Chapter 1741: Cooperation between the two families (1)

“Yes, we’re planning to do that ... And we’re in the process of doing so.” Miracle doctor Kang nodded and pointed at Zhaoming, “I’ve been in charge of this!”

“Oh, if that’s the case, then we’ll be taking our leave, old patriarch Kang!” You zhentian didn’t want to talk to miracle doctor Kang’s family anymore after hearing that they didn’t have the recipe. His next step was to get the recipe from Guan Xuemin!

“This ...” Miracle doctor Kang was panicking as he saw that you zhentian was leaving. It wasn’t easy for house Kang to find someone to back them up—he’d regret it to death if he just left like that!

“Is there anything else?” You zhentian frowned and turned to look at Kang Zhaoming. He didn’t care much about a junior, but he came out of courtesy. Even though he didn’t get anything, it didn’t hurt to be polite before he left.

“Young master you, may I ask if you’re going to ask Guan Xuemin for the recipe?” Kang Zhaoming asked.

“So what if I am?” You zhentian asked in return.

“Young master you, you don’t understand Guan Xuemin’s personality. If we could get the recipe, we would’ve done it already ...” Kang Zhaoming said, “Guan Xuemin won’t listen to force or persuasion, and he doesn’t care about fame or fortune. House Yu wanted his family to become a Noble House, but he rejected them ... Do you think he’ll give you the recipe if you ask him for it?”

“Oh?” You zhentian wasn’t an idiot. He understood what Kang Zhaoming meant. He turned around and sat down again. “Then in your opinion, how can we get this formula?”

It seemed like house Kang had tried their best before, and since they didn’t succeed, you zhentian might not succeed either! Since Xuemin wasn’t after fame and fortune, he wouldn’t care about the Hidden House you’s benefits. Zhentian you sat down again to see what Zhaoming had to say.

“Actually, if you use force, Xuemin might just hand over the recipe ...” Zhaoming said.

“That won’t do—I’ll force him to hand over the recipe, and if the Hidden House Committee finds out, they’ll definitely come for us!” You zhentian shook his head. Although the hidden noble families ‘Council was in danger of collapsing at any moment, no one wanted to be the first bird to test the waters!

All the hidden houses knew that the great elder of the Council had disappeared for many years, but no one knew where he had gone or if he would ever come back! Back then, he heard that he went to meet up with the missing sky Class Masters, and then went after the path of the sky ...

But, did he disappear with the missing sky Class Masters, or did he die after failing in his pursuit of the path of heaven, or ... These were all mysteries. The Hidden House Council was currently being run by an elder from each house and sect.

It was just that each house was monitoring each other together, but now, all of them wanted to break this rule. They were just afraid that the great elder would suddenly come back, so they were all waiting, waiting for one of the hidden houses or sects to stand out and see if the great elder would appear ...

So, under these circumstances, the Hidden House of you wasn't stupid. Even with the support of the sky elixir sect, they wouldn't dare to stand out. In his opinion, whoever wanted to be the leader could be the leader. The Hidden House of you wasn't stupid.

"That's why I said that only house Kang can be the bad guy. Your hidden house you can only be in the dark, not in the open, or there'll be trouble!" Kang Zhaoming had heard Xiao Wangba and Xiao wangdao talking about the rules of the Hidden House before, and so he said that on purpose to stop the Hidden House you from leaving.

As the young master, you zhentian wasn't someone to be trifled with. He understood what Kang Zhaoming was trying to say-if you want the recipe, then the best way is to work with house Kang. If you don't work with us, then you'll be the bad guy and the Hidden House Committee will blame you. It'd be a huge loss!

Of course, you zhentian could also choose to work with others, one in the open and one in the dark. But with the Kang family as a ready-made partner, he didn't have to waste his energy looking for others.

At the thought of this, you zhentian slowly nodded."So you're saying that your house Kang is out in the open, while we, the Hidden House you, are helping you in the dark. Of course, all the conflicts and spearheads will be borne by your house Kang, while we just have to do things in the dark, is that right?"

"There's no mistake!" Kang Zhaoming nodded,"I actually have a good plan here, but I haven't had a suitable person to execute it. If young master you is willing, our two families are a match made in heaven. This time, we can definitely get the recipe of the longevity pill!"

"Let's talk about it, but let's make it clear first. You can contribute people, but you must not tell anyone about our hidden you family's activities in the secular world!" "Otherwise, even if the you family is censured, you won't have a good time!" You zhentian warned.

Young master you, don't worry. If we were so insensible, we wouldn't have talked about cooperation with you!" Kang Zhaoming nodded.

"Alright then, tell me your plan." You zhentian asked.

Miracle doctor Kang didn't think that the house you that was about to leave would be turned around by Zhaoming's words. He was overjoyed and looked at Zhaoming with even more love. He didn't know that this grandson was such a talent!

The last few Times House Kang was in trouble, it was all Zhaoming's good ideas that worked. Miracle doctor Kang felt that Zhaoming was stronger than Zhaolong.

Guifeng didn't like it, but he had to admit that Zhaoming's luck was better than his. No matter what, he was able to keep the Hidden House you and make them work with house Kang-that was great!

"That Guan Xuemin won't take force or persuasion, and he doesn't want fame or fortune. You can say that he has no weakness ..." "But I know his weakness!"

“Oh? What is it?” You zhentian was unconsciously led by the nose by Kang Zhaoming’s thoughts.

“That’s his granddaughter, Guan Xin. Xuemin loves her a lot. If we kidnap her and ask him for the recipe, he’ll definitely give it to us ...” Zhaoming had this thought for a long time, but he didn’t dare to carry it out. Now that the Hidden House you was here, he’d give them the chance to do it!

“Oh? It was that simple? Then your house Kang can do it on your own, why would you need to cooperate with us?” You zhentian wasn’t stupid. He immediately saw the problem. (To be continued.)

Chapter 1742: Cooperation between the two families (part two)

“Young master you is wise!” Kang Zhaoming flattered without leaving a trace, “House Kang doesn’t have any practitioners, but Guan Xuemin has a very good relationship with a practitioner, and that practitioner is an Earth Class early phase! We don’t have any practitioners with us, so how could we kidnap him? Wouldn’t that be courting death?”

“Oh? Xuemin has a friend who’s an Earth Class early phase?” Zhentian you froze at Zhaoming’s words-he didn’t think Xuemin would be this cocky to have a friend like this. But thinking about it, the Hidden House you was a Noble house of medicine and alchemy, and they knew how important medicine and alchemy were to the hidden houses. It was also why the Hidden House you had so many masters by their side.

But the problem was that Xuemin was just a normal doctor, and it wasn’t a surprise that he had a few golden class friends-it was hard enough to even reach Mystic, let alone Earth Class!

“Yes, that’s why we didn’t dare to act rashly!” Kang Zhaoming nodded.

“Earth Class ...” Zhentian you frowned. Since when was there an Earth Class in the common world? A friend of Guan Xuemin? Could they be from the other hidden houses? If that’s the case, then it’ll be hard-if he really went against them and offended the other hidden houses, wouldn’t that make him an enemy?

Kang Zhaoming seemed to see through you zhentian’s worry and quickly said, “That Earth Class master is called Lin Yi, he’s a solo practitioner without any background, young master you don’t need to worry ...”

“What? Lin Yi?” You zhentian was stunned! Why does this name sound so familiar? But the next moment, he immediately recalled who this person was. Wasn’t this the blue-haired expert who had injured right-hand Panhu, crippled his family, and caused a ruckus in the hidden tang family?

If Kang Zhaoming didn’t mention this name, you zhentian might have backed down a little. But when he heard that it was Lin Yi, a trace of anger ignited in you zhentian’s eyes! If it wasn’t for Lin Yi, the sky elixir sect’s Messenger wouldn’t have been humiliated. House you didn’t receive any blame from the sky elixir sect because the messenger didn’t want to go back to the sky elixir sect and say that they were humiliated, but in order to appease the messenger, they had paid a huge price for hiding house you. They gave the messenger a lot of money and rare materials in private.

And this Lin Yi was house you’s biggest enemy. When zhentian you heard that Xuemin’s backer was Lin Yi, he was even more confident in dealing with Xuemin!

“Why? does young master you know this person?” Zhaoming was confused by zhentian you’s reaction.

“Hehe ... Of course, we know each other. We’re even enemies ...” You zhentian sneered and said, “This time, we, the Hidden House you, can do it, but you have to keep it a secret for us. You can’t spread it out. If something goes wrong, just say it’s your house Kang’s doing, can you promise?”

You zhentian had more things to consider-first, he was afraid of the Hidden House committee’s blame, and second, Lin Yi had some connections with the Ice Palace. Although the Hidden House had a backer as well, it was best not to cause any trouble.

“No problem!” Kang Zhaoming agreed without thinking. House Kang and Lin Yi had already fallen out. Who cared? This was a good chance to show Lin Yi house Kang’s strength, showing Lin Yi that house Kang had a master as well. It was exactly what Kang Zhaoming wanted-he wanted house Kang to be in the spotlight!

Only then would they be able to defeat Lin Yi and show the other members of the practitioner’s Association that house Kang was a powerful family!

“Where’s the old patriarch?” You zhentian turned to miracle doctor Kang.

“No problem! Zhaoming’s will is house Kang’s will!” Miracle doctor Kang was thinking the same thing as Zhaoming-he wanted everyone to think that house Kang was behind this, only then would they be able to show their might!

“Well, in that case, our you family will send a master!” “Yes!” You zhentian nodded. “But I can’t show up!”

“That’s not a problem, but the master sent by young master you has to listen to my command. Otherwise, it’ll be hard for me to do things ...” Kang Zhaoming said.

“Alright, you can order our men around. I only want results!” You zhentian didn’t care about all this. He’d let Kang Zhaoming deal with it for now as long as it didn’t involve the you family.

“Alright, then can you send a Sky Class? This way, we can suppress that Lin Yi!” Zhaoming said.

“I’m afraid this won’t do!” You zhentian rejected Kang Zhaoming’s suggestion. “There’s a limit to the number of Sky Class Masters hidden houses have-there’s only a few of them, and if something were to happen, they’d be able to guess who did it. Plus, with house Kang’s current strength, do you think you’d have a Sky Class master? Even if you tell others, no one will believe you. They’ll definitely suspect that there’s an inside story.”

“Then ...” Zhaoming was a little disappointed-he wanted to try and control a Sky Class master.

“Lin Yi’s an Earth Class early phase ... Sigh, this is a bit hard to handle!” You zhentian muttered to himself for a moment before he said, “Earth Class Masters are rare in the common world-they’re almost non-existent! It’s already weird that house Kang has one, and the higher the level, the more suspicious people are! How about this, we’ll send an Earth Class mid phase to help you-that way, you’ll be two levels higher than Lin Yi, and you’ll be able to beat him!”

“Alright!” Zhaoming didn’t get what he expected, but you zhentian was right-who would believe house Kang if they said they had a Sky Class master?

“As for why there’s an Earth Class, that’s up to you guys to make up, don’t drag us into this!” You zhentian said.

“Naturally!” Kang Zhaoming nodded.

“Alright, then it’s settled. I’ll go back and find a suitable candidate to send over!” As you zhentian spoke, he prepared to take his leave.

“Wait a minute ...” Zhaoming called out to zhentian you again.

“Young master Kang, is there anything else?” You zhentian’s attitude towards Kang Zhaoming was much better this time. He realized that the kid had a lot of ideas, so he gave him some face.

“Young master you, now that we’re done ... Shouldn’t we talk about it? house Kang helped your hidden house you do such a big thing, are there any benefits?” Kang Zhaoming had been reading a few Black-bellied books recently. He was still a rich kid, but he was much better at dealing with people.

“Oh? Our you family will help you in secret. When we get the formula, you and I will both have a share. What’s wrong with that?” “What?” you zhentian asked in return, “the formula isn’t some other treasure. Can’t you just make another copy?” (To be continued.)

Chapter 1743: sun Jingyi’s worries

“That’s true, but at the end of the day, house Kang may not be able to make the recipe. Plus, we’re in the limelight for this, and if we don’t get something out of it, we’ll be at a huge disadvantage!” Zhaoming said, his face bitter.

“I see ...” You zhentian hesitated slightly and then said, “In the future, we, the Hidden House you, can help house Kang in other matters in secret, and we can also make some rare pills for you to sell, but you must never expose this identity!”

In this way, it was equivalent to the hidden you family finding a spokesperson in the secular world, and they could also get some money, which was a win-win situation.

“Of course—we’ll have a marriage alliance with house Xiao, and we’ll tell everyone that we’ve got the support of house Xiao and the Hidden House Pi. We won’t let the Hidden House you get involved in this.” Miracle doctor Kang didn’t think that you zhentian would really give house Kang benefits, and he was really optimistic about his grandson.

In fact, Kang Zhaoming only asked with the mentality of giving it a try. They were business partners anyway, and if he asked for more, the Hidden House you wouldn’t do anything to house Kang, so he might as well give it a try.

After the matter was settled, you zhentian left the Kang family with his follower, third of you.

At the same time, the families that Lin Yi was close to—elder song made his move, and so did elder sun!

After elder sun brought Jingyi and Yikai back to house sun, he called for a family meeting and announced two important decisions!

The first decision was that sun Yikai had been made the next heir of house sun by old man sun-this decision made sun Yikai's big brother and uncle a little shocked and angry, but old man sun was a man of his word, and they knew what happened in the noble House meeting. This was the rule set by the earth Class master, and it was useless for them to talk to old man sun about it-they could go to Lin Yi if they wanted to.

However, did they dare to? Therefore, they didn't dare to voice out their anger. They could only be angry but not speak out about old man sun's appointment.

The second important decision was to not interfere with sun Jingyi's marriage anymore, allowing her to return to the family and manage some of the family's businesses. Together with sun Yikai, she could also act as the contact person for the practitioner's Association!

Of course, old man sun also hinted that Jingyi's main task was to build a good relationship with Lin Yi. As for the company in Donghai, she didn't need to run it anymore-she could just sell it off, since she didn't need to prove anything to her family anymore.

Jingyi blushed at the decision, but she was also very happy! She finally didn't have to run away from home to open a company to prove anything. In the family, she had also obtained a certain degree of freedom. As long as the family didn't force her to marry someone she didn't like, she would be satisfied!

It was too tiring for a girl to work outside, and so Jingyi decided to sell the company and focus on managing the family's business. She was also doing it on her family's orders to get in touch with Lin Yi, which made her happy ...

But after that happiness, she froze-why was she so happy?

Was it because of the family's approval, giving her a certain amount of freedom, or was it because she could see Lin Yi often? Could it be ... That she had fallen for Lin Yi?

Jingyi was at a loss-she'd never thought about this before, all she'd thought about was how to get away from her family, from Chentian's clutches-she'd never had time to think about love ... But now that she'd relaxed, she couldn't help but start thinking about it ...

Thinking back to how she met Lin Yi, it was a little weird. The always proud Wu Chengtian was defeated by Lin Yi, and this was the first time Jingyi was surprised by Lin Yi! This guy could make Wu Chentian, who was from a Noble House, suffer a loss, and even take advantage of him by stealing his wallet! Jingyi couldn't believe it!

When she asked Lin Yi what he was doing, he told her that he was a Grand thief ...

As she got to know more about Lin Yi, she realized that he was much stronger than she had imagined! After that, Chentian even became Lin Yi's follower, shocking her-she realized that she didn't understand Lin Yi at all!

There were still many things that he didn't know ...

And this Noble House meeting had made her see Lin Yi in a new light! He'd managed to control the entire Noble House meeting all by himself, and even managed to turn the tide after shuixing had taken the pill!

Jingyi couldn't believe her eyes-in the blink of an eye, Lin Yi had replaced house Yu as the core of these noble houses, even setting up the practitioner's Association and replacing the noble House meeting!

All sorts of miracles had happened to a "notorious thief" that he had met in a bar by chance, and he had done it all by himself! If she didn't see it with her own eyes, she wouldn't have believed it!

Was this still the Lin Yi she knew? the Lin Yi who would occasionally be cold and joke around?

Lin Yi's strength made Jingyi's heart feel a little fuzzy ...

The master of the you family had arrived. This person looked inconspicuous and had no special characteristics. If he was mixed in the crowd, he was probably the kind of person who couldn't be distinguished at all! And this person was an Earth Class mid phase!

There were some risks involved in doing this, and if something went wrong, they couldn't point the finger at the you family to avoid being blamed by the Hidden House Committee! But at the same time, the reward that the you family promised him was also extremely generous!

Once he succeeded, the hidden right family promised him a large number of small Qi gathering pills to help him cultivate! The difference between a small Qi gathering pill and a Qi gathering pill was that a small Qi gathering pill was not pure. The increase in strength from each pill was limited, but there would not be any other adverse consequences after consuming it. It could continue to absorb the spiritual energy of the natural world.

There were always brave men with great rewards, and so this Earth Class came to house Kang under a different name, ready to participate in the kidnapping plan!

As the Kangs celebrated, Zhaolong's lips curved into a sinister smile. He'd been waiting for this opportunity for far too long, and it was finally here!

That night, when house Kang was having a family meeting to discuss how to kidnap Guan Xin and get the recipe back, Zhaolong brought up his point of view ...

Chapter 1744: kidnapping

"The operation this time was too risky! From what I know, Lin Yi isn't someone to mess with, and it's not a good thing for us to be in the limelight!" Zhaolong said, his tone odd.

"Don't we have the hidden you family's support? What are you afraid of?" Zhaoming wasn't pleased with his brother's sudden outburst-he knew what the guy was thinking, of course. He just wanted to see how capable he was, and how he'd beat him so that he wouldn't have a place in the house in the future.

"Little brother, it's not that I'm a Big Brother, but the Hidden House you said that they can only help us in the dark. We can't tell anyone about this. If something goes wrong and Lin Yi comes back, wouldn't our house Kang be finished?"

"Big brother, I understand what you mean. Aren't you trying to draw a clear line between us?" Kang Zhaoming sneered, "if Lin Yi really comes looking for trouble, I'll take responsibility for it!"

“That’s good, I’m just thinking for the benefit of house Kang as a whole, I’m not targeting you.”
Zhaolong could see the huge benefits, but there were also huge risks!

If Lin Yi came and the Hidden House you didn’t do anything, then house Kang would be in danger! So Zhaolong made things clear first-if nothing went wrong, he’d just be a villain once, but if something went wrong, he’d be a Big Hero and get his position back!

“Zhaolong’s got a point-we can’t just throw the entire house Kang into this, even if we’re going to get a lot of benefits!” Miracle doctor Kang was a careful person-he nodded.”But Zhaoming, it’s been hard on you this time!”

“Grandpa, I’m a member of house Kang, it’s only natural that I contribute to house Kang’s development!” “I’ll tell everyone that I caused this, and that house Kang has nothing to do with it!”Zhaoming said.

“Alright, house Kang won’t participate in the next part of the plan. You and house you’ll make the plans, and we’ll pretend we don’t know anything!” Zhaolong said.

“Sure, then we’ll move out today!” Zhaolong’s words were a bit cold, but it was exactly what Zhaoming wanted! Without the participation of the other Kangs, all the credit would go to him!

Plus, he had absolute confidence that he could complete this mission-so what if Lin Yi was an Earth Class early phase? Didn’t he still have a mid Earth Class? Let’s see what Lin Yi can do to turn the tables!

Of course, Kang Zhaoming still had a backup plan! His actions at the moment seemed impulsive, but there was a deeper meaning! At that time, once the matter was exposed, he would have no way to go, but he could still go to the hidden right family! In his opinion, he was wholeheartedly working for the you family. This time, there was a problem. The you family couldn’t just leave it be, right?

As long as he took refuge in the you family, wouldn’t the matter be solved? If he could learn some alchemy from the you family, it would really be awesome!

Kang Zhaoming had been planning to kidnap Guan Xin for a long time, but he didn’t have the chance to do it. He was also afraid of Lin Yi’s strength and couldn’t fight against him, so he didn’t do it!

Now that he had the support of the Hidden House you’s Masters, he had nothing to fear.

The master from house you didn’t have a name. Zhaoming knew that he didn’t want to expose his identity, so he named himself thirteen of the right.

But it didn’t matter. Kang Zhaoming didn’t want to know his name.

Kang Zhaoming’s speed was fast. The second day after he moved out of the Kang house, Guan Xin was already missing ...

Guan Xuemin was the same as usual, sitting at the dining table reading the newspaper after his servant aunt Liu had finished cooking, waiting for Guan Xin to come back from work.

She could’ve quit right away, but Guan Xin said that she wanted to be on her last shift. After leaving the hospital, she might never be able to return to her position as a nurse, so she really cherished her last moments ...

“Professor Guan, the food’s getting cold ... Do you think we should call Xin Xin and ask her if she’s working overtime?” Aunt Liu looked at the food on the table and asked Xuemin, who was engrossed in the newspaper.

“Oh? What time is it?” Xuemin blinked as he put down the newspaper.

“It’s already past 8 pm. Normally, if Xinxin isn’t on duty or working overtime, she should be home by 6 pm ...” Aunt Liu said.

“I’ll make a call and ask.” Xuemin furrowed his brows. Guan Xin had always been punctual when it came to getting off work. Even if she was working overtime, she’d still call to let him know. Xuemin wasn’t used to not hearing from her today.

She dialed Guan Xin’s number and the call went through quickly. It wasn’t Guan Xin who picked up, but an unfamiliar man’s voice!

“Hello?” That voice was lazy, as if victory was already in his grasp.

“This ... Isn’t this Xinxin’s number? Who are you?” Xuemin blinked as he looked at the number he’d just dialed. It wasn’t wrong.

“Miracle doctor Guan, I thought you didn’t care about your granddaughter anymore. It’s been so long before I got your call, I’m surprised!” The man said slowly, “it’s been two hours, but it’s not too long. I was still thinking that if you don’t call me in five hours, I’ll kill the hostage. I don’t have that much time to play with you!”

“Kill the hostage?” Xuemin paused, “Who are you? What do you want? Where’s Xinxin? How is it?”

“Miracle doctor Guan, you’re so knowledgeable, but you still can’t guess who I am? Of course I’m the kidnapper!” The man was Kang Zhaoming. He had successfully kidnapped Guan Xin and was planning to use her to get the recipe for the pill from Guan Xuemin.

“Xinxin is in your hands?” Xuemin’s mind was in a mess before, but after hearing Zhaoming’s words, he calmed down and lowered his voice, “What do you want?”

“How is it? Miracle doctor Guan is a straightforward person!” “If you want your granddaughter to be safe, miracle doctor Guan, you just need to pay a small price!” Zhaoming said.

“How much do you want?” Xuemin asked.

“Then what do you want?” Xuemin was a little confused after hearing what Zhaoming said. If the kidnapper didn’t want money, then what did he want? But Xuemin still asked without changing his expression.

“Miracle doctor Guan, I heard that you have a recipe for the life-prolonging and toxin-expelling pill. I wonder if you can give me one?” Zhaoming said directly. (To be continued.)

Chapter 1745: Demanding a ransom (part one)

“Of course, you don’t have to give it to me, but your granddaughter won’t be safe ... At least she’s safe for now!”

“So that’s what you wanted ...” Xuemin heard the other party’s purpose, and after a moment of silence, he asked, “You’re from house Kang?”

At the moment, only house Kang’s medical company was competing with miracle doctor Guan’s medical company. If there was someone who wanted the recipe, it would be house Kang.

And so, Xuemin’s first suspect was house Kang.

Kang Zhaoming thought that was smart, but he said, “It doesn’t matter who I am. What’s important is whether you’ll give it to me or not. Miracle doctor Guan, you’re a smart person-it’s just a recipe, it’s fine to copy it down, but if you don’t, people will die!”

“How can I trust you? Let me hear Xin Xin’s voice?” Xuemin asked with a frown.

“I can’t hear her voice. She’s not by my side. But if you don’t believe me, I can’t do anything about it!”

“I’m a man who doesn’t like to waste time talking. If you don’t believe me, then we can stop talking. You can just wait to collect your granddaughter’s body tomorrow!” Zhaoming said.

With that, Zhaoming hung up the phone. He believed that Xuemin would call again!

As expected, Xuemin’s call came in quickly, and Kang Zhaoming picked up the phone leisurely, “Hello? Miracle doctor Guan, you don’t have to be in such a rush, do you?”

“I don’t care who you are, you’d better let go of Xinxin, or I’ll call the police!” “When that happens, no matter who you are, you’ll be in big trouble!” Xuemin said.

“Call the police? I’m so scared!” Kang Zhaoming’s lips twitched. “You’ll have to find me first before you call the police. To tell you the truth, it’s impossible for you to track my location with a mobile phone. I’ve transferred this phone from abroad several times. You can’t find my location!” Don’t waste your energy. If you call the police, then there’s no more negotiation. I can only kill the hostage and we’re done!”

“Wait ...” Xuemin stopped Zhaoming when he saw that he was about to hang up again! Calling the police was just a way to scare the guy, to see how much confidence he had. From the looks of it, the guy had to be fully prepared if he dared to do something like this!

This was different from an ordinary kidnapper. The other party should have already made a very complete plan. It seemed that there was no room for negotiation with the other party! This was because the other party’s purpose was very clear, which was to get the formula of the longevity pill and toxin cleansing pill. This was different from asking for ransom, and there was no possibility of bargaining.

“What, have you thought it through, miracle doctor Guan? Which is more important, your granddaughter’s life or the prescription?” Kang Zhaoming knew that Guan Xuemin was going to give in, and he asked happily.

“I can’t make the decision about the prescription. I need to ask first. After all, the company doesn’t belong to me alone ...” Xuemin said helplessly. He could only ask for Lin Yi’s opinion on this. The prescription was Lin Yi’s, and if Lin Yi didn’t want to give it to him, then he’d have to leave it to fate.

“Then you can go and ask. I’ll wait for your reply!” Kang Zhaoming hung up the phone.

Miracle doctor Guan hesitated for a moment before calling Lin Yi. He was a little embarrassed, but he had no choice. He could only trouble Lin Yi for this! The other party had made it clear that only Lin Yi could make the decision to use the recipe in exchange for Guan Xin’s safety.

Lin Yi had just left the province, and was staying in a fast hotel with Tang Yun, Mengyao, and Yushu. After dinner, the three girls were playing with general Weiwu and Skybolt pig, while the lion was with Chentian.

“Rest early, we still have to travel tomorrow!” Lin Yi said as he looked at the three girls.

“En, let’s play for a while more ...” Before this, general Weiwu and Skybolt pig lived in the backyard of the villa, so Chu Mengyao and the others didn’t notice. However, on the journey, they found out that general Weiwu was teaching Skybolt pig martial arts! And it looked like it!

They felt that this was very interesting, so they just watched from the side.

However, Lin Yi knew that Skybolt pig didn’t have any attack power. The things that general Weiwu taught him could save his life in a critical moment!

Lin Yi’s phone rang just as he was about to continue, and he picked it up. “Mr. Guan, why are you calling me at this time? What’s the matter?”

“Yi, Xinxin’s in trouble!” Xuemin didn’t say much and went straight to the point. “Xinxin has been kidnapped!”

“What? Guan Xin has been kidnapped?” Lin Yi blinked and asked, “What’s the matter? Old man Guan, don’t scare me like that!”

“Xinxin didn’t come home on time after work today, so I called her and it was a strange man’s voice ...” Xuemin explained the whole situation to Lin Yi. “The kidnappers only wanted the recipe for the pill, so I suspect that it’s our competitor, maybe house Kang ...”

“House Kang?” Lin Yi nodded. Xuemin’s analysis made sense, but Lin Yi really didn’t know what to do now that something like this happened! Lin Yi wasn’t in the city, and Guan Xin was kidnapped. If he wanted to save her, he’d have to go back!

“Yi, I know you’re in a difficult position. If it’s not possible, then forget it. After all, the recipe is very precious and important. I’ll think of something else ...” Xuemin said, thinking that Lin Yi didn’t want to give him the recipe.

“Mr. Guan, you misunderstood me ... It’s not that I don’t want to give it to you, but I’m out of town right now and can’t go back!” Lin Yi had made his decision. “How about this, I’ll text you the prescription in exchange for Xinxin’s safety!”

As much as Lin Yi hated the feeling of being threatened, it was troublesome for him to turn back now. He might as well compromise and give the recipe to Guan Xuemin so that he could exchange it for Guan Xin. He’d wait until he returned to Songshan city before taking his revenge on the person behind this!

Lin Yi didn't believe that the person behind the scenes wouldn't make the longevity pill after getting the recipe. Whoever made the pill would know who the mastermind was, so Lin Yi wasn't in a hurry.

"Ah?" Xuemin wasn't expecting Lin Yi to agree so quickly, and he didn't know what to do. "Well ... Yi, don't force yourself ..."

Chapter 1746: Demanding a ransom (part two)

"Elder Guan, look at what you're saying, isn't it just a prescription? It's nothing to me, how can it be more important than Xin Xin's safety?" "Alright, let's not waste any more time. I'll send you the recipe now!" Lin Yi smiled.

"O-o-okay ... Yi, thank you so much!" Xuemin said, a little excited. Naturally, he knew the value of this recipe. A few pills were sold for sky-high prices at an auction, and this recipe was a priceless treasure. How could he not be touched when Lin Yi just gave it away like that?

After hanging up, Lin Yi started thinking. Just give out the recipe of the longevity pill? He wasn't that kind! And this wasn't Lin Yi's style!

Lin Yi remembered that Liju's personal notes mentioned a Grand Foundation pill-the bone cleansing pill-that had similar effects to the pill of life extension and toxin cleansing, but was a little stronger!

And so, Lin Yi opened up the personal notes and found the recipe for the bone cleansing pill. He then started to make a story based on his own longevity and toxin cleansing pill ...

Lin Yi had been studying Zhang Liju's personal notes, and while his skills didn't improve much, his knowledge of medicinal properties and medicine had improved by leaps and bounds! The top alchemists all had two abilities. One was an extremely high level of alchemy fire control, and the other was the ability to self-make pill recipes, to configure and simplify the recipe!

It was just like how Liju had changed the Qi gathering elixir without side effects into the current one.

Lin Yi, on the other hand, didn't have much experience in controlling the refinement fire, but he had a solid Medical Foundation, and his medical skills weren't any worse than Zhang Liju's. You could even say that the old man's knowledge of medicine and its effects had surpassed Zhang Liju's level of refiner!

Because of an incident back then, his old man had studied medicine and medicinal properties for decades, so Lin Yi was very familiar with medicine and medicinal properties under this influence since he was young. Changing a recipe was a common thing for Lin Yi, and changing a recipe was almost the same!

Of course, the changes to the recipe meant that the conditions would be different-the fire control and the requirements for the refiner would be different as well, but the problem was that Lin Yi didn't care. He was only responsible for providing the recipe, and whether or not they could make it was house Kang's own problem.

After more than ten minutes, a completely new and unrecognizable recipe was out of the furnace. It could only be refined by a third grade Alchemist and above. There were many precious herbs in it. The cost of this one pill was at least seventy to eighty million!

Moreover, this was based on the success rate of 100%. For an ordinary Alchemist, it was good enough to have a success rate of 20% to 30%. A slightly more powerful fifth grade Alchemist would only have a success rate of about 50% to refine a third grade medicinal pill!

Therefore, this invisibly increased the cost of the elixir, making the value of an elixir between 200 million and 500 million. The effect of this elixir was similar to the longevity and toxin cleansing elixir. It was much stronger than the foundation building elixir, but it was not as good as the real bone washing elixir, which was the great foundation building elixir!

But the bone cleansing pill was harder to make, the level was higher, and the ingredients were rarer, so Lin Yi's longevity and toxin cleansing pill was the threshold between the two. No wonder the Hidden House of you was so desperate for it!

After finishing the recipe, Lin Yi texted Xuemin, who was still waiting anxiously. Xuemin felt like a year was passing by-he'd been waiting for Lin Yi's text for a long time, and he was still worried if Lin Yi would send him the recipe.

Lin Yi'd already agreed, but Xuemin was worried that Lin Yi wouldn't give him any response after so long.

But it didn't take long for Xuemin's phone to ring-he'd received a text from Lin Yi.

"I'm sorry, elder Guan, the recipe is in my notebook. I need to open it and make a copy, so I wasted some time. The recipe is as follows ..." The text was from Lin Yi, and naturally, he couldn't tell Xuemin that he'd tampered with the recipe. After all, Xuemin was an honest man, and Lin Yi didn't want him to expose it to house Kang.

"Miracle doctor Guan, how is it? are there any results? I'm getting a little impatient!" Kang Zhaoming's voice sounded again,"there are only a few people in your company, is it that hard to make a decision?"

"I ... I've already discussed it. I can give you the prescription, but you have to ensure Xinxin's safety!" "Or else I won't let you go ..." Xuemin said.

"Hehe, that's only natural. We Jianghu people also pay attention to the rules. If you give me the prescription, I'll naturally let your granddaughter go. She can't refine medicine even if I want her, so what's the use of having her?" Kang Zhaoming was actually a little interested in Guan Xin, but he didn't want to make a big deal out of it. Getting the prescription was the most important thing.

"Okay, I'll send the recipe to Xin Xin's phone now. After you receive it, let Xin Xin go ..." Xuemin said.

"No, the call was transferred, so I can only receive voice messages, not text messages. I'll give you an e-mail address, so just send it to me!" Zhaoming said.

"That's fine too ..." Xuemin nodded."However, after you receive the email, you must let go of Xinxin immediately!"

"Of course, but I have to confirm the authenticity of the prescription first. If it's fake, we can only kill the hostage!" "You know the consequences of messing with us!" Zhaoming said.

“Confirm its authenticity? Doesn’t that mean you’ll have to wait until you’ve refined the pill before you can release Xinxin?” Xuemin said with a frown.

“There’s no need to take so long, we just need to study the medicine and its properties ...” Kang Zhaoming had the Hidden House of you behind him. Naturally, they didn’t need to wait for the pill to be made. With their experience, they only needed to do a little research and simulation to know if the recipe was real or not.

“Alright then, tell me the address of the e-mail!” Xuemin sighed in relief.

Kang Zhaoming gave Guan Xuemin an email address. Of course, it was a free email address overseas. Guan Xuemin followed Lin Yi’s text and sent the prescription over without missing a word. He then called Kang Zhaoming to inform him.

As for Kang Zhaoming, the first thing he did after receiving the call was to log into his mailbox and obtain the prescription. (To be continued.)

Chapter 1747: greedy

“Does this prescription require an Alchemist?” Kang Zhaoming looked at the recipe on the computer, stunned. No wonder his family couldn’t figure it out after researching for so long. The result was a pile of dog shit. So, it required a higher level of Alchemist to make it!

It wasn’t a problem of his family’s ability, it was just that they weren’t skilled enough. Kang Zhaoming couldn’t understand the recipe, but he forwarded it to you zhentian’s mailbox.

Kang Zhaoming didn’t think that Guan Xuemin would compromise so easily. As far as he was concerned, Guan Xuemin should go to Lin Yi. With Lin Yi’s personality, he should go to Guan Xin and rescue her first. After losing to the earth Class master of house you, he would have no choice but to hand over the prescription. However, all of this didn’t happen. Guan Xuemin took out the prescription directly!

Zhaoming was starting to regret this-this was what he’d gotten for nothing! If I had known this earlier, why would I have cooperated with the you family? He could just find a few gangsters to kidnap Guan Xin, and when he got the prescription, he’d have a much higher bargaining chip with the you family!

But things were already like this, and there was nothing Kang Zhaoming could do even if he regretted it. The Hidden House you had gotten a huge advantage! Of course, the authenticity of the prescription had not been confirmed yet, so it was too early to regret.

After you zhentian received the email, although he saw that it was clearly stated that the longevity and toxin cleansing pill could only be refined by an Alchemist above grade three, he was not surprised! You zhentian knew that Lin Yi was an Alchemist. Although he didn’t know his strength, it wasn’t surprising that this kind of heaven-defying pill came from the hands of an Alchemist!

Therefore, you zhentian took Lin Yi’s tampering as a matter of course-this was the so-called trouble caused by appearances. You zhentian briefly looked at the pill formula and found that the configuration of the medicinal properties was extremely reasonable. In simple terms, there was no problem with this pill formula!

Everyone who refined pills knew that if one of the ingredients was used incorrectly, there was a risk of the pill furnace exploding. However, this pill formula clearly did not have such a risk! You zhentian didn't believe that Guan Xuemin or Lin Yi would be able to come up with such a reasonable recipe in such a short time!

Unless this recipe wasn't the recipe for the longevity pill. If it was, then there shouldn't be any problems.

One had to know that anyone who could change a recipe at will was a top Alchemist. Not to mention the Hidden House you, even the sky elixir sect didn't know if there was such a talent!

You zhentian quickly printed out the list and gave it to the current helmsman of the you family, old master you, you Taishan.

"Father, I've already obtained the pill formula. Please take a look and verify its authenticity!" You zhentian presented the pill formula with both hands for you Taishan to look through.

"Oh? House Kang's pretty efficient, getting the recipe in such a short time?" You Tai Shan took the pill recipe with some surprise and said, "Have you seen it? Are there any problems with this pill recipe?"

"From what I see, there are no problems with the medicinal theory and the configuration of the medicinal properties. The furnace won't explode, but I'm not too sure whether the pill formula is a longevity pill or not ..." You zhentian said.

"Alright, I'll take a look first!" You Tai Shan nodded. He was quite at ease with his son. His son's perception in alchemy was very good, so if he said there was no problem, then there was basically no problem.

After a period of careful deliberation, you zhentian slowly nodded, raised his head, and said, "That's right. This pill recipe should have been developed on the basis of the foundation building pill. Although I don't know how it is compared to the legendary bone washing pill, its effects should definitely be much stronger than the foundation building pill!"

"In other words, this pill recipe is real?" You zhentian was overjoyed when he heard that.

"I think it's true, but we'll have to ask the sky elixir sect to look through it. As long as they confirm it, there won't be any problems ..." Right mount Tai looked at the recipe, a little happy but also a little sad, "Although this pill recipe looks authentic, the medicinal herbs used in this pill recipe are extremely precious. The cost of making this pill is not low. Many of the medicinal herbs are in high demand but not in the market. Not many can be produced in a year ..."

"That doesn't matter, the sky elixir sect has their own herb garden anyway." You zhentian said, "I'll contact the emissaries from the sky elixir sect and show them this elixir recipe!" If it's true, then house you will have made a great contribution this time, and our status in the sky elixir sect will rise!"

"Haha, if it's true, then we shouldn't mistreat house Kang-they're not bad!" You Tai Shan was very satisfied with house Kang's efficiency. He didn't think that this cooperation would be important, but he didn't expect to get such an unexpected harvest.

"Yes, father!" You zhentian nodded and went to contact the emissaries of the sky elixir sect.

It didn't take long for the sky elixir sect to reply. The recipe was real, but the conditions were a little harsh. However, this wasn't a problem. As long as the pill recipe was real, it was fine. As for how to refine it, that would be a problem for the future.

The sky elixir sect replied to the Hidden House you, and zhentian you naturally replied to Zhaoming as soon as possible.

"Zhaoming, you're a pretty good kid-you've got a bright future ahead of you! You've done a great job with how smoothly things are going!" You zhentian already knew the authenticity of the recipe, so he didn't hold back on his praise.

"Oh? Young master you, that means ... That prescription is real?" Zhaoming was overjoyed at zhentian you's words.

"En, it's true!" You zhentian said,"but this isn't a prescription, it's a pill recipe. I don't think your house Kang can refine it. When we refine it, we'll sell it to your house Kang in the secular world. We won't let you work for nothing. Our hidden house you is clear about gratitude and grudges!"

"Great, thank you, young master you!" Zhaoming was overjoyed at zhentian you's promise."Right, young master you, I still want to ask Guan Xuemin for a few prescriptions. Can you ask the thirteenth master of the right to cooperate with me?"

"No problem, I'll follow your orders!" You zhentian waved his hand and said indifferently.

This time, the Hidden House of the right was also praised and rewarded by the sky elixir sect, and the rewards were great too, so zhentian you naturally wouldn't be stingy with Zhaoming.

"Then, I really have to thank young master you!" Kang Zhaoming quickly thanked him.

Xuemin's straightforwardness from before made Zhaoming have other thoughts! Sometimes, one's greed can't be stopped. Zhaoming was one of them! He saw how easy it was to get the recipe for the longevity pill and wanted the other two recipes from miracle doctor Guan medical company! (To be continued.)

Chapter 1748: Lin Yi's rage (one)

Miracle doctor Guan's company's injury medicine and painkiller were all fist products, and because of their low prices, the market response was especially good! The cost of golden creation from miracle doctor Kang's company was too high, and they couldn't sell it at a loss. They were no match for miracle doctor Guan's company, and that was why Zhaoming came up with this weird idea again!

If they got the recipe from miracle doctor Guan's company, miracle doctor Kang's company might not be able to beat them easily, but they might even be able to win! At that time, he'd be the Savior of house Kang, and the position of Head of House Kang would be his.

So Kang Zhaoming pondered for a while and called right-hand thirteen. He told him not to let her go and to keep an eye on Guan Xin. Then, Kang Zhaoming called Guan Xuemin's number again!

"Hello? Now that you've obtained the pill recipe, you should keep your promise and let him go, right?" Guan Xuemin picked up the phone and asked urgently. He didn't have his usual calm at all. Guan Xin was his most beloved granddaughter and now that something had happened to her, he couldn't stay calm for even a second.

"Miracle doctor Guan, your recipe requires a pill master to make it. It's too troublesome to verify it, so we're worried!" Kang Zhaoming started to make a scene.

"Then what do you want? Are you going back on your word?" Miracle doctor Guan's words were filled with anger.

"Hehe, we won't go so far as to go back on our word, but if you were to give us a fake pill recipe, wouldn't we suffer a huge loss? "So, you'll have to pay a little more as a security deposit, or it'll be hard for us to let him go ..." Zhaoming said.

"Deposit? You really want to go back on your word!" "How could you go back on your word?!" Xuemin raged. We agreed that if I give you the prescription, you'll let Xinxin go, and now you want a security deposit ..."

"Please calm down, miracle doctor Guan. It's hard for us to continue this conversation with your current emotions. Why don't we wait until you're not angry?" Kang Zhaoming purposely used a high and mighty tone.

Xuemin was on the verge of exploding, but he didn't dare get angry when his granddaughter was in his hands."How much more money do you want? What do you want, say it all at once!"

"Money? I've said it before, isn't it tacky to mention money? Could it be that miracle doctor Guan's memory isn't good and he's muddled from anger?" Zhaoming said.

"If you don't want money, why do you want a security deposit?" Xuemin asked.

"Miracle doctor Guan, give me the recipe for the injury medicine and the painkiller as collateral, and we'll let your granddaughter go. If I can verify that the recipe for the longevity pill is real, I'll return the two recipes to you." Zhaoming said.

"The prescription isn't money. You'll know once I give it to you. What's the point of giving it to me?" Xuemin was pissed off by Zhaoming's attitude-this guy was insatiable! He wasn't satisfied after getting the recipe for the longevity pill, and now he wanted more!

"Hehe, miracle doctor Guan is smart, I won't say anything more. Whether you can or can't, just tell me!" Zhaoming didn't bother explaining,"if it works, I'll let him go. If it doesn't, then I'll let him go after I verify the recipe!" But I can't guarantee Guan Xin's safety during this time, hehe ... You know what I mean ..."

"..." Xuemin didn't think that Zhaoming would be this shameless, but he really couldn't piss him off now."Then I'll discuss it with you for a while more before I reply!"

"That's right, let's discuss it!" Zhaoming said happily.

Miracle doctor Guan hung up the phone, his chest heaving up and down in anger. Finally, he let out a long breath and called Lin Yi helplessly. He didn't want to trouble Lin Yi, but for his granddaughter, he had to give up his face!

The call went through quickly. Lin Yi was concerned about Guan Xin's safety as well, so he quickly asked, "Mr. Guan, did they let Xinxin go after getting the prescription?"

"Al!" Xuemin sighed, a bitter smile on his face. "Yi, they're really greedy. They said they'd let Xinxin go after getting the recipe for the pill, but now they want the recipe for the injury medicine and painkiller ... I'm guessing they're from miracle doctor Kang's family, since they're our only competitors!"

"You still want more?" Lin Yi frowned, anger rising in his heart. Did he really think that he was easy to bully? He was not satisfied with the pill formula of the longevity pill and wanted more?

Lin Yi wasn't someone who'd let others do whatever they wanted to him-he'd even burst out a little when he faced Sky Class Masters, let alone miracle doctor Kang's family.

"Yeah, but I don't have a choice. If it really doesn't work out, I'll give up on the shares of miracle doctor Guan's medical company. I'll work for you for free, and I'll give you my name for free. I only have one granddaughter, Xin Xin ..." Xuemin said. He felt embarrassed, but he had no choice. He couldn't just give up on her.

"Old Guan, what are you saying!" Lin Yi didn't know if he should be laughing or crying at Xuemin's words. "Isn't this treating me as an outsider? Back when I was in trouble, you still wanted to take me in as your disciple despite the pressure, but now you're saying this? Besides, Xinxin is my good friend. I want to save her, and it has nothing to do with you, so you don't have to feel guilty ..."

"Yi, thank you so much! It's our great fortune to have met you!" Xuemin said, touched.

"Let's not talk about this for now. The other party is so greedy. After giving them these two formulas, they might ask for other things. In the end, they might even give the company to them!" Lin Yi said.

"I know that too. This kind of serial cheating often appears on TV, but I really have no choice now!" Xuemin said helplessly.

"Old Guan, I'll contact Song Lingshan and ask her if she can help us find the kidnapper. I'll head back to Songshan as soon as possible! You don't have to worry about this, I'll solve it for you!" Lin Yi couldn't take it anymore. She wanted a recipe, and Lin Yi gave it to her, but she still wanted it. This was insatiable greed. Lin Yi's bottom line was crossed, and he had to go back and solve this problem himself.

"Right, the other party didn't want to call the police, saying that if they did, they'd kill the hostage ..." Xuemin said. "Plus, he said that the call was transferred several times, through several countries before it was transferred back. Lingshan probably can't do anything about it ..."

Chapter 1749: Lin Yi's rage (part two)

"You're quite professional. But there's no problem, leave it to me." Lin Yi nodded and hung up the phone. He quickly went back to Tang Yun, Chu Mengyao, and Chen Yushu's room and said, "Guan Xin's in trouble, I need to rush back to Songshan. Are you guys coming with me?"

"Guan Xin? What happened?" Tang Yin and the others all knew Guan Xin, and it was a little weird for Lin Yi to say that.

"Let's talk while we walk." "Don't waste time," Lin Yi said.

“Alright!” Tang Yin and the others weren’t stupid—they nodded at Lin Yi’s serious tone and quickly packed up, leaving the hotel with him.

Lin Yi started the car and sped off. He’d never been speeding on the road before, but this time it was an emergency, so he had to speed. After turning on the highway, Lin Yi’s speedometer hit the end very quickly, but he was still accelerating!

Tang Yun, Mengyao, and Yushu felt like they were in a plane. All the cars on the highway were just blurs in their eyes, disappearing in an instant ...

Lin Yi drove as he explained Guan Xin’s situation to Chu Mengyao and the others. At the same time, Lin Yi dialed a phone number.

“Eagle?” After the call was connected, the other party’s voice was obviously surprised. “You actually took the initiative to call me?”

“Uh ... I was just thinking that since you’re busy, I shouldn’t disturb you when there’s nothing ...” Lin Yi smiled bitterly. The last few times he talked to the hacker Princess, she always spoke with hostility, as if he was the one who provoked her.

“Yeah, I’m very busy. I’m so busy that I don’t have time to pick up your call. I’m hanging up!” The hacker Princess said through gritted teeth.

“Don’t ...” Lin Yi quickly stopped him, “Don’t hang up, I was just joking ... My mission hasn’t ended yet, so I didn’t contact you guys ...” Lin Yi explained.

“This mission of yours, I think there’s no end to it, right? Do you want to marry into a rich family to complete your mission?” The hacker Princess mocked.

“Ha ...” Lin Yi could only smile bitterly in response, “Let’s not talk about this. I’m looking for you for serious business this time. Can you help me check a number? I heard that it has been transferred many times from abroad. Can you locate it?”

“Wait a minute, let me check ...” The hacker Princess stopped joking with Lin Yi and returned to her usual formal tone.

“I’ve found it ... The other party seems to have an expert too. It’s just child’s play.” “The call went through dozens of transfers and was finally transferred back through an internet call,” the hacker Princess said. “According to the search, the target’s coordinates are in Songshan. Do you have a GPS?” “I’ll tell you the coordinates, you can just type it in and search for it.”

“Yes, go ahead ...” Lin Yi turned on the GPS. This was the car Feng Tianlong gave him, and it had all the facilities.

"The coordinates are ..." The hacker Princess said a set of numbers, and Lin Yi entered the coordinates. It was the underground arena that er goudan was at! It was originally an abandoned factory, and after it was modified to be used as an underground fighting arena, it became an abandoned ruin after the arena was destroyed.

Lin Yi didn't think that house Kang would choose a place like this. Not only was no one paying attention to this place, but it was also not easy to be discovered!

"Many thanks!" "I'm busy today, I'll chat with you another day," Lin Yi said.

"I'm very busy, goodbye!" The hacker Princess hung up the phone.

Lin Yi shook his head and increased the speed again. This car was specially modified by Feng Tianlong and Lin Yi pushed the speed to the maximum. In the cameras of the highway, Lin Yi's car was just an afterimage, nothing could be captured.

The passing cars also thought that they had encountered a ghost car. A driver who had watched too many sci-fi movies rubbed his eyes and said, "Wow, is it a flying saucer?"

"Woohoo, this feels so good ..." Yushu had never been in a car this fast before, and she started screaming, "It's more exciting than the roller coaster in the amusement park ..."

Tang Yun, on the other hand, was holding onto Mengyao's hand tightly-she was a little scared. Mengyao wasn't as scared as Tang Yun, but she was a little nervous too. Yushu was the only one who didn't have any sense of danger, just like Xiaoxiao ...

However, Lin Yi couldn't just let the people in the car get into danger. He'd already used his pure energy to protect the entire car, so even if an accident happened, it wouldn't be dangerous.

"It's here. You guys wait for me here. Don't go in no matter what. No matter what happens inside, you have to wait here, understand?" Lin Yi parked the car in a dark corner further away from the arena and spoke to Mengyao and the others seriously.

"Alright, we know. Don't worry." Tang Yun nodded, still in shock. Her face was pale, "But you should be careful!"

"Okay, I'll be careful." Lin Yi said.

Although it was dark inside the arena, it was obvious from the two cars parked at the entrance that there were people inside. Otherwise, no one would Park their car in the wilderness.

Lin Yi looked at the license plate-it was from Donghai, after all. It was house Kang's doing! An unknown rage rose in Lin Yi's heart. He let house Kang go during the noble House meeting because they were mostly related to Xiaobo. Lin Yi didn't want to put Xiaobo in a difficult position, so he didn't do anything to them.

Plus, house Kang was struggling at death's door under the pressure of miracle doctor Guan's medical company. The market was almost completely taken over by miracle doctor Guan's medical company. Their medicine was fine, but the high price made even an established brand stop people from buying their medicine!

After all, when people bought things, they would always choose the more economical ones. Since the effects were similar, they would naturally buy the cheaper one.

But at this moment, Lin Yi couldn't take it anymore! What Kang Zhaoming had done was beyond Lin Yi's tolerance.

Lin Yi suppressed his anger and crept to the arena. As expected, the door was locked from the inside! (To be continued.)

Chapter 1750: No other choice

Logically speaking, there was no door lock here. Since it was locked, it could only mean that there was someone inside! This also proved that the hacker princess's information was not wrong.

Of course, a lock of this level wasn't a problem for Lin Yi at all—he had an uncle master who specialized in breaking locks, and so he'd learned a little about it. It was just that Lin Yi wasn't a professional, and he didn't go too deep into the godly thief notes his uncle master left him.

As long as he had enough for daily use, it was fine. Lin Yi didn't really expect himself to become a great thief.

He opened the door smoothly and entered the arena. It was no longer as brightly lit as it used to be. It had been empty for a long time, and it was in tatters. The leaking rain and the broken chairs made the entire arena look like a mess.

Lin Yi's target was one of the rooms in the arena, and the kidnapper should be hiding in one of them.

In the quiet arena, Lin Yi could easily detect the slightest movement. However, if Lin Yi could detect the opponent's movement, the opponent could also detect Lin Yi's movement! Even if Lin Yi had hidden his practitioner's aura, a normal person wouldn't be able to escape from an Earth Class mid phase right thirteen's senses!

Plus, the thirteenth of the right was two levels higher than Lin Yi. It wasn't hard for him to sense Lin Yi's presence!

At the moment, Zhaoming was sitting in front of his computer, looking very pleased with himself, waiting for miracle doctor Guan's reply. His mind was drawing a beautiful blueprint for the future. From now on, his position in house Kang would be comparable to the old master ...

Kang Zhaoming couldn't help but laugh at the thought. But at this time, right thirteen suddenly walked out from the inner room and said, "Young master Kang, someone's coming!"

"Someone's here?" Zhaoming froze. Who would come to this godforsaken place?

"I don't know, but I have a feeling that he's coming for us. Maybe he's here to rescue the hostages. You have to be careful!" "Leave this to me," the thirteenth on the right said. "Just keep an eye on the hostage!"

"Alright, I'll leave it to you then!" Zhaoming was shocked as well. He picked up his laptop and was about to run into the room ... But the door was kicked open!

The thirteenth on the right knew that someone was coming, so his face was expressionless. However, it gave Kang Zhaoming a big scare as he subconsciously shouted, "Who's there!"

"So it's you, Kang Zhaoming ..." Lin Yi walked into the room and saw Kang Zhaoming. His eyes were stern.

"Lin Yi ... You sure are quick!" Zhaoming wasn't afraid anymore after seeing Lin Yi heading there himself- there was an Earth Class mid phase here, and Lin Yi was dead meat!

"I'm your opponent, Kang Shao. Look after the hostage." The thirteenth man on the right said indifferently.

"Mid Earth Class?" Lin Yi had also noticed right-hand thirteen, but his strength made Lin Yi's heart skip a beat. He didn't think that house Kang would be able to hire an Earth Class mid phase master!

But it made sense-house Kang knew that he was an Earth Class early phase, and yet they still dared to mess with him-they obviously had the power to back it up, and that power probably came from this Earth Class mid phase!

Lin Yi didn't dare to slow down at all-it was pure luck when he fought Yu shuixing, but even that wasn't an easy feat. Now that he was facing an opponent two levels higher than him, Lin Yi had no choice but to start channeling the art of Dragon mastery right from the start and form a Qi bomb!

Lin Yi was shocked. He quickly backed up and asked,"Which force do you belong to? Why are you interfering in this matter?"

However, thirteenth on the right didn't seem to have the time to waste on Lin Yi. He turned a deaf ear to Lin Yi's question and flicked his wrist as if he was channeling his practitioner's Arts, ready to use his martial arts!

"You ... Where are you from?" Lin Yi frowned. When he was fighting masters of this level, they were usually very proud. If Lin Yi talked to them, they would always answer a few words to show how strong they were, but this person made Lin Yi miscalculate!

He didn't want to waste time with Lin Yi, and Lin Yi didn't have the time to make the energy bomb!

In fact, thirteenth of the right would've been cocky and disdainful in front of Lin Yi under normal circumstances. It wasn't easy for a master to reach his level, after all. It was normal to make fun of his opponent when he met an opponent.

But the key problem was that right thirteen came with an order this time. You zhentian strictly ordered him not to speak too much, in case he revealed the identity of the you family. So with you zhentian's order in front of him, right thirteen didn't dare to talk to Lin Yi casually.

Since he didn't want to say anything, he couldn't just stand there and stare at her, right? Then they could only fight directly!

Thirteenth's actions made Lin Yi break out in a cold sweat. He'd always been very conceited, not showing weakness even when facing Masters one or two levels higher than him because he had a trump card-the energy bomb, a trump card that could hurt people above his level!

But now, Lin Yi realized that he was really weak when he couldn't use this trump card! His opponent's skills were obviously at the level of perfection, while Lin Yi's own was only at the same level ...

Just as Lin Yi was thinking, the thirteenth on the right had already used his martial skill! He placed his palms on the left and right. As his genuine Qi circulated, one could vaguely see that his palms were surrounded by a light green mist!

This was probably not the original color of his true Qi, but the effect of a martial technique! With the explosion of the light green mist, thirteenth's body jumped up like a spring, turning into a shadow and pouncing at Lin Yi with lightning speed!

Lin Yi's forehead was covered in cold sweat-the thirteenth on the right made him feel like he couldn't breathe-this was a real Earth tier skill! Before, when he was fighting blue fur, that guy was also an Earth Class early phase-he was probably the same as Lin Yi, just getting into contact with martial arts not long ago, so before he could even use it, he was already beaten into a daze by Lin Yi. But this guy was different-he was a real Earth Class mid phase!

Although his cultivation level was lower than the thirteenth on the right, Lin Yi had nowhere to hide in his current situation. He had no other choice but to use his Qinggong to escape! But could Lin Yi run now? (To be continued.)
