Chapter 1821: old things

Now it seemed that if she wanted to save Lin Yi, she had to stay here. If she stayed here, she wouldn't be able to cultivate because of her heart's demon, or even go into Qi deviation, which was an outcome no one wanted to see!

"Let me think about it ... Can I?" Tang Yun didn't know what to choose. She could only choose to calm down and discuss it with Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu.

"Sure, but you only have one day to consider." The Grand Elder said.

"Why is that?" Tang Yin blinked.

"I'm afraid your boyfriend can only last for a day or two at most. If he's not treated soon, the ice Spirit fruit will probably be useless!" The Grand Elder said.

"Then ... Can't we feed him the ice Spirit fruit first?" Tang Yin said, panicking.

"The heartless spell naturally means being heartless." "There's no love in my dictionary," the Grand Elder said indifferently. "If you don't join the snow Valley, then there's no need for further discussion!"

"..." Tang Yun was sad. She wondered if she would become the Grand Elder after she learned the emotionless technique. At that time, even if Lin Yi saw her, he probably wouldn't like her anymore, right?

After all, who would like a cold and emotionless person? The Grand Elder was a living example. Around her, there was a powerful cold air that made people stay away from her. When they saw her, they didn't want to get close to her. They wanted to stay far away!

However, elder Zhang, who also cultivated other Water-type mental cultivation methods, was not like this. He was also very kind, completely different from the Grand Elder and Xue Li.

"I'll give you an answer ... Tomorrow morning. Is that okay?" he asked. Tang Yin asked after some hesitation.

"It doesn't matter!" The Grand Elder said, "it's not a big deal. In order to make you feel at ease, I can transfuse some cold Qi into his body first to help you suppress the fire poison in his body that has gone berserk. It'll be enough to last until tomorrow night!"

"Many thanks, Grand Elder!" Tang Yun felt relieved after hearing the Grand elder's words, and her face was full of gratitude.

"No need to thank me. This is just a deal!" The Grand Elder said indifferently.

Tang Yun opened her mouth but didn't say anything. The Grand Elder was just like that. She said it before, she was heartless.

The Grand Elder stood up and walked in front of Lin Yi. She placed her hand on his meridians and sent a stream of cold Qi into them, causing Lin Yi's body temperature to drop. Tang Yun was surprised, but Shu let out a breath of relief. She didn't have to lower Lin Yi's body temperature anymore.

"Alright, there should be no problem before tomorrow night!" After the Grand Elder finished, he turned to elder Zhang and ordered, "Elder Zhang, please bring them to the guest room to rest!"

"Yes!" Elder Zhang cupped his fists and said.

Tang Yun, Chu Mengyao, and Chen Yushu brought Lin Yi back to the guest room with elder Zhang. Elder Zhang cupped his hands to them politely and was about to leave when Tang Yun called out to him, "Elder Zhang ..."

"Miss Tang, is there anything else?" Although elder Zhang's attitude towards Tang Yun and the others was good before, it was obvious that he was trying to curry favor with them now. But it was no wonder. If Tang Yun really stayed in the snow Valley, she would become an existence like the Supreme elder, one of the three big shots of the snow Valley. How could elder Zhang not be polite?

"Elder Zhang, I would like to ask, does the heartless incantation really require one to be heartless?" Tang Yun didn't dare to ask the Grand Elder before, but she was much more familiar with elder Zhang now.

"It has always ... Been like this ..." The Grand Elder thought for a while and nodded. "All the people who have cultivated the merciless tactics have been lonely for their entire lives. They have given all their passion to the snow Valley. No one has ever gotten married and had children ..."

"Ah ..." Tang Yun had expected this result, but she was still disappointed after hearing elder Zhang's confirmation, "Who created the emotionless art? it's really a trap ..."

"Shush, miss Tang ..." Elder Zhang was shocked and said with a bitter smile, "Miss Tang, the emotionless technique is a cultivation technique created by the founder of our sect. It's the most precious treasure of our Snow Valley. Although you're highly valued by the Grand Elder, you'll be punished for spouting nonsense like this ..."

"The founder of the sect?" "You mean ... The one who has the same body type as me?" Tang Yin asked, surprised.

"Yes, I am!" Elder Zhang nodded, "the founder comprehended the inheritance here and discovered the ancient ruins. He combined it with the chant from the ancient ruins and created the heartless chant. I have to say, the founder was a powerful person. With the strength of an early phase golden class, he actually created an ancient sect ..."

"Truly amazing!" Tang Yun was full of admiration after hearing this. Although she had the physique, she couldn't have created such a powerful chant in a different place. But Tang Yun didn't understand, "The founder was so powerful, why did he create the emotionless technique? Although I'm not a cultivator, as far as I know, there are many powerful water and ice element mental cultivation methods, right? Sister Bing Tang's cultivation method is also very powerful, but it won't affect her marriage ... It's just that before she receives the inheritance, she can't lose her virginity ..."

“Ah!” “I’ll have to start from a legend ...” Elder Zhang sighed, “although there are no detailed records in the log of our Snow Valley, according to the word of mouth of the elders, there is a poignant love story ...”

“A love story?” Tang Yin was surprised—the founder was a heartless man, and he even had love in his heart?

“That’s right. Since you’re about to become a disciple of the snowy valley and the future Grand Elder, there’s no harm in letting you know about these things, because all the elders of the past generations know about them!” Elder Zhang didn’t beat around the bush and directly said, “You should know that the snow Valley and the Ice Palace belong to the same sect. The snow Valley cultivates the mist-type heart techniques derived from water, while the Ice Palace cultivates the ice-type heart techniques derived from water. The founders of these two sects were actually martial sisters ...”

“Ah!” Tang Yun and the others “eyes went wide—they didn’t think that the valley and the Ice Palace would have such a relationship!

“Although they are fellow apprentices and their relationship is quite good, they fell in love with the same man. This good thing has become a bad thing ...” Elder Zhang smiled bitterly. “So the Ice Palace and the snow Valley are connected, supporting each other and suppressing each other—this is what the two founders created back then ...”

“Then they can both marry that man. One will be the main wife, and the other will be the second wife. You’re really stupid!” Chen Yushu replied. (To be continued.)

Chapter 1822: Shockingly similar

Chu Mengyao and Tang Yun looked at each other and thought to themselves, “if it was so easy to solve the problem back then, would there be any follow-up?”

Sure enough, elder Zhang shook his head and said helplessly, “Although that’s what you say, this pair of senior and junior sisters are both proud people. They don’t want to share their love with others. Or perhaps, because they’re senior and junior sisters, they can’t lower their face and don’t want to give in ...”

The young miss opened her mouth slightly. She didn’t know why, but she thought of herself! She had a feeling that elder Zhang was insinuating something, but she knew that elder Zhang wouldn’t do that since he didn’t know about her relationship with Tang Yun and Shu ...

Then ... Did she like Lin Yi? Or was he too proud to share with others? The thought made Mengyao break out in cold sweat ... What was her heart like?

But before Mengyao could think it through, elder Zhang continued, “Grandmaster Xue and Grandmaster Bing were both that man’s soulmates back then. However, that man didn’t know what to do when faced with two similarly beautiful and talented young ladies ...”

“This man is also an idiot. Just marry them all and have 3p together! I’m not as good as shield bro!” Chen Yushu’s evaluation of the man was very bad. Wasn’t he delaying the girl’s life?

“Uh ...” Elder Zhang was speechless and didn’t know what to say. He just stared at Yushu.

“Cough, cough! Shu, don’t interrupt elder Zhang, are you itching for a beating again?” Mengyao felt like she’d lost a lot of face-Shu was way too good at making things up.

“I’m fine ...” Elder Zhang smiled bitterly and said, “That man isn’t an idiot. He’s an amazing person! He was a medical Saint of his generation and had extremely high talent in alchemy. He was the most amazing Alchemist of his time ...”

“Then who did he choose in the end?” Tang Yin asked.

“It’s definitely not Grandmaster Xue!” “If it was Grandmaster Xue, she wouldn’t have created the emotionless art!” Yushu said.

“He didn’t have a choice. It was Grandmaster Xue who chose to back down ...” Elder Zhang sighed and said, “She chose to escape and stay away from the secular world. She came to this snowy valley and inadvertently comprehended the power of heaven and earth. She accepted the inheritance and established a sect!”

“Retreat?” Tang Yin and the others were taken aback-why did he have to back down if he liked her?

“That’s because Grandmaster snow is the senior Sister and Grandmaster ice is the junior Sister ...” “Of course, this was not the main reason why she gave in. The main reason was because of her special Constitution. She was poisoned by the frost poison and could not live past twenty years old. When she heard the news, she did not want to fight with her anymore and gave the man to her ...”

“Can’t live past twenty? Then how did she create the Ice Palace ... Ah!” Tang Yun suddenly cried out as she remembered something important-Xiaoxiao’s body was also very special-she couldn’t live past twenty, could she?

But in the Ice Palace, she’d been discovered to have a cold Yin body that was hard to come by even once in a thousand years, just like the founder of the Ice Palace. Did that mean that the founder didn’t die after that, but instead discovered her special body?

“Feng Xiaoxiao! Cold Yin body!” Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu looked at each other and said in surprise.

“That’s right, it’s the cold Yin body!” Elder Zhang nodded. “It was because of this that the ice patriarch chose to give in. However, that man was also an impressive figure. He brought the ice patriarch to the Ice Palace’s Mountain and found the fire Spirit’s fruit, successfully delaying the ice patriarch’s life. On the mountain, the ice patriarch also accidentally obtained the inheritance of the mountain and discovered the ancient ruins of the Ice Palace. He then started his own sect! However, her body became very weak after eating the fruit-she really shouldn’t have taken it. The fruit was only effective when she was in Qi deviation, and it was harmful when she ate it normally. So even if she became Sky Class late phase peak, her body wasn’t very good, and that man was a famous refiner and Saint doctor, so he could only keep making ice heart Jade bone pills for her. Only then can she not fall ill. ”

“Since the ice Grandmaster is still alive, did the snow Grandmaster not return to look for them?” Chen Yushu asked curiously.

“Since you’ve already said that you’re going to give up, how could you lower your head given your proud personality, Grand Master Xue? “Although the ice matriarch isn’t dead, her body is in very poor condition. That person has to stay by her side to take care of her ...” “Grandmaster Xue wanted to forget about them, so he naturally created the emotionless manual. This is also why the Ice Palace and the snow Valley both originated from the same sect, but they usually support each other ...”

“That’s amazing ...” Chu Mengyao couldn’t help but exclaim after hearing elder Zhang’s words. She looked at Tang Yun with a strange look.

“Yaoyao, why are you looking at me like that?” Tang Yin asked, confused.

“Yunyun, didn’t you notice? What happened a few years ago is happening again ...” Mengyao said. “You’ll stay in the valley, Xiaoxiao will stay in the Ice Palace, and Lin Yi ... He’s the Holy doctor ...”

“Ah!” Tang Yun was shocked, but after Chu Mengyao’s reminder, she realized that what happened back then was very similar to what was happening now. They had the same physique, the same story, and even the ability of the person they fell in love with at the same time! They were all people with superb medical skills ...

However, the only difference was that Tang Yun and Xiaoxiao were different from grandmasters Xue and Bing. They could accept each other and get along with each other, while grandmasters Xue and Bing could only suffer.

“Reenact?” Elder Zhang, on the other hand, didn’t know what Mengyao was talking about.

“The Ice Palace’s Feng Xiaoxiao and Yunyun are his second and second wives ...” Mengyao pointed at Lin Yi.

“Ah?” Elder Zhang was shocked by Mengyao’s words. He looked at Tang Yun in disbelief. After a while, he said, “You’re saying that the Ice Palace’s heir ...”

“Yeah, Xiaoxiao sis, we’re both ... We’re both his girlfriends ...” Tang Yin was embarrassed, but she still nodded and admitted it.

Elder Zhang had already guessed it, but Tang Yun’s confirmation still shocked him. He sighed. “The will of the heavens, everything is the will of the heavens ... There’s always the will of the heavens ...”

Chapter 1823: Tang Yin’s decision

“But, at least we’re more fortunate than Grandmaster Xue and Grandmaster ice. I’m very fortunate, and so is Xiaoxiao!” Tang Yin shook her head, determined. “That’s why ... I don’t want to consume the senseless grass ...”

“But ... If you don’t consume the heartless grass, then there will be inner demons in your heart, and it’s very likely that you’ll be possessed by the devil. Furthermore, your cultivation journey will be extremely difficult, and you’ll be tortured by love ...” “Therefore, Grandmaster Xue concocted the medicine of the senseless grass and gave it to his successor ...”

“Then, didn’t Grandmaster Xue also cultivate the emotionless technique when she didn’t consume the senseless herb?” “If she’d taken the herb, why would she remember all the grudges?” Tang Yin asked back.

“This ...” Elder Zhang was slightly stunned, and then he smiled bitterly, “Founder Grandmaster Xue is a heaven-bestowed genius with a unique physique. He’s not someone that us juniors can compare to ...”

However, elder Zhang suddenly stopped talking and looked at Tang Yun, not knowing what to say. Yes, the founder had a special Constitution, and Tang Yun was the same. This kind of hidden ice heart Jade bone physique had never appeared again after the establishment of the sect in the snow Valley!

So, if the founder of the sect didn't need to consume the herb, did that mean Tang Yun didn't need to? But elder Zhang didn't dare to casually make this guarantee. He only advised, "Miss Tang, think about it. You've cultivated the merciless tactics, and you're giving off an aura that makes people keep a distance from you. Even if he wakes up, will he still be with you? Look at Valley master Xue and Grand Elder, they are both like this, they naturally have a sense of respect that makes people not want to get close to them ..."

"This ..." Tang Yun thought about it and fell silent. Elder Zhang was right, this was what she was worried about the most. She had learned the heartless Arts, so why would Lin Yi still like her? Even if they still had feelings for each other, after being in contact for a long time, they would naturally keep their distance ...

At that moment, Tang Yun felt sad. Lin Yi was saved, and she could become a practitioner, but ... She could never be with Lin Yi again. Was this the so-called fate?

Grandmaster Xue and Grandmaster ice were like this back then, and now he and Feng Xiaoxiao were like this too? Would the tragedy from many years ago play out again?

Or was this the law of cause and effect?

"Alright, you think about it yourself. This Zhang will take his leave first!" Elder Zhang had said all he needed to say, and the rest was for Tang Yun to figure out on her own. It'd be good if she could figure it out, but there was nothing she could do if she couldn't ...

Looking at elder Zhang's back, Tang Yun didn't stop him, because there was no point for him to stay. He had already done what he could.

"Yaoyao, Shu ... What should I do?" Tang Yin clutched her head in pain as she looked at Lin Yi, her eyes filled with reluctance and love. "I don't want to forget him, I really don't ... Even though we didn't spend a long time together, I was very happy, very happy. I want to remember it forever ..."

"Ai!" Mengyao sighed. To be honest, she pitied Tang Yun, but she didn't have a choice in this situation. They could either stay in the valley to save Lin Yi, or leave the valley and Lin Yi would be in danger.

"How about ... I don't take it?" Chen Yushu suggested carefully.

"Elder Zhang said it himself, I've learned the heartless chant ... Will Lin Yi still like me? I'm afraid he'll hate me and try to avoid me. If I don't take it, I'm afraid it'll be more painful." Tang Yin said hesitantly.

"This ..." Shu scratched her head, not knowing what to say.

"The founder's emotionless Arts is a scam ..." Mengyao said, "She's the one who fell out of love, so she went to harm others ..."

"You can't say that. Perhaps, only under that kind of painful state of mind could one create the one and only martial arts absolute art, the emotionless technique, and become the treasure of the snow Valley!" "But, she probably didn't expect this to happen, either," Tang Yun said, "because those who practice this art in the snow Valley don't have a lover either. They've been practicing here since they were young, and they never had the chance to love. So, to them, it's nothing ..."

"You're right, it's rare to see someone like you who became a monk halfway through your life!" Mengyao nodded. "But I didn't expect you to have such a strong body. No wonder you're so cold. In summer, your body is very cool. You can help Shu cool down ..."

"Yeah, I'm the complete opposite ..." Tang Yun smiled. To ease the tension, she joked, "Shu's the complete opposite of me-could she be an inheritor? Who knows if he's the inheritor of the fire element?"

"Eh? This is true? Shu's the exact opposite of you-she's resistant to heat but afraid of it, while you're resistant to cold but afraid of it!" Mengyao was surprised to see this as well.

"How ... How is that possible?" Yushu's face changed for a second before returning to normal. "How can there be such a coincidence? If it was such a coincidence that shield bro was surrounded by inheritors, wouldn't that be too powerful? Plus, I'm Fire and Yunyun sis is ice-we can play Ice and Fire together!"

"Haha ... You can play with Xiaoxiao ... As for me ..." Tang Yun smiled bitterly as she thought of the heartless spell.

"Shu, what are you talking about? It seems like you really need a beating today!" Chu Mengyao saw that Tang Yun was sad and immediately glared at Shu. This girl was really rubbing it in!

"I didn't say it, you guys were the one who said I'm a fire element ..." Yushu said, feeling wronged.

"Then you can't do it, right? You shut up!" Mengyao said.

"Oh ..." Chen Yushu obediently shut her mouth.

No matter how Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu tried to persuade her, they couldn't bring it up. After all, if they let Tang Yun stay, she would be in pain. What would Lin Yi Do if they didn't let her stay?

So this choice was something only Tang Yun could make, no one else could interfere!

The night ... Passed just like that ... Although Tang Yun had been starving and working for many days, after receiving the inheritance, it was like she was reborn. There was an indescribable aura all over her body, and even though she didn't sleep the whole night, she didn't feel sleepy or tired at all. Instead, she was very energetic.

The only regret was that her eyes were red, as if she had been crying the whole night ... But she finally made her final decision!

In the morning, the Grand Elder brought elder Zhang and Xue Li to the guest room where Tang Yun and the others were staying.

Chapter 1824: Tang Yin's decision (part two)

Tang Yun wasn't in a hurry, but the Grand Elder and Xue Li were.

“Greetings to Grand Elder, Valley master Xue, and elder Zhang!” Tang Yin, Mengyao, and Shu all stood up to greet him.

“You’re welcome!” “Tang Yin, have you thought it through and made your decision?” the Grand Elder waved her hand.

“Yes, this disciple has thought it through and decided to stay in the snow Valley!” Tang Yun had used the word ‘disciple’, which meant that she had made up her mind to become a member of the valley!

“Hahahaha, good, very good, very good!” The Grand Elder said “good” three times in a row. One could imagine how happy she was. She was heartless, but she didn’t mean it. It was a great thing for the valley that Tang Yun stayed, so the Grand Elder was naturally happy.

“Congratulations, Junior Sister Tang Yun!” “You and I are both the Supreme elder’s disciples from now on,” Xue Li congratulated. “There’s no need to be so polite. In the snow Valley, you don’t have to be polite to anyone except the Supreme elder!”

“Okay ...” Tang Yun didn’t like the glory that the other disciples thought was great. It was obvious that she wasn’t in a good mood.

The Grand Elder could tell how Tang Yin was feeling—he was worried that she’d change her mind, so he took out a small bottle and handed it to her. “This is a medicinal liquid made from the senseless grass. Drip his blood into the bottle and drink it. When you wake up tomorrow, you will no longer have his memory!”

“Oh ...” Tang Yun replied and took the small bottle from the Grand Elder.

“We’re going to open the sacrificial Hall. I’m going to take you in as a disciple on behalf of the founder. This is a big event in the valley, so we need to prepare for it. I’ll have elder Zhang wait for you at the entrance. After you take it, you’ll be able to come out. Elder Zhang will help you save Lin Yi and give you a prescription to match it!” The Grand Elder said.

“Okay ...” Tang Yun said one word at a time, but the Grand Elder and Xue Li didn’t care. It was normal for Tang Yun to be in a bad mood.

The Grand Elder could see that Tang Yun was in a bad mood, but it was normal to her. After all, Tang Yun was going to be separated from her lover, and they would never see each other again. No one would be happy about this.

But the Grand Elder was confident that when Tang Yin woke up the next morning, Lin Yi would no longer be in her memory! No one had ever consumed the herb liquid since it was concocted. This was because the snow Valley had always been looking for orphans with suitable physiques to cultivate. Therefore, the valley master’s surname was Xue.

However, the formula of this medicinal liquid was passed down by the founder of the sect, patriarch Xue, so there was no way it could be wrong.

The Grand Elder and Xue Li turned around and left the room. Elder Zhang sighed and said to Tang Yun, “Miss Tang, I’ll wait for you at the door. Please say goodbye to me one last time!”

“Okay ...” Tang Yun nodded gratefully. If elder Zhang didn’t leave, she would have to find an excuse to let him leave first, but since he asked, it was what she wanted.

Elder Zhang quickly walked out of the room and closed the door, leaving Tang Yun and the others with the last bit of time.

“Yin Yin sis, have you really made your decision?” Yushu’s heart ached as she looked at the determination in Tang Yun’s eyes. She used to hate Tang Yun and curse her, but now, she only felt pity for her.

“Yes, I’ve decided!” Tang Yun nodded and said firmly.

“But ... Won’t you suffer in the future?” Mengyao asked, worried. “Isn’t it said that if you have feelings in your heart, you will go crazy?”

“Since I have the so-called hidden ice heart Jade bone physique, which is very rare, why would the People of the Snow Valley Watch me suffer from Qi deviation?” Tang Yin was a cheater sometimes. “They want me to inherit it and train to Sky Class late phase peak, so they’ll do everything they can to help me solve all the problems.”

“That’s true. Plus, you’re Bing Tang’s little sister, Xiaoxiao’s best friend. Even if the valley can’t do anything, the Ice Palace won’t just watch you go crazy. They’ll definitely provide you with the fire Spirit’s fruit!” Mengyao said with a nod.

“Yeah, if that’s the case, what do I have to be afraid of?” “The only one we’re worried about right now is Lin Yi, so ...” Tang Yin smiled.

“Ah ...” Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu sighed at the same time and fell into silence.

The girls were worried about Lin Yi the most-if he woke up and saw Tang Yin practicing the heartless chant, would he still like her? Even if he did like her, there was a natural air about her that kept him at a distance-how could he accept that?

Plus, Tang Yin would’ve forgotten about Lin Yi by then, and even if Lin Yi still liked her, it’d only make him suffer more!

But since Tang Yun had already made her decision, the one in pain would be her, not Lin Yi. She would always have Lin Yi in her heart, and so now, Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu didn’t need to worry about Lin Yi anymore. It was Tang Yun who was worried about Lin Yi ...

“We’ll take good care of him ...” Chu Mengyao looked at Tang Yun and said seriously, “I will use my life to guarantee that I will look after him for you!”

“Thank you ...” Tang Yun smiled. After getting Chu Mengyao’s promise, she could finally let go of the worry in her heart.

“This is what we should do. We will always be good sisters!” Mengyao said.

“En! Hehe ... Alright, let’s not talk about it anymore. Time is limited, and if the people from the snow Valley find out, it won’t be fun anymore!” Tang Yin smiled bitterly as she quickly opened the bottle of the herb liquid. She put her finger in her mouth and bit down ...

In fact, Tang Yun didn't know where she got the courage to bite her finger before this, but after doing it, everything went smoothly. No matter how painful her finger was, she didn't feel the heartache. Her finger was bleeding, but her heart was bleeding too.

However, she had no other choice. This was the only big thing she could do for him, and the last one!

"Yin Yin sis, are you in pain? Why are you crying?" Chen Yushu saw the tears in Tang Yun's eyes and couldn't help but ask.

"Shu!" Mengyao kicked Yushu."How can you be so heartless? how painful can your fingers be? she just can't bear to ..."

"Oh ..." Chen Yushu nodded and didn't say anything else.

Chapter 1825: worrying about personal gains and losses

That's right, it was her own blood!

According to the Grand Elder, Lin Yi's blood should be dripped into the medicine and Tang Yun should be able to forget about Lin Yi after drinking it ... But Tang Yun did the opposite. It was the decision she made after hesitating for a night.

She'd let her bear all the pain herself, and let Lin Yi forget her happily, forget the past. Even if she became emotionless in the future, Lin Yi wouldn't feel any pain or discomfort, because by then, he wouldn't even recognize Tang Yin.

"Yunyun ... You ... Really don't regret it ..." Chu Mengyao saw Tang Yun's actions and her heart ached. This was separating a pair of lovers ...

If it was the old Chu Mengyao, she might be happy, but at this moment, she wasn't happy at all. She would rather be the one staying here ...

"Since I've already decided, I won't regret it!" Tang Yin picked up the mixture of her blood and the herb's medicine and walked to Lin Yi. She lifted her hand and helped him up, pouring the medicine into his mouth ...

Tang Yun's body was shaking from the excitement and nervousness. Tears blurred her eyes as an old song started to play in her ears.

"Don't talk about separation so easily. Since you've separated, don't sigh anymore. The sweetness of the past belongs only to you, and the cold heart is still beautiful. I'll bid farewell to that winter and find a new me to replace the old me. "

"Don't talk about separation so easily. Since we're separated, we shouldn't be afraid of loneliness. Yesterday's storm has passed, so we should cherish our future dreams even more. A new smile flickered with new thoughts, and we should find a dawn to walk out of our own world ..."

When the last drop of the liquid entered Lin Yi's mouth, Tang Yin's hand trembled slightly, and the bottle fell to the ground, shattering into pieces. At this moment, Tang Yin's heart broke as well ... She lowered her head, her heart in a mess.

However, when she raised her head again, her face was full of smiles as she looked at Chu Mengyao and Shu," "Alright, Lin Yi ... I'll leave it to you guys! From now on, you'll be his second and third wives!"

"..." Chu Mengyao forced out a smile. Tang Yun's joke wasn't funny at all. Even Shu, who always wanted to be the second wife, didn't laugh.

"Alright, it's time for elder Zhang to come and save Lin Yi!" With that, Tang Yun bowed deeply to Chu Mengyao and Shu," "Lin Yi, I'll be counting on you guys from now on-please tell the people around him not to mention me in front of him ..."

Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu nodded silently. Although Tang Yun's request made them feel bad, if they didn't do as Tang Yun said, then all of Tang Yun's efforts would be in vain! Tang Yin didn't want Lin Yi to see her in a heartless state, and so she gave him the herb liquid first to avoid breaking up with him in the future.

"Elder Zhang ..." With that, Tang Yun turned around and pushed open the door. She saw elder Zhang standing at a corner far away. He didn't get too close, perhaps to avoid suspicion.

In fact, with elder Zhang's eyes and ears as a Sky Class master, he could hear everything in the room no matter how far away he was, but he didn't want to eavesdrop like that. In his eyes, Tang Yun and the others were granddaughters, and now that Tang Yun was saying her last farewell to Lin Yi, she must be saying something sweet. No matter how thick his skin was, there was no way he would eavesdrop on that.

"Miss Tang, have you already taken the herbal medicine?" Elder Zhang asked.

"En ..." Tang Yun nodded," "You can help save Lin Yi now!"

"Good, that's how it should be!" "Yes!" Elder Zhang nodded."The ice Spirit fruit is ready. We just picked it. The fresher it is, the more obvious the effect will be!"

"I'll have to trouble elder Zhang!" Tang Yin said gratefully.

Elder Zhang didn't say anything more and quickly walked into the room. At this time, the disciple who had gone to pick the ice Spirit fruit returned. He handed a small box to elder Zhang and turned to leave, not daring to stay for a moment longer.

Elder Zhang quickly opened the small box and took out a crystal clear, white and flawless fruit in the shape of a ginseng that exuded a cold air. The material of the fruit was like a transparent jelly, but it was not so soft. It made everyone present feel a refreshing aura that made them feel refreshed!

"What a fresh smell ..." Tang Yun had a better control and intuition towards cold air than most people after the incident.

"The ice Spirit's fruit grows under the layers of ice in extremely cold valleys. For cultivators who cultivate yang and fire-type heart techniques, it's a must-have item to treat Qi deviation." Elder Zhang's hands didn't stop moving as he explained. Like a magic trick, he quickly cut the ice Spirit fruit. He didn't have a knife in his hand, and it was obvious that he used his true energy to cut the fruit. The fact that he could do this shocked Tang Yun and the others!

After cutting the fruit, elder Zhang put it into Lin Yi's mouth. This movement was as smooth as flowing water, without any hesitation. After putting the fruit in Lin Yi's mouth, elder Zhang sent a stream of cold Qi into Lin Yi's body. After that, he said, "Alright, that's enough! He's fine now!"

"Many thanks, elder Zhang!" Tang Yun let out a breath of relief after hearing the words.

Mengyao and Yushu, on the other hand, let out a breath of relief. Lin Yi's face was still pale even with the Grand elder's cold Qi suppressing the fire poison, but it was slowly returning to normal after the fruit ...

Lin Yi's face had returned to normal, but he didn't wake up. This made Tang Yun and the others confused.

However, elder Zhang answered their questions first, "I have a prescription here. Brew the medicine according to the method written on it and feed it to him. He will wake up in a month at most!"

"Another month ..." Tang Yun was a little disappointed, but also happy! If Lin Yi woke up now and saw her, how was she going to deal with him? Both the Grand Elder and elder Zhang said that after drinking the herb's medicine, he would forget his lover when he woke up. Could Lin Yi have forgotten her already?

And so, Tang Yin started to worry.

Chapter 1826: Farewell in the snow Valley

"One month is already very short for a cultivator who has gone mad!" "And I said a month at most," elder Zhang said with a bitter smile. "Although the ice Spirit fruit is a miraculous elixir, the time it takes to wake up still depends on the body constitution of each cultivator."

"So it's like this!" "Then the herbs on the prescription ..." Tang Yin nodded.

"Those are just ordinary herbs. You can buy them all in the pharmacy." Elder Zhang said.

Chu Mengyao nodded. It seemed that this task could only be left to her. Chu Mengyao took the prescription from elder Zhang and put it into her pocket carefully. This was something that could save Lin Yi's life. She couldn't neglect it at all.

"Miss Chu, miss Chen, you may leave the valley now." After elder Zhang was done, he turned to Mengyao and Yushu. "The ceremony of worship and the ceremony of accepting disciples in the snow Valley is about to begin. You are not People of the Snow Valley, so you can not stay here!"

"This ..." Chu Mengyao looked at Tang Yun, a little reluctant, and then looked at the unconscious Lin Yi. She didn't know what to say.

“Elder Zhang, can I ... Send them off?” Tang Yin knew that she couldn’t change her mind now that she’d made up her mind. She had to accept it, but she could fight for it. She could finish her life with Yaoyao, Shu, and Lin Yi, and never see them again.

“This ... Alright!” Elder Zhang was a kind person. As long as Tang Yun’s request wasn’t too forced, he would agree to it.

Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu packed their bags. Chen Yushu carried Lin Yi to this place before, but now there were disciples waiting at the entrance with the stretcher. Chen Yushu didn’t need to carry Lin Yi anymore. They would help carry him out of the valley and into the car.

It wasn’t a long journey from the guest room to the car outside the valley, but it was a short one for Tang Yun.

“After a thousand miles, we must part ways ...” Tang Yun’s gaze landed on Lin Yi’s face, a trace of reluctance in her clear eyes.

I want to see your face clearly. Perhaps this separation will last forever.

But at this moment, I’m very proud and happy.

‘I’m finally not that weak flower vase anymore. I won’t be your burden anymore ...’

When we meet again, I can proudly tell you that I can finally help you, but by then, you might not remember me ...

Tang Yin had a smile on her face, but her tears were covering her eyes. It was as if she’d returned to her third year of high school, back to the path where she met Lin Yi, to the tree shade where they had their first date, to that romantic night in the West Star Village ...

All of these would become memories that would be buried in the depths of her memories forever. Memories that would only belong to her!

The person in her memories would also no longer remember this sweet past that no one cared about ...

Tang Yin fiddled with the diamond ring on her finger, a determined look on her face. “Yao Yao, Shu, I’ll leave Lin Yi to you guys. Take care of him for me ... From now on, there’s no Tang Yin in his life anymore ...”

Chu Mengyao pursed her lips and listened to Tang Yun’s words in silence. The tears in her eyes flowed down uncontrollably. She used to reject and target Tang Yun, but now, she really didn’t want to be separated from Tang Yun. She really didn’t want to!

“Yun Yun sis ... I’m so touched ...” Chen Yushu was also in tears at this moment. She realized that Tang Yun’s position in her heart was no less than Chu Mengyao. She knew that this separation might be a permanent separation. Tang Yun was different from Xiaoxiao. She practiced the emotionless heart technique, which made it impossible for her to return to Lin Yi’s side ...

However, the three of them didn’t make it too clear. It was enough for them to understand each other. After all, the medicine was for Lin Yi, not Tang Yun, so they were afraid that elder Zhang would find out.

“Humans have their joys and sorrows, the moon has its ups and downs, this is a difficult thing to complete.” Elder Zhang walked over and said with a sigh, “Where there’s gain, there’s loss. Let’s go back,”

Tang Yun nodded and took one last look at Lin Yi before turning around and walking towards the valley. Elder Zhang sighed again and quickly followed, leaving Mengyao, Yushu, Lin Yi, and a few disciples in charge of carrying the stretchers.

“Please go back!” The disciple said politely to the girls after putting Lin Yi in the car, but there was an undeniable authority in his tone.

“Let’s go ...” Chu Mengyao pulled on Shu, who was staring at Tang Yun’s back.

Chen Yushu nodded and got into the car with Chu Mengyao.

The sound of the engine could be heard as the car started up smoothly. The car was specially modified by Feng Tianlong, so they didn’t have to worry about not starting the car in the snow. However, Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu didn’t have the time to think about the car at this moment, their hearts were heavy ...

The two’s destination was West Star Village, and they needed to tell old Lin that they’d be going back to Songshan after they were done.

Not far behind the car, the valley was bustling with noise and excitement. The annual worship ceremony had been brought forward, and the valley was holding both the ceremony and the disciple acceptance ceremony at the same time to show how important Tang Yun was to them!

With Tang Yun’s body type, even the Supreme elder didn’t dare to call her master. The inheritor of the body was a different path of cultivation. The Supreme elder could only help and guide Tang Yun on her path of cultivation, but she had to figure it out on her own, because even the Supreme elder didn’t have her body type.

Therefore, the Grand Elder accepted disciples in the name of the founder of the sect.

The main character of this ceremony, Tang Yun, was standing quietly on the stage. There was no smile on her cold face, as if she was not happy at all. However, no one dared to question her. Even the Grand Elder thought that Tang Yun’s personality had changed after taking the medicine of the senseless herb.

Everyone’s attention was on her, what an honor it was. At this moment, Tang Yun was like the future master of the valley. Everyone was extremely respectful to her, even the Grand Elder and Xue Li were polite to her. But Tang Yun didn’t feel happy.

She really wanted Lin Yi to see her, to see how she looked like right now-she didn’t have to hide behind him anymore, and let him shelter her from the wind and rain. She could help him hold up half the sky, but this wish would never come true ...

Chapter 1827: on the way home

Not long after Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu left, another car drove out of the valley. It was the car to pick up Tang Yun's parents and Xiao Ming. This was also Tang Yun's intention. Her parents were staying in Songshan city. Not only would she miss them, but most importantly, Lin Yi might meet them again. Tang Yun was afraid that her parents would tell Lin Yi about it ... Especially her mother. Tang Yun was a little worried!

That's why she asked the valley to send people to pick them up after Chu Mengyao left. With Tang Yun's current status, no one would dare to say no even if she brought three people who didn't do anything in the valley.

Dark night Palace.

Although the shadow group didn't manage to find out anything about those tourists, they did manage to send back a piece of news that worried Wan 'er. Chu Peng had gotten into a car accident, and it was unknown whether he was Dead or Alive. He was in the hospital's intensive care unit, and he was still in critical condition!

When elder li told Wan 'er about this, Wan 'er's face turned pale."How ... How did he get into a car accident ..."

"The investment failed, the company went bankrupt, and I heard it was a suicide ..." Elder li told Wan 'er what he had found out.

"The investment failed ... Even if it failed, he wouldn't commit suicide. Pengzhan's not the kind of person who can't afford to lose, why would he commit suicide?" Wan 'er didn't believe this news,"Besides, there's still Yaoyao. Why would he choose to commit suicide before he can see me?"

"Witnesses said that he committed suicide and hit the car himself ..." Elder li sighed and said.

"That person ... Didn't lie?" Wan 'er still didn't believe that Chu pengzhan would choose to commit suicide.

"There weren't only witnesses. The entire incident was recorded on the dashcam of the car that caused the accident. That's the key. Our people have seen this video. The son-in-law's eyes were lifeless and full of despair ... It should be the eyes of someone before he committed suicide ..." Elder li smiled bitterly."Although I don't believe that Guye would do such a stupid thing, the truth is ..."

"Why did his company go bankrupt? Did someone want to harm him?" Wan 'er still didn't believe that Chu pengzhan would commit suicide.

"This ... Whether or not someone harmed him, it's still not clear. I can send someone to investigate, but it must be hidden from the Grand Elder ..." Elder Li said carefully,"However, this isn't the main point. The most important thing now is how to get Guye out of danger safely ..."

"Great recovery pill and nerve opening pill?" Wan 'er said, slightly surprised.

The great cyclic pellet and the meridian opening pellet were both for cultivators to consume. One of them could extend one's life in the case of extremely serious injuries, while the meridian opening pellet was for repairing the damaged meridians, bones, and internal organs.

However, it wasn't just for practitioners-it was effective for normal people as well. With pengzhan's current condition, he had to take the great cyclic pellet first, followed by the meridian opening pellet, to fully recover. However, both of these pellets were extremely expensive. The meridian opening pellet was a little lacking, but the great cyclic pellet was something that even the sky elixir sect didn't have much in stock!

Not only was the great recovery pill difficult to refine, but it also required extremely rare heavenly and earthly treasures, which were naturally priceless.

And so, after Wan 'er finished speaking, her face turned bitter. The Dark Palace and the sky elixir sect didn't have a good relationship, and they wouldn't even be able to ask for a single normal pill from the sky elixir sect, let alone the great recovery pill!

The Dark Palace had their own refiner, but they were only golden class first level. They could barely make the channel opening pill, but not the recover pill!

But even if it was the nerve opening pill, the Grand Elder would probably be the first to object if she wanted to give it to Chu pengzhan, right? Thinking of this, Wan 'er's eyes dimmed.

"I'll try my best ..." Elder li understood what Palace Master Wan 'er meant, but he wasn't sure if he could get the pills.

Although he was an elder of a sect, it could be said that the elixir of the Dark Palace was even rarer than those of the hidden noble houses. This was because the sky elixir sect would publicly sell a batch of elixirs that weren't too rare at the auction every year.

However, the relationship between the Dark Palace and the sky elixir sect was tense. The Dark Palace couldn't bring themselves to bid at the auction, and with their status, they wouldn't do things like secretly ordering the other hidden noble houses to bid for them.

Mengyao and Yushu didn't run into any more danger on their way back, and the robbers didn't show up either.

When they left, everyone was fumbling around, but when they came back, they were familiar with the road. After a few days of hard work, they finally returned to the West Star Mountain village! But, even though Lin Yi's problem was solved, the Miss and Shu weren't happy at all!

The price Lin Yi had to pay for his recovery was too heavy. Four of them went there, and three came back. One of them would be staying in the valley, and it would be hard to see him again.

Old Lin's heart sank when he saw Mengyao and Shu get out of the car. Kongwen had warned him about this, but he still couldn't accept it when it happened.

"Yaoyao, Shu, where's Yunyun?" Old Lin couldn't help but ask.

"She ... Stayed in the valley ..." Mengyao's face didn't look too good. She was the only one who didn't come back.

"You're staying in the snowy valley? What do you mean by that?" Old Lin asked in a deep voice. Kongwen's expression was even weirder now.

“She ...” Mengyao couldn’t hold back her tears when she mentioned Tang Yun. This made old Lin even more worried.

“Could it be that she met with some mishap?” Old Lin asked, his face serious.

“No, but according to my guess, Tang Yun is probably staying in the valley?” Kongwen looked at Mengyao and Yushu. He could already guess what was going on from their expressions.

In fact, kongwen had predicted her fate the moment she left Starwest village, but he couldn’t change it. He didn’t have the ability to change her fate, and he had already seen her fate ...

“Stay in the snowy valley?” Old Lin blinked.

“Yes ... Yun Yun stayed in the valley ...” Chu Mengyao sobbed and told old Lin and kongwen what happened.

Kongwen’s mouth was still wide open when he heard that Tang Yun had received the inheritance in the valley, even though he had predicted her fate.

Chapter 1828: Going home

He could actually accept the inheritance? Even for an inheritor with the right physique, it would take time and opportunity to understand and accept the inheritance, but Tang Yun had completed the process as soon as she went to the valley. He didn’t know if it was a blessing or a curse ...

As for Tang Yin, giving Lin Yi the herb liquid touched both old Lin and kongwen. It wasn’t easy for a girl like her to do this for her lover!

“If that’s the case, then just do as Yunyun says and keep this a secret forever. Don’t let Lil’ Yi know!” Old Lin shook his head, sighing. “If we don’t, we’ll be letting down Yunyun’s efforts. When that happens, both of them will be in pain ...”

Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu nodded. Yes, Tang Yun didn’t take the medicine of the heartless grass, so her cultivation must be extremely painful, even in danger of Qi deviation. If Lin Yi knew about this and saw Tang Yun who cultivated the heartless chant and had an ice heart, he would be in even more pain!

The only way to get the best of both worlds was to never let Lin Yi know about this. Although it was a little unfair to Tang Yun and Lin Yi, there were some things that had no other choice.

“I’ve been delayed for so long. School’s about to start, right?” Old Lin asked.

“No, we applied to East Ocean industry University. The new students start school in October.” “Of course, it’ll be a different story if you can’t get in ...” Mengyao said.

“That’s good.” Mengyao said that, but old Lin didn’t care if she couldn’t get in-Mengyao’s grades weren’t the only thing that mattered, her scores were way above the cut-off point. Even if she couldn’t get in, with pengzhan’s power, he’d still get in,”But it’s about time. You guys should return, right?”

“Yeah, we came back here to take general Weiwu and Skybolt pig away, and also to say goodbye to you ...” Chu Mengyao said sadly, “Grandpa Lin, we’ll definitely come back to visit you again when we’re free next holiday!”

“It doesn’t matter if you look at me or not, but when you have time, go see Yun Yun without telling Yi. She’ll be very happy that you guys are looking at her ...” Old Lin said.

“En, I definitely will!” Mengyao said with a nod.

“Well, let’s not talk too much. Take a rest here tonight. You can set off tomorrow!” Old Lin said.

“Alright, we’ll go say goodbye to er goudan. Also, Grandpa Lin, can you give us your contact details?” Mengyao said. Lin Yi had old Lin’s number before, so she didn’t have it on her phone. If Lin Yi didn’t wake up soon, she might have to trouble old Lin again.

Lin Yi didn’t turn on his phone when he left, leaving it in his room.

This was Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu’s last night in West Star Mountain village. Although it was a long journey, the two didn’t feel tired at all. Standing in the familiar courtyard, it felt like they were back to the night when they first arrived in West Star Mountain village, eavesdropping on Lin Yi and Tang Yun’s private conversation under the fence ...

Those scenes seemed to be right in front of his eyes, but they were so far away. Things remained the same, but people had changed!

“Shu, let’s go rest. We still have to get up early tomorrow ...” Chu Mengyao sighed and pulled Shu’s hand into the room.

“Then, Yaoyao sis, will we still be able to live with Yunyun sis in the future?” Chen Yushu asked.

“Maybe there will be, maybe there won’t be ... Who knows what will happen in the future?” Mengyao suddenly smiled. “You’re the Prophet, and you’re asking me about something that even Shu doesn’t know?”

“Prophet Shu isn’t all-powerful Shu ...” Yushu mumbled to herself as she followed Mengyao back to her room.

However, if Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu were more observant, they would realize that they were the protagonists of the night, while old Lin and Kongwen were the eavesdroppers!

“You said that someone would be sacrificed, and that person was Tang Yun, who wanted to stay in the valley, right?” Old Lin asked.

“Probably. There are some things that can’t be calculated in detail, but this is the best ending.” Kongwen said.

“Old friend, it’s time for you to leave, right?” Old Lin asked.

“Yes, once things are settled, I should go back.” Kongwen said.

“You still haven’t fully comprehended the heart technique he left behind?” Old Lin asked.

“How can it be so easy to comprehend?” Kongwen smiled bitterly. “As you know, the spiritual Qi here is very thin ... Except for Yi’s Jade. I didn’t go there before. It’s so difficult to break through.”

“You’re right. Let’s work hard together. If I want to leave the West Star Village, I have to take that step ...” Old Lin sighed.

The next morning, Chu Mengyao drove Chen Yushu, Lin Yi, general Weiwu, and Skybolt pig out of West Star Village. When they came, they were surrounded by the villagers, but when they left, Chu Mengyao kept a low profile and went around the crowded places.

On the way, Chu Mengyao wanted to contact her father and tell him that she and Shu were back, and that Lin Yi was out of danger, but Chu pengzhan’s phone didn’t go through, which made Chu Mengyao feel strange!

Mengyao didn’t think much of it when the call didn’t go through-she thought that her father was in a meeting or in the underground parking lot with no signal, but it’d been so many days, and the phone was still switched off when she called again, and it’d been a few hours, too. This made her a little worried.

And so, Chu Mengyao called uncle Fu’s phone, but this time it went through.

“Miss Chu ...” Uncle Fu picked up quickly, but his voice was low. “Is that you?”

“It’s me, uncle Fu. What’s wrong, your voice sounds a little hoarse? Are you sick?” Mengyao blinked, but she didn’t mind. “Where’s my daddy? Why is your phone turned off?”

“Mr. Chu, he ...” Uncle Fu hesitated. He remembered that Chu Mengyao was all alone out there. If he told her the bad news of Chu Peng’s accident, it might affect her mood. If she panicked and got into trouble, it would be a disaster that never came alone!

“He’s been really busy these days,” uncle Fu said. “He’s been working on that big project ... What’s the matter, Miss Chu?”

Chapter 1829: Great changes in the family (1)

“I see ...” Chu Mengyao didn’t doubt it, “Uncle Fu, can you tell Daddy that we’re almost home? it’s about a day’s journey ...” Mengyao said.

“Alright, I understand, Miss Chu ...” Uncle Fu paused. “Give me a call when you’re back ...”

“Alright, I got it.” Chu Mengyao hung up the phone and felt at ease. She continued her journey ...

After another day of driving, Mengyao and Yushu finally saw the sign of the toll station. They both let out a breath of relief-they were finally back. The trip to the West Star Mountain village wasn’t as happy as they thought, but they had experienced a lot. The two had matured a lot after the experience.

“I’m home, it feels so good!” Yushu said sincerely.

“Yeah, we’re finally home ...” Chu Mengyao drove the car back to the sea view Bay Villa area with ease. However, she was shocked by what she saw when she opened the door!

The living room of the villa was a mess of bags and luggage. If it weren’t for the familiar furniture, Chu Mengyao would’ve thought that she had entered the wrong house!

“Eh? Yaoyao sis, did our house get robbed?” Yushu said, surprised.

“Thief? Now, it’s just an extra thing, not a missing thing. How can a thief put things in someone else’s house?” Mengyao glared at Shu with a bitter smile before walking over and opening the bags. She was even more surprised after opening them. “Shu, take a look, aren’t these yours?”

“Yeah, these are all my clothes. Who helped me move them into the villa?” Yushu thought it was weird- weren’t these things supposed to be in her villa? Why was he in Mengyao’s Villa?

“Wait, I’ll ask uncle Fu.” Mengyao took out her phone and dialed uncle Fu’s number.

“Miss Chu, you’re back?” Uncle Fu picked up quickly.

“En, uncle Fu, I’m back. But why is the villa so messy? it seems like Shu’s stuff has been moved in?” Mengyao asked, confused.

“Miss Chu, wait for me, we’ll talk when I get back!” Uncle Fu hesitated. Some things were better said face to face.

“En, okay.” Mengyao didn’t realize that her family was about to be destroyed.

Uncle Fu didn’t say anything else. He looked at pengzhan through the glass window, who had tubes and wires all over him. His eyes reddened, and he turned and left ...

The dashcam had already proven that pengzhan had committed suicide, and the driver wasn’t responsible for the accident. The company that the driver belonged to only gave uncle Fu a few tens of thousands of Yuan as consolation money, leaving the rest of the medical expenses to uncle Fu.

However, pengzhan industries was now run by someone else. Chu pengzhan and Lin Yi’s shares were now under an Mingyue’s name. The small shareholders who used to follow uncle Fu around and suck up to him were like a different person now. Chu pengzhan had been in the hospital for so long, and other than a few old friends who visited him to get some consolation money, the small shareholders all went to suck up to the new chairman. No one else visited Chu pengzhan.

To uncle Fu’s surprise, Guangbo had brought his son to the hospital and brought two hundred thousand Yuan. It was a rare sight for a shareholder who had been kicked out of the company to do this.

Guangbo, however, had made it clear that it was Lin Yi who saved his son-this was enough to make up for all his grudges. The two hundred thousand was also for Lin Yi’s sake.

Uncle Fu had saved up some money over the years-he didn’t have to pay for his own living expenses with pengzhan, after all. He saved up everything he had with his monthly salary, other than the money he used to buy herbs and medicine. With Guangbo’s two hundred thousand, it was barely enough to pay for the surgery and medical fees.

But looking at the medical bills every day, Li Fu was at his wit's end. The surgery was settled for now, but where was pengzhan going to pay for the rest of his medical bills?

Uncle Fu couldn't even bear to spend the money on the bus, and now he was trying to save every penny he could. After all, without a source of income, money would only get lesser and lesser the more he spent.

Luckily, uncle Fu was a practitioner-he walked fast and didn't feel tired at all. They arrived at Mengyao's Villa in no time.

However, Mengyao was surprised to see uncle Fu walking in without a car. "Uncle Fu, you're not driving?"

"Miss Chu, let's talk inside ..." Uncle Fu said with a bitter smile.

Mengyao was curious, but she let him in anyway.

It was only when the three of them sat down on the couches that uncle Fu realized that Lin Yi and Tang Yin weren't there. He couldn't help but ask, "Where's Yi and Tang Yin? They're not here?"

Mengyao and Yushu looked at each other, a bitter smile on their faces. Mengyao didn't want uncle Fu and her father to worry, so she didn't tell them about Tang Yun staying in the valley, but now that they were home, she didn't have to hide it anymore. She told uncle Fu everything in detail.

"So, Yi's not awake yet? And Tang Yun, she's staying in the valley, never to return?" Uncle Fu looked at the two girls, not knowing what to say. He'd placed all his hopes on Lin Yi.

After all, Lin Yi's medical skills were superb. As long as Chu pengzhan's life was saved, Lin Yi should have a way to cure him. This could be seen from how Lin Yi helped her recover her meridians, as well as Wu Chengtian and general Weiwu's injuries. Lin Yi was very powerful!

Plus, Lin Yi had a lot of connections in society, and he maintained good relationships with all the noble houses. Pengzhan industries might be gone, but with Lin Yi's connections, it wasn't impossible for them to rise up again. So when uncle Fu heard that Chu Mengyao was back, he was very happy, but now ...

"Not yet, but the people in the valley said that he should be able to wake up in about a month ..." Chu Mengyao said, "Right, uncle Fu, what's with the things in this house? I think they all moved here from Shu's house?"

"One month ... There's still one month ..." Uncle Fu frowned deeply. He was already struggling to make ends meet with the huge daily expenses, and Lin Yi still needed a month to wake up. After he woke up, he might not even be able to recover his previous strength. Could Chu pengzhan still hold on until then? (To be continued.)

Chapter 1830: Great changes in the family (2)

Of course, if he had the money to pay for the medical fees, it wouldn't be a problem, but if he didn't have the money, then he'd be waiting for death at home.

"Uncle Fu, what's wrong?" Mengyao said, noticing the weird look on uncle Fu's face. "I mean, the things in this room ..."

“Argh! “The thing .....” Uncle Fu finally realized what Mengyao was asking, but he sighed deeply.”Yaoyao, actually, something big happened at home!”

“Something big happened?” “What happened?” Mengyao blinked.

“Mr. Chu ... His investment failed and he committed suicide ...” Uncle Fu knew what kind of blow this news would bring to Mengyao, but he couldn’t hide it from her.

“What!” Mengyao stood up all of a sudden and looked at uncle Fu in disbelief.”Uncle Fu, what are you saying? Did daddy commit suicide?”

“Mr. Chu’s investment failed, and he committed suicide in a car crash ... He didn’t die on the spot, but he’s still in the ICU at the hospital, still in critical condition ...” Uncle Fu nodded, his voice heavy.”I wanted to tell you about this before, but I was afraid you’d be worried and distracted on the road, so I waited for you to come back before saying ... I’m sorry, Miss Chu ...”

“Uncle Fu, don’t say that ...” Mengyao was heartbroken, but she knew that uncle Fu was thinking for her. After Lin Yi’s Qi deviation and Tang Yun’s ups and downs in the valley, Mengyao’s mental state was much stronger and more mature than before.

Although he was very worried about his father’s safety, he still held back his grief and asked,“”Uncle Fu, what happened? How could daddy’s investment fail?”

“It all started with the cooperation with the an family ...” Uncle Fu started explaining the process of Chu pengzhan and an Mingyue’s cooperation to Chu Mengyao. At the end, he said helplessly,“”Back then, I tried to persuade Mr. Chu to quit while he was ahead, but he acted like he was possessed and insisted on moraling his shares and property. In the end, he lost all his money ... Miss Chu, I’m really sorry ...”

“Uncle Fu, this isn’t your fault.” When Chu Mengyao heard that her father had run into a speeding car when he had nothing, tears poured out like a fountain! But she didn’t blame uncle Fu. She knew that uncle Fu had never interfered with her father’s business investments, so even if uncle Fu tried to persuade her father this time, her father wouldn’t listen to him completely.

“Miss Chu, Mr. Chu may not be out of danger yet, but there’s still hope. My condolences-as long as we’re alive, there’s hope. When Lin Yi wakes up, we might have a chance to turn the tables ...” Uncle Fu’s eyes turned cold.”We have to take back what we’ve lost!”

“It’s good that there’s hope ...” Mengyao nodded, feeling a little better. However, she understood the hidden meaning in the second half of uncle Fu’s sentence.”Uncle Fu, do you suspect that there’s something fishy going on?”

“Miss Chu, we don’t have any evidence, but the an family ...” Li Fu’s eyes flashed with anger. “I’m afraid the an family didn’t have any good intentions in this collaboration. It’s just that I can’t find any flaws now ...”

“Are there any problems with the futures Trading records?” Mengyao asked.

“There’s no problem with those. It’s just that the futures are operated overseas, and only an Mingyue provided the specific records. I can’t find the original records.” Said uncle Fu, shaking his head.

“Don’t tell me ... I’m going to lose everything?” Chu Mengyao was surprised. She didn’t know about futures but she had seen stocks before. Even if a stock lost money, it couldn’t be that it didn’t have a single cent, right?

“What they do is to short the deposit. It’s normal to lose 100% of the money. There’s no problem with that.” “But I’m afraid that the records are fake, man-made ...” Li Fu said.

It seemed that no one was an idiot. Although the an family had done it flawlessly, and there were no loopholes in the books, uncle Fu would still be suspicious. But the an family didn’t care. So what if they were suspicious? now, it was a foregone conclusion!

“The an family ...” Mengyao wiped her tears and remembered the name.

“Miss Chu, this villa doesn’t actually belong to us anymore. It’s the an family’s property, but an Jianwen said that he’s your friend and didn’t want you to be homeless. That’s why he fought with his father and kept the villa.” “Although I don’t know if an Jianwen is involved or if he’s sincere, it’s best to avoid contact with the an family in the future,” uncle Fu said.

“I know ...” Chu Mengyao didn’t think that the villa was no longer her own. Looking at the familiar scene, she felt sad,“So, you’ve moved all of Shu’s stuff here?”

“Uncle Fu, you’re still calling me miss Chu? How am I still some rich young lady? “Just call me Yaoyao ...” Mengyao seemed a little sad after the drastic change.

“Alright, Yaoyao. I don’t have much money left, and Mr. Chu’s medical expenses are still not settled. Can you give me the pocket money in your card?” Uncle Fu didn’t bother with trifles and asked directly.

“Of course, no problem ...” Mengyao said naturally, but her face changed as soon as she finished,“No... I don’t have any money ...”

“No more?” Uncle Fu was stunned.

“We were robbed on the way ...” With that, Chu Mengyao told them about the dangerous scene on the way, and how Shu had turned the situation around in a hurry ...

“Ah, money is just a worldly possession, so what if it’s gone? but right now, without money ...” Uncle Fu naturally wouldn’t blame Chu Mengyao. In that situation, he would give her even five or ten million, let alone one million.

“How about I ask my brother and see how much money my family can fork out? I can’t say for sure, but I should be able to fork out a few hundred thousand. ” Chen Yushu’s family wasn’t rich. Her parents were both researchers, her grandfather retired at home, and her brother’s salary wasn’t much. Other than living on his own, he didn’t have much savings.

“There’s no need to ask ... House Chen and house song’s money probably all went to fatty Lai ...” Uncle Fu shook his head. He knew about the bankruptcy of miracle doctor Guan’s medical company. If fatty Lai still had money, uncle Fu would’ve gone to borrow it from him a long time ago. He wasn’t familiar with it, but with Lin Yi’s connections, there wouldn’t be a problem. The problem was that fatty Lai couldn’t even save himself!
