

Bodyguard 1401

Chapter 1401: Cut and Run

Elder Yu had a 50% chance of beating them. The calculation included how severe his injury would be and how much teamwork could both the mystic class masters pull off, but Elder Yu wasn't brave enough to gamble on this!

The items were for House Yu, and his life was the only thing that belongs to him! It was not worth it to risk his life just like that. He had no guarantee of winning them at all, so he didn't want to fight anymore.

On the other hand, Lin Yi had already started gathering his qi forming a qi bomb. He stared at Elder Yu, full of alertness.

"Okay, nice! Concealing your true strength.... No wonder you aren't afraid of me, the reason being you have two mystics protecting you. Tss tss, couple thief, good strength, good strategy, good scheming!" Elder Yu said the word good three times, no one knew if he was being sarcastic or really complimenting them.

"A simple tomb raiding group, with such strength. This is really an eye-opening moment for me. Your group is still the top-notch existence I've ever witnessed here!"

"You're being too nice, Elder Yu, let's cut the crap and start the war!" Lin Yi said.

"Hmph, you and I are destined to have this fight, but...." Elder Yu's tone changed suddenly. "But not now! Male thief, I'll remember you, and we will surely meet again...."

Elder Yu had already fled before completing his sentence; his speed shocked Lin Yi greatly! Lin Yi still thought that he wanted to fight, but who knew that Elder Yu had already run for his life when his tone changed. He ran faster than a rabbit; this made Lin Yi went completely speechless!

"Did he just escape?" Lin Yi looked at the energy bomb in his finger, he didn't know if he should laugh or cry. He wasted gathering the qi for so long. He couldn't use it at all.

Song Lingshan and Chen Yutian looked at each other. "For real? Isn't he too much of a coward?"

"He has always been a coward from the beginning. Even my courage is bigger than him!" You Xiaoke had long woken up already. She didn't dare to comment when Lin Yi and Elder Yu were on a fight, but when Elder Yu cut and ran, You Xiaoke finally opened her mouth to speak.

"That's right. This old thing is really afraid of death." Lin Yi nodded. "Whatever, let him be."

Lin Yi wasn't confident at making Elder Yu stay, either so he wouldn't go chase after him now. There was only one mission in Lin Yi's mind right now, it was to find a way to save Feng Xiaoxiao, naturally, he would avoid getting himself into trouble.

Song Lingshan and Chen Yutian, on the other hand, were disappointed. They were just leveled up and were excited to test their new strength, but their prey had fled away, leaving a pile of dust behind.

“He won’t return, will he?” Song Lingshan looked at the empty space as she asked, “I’m afraid he’ll return when we aren’t prepared.”

Lin Yi knew Elder Yu’s personality- he was the type that would bully the weak when he was stronger and cut and run when he couldn’t win the fight! During the whole journey, Lin Yi’d been observing him all this time- Elder Yu was as cowardly as a mouse; he believed he wouldn’t be seeing him after a few months.

Song Lingshan nodded when he heard Lin Yi, what Lin Yi said must be true and Elder Yu would probably never return to look troubles.

“Okay, you guys can continue resting now; I’ll stay on guard.” Lin Yi sat cross-legged and started reading the medical notes. It was still a good ending anyway; all the notes belonged to Lin Yi alone now; he could slowly read the content inside memorizing them without caring Elder Yu’s attack anymore.

The whole night passed away peacefully; Lin Yi waited for You Xiaoke and Old Hei to wake up before continuing their escape. Elder Yu couldn’t be seen from sight; it was obvious that he wouldn’t come back any more- this made Lin Yi let out a breath of relief. Although Elder Yu was afraid of Lin Yi, Lin Yi was afraid of Elder Yu too.

Lin Yi was just more fearless, and while Elder Yu was more afraid of death, that was what made Elder Yu defeated in battle. There was a saying, “The soft is afraid of the hard, and the hard is afraid of the horizontal, and the horizontal is afraid of the one who is not afraid of death!” Elder Yu was the horizontal one in this situation, and while Lin Yi was the one who wasn’t afraid of death, comparing them together, it was obvious who was the winner.

After eating some biscuit, Lin Yi led the group and continue walking towards the exit. During the whole journey, they didn’t see Elder Yu. Lin Yi and his gang would never catch up to his speed even using their full strength.

The group had walked more than two days, it was the same during the night everyone went to sleep while Lin Yi staying awake guarding them. Until the third day, Lin Yi finally stopped his steps.

Lin Yi’s sudden movement gave the people behind a great shock.

“What’s wrong. Is there danger ahead of us?” Old Hei was finally able to calm himself down after leaving the tomb, but Lin Yi stopping all of a sudden almost gave him a heart attack again.

“Blood?” Song Lingshan and Chen Yutian were taken aback and started sniffing. Both of them were sensitive to blood smell as well so when Lin Yi mentioned it; they could tell the difference. “It really does smell like blood... not far from here...”

“Not sure, but it’s possible.” Lin Yi replied and walked forward. Although he could smell blood from this distance, the jade on his chest wasn’t giving him any signals. In other words, there was no danger ahead of them!

The crowd followed him at the back but after walking for a short distance, Lin Yi stopped his steps again.

“What is it?” Song Lingshan asked.

The crowd looked at the far distance and noticed the razor-sharp arrows on the ground. Furthermore, some of the arrows had blood stained on it, and at the corner of the path, blood could be seen as well.

“He—” Lin Yi chuckled. “The designer of this tomb was really one of a kind, putting the last trap here. This trap might be simple, but anyone without awareness would surely fall for it, and the consequences are pretty heavy too.”

“Indeed, this trap was triggered by a very thin string, when the string breaks, it activates the trap shooting arrows in this direction. It seems like Elder Yu wasn’t paying attention when he escaped, but it was totally normal to fall into this trap under this dark environment! You Xiaoke bent down his body to find a broken thin string on the ground.

Chapter 1402: Should I Agree?

Old Hei knew what happened during the night, but he was smart- he chose not to comment unnecessary crap. Lin Yi and his group was an overpowered existence. In his heart, he knew that he was nothing compared to this tomb raiding group; they were from a totally different tier!

“There’s poison on the arrow.” Lin Yi picked up the razor-sharp arrow and sniffed. “This is a very powerful slow poison, they wouldn’t realize that they were poisoned at first, but as time passes, the poison will devour the person up, only a top-notch doctor could neutralize it. The poisoned one will either die or get disabled once the poison takes over the whole body- it will destroy the body’s nervous system and finally made the person a plant.”

“WHAT!” You Xiaoke was stunned and jumped up from the spot quickly. “Is this an airborne poison? I was standing super close to the arrows just now, am I going to be fine?”

“You’re alright, even if you are poisoned, I can save you.” Lin Yi said faintly. The poison might be strong, but it was nothing to Lin Yi’s medical prowess, not to mention, even a person like Yaowang could neutralize it.

“Oh...” You Xiaoke let out a breath of relief.

“Let’s continue moving forward. I’ll stand in front. Everyone just be cautious.” Lin Yi wasn’t afraid of anything. He was just being extra careful. Besides, he had the jade to signal him when danger approached.

What actually surprised the crowd was that after passing the poisoned arrows, faint light could be seen ahead of them! The light only got brighter and brighter as they moved forward, after another tens meter of walking, the group made a turn, and an exit was right in front of the group!

Another few hundreds meter of walking, the group would be out of this cave, the outside world was sunny and bright, the light cleared the gloominess in their heart- the atmosphere in the air became better as well!

“Awesome, we are finally out of the cave!” You Xiaoke hoorayed.

Old Hei let of a long breath of relief. This raid was too much for him- he had experienced countless of deaths and life and almost couldn't come back alive! After this extreme raid, Old Hei had decided not to join any raid anymore. Of course, Song Lingshan would never give him this opportunity as well.

“You guys do whatever you want, I'm not joining the action later.” Looking at the exit ahead of them, Lin Yi was relieved as well. He lowered his voice and said it to Song Lingshan.

“Okay, take care of yourself!” Song Lingshan understood what Lin Yi was trying to say. After leaving the tomb, Song Lingshan and Chen Yutian would have to take care of Old Hei themselves, and Lin Yi didn't have time to join them later. Besides, Lin Yi had more important things to do- he had to think of a way to save Xiaoxiao, no time to waste on Old Hei anymore.

Lin Yi nodded, and the group finally arrived at the exit of the cave. The sun was shining brightly. The cave was located at a valley similar to the one they used to enter, and the appearance of the cave was no different from normal caves so it wouldn't attract any unwanted attention from the people.

Elder Yu had long gone from this area. The valley was silent because there was no vegetation around it, not even a single bird could be seen here, the whole valley was extremely silent.

“We will part from here. You guys go ahead, I've something to talk with the sparrow girl!” Lin Yi stopped moving forward and told Song Lingshan.

Song Lingshan flinched and eyed You Xiaoke for a second- she immediately understood where things were heading, Lin Yi was probably trying to protect You Xiaoke. When Chen Yutian and her reveal their identities to Old Hei, You Xiaoke would naturally be caught as well, being the tomb raider and all.

And what Lin Yi was trying to do- was obviously protecting You Xiaoke from being arrested by her. Since You Xiaoke didn't steal anything from the tomb, Song Lingshan decided to give Lin Yi's face and spare the sparrow girl.

In fact, she knew, even if she refused to give him face, Lin Yi would still try his ways to protect her. There was no way she could argue with a person like Lin Yi, could she? When did Lin Yi become so obedient?

“Good, we are leaving then!” Song Lingshan didn't comment much and left with Chen Yutian. Both of them clamping Old Hei by the sides, one from the left and one from the right jumping over the valley. Without ropes, even if Old Hei wanted to escape, it was impossible for him to achieve, so he still needed to rely on Song Lingshan and Chen Yutian to leave this place!

After going up, Old Hei felt exceedingly grateful towards the female thief for not abandoning him- this made him extraordinarily touched by their kindness. “Female thief, thank you very much, I, Old Hei, will remember what you guys did. Rest assured, I don't care if you guys want it or not; I will give some of the treasures to you guys!”

“No need.” Song Lingshan only replied faintly. “This is what we are supposed to do.”

“Supposed to do?” Old Hei was stunned.

“Old Hei, this is my ID card, you are under arrest!” no one knew when and where did Chen Yutian pull out his identification card. On the other hand, Song Lingshan pulled out a handcuff as well, locking Old Hei without a single word.

“Huh?” Old Hei was dumbfounded- he didn’t know was going on. “Female thief, what are you doing.... If you want my treasures, I can give it all to you; there’s no point of doing this, let me free.....”

After knowing that the follower beside the female thief was also a mystic class master, Old Hei lost all his motivations in struggling. Mystic class master, what a legendary existence- even if Old Hei used his life to fight, there was no way he could break free from them, could he?

Chen Yutian, on the other hand, took off his mask as well; he was using GPS to send off their location and summoning a helicopter to ask for backup.

“Ah?” Old Hei was completely stunned. It couldn’t be true; these two were actually police? Weren’t they tomb raiders?

Looking at their serious face, Old Hei’s face darkened- what they said was probably true. He smiled bitterly inside. Even if he wanted to escape, he couldn’t possibly win over them, could he? Two mystic class masters, they could kill him like humans kill ants- Old Hei didn’t have the balls to resist, he had already given up all his hope.

Under the valley, You Xiaoke was looking at Lin Yi with questioning eyes. She didn’t know why Lin Yi asked him to stay.

However, recalling all the sweet events in the tomb, You Xiaoke couldn’t help but blush. He... he wasn’t planning to propose to me now, was he?

Then... then should she agree? You Xiaoke’s face was as hot as a microwave- this was her first time having reaction towards someone else, but wasn’t he married? Could she endure this?

Chapter 1403: Back to the Tomb

However, You Xiaoke still couldn’t understand why the female thief would allow the male thief to do whatever he wanted? The male thief wanted to have a private time with her, and the female thief didn’t even comment.... Could it be that their title was just a name; they were partners but not a real couple?

You Xiaoke found the possibility pretty big because, during the whole journey, she didn’t see the couple thief doing anything romantic at all. Besides, they didn’t interact much, either...

“You.... what do you want from me..?” the fearless You Xiaoke became a goat in front of Lin Yi.

“Nothing, I’ll bring you back; we’ll return from the other direction. it’s best you don’t meet the female thief anymore. Otherwise, it won’t be a good ending.” Lin Yi didn’t realize the change in You Xiaoke’s expression- he had been thinking of returning the tomb one more time. After all, in the medical notes, Zhang Liju did mention about the skybolt pig and the spirit had piqued Lin Yi's interest. Furthermore, he needed the spirit to find him the fire spirit fruit, and he couldn't just leave the little fellow behind.

"Female thief? Is she going to attack me?" You Xiaoke flinched.

"Nothing like that, but I don't want you guys to meet each other anymore." Lin Yi didn't want to explain- he wasn't planning to reveal Song Lingshan's identity to her. They would both fall into an awkward situation if You Xiaoke learned the female thief's real identity. Besides, this was a secret mission. They weren't supposed to expose it to outsiders.

"Oh..." what Lin Yi said was a little flirty, this made You Xiaoke misunderstood the real meaning. She thought that Lin Yi had a crush on her and was afraid that the female thief would do her harm. Realizing that she hadn't had enough time spent with Lin Yi, she became brave and asked. "Then... are we going to meet in the future?"

"I don't think so..." Lin Yi frowned- just what was this You Xiaoke talking? Lin Yi didn't know if he should laugh or cry- did this girl really think that he likes her? However, what he said was as true as steel, Lin Yi wouldn't be the male thief anymore. The male thief was long killed by Chen Yutian. There was no more male thief in this world.

"Oh..." You Xiaoke was slightly disappointed by the answer- she couldn't help but feel exceedingly down. This was her first time falling for a guy, although, she didn't know how he looks like and not knowing his real name, she only knew that he called himself the male thief....

Other than that, she knew nothing about this male thief. She hadn't met him before, and he didn't seem to have the intention to meet her ever again.

"I'll bring you out of the valley. Then I'll go back to tomb once again." Lin Yi said.

"You.. you are going back?" You Xiaoke was stunned.

"En, I need to enter the death door, there's something I'm actually looking for, and I believe I can find them in the death door!" Lin Yi replied.

"Why not... I go with you?" You Xiaoke blushed as she requested. "I might be a drag to you.... But I can be useful at times..."

You Xiaoke wasn't willing to leave Lin Yi just yet; she wanted to spend more time with him- even a second was good enough. From the male thief's tone, he didn't seem to have any interest at her at all, perhaps after today, both of them would never ever meet again.

And while You Xiaoke would never accept mission like this anymore. She would've kissed the dust if Lin Yi wasn't with her this time.

"Sure, let's go then." Lin Yi went into deep thought and nodded. In his previous plan, he had already considered You Xiaoke along with him; he might have the jade signaling him the danger, but having a person who really knew about traps was still better. Furthermore, You Xiaoke was the one who completed the puzzles. Lin Yi felt that bringing her along would only save him more time.

You Xiaoke was over the moon. Returning to the tomb and entering death's door was a dangerous task, but she didn't know why. She felt safe around the male thief. He gave her so much sense of security; she couldn't even feel danger or anything bad would approach her at all.

"We are going back now?" You Xiaoke asked.

"En, I'll carry you." Lin Yi carried You Xiaoke and put her under his armpit when he replied. He dashed into the cave and started running at full speed.

You Xiaoke couldn't believe Lin Yi would carry her without a single word. Her face reddened, she was embarrassed, but she didn't resist nor did she struggle because she felt nice being by his side.

Lin Yi was a mystic class master, after activating his martial arts-he maintained at full speed sprinting towards the door of life and death. During the whole sprint, he didn't stop and have a rest, but it was a different story for You Xiaoke- she needed rest to replenish her energy, so Lin Yi decided to run for her part as well.

General Weiwu was a mystic dog, so it was totally fine for him to run at this speed too. It didn't take much of his energy to maintain at its peak speed.

Hence, the man and the dog started sprinting their ways to the door of life and death. They didn't stop midway to have a rest, but You Xiaoke did. She felt so safe in Lin Yi's grip; she accidentally took a nap while being carried by Lin Yi.

Lin Yi put You Xiaoke down when they reached the door of life and death.

"This fast?" You Xiaoke was surprised by the time it took for them to return the tomb.

"At full speed, Mystic class master doesn't take long to finish this distance; of course, Elder Yu is even faster." Lin Yi continued. "Alright, let's not talk about this, shall we start working on the puzzle on the death door now? As long as we put the pieces in the right places, we can open the death door?"

"Yeah, but we have to put them in order for the death door. We can't move the pieces without rules. Otherwise, we will activate the traps, and the consequences are going to be big." You Xiaoke nodded.

"Okay, you give me the orders, I'll do the puzzle." Lin Yi nodded. "You tell me which to move, and I'll move that for you."

"Ah... sure!" You Xiaoke knew how dangerous it was, but she also knew that Lin Yi would never allow her to touch them. In the whole raid, he had been the only one doing all the dangerous things alone. Even if Old Hei and Elder Yu were around, he was still the one doing the job. Besides, Lin Yi had been keeping an eye on her, protecting her all the time- Lin Yi would never agree to let her touch the pieces.

“Ah...” You Xiaoke yelled subconsciously. She let out a breath of relief when there was no danger appearing. She looked at Lin Yi surprisingly, did he move the right one?

Chapter 1404: Appear

“This?” Lin Yi stretched his hand towards the piece Xiaoke was mentioning. When he was about to move it, the jade sent off danger signal- telling him that this piece of the puzzle was dangerous, and he shouldn't move it! Lin Yi shook his head. “I can't. It's dangerous.”

“Ah?” You Xiaoke was taken aback. She couldn't believe Lin Yi was able to tell without physically touching the puzzle. She felt that this was impossible, but she had gotten used to Lin Yi's capability- remembering how much impossibles had he achieved. “Then try moving the one above of it, move this down.”

“This was okay?” You Xiaoke startled- she didn't know how Lin Yi differentiated them, how he achieves this feat!

“He—” Lin Yi smiled as he moved the puzzle. “This piece is probably safe too. What should we move next?”

“So strong!” You Xiaoke complimented. This male thief was really something. He could differentiate which piece was safe to move, which was not. If she was by herself, she'd have killed herself moving them! You Xiaoke looked at the puzzles on the ground and said. “This piece, is it moveable?”

“Yes.” Lin Yi moved the puzzle Xiaoke was pointing at.

“How about this?” Xiaoke asked.

“This is fine.” Lin Yi nodded.

After ten hours, Lin Yi finally put the last puzzle at the right place. He jumped away from the door and let out a long breath. “We've finally completed the puzzle!”

Although Lin Yi had a golden finger assisting him, he couldn't casually move the puzzle. Every move had to be tested. That was why it took him so long to complete the whole puzzle. With both of them working together, they spent more than ten hours to complete it!

The time taken to complete the death door puzzle was double the time they used to unlock the life door!

“Kata.” a sound came from within the door. It was the similar sound when they unlocked the life door. A buzzing sound came after that, and the door was opened.

“It’s opened!” You Xiaoke relaxed. “However, there might be tons of traps waiting for us ahead; we have to be careful and be prepared at all times!”

“Stick close to my side later; don’t move on your own. I can detect when danger approaches; we are going to be fine.” Lin Yi reassured her. Without Elder Yu around, he became more casual and easier to approach.

“En.” You Xiaoke nodded, she didn’t know why she trusted this male thief so much- she felt that when Lin Yi was around, there wouldn’t be any danger at all.

Lin Yi, Xiaoke, and General Weiwu were the only ones left in the tomb, so he didn’t have to hesitate anymore as he pushed and opened the death doors directly! If Lin Yi wasn’t doing it, it had to be You Xiaoke, so Lin Yi felt that he should be the one doing it instead.

It was totally different from the life gate. What lay behind the death gate was the same as the chambers- it was neat and tidy, but the construction here was much fancier than the tomb! The path of the two gates were opposite of each other; the path was smooth and clean. Mural paintings could also be seen on the walls.

Lin Yi walked very cautiously to take in any approaching dangers, but the jade wasn’t sending him any signals at all- this surprised Lin Yi greatly!

They had walked for more than a kilometer, but everything was peaceful and nice; the jade wasn’t sending off any signals, either. Nothing happened!

“Why is this place so quiet? There were no signs of traps or danger at all?” You Xiaoke felt weird as she asked.

“How do I know?” Lin Yi smiled bitterly. “Right, I’ve something to ask you, are you sure there are some advanced traps inside the death door?”

“This... I can’t tell.” You Xiaoke pondered and replied. “Normally, there would be a lot here, but sometimes, things may be different too- there’s a possibility no traps were located here because all of the traps were set in the death door!”

Lin Yi nodded and continue walking forwards. Even after listening to Xiaoke’s explanation, he never put his guard down.

Suddenly, General Weiwu, who was in front of Lin Yi, stopped moving and stood straight in the middle of the road.

“What’s wrong?” Lin Yi startled- he couldn’t understand General Weiwu’s action- could it be dangerous? At least, the jade on his chest wasn’t sending him any signals.

Lin Yi and Xiaoke were both confused; they had no idea what General Weiwu was doing.

There was no movement from the dark.

When Lin Yi was still puzzled, General Weiwu barked again, but this time the tone of its barking was different; there was some rage in it!

“Woof Woof.” General Weiwu increased his volume!

Finally, there was some movement from the dark spot no far from the group.” Ji ji” A weak squeak could be heard then a tiny shadow appeared from the dark walking towards General Weiwu. It seemed to be afraid of General Weiwu with its frightened face!

“What is that creature?” You Xiaoke looked at the creature and asked curiously.

And while Lin Yi had the same question as well, but his heart was filled with excitement. Could it be... this was the real thing?

Lin Yi’s gaze froze upon the creature when it walked towards them! His guess was right; this creature did look like the little fellow he was looking for!

This thing looked like a pig with a round body, but it was definitely different. It was standing up straight vertically with both of its rear legs. Its paws were like hands by the side of its body as it walked. Swinging left and right as it walked- it did look like the cute version of Pigsy.

This little fellow was reluctant to come. It seemed like General Weiwu forcefully woke him up from his sweet dream. Although the little fellow wanted to resist, he didn’t dare to do so.

However, what surprised Lin Yi the most was that this little fellow was actually mid-phase of the golden class! He couldn’t believe when he was adopted by Zhang Liju, it didn’t even have the strength of a golden class, but now it was actually at mid-phase already! It was impossible for Zhang Liju to have a super golden finger-like Lin Yi sending pure qi into the spirit’s body. The only way to level up was consuming rare resources. It was certainly not easy to reach this level just by eating rare herbs purely!

Chapter 1405: You Xiaoke’s Heart

One had to know that a person without base could bankrupt a noble house just by consuming rare herbs alone. For them to reach the middle phase of the golden class, how much resources how much herbs were actually needed!

Although Lin Yi didn’t know how much resources did this little fellow need to become this level, it was definitely not less!

“It should be Skybolt pig.” Lin Yi said. “This is the main purpose of my visit here; I’m looking for this little fellow!”

At this moment, General Weiwu started discussing with Skybolt pig. Lin Yi might not understand the conversation, but General Weiwu was aware of what Lin Yi wanted- he was probably trying to convince Skybolt pig to follow Lin Yi right now.

Meanwhile, Lin Yi finally understood why the jade didn't give off danger signal when General Weiwu was barking because this little fellow held no threats to them at all! So the jade didn't have to signal him, but General Weiwu felt its presence and summoned it over.

"Yes, it's pretty interesting, but this little fellow looks even more interesting." Lin Yi had taken a liking to this little pig.

"Since this piglet can move around the chamber freely, then, our guess was probably correct, there is no danger in this area; otherwise, the piglet would have accidentally activated the traps and suffered." You Xiaoke said.

"You're right." Lin Yi nodded and looked at General Weiwu, who was still negotiating with the little fellow. He couldn't help but ask. "Lil' Wei. How is thing going? Does he agree to come with us? Let's go hunt fire spirit fruit together?"

General Weiwu only "woof" and turned his head facing Lin Yi. He shook his head at Lin Yi and put both of his paws in front, waving it as in like he was helpless. Then, he made a gesture- asking Lin Yi to be patient and leave everything to him!

"Okay, it's all up to you now!" Lin Yi nodded- he was grateful that General Weiwu was smart enough to communicate with the little fellow. Otherwise, he would've to use force to bring the Skybolt pig with him. Who knew if the Skybolt pig would refuse to help him and escape when he wasn't aware, with size this small, there was no way Lin Yi could find him after it escaped.

So he decided to let General Weiwu do the job. He was hoping that the piglet would follow him willingly and save him some time searching the fruit.

However, it was obvious that even if the little fellow's rank was lower than General Weiwu and he was also afraid of him at the same time, but this skybolt pig seemed to be very stubborn, not having the intention to follow Lin Yi at all.

"Your dog can understand our language?" You Xiaoke found that male thief was already an outstanding person, and he even had an intelligent mystic dog by his side that could understand human language. Things were starting to get really strange here.

"Yes, I was amazed as well." Lin Yi continued. "Let's just sit here and wait. I think General Weiwu needs more than a while to convince the little fellow. Get some rest."

"En!" You Xiaoke felt that having some private time with Lin Yi was one great memory she would cherish for life. In the future, she didn't know if she would have this opportunity anymore. Thinking until this point, You Xiaoke felt embarrassed. This was her first time falling for a guy, but it was not ending well.

After hesitating for a while, she decided to talk, "Let's chat?"

"Chat?" Lin Yi asked.

"Let's chat about your stuff? You and the female thief. Are you guys husband and wife?" You Xiaoke asked.

"Ke..... no." Lin Yi couldn't believe Xiaoke would bring this up, but he wasn't trying to cheat her, so he answered honestly anyway.

“Huh? No? Since you guys are not husband and wife, why were you guys called as the couple thief?” You Xiaoke’s heart jumped a beat when he heard Lin Yi’s answer, excited!

“Old Hei’s thief organization was called the Red tower organization, but I didn’t see him looking like a red tower at all?” Lin Yi smiled bitterly. “I have a girlfriend already, the purpose of coming this tomb was to get her some medicine!”

“Ah... you have a girlfriend, huh...” You Xiaoke was tickled pink when she heard that the female thief was not Lin Yi’s wife, but she was greatly disappointed when Lin Yi told her that she had a girlfriend. “Is it the fire spirit fruit you were mentioning?”

“En, I need that little fellow to locate the fruit for me.” Lin Yi pointed at Skybolt pig.

“I see... no wonder you chose to return the tomb again, you’re so sweet to your girlfriend!” You Xiaoke was envious of her. She was thinking about how awesome it would be if Lin Yi was giving her the same treatment as his girlfriend.

“This is her only hope, she needs this fire spirit fruit to survive, otherwise...” Lin Yi didn’t continue.

“Oh...” You Xiaoke nodded.

Zhao Fafa finally received his distant cousin’s address from his father. They’d met before in a banquet, they were on the same table, and Zhao Qibing promised to take care of him if anything happens to him, but they never talked after that day.

However, Zhao Fafa couldn’t take it anymore; he was bullied by Lin Yi when Lin Yi was supposed to be threatened by his followers! Zhao Fafa’s vanity had been challenged, being bullied until this point, how could he just swallow the humiliation just like that?

In Zhao Fafa’s eyes, there was nothing he couldn’t do in Songshan city! Being the new leader of big four young masters of Songshan, he felt that he had to do something to gain back his pride. He needed to punish Lin Yi and had him admit his mistake and surrender Tangyun to him!

So he used many ways to get Zhao Qibing’s contact; this was also his first time coming to the floating cloud bar.

Zhao Qibing was over the moon to have an earth class master under him out of the blue- he was like a tiger with wings added with redoubled power! Although Elder Zhu didn’t say that he was on his side, he believed Elder Zhu would become his follower one day.

“Master Bing, there’s a brat driving Ferrari in front of our bar, he said that you are his cousin, and want to meet you...” Su Jiaonang entered the room and informed.

“My cousin?” Zhao Qibing startled. “I’m a f*cking bastard, where do I get myself a cousin? Is he a scammer? What’s his name?”

Chapter 1406: Go Punish Him

“Master Bing, do you think that the visitor is Zhao Fafa? Zhao Siguang’s son?” Li Cihuo’s memory was better. Besides, Zhao Siguang was their partner in the relocation project, so this person came to his mind.

“Him? Go get him in then.” Zhao Qibing remembered the person after being reminded by Li Cihua as he nodded to Su Jiaonang.

“Cousin brother, I was bullied! And your support is really much needed.” Zhao Fafa cut all the bullshit and went directly to the point.

“You were bullied? Who bullied you?” Zhao Qibing frowned. “Just what happened?”

“It’s like this, do you remember my father? He is one of your business partners because of that my father earned a lot recently and bought a villa. In that area, I met a girl and wanted to make her my girlfriend, but her boyfriend saw it and.....” Zhao Fafa explained from head to tail the whole process to Zhao Qibing. He didn’t mention Lin Yi and Tang Yun being the main characters as he thought that no names like them were not worth mentioning in front of Zhao Qibing.

“Oh? Does that kid have background?” Zhao Qibing was looking at Zhao Fafa in disdain after hearing the whole story- what was this garbage; he couldn’t even get a girl? What a weak brat, if it wasn’t because of his father being his business partner, Zhao Qibing wouldn’t even want to bother this distant cousin that came out of nowhere!

“I don’t think he has one, at most, just a young master. He always drives a Bentley, but he is not as powerful as you, cousin!” Zhao Fafa said.

“Oh, but you did mention that this kid knows martial arts, didn’t you? For sure, your followers aren’t his opponent. Normal people can’t fight them, if you want to punish him, you need a practitioner,” Zhao Fafa continued. “However, because of this small reason, a practitioner is summoned, isn’t that a little overreacting?”

“Of course, it’s not! Cousin brother, this is for the glory of House Zhao. Previously, I did mention your big name to him, but he said he didn’t know you and have never heard of your name before!” Zhao Fafa made something up. “Boy, he was so cocky. Isn’t that frustrating? He didn’t even know your big name, cousin!”

“Ugh... I’m from the hidden noble house, I need to stay low, it’s totally normal for them to not have heard of my name. Besides, only big shots or people from the upper society have heard of my name, lower life forms like them wouldn’t know my name naturally.” Although Zhao Qibing was saying like that on the surface, he was furious inside. His ego had been boosted by Elder Zhu just two days ago, and out of a sudden, he became a Mr. Nobody from someone’s eyes. Naturally, he wouldn’t be pleased. “If that’s the case, I shall let Uncle Zhu go with you? Uncle Zhu, your injury is beginning to recover, why don’t you go out and exercise?”

“No problem, I’ll follow anything Master Bing says, I’ll go and have a walk then!” Uncle Zhu was bored staying on the bed for such a period of time- he needed fresh air, but punishing some young masters with their stupid martial arts, it was indeed overreacting.

“Thanks, cousin!” Zhao Fafa heard about the world of practitioners from his dad recently. The lowest rank was golden class. They could walk on walls and break stones with their bare fists. It was a legendary existence!

And while Uncle Zhu was obviously a practitioner but he didn’t know what rank he was at. However, judging from his looks, it should be enough to kill Lin Yi.

“No need to thank me, since you said that this is for the glory of House Zhao, then you have to work for me properly next time!” Zhao Qibing waved his hand. “Okay, Uncle Zhu was a mystic class master, but because of his current injury, he became a golden class now- fighting a kungfu kid is more than enough!”

“That’s insane! Thank you, cousin! Thank you, Uncle Zhu!” Zhao Fafa was smiling like the cat that swallowed the canary.

After leaving the floating cloud bar, Zhao Fafa felt like he was sitting on top of the world, feeling glorious contended- having a golden class beside him, why would he still be afraid of Lin Yi? He didn’t intend to stay here for another second as he drove Uncle Zhu directly to Tangyun’s house.

Tang Yun just came back from school not long ago, but she heard someone knocking the door already.

Mother Tang was confused- who would it be this late at night? She did make a lot of new friends in this small town, but they weren’t close until they would come visit anytime they like. Only Xiaofen’s house could do that, but Xiaofen and her family should know that Tangyun always did revision at night so they wouldn’t come knocking the door at this hour normally.

“Who is it?” Mother Tang asked.

“Real estate management, checking the water meter!” Zhao Fafa knew that mother Tang would never open the door if he said that he was here for revenge, so he lied

The security of this area was actually decent, and they wouldn’t allow non-residence people to come in casually. Without giving a second thought, she opened the door to see Zhao Fafa charging into her house!

“You... what are you doing?” mother Tang jumped. The guy charging in didn’t look like he was here to check the water meter at all! Furthermore, there was a big guy standing behind him like a bodyguard- his face was cold without any expression.

“Where’s your daughter?” Zhao Fafa looked at Mother Tang and asked.

“You..... are you looking for Yun?” Mother Tang didn’t know what was wrong with this Zhao Fafa but she asked bravely. “What do you want from her?”

“Ask her to come out now!” Zhao Fafa had Uncle Zhu beside him; naturally, he wasn’t afraid of things going south. He snorted cockily. “Hurry up, don’t force me to destroy your home!”

Tang Yun came out from the room after hearing the noise from the living room. Zhao Fafa was inside her house; she didn't know what was going on, frowned. "It's you?"

"Tang Yun, where's your boyfriend? Ask him to come here immediately. I need him dead! Motherf*cker, how dare he ruin my face, I need to punish him and show him who's boss!" Zhao Fafa wasn't in a hurry to take on Tangyun's side now, his main purpose of coming here now was to punish Lin Yi. After Lin Yi was punished, it would be a lot easier to make Tang Yun into his hand.

"He's not here, why do you want from him?" Tang Yun looked around and saw Uncle Zhu behind Zhao Fafa- she didn't know who he was but judging from his expression, this guy was certainly not friendly!

Chapter 1407: Rescue

"Hmph. If he's not coming, I won't be nice anymore- I'll bring you home by force!" Zhao Fafa smiled coldly. "Tang yun, your boyfriend doesn't want you anymore, it's better you come with me!"

"Do you have a fever?" Tang yun couldn't believe Zhao Fafa was using this trick. However, it was a fact that Lin Yi was not at home, she couldn't just disturb Lin Yi when he was doing his thing, could she?

"Little girl, let this elder advice you, better listen to what he said and bring your boyfriend over; otherwise, I won't show you mercy!" Uncle Zhu swung his fist to the coffee table in the living room. "Ping" a loud sound was produced from the impact. The coffee table was smashed into pieces- this made mother Tang's face turned white!

Uncle Zhu didn't know who was Tang yun and didn't know she was Lin Yi's girlfriend. Although she was the reason why he was injured from the beginning, Uncle Zhu had never seen her before. He found Tang yun's name familiar, but he couldn't remember where he heard of it before.

"Yun, quickly call lil' Yi; if not, our house will be sabotaged by them!" Mother Tang was terrified. "These people, only Lil' Yi can handle them, go call him now!"

"This... I'll try..." Tang yun didn't have a choice- she couldn't believe that the guy beside Zhao Fafa was this tyrant. According to her analysis, this guy must be a practitioner. No ordinary human was his opponent!

Tang yun walked hastily into her room, but the first call she made was not to Lin Yi, she called House Chu's villa instead.

The person answering the phone was Chu Mengyao. Tang yun explained her situation to Chu Mengyao, and she passed the phone to Er Goudan. Lin Yi wasn't at home. Naturally, the person in charge would be Er Goudan now.

"Practitioner? I see, I'll get Wu Chengtian to have a look, Tangyun sis in law, don't worry, I'll send him over now!" Er Goudan knew that he wasn't fit to do this job now. There was no point of him going. He had used up all his power; the poison in his body was close to exploding. It was already considered lucky for him to stay alive, let alone fighting!

After ending the call, Er Goudan summoned Wu Chengtian. "Wu Chengtian, my sister in law, Tangyun is having some trouble over there right now. A practitioner knocked their door, can you go and have a look?"

"No problem, of course, I would love to go, leave this to me!" Wu Chengtian puffed his chest up as he promised. "Boss' trouble is my trouble, boss' girlfriend's trouble is naturally my trouble too! Rest assured, I'll get things settled. One lowly practitioner, let me take care of him!"

"Be careful; if the enemy is too strong, don't force yourself. Wait for Uncle Fu to arrive, he will come to help as soon as possible!" Er Goudan said.

"Okay, boss, just look at my result later!" Wu Chengtian had finally gotten a chance to prove himself; naturally, he would be passionate about doing the job. It was like a test given by Er Goudan; he was determined to show him some colorful results. After getting the mission, he charged out of the house, running full speed to Tangyun.

Wu Chengtian rushed into the house to see Tangyun's and mother Tang's concerned face while on the other side, stood an old man and a young master. Both of them looked like they were here for trouble.

"Tangyun, sis-in-law, I'm here! Are these two fur balls bothering you?" Wu Chengtian looked at them. "These two f*ckers?"

"Kid, who are you?" Zhao Fafa was stunned; it was not Lin Yi but a young guy. "Tangyun, did you get a new boyfriend?"

"Are you dumb? I called her sis-in-law just now, can't you tell who I am?" Wu Chengtian laughed at Zhao Fafa like he was an idiot. "Are you the f*cking young master? I'll give you a chance to say sorry, apologize now otherwise the consequences are going to be severe!"

Zhao Fafa's face turned red- he didn't listen to what Wu Chengtian said and assumed that Tangyun got herself a new boyfriend, but his face was thick- he pretended nothing happened. "Who are you? Consequences? Stop bullshitting."

"Hmph!" Wu Chengtian snorted and looked around the house. He found a bronze made wall lamp beside the door, he pulled the lamp off the wall and casually bent the lamp in his hand. The lamp immediately deformed. "Did you see that? I'll bend your brain until it explodes!"

"Early phase of the golden class?" A scowl flashed across Uncle Zhu's face- he couldn't believe the comer was actually a practitioner. Although he might just be an early phase golden class physical master, it wasn't common! There were actually masters in this common world?

"Old man, you have a good pair of eyes, since you are aware of my strength, I advise you to get the hell out of this place as soon as possible." Wu Chengtian said proudly.

Tangyun became speechless- was this guy here to help or not? Uncle Zhu had already destroyed a coffee table, and this Wu Chengtian was here to tear down her house's wall lamp! However, she knew that Wu Chengtian's intention was good, so she couldn't get herself to be mad at him.

“Ignorant brat, do you think that you’re so good being only an early phase golden class master? You just stepped into the world of practitioner; You know nothing!” Uncle Zhu was looking at Wu Chengtian with disdain. “This old man here was a mystic class master, peak early phase of the mystic class, but due to my injury, I dropped back to golden class. However, even with this handicap, you are still not my opponent!”

“Mystic? Were you a mystic? You must be an expert at bullsh*tting, aren’t you?” Wu Chengtian smiled. “If that’s the case, let me test your strength!”

Wu Chengtian threw a punch to Uncle Zhu when he finished his sentence. He was good at attacking, his fists were extraordinary hard, as hard as iron!

Uncle Zhu didn’t see this coming- he couldn’t believe Wu Chengtian would attack him immediately without any warning! Uncle Zhu hadn’t gotten the chance to ask him where Wu Chengtian was from and his background, but his opponent had already started attacking him.

This troubled Uncle Zhu a lot- he wanted to dodge, but it was too late to react. Besides, he hadn’t exercised for quite some time. The big body of him was “rusty” now. In the end, a loud punching sound was heard, a punch was landed on Uncle Zhu’s chest right in the middle; this made him backed off a few steps.

Chapter 1408: Heavily Injured

Uncle Zhu was so pissed off- he knew that he had fallen from mystic to golden, but he felt that he should be at least an unstable mid-phase golden class master, and he should be a lot stronger than Wu Chengtian who just became a golden class master. Besides, he was a mystic class master before he was injured. The guy before him should be a lot weaker!

However, Uncle Zhu was so used to his mystic strength; he never expected that he would be injured by a lowly golden class; the fact displeased him a lot!

“Brat, DIE!” Uncle Zhu channeled his practitioner’s arts and was prepared to counter-attack Wu Chengtian! The punch Wu Chengtian gave him hit him right in the chest; this caused him severe inner injury. It was the biggest insult in his life!

Wu Chengtian was stunned- he couldn’t believe the old man before him was really a golden class; a mid-phase golden class no less! The fact frightened him a little. Previously, he thought that Uncle Zhu was just bullshitting, but who knew that he was really a true master!

“Old man, you’re really a mid-phase golden class master, huh! Wu Chengtian might be cocky, but facing a person who was stronger than him; he wouldn’t be overconfident and throw his life away. In the practitioner world, being overconfident didn’t mean that you would win the fight. You needed to have the strength to triumph over your opponent, so his subconscious was signaling him to retreat.

As much as he wanted to escape, Uncle Zhu was fast- his fist was almost reaching Wu Chengtian's chest already. Knowing that he couldn't dodge the attack nor back off because of the wall behind, he swung his fist meeting Uncle Zhu's fist directly!

"Ping"

Their fists met, and a loud noise was created. An iron fist might be what Wu Chengtian was practicing, but the difference in rank was still too great, his fist was throbbing in pain after the impact! If he wasn't practicing iron fist arts, perhaps his hand might have been disabled by Uncle Zhu already!

Being a spiritual master- Uncle Zhu had more advantage against a physical master before the fight started. Even if he and Wu Chengtian were at the same rank, he was still stronger than him in terms of strength, and he was a mid-phase master no less!

"Eh? Nothing happened to your hand?" Uncle Zhu thought Wu Chengtian's hand should be disabled at this point, even if he missed a direct hit, Chengtian should be badly injured. Uncle Zhu was so pissed off being punched in the chest, he used all his power in this one hit, but who had expected to see Wu Chengtian standing there, uninjured!

"Hey, old thing, did you have lunch or something? My fist is fine!" in a situation like this. Naturally, Wu Chengtian wouldn't be so stupid to tell his enemy what arts he was practicing- he wasn't that dumb to expose his own weakness. If he was facing an enemy weaker than him, there was no harm exposing his secrets. Furthermore, he could act cool in front of his opponent, but it was not the case now. Wu Chengtian didn't say a single word about it!

"Hand me your life!" Uncle Zhu's face became red after hearing the taunt. He activated his personal arts again, charging straight at Wu Chengtian. He knew the punch he had taken from Wu Chengtian had taken a great toll on his body. He was easy prey, but who knew things went south from the start- he could no longer activate his full strength with the damage. He had to end this fight as soon as possible. His injury might act up suddenly without any warnings. It was going to be bad news if he didn't kill Wu Chengtian when he still could!

There was no way Wu Chengtian would dare to fight Uncle Zhu recklessly without due consideration of the objectives, would he? He had already started escaping when Uncle Zhu opened his mouth just now!

However, their difference in level was too great, Uncle Zhu was initially a mystic class master, so he was more experienced than all the golden class masters, and while Wu Chengtian who had just entered the world of practitioners, how could win over an opponent this strong?

He was lucky to have landed a surprise attack; it was impossible to attack Uncle Zhu again. Even if Wu Chengtian wanted to escape now, it was not easy anymore!

Wu Chengtian was getting nervous, seeing Uncle Zhu getting closer to him. He was close to escaping the house; he believed Uncle Zhu wouldn't continue pursuing him when he successfully left the house. After all, Zhao Fafa was still inside. He couldn't abandon him, could he?

However, what would happen to Tang Yun if he ran away? This was a mission given by his boss; he had to protect Tang Yun with his life, hadn't he?

Until this point, Wu Chengtian clenched his teeth- since he had already called him his boss, there was no turning back at his own words anymore. House Wu's reputation would be ruined if this were spread out! As the young master of House Wu, he had to be responsible for what he said. If he were to cut and run now, where should he put his face in the future?

Especially when Wu Chengtian was a person who cared about his face a lot- how could he just abandon Tang Yun and do something this unloyal?

Hence, Wu Chengtian stopped running and held both his palms up, getting ready to receive Uncle Zhu's attack directly. He was thinking of fighting Uncle Zhu recklessly. As long as he could hold up until Uncle Fu arrived, then it would be a mission accomplished!

Uncle Fu was at the peak of the late phase golden class, fighting Uncle Zhu shouldn't be an issue at all. All he had to do was to buy some time for Uncle Fu to arrive!

"Come, old man, let me give you a taste of Grandpa Wu's godly palm!" Wu Chengtian was prepared to receive the attack.

"DIE!" Uncle Zhu couldn't believe Wu Chengtian changed to an offensive state at the last second. He got even more pissed off- this brat didn't even put his strength in his eyes at all! Uncle Zhu felt wronged before he was downgraded to the golden class; it didn't take one punch to end a golden class master's life like Wu Chengtian- the difference between their strength was great. However, this fight was taking forever to end; he was even being laughed by a brat!

Uncle Zhu charged towards Wu Chengtian, raising both his arms up, connecting Wu Chengtian's palms. But this time, he gathered all the pure qi in both his palms- trying to kill Wu Chengtian with a single hit!

"Boooom!"

Wu Chengtian's and Uncle Zhu's palms met. Wu Chengtian might be an iron fist practitioner, but the amount of pure qi Uncle Zhu used sent Chengtian flying behind, knocking flat at the security door behind. The security changed shape immediately after the great impact!

"Pfff..." Wu Chengtian coughed out a mouthful of fresh blood and landed on the cold ground. His face blanched, the shirt he was wearing was already tainted red by his blood. Although Wu Chengtian's hands were fine, his body couldn't take the attack- he was severely injured from the inside. The organs were all in a mess, eighty percent of his meridians were broken!

Uncle Zhu was injured by Wu Chengtian previously, and now, Wu Chengtian's iron fists had rebounded part of the power back to Uncle Zhu's body, so this worsen his condition to the next level!

"Ah!" Tang Yun's heart stopped for a beat. She subconsciously asked. "Are you okay?"

"Haha, how is he okay? Only death awaits him now!" Zhao Fafa was in seventh heaven when he saw Wu Chengtian was on the brink of death. "You better call your boyfriend over right now; this follower of his doesn't seem to be any of use anymore!"

Chapter 1409: Escaped due to Fear

However, when Zhao Fafa finished his threat, he realized that Uncle Zhu's face wasn't any better than Wu Chengtian, either! He was stunned and quickly shut his mouth up when he saw something wasn't right! Zhao Fafa could see that Uncle Zhu was injured as well!

"Kid, you're pretty good. You are able to injure me just being an early phase golden class master- you rebounded my power back to myself when our palms met; you really did a great job there!" Uncle Zhu smiled coldly. "If my guess is correct, you are people from Iron fist House Wu, aren't you? You guys only practice those hands of yours."

"Not bad; since you are aware of my identity, then get the hell out of this place. Aren't you afraid of House Wu's revenge?" Wu Chengtian's body was a mess- it was extremely uncomfortable inside. He had no more strength to fight Uncle Zhu anymore; he could only use verbal attacks to scare him away, hoping that he could buy more time for Uncle Fu.

"HAHAHAHA!" Uncle Zhu burst into laughter after hearing Wu Chengtian's threat. "A lowly common world's noble house. How dare you talk about revenge in front of me? House Wu, I don't even put you people in my eyes! Since you have offended me, you have the face the consequences. Die!"

"Wait a minute!" Wu Chengtian was flabbergasted; he couldn't believe that throwing his name out was not effective against his enemy. Wu Chengtian didn't want to die, but he didn't know what to do! Wasn't this old man too harsh on him? Was he trying to kill him?

"Do you have any last words?" Uncle Zhu asked lightly- he wasn't in a hurry to kill Wu Chengtian anymore. In his perspective, Wu Chengtian was already a dead person- there was no way he could dodge his attack at this point, so it didn't really matter if he killed him after hearing his last words.

"If you're killing me, you have to go through my boss first; he will avenge me for sure!" Wu Chengtian continued. "My big boss won't let you go that easily!"

Wu Chengtian was screaming inside, Uncle Fu, where are you? I'm gonna die soon, please come and save me!

"Your boss?" Uncle Zhu flinched. "Who's your boss?"

"Uncle Zhu, this kid is playing with words, his boss is Tang Yun's boyfriend!" Zhao Fafa started explaining as in like he was an expert. "Don't worry, after you die, Lin Yi will be the next one!"

"Lin Yi is my big boss; my boss is not Lin Yi..." Wu Chengtian still tried his time to buy as much time as he could.

"Eh?" Uncle Zhu was stunned when he heard the name, Lin Yi. "What did you say? Your big boss is Lin Yi? Which Lin Yi did you mean?"

"Which Lin Yi can it be? It's obviously the boss of Er Goudan who killed Jin Wudi with one punch, and yes, Er Goudan is my boss. Naturally, Lin Yi is my big boss!" Wu Chengtian continued. "If I were to die now, your whole family would die along with me, my boss and big boss will come hunt all your families down!"

“Ugh...” Uncle Zhu’s face became extremely dark- butterflies were hitting his stomach! It couldn’t be right, could it? This kid’s boss was Er Goudan? The one who killed Jin Wudi with one single punch, that bastard? Besides, Er Goudan’s boss was actually Lin Yi? Why was it Lin Yi again?

Uncle Zhu wanted to cry, gosh. Was this bullying? Even Master Bing didn’t dare to touch Lin Yi, and he was now stepping into Lin Yi’s territory to help this stupid Zhao Fafa? This girl was actually Lin Yi’s girlfriend?

Right! Tang Yun’s name rang a bell in Uncle Zhu’s memory. No wonder she sounded so familiar, she was the reason why he was disabled by Lin Yi, and both Zhao Qibing’s legs were crippled. Weren’t all this because of the girl, Tang Yun?

In the end, he came back to die himself? Now, Wu Chengtian was injured; as long as he was still alive, he believed Lin Yi wouldn’t cause him any serious trouble, but harassing Tang Yun was a totally different story. Lin Yi would kill him without a second thought! Uncle Zhu didn’t dare to imagine the consequences.

“What’s the matter? Are you scared now?” Wu Chengtian was no stupid- he knew that Uncle Zhu was terrified by Lin and Er Goudan. He might not know the reason behind this, but nevertheless, it was great news!

“It was a misunderstanding.... Sorry for all the things I did....” Uncle Zhu had no choice- he had to clarify things clearly. Otherwise, Lin Yi would come looking for him and bring troubles to Master Bing. Besides, Uncle Zhu didn’t have the strength to fight Lin Yi now. He could only lower his head and apologize.

This time, the person who was astonished was Wu Chengtian. He couldn’t believe that Er Goudan’s and Lin Yi’s names were this powerful- their names scared the hell out of Uncle Zhu, and everything became a big misunderstanding. However, Wu Chengtian was a little depressed—did he not know that Tang Yun was Lin Yi’s girlfriend?

As a matter of fact, he did seem like he wasn’t told about it until now.

“Hmph, since you knew that Tang Yun sis in law is my big boss, Lin Yi’s girlfriend, why did you still come here? Are you really not afraid to die!” Wu Chengtian snorted loudly.

“This old man had no idea at all; it was all this old man’s fault. Excuse me, but this old man has to leave now!” Uncle Zhu had no intention to stay for another second as he turned around and left the house.

Meanwhile, Zhao Fafa started to panic- he couldn’t understand the logic behind all this; it was such a good opportunity. Why was Uncle Zhu giving up all of a sudden? Wasn’t he going to kill Wu Chengtian and kill Lin Yi afterward? When did this become a misunderstanding and fault? Just what was going on?

“Uncle Zhu, Uncle Zhu please don’t leave. Why are you leaving?” Zhao Fafa was puzzled as he followed Uncle Zhu and asked. However, Uncle Zhu didn’t turn back to answer his questions- he didn’t even have the balls to look behind now! Zhao Fafa helplessly tailed behind him, since Uncle Zhu had left, how was he an opponent of Wu Chengtian? Was he looking to die fighting him?

Wu Chengtian wanted to give Zhao Fafa a lesson before he left, but he couldn’t find any strength to climb up from the ground, his body was a mess as in like his internal organs were all shattered inside.

After Uncle Zhu left, the tension in the atmosphere was gone. He split out a mouthful of fresh blood and fainted directly.

"You... are you okay? Do you need me to call the ambulance?" Tang Yun was horrified when she saw Wu Chengtian faint, but she had totally no idea what to do! She didn't know if a practitioner needed to be sent to the hospital after getting injured. Lin Yi had never gone to the hospital before, so she didn't know if Wu Chengtian was the same or not.

But, Wu Chengtian had already lost his consciousness- he couldn't answer Tang Yun's question now.

"This.... What's going on?" Mother Tang was dumbfounded by the fight just now. She only came back to her senses after Uncle Zhu, and Zhao Fafa left the house. "Yun, who did you offend? Why was that young master looking trouble from you?"

Chapter 1410: Adding Troubles

"He's from our district; he was hitting on me, and I rejected him, so he's here causing trouble..." Tang Yun said simply. "Let's not talk about that right now. I need to call Er Goudan and ask him what I should do about this Wu Chentian!"

Tang Yin took up the phone and was starting to dial Mengyao's number when Uncle Fu stepped in. "Is Tang Yun here? Are you all alright? Is the enemy gone?"

"Uncle Fu!" Tang Yin put down the phone once she saw him and walked over. "Uncle Fu, Wu Chentian is hurt. The one called Uncle Chu injured him- do we need to send him to the hospital?"

"Oh?" Uncle Fu walked over and crouched down, frowning as he inspected Chentian. "It would've been fine if Lin Yi was here, but since he isn't, we'll have to send him to the hospital. I'll drive him there- are you coming with me?"

"Alright!" Tang Yin nodded. It was because of her that Chentian got injured, so naturally, she wouldn't just leave him alone. She quickly put on her shoes. "Mom, you stay here and get a repairman to fix the door! I'll be out for a bit!"

Tang Yin wasn't worried that the enemies might come back—they've heard Lin Yi's name and ran away because of it, so they should be fine.

But she felt quite troubled at what happened—Fafa didn't know about Lin Yi's power, but that Uncle Fu helper of his feared him a lot, running right away after hearing the name as if he was worried that Lin Yi would come to his doorstep!

If that had been the case, she would've put the name out earlier so they would leave, and Chentian wouldn't get hurt! But she didn't know that Fafa didn't tell him about Lin Yi's name!

On the way to the hospital, Tang Yin told Uncle Fu about what happened, and he nodded, sighing. "So it was Uncle Zhu... He's the one that Lin Yi injured back then, Zhao Qibing's bodyguard. It's because of what they did to your house that Lin Yi made a move!"

"Oh, it's him! No wonder he's so afraid of Lin Yi!" Tang Yun exclaimed.

“When I came to your house. I saw two people leave your place and went on a Ferrari before leaving- so it was those two. I should’ve stopped them if I had known!”

“No need for that—Lin Yi isn’t here right now, so it’s best if we avoid trouble. Let’s wait until Lin Yi gets back!” Tang Yun didn’t want to cause trouble when Lin Yi wasn’t here.

“Alright, we’ll wait for him to come back...” Uncle Fu nodded.

Chentian’s injuries were internal injuries, and while Chentian was a physical practitioner, the nerves played a part as well, and it would have a certain level of effect. Even when his injuries recover, it’d be hard to recover back to his previous strength. His internal organs are damaged as well, and with standard hospital procedures, he needed to be resting on a sickbed to up to a year.

But Chentian’s life wasn’t in danger, and this was a relief. He wasn’t waking up yet, but he was past the unstable stage- Lin Yi could heal him once he returned!

However, the two bodyguards inside the house were both injured, and Uncle Fu had to go back quickly to protect Mengyao until Lin Yi comes back...

The bank robbery that was being talked about across Songshan happened once more after three days!

It was another bank, and it had been done with the same methods, a completely one-sided violent breaking in. The thug was still operating alone silently, breaking the glass and then pulling out the vault door, taking all the money!

With an insane speed, the entire process was very short, a mere couple of minutes until he robbed the place clean and left the scene quickly! The police couldn’t see anyone by the time they arrived!

This sort of method was rare, since the old cases were all organized crime, dealing with hostages and threatening the staff to open the vault. It took a lot more time and gave the cops a chance!

But this thug’s speed was something else, there was nothing they could do if he was that fast.

Lingshan didn’t expect that they were dealing with such a big case before she even returned- what hurt her brain more was that Wangli told her that there had been two of the same case that happened earlier!

At first, arresting Old Hei, as well as the men belonging to Old Hei, Old Keng, James, and Old Hao was a happy thing for Lingshan- it wasn’t a perfect wrap for the case, but it was considered a success. They apprehended a whole group of criminals!

But she still hadn’t had the chance to celebrate when trouble arrived again!

Robberies, three of them- in such a short amount of time! Just who the hell was this man. He didn’t seem to have any fear or restraint!

Yutian came back with Lingshan and had wanted to talk with her about the tomb case when all this news came. Seeing that frown on Lingshan’s face, Yutian sighed. “Lingshan, don’t put too much stress on yourself- the robberies already happened; it’s no use to be fretting over it too much. Just try your best to look for the clues- but from the looks of it, this man has to be a practitioner for sure.”

“Yeah, he has to be- this also makes the case harder to crack!” Lingshan said. “The practitioners in Songshan all have a file in Songshan, and this sort of thing may require us to ask Feng Tianlong for help. It’s a bit out of our range of operation!”

“That’s true. If it really is a practitioner we’re dealing with we’ll have to get the secret service for backup.” Yutian nodded. “Let’s talk about the tomb raider case first?”

“Alright...” Lingshan massaged her temple. They needed to take things one step at a time after all, and there was no point panicking over it now. Wangli’s men were out there gathering clues anyway, so they had time to talk about the tomb.
