Chapter 1211: Missed Something

"..." Lin Yi didn't know what to say- it was true, the old man said that he couldn't do anything from the start, it was Lin Yi who was stubborn! But he still didn't give up, "But something's not right, old man- Feng Xiaoxiao fainted before, and I used qi on her that time, she woke up last time!"

"I almost forgot about that!" Old Lin went solemn all of a sudden, "That was absolutely impossible- your qi right now has no benefits and would only worsen things for her! Think back clearly- the last time you were able to make her wake up, did something else happen? You shouldn't have worked at all, you've misunderstood!"

"Misunderstood?" Lin Yi blinked as he thought back- Xiaoxiao fainted, and he hugged her and channeled the Art of Dragon Mastery. She woke up a while later, that was it! Nothing special happened!

"Yes, I think you've been misdirected," Old Lin said, very certain, "I've researched this sickness way longer than you have, and while I don't know what was up with it, I know that it couldn't have been your qi"

"Ugh... But I really can't think of anything!" Lin Yi was really troubled- the possibility of success was right there, but he couldn't remember! He knew that perhaps he missed something, but what?

"I can't help you there- you need to remember on your own," Old Lin said faintly, "But, on an unrelated topic- you seem to care about this Feng Xiaoxiao's life quite a lot?"

"Yeah... She's my girlfriend," Lin Yi said certainly.

"Oh?" Old Lin gave an 'oh?' with some hint of oddness to it, "Then good luck."

Lin Yi hung up, his heart a mess- Old Lin's information was quite useful, and he understood her situation quite a lot more than he used to, but it still wouldn't help them now!

"How was it? Did Old Lin have a way?" Tianlong asked quickly, despite knowing the answer from Lin Yi's disappointed look. He still didn't want to give up, and asked anyway.

Lin Yi shook his head slightly. There was no need to lie to him, there was no point- Xiaoxiao was dying there, and giving him false hope would ruin him.

Tianlong sighed sharply. He'd expected it.

"Uncle Feng, let me think about it more..." Lin Yi waved his hand, telling Tianlong to calm down first. He needed to remember how he managed to save her back in the hotel!

Tianlong nodded, his face still tense.

Lin Yi closed his eyes and thought back to the scene- but nothing special came to mind.

"Elder Jiao, help me think back to that time in the hotel in Yanjing, what happened? From start to finish, every single detail!" Lin Yi asked.

“Uh... Alright,” Elder Jiao thought about it, “That day Feng Xiaoxiao went to take a shower, you waited for her in the house, and after some silence on her part you went to check, realizing that she’d fainted in the washroom, and so you lifted her up, touching her boobs a bit...”

“Ha?” Lin Yi’s face reddened, “Elder Jiao, don’t mention that stuff... I didn’t do it on purpose...”

“Didn’t you say every single detail?” Elder Jiao hmped.

“Ugh... Fine, please go on!” Lin Yi didn’t care about being embarrassed or anything at this point. The details were what mattered!

“You realized what you were doing, and you almost threw Xiaoxiao off. And then you accidentally cutting your arm on the lock, and then you brought her to the bed to save her...” Elder Jiao said detailedly.

“Wait, cut my arm?” Lin Yi frowned. If there was anything odd in the entire incident, it was the fact that he cut his arm! He remembered that there was blood everywhere, on Xiaoxiao’s body and on her bed- the second day she even thought he did something to her...

“Yes, you cut your arm,” Elder Jiao suddenly said, “Right, your blood is also a light aspect element because of the Art of Dragon Mastery. Could it be that your blood was the thing that saved her?”

“Oh?” Lin Yi thought that it was possible, and so he instantly bit his finger, bleeding it onto Xiaoxiao’s forehead...

“Yi, what are you doing?!” Tianlong jumped, not understanding why Lin Yi would do this.

Tang Yun paused as well, not understanding why Lin Yi did this, but there must have been some reason. She turned to Tianlong, “Uncle Feng, please calm down- Lin Yi must have thought of something.”

“Oh...” Tianlong looked at Tang Yun, a little embarrassed. Even a nineteen year old girl was more composed than he was! It was true, he was in a state of chaos from his concern of Xiaoxiao.

What Lin Yi didn’t expect, however, was that the blood was seeping into Xiaoxiao’s skin, getting absorbed drop by drop! Lin Yi’s body, upon entering golden Class, had already purified the impurities from his blood, and so his fresh blood was extremely pure and clean- Xiaoxiao was absorbing all of it!

A look of relief came across Lin Yi’s face- what luck! If Elder Jiao hadn’t reminded him, he would’ve forgotten about this completely! He didn’t expect that this little detail was what saved her!

Looking at his daughter absorbing Lin Yi’s blood, Tianlong’s eyes widened as well. He didn’t know what the hell he was doing, but whatever it was, it was good for her- she wouldn’t be absorbing that blood if it didn’t help!

Tang Yun put her hand over her mouth, too, not expecting that Lin Yi was using his blood to save Xiaoxiao! If it were a bit of blood he could handle it, but he had been at least bleeding for half a bottle’s worth now- could he take that blood loss?

Tang Yun wanted to stop him, but he knew that he wanted to continue for sure. She didn’t want anything to happen to Xiaoxiao, either!

Chapter 1212: You Know Something, Don't You?

Time passed, and the pale look on Xiaoxiao's face started regaining color, much to Lin Yi's relief. It seemed that Xiaoxiao would be alright now!

Tianlong and Tang Yun had been watching the change Xiaoxiao was going through, too. The two breathed out in relief.

A while later, Xiaoxiao opened her eyes to the sight of Lin Yi's bleeding finger! She jumped up and shrieked, thinking that she was still in a nightmare, "Ah!!!"

"Xiaoxiao, you're awake?" Lin Yi then pulled his finger back and channeled the Art of Dragon Mastery, fixing the wound- Except that there wasn't any energy in his body anymore, he couldn't fix it.

Lin Yi smiled bitterly, and took out a bottle of injury medicine to apply it. He'd forgotten that he gave all his qi to Xiaoxiao.

"Lin Yi honey?" Xiaoxiao saw that it was Lin Yi now- but why was he dripping blood onto her head?

"Xiaoxiao, you're really awake- you're really awake!" Tianlong quickly walked over to Xiaoxiao's bed, looking at her.

"Ah... Dad, why're you here too?" Xiaoxiao blushed- did she call Lin Yi 'honey' in front of her dad?

"Xiaoxiao, you fainted just now, don't you know?" Tianlong didn't have time to care about what Xiaoxiao called Lin Yi at this point, although he didn't mind if she did. From his perspective, this son-in-law was a very good one, he was really pleased with him! He'd be happy if the two were together.

"I... Fainted, I think so..." Xiaoxiao remembered, "I felt uncomfortable in my chest, and I lay on bed, and it got worse, and I seemed to have fallen asleep..."

"Xiaoxiao, you almost died! Yi saved you!" Tianlong sighed in relief. He didn't know when she would faint and be close to dying again, but now she was alive and well, and that was always better!

"Ah!" Xiaoxiao recalled that Lin Yi had been dangling his bleeding finger in front of her face- was that him curing her? She thought about it- it was possible, she woke up into a bed of blood that time in Yanjing, she even thought that Lin Yi had violated her! Thinking that he was using blood to save her, Xiaoxiao was really grateful, "Thank you, Lin Yi honey!"

"No need to thank me," Lin Yi smiled faintly, "You said it yourself, I'm your honey, why would you thank me?"

"Hehe, you're right!" Xiaoxiao was back to her usual self again.

Tang Yun let out a long sigh, looking at Lin Yi, "Lin Yi, are you alright?"

"I'm fine, just need to rest a bit," Lin Yi did look quite weak right now- in truth, he was. He lost all his qi, and he'd bled a bunch. Of course he'd look weak.

But he was really glad that he found a way to maintain her life- if his qi didn't work, his blood did! He could just wake her up again!

But thinking about it, it hadn't been that long since the auction, and Xiaoxiao's sickness acted up again. Lin Yi wasn't very optimistic about this- when will the sickness act up again, and would his blood work at that point?

This time, it took quite a bit more of blood. The last time it was an unintentional scrape, and it worked right away- this time, it took far more!

Other than fatigue, Lin Yi seemed fine. Tang Yun nodded.

"Yun Yun, you be with Xiaoxiao for a bit, I'll go sleep and rest up, it's getting heavy." Lin Yi felt that his eyelids were fighting against him. His adrenaline and care for Xiaoxiao kept him going, but he was completely starting to relax now.

"Lin Yi honey, use my bed! I only have this one bed here. I'm fine now!" Xiaoxiao sat up from her bed.

Looking at that energetic face of hers, Lin Yi nodded, not rejecting her. It was fine now, and so he fell onto the bed, entering the jade space enthusiastically.

Tang Yun, Tianlong, and Xiaoxiao, on the other hand, quietly left the room, closing the door for him...

"Xiaoxiao, you really gave us a fright this time!" Tang Yun patted her chest as she looked at the energetic, usual, Xiaoxiao.

"Hehe, Yun Yun sis, were you really worried? If I died no one would be here to try and take away your Lin Yi honey!" Xiaoxiao grinned.

Tang Yun blushed and cleared her throat, but turned solemn right after, "Xiaoxiao, what are you thinking? I treat you as a real friend now, a real sister! If anything happened to you, I'd be really sad! If possible, I wished that you'd continue being healthy and fine..."

"Really?" Xiaoxiao was very happy to hear that- Tang Yun was nice to her, and never bullied her because she was the small wife, always treating her well... Maybe she was the best big wife of the whole world?

"Yeah, really!" Tang Yun said from the bottom of her heart.

"Hahaha, I'm so happy!" Xiaoxiao was in a great mood, but something popped into her mind, and her face changed, "Yun Yun sis, you know something, don't you?"

Those words that Tang Yun said- the sensitive Xiaoxiao picked up on it! Tang Yun said that, if possible, she wanted her to be healthy and fine forever... What was with the 'possible?' Did she know that she didn't have much time left?

Lin Yi paused- she didn't think that Xiaoxiao was this sensitive, even noticing the problem with her words just like that! Tang Yun didn't know what to say- if she said she'd known from earlier, wouldn't she think that they had been pitying her?

She didn't know what to say.

“It was me- I told them everything just now!” Tianlong spoke up, “Xiaoxiao, you really gave me a heart attack- I thought you were going to leave us for good, and so... I told them everything!”

Chapter 1213: You Wouldn't Blame Me, Would You?

Tianlong had been listening to their conversation with a heart full of thankfulness towards Tang Yun. He felt happy for his daughter, meeting someone as reasonable and kind as Tang Yun before the last days of her life! Someone else would've hoped she left as soon as possible!

He quickly explained the situation when he noticed that his daughter was about to figure things out- he didn't want Xiaoxiao to think that Lin Yi and Tang Yun pitied her.

“Ah!” Xiaoxiao jumped- that had to be it! So both Lin Yi honey and Tang Yun sis knew... she exhaled, so be it- they had to know sooner or later, it was easier now that her father explained!

Otherwise, she wouldn't know how to tell this to Lin Yi! This had been on her mind, guiltily her all the time- she didn't want Lin Yi to suffer the pain her death would bring, but she couldn't pull herself out from this happy dream!

And so Xiaoxiao's heart was really troubled- she didn't want to leave him, but she had no choice! She lived in self blame and suffering all the time, always waking up to nightmares plus, not only did she have a boyfriend like Lin Yi, she had a big sister like Tang Yun who treated her so well!

Friendship, love- she had it all, but she didn't want to lose them!

Now that her father had told Tang Yun and Lin Yi, Xiaoxiao felt much better.

“Yun Yun sis, you guys wouldn't blame me, would you... I've been hiding this from you...” Xiaoxiao didn't dare to look at Tang Yun anymore.

“We won't... In fact, we sympathize with you!” Tang Yun sighed, “Xiaoxiao, to be honest- I was really shocked when I heard this, but thinking of your personality and how you went to the extremes... We made the connection. You knew that you didn't have much time left, that's why you lived like that, right?”

“Yeah...” Xiaoxiao nodded. It was natural for her to come to that conclusion after learning the truth.

“But you need to trust Lin Yi- he'll find a way to cure you for sure! Right when we all thought there wasn't any hope, he changed everything and brought you back...” Tang Yun encouraged.

“Yeah, I believe him...” Xiaoxiao nodded, but she still couldn't bring herself to look at Tang Yun!

“Let's go, we'll make Lin Yi some food? He'll be quite hungry once he wakes, we didn't get to eat today!” Tang Yun said as she held Xiaoxiao's hands.

“Okay!” Xiaoxiao said happily- she loved preparing meals filled with love for Lin Yi!

Tianlong was in a bit of disbelief as he saw how well the two got along- did these two women really live in peace without any fights? But this was what it was, and he had to believe it! Tang Yun was genuine, he could tell!

Perhaps Tang Yun did what she did at first because she pitied her, but now, other than that sympathy, she gave Xiaoxiao true friendship and care.

Tianlong knew that he shouldn't stay here any longer. He cleared his throat, "Xiaoxiao, I'll be going now! I still have something to do!"

"Okay, see you!" Xiaoxiao wanted her dad to leave, too- there were so many things she couldn't say in front of him!

Tianlong looked at Li Yifeng, and he understood as well. Taking Doctor Liu with them, the two left Xiaoxiao's apartment, along with Tianlong.

Shutting the door, there was only Tang Yun, Xiaoxiao, and the sleeping Lin Yi left!

"Yun Yun sis, actually, I really don't want to leave you guys, I really don't want to! I think that it's the biggest gift that I was able to meet you guys before my final days!" Xiaoxiao said as she got out the kitchen equipment, emotional.

"Me too, Xiaoxiao. That bet with you at the beginning, I went with it because of frustration, but after spending time with you... I think of you as my best friend now!" Tang Yun said earnestly as well, "And so I was thinking- if it's possible, we... we could live together forever?"

"Okay!!" Xiaoxiao nodded her head with all her might, "I'd love to have a big sis for the rest of my life!"

"Haha... Alright, let's push away the unhappy thoughts and make some food..." Tang Yun said.

"Alright!" Xiaoxiao started getting busy...

Upon entering the jade space, Lin Yi enthusiastically started channelling the art of Dragon Mastery, greedily sucking all the energy within the jade space.

Not only did he need to recover from the blood loss, he also needed more qi to regain his strength!

Elder Jiao shook his head as he looked at Lin Yi, "You've fallen quite a bit for her, haven't you? Isn't this too big of a loss this time?"

"Rebirth through destruction..." Lin Yi said faintly, not giving any more words. He needed to train right now- he didn't have time to talk to this guy!

"You brat, I was trying to be nice!" Elder Jiao glared before turning away from Lin Yi.

Lin Yi had already experienced losing all of his strength a couple of times already, and while he didn't waste one second absorbing the qi, he didn't rush things. He'd be able to regain his strength sooner or later, anyway.

The qi inside the jade space entered Lin Yi, and this was something he had done many times already. The first time, he wasn't able to use all of the energy for himself, and could only actively absorb a bit!

But after getting destroyed and recovering a few times, he was now really used to it, and could use all the energy inside the space, from the top of his head to his surroundings. This greatly increased the speed of his practicing!

If it weren't in the jade space but outside, then Lin Yi would be absorbing energy from everything within a radius of a couple hundred kilometers! If anyone were there to see it, they'd be stunned from the tornado of energy swirling towards Lin Yi, who rested in the center of it!

Elder Jiao, however, didn't look surprised, although he did seem intrigued by the swirling energy around Lin Yi. This kid was making it a bigger and bigger scene after each time!

Chapter 1214: Had to Give Up

Inside the jade space, all the energy was being absorbed by Lin Yi, but it still wasn't enough! Feeling that the absorption rate was too slow, Lin Yi focused on gathering more energy to his immediate surroundings, letting his body absorb that passively as well!

Lin Yi first helped his body recover by increasing the rate of blood production- this wasn't a hard process and was practically the same as when he repaired himself after getting injured.

Once his body recovered, he started recovering his strength- he was like a big empty tank, gulping down big chunks of energy!

Time always passed by quickly when practicing, and he felt the energy within him expand and expand, from his state of zero strength to golden class early phase, middle phase, golden class late phase peak, and Mystic mid phase...

And finally, Lin Yi was now at his strength level of Mystic mid phase!

But this was no surprise- he had done this a lot of times already.

He didn't stop, however, and continued channeling the Art of Dragon MAstery, planning to break through to Mystic mid phase peak!!

This was how things were- you press on, fail, and press on with more strength!

If he couldn't burst through now, it'd take a lot more effort to make a breakthrough next time! He didn't want to waste this chance, and so he gritted his teeth through it!

But, breaking through wasn't that easy- you needed to be at the right place at the right time, and many people would get stuck on their current level for years, while some for their entire lives! Did they never reach the wall that stopped them?

No, some people did reach that wall, even walked alongside it- it was just that this wall was too strong to break through!

Lin Yi didn't want to admit it, but he had to admit it- this attack on the wall was a failure!

He failed! This was the first time that his rebirth through destruction didn't work!

His charge to get through into Mystic mid phase peak didn't work, and was a bit different! He couldn't get any energy into him once he was full!

This was like a plastic bag filled with stuff, and even if it were a tiny thing you wanted to squeeze in, it was impossible! This was why Lin Yi always failed to break through the wall!

But this time, he was able to squeeze more into the already full plastic bag... Yet he was still unable to break through!

"Fuu... It doesn't work!" Lin Yi breathed out, opening his eyes. After resting a bit, he went back to make his attack to Mystic mid phase peak! He didn't want to give up!

The energy within the jade space channelled around Lin Yi once more at an incredible rate- he'd already become used to the method of absorbing energy, and he was a master still of the Art of Dragon Mastery. It could be said that breaking through to the second stage was something at his fingertips, but something- that little something- was missing! What he needed now was to wait for the stone door to open once more, and he'd be able to get the second stage of the secret of the Art of Dragon Mastery!

The first stage was already amazing enough as it was, much, much stronger than the other arts. Lin Yi had so much at his fingertips- so what would the second stage feel like? Lin Yi really did anticipate it, but he regretted it as well. Why didn't he discover this jade space earlier? If he had, he'd already have entered full completion of the first stage of Dragon Mastery, and he wouldn't have had to wait so many years! He would've been able to open the stone door five years ago!

But he was just thinking about it. He couldn't be too greedy, after all – everything he already had was good enough for him!

Once, twice, and thrice...

The energy continued gathering around Lin Yi, but he simply could not break through that wall!

He could continue getting energy in, but it always felt like there was just that little bit of a gap left! A bit more, and he'd break through!

But there was always a limit to the amount of energy he could absorb, he couldn't push through it! This new energy that got absorbed into him was used right away, and he couldn't stack it!

It was like someone pushing against a door- he wasn't strong enough, but he was almost there- he knew that if he used even a bit more of strength, the door would open, but that bit of strength simply wasn't there! It wasn't like you could summon all his strength once again since you would have already used it!

Lin Yi was like that- the energy within him was very full, and only that little bit more of energy was needed to break through, just that little bit!

This sort of situation was quite frustrating, and he opened his eyes, looking at Elder Jiao who seemed to be a bit amused. Lin Yi looked troubled, "Elder Jiao, how come I can't break through even though there's just a bit left?"

"It's simple- you just broke through into mid phase not long ago! Wanting to step forward from there was difficult in the first place! It hasn't been long enough, your current strength isn't stable yet," Elder Jiao said simply, "It'd be a surprise if you could break through now!"

“But...” Lin Yi wasn’t willing to give up! The break through was just in front of him, and he couldn’t do it! It was like a plate of delicious food in front of him that he couldn’t eat!

He tried a couple more times, and all of them ended in failure. He wanted to give up, but he wasn’t willing to! Using this sort of rebirth through destruction method always worked before, and now it didn’t! It seemed like late phase Mystic wasn’t something you broke through into that easily!

Lin Yi was disappointed, but he came back to reality anyway, only to realize that the house was already dark! It was dusk!

He sat up and walked out his room. Opening the door, it was a bright light that hit him. Luckily, his eyes could adapt faster than normal people and didn’t even flinch from the light. He could still see the scene in the living room.

Xiaoxiao and Tang Yun were watching TV, in cartoon pajamas on the sofa!

The TV was on, and the two had evidently fallen asleep. It was already one in the morning, so of course they’d be asleep! It had to have been tough for them to have waited this long for him.

Chapter 1215: Who Slept on the Sofa

“Ah... Lin Yi? You’re awake?” Tang Yun was worried about Lin Yi- she saw how much blood and effort he used, after all, and so even after she’d fallen asleep, she still missed Lin Yi.

Xiaoxiao, also, jumped up from the sofa, and blurted out, “Lin Yi honey, you’re okay now? Wanna eat something?”

Lin Yi felt touched as he looked at the two, not sure if he should be amused, “You guys are tired, you should rest. I’ll make something myself.

“Not tired, we’ve slept already, and the dishes are all ready, we just need to put them into the pan!” Xiaoxiao waved her hand and rubbed her eyes.

Tang Yun stood up as well, “We haven’t eaten yet, let’s eat together.”

Lin Yi couldn’t help but sigh- if he’d known that this would happen he wouldn’t have tried that many times in the jade space, wasting so much time- he might as well have waited until nighttime to experiment with all that!

“Let’s go then, I’ll help,” Lin Yi nodded.

In the kitchen, Tang Yun and Xiaoxiao learnt, to their surprise, that Lin Yi’s cooking skill was higher than the two of them- he was fast, but it didn’t seem like he was rushing or too busy at all, he was really orderly!

The two slowly turned into his helpers instead, helping him get the ingredients and dishes. It wasn’t a while until all the food was in front of them, ready to be eaten.

“Lin Yi honey, I didn’t know you were so amazing! You could be a high class chef already! Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu sure are lucky, I even want to move in now!” Xiaoxiao drooled as she looked at the dishes in envy.

Xiaoxiao’s cooking skill was pretty good- she lived alone since a young age, and had gotten used to it. But she had only learnt some simple dishes, since there was no reason to try too hard.

Tang Yun, on the other hand, made food at home herself too, but due to her family situation, the stuff she ate was all ordinary food like potatoes and vegetables. She didn’t quite know how to handle so many fresh ingredients.

“Haha, move in then, I’ll talk to Yao Yao about it,” Lin Yi smiled, promising her. His thoughts were that he didn’t know when Xiaoxiao’s sickness would start again. Tianlong found out in time today, but what if he weren’t there? What if he was on a mission? Would Xiaoxiao be dead then?

And so Lin Yi thought that this idea was quite nice- the Miss and Shu were understanding people, too, they were both reasonable and supportive.

“It’s okay, I was just saying it on a whim, I won’t get used to it anyway...” Xiaoxiao declined Lin Yi’s acceptance.

“Alright, but you can always come when you want. The door’s always open,” Lin Yi naturally knew that Xiaoxiao wasn’t yet as close with the Miss and Shu as she was with Tang Yun! And the situation now was quite clear: Tang Yun and Xiaoxiao were one group, Mengyao and Yushu were one group. The two factions were at peace now, but Xiaoxiao would still feel outnumbered in the face of Yushu and Mengyao.

“Right, Lin Yi, you should call Yao Yao and Shu. They called before once they saw you didn’t come back, and I told them what happened. They’re really worried about you, and they wanted you to call them and tell them you’re okay no matter what time it was!” Tang Yun suddenly recalled what happened.

“Okay,” Lin Yi nodded and took out his phone.

“Hello? Lin Yi?” The Miss picked up right away.

“Yeah, it’s me. I woke up, I’m fine now. You and Shu should rest soon, I’ll be staying at Xiaoxiao’s tonight,” Lin Yi said.

“Alright, you take care of Xiaoxiao then, Shu and I will sleep first.” Mengyao was evidently tired, judging from her voice.

Lin Yi felt touched once more- the people around him cared for him so much! The Miss wasn’t good at voicing that care, but he could sense that it was there.

Xiaoxiao’s house only had one small bed and one small sofa, barely able to hold one person. One could tell that Xiaoxiao wouldn’t let any random person in even when she lived by herself, and she didn’t have any friends before and so no one would visit. She just lived there alone.

The problem then arose- there was only one bed, how were they supposed to split this?

“Xiaoxiao, I think you should sleep on the bed. Yun Yun and I will sleep on the living room’s floor, it’s clean anyway. We’ll just put a mattress on it.” Lin Yi suggested.

“Yun Yun, you’re a guest, of course I can’t let you sleep on the ground- I’ll sleep there, you take the bed...” Xiaoxiao said after some thought.

“Xiaoxiao, you still need to recover- we don’t want you getting a cold on the ground,” Tang Yun smiled, “You just want Lin Yi to hug you on the ground, right?”

“Wha- No!” Xiaoxiao blushed after getting exposed.

“Haha, maybe I’ll sleep on the sofa, and Lin Yi could sleep on the ground beside your bed?” Tang Yun, of course, knew about what Xiaoxiao was thinking. Although, she very much looked forward to that experience with Lin Yi herself- it was just not the time to be fighting with Xiaoxiao over it!

Who knew how long she had left? And so Tang Yun would always give her the good things first- this was to let her live her life to the fullest!

“That... That’s a bit...” Xiaoxiao actually looked forward to it a lot. Ever since that time she spent the night with Lin Yi, she’d been thinking about when she’d ever get to experience such a great time again. Tonight was the time!

She felt safe with Lin Yi beside her!

“That settles it then!” Tang Yun concluded with a smile, “Hurry and sleep, we still have school tomorrow!”

With that, Tang Yun got up and walked towards the sofa.

Xiaoxiao couldn’t help but feel bad when she saw Tang Yun leave- she felt sour! She even tried to exploit Tang Yun to make her keep her promise and force herself into the relationship, and now it was clear that Tang Yun was an extremely kind girl. She shouldn’t have done that!

“Well, let’s go rest then,” Lin Yi didn’t say anything else- he still had a long time with Tang Yun, but his time with Xiaoxiao was counted by the day.

Chapter 1216: Do You Believe Me

Xiaoxiao nodded and walked into the room with Lin Yi. She wanted to share the bed with him, but the bed was simply too small for two, they’d have to be hugging, and that posture really was too intimate! She liked Lin Yi, but the thought of spending the night with him like that put a blush on her face

“Let’s sleep then, I’ll protect you from here,” Lin Yi didn’t think too much about anything- he never planned on sleeping on the same bed as Xiaoxiao. He could fall asleep even when sitting.

Plus, he wanted to enter the jade space and try breaking through again.

“Oh...” Xiaoxiao breathed out in relief once she saw that Lin Yi didn’t have any intention of sharing the bed at all, but still felt a little disappointed.

“Good night,” Lin Yi moved the chair to beside the bed and shut the lights off, sitting on it.

Xiaoxiao lay on her bed but didn’t close her eyes. In the dark, her eyes kept darting over to Lin Yi, thinking that he couldn’t see.

But Lin Yi’s vision in the dark was better than anybody’s.

“Why aren’t you asleep yet?” Lin Yi felt amused at Xiaoxiao’s moving eyes.

“Ah... How did you know I was awake?” Xiaoxiao paused.

“Because I can see you,” Lin Yi shrugged helplessly.

“Ah, you’re amazing, Lin Yi honey!” Xiaoxiao said, “Do you have the legendary fire eyes that the monkey king had?”

“...” Lin Yi was a bit speechless, “I’m a practitioner, so of course I can see things in the dark.”

“I see... Wait, do you think I wouldn’t have to die if I become a practitioner too?” It was the first time she discussed this matter with Lin Yi- now that he knew, she had no reason to hide anymore.

“That’s... That is possible,” Lin Yi smiled bitterly, “But the time isn’t really enough- if you had started from young it might still be possible, but now...”

Earlier, Tang Yun took the chance when Xiaoxiao was getting the rice to tell Lin Yi that Xiaoxiao had learned that they knew about her situation.

“I see...” Xiaoxiao was a bit disappointed- Lin Yi didn’t finish speaking, but she knew the answer already. It was too late to start now, it was pointless.

“Xiaoxiao, do you believe me?” Lin Yi took a deep breath.

“Of course I do!” Xiaoxiao nodded, a bit confused.

“I’ll be able to cure you for sure! You won’t die- remember these words! So have fun every day, don’t think about it too much,” Lin Yi’s face was extremely solemn as he said this- not only did he want to make her feel better, he actually wanted to solve this issue!

“Yeah, of course I believe you! I’ll look forward to that day... Haha!” Xiaoxiao, naturally, couldn’t see the look on Lin Yi’s face, and assumed that he was just trying to console her. But she’d already accepted her fate- she wouldn’t get hung up over her death.

“Good night then, we still have school tomorrow” Lin Yi smiled. Evidently, Xiaoxiao didn’t believe him, but that was fine- the point was that he was confident. No matter what, he had to find a way to cure her, no matter the cost!

Xiaoxiao shut her eyes- Lin Yi was right, they had school- plus she was getting sleepy...

Only until after Xiaoxiao fell asleep did Lin Yi enter the jade space, practicing again..

House Xiao's villa. The lights were still on.

In the living room, smoke was all over the place- Xiao Ji and Xiao Ben were smoking on the sofa!

"God damn it, these people sure were enthusiastic when offering partnerships. The instant we talk about using our money to get at Pengzhan Industries, they all backed off, saying they didn't have much movable funds! Second brother, tell me, what's with these cowards?!" Xiao Ji was quite pissed!

The brothers had visited all their business partners, and either they didn't have any movable funds, or that they were too occupied with big projects- in simple terms, no one agreed with their plan to make a move on Pengzhan Industries!

"Big brother, calm down," Xia Ben sighed, "The truth is, these people are in a partnership with us to take advantage of our rising name- all businesses with us will result in big profits for sure. Fighting Pengzhan Industries though, that's a risk! They might have to lose money if things went wrong. Plus, Pengzhan Industries is different from the others. The shares are mainly with Chu Pengzhan and some main shareholders, so even if we take all the stocks, we can only be a small shareholder in Pengzhan Industries! There's no point to that at all, and Old Wang's talk with us made me think that this move wouldn't work at all."

"Then what do we do? Do we just give up? Lin Yi's in the hospital, and Chu Pengzhan's businesses are just waiting for us to take it over!" Xiao Ji felt that it was a waste.

"Not much we can do about that- Elder Pi and Mister Pi are both in the hospital, that warrior really is too powerful, hitting us right at this time! Even if we want to take Chu Pengzhan's stuff, we don't have the strength to back it up!" Xiao Ben sighed, "He wants to do it the hard way, too, and if we want to get anything from him it would have to require Elder Pi and Master Pi's help."

"Such a waste!" Xiao Ji was quite troubled.

"It's fine, we'll look for a chance in the future. It will come once the Pi's leave the hospital," Xiao Ben said, "The meeting of noble houses will start soon, and we need to get things going- us, House Xiao, will be able to get a good spot this time, only just lower than House Yu's seat!"

"Yes, you're right! Tomorrow I'll go to Yanjing to visit Yu Shuixing!" Xiao Ji nodded.

House Xiao's revenge would have to be stopped there- they needed to wait for a more suitable time before dealing the death blow to the Chu's.

At the same time, in Yuanyuan's house.

Yu Ren was busy tidying things up with his wife- it felt just like a dream.

Healed, just like that? A lion's bite, healed??

Yu Ren was quite shocked when he saw the scene, as he hadn't accepted it as a part of reality until he came home!

"Why do you keep looking at me?" Miss Yu was getting uncomfortable- Yu Ren kept staring at her!

Chapter 1217: Er Goudan's Confession

"It's... It's nothing! You're really okay now? It doesn't hurt?" Yu Ren still didn't believe it.

"What kind of question is that? Can I be walking around if I wasn't fine, can I be tidying up the house?" Miss Yu said, a bit irritated.

"Did Er Goudan's boss really fix it? Isn't that too much of a miracle?" Yu Ren still couldn't believe it.

"Weren't you there? Can you stop asking me these dumb questions?" Miss Yu didn't know if she should be amused.

"Wow, it's really fine now, it's a miracle!" Yu Ren exclaimed, "Er Goudan's boss really is too amazing, we'll have to treat him to a good meal at our place when he has time!"

"Are you planning something bad again?" Miss Yu glared.

"Of course not- I was just thinking, Er Goudan's boss is so strong that we should let him get Er Goudan and Yuanyuan together!" Yu Ren explained.

"That's fine- I thought that you wanted to Yuanyuan to get together with him!" Miss Yu breathed in relief.

"Even if I wanted to, he wouldn't be interested in our Yuanyuan! Didn't he say he had a girlfriend already?" Yu Ren shook his head, "I've thought things through after the time in the arena- one needs to be grateful for what he has, and treasure what he has instead of fantasizing about unrealistic things! Yuanyuan finding someone like Er Goudan really is an amazing thing already- as for someone like Lin Yi, Yuanyuan might not even like his type, either."

"You- You finally became practical! If you had been like this from earlier, you wouldn't have gotten scammed!" Miss Yu shook her head helplessly.

"If I hadn't gotten scammed we wouldn't have met Er Goudan, and we wouldn't have such a great life now!" Yu Ren said gleefully.

At the same time, in Yuanyuan's room, Goudan was putting on a serious look. It was time to talk to Yuanyuan seriously about this!

Goudan did not seem like it, but he understood what was going on- he was no idiot!

"Zhou Jiaming, what did you call me for?" Yuanyuan was a bit shy, her head lowered as she avoided eye contact and tugged at her shirt, nervous. The two were in the room alone, and she was afraid that Goudan might even cross the line.

"I... I have something important to tell you!" Goudan said seriously after a pause.

"What... What is it..." Yuanyuan tensed up- he wasn't planning to confess, would he? The two did have that sort of vibe going around them, but it never came to light. Was today the day..?

"Yuanyuan, after a while, I still need to go back to my old place..." Goudan spoke up.

“Huh?” Yuanyuan didn’t expect that Goudan’s first words would be announcing his departure! She didn’t know how to react- she didn’t want him to leave! She had already developed feelings for him!

“Yuanyuan, there are reasons why I must go back. I have one question- in the future, would you be willing to come back with me?” Goudan said as he looked at Yuanyuan.

“Ah? I...” Yuanyuan was at a loss of words- this Goudan was being too direct, wasn’t he? Who talked to a girl like that, he hadn’t even confessed yet, and he wanted her to go back with him? Wasn’t that too fast?

“I... I know that, a girl like you who grew up in the city- of course you wouldn’t want to go back to some small village with me...” Goudan smiled a little self-mockingly once he saw Yuanyuan’s reaction, “It’s fine, let’s pretend I didn’t say anything...”

With that, he stood up, leaving.

Goudan was no idiot, but he did rush to conclusions because of his straightforward nature. Yuanyuan’s silence was seen by him as a refusal, and in order to prevent awkwardness, he decided to leave as soon as possible, lest they couldn’t even be friends in the future.

Yuanyuan was stunned- what on earth? They didn’t even get two sentences going and he was leaving? What did he mean, she wouldn’t want to? How did he know what she wanted, was he answering his own question before she could?

“Zhou Jiaming, you bastard!” Yuanyuan was panicking, “Stop right there!”

“I...” It was Goudan’s turn to be stunned- never would he have thought that the gentle Yuanyuan would get angry, even yell at him! He quickly turned around and looked at her carefully, not sure what was going on.

“How did you know if I’d want to or not, you think you have a special ability? You can read minds?” Yuanyuan glared at Goudan.

“Then... Then you want to?” Goudan blinked and smiled- so that was why Yuanyuan was angry?

“You... You didn’t even confess yet, why would I go back with you?” Yuanyuan scoffed and stayed silent.

“Heh...” Goudan, naturally, understood her stance on this. It seemed that he had misunderstood! He scratched his head, “Yuanyuan, actually, I like you, I want you to be my wife...”

“What are you talking about, do you know how to confess?” Yuanyuan couldn’t help but roll her eyes- this guy was ruining the romantic atmosphere!

“Well, that’s... As long as you understand. I’m not good at words, you know that...” Goudan said helplessly.

“Fine, you’re not good at romance!” Yuanyuan had no choice- this was how Goudan was, and so she didn’t mind. She even felt quite sweet- honeyed-up words weren’t as strong as what Goudan just said, he said he wanted her to be his wife!

Nowadays, couples got together all the time, but the idea of marriage always turned that to crap! Some boys only wanted to play, some girls didn't want a guy with no car and house... In basic terms, even though Goudan wasn't romantic, he was substantial and solid!

"Then... Are you willing to go back with me or not?" Goudan was getting worried- Yuanyuan didn't answer properly yet!"

"But, what about my parents?" Yuanyuan said.

"That's..." Goudan remembered then that Yuanyuan wasn't alone- she may say yes, but what about her parents? This was a bit of an issue, but Goudan didn't panic, "I'll go discuss with my boss about that- as long as you agree to come back with me, it'll be fine!"

Chapter 1218: Great Benefit

"You really are quite lucky to have a good boss like him!" Yuanyuan was a bit speechless. But Lin Yi seemed quite smart, so he must have had some way to please both sides.

Within the jade space, it was Lin Yi's twentieth attack on the wall of Mystic mid phase peak.

"Lin kid, I told you, you still aren't ready- if you just use a few days to train normally who knows if you might break right through later? Experimenting like this is a waste of time, isn't it?" Elder Jiao shook his head as he looked at Lin Yi fail again.

"Elder Jiao, I don't want to give up just like this! I want to save Xiaoxiao, and I need much greater strength to do that! I need to get to Sky class to let her live on!" Lin Yi gritted his teeth.

"Forgive me, but even if you're some practitioner genius you'd never be able to reach Sky Class before Feng Xiaoxiao dies," Elder Jiao said, "It's good to have a goal, but this goal is too unrealistic, it's too far."

Lin Yi couldn't help but smile bitterly. It was true- trying to get to Sky class as soon as possible so he could save Xiaoxiao? It didn't seem practical at all.

He was just Mystic mid phase, and there was still an Earth class between them! Thinking about going to Earth class was already unpractical and unrealistic, people would laugh at him if he said this out loud! And he was thinking of Sky class??

Elder Jiao's words were true- even if he were a genius, there was no way he could break through into Sky class before Xiaoxiao died.

In other words, even if he did break through into Sky class to keep Xiaoxiao alive, he still wouldn't be able to cure her! In order to solve her problem, he needed to tackle the core problem. He had to go search for this Fire Spirit's Fruit and see if it exists!

If it did and let Xiaoxiao eat it, the dark aura could be suppressed and he'd have a lot of time to find a dark aspect practitioner's art. With his guidance, she'd be able to train faster!

"Thank you!" Lin Yi nodded- in that instant, he had thought everything through.

"I just didn't want to see you work for nothing," Elder Jiao waved his hand.

"But I still want to breakthrough! Not only do I have to do it to save Xiaoxiao, I have to do it for myself- my enemies are too strong, I need to get stronger!" Lin Yi said.

"Shit! Were you even listening?!" Elder Jiao rolled his eyes, "Fine, if you want to do useless stuff then do it. If you're able to break through today, I'll tell you a great benefit!"

"A great benefit?" Lin Yi's eyes lit up- this was something Elder Jiao was saying, this can't be just some common advantage! All the information he had gotten from Elder Jiao was so amazingly useful, and those were things he told him without any terms! Just how powerful could this great benefit be?

"Yes, I was only going to tell it to you after you break through into the second stage of the Art of Dragon Mastery, but if you break through to mid phase peak today, I will tell you right away!" Elder Jiao didn't want Lin Yi to struggle fruitlessly anymore, so he said that from his frustration. He didn't think Lin Yi would get so serious about it.

"Alright, it's a deal then!" Lin Yi nodded, getting into position and started training again.

Elder Jiao was a bit speechless, but since Lin Yi insisted, there was nothing he could say.

Lin Yi channeled the Art of Dragon Mastery and moved the energy within the jade space- he had already been a master at doing that, although, when he got close to the breaking point, it still resulted in failure.

"Once... Twice... Thrice... Until the tenth time, Lin Yi finally started thinking of giving up!

It seemed that Elder Jiao was right- he wasn't there yet, he still had a little left before he was at full Mystic mid phase! That little bit may be called a little bit, but it was actually a really big gap!

But thinking of Elder Jiao's great benefit, he started itching for it. He opened his eyes to discuss, "Elder Jiao, what if I give up, can you tell me what that great benefit is?"

"I say, Lin kid, what does it have to do with me whether you give up or not? Why would I tell it to you if you give up, you think I have Alzheimer's or something?" Elder Jiao was pissed and amused, "Quite calculative of you, kid, getting the benefit while giving up? You think you're dreaming?"

"Ugh... I..." Lin Yi felt his face redden a bit, but that fueled his stubbornness, "Fine, I'll break through and show you!"

"Then go on..." Elder Jiao nodded.

"I'll go on, you think I'm afraid?!" Lin Yi took a deep breath and started attempting to breaking through again.

This time, Lin Yi didn't rush through blindly, but instead thought back to that instant right before breaking through.

He always felt that the energy he absorbed wasn't enough, that there was just a bit missing- however, he was already at full capacity, and there was no space for that little bit! Did he really need to train a bit longer and increase his capacity before thinking of breaking through?

But then he wouldn't have that great benefit! This Elder Jiao didn't have a real body here, and he couldn't force him- the only way was to break through tonight!

But, how? Lin Yi frowned.

Looking at Lin Yi's face deep in thought amused Elder Jiao. Did this kid really want to know the secret that badly? He'd know it after the second stage of the Art of Dragon Mastery, there was no point to knowing it now!

There was no use if he were not at the second stage!

Lin Yi didn't know that he'd been had- the great benefit wouldn't help him as he was right now! If he'd known, he wouldn't be trying that hard to break through!

A bit more, a bit more... How could he get a bit more energy?

Suddenly, he felt as if he'd grabbed onto something- his face changed...

Chapter 1219: Finally Breaking Through

Was this really possible? No matter what, he had to try it first! Lin Yi had a crazy idea!

This was a bit risky, but if it were possible, then he would have a method of levelling up that wasn't the traditional way- this was an insane discovery! This meant that- if it succeeded- he wouldn't have to get to the full capacity of the class phase he was in, he could break through even if there was a bit lacking!

He started getting excited, but also tense- this was no common way, after all, it was a dangerous test. Whether or not it would bring him benefits wasn't certain, but that was the same for the harm it might bring as well!

Lin Yi needed to be careful here- it'd be really bad if he got hurt because of this.

His idea was to compress energy! He was good at doing it to the energy in his body, but he could also compress the energy outside!

Lin Yi's situation now was that the size of the energy he absorbed was set- but after compressing it, he'd be able to absorb more! This was like a file in a computer, there was a limit to the disk that the computer could store. But compressed files, however, would be able to squeeze in because they were compressed!

This made him think that- if he only needed a bit more to break through, then couldn't he decompress the compressed energy he squeezed inside his body? Wouldn't he have more energy then?

But there was a tint of insanity and danger to this, this was like his trump card, the energy bomb- he could burst the enemy's meat and blood out, but he would also hurt himself too!

What Lin Yi was thinking, however, that since this energy was the same as the energy inside of him, they were of the same aspect. Even if it expanded inside of him suddenly, he could absorb it- someone else, however, would just get bombed right away! This was why he even considered it!

He sighed- even if he did get bombed, he could still recover. There was a golden class dog, the super lifesaver he had. He didn't need to worry about accidents! After all, this method would be insanely powerful if it were to be usable.

With a deep breath, he channeled the Art of Dragon Mastery and gathered everything around him, although he didn't rush to absorb it this time- what he did, however, was compress all of the surrounding energy!

Of course, he could only do this on a small scale- he couldn't do a super compression like that time with the energy bomb since he didn't want to burst himself open to pieces to the point of no recovery!

"Eh?" Elder Jiao had been looking at Lin Yi with a face full of mockery the whole time, but his face changed when he saw what Lin Yi was attempting! He subconsciously tried to stop him!

"Lin kid, wait!!" Elder Jiao jumped- if Lin Yi was planning to do what he thought he wanted to do, that was insane!

But, right when he opened his mouth, Lin Yi had absorbed the compressed energy already! His face turned red instantly, with one look, one could tell it was unhealthy- the compressed energy expanded within him, and he felt like a balloon that was getting full- he felt so full, it hurt!

All his intestines seemed to be squeezed together- there was no space!

"Ghh-!!!" Blood spilled out from Lin Yi's mouth- this sort of energy expanding made him feel a bursting, undescrivable pain!

Elder Jiao took a sharp breath- this guy actually attempted something like that? Was he trying to die? But since he'd already done it, Elder Jiao could only watch helplessly. He wasn't a real body, after all, he couldn't do anything.

"Lin kid, I hope you succeed- breaking through like this, you're the only one who would dare do it in this world, I think!" Elder Jiao sighed and shook his head as he mumbled to himself. Although, didn't Lin Yi do a bunch of insane stuff all the time?

Using compressed energy to bomb someone, and now bombing himself with that compressed energy... This person really used anything and everything to get stronger!

Lin Yi was hurting horribly, but the words from Elder Jiao almost managed to put a smile on his face!

But he had to grit his teeth and press on- he couldn't give up now, he needed to hold on, otherwise it'd be a waste of his efforts! Since he couldn't resist it, he'd enjoy it!

And so, he started enjoying the pleasant feeling he got from the energy expanding inside him, it felt so good, it was amazing!

"A large boom sounded, and he felt his eardrums vibrate as his body couldn't take the energy piling up inside him- he exploded!

But he knew that he didn't actually explode, it just felt like that to his body!

He broke through, he really did! As he let out a breath of relief, the energy around him went away, and his reddened face returned to normal.

His entire body didn't feel stuffed like before, but was replaced with the pleasant feeling you got after waking up! He felt like he was filled with energy, it felt great!

"Haha! Mystic mid phase peak! Elder Jiao, I'm too amazing, I actually broke through like this!" Lin Yi jumped up and started dancing a bit.

The success itself wasn't enough to make Lin Yi that happy- the real reason why he was happy to the point of dancing a little was because he had found a shortcut to levelling up! He could do this the next time he needed to break through!

This method had received validation, and he could use it each time he was at a wall! Sky class wasn't a dream anymore!

"Yes, you broke through..." Elder Jiao was speechless. Yes, he was at a loss for words.

"Mystic mid phase peak, this feels quite good! I feel like I can even fight a Mystic late phase now!" Lin Yi said as he moved his body in the jade space, with joy evident in his every movement.

Chapter 1220: Storage Jade

"I guess so..." Elder Jiao nodded faintly.

"Elder Jiao, what's the benefit you mentioned just now? You can tell me now, right?" Lin Yi smiled as he looked at the man.

"..." Elder Jiao didn't think that Lin Yi's memory was able to keep up after all that excitement and joy flushed into his brain- the first thing he thought of was the secret he promised! He didn't think that Lin Yi would break through, but now that he did, it was quite difficult for him...

This benefit was something Lin Yi would learn anyway after training the second stage of the Art of Dragon Mastery, but now that he only was at the first stage, he couldn't activate it yet. Lin Yi would only be able to drool at this secret with no practical use even after Elder Jiao told him!

"What's wrong? Elder Jiao, you're not going to go back on your word, are you?" Lin Yi said, worried as he looked at Elder Jiao in silence. This had to be something truly amazing if it was a secret that came from his lips, so of course he couldn't let go.

"I wouldn't go back on my word, but it's just that this wouldn't help you practically at all even if I told you!" Elder Jiao sighed, "You really want to know?"

"Yes!" Lin Yi nodded certainly.

No practical use? Lin Yi wouldn't believe that at all, Elder Jiao described it as a great benefit- this meant that it was great! It was no normal benefit!

"Alright, since you want to know, then fine," Elder Jiao nodded, "The jade space you're using now is actually considered a different dimensional space. Not only can you train in here, you can even store things in this space!"

"Store things?" Lin Yi blinked.

"That's right, it's a storage space! Like those online games you play with the inventory bag, and storage boxes. You can put stuff from the outside in here, and it wouldn't increase the weight and burden on you. You can take things out when you need to, too!" Elder Jiao explained.

"Oh?" Lin Yi was very pleasantly surprised after hearing Elder Jiao's explanation, "So I can put all the stuff I'm carrying in this jade and use it as a storage space?"

"In theory," Elder Jiao nodded.

"It was a great benefit after all!" Lin Yi had heard of items like this, like storage rings or storage bags, mystic items that only existed in fiction and games- he had never expected to be able to own one storage item like this of his own!"

"Alright, that's the benefit I was talking about," Elder Jiao said.

"Wait, Elder Jiao, what do I do in order to get objects from outside into the jade space," Lin Yi wasn't an idiot- Elder Jiao only told him the function, he didn't tell him how to do it!

"I don't know," Elder Jiao shook his head, as if he had nothing to do with it.

"Huh?" Lin Yi blinked, "You don't know?"

"Yeah, I told you I'd tell you about a benefit, I didn't say I'd tell you how to use it!" Elder Jiao grinned.

"...!?" Lin Yi glared, not knowing what to say, "What's the point of this benefit if you don't know how to use it? Isn't this the same as not telling me?"

"You'll be able to know how to do it after you open the next stone door and find the second stage of the Art of Dragon Mastery!" Elder Jiao explained, "This was only something you were supposed to learn after getting the second stage, I just told you in advance, that's all!"

"Ugh... I see!" Lin Yi was disappointed, but he also looked forward to it. At least the secret Elder Jiao had just told him wasn't bullshit, it was something practical and achievable! After he practiced the second stage of the Art of Dragon Mastery, he'd be able to use it!

Just thinking about this made him feel how useful this was- he could do some magic tricks for Tang Yun and Xiaoxiao, too...

If Elder Jiao were to learn that Lin Yi wanted to use this benefit to do magic tricks, what sort of face would he make? This was something practitioners dreamed of, and Lin Yi wanted to use this priceless treasure to do magic tricks?

“Yes, opening the stone door isn’t just opening the door alone- you also unlock my memories!” Elder Jiao said, “You know this too, I’m just a hollow, this isn’t my real body. My memories are somewhat suppressed and have restrictions on them too, and as the doors open, I’ll remember more things. After you opened the first stone door, my memories regarding the things within that first stone door recovered, along with a bit of stuff from the second stone door. That’s why I knew of this benefit.”

“I see!” Lin Yi nodded his head, finally understanding why Elder Jiao only knew bits and pieces regarding to the secrets of the jade. So his memories would be unlocked when the stone doors are opened, and this was also why he wasn’t sure when he asked him about the danger-sensing function the jade had! Perhaps this was another benefit the jade provided, it was just that he needed to reach maybe the third or fourth stage of the Art of Dragon Mastery first before it would be revealed to him. This function about storage, however, was revealed sooner for some reason!

“Alright, that’s all I have to say. The details are in the second room, don’t miss it!” Elder Jiao said.

“I understand!” Lin Yi nodded and put this benefit deep down in his heart. It’d affect his mood if he kept thinking about this all the time, and it would affect his training! Better to let things flow naturally, since this benefit would fall into his hands eventually.

Lin Yi adjusted his emotions and came back to reality from the jade space- today’s training was at its end. After just breaking through, he needed to stabilize his strength instead of just thinking of breaking through all day, every day.

After all, you didn’t build skyscrapers without ensuring the stability before going up!

Effort and rest- that was how you went forward.

Opening his eyes, Lin Yi saw blackness. It wasn’t morning yet- it was still night, as could be seen from the darkness outside.

Looking at Xiaoxiao, who was deep in sleep, a smile appeared on Lin Yi’s lips. This girl looked quite pretty when asleep, too!
