

Bodyguard 1501

Chapter 1501: Taking the Goods

“Ah...” The two teams were in the middle of a standoff, and all of a sudden this guy came over and talked as if he owned the place- though they understood, much to their dismay, when they saw Zhang Naipao there.

They knew very well who Zhang Naipao was, after all, and couldn't help but feel a heavy regret. If they were to just give up on this herb and moved on, they wouldn't encounter Naipao in the first place!

Now great, not only would they lose this herb, they would also lose everything else they had collected!

“What... Do you guys want?” One of the practitioners asked, with a trace of hope. He was praying that Naipao's team was just passing by, or that they just had their eye on this particular herb. If so, they would be safe!

“What do you think? Hand out all of your herbs nicely and Great Pao will let you guys live. Or else... Hmph, you already know what happened to that Ling Yi, don't you? If you guys think you're able to recover from being sucked dry by Naipao then come have a go!” Niapao mocked.

“So you're just going to take our stuff?” The other late phase peak practitioner didn't want to just let them go- he was the strongest here, after all, even stronger than Naipao- why did he have to just give away his things?

“Just taking it? What a joke, you didn't hear the rules? We're allowed to just take the stuff from other teams in this test! Are you deaf or do you have amnesia?” Niapao smiled coldly, “What, you guys don't want to give us your stuff?”

“Smart!” The late phase peak Mystic scoffed coldly as well, and channeled his practitioner's arts, sending a fist at the Naipao from some distance away, “Kill the leader first- I'll handle Naipao, all of you, cripple the rest of them when the chance comes! Otherwise we'll lose all our points to them!”

In the eyes of this late phase peak practitioner, he really didn't want to just give away the entirety of his treasure to him- if he were to make a move now, everyone would likely go along and ally themselves with him!

But, this Mystic late phase peak really underestimated everyone's guts here- he thought that, even though the other team might not help them, at least his own team would make a move!

This was all for their benefit, after all!

But his two teammates didn't do anything at all- let alone the other team!

His two team members joined him for the test at the last minute, and they didn't even have a proper relationship with him- they were just with him for profit! Everyone's thoughts were simple- and that was fighting Naipao was not a reasonable option! The guy's Wasp Absorption Arts was able to turn the opponent into a cripple- no one would risk that!

Plus, even if they were to injure Naipao, would that be the end of it? The guy was from an ancient sect, the Everyday and Every Day sect! Getting targeted by an enemy like this would mean the end of their days! They would even drag their families into this as well!

So nobody made any sudden moves- they all wanted to see what would happen first. If this Mystic late phase peak was able to beat Naipao, then naturally they'd build on that and help him out- if not, what was the point? They might as well hand over everything to him!

Without their points, they could just go find other herbs- even if they didn't, they could just fail the test. If they were to lose all of their strength, however, that'd be the end of their lives!

But, that late phase peak practitioner was different- he was pumped full of adrenaline, and flung himself at Naipao while Naipao only extended his hand to welcome him, taking on his attack. He started his Chrysanthemum Wasp Absorption Arts and began sucking the practitioner's qi into his own!

The practitioner's face froze- he'd heard of this before, but only now when he was experiencing it firsthand did he realize the horrors of it! In the past, he'd only heard rumors of the terrifying Naipao- he thought that even if he was able to take someone's strength, he could just stop channeling his arts. How would he suck anything out of him then?

He also saw that Ling Yi yesterday, too- he didn't lose any strength at all, and even broke through? He assumed then, that Naipao terrifying strength was only a rumor, the guy wasn't that strong at all!

But only now did he realize his mistake- and what a grave mistake that was! He stopped channeling his arts, but the qi inside his body still continued flowing over- he couldn't stop it at all!

And he couldn't remove his fist!

He understood that all the rumors were true- they weren't made up at all, and as his heart was filled with regret, his rage was also building – his companions weren't doing anything!

"What are you guys doing, do something! I'm losing all my qi!" The Mystic late phase peak practitioner screamed angrily.

The members only looked at each other- no one dared make a move against that!

What a joke, if even an late phase peak Mystic wasn't strong enough to handle Naipao, what chance did they have?

"What, you guys want to help? Sure, come, I'll suck all of you dry" Naipao smiled coldly.

"Impossible- I don't believe that, you've got only two arms, how many more people can you absorb at the same time?" The practitioner evidently wanted to prove to his teammates that Naipao was lying, shooting out his left fist and right leg!

But in the next instant, all his limbs were stuck onto Naipao, and he wasn't able to move them at all!

His qi was leaving his body at an even more rapid pace!

His teammates stood there, even more still than they were before the scene.

“We’ll give you all our treasure..” The weakest one, the early phase Mystic, was almost peeing himself at this point- he quickly took everything out and emptied it onto the ground!

In order to prove that he was empty handed, he took out his electronic card as well to show him the empty number!

“You guys?” Niaopao nodded, satisfied, “Not bad kid, you’re not an idiot!”

With the weak practitioner taking the lead, everyone took out their items, which were collected speedily by the happy duo Niaopao and Niaoqiang. Of course, they gave the most of it to Naipao- they didn’t dare take any more than what they were supposed to!

Chapter 1502: Yang Qiqi Meets an Enemy

“Hahahaha!” On the other hand, Naipao was laughing with joy as he pushed away the Mystic late phase peak practitioner- who had lost all his strength. He was a normal man now, “Thank you so much, you made me hit the wall of Mystic late phase peak! I just broke through, and now I’m about to break through again! Hahahaha!”

Because the qi was taken from someone else, it had to go through conversion before it could be used by Naipao. This was because of the many different types of energy, and the conversion would inevitably lose some of it during the process. With the varying purity levels of qi, there were also varying levels of loss.

The qi he had received from Lin Yi was a very pure one, and so Naipao suddenly broke through from mid phase peak to late phase- facing this late phase peak Mystic, however, was different. He may be stronger than Lin Yi, but his qi wasn’t as pure. As such, after absorbing it into his body, the effectiveness of this qi wasn’t too high- it didn’t benefit him too much!

As for why he’d make the claim of breaking through soon... It was just so that he’d shock everyone there!

The practitioner that got sucked dry was flung away after being pushed by Naipao, landing with a thud on the ground, a look of deep regret on his face. However, it was too late for that.

After taking the loot, Naipao left with Niaopao and Niaoqiang- the people had already lost their value, and it was time to look for other prey.

“Sorry, we weren’t in a position to help you back then...”

The cripple’s teammates and the early phase Mystic from the other team went to him apologetically, “Back then, we saw how Zhang Naipao fought Ling Yi, we knew that we didn’t stand a chance... And we wanted to stop you, but it was too late...”

“It’s fine... It’s all because I rushed into things, underestimating Zhang Naipao... I can’t blame anyone for this!” The cripple smiled bitterly, not laying any blame on them. It was his own carelessness and recklessness.

“Let’s go- we’ll keep on looking for treasures. Don’t worry, as long as we have it, we’ll give you a share as well!” Everyone was feeling rather bad about what happened, and they had nothing left on them, so there was no reason to fight anymore. Might as well team up and search for new herbs...

Qiqi cut down the snow herb and put it into her pouch- the electronic card beeped twice, and the numbers speedily went up!

In an instant, it broke through one hundred, two hundred... Three hundred... It wasn’t stopping!

Qiqi’s eyes went wide- she really did hit the jackpot this time, she had gotten a big time treasure! This snow herb was way more than just a hundred points!

Five hundred... Six hundred... One thousand... One thousand and five... Finally, the numbers stopped at 1005, meaning that this herb gave Qiqi an entire one thousand points!

This was one thousand points! Just how many normal herbs and treasures did she need to gather to get this? That eight leaf grass from earlier was just five points!

Plus, the test had only been going for about half a day- this really did fill her with confidence! She believed that as long as her luck from now on didn’t go down much, and allow her to find a couple of normal herbs here and there, passing the test wouldn’t be a problem!

“This is great!” Qiqi felt that the wounds on her leg and arm weren’t that big of a deal anymore! She was bursting with determination!

“Who is it!?” Qiqi subconsciously turned around to see three people- the people she didn’t want to meet the most! Niaopao, Niaoqiang, and Naipao!

On the road to the town, this Niaopao even tried to hit on her- she had the most horrible of first impressions of him, but she knew that she wasn’t as strong as them! She would’ve killed the three thugs altogether if she were!

“Well, it’s your Pao Bro... And your Great Pao!” Niaopao suddenly remembered that Naipao was there as well.

“What are you people planning?” Qiqi asked subconsciously.

“Thought you were being pretty cool earlier, weren’t you? Ignoring us, right? We’ll show you what happens when you do that!” Niaopao smiled bitterly, “In here, it’s my world- and I’ll play with you until you die!”

But, after saying it, Niaopao realized that Qiqi was covered with fresh blood- on her body, and her leg even! What a terrifying sight!

He gave out a disappointed sigh. He was still planning on messing around with Qiqi during the test, but one look at her... He had lost all interest!

Who’d wanna mess around with someone covered in blood?

“Damn, what the hell did you do? You’re covered in blood!” Niaopao said, irritated.

“None of your business!” Qiqi said with an alert gaze.

“Consider yourself lucky- give us your loot and the Great Pao will let you go! Otherwise, you’re dead meat!” Niaopao said impatiently.

“By what right!” Qiqi subconsciously held on to her bag- this was something she had went through great pains to obtain! Of course she wouldn’t just give it up, it was impossible!

“By what right? If you don’t want to die then hand it over!’ Niaopao exclaimed.

But, Qiqi forgot that her leg was already injured- of course it was going to heavily affect her qinggong! She barely made a couple of steps before almost tripping from the pain!

But, while her starting speed wasn’t slow, there was someone even faster!

In an instant, Naipao was standing some distance ahead of Qiqi, his speed stunningly fast!

This was the first time Naipao showed any of his capabilities other than his Wasp Absorption Arts. He of course had more kungfu under his belt from the Chrysanthemum text. It was just that he didn’t need to use most of it in normal situations.

The other abilities weren’t as useful as the Wasp Absorption one since it could also convert other people’s qi into his own- it was basically a trump card for practicing!

Of course, even so, Naipao wouldn’t just recklessly go and suck anyone’s strength- he’d be the public enemy of the other ancient sects then! The other people may not be able to destroy the Everyday and Every Day sect, but destroying Naipao wouldn’t be that hard.

Chapter 1503: Qiqi’s Misfortune

After all, his ability really was too much- if he were to just absorb the strength of anyone he met, how were other people supposed to survive? And so, in order to prevent people teaming up against him, he only used the ability on his enemies, and that was it.

Like this Yang Qiqi right now. She was only running and not fighting, and so Naipao naturally wouldn’t use his ability here. If he spammed a trump card like this too much, people would start getting jealous, and that would just cause trouble!

Although he may be an invincible monster in the Mystic world, it wasn’t the same if he were to meet Earth class fighters. He could risk some injuries if they were an early phase Earth class, but early phase peak was way over his abilities already.

And so, while he was indeed arrogant, he wasn’t careless!

Plus, the speed of his practicing wasn’t the goal here- he just wanted to break through the first stage of the Chrysanthemum arts, and break into the second stage. This was why he joined the test! He was looking for a chance to break through!

A simple raising of strength level wasn't important to him since as long as he went into the second stage of the Chrysanthemum arts, his strength would naturally improve!

As for now, he was already at the complete first stage of the arts- only one step away from the second stage!

However, he still couldn't open the jade box of the second stage of the arts, despite being at the full completion level of the first. There was something there that he just didn't understand yet!

He remembered opening the box of the first stage back then- it didn't take much at all! He was even a normal person at the time, yet now he still couldn't open the second box with all his practitioner's strength!

"Think you can just run away from the great Zhang Naipao? Who do you think I am?" Naipao looked at Qiqi coldly, "I'm not one who likes getting rough with girls, so give me your loot and I'll let you leave! Don't force me!"

"No!" Qiqi bit her lip as she cursed at Naipao in her heart, calling him a thug. Why was this man such a jerk? Go look for your own treasure!

But, while Qiqi would usually be able to run if she couldn't win the fight, this was different. Her qinggong had been passed down by her family, after all, and it was no joking matter- this was something that had been researched and practiced after generation and generation!

But now, she couldn't run at all!

"Hmph!" Naipao responded by moving beside Qiqi, extending his hand- and Qiqi's bag of treasures was in his palm the next instant, "Since you're a girl, I'll let you go and not turn you into a cripple!"

"Give it back..." Qiqi felt despair- she wanted to take it back, but there was no way she'd be able to fight Naipao. Naipao, on the other hand, had already left, and was standing at his original position!

"You're amazing after all, Great Pao! Not only do you have such a powerful defense, your qinggong is at such a high speed as well!" Naipao praised. He didn't know that Naipao knew more than just the Wasp Absorption Arts, but it seemed like people from ancient sects really were at a different level!

Anyone who assumed that Naipao was a one-trick pony would be in grave danger!

"Yeah, as long as the Great Pao tried, nothing can stop him!" Niaoqiang tried his best as well.

"I'm alright, I suppose," Naipao said faintly before looking into Qiqi's bag. He took the stuff out, leaving the girl's personal items alone- he wasn't interested in that. In fact, he wasn't interested in any of those things, he was a supernatural being!

"Only two treasures? So poor!" Naipao frowned, not expecting her to only have two treasures. Wasn't this too little?

Qiqi felt pretty troubled at that comment- then give it back, why don't you?

"Hmph!" Qiqi responded coldly.

“Hm?” The next instant, after Naipao put the two items back into his bag, he stared in surprise as the score on his card got an extra one thousand points!

He only had around three hundred earlier- and this was after stealing from a bunch of teams!

“One thousand plus? What the hell are these two things?” Naipao didn’t look carefully before, only plopping them in- he took it out and looked at the snow herb! What a surprise! “Five hundred year ganoderma? You’re quite the rich woman, aren’t you? How did you find something this crazy, I really did underestimate you! Thanks, though- with this thousand points, I’ll be winning first place for sure, it seems!”

“Congratulations, Great Pao, congratulations!” Naipao and Niaoqiang jumped up in praise. As envious as they were, though, they knew that this was Naipao’s item for sure- they had no chance.

“Haha, you guys don’t have to worry- the other herbs we get will all be yours, I’ve got enough treasures already!” Naipao said with a laugh as he turned to Qiqi, “I really have to thank you though, girl!”

Qiqi was almost spitting blood from how troubled she felt- these guys were so happy!

At that, her tears started dripping down- this was something that she went through an intense fight to get, against that giant snake... And these people just took it! These evil people!

Qiqi felt even more sad and sour as she thought about it- she was just so close to getting first place with that snow herb right in her hand, but now it was starting over again... Plus, with her injuries... How was she supposed to get other treasures now?

Normal ones, maybe, but what about the ones with beasts protecting them? It wasn’t possible anymore...

“You said there’s a five hundred year snow ganoderma? Seriously?” Lin Yi had seen many precious ingredients before, and hearing the pig’s report, he himself was quite shocked.

A five hundred year snow herb like that- it wasn’t going to help Xiaoxiao, but it was still a legendary treasure! This was something Zhang Liju mentioned in his refiner’s notes, after all, saying that this ingredient could create many level four, level five medicines and elixirs! It was extremely valuable!

And so, this thing could basically get them a lot of points- passing the test wouldn’t be hard anymore!

Chapter 1504: Female Soul Mate

“Oink, oink!” The pig nodded with certainty, saying that there was no need to doubt its senses.

“Five hundred year gatoderma... If we were to get that, that would be around eight hundred points- five hundred at least!” Yu Bing said with some envy and surprise, “This treasure would be more than enough to pass the test with!”

“Haha, if that’s the case then you can take all the treasures from before- I’ll just hang onto this snow herb,” Lin Yi said with a smile.

“Really? That’s great, thank you!” Yu Bing said, surprised and excited. It really was lucky of him to get into a team with Lin Yi- the treasures were all discovered by Lin Yi’s pig in the first place- even if he didn’t split with him there was nothing he could say.

But Lin Yi just offered all of the previous treasures to him- wouldn’t that mean he would get a lot of points in one go? After all, with all of the treasures they’ had found added together, that was at leasty four or five hundred points- and getting into the top ten with those points, as far as Yu Bing’s estimates went, was no problem!

The treasures that the pig had been finding were practically all fifty points or above- as for those treasures that were worth five to ten points, it acted as if it didn’t even see them- it didn’t even care!

And so, they had been continuing like this throughout the half day that had passed- the pig’s attitude was why they were able to find so many high level treasures in such a short time.

Lin Yi and Yu Bing all encountered a couple other teams during this period, but these people all stayed far away from them- they didn’t intend to fight for their loot at all!

While many people saw how Lin Yi got squashed by Naipao, the fact was that Lin Yi not only recovered all his strength in one night, but even broke through into Mystic late phase. These people saw that personally, and nobody wanted trouble with such a odd fighter!

They understood their stance- they knew they weren’t Zhang Naipao, and they didn’t have the guarantee that they would be safe fighting someone this unusual!

And so, Lin Yi and Yu Bing were spared from quite a lot of trouble on the road! Lin Yi was a person who didn’t do anything to you if you left him alone and so he didn’t care much.

“Oink oink!” The pig suddenly stopped beside a big tree- a look of disappointment and helplessness appeared on his face!

“There’s a giant snake here, seems like it was just killed...” Suddenly, Yu Bing pointed some distance not far away from the tree.

Lin Yi looked over and saw the dead white snake- it had already been halfway covered by snow, and since its body was white in the first place, it wasn’t easy to spot!

As for the pig, he had already ran up to the tree and started clawing at the snow ground. A while later, it had dug out all the snow only to look in disappointment.

“Oink...” The pig pointed at where it had dug up.

Lin Yi looked over to see that there was a root- it had been cut off clean. Someone had taken the snow herb!

“Someone else took it?” Lin Yi asked. It shouldn’t have been too long ago.

“Seems so,” Yu Bing had walked over as well, speaking regrettably.

“Wonder who got that- sure is lucky,” Lin Yi smiled bitterly, “Fine then, we’ve got enough cheating overpowered trump cards, we’ll just let this snow herb go. Let’s look for other treasures then!”

“You’re right...” Yu Bing nodded.

“Let’s go then, little pig. Onto the next treasure...” Lin Yi said.

“Oink oink...” The pig seemed unwilling- he pointed some distance away, as if saying that the one who had taken the herb had went in that direction!

Lin Yi paused, but understood directly- the pig was also able to sense presences and it should be pointing to a person. He could see red blood on the black figure- it seemed like the person was hurt!

“There’s someone there?” Lin Yi was a bit confused.

“Hm? Seems to be a person,” Yu Bing evidently saw it as well, “Let’s take a look?”

“Maybe we shouldn’t butt in?” Lin Yi wasn’t someone who wanted to get involved in other people’s affairs. It didn’t matter much to them whether or not the other participants were hurt.

As such, the two made their way to the figure- once they got close, Lin Yi didn’t know if he should be amused or not.

“Isn’t that your female soul mate?” Yu Bing joked.

“Soul mate? More like vengeful enemy!” Lin Yi smiled bitterly. The person lying there was Yang Qiqi, who was sitting in the snow as she wiped away her tears!

It wasn’t because of the pain and wounds, but because of how easily the evil people took away her hard earned loot! Her hopes of passing the test was destroyed now!

Lin Yi may have said all that, but he couldn’t just leave her be. He had saved her twice before, after all, and now that he’d met her again, he had to help!

Earlier, Qiqi announced herself to be a freelancer, and this gave Lin Yi a sense of comradeship. They were both unbacked by sects or houses, and if it was possible to help each other out, Lin Yi didn’t mind doing it.

“What, someone hurt you? Why’re you sitting there crying with snot running down your nose?” Lin Yi asked with a smile as he walked over.

Qiqi had been so immersed in being pissed that she didn’t even sense anyone get near- in truth, if it weren’t for Lin Yi intentionally making her sense him, she wouldn’t have been able to at all!

“You- why are you here...? To laugh at me?” Qiqi said as she saw that it was Lin Yi- her face was pale from all the blood loss, and she looked rather pitiable. Why was it that she would always meet this guy every time she got screwed over?

"I don't have the mood to do stuff like that in a test like this. You think it's because you look cool or something?" Lin Yi said, "Looks serious. Did someone get you, or did the snake bite you?"

Chapter 1505: You're as Bad as Them

"Both..." Qiqi said with a troubled nod- Lin Yi guessed it with one shot.

"Both? Were you the one who found that snow ganoderma?" Lin Yi blinked.

"I did, but that Zhang Naipao and his bastard team took it!" Qiqi said angrily, "If it weren't for the snake injuring me, I wouldn't have let them get away with it!"

"Come on, if you weren't hurt, you'd probably try and fight Zhang Naipao- you'd die an even worse death," Lin Yi said with a shrug.

"Hmph!" Qiqi replied with a scoff, but didn't deny it. Naipao was really strong- she knew that much, of course. She wouldn't stand a chance.

"Though, while I didn't want to get involved at first- since it was Zhang Naipao who took it, I don't mind getting it back from him," Lin Yi started thinking of the herb again now that it was Naipao who currently possessed it.

"Really?" Qiqi's eyes lit up.

"Yeah! But I wouldn't give it back to you though- whoever gets it first wins," Lin Yi naturally wouldn't go that far for this girl.

Qiqi's tears came dripping down once more! She was feeling down enough as it were, and Lin Yi gave her a little bit of hope in that dark, depressing cave- only to take it from her and become the thief!

Taking the snow herb back and still not giving it to her and keeping it for himself? Qiqi remembered Jiu's sickness- and her heart ached even more. Her exchange right that was so close to her grasp was gone once more.

"You're as bad as them!" Qiqi glared at Lin Yi as her tears plopped down- she was feeling as destroyed as one could feel, as if Lin Yi had taken what belonged to her, "I wanted the exchange right to cure my best friend's sickness, but now... now..."

Qiqi never cried even after her injury- but now it had piled up too much.

Lin Yi may have been a cold hearted guy, but he did have a soft spot somewhere. This was someone he knew, too- he couldn't go as far as to ignore her. Thinking about how she kept quiet even with all those wounds, but cried because she'd lost the treasure... That exchange right must really mean a great deal to her.

"Alright, stop crying- once I take it back I'll just give it back to you! But the other stuff, we're taking them," Lin Yi said helplessly, "Oh right, you're a physical practitioner, right? We'll need your help later, actually- if you want the snow herb back, you have to contribute!"

"Really?" Qiqi's eyes lit up once more- she quickly nodded, "Yes, don't worry! I'll contribute for sure!"

“Ha...” Lin Yi smiled, “Alright, let’s get you healed first before we go to Zhang Naipao!”

Lin Yi wasn’t rushing after Naipao- he had the pig after all, and could find out where the herb whenever he wanted. As long as Naipao had it, he could track him!

Naipao was someone that Lin Yi was targeting even if Qiqi hadn’t come into contact with him. He got screwed over by the guy out of nowhere, and while he did break through because of that, Lin Yi wasn’t someone who’d just take it like that. It wasn’t in his style to just leave it be!

“Healing? Now?” Qiqi blinked, “I’ve finished the medicine you gave me already!”

Yu Bing stood at one side, amused. These two sure were weird enemies- Lin Yi said he wasn’t going to help her, and now he was helping her anyway, and was still planning on returning the herb back to this girl! But Yu Bing didn’t have any complaints- after all, even if they get the herb back it would be Lin Yi who’d do it. It was his freedom whether he wanted to give it to Qiqi or not.

“The medicine wouldn’t heal you that fast. If you want to be able to fight now, stop wasting time and stand up!”

“Oh... Then... Do I need to take my clothes off again?” Qiqi remembered that her shoulder and leg were injured- she was a little worried. Was this Lin Yi going to strip her again?

“No need,” Lin Yi didn’t waste any more time and knelt beside Qiqi. He had Xiaoxiao strapped to his back, and couldn’t sit.

Afterwards, he took Qiqi’s hand and placed his hand over her meridians, taking off all the bandages and medicinal herbs before channeling his Art of Dragon Mastery, entering the jade space!

Qiqi was a little taken aback- she didn’t really want to have her hand held by a boy, but seeing that Lin Yi was trying to heal her with no other motives, she let it happen!

The next instant, she felt, to her surprise, a warm surge of energy coming from Lin Yi into her meridians. Her wounds started getting covered in that warm feeling, and it felt really good- she couldn’t help but let out a small moan!

But her face reddened the instant after- that moan was way too reminiscent of a certain thing, and doing it in front of Lin Yi was insanely embarrassing.

A playful smile came across Yu Bing’s lips, but one look at Lin Yi’s serious face and he realized he’d misunderstood- Lin Yi wasn’t doing anything at all!

Qiqi let out a breath of relief once she saw that Lin Yi hadn’t respond.

“What?” Qiqi realized suddenly that the wound on her shoulder and arm were speedily recovering! Qiqi froze- how was this possible? What was happening before her eyes was way beyond her expectations- she’d never seen healing take place this fast before!

She was confused and shocked, and even Yu Bing started to pay more attention as well! He hadn’t planned on peeking at Lin Yi healing her at first, since he might see something he wasn’t supposed to- but subconsciously he had turned around and saw just how miraculous the healing was. He couldn’t help but exclaim, “This... How is this possible? Even House Sun isn’t this fast, right?”

Yu Bing's swollen face was healed by Lin Yi as well, and that was surprising enough as it was- however, healing swelling was different from healing wounds. One just needed to use qi to deal with the swelling, but this wound was exposed flesh! How could he heal it so fast?

In just a while, Qiqi's shoulder and arm were healed completely, with soft, white skin instead of the deep gash!

"I'm fine now," Qiqi couldn't believe her eyes, "You healed my arm just like that?"

"Stop talking- there's still the leg!" Lin Yi said faintly.

"Oh- oh..." Qiqi nodded, still surprised, but kept silent.

Chapter 1506: On Purpose?

Soon, Qiqi's leg was healed as well.

"Done!" Lin Yi stood up.

"Ah? Done? It's really healed?" Qiqi couldn't believe it as she looked at her arm and leg.

"Lin Yi, I really don't know what to say. You're able to heal a wound like this so fast!" Yu Bing said, completely stunned as he looked at Qiqi's pure white skin

"Hey- if you want her to chase after you with a knife you can keep looking!" Lin Yi reminded Yu Bing.

"Ah!" Yu Bing jumped and turned around.

In truth, Qiqi's wounds were only on the arm and leg- Lin Yi didn't intentionally remove the bandages on her shoulder, either, so it wasn't a big deal even if Yu Bing saw the flesh on her arm and leg.

"Oh! You're able to heal me just like this, so why did you take my clothes off last time? Did you do it on purpose??" Qiqi suddenly remembered what Lin Yi did last time when he healed her!

This time he didn't even need to take her clothes off! He must've done it on purpose!

Looking at the angry face Qiqi was making, Lin Yi felt a strong sense of speechlessness. Why did he have to suffer this trouble after healing her?

"I didn't know how to heal like this last time!" Lin Yi said faintly, "This method takes up a lot of qi. You really are the classic ungrateful type, aren't you? I just healed you and the only thing you can think of is questioning me?"

"I..." Qiqi paused- Lin Yi was making sense, she could at least understand that. She may be a physical practitioner, but she understood just how important qi was! Unwillingly, she forced herself to speak up, "Thank... Thanks for this time... But I won't just forget how you looked at my body last time!"

"Do what you want," Lin Yi didn't bother anymore- it wasn't the first time Qiqi was saying stuff like this anyway.

Yu Bing couldn't help but be amused- these two had a pretty interesting dynamic.

“Right... Who is that you’re carrying on your back?” Qiqi was curious the whole time- why was this guy carrying someone around in the test?

“My girlfriend. She’s sick, I need a special ingredient to heal her,” Lin Yi had no point to hide, “My goal here is pretty much the same as you.”

This person was quite good to her girlfriend- carrying her and entering the test like this. Wasn’t it bothersome?

“Let’s stop talking about that- we need to deal with Zhang Naipao!” Lin Yi said, “I’ve thought of a couple methods- the first one is to use a physical practitioner against him. His practitioner’s arts is used to suck qi out from spiritual practitioners, so it’s basically impossible for spiritual practitioners to go toe to toe with him. Physical practitioners don’t have qi though, so he has nothing to absorb- we might get some unexpected results doing this!”

“You’re saying that I should be the one to attack Naipao?” Qiqi asked.

“Alright!” Qiqi said without a thought. She hated Naipao to the bone, after all, so if she had the chance to have direct revenge there was no reason to let it go.

“What do I need to do then?” Yu Bing asked.

“You just need to hold down the Zhuang brothers- don’t let them interrupt us!” Lin Yi said.

“Alright, not a problem!” Yu Bing didn’t dare handle Naipao, but Naipao and Niaoqiang were enemies that he had confidence against!

“Oink oink!” The pig said with a nod before running forward.

In truth, even the pig himself wasn’t too pleased- he’d spent so much effort looking for this snow herb, so how could he just let someone else run away with that?

On the other hand, Naipao and his team were constantly moving and stopping- other than finding treasures for themselves they were also waiting for other teams in order to take theirs!

And at this moment, Naipao had just finished taking from another team and they were splitting the spoils among themselves.

“Feels good to just take stuff, huh?” Lin Yi saw the three not long after- they witnessed just in time how Naipao took the loot from another team.

“Oh? I was wondering who that was... It’s Boss Lin from school! What, too much strength that you want to share it with me again?” Naipao turned around to see Lin Yi- he started laughing!

He didn't know why Lin Yi was here, but in his view, Lin Yi was basically just gifting him his strength again! It didn't matter what tricks he was planning, it wouldn't work- the Wasp Absorption arts was almighty!

"Feels nice, right? Don't worry- I bet having your stuff taken feels great too!" Lin Yi walked over to Naipao instantly after that, his face composed.

"So you're saying you want to try being on the receiving side?" Naipao understood what Lin Yi's taunt was about, but in his eyes, it didn't have any backing. He decided to act as if he didn't get it, "Come, then, I'll show you how it feels!"

"Come!" With that, Lin Yi sent a palm at Naipao!

Naipao laughed as if he were looking at an idiot- he extended his hand in welcome, "Some people really don't have memory- after getting sucked dry that time, you're still coming back! I'm feeling rather troubled, is there really someone as dumb as you in this world?"

Just as Lin Yi spoke, Yu Bing and Qiqi made their move as well!

Qiqi was a specialized assassin in the first place, and now that her injuries were healed, her qinggong was at full speed, it didn't take more than an instant before she was behind Naipao!

"Huh?" Naipao was taken by surprise- after all, he wasn't getting any qi from Lin Yi after he activated his arts!

The next instant, however, he understood- this guy didn't even channel his practitioner's arts in the first place! This palm he launched at him- it wasn't filled with any qi!

"Pretty smart, aren't you? Not using qi anymore?" Naipao said after a pause. But, just as he spoke, Qiqi struck with all her might- at the meridian point at the back of Naipao's neck!

Chapter 1507: I am the Main Character!

This was one of the weakest meridian points of the human body- hitting this part would easily make someone lose consciousness or even their life! Qiqi wanted to end it with one hit!

With a thud, Qiqi's strike connected with his neck!

Qiqi didn't keep her hand there long- she jumped back the next second as Yu Bing readied to hold back the two brothers from House Zhuang.

But the two- to Yu Bing's surprise, weren't doing anything! They were evidently confident in Naipao's strength!

On Lin Yi's face, however, a soft trace of worry appeared. After all, Naipao didn't seem to be affected from Qiqi's strike!

What happened next was a sudden burst of strong qi coming straight for Lin Yi's palm- it burst into his body and sent him flying away!

Lin Yi's body hit the ground with a loud thud, his organs were completely scrambled making him vomit blood!

Lin Yi looked completely destroyed, but the wounds actually weren't too serious. Just as he felt something was wrong, he followed the flow of Naipao's qi and lunged himself away- if he had resisted the attack, it would've been even more serious!

"You're immune to physical practitioner's attacks?" Lin Yi wiped away some blood as he stood up from the ground, sighing in his heart. It seemed like his first plan didn't work- Naipao didn't fear this at all!

"You think I can only absorb qi from spiritual practitioners, that was it? Idiot!" Naipao looked at Lin Yi as if he were stupid, "No wonder you had so much confidence when you came to me, so you thought you had a trump card? You ate too many idiot pills, man! Who told you that physical practitioners would be able to deal with me? If I could get destroyed by them that easily I'd just stay home!"

"I've underestimated you!" Lin Yi smiled self-mockingly.

"Hahahaha!" Lin Yi, I'll tell you the truth- my practitioner's arts is all purposeful and almighty! Not only can I take other people's qi, I can turn all attacks towards me, even physical ones, into my own energy! Do you know how I trained myself for this? I'm always destroying my body so I can get stronger, this includes poison as well! Poison doesn't work on me and I can convert it to energy for myself!" Naipao said with glee, "You've never learned energy conversion, right? All energy can be converted! Hahaha! Let me tell you this, you're barely anything in front of me! If we were in a novel, I'd be the main character, with plot armor and trump cards! You, however, you're just a small side character for main characters to step on! Wahahahaha!"

Lin Yi was quite shocked himself- not because physical practitioners couldn't handle Naipao, but because the practitioner's arts he used was similar to his Art of Dragon Mastery! They were both all purpose arts!

But his arts could allow him to use the qi from the jade space to convert into different energies- Naipao's, however, was opposite to that. It could convert anything into his own qi!

These two had the same logic, but went in different directions! Lin Yi didn't know Naipao had such strong luck to just get this practitioner's arts- it was really strong!

"That's a pretty amazing practitioner's arts you have- against both physical and spiritual practitioners, huh? So you're saying that if I use weapons to attack you, you can convert that energy into your own qi as well?" Lin Yi asked.

"Naturally!" Naipao said with a laugh, "I'll let you die with this piece of knowledge, at least! Let me tell you this- anything under Earth class is nothing to me, I am the god of Mystics! The only people that can deal with me are people above Earth class early phase. If it were anybody else, I would be able to wipe them off the floor!"

"Seems like Zhong Pinliang chose the right follower after all- you're strong!" Lin Yi smiled bitterly, "My first plan was to pit a physical practitioner against you, but it seems like that wouldn't work anymore! Using weapons to attack you instead of my body was my second plan, but seems like that wouldn't work either! My third plan was to use poison, but you can't even get damaged by poison! You're pretty invincible, aren't you? All three of my plans wouldn't work!"

“Hahahaha, I told you already, I am like a main character, what are you? You’re just an ant! You think a couple of dumb plans are enough to deal with me? Go on dreaming!” Naipao was even more filled with glee after hearing all that, “But I won’t kill you today- I’ll make you lose all your strength! The reason for that is because I want to let Liang Bro do the honors!”

Yu Bing and Qiqi began to look tense and worried after hearing all three of Lin Yi’s plans failed- wasn’t this Naipao too much?! This was beyond imagination! All of Lin Yi’s methods wouldn’t work on him!

“Really? But I’ve always felt that I was the main character?” Lin Yi suddenly said as he thrust out his right palm at Naipao, launching all of his qi in a burst- he seemed to be using his practitioner’s arts!

“Ha? Even now, you’re still trying to act tough?” Naipao didn’t think that Lin Yi would launch a sudden attack even now- and he was using his qi, too! Was he looking to get killed? A cold smile appeared on his lips as he raised his right arm, getting ready to take this attack and absorb all of his qi, “Since you want to be the main character so much, I’ll let you be one! But just for one chapter, okay? I’ll let you have more screentime and die in a big flash! Haha!”

With a slam, the two palms hit each other, but in the next instant, Naipao realized that Lin Yi had stopped his practitioner’s arts! There was no longer any qi coming into his hand!

“Huh? What are you doing now- the hell? You’re still trying that?” Naipao blinked as he got ready to send an attack full of qi Lin Yi’s way.

However, the next instant- Lin Yi’s qi started surging and plunging out!

Naipao froze, but laughed loudly all of sudden, “Hahaha, I got it, you were waiting for me to attack you so I wouldn’t be using my Wasp Absorption, right?”

“So what if I was?” Lin Yi asked.

“Of course it’s fine, but did you realize that your qi is still entering my body without stopping?” Naipao looked at Lin Yi mockingly.

Chapter 1508: I Was Messing With You!

“You idiot, this is your fourth plan, right? You’re trying to use that method to attack me? Sorry, but my Wasp Absorption Arts is just a passive skill of my Chrysanthemum arts! It’s a passive skill! Do you realize now that you can’t stop it?”

“Hahaha! You just realized? It’s too late, you’re going to become a cripple again!” In Naipao’s eyes, Lin Yi could do nothing else but listen to Naipao mock him until he was sucked dry.

“The Great Pao is invincible, indestructible!” The two Zhuang brothers started cheering once they saw that Lin Yi would once more become a sacrifice to level up Naipao’s strength.

Yu Bing and Qiqi, on the other hand, were seriously worried- yet there was nothing they could do in a situation like this. Naipao really was an invincible being at this point- how were they supposed to deal with him?

And so, they threw all their hopes onto Lin Yi, hoping for a miracle!

“Oh...” Lin Yi nodded faintly, “Actually, I forgot to tell you that all four plans were just stuff I thought of to mess around with you- the fifth plan is the real one!”

“Fifth plan? You think you’ll still able to do some fifth plan even now? Do you even have the ability to use your fifth plan?” Naipao blinked, not fazed at all, “You’re about to lose all your qi, how would you have a fifth plan?”

“Using it...” Just as Naipao spoke, his face changed in surprise, “Huh??”

“What’s wrong? Keep sucking, why’d you stop? Keep sucking!” Lin Yi easily took his palm off Naipao’s body and moved away- because Naipao had stopped absorbing his qi!

“You... What did you do to your qi!” That instant, Naipao’s face started reddening, and his body started bloating like a balloon! The next instant, he started screaming, and his body burst in an ear shattering explosion!

The large boom sounded, echoing throughout the area!

Naipao had exploded!

Of course, it wasn’t that Naipao himself had exploded- it was the qi within him that had erupted within him!

“Bff-!!” Naipao vomited a huge amount of blood, his pale face plopping onto the ground, limp.

“I thought you were having fun sucking me? Why’d you stop? I still have plenty of qi! You want more?” Lin Yi said coldly as he looked at Naipao.

The sudden change in the fight made everyone frozen!

Lin Yi’s fight with Naipao had attracted the attention of people from other teams- but they didn’t know what happened! All they saw was that the Naipao that was overwhelming Lin Yi suddenly lost, vomiting blood and falling to the ground!

Did he suck too much and get bloated?

“My... My meridians... They’re all destroyed...” Naipao couldn’t believe that this was real- but it was right before him. He didn’t know what Lin Yi did, but the energy coming from Lin Yi seemed to have expanded countless times- it was just a small bundle of qi, but all of a sudden it exploded when it cycled through his meridians!

His Wasp Absorption Arts couldn’t even make it in time to make the conversion before the tragedy happened! But... But this was qi of at least Earth class early phase or above, Lin Yi was just late phase Mystic! How was he able to have so much qi?

“Oh, you’re the main character, right? You can repair yourself even if they’re broken, I bet,” Lin Yi said casually, “You have plot armor and trump cards, right? It’s okay.”

“Lin Yi- you! Just you wait! The Everyday and Every Day sect won’t just let you go! My master won’t just let this go!” Naipao raged.

“Oh, when have you guys ever planned on letting me go? If it weren’t you lying down here today it would’ve been me, right?” Lin Yi shrugged.

“Hmph!” Naipao was completely destroyed- he needed to go back to his sect immediately- he needed to do something about all his destroyed meridians!

Lin Yi’s four plans was just to stall for time. While he was speaking a bunch of nonsense to Naipao, he had been compressing all of his qi for his energy bomb! Only then did he channel his arts and attack Naipao so that he would absorb his qi!

As expected, not long after he started sucking it, the energy bomb of Lin Yi’s went inside his meridians- of course, Lin Yi had calculated the qi bomb’s compression. If he had used all of his strength, Naipao would probably explode immediately into a blur of meat and blood- and that would get him injured as well!

Plus, the Ice Palace had made it clear that killing was forbidden- so he could only explode Naipao into a cripple, but not into a corpse!

Of course, he wouldn’t explain all of that to Naipao- it didn’t matter if he understood it or not. Lin Yi wanted to use the same method on the people from Naipao’s sect in the future, of course. If they were able to prepare for it preemptively, it would be really bad.

After throwing heavy curses at Lin Yi, Naipao climbed back up from the ground, not even wanting his loot anymore as he ran down the mountain quickly. He may have suffered severe injury, but his endurance was quite surprising- nobody stopped him, though. Naipao may have lost his strength, but going against him was still going against the Everyday and Every Day Sect!

Lin Yi was able to hurt Naipao- what was going on?

All the practitioners started to have a sort of mix between respect and fear as they looked at Lin Yi- they all quickly made their leave, staying as far away as possible! Who knew if Lin Yi would want their loot as well?

If Lin Yi really had demanded it, they wouldn’t dare resist! Even Zhang Naipao couldn’t handle him, how could they?

“Which one is Zhang Naipao’s? Where’s the snow ganoderma?” Lin Yi turned to Niaopao and Niaoqiang faintly.

“Ling Bro... No, Great Ling... Great Pao- he, no, little Pao’s stuff is here, please accept it!” Niaopao said quickly as he handed it to Lin Yi, worried that this monster would make him explode as well!

“Give me your stuff too. You wouldn’t want me to do anything to you, right?” Lin Yi said as he took Naipao’s loot.

Chapter 1509: Feng Nitian's Pride

"Of course not! Here! These belong to you in the first place, Great Ling!" Niaopao said as he did a complete 180. He had no choice, after all- he didn't want to die!

He had been Naipao's lackey before, and had went against Lin Yi as much as he possible could. He had to make his amends instantly!

Lin Yi took over the stuff Niaopao gave him with a nod, "Alright, you two can scam now. My hands are itching just by looking at you two, I wanna beat you up so bad!

"!!" Niaopao froze, "We'll leave right now, we'll run as fast as possible, faster than light, I promise!"

With that, the two ran away in a flash. Naipao had become a cripple, and while they didn't understand what Lin Yi did, they were sure that Lin Yi could destroy them if they resisted!

"They're running so fast- like rabbits!" Qiqi said as she looked at the two brothers that had disappeared. She was still irritated- these guys were about to mess with her just a while ago!

But seeing Lin Yi destroy Naipao, they started to call Lin Yi Great Ling all of a sudden- the hell?

"Alright, take your snow herb! Don't lose it again!" Lin Yi said as he gave it to Qiqi.

"Ah!" Qiqi took the herb, her face full of gratitude, "Thanks..."

"No need for thanks- you helped out too," Lin Yi said casually.

"But... I didn't help much..." Qiqi felt rather embarrassed- her move didn't do anything to Naipao, she knew at least that.

"You were dragging time for me- all those plans were just to drag time. I didn't think they would work at all," Lin Yi said, "But if you feel too embarrassed you can give the snow herb back to me."

"No!" Qiqi quickly put it away, "You promised me."

"Ha..." Lin Yi smiled, "See you next time- you have about enough points, too. We have only five hundred each even after taking Zhang Naipao and the two brothers' loot, we still need a bit more before we can pass safely."

"I... Can I go with you guys?" Qiqi really was a bit scared at this point- what if someone came to take her stuff again? She'd just managed to get it back, too!

"You? With us?" Lin Yi stopped.

"Don't worry, I won't cause you any trouble- I won't ask for any treasures, either, I just feel that it will be safer..." Qiqi explained.

"Then let's go," Lin Yi had no reason to reject her. He nodded.

Naipao's defeat was spread among the practitioners very soon- a lot of people didn't see it themselves, but they had heard it clear! Ling Yi had just crippled Naipao!

A shocking news like this made all of them unsure of what would happen next- this was someone from an ancient sect! He was desotryed just like that? Wasn't this Ling Yi too scary?

And so, the people who were avoiding Naipao were now avoiding Ling Yi! Though, that wasn't actually true- the one they were more worried about was Feng Nitian!

After all, Nitian was as scary as Naipao- he had Yu Shan with him, and they were running about taking other people's treasures too!

"Nitian Bro, I hear that Ling Yi guy crippled Zhang Naipao? The hell happened there, how is he so strong?" Yu Shan naturally received the news as well, and was worried.

Ling Yi was with Yu Bing, after all, so if he really were that strong, how was he supposed to deal with Yu Bing?

"Who knows? But it doesn't matter how strong he is- before me, he's just an ant!" Nitian said, "Anyone under Earth class is within my control, doesn't matter if he's a spiritual or physical practitioner! He can't escape my abilities- as long as I use it, he wouldn't be able to move. What else can he do but get beat up?"

"Hahahaha, you're right! You're much stronger than Zhang Naiapao then!" Yu Shan nodded, reassured. It was true- if Nitian were to freeze Lin Yi's body movements, what tricks would he be able to pull?

"Well, we're good at different things!" While Nitian did say that, he was still rather proud- Yu Shan was right, the people that Naipao couldn't handle was still under Nitian's control!

"But that Naipao really isn't as strong as you! If he were to encounter you, Nitian Bro, he would just get destroyed! He wouldn't be able to even touch us once he is frozen, how could we possibly lose? Yu Shan said.

Nitian smiled faintly, not saying anything else. He'd heard that Naipao's Wasp Absorption was a passive ability- it didn't matter if he was frozen, he could still use it! But even so, Nitian thought that he was still stronger than Naipao. After all, while he wouldn't be able to do anything to Naipao himself, he could use weapons and firearms- the guy would die anyway! No way he would be able to turn bullet energy into qi!

At the peak of the Ice mountain stood a girl in white and a girl in green- it was Qing and the Ice Palace Sect Master!

The two were at a spot where they could survey the entire mountain using their eyes at their Sky class strength level. They were not the same as normal practitioners, after all, and didn't need any tools to see what was going on!

"That Ling Yi- he's a little interesting!" The sect master had witnessed the fight as well.

"Yeah- I wonder what ability he used to cripple him," Qing was rather confused herself, "Though, an ancient sect's disciple getting injured- would they seek us for revenge?"

"Would they dare?" The sect master spoke faintly, "We've already altered the rules so that their disciples wouldn't die- that was giving them face already. He now still has his life, so there's no reason for them to come at us. Even if the old elder of the Everyday and Every Day sect came, he'd still just be the same strength as me..."

"You're right," Qing nodded, "The Ice Palace really doesn't have anyone to fear!"

Chapter 1510: Enemies Again

"If I'm correct, what he did was compress his qi, and send it over to Zhang Naipao as he absorbed it- he wasn't able to adapt to such a sudden burst of energy, and so it exploded in his meridians!" The sect master analyzed.

"This is the same as drinking water- drink one gulp at a time, and your body can handle it, but drinking an entire jug in one go will hurt you."

"Oh? Wouldn't that take a lot of qi?" Qing said, surprised at the explanation.

"In theory, it does take a lot- this is the same as losing your strength to take on an enemy!" The sect master paused, a little confused. "But this person is a bit special- Aunt Qing, didn't Li say this before? He said that Ling Yi had lost all his strength to him, and had become a cripple- but in one night, not only did he regain all his strength, he even broke through!"

"It looks like freelancers have a lot of interesting abilities as well!" Aunt Qing sighed. "Unfortunately, he is a boy- he won't be able to enter the core of the Ice Palace!"

The fact that the Ice Palace didn't accept men was a rule for a long time- it just wasn't made public, but anyone of the core group in the Ice Palace understood this! The inner sect was made of only women, and the way a boy would enter was because the heir to the sect had appeared. It was so that the next generation could be born to keep the Ice Palace going. These years, however, not one heiress had made an appearance, and so no men had appeared!

All those people chasing after the position of the outer disciple of the Ice Palace were only seen as outer disciples that were practicing there- no matter how amazing they were, they weren't allowed into the core of the sect!

The inn owner Li, for example, had an amazing ability himself, and was rather strong- yet, despite all the years that had passed, he was just a simple disciple that watched the gates of the sect. He never entered the Ice Palace's inner world.

"The Ice Palace doesn't need to try and attract outsiders in the first place." The sect master shook her head- evidently, Lin Yi was still not enough to enter her interest. She was simply a little curious.

"You're right! But, sect master- what do you think that girl Ling Yi carries is?" Qing and the sect master may be master and servant, but she raised the sect master since a young age after her Shifu passed. She was more like an aunt!

The two didn't bother with formalities- Qing wouldn't be too formal with her, and the sect master would call her Aunt Qing! She'd done so since young, and continued to do so after becoming the sect master!

And because of the sect master's strength, even the elders were all respectful towards her. The strength level of someone was always the determining factor when it came to ancient sects after all- and the sect master's strength was there. Nobody would defy her!

"I'm not sure, but it seems like she's dying soon. I didn't pay too much attention." The sect master said. "Maybe he's entering the test to get the exchange right so he can cure this friend of hers!"

"Perhaps so..." Qing nodded.

Just as the two were talking about Lin Yi, Lin Yi felt as if he was being watched- it wasn't as if he sensed anything, but it was more like a natural-born sixth sense!

Lin Yi closed his eyes and entered the jade space immediately- because of the sensory abilities of the jade, he wanted to see just who was watching him! These people didn't have any hostile intent, and the jade wasn't reacting- so he knew at least that much.

But, what disappointed him was the fact that he could only guess that these people were near the top of the mountain- he couldn't see clearly who they were!

Lin Yi subconsciously raised his head at the top of the mountain- that was where the Ice Palace was. Could it be that people from there were monitoring them? It was probably so.

Thinking about that, he left it alone. It was normal for them to monitor the participants.

Qing couldn't help but pause in response. "Did he see us watching him?"

"That can't be- we're Sky class practitioners, and lower-level practitioners shouldn't be able to sense us if we don't use our practitioner's arts. Unless this person has a strong natural born sixth sense or received some special training!" The sect master shook her head.

"Perhaps freelancers are better at sensing things- their survival abilities are naturally better than those people who came out of sects or houses," Qing said.

"That Yang Qiqi, however, is rather average- this level of freelancing... How did she even survive this long?" The sect master said simply. Because she was a girl, the sect master paid a little more attention...to her disappointment.

"Yes- it looks like we'll need to have stronger rules to specify that girls should enter. Otherwise, the families and sects only send boys!" Qing nodded.

Enemies would always bump into each other, and Lin Yi and Yu Bing were facing that situation right now!

They were following the pig while looking for the next treasure, and they just happened to see Nitian and Yu Shan together try to take another team's loot!

"If you don't want to get crippled, take out all your stuff!" Yu Shan said as he looked at the team tyrannically. "You guys know how insane Nitian Bro's powers are. If you want to resist, you'd better get ready to become cripples!"

The group had just found a three hundred year snow lotus, and there had been a white bear protecting it- they had used so much qi and effort to defeat it! These people just had to come out right at that moment!

Naturally, they'd heard of what kind of person Nitain was- there was no way they'd resist them! They weren't Zhang Naipao or Ling Yi!

All they could do was submit!
