset. Although she knew that this day would come, she felt upset when it happened in front of her eyes.

“Lin Yi, can you help her? I beg you...” Tang Yun looked at Feng Xiaoxiao couldn’t bear to see it. After interacting with her for the past period of time, she already treated Feng Xiaoxiao as a good friend and if something happened to her, Tang Yun would be sad!

Tang Yun’s beg shocked Feng Tianlong. Others didn’t know it and thought that Tang Yun and Feng Xiaoxiao were good friends, it was reasonable for her to be worried, but Feng Tianlong knew that they were rivals in love!

Even though Tang Yun was the big wife and Xiaoxiao was the small wife according to the promise, no one would want a small wife to exist, right? But Tang Yun was worried for Feng Xiaoxiao! She didn’t look like she was faking it!

Who was Feng Tianlong? A special agent! He was skilled in observing people and if Tang Yun only pretended to be worried to make Lin Yi happy, he would have seen through her immediately! However, he could only see honesty and panic, no pretense!

In this moment, Feng Tianlong was extremely touched and admired her. This girl was really generous and kind. Lin Yi was lucky to have a girlfriend like her. Compared to his daughter, his daughter was probably more stingy and willful.

“Isn’t she also my girlfriend? I’ll definitely try my best..” Lin Yi didn’t know whether to laugh or cry as he watched Tang Yun. However, he still replied honestly and seriously.

“Okay...” Tang Yun nodded.

Lin Yi held Feng Xiaoxiao’s hand and turned to Feng Tianlong, “Don’t let anything disturb me!”

“Understood!” Feng Tianlong nodded and ordered Li Yifeng, “Little Li, guard the door, don’t let anyone in to disturb him!”

“Understood!” Li Yifeng touched the gun placed on his waist and nodded seriously as he quickly walked over to the door.

Lin Yi chanted the Art of Dragon Mastery. He witnessed Feng Xiaoxiao’s might last time and this time, he immediately entered sleep mode to avoid Feng Xiaoxiao sucking away all his energy at once. He entered the space in his jade and used the energy there to let Feng Xiaoxiao absorb it like a black hole!

Lin Yi’s expectation was right. As soon as he started the chant, the boundless energy in the space rushed into Feng Xiaoxiao’s body through his hands like waves!

But this time, Lin Yi felt slightly better. After all, the energy inside the space was infinite! But in the next second, Lin Yi was astonished! Lin Yi realised that the energy inside the space wasn’t enough for Feng Xiaoxiao at all! The energy inside his body was also flowing into Feng Xiaoxiao’s body little by little!

It was the first time Lin Yi encountered this. Whether he was healing General Weiwu, or level up for Uncle Fu and Song Lingshan, the energy transferred to them was done so through the space, he never experienced that the supply wasn’t enough for the demand!

He thought Feng Xiaoxiao’s body was strange before, but he didn’t expect it to be so strange! Lin Yi’s face changed and asked, “Old Jiao, what’s happening?”

“Strange, that’s indeed strange!” Jiao Yazhi also pondered, “Her body is strange, but it looks like all the energy you sent is useless. Her life’s at the end and it won’t work no matter how much energy you give her. You can only try to keep her alive, it’s impossible for her to wake up...”

“What do you mean?” Lin Yi heard Jiao Yazhi’s words and was astonished, “No use? How could that be? Do you mean that she’s going to die and nothing will work this time?”

“Not necessary. I had this feeling last time she fainted, but she lived for so long. It’s strange but I don’t know what’s strange... Ah, it would be nice if my body is here. I can go out and check. There’s something I just cannot confirm through you...” Jiao Yazhi sighed.

Chapter 1208: No Ways to Cure Her

“Even if that’s the case, I must try no matter what!” Lin Yi heard Jiao Yazhi’s words and felt slightly more relieved. Since he saved Feng Xiaoxiao last time, then he should be able to this time. After all, Jiao Yazhi said his body wasn’t here and his feelings weren’t as accurate.

Lin Yi sighed in relief as he thought of this. It would be fine as fine as he could save her, even if he had to transfer energy to her every few days. As long as he had the jade pendant, he could take all the energy he wanted.

Although the energy in Lin Yi’s body was flowing out slowly, a majority of the energy entered Feng Xiaoxiao’s body. And more and more energy rushed into her body from the jade.

Lin Yi was shocked. It looked like Feng Xiaoxiao didn’t absorb all the energy in his body, but in fact she was forced to stop because there was no more energy she could absorb.

Time past second by second but Feng Xiaoxiao's body was still absorbing Lin Yi's energy continuously without slowing down, they still flowed rapidly through Lin Yi's body!

Half an hour... An hour... Two hours... Five hours! Although Lin Yi's energy was leaving his body slowly, but it was becoming less and less. Feng Xiaoxiao was slowly absorbing everything, making Lin Yi panic while he clenched his teeth and kept on giving her energy.

"Old Jiao, what's happening? Her body needs constant energy, it doesn't look like it's going to stop anytime!" Lin Yi sounded he panicked.

"I don't know, it's strange, extremely strange! Her body is constantly absorbing the energy you give her, but it doesn't stay in her body. Where did the energy go?" Jiao Yazi frowned as he didn't even know what happened!

After Lin Yi drained out the last bit of energy in his body, Lin Yi knew that it was different to what he had expected. He expected Feng Xiaoxiao to wake up after this a long time ago. Last time, he only gave some energy to Feng Xiaoxiao and she woke up, but this time, he didn't only give all of his energy to Feng Xiaoxiao, but as well as a large amount of energy from the jade.

To speak frankly, if he gave the same amount of energy to Uncle Fu or Song Lingshan, they would've levelled up already! But Feng Xiaoxiao still laid in bed without moving. Although Lin Yi was in the sleep cultivation mode, he could sense what was happening in reality, Feng Xiaoxiao was still unconscious!

Lin Yi subconsciously stopped chanting as it wasn't helping him transfer energy to her. All of his pure energy went into Feng Xiaoxiao's body and he had nothing left. When he tried to detect the energy flow in Feng Xiaoxiao's body, he could only pick up that she was still a normal person without the familiar energy fluctuations in General Weiwu's body.

Lin Yi stopped the chant and the energy transfer stopped abruptly. Feng Xiaoxiao couldn't absorb Lin Yi's own pure energy and hence stopped absorbing energy.

Lin Yi didn't have time to recover first as Feng Xiaoxiao was in an urgent situation. He could wait a while to recover as it wouldn't negatively impact him for a while.

Lin Yi opened his eyes, Tang Yun and Feng Tianlong who had been observing his face closely both took a step forward and asked in unison, "How is she?"

"Weird. According to last time, Xiaoxiao returned to normal after I transferred some pure energy to her, but this time I gave all of my energy to her but it's not effective at all..." Lin Yi smiled bitterly. He didn't dare to tell them about the space in the jade pendant as it was something he shouldn't tell others easily. Hence, Lin Yi only mentioned himself and even so, Feng Tianlong was already shocked.

"What? You gave all your pure energy to Xiaoxiao?" Feng Tianlong widened his eyes.

"Yes," Lin Yi smiled. He didn't suppress his powers and began to chant the Art of Dragon Mastery, the tiniest amount of pure energy in the air began to fluctuate. Feng Tianlong could clearly feel it and realised that Lin Yi really had no powers left!

Other than a slightly stronger flow of pure energy compared to ordinary people, there was nothing else left!

“You... You lost your powers? You lost your powers for Xiaoxiao?” Feng Tianlong looked at Lin Yi in disbelief. Feng Tianlong was also a cultivator and he knew how important it was to a cultivator!

Lin Yi tried to save Feng Xiaoxiao and lost all of his powers, how intimate did they have to be for him to do that? Feng Tianlong asked himself and knew that he would do it because he was her father. And the love of a father is immense and great!

But who was Lin Yi? Why would Lin Yi do that? Just because Feng Xiaoxiao became his girlfriend for a few days? They weren't so close that he could do this for her, were they?

“I can regain them, Uncle Feng, don't worry about that...” Lin Yi waved his hands, “You need to think about her first. Why did it work last time but it didn't work this time?”

Feng Tianlong and Tang Yun exchanged glances with each other. They knew they weren't able to help him and didn't dare to make any conclusions easily as they waited for Lin Yi to make the next move.

Lin Yi was panicking. It worked before, why didn't it work this time? Why? Lin Yi couldn't figure out why.

He touched Feng Xiaoxiao and checked her life force, tragically discovering that he had no idea where did all his energy go as there were none in her body. If she absorbed all the energy, it was probably enough for him to create an earth division or even sky division master, yet Feng Xiaoxiao's body was still empty.

It looked like he had no other way to cure her and he could only ask for help! Although Feng Tianlong said that he took Feng Xiaoxiao's mother to Old Man Lin and he couldn't do anything, it had already been so many years and perhaps he would know the solution now!

Or even if he didn't have a way to cure her, it would be good if he had a way to keep her alive for now.

Lin Yi quickly picked up his phone and called the Old Man without hiding from Feng Tianlong and Tang Yun.

Hurry up and pick up! What is this Old Man doing?

For the first time, Lin Yi felt the Old Man was always so slow in doing everything!

Chapter 1209: Yin Energy

Finally after a few rings, Old Man Lin's lazy voice came through the phone, “Lil' Yi? What made you remember to give the old man a call? Did you see Er Goudan? Is he fine?”

“Old man, I don't have time for this right now. I need urgent help!” Lin Yi cut off Old Man's words. He was worried about Feng Xiaoxiao's safety and he had no time to chat with him.

“It's a weird sickness. You've seen it and treated it before. You didn't have a way to treat it back then but do you have a new method to cure it now?” Lin Yi didn't know how to tell him because he didn't have time to tell him Feng Xiaoxiao's situation from the beginning to the end. Even if he had time, he didn't know how to explain it properly! After all, he was only half familiar with Feng Xiaoxiao's situation.

"What strange sickness? What are you talking about?" Lin Yi's words confused Old Man Lin as he didn't know what Lin Yi was talking about.

"I'll give the phone to Feng Tianlong and he'll talk to you!" Lin Yi tried to save time as each second was extremely valuable. It would be easier for Feng Tianlong to talk to Old Man instead of himself.

Feng Tianlong watched as Lin Yi passed his phone to him and paused slightly, but still picked up, "Hello, I'm Feng Tianlong..."

"Feng Tianlong... Feng Tianlong..." Old Man Lin muttered the name and suddenly felt overwhelmed. Memories flow out and he felt as if he returned to the old days! Those days and their friendship was irreplaceable.

"Hello? Who is this?" Feng Tianlong found it strange that the man's voice sounded familiar but somewhat strange. He only muttered his name without speaking, making Feng Tianlong confused.

"Lil' Feng, I'm Lin Dongfang." Old Man Lin sighed, "I never imagined that Lil' Yi would be with you..."

"Mr. Lin, it's really you!" Feng Tianlong sank into a touched and excited state, "Mr. Lin, where are you? I've heard that you now live in seclusion and there was no news on you and team leader..."

"Let's skip the reminisce first, let's talk about your situation first. Isn't Susu gone? What... Oh, is it your daughter?" Lin Dongfang calculated the age and sighed that time was merciless! In a blink of an eye, it had been almost twenty years. It meant that Feng Tianlong's daughter was also at the end of her life.

He felt guilty for not finding a way to treat Feng Tianlong's wife's illness, but it wasn't a usual condition. He had never seen or even heard of it before!

He had been researching on it for all these years yet he still hasn't found a way to cure it! He recalled that he confidently promised Feng Tianlong and his wife, Xiao Susu, that he would find a way to cure their daughter, but he made no progress over the years!

"Yes, my daughter Feng Xiaoxiao. Little Yi treating her right now. Mr. Lin, do you have a way to treat her?" Feng Tianlong never thought he could meet Lin Dongfang again at a time like this, and if Lin Dongfang had a way, perhaps the situation will change!

"Pass the phone to Lil Yi, I'll talk to him about it." Old Man Lin sighed as he couldn't bear to tell Feng Tianlong had he didn't know what to do either.

"Ok, please wait a moment!" Feng Tianlong knew that it wasn't the time to talk as they needed to save Feng Xiaoxiao first. Feng Tianlong quickly passed the phone back to Lin Yi, "Mr. Lin wants to speak to you."

"Old man, what do you say? You know what it is now right?" Lin Yi panicked, "Do you know how to cure it?"

"No... Or temporarily, no." Old Man Lin sighed, "I read numerous ancient books to check this condition and I've visited many people, there's only a brief conclusion we've made known!"

“Oh? Tell me what it is!” Lin Yi’s heart sank when Old Man Lin said no, but he didn’t want to give up. He wanted Old Man to tell him more about Feng Xiaoxiao’s condition and see if he could find a way to cure it.

After all, he had Jiao Yazi and he could talk to him about it. Perhaps they will be able to find a way to solve the problem.

“Well... Her condition is similar to Xiao Susu, and she was poisoned by the legendary venomous insect. But I don’t know if it’s the same for her although it looks similar!” Old Man Lin replied, “I went to visit Xiao Susu’s hometown, I also made Feng Tianlong give me Xiao Susu’s family tree to me through the investigation office and found a problem!”

“Xiao Susu? What problem?” Lin Yi quickly asked.

“Xiao Susu is Feng Tianlong’s wife,” Old Man Lin said, “Xiao Susu’s ancestor is a sect protector like the high priest. All of her ancestors were protectors but without knowing why, her line branched away from her original sect, or perhaps her branch was perished. They lost their mind cultivation method to guide the Yin energy out of their body and caused all this tragedies...”

“Yin energy?” Lin Yi didn’t know there was such a story behind it and he was surprised, “What should I do now? Old Man, what did you mean by there’s temporarily no solution? Does it mean that it could still be cured?”

“Yes. Yin energy is cold energy and it will become weak when it comes in contact with something stronger. If there’s an appropriate mind cultivation method with suitable style of cultivation, the cultivators can slowly guide the Yin energy for their own use, becoming a supporting type of pure energy and to increase their power! In other words, using the stronger one as the main cultivation and using Yin energy as the supporting cultivation. However, Feng Tianlong’s wife and daughter, even the generations that came before them all mainly cultivated Yin energy, hence their bodies encountered problems!” Old Man Lin explained, “Yin energy is similar to Er Goudan’s poison, it will swallow parts of the body’s nutrients. As they age, the Yin energy inside them will age too. When they become twenty years old, the Yin energy will be formed completely and swallow all the nutrients left over. Other than waiting for the energy to eat away the body’s vitality, there was no other possibility.”

“Oh my...” Lin Yi was shocked. So this was what Feng Xiaoxiao’s condition was! No wonder her hands were always cold when he touched them...

Chapter 1210: Nothing Works

But, Tang Yun had the same type of cold hands as well! Lin Yi didn’t pay attention back then, but it seemed now that there really was a problem! But wasn’t Tang Yun fine? Or did Tang Yun just have cold hands since birth?

“For the methods regarding treatment... They exist, but they’re not practical right now.” Old Lin sighed, “This is a life we’re talking about, after all.”

“What methods? Tell me, we’re in a rush here, Old Lin! You’ve become so draggy!” Lin Yi rushed him helplessly.

“First, you need to find someone whose practitioner art has the light aspect of the sun- this person would have to move their qi slowly into her body’s dark aura regularly. It wouldn’t solve the problem entirely, but it could extend her life! This person, however, must be someone above Sky Class!” Old Lin said, “However, this sort of method has its limits. As first, the Sky Class will be able to hold it at bay, but as the years go by, the dark aura will get stronger, and it’ll take even more effort to suppress it- until it becomes impossible at one point!”

“Hm? Old Lin, the Art of Dragon Mastery I’m practicing- isn’t that a light aspect art? Then my qi should be able to work on Xiaoxiao, right?” Lin Yi remembered that the first time he used his qi on her it turned out to be effective. Why did it not work the second time? Did he miss something?

“Your Art of Dragon Mastery is exactly that, but you musn’t try it! Otherwise you’ll lose your life!” Old Lin quickly warned Lin Yi, “You’re not strong enough at all, and it wouldn’t work. You give her your qi now and you’ll get sucked dry- all your qi will become a delicious feast for the dark aura!”

“Ugh... I already got sucked dry...” Lin Yi said awkwardly.

Lin Yi froze upon hearing that tone, as well- in his mind, Old Lin was someone who was never surprised, always composed and poker-faced. Even the last time he got hurt, Old Lin never panicked, either, only telling Lin Yi to come back to the village to hide things out. This time, it was clear that he was worried!

This touched Lin Yi- the old man always looked as if he didn’t care, but once things went wrong it was evident that wasn’t the case.

“Yes, my strength level is zero right now,” Lin Yi said.

“You’re not dead yet? Are you man or ghost?” Old Lin asked.

“Not dead, I’m alive,” Lin Yi didn’t know if he should be amused.

“As long as you’re not dead!” Old Lin breathed out in relief, “You can get your strength back through practicing, but nothing’s possible when you’re dead! Good, good, you didn’t die!”

“...” Lin Yi was a bit speechless, “I have experience from last time. When I was in Yanujing, I got sucked dry too, but because of that I broke through after practicing! I think that this time will probably allow me to break through, as well- I’m around Mystic mid phase peak’s bottleneck already, I’ll be able to burst through!”

“Wha-!” Old Lin’s eyes went wide upon hearing the words, “You brat, you used her to play levelling up? Are you trying to give me a heart attack?”

“It’s not levelling up... It’s just that I was close to breaking through, and after getting destroyed and regaining strength again, it was easier to push through with the flow...” Lin Yi smiled bitterly.

“Fine, the point now is that you can’t do this yet,” Old Lin said seriously, “Even if you get all your strength back and give it to her, repeating the process, it wouldn’t help. Your qi will get eaten up by the dark aura, making it stronger!”

"I see..." Lin Yi felt rather troubled- his good intentions had backfired? All that qi he gave Xiaoxiao, not only did it not benefit her, it was making things worse? As for getting a Sky Class with a practitioner's art with a light aspect... He couldn't make someone, not right now. The old man said that this would only extend her life, after all, it wasn't a permanent solution! And so Lin Yi moved his attention to the second method, "Old man, since there's a first method there are other ways too, right?"

"There are. There's a legendary fruit called Fire Spirit's Fruit- it's considered a fruit of pure light, encompassing the light qi of the earth and skies. One helping and it will hold down the dark aura for more than ten years! Of course, it varies depending on the person. Some will only get seven or eight years instead of ten, but this is the more solid method," Old Lin said, "Much safer than the first one, too!"

"Fire Spirit's Fruit? I've never heard of that before, what is it?" Lin Yi blinked.

"I don't know either," Old Lin's words were like a bucket of cold water.

"Ugh..." Lin Yi wanted to bark at this guy- why did he tell him this if he didn't know? Wasn't this useless then? Lin Yi held back his frustration, "Old man, why'd you tell me then, if you don't know?"

"I read an introduction on this type of fruit from an ancient text, it's an optimal item to hold down the dark aura, but I have no idea what this thing looks like or where I can find it," Old Lin sighed, "I would've went searching if I knew how, I wouldn't have waited so long!"

The old man was right- he would've went to find it already if he knew how. Lin Yi didn't think about that because of how rushed he was.

"Then wouldn't this be just a legend then? It's unachievable?" Lin Yi asked, troubled.

"Yes, unless you can get a Fire Spirit's fruit and let her try it," Old Lin nodded.

"Is there a third way?" Lin Yi asked.

"A third way... I guess so... Find a top tier book of practitioner art of a dark aspect, and by the time she reaches Sky Class she'd be able to use that dark aura for her own strength!" Old Lin said after thinking about it.

"That's..." Lin Yi was speechless- putting aside how difficult finding that would be, how was she supposed to level up in the city like this, where there's little amounts of qi? And to Sky Class..? The most important thing, however, was the fact that she was unconscious! How was she supposed to train? Lin Yi couldn't help it, "Isn't all this bullshit then?"

"It is bullshit, I said it from the start, I can't do anything!" Old Lin sighed.
