

Bodyguard 1971

Chapter 1971: family crisis

The Hidden House you could be said to be a medical Noble House, and the fact that a child of house you was able to focus on boss Bai's class-especially someone like you Panhu, who had his eyes on the top of his head-made Lin Yi feel that boss Bai was no ordinary person.

In a small town near Donghai city, in a luxurious Manor, the two brothers were sitting in front of the computer desk in the study room, playing the video over and over again ...

These two brothers were the two people Lin Yi met on his way to Song Jiang city in a Ferrari.

"Brother, still no news? It's so slow to check the owner of a license plate. Ninth uncle Han's information channels aren't that good either!" The person who had spoken was the younger brother in the Ferrari, han Xiaoling, while the driver of the Ferrari was the older brother, han xiaopo.

"Ninth uncle han has always been in charge of hiding the Han family's information channels. The fact that we haven't heard anything from him yet doesn't mean that his channels are bad, but that the car owner is not an ordinary person!" Han xiaopo was one of the heirs of the hidden han family's current generation. She saw things more clearly and found the problem with one look.

"Ah, brother, if the car owner isn't an ordinary person, would he still help us participate in the race?" Han Xiaoling asked, a little worried.

"I don't know, but we'll have to see which side he's from first. If he's not from a hidden house, then as long as we offer him enough benefits and sincerity, there shouldn't be a problem." Han xiaopo said.

"Oh ..." Han Xiaoling was han xiaopo's brother, so he was very close to han xiaopo in the hidden han family.

Hidden house han-it was a hidden house that kept a low profile, and they'd only made a name for themselves in the last ten years. The Head of House han was a solo practitioner, only at the early phase of Mystic class, but fifteen years ago, he found an ancient ruin and found a golden pill there. After consuming it, his strength skyrocketed from Mystic to Earth Class, and with all the treasures he'd found there, the old man of house han, a solo practitioner, was no match for the Hidden House han. He had successfully become a member of the Hidden House.

However, the Hidden House Han's Foundation was still too shallow. Other than the earth Class old man, the second generation of the house were at most Mystic class, while the third generation were pitifully golden class.

If it wasn't for the ancient treasure, and the fact that the Hidden House Committee had just been formed, allowing house han to become a member of the Hidden House ...

However, old man han understood that his family's Foundation was too shallow. If an old hidden house got the treasure from the ancient ruins, not only would they not have to worry, they could even become an ancient house!

Even if they didn't have a Sky Class, they did have an Earth Class late phase peak. According to the agreement between the ancient sects and houses, Sky Class Masters weren't allowed to fight at will, so Earth Class late phase peak was pretty much safe.

But the Han family was different-they'd kept a low profile all these years, not participating in the Ice Palace test or the elder Council of the Hidden House Council. All they had to do was rest and build up their strength-once they had an Earth Class late phase peak or even a Sky Class, that would be the day they'd soar!

Of course, with the restrictions of the Hidden House Council, no other Noble House had done anything to house han all these years, but recently, old man han heard some bad news-the great elder of the Council was missing!

As for the hidden houses, they were starting to get restless as well. Although they didn't have any intention of making a move on the Hidden House han yet, they were already making some weird suggestions and requests! And that was to hold a few competitions at the Hidden House Summit!

The competition was also different. There were martial arts competitions, arts competitions, resistance competitions, strength competitions, and even car competitions! In every match, every hidden house would take out a treasure as a bet. Anyone with eyes could tell that this match was for the weak han family!

The Hidden House han was simply too weak, to the point where they couldn't even win a single match. However, these matches were all wide-ranged and seemed fair, so even if the Hidden House han knew that the other noble houses couldn't sit still and wanted to steal their treasures, they couldn't refuse!

If they refused to attend the Hidden House Summit, it was the same as giving up their rights as a hidden house. Without the protection of the Hidden House title, even the Hidden House Committee wouldn't care about their life and death anymore. At that time, these hidden houses would definitely make their move on the Hidden House han one by one!

However, this was a dead end. Even if they knew that there would be losses, they would definitely have to fork out some good treasures.

However, under such circumstances, the hidden han family could only pinch their nose and accept it. Who asked their own strength to be so weak?

Seeing Lin Yi's driving skills by chance, han xiaopo decided to try it as a last resort. If they could win one match, even if it was just one, it would bring pride to the Han family. It was better than losing all the other matches, even if the Han family had to pay a certain price.

After all, this was a matter of the hidden han family's face.

As she spoke, han xiaopo's cell phone rang. Seeing the familiar name on the screen, han xiaopo's heart relaxed slightly. Finally, there was news!

"Ninth uncle." Han xiaopo picked up the phone respectfully. Although uncle han was not an immediate family member of the Han family, he was a little follower of her grandfather. The ancient ruins were discovered by her grandfather and him together. However, uncle han was about the same age as han xiaopo's father, so they were of the uncle generation.

“Young master Po, we’ve found out who the car belongs to, but we can’t get the owner’s information.” Ninth uncle han said.

“What? No information on the owner?” Han xiaopo was slightly stunned.

“The car belongs to the supernatural Investigation Bureau. Our information channels can’t find out a secret of this level. If we go to ask for help, let’s not talk about whether we can find someone who knows the supernatural Investigation Bureau. Even if they know them, they may not be able to find out.” Ninth uncle han said.

“Supernatural Investigation Bureau ... No wonder. I heard that there are many capable people there.” Han xiaopo suddenly understood. Although the cultivators from the supernatural Investigation Bureau were not as powerful as the hidden houses, they were far better than the hidden houses in other aspects, because there were many talents in all aspects.

Not to mention his excellent driving skills, even doing stunts with an airplane was easy.

Chapter 1972: -argument

“However, according to the information from our people, after checking the surveillance routes of the nearby highways, we can see that the car was last driving in the direction of Eastern Sea city.”

“According to our spies in Donghai city, the car is currently parked in Donghai city industry University ...” Uncle han said.

“Argh! Ninth uncle, you really scared me to death. I thought I couldn’t find anything, but you’ve already found it!” When han xiaopo heard what ninth uncle han said, she immediately became very happy.

“Young master Po, I’m only pointing out this person’s background when I said those words.” Ninth uncle Han’s voice was still calm.

Han xiaopo was stunned for a moment, but then immediately understood what ninth uncle han meant. If ninth uncle han had not been so detailed and had directly told him where that person was, he would have gone to find him. If he had been a little slow, the matter would definitely have been impossible to discuss!

Thinking of this, han xiaopo couldn’t help but feel grateful.

“According to the registration at the school’s security Office, the owner of the car is a student of East Ocean industry University ... The rest is still under investigation.” Uncle han paused for a moment, as if he also thought that it was strange that the person from the supernatural Investigation Bureau was a student.

“A student?” “How can a student be from the supernatural Investigation Bureau?” han xiaopo was stunned.

“I’m not sure yet, but I’ve already reported this to the family head. Perhaps the family head will be holding a family meeting soon, so young master Po, please be prepared.” Ninth uncle han said.

“Thank you, ninth uncle!” After han xiaopo heard ninth uncle Han’s words, she couldn’t help but feel very touched!

The family meeting was a good opportunity to show his face in public. As long as he could put forward reasonable development suggestions at the family meeting, he would be highly regarded by his grandfather. Although the heir to the young family head had not been decided yet, ninth uncle han obviously thought highly of him.

In his generation, the only one who had a chance of competing with him was second uncle’s child, han Xiaochun. However, although han Xiaochun was capable, he was narrow-minded and always went against him. Ninth uncle han did not like his personality.

As expected, half an hour later, han xiaopo received a notice from his family’s disciples to hold a family meeting in the meeting hall!

In han xiaopo’s generation, only he and han Xiaochun were qualified to attend the family meeting. Both of them had been trained to be the heirs of the family.

Han xiaopo quickly arrived at the meeting room, but han Xiaochun had arrived first. Old master han, the second generation of the Han family, and ninth uncle han were all present. Han xiaopo was the last to arrive!

It seemed that the person who informed the disciples of the meeting was probably someone from han Xiaochun’s side, who deliberately wanted han xiaopo to make a fool of himself.

“I’m sorry, Grandpa, I’m late!” Han xiaopo glanced at the people in the meeting room and said apologetically.

“Alright, have a seat.” Old Mr. Han was not a fool. He naturally knew that han xiaopo would not be late on purpose. He had clearly seen the little tricks, but he was too lazy to say anything.

“Yes, Grandpa!” Han xiaopo nodded and sat in her seat.

A look of disappointment flashed across han Xiaochun’s eyes. Han xiaopo had arrived late, but her grandfather had not been angry. This made him feel like he had wasted his efforts.

“Lil’ po, I heard from your uncle han Jiu that you’ve found a very skilled driver, and you want him to participate in the Hidden House Summit for the Hidden House han. Is that true?” Grandpa han asked after han xiaopo sat down.

“Yes, Grandpa!” Han xiaopo nodded and told him about the Grand Cherokee she had seen on the highway. After that, she added, “Grandpa, your grandson thinks that if it’s possible, we should get this person to participate in the race for us no matter what. Otherwise, I’m afraid that our hidden han family will not be able to win in the end. This concerns the face of our hidden han family ...”

“Not bad!” Old Mr. Han nodded his head approvingly and said, “Xiao po didn’t go out for nothing this time, always thinking about the family’s interests-this is what every member of the Hidden House han should learn. At this hidden house Summit, our hidden house originally didn’t have any hope, but if Xiao po can invite this person, then for us, we can save some face and not lose so miserably! Ninth brother, have you investigated this person’s background? Tell us, and we’ll see how we can invite him!”

"Yes!" Ninth uncle han nodded and told everyone the results of the previous investigation.

"Little po, what do you think? Since you're the one who came up with this idea, what do you think we should offer in exchange for this person to compete for us?" Grandpa han looked at han xiaopo and asked.

"Grandfather, since this person is from the supernatural Investigation Bureau, I guess he won't be interested in ordinary benefits. I think that as long as we can invite this person, even if we have to give him the treasures we obtain after winning, it's worth it ..." Han xiaopo said.

"Big brother, are you stupid? The treasure after winning? It's not just our han family's treasure, every participating family will take out a treasure to bet. At that time, he will get the treasure of all the families. Don't you think this condition is a bit too good?" Han Xiaochun did not wait for han xiaopo to finish and coldly retorted, "Or is big brother colluding with outsiders to take over our han family's benefits?"

"I'm going to take over the Han family's interests?" Han xiaopo looked at han Xiaochun with a half-smile and said, "You know, if we didn't invite him, we would have lost the race for sure. With our family background, we're not even worthy of his attention!"

"He's just a student. Even if he's related to the supernatural Investigation Bureau, it's our honor to ask him for help. When the time comes, we'll just give him one of our han family's treasures, and he'll help obediently." "Hmph!" Han Xiaochun snorted coldly and said, "although our hidden han family isn't considered a top hidden family among the hidden families, even the supernatural Investigation Bureau has to give us face!"

"Xiaochun is right about this. If we give him all the treasures, the Han family will be at a huge loss. It's already a big deal to give him one treasure ..." Old master han nodded in agreement with han Xiaochun.

"Grandfather, if you can't show me your sincerity, I can't guarantee that I'll be able to invite him ..." Han xiaopo sighed. She had to be blunt first. For some reason, han xiaopo felt that the person who drove the Grand Cherokee was not someone who was easy to talk to, and was not someone who could be easily invited.

"Big brother, if you think that your ability is limited, then leave this matter to me. I'll go and invite him. I guarantee that it will be done!" Han Xiaochun patted his chest and promised. (To be continued.)

Chapter 1973: face change

"Oh?" Old Mr. Han turned to look at han Xiaochun and asked.

Han Xiaochun laughed coldly, "I'll bring a Mystic late phase peak with me, he won't be scared to death!" If you don't give him any benefits, he will obediently come and help!"

"We can use threats and promises. Carrot plus stick. Since little Chun said so, then let's leave this matter to little Chun." Old master han said indifferently.

Han xiaopo opened her mouth, but in the end, she gave up. No matter how she looked at it, she felt that the other party was not that simple. Since han Xiaochun had a way, then she would just let him do what he wanted. She would not participate.

“Yes! Grandpa, don’t worry, I’ll do it well!” After han Xiaochun finished speaking, he turned to look at ninth uncle han and asked, “Ninth uncle, have you found out the person’s name?”

“There’s no news yet. Our family also has a branch of the family studying in East Ocean industry University. We’ve already asked them to find out the owner of the Grand Cherokee!” “There should be news soon,” said ninth uncle han.

As they were talking, ninth uncle Han’s phone rang. Ninth uncle han picked up the phone and said a few words, but his expression changed and became extremely strange!

“Alright, I got it,” said ninth uncle han after a long while. “You guys continue your investigation!”

“How is it, ninth brother? any news?” Old Mr. Han couldn’t help but ask when he saw ninth uncle Han’s strange expression.

“Yes, master, there’s news ...” Ninth uncle han nodded and said, “This student is called Lin Yi, he’s a first-year medical student at East Ocean industry University ...”

“Oh, Lin Yi, a freshman, I know!” “I’ll go find him in a while,” han Xiaochun nodded.

“Young master Chun, this guy’s called Lin Yi!” Ninth uncle han repeated the name and emphasized it.

“Lin Yi, Lin Yi ... Ah! That Lin Yi?” Han Xiaochun’s heart skipped a beat as he thought of a taboo existence among the hidden houses! The Hidden House Yu, hidden house you, and hidden house Zhao wanted to cause him trouble, but they all returned in failure. Not only did they not do anything to Lin Yi, but all their Masters were dead! Could this Lin Yi be the same Lin Yi?

With that thought, han Xiaochun’s face changed. He was complaining to himself-he was saying that he was going to threaten and bribe them with a Mystic late phase peak, but that was a joke!

After all, even an Earth Class late phase master would be instantly killed by Lin Yi, let alone a Mystic class late phase peak! Bringing a Mystic late phase peak to look for trouble was asking for death!

“Young master Chun, although I haven’t found out if these two Lin Yi’s are the same person, because house Yu, house you, and house Zhao all kept their silence and didn’t reveal too much information about Lin Yi, so I can’t be sure yet ...” Uncle han said normally, but he was laughing coldly inside. Didn’t you like to be in the limelight? Why are you dumbfounded?

“This ... Ugh ...” Han Xiaochun’s heart went cold when he thought about Lin Yi’s killing methods. In the eyes of these hidden house disciples, Lin Yi was almost like a Demon King, terrifying to the extreme! If he went to Lin Yi to negotiate, he’d be killed before he could even reach a deal. No one in the Hidden House han would dare to stand up for him!

Even the Hidden House Yu, hidden house Zhao, and hidden house you suffered in silence, not to mention the Hidden House han.

“Second brother, you’ve already found out about this person’s information. When are you going to find him?” Han xiaopo also found it extremely funny. Where was the arrogance just now? When they heard his name, they were immediately dumbfounded!

“This ... Big brother, my abilities are limited. I think it’s better if you go. After all, you were the one who found this person, so it’s more reasonable for you to go ...” Han Xiaochun did not dare to go. Unless he didn’t want to live anymore-wasn’t he just asking for death by negotiating with that violent Lin Yi?

Old Mr. Han’s face was also red and white. This was simply a slap in the face! However, he didn’t have the mood to get angry at all. If this Lin Yi was really the same Lin Yi, asking han Xiaochun to find him without knowing was the same as asking the Hidden House han to court their own death!

The Hidden House Committee was in charge of settling the rules between the hidden houses, but Lin Yi didn’t have that much to say to the common world. If Lin Yi wanted to destroy the Hidden House han, it wouldn’t be hard at all, and when that time came ...

Thinking of this, Grandpa Han’s body suddenly broke out in a cold sweat. He said to han xiaopo, “Little po has foresight. We didn’t act rashly. Otherwise, if we really did as little Chun said, the consequences would be unimaginable! Xiaochun is still not mature enough!”

Han Xiaochun was extremely unhappy. You clearly agreed with my suggestion just now and even asked me to add carrots and sticks. Now, you’re saying that I’m not mature. This made him extremely depressed! However, he didn’t dare to refute. If he did, wouldn’t it be equivalent to embarrassing his grandfather? Therefore, he had no choice but to endure it.

“Yes, grandfather, you’re right,” han Xiaochun said gloomily.

“Little po, you should talk to Lin Yi about this. No matter what method we use, even if he wants more, we have to get him on our side. As long as he can become a friend of our hidden house han, hehe, the other hidden noble houses will have to think twice before trying to touch us ...” Old man han saw further. He was snobbish, but he was also extremely cunning. Otherwise, the Hidden House han would be so weak, but they could still stand for so many years. Old man han had some tricks up his sleeves!

If it wasn’t for the fact that he’d told his family members to keep a low profile and not go out to cause trouble or earn money, the hidden houses would’ve found an excuse to deal with the Hidden House han long ago. But old man han would rather sit back and eat the mountain empty than let others find something to use against him. This was his wisdom.

And so, he saw hope in Lin Yi! Although Lin Yi was a jinx and had grudges with many hidden noble houses, getting close to him would mean offending house Yu, house Zhao, and house you. But that wasn’t the case-even without Lin Yi’s connection, these noble houses still harbored evil intentions towards the Hidden House han. If they wanted to deal with the Hidden House han, they might as well get on good terms with Lin Yi-with Lin Yi there, house han might be able to get more breathing space!

If old man han could see it clearly, the other members of House han could see it as well. They all nodded-old man han was right. With Lin Yi’s support, at least house han wouldn’t be in any danger for a while. Besides, Lin Yi might even win some of the other competitions at the Hidden House Summit, and that would be even more glorious for house han!

Chapter 1974: A kind invitation

“Yes, Grandpa, as long as you say so!” “As long as we can pay him enough, we don’t have to be afraid that he won’t come!” Han xiaopo said.

After lunch, Lin Yi looked at the stranger in front of him and frowned. He was sure that he didn't know this person at all, but the person was blocking his way, making him a little pissed.

"Do you have something to say?" Lin Yi asked faintly.

"Excuse me ... Are you Mister Lin Yi?" The person stopped Lin Yi, but his tone was very polite.

"Yes, what's the matter?" Lin Yi looked at the man again. He still didn't know him.

"I am han xiaopo from the hidden han family. Greetings, senior Lin!" Han xiaopo cupped her fists and said, using the honorific title of someone from the martial arts world.

"The hidden han family?" This was the first time Lin Yi had heard of a hidden house, but he stopped in his tracks. Since the guy was from a hidden house, he'd have to see what he was up to.

"It's just a small family, it's normal that you've never heard of it before ..." Han xiaopo smiled bitterly. Hidden house han really didn't have much of a name. Lin Yi probably never heard of it before.

"Oh, tell me why you're here." Lin Yi didn't care if he came from a small or big family.

"Senior Lin, I won't beat around the bush. I have something that I need your help with!" Han xiaopo said.

"I'm not interested, I don't have the time." Lin Yi hadn't even heard of the Hidden House han before, so he wasn't in the mood to help.

"Senior Lin, please hold on. Our han family once obtained an ancient ruin with many treasures. If you can help us, we can choose any treasure as a reward!" Han xiaopo knew that she couldn't play games with people like Lin Yi. She had to say everything to get Lin Yi's favor. Otherwise, Lin Yi wouldn't have the patience to waste time with her.

"An ancient ruin?" Lin Yi stopped and turned to look at han xiaopo, thinking for a while. Lin Yi naturally knew what an ancient ruin was. It was said that the ancient sects and Noble families became the Giants of the martial arts world because they found an ancient ruin. Lin Yi was surprised that the Hidden House han found an ancient ruin as well.

They found an ancient ruin, and it was a small family? Unknown even among the hidden houses?

But, although Lin Yi didn't know the reason, han xiaopo's conditions did make Lin Yi interested. The materials in the ancient ruins might be pure yellow jade, colored steel, or blue crystal powder.

"That's right ..." Han xiaopo nodded. "I wonder if senior Lin has the time. Let's sit down and talk about it in detail ..."

"Alright, let's go to the cafeteria. I haven't had lunch yet." Lin Yi said.

"Senior Lin, I've already booked a table at the nearby hotel. I hope senior Lin can do me the honor ..."

Han xiaopo heard that Lin Yi had agreed and immediately invited him with a smile.

"Oh, then let's go." Lin Yi nodded.

A Ferrari was parked outside the biology department's building. Han xiaopo respectfully invited Lin Yi into the car and drove to the xueshang business hotel.

Xueshang hotel was indeed xueshang hotel, just called differently. Lin Yi suddenly thought of sun Jingyi, and turned to han xiaopo, "Wait, I'll ask a friend to eat with me."

"Alright, no problem!" Naturally, han xiaopo didn't doubt him at all. The more casual Lin Yi acted, the more likely it was to succeed.

Lin Yi gave sun Jingyi a call, and since she was going to eat as well, Lin Yi told her to go to the private room han xiaopo had reserved.

"Lin Yi, why did you come here for lunch?" Jingyi wasn't expecting Lin Yi's sudden visit, but was suspicious when she saw that there was an outsider with him. "This is ..."

"This must be senior Lin's girlfriend. Hello, senior, I'm han xiaopo, from the hidden han family!" Han xiaopo said respectfully.

"Ah? The hidden han family?" Lin Yi didn't know about the Hidden House han, but Jingyi, as someone from a Noble House, knew everything about it. She had some understanding of the history of house han! Even if the Hidden House han was one of the weaker hidden houses, against house sun, they were still a huge force!

But what Jingyi didn't expect was that the Hidden House Han's member was calling her senior ... Was this Lin Yi's doing?

"Yes, I am the eldest son and grandson of the hidden han family. On behalf of the hidden han family, I would like to ask for your help ..." Han xiaopo explained respectfully.

"Alright, serve the dishes first. I'm hungry. We'll talk while we eat." Lin Yi waved his hand impatiently, interrupting han xiaopo.

"Yes, senior Lin, I'll get the waiter to serve the dishes!" As han xiaopo said this, he turned around and left the private room. He then ordered the waiter to serve the dishes.

At this time, Jingyi lowered her voice, surprised. "Why did he call you senior? I still need your help?"

"Who knows? let's hear it out later." Lin Yi said nonchalantly.

Very quickly, han xiaopo returned and sat down respectfully, pouring tea for Lin Yi and Sun Jingyi.

"Alright, tell me what's the matter before the dishes are served." Lin Yi said.

"It's like this, Lin Qian bei ..." Han xiaopo quickly told Lin Yi everything about the Hidden House Summit, the competition, and seeing Lin Yi's flying car on the highway.

"Hidden house Summit?" This was the first time Lin Yi had heard of something like this, but thinking about it, if the noble houses had their Noble House meetings, it wasn't surprising that the hidden houses had their hidden house peaks! It sounded like this was a competition between the hidden houses: "In other words, if I win the race for you, all the prizes will belong to me, and I can also choose any treasure from the Han family's treasure vault? Don't you feel like you're at a disadvantage?"

“Yes, I am!” Han xiaopo nodded and said, “of course. I hope that this is not just a deal, but the beginning of a friendship. I sincerely hope that the hidden han family can become friends with senior Lin. So, it doesn’t matter if we lose out or not.”

If han xiaopo wanted to negotiate, she could’ve given the prize to Lin Yi first, and if Lin Yi didn’t agree, she could’ve added more. However, han xiaopo wanted to gain Lin Yi’s friendship. After he found out that the Grand Cherokee was owned by Lin Yi, he had this idea.

“Pure yellow jade, blue crystal, and colored steel. What do you have in the hidden han family?” Lin Yi asked.

Chapter 1975: Still frowning

“Pure yellow jade? Blue crystal? Colored steel?” Han xiaopo repeated Lin Yi’s words, frowning. After a while, she said with uncertainty, “I think we do have colored steel. It’s a material used to forge weapons. Our han family found some in ancient ruins. I think it’s called colored steel, but I’m not sure ... Senior Lin, is it that kind of colorful steel?”

“That’s right. Your hidden han clan has this thing?” Lin Yi’s eyes brightened—he didn’t think he’d be able to find the most difficult material in the hands of the Hidden House han.

“If it’s this kind of thing, then we have one in our treasure vault. However, the forger who forged weapons has long disappeared, and the method of forging has also been lost. We don’t have much use for this thing.” Han xiaopo said, “if this is what senior Lin wants, then I can make the decision to give it to you right now!” Regardless of whether you agree to help our hidden han family participate in the competition or not, I’ll treat this as a gift for our first meeting!”

“Alright, I agree.” Lin Yi nodded, “you’re not bad. I know what you’re thinking, but it’s a bit difficult for me to protect house han. My strength is limited, and if the other hidden houses come for you, I can’t do anything!”

“Don’t worry, senior Lin. The hidden houses have their own rules. Even if they want to deal with us, they’ll use this competition to get our treasures. They won’t dare to take it by force!” “So, as long as senior Lin stands up for the Han family, at least for the time being, these people won’t have any ideas about the Han family. What we need is time to catch our breath ...” Han xiaopo said.

“That’s not a problem. Furthermore, I might be participating in some of the other competitions that you mentioned. Will I be the one to receive the rewards?” Lin Yi asked.

“Naturally!” Han xiaopo was overjoyed. If Lin Yi could win a few more rounds, it would be a good chance to show the Hidden House Han’s strength, and let the other hidden houses see Lin Yi’s strength.

“Okay, you can go now. This is my number. Give me a call when the time is set.” Lin Yi said as he gave his phone number to han xiaopo.

“Alright, senior Lin, I’ll present the colored steel tomorrow!” Han xiaopo said after taking down Lin Yi’s number.

“No need to rush, but help me find out more about the pure yellow jade and blue crystal.” Lin Yi said.

“I’ll remember that, senior Lin.” Han xiaopo said.

The dishes were served, and Han Xiaopo was done with his business. He didn't take a single bite and got up to leave. He was a smart person, and went to pay the bill. He didn't want to disturb Lin Yi and Jingyi's meal anymore. His goal was achieved. It didn't matter if he didn't eat, as long as Lin Yi was happy.

Han Xiaopo came to an agreement with Lin Yi and had a good relationship with him, so she went back to the Hidden House Han to report ...

Jingyi was the only one left in the room, surprised as she looked at Lin Yi. "These hidden houses are so afraid of you now?"

"Three of them were burnt to death last time. Maybe they have a phobia now." Lin Yi shrugged, but he was thinking about something else. He was only at the early phase of the Earth Class, and he needed to level up as soon as possible. The flaming fist was strong, but he'd only learned the first three styles—he could only fight mid-phase Earth Class Masters at the most, and he'd be on par with them. It'd be impossible if he were to meet someone stronger, so he wanted to level up as soon as possible—it'd be best if he could get the fourth to sixth style. After seeing the power of the fist of raging fire, Lin Yi was confident that he'd be able to fight against an Earth Class late phase after the fourth to sixth forms!

Of course, this was just a guarantee. Before Lin Yi started training, everything was just a guess—he'd only know after training.

"So that's how it is." Jingyi nodded, "right, I compared it last night and found that the map ... Looks like Wulong Haote Mountain Range ... But it was too late last night, and I couldn't find a detailed map. I just woke up not long ago, so I'll go online to look for a more detailed map later ..."

"Oh? You've already found it?" Lin Yi was a little surprised—Jingyi made it sound like it was easy, but she probably didn't sleep until the middle of the night. It was just that Lin Yi was surprised that Jingyi found the location on the map so quickly.

"Maybe it's because of my parents' secret, of course I'd be worried ..." Jingyi smiled, embarrassed.

"I understand. Let me know when you're leaving and I'll go with you." Lin Yi said.

"Thank you ..." Jingyi said gratefully.

"But we might have to wait. At the very least, we have to wait until the hidden Han family's matter is over." Lin Yi said after some thought.

"It doesn't matter. We can go at any time. Moreover, it might not be the Wulong Hao Te Mountain Range. I just feel that the terrain is somewhat similar." "Maybe I'll have to confirm it for a while," Jingyi said.

After lunch, Jingyi went back to her room, while Lin Yi prepared to head back to school. He was about to get a taxi when he saw a middle-aged man quickly walking towards him.

"Senior Lin, it was young Master Po who asked me to wait here and send you back to school." The middle-aged man explained before Lin Yi could ask.

"Then let's go." Lin Yi nodded. He didn't think that Han Xiaopo would be so attentive, sending someone to pick him up after he left.

The middle-aged man drove an Audi A8, and after inviting Lin Yi in, he didn't say anything else and drove Lin Yi back to school.

Lin Yi went back to the room to see the guy still sitting at his desk with a sad face.

"Old Bai, what's wrong with you?" Lin Yi looked at him, confused. Wasn't the problem solved? why wasn't the guy rehearsing with his classmates? why was he sighing in the room?

"Big brother Lin, you're back?" Bai Weitao's face lit up when he saw Lin Yi, "Big brother Lin, I told everyone in the class about the big star Xu Shihan, and everyone was really excited when they heard about it, but Yu Panhu jumped out to mess things up. He said that Xu Shihan was someone who had never held a concert in Eastern Sea city, and that it was unheard of for her to participate in small events like this. So he said that I made this up to boost the morale of our class, and that I was trying to be jealous of Zhang duopan."

"And then?" Lin Yi frowned, thinking that this right-hand man didn't stop at all. He always went against them.

Chapter 1976: She's really a big star

"Then, the students in the class were discouraged. They felt that no matter how much they practiced, they would never be a match for the coffee girl, Cheng Yiyi, who Zhang duopan invited. So, everyone was too lazy to practice and came back with an attitude of making up the numbers ..." Bai Weitao said with a bitter face.

Lin Yi was speechless-they didn't believe him! However, it wasn't strange for the guys to be suspicious-if Lin Yi didn't call Xu Shihan in front of Bai Weitao, he wouldn't have believed that Lin Yi could invite her.

Xu Shihan's head always ached, and she rarely held concerts, let alone private events. So, many people were skeptical at first, but after what you Panhu said, no one believed him anymore.

"This right coiling Tiger is really asking for a beating." If it wasn't for Lin Yi's lack of strength, he would've crippled right coiling Tiger already.

But he'd offended house Yu, house Zhao, and an unknown master behind house Kang-he didn't want to mess with the Hidden House you yet, especially when they were a medical Noble House. They couldn't be underestimated.

"You can't blame him. He just raised a question. As the class monitor, we can't just not let our classmates question us, right?" "Even if Xu Shihan comes tomorrow, the party will start the day after tomorrow. The remaining half a day isn't enough ..."

"I'll make another call. " Lin Yi wanted to rush her to see if she could come today.

Bai Weitao heard Lin Yi's words and was extremely grateful. He didn't think that Lin Yi would spare no effort to help him.

Lin Yi dialed Xu Shihan's number again, but this time it was Xu Shihan who picked up the phone, "Lin Yi, why are you calling me again?"

"It's like this ..." Lin Yi explained Bai Weitao's troubles to Xu Shihan and said, "Can't you come earlier? It's best if you can come tonight."

"I'm afraid I can't do that. Today's schedule is already full. Even if it's tomorrow or the day after tomorrow, I'll still have to squeeze out some time for you. Do you think I'm very free every day?" Xu Shihan heard Lin Yi's words and was a little annoyed. Did this guy think that she was just staying there every day, waiting for his call?

"There's a saying, time is like ... Uh, just pretend I didn't say anything." Lin Yi wanted to make a joke, but he remembered that he wasn't that close to Xu Shihan yet. It was best not to make such a joke.

"Vulgar!" Xu Shihan heard Lin Yi's words and hmped.

"You've misunderstood. I mean, time is like a sponge in water, there'll be water coming out if you squeeze it ..." Lin Yi said.

"How do you know that I've misunderstood? If you don't understand it wrong, how do you know that I understand it wrong?" Xu Shihan asked back.

Lin Yi realized that Xu Shihan was indeed a big star. Her reaction was fast, no wonder she was so calm in front of so many media interviews.

"Alright, can you come?" Lin Yi asked.

"It's actually very easy to solve this matter. Do you have a computer? Let's video call for a while, then you can call your classmates over. I'll talk to them personally." Xu Shihan said.

"That's a good idea, a computer ..." Lin Yi's eyes fell on Bai Weitao's desk. The kid brought a laptop with him. "There are!"

"Do you have my QQ number? Add me and I'll send you a video call request." "My number is 1212 ..."

"Alright," he said. Lin Yi jotted down her QQ number and hung up the phone. He turned to Bai Weitao, "Go and get our classmates, and Xu Shihan will video call them!"

"Argh! That's great!" Overjoyed, he ran out of the room to get Lin Yi, who turned on his laptop and logged into his QQ number.

Lin Yi didn't use his QQ often-he'd applied for it after coming to Songshan, and only added a few people-Xiaobo, the Miss, Shu, and some others. He barely used it, though, and was still level two.

Lin Yi added Xu Shihan's number, and after a while, it was accepted. Lin Yi had a new friend on QQ, called "beautiful Xiao Han." This name made Lin Yi a little speechless-wasn't this a little too narcissistic?

"Lin Yi?" Xu Shihan sent a message. She wasn't too sure about Lin Yi's identity. Lin Yi's id was "01," and he had more of a personality than Xu Shihan.

"Yeah, it's me, narcissist." Lin Yi replied.

"Narcissist? You're a narcissist?" Xu Shihan was confused by Lin Yi's reply.

"You are." "Look at your QQ id," Lin Yi said.

“What narcissism? she’s a beauty to begin with!” “Only a blind man doesn’t know how to appreciate it,” Shihan said.

Lin Yi smiled bitterly-it seemed like Xu Shihan held a lot of grudges against him!

Lin Yi quickly replied when he heard footsteps coming from outside the room.”Alright, he’s here.”

Lin Yi quickly closed the chat window and reopened it. The chat history was gone-he didn’t want anyone to know about his relationship with Xu Shihan.

“Okay, I’ll request a video call.” Xu Shihan replied and sent a video call request.

Song Xidao and Zhao Shengji had been staying in other dormitories. When they saw Bai Weitao’s sad face, they went to other dormitories to make connections.

In fact, it wasn’t that the students in the class didn’t want to help, but they really didn’t have the confidence!

Who wouldn’t want their major and class to amaze the world at the freshmen party? This was a good opportunity to become famous. These twenty or so boys were all single. When their class became famous, it would be much easier to find a girlfriend.

It was just that Zhang duopan had invited a celebrity to hold the fort, so no matter how hard they tried, they were not on the same level as them. Instead of working hard for half a day and still being abused, they might as well just deal with it casually.

However, when they heard that Xu Shihan was video calling them personally, they were all excited again. Could it be that what Bai Weitao said was true? could he really get Xu Shihan?

And so, the boys swarmed into room 444, and Lin Yi accepted Xu Shihan’s video call. On the computer screen, Xu Shihan appeared in casual clothes, her face bare.

“Xu Shihan, it’s really Xu Shihan!” The first guy who rushed into the room saw Xu Shihan on the computer screen and screamed.

“The class monitor didn’t lie to us!”

“This is the first time I’ve seen Xu Shihan without makeup, she’s so beautiful and pure!”

Chapter 1977: extremely excited

“Xu Shihan, how are you? I’m your loyal fan, I’m Jia Changqing ...” The boys rushed over and said to Xu Shihan.

“Hello everyone, I’m Xu Shihan!” Xu Shihan saw that everyone was here and smiled, “I’m in the recording studio right now. I’m going to do the harmony for my new album today, so I took a break from work and wanted to meet up with everyone!”

“Could this be a pre-recorded interview video?” Yu Panhu couldn’t figure out how Bai Weitao could get Xu Shihan here. Back then, he invited Xu Shihan as a member of the you family, but not only did he fail, but he was also rejected. This made you Panhu very upset.

Lin Yi didn't let him say that he was the one who invited Xu Shihan, and so he could only vaguely say that he was the one who invited her. This was also why no one believed him-how could a first-year student know a popular star like Xu Shihan?

"Yeah, Bai Weitao, is this a pre-recorded video?" At this time, someone heard right Panhu's doubt and immediately became suspicious.

"Young master right coiling Tiger, how are you? we meet again." Xu Shihan heard right Panhu's question and smiled faintly.

Right plate Tiger didn't expect Xu Shihan to know him, and even talk to him. He was very embarrassed,""Haha, I was just joking ..."

In front of his classmates, right plate Tiger naturally didn't dare to talk about how he used to sleep with Xu Shihan. He just laughed it off and changed the topic.

However, at this point, no one suspected that it was a video recording anymore, because the recording would not interact with anyone, and it was impossible to talk to you Panhu.

"Xu Shihan, I really like you!"

"Xu Shihan, can I have your signature?"

"Xu Shihan, what are the songs on your new album? can you tell us a little?"

"Xu Shihan, are you really coming tomorrow? Will you bring us to the freshmen party?"

When everyone found out that the person in front of them was really Xu Shihan, they were all extremely excited. They asked one question after another, and Xu Shihan couldn't answer at all.

"Can everyone quiet down for a moment? I understand everyone's feelings, but my time here is limited. It wasn't easy for me to get a small leave from my manager to meet everyone, so please listen to me, okay?" Xu Shihan's voice came again, and the excited dorm room quieted down.

Everyone shut their mouths when they heard that Xu Shihan came to meet them out of her busy schedule.

"As you all know, I was entrusted by a friend to attend the freshmen's party with all of you. However, due to the schedule, I will only arrive in Eastern Sea city tomorrow afternoon at the earliest, so our time is very limited!" "And if we want to get first place, my popularity alone isn't enough-we need everyone's cooperation. Otherwise, even if I'm on stage, we won't be able to get a high score if we don't work well together, right?" Xu Shihan continued.

Everyone nodded in agreement.

"So, I'm going to tell everyone the song I'm going to sing. Everyone, please practice the harmony part first. When I go tomorrow, you just need to practice a few more times. Do you have the confidence to win first place with me?" Xu Shihan asked.

"There are!" These guys were all fans of Xu Shihan, and even if they weren't, why would they reject such a pretty girl's invitation? And so, as soon as Shihan finished her sentence, everyone agreed.

“Alright, since you’re so confident, you have to work hard. If I can’t get first place, I’ll be very embarrassed!” Xu Shihan said with a smile.

“Don’t worry, we’ll definitely work hard!” One of the boys took the lead to express his opinion. It was the guy called Jia Changqing.

“We are too!” The remaining male student said, unwilling to be outdone, seeing that someone had taken the lead.

“Alright, the song I’ve prepared for everyone is called” the story of youth. “It’s also one of the songs that I wrote and composed that made me famous. There’s a lot of chiming and narration in it, and the entire song can be considered a scene play. I believe that those who have watched the song’s music video before know that it was shot in University. What we’re going to do is to bring the song’s music video back to the stage!” Xu Shihan said.

Stories of youth was just as Xu Shihan said-the music video was shot in a school, and it was also a scene short. It was about the beautiful university life, with love, friendship, and the nervous rush before the exam. The theme of the song was exactly the epitome of university life, and if it was used at the freshmen party, it would be hard not to win an award!

With the star effect of Xu Shihan’s original, and the co-operation of her classmates, it would probably cause an unprecedented sensation.

“What we need to do next is to familiarize ourselves with the song and find the body doubles for the supporting roles in the music video. The rest can be rehearsed when I arrive tomorrow.” Xu Shihan said.

“No problem, don’t worry, Xu Shihan, I’m the class monitor, Bai Weitao, I’ll complete the mission!” Bai Weitao patted his chest in excitement. He knew that Xu Shihan was helping them because of Lin Yi, but she was helping him, after all. How could he not be excited?

Besides, he meiyue’s idol was Xu Shihan. Zhang duopan invited Xu Shihan’s little Junior Sister to come here to please he meiyue. After all, he meiyue also liked Cheng Yiyi.

However, with Xu Shihan around, he meiyue naturally liked her more.

“Alright, Bai Weitao, I’ll leave everyone’s rehearsal to you!” “Alright, I’ll see you guys tomorrow. I’m going to get busy too, so good luck everyone!” Xu Shihan said.

“Alright, I’ll definitely do my best!” Bai Weitao and the other students said in unison.

Yu Panhu and the other two were quite troubled-they wanted to cause some trouble for Lin Yi when they saw that he was working for him, but it seemed like trouble wasn’t trouble anymore, and so they left the room with their tails between their legs ...

After the video ended, all the medical students were in high spirits, and all of them asked to start practicing right away. Bai Weitao downloaded Xu Shihan’s music video of “stories of youth” on the internet and played it for everyone to see. He also started to choose the corresponding side characters and extras from the class!

“Big brother Lin, which role are you going to play?” Naturally, he’d let Lin Yi choose first-after all, he was the one who invited Xu Shihan, and it was only right for him to choose first.

Chapter 1978: Uncle Fu's request

"Oh, I'll take this role." Lin Yi pointed at one of the boys in the MV.

It was an extra, an extra from the start to the end, sitting in front of the desk without moving at all. The girl beside him was an extra too, and Bai Weitao didn't understand why Lin Yi chose this character.

After all, there were a lot of this kind of cameo, and Lin Yi only chose one of them. Other than that, there were a lot of other supporting roles that played behind Xu Shihan ...

"Ah? Brother Lin, Are you sure? Just an extra?" Bai Weitao asked in surprise.

"I'm not good at acting. This cameo is already good enough." Lin Yi said.

Lin Yi didn't have much interest in making a name for himself at the freshmen's party. He didn't want to hit on girls, and he didn't want to get into anyone's good books either. It was a group event, and it was organized by Bai Weitao. It wouldn't be good if he didn't act.

"Alright ..." Bai Weitao didn't say anything else after Lin Yi's insistence, "What about Xinyan ..."

"She's the same as me, playing this kind of minor role." Lin Yi knew that Xinyan wasn't the type of person who liked crowds and crowds, so he decided to help her.

Lin Yi didn't have much to do in the rehearsal after that, so he left the room after saying goodbye to Bai Weitao.

As he was going down the stairs, a figure ran up at full speed. If Lin Yi didn't Dodge in time, he would've bumped into him. Lin Yi didn't want to say anything about this kind of reckless person, but he didn't expect this person to be someone he knew!

"Lin Yi bro!" Han Jingjing looked at Lin Yi in surprise.

"Han Jingjing? What are you doing in the boys 'dormitory?'" Lin Yi looked at Jingjing, confused. Weren't boys not allowed in the girls 'dormitory? Was there no such rule in the male dormitory?

"Didn't you say that we have to rehearse for the festival? I'm here, did Bai Weitao call me?" Han Jing Jing looked at Lin Yi even more strangely, "Why aren't you rehearsing?"

"I mean, how did you get into the boys 'dormitory? didn't the old man at the door stop you?" Lin Yi asked.

"No, why did he stop me? He's even smiling at me!" Han Jing Jing looked at Lin Yi, confused.

"Then you can go up. Room 444, I'll be an extra. There's no need to rehearse." Lin Yi said.

"Why don't extras need to rehearse?" Han Jing Jing asked.

"There's no reason." Lin Yi decided not to answer her, or she'd just go on and on.

"Then I'll play an extra too. I don't need to rehearse." "Lin Yi bro, where are you going?" Han Jing Jing nodded.

"I'm going home." Lin Yi said.

"Then I'll go home too. You can drive me home together." Han Jing Jing said.

"...Let's go." Lin Yi couldn't be bothered to reject-it'd be a waste of his breath.

Uncle Fu was leaving this afternoon. Although pengzhan knew that he'd found his long-lost wife, he still had a lot of things to do at the corporation. Uncle Fu had to report the results of his investigation back as soon as possible. If possible, he could set up a branch here, and then he could meet Grandma sun often.

"Lin Yi bro, you're a couple with Wang Xinyan, so why are you cohabiting with Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu?" After getting in the car, han Jingjing's mouth did not stop.

"First, Wang Xinyan and I are not a couple. Second, we're living together, not cohabiting." Lin Yi explained.

"Oh, so you're single, Lin Yi bro?" "That's great," said han Jingjing happily.

"No, I have a girlfriend." Lin Yi said.

"Then why didn't I see him? Where is she?" Han Jing Jing asked.

"It's not related to you." Lin Yi said.

"Then, you're sitting with Wang Xinyan every day, and you're staying with Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu ... Won't your girlfriend get jealous?" Han Jing Jing asked again.

"No, I'm not. Why do you have so many questions?" Lin Yi frowned.

"Many? Didn't teacher say that if you encounter something you don't understand, you should be ashamed to ask?" Han Jingjing said innocently.

"Then you can ask someone else." Lin Yi said.

"Ask someone else? Alright, I'll ask teacher Bai tomorrow why your girlfriend isn't jealous." Han Jing Jing said.

"..." Lin Yi rolled his eyes. Was this han Jingjing retarded? he didn't know how she got into university, but it seemed like she paid for it herself.

Lin Yi parked the car in front of the villa and went back to his own villa, ignoring han Jingjing. She could do whatever she wanted.

Han Jingjing didn't bother Lin Yi anymore and went back to the villa.

"Yi, you're back." Uncle Fu was packing up in the living room, ready to head back to Songshan.

"En, uncle Fu, I came back to see if there was anything I could help with," Lin Yi said.

"It's nothing, Luo Fei's cultivation method, she's already started cultivating. Maybe it's because she's been cultivating before, but her meridians have already opened up, so it's very easy for her to cultivate Qi this time. It's just that there's too little spiritual energy here, so the cultivation speed is very slow ... Yi, can you help?" Uncle Fu was a little embarrassed."Although this request is a bit sudden, you are the only one who can help Luo Xuan level up as soon as possible ..."

Lin Yi smiled bitterly at uncle Fu's words. "Uncle Fu, it's not that I don't want to help, it's just that house sun's practitioner's Arts are a bit special-they can only absorb the Qi of the world for cultivation, and I can't let her use my Qi. Once I do, granny sun's Qi might become the same as mine ..."

Lin Yi explained, remembering what happened with sun Jingyi.

"Oh? What do you mean?" Uncle Fu was slightly stunned.

"It's like this ..." Lin Yi told uncle Fu about the conversation he had with Jingyi in her apartment.

"Wu ... But it seems different. Luo Xuan's chi can now be directly converted into my Chi, but it can only be converted into my Chi. Then you just need to transfer your Chi to her, right?" Said uncle Fu after a moment of silence.

"It seems to make sense?" Lin Yi's eyes brightened-grandma sun and Jingyi's situations were clearly different. Grandma sun's Qi couldn't be assimilated by Lin Yi anymore because her Qi had been restricted to uncle Fu's Qi. Jingyi, on the other hand, had never used her Qi on anyone before, and that was why she was afraid of Lin Yi's Qi assimilating her Qi. With that thought, Lin Yi nodded."In that case, I can give it a try!"

"Can I do it now?" Uncle Fu rubbed his hands excitedly after Lin Yi agreed. (To be continued.)

Chapter 1979: Giving up helplessly

It wasn't important whether granny sun could recover her former strength or not, and uncle Fu didn't care too much about it. What uncle Fu cared about right now was when she could recover her memories!

"Since you've thought of it, let's try it now!" "Let's start now!" Lin Yi nodded.

"What do you want me to do?" Granny sun quickly asked.

"You don't have to do anything. Just use your heart cultivation method and just absorb the spiritual Qi from the sky and earth like you usually do," Lin Yi said.

"Alright!" Granny sun quickly nodded to show that she understood.

Lin Yi, on the other hand, held onto granny sun's wrist and started channeling the first stage of the art of Dragon mastery ...

However, the familiar feeling of Qi flowing into granny sun's body from his hand didn't happen. There didn't seem to be any Qi flow between the two of them, which made Lin Yi very confused.

"Granny sun, you didn't use your internal strength?" Lin Yi asked, confused.

"It's working!" Granny sun nodded and said,"I've been circulating it, but I can't absorb any spiritual energy from your body ..."

"Something's not right ..." Lin Yi frowned and continued to channel the art of Dragon mastery, turning his Qi into the same Qi as uncle Fu 's, but there was still no movement. It was as if granny sun couldn't absorb any of this Qi.

According to Lin Yi's previous situation, he didn't even need to use the art of Dragon mastery to convert his Qi into a specific type of Qi. As long as the recipient of the Qi used their practitioner's Arts, the art of Dragon mastery would automatically convert the Qi into the Qi the other party needed.

But something unexpected happened-not only was granny sun unable to convert Lin Yi's Qi into the Qi She needed, she couldn't even absorb the Qi that Lin Yi had already converted!

"Still no..." Granny sun shook her head and said.

"What's going on? "I've already converted my Qi into the same Qi as uncle Fu 's, but granny sun still can't absorb it ..."Lin Yi frowned.

"Eh? That's a little strange!" Uncle Fu's anticipation turned into a head full of questions.

This was the first time Lin Yi had encountered something like this. He'd used this method of helping others level up before, and it'd never failed him.

"Could it be that ... The sun family's cultivation method is different from normal cultivation and can't be improved with your special method?" However, granny sun thought of a very important question."After all, the sun family's heart technique isn't to cultivate strength, it's a kind of auxiliary heart technique ..."

"Auxiliary cultivation method ... I seem to have thought through something. Let me think!" Lin Yi said that, but he was actually just looking for elder Jiao to confirm his suspicions. He pretended to be deep in thought, but he was actually thinking,"Elder Jiao, what's going on? Why did this happen? isn't my true Qi an all-purpose true Qi? Why is it ineffective on granny sun?"

Uncle Fu and granny sun didn't dare interrupt Lin Yi, sitting quietly to the side.

Elder Jiao wasn't too surprised by Lin Yi's question. He only muttered to himself,"If I'm not wrong, granny sun's practitioner's Arts should be absorbing the spiritual Qi of heaven and earth, transforming it into a special form of energy in her Sun family's practitioner's Arts and storing it in her body. This form of energy can also be transformed into pure energy that uncle Fu can use through granny sun's practitioner's Arts, and then passed on to uncle Fu to use ... But, because of the uniqueness of her practitioner's Arts, she can only absorb the spiritual Qi of heaven and earth, and can't directly absorb the pure energy that you've transformed ..."

"Oh? But how could other people directly transfer the transformed true Qi over? If that's the case, can I directly transform into the special energy form of granny sun?" Lin Yi asked.

"I'm afraid this won't work either. Auxiliary-type mental cultivation methods are different from normal internal cultivation methods. Her mental cultivation method should only be able to absorb the spiritual Qi of heaven and earth. It must be the most primitive spiritual Qi of heaven and earth. It has not been converted, which is the pure energy in the jade pendant. Once it has been converted, it can not be absorbed again." "Just like you," elder Jiao said,"you can transfer Qi to others, but others can't ..."

"Me? Is mine okay? General Weiwu and Skybolt pig's pure Qi is the same as the pure Qi in my body, I can use it!" Lin Yi said.

"I'm talking about other people. Did I say spirit beasts? Be careful, it's a human!" Elder Jiao said, speechless.

"Ugh ... I see ..." Lin Yi was a little embarrassed,""In other words, unless granny sun can absorb the spiritual Qi of heaven and earth or pure energy, she can't use any other methods to improve her strength?"

"That should be the case. Of course, you can let me study the sun family's cultivation method, and I'll think about other ways." Elder Jiao said.

"It's impossible for now ..." Lin Yi nodded. Elder Jiao's deduction was similar to his, but Lin Yi didn't analyze it as thoroughly as elder Jiao did. Elder Jiao explained the theory behind this situation, but Lin Yi only guessed the result ...

Lin Yi opened his eyes and turned to uncle Fu."If my inference is not wrong, granny sun's mental cultivation method should be to absorb the spiritual energy of heaven and earth, transform it into a special form of energy in her Sun family's mental cultivation method, and store it in her body ..."

With that, Lin Yi explained elder Jiao's words to granny sun and uncle Fu. Elder Jiao despised this type of learning and applying on the spot, but he didn't say anything. He didn't interfere with Lin Yi's daily life and couldn't be bothered to. He only guided Lin Yi in his cultivation.

"So that's how it is. It looks like it won't work." Uncle Fu was extremely disappointed at Lin Yi's explanation. He sighed,"In this case, I can only rely on granny sun's own efforts."

"Li Fu, you don't have to worry too much about it. It's a good thing to get the sun family's heart technique. It's only a matter of time before you regain your memory. There's no need to rush it." "There's still a long way to go!"Granny sun said with a smile.

"Yeah, there's still a long way to go!" "I was too anxious," Li Fu nodded."You've already accepted me, and it doesn't matter if you regain your memories or not ..."

Lin Yi let out a breath of relief when he saw that uncle Fu and granny sun had gotten over it.

Chapter 1980: Really speechless

If granny sun's Qi wasn't in her head but somewhere else in her meridians, Lin Yi would be able to help her get rid of it, but it was in her head. Lin Yi didn't want to do anything reckless for fear of causing more damage to granny sun's head, so he decided to be more conservative and let granny sun train on her own.

After sending uncle Fu off with granny sun, granny sun returned to her room and continued cultivating. Now, other than cleaning up the house every day, granny sun spent the rest of her time cultivating. She had found something to do, so she wasn't too bored every day.

Lin Yi was about to head back to school when the villa's doorbell rang. Who would come at a time like this?

It wasn't Shu or the big or small family-they were rehearsing this afternoon, and even if they did come back, they would have the keys. Uncle Fu just left, could it be him?

He opened the door to the villa and saw han Jingjing standing outside the door!

“What are you doing here? Is there anything else?” Seeing han Jingjing made Lin Yi a little depressed. This girl was too clingy, and often asked tricky questions that were hard to answer. Lin Yi usually kept a respectful distance from her.

“I want to get the property certificate, can you accompany me?” Han Jing Jing asked.

“Get the property ownership certificate? You can go and get it yourself, do you need someone to accompany you?” Lin Yi was speechless-she had to go to school, go to the bathroom, and now go back to get her property certificate?

“My car’s at the school, how can I go without it?” Han Jing Jing said.

“Pfft ... Your car’s still at school, and you’re still hitchhiking with me? Are you out of your mind?” Lin Yi really didn’t know what to say.

“Easy to deal with.” Han Jingjing said matter-of-factly, “If I take your car, won’t I be able to save some gas money?”

“You came home just to get these procedures?” Lin Yi looked at the folder in Jingjing’s hand-he had one too, from the agent. He’d use the documents to get the title deed when it came out.

“Yup,” Han Jing Jing nodded.

“Then why didn’t you drive when you knew that you were going to get the property certificate?” Lin Yi didn’t know what to say.

“Don’t I have you?” “You’re driving, why should I? am I stupid?”han Jingjing looked at Lin Yi, confused.

“...” Lin Yi took a deep breath. You’re not stupid, I’m stupid! I’m stupid, alright? He shook his head and calmed himself down, “Wait, I’m going to get the property certificate too!”

“Oh, so you’re going to get the property certificate too? why didn’t you say so earlier? I felt a little guilty. Great, you’re just taking me along the way!” Han Jing Jing said happily.

“I ... I ...” Lin Yi pointed at han Jingjing but didn’t say anything. This girl was from Planet Namek, right? Why was his way of thinking different from normal people? So Lin Yi probably wouldn’t tell her even if he did!

He turned around and took out the folder the agent gave him. According to the agent, the property certificate would be ready in half a month, and he could collect it at the hall. The military training was over, and it had been half a month, but Lin Yi wasn’t in a hurry. He thought he’d collect it during the weekend when he was free, but han Jingjing messed up his plans.

After getting in the car, Lin Yi set up the GPS for the main hall and drove out of the xueshang District with Jingjing.

“You left your car at school and you don’t need to care about it?” Lin Yi asked.

“Of course I do. So, you can accompany me to school tonight to get the car and pick up my brother from school!” Han Jing Jing said.

Lin Yi really wanted to slap himself-what was with that mouth of his? He was just casually finding a topic, but he didn't expect to find trouble for himself.

"Can't you just ask your brother to drive it back?" Lin Yi suggested.

"My brother can't drive." Han Jing Jing said.

"Then why did you come back in my car? Are you free?" Lin Yi was on the verge of breaking down if it weren't for the fact that he'd gone through rigorous training, and his mental fortitude was on a whole other level.

"Why do you say that? Aren't you going to pick up Yaoyao and Shu tonight?" Han Jing Jing asked.

"That's good. They both know how to drive. Let them help your brother drive the car back." Lin Yi thought about it and agreed. He still had to pick up Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu.

"Alright!" "Okay!" Han Jing Jing agreed readily.

Lin Yi let out a breath of relief and was about to say something when Jingjing continued,"But my brother doesn't have the car keys. We have to go and give them the keys."

"...Just pretend I didn't say anything. Let's Go to School together tonight." With that, Lin Yi shut his mouth and didn't say another word to han Jingjing. He was afraid that he would die from anger.

There weren't many people in the lobby at this time, so Lin Yi parked the car downstairs and collected the property certificate with han Jingjing without wasting any time.

He was about to head back to the villa when he heard Jingjing say,""Is there an antique market nearby? Lin Yi bro, can you take me for a walk?"

"What are you doing at the antique market?" Lin Yi asked.

"I want to buy a medicinal cauldron." Han Jing Jing said.

"A medicinal cauldron? Why do you want to buy that thing?" Lin Yi frowned, but his heart skipped a beat. Cauldrons were used by alchemists, and although Daoism used them in ancient times as well, and they sometimes appeared in antique markets, why would a student like han Jingjing need a cauldron?

"I'm studying alchemy!" Han Jing Jing didn't hide anything and told Lin Yi the truth.

"Pill refining?" Lin Yi jumped-who was this han Jingjing? He actually knew about pill refining? Could he also be from some hidden house or ancient sect?

"Yeah, you don't know about pill refining?" Han Jingjing's expression became even weirder as she looked at Lin Yi. "You're studying medicine, but you've never heard of pill refining? Then do you know what an Alchemist is?"

Lin Yi smiled bitterly as he looked at the shocked expression on Jingjing's face. Could it be that the profession of an Alchemist was so common that even ordinary people knew about it?

"Are you talking about the legendary Alchemist in the cultivation world?" Lin Yi asked without changing his expression.

“Ah, so you know about this too, Lin Yi bro! I knew it, those who come to boss Bai’s place to study medicine are more or less the children of their families in the medicine industry!” “I just want to be an Alchemist, so I applied for the medical major,” han Jingjing nodded.
