Chapter 1421: Close a Deal

As expected! They did it on purpose! Elder Yu wanted to throw profanities at them. Did they calculate how much money do House Yu have before mentioning the price? This one billion was really indeed a fair price!

“Young master Zhao, you know... House Yu can bring out this one billion, but that money is fluid capital. The business won't be able to run if the money is taken out!” Elder Yu explained helplessly.

“I say, Elder Yu? What's the point of telling me this? Does it have anything to do with me?” Zhao Qibing furrowed his eyebrows, annoyed. His rank was higher than Elder Yu, who just entered the hidden House Yu a lot, so he went straight to the point. “Elder Yu, let's be honest here. If you want us to treat you, get the one billion now. If you can't move the one billion, then give us assets that are equivalent to one billion, be it real estate, or companies, or even the auction house! Otherwise, please find someone else to treat you!”

Zhao Qibing had been longing for House Yu's properties. If he could get those properties into to his hand, it would mean extraordinary merit to House Zhao; he believed his grandpa would certainly see him differently after this.

Elder Yu fell into depression; he didn't know what to do. If he were to leave now, only death awaits. But if he were to use the common world House Yu's assets to pay the medical fee, he'd rather die!

Suddenly, Elder Yu remembered that he had something in his hand! This thing would pique their interests like how they wanted to devour House Yu's properties! As unwilling as he was, keeping that thing with him was worthless for now! Offering it to the hidden House Yu was useless as he couldn't get anything out of it!

It was none other than the qi gathering pill he had obtained from the tomb! This pill could help a person at the bottleneck to breakthrough! It was a god-like medicine!

However, having god-like medicine by Elder Yu's side brought no advantage to him. Elder Yu was still far from reaching the bottleneck of the earth class. This pill would only bring him disasters if hidden House Yu were to find out he tried to keep that treasure to himself. On the other hand, he believed that House Zhao wouldn't be so stupid to announce the whole world where did they get the pill from.

Pondering until this point, Elder Yu finally opened his mouth. “I've something equally precious to those treasures, is that okay?”

“Oh? What treasure do you have?” Yaowang raised his eyebrows, excited.

“One qi gathering pill! The price of this pill is insane. Besides, you can't find any of these stocks in the market!” Elder Yu was determined.

“Qi gathering pill? What plaything is that?” Zhao Qibing had never heard of qi gathering pill. “Is that really that expensive? That worths one billion?”

“Young master Zhao, this qi gathering pill is a miracle medicine! I believe with Yaowang's knowledge. He knows how precious is this pill.” Elder Yu refused to bother with Zhao Qibing's ignorance, without any anger as he explained. After all, he was here to beg people, so he had to lower his voice and explain patiently.

“Are you.... talking about the legendary qi gathering pill?” Yaowang’s eyes were frozen as he stared at Elder Yu. His voice was deep. “Elder Yu, you aren’t joking, are you?”

“My life is in your hand now, why would I make a joke out of it?” Elder Yu smiled bitterly. “This time around, I’m this injured because of this pill. In the end, I got nothing in return and have to suffer so much!”

Sorrow was filling up Elder Yu’s heart- after investing so much energy, got heavily injured, and his balls pierced to getting poisoned, he still had to hand out the qi gathering pill he got from the tomb. To keep his life, he had no choice but to do so. It was a tragedy!

“If you really have that legendary item, I’m afraid we are the one getting most of the profit here!” Yaowang knew how rare was the qi gathering pill. He was shaken. “Would you please let me and have a look?”

“Naturally!” Elder Yu’d decided to use this bargaining chip to trade back his life- why would he not allow Yaowang to examine? Hence, he porched out a tiny bottle from his shirt, handed it carefully to Yaowang. As unwilling as he was, he had to trade this item- it didn’t stay with him for long before it belonged to someone else now.

Yaowang cautiously received the tiny bottle and opened the cap to sniff, shock registered on his face instantly. “From the look to the smell of this pill, this is at least a third-grade medicine, and the color and smell match the characteristics of the legendary pill; this is probably a real deal!”

“I told you, I wouldn’t joke about this.” Elder Yu felt a prick of pain in his heart.

“Okay, I will do my best to remove the toxin from your body!” Yaowang had concluded the deal- this was the most cost-effective deal ever! One had to know that. This was the legendary pill that could assist a practitioner in breaking through the wall of a class, and while, the master of House Zhao was stuck in it at this moment- he had been unable to break through this wall for six years. If Yaowang and Zhao Qibing could present this pill to the master, naturally, their positions in the house would be upgraded- they would be in a totally different existence!

“Wait a minute!” Elder Yu waved his hand to stop Yaowang.

“Oh? Elder Yu, do you have anything to add?” Yaowang asked solemnly- he was slightly afraid that Elder Yu would regret his decision, after all, one billion for a qi gathering pill!

“You can heal my other injuries as well, right?” since Elder Yu’d spent so much money in this treatment. Naturally, he wouldn’t allow Yaowang to only remove the toxin.

“Of course, no problem.” Yaowang agreed without a second thought.

Actually, removing this poison was no easy task for Yaowang, but it wasn’t exhausting too much of his energy, either. He did this to make Elder Yu feel that he had spent the right amount of money on this treatment, so something could be done in one day. He extended to three days. The injuries and the wound on his balls were small cases, and he treated them immediately on the first treatment.

After the first treatment, Elder Yu felt good as he released a breath of relief and went back to the guesthouse.

“Yaowang, so what’s that qi gathering pill about?” Zhao Qibing had been holding back from asking Yaowang on the spot. From Yaowang’s expression, he could guess how priceless was the pill, but he was clueless about how priceless it was!

“Congratulation, Master Bing. This time around, I believe House Zhao will be reaching a new height in no time!” Now, Yaowang couldn’t help but burst into laughter! “God really does bless us. This qi gathering pill can help a practitioner from the peak late phase of the earth class to breakthrough into the sky class. This legendary pill is already super rare in the world of the ancient sect, but who would have thought that House Zhao has just gotten one out of nowhere!”

“AH ?!” Zhao Qibing was astonished when he heard Yaowang’s explanation. “For real?! What is this overpowering pill? Does that mean that Grandpa can become a sky class master after consuming it?”

Chapter 1422: Master Bing’s Aggrievance

“Naturally!” Yaowang nodded. “We will gain a higher status in House Zhao for the outstanding service we will make!”

“Seriously?! HAHAAH.” Zhao Qibing was pumped up as he burst into laughter. “Does that mean I can return to House Zhao, and I can be acknowledged and be recognized by the Zhaos’ heritage?”

“That’s for sure, but other than just returning to House Zhao. I believe in the whole House Zhao; no one will dare to look down you anymore; even Mrs. Zhao can’t comment about it, either!” Yaowang had been sent to assist Zhao Qibing in earning money in Songshan city. No matter how unwilling he was, in the eyes of the Zhao’s, he was part Zhao Qibing’s gang already. Now that Zhao Qibing had accomplished some results, naturally, his position was upgraded as well!

“Good, good!” Zhao Qibing nodded. “Indeed, this is a piece of good news- I’ve to inform my dad and tell him everything!”

While the two were conversing, Uncle Zhu came in with a pale face along with Zhao Fafa behind him.

“Uncle Zhu, what happened? Did you give the brat a good lesson?” After hearing Yaowang’s explanation of the pill, his mood was lightened up- fantasizing about the scene of returning House Zhao. Being so excited and all, he didn’t realize something was wrong with Uncle Zhu’s expression.

“Master Bing, do you know who was the brat?” Uncle Zhu recalled and got so angry- he was literally committing suicide!

“Kid? That kid is Lin Yi! and Er Goudan is Lin Yi’s follower! I was close to crossing the death gate!” Uncle Zhu pointed at Zhao Fafa. “He, he wanted to get all of us killed!”

“Lin Yi?” Zhao Qibing flinched. “Don’t tell me the girl he was talking was.....”

“Tang Yun! It’s Tang Yun! He dared to harass Tang Yun! I was so shocked when I learned the news. I wonder why is this Zhao Fafa still alive?” Uncle Zhu looked at this ignorant child- Zhao Fafa, he didn’t know what to say.

“Pa!” Zhao Fafa gave Zhao Fafa a good slap on his cheek. “YOUR GRANDMA, you are really good for nothing, I didn’t even dare to touch Tang Yun, and you had the balls to touch her? You piece of sh*t, get lost! Today, I’m having a super auspicious day, so I won’t f*ck with you, but don’t let me see your face ever again!”

Zhao Fafa didn’t say anything; He ran away with his palm on his red cheek. He might not know why Zhao Qibing was this furious, but the reason was clear- Lin Yi was so powerful, even Zhao Qibing and Uncle Zhu couldn’t do anything to him. He understood now. He had offended a person he shouldn’t be offending...

Zhao Fafa was not around anymore, but the aggrievance was building up in Zhao Qibing; his face turned dark. “Lin Yi! You again! I’m going to kill you one day!”

“Master Bing, wait for your grandpa to breakthrough to sky class first and get significant support from the house. By that time, killing Lin Yi will be a breeze!” Yaowang reminded.

“Yes, when Grandpa enters the sky class, who has the balls to make me an enemy?” Thinking about his bright future ahead, he felt warm and cozy inside. He took his phone out and called his father- Zhao Guangyin.

“Qibing, what’s the matter? Did the people from House Yu come and find you, is Yu Huoxing’s treatment going well?” Zhao Guangyin didn’t know why would Zhao Qibing call him at the moment like this.

“He came, but I won’t let him leave that easily- I asked for a billion medical fee!” Zhao Qibing replied.

“What! One billion?” Zhao Guangyin was taken aback, frowned. “Qibing, don’t you think this price is slightly too high? You have to know that House Zhao and House Yu are connected by marriage, doing so will offend House Yu.”

Zhao Guangyin was concerned about his wife, Yu Xiaojing. Zhao Qibing’s action was completely making them an enemy, wasn’t he?

“Huh? Dad, are you blaming me?” Zhao Qibing was a little displeased- he felt that his father was holding back too much, concerning this and that, a person like this could achieve anything at all.

“Not at all... But Qibing, this fee is really too high, you need to know when to stop, don’t you?” Zhao Guangyin couldn’t mention his wife’s name, could he?

“Dad, I learned that Yu Huoxing was carrying a super rare legendary pill with him- Qi gathering pill!” Zhao Qibing had thought of stories to exaggerate his credit, so he made everything sound like he was prepared for it.

“WHAT! Qi Gathering pill? Why would he have such a legendary pill in his hand.” Zhao Guangyin was so surprised; he almost threw his phone away from him- this news was just too mind-blowing to him! Three years ago, due to Zhao’s old master being stuck at the wall of the peak late phase of the earth class, they sent a team to search for the pill but to no avail. It was never easy to look for a legendary pill like this, was it? At last, they gave up on the action but who would have imagined that Zhao Qibing would get one into his hand!

“By accident, maybe? Who cares about him anyway!” Zhao Qibing continued. “So I was thinking about how to get that pill into our hands and offer it to grandpa? It was impossible to get it by force, so I discussed with Yaowang and decided to collect a billion as a medical fee. Under Yaowang’s guidance, Yu Huoxing voluntarily traded the pill with us!”

Zhao Qibing was a person who was good at drawing someone to his side- mentioning Yaowang’s contribution would make Yaowang feel like he followed the right master.

“What! Qi gathering pill... okay, do you have it with you now?” Zhao Guangyin was impressed and exhilarated at the same time and stood up from where he was sitting. “Are you sure? Why would Yu Huoxing willingly trade this legendary pill with you?”

“Haha, of course, it is, I’ve it in my hand right now!” Zhao Qibing said cockily. “Naturally, Yu Huoxing didn’t want to give me, but to keep his life, he had no choice but to give up!”

“That.... what if hidden House Yu finds out?” Zhao Guangyin finally remembered something crucial- would House Yu look trouble from them in the future?

“They don’t even know about this news. Otherwise, there was no way Yu Huoxing had the balls to trade the pill to us. Even giving him ten thousand guts, he wouldn’t do that. One has to know that he will be heavily punished for trading the pill by his own intuitive!” Zhao Qibing said nonchalantly. “So dad, what I want to say is that you can’t tell Aunty Yu about this. Only tell grandpa this piece of good news!”

“You’re right!” Zhao Guangyin nodded- this event was related to the future of the entire House Zhao, he knew what he was supposed to do and what he wasn’t. “Qibing, you did really amazing this time. I’ll tell grandpa every contribution you made. This time around, I’m afraid you can finally return to House Zhao and be recognized by them now. I’ll request a foundation pill from your grandpa so you can step into the world of practitioners as well!”

Chapter 1423: Some Benefits

“Thank you, dad!” Zhao Qibing was instantly fired up- he could finally become a practitioner now? This was what he had been longing for!

Normally, no matter what style a person practices be it spiritual or physical- he had to start from young when he had exceeded the golden age to become a practitioner- the progress would be extraordinary slow because their meridians and bones had hardened to a state where practicing wouldn’t bring them any effect anymore!

While Zhao Qibing had missed the best time to become a master, so he hadn't practiced at all. This was the same for Chen Yutian, if it wasn't because of Lin Yi- Chen Yutian would never become a master even with all those efforts he invested.

Of course, correcting this Achilles heel wasn't impossible. Lin Yi's method was effective, but it was too magical to be real. No ordinary person could achieve this feat, so for the ancient sect and hidden houses. The only way to change the structure and stiffness of the meridians and bones was this unique pill- foundation pill!

Foundation pill was not considered as some high-grade pill, but only a handful of people in the ancient sect could refine it. The whole process of refining this pill was complicated, and the success rate was low as well, making the cost of this pill exceptionally high. If the person in the house was not an important figure, they wouldn't allow them to consume that easily!

If Zhao Qibing was given permission to have it- one could say that House Zhao had finally acknowledged him and would be treating him as their own to cultivate!

"Okay, I'll tell dad right now, you should get prepared. I'll bring people to bring you home any second now!" Zhao Guangyin said solemnly.

"Sure, dad!" Zhao Qibing answered. After so many years, wandering at the common world, he could finally return home- his dream was about to come true!

Lin Yi couldn't believe this little thing was this stubborn- after negotiating with General Weiwu for so long, he still insisted on leaving this tomb.

However, this showed that Skybolt pig was not stupid at all- he still had feelings for Zhang Liju and wanted to accompany him. It was understandable.

After a short while, Skybolt pig turned around and ran towards a stoned room behind them.

Lin Yi quickly stood up and followed along with You Xiaoke.

Entering the room to see a mountain stack of herbs was placed on the floor. Although these herbs were dried out, from the look of it, Lin Yi could tell these herbs were extraordinarily rare and precious!

Skybolt pig casually picked up a few dried herbs and stuffed them into his mouth as he started chewing on them!

This scene froze You Xiaoke. Lin Yi, on the other hand, was prepared for this- he had learned about Skybolt pig from Zhang Liju's medical notes; he knew that this spirit relied on herbs to increase his strength, so herbs were like his source of food, it was nothing peculiar!

"Woof, woof!" General Weiwu and Skybolt Pig were conversing again.

After the conversation, General Weiwu lifted its head and looked at Lin Yi, using its paws and pointed at the stack of herbs and pointed at Skybolt pig again, it waved its paws and pointed at the door of death...

“You mean, there are no herbs outside, so he doesn’t want to leave this place?” Lin Yi could more or less understand what General Weiwu was trying to tell him.

“Woof, woof!” General Weiwu nodded.

“That’s the reason why.” Lin Yi looked at the mountain of herbs; getting these herbs back home was a lot of work- he didn’t have the legendary storage ring, nor did the tomb have any machinery that could be used, so bringing them was pretty much impossible.

However, Skybolt pig would definitely refuse to go with him if he couldn’t bring those herbs with him. This little fellow was no stupid- he could level up just by staying in this tomb, there were no benefits at all leaving here. It seemed like the reason for him staying here was not all for Zhang Liju, actually.

But how could Lin Yi afford to feed Skybolt pig all these herbs after leaving this tomb? These herbs were as expensive as treasures; he didn’t have that much to waste on it! One really shouldn’t underestimate the mountain of herbs, ginseng and Ganoderma were extravagant, buying one box would cost him a fortune!

There was no way Lin Yi could cheat this little fellow, could he? Lying wouldn’t help here because if the little guy really wanted to escape, he could do nothing against it. Besides, Lin Yi still needed its help to find the fire spirit fruit!

What could he do to solve this issue? Lin Yi was in a difficult position...

Right! The purpose of Skybolt pig staying here was to level up, wasn’t it? If he could give General Weiwu strength, didn’t it mean he could do the same on Skybolt pig as well!

Generally speaking, Skybolt pig was at the mid-phase of the golden class right now, he could increase its strength to the early phase of mystic class! Having this attractive offer, it was impossible for the little fellow to resist, wasn’t it?

After consuming the herbs, Lin Yi could feel the increment of pure qi in Skybolt pig’s body, but the increment was little, too little- one could describe that as insignificant.

Since he had made up his mind, Lin Yi walked towards Skybolt pig and stood beside it.

This fellow was slightly afraid of Lin Yi. Even if he knew that Lin Yi was a middle phase mystic class master, it didn’t run away because he had no chance of fighting back, nor could he escape.

Lin Yi bent down his body, put his hands on Skybolt pig’s body, and activated the dragon arts of mastery- sending some energy to Skybolt pig.

The energy was absorbed by Skybolt pig and instantly transformed to pure qi, blending well with its own pure qi in the body- his strength was increased immediately! Although Lin Yi had only given the pig a little of his energy, the increment was far greater than what the pig consumed! The difference was significantly huge!

Lin Yi, on the other hand, was just giving the Skybolt pig some benefits!

Lin Yi let out a breath of relief when he saw his plans worked out the way he wanted. This guy and General Weiwu were the same; they didn't have any arts to practice, so the only way to increase the pure qi in the body must come from an external source.

Perhaps, this was the difference between spirits and practitioners.

Lin Yi's benefits made Skybolt pig in awe as it looked at Lin Yi with its eyes wide open, unbelievable! This little fellow's intelligence was surely not low; he knew how great Lin Yi's energy was as compared to the herbs he had been eating all this while. The effect was just too massive!

The benefits Lin Yi gave him was way better than him eating the dried herbs in the tomb for years!

Chapter 1424: You Xiaoke was Poisoned

Skybolt pig's heart was shaken instantly!

In actuality, General Weiwu had told Skybolt pig that Lin Yi was also a doctor and a practitioner, no less. Besides, he had gotten Zhang Liju's personal notes- meaning Lin Yi was considered as Zhang Liju's inheritor. For Skybolt pig to follow Lin Yi was not impossible.

After all, before Zhang Liju died- he did tell Skybolt pig to follow the medic he saw in the tomb and help them in practicing medicine. This was one of his wishes.

Zhang Liju couldn't find a suitable inheritor in his whole life. A good mentor was hard to find, but a potential student was equally difficult as well. Zhang Liju was a rigorous person- he would never allow himself to lower his standards to find the right student, so in the end, he couldn't even find one suitable inheritor to take over his medical skills. He could only burden the regret and bring all his medical knowledge into the grave, hoping that the right person would come to visit this tomb and carry on his medical studies!

So the design of Zhang Liju's tomb was exceptionally peculiar. After learning the reasons behind the design of the tomb, Lin Yi started to have admiration for Zhang Liju!

First, if someone wanted to enter the tomb and take Skybolt pig away, the person had to be able to communicate with a spirit- Lin Yi couldn't achieve that for now, but General Weiwu could, so Lin Yi and the gang were able to pass the first test. Otherwise, they would've been blocked by the huge spirit beast and couldn't enter!

This was Zhang Liju's first examination, if you could communicate with a spirit, you were qualified to enter the tomb, but if you were not a doctor but some ordinary tomb raiders, then the poison fog and arrows would do the job! Of course, the visitor was a medic; he could remove the toxin by himself. What Zhang Liju was looking for was a person with superb medical prowess along with the ability to communicate with spirit, having a bad behavior or not didn't really matter- he had no control over it, but as long as he passed the examinations, he was qualified to become his inheritor!

Besides, though Zhang Liju had saved countless lives, his character was neither good nor bad- he was a person of yin and yang. This part of him was a little similar to Lin Yi.

Skybolt Pig who had received so many benefits started to dance- trying to please Lin Yi.

Lin Yi was speechless- wasn't this little fellow too materialistic? He was unwilling to leave this tomb initially but after giving him some benefits. He was now trying to please him!

"Lil' Wei, tell him to follow me if he wants to level up!" Lin Yi said to General Weiwu, asking him to deliver the message to Skybolt pig.

However, General Weiwu hadn't opened his mouth yet, Skybolt pig was already running towards him, hugging onto Lin Yi's body, and never letting go. It was as if he was afraid that Lin Yi would go back on his words and never bring him along!

"Woof woof...." General Weiwu pointed at Skybolt pig and pointed at Lin Yi's mouth. The meaning was obvious here; this little fellow could actually understand human language.

"Oh?" Lin Yi was the one taken aback this time, but he nodded- since Zhang Liju and Skybolt pig could communicate, in other words, it meant that Skybolt pig could evidently understand human language. This pig could understand him all this time? Lin Yi was a little pissed off- did this pig think that he was a joke asking General Weiwu to translate for him every time?

"Stupid pig, you can understand me?" Lin Yi glared at Skybolt pig and asked.

"Ji ji...." Skybolt pig nodded his head, terrified. He was afraid that Lin Yi would leave him here.

"Let's go!" Lin Yi was too lazy to argue with a beast- he shook Skybolt pig off his body and dumped him on the floor. "Walk yourself!"

"Ji ji...." Skybolt pig wanted to hug onto Lin Yi's body because he felt that his body was like a huge spirit body- it was filled with heaven and earth pure qi. Just by receiving a little of his energy, he knew that he would surely be benefited greatly.

You Xiaoke found this pig adorable and couldn't help but want to touch him.

Suddenly, a warning signal was sent to Lin Yi from the jade. Lin Yi was shocked- he didn't know where the danger was coming from, but he shouted subconsciously. "Careful!"

"Ah!" You Xiaoke couldn't believe that the moment she stretched her hand towards Skybolt pig, the pig's hair stood up immediately like a porcupine, poking You Xiaoke's finger. "Why does this little fellow act like a porcupine now?"

You Xiaoke withdrew her hand and started sucking on her finger.

"No one knows that this pig has a defense mechanism." Lin Yi smiled as he shook his head- this little guy had no attack ability, but he was a defensive type. The jade was trying to warn him because Skybolt pig was trying to injure You Xiaoke!"

"Yeah, he didn't allow me to touch." You Xiaoke didn't know she should be crying or laughing, getting an injury because of this petty reason.

Having Skybolt pig entering the party, Lin Yi didn't want to disturb the tomb owner, Zhang Liju's grave anymore. He had already gotten the items he needed; he was no greedy person from the beginning- the purpose of him entering the tomb was all for the information of fire spirit fruit!

So even if Elder Yu shamelessly took one qi gathering pill away, Lin Yi didn't find his heart aching nor would he fight a death battle with Elder Yu to get back the pill. Lin Yi had no interest towards the thing he found useless; there was no point in wasting his effort!

Lin Yi and You Xiaoke along with General Weiwu and Skybolt pig came back where they entered- the whole journey was super peaceful; there was no sign of danger at all. Their assumption was correct; the area where Skybolt pig was able to reach was probably free of danger.

Upon reaching the door of life and death, You Xiaoke felt dizzy suddenly.

"Male thief... My head is kinda heavy, can we rest for a bit?" You Xiaoke found herself hard to believe she was actually feeling dizzy. From her perspective, it was probably because of oxygen deficiency. They had been staying in the tomb for quite a long time, after all.

"Oh? Head dizzy?" Lin Yi flinched. "What's wrong?"

The air in the tomb was indeed slightly thinner than the outside air but logically speaking, for a person like You Xiaoke who had been staying in a harsh environment all the while shouldn't be affected by it, even Old Hei didn't feel the pressure, why would You Xiaoke be affected then?

So Lin Yi was observing You Xiaoke with doubtful eyes. From a doctor's sensitivity and having so many traps in the tomb, Lin Yi couldn't help but feel the tension in the atmosphere as he asked.

"I don't know; maybe it's because of the thinner air in the tomb, my body is lacking some oxygen?" You Xiaoke didn't know the correct answer as well.

Lin Yi nodded, but he remained the question to himself. But judging from their situation, this was the only valid reason causing this. After all, during the whole journey, there was no sign of dangers; otherwise, his jade would have warned him.....

Chapter 1425: Love Confession

Wait! The jade? Lin Yi suddenly remembered the jade did warn him when You Xiaoke was trying to touch Skybolt pig!

Thinking until this point, Lin Yi quickly grabbed onto You Xiaoke's hand!

You Xiaoke didn't see this coming- she thought that Lin Yi was trying to give her some comforts because she was feeling uncomfortable and all, blushed, her face turned red! The two were getting closer and closer, during the whole tomb raiding journey, You Xiaoke's heart was racing involuntarily fast, it was the same this time.

However, Lin Yi didn't do anything inappropriate when he held onto You Xiaoke's hand; he only checked the wound Skybolt pig did on her finger.

"Found it!" Lin Yi saw the swollen wound on You Xiaoke's finger and nodded as the truth dawned upon him. "This Skybolt pig's quill is poisonous!"

"Ah? Poisonous?" You Xiaoke started to feel the itchiness on her finger when Lin Yi pointed it out.

“Stupid pig, give me the antidote!” Lin Yi stomped his foot and demanded.

“Ji Ji.....” Skybolt pig felt wronged as he put on an innocent face- he didn’t do it on purpose; it was a defense mechanism he had within him! Lin Yi couldn’t understand what Skybolt pig was trying to say, but General Weiwu could.

“Woof, woof!” General Weiwu pointed at You Xiaoke and waved its paw and demonstrated a sleeping position.

“Oh... he says that the poison is nothing dangerous. You’ll feel better after you fall asleep.” Lin Yi explained.

“I see!” You Xiaoke let out a breath of relief.

“Is there a way to remove the toxin?” Lin Yi asked.

“Ji ji...” Skybolt pig was unwilling to cooperate at first but looking at Lin Yi again, he pondered, he strolled towards You Xiaoke slowly and pulled out one of his quills, turned the quill upside down, and used the follicle part gently rubbed on You Xiaoke’s wound.

“Ah!” You Xiaoke felt the pain and screamed.

But Lin Yi didn’t stop him- he knew that the pig was removing the toxin from You Xiaoke. Otherwise, there was no way Skybolt pig would dare to harm You Xiaoke in front of him; he would be kicked out of the party if he did that!

“Ji ji...” Skybolt pig threw the quill away and shook his body, telling Lin Yi the poison was neutralized.

“EH? this magical? My wound is not itchy anymore, and my head isn’t dizzy too!” You Xiaoke exclaimed, astonished. “This little thing is really impressive!”

“Learn who my foe’s are and who my friend’s are. Stop simply poking people, or else I will kick you out of the house!” Lin Yi said towards Skybolt pig.

“Ji ji...” Skybolt pig nodded, understood.

After leaving the tomb, Lin Yi, You Xiaoke, Skybolt pig, and General Weiwu went to the edge of the cliff.

Lin Yi’s speed was fast, and You Xiaoke was an expert in qinggong too, so four of them arrived the city in a blink of an eye.

“Ah— are we really separating now....” You Xiaoke looked at Lin Yi, a little reluctant...

From her birth till now, other than her master, the person who cared for her the most was the Male Thief! The entire tomb raiding trip would become an unforgettable memory burned into her brain! She would never forget how the Male Thief saving her out of the danger again and again.

“Hehe, return to your original life. Don’t come raiding the tomb again. As for me, I won’t be a tomb raider anymore, so I can’t protect you forever.” Lin Yi said.

“Oh...” You Xiaoke was feeling a little upset- the Male Thief did say that he did come for the special medicine for her girlfriend, so it was totally normal for him to abandon the life of an outlaw for her as well. “Then... will we meet in the future?”

You Xiaoke knew that her question was stupid since the Male Thief was abandoning his identity as the tomb raider, and she was determined not to join a mission like this anymore. Their chances of meeting each other were basically zero, perhaps they would never meet again anymore!

“Without any accident, we won’t I guess.” Lin Yi smiled. This identity of his was coming to an end. Male Thief was never Lin Yi from the beginning, he was just a rip-off of the Male Thief, and now that the mission was over, naturally, there was no point of Lin Yi pretending the Male Thief anymore. Unless Lin Yi was too bored and had nothing better to do.

“Is that so.....” You Xiaoke already knew the answer, but she had to ask for confirmation no matter what, otherwise she wouldn’t give up completely.

“Okay, this is the final goodbye!” Lin Yi continued. “You’re pretty and very kind in nature. I hope you can find your true love!”

How could Lin Yi not know what You Xiaoke was thinking all this time? But Lin Yi really had no mood to start a relationship with her now because of the limitation of this identity and as well as the safety of Feng Xiaoxiao- he was worried.

“Oh...” You Xiaoke dropped her head down- she understood what the Male Thief was trying to say, but courage suddenly built inside her as she raised her head up again. “Then... can you at least take down your mask and show me your face?”

“No!” Lin Yi rejected immediately- was this a joke? Taking off the mask was the same as exposing her to who he was!

“Just a glimpse! Please, I won’t tell anybody....” You Xiaoke begged.

“What’s the difference?” Lin Yi asked faintly.

“At the very least.... let me have a wonderful memory...” You Xiaoke became reluctant, as she explained.

“Okay, why not we make a deal, if perhaps you were able to recognize me with my mask off on the street, I will admit my real identity- I swear I’ll not deny the claim, is that okay?” Lin Yi was speechless.

“Oh...” You Xiaoke didn’t give much thought about the possibility- she thought that the Male Thief was just trying to brush her off.

“Okay, I got to go, take care!” Lin Yi turned behind and left with General Weiwu and Skybolt pig behind him.

“Male Thief, I like you!” Looking at the Male Thief’s back, she finally had the courage to confess as she shouted out her inner voice! You Xiaoke was not a hesitant person- she was brave and adventurous. She felt that if she didn’t confess now, she would have lost her only opportunity to do so.

Lin Yi paused for a moment and resumed his advance without looking back.

“I will surely find you!” After shouting out her inner voice, she became even braver. “I might not know how you look like, but I recognize the dog and the pig; this combination is probably very uncommon. As long as I remember them, I can find you someday!”

F*ck! Lin Yi almost tripped listening to You Xiaoke’s words!

Chapter 1426: Lin Yi’s Return

Looking at General Weiwu and Skybolt pig by his side, Lin Yi tried to weep but failed to shed a tear- wasn’t this trait a little too obvious? Lin Yi had decided not to bring Skybolt pig out when he returned home. En, it’s decided!

Not getting any response from Lin Yi, You Xiaoke felt the emptiness in her heart and a little disappointment too..... She shook her head, turned around, and ran towards the station. All her emotions and feelings were suppressed to the bottom of her heart; she had to return to the old You Xiaoke once she returned the orphanage; she had to start fighting for the kids again!

En en, You Xiaoke, you’ve to do your best! You Xiaoke cheered on herself and smiled.

Lin Yi might seem like he had left earlier than You Xiaoke, but he had been observing her all this while until she got into the cab only then he ran at his full speed.

He came to this mountain with Chen Yutian’s car, so he never bothered going back to the camping site because he knew Yutian must have left long ago. He took off his mask and got into a cab as well heading towards Songshan city.

Back to the familiar entrance of the villa, Lin Yi straightened his hand to press the doorbell; he forgot to bring the keys when he left that time.

After not long, footsteps could be heard from inside. Lin Yi could differentiate the sound of the footsteps; it was Chen Yushu’s.

“Shield bro!” Chen Yushu opened the gate and jumped excitedly when he saw Lin Yi. “Yaoyao sis, Shield bro is back!”

After she shouted, she quickly ran towards Lin Yi; her breasts were rocking up and down- this made Lin Yi super excited. It was good to be home. His eyes were blessed!

Short and quick steps were coming from the inside of the villa, Chu Mengyao was coming out to welcome Lin Yi’s return too. Her face was vibrant with a big smile. “Lin Yi, you’re back!”

“En, I’m back.” Lin Yi nodded to the Miss. Recently, Miss had become super nice to him. “Are you guys okay? Did anything happen when I was gone?”

Chu Mengyao’s face turned gloomy suddenly. “Something happened, Zhou Jiaming is injured. I don’t know about the details, why don’t you go check him out now? And Wu Chengtian is heavily injured as well, he is with Zhou Jiaming in your room now, resting....”

“Wu Chengtian?” Lin Yi flinched. “Why is he here?”

No one could blame Lin Yi for being surprised, after all, he was never in good terms with Wu Chengtian from the beginning- they might not be sworn enemies, but Wu Chengtian always took him as his love rival, so why would he come to his room to recover then?

“This.... It’s complicated...” Chu Mengyao didn’t know how to explain. “Why don’t you ask Zhou Jiaming about it?”

“Sure!” Lin Yi didn’t really care if Wu Chengtian was injured, but the main point was Zhou Jiaming was injured too, so he quickly walked to his room and left Skybolt pig to General Weiwei. He believed General Weiwei would bring Skybolt pig to the place where he belonged.

“Oh, what is that thing? Why is it so adorable?” Chen Yushu was amazed to find a creature behind Lin Yi.

“Right, we were so occupied by Zhou Jiaming’s situation, any news about the fire spirit fruit?” Chu Mengyao was concerned as she asked.

“Couldn’t find any in the tomb, but we’ve news. Let me check on Er Goudan first; we can talk about the fruit later.” Lin Yi widened his eyes at Skybolt pig. “Look who is my friends and foes are. These are my people. If you dare to poke her, I’ll give you a good beating later!”

“Ji ji....” Skybolt pig nodded ferociously.

Chen Yushu and Chu Mengyao started analyzing Skybolt pig, and while Lin Yi went straight to his room.

Er Goudan heard Lin Yi’s voice from the living room, but he was totally worn out to move- he could only speak now. Wu Chengtian, on the other hand, was worse than him, all his meridians were broken, and the internal organs were shifted!

“Boss, you’re back!” Er Goudan finally relaxed and smiled when he saw Lin Yi. “Fortunately, I waited until you return!”

“What has gotten into you? You weren’t here for long and you can speak pretty well now!” Judging from Er Goudan’s look, Lin Yi knew how terrible his condition was. “You used too much energy?”

“En....” Er Goudan nodded. “It’s nothing. I can still withstand it!”

“Big boss, it’s good to see you!” Wu Chengtian was worrying- after all, he had some conflicts with Lin Yi before so he was afraid that Lin Yi wouldn’t accept him as his follower’s follower, that would be super terrible! He was badly injured no less, he made enemies with so many noble houses, House Wu would be doomed if things didn’t go well.

“Wu Chengtian, when did I become your big boss?” Lin Yi flinched and looked at Wu Chengtian.

“Boss, let me talk for him! Wu Chengtian has been a great help when I was injured. He was responsible and genuine working for me; his efforts can’t be ignored!” Er Goudan had already accepted Wu Chengtian. Naturally, he wished that Lin Yi would accept him too!

Hence, Er Goudan told everything to Lin Yi all the events that happened when he wasn't around, including the part he killed two masters from House Pi then killing Jin Wudi with one punch to Zhao Fafa bringing Uncle Zhu to harass Tangyun and Wu Chengtian sacrificed himself to protect her.....

"Oh?" Lin Yi was impressed by Wu Chengtian- he couldn't believe he had changed and became Er Goudan's follower!

"Big boss, rest assured. I won't think about Sun Jingyi anymore. She will be my big sister in law, I'll protect her like how I protected Tang Yun!" Wu Chengtian was afraid that Lin Yi would look trouble for him being his love rival and all, so he quickly explained.

"Sun Jingyi and I.... we are clean actually...." Lin Yi helplessly smiled when he heard Wu Chengtian.

"I don't care if you guys have a relationship or not, but I've decided to serve boss and big boss alone and hope that you guys can teach me martial arts. I really hope that boss and the big boss won't dislike and abandon me!" Wu Chengtian quickly mentioned his intention loud and clear!

"He.... Okay, we'll have you." Lin Yi could see that Wu Chengtian was genuine. He had no big conflict with this person actually- not accepting him because of Sun Jingyi, and Feng Xiaoxiao was unreasonable. Besides, he really did protect Tang Yun and get injured because of that, so he had no reason to say no!

Besides, while Lin Yi was looking for the fruit, someone would need to protect Chu Mengyao, Chen Yushu, and Tang Yun. Meanwhile, Er Goudan had used up all his strength. He couldn't stay here anymore- the only way to restore his strength was to return west star village and drink the spring water.

Chapter 1427: Two Choices

Having a temporary bodyguard- Wu Chengtian wasn't a bad idea at all, so Lin Yi decided to take him as part of his gang.

Wu Chengtian's expression finally relaxed when he heard Lin Yi's agreement. "Thank you very much, big boss!"

"But, I've nothing to teach you as a physical master, I don't have any special arts that can teach you, either." Lin Yi waved his hand and said. "However, I do have some special liquid that can change your body structure; I'll make one for you later. Soak your fists into the liquid; I believe your iron fist training will be twice as effective as it is now!"

Lin Yi was considered a double practitioner, but he focused more on the spiritual style than the physical style, and he didn't have any physical arts to train. He could only rely on his old man's medicine to transform his muscle and bone structure- this was also one the reason why he was stronger than many practitioners.

"Awesome, thank you very much, big boss!" Wu Chengtian thanked him excitedly. Initially, he thought that he would require to pass the probation period before receiving any benefits from Lin Yi but who knew that he got one the first day he joined!

In fact, Lin Yi wanted to test Wu Chengtian, but the time wasn't allowing him to do so- he needed to find the fire spirit fruit as soon as possible. Naturally, it meant that he wouldn't have much time left in Songshan city before leaving for a new journey!

So since Er Goudan had already tested him- there was no need for Lin Yi to be extra. At the very least, there was sincerity in Wu Chengtian's eyes!

"You don't have to thank me, stop being an idiot next time, and get scammed by others." Lin Yi eyed Wu Chengtian. "You were scammed by Feng Xiaoxiao many times, but be smart next time- stop trying to show off and be cool."

"Ugh... Feng Xiaoxiao, isn't she sis-in-law? Since we are a family, it doesn't count." Wu Chengtian awkwardly explained. "But big boss, don't you worry about me, I'll be careful next time!"

Lin Yi nodded and put the topic aside. "So Zhao Fafa brought someone who called himself Master Zhu to look trouble from Tang Yun? Was Zhao Qibing getting bored of staying alive?"

"I discussed this matter with Miss Chu after that; I think Uncle Zhu didn't know that Tang Yun was big boss, your girlfriend, and while Zhao Fafa didn't explain to them everything honestly, so they assumed....." Wu Chengtian started explaining.

"Big boss.... this name is so weird, just call me Boss Lin Yi next time." Lin Yi said.

"Sure, then I call you Boss Lin Yi then!" Wu Chengtian called out happily. If that was what Lin Yi wanted, naturally, he would follow.

"Didn't know? That's not how things work here, but the person injured was you. No matter what's your decision, I'll respect that." Lin Yi lifted his head and looked at Wu Chengtian. "You want some benefits, or will you let them step on them yourself the day you recovered?"

Wu Chengtian was not Tang Yun- he couldn't help him to make the decision. Yes, he was his follower, but comparing to his woman, it was different.

"I can do that? Boss Lin Yi! I can step on them myself?" Wu Chengtian was all fired up when he heard Lin Yi; his eyes were burning with enthusiasm. "I want to step on them myself!"

"Okay, I'll let you do that yourself!" Lin Yi hesitated for a moment and decided to increase Wu Chengtian's strength now! Once he left this place with Er Goudan, only Uncle Fu was available; he didn't feel safe just leaving all the responsibilities to Uncle Fu alone. The only person that could help him now was Wu Chengtian.

"Boss Lin Yi, I'll wait for that day! No matter how much pain and struggling I'll have to endure, I'm willing to sacrifice as long as I can mess that old man up, let me have the opportunity to show off even for a second, I will be satisfied!" Wu Chengtian clenched his teeth!

"..." Lin Yi was speechless towards Wu Chengtian's desire to show off. "How many days do you still want to wait? You want to go through pain and suffering? Even if you're willing to wait, it doesn't mean I am!"

"Ah?" Wu Chengtian was stunned. "What do you mean?"

“Nothing, in particular, mess Uncle Zhu up tomorrow, then return to the villa and be a bodyguard, protect Chu Mengyao, Chen Yushu, and Tang Yun!” Lin Yi said.

“Tomorrow?” Wu Chengtian’s jaw was on the ground, looking at Lin Yi in disbelief, he wondered if his ears were working perfectly- he was still bed-ridden, how could he get his revenge tomorrow? His injuries weren’t even recovered yet. Besides, his strength was no match to Uncle Zhu at all.

“Yes, tomorrow!” Lin Yi nodded.

Wu Chengtian was puzzled- he didn’t know what Lin Yi was thinking, he could have his revenge tomorrow? “Boss Lin Yi, my injuries... and my strength..?”

“I’ll heal your injuries, and upgrade your strength.” Lin Yi continued. “We’ll talk about this later; I’ve to send Er Goudan back first!”

“I’m fine; I can still hold on for a few more days.” Er Goudan shook his head.

“We can’t drag this any longer, have you told Yuanyuan about this? I can’t just let you go back alone; I’ll send you to the train station and have Yuanyuan accompany you back the village?” Lin Yi asked.

“I did tell her about my injuries but following me home... I haven’t asked yet, do you think that she’s willing to follow me home?” Er Goudan scratched his head, embarrassed. “Boss, I’m afraid that she will reject me....”

“How would you know if you didn’t ask?” Lin Yi had experienced this before, so he knew. “She will follow you definitely.”

Previously, Lin Yi didn’t know if Tangyun would follow him home or not, but she didn’t even hesitate and chose to follow him.

“Then.... I’ll ask her now?” Er Goudan pondered and decided to give Yuanyuan a call.

Chen Yutian didn’t allow Song Lingshan to spread the news about his injuries, of course, Lin Yi wasn’t informed as well! First, he didn’t want his sister to know about this; if he were to tell Lin Yi, he believed Lin Yi would tell his sister without question.

The brother and sister were very close. Chen Yutian didn’t want his sister to worry about him.

Second, he didn’t want Lin Yi to get trouble from House Yu! Everyone knew how strong was Elder Yu from the tomb; getting him involved was not a wise decision. Besides, Lin Yi had his priority to focus on.

So, Chen Yutian forbade Song Lingshan to tell anymore. Since he had already made it clear, he didn’t want Lin Yi knowing this, no matter how much Lingshan wanted to inform this to Lin Yi, she could only hold back the urge silently.

Chapter 1428: Date

Today, Song Lingshan invited Sun Jingyi from House Sun to discuss Chen Yutian’s case. Knowing that the chances were low, she was still determined to give it a try.

In a coffee shop, Song Lingshan was wearing sunglasses, sitting across a window, waiting for Sun Jingyi's arrival patiently.

Sun Jingyi was still driving her red Audi a41. What surprised her the most was that Wu Chengtian was not harassing her anymore recently! Sun Jingyi returned to her peaceful and quiet days. She started to miss Lin Yi a little, could it be that she had fallen in love with this little man?

Sun Jingyi denied the thought immediately in her mind. Lin Yi, what was so great about him anyway? A thief, how was he worthy of her? But, it seemed like Lin Yi was not only a thief, he played many roles in life, and his strength was unquestionable as well?

In actuality, the reason why Sun Jingyi was depreciating Lin Yi now was that she couldn't find a valid reason to date Lin Yi, so she could only remind herself not to take any interest in him at all!

Sun Jingyi parked the car nicely and entered the coffee shop to see Song Lingshan sitting right beside the window.

Sun Jingyi and Song Lingshan weren't even close, but being the famous team captain in the criminal police department, Sun Jingyi had some impressions of her, and she had seen her on the Tv.

"Miss Sun? How are you!" Song Lingshan, naturally, had done her homework in researching Sun Jingyi before coming here, so when the moment Jingyi entered the coffee shop, she could tell it was her. She waved at her.

Sun Jingyi nodded and walked towards her and sat right across of her. "Captain Song, what's the matter?"

Since Lingshan had chosen coffee shop as the meeting point, then the discussion was definitely not about business or formal events, but Sun Jingyi couldn't understand why would Lingshan ask her out for a private affair, both of them weren't even considered as friends.

"Call me Lingshan will do, we are not in the police station." Song Lingshan smiled. "Can I call you Jingyi?"

"Of course." Sun Jingyi felt something was wrong, why would Song Lingshan do that? What was she planning?

"Jingyi, please have a seat, do you need anything?" Lingshan smiled and asked.

"Whatever, juice is fine." Jingyi pondered and decided to go straight to the point. Her intuition told her that Lingshan was hiding something. "Lingshan, just tell me what do you want from me?"

"Ugh... it's like this..." Lingshan saw that Jingyi could see through her, embarrassed. "Then I'm going to be very straightforward with you, okay? House Sun's arts, which stage are you in right now?"

"Just the first stage, why? Could it be that you needed House Sun's support during the noble house meeting?" Sun Jingyi still couldn't understand what was Lingshan looking for, as far as she was concerned, the only thing that they were somehow connected was the noble house meeting.

"No.... I just need your help to heal a person...." Lingshan found those words were reluctant to come out from her mouth.

“Heal?” Sun Jingyi furrowed her eyebrows. “What do you mean? I’m not a doctor; how can I heal a person’s injury?”

“His meridians are all broken, ordinary doctors can’t do anything about it, so I came....” Song Lingshan said cautiously.

“Lingshan, since you are looking for my help, you should know that House Sun’s arts is special, right?” Sun Jingyi didn’t reject Lingshan’s request directly but asked back politely.

“I know....but he really needs your help, if his injuries couldn’t be healed then his house will be kicked out of the list...” Song Lingshan continued. “So, I humbly request your help now. If you are willing to help, just tell me the conditions, I’ll give you everything!”

“Song Lingshan, don’t you think that this request of yours is a little presumptuous?” Sun Jingyi felt that he had to be honest with her; this issue involved her principle so she couldn’t lie to her.

“This... I know it’s a little presumptuous, but you are his last hope...” Song Lingshan smiled bitterly.

“Please forgive me for being this straightforward. If I were to heal him, then the pure qi in my body will be transformed and can only be used by him. I’m not even connected to him if it was you, would you do it?” Sun Jingyi said faintly. “Other than my future husband. Otherwise, I’m truly sorry!”

“Never mind... I knew the result from the beginning. Jingyi, don’t be angry.” Song Lingshan saw that Sun Jingyi was a little infuriated, so she quickly explained.

“I know you are worried... but I can’t really help.” Sun Jingyi rejected. “Instead of seeking help from me, why don’t you get him a qi circulation pill?”

“Qi circulation pill....” Song Lingshan smiled bitterly. “This pill is already a treasure in the world of hidden house, how can I get that?”

Sun Jingyi shrugged her shoulder. Indeed, this qi circulation pill was so rare that even a hidden noble house could barely see one, let alone Song Lingshan. Otherwise, House Sun’s position wouldn’t be this high in the noble house ranking!

House Sun’s arts could be used to increase one’s strength, not just healing one’s injuries, but if the qi circulation pill was very common and easy to be mass-produced then House Sun wouldn’t be lifted until this high, being one of the noble houses!

“Sorry, but this is not a problem I should be concerning.” Sun Jingyi nodded. “Lingshan, if there’s nothing else, I got to go...”

“Okay, but I still have to thank you...” Lingshan sighed, and when she was about to call for the waiter for the bill, a deafening siren was heard!

Lingshan lifted her head up to see some commotions happening at the bank across the coffee shop, and the siren was coming out from the bank!

“Not good!” Her intuition told her something must be going on, she gave Sun Jingyi an apologetic face, put the money on the table and charged out of the coffee shop!

But, even as fast as she was, she was still a step late. There was a shadow-like figure running out of the bank with a sack; the speed was insane! In a blink of an eye, he was disappeared into the thin air at the entrance of an alley!

Looking at the silhouette of the shadow, Song Lingshan felt familiar, but before going into deep consideration, she ran towards the alley. However, to no avail, there was no one there anymore, where was the shadow?

Witnessing the whole crime scene, from the siren being activated to Song Lingshan charging out of the coffee shop- it didn't take her five minutes, but the robbery had already happened, and the robber was nowhere to be seen. The speed was unbelievably surprising!

Chapter 1429: Huge Contribution

Looking at the empty alley, Song Lingshan could only give up chasing the robber. He probably had some sort of escape vehicle waiting for him, there was no way she could catch up to him anymore so she turned around and went into the bank. His face darkened as she entered, "Everyone, stop panicking. I'm a police, who's the person in charge here?"

"I am. I'm the temporary vice president here...." A middle-aged man quickly walked towards Song Lingshan when he was being summoned, "I'm the one who called the police...."

"I didn't come here because of the call, I was just passing by when I heard the noise of the siren," Song Lingshan continued, "I'm the captain of the criminal police, Song Lingshan. This is my identification card, please tell me the whole situation of the crime and hand me the surveillance video!"

"Okay okay!" Naturally, the vice president knew who she was, a big name like Song Lingshan was no joke so he quickly described the whole scenario to her, "It happened like this...."

Song Lingshan furrowed her eyebrows as she listened! It was the exact same pattern as before, from her primary judgement she could say that the robber was probably the same person who was involved in the previous robbery cases!

"Captain Song, why are you here?" Liu Wangli stunned.

"I was just hanging out in the coffee shop just there. I witnessed what happened, but the robber was too fast. When I reached, he had already escaped, nowhere to be seen," Song Lingshan felt bad.

"Yeah, it was the same with the previous crimes, it was as if they had practised before coming here. Not only was his speed of robbing the bank fast, his escaping speed was also insane too..." Liu Wangli nodded helplessly, "This is the sixth time... in just a short few days..."

Song Lingshan could only leave Chen Yutian's case at the back of her mind and focus on the robbery case now. The criminals were fearless and crazy- it was way out of her imagination and they had already reached an unstoppable stage right now!

Hidden House Zhao, Zhao Guangyin was impatiently waiting for his father to come out of his retreat.

Elder Bi, how long has my father isolated himself for?" Zhao Guangyin looked at his watch and asked.

“Roughly three days, he should be out from his retreat soon,” Elder Bi said faintly, “Please wait patiently, master doesn’t like people disturbing his retreat....”

Grandpa Zhao would always isolate himself from the world to breakthrough into the Sky division but he would always exit his retreat to see if everything was okay in House Zhao before isolating himself again.

“Okay...” Zhao Guanying nodded respectfully.

“The person outside... is it Guangyin?” A voice came from the room behind Elder Bi’s back.

“Master, the young master is here!” Elder Bi heard that it was the master’s voice so he answered with respect.

“Let him in!” Grandpa Zhao said.

“Yes, Master!” Elder Bi made a welcome gesture to Zhao Guanyin, “Young master, please!”

Zhao Guanyin nodded, “Elder Bi, I have something extremely important to discuss with father, something as important as the future development of House Zhao, please do not allow anyone to get near the room!”

“Young master, rest assured. I’ll keep my guard up!” Elder Bi’s expression became serious when he heard Zhao Guanyin’s tone. Although he only took orders from Master Zhao, Zhao Guanyin was still the young master so naturally, he respected him and listened to him too. Since Guanyin said that the discussion involved the future of House Zhao, no matter if it was for the good of House Zhao or the loyalty he had towards Master Zhao, he still had to keep his guard up and deter people from coming near.

Zhao Guanyin entered his father’s villa. Master Zhao was now sitting on the couch in the living room. He was dressed in a white robe, holding flower tea in his hand, emitting an aura of a great sage.

“Father!” Zhao Guanyin bowed and greeted with honour and respect.

“En, Guanying, you’re here, what’s the matter?” Master Zhao nodded, “I heard that you have news about something relating to the future development of House Zhao to discuss with me? What is it?”

“Dad, It’s about lil’ Bing...”

“Zhao Qibing?” Grandpa Zhao couldn’t help but frown when he heard that name. He had never taken a liking to this bastard. After all, House Yu and House Zhao were connected by marriage, how could Grandpa Zhao face House Yu if he acknowledged this bastard as his grandchild?

So, Grandpa Zhao always acted like he didn’t know about the bastard and never allowed Zhao Qibing to return House Zhao. Hence, House Yu also didn’t comment about it, either.

“What mess has he created again?” The first thought that came to his mind was Zhao Qibing had messed up again.

“Father, Zhao Qibing didn’t mess up this time. In fact, he has made a big contribution to the development of House Zhao!” In actuality, Zhao Guanyin also wished that his father would acknowledge this son of his. After all, Zhao Qibing was a boy and Zhao Guanyin was a person who prioritized males over females so even if Zhao Qibing was a bastard son- he still cared about him and wanted him to be in the house. Now that Zhao Qibing had finally done something useful, he couldn't help but exaggerate his action.

"Big contribution? What contribution?" Grandpa Zhao flinched, "What did he do outside?"

"It's like this..." Zhao Guangyin started telling his father the whole story from Yu Huoxing's visit to scamming him of the pill.

"WHAT! QI GATHERING PILL! Does he really have it? This kind of treasure!" Grandpa Zhao stood up, excited when he heard the news from Zhao Guangyin. He was a calm person and didn't usually get emotional over things but today, he couldn't hold back the urge anymore!

"Yeah, Zhao Qibing, this kid cares for you a lot! He knew that you're at the peak late phase of the earth class and had been trying to breakthrough all these years so he used all his tricks to locate the qi gathering pill's whereabouts!" Zhao Guangyin continued, "This child, actually put his life in danger for you- trying to get this pill from Yu Huoxing! One has to know that, if Yu Huoxing was pissed, there would be no way Lil' Bing could survive the tragedy!"

Of course, Zhao Guangyin had to exaggerate things here. In fact, even if Elder Yu was pissed at that moment, he wouldn't even touch Zhao Qibing because he still needed Yaowang to remove the toxin from him!

Chapter 1430: Want to Meet Zhao Qi Bing

"Guangyin, you don't have to say anymore, I understand your meaning!" Grandpa Zhao, naturally, could understand the meaning behind his son's flattery, he waved his hands and stopped his son. "Let Elder Bi bring Zhao Qibing home. No matter what, this filial affection cannot be ignored, as a grandfather, I can't continue to give him a cold shoulder!"

"Brilliant, father!" Zhao Guangyin was touched by his father's words.

"Guangyin, this kid. I'm acknowledging him for real this time, and of course, if the qi gathering pill is the real deal- I'll give him what he deserves!" Grandpa Zhao said, "In our house, we are fair at giving out punishments and rewards impartially, of course, the person who has done right will be rewarded!"

"That treasure will probably be the real thing! Unless Yu Huoxing is tired of living, he wouldn't have the balls to trade a rip-off!" Zhao Qibing continue, "But House Yu..."

"As for House Yu, hide this from Xiaojin first. Yu Huoxing is no idiot, he won't reveal his own mistake to House Yu! Xiaojin may be your wife but she's still a Yu," Grandpa Zhao said faintly, "Of course, if things were exposed, you don't have to intentionally hide it. We are not stealing or getting it by force, what could House Yu do to us? If they want to make us an enemy, we can't do anything about it! In my opinion, the qi gathering pill is far more important than the connection we have with House Yu. Once I successfully breakthrough into the sky division, House Zhao will be on a totally different level!"

“Dad, you’re right!” Zhao Guangyin let out a sigh of relief- he was just afraid that when House Yu starts looking for trouble and asks for Zhao Qibing, there would be no one to defend him. However, now that his father had confirmed his safety, Zhao Guangyin was relieved.

“Good, Bi, come in!” Grandpa Zhao might look calm on the surface but he was extremely impatient on the inside. It was qi gathering pill, after all! It was a legendary pill that could push him out of the bottleneck of the earth division! The faster he consumed the pill, the sooner he could become a sky class master!

“Master!” Elder Bi quickly walked in and greeted respectfully.

“Lil’ Bi, you follow Guangyin to Songshan city and bring Zhao Qibing back! You have got to make sure of his safety!” Grandpa Zhao affirmed.

“Yes!” Elder Bi said.

“Father, can I and Elder Bi leave here together for Songshan city? The noble house committee...” Zhao Guangyin became a cautious man after learning his lesson from when he was young. If it weren’t for having a marriage connection with House Yu, there was no way he could stand in his position in House Zhao! Although he was the eldest son, his siblings weren’t half bad at all- they were all late phase of the mystic class masters so Zhao Guangyin had to be careful in deciding his every step.

“It should be fine, you’re just bringing your son home. They wouldn’t be so free to interfere with something like this,” Grandpa Zhao smiled, “Guangyin, after all these years of my solitude, I realise that you are always being too cautious and that’s not what a quality of a leader should have! Once I enter the sky division, I won’t have time to look over House Zhao anymore- I need to seek for a higher power in the practitioner world. And you, you have to support House Zhao by yourself when that time comes! The committee won’t allow a sky class master to intervene in matters of the common world as it will disturb the harmony between the hidden noble houses and the noble houses but it’s okay for you to do so, it should be fine.”

“Yes, father, I understood!” Zhao Guangyin was holding back his laughter- he had been longing for this day to arrive! It was exactly like what his father said- once he entered the sky division, he would be forbidden to butt into the house’s affairs and by that time, Zhao Guangyin could finally take over House Zhao for real, becoming the real master of the house!

Zhao Guangyin and Elder Bi didn’t stay for long before departing to Songshan city....

Floating Cloud Bar, a black Audi a81 stopped at the entrance of the bar conspicuously. The driver quickly opened the passenger door and back door. The person sitting in the passenger seat was naturally Elder Bi!

No matter what, Zhao Guangyin was still the future master of House Zhao. Besides, master Zhao did reveal some information about him being the future master, so naturally, Elder Bi had to give him the respect he deserved.

Elder Bi and Zhao Guangyin entered the bar. It was operating hour now, so the atmosphere was very intense and noisy.

Elder Bi furrowed his eyebrows. It was obvious that he didn't like the environment there but he didn't comment on it.

"Is your boss here?" Zhao Guangying asked a waiter.

"You're looking for my boss? Please wait a moment!" the waiter was not surprised- he knew that many came here to look for Yaowang so he just took out his walkie talkie to contact Su Jiaonang, "Su Jiaonang, there's a guest!"

Su Jiaonang quickly rushed to the bar from the room to see Zhao Guangyin and Elder Bi but he didn't recognize them as he hadn't seen them before. He casually asked, "I'm the person in charge of this bar, Su Jiaonang. Is there anything that I can help you with?"

"Su Jiaonang? Is Zhao Qibing not around?" Zhao Guangyin found the name of this person laughable- it was as funny as Li Cihua's.

"You're looking for Master Bing? May I ask who you are..." Su Jiaonang couldn't tell if the newcomers were looking for trouble or had good intentions so he quickly asked just incase.

"I'm his dad!" Zhao Guangyin said impatiently, "Get Zhao Qibing out right now!"

Su Jiaonang was stunned- his intuition told him that these two were probably here to make a mess. After all, who would just say that they were Zhao Qibing's father out of a sudden? It was totally normal for Su Jiaonang to misunderstand.

"Cihua bro, someone is messing with us!" Su Jiaonang quickly called for help with his walkie talkie.

Zhao Guangyin was infuriated. He was just looking for his son and these people thought that he was here for trouble? What was this logic!

When he was about to throw a tantrum, Li Cihua came charging out of the room with a few followers behind him, "Who dares to f*ck with us? Are they tired of staying alive?"

"Cihua bro, it's him! He called himself the father of Master Bing!" Su Jiaonang pointed at Zhao Guangyin and said.

"Boss?" Just because Su Jiaonang couldn't recognise Zhao Guangyin didn't mean that Li Cihua couldn't! He was completely frightened when he saw that his boss had come all the way here. He stomped his foot down on Su Jiaonang's foot, "You stupid idiot, this is our big boss, where are your eyes? He is indeed Master Bing's father!"

"Ah?" Su Jiaonang was stunned, his face became ugly. How could he know that this person was really Zhao Qibing's father?

"Never mind, get Zhao Qibing out. I'm bringing him home!" Zhao Guangyin was too lazy to talk to a lower life form like Su Jiaonang and waved his hand, ordering Li Cihua.
