

Bodyguard 1941

Chapter 1941: uncle Fu

“Yeah?” Mengyao’s eyes brightened-Xiaoxiao’s request for Lin Yi to get a main wife was right, but she and Shu had to help Xiaoxiao look after her. Even without Xiaoxiao, they had to complete Tang Yun’s request and help her look after her.

In the car, Xinyan felt more and more comfortable, as if she was going to fly into the sky. Her body was covered in sweat, and she had to admit that the process of treating a cold was a pleasure-it was ten thousand times more comfortable than getting an IV!

“Alright, I’m done!” Lin Yi finished the massage. He wanted to use the silver needles, but he threw them into his bag after dealing with the two drug dealers. He didn’t bother to go back and get it since it was just a small illness like a cold and a fever. There was no difference between massage and silver needles.

“Ah? It’s already healed?” Xinyan only realized then that she’d been drenched in sweat, and her clothes were all wet. She was indeed feeling refreshed, though-the cold and dizziness she’d felt before were gone, but she didn’t want to leave-the treatment seemed to have gone a bit too quickly ...

However, Xinyan scolded herself for being shameless-could it be that she was craving the feeling of Lin Yi’s hands massaging her body?

Lin Yi was starting to get suspicious as well, seeing the change in Xinyan’s face. “Why do you look so pale? Could it be that I’m not completely cured?”

Xinyan had the urge to say, “I’m not cured, please check me again” but she wasn’t that bold. She felt that what she’d done in the past few days was already out of line, more daring than anything she’d ever done since she was a kid. If this went on, she’d become a bad girl.

“I’m fine, I’m fine. I’m just sweating a little, and I’m feeling a little hot ... I want to cool down ...” Xinyan said quickly.

“Cool? That won’t do. Stay in the car and don’t go out until your sweat is gone. Otherwise, you’re going to catch a cold again.” Lin Yi said.

“En, then you go do your work. I’ll be fine in the car.” Wang Xinyan said.

“Okay, I’ll be going then. Call me if you need anything.” Lin Yi nodded-there was no point in him staying here anymore, since Xinyan was cured.

“Thank you ...” Wang Xinyan said.

“What’s there to thank me for? we’re not comrades!” Lin Yi said with a smile.

“Yeah, we’re comrades!” Xinyan smiled as well-they were comrades, after all, so there was nothing to worry about ...

Lin Yi got out of the car and nodded to the Miss and Shu, “Alright, let’s go?”

“Okay, uncle Fu said that he’s inspecting the market in Donghai. Daddy wants to expand his business here so that not only can pengzhan industries expand, but you can also see us more often.” “Uncle Fu said that we’ll call him when we get home,” Mengyao said.

“Then let’s go back and wait for him. By the way, have you told granny sun? Tell her to prepare some food and have it at home tonight.” Lin Yi said.

“I’ve already told granny sun. I think they’ve already started preparing.” “Right, Lin Yi, why are you still wearing your military uniform?” Mengyao asked.

“Oh, I didn’t have time to wash my old clothes, so I didn’t change them.” Lin Yi said.

Mengyao nodded and didn’t say anything else. The three of them got in the car, and Lin Yi drove back to the xueshang District. As expected, he saw granny sun busy in the kitchen, and the fragrance from the kitchen made him drool.

“Granny sun is really amazing. Her cooking skills are even better than those hotel chefs!” Mengyao thought that it was a great thing to have granny sun as a housekeeper.

Lin Yi nodded. Lin Yi was confused about this as well. Granny sun was a garbage collector, but she had this skill. It was really strange, but the most important thing was that granny sun’s memory of the past was a little blurry. Lin Yi didn’t know anything about her background.

However, one thing was certain. From various signs, granny sun should have been a person with a story in the past. It was just that she didn’t know why it caused her to lose her memory. However, although she lost her memory, she didn’t lose her cooking skills. This was probably an instinct.

Of course, Lin Yi didn’t ask about granny sun’s past on purpose, nor did he try to help her recover her memories. Everyone had their own secrets and difficulties, and he didn’t want to get to the bottom of it. What if it was a memory that granny sun didn’t want to remember?

Shaking his head, Lin Yi dialed uncle Fu’s number.

“Yi, you guys went back already?” Uncle Fu’s voice came from the other end.

“Uncle Fu, we’re back. We’re in the villa in xueshang District.” “Where are you?” Lin Yi asked.

“I’ve looked at the locations of a few skyscrapers for sale and took some photos. I’m going to bring them back and discuss with Mr. Chu to see which ones are suitable for the company’s branch in Eastern Sea city.” “It’s almost done, I’ll head over now!” Uncle Fu said.

“En, you can just go to the villa area in the xueshang District. My Grand Cherokee is parked outside the villa, it’s that one.” Lin Yi said.

“Alright, I’ll go over now.” Said uncle Fu.

After hanging up the phone, granny sun came out with a plate of braised chicken with oil and placed it on the table. It was really delicious, making people drool at the sight of it.

“Mister Lin, Miss Chu, when will the guests arrive? There are also a few hot dishes, it’s better to eat them while they’re hot.” Granny sun asked.

“They’ll be here soon. They’re not really guests, they’re all family. It’s the housekeeper in Songshan, granny sun. I told you about her before.” Lin Yi said.

“Ah!” When granny sun heard that uncle Fu was here, her face turned red and she didn’t know what to do. “This ... He’s here?”

As far as she was concerned, Lin Yi was just saying it casually last time, and she’d forget about it in a few days. She didn’t expect Lin Yi to bring it up again, and she didn’t know what to do-she wasn’t ready yet!

“Hehe, it’s just a meeting. There’s no other meaning. You’re all butlers anyway, so you’ll have to get familiar with each other.” Lin Yi said.

“That’s right, granny sun. Uncle Fu is actually a very nice person.” Mengyao said.

In fact, if uncle Fu and grandma sun really got together, it would be a good thing no matter what. Not only would uncle Fu not be lonely, but grandma sun would also have a companion. Moreover, they were both on the same side, so there wouldn’t be any problems.

Chapter 1942: New neighbors

Mengyao didn’t want uncle Fu to be single with her dad. Her dad’s situation was different from uncle Fu’s. He left because of her mother, but uncle Fu’s wife and daughter were both dead ... It was a pitiful situation.

“Then ... I’ll continue to prepare.” Granny sun was too embarrassed to say anything more, so she turned around and went back into the kitchen.

Not long after, the sound of a car came from outside the yard. Lin Yi, Mengyao, and Shu guessed that it might be uncle Fu, and quickly went out to greet him, but it wasn’t uncle Fu’s car. It was a BMW X5M, parked in front of the villa next door.

“Eh? Did this house move in?” Chu Mengyao looked at the BMW X5M in surprise.

Next to Lin Yi’s Villa was an empty one. It was the same luxuriously decorated villa he bought the other day. Lin Yi only found out about it after he moved in with Chu Mengyao and Shu. However, the villa had not been sold on the day he bought it. He did not expect it to be sold so quickly.

The person in the BMW was probably the owner of this villa.

No matter what, she couldn’t just ignore her new neighbors since they were going to live together in the future. Mengyao decided to go and greet them-it was a matter of manners. As for whether they could get along in the future, that was a problem for the future.

A pretty girl and a shy boy got out of the car after the BMW’s X5M died. Lin Yi frowned. These two people were the brother and sister who wanted to rent a house that day at the housing agency!

But they actually rented a villa? But Lin Yi rejected the idea immediately-how could they just rent out a villa like this? After all, the renovation would wear and tear as the house was used. If the house was rented for a few years, the renovation money would be greatly reduced. The rent would not even be able to cover the loss of the renovation!

Therefore, the only possibility for such a villa was to sell it. These two siblings actually bought a villa? Wasn't the difference between before and after a little too big? Especially the girl-that light in her eyes when she was the agent was still fresh in Lin Yi's mind.

Lin Yi didn't know the siblings at first, so he didn't really care about the girl's eyes, but now that they were here and were neighbors, Lin Yi frowned again. Was it a coincidence or was there some other purpose?

But one thing Lin Yi was sure of was that he'd never seen these sisters before!

If it was a coincidence, the siblings were already there when he went to the agency, and Lin Yi only chose this one on the spot-there were many agencies around, and this wasn't the only one. It was too ridiculous to say that the siblings were waiting for him there.

However, if it wasn't a coincidence that they bought a villa next to their own, what did that mean? Lin Yi felt that something was off, especially when he caught a glimpse of the girl.

Of course, it might have been because he had entered the agency with two beautiful women, and they wanted to buy a villa. Perhaps it was because they saw that he had bought a villa, so they bought a villa as well.

This was a pair of rich siblings. In order to keep a low profile, they chose to rent a house. However, when they saw that some of their classmates had bought villas, they didn't care and also bought villas. This was the most reasonable explanation.

The pretty girl seemed to have noticed that someone was looking at them as she looked over to Lin Yi's side. She was a little surprised to see Lin Yi, Mengyao, and Yushu, but she nodded to them and walked over.

When she had bought the villa, the beautiful girl had only wanted to buy a villa that was closer to her. She had never thought that these two villas were actually neighbors! It was only when she moved in today that she realized that they were living next door.

"What a coincidence, I didn't expect to become neighbors." The pretty girl said generously.

"Coincidence ..." Lin Yi said faintly,""Didn't you want to rent a house that day? Why did you buy a villa?"

"I wanted to rent a house, but seeing that you guys bought a villa, I was a little tempted, so I bought a villa too." "I just didn't expect to be neighbors," the beautiful girl said.

Lin Yi saw that the girl's surprise wasn't fake and was suspicious. Could it really be a coincidence?

The beautiful girl's surprise was not fake. She was surprised that the two villas were neighbors.

"I see. Are you also students of East Ocean industry University?" Lin Yi asked.

"Yeah, my brother and I are, but after we bought the villa, something came up at home and we didn't report to work, so we took a day off and planned to report to work tomorrow." The beautiful girl said.

"Oh." Lin Yi nodded and didn't ask further.

“Hello, I’m Chu Mengyao and she’s Chen Yushu from the economics Department of Eastern Sea city University.” Mengyao had a good impression of the two after hearing that they were also students of East Ocean City Engineering University. They were from the same school, so they could get along well and visit each other when they were free.

“Ah, you are from the economics Department. What a coincidence! My brother is from the same Department!” “I’m han Jingjing, and this is my brother, han Xiaochao,” the beautiful girl said.

“I didn’t expect you to be in the same major. Han Jingjing, you’re not in the economics major?” Mengyao asked.

“No, I’m from the biology Department.” “It’s just a small major. It’s medicine. I’m afraid you’ve never heard of it,” han Jingjing said.

Lin Yi frowned. Medicine? Wasn’t this too much of a coincidence? But Lin Yi didn’t ask any more questions after making sure they weren’t practitioners. There were some things that he’d have to look at in the future, even if he suspected them.

“Medicine? It can’t be, right?” Mengyao was curious as to why a girl would apply for medicine.”Lin Yi’s a medicine major too, what a coincidence.”

“Ah? You too?” Han Jingjing looked at Lin Yi in surprise.”You also like to study medicinal herbs?”

“En ...” Lin Yi nodded.

“That’s great! Let’s spar more often in the future. I also like to study medicinal herbs!” Han Jingjing said excitedly, as if she had found a confidant.

However, a Bentley drove over before Lin Yi could say anything. It was uncle Fu’s car.

“My friend is here. Let’s keep in touch.” Lin Yi nodded to han Jingjing. After hearing the names of han Jingjing and her brother, he was even more certain that he didn’t know these two people. He’d never heard of these two names even when he was on a mission before.

“Alright, we’ll go and tidy up the villa.” As Han Jing Jing spoke, she opened the trunk of the car and took out some blankets and other daily necessities. It seemed that she had gone to buy some things. (

Chapter 1943: Uncle Fu’s wife

Lin Yi glanced at the BMW’s license plate and model-it was the latest U.S. Model this year, not on the market yet, probably imported not long ago. The license plate was the latest Donghai number, too, so it was obviously a new car. He couldn’t tell where the siblings came from.

However, to be able to afford a villa and an X5M, the siblings must be very rich.

“Yi, Yaoyao, Shu!” Uncle Fu got out of the car and smiled from the bottom of his heart when he saw the three. It’d been half a month since he’d last seen the three of them, and he’d rushed over after hearing that the training was over.

“Uncle Fu, you’ve been quite energetic lately. It seems like everything’s going well in Songshan.” Lin Yi said with a smile. Uncle Fu’s dejected look was gone, replaced by a fresh and energetic one.

“That’s right, pengzhan industries is on the right track now, and Mr. Chu has changed his business philosophy. Perhaps pengzhan industries will have a rapid growth!” “But it’s all thanks to Yi!” Uncle Fu said.

Uncle Fu saw the neighbors moving things, so he didn’t say much.

“Uncle Fu, the food and people are ready. You’re the only one left!” Mengyao said mischievously.

“Are you ready?” Uncle Fu paused, remembering what Lin Yi said before. He shook his head helplessly. “I’m already so old, and I don’t have such thoughts anymore. Thank you for your kindness. I’ve thought about it carefully, and I still can’t forget my wife, so ...”

Uncle Fu didn’t finish his sentence, but Lin Yi and the others understood what he meant. He didn’t want to remarry yet, so it was best to put this matter aside for now.

“Alright, then we’ll just treat it as normal friends. You’re the housekeeper in Songshan, and granny sun is the housekeeper in Donghai. You two will have more opportunities to interact in the future.” Lin Yi said.

“Okay, hehe, even if you didn’t mention it, I’ve long wanted to visit this Ms. Sun and thank her for taking you in!” Said uncle Fu.

As they spoke, the four of them walked into the villa. Granny sun had just placed the last hot dish on the table. When she saw that someone had come, she immediately greeted them warmly, “Mister Lin, Miss Chu, the guests are here? The meal is already prepared!”

Uncle Fu’s smile froze when he heard granny sun’s words. He raised his head in disbelief and looked at granny sun. Suddenly, he froze on the spot as if he had been struck by lightning. He looked at granny sun and was so excited that he couldn’t speak!

Time had changed her appearance. Wind and frost had aged her face, but uncle Fu recognized the person in front of him at a glance. It was the woman he had been dreaming of, his wife, sun luoxuan.

It was her? She didn’t die? She’d been in Songshan the whole time? Then why didn’t she look for him? He was a famous person in Songshan now, and although he didn’t have as much exposure as a celebrity, he’d still be seen accompanying Chu pengzhan in some of the business newspapers ...

“Uncle Fu, this is granny sun ...” Lin Yi introduced. He was about to introduce uncle Fu to granny sun when he turned around and saw uncle Fu’s stunned expression! “Uncle Fu?” Lin Yi blinked. “What’s wrong, uncle Fu?”

Granny sun was also somewhat baffled. What was wrong with this person? Why was she staring at him the moment she came in, dumbfounded? Although granny sun knew that she had dressed up these days and had some charm, she was definitely not a great beauty. How could an old woman like her move a man?

Besides, she knew who uncle Fu was—he was second only to one person in pengzhan industries, and there were tens of thousands of people in the company. With that kind of status, he could get any pretty girl he wanted, so why would he fall for her? Hence, even though granny sun had listened to Lin Yi's matchmaking, she didn't mind at all.

Since this person wasn't interested in her, then what was the meaning of this gaze? However, grandma sun knew that this person should be closer to her than Lin Yi and Mengyao, so she didn't show any dissatisfaction.

However, although grandma sun was puzzled, she also felt the deep love in uncle Fu's eyes. This made grandma sun feel very strange. Could it be that he had fallen in love with her at first sight?

"Luo Xuan, is that you ..." Uncle Fu raised his hand nervously. His voice was shaking and his breathing was rapid.

"?" Granny sun looked at uncle Fu in confusion. Luo Xuan? Who's Luo Xuan ... Huh? This name seemed a little familiar? Had he heard of it before? Granny sun shook her head again. She had no impression of it.

Uncle Fu's heart sank when he saw granny sun's suspicious eyes. Although time spared no one and the person in front of him was no longer the young and beautiful girl, uncle Fu was sure that she was his wife, sun luoxuan. This was a feeling of closeness that came from the bottom of his heart.

"I ... I'm fu Li!" This was the first time Li Fu had said his real name in so many years, but he didn't care. Everyone around him was his closest family, and no one would harm him. Lin Yi had saved his life many times.

Only now did Lin Yi know that Li Fu's real name was Fu Li. Li Fu, Fu Li-it was just a name formed from the two words reversed.

Hearing the two words "Fu Li," granny sun's face finally showed a trace of change. However, immediately after, granny sun's eyes became blank, as if she was recalling something, but also inexplicable. After a long while, she shook her head and said, "I think I knew you before ... But I don't remember anything. You ... Do you know who I am?"

Lin Yi could guess what kind of relationship this granny sun had with uncle Fu from the look on his face. He sighed-the world was a small place at the same time.

They had been in the same city for so many years, but they had never had any interactions. However, when granny sun went to Donghai with them, they had some interactions instead ... Life was a big play made up of coincidences and fate.

"You're sun luoxuan, my wife!" Uncle Fu said as he looked at granny sun anxiously.

"Ah!" Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu didn't know uncle Fu's background that well, so they didn't react as quickly as Lin Yi. It was only now that uncle Fu said this that they looked at uncle Fu and grandma sun in shock and surprise ...

Granny sun was actually uncle Fu's dead wife? But ... Grandma sun was fine, which meant that she didn't die. But looking at grandma sun, it seemed that she didn't remember anything ...

"Me? Your wife?" Granny sun's eyes widened in surprise. "My name is sun luoxuan?"

Chapter 1944: why?

Grandma sun didn't think that uncle Fu would lie to her, because these were the methods that young people used to pick up girls. At their age, wouldn't it be ridiculous to still use these methods? And with uncle Fu's status, there was no need for him to make up such a lie.

"There's no mistake!" "There's a mole under your right armpit and a 10cm long scar on your left leg ..." Li Fu nodded.

"Ah!" Although granny sun knew that uncle Fu wasn't lying, she was still shocked to hear him describe her body's characteristics! Could he be telling the truth? Was she really his wife?

Of course, she knew about the mole under her armpit, but she didn't even know where the scar on her calf came from. She didn't remember it at all, but she always wore long clothes and long pants, so it was impossible for her to expose those two places. Even Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu, who lived with her, didn't know about it, so how would uncle Fu know?

"It's really you, it's really you ..." Uncle Fu was sure of it before, but seeing granny sun's expression, he relaxed. It was her, his wife!

At that moment, uncle Fu was filled with emotions and tears. How many years had it been? how many times had he seen her in his dreams? although she was younger and more beautiful than she was now, those were all illusions. When he woke up from the dream, it was all empty. Although the grandma sun now was no longer young and beautiful, she was really in front of his eyes!

And what uncle Fu cared about wasn't her beauty, but her feelings! Even if she was disfigured, disabled, or even in a vegetative state, uncle Fu would still be by her side, forever!

"I ... I am your wife? "How come I don't remember ..." Granny sun looked at uncle Fu's excited face. He didn't seem to be faking it at all, but she had no memory of it at all. She only vaguely remembered that there seemed to be a person called Fu Li in the depths of her memory.

"Yup!" Uncle Fu nodded heavily.

"Uncle Fu, grandma sun, I think we shouldn't just stand here. Let's eat something and talk while we eat!" Lin Yi sighed. It wasn't as simple as he thought it would be-he wanted to find a partner for uncle Fu, but he found the first wife instead!

However, granny sun had lost her memory.

However, Lin Yi could clearly feel that granny sun wasn't a practitioner. According to uncle Fu, she should be a practitioner too, right?

It was wrong! Sun Jingyi was a practitioner as well, but house sun's practitioner's Arts were very special-it was a support-type practitioner's Arts, and had nothing to do with strength-one couldn't tell!

But, on sun Jingyi's body, if he looked closely, he could still feel the fluctuations of pure energy. When he was golden class, this feeling was almost non-existent, but after he became Mystic or even Earth Class, he could still find some practitioner's characteristics on sun Jingyi.

However, granny sun didn't have any of these characteristics.

Lin Yi wouldn't have believed it if uncle Fu wasn't so sure that this was his ex-wife. This was the genius from house sun who could help uncle Fu recover his pure energy and heal his wounds.

"Right, right ... Look at me, this excitement ..." Uncle Fu was a little apologetic. "Everyone hasn't eaten yet, right? Let's have something to eat and talk as we eat ..."

Naturally, uncle Fu sat with granny sun. Mengyao was filled with emotions, but Yushu was looking at them curiously. Lin Yi didn't ask the question he had in mind.

After sitting down, uncle Fu couldn't wait to put a piece of food into his mouth. After eating, he said, "Not bad, this is the taste! It's been so many years ... I've always missed this taste. Luo Xuan, I finally see you again ..."

Grandma sun could see the love and longing in uncle Fu's eyes, but she really couldn't remember anything. In her memory, she had a husband and a daughter, but she had no idea where they went ...

"Fu ... Fu Li, am I really your wife? What happened to us?" Grandma sun didn't think that uncle Fu was lying to her. Her previous identity as a scavenger aside, she wasn't worthy of uncle Fu before she became Lin Yi and Mengyao's housekeeper. Even now, she felt that there was a gap between the two.

Besides, she was a middle-aged woman now and couldn't be considered pretty at all. Uncle Fu's love came from the bottom of his heart, and he didn't have any ulterior motives. So, in her heart, grandma sun believed uncle Fu's words. While she sighed at how coincidental it was, she was also a little distressed. She couldn't remember anything ...

"We ..." Uncle Fu hesitated, not continuing. "Let's eat first. I'll tell you after we eat, so as not to ruin everyone's mood ..."

What had happened back then was a tragedy. Now, the whole family was sitting around the dining table and eating happily. Why should they talk about the sad past?

Besides, now that his wife had been found, it was better not to mention those sad things. The only regret was that he did not know what happened to his daughter. She was so young, so she had probably been killed by her enemies.

And her own master, even if he was a Sky Class master, how could the enemy let him leave? In order to protect himself, he would have been killed by the enemy's encirclement.

"Yeah, let's eat first!" Lin Yi knew about uncle Fu's background, and he knew that if he were to reveal it now, everyone wouldn't be able to have a good meal. "Uncle Fu, it's God's will for you to meet granny sun again. It's a joyous occasion. Let's have a drink or two to celebrate!"

"Alright!" Uncle Fu thought of his daughter and master, but finding a wife was already a blessing in a misfortune. It was indeed a happy thing, so he immediately nodded and agreed.

The atmosphere during the meal was very weird-uncle Fu kept putting food on granny sun's plate, but the meal was made by her. Lin Yi, Mengyao, and Yushu wanted to say something, but didn't know what to say.

This was uncle Fu and granny sun's business, so they couldn't interfere.

On the other hand, although uncle Fu looked very happy and excited, he didn't know how to tell granny sun and where to start!

Although granny sun was lucky enough to escape the massacre that year, her daughter and master were probably not spared. If he told granny sun about it, would she be very sad?

Chapter 1945: you remember?

But these things had to be said. If he didn't, uncle Fu wouldn't be able to make grandma sun believe that he was her husband. Even if grandma sun believed him and asked him about what happened back then, he couldn't hide it from her.

So uncle Fu was trying to organize his words, trying to use a tactful way to express it and reduce grandma sun's sadness.

"Uncle Fu, grandma sun, you guys must have a lot to say. How about this, you guys go talk in your room alone, I'll watch TV with Yaoyao and Shu for a while." Lin Yi suggested. The food was almost finished, and everyone didn't seem to have much of an appetite.

"Alright, alright!" Uncle Fu had wanted to talk to grandma sun alone for a long time, but he didn't know how to bring it up in front of everyone. He wasn't trying to hide it from Mengyao and the others, but there were some things he couldn't bring himself to say.

"Mr ... Mr. Fu, let's talk in my room." Grandma sun sighed. Today's events were too strange, and she couldn't accept it. However, she could tell that uncle Fu didn't seem to be lying, but she couldn't convince herself to believe him.

"Ms. Sun, you don't have to call me Mr. Fu. My name is Li Fu now. You can call me Li Fu." Uncle Fu didn't want to expose Fu Li's identity in case his enemies found out and came looking for him.

"Okay ... Mr. Lifu ..." Grandma sun was surprised. No wonder she felt that the name was familiar when Chu Mengyao transferred money to her. Lifu, Fuli, isn't it the opposite? Could it be that the name 'Fu Li' really occupied a great deal of importance in his heart?

He walked into the room with uncle Fu and sat down on the sofa, with Mengyao and Yushu sitting down as well. The TV was on, but all three of them were focused on uncle Fu—they weren't in the mood to watch TV at all.

"Yaoyao sis, do you think granny sun is really uncle Fu's wife?" Chen Yushu asked.

"It should be!" "I've never seen uncle Fu lose his composure like this before," Mengyao said. "Plus, his eyes don't look like he's faking it. There's no need for him to lie ..."

"Oh, that's weird. Why doesn't granny sun remember uncle Fu? Could it be that she has also taken the won.....Ga!" Chen Yushu suddenly realized that Chu Mengyao was looking at her with a murderous look. Chen Yushu quickly shut her mouth in fear!

She wanted to ask if granny sun had taken the herb medicine as well, but she suddenly remembered that Lin Yi was right next to her. If she said it, Lin Yi would definitely ask her about it, and it would be hard to explain. After thinking about it carefully, granny sun's situation was different from Lin Yi's. She didn't remember anything, not just uncle Fu ...

"Yeah, granny sun might have lost her memory for some reason, forgetting some things ..." Chu Mengyao quickly followed Chen Yushu's words.

"You forgot something?" Lin Yi suddenly frowned. He felt that he had forgotten something after the Qi deviation, but he didn't know what it was. It seemed to be related to Feng Xiaoxiao, or something about his first wife?

"Yaoyao, I think I forgot something too-it's about my first wife. Who's she?" Lin Yi asked.

Mengyao was about to explode-she wanted to kick Yushu into outer space! What the hell was Yushu talking about? wasn't she just waiting for Lin Yi's questions? However, she couldn't blame Shu in front of Lin Yi. Lin Yi would be even more suspicious if she did.

So Mengyao only glared at Shu before turning to Lin Yi and acting surprised, "You don't remember anything about the main wife?"

"I don't remember. What happened?" Lin Yi asked.

"It's like this ..." Chen Yushu quickly made up for her mistake and told Lin Yi Feng Xiaoxiao's idea ... He had to admit that Chen Yushu's eloquence was not bad. With her vivid description, Lin Yi actually believed her words.

"So you're saying that I didn't really like Xiaoxiao back then, so I took her in as my second wife, and she agreed to let me find a main wife?" Lin Yi thought back to the time when he first met Xiaoxiao. It wasn't a pleasant experience. This girl was always thinking about messing with him, and he did it a few times too. Then, he heard that she was sick, and got together with her ... If that was the case, then what Chen Yushu said might be true.

And with Xiaoxiao's personality, she always encouraged him to do 3p, 4p, 5p with her-Shu's words were probably true ...

In that case, he didn't actually have a first wife, but had been looking for one all this time?

If that was the case, then it should be the case, but why did he feel that it wasn't quite complete?

"Yes, yes, that's how it is!" "It's like this, actually. Yaoyao sis and I didn't know that Xiaoxiao had a terminal illness, so we tried to push her out. Then, I said that we could do 3p with you, and Xiaoxiao wasn't happy about it. She wanted you to get a wife to do 3p with us too ..."

Mengyao didn't know what to say, but she let Yushu continue. After all, Yushu's story was perfectly logical, and Mengyao didn't know how to explain it.

"And then ..." Lin Yi nodded. What Chen Yushu said seemed to be in the depths of his memory. It seemed like something like this had happened before, so Lin Yi didn't suspect anything.

But what Lin Yi didn't know was that Chen Yushu was Zhang Guan and Dai Li. She changed what happened to Tang Yun to Xiaoxiao. It was Tang Yun who found Xiaoxiao to fight against her and Yaoyao, not Xiaoxiao who wanted to find a main wife!

Yushu's twist, however, made it seem like it was true.

"And then ... And then I looked for her, but before I could find her, I made up with Xiaoxiao and became a prank team. And then it was gone ..." Yushu said.

"So that's how it is." Lin Yi nodded, "I went into Qi deviation before and forgot some things. But now that you've reminded me, I remember some things ... But I'm not too sure. At least I know what happened."

"Yeah, yeah, but Xiaoxiao told us before she left. She said that if you want to find a wife, we have to help you, and that you can't bring back just any rotten woman." Yushu started making up a story.

Chapter 1946: can't remember

"Oh, if I'm looking for it, I'll definitely let you know." Lin Yi nodded.

"Alright, let's not talk about this anymore-let's talk about uncle Fu. Right, Lin Yi, you must know about uncle Fu's background, right? What was going on? Why don't you tell me and Shu?" Mengyao was afraid that Lin Yi would start asking questions again if she continued, and quickly changed the topic back to uncle Fu.

Besides, she was curious about the story between uncle Fu and granny sun. Lin Yi was obviously an insider, and she could tell from his expression at the dinner table.

"Okay ..." Lin Yi didn't have anything to do anyway, so he started telling Mengyao and Yushu about uncle Fu's tragedy in the living room while uncle Fu was talking to granny sun ...

When Lin Yi finished, the miss's face was a little sad, and Shu didn't say anything either. It was obvious that the two were affected by uncle Fu's tragedy. Lin Yi didn't interrupt them. When he heard uncle Fu's words, he was also sad and emotional.

After a while, Mengyao spoke up. "I knew that uncle Fu had a sad past, but I didn't expect it to be this tragic ..."

"Yeah, I didn't think that uncle Fu's daughter ... And his master ..." Chen Yushu also revealed her original personality, "Fortunately, he found granny sun. This is a blessing in disguise."

"Yeah, I hope they can spend the rest of their lives together ..." Mengyao nodded.

"I just don't know how granny sun lost her memory and whether she can recover her memory." Chen Yushu replied.

Mengyao was so angry that she almost kicked Yushu to death on her toot chest. Why was she talking about memory loss again?

"Lin Yi, you're an expert in medicine, do you have any ideas?" Mengyao changed the topic to Lin Yi's medical skills, not giving him the chance to connect the dots.

"I ... I'll try." Lin Yi wasn't sure-he'd check it out first.

Not long after Lin Yi finished, uncle Fu and granny sun pushed the door open and walked out. Lin Yi saw that uncle Fu's face was full of relief, but also a little troubled. On the other hand, granny sun's face seemed to be sad, as if she was lost ...

"Uncle Fu, how's it going?" Mengyao asked.

"I told her everything ... But she can't remember anything ..." Uncle Fu smiled bitterly.

"I can't be sure ... I'm not Mr. Li Fu's wife because I really don't remember ..." Granny sun said with some pain, "I can't remember. I don't have any memory at all, but I know that you wouldn't lie to me ..."

"Right, uncle Fu, did you and granny sun not have a marriage certificate when you got married?" Lin Yi suddenly asked. This was probably the most important piece of evidence. Although these martial artists didn't care much about the rules of the secular world, it could still be a formality.

"Yes, but when the sect was exterminated, they didn't even have time to save their lives. How could they have the opportunity to take those things out?" "Mr. Chu helped me re-register my identity as Li Fu," Li Fu smiled bitterly.

"Hmm ... But there should be a record at the Civil Affairs Bureau, right? Won't we know when we check it out?" "If it's registered in another province, and it's inconvenient to check, I can ask huaijun or Lingshan to do it. It'll be easier for them." Lin Yi said.

"Yeah!" Uncle Fu's eyes lit up. "Luo Xuan, when we got married, we took a photo too. There must be a record. We'll find out when we check it."

"En ..." Grandma sun believed uncle Fu's words, but if there was evidence, she didn't mind confirming it.

Lin Yi didn't waste any time-he called huaijun and told him about the whole thing, and huaijun immediately agreed. To him, investigating a marriage registration was a piece of cake.

It wasn't long before huaijun sent an email to Lin Yi's phone. It was the marriage file between Fu Li and sun Luo Fei. Lin Yi had to admit that huaijun was very efficient. It was after work hours, but huaijun got the file in a short time.

Lin Yi handed the phone to uncle Fu and granny sun. "It's here. Now, granny sun, can you believe me?"

"Ah ... It really is like this!" Grandma sun looked at the file on her phone, a complicated expression on her face. After all, what uncle Fu had said was very sad, but she didn't have many memories. Now that her identity was confirmed, grandma sun felt as if her heart had been emptied. Although she found her husband, her daughter and her husband's master were probably gone. This contrast between joy and sadness made her fall into silence again.

"Granny sun, the dead is already long gone, and it's been so long since it happened, so don't think about it anymore. Now that we've found uncle Fu again, isn't that a blessing in disguise? If it wasn't for the coincidences, I'm afraid we wouldn't be able to see each other for the rest of our lives." Lin Yi said.

"En ..." Granny sun nodded and sighed. Her mood was a little better. "So ... I used to be a cultivator too, and I was from the sun family?"

"Naturally!" Uncle Fu nodded.

“But now I ...” Granny sun’s eyes were filled with confusion again. The feeling of not remembering anything was very depressing. She tried her best to recall the past. If she could, then there were some things that uncle Fu didn’t know, but she might know. It was about the whereabouts of her daughter and master!

If she didn’t know these things, it would be fine. But now that she knew, granny sun was naturally very eager to know the answer!

She furrowed her brows as if she was trying hard to recall something, but to no avail. “No, I still can’t remember ... I can’t remember anything. I have some vague impressions, but I don’t know what they are ...”

“Granny sun, are you trying to recall?” Lin Yi asked.

“Yes, if I can remember what happened in the past, I might have some clues about my daughter and master’s situation. I might also know a little about my enemy ...” Granny sun nodded and said.

“Granny sun, let me help you check.” Lin Yi didn’t know what granny sun wanted, and while he wanted to help, he wouldn’t interfere if she didn’t want to remember the tragic past.

That was because it was not a happy thing for anyone. It would only make people more depressed and sad.

But it was clear that granny sun wanted to remember what happened back then and find some clues, so Lin Yi naturally had to find a way to help her. (To be continued.)

Chapter 1947: The reason for her amnesia (part one)

“Right, Yi, you’re a miracle doctor!” Li Fu was happy to hear that Lin Yi wanted to help.

“That’s right, Mr. Lin is a miracle doctor. I had a stroke and rheumatism in my legs, but he cured them in a short time!” Granny sun recalled that Lin Yi was the one who cured her back then, and she was filled with confidence.

“Hehe ... I’ll have to do a check first to see if I can be cured. I’ll try my best!” When Lin Yi cured granny sun’s facial distortion and leg, he didn’t check her other physical conditions. After all, time was limited and Lin Yi’s goal was to cure granny sun’s facial distortion and leg before framing Zhen Yingjun.

“Alright, how do you need me to cooperate?” Granny sun quickly asked.

“Granny sun, just sit on the sofa and stretch out your hands. I’ll take your pulse.” Lin Yi could use his pure Qi to check other people’s body condition, so he didn’t need granny sun to do anything. “You just need to relax.”

“Alright!” Granny sun nodded and sat down beside Lin Yi, stretching out her hands.

Lin Yi grabbed onto granny sun’s meridians and started using his pure energy to check her condition, but his pure energy was blocked the moment he started channeling! Lin Yi noticed that most of granny sun’s meridians were destroyed, and the rest were blocked by blood clots. It wasn’t as serious as huaijun’s, with her heart damaged and in danger, but it was impossible for her to become a practitioner and train her Qi. This situation was very similar to uncle Fu’s!

Uncle Fu's meridians were also damaged to the point that he couldn't cultivate internal arts. Granny sun was obviously the same.

In that case, granny sun's crooked mouth and eyes and limping legs should not be caused by stroke or rheumatism, but caused by blocked meridians. Although both were blocked meridians and the treatment methods were similar, the causes of formation were completely different.

Lin Yi didn't take a close look at her back then, so he only treated her leg and mouth, thinking that it was a stroke. But now it seemed like that wasn't the case.

But this wasn't a problem for Lin Yi. He turned to uncle Fu, "Uncle Fu, I left my silver needles in my school bag. Go find a pharmacy and buy me another box."

Lin Yi could use his pure Qi to repair the broken meridians, but the blood clots that had accumulated over the years had to be removed with silver needles. The blood clots were already dead and couldn't be reattached with pure Qi.

"Alright, I'll go now!" Li Fu quickly stood up and ran out of the villa to buy silver needles.

Lin Yi, on the other hand, started using his pure Qi to repair granny sun's damaged meridians.

Lin Yi was very familiar with repairing meridians. Granny sun didn't know how Lin Yi treated her, but she felt a warm and comfortable feeling all over her body, as if she was rejuvenated!

Even Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu noticed the change in grandma sun. Her face was changing at a speed that could be seen with the naked eye. The wrinkles from before were gone, replaced by a smooth and shiny surface. Grandma sun looked like she had become a few years younger in just a short time!

Lin Yi wasn't surprised by the change-granny sun's blocked meridians had a serious impact on her metabolism, and it was normal for her to look radiant after they were repaired. It was just like how uncle Fu looked a few years younger after he fixed his meridians.

Helping granny sun recover her meridians didn't increase her strength, so Lin Yi did it quite skillfully and quickly. Now that he'd trained the art of Dragon mastery's second stage, the first stage was a piece of cake to him. The speed of circulation was also much faster than before, so it didn't take long for granny sun's injured meridians to be repaired.

Of course, Lin Yi hadn't touched granny sun's head yet. As far as he was concerned, since she'd lost her memory, she'd probably suffered different degrees of damage to her head. The head was one of the most complicated parts of the human body, so Lin Yi had to wait until uncle Fu bought the needles before he went to check and treat her.

Soon, uncle Fu came back. He didn't drive, he ran all the way on foot. The pharmacy wasn't far from the neighborhood, but it was two kilometers from the villa area. Plus, uncle Fu wasn't familiar with the road, so he must've been running all the way and was very concerned about grandma sun's condition.

Seeing uncle Fu's head full of sweat, granny sun's heart was filled with warmth. This man seemed to love her to the extreme. Otherwise, he was a cultivator. No matter how fast he ran, he wouldn't be sweating so much. This sweat was clearly from anxiety.

“Yi, there aren’t any silver needles. These are just normal silver-plated needles. What do you think?” Uncle Fu took out a set of silver needles and placed them on the table in front of Lin Yi. “If it’s not possible, I’ll drive to the big pharmacy to buy more.”

There weren’t many people buying acupuncture items like this these days. Silver needles were very expensive, and most pharmacies wouldn’t buy them. Having these silver-plated needles was already good enough, but to Lin Yi, it was just a tool. The key was still the use of pure Qi, so the material didn’t matter.

“Sure, I’ll take this.” Lin Yi nodded and took out a few silver needles from the box. He looked like he was inserting them into granny sun’s body casually, but everyone knew that it wasn’t just a casual action. Lin Yi’s technique was too brilliant, and it had reached a level where it was as smooth as water.

As his strength increased, he didn’t feel as tired as before when he used needles. He’d feel tired after treating Zhenhu, but that feeling was gone now.

“Granny sun, don’t think about anything else now. I’ll help you check the injury on your head!” Lin Yi said.

“Alright,” he said. Granny sun quickly closed her eyes, not daring to think about anything else.

Lin Yi, on the other hand, used his pure Qi to carefully examine the condition of granny sun’s head, but as he went deeper, he let out a surprised cry, “Eh?”

Hearing Lin Yi’s cry, uncle Fu’s face changed slightly, but he didn’t dare to ask. He didn’t know what was wrong with Lin Yi, so he could only stand guard at the side, waiting for Lin Yi’s orders!

Granny sun’s head condition made Lin Yi feel very strange. It could be said that granny sun’s head wasn’t injured, unlike what Lin Yi thought. There were blood clots pressing down on her nerves or blocking her meridians, causing her to lose her memory!

Chapter 1948: The reason for amnesia (part two)

Instead, on granny sun’s head, there was a strange true energy that was wrapped around a part of granny sun’s brain!

This was the first time Lin Yi had seen something like this-could it be that the Qi was affecting granny sun’s memory?

However, under Lin Yi’s inspection, although the Qi was strange, it didn’t seem to have any evil intentions. It didn’t seem like a master’s trap, but like it was naturally formed. It was very harmonious in granny sun’s head, without any rejection at all.

However, he didn’t dare to touch it before he was sure. After all, it was quite difficult for him to force out the fire poison Qi back then. It was difficult to force out the Qi from granny sun’s head with the same method, and the Qi wasn’t in Lin Yi’s body but in granny sun’s body, which could lead to unexpected danger.

“Granny sun, there’s a ball of true energy in your head. It seems that it’s this ball of true energy that’s wrapping up a part of your memory. However, this situation is very strange. This is the first time I’ve seen it, so I'll have to think about it and do some research to verify it." "I'll get rid of the clotted blood in your body today!" Lin Yi said.

"Alright!" Granny sun agreed without even thinking.

On the other hand, uncle Fu's face paled. He knew Lin Yi's methods, and if Lin Yi said it was difficult, then it must be very difficult. Uncle Fu didn't say anything, only hoping that Lin Yi could find a better way.

Clearing the blood clots in granny sun's meridians was a lot easier, and Lin Yi started pouring pure Qi into each needle after he was done, shattering the blood clots in granny sun's meridians so that the blood could flow out through the silver needles ...

Sure enough, after half an hour, every silver needle on granny sun's body was wrapped in a layer of black substance, which was obviously the poison in her body ...

Even Uncle Fu and granny sun, who knew that Lin Yi was a miracle doctor, were surprised by the situation.

"Detoxing with silver needles! Shield bro's amazing!" Chen Yushu looked at the dirt on the needles curiously, "Shield bro, do I have some kind of poison in my body too? like fire poison? why don't you try helping me get rid of it?"

"Shu, stop it, don't disturb Lin Yi!" Mengyao didn't want Yushu to disturb Lin Yi.

"It's fine, it's already over!" Lin Yi's hand twisted around the last needle for a bit before letting go. He smiled at Shu, "If you're not sick, why are you removing it?"

"Oh, I'm just taking precautions! Shield bro, can you help me check again? you can take off my clothes!" Chen Yushu blinked.

Chu Mengyao was speechless. This Huang Wenshu, if you want to take off your clothes for Lin Yi to see, just do it, why come up with so many excuses? A physical examination?

"You don't have to take off your clothes. Show me your hand." Lin Yi had no choice.

"Alright, alright!" Yushu said as she extended her hand.

Lin Yi checked Yushu's pulse and shook his head, "Shu, you're very healthy, you're not sick at all!"

"I see, there's no need to detoxify ..." Yushu said, disappointed.

"Ha ... No need." After Lin Yi finished examining Yushu, he turned to look at the needles on granny sun's body. He quickly put them away when he felt that they were almost there, "Granny sun, you can take a bath now. Your body should be covered in dirt."

"Ah, okay!" Granny sun also felt that her body was sticky and uncomfortable, so she quickly nodded.

"I'll give you a bath ..." Uncle Fu said subconsciously.

"Well ..." Grandma sun blushed. Although she already knew that uncle Fu was her husband, she still couldn't accept it.

“Ah, I’m sorry, I didn’t mean anything else ...” Uncle Fu realized that he was being a little too impatient, and his face reddened. He really did want to help, and he didn’t have any other thoughts ...

Grandma sun didn’t say anything and quickly went back to her room to take a bath ...

“Thank you so much, Yi!” Uncle Fu sincerely expressed his gratitude.

“Uncle Fu, we’re a family, but ... I still don’t know what’s going on with the Qi in granny sun’s head. I’ll call and ask when I get back to my room ...” Lin Yi was actually going to ask elder Jiao about it, but he couldn’t just expose this secret like that. He couldn’t just sit on the sofa for a while without making a call and get the answer, right?

“Alright, go and ask!” Said uncle Fu quickly, but then he felt that he was in too much of a rush and felt embarrassed. “I’m a little too anxious ...”

After returning to his room, Lin Yi didn’t waste any more time and entered the Jade space. He turned to elder Jiao, “Elder Jiao, I encountered a strange phenomenon today ...”

With that, Lin Yi explained granny sun’s situation to elder Jiao.

“Oh? His mind was wrapped in true energy, but this true energy did not have any malicious intent? And she lost her memory?” Elder Jiao mumbled to himself after hearing Lin Yi’s words, “I’ve never seen your situation before, but I can make a rough guess.”

“What guess?” Lin Yi quickly asked.

“As you said, she was a cultivator before she was injured and lost her memory. So, it’s very likely that the spiritual energy was produced by her.” Elder Jiao said.

“Self-generated? What was the meaning of this? Does that mean granny sun made herself lose her memory?” Lin Yi asked, confused.

“You can say that.” “It’s a practitioner’s instinct,” elder Jiao said.” Under certain circumstances, they’ll activate their body’s potential and use pure Qi to wrap up the memories in their minds. ”

“Using true Qi to wrap memories? Why are you doing this?” Lin Yi was even more confused.

“There are two possibilities. The first is that when she encountered some kind of danger that might endanger her life, she had a memory that she couldn’t bear to part with before she died. This memory will be wrapped by the Zhen Qi stimulated by the body’s potential. The so-called magical reincarnation with memories is like this. In my memory, a friend of mine who is a genius scientist once did research on reincarnation. This situation doesn’t necessarily mean that it’s a cultivator or an ordinary person. It’s also possible to stimulate one’s potential and wrap the precious memory in the stimulated true Qi. After death, this set of memory cores wrapped in the true Qi will exist in the form of free electric waves ...”

Chapter 1949: pensive

“If someone’s brainwave vibration frequency is similar to the vibration frequency of this memory, then this set of brainwaves may attach to the person. This is also when some people suddenly find that they have mastered a lot of knowledge that they didn't know before, or the brainwaves of this memory are so strong that they replace the original owner's thoughts. This is the legendary possession ... Of course, this set of brainwaves may also travel back in time and space or to another world." This is the so-called reincarnation and transmigration ..." Elder Jiao said.

"Um ... Elder Jiao, I don't want to transmigrate or be reborn yet, can you tell me about the second possibility?" Lin Yi smiled bitterly. There really were scientists who wanted to research reincarnation? This scientist must be an amazing person!

"Haha, I'm just saying. It's impossible for you to transmigrate and be reborn. Do you think it's that easy? Even my scientist friend hasn't been able to find a specific method." Elder Jiao shook his head. "The second possibility I'm talking about is that her family was destroyed. It was a bitter past, and she couldn't believe what was happening in front of her. She didn't want to believe it, so her pure Qi wrapped up this sad memory, causing her to lose her memory. Obviously, this is the possibility." "It's quite common," elder Jiao said, "it's not just her, other people have the same situation. It's called memory seal, it's when you're forcing yourself to forget a certain part of your memory ..."

"So, that is to say, the true energy in granny sun's mind was produced by herself?" Lin Yi asked.

"I can't be sure about that, but since your art of Dragon mastery can transform into all-powerful Qi, you just need to let her produce a little bit of Qi and compare it with the Qi in her head, won't you know?" Elder Jiao said.

"This ... The key is that she lost her memory. She doesn't remember that she can cultivate. Although her meridians have been repaired, she doesn't remember the mantra. I can't help her recover her strength even if I want to." Lin Yi said with a bitter smile.

"I see. Then I can't do anything about it. You can ask Li Fu if he has it, or if anyone else knows about it." Elder Jiao shook his head helplessly.

"Alright, I'll go and ask!" Lin Yi nodded and left the Jade space, quickly making his way back to the living room.

"Yi, how's it going?" Uncle Fu's heart dropped at the sight of Lin Yi coming out so quickly. Was there no news?

"I've asked around, it's probably like that ..." Lin Yi told uncle Fu about the second possibility. It seemed like it was more likely.

"Oh? In other words, Luo Xuan sealed her own memory?" "Then, as long as we get rid of the Qi in her head, she'll be able to regain her memories, right?" uncle Fu asked, pleasantly surprised.

"In theory, yes, but we can't be sure if the Qi in granny sun's head was generated by herself. It doesn't look like she has any bad intentions, but there's always a 'what if'. If something goes wrong while driving the Qi away, the consequences would be unimaginable ..." Lin Yi smiled bitterly. If there was really something wrong with the Qi, it could even explode. If granny sun's head exploded, Lin Yi wouldn't be able to do anything even if Liju reincarnated.

"This ... How do we confirm this?" Uncle Fu asked worriedly, startled.

“This ... Granny sun’s previous cultivation method, do you have it? If there is, we can try to let her cultivate again. If the true Qi She cultivates is the same as the one in her head, I can be sure. We can try to guide her to expel it, or wait until she reaches a certain level and she can refine the true Qi on her own!” Lin Yi said.

“Cultivating ...” Uncle Fu smiled bitterly and helplessly said, “I did, but I didn’t bring it with me when I left. Besides, the sun family’s cultivation method can’t be practiced by ordinary people, so I didn’t deliberately memorize it ...”

“The sun family? In other words, the People of the Sun family and granny sun are cultivating the same heart technique?” Lin Yi’s eyes lit up.

“Yes, you’re saying ...” Uncle Fu guessed what Lin Yi meant.

“Sun Jingyi ...” Lin Yi nodded, “She’s also cultivating the sun family’s heart technique, I’ll just ask her for the heart technique’s incantation to take a look ... Oh, there’s no need to go through so much trouble, I’ll just directly check what her true Qi looks like!”

“This is great!” Uncle Fu was overjoyed when he heard that they had found a way. However, his face suddenly tensed up. “Oh right, Yi, don’t tell the sun family that you found sun luoxuan ...”

“Oh?” Lin Yi blinked, but quickly understood what uncle Fu was worried about. “Uncle Fu, you’re afraid that your enemies will get the news and come to you?”

“Not bad!” Uncle Fu nodded. “There are some things we have to be careful of. Although the sun family probably won’t harm Luo Xuan, if the news gets out, then the loss will outweigh the gain.”

“Alright, I won’t say it.” Lin Yi said.

While they were talking, granny sun had already finished her bath and walked out of her room. However, at this moment, granny sun’s skin, temperament, and appearance had all undergone qualitative changes!

Grandma sun’s skin was even fairer and shinier, and the wrinkles on her face were gone. If she used to be an old woman, she was now a beautiful young woman. This change made uncle Fu both surprised and happy!

Although he wouldn’t mind no matter what granny sun became, who didn’t want their wife to be more beautiful? Uncle Fu knew that this was all Lin Yi’s credit. Granny sun was a practitioner before, so it was normal for her to look a few years younger after her meridians were cleared.

“It’s so magical!” “I didn’t think that grandma sun would be a beauty as well! I can’t call you grandma sun anymore, I’ll call you Auntie sun!” Yushu said, surprised.

Grandma sun had obviously noticed the change in her as well, surprised and overjoyed at the same time. Although uncle Fu had expressed his love for her, she felt that she was too old compared to him, but after Lin Yi treated her, her body changed completely!

“You can call me whatever you want. I’m already used to it.” “I didn’t expect Mr. Lin to be so powerful,” granny sun said with a smile.

“Lin Yi, can a practitioner not age?” Mengyao asked, deep in thought. (To be continued.)

Chapter 1950: speechless

“That’s right, golden class Masters can extend their lives, Mystic class Masters can slow down aging, Earth Class Masters can slow it down, and Sky Class Masters can keep their faces forever!” “The face won’t change the moment you break through to Sky Class ...” Lin Yi said.

“What about after heaven rank?” Chen Yushu suddenly asked.

“I don’t know about that ...” Lin Yi shook his head.

Mengyao nodded, deep in thought. So, Tang Yun and Xiaoxiao wouldn’t age? Chu Mengyao looked at Lin Yi and suddenly had the urge to become a practitioner. She wanted to become a Sky Class master!

However, she also knew that some things could only be encountered but not asked for. It was not something that she could cultivate just because she wanted to. Otherwise, everyone would be a cultivator.

“Let’s call it a day-I’ll contact sun Jingyi tomorrow and check on her Qi, and then check on grandma sun’s Qi. ” “Uncle Fu, it’s getting late, you and granny sun should get some rest ...” Lin Yi said.

Mengyao and Yushu went upstairs as well, and Lin Yi returned to his room, leaving uncle Fu and granny sun in the living room.

“I ... I’ll stay in the guest room ...” Uncle Fu said, feeling a little awkward.

“There’s no need. Since we’re really husband and wife, let’s live together. You can also tell me about the past ...” Grandma sun hesitated and said a little shyly.

“En, en!” Uncle Fu wasn’t in a hurry to do anything, but he was extremely excited at granny sun’s acceptance and quickly nodded in agreement.

Seeing uncle Fu acting like a child, grandma sun shook her head helplessly, her heart warming up at the same time ...

Uncle Fu and grandma sun woke up early the next morning, a faint smile on their faces. Although grandma sun hadn’t recovered her memory yet, it was clear that she had accepted uncle Fu.

The two of them were busy preparing breakfast in the kitchen, and Lin Yi, Mengyao, and Yushu were all smiling at them.

“Uncle Fu’s so happy, it’s the first time I’ve seen him this happy!” In Yushu’s memory, uncle Fu was a serious person-even when they were living in the villa, he’d always prepare breakfast for them, but he’d always had a serious look on his face. He’d never had a smile like this before ...

“Uncle Fu found a wife, but where’s my mother?” Mengyao’s eyes, on the other hand, were filled with confusion and loss.

“Yaoyao, don’t you think uncle Chu knows what happened to your mother?” Lin Yi asked.

“Daddy ... He knows, but he won’t tell me ... He said that I’m still young, and it’s better not to know some things ...” Chu Mengyao shook her head.

Lin Yi blinked—was there something else? But since Chu pengzhan didn’t want to talk about it, he couldn’t say anything. Everyone had their own secrets, and maybe something unexpected happened back then.

After breakfast, Lin Yi, Mengyao, and Yushu left the villa and were about to drive to school when the siblings from the villa next door came out as well.

“What a coincidence, you guys are going to school too?” Han Jing Jing greeted.

“En, you guys are going too?” Lin Yi nodded. He didn’t really like people he wasn’t familiar with, especially when he was suspicious of han Jingjing’s background.

“Is that so? How about us two, brother and sister, hitch a ride with you?” “My brother and I still don’t know where the economics and biology faculty buildings are,” han Jingjing suddenly said. “It just so happens that you guys are from these two faculties ...”

“Alright, let’s go together!” Mengyao agreed before Lin Yi could even reply. As far as she was concerned, they were neighbors, classmates, and even majors. She would help if she could, it was no big deal.

Lin Yi didn’t want to be too close to them and wanted them to drive behind, but the Miss had already agreed, so he couldn’t say anything.

“Thank you so much!” Han Jingjing and her brother got into the car and sat in the back with Chu Mengyao, while Chen Yushu sat in the front passenger seat.

Lin Yi started the car and drove to the school. It wasn’t far from here, and he reached the school in no time.

After getting off the car, Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu took han Jingjing’s Brother Han Xiaochao to the economics Department, leaving Lin Yi and han Jingjing alone. Lin Yi locked the car and walked to the biology Department without saying a word.

“Wait for me!” Han Jing Jing saw that Lin Yi was walking very quickly and ran two steps before catching up, “Can you introduce me to a pharmacy?”

“There’s nothing to introduce. Don’t you know the major you applied for?” Lin Yi said faintly.

“...” Han Jingjing pouted her lips pitifully and said pitifully, “It’s just a hobby of mine, but what rules do I have? I don’t even know how many people are in my class ...”

“Oh, there are student rules in the teaching materials. You’ll know the rules after you take a look. As for how many people are in the class, you’ll know after counting them.” Lin Yi said.

“...” Han Jingjing didn’t think that Lin Yi would be so perfunctory with her. She pouted and followed behind Lin Yi unhappily.

Lin Yi was a little surprised to see the sad look on Jingjing's face. Could it really be a coincidence? Because looking at han Jingjing's appearance, this kind of girl who was both happy and angry should not be too scheming. Was he overthinking it?

But not long after, he heard Han Jing Jing mumbling, "Ignore me? who told you to ignore me? I'll kick you to death! I'll kick ... I'll kick ... Ah, Yingluo!"

Lin Yi was sweating at first-wasn't this girl's temper a little too bad? If he ignored her, she'd kick him to death. Lin Yi didn't even manage to hear a few sentences before he heard a scream. He turned around and saw that han Jingjing had kicked a wooden stake. He didn't expect the wooden stake to be so strong, and han Jingjing lost her balance and fell over, her head hitting the ground with a loud "Dong ..."

Lin Yi's eyes widened in shock. This girl ... Wasn't she too strong? Kicking a wooden stake and you can even fall backward?

"Are you okay?" Lin Yi walked over helplessly, only to see han Jingjing biting her lip, tears welling up in her eyes as if they were about to flow out. Her hand was at the back of her head, looking as pitiful as she could be.

"I ... I don't need you to care about me even if I die ... Wuwu ..." Han Jingjing suddenly started crying, making Lin Yi speechless. Did she change her attitude just like that? Just now, he wanted to kick him to death, and now he didn't need to care?
