Chapter 2061: Why should I lend you?

This was the advantage of being a hidden house's disciple-if it was a normal Noble house's disciple, they might never be able to break through the Golden class to the mystic class! Even for the head of the house, Mystic class was already a top class master, but in the hidden houses, it was a piece of cake, especially for a hidden house like house you, which relied on alchemy for a living!

However, right Panhu was a little depressed when he saw the empty classroom. It seemed that being early didn't mean that one could get things done. Usually, no one would come to the University classroom so early before class started. If they had the time, they might as well stay in the dormitory for a while. Who would come to the classroom so early in the morning?

It was popular to study at noon and in the evening in college, but there were fewer self-study sessions in the morning.

"Let's go down and welcome that Lin Yi!" You Panhu looked at the time and said.

"Then ... Should we take the medicinal cauldron down?" The yellow-haired man asked.

"Take it. You and the purple-haired man can take one each. When I tell you to take out one, you will take it out!" You Pan Hu ordered.

"Alright!" The yellow-haired and purple-haired man replied at the same time.

The three of them went down the stairs and walked along the biology Building to the parking lot. Coincidentally, Lin Yi had just arrived at the school with Chu Mengyao, Chen Yushu, han Jingjing, and han Xiaochao, and Lin Yi happened to be walking with han Jingjing towards the biology Building.

"Lin Yi bro, last night, Jing Jing already simplified and improved the way she controls the refinement fire for golden class first and second level. Now, Jing Jing can make a golden class first level refinement fire in ten seconds and a golden class second level refinement fire in thirty seconds!" "The personal notes Lin Yi bro gave me, it's really good stuff!" Han Jing Jing said.

As han Jingjing spoke, right Panhu had already run over. He didn't hear the first half of han Jingjing's words, but he heard the second half clearly. Han Jingjing said that Lin Yi gave her some personal notes-it was really good stuff!

You Panhu was moved and a little annoyed. This Lin Yi was a pervert, with so many beautiful women around him. It'd only been a few days, and he'd gotten together with han Jingjing. It seemed like han Jingjing wanted to learn alchemy too?

Naturally, Lin Yi saw right coiling Tiger as well, but it was too late to stop han Jingjing from talking. She had already finished the second half of her sentence, and Lin Yi could only cough twice to signal her to stop for a while.

“Ha, isn’t this Master Lin Yi? It’s such a coincidence!” Yu Panhu finally understood why Lin Yi and han Jingjing went to the antique Street to buy medicine. It seemed that Lin Yi was not buying it for him, but for han Jingjing!

For a freelancer like Lin Yi, it was already good enough that he had a better cauldron for himself-he wouldn’t have an extra one for han Jingjing, so it was normal for him to go shopping with her. It was just that trash from a street stall couldn’t be used for making pills.

“Right Panhu, what’s wrong with you again? why aren’t you going to class early in the morning? what are you doing here?” Lin Yi said faintly before making a sound of surprise. “I can’t tell? A scholar who has been away for three days should be treated with new eyes, and you actually broke through? From golden class to Mystic class?”

“Haha, you can tell too?” You Panhu didn’t hide his Mystic early phase aura, so he didn’t think it was weird that Lin Yi could tell. “How is it? envious?”

“Envy? Are you crazy? I’m an Earth Class and I’m envious of you Mystic class?” Lin Yi frowned, “you’re here to show off to me that you’ve become a Mystic?” Is there anything else?”

“Of course!” “Lin Yi, the information boss Bai gave you ...” Youpan Hu said quickly.

“What are you doing?” Lin Yi’s face immediately became alert.

“Why are you so nervous? I’m not snatching it from you. I just want to borrow it to take a look!” Youpan Hu saw Lin Yi’s poker face and was a little depressed. He wanted to be a pretty girl and have Lin Yi give him the information.

As far as Yu Panhu was concerned, Lin Yi wouldn’t reject any beauty. He didn’t know that Lin Yi gave han Jingjing something good for a reason, and it had nothing to do with whether han Jingjing was a beauty or not.

“I won’t! Boss Bai didn’t ask me to lend it to anyone. ” “If that’s the case, please go ahead, or you can go and borrow it from boss Bai!” Lin Yi said.

With that, Lin Yi and han Jingjing prepared to leave.

“Wait a moment!” Yu Panhu couldn’t just let Lin Yi go-if they reached the classroom and boss Bai was there, his plan wouldn’t be able to work. If any of the students saw this and reported it to boss Bai, it’d be very bad for him.

“What else is there?” “You don’t think you’re all that now that you’re Mystic, and you’re ready to beat me up, do you?” Lin Yi asked coldly.

“Haha, how can that be!” You Panhu shook his head, “you, Lin Yi, can kill three Earth Class Masters at the same time, and I’m going to beat you up?” I’m not stupid, so don’t try to provoke me, it’s useless!”

“Then what do you want to do?” Lin Yi hmped, but didn’t say anything.

“Wow, Lin Yi bro, you’re so strong! You killed three Earth Class Masters in seconds?” “Jingjing’s admiring you more and more!” Han Jingjing said as she looked at Lin Yi with admiration.

Yu Panhu frowned. Other than Wang Xinyan, this han Jingjing was considered the prettiest girl in the class. Yu Panhu was planning to find a girlfriend in school, but Wang Xinyan was out of the question. Not to mention the conflict they had in the exam hall, Wang Xinyan wouldn't even bother with him. Just the relationship between Wang Xinyan and Lin Yi alone wasn't something he wanted to interfere with!

What if that crazy Lin Yi killed him again?! Boss Bai didn't allow any trouble here, but what if Lin Yi got pissed off and took the risk of getting fired, killing him right away? This was not impossible.

And so, he shifted his gaze to han Jingjing, who ended up with Lin Yi in just two days, calling him big brother and worshipping Him-there was no chance of this happening!

However, these were small matters to Yu Panhu. The women's matter wasn't urgent. The important thing was to get the information from Lin Yi first."Lin Yi, as far as I know, you've already given the information to han Jingjing, right? Boss Bai didn't allow anyone else to see it, which should be referring to the fact that he didn't allow anyone other than his students to see it? Since that's the case, why can't you let me take a look?"

"And why should I show you?" Lin Yi smiled coldly as he looked at him."Are you threatening me?" (To be continued.)

Chapter 2062: I don't want to scam you

"This ... Actually, Lin Yi, I didn't look at it for nothing. I exchanged it with something good!" As right-hand Panhu spoke, he gave the yellow-haired guy a look and said,""Take out that good cauldron and let Lin Yi see it!"

"Yes! Young master you!" The yellow-haired man took out his golden class first level cauldron and raised it in front of Lin Yi.

"A yellow rank first grade medicinal cauldron?" A strange look crossed Lin Yi's eyes. Yu Panhu was using a cauldron to exchange for the information? Lin Yi wanted to laugh-he was still worrying about where to buy a cauldron, and here came an idiot!

However, although Lin Yi wanted to trade, he couldn't make it too obvious on the surface. Otherwise, if right-hand Tiger suffered a loss, he'd definitely not let it go. In order to avoid trouble, Lin Yi decided to let him swallow this loss!

"That's right, it's a golden class first grade cauldron!" "What do you think?" you Panhu proudly said. You went to the antique Street to buy a medicinal cauldron before, right? If I'm not wrong, it should be for han Jingjing, right? However, I can tell you that the medicinal cauldrons sold in the antique Street, whether they are real antiques or imitations, are all handcrafted products. They can't be used to refine pills at all. If they are used to refine pills, the furnace will definitely explode!"

Lin Yi's heart skipped a beat as he looked at the cauldron in the yellow-haired man's hand. The Hidden House you's cauldrons were naturally the ones used by alchemists. Lin Yi believed that Yu Panhu wouldn't lie to him about this-after all, Yu Panhu still didn't know Lin Yi's true strength. He didn't know if Lin Yi was an Alchemist or what level he was at!

“You guessed it right. That medicinal cauldron did explode.” “But I still don’t want to trade with you,” Lin Yi said faintly.

“Your furnace exploded and you still don’t want to change?” Youpan Hu was taken aback by Lin Yi’s contradictory words. “Then why?”

“The reason? The information boss Bai gave me isn’t of much use to you. Your hidden you family has a big business and is an alchemy family. How could you be interested in this kind of ordinary information?” “That’s why I’m afraid you’ll be at a disadvantage, so I won’t trade with you!” Lin Yi said faintly.

“You ...” Yu Panhu heard Lin Yi’s words as if he was thinking for him, meaning that his information wasn’t worth the price of his first grade cauldron, so he didn’t want to exchange it! However, these words had a different meaning in right coiling Tiger’s ears.

Youpan Hu felt that Lin Yi must’ve thought that the first grade cauldron was too weak and didn’t want to trade it with him, which was why he’d said that on purpose. Therefore, you Panhu took a deep breath and calmly said, “Lin Yi, just tell me if you think it’s bad. It’s not like I can’t afford something good. How about this, are you going to trade for a second grade cauldron or not?”

“Second-grade?” Lin Yi was extremely shocked, but he didn’t show it on his face. He looked at Yu Panhu coldly, “You have a second grade medicinal cauldron?”

It was already good enough for Lin Yi to trade this garbage for a first grade medicine cauldron, but he just wanted to make sure that Yu Panhu wouldn’t be so upset after the trade. He didn’t think that Yu Panhu would misunderstand him and take out a second grade medicine cauldron!

Of course, only an idiot wouldn’t want something good, and it wasn’t Lin Yi’s style.

“Naturally!” Right-hand Panhu nodded to purple hair and said, “Take it out and let Lin Yi see!”

“Lin Yi, please take a look, this is a second grade medicine cauldron!” Purple hair took out a medicine cauldron and raised it in front of Lin Yi, “How is it? You’re also an Alchemist, so you should recognize it, right? This is a pure grade two cauldron, made by a high level pill master from the sky pill sect!”

“A grade two cauldron made by the sky elixir sect?” Lin Yi understood-so high-tier refiners could make their own cauldrons! But Lin Yi’s face was still as cold as ever, “I still don’t really want to change!”

“F * ck!” Yu Panhu thought that a second grade medicine cauldron was enough to move Lin Yi, but he didn’t expect Lin Yi to still not want to trade! However, Lin Yi’s tone changed a little this time. He said “I don’t really want to change,” which meant that Lin Yi was a little moved, but he didn’t have enough conditions! Therefore, you Panhu held back his anger and asked patiently, “Lin Yi, what do I have to do for you to trade?”

“Right-hand Panhu, it’s not that I don’t want to trade with you, but the information in my hands is really not of much use to you!” “I don’t think your hidden house you’re short on information like this,” Lin Yi said seriously, “why are you making things difficult for me?” Boss Bai already said that I can’t show it to anyone!”

“Lacking, why not?” “Since you’ve already shown it to Han Jingjing, you don’t mind giving me one, right?” You Panhu quickly said.

“Han Jingjing is a new Alchemist, so this information will be useful to her. But you ... Your alchemy skills should not be bad. It’s useless to look at this information!” Lin Yi said.

“F * ck, Lin Yi, what’s with all this bullshit? Even if I bring back a pile of junk, that’s because I’m willing to. Why are you so worried about me?” “I’m willing to trade, but you can’t buy my willingness with money, you know?” Youpan Hu finally couldn’t hold back his anger and said. If you think my conditions are not suitable, just say it! Don’t think I don’t know what you’re thinking, don’t! You clearly feel that one medicinal cauldron is too little, don’t you?”

“This ...” Lin Yi looked at the rampaging right-hand Tiger and sighed helplessly. There were quite a few, really quite a few!

“As expected, two cauldrons, one grade one and one grade two. How about it? Two for one, are you going to trade or not? Give me a straightforward answer!” Youpan Hu took both the cauldrons from the purple-haired and yellow-haired men and gave them to Lin Yi.

“Tsk tsk ... I really want these two medicinal cauldrons, but that information isn’t worth this much!” Lin Yi smiled bitterly. “You Panhu, you’re my classmate now. I don’t want to set you up. Listen to me and don’t change!”

“If you don’t change, you’re the one who’s scamming me!” You Panhu was extremely excited as he held the two cauldrons and said, “Lin Yi, if you’re my classmate, you should help your classmate!”

“Lin Yi bro, why don’t we exchange with him ... I need a cauldron too, right? He’s pretty pitiful too ...” Han Jingjing said weakly.

“Look, look, I’m so confused. Why is there such a big difference between students who live and study in the same classroom?” You Pan Hu looked at Han Jing Jing and said excitedly, “A bosom friend!” (To be continued.)

Chapter 2063: regret

Lin Yi was speechless, but he still said, “Alright, but I’ll exchange with you. Don’t go back on your word after you’re done!”

However, Lin Yi had to admit that Han Jingjing’s interruption was perfect. It gave Lin Yi an excuse to step down. Otherwise, Lin Yi would have to dawdle for a while.

“Whoever goes back on their word is a bastard!” You Panhu said firmly.

“Fine. Actually, Jing Jing just so happens to be lacking medicinal cauldrons. Since you insist on changing, then I can only change.” “Jing Jing, give me the cauldron!” Lin Yi sighed.

“Here you go!” Youpan Hu was afraid that Lin Yi would go back on his words, so he gave the two cauldrons to Han Jingjing after Lin Yi agreed! He was in boss Bai’s class, after all, and he wasn’t afraid that Lin Yi would steal the information from him. If that were the case, he wouldn't mind telling on Lin Yi.

Han Jingjing happily brought the two cauldrons over, while Lin Yi opened the folder that contained his textbooks and took out some information. It was the refinement fire and refiner's support arts that boss Bai copied for him.

"It's here, you can have it." Lin Yi handed the information to him. "Give it back to me after you make a copy. This original is boss Bai's, and I still have to return it to him!"

"Alright, alright!" The right coiling Tiger repeatedly nodded in response.

Yu Panhu took the file from Lin Yi and opened it up impatiently. However, when he opened the file, his face changed! Then, he couldn't wait to quickly flip through the information. However, as he flipped through the information faster, his expression became uglier and uglier. By the time he reached the last page of the information, right Panhu's face had already turned green!

"Lin Yi, you tricked me!" "Is this the information boss Bai gave you?" you Panhu said angrily.

"Yeah, you can ask boss Bai if you don't believe me." Lin Yi said faintly.

"You know I can't ask boss Bai!" You Panhu's eyes were about to spit fire. His two medicinal cauldrons, although there were still some grade one and grade two medicinal cauldrons in the you family, they couldn't be wasted like this!

"Oh, if you still don't believe me, you can naturally come with me when I return the information." Lin Yi said faintly.

"This ..." Yu Panhu knew that Lin Yi wouldn't lie to him after hearing what Lin Yi said. This information was probably from boss Bai! And what boss Bai gave Lin Yi was only basic information on how to become an Alchemist, not any technical information!

At the end of the day, he, right coiling Tiger, had fallen for a trap, a huge trap! What kind of treasure was he treating the information in Lin Yi's hands like? he'd paid the price of two cauldrons for a useless manual!

"Lin Yi, you know that this is the information on how to get into the beginner level of alchemy. It's of no value to me, so why didn't you tell me?" "You even took two of my medicinal cauldrons!" You Panhu said angrily. "Did you do it on purpose?"

"I say, right coiling Tiger, are you retarded? I've been advising you not to change it before. I'm telling you, your hidden you family definitely doesn't lack this thing!" Lin Yi frowned and smiled coldly, "but what did you say?" It's hard to buy your willingness with money. You're willing to exchange with me! I'd be scamming you if I said I'd trade with you, but you're the one who'd be scamming you if you said you wouldn't trade. You're forcing me to trade, so what can I do?"

"This ..." You Panhu was speechless, he had no reason to refute Lin Yi's words. "Then ... I don't want to change ..."

"You don't want to change? You don't want to change just because you say so? You've already read the information, and you're saying you won't change it? Are you going to dig out your eyes or your brain and erase what you saw before?" Lin Yi's lips twitched, "I don't have time for you. Aren't you going to copy the information?" If you don't want to copy it, then give it back to me!"

With that, Lin Yi snatched the documents back from right Panhu's hands and left with han Jingjing, ignoring him.

You Panhu felt very aggrieved. He felt that he had suffered a huge loss. Although these two cauldrons were useless to him, they were very precious in the Hidden House you. Who would be happy to give them to Lin Yi for no reason?

However, no matter how frustrated he was, he couldn't come up with a reason. He thought about it carefully and realized that Lin Yi had indeed rejected him before, and even advised him not to trade with him. He was the one who insisted on trading with Lin Yi, so who was to blame?

Of course, he didn't think that Lin Yi was that kind. He sympathetically advised him not to trade with Lin Yi, but Lin Yi was obviously playing hard to get!

Otherwise, why didn't Lin Yi tell him directly that the information boss Bai gave him was only the most basic of all refiner's entry Arts? If she had said so earlier, she wouldn't have exchanged with him, right? And after the exchange, Lin Yi took the cauldron and left, not showing any pity at all!

It was obvious that Lin Yi was trying to trick right coiling Tiger into falling into his trap! That was why right Panhu was extremely depressed! However, in boss Bai's class, there was nothing he could do even if he was depressed. Lin Yi wasn't robbing or threatening-this was a fair exchange, and there were no other factors involved. Even if it was boss Bai, right coiling Tiger wouldn't be in the right.

Therefore, the right coiling Tiger could only swallow it down.

"Damn it, Lin Yi tricked me!" "You bastard!" You Panhu said hatefully. "I'll get back at you sooner or later!"

The yellow-haired and purple-haired men didn't dare to say anything. They were also responsible for right-hand Tiger's fall. They didn't see the situation clearly and stop him in time. Therefore, they were afraid that right-hand Tiger would find trouble with them.

"Young master you, please calm down. Lin Yi obviously planned it all out, and we couldn't guard against him!" The yellow-haired man said.

"That's right, young master you, we can only learn from our mistakes now. If you want to blame someone, blame Lin Yi. He acted too well, people couldn't tell the difference between the real and the fake!" The purple-haired guy said.

"You two, think of a way now! Think of a good way, I want to disgust Lin Yi! We can't just let this go, even if we can't get the cauldron back, we have to make Lin Yi suffer!" "Or else I won't be able to sleep!" Youpan Hu said.

"Yes, young master you, we'll think of a way!" The yellow-haired and purple-haired man nodded quickly.

The three of them talked as they walked towards the biology teaching building. You Panhu's good mood from just breaking through to the mystic class had disappeared without a trace. When he returned home, he would have to deal with his uncle's scolding. Although it might not be very strict, it would be a stain on his life to have a bad start on his first transaction with someone. (To be continued.)

Chapter 2064: News of colored steel (1)

Lin Yi and han Jingjing walked in front, and han Jingjing was holding the two cauldrons with a smile on her face.

"Lin Yi bro, that Yu Panhu is an idiot. The arts and Arts are the most common things, and he wants to trade them for them!" Han Jingjing already knew from Lin Yi that the chant and support arts for refining the pill fire were all cheap stuff, and the stuff in the personal notes Lin Yi gave her was the real good stuff.

However, han Jingjing was completely different from both of them, and she came up with a more scientific way of refining the refinement fire. So in comparison, han Jingjing's refinement Fire Heart Sutra was the most important. Even if Lin Yi's Heart Sutra was given to her, han Jingjing's Heart Sutra must not be given away!

"Of course he's stupid. I'm afraid he's regretting it so much that his intestines are green." "Jing Jing, you're not an idiot," Lin Yi said faintly, "what you said in front of you Panhu just now came at the right time!"

"Jing Jing isn't stupid. Although compared to Lin Yi bro, Jing Jing is a little stupid, but compared to other people, Jing Jing is very smart!" Han Jingjing said in all seriousness.

Lin Yi looked at han Jingjing's serious face, but he couldn't see anything wrong. He shook his head. Maybe Shu was overthinking. Han Jingjing was smart, but she wasn't that scheming. At least Lin Yi couldn't sense any evil intentions from her!

Lin Yi was a very sensitive person. When he was carrying out missions in the primeval forest, he played a lot of Infernal Affairs. It was almost easy to tell whether they were friend or foe. Han Jingjing, on the other hand, didn't have the wariness of an enemy, but she was honest!

She'd told Lin Yi everything she'd come up with, and from that alone, it was clear that she wasn't a bad person.

"Fine, you're actually quite smart compared to me." Lin Yi said.

"That's right, Jingjing knows her own limits, she's not as smart and strong as Lin Yi bro!" "I've never admired or worshipped anyone before, but after seeing Lin Yi bro, I think he's amazing!"

She walked into the classroom with han Jingjing, and although they'd gotten to know each other quite a bit, she still took the seat behind Lin Yi on her own accord, not fighting with Xinyan over anything.

Wang Xinyan, on the other hand, was just like every day, sitting in her seat, quietly reading a book.

"Morning." Lin Yi said.

"Hehe, morning." Wang Xinyan raised her head and smiled at Lin Yi.

“Did fan ganhe harass you these days?” Lin Yi knew that Zhang duopan often found an excuse to call he meiyue, and fan ganhe would use this opportunity to find Wang Xinyan, but he didn’t have anything to do with Wang Xinyan. Wang Xinyan didn’t want to pick up again after two calls, but fan ganhe persevered.

“Not in the past two days.” “But it’s fine if you call me again, I’m not picking up.” Xinyan shook her head.

“Right, you and Yaoyao seem to get along well?” This was what Lin Yi wanted to ask Xinyan-she seemed to get along very well with Mengyao the other day, and Lin Yi wondered what the two were talking about.

“Yaoyao’s a nice person. She might have misunderstood me before, but it’s all over now that I’ve explained it.” Xinyan, naturally, wouldn’t tell Lin Yi what Mengyao said to her-it’d be too embarrassing.

“Is that so ...” Lin Yi didn’t ask anymore, seeing that Xinyan didn’t want to talk about it.

A while later, youpan Hu walked into the classroom with the purple and yellow-haired boys, depressed. He glared at Lin Yi and sat down in his seat.

He looked at the two cauldrons that han Jingjing was fiddling with, and he was sure that Lin Yi was giving them to han Jingjing, and that the support arts and refinement chant were also from boss Bai!

Perhaps Lin Yi didn’t want to share his Arts with others, and so he got a common one from boss Bai. Coincidentally, he thought it was something good, and gave two cauldrons to han Jingjing for free!

Not long after you Panhu arrived, boss Bai also arrived and started today’s class ...

At noon, not long after class ended, Lin Yi’s phone rang. He picked it up and saw that it was han xiaopo’s number that he saved.

“Hello? Han xiaopo?” Lin Yi answered.

“Senior Lin, it’s me!” Han xiaopo said, “did you receive the text message from before?” I’ve already prepared the colored steel!”

“I’ve received it.” Lin Yi said.

Han xiaopo had said that she’d be delivering the colored steel the next day, but Lin Yi was busy with Xu Shihan’s matters and didn’t have much time to see her. On the other hand, han xiaopo found out about Lin Yi inviting Xu Shihan to perform, and sent a text to Lin Yi, telling him to busy himself with the freshmen party first and to come back after the party.

“En, senior Lin, congratulations on getting first place in the freshmen Gala!” Han xiaopo said with a smile.

“You know about it?” Lin Yi had been wondering how familiar this han xiaopo was with Lin Yi’s Affairs.

“Hehe, it’s like this. We, the hidden han family, have a few distant children studying at East Ocean industry University. I can get some information from them.” Han xiaopo didn’t try to hide it.

“I see.” Lin Yi wasn’t surprised-even right coiling Tiger came here to study, so it was normal for hidden house han to send someone. To put it bluntly, hidden houses were people too, and while some of the top-class Masters were in isolated practicing, many of them were still in the common world, training and learning.

“Senior Lin, are you free at noon? I’m at the entrance of East Ocean Industry University now. I’ve brought the colored steel!” Han Xiaopo said.

“I don’t have anything to do this afternoon. Where are you?” Lin Yi asked.

“I’m at the school gate. I was afraid of disturbing senior Lin’s class, so I didn’t dare to text or call in advance.” Han Xiaopo said.

“Alright, wait for me at the school gate.” Lin Yi said.

Lin Yi hung up the phone and left alone after bidding farewell to Bai Weitao.

Otherwise, everyone would have gone to the cafeteria for lunch every day.

At the school gate, Lin Yi saw Han Xiaopo from afar. Han Xiaopo was very low-key today, not bringing any followers. He also drove a Mercedes-Benz S600, not a sports car.

“Yeah.” Lin Yi nodded.

“Senior Lin, I’ve already booked a table at the Northern Ocean Seafood Restaurant in Eastern Sea City. I hope senior Lin will do me the honor.” As Han Xiaopo said this, he made a gesture of “please” and opened the door of the Mercedes-Benz S600.

“Let’s go,” he said. Lin Yi sighed. He wasn’t really interested in food, but if Xiaoxiao was here, it would be a good idea to bring her along. The food here was really good, and the ingredients were fresh too. Xiaoxiao would like it.

This time, Han Xiaopo was the driver. After getting on the car, they went straight to the Arctic Ocean Seafood Restaurant.

This was Lin Yi’s second time at the seafood restaurant, and there were still a lot of luxury cars at the entrance, so much so that Han Xiaopo’s Mercedes-Benz S600 didn’t stand out at all. There were all kinds of sports cars, including Bentley, Rolls-Royce, and so on.

However, although Han Xiaopo’s car was not particularly outstanding, she received a warm welcome the moment she entered the door. Even the lobby manager personally ran over. “Young Master Han, you’re here!”

Han Xiaopo nodded, but said, “This is the honored guest!”

“Welcome! Welcome to the Northern Ocean Seafood Restaurant. Two distinguished guests, please get on the elevator. The private room has been prepared. Today, I will personally serve you two distinguished guests!” The lobby manager said quickly.

The Hidden House han, where han xiaopo was from, might be the weakest hidden family, but in Donghai city, the Hidden House han was the most powerful family besides the Hidden House Zhao. The managers and waiters of these restaurants naturally did not dare to neglect them.

“This gentleman looks very familiar. Have you also visited our shop before?” The manager asked as they got into the elevator-Lin Yi looked familiar.

“En, I just came here with my friend a few days ago, but the price here is too high. My friend was ruthlessly ripped off.” Lin Yi said with a smile.

“Ah?” The manager was taken aback. He didn’t know who Lin Yi was, but he knew who han xiaopo was. How could the hidden han family not have money? Although han xiaopo only drove a Mercedes-Benz S600 here, he was just being low-key. But Lin Yi said that the price here was high, which made the lobby manager a little difficult to answer!

However, he reacted quickly and said,“”Haha, it’s indeed a little high. I’ll give you a 50% discount for this meal!”

“There’s no need for a 50% discount. ” Han xiaopo waved her hand and said,“go and apply for a VIP card for senior Lin. In the future, when he comes here, everything will be free. As long as senior Lin signs the bill, I’ll pay for it. I’ll settle the bill at the end of the year.”

The Hidden House han didn’t care about this small amount of money at all-they did have money and treasures now, but they didn’t have ruthless with them, which was why they were targeted and bullied by the other hidden houses. If they could get Lin Yi closer to the Hidden House han, this small amount of money wouldn’t be a big deal at all! Even if it was a little more, the hidden han family could afford it!

“Okay ...” The manager was even more shocked. It seemed that this person called senior Lin was a big Shot that even the hidden han family couldn’t afford to offend. The hidden han family probably still needed his help, so the manager quickly nodded and said,“”I’ll get someone to apply for it later. Not only can senior Lin’s VIP card be used for consumption, but you’ll also enjoy the highest VIP treatment in the future. You’ll get a 30% discount on all expenses and enjoy the treatment of a private room. ”

“Alright, you can go now. Deposit 10 million Yuan into senior Lin’s card first, and I’ll swipe it together with the payment later!” Han xiaopo said indifferently.

Lin Yi didn’t reject her. The more han xiaopo tried to please him, the more important the Hidden House Summit was to the Hidden House! Especially the ranking at the summit, so seeing han xiaopo’s attitude, Lin Yi decided to help them a little more!

Han xiaopo had said that they wouldn’t take the treasures they won at the summit. They would give all of them to Lin Yi as a reward, which meant that the more Lin Yi won, the more treasures he would get.

The private room this time was completely different from the one Zhang duopan had when he was treating them to a meal. The private room this time was as luxurious as a Palace, like a Crystal Palace, while Zhang duopan’s private room could only be considered ordinary!

This place couldn’t be any more luxurious, even more so than the Starlight Hotel in Songshan! Not only was this private room astonishingly large, but the decorations were also unusually exquisite. All kinds of antiques and famous people's calligraphy and paintings could be seen everywhere. Even if they were counterfeits, they were still excellent works!

Being able to let people admire the calligraphy and paintings of famous people in their spare time while eating was also a pretty good enjoyment! From the looks of it, this kind of private room could only be opened by distinguished guests like Han Xiaopo. Ordinary guests with lower spending would definitely not be invited to a private room of this level.

"The dishes are ready. Shall we serve them now?" The lobby manager invited the two of them into the private room and asked carefully.

"Senior Lin, what do you think?" Han Xiaopo didn't make the decision and asked for Lin Yi's opinion.

"It's mealtime. Serve the dishes. We'll talk as we eat!" Lin Yi said with a nod.

"Did you hear that? Serve the dishes now!" Han Xiaopo said to the lobby manager.

"Alright, I'll go and give the orders!" The lobby manager nodded, turned around, and left the room to prepare.

At this time, only Lin Yi and Han Xiaopo were left in the room. Han Xiaopo smiled and took out a small box, pushing it in front of Lin Yi, "Senior Lin, please check if this is the colored steel you need."

"Oh?" Lin Yi nodded and took the small box. This Han Xiaopo really kept her word. He hadn't even helped them hide Han's name in the competition yet and they already gave out the reward, regardless of the outcome.

Lin Yi opened the box and saw a piece of metal with a mixture of seven colors. It was about the size of a quail egg, like a piece of metal sprayed with camouflage paint. But according to Lin Yi's observation, this metal was definitely not sprayed with paint, but a natural metal with this color!

"Elder Jiao, is this colored steel?" he asked. Lin Yi pretended to be observing the steel, but he was actually asking Elder Jiao.

"That's right, little Lin, this is colored steel!" Elder Jiao's voice sounded in Lin Yi's ear, "However, this piece is too small. The colored steel is the main material of the three materials needed to expand the space of the jade pendant, and it also needs the most amount. With such a small piece, the space for refining will not be too big!"

Lin Yi was a little disappointed, but he still asked, "Han Xiaopo, you only have this small piece of colored steel?"

Chapter 2066: use of colored steel

"Yes, senior Lin. The Han family only has this small piece of land right now!" Han Xiaopo said, "this thing is of no use to the hidden Han family. I heard that it is a supplementary material that only legendary forgers and high-level alchemists can use. The hidden Han family does not have any alchemists or forgers. It is useless to have it, so we will definitely not keep it."

"I believe you!" Lin Yi nodded. Since han xiaopo was willing to give all the prizes to Lin Yi, she must have put in a lot of money. If she still had this kind of colored steel, she wouldn't leave some behind. If Lin Yi found out about it, their relationship would be torn!

At least, Lin Yi could tell that the Hidden House han was trying to get him on their side. As long as the head of the Hidden House wasn't stupid, he wouldn't do something as stupid as holding back.

"Senior Lin, are these colored steel not enough?" Han xiaopo asked.

"En, it's a little less." "Any more?" Lin Yi said faintly.

"That's hard to say-we don't have any hidden house han left, but the other hidden noble houses might have more!" "Because this thing isn't very useful to hidden houses," han xiaopo said."It's of little value, so we've never asked around before who has it."

Lin Yi nodded,"so you're saying that it's not that rare, but that it's not that useful to the houses, right?" "What does an Alchemist need this for?"

"That's right!" Han xiaopo nodded and said,"although I don't know what senior Lin needs this colored steel for, from what I know, this thing can only be used by forgers. As for alchemists, I heard that those high-level alchemists can also use it. They also need to add this colored steel when they use it to forge medicinal cauldrons!"

It turned out that the forging of medicinal cauldrons also required the addition of colored steel. It was no wonder that ordinary medicinal cauldrons would explode when used. It seemed that although the medicinal cauldron that Han Jing Jing had obtained from right coiling Tiger was made of copper, it was probably also made of a special material like colored steel, which was why it could be used by alchemists.

"So the colored steel I obtained can really be used to forge medicinal cauldrons." Lin Yi nodded, his voice calm.

He knew that if he used the Hidden House han to look for the colored steel, it would raise suspicion. Since han xiaopo said that the colored steel could be used to make cauldrons, Lin Yi would just push the blame on the cauldron.

"Oh? From what you're saying, you're an Alchemist?" Han xiaopo's eyes flashed with a strange light.

"That's right, I'm an Alchemist!" Lin Yi nodded,"I did get a cauldron-casting manual and was ready to try making one for myself. That's why I'm looking for colored steel in large quantities. I didn't know that colored steel could be used to cast cauldrons, but now that you've confirmed it, it seems that the manual is real."

"I see. I was wondering why senior Lin was looking for this rare colored steel!" "But, this colored steel can't be used by most people," han xiaopo said,"but at the Hidden House Summit, no one will use it as a treasure. The other forces won't allow it either. After all, this thing isn't very useful to us ..."

"Then, how can I get more colored steel?" Lin Yi asked.

"This ... Our hidden han family can help senior Lin find out, but we can only rely on luck." "I'm not sure if I can get more colored steel," han xiaopo said honestly,"after all, among the hidden houses, the Hidden House Han doesn't have much say. If they could stand at the same height as the Hidden House Yu, Hidden House You, or even the Hidden House Zhao, who just had a Sky Class master, it would be easy to go to other houses to find colored steel."

Lin Yi nodded. With House Han's current strength, asking them to go to the hidden houses to find colored steel for him was like asking a Tiger for its skin!

If he could help the Hidden House win a few more matches at the Hidden House Summit, then it might be possible for the Hidden House's position to rise a little. However, this rise would be dependent on the Han family's own gradual accumulation of connections. If he wanted them to help him find the colored steel, he didn't know how long it would take.

"Is there no other way?" Lin Yi asked, a little disappointed.

"I can't say that there isn't ..." Han Xiaopo hesitated and said, "Other ways are just a matter of luck ..."

"Tell me about it." Lin Yi said. Sometimes, it was better to have a way than nothing. One more way was one more hope.

"Not long after the Hidden House Summit, there'll be a practitioner market. We can go there and take a look." Han Xiaopo said.

"Cultivator market? What's that?" Lin Yi asked with a frown.

"I'm guessing that Senior Lin probably doesn't know about the existence of the cultivator's city square, that's why he brought it up. It seems that Senior Lin really doesn't know." Han Xiaopo nodded and said, "Actually, the Hidden Han family only found out about this cultivator's market in recent years!" As for the cultivator market, the participants are all from well-known cultivation families, and some are rogue cultivators who have Masters to lead the way. If other cultivators don't have someone to lead the way, they won't be able to find it!"

"Tell me about the situation of this cultivator's market." Lin Yi nodded.

"The cultivator market, as its name suggests, is a place where cultivators trade with each other. It's a small trade fair where cultivators can trade with each other. They can set up stalls to sell treasures, elixirs, cultivation manuals, and so on that are of no use to them. They can either sell them for money or exchange them for items they need!" "There are more wandering cultivators there," Han Xiaopo explained, "maybe we can find the colored steel and the other items that Senior Lin needs."

"So there really is such a trade fair." Lin Yi was overjoyed. With a trade fair like this, it would be much easier for him to find things in the future! Furthermore, if Han Jingjing could concoct pills in the future, she could also concoct some pills to sell and Exchange. That would be a good way.

"Yes, not only do they have such a trade fair, the hidden houses also have regular auctions!" Han Xiaopo said, "the things in the market can only be considered ordinary, but the things in the auction are the real good things! Moreover, you can also choose the auction house to exchange for a specific item. If Senior Lin has other treasures, you can also request to exchange for some colored steel!" (To be continued.)

Chapter 2067: -it's Zhao Qibing

“So that’s how it is, when will the Hidden House auction be held?” Lin Yi asked.

“I’m not too sure about that. Our hidden house Han’s Information Network isn’t that good either, and we’ll only receive the news before the auction. But I heard that the Hidden House auction is held by a few large hidden houses, so we’ll send an invitation.” “If senior Lin is interested, you can come with me!” Han xiaopo said.

“Alright!” “I’ll leave it to you then,” Lin Yi nodded.

“Don’t worry, senior Lin, I’ll definitely keep an eye out.” Han xiaopo said.

As they spoke, there was a knock on the door-it was the waiter serving the food. The two stopped their conversation and waited for the waiter to serve the food. The manager then gave Lin Yi a VIP card and a few fruit plates and a bottle of red wine before leaving the room and closing the door.

“Senior Lin, please enjoy your meal!” Han xiaopo made a hand gesture of “please.”

“Let’s talk while we eat. It’s just the two of us, and there are no outsiders. There are no such rules.” Lin Yi, on the other hand, was famished. He picked up his chopsticks without hesitation.”First, tell me when the Hidden House Summit will be, and what do I need to prepare?”

“Alright, senior Lin!” Han xiaopo nodded and picked up her chopsticks as well, eating with Lin Yi as she spoke,”“The Hidden House Summit will be held on the 15th of this month. The location hasn’t been announced yet, but if I’m not wrong, it’ll be in Donghai city, because the host is the Hidden House Zhao!”

“Hidden house Zhao?” Lin Yi’s eyes flashed with a complicated look-this hidden house Zhao could be considered his enemy, but Zhao qikun was his follower!

“Yes, actually, this hidden house Summit isn’t the same as the previous ones. It’s obvious that a few powerful hidden houses are allying together to split the treasures our hidden house han found in the ancient ruins!” “They can’t Rob us openly because of the rules,” han xiaopo said with some anger.”They’re making up excuses to force us, the hidden han family, to share some of the good treasures with them!”

“The strong eat the weak. That’s the rule in the world of cultivation.” Lin Yi wasn’t surprised-it wasn’t that the hidden houses were unreasonable, after all. The world of practicing was a place where the strong preyed on the weak-who could you blame if you weren’t strong enough?

Lin Yi, on the other hand, forcefully went to the an family, seriously injured an Jiande, broke an Jianwen’s leg, and demanded a huge amount of compensation from an Jianwen. It all came down to Lin Yi’s power!

Breaking Zhao Qibing’s legs, blowing up his skyscraper, and crippling uncle Zhu ... All of this was because of Lin Yi’s strength!

Otherwise, Lin Yi would’ve died many times already!

“Of course, I know that ...” Han xiaopo smiled bitterly.”But, even if our hidden house han isn’t doing well, and we’re prepared to pay a huge price, we don’t want to lose too badly. If that happens, we’ll lose all our face among the hidden houses! That's why we'd like to ask senior Lin to come out. Even if we only win one match, it'll give our hidden house some face!"

"Ha, what if I win a few more rounds?" Lin Yi asked.

"All the wagers you win will belong to senior Lin!" Han xiaopo's eyes suddenly lit up. "Furthermore, all the wagers that the hidden han family has placed will belong to senior Lin. In addition, senior Lin can also take a few more treasures from the hidden han family's treasure vault, or you can also state some other conditions!"

"Let's look at the events before we decide." Lin Yi knew that han xiaopo's conditions were tempting, but he had to have the strength to get them. He wouldn't do something that was dangerous and suicide. He didn't want to lose his life for those treasures!

Helping house han was just a piece of cake. Although han xiaopo's performance was not bad from the beginning to the end, Lin Yi and the Hidden House han didn't have much of a relationship. He only took a piece of colored steel from them. As long as he helped them win the car race, he didn't owe them anything.

As for the others, Lin Yi would see what the situation was like. He wouldn't act rashly.

"I haven't received the details of the competition yet. We'll only know when we arrive!" "But according to the speculations of previous years 'events,'" han xiaopo said, "there are certainly racing, reflexes, and martial arts competitions, but racing is 100% possible. It's an important event to train the coordination of a cultivator's hands, feet, and brain!"

"Car racing ..." Lin Yi smiled, "I see that your driving skills are not bad. Are they so confident that they can beat you?"

"This is really nothing ..." Han xiaopo heard Lin Yi's words and couldn't help but shake her head, saying bitterly, "I wonder if senior Lin has heard of the Hidden House Zhao?"

Although han xiaopo had received news that Lin Yi and the Hidden House Zhao didn't get along, and that the Hidden House Zhao even sent an Earth Class late phase Zhao Guang'er to kill Lin Yi last time, but he was killed instead, it wasn't a good idea to say it out loud.

"Hidden house Zhao?" Lin Yi picked up the glass of red wine in front of him and took a sip. He smiled coldly. "Could it be that they have a racing master?"

"That's right!" "I heard that the Hidden House Zhao has just accepted an illegitimate son back home." Han xiaopo nodded and said, "the illegitimate son's cultivation strength is not very good, but he has a lot of tricks in racing! He's good at racing, and elder bi from house Zhao took him in as a disciple, training him to become a practitioner-this way, his brain and hands are working together even better, and he'll most likely win this race ... Of course, that's if Lin-qianbei doesn't do anything!"

"Pfft ... Cough cough!" Lin Yi was drinking red wine, but he spat it out when he heard what han xiaopo said, "You mean Zhao Qibing?"

"Yeah, that's Zhao Qibing!" "Senior Lin, do you know him?" han xiaopo nodded.

"I know him, why not?" "That guy's my nemesis, but he's never had a good time with me. But how did he become a racing master?" Lin Yi smiled.

"That Zhao Qibing is a professional racer!" Han xiaopo said, "he studied abroad in his early years. He was a fighter in an underground race overseas and was known as the Hell's racing God!" A hidden house's illegitimate son like him, if he wasn't acknowledged by his family, he would naturally be a good-for-nothing rich kid. It was normal for him to like racing! "I heard that he once had a racing master as his master when he was abroad ..."

Chapter 2068: seizing the opportunity

Lin Yi was speechless after hearing the introduction. He didn't expect Qibing to be a master at racing! He had originally thought that he was a guy with no achievements!

"He's here, but I didn't see him participate in any car racing." Lin Yi said.

"That's true. According to our hidden house Han's Intel, Zhao Qibing has been trying to get the Hidden House Zhao's approval ever since he came back. Naturally, he wouldn't go racing anymore-wouldn't that be the same as his old self? He's always wanted to make some achievements to gain the Hidden House Zhao's recognition, but I didn't think that whatever he did, he would fail. Instead, he was recognized by the Hidden House Zhao and brought back to acknowledge his ancestors!" "It's just the reason," han xiaopo said. "The hidden han family doesn't know. We didn't find out either!"

The Hidden House han and the Hidden House Zhao were both hidden cultivation families in Eastern Sea city, so they naturally paid more attention to each other's movements than the other families. However, they couldn't find out some of the secrets.

"I didn't think that Zhao Qibing would be this capable!" Lin Yi, to be honest, was extremely shocked. "I couldn't tell, this guy didn't really drive in Songshan."

"Man, I heard that he offended someone and had his legs broken several times. How could he have the chance to drive? Han xiaopo said, "now, my legs can be considered to be fine ... "That's why, after seeing Master Lin's driving skills on the highway, I think that only he can beat Zhao Qibing!"

Lin Yi was speechless, "I was the one who broke his leg ... However, this guy seems to be quite powerful. How about I find an excuse to break his leg again during the competition? This way, he won't be able to drive. "

"SSSS ..." Han xiaopo took in a cold breath. This Lin Yi-qianbei was really cruel. He even wanted to break Zhao Qibing's legs? However, han xiaopo explained, "Senior Lin, you can't do that-the Hidden House Summit's biggest taboo is for the participants to fight in private. If there's any trouble, the first person to cause trouble will be disqualified, so this won't work ..."

"I see." Lin Yi nodded, but if it was before the competition, he really wouldn't have the chance to meet Zhao Qibing. The guy was hiding in the Hidden House Zhao, and Lin Yi couldn't just kill his way into the Hidden House Zhao, could he?

“That’s right, so it’s better for senior Lin to show his true strength. But in my opinion, senior Lin can definitely beat him!” Han xiaopo said.

“Oh, then I’ll do my best.” Lin Yi nodded, “the Hidden House Summit is in the middle of the month. It’s only a few days away. Can we bring our own car for the race, or do we have to use the car provided by the organizer?”

“That’s what I’m going to say next!” Han xiaopo said, “you must use the car provided by the organizer. You’re not allowed to bring your own car!” Which of these hidden houses didn’t have their own connections? It’s easy to modify a car, and it’s even possible to modify a car into a plane. So, to be fair, we must use the car provided by the organizer to participate in the competition. Every car is in the state of being freshly manufactured, so it’ll be the same as the new car. ”

“Hmm ... What kind of car will be provided this time?” Lin Yi asked.

This rule was fair, but it wasn’t fair at all. If they chose a car that Zhao Qibing was good at, even if it was a new car, they would still have an advantage over the others! It was just as han xiaopo had said-the Hidden House Summit was targeting the Hidden House han, so this race might have been set as the Hidden House Zhao’s win. In that case, the car’s pick would definitely be in Qibing’s favor.

“This car ...” Speaking of this, han xiaopo hesitated, “Originally, the model of this car was only known two days before the competition, but our han family also has spies and informants, and we found out that the hidden Zhao family purchased a batch of cars this time, but ...”

“But what?” Lin Yi asked.

“But this car ...” Han xiaopo hesitated for a moment and said, “This car is the most common Volkswagen Jetta ... I don’t know what house Zhao means, are they deliberately confusing us, or something else ... But I heard that the Hidden House Zhao has long wanted to get involved in the car rental industry. Maybe after the cars used for this competition are used up, they can directly use them for car rental operations and save a lot of money. After all, the Hidden House Zhao isn’t particularly rich, far from our hidden house han!”

Lin Yi nodded, “if that Zhao Qibing is really good at racing, then the more ordinary the car, the more the difference can be made. The Jetta might be the model for this race, but your hidden house han is quite rich?”

“Of course. In the ancient ruins we discovered, not only were there many good cultivation treasures, but there were also a lot of gold and silver treasures. It was enough for us to hide the Han family’s expenses for several generations. Even if we didn’t find a way to make money within these few generations, it’s fine!” “Because Grandpa also said that it’s the time to stabilize the Hidden House Han’s status as a hidden Noble House, not the time to develop. Only after stabilizing the name of the hidden Noble House and improving our strength can we start researching and developing! “Our generation doesn’t need to study how to make money.”

“You guys did the right thing-the Hidden House Zhao only started using Zhao Qibing to test the waters and earn money in the mortal world. Your hidden house Han’s Foundation is still too shallow.” “But a few generations is a bit too long,” Lin Yi agreed, “grab this opportunity-your generation might bring the Hidden House han to glory too!”

Lin Yi's eyes weren't limited to the common world's noble houses anymore-he'd pretty much settled all of them already, and his eyes were on the hidden houses! The Hidden House Zhao and hidden house Yu both had Lin Yi's underlings-if he could drag the Hidden House han down with him, then he'd have even more power in the hidden Noble House level!

Only when all these factions were united would Lin Yi have the right to speak on equal terms with the ancient sects and houses. Otherwise, even if Lin Yi became a Sky Class master, he wouldn't be able to make the ancient sects and houses worry!

Lin Yi was all alone, without any support. He couldn't guarantee the safety of his family and friends forever.

Han xiaopo was able to stand out from the other children of the Han family! So she wasn't an idiot. After hearing Lin Yi's words, her eyes lit up and she started thinking. He knew that Lin Yi had extended an olive branch to him, and it was all up to him to decide if he'd accept it or not! (To be continued.)

Chapter 2069: How to prove it

If they accepted the challenge, then the Hidden House han might really be able to stand firmly in the ranks of the hidden noble houses like Lin Yi said. After all, han xiaopo more or less knew about Lin Yi's past. Those practitioner noble houses in the secular world who were on good terms with Lin Yi were all living well now, while those who were enemies with Lin Yi were either gone or struggling!

So what if he had the support of a hidden Noble House? The common house Yu was annihilated all the same, and the common house Xiao and Kang weren't doing too well either. It was all because of Lin Yi-who asked them to go against Lin Yi?

However, han xiaopo was not the young master of the hidden han family. There were some things that he could not make the decision on, so he was in a difficult position for a while! As far as he was concerned, if the Hidden House han were to stand by Lin Yi's side, the advantages would outweigh the disadvantages. However, this was only his own opinion. He didn't know what his grandfather thought of him.

But there was only one chance-if he turned it down now, then he wouldn't be helping the Hidden House anymore, and their relationship would be strained after the Hidden House Summit.

"Senior Lin, I do have a lot of hidden cultivation materials and heavenly treasures from the Han family, but I lack the guidance of a great teacher in cultivation!" Han xiaopo made up his mind in an instant. Since he couldn't decide the attitude of the hidden han family, he could decide his own attitude, so he immediately said,""If senior Lin doesn't mind, please accept me as your disciple. Please give me some pointers on the path of cultivation!"

Han xiaopo's reaction was out of Lin Yi's expectations. What he didn't expect was for han xiaopo to take him as her master right away. Lin Yi really didn't know what to say.

Seeing that Lin Yi didn't say anything, han xiaopo thought that Lin Yi wasn't too satisfied with her attitude, but she could only explain with a bitter smile,""Senior Lin, although I'm a direct descendant of the hidden han family, I can't make any decisions for the hidden han family. I can't make the entire hidden han family listen to you for the time being! However, I swear that if I ever become the head of the hidden han family, I will follow senior Lin's lead!"

Lin Yi nodded, "You want to be my disciple?"

"Yes. Although the hidden han family that I'm in has the support of the ancient ruins, they don't have a master to guide them on the path of cultivation, so they're in the dark!" "I'm only at the middle phase of the Golden class. I know that Master Lin won't even look at me with this level of strength. However, this level of strength was forcefully increased after I took the spirit gathering pill ..." Han xiaopo didn't hide anything.

"Spirit gathering pill?" Lin Yi had heard of this medicine before-most of the Hidden House disciples had consumed it to increase their strength, and Yu Bing was no exception! Lin Yi couldn't help but sigh. Even the weakest hidden house Han's disciple had this kind of good stuff to eat, but he, Lin Yi, had to forcefully break through bit by bit!

It was really impossible to compare people! He was already an Earth Class, but thinking back to when he was golden class, how hard was it to break through to Mystic? However, Mystic class Masters were a common occurrence among the hidden House disciples!

"Yeah, in the ancient ruins, we found some spirit gathering pills and elixirs. The spirit gathering pills were all consumed by the fathers, so they have the strength of a Mystic class. As for us, the third generation, we only got the spirit gathering pills. I'm considered to have better potential, and with just three spirit gathering pills, I reached the strength of the middle stage of the Golden class ..." Han xiaopo smiled bitterly, "But there aren't many spirit gathering pills and elixirs left, and the hidden you family won't sell them to us, so ... I'm very worried about my future cultivation ..."

"Forget about taking in a disciple. I don't have any plans to take in a disciple at my age. But if you're willing, I can take you in as my little brother!" "But, your loyalty still needs to be tested!" Lin Yi said.

"Many thanks, senior Lin!" After han xiaopo heard Lin Yi's words, she quickly stood up and cupped her fists, "My Lord, please accept this bow from this little brother!"

With that, han xiaopo bowed to Lin Yi with respect.

"You have a fast reaction. I've just finished speaking and you've stood up!" Lin Yi smiled faintly and waved his hand, "But everyone knows how to say nice things. The main thing is still your future performance! I don't value your personal strength, but your loyalty!"

"Senior Lin ... No, boss Lin, I'm the most loyal one. I promise to listen to boss's orders in the future!" Han xiaopo said quickly.

"Since you are loyal, I can give you strength." "Didn't you want to get stronger by taking me as your master?" Lin Yi said. However, my underlings will also receive the same treatment! I'm sure your hidden han family has already investigated my background, and know the situation of my little brothers. You can see their strength before and now ..."

"I see ..." Han xiaopo did investigate Lin Yi's background, but the entire hidden house han was puzzled. Lin Yi's lackeys, including the women he was close to, how did their strength increase so much? Many of them were golden class early phase Masters at first, but now they were Mystic late phase peak-the speed of leveling up was unbelievable!

Of course, although they were suspicious, they couldn't see what was going on. Until Lin Yi said it, han xiaopo suddenly realized that it was Lin Yi's work! Thinking that she could also improve her strength, han xiaopo's heart burst with ecstasy!

Wasn't this what he had been pursuing? If he could improve his strength, even if it was only golden class late phase peak, then the family would give him twenty pills to help him break through the Golden class into the mystic class!

In that case, han xiaopo's strength would be far ahead of the other third generation of the hidden han family's younger generation. The position of the third generation's young master would also be han xiaopo!

"Boss, Xiao po swears to the heavens that I will only listen to boss's orders in this life. If I break this oath, I will lose all my strength and will never be able to cultivate again. I will become a cripple!" Han xiaopo immediately swore to the heavens.

Lin Yi didn't believe in oaths too much-in the face of absolute strength, oaths were sometimes just a joke.

However, han xiaopo's oath was not exactly evil. Losing all their strength and never being able to cultivate again was a nightmare for practitioners. Normally, any practitioner with a little bit of integrity would not make an oath like this. Han xiaopo said this to show Lin Yi her feelings!

"How can you prove your loyalty?" Lin Yi looked at han xiaopo and asked faintly. (To be continued.) If you like this work, you are welcome to come to to vote for recommendation and monthly votes. Your support is my greatest motivation.)

Chapter 2070: Another Qi gathering pill!

Han xiaopo didn't know how to answer Lin Yi's question. He had given Lin Yi everything he could, and all Lin Yi needed was the colored steel. He didn't want anything else. Han xiaopo couldn't prove his love for Lin Yi!

However, after hesitating for a moment, han xiaopo still raised her head and said,""Boss, I don't know how to prove it. Please tell me!"

"Forget it. A long journey reveals a horse's strength. Time reveals a man's heart. If you're really reliable, I won't be stingy with my efforts to help you improve your strength. But if you're hypocritical, then I'll forget about this matter!" Lin Yi said.

"This ... Boss Lin Yi, it's not that I'm in a hurry and don't want to prove it to you, but I have an idea ..."
Han xiaopo hesitated and said,""There's another event at the Hidden House Summit, and it's a two-man team fight. If I can get stronger, I can go up with the boss, and with the boss "strength, I'll definitely win. I'll just have to stay on the side and protect myself!"

"Oh? The two of them had to fight together in this two-person battle? Can't I do it alone?" Lin Yi asked.

“No, it has to be two people. Moreover, if one of the two people in a team is defeated, it’s considered a loss. So no matter how strong the boss is, the younger brother is too weak. If he’s defeated first, he’ll still lose the competition!” Han xiaopo explained.

“It’s like this,” Lin Yi frowned and fell into deep thought. To be honest, Lin Yi’s eyes were very good at judging people. This han xiaopo probably didn’t have any second thoughts about him, but even so, Lin Yi didn’t want to give han xiaopo any benefits!

No matter if it was Chen Yutian, Wu Chentian or song Lingshan, they were all old friends. Lin Yi just helped them level up, and his new follower Zhao qikun, on the other hand, hadn’t been leveled up yet. It didn’t make sense for Lin Yi to level up han xiaopo first.

However, if there was really such a event in the competition that required two people to work together, then han xiaopo’s strength was too low, and it was bound to affect the results.

“By the way, boss, you just said that you’re an Alchemist?” Han xiaopo took a deep breath and suddenly thought of a good way to surrender!

“That’s right. Why do you ask?” Lin Yi said with a nod.

“Then, boss, do you know about the Qi gathering pill?” Han xiaopo lowered her voice and said in a deep voice.

“Qi gathering pill?” Lin Yi’s eyes focused on han xiaopo, “Why are you suddenly bringing this up?”

“Boss, I won’t hide it from you. In the ancient ruins, our hidden han family found a few sets of materials for refining Qi-gathering pills. This has always been the biggest secret of our hidden han family. Only the core disciples know about it, and we are strictly prohibited from spreading it!” “Boss,” han xiaopo said with a serious expression, “you should know that this Qi gathering pill might not mean much to the ancient sects, but to us hidden sects, it’s an item that we’ll fight for no matter what!”

Han xiaopo’s words made Lin Yi nod, “That’s right, the Qi gathering pill is a treasure in the eyes of the hidden houses and normal cultivation sects!”

“Boss, if you can help me increase my strength and protect the hidden han family in the future, I’m willing to convince Grandpa to give you the ingredients for the Chi-amassing pill!” Han xiaopo said, “this is my, han xiaopo ‘s, gift to boss!” This is the Han family’s Secret, and now that I’ve told boss, it more or less shows my feelings! If news of this gets out, our hidden han family will be robbed or even annihilated!”

“Robbery? Annihilate the entire sect? Not necessarily? The Qi gathering pill was precious, but even if you had the ingredients, the hidden houses wouldn’t know how to make it even if they took it away. The Hidden House’s alchemists are at most level one. Only the Hidden House of you has high level alchemists, but to make a level three pill like the Chi gathering pill, you need at least a level four Alchemist. As far as I know, only the sky elixir sect has such a master, right?” Lin Yi asked faintly.

“Boss, it looks like you don’t know much about the sky elixir sect. We hidden houses can actually ask them to make elixirs for us. Every time we make an elixir, we just need to provide more ingredients. No matter how many elixirs we make, the sky elixir sect will take half of it as payment. If we only make one elixir, then we’ll be unlucky, and the sky elixir sect will take it for themselves.” Han xiaopo said.

“Oh? The sky elixir sect had such a rule? Then why didn’t you ask the sky elixir sect to make it?” Lin Yi asked, confused.

“Boss, the sky elixir sect has this rule, but it’s only for the noble houses they’re friends with. For those who aren’t, even if you beg them, they might not help you concoct pills!” Han xiaopo laughed bitterly, “besides, even if we manage to get the heavenly elixir sect to help us refine the elixir, with the hidden han family’s current strength, can they even keep the elixir? If we can’t even keep the materials, then don’t even mention the pills!”

Han xiaopo’s words made Lin Yi realize that it was true. Back then, boss Yu didn’t hesitate to enter the ancient tomb full of traps for a Qi gathering pill. It was enough to see how precious the Qi gathering pill was. If the hidden han family managed to make the pill, then they really could be wiped out!

The ingredients for this Qi gathering pill were extremely rare, and with the hidden houses “current strength, it would be extremely hard to gather them. While the ancient sects could, but because of the drawbacks of the pill, no one would make it. However, the sky elixir sect wouldn’t reject a request from a hidden house like this. The reward they received could be exchanged for countless treasures or money!

“However, I’m very curious. Are you really willing to give me the materials for the Qi gathering pill? Or, would your grandfather agree to your suggestion?” Lin Yi looked at han xiaopo strangely and asked.

“An ordinary man’s possession of a Jade is a crime. This thing is in our hidden han family. We either hide it like this and never see the light of day, or we’ll cause trouble if we take it out!” “And with the Hidden House Han’s current development, it’s impossible for us to have an Earth Class late phase peak or Sky Class master within a few generations. As long as there’s no sky Class master, we won’t dare to take out this material!” Unless there’s an Earth Class late phase peak who can use it directly after making it, but there’s a certain risk-you can’t ask someone to make it for you without absolute confidence. ”

“Oh? However, there was still hope if he kept the ingredients for the gathering Qi elixir! Even if you can’t do it now, don’t you think about your future generations?” “This Qi gathering pill is the hope of breaking through to Sky Class!” Lin Yi smiled faintly. (To be continued.)
