

Bodyguard 2091

"Mr. Lin, you've already discovered me?" Han Tianba was surprised as well-he was careful not to disturb Lin Yi, and he was an Earth Class mid phase-he'd just broken through, but that was still the case. He'd been careful to hide his presence, and Lin Yi could still feel it?

"Hehe, I have too many enemies. I've already developed a habit of being vigilant." Lin Yi said with a smile.

Han Tianba nodded. There was a question in his heart that he didn't ask. He wanted to ask yesterday, and after Lin Yi sensed his aura, he wanted to ask even more, but he couldn't bring himself to ask.

"Elder han, do you have something to ask me?" Lin Yi asked, noticing elder Han's confusion.

"This ... Mister Lin, if I may be so bold as to ask, what exactly is your strength?" Han Tianba asked carefully.

"My eyes are bad ... Mister Lin, you're an Earth Class early phase peak?" Han Tianba asked. He saw Lin Yi use his skills yesterday and felt that Lin Yi was at the peak of early phase of Earth Class. But could Lin Yi be at that level?

"Hehe, you've already seen through it, so why ask?" Lin Yi said with a smile.

"But ... It's said that Mister Lin could kill three Earth Class in one move, and one of them was even a late phase Earth Class?" Han Tianba asked, puzzled.

"With a trump card, I can naturally fight enemies above my level." Lin Yi didn't explain in detail.

"I see!" Han Tianba nodded and did not ask further.

The Hidden House han didn't need any other disciples with Lin Yi in the team this time. Only han Tianba, han xiaopo, and Lin Yi took the Mercedes S600 to the Hidden House Zhao.

Lin Yi hadn't been to the Hidden House Zhao's location before-it was the opposite of the Hidden House han 's, One North and one South. The Hidden House Zhao's location was much better than the Hidden House han' s, too-it was by the sea, with beautiful mountains and rivers!

Obviously, this was the benefit of being an old hidden house. Even with the Hidden House Han's current wealth, it was hard to buy a large piece of land by the sea to build a Manor. After all, the land had been developed, with amusement parks, bathhouses, villas, companies, resorts, and so on. So, the Hidden House han could only build the manor in the suburbs of Eastern Sea city.

"Is this the Hidden House Zhao? It's quite imposing!" Lin Yi said as he looked at the scenery.

“Yes, this is the place!” Han Tianba was not envious. “My hidden han family rose to power relatively late. It’s already good enough that we can keep our position. These manors and sceneries are all empty.”

The car came to the entrance of the Hidden House Zhao’s Manor, but was stopped. A hidden house Zhao’s disciple stopped the car and asked, “this is private territory. unauthorized people are not allowed to enter. please leave quickly!”

Normally, hidden houses wouldn’t just come in one car, they would at least have two or three cars. The Hidden House han only had one Benz, and it even had an Eastern Sea city license plate, so the guard naturally thought that they were tourists who had come to the wrong place!

“We’re here to attend the Hidden House Summit, this is our invitation!” Han xiaopo sat in the driver’s seat, took out a red invitation card, and handed it over.

“Oh? Please wait a moment!” When the disciple saw the invitation, his attitude became much more respectful. However, after he took the invitation and opened it, his expression became a little strange!

“Okay ...” Han xiaopo nodded and did not think much of it.

However, the disciple passed the invitation to another person beside him. That person took the invitation and glanced at it before running into the manor at full speed ...

There were already many heads of the hidden houses sitting in the meeting room. The Hidden House Zhao was the host of the Hidden House Summit, so naturally, the old man sat at the head.

Plus, with his Sky Class status, only house Yu, house you, and house Tang’s heads could be on par with him. The heads of the other hidden houses were at most Earth Class late phase peak, and no one had broken through to Sky Class yet!

“Reporting to the clan head. The people from the hidden han clan have arrived!” This disciple was the one who was responsible for delivering the invitation cards at the entrance.

“Oh? The hidden han family is here?” Zhao Yu’s father was slightly surprised, “you’re early!” How many people are there?”

“Just one car?” Old master Zhao was stunned. He looked at the other family heads in confusion, “This hidden han clan can’t be thinking of giving up, right? He only brought five people? If one of them is han Tianba, then there are only four spots left. Are they going to give up if they don’t participate?”

“Hey, elder Zhao, the Hidden House Han’s disciples are only golden class mid phase at most. You’re asking them to sign up, aren’t you?” The one who spoke was the hidden tang family’s old master, “I think they’re just going through the motions and giving up!”

“Not bad!” The Hidden House Zhuang’s old man Zhuang laughed as well. “Excluding old man han, the remaining disciples are probably just here to gain some experience. When they go up to the arena, they might just give up! They’ll be scared to death!”

“Hey, old Zhuang, with Zhuang niaoqiang and Zhuang niaopao here, the winner of the two-man arena is yours!” The one who spoke was the hidden you family’s old master you.

“Isn’t everyone the same? Each team would claim the victory of one match? However, elder you and elder Tang, you two have won all three games!” Old master Zhuang said with envy.

“Haha, don’t forget that we also paid a price for it. How did your two disciples level up? Didn’t he still take our pills?” Said elder Tang.

“Alright, let’s not think about this anymore. It’s fine as long as we all have a tacit understanding!” The old elder spoke faintly.

For house Yu, it wasn’t that they wanted the Hidden House Han’s stuff, but the Hidden House Yu’s position among the hidden houses was like a boss!

Hence, the Hidden House Yu couldn’t just reject this-everyone was participating, after all. If they didn’t, wouldn’t they think they were too noble? Moreover, it would be unreasonable if he didn’t take any advantage of it. (To be continued.)

Chapter 2092: A change in attitude

“You’re right. But if we let han Tianba come in with his men now, it would be too kind of him. We’ll leave them in the cold for a while and let them wait!” “We have to let him know that he’s a hidden member of the Han family. In front of us, he’s just a little brother!” Zhao Yu’s father said.

“Go and tell Qibing to let him handle this. Tell him to wait in the dark until the Hidden House Han’s people are getting impatient, then let them in!” Old Zhao said to the messenger.

Now, old Zhao wanted to train Zhao Qibing, so he liked to let him handle things. It was all because of the Qi gathering pill he gave.

“Yes!” The disciple accepted the order and went down.

Zhao Qibing was in the middle of researching the race when he received the disciple’s order. He immediately followed the disciple to the entrance of the manor to show off! After all, acting tough was Qibing’s specialty and love-he’d been spending all his time in the Hidden House Zhao recently, cultivating and not getting the chance to act tough anymore. He had to maintain a gentle and humble attitude towards the people of the house, and this was for the sake of showing off to old Zhao and elder bi. After all, if he acted too arrogantly in house Zhao, he’d easily fall out of favor!

Zhao Qibing followed the messenger to the guard room at the gate of the manor. He didn’t go out directly, but sat there and played some games on his phone. The messenger walked out with a cold face.

Han xiaopo had been waiting here for nearly twenty minutes. When the messenger disciple finally returned, he quickly asked, “Can we go in now?”

“I’m sorry, but your identity has yet to be verified. We suspect that your invitation card was stolen or picked up, so we have to verify your identity first!” The messenger said coldly. This was what Zhao Qibing taught him to say.

“What? Yet to be verified? We’re from the hidden han family, what’s there to verify?” When han xiaopo heard the messenger disciple’s words, she immediately became a little anxious.

“Xiao po, don’t be impulsive!” Han Tianba, on the other hand, had noticed something amiss. He sat in the front passenger seat and first scolded han xiaopo, then said to the messenger, “I’m han Tianba, the head of the hidden han clan. May I ask how we can prove our identity?”

“Han Tianba? Your hidden han family only sent a few people and a car, is that even possible?” The messenger disciple sneered and said, “The other hidden houses have four or five cars, at least three. Are you here for the competition?”

“We don’t need a lot of people to participate in the competition. Please find someone who can prove our identity.” Han Tianba didn’t want to waste his breath on this little Lackey. This guard dog must have been incited by the Hidden House Zhao to deliberately make things difficult for him!

“Of course, but those who can prove it are all very busy. You guys wait for a while!” The messenger disciple said indifferently.

“F * ck you!” Han xiaopo did not expect that a disciple who was guarding the door would be so arrogant. He was really angry. However, before he could speak, the messenger disciple had already ignored them. He stood to the side and continued to guard the door, treating the whole bus of people as air.

“Al, weak strength and low status!” Han Tianba sighed and said, “don’t be angry, little po. They’re just looking for trouble on purpose. What can we do?” We’ll bear with it for now. When the time comes, Mr. Lin will help us get back at those competitions!”

He looked down on others! That was Lin Yi’s first impression of the Hidden House Zhao. He rolled down the window and impatiently said to the messenger, “I’ll count to ten, and I’ll see who can prove it to us. Otherwise, we’ll go back and not attend the Hidden House Summit! Ten stars nine stars eight stars seven stars seven stars. ”

Lin Yi didn’t care what the messenger said and started counting down.

“...” The messenger disciple didn’t expect the hidden han family to be so unyielding. They were going to leave before they could find someone in ten? How could he bear this responsibility? This hidden house Summit was set up to scam the Han family, so who else would they scam now that they were gone? Therefore, the messenger quickly turned to look at the guard room ...

Although Zhao Qibing was in the guard room, he was also paying attention to the situation here. There was a sound transmitter in the guard room, so he could hear everything outside clearly! Zhao Qibing wanted to give them the cold shoulder for a while before going out to scold them, but he didn’t expect this person to leave so soon.

Seeing that Lin Yi had reached the number one, he said to han xiaopo, “Xiao po, drive, let’s go back to the mansion!”

“Wait!” Qibing couldn’t take it anymore and ran out, “You dare! If the invited hidden house doesn’t show up, it’s the same as giving up their hidden house status and becoming a normal house, no longer receiving the protection of the Council of hidden houses!”

“Oh, so be it. I don’t need your protection. I’ll let them join the cultivators Association that I’ve established!” Lin Yi got out of the car and looked at Qibing coldly, “Zhao Qibing, are your legs itching to break again?”

“Gah?” Zhao Qibing was about to get angry when he heard house Han’s arrogance. Although the voice was familiar, he didn’t think much about it. It was only when Lin Yi pushed open the door and got out of the car that he shivered and looked at Lin Yi in disbelief. He didn’t understand why Lin Yi would suddenly appear here!

However, not knowing didn’t stop Qibing from fearing Lin Yi. Even an Earth Class late phase like Zhao Guang ‘er was killed by Lin Yi, what did he have to do to be Lin Yi’s opponent?

“It doesn’t matter how I’m here, but your legs are about to break!” Lin Yi laughed coldly and walked towards Qibing. If this guy could participate in a car race, then he had to have some skills. Lin Yi wasn’t afraid of him, but he was afraid that he would play dirty. So if he broke his leg now, he wouldn’t be able to do anything. No matter how strong the Hidden House Zhao was, they couldn’t make Qibing recover in such a short time, because the first race of the day was car racing!

“Ah ... Boss Lin Yi ... We did have some grudges before, but it’s all settled now ...” Qibing was scared when he heard that Lin Yi was going to break his leg. He gave a look to the messenger disciple beside him, asking him to go back and get help, “I’ve already paid for all the losses you asked me to pay for. You ... You can’t hit me!” (To be continued.)

Chapter 2093: I’m afraid I’ll lose

“Is that so? It seems that you didn’t compensate enough for the fire that burned the orphanage last time?” Lin Yi said with a mocking smile as he walked towards Qibing.

“Master, save me!” Qibing let out a breath of relief when he saw the person in front of him.

“Lin Yi, right? I don’t know why you’re here, but I’m warning you, don’t mess around!” “I know you’re strong, and no one under Sky Class is your match, but there are a few Sky Class Masters in this villa!” Elder bi said coldly.

“It’s this old master!” Elder bi said faintly, “although the ancient world doesn’t let the Sky Class Masters of the hidden houses go out and cause trouble as they wish to keep things in check, if you cause trouble here at house Zhao’s place, especially at our annual hidden house Summit, then don’t blame us for being ruthless. I’m sure the ancient world won’t look into this without asking for the reason!”

Elder bi was right-the ancient level restricted the Sky Class Masters of the hidden houses, but if Lin Yi came to the Hidden House Zhao to cause trouble and destroy the Hidden House Summit, then even if the ancient level wanted to investigate, they'd have an excuse!

Of course, elder bi was just scaring Lin Yi-this guy was weird, and his strength was inscrutable-who knew if he had a hidden card up his sleeve? Right now, his main goal was to make sure that the Hidden House Summit went smoothly. Everything else was secondary, and it was best if there was no conflict.

"Oh, I'm not here to cause trouble. I'm here to represent the Hidden House han to participate in the Hidden House Summit. You're the one who didn't welcome us and shut us out. Since that's the case, can't we just leave?" Lin Yi said, neither obsequious nor overbearing.

Since elder bi was here, and he even pointed out that there was a Sky Class master here, Lin Yi really couldn't just kill Qibing. He wouldn't be able to handle the Sky Class Masters if they found an excuse to attack him.

"You're here to represent the Hidden House han at the Hidden House Summit?" Elder bi said, surprised.

"That's right, does the Hidden House Summit have a rule that only disciples of the house can fight?" Lin Yi asked coldly.

"This ... I didn't." Elder bi shook his head-the Hidden House Summit's rules had been in place for many years now, and there was naturally no rule that didn't allow people outside of the house to fight. After all, a hidden house wasn't like the other noble houses, where all the core disciples were people of the house-many of them didn't have the family name, but those with exceptional talent would be given the family name, just like Zhao Guang'er and Zhao qijiu!

So, if the rules were strict, these people wouldn't be disciples of the Hidden House Zhao, and they were allowed to represent the Hidden House at the summit! But elder bi didn't think that a hidden house like house han would be able to invite Lin Yi? What was their relationship with Lin Yi?

Elder Bi's eyes narrowed as he calculated the pros and cons. This Lin Yi was strong, but his participation wouldn't affect the rules of the competition much. After all, most of the competitions were in specific events, and even if the Hidden House han had Lin Yi, they wouldn't be able to turn the tide!

For example, in a car race, the Hidden House Zhao was sure to win-even if Lin Yi was a God racer, it wouldn't change anything, because the Hidden House Zhao had a trump card!

"Since you don't have it, then why are you still talking so much nonsense? If you welcome us, then open the door. If you don't, then we'll turn around and leave!" Lin Yi said coldly.

"Lin Yi, this guard is doing his job, don't just go after the details-since I've already confirmed it, you can come in!" Elder bi waved his hand, and the disciple opened the gates.

Lin Yi didn't say anything else and got into the Mercedes. He was here for the race, not to cause trouble.

The Mercedes drove slowly into the villa, and naturally, there were disciples of house Zhao who were in charge of arranging their accommodation, while elder bi rushed back to the meeting hall to report! No matter what, Lin Yi's arrival was an unforeseen event, and he had to inform everyone in advance to respond!

“Elder bi, how is it? The people from the hidden han family must have suffered a loss, right?” Old Zhao laughed as he saw elder bi return.

“Old master ... This ...” Elder bi smiled bitterly and told them everything that had happened.

“What, you’re saying that Lin Yi’s representing the Hidden House han in the summit?” Old master Zhao was shocked!

The heads of the other hidden houses and sects all frowned at the mention of Lin Yi’s name!

Lin Yi’s name was a name that everyone knew-this thorn was a headache for everyone.

“Yes, Lin Yi said so!” “But, there are only three from the Hidden House han-Lin Yi, han Tianba, and a third generation! We don’t know their names yet!”

“Only three people came, what are they playing at?” “So Lin Yi’s going to participate in all the competitions?” Grandpa Zhao frowned.

“That’s not necessarily true, elder Zhao. You think too highly of that Lin Yi, don’t you?” The one who spoke was the Tang family’s old master. He said indifferently, “Lin Yi’s trump cards aren’t bad, but they won’t be able to achieve much in this competition we’ve planned, right?”

“That’s true!” After hearing elder Tang’s words, elder Zhao nodded his head, “Every match has been set up and we’re taking each other’s strengths. For example, hidden weapon dodging. Even if we had a real fight with your Tang family, we wouldn’t be your match!”

“That’s right. Take this arena as an example. No matter how strong Lin Yi is, he’s no match for the two Zhuang brothers. Zhuang niaoqiang and Zhuang niaopao have great teamwork, and it’s not the first time they’ve fought together. Even if we, the Hidden House Tang’s Masters, were to come out, we wouldn’t be able to win!” Elder Tang smiled.

However, the hidden you family’s old master you’s face was a bit gloomy. Others weren’t afraid, but he was a little worried. “You guys aren’t afraid, but I’m afraid we’ll lose the competition ... That Lin Yi is an Alchemist!”

Old man you was furious just thinking about Lin Yi. He’d heard that Lin Yi had taken two cauldrons from you Panhu, so it was only natural that he’d be furious when he heard Lin Yi’s name! (To be continued.)

Chapter 2094: The conspiracy behind this (1)

“Heh ... Why don’t we just kill this Lin Yi silently?” This time, the one who spoke was the current sect leader of the Golden Bell sect, Jin Wudi’s senior brother, Jin Gang Zuan! Jin zhuanben focused on his cultivation and didn’t care about the sect’s Affairs. He left the sect to his Junior Brother Jin Wudi to manage, but he didn’t expect that the Golden Bell sect’s proudest disciple Ma Zhu was crippled. Jin Wudi avenged him and died!

All of this was related to a person called Lin Yi from the common world! Diamond had wanted to kill Lin Yi the moment he heard the name, but he didn't have the chance to say it. At this time, the Hidden House of you wasn't sure if they could win the competition, so he suggested it.

Old man you's eyelids twitched. He had to say that diamond's idea was not bad. With the strength of these people here, they had many Sky Class Masters. Killing Lin Yi wouldn't be too difficult.

"House Yu's old ancestor, what do you think?" Old man you was respected here, but house Yu's status was higher, so he decided to listen to the Hidden House Yu's suggestion.

"It's not realistic." The old elder pointed at the sky and said, "Every hidden house Summit is always watched by the ancient level. This time, we've already done some dirty things in secret, but it's just that it's not easy to leave any evidence behind. But if we go too far and someone dies, neither of us will be able to bear the blame!"

Old man you's face changed slightly. Indeed, before the Hidden House Summit, he had received a hint from the sky elixir sect to suppress the Hidden House han, to scam the Hidden House han, that was fine, but the bottom line was that no one died!

As long as no one died, the hidden han family would not be able to retaliate, and they would not have the mentality of going all out! And if someone really did die, and things got out of hand, the other ancient sects would interfere, and sky elixir sect wouldn't be able to control it!

Plus, the sky elixir sect was playing a big game of chess right now, and at this point, he couldn't let the Hidden House of the right cause him trouble!

"That's right, it's impossible to kill Lin Yi in the Hidden House Summit!" Old man you said, "the rules of the Hidden House summits are clear. Friendship first, competition second. Only skills, not life and death!"

Diamond sighed. It seemed that the Hidden House leaders weren't stupid. They wouldn't do something so obviously against the will of the ancient world. They could only rely on themselves to take revenge.

"Heh, if you make a mistake and die in the single trial, you can't blame us for that, right?" The person who spoke was the head of the GaN mountain sect. The GaN mountain sect mainly raised spirit beasts.

"Oh? What's your opinion, gate master wo?" The one who spoke was an Mingyue!

That's right, it was an Mingyue of the an family, an Jianwen's father! He was from the an family, one of the five small noble houses, but now he was here at the Hidden House Summit! However, he wasn't here to represent the an family, but the North Branch of the firewolves!

With the North branch's strength, they were naturally on the same level as the hidden houses, so it wasn't strange for him to be here! Plus, the fire Wolf Gang was one of the local tyrants of Eastern Sea city. There was no reason to hold the Hidden House Summit here without them.

An Mingyue hated Lin Yi to the core as well, and hoped that the kid would die a happy death. He'd wanted to go along with the Golden Bell sect's Diamond back then, but his suggestion was rejected, so he didn't say anything. Now that the GaN mountain sect's leader wo had spoken, an Mingyue didn't mind adding fuel to the fire.

“Hehe, this competition, the last hidden competition, is a difficult problem that my mang mountain sect came up with. It’s a fight against an ancient spiritual beast. The one who can last the longest wins!” “I can hint to the ancient spirit beast to take Lin Yi’s life!” Sect leader wo smiled eerily.

“Oh?” The eyes of everyone present lit up! That’s right, if he died in this kind of competition, it would have nothing to do with anyone else. Being killed by a spirit beast and being killed by the disciples of other families were two completely different things!

Spirit beasts weren’t humans, and it was normal for them to go crazy. If Lin Yi got killed by a spirit beast because he wasn’t strong enough, he’d just be unlucky-even if the ancient sect asked, they’d be able to push the blame away!

That was because no one had made a move. The ones who had made a move were the spirit beasts. They couldn’t possibly argue so much with an animal, right? Although these spirit beasts were raised by the Qian Mountain sect, they were only temporarily raised. Spirit beasts had their own opinions and might run away one day. Killing a person had nothing to do with the Qian Mountain sect!

“Gate master wo, are you confident?” Old master you’s eyes lit up. House you and Lin Yi had deep grudges, so naturally, they were interested in this.

“Yes, gate master wo, is what you said true?” It was old Zhao-the Hidden House Zhao had quite a bit of enmity with Lin Yi.

“I have some confidence, but ... If I do this, it won’t do me any good in establishing the sect, right?” “We don’t have any grudges against that Lin Yi, and no matter how strong he is, there’s no way he can win the competition that we set up!”

Leader wo’s words made sense. Lin Yi didn’t have any interactions with the Qian Mountain sect, and they weren’t afraid of losing the competition!

Old master you and old master Zhao looked at each other, then looked at the ancestor of house Yu and said,“Elder Yu, your house Yu has some sort of grudge against Lin Yi, right? What do you think?”

“I won’t be participating, right?” The elder of house Yu said.

“Elder Yu, that Lin Yi can even take out an Earth Class late phase! I don’t deny that your hidden house Yu’s disciples are strong, but no matter how strong they are, can they beat Lin Yi in the 1v1?” Naturally, old Zhao wanted to drag more people into this-only by giving the sect more benefits would the leader of the GaN mountain sect help kill Lin Yi!

“Hehe, the rules don’t allow killing. I’ve done my research, and Lin Yi’s moves are all killer moves. If we don’t let him use those moves, he might not be able to win against our house Yu’s Masters,” The elder was a calm person-he was looking for trouble with Lin Yi because he wanted to “take” the Qi gathering pill back, not because he wanted to take Lin Yi’s life.

So, he didn’t want to get involved in Lin Yi’s death! Especially if ning found out and did something, it would be too late for the elder to regret! (To be continued.)

Chapter 2095: The conspiracy behind the scenes (2)

Seeing that the old head of House Yu wasn't taking the soft approach, house you and house Tang's elders couldn't do anything about it. They turned to the Hidden House Pi, who was also at odds with Lin Yi,""What about you, old Pi? Didn't Lin Yi kill a lot of your family members?"

"Hmm ... Although there's some misunderstanding with Lin Yi, our hidden house Pi doesn't have a huge grudge against him yet, and we don't want to get involved ..." Old master Pi was a smart person-it was good that Lin Yi was dead, but what if he wasn't? If they weren't killed by the spirit beast, the Hidden House Pi wouldn't be able to handle it!

The Hidden House Pi only had One Sky Class early phase physical practitioner, who was the elder brother of house Pi's old man-but Lin Yi could even kill an Earth Class late phase spiritual practitioner in seconds, so the Sky Class early phase physical practitioner wouldn't be too hard to deal with!

So, house Pi shouldn't get involved-what if they lost the rice instead? that'd be a disaster!

"What do you think, sect master diamond?" Old master you had no choice-other than him and old master Zhao, there was no one else here who supported killing Lin Yi. Even old master Tang, who had some conflict with Lin Yi, didn't have a life-and-death enmity with him. The only person he could rope in was the Golden Bell sect's diamond-like master.

"This old man's enmity with Lin Yi won't stop until I die-if I can really kill him, then I'll do whatever you say, elder you!" Diamond said.

"Alright!" The old man of the you family finally found another fellow Daoist. Then, he looked at an Mingyue and asked,""Mr. An, I heard that your son and Lin Yi have deep enmity too?"

"The hatred of the firewolves can be resolved on its own!" An Mingyue was even smarter. The three houses had already decided to kill Lin Yi. One or two of them were too few, but if all three of them were to offer some benefits at the same time, it would be enough to make gate master wo interested!

So an Mingyue didn't need to join in the fun. It was good that Lin Yi was dead, but it didn't matter if he wasn't! Plus, he didn't have the final say in the firewolves. He was just a representative, different from the other elders of the hidden houses!

The treasures that an Mingyue had brought were just enough for the bet. One more wouldn't make a difference. When he went back, he would have to hand them over. Thus, he naturally didn't have any benefits for the Qian Mountain sect and didn't participate!

"Gate master wo, each of our three clans will present a heavenly treasure. After the matter is settled, we will give it to you as a thank you gift in private. What do you think?" Old master Zhao wasn't stupid. What he said was after the matter was done. In other words, if it didn't work out, there would be no more!

How could sect leader wo of the Qian Mountain sect not understand the meaning behind old master Zhao's words? However, he was confident, so he only said indifferently,""Three treasures of heaven and earth. It's neither too much nor too little, but it's better to talk than to talk about nothing. It's settled then. Leave this matter to me!"

"Alright!" "That's great!" Zhao Yu's father nodded."It's decided then!"

Old master Zhao, old master you, and Jin Gang Zuan weren't afraid that these private things would spread to the ancient level. Everyone present was a conspirator of the hidden han family, and everyone had a share. Everyone's buttocks were not clean, so they weren't afraid of people gossiping in private.

Han Tianba, han xiaopo, and Lin Yi entered the manor. Naturally, they didn't know that the heads of the houses were plotting against them, but with elder Bi's orders, no one dared to disrespect them.

According to the Hidden House Zhao's original plan, even if the Hidden House han moved in, they'd be treated coldly by the disciples, but with Lin Yi's addition, elder Bi didn't look for trouble. This Lin Yi was a thorn in the side, and he'd let the old master figure out how to solve it-he didn't want to piss off this crazy Lin Yi.

"These lowly servants!" Han xiaopo was drinking hot tea in the courtyard of the guest room prepared by the Zhao family. She said with hatred,""His attitude changed 180 degrees when he saw boss. If boss didn't come this time, we probably wouldn't even be able to drink hot tea!"

"Xiao po, the world of cultivation is like this, the one with the tougher fist talks." Han Tianba did not get angry. He shook his head and seemed to have gotten over it. "Our hidden han family is on the decline, it's normal for them to bully us! With Mr. Lin's addition, it's normal for them to be more respectful to us because they fear Mr. Lin's strength!"

"Hmph, let's see if they still dare to do this to the hidden han family after we win a few more matches!" Han xiaopo scoffed.

"Winning the competition is secondary. The main thing is that you've found a powerful boss!" Han Tianba said with a smile.

"Oh?" Han xiaopo was stunned, but immediately understood what han Tianba meant! Han Tianba wanted him to use this hidden house Summit to spread the news that he'd taken Lin Yi as his boss. Although han xiaopo understood, he still looked at Lin Yi for confirmation.

Lin Yi naturally understood what han Tianba meant, but he didn't mind. Han xiaopo was a loyal follower, especially now that she was asking for his opinion. Lin Yi nodded,""I'll tell them in the two-on-two arena!"

"Many Thanks, boss!" Han xiaopo was overjoyed and quickly thanked him.

The three of them rested in the courtyard for a while, and then a hidden house Zhao disciple ran over. However, he had a 'hidden house Summit service staff' tag on his neck, clearly having something to inform the Hidden House han.

"Is old patriarch han here?" The disciple ran over and asked respectfully. He had obviously been instructed by elder Bi to be polite.

Since old Zhao had already made the decision to let the sect kill Lin Yi in the last hidden match, he naturally wouldn't anger Lin Yi before that.

"I'm han Tianba from the hidden han clan. What's the matter, emissary?" Han Tianba stood up and asked.

The staff of the Hidden House Summit were all called the emissaries of the summit, this was a rule that had been passed down for many years.

“Old master han, please head to the meeting hall to discuss the matters of the first summit competition!” The disciple said.

“Alright, please lead the way!” Han Tianba nodded and made a gesture of invitation.

The disciple brought han Tianba to the meeting hall of the Hidden House Zhao and said, “Please come in, old master han!”

Han Tianba walked into the meeting room and saw the various family heads, elders, and sect leaders sitting around the table. His heart sank. It seemed like the situation was just as he had guessed. These hidden houses and sects had joined forces to deal with the Hidden House han!

Otherwise, these people who came from all over the world would have arrived first. His hidden han family was a local but was the last to arrive. This naturally explained something. (To be continued.)

Chapter 2096: New rules of the competition

“Greetings, patriarchs and sect leaders!” Han Tianba cupped his fists and saluted according to the rules of the martial arts world.

“Old master han, come and sit. We’re all waiting for you!” Old master Zhao smiled and pretended to be friendly.

Since han Tianba was already there, he wasn’t afraid and sat down on an empty seat.

“Alright, since the old head is here, we can start the Hidden House Summit!” Zhao Yu’s father nodded and said, “As you all know, the Hidden House Summit is for the disciples of each house to get a chance to go to the test, and also to encourage them to work hard and get better results, so I won’t go into any unnecessary details!”

“Haha, that’s right, it’s not even the old head’s first time at the summit, so there’s no need to introduce us. Let’s talk about the rules and items of this hidden house Summit, shall we?” Old master you said in agreement.

“That’s right. There were some loopholes in the rules of the last Summit. The Hidden House han forfeited every match and didn’t participate. That’s not right. If every hidden house doesn’t participate, then what’s the point of this test?” Old Zhao said.

Han Tianba laughed coldly in his heart. He’d already received the information that this hidden house Summit was targeting his family, so he naturally knew the rules beforehand.

“That’s right. However, in the last Summit, the hidden han family was a newbie, so we’ll just observe them. We can’t do this again this time!” Elder Tang chimed in.

“Therefore, we’ve discussed the rules for this term and made some minor changes!” Old Zhao said, “that is, every family and sect must participate in every competition. Even if they give up, they must place a bet. This way, we can prevent people from betting on the events that they are good at, which will cause the competition to be unfair!”

Fair? Old Mr. Han thought to himself, your rule sounds fair, but to the hidden han family, it's the biggest injustice!

“For this competition, everyone has to place a bet regardless of whether they sign up or not. Even if they forfeit, they still have to place a bet!” “I’ll explain the rules of the competition in detail!” Zhao Yu said.

Han Tianba felt that these people were hypocritical, but fortunately, Lin Yi was here to help. Otherwise, he would’ve been pissed to death.

“For every match, each family will take out a treasure as a bet. Whether you participate or forfeit, you must place a bet!” “The winner of each match will be able to get everything other than the second and third place wagers. The second and third place winners will be able to retrieve their family items after the match!

As for the first place, he had the right to make an exchange. For example, if he saw something that he liked in the second or third place, he could use any item in the bet to exchange with the second or third place, and the second and third place could not refuse!

The second-ranked person also had the right to exchange, but they could only forcefully exchange for the items of the third-ranked person. They could not forcefully exchange for the items of the first-ranked person. Of course, if the first-ranked person agreed, the exchange could also be done!

The third-place winner didn’t have the right to exchange, but if the second and third-place winners agreed, they could also exchange one-on-one.

The other families that were not in the top rankings and those that had forfeited the bet did not have the right to redeem or exchange the stakes!

Of course, if all the families forfeit, or if all the families who didn’t forfeit lose the competition, then each family will take back their own things and the competition will be invalid!”

The rule was simple. After old master Zhao explained it, everyone understood. To put it bluntly, everyone was working together to set up the Han family. There was nothing strange about it. This rule was created by everyone except han Tianba.

As for han Tianba himself, he had also heard about it from other channels. When he heard it now, he only gave more details and an explanation of the second and third place.

“Everyone, do you have any objections to this rule?” Old master Zhao asked.

Han Tianba was a little speechless. ‘These rules were set by all of you. What opinions do you have?’ Even if I have an opinion, will you accept it if I raise it?

“Alright, since there are no objections, let’s move on to the first race, the car race!” Old Zhao looked at han Tianba’s sullen face and felt very good. He thought that they had some confidence with Lin Yi, but it seemed like that was all there was to it!

That Lin Yi may be strong, but he might not be that strong in a competition like this!

“En, it’s originally a trial for the disciples of each family, so we old guys shouldn’t waste time!” “Since it’s a competition to motivate the disciples, let’s start now!” The old man said.

Since the elder of house Yu had spoken, no one else dared to object.

“Alright, since there are no objections, everyone go back and prepare. Bring the participating disciples and the wagers. We’ll gather in the meeting hall at 1 p.m. Then we’ll go to the mountain road behind the Zhao family’s house for the car race!” Old Zhao said.

After old master Zhao finished speaking, the other old masters and sect leaders all left and returned to their temporary residences to prepare for the competition in the afternoon!

Although the first place had already been decided, the second and third places had not been decided. Therefore, those families who had not decided on the first place were all thinking about whether they could win the second or third place. At the very least, they could keep their bets and not lose money!

In other words, even though these hidden houses and sects had all agreed to destroy the Hidden House han, they were still competing internally. Whoever got the most second and third place would be the biggest winner!

When han Tianba returned to his residence, han xiaopo immediately stood up and greeted him. “Grandpa, how is it?”

“Just as we expected, the rules of the competition are similar to what we inquired about in advance. Even if you forfeit, you have to place a bet!” “It’s a good thing we prepared in advance,” said han Tianba,” and Mr. Lin helped us. Otherwise, we’d have lost miserably this time!”

“As expected!” Han xiaopo nodded and said, “when does the first match start?” Which one?”

“Oneo’ clock in the afternoon. Gather in the meeting hall. The event is car racing!” “Let’s go together in the afternoon,” said han Tianba. “We’ll bring a treasure with us!” (To be continued.)

Chapter 2097: there must be something wrong

“Yes!” Han xiaopo replied.

“Mister Lin, please!” Han Tianba said.

At oneo’ clock sharp, the family patriarchs and sect Masters who had appeared in the morning all brought their disciples to the meeting hall. These families and sects were different from the Han family.

Generally, the patriarchs or sect Masters only brought one participating disciple, while the other disciples stayed in their residences to rest and conserve energy. They would not go and join in the fun!

After all, there was almost no suspense as to who would win this competition, and there was no point in watching. Moreover, they were not familiar with the content of the competition, so they might as well take a good rest and amaze the world in the next competition.

“Old patriarch han, who will be representing your hidden han clan? Why are there two people here?” When the Hidden House Zhao was recording the wagers and the name list, old Zhao saw it and asked mischievously.

“Alright!” Old Zhao had one of the house Zhao disciples register Lin Yi’s name, and glanced at the treasure in han Tianba’s hand. It was a thousand-year Lingzhi, a good ingredient for making medicine. It was very nourishing when consumed alone. It seemed that the Hidden House han knew the rules, too—they couldn’t use low-level items as a bet.

“Old man Zhao, who from your Zhao family will fight? It’s not Zhao Qibing, is it?” Lin Yi looked at the old man and asked sarcastically.

Lin Yi had heard from han Tianba that no one was allowed to fight during the Hidden House gathering, and no one was allowed to hurt anyone in private. He wasn’t worried about his own safety, since the ancient people were watching.

“Hmph, Zhao Qibing was the God of cars, when did he become the God of bad luck? Don’t you spout nonsense! Be careful or I’ll use my identity as the organizer to warn you about the curse!” Old master Zhao said coldly.

“I’m not cursing. It should be you, old man Zhao, who shouldn’t talk nonsense!” Lin Yi’s lips twitched, “I’m just telling the truth, Zhao Qibing’s legs are really easy to break!”

“Whatever you say, we’ll see your true abilities in the competition!” Old master Zhao thought, I’ll let you talk for a while, then I’ll let the Qian Mountain sect kill you!

After everyone registered, they came to the mountain behind the hidden Zhao family’s Manor. This was also the private territory of the hidden Zhao family, and the mountain road could be used as a private racing track.

At this time, at the foot of the mountain, there was already a row of brand new Volkswagen Jetta cars. Each car was printed with the family name and sect name of each family!

It was obvious that all the participants knew the model of the car and didn’t think there was anything wrong with it.

“There are no rules in a car race. The one who reaches the finish line first wins!” “Yes,” Zhao Yu said. “To show the fairness of the race, I’ll now invite the two respected representatives to check if the car is the same. It’s a brand new car, and it hasn’t been tampered with! Elder Yu, elder you, you’re both Sky Class Masters—please!”

“Sure, no problem!” Elder Yu and elder you both nodded and went to check the car.

Lin Yi smiled coldly at the scene-these two were working with the Hidden House Zhao, scamming the Hidden House han. What can they find out? Fair?

However, the hidden han family was weak now, and the rules were set by them, so there was nothing they could do.

After a while, elder Yu and elder you said at the same time,"The cars are brand new!"

"Alright, since elder Yu and elder you have already done the fairness, then please get on the cars marked with your family name and sect name. The horn starts the race, and once it's sounded, the race will begin!" Old Zhao said.

Qibing's hair stood on end from Lin Yi's stare-he didn't know what that smile meant, but he hmped and forced himself to calm down as he got into his car. Car racing wasn't a one-on-one fight. It was too easy to beat him!

One had to know that his car was modified, the only one that was modified. As for the inspection by elder Yu and elder you, it was just a formality. House Zhao was the host of the Hidden House Summit, and all the other events were taken by others. As the host, it would be unreasonable if the Hidden House Zhao didn't win a race!

But the Hidden House Zhao's Zhao qikun didn't have much of an advantage over them, and so to make the race even, they added a race and gave the championship to the Hidden House Zhao!

Qibing was good at racing, and he had the advantage of being familiar with the terrain, but it wasn't like the other hidden houses couldn't get a powerful racers to help them, other than the Hidden House han. It was just that they had decided on the champion internally, so it wasn't too much trouble.

A loud horn sounded, and Lin Yi quickly changed gears and stepped on the gas, the car speeding away!

After that, Lin Yi started to shift gears non-stop, quickly reaching the highest gear. He stepped on the gas all the way, instantly maintaining the leading position among all the cars!

Grandpa Zhao was also glad that he had a trick up his sleeve. Zhao Qibing's car was modified, otherwise, this race would be in danger. This Lin Yi really couldn't be underestimated. He was a practitioner and his driving skills were so good. Even Zhao Qibing, who often ran illegal racing abroad, couldn't beat him?

Although Zhao Qibing didn't start as smoothly as Lin Yi, the advantages of the modified car were quickly brought into play. Lin Yi's car had a naturally-inhaling engine, while Zhao Qibing's was a turbo-charged engine. Once the turbine started, the speed increased instantly, and in an instant, he passed Lin Yi's car, leaving Lin Yi far behind!

Lin Yi's understanding of cars wasn't any less than Qibing 's-in fact, he knew more than Qibing. He frowned as he saw Qibing's car pass him!

Lin Yi had been increasing his speed ever since the horn sounded. He was already over 160km/h, but he was still increasing his speed. Qibing's car was at least 220km/h, and it was still increasing!

Was that even possible? It wasn't like Lin Yi hadn't driven a Jetta before-two hundred was his limit, and even for Lin Yi, it wasn't easy to maintain a steady pace at two hundred and twenty miles an hour! (To be continued.)

Chapter 2098: A small accident

After all, the road was still bumpy, and Qibing was still accelerating at 223?

Very quickly, Lin Yi realized that something was wrong! So he immediately realized that there was something wrong with Zhao Qibing's car! As for master Yu and master you's inspection, it was a complete cover-up.

If everyone's cars were the same, then Lin Yi would naturally have the confidence to win, but the cars were different now. Lin Yi had to use his normal car to compete with someone else's modified car. Even if Lin Yi was the world's top racers, he wouldn't have the confidence to win!

"Damn, isn't this too much of a scam? How is that possible?" Han xiaopo saw Zhao Qibing's car suddenly overtake Lin Yi and was a little unhappy,""Zhao Qibing's car obviously has a problem. Have you seen a Jetta that can go at two hundred and thirty miles an hour and still continue to accelerate? And the acceleration is so fast, there's obviously something wrong with the engine!"

"What's wrong? Old master han, does your family have any objections?" Zhao Yu's father looked at han xiaopo and asked,""Are you doubting master Yu and master you's fairness?"

"Xiao po ... Don't talk nonsense!" Han Tianba sighed in his heart. He couldn't say anything in this situation. If he said too much, he would offend house Yu and house you. Now that the Hidden House han was on the decline, it wouldn't be worth it if they found an excuse to attack!

How could han xiaopo not know what her grandfather meant? He sighed and didn't say anything else, but he felt that it was a pity. He thought that Lin Yi would win the race with no problem when he saw Lin Yi's driving skills, but it seemed like that was just wishful thinking.

Very quickly, Lin Yi used his superb driving skills to increase the speed of his car to two hundred and ten miles per hour ... Two hundred and twenty miles per hour ... However, he helplessly realized that Zhao Qibing's speed was already approaching two hundred and sixty or seven miles per hour. If his car wasn't modified, Lin Yi's speed would be his limit!

The official maximum speed for this car was 175 miles per hour, and Lin Yi was already speeding-was Zhao Qibing's car a plane?

"Gah gah!" Zhao Qibing looked at Lin Yi's car that was getting smaller and smaller in the rearview mirror and his heart was bursting with joy. Idiot, you think you're good at driving just because you're good at fighting? I can't beat you to death!

However, after the straight road, there was a turn-Qibing had to slow down. The turn on the mountain road was no joke, and with such a high speed, he'd fall and be half-disabled even if he was a golden class practitioner!

Qibing was slowing down, but Lin Yi was still at two hundred and twenty miles an hour!

"F * ck, are you crazy?" Qibing cursed as he watched Lin Yi's car drive towards him like a madman, but he didn't dare to speed up too much. He wanted to win the race, but he valued his life more. What was the point of winning if he died?

Zhao Qibing was on the bend, he didn't dare to be careless and controlled the speed to about 160 to 170 miles per hour. He was afraid that he couldn't control it if it was too fast. With his driving skills, this was the limit.

However, in the next moment, Qibing was shocked to find that Lin Yi was going up the mountain road at 230 miles per hour! Drift, he drifted directly after the bend, not slowing down at all! And so, after a few drifts, Lin Yi caught up to Qibing, and his car was right in front of him!

"Damn it, fortunately, it's a straight road ahead. Otherwise, we would have been caught by this madman!" Zhao Qibing looked at the back mirror and felt lucky!

After a few big turns, the road was straight, and on this road, Zhao Qibing could use his advantage to speed up infinitely! And so, just as Lin Yi was about to catch up to Qibing, he sped up again, leaving Lin Yi far behind!

"Wahahaha!" Qibing laughed, pleased with himself. This was the first time he'd made Lin Yi lose face ever since he'd met him, and he was especially happy. He'd always lost face in front of Lin Yi, but this time, the tables were turned.

Lin Yi, on the other hand, wasn't angry, angry, or frustrated-he just watched calmly as Qibing sped up again, leaving him far behind ...

Although, in terms of driving skills, Lin Yi was undeniable and had no weakness, but in a car, he was still far behind. No matter how amazing Lin Yi's skills were, drifting non-stop at the corners, he might still be Zhao Qibing's opponent. Zhao Qibing's car was too good, he could kill Lin Yi in a second when he accelerated in a straight line!

"If you guys play in your own game, it's fine, but since you guys are playing dirty tricks with me, don't blame me for being impolite!" Lin Yi said faintly, shaking his head.

After calculating that he wouldn't be Qibing's match no matter what he did, Lin Yi didn't want to play by the rules anymore. Since Qibing broke the rules first, then he wouldn't be nice!

Although Lin Yi was still driving calmly, he was already starting to form an energy bomb in his right hand. It had been a long time since he used this trump card against someone, and he didn't expect to use it on Zhao Qibing!

Of course, Lin Yi didn't plan on killing Qibing-the rules didn't allow killing each other, and if Lin Yi made too much of a scene, it'd draw suspicion-he wasn't that arrogant, after all, since there were a couple Sky Class Masters there!

However, if he could create some small ‘accidents’ so that others could not find any evidence, there would naturally be no problem.

And so, after Lin Yi made a very small energy bomb, he stopped and focused on driving, waiting for the next turn.

Finally, after a straight stretch of road, they came to the corner again! The winding mountain road was very strange. Some were winding, some were passing through the mountainside, and some were going uphill diagonally. It was as if a track was specially designed for racing!

As far as Lin Yi was concerned, this was probably an underground race track as well-there was no reason for the Hidden House Zhao to spend so much money on this if it was just for the Hidden House Summit, after all, and they didn’t always host the summit every year!

This was probably a place where the Hidden House Zhao made money in the dark. Hidden houses couldn’t do business in the open, but doing business in the dark wouldn’t be a problem if the Council didn’t find out.

Plus, the Hidden House Council was now just a name, and the law enforcement elders were all the elders of their own houses. The Hidden House Zhao naturally had nothing to fear. (To be continued.)

Chapter 2099: too unlucky!

Lin Yi opened the window a crack, allowing the cold Mountain wind to blow into the car, making a strange Wuwu sound. This kind of wind didn’t mean much to Lin Yi, however, and he didn’t mind it at all. He was just waiting for the right opportunity ...

Curve, drift! Another turn, another drift!

The distance between Lin Yi’s car and Qibing’s car was getting smaller and smaller. Lin Yi smiled coldly as he flicked the energy bomb out, hitting Qibing’s right rear wheel!

With a loud “bang,” the right rear wheel of Qibing’s car exploded, and he lost control of his car! The super high speed caused his car to make a few turns at the corner, and then directly rolled down the mountain road!

This mountain road was specially built for racing cars, so it wasn’t very steep. Qibing’s car wouldn’t crash even if he fell down, and he must’ve installed a lot of safety measures in his car.

Zhao Qibing was feeling very pleased with himself, but he didn’t expect the car to flip over. He screamed out in shock, but no one could hear him ...

Lin Yi’s car passed by Qibing’s car after it rolled away ...

Blowing up Qibing’s car wheel with an energy bomb was done very discreetly by Lin Yi, so no one at the foot of the mountain saw that it was Lin Yi who did it. They only saw Qibing’s car suddenly lose control and roll down the mountain road ...

“Qibing!” Old Zhao saw Zhao Qibing’s car roll down and he couldn’t care anymore. He shouted and rushed to the scene ...

The elders of the other families and the leaders of their sects also followed behind old master Zhao to the scene of the incident ...

Qibing’s car was modified, and so were the safety measures inside. The accident was serious, but it didn’t take Qibing’s life. However, Qibing’s legs were broken by the deformed car when his Grandpa pushed him out of the car ...

“Qibing, how are you?” Old Zhao asked as he helped Qibing connect his leg ...

“Grandpa, it hurts!” Qibing was extremely unwilling-he was so close to victory, but he didn’t expect his car to have a flat tire!

“Qibing, what happened? Did Lin Yi Do this to you?” Old Zhao subconsciously thought of Lin Yi-only Lin Yi would have a reason to harm him, and Lin Yi’s car was the closest to Zhao Qibing at that time, so it was the most likely to be Lin Yi.

“I don’t know!” “I don’t know what happened either,” Qibing said as he endured the pain. “The tire suddenly burst ...”

“Flat tire ...” Elder Zhao’s gaze shifted to the right rear tire of Qibing’s car, trying to find something out. However, he couldn’t find anything special, so he turned to elder Tang and asked,“Elder Tang, your hidden tang family has a deep understanding of hidden weapons. Please take a look at this wheel, was it broken by a hidden weapon?”

After all, with Lin Yi’s strength, it was easy for him to burst a car tire with a hidden weapon or a rock, but Grandpa Zhao wasn’t sure.

“Alright!” Elder Tang nodded his head and carefully examined the tire. After a while, he shook his head and said,“It doesn’t look like he was injured by a hidden weapon. It’s an irregular injury. It really looks like a tire explosion ...”

“Oh? So, the tire really exploded?” Elder Zhao trusted elder Tang’s judgment. After all, the Hidden House Tang specialized in hidden weapons. If elder Tang said that it wasn’t a hidden weapon, then it really wasn’t ...

“That’s right ...” Elder Tang nodded. Even though this was strange, according to his judgment, it was indeed caused by a car tire explosion ...

“How can I be so unlucky?” Qibing heard that his car tire exploded for no reason and was very annoyed. He could’ve won against Lin Yi, but now he missed the chance!

“Which disciple was in charge of maintaining this car?” Old Zhao was also very angry. They were going to lose this competition for sure, and the Hidden House Zhao couldn’t get back the stakes they had taken out. They didn’t even have a chance to get second or third place!

How could old master Zhao, who originally wanted to win the championship, be willing? But there was nothing he could do-the tire burst was a natural disaster, and he could only blame it on his bad luck!

“Ha, I was wondering why this car was driving so fast. It’s indeed a problematic car!” Han xiaopo’s lips twitched as he gloated. Although he didn’t know if it was Lin Yi’s doing, no matter what, Zhao Qibing’s failure was a good thing for Lin Yi!

Old Zhao’s face darkened. How could he not tell that han xiaopo was gloating and deliberately mocking him? He snorted. “People make mistakes. It’s normal for a car to have a problem. What’s the big deal?”

“No, didn’t you say before that the car was checked by elder Yu and elder you, and there were no problems?” Han Tianba said with a smile.

“They’re not professional engineers. How could they tell if there’s an underlying disease?” Master Zhao frowned and said.

“Hehe, I guess it’s because the refitting workers ‘standards are too low?’” Han Tianba said, implying something.

But no matter what, no matter how unhappy old Zhao was, he had to get his family’s disciples to send Zhao Qibing back for treatment. This competition couldn’t continue no matter what, the Hidden House Zhao had to withdraw from the competition early because of their failure!

This was originally a competition designed for hidden house Zhao, but in the end, hidden house Zhao lost everything!

On the other side of the mountain, Lin Yi had already crossed the finish line. This result made a few houses happy and a few sad. Naturally, han Tianba was happy, and han xiaopo was happy as well, but the other hidden houses weren’t so happy!

They had agreed to take turns to be the banker for one round each, but they had lost in the first round. The most infuriating thing was that the winner was actually the hidden han family that they had worked together to deal with! If they had known that the hidden han family would win, why would they have set up a car race?

However, the rules of the competition had already been set, and they couldn’t go back on their word at the last minute, right? Moreover, if they went back on their word in the first round, then how could they compete in the future?

And so, according to the rules, Lin Yi won, and got everything except for the second and third place!

The second and third places were taken by the Hidden House you and the Hidden House Pi. The Hidden House you’s bet was a small Qi gathering pill, while the Hidden House Pi’s bet was a Physical Medicine! (To be continued.)

Chapter 2100: change it up to you

Although the prescription of this medicine was not difficult to find, the heavenly treasures in the medicine were extremely difficult to find. Therefore, it could be considered a relatively precious thing, but it was not very useful for spiritual practitioners.

“The first race, the Hidden House of Han wins!” Old Zhao helped Qibing settle down, and he endured the pain in his heart as he placed the items in front of Han Tianba, “Do you want to exchange for the items for the second and third place?”

After old master Zhao said this, he desperately signaled old master you, who was in second place, with his eyes! This was because there was one thing that the Hidden House Zhao desperately needed, and it had been contributed by the Hidden House Zhuang!

The Hidden House Zhuang had given the Hidden House Zhao face—they were supposed to be the Champions, so this item was supposed to fall into their hands. They didn’t expect Lin Yi to come out of nowhere!

Old Zhao was determined to get that thing, and hoped that the Hidden House you could use their right to trade with Lin Yi!

Han Tianba didn’t say anything but looked at Lin Yi. After all, Lin Yi was the winner, and according to the agreement, all the treasures belonged to Lin Yi. It was up to Lin Yi to decide whether to trade or not.

Lin Yi looked at the things he’d gotten—there weren’t many that were useful—they were all natural treasures that might be useful for making elixirs in the future, but not for now. The Hidden House you’s Qi gathering pill and the Hidden House Pi’s body strengthening medicine, on the other hand, were things he really wanted!

However, he did not expect that these two families would still win!

However, Lin Yi didn’t say anything at the moment. He observed the situation quietly. Old Zhao kept signaling old you with his eyes. Old Zhao was probably planning something. Lin Yi wasn’t in a hurry, so he said faintly, “Old master you, you don’t need to exchange with me, do you? If not, then I’ll trade with the Hidden House Pi!”

“Cough cough!” Old Zhao coughed violently—he was afraid that house you would miss this opportunity. It seemed that Lin Yi didn’t want the hidden Qi gathering pill in house you’s hands, and that was why he suggested trading with the third place first!

Otherwise, why wouldn’t Lin Yi just trade with the Hidden House you in second place? Was there something wrong with Lin Yi’s logic?

“Mr. Lin, I want to exchange a treasure. Is that possible?” The person in second place had the right to ask the person in first place for an exchange and the person in third place for a forced exchange, so he asked.

“Oh?” Lin Yi pretended to be surprised, “What do you want in exchange?”

“I want to exchange it for the 500-year-old Mint flower in your hands.” Old master you said.

“A 500-year-old Mint?” Lin Yi looked at the treasure in his hand and said indifferently, “This thing is indeed useless to me, but I don’t want to exchange it with you!”

“Uh ...” Old man you was stunned and asked, “Since it’s useless, why not exchange it?”

“Yeah, this 500-year-old Mint flower isn’t common, but the Qi gathering pill is good stuff too. It can help a practitioner break through from Mystic late phase peak to Earth Class-it’s hard to buy!” Zhao Yu’s father also said, “And this 500-year-old Mint flower is just a supplement, it can stabilize your Sky Class strength. In terms of value, it’s much lower than the lesser Qi gathering pill!”

“Oh, I’m not Mystic late phase peak, what do I need that elixir for?” “This five-hundred-year-old Mint ... I’ll be able to use it when I reach Sky Class in a few days ...” Lin Yi said faintly.

“In a few days?” Old Zhao took in a cold breath-he didn’t know if this Lin Yi was just bragging or if he really was going to break through to Sky Class soon! But Lin Yi’s words made him even more worried-his Sky Class strength wasn’t stable yet. After all, he’d used elixirs to break through, so it wasn’t as stable as natural ones. He needed to consolidate his strength, and the five-hundred-year-old Mint was for that.

“Yeah, I level up very quickly, didn’t you know?” Lin Yi asked.

“This ... Ha, of course I know.” “But, Mr. Lin is such a talented person, I don’t think he needs this. After all, it’s only used to stabilize his strength, and Mr. Lin’s strength is improving by the day. He doesn’t need to stabilize it at all. Who knows, he might level up again!” Grandpa Zhao said.

“No!” Lin Yi said.

“Gah!” Old master Zhao was furious. Why didn’t he change it if it was useless? However, although he was angry, he didn’t dare to be careless on the surface. He could only suppress his anger and ask, “Why is that?”

“The small Qi gathering pill is useless. Although it’s precious, I can make it. The materials are not worth this 500-year-old Mint flower!” Lin Yi said, shaking his head.

“Well ...” Elder you remembered that Lin Yi had cheated him of two cauldrons-he must be a refiner, too. This was a level two Qi gathering pill, and Lin Yi might be able to make it himself. It was only natural that he didn’t like it! Thinking of this, old man you said, then why are you willing to exchange?”

“Two small Qi gathering pills. If you can afford it, I’ll reluctantly exchange it.” Lin Yi said faintly.

“Two?” Old man you heard Lin Yi’s words and laughed coldly, “You’re asking for too much! The ingredients required for one lesser Qi-gathering pill were indeed not worth the 500-year-old Mint flower, but the ingredients required for two lesser Qi-gathering pills had already exceeded the 500-year-old Mint flower’s value! Besides, even if you have two sets of ingredients, you might not be able to successfully make two small Qi gathering pills!”

“It’s up to you to change it!” Lin Yi smiled coldly, “I’m first, I make the decision!” You have the right to change, I have the right not to. ”

“Change, change!” Old Zhao gave old you a look. The Hidden House Zhao still had a small Qi gathering pill, and they wanted to give it to Zhao Qibing for future use, but the 500-year-old Mint flower was more important right now, so old Zhao decided to exchange it first. They would buy it from the Hidden House you when they had the chance.

“We’ll hand over the money and the goods!” Lin Yi said.

“Alright!” Since old master Zhao said it was a deal, old master you naturally wouldn’t say anything more. At that time, it would definitely be the Hidden House Zhao compensating the Hidden House you!

Han xiaopo admired Lin Yi from the bottom of her heart. He was too strong, too powerful. A five-hundred-year-old Mint flower could be exchanged for two small Qi gathering pills? After all, there were still some 500-year-old Mint flowers hidden in the Han family’s treasure vault, and their value was far less than the lesser Qi gathering pill! (To be continued.)
