

Chapter 2193: slightly disappointed

“Ha ... What about you?” Xinyan asked casually, a little regretful that she’d asked such a stupid question. Lin Yi’s words had made the atmosphere a little less tense.

“Me ... My intentions aren’t pure either ...” Lin Yi smiled, “I’m not here to watch a movie. I just want to spend more time with you and cultivate more ...”

Xinyan jumped at the first half of Lin Yi’s sentence, but the second half made her relax a little, and at the same time, a little disappointed ... Did he just treat her as a training tool?

“Then you don’t have to come to the cinema. I’ll study in the classroom after school, and you can leave later ...” Wang Xinyan said.

“But watching a movie isn’t a bad experience. I can’t get too close to you in the classroom, but it’s fine here ...” Lin Yi said.

“Ah ...” Wang Xinyan’s heart tightened again.

At this time, Bai Weitao came back with a big pile of snacks in his hand. They were all free from the group coupon, and he distributed them to Lin Yi and Zhao Shengyi.

“Boss, Xinyan sis-in-law, what do you guys want to eat?” Bai Weitao came over with a lot of popcorn and other things.

“I don’t like to eat snacks. You guys eat?” Xinyan said, shaking her head.

“Ah? You’re not eating at all?” Bai Weitao didn’t expect that there were girls who didn’t like to eat snacks. “You’re welcome!”

“I’m not trying to be polite, I really don’t like food ...” Xinyan smiled bitterly. “Then I’ll take a pack of gum ...”

“Alright then!” Hearing Xinyan’s words, Bai Weitao had no choice. “Big brother Lin, what about you?”

“I’m not eating either. ” Lin Yi wasn’t too interested in snacks, and Xinyan wasn’t even eating it, so how could he eat it alone?

Bai Weitao could only turn around and go to Zhao Shengyi’s seat. Zhao Shengyi was a foodie, so he didn’t refuse anything. He directly took half of the snacks in Bai Weitao’s hand, and Bai Weitao took the remaining half back to his own seat.

It didn’t take long for the lights in the cinema to dim down, and the movie began. It was a youth romance drama, which suited the interests and tastes of college students.

Xinyan took off her coat naturally and moved closer to Lin Yi, who closed his eyes and started practicing the art of Dragon mastery ...

He knew that he wouldn't be able to level up Earth Class mid phase again in a short period of time, unless there was a special opportunity. However, Lin Yi's other main task right now was to complete the second stage of the art of Dragon mastery. That way, he could make the Jade's storage space.

With a storage space, Lin Yi could carry important items around with him.

Lin Yi's progress was rapid as he sniffed the strong scent of Xinyan's body, but he also realized that the reason why his cultivation speed was so fast wasn't because of the scent alone-the main reason was because he was cultivating so close to Xinyan, and the scent was absorbed into his meridians through his body's acupuncture points.

With that in mind, Lin Yi also understood why Xinyan's practicing was the fastest during the military training-she didn't wear much at school these past few days, even if she'd leaned her upper body towards Lin Yi on purpose.

Lin Yi's courage grew as he looked at the dim lights around him. He moved closer to Xinyan, and their bodies were very close ...

Xinyan looked like she was watching a movie, but she wasn't actually. Lin Yi was right next to her, and she wasn't paying attention to the movie at all-she felt Lin Yi's body right away, and a shiver went down her spine as she hmped in a barely audible voice."What ... What are you doing?"

This kind of intimate and romantic atmosphere made Lin Yi's heart skip a beat ... It was impossible for Lin Yi not to be moved when watching a movie with a pretty girl, especially when he had a good impression of her.

In fact, he'd had feelings for Xinyan since the first time he'd met her on the train, but they were just acquaintances after that, and he didn't think much about it after getting a girlfriend like Xiaoxiao.

But he didn't expect to meet Xinyan again in University, and they'd even gone through so much together during the military training ... It changed Lin Yi's impression of Xinyan.

If possible, having Xinyan as his girlfriend was a wonderful thing, but Lin Yi wasn't too sure what Xinyan's attitude towards him was. She had a fiancé, and although they'd had a couple of flirtatious moments, they were more like a couple.

Of course, Xinyan was a quiet person, and Lin Yi didn't want to scare her too much. The two didn't have much to do with each other, and so their relationship was like a gentleman's friendship.

"You ... You're so close to me ... What are you doing ..." Wang Xinyan finally couldn't help but stammer.

"It's better if we're closer ..." Lin Yi enjoyed this feeling, but if he told the truth, he might get a slap from Xinyan or get her to turn around and leave. He could only use practicing as an excuse. He wasn't lying to Xinyan, either.

"Oh ..." Wang Xinyan heard Lin Yi's words and didn't say anything else ...

But it was only human nature to want more after getting a little bit of benefit, and while Lin Yi was reminding himself not to go too far, the rush of practicing made him forget himself-naturally, he reached out to hold Xinyan in his arms ...

Xinyan froze as she stared at Lin Yi in disbelief. She didn't think that he'd be so bold as to hug her! Even if it was cultivation, wasn't that a little too much?

She frowned and was about to push Lin Yi away to scold him, but she stopped when she saw that Lin Yi was focused on his training, not showing any lecherous expressions ...

Although she wasn't a cultivator, she had more or less heard about cultivators. She knew that when cultivators were concentrating on their cultivation, they generally couldn't be disturbed at will. If they were disturbed, it was very likely that they would suffer from Qi deviation!

So even though Xinyan was a little embarrassed from Lin Yi's hug, she clenched her teeth and endured it with a red face, thinking that interrupting him might be bad for him!
