Chapter 2211: -arriving at the destination

"I'll take it then. I'm really a little hungry!" Jingyi turned around and took out a carton of milk and biscuits from her bag, wolfing them down. She didn't pretend to be nice in front of Lin Yi-the two were already very close, and there was no need for her to act nice in front of him.

After a few bites, Jingyi turned to Lin Yi. "You're really not eating?"

"I'm really not eating." "I can replenish my energy while I'm training," Lin Yi said.

"Alright, then I'll eat it myself." Jingyi said with a nod.

Half an hour later, Lin Yi drove out of the highway and into a small town. He passed by a gas station and filled up the gas, as well as the auxiliary gas tank in the trunk. He stopped in front of a 24-hour congee shop and said, "Let's go in and sit down?"

"Alright." Jingyi ate a couple of biscuits, but it wasn't much-she'd been sleeping the whole day, and she'd been hungry the whole day. She wasn't like Lin Yi, who didn't eat or drink, and just cultivated to replenish her energy.

The two of them went to the porridge shop. There were a few tables of guests in the porridge shop, but there were not many people.

Lin Yi and Jingyi ordered two trays of steamed buns, a bucket of congee with pork and century egg, and a few side dishes. It wasn't that expensive here, and it only cost them less than a hundred Kuai, but the two had a good meal.

After eating, Lin Yi continued on his way-the sky was starting to light up. It was the second day.

"Another thousand kilometers or so ..." Lin Yi said after looking at the GPS.

"There are fewer and fewer people here," "Why would my parents leave a map of this place behind?" Jingyi said as she looked out the window.

"Who knows? we'll only know when we get there." Lin Yi said.

Lin Yi and Jingyi arrived at the last town at the border around noon. It was another country after they left this town, and most of the mountain range was outside the border.

There should be guards and patrols at the border, so Lin Yi didn't drive there rashly. He parked the car in front of a hotel that had both a restaurant and a place to stay. He wanted to get something to eat first and ask about the situation as he ate.

The words "Dragon Inn" jumped into his eyes! The style of the inn was similar to the one Lin Yi stayed at in Bingxue town-the same decoration, the same ancient style, and the same name.

However, there weren't many cars at the entrance of the inn. Other than Lin Yi's Grand Cherokee, there were two other ordinary vans. One had a local license plate, and the other didn't even have a license plate. It seemed to be a scrapped car that hadn't been driven in a long time.

In short, this place gave people a feeling of tranquility and simplicity.

However, Lin Yi's parking didn't attract much attention, as if they were used to seeing Lin Yi.

Lin Yi and Jingyi had just gotten out of the car when a man who looked like a local came up to them. "You two must be adventurers heading to the Tagan family in the town of Releida, right?"

"Oh? How did you know?" Lin Yi asked indifferently.

Releida town was the last town on the way to the Oolong mountain range, but it wasn't within the country. It was outside the border, and according to Sun Jingyi's information, Releida town was actually a town without any political power. The actual ruler of Releida town wasn't a single person, but a few big families in the town!

The Tagan family was one of the actual controllers of Releida town! The security in this town was very chaotic, or rather, it had no security at all. It was a paradise for criminals and adventurers. Many international fugitives would flee to this town to escape the legal sanctions.

In fact, the land where this town was located should be owned by another small country nearby. However, this place was originally the foothold of a very large sect. The sect's power was amazing, so this small country had no intention of taking back the mountain range.

Later on, this sect declined and disappeared overnight, but some bandits took the opportunity to occupy this place. Over time, many forces of various sizes were formed, including families and gangs, so many adventurers and criminals turned to them.

Of course, there wasn't much information on how chaotic the town of Releida was on the internet. After all, it was a town outside the border and had little to do with most people in the country. There was only a little information.

This was why Lin Yi parked the car near Ruida, the last town on the border.

Although this town and Releida town were separated by the border, they could still see each other from a distance. The people here would definitely know more about the situation there.

"Hey, this is a small border town, not a tourist attraction. The people who come here are either criminals who want to seek refuge in Releida town or adventurers who want to get a high bounty!" The local proudly analyzed, "The two of you drove here in such an ostentatious manner. There are official license plates on your cars, so I can guess that you're not criminals. You should be adventurers."

"Haha ..." Lin Yi didn't deny it.

The local didn't seem to want to give up on trying to strike up a conversation with Lin Yi, "I'm local expert. I know everything about the local area. Are you two cultivators?"

Lin Yi's eyes narrowed. He didn't think that this person would know that he was a practitioner. This surprised him! Practitioners were a lot in Lin Yi's circle, but to normal people, most of them were existences that they wouldn't even come into contact with in their entire lives. He didn't think that this local was really a local, knowing about practitioners.

"How did you know?" Lin Yi asked.

"Hehe, most of the adventurers who go to Releida town are cultivators. If they're not cultivators, it's hard for them to be valued by those families and gangs and be entrusted with important tasks. They can only be small minions!" "But if it's a practitioner, even if it's a golden class early phase, they'll be treated as a guest of honor, and they'll be given the important task of hunting spirit beasts or picking herbs in the Wulong hao te mountain range!"

"Oh ... Then we can't be ordinary people?" Lin Yi didn't answer any of the questions.

"Normally, he might be an ordinary person who has joined some gang or family, but these days ..." The local paused deliberately ...

Chapter 2212: inquiring about the situation

"Oh? What's wrong with you these few days?" Lin Yi asked without changing his expression.

"These few days, the Tagan family has publicly recruited a team of adventurers to enter the oolong hot mountain range to capture a fire Lion cub as the contracted spiritual beast of the heir of the Tagan family, young master Tagan long!" The local expert said, "I think the two of you must have gone for this, right?" There's no need to hide it from you. Two cultivators successfully left the border under my escort yesterday and went to Releida town. They were also there for the Tagan family's reward. "

"Is that so? it seems that you're really called the local expert." "You know all this," Lin Yi said faintly.

"Naturally!" "May I know what strength you two have?" the local expert asked.

"I'm in the middle phase of the Golden class, my wife hasn't entered the Golden class yet," Lin Yi didn't reveal his strength. After all, he wasn't familiar with this place, and he had to be careful.

"Mid phase of the Golden class?" The local reporter was a little surprised after hearing this. "F * ck, so powerful? How old are you? He actually had the same cultivation level as young master Tagan long! The practitioner from before is already in his forties, and he's only at the early phase of the Golden class!"

As for Sun Jingyi's strength, the local automatically filtered it out. As far as he was concerned, Lin Yi's strength alone was enough to meet the Tagan family's requirements, and the minimum requirement for the Tagan family this time was an early phase golden class practitioner. After all, no matter how strong a fire Lion cub was, it wouldn't be able to escape from the encirclement of so many people, and early phase golden class was enough.

"Is there a problem?" Lin Yi asked.

"No... No..." After the locals heard of Lin Yi's strength, they naturally had some respect for Lin Yi and looked at him differently, "Big brother, I know you're strong and you're a practitioner, but your wife hasn't reached the Golden class yet, right? If you want to cross the border, I'm afraid you won't be able to do it without my arrangements. I'm not called local expert for nothing!"

“Sure, you can send us out of the country.” “How much do you want?”

“Not ... Not much. 10000 Yuan per person is enough. Two people ... I can give you a discount ...” The local expert didn’t dare to ask for too much. He also knew that these cultivators were not to be trifled with. Although these people might be rich, it was absolutely impossible to rip them off.

“There’s no need for a discount. 20000 it is then. As for the extra money, tell me about the situation in Releida town and the Wulong hao te mountain range that I’m supposed to go to for the mission.” Lin Yi waved his hand and asked calmly.

“Of course, no problem!” The local expert nodded, not suspecting anything. After all, even if Lin Yi had received the news and came to help the Tagan family, he wouldn’t be very familiar with Ruida and Wulong Mountain. It was normal for him to introduce them.

“We’re going to the inn to eat something, you come with us.” Lin Yi said.

“Alright!” The local expert immediately agreed.

Originally, the Dragon Inn didn’t open their private rooms so easily. After all, there were only three of them, and the main hall was enough for them to eat. However, with the local here, the boss gave them a private room. It seemed that the local was indeed a local, and it worked well in this area.

“It’s more convenient to talk here.” “I often bring people here to eat, so I’m familiar with the boss!” The local expert laughed.

“En, tell me about the situation.” Lin Yi didn’t really care about how much power the local connection had-after all, he only used it to get out of the country. He didn’t care about anything else.

“In the town of Releida, there are three great clans and two great gangs. One of them is the Tagan clan, and the other two are the Lu clan and the Shangguan clan. In these three great clans, there are different numbers of cultivators, and they are clans that focus on cultivation.” The local expert said.

“A cultivator family?” Lin Yi was a little surprised-he didn’t think there’d be practitioner families outside of the border, but it wasn’t impossible-these types of practitioner families usually hid themselves in a small place like Releida, and it was hard to come into contact with them unless you came here on purpose.

“We also have a cultivator clan here. You guys can’t be unaffiliated cultivators, right? that’s right, only unaffiliated cultivators would participate in the Tagan clan’s mission. Those sects and Noble families wouldn’t have the time to come to a place like this.” The local expert shook his head. “There are two other gangs. One is the Firewolf gang, and the other is the Red Conch. One of these two gangs controls the sex and entertainment industry in Ruida town, and the other controls the drug industry ...”

“The Firewolves and the Red Conch?” Lin Yi blinked-he didn’t think that there would be a Firewolf gang outside the borders. What surprised him was that these two gangs were actually one. From the conversation he had with the drug dealer during military training, Lin Yi could tell that the Fire Wolf Gang and the Red Conches were connected.

“Yeah, we have Firewolf gang here too. They developed from here. That Red Conch was originally an overseas drug trafficking group.” The local expert said.

“Are the two gangs on good terms?” Lin Yi asked.

“How is this possible?” Local channel: “as the saying goes, one mountain can not accommodate two tigers. This is the truth. There is not much conflict of interest between the two gangs, so there is not much conflict, but small friction is constant! The firewolves have a good relationship with the Lu family, while the red conch is on good terms with the Tagan family. These two families don’t usually get along.”

“Oh?” Lin Yi was very surprised, but he didn’t show it on his face. He didn’t think that the Firewolf gang and red conch would be in a hostile state in front of outsiders. These two gangs were really smart. If the two gangs relied on each other, it might be hard for them to gain a foothold in Ruida town, but now, the two had a private relationship. On the surface, it was as if each gang was on good terms with a family. No one could see anything wrong with it.

“However, this has nothing to do with your mission. I don’t think you two will care about such trivial matters.” In the eyes of the local experts, these cultivators had come with a purpose. As for idle matters, they would not care.

“By the way, we only heard from a friend that the Tagan family has a mission with generous rewards, but I don’t know the details. Can you tell us?” Lin Yi asked.

The local took Lin Yi’s twenty thousand, and naturally told him everything he knew. He didn’t think that Lin Yi wasn’t here for the Tagan family, either, so he replied without thinking, “The Tagan family’s reward for this mission is a spirit gathering pill. You should know better than me what a spirit gathering pill is used for, right?”

Chapter 2213: hidden dragons and crouching tigers

“Not bad! That’s exactly the case!” The local expert nodded. “That’s why many golden class wandering practitioners go crazy for this mission. If they can get a spirit gathering pill, it’s like they’re guaranteed a spot in the mystic class. This kind of temptation, hehe ...”

“The Tagan family has an Alchemist?” Lin Yi asked.

The elixir was a golden class level one elixir, but it was of a very high quality. It was harder to make than the elixir, and only a golden class level two refiner could make it. If it was only a golden class level one refiner, it was almost impossible.

“Hehe, that’s only natural!” “The Alchemist of the Tagan family is not only a golden class second grade Alchemist, but he also has the physique of a forger. It’s said that he’s studying the knowledge of forgers ...” The local expert nodded.

“Blacksmith? Is that true? In this world, hasn’t the art of weapon forging already been lost?” Lin Yi’s eyes widened in surprise.

The locals seemed to be used to Lin Yi’s surprise. They chuckled, “Of course, but The Alchemist of the Tagan family has the physique of a forger. If he doesn’t learn how to forge, it would be a waste, so he’s researching. Although he can’t forge divine weapons, he can still forge some small things, such as grade one and grade two medicinal cauldrons. This is something only a grade three Alchemist can do, but with his strength as a grade two Alchemist and his special physique, he can also forge them.”

“This means that this person is very powerful!” Lin Yi didn’t know if the local was telling the truth or not, but this small Ruida town was full of hidden talents!

“That’s natural. ” The local expert nodded.”That’s why the Tagan family is the strongest of the three families in ruiledah. Because they have an Alchemist, many practitioners go to them. I don’t know their exact strength, but I’m afraid they have at least an Earth Class!”

“Earth Class ...” Lin Yi had underestimated Ruida.

“That’s right. Also, because of their cooperation with the red conch, the Tagan family has a lot of money. Their Alchemist has specially invented a way to purify and refine drugs for the red conch. It can increase the purity and production. This way, the red conch will naturally not lose out on the Tagan family’s dividends every year.” The local expert said.

“An Alchemist purifying drugs ...” Lin Yi frowned. Most alchemists wouldn’t do something like that, but he didn’t think that this Tagan would do it. It seemed like the families and practitioners here didn’t play by the rules.

“What’s so strange about that? the Lu family still has cultivators to help the fire wolves!” The local expert laughed.

“But, since the Tagan family has experts, why did they still recruit adventurers to help?” Lin Yi asked, confused.

“This question is actually very simple. This kind of work of capturing spirit beasts is very dangerous. Who would be willing to let the backbone of the family take the risk? If the Tagan family’s cultivators were injured, would the other two families hit them when they were down? Will the firewolves sit by and do nothing?” The local expert said, “therefore, the simplest way is to take out a reward and ask for help. If it works, every participant will get one Spirit gathering pill. If it doesn’t work, every participant will get five spirit gathering pills. Of course, there are no escapees. This kind of reward is enough for many cultivators to risk their lives!”

“That’s true!” Lin Yi nodded.

The local expert continued explaining to Lin Yi and Jingyi the situation in ruiledah, as well as the way to find the Tagan family. Lin Yi didn’t waste his money.

Lin Yi and Jingyi finished their meal and prepared to leave the country under the local’s arrangements.

There was a lot of information in the local area, but he only knew the surface stuff. He didn’t know the deeper details, so he only had a rough idea.

It wouldn’t be hard for Lin Yi to leave the country alone, but it was the best choice to bring Jingyi along with him, with the locals there to protect him.

As expected, the local was very familiar with the terrain here-he brought Lin Yi to a bottomless River and quickly got into a speedboat nearby, avoiding the patrol. The speedboat was the local, and after talking to the local, he let Lin Yi and Jingyi get on.

“When I came back, I was still at this place. If you call me, I’ll get a cell phone signal on the other side. It’s this number. Call in advance and I’ll arrange a time to pick you up. The fare is still fifteen thousand as we agreed.” The local expert said.

“Alright,” he said. Lin Yi nodded, but he’d familiarized himself with the road-this level of River wasn’t a problem for him. He couldn’t possibly master some sort of floating skill yet, but if he threw a wooden plank in the water and used it as a support, he could totally jump with Jingyi.

The driver didn’t say much-he just sent Lin Yi and Jingyi over and left quickly. Lin Yi and Jingyi were already standing on ruileida town’s territory.

As for Skybolt pig, Lin Yi put him in a bag, so no one suspected anything. They thought that Lin Yi was the one who brought the luggage.

After passing through the forest, it was a town similar to the one from before, but the buildings were all in the style of classical art, very simple and ancient. It was night time, but the nightlife here was very rich. The restaurants and brothels were all open, and the streets were lively. It was a far cry from the town Lin Yi remembered to have no security!

In fact, although there was no political management here, because it was the territory of the three major families and gangs, the public security of the town was jointly managed by these five Forces, so the public security here was not as bad as imagined.

In addition to these five Forces, there were several small families and forces of all sizes in the town. There were also many tourists from this country. This was a paradise for criminals, a paradise for adventurers to get high rewards, and a paradise for tourists!

Food, drinks, gambling, and smoking were all available in this small town, and so Lin Yi and Jingyi didn’t attract much attention when they arrived. They were only approached by the staff of some nightclubs, casinos, and restaurants.

The Adventurer’s Guild of releida town was the place where the adventurers who came here reported. There were quests issued all year round. Some were issued by the three major families and two major gangs, and some were issued by ordinary people.

Chapter 2214: Adventurer’s Guild

For example, they could help take revenge if they had a grudge, or they could help collect debts if they didn’t pay their debts. In short, it was a platform for them to entrust missions. Behind the Adventurer’s Guild was the Tagan family. The Tagan family could also obtain a considerable amount of income every year by relying on the Commission of the Adventurer’s Guild.

“Are the two of you here to accept a mission?” Lin Yi and Jingyi had just arrived at the entrance of the Adventurer’s Guild when a shorter guy came up to them.

Lin Yi looked at him-this guy had the strength of an early phase golden class spiritual practitioner. It seemed like the Tagan family really wasn’t strong enough.

"I heard that the Tagan family is recruiting cultivators to enter the Wulong hao te mountain range to capture a fire Lion cub?" Lin Yi asked faintly.

The Wulong hao te mountain range was divided into three mountain ranges: the lower, middle, and upper mountains. Most of the cultivators' activities were in the lower mountains. The spiritual beasts here were of a lower level, with the highest being only at the yellow rank. Even so, it was already very dangerous.

The middle and upper mountain ranges were even more dangerous. It was said that the spirit beasts there were not only golden class, but also Mystic class and even higher. The adventurers who went there basically never returned. Therefore, to put it bluntly, only the lower mountain range had been developed by these people, and few people had gone up.

However, if Lin Yi and Jingyi entered the mountain directly, they'd be noticed by the local forces. Plus, Lin Yi wasn't familiar with the mountain's terrain, and it would be much easier and safer if he followed an adventurer team up the mountain.

After reaching the mountain range, he would see what to do.

Since the big families here were powerful, Lin Yi didn't want to have any conflict with them.

"Are you two cultivators?" The short guy paused after hearing Lin Yi's words.

There were practitioners who came here to sign up for the fire Lion hunt, but there weren't many of them. Only those very poor individual practitioners would risk their lives for a spirit gathering pill, and that was why the short man was surprised when Lin Yi mentioned it.

Lin Yi smiled and started channeling his practitioner's Arts, revealing his mid phase golden class strength.

"Middle phase of the Golden class? Not bad! With a golden class mid phase joining us, the success rate of this mission should be even higher!" The short guy was a man of his word, too—he became respectful when he saw that Lin Yi was stronger than him. "Please come in. After you register, you can rest in the guest rooms provided by our Adventurer's Guild. We will serve you food and wine. We will set off in three days. After you have settled down, I will explain the rules of the mission to you."

"Alright, lead the way." Lin Yi said.

The little guy didn't mind Lin Yi's cold attitude at all—practitioners all had weird tempers, especially freelancers like him. What he cared about was Lin Yi's strength, not his attitude.

Lin Yi wrote down "Zhang naipao" on the register, while Jingyi did it even more simply, using "Zhang waifu."

If these people found out his true intentions and he fell out with them, then Lin Yi didn't mind giving naipao some trouble.

It was obvious that the Adventurer's Guild treated practitioners who participated in the fire Lion hunt very well. Lin Yi and Sun Jingyi were arranged to stay in a double suite, which was simple but elegant, and the environment was unusually clean.

“My name is Lazlo, and I’m a runner from the Adventurer’s Guild. Since you’ve accepted this mission to capture the fire Lion, I’ll explain the rules of this mission to you.” Lazlo introduced after settling Lin Yi and Jingyi down.

Lin Yi nodded, signaling for Lazlo to continue.

“So far, there are four golden class Masters in this mission, including Mr. Zhang naipao.” Lazlo automatically ignored Jingyi-as far as he was concerned, she was only here to train with Lin Yi, not the main force of the mission.

“Four ... It’s said that the fire Lion is just a baby spirit beast, not even golden class yet. Four golden class Masters should be enough, right?” Lin Yi asked.

“That’s true, but the fire lion’s speed is also very fast, and its strength isn’t just big. It’s said that it can barely fight against a golden class early phase practitioner, so that’s why our mission requires a golden class and above practitioner!” Lazlo said, “when you’re here to do the mission, you must first have the ability to protect yourself. When the time comes, each of you will occupy a position and seal off the fire Lion cub’s possible escape directions. Attack it as much as you can, entangle it, and exhaust its energy!” “Young master taganlong of the Tagan family will help him establish a forced contract with the fire Lion cubs with the help of the family guards! As long as this contract is established, your mission will be completed. ”

“A forced contract?” Lin Yi’s heart skipped a beat-could this be the slave contract that Skybolt pig was talking about? After the contract was established, it was unfair to the spirit beasts, especially to a baby spirit beast. It wasn’t an extremely fierce spirit beast, and Lin Yi wasn’t very happy with this method.

“Yes, you don’t have to worry about the specific operation. All you have to do is to surround and attack this fire Lion cub!” Lazlo explained, thinking that Lin Yi didn’t know what a forced contract was.

“Oh, then we can’t kill the fire Lion cub?” Lin Yi asked.

“Fire Lion cub, although it’s a Cub, its skin is still thick. Without earth-rank strength, don’t even think about killing it!” Lazli smiled. “Plus, this fire Lion cub is very smart. If you attack it, it can run away and won’t fight you. That’s why we recruited golden class practitioners to block its escape route from different positions.”

“I see ...” Lin Yi nodded on the surface, but he started to suspect that things weren’t as simple as they seemed! If an Earth Class was able to take down the fire Lion cub, then the Tagan family would have sent four Earth Class Masters. If the Tagan family sent four Earth Class Masters, then wouldn’t they be able to capture the fire Lion cub?

If that was the case, why would they still need to mobilize so many people to get outside help to do the mission? Lin Yi didn’t ask about this-if he did, it’d make Lazlo suspicious and guard against him, and it wouldn’t be in his interest!

“That’s right. If you complete the mission, you’ll be rewarded with a spirit gathering pill. If you fail, you won’t have to work for nothing. You’ll be rewarded with five spirit gathering pills!” “Of course,” lazli said. “If you don’t do anything after going, or if you run away, you naturally won’t be rewarded!” (To be continued.)

Chapter 2215: There seems to be a problem

"I understand." "Alright," Lin Yi nodded, "do you have a map of the Wulong haote mountain range and the fire Lion?" Give me a copy, I'll study it in the next few days, just call me when you set off. "

"No problem, I'll get someone to bring it to you in a moment, Mr. Zhang!" Lazlo said.

After Lazlo left, Lin Yi carefully checked the room, making sure that there were no surveillance cameras before letting Skybolt pig out of his bag.

"Lin Yi, I think there's something wrong with this mission." "But I can't tell what the problem is," Jingyi said after a pause.

"I've thought of that too," "Since the Tagan family's so powerful and has a lot of practitioners under their wing, it's impossible that they can't even have four golden class Masters, right?" Lin Yi said. They can go and capture the fire Lion with their own family members. They don't need the help of other cultivators. "

"Yes, this is the one that's not right!" "I feel like this mission isn't going to be as easy as Lazlo said." Jingyi nodded.

"Actually, how the mission goes has nothing to do with us. We're going to the Wulong hao te mountain range just to let them lead the way. After we reach the mountain, we'll find an opportunity to act alone." Lin Yi didn't mind. If there was a problem, then there was a problem. But Lin Yi suppressed his strength, so he wasn't afraid.

"That's true, I was overthinking it. " Jingyi said as she looked at the bed, her face reddening. "There's only one big bed here, how are we going to sleep for the night?"

"Tonight ..." Lin Yi looked at Jingyi's face and knew that she misunderstood, but still said, "Of course we'll sleep together."

"Ah?" Jingyi didn't think that Lin Yi would make a request like this-she was starting to feel conflicted! It wasn't that she didn't like Lin Yi, but their relationship right now was only a joke-they didn't have any other relationship!

They hadn't even started dating yet, and they were already in bed-Jingyi couldn't accept this! After all, a woman with a unique practitioner's art like sun Jingyi's would have their cultivation speed greatly reduced if they lost their virginity ...

"What's wrong? You don't want to fulfill your duties as a lover? "I've come all the way here to help you find your parents ..." Lin Yi said.

"But ..." Sun Jingyi shed off her strong woman appearance. She wasn't that much older than Lin Yi now, and her mental age wasn't even as old as Lin Yi, "I ... I'm not really ready yet ..."

"Do we need to prepare when we sleep together?" Lin Yi asked.

"We can sleep together ... But can we not do that first?" Jingyi had no other choice but to ask.

“Which one?” Lin Yi asked, pretending to be confused.

“What are your concerns?” Lin Yi asked.

“I ... I’m not ready yet, and ... My practitioner’s Arts, if I lose my body, my training speed will slow down ...” Jingyi explained with a red face. “Therefore, I have to cultivate to stage one top class ...”

“Hehe, when I said we’ll sleep together, it’s the same as in the car. You sleep and I’ll cultivate by the side.” “It’s good to keep you safe,” Lin Yi smiled. “There’s no danger yet, but we can’t let our guard down.”

“You ... You’re toying with me on purpose?” Jingyi was pissed off-he’d made it sound so flirtatious before, but it was all a lie! She’d misunderstood him and explained everything!

“No, you said you’re my lover, and I’ve taken you on this adventure. I should at least know your feelings, right?” “I’m afraid you’re messing with me,” Lin Yi said with a smile.

“...” Jingyi was speechless at Lin Yi’s explanation, but she couldn’t refute it. She lay on the bed, depressed, “Then I’m going to sleep. I’ve told you anyway, so do whatever you want!”

Lin Yi knew that Jingyi was just throwing a tantrum, so he ignored her and closed his eyes with a smile.

Three days passed by in a flash. During this period, lazi sent someone to deliver a map of the Wulong hao te mountain range and a piece of information on the fire Lion. However, the map of the Wulong hao te mountain range only had a map of the lower mountain range and a small part of the middle Mountain range. Any further up was blank.

Even those who had been up there would not record the terrain and draw a map.

On the morning of the third day, after breakfast, Lazlo personally came to visit.

“Alright, I’ll go over after I pack up.” Lin Yi said.

“I’ll continue to inform the others.” Lazlo nodded and left, while Lin Yi and Jingyi did some simple packing. Lin Yi said to Skybolt pig, “It’s been hard on you, but you should go into Jingyi’s bag!”

“Ji Ji ...” Skybolt pig was smart and understood what Lin Yi meant. It wasn’t a good time for him to reveal himself in front of others. A Mystic class spirit beast, even if it wasn’t an attack type, would be a disaster if the Tagan family saw him!

Lin Yi was planning to let Skybolt pig out when he was alone in the mountains-the pig was extremely sensitive to the map, and bringing him along would save him a lot of trouble.

There were already two practitioners standing in front of the Adventurer’s Guild. Lin Yi could tell their strength just by looking at them. One was an early phase golden class, and the other was an early phase peak golden class. The two clearly knew each other and were talking about something ...

After Lin Yi and Jingyi walked over, the two men stopped talking and looked at Lin Yi cautiously, but didn't say anything.

They didn't say anything, and Lin Yi couldn't be bothered to talk to them.

They stood there for a while, and the fourth person didn't come. The two golden class Masters from before were getting impatient, and the one at the peak of the early phase frowned, turning to Lin Yi unhappily. "Hey, where's the other person? We've been waiting for him, don't you have any sense of time?"

Lin Yi looked at the man indifferently, not responding.

The Golden class early phase Peak Master in black was a little annoyed at Lin Yi's lack of response, "Kid, I'm talking to you, didn't you hear me? Are you deaf or mute?" (To be continued.)

Chapter 2216: Conflict occurred

As far as he was concerned, he was with the early phase golden class master in green-the two of them working together was enough to take Lin Yi down for sure.

Lin Yi didn't even look at him this time, basically ignoring him.

"What the hell, you think you're good enough? You're late and you're still acting so arrogantly. I think you're just asking for a beating!" The early phase golden class master in green was getting angry as well-he had the same idea as the black-clothed master, that if they worked together, even a mid phase golden class master would be able to take them on.

"Pa!" A slap flew over, but it wasn't from Lin Yi. It was from a thirty-something man in white, followed by Lazlo with a bitter smile!

Lazlo went to find the Masters according to their levels-the strong ones were the last to visit, and Lazlo could come with them, but he didn't expect to hear someone's dissatisfaction as soon as he arrived, and it was heard by the strongest golden class mid phase peak-how could he let it go so easily?

"You're just a little early phase golden class, yet you don't know how high the sky is!" The man in white looked at the man in green coldly. He was a mid phase peak golden class master.

The green-clothed man was actually a bully-he saw that the White-clothed man was a golden class mid phase peak, and even if he and the black-clothed man worked together, they wouldn't be a match for him. Naturally, he didn't dare to act rashly anymore-he covered his swollen face and didn't say anything.

"Beating you, are you convinced?" The white-robed man did not seem to want to let the green-robed expert off so easily. He also intended to use this opportunity to establish his prestige and establish his extraordinary position in this adventurer team. Previously, he had been worried that he would not have the opportunity, but this green-robed expert had delivered himself to his door.

"I'm convinced ..." The green-robed expert could only say.

The white-robed man nodded his head in satisfaction. He then turned to look at the black-robed expert and asked, "How about you?"

"I'm also ... Convinced." The black-clothed expert calculated for a moment. Even if he and the green-clothed expert attacked together, the difference in strength between them and the White-clothed strong man was still too big. They were not his opponent at all. Therefore, he had no choice but to admit that he was convinced!

The world of cultivators was like this. Strength was the absolute truth. If you were strong, then even if others were dissatisfied and unwilling, there was nothing they could do.

"What about you two?" The man in white didn't seem satisfied with that-he could tell that Lin Yi and Jingyi weren't with the black and green Masters, but he still turned around and asked coldly.

Lin Yi only glanced at him, not responding.

"Hey, I think someone is still unconvinced. In this adventurer team, there must be a spirit of cooperation and obedience. Lazy, these two members are disobedient. It's not easy to lead the team!" "I think that if we don't give them a warning, there will be problems when we go up the mountain!" The white-robed man laughed coldly.

"This ..." Lazlo smiled bitterly and looked at Lin Yi helplessly, "Mr. Zhang, this Mr. Bai is a golden class mid phase peak, what do you think ..."

"I'm here for a mission, not to cooperate with him." Lin Yi said faintly.

"Kid, I heard that you're quite strong-a mid-phase golden class master, but don't think that you can look down on everyone just because you're strong!" The white-robed man didn't wait for Lazlo to speak before he chuckled, "I'm not afraid to tell you that I'm at the peak of the middle stage of the Golden class, close to the full circle, only half a step away from the late stage. If you're not convinced, then ..."

However, before the man could finish his sentence, a slap landed on his face. The man spun on the ground like a spinning top before stopping ... The owner of the slap was naturally Lin Yi.

"Lazlo, I'm here to complete a mission, not to listen to this idiot's nagging. If he's still like this, don't blame me for being impolite!" Lin Yi's tone was still very calm, as if the slap wasn't from him.

Lin Yi couldn't be too low profile or too high profile in the team-he had to maintain a proper level so that he could have a say in the team. It'd be good for him to continue exploring the mountain after the mission.

Mid phase of the Golden class, it was indeed the mid phase of the Golden class! Everyone was shocked. Lin Yi was a mid phase golden class master, but he beat up a mid phase peak golden class master like a spinning top. This level of strength was shocking!

The green and black-clothed Masters were glad that they didn't make things difficult for Lin Yi-they didn't think that this guy would be even stronger than the White-clothed man!

Of course, the two of them were still happy that Lin Yi and the man were fighting. They were ignored by Lin Yi and humiliated by the man. It would be best if both of them were injured.

The white-robed man spun a few rounds on the ground before finally stopping. His face was flushed red, and his eyes were filled with disbelief and unwillingness! As far as he was concerned, Lin Yi was a mid-phase golden class master, a whole class lower than him. It must have been a sneak attack for him to be beaten like this!

“Little brat, you’re looking for death!” The white-robed man snapped back to his senses and raised his guard. He clenched his fist and sent a punch towards Lin Yi’s face, not holding back at all. He was also pissed.

“Bang ...” A loud sound was heard.

Just when everyone thought that Lin Yi would be heavily injured by the man, something strange happened again!

The man was sent flying, and there was a huge footprint on his chest—he’d been kicked by Lin Yi!

The first time was because he was caught off guard and lucky, but the second time, was it still the same? Two times was the embodiment of strength!

Other than sun Jingyi, the others were all shocked as they understood one thing—Lin Yi could fight someone above his level! It wasn’t common for practitioners to fight someone above their level, but it definitely existed, and Lin Yi should be this type of person!

“Pfft, pfft, pfft!” After the white-robed man landed on the ground, he suddenly spat out a mouthful of blood. His face was pale. He sat on the ground and adjusted his breathing for a moment before his complexion returned to normal.

“I didn’t use any true Qi in these two moves. One, two, no, three. There’s only a third time, and you can die.” Lin Yi looked at the man, his voice calm.

He didn’t use his true Qi! The two men’s faces changed again, and even their Lazis took a deep breath. The man in white, however, knew that Lin Yi didn’t use any pure energy—he’d used pure physical strength!

Chapter 2217 change of mind

And this was already showing mercy. If he had used his true energy, it wouldn’t be as simple as just spitting out a mouthful of blood!

“I was reckless before, sorry for the offense!” The man wasn’t an idiot—Lin Yi was weaker, but he was obviously stronger. He had to lower his head in this situation.

“When do we leave?” Lin Yi didn’t answer the man’s question, but turned to Lazlo.

“Young master taganlong will be here soon. We’ll set off together!” Lazlo’s attitude towards Lin Yi was clearly a lot more respectful than before.

Lin Yi nodded, not saying anything else.

Lin Yi didn't say anything, and the others didn't dare to say anything either. After about ten minutes, a Hummer drove over and stopped in front of the Adventurer's Guild. A young man with a cold and creepy face got out of the car, and behind him were two middle-aged men who looked to be in their forties or fifties.

Lin Yi looked at the young man who got out of the car first—he was an Earth Class early phase at such a young age, which was quite rare! However, considering that the Tagan family had a level two Alchemist, who should be able to make the Qi gathering pill, it wasn't a surprise that this person was an earth-class early phase!

A family with an Alchemist was a huge advantage—this guy was obviously just an empty shell. Although he was at the early stage of the earth Class, his combat strength was obviously very weak—he looked like he was over-indulged in alcohol and women.

The two middle-aged men behind him were not ordinary! One of them was an Earth Class mid phase, the same level as Lin Yi. The other, on the other hand, was an Earth Class late phase peak. Lin Yi was very surprised.

“Lazlo greets young master ta ganlong, fifth Guardian, and eighth Guardian!” Lazlo saw the three people coming down from the car and quickly walked over to greet them.

“En, are you ready?” Taganlong nodded arrogantly, his eyes sweeping across Lin Yi's five men behind lazlo before stopping on sun Jingyi. His eyes lit up instantly with a lustful light, his greedy expression clear.

Jingyi frowned, but she couldn't get angry for the sake of the plan. Lin Yi was the same, but taganlong was going to be held responsible for this!

Lin Yi didn't like the idea of forcefully taking a fire Lion cub as a spirit beast slave! However, Lin Yi wasn't a good person, and he wouldn't pity a spirit beast for no reason. If the Tagan family could bring them up the mountain, Lin Yi didn't mind helping them.

But taganlong's eyes were on Jingyi the moment he got out of the car, and that pissed Lin Yi off. He didn't want to help anymore—not only would he not help, but he might even cause trouble for him!

Taganlong didn't think he'd be in such a bad situation—he'd offended Lin Yi just because of his lust. It was a perfectly fine contract spirit beast, but because Lin Yi didn't do anything, it was impossible for him to tame it!

Otherwise, with Lin Yi's help, forcing him to sign a contract with a fire Lion cub was an easy thing to do.

“I'm ready!” Lazlo also saw taganlong's expression, but he quickly said, “They're the early phase, early phase peak, mid phase, and mid phase peak of the Golden class. Of course, in terms of combat power, Mr. Zhang is the strongest. Even Mr. Bai, who's at the mid phase peak, is no match for him! And this is his girlfriend, who is training with him ...”

Lazlo knew that taganlong was a lecherous man, and one look at his eyes told him that he was into sun Jingyi. However, sun Jingyi was the girlfriend of the strongest adventurer in the group, Lin Yi. Lazlo was worried that taganlong would do something inappropriate and affect the big plan of capturing the fire Lion! And so, he explained Lin Yi's strength and his relationship with sun Jingyi in an obscure way.

Taganlong was a little reluctant, but he knew what was important after hearing that Lin Yi was the strongest in the group. He looked away unwillingly and nodded, "Alright, then let's set off now, in case a long night brings trouble!"

"Get on the vehicle, I will arrange your division of labor and plan!" Lazlo said, pointing at the Hummer.

Taganlong's Hummer was a five-seater pickup, and Lin Yi and the other adventurers went straight to the back. Taganlong still drove the Hummer, while the fifth and eighth guards sat in the back.

Lazlo was the last to get on the car, and the Hummer slowly started, slowly moving in the direction of the oolong mountain range ...

"In a while, our division of labor will be like this. The eighth Guardian will be responsible for finding the fire Lion. After he finds the fire Lion, he will use a special method to drive the fire Lion into the encirclement of the four of you. The four of you will each occupy a corner and seal off the four blind spots. This way, no matter which direction the fire Lion runs in, you will quickly stop it and force it back into the center of the encirclement!" "This way, we can continuously exhaust the fire lion's stamina and combat power. When it's completely exhausted, the five guards will assist young master taganlong and control the fire Lion. We'll force it to consume a contract pill that's been dripped with master recognition blood to complete the contract!" Lazi said.

Everyone nodded after hearing Lazlo's words. Even Lin Yi nodded.

Seeing everyone nod, Lazlo continued, "Mr. Zhang and Mr. Bai are the most powerful, so you two should guard the middle Mountain, while the other two should guard the lower mountain! In this way, we can also prevent the fire Lion from escaping to the middle vein, but it doesn't matter if it runs to the lower vein. I'll be in the lower vein, and you can move around below at any time and be responsible for intercepting it!"

These people didn't have any objections to Lazlo's suggestion. After all, this kind of interception method and positioning arrangement was the most reasonable.

"Of course, remember one thing, that is, you must constantly spare no effort in fighting the fire Lion cub and let it exhaust its strength. Otherwise, if it has the strength to resist and spit out the contract pill it has eaten, it will not be able to complete the contract!" "Alright," Lazlo said. "This is our plan. Does anyone have any questions?"

"No, I didn't," The black-clothed expert and the green-clothed expert said.

Lin Yi and the man nodded as well. They didn't say anything, but they agreed. (To be continued.)

Chapter 2218: hitting on her

"Good! Then it's settled." Lazlo nodded and didn't say anything more.

The car quickly arrived at the foot of the mountain. At the foot of the mountain, there were people from several major families and two major gangs guarding the place. They did not allow lone adventurers to enter the mountain range, and also prevented ordinary people from entering by mistake and getting into trouble.

Of course, they actually treated the mountain range as their own private land. Other small forces and gangs who wanted to enter the mountain range for training and adventure had to pay a considerable Commission.

However, to the Tagan family, there were no obstacles, especially when they saw that the driver was young master taganlong. They naturally let him through.

At the foot of the mountain range, the group had changed into their hiking gear. The eighth guard was leading the way, Lazlo, Lin Yi, and the other adventurers were walking in the middle, while the fifth guard, who was at the peak of the late stage of the earth Class, was at the back with young master taganlong.

In the entire Wulong hao te mountain range, there was only one path that led up and down the mountain. The other places were all dense jungles. There were many dangers in there. If it wasn't poisonous grass, then it was poisonous insects. If one wasn't a specialized Alchemist or medicine master, one wouldn't dare to enter easily!

Even a cultivator could be killed by a bite from a poisonous snake or insect! Even if they encountered poisonous grass, they could still be in danger.

"Everyone, follow closely and be on guard. Don't walk around randomly. If you take the wrong path and get hurt by poisonous insects and grass, you'll bear the consequences!" The eighth Guardian shouted from the front.

Everyone raised their guard after hearing this, but Lin Yi didn't think much of it. First of all, Lin Yi had dealt with poisonous insects and grass all year round, and old Lin not only planted a bunch of herbs, but also a lot of them to study things like Gu poison. Normal poisonous insects and grass weren't a problem for Lin Yi.

Jingyi, on the other hand, was a little scared and subconsciously moved closer to Lin Yi, while taganlong, who was not far behind them, had a look of envy and jealousy in his eyes!

"Such a good woman should be mine!" Taganlong's eyes were filled with lust as he muttered to himself.

"Young master taganlong, please consider the bigger picture." "When the mission is over, we'll have plenty of opportunities," the fifth guard reminded in a low voice.

"Alright!" Young master taganlong nodded and decided not to think about anything else for the time being.

Normally, Lin Yi wouldn't eavesdrop on their conversation when he wasn't paying attention! But now, Lin Yi had his suspicions that the purpose of this operation wasn't as simple as Lazlo made it out to be, and this young master taganlong obviously had bad intentions towards sun Jingyi. Lin Yi paid attention to taganlong and the fifth Guard's conversation on his way up the mountain, and he heard every single word.

Would he have a chance ... If he ended the mission? Lin Yi's lips curled into a cold smile. He had to admit that taganlong's team was strong, but Lin Yi didn't really want to do this mission!

By the time the mission was over, Lin Yi would've gone to the middle and upper meridians already, and taganlong wouldn't be able to find them even if he wanted to!

And taganlong's previous conversation had made him even more determined to create some trouble for the fire Lion!

The group walked up the mountain for about 500 to 600 meters. Suddenly, a giant python appeared from the mountain path! Although this giant python had not reached the level of a spirit beast, it was still a mutated creature. It was much more powerful than ordinary giant pythons!

The spirit energy in the Wulong hao te mountain range was denser than in other places. Therefore, there were many spirit beasts here, and there were also many mutated beasts!

As far as Lin Yi was concerned, this snake was no different from the White Snake Qiqi had encountered in the test. It posed no threat to Lin Yi at all, and naturally posed no threat to the eighth guard either.

Sure enough, the eighth Guardian raised his hand and a knife-like palm cut over, directly cutting the giant Python's head. The giant python didn't even struggle before it was heavily hit to the ground. It didn't move at all, clearly dead.

The black-clothed expert, green-clothed expert, and even the White-clothed muscular man's expressions changed! It seemed that this eighth Guardian was also an expert! They didn't have Lin Yi's vision and didn't know the true strength of the eighth Guardian, but it wouldn't be this easy for them to deal with this giant python!

Although they were able to kill the giant python in the end, they were definitely not as nimble as this!

For golden class Masters like them, their attacks were pretty much the same as Qiqi 's-she had a hard time dealing with the White Snake, and so they wouldn't have it easy either.

Lin Yi, on the other hand, didn't think much of it. The Anaconda was strong, but it was still a good fight for him.

The appearance of the giant python was obviously an accident. In theory, no spirit beast would run out on the mountain path. This giant python seemed to be desperate, but it had chosen the wrong food.

This time, there were no other dangers along the way. After advancing for about a kilometer or so, they came to a relatively open area, and the eighth Guardian stopped.

"Everyone, this is our destination. This is where we will capture the fire Lion!" "Lazlo, arrange the advantageous position that everyone is occupying, I'll use a special method to attract the fire Lion cubs!" The eighth Guardian said.

"Yes, eighth Guardian!" Lazlo nodded and took out the map. According to the battle plan, he had Lin Yi and the others stand at four dead corners. This was a small formation, and as long as they guarded these four dead corners, it shouldn't be a problem.

Jingyi, on the other hand, stood not far behind Lin Yi. She was here on the surface for training, and naturally wouldn't join in the hunting of the Cubs.

However, at this moment, taganlong walked over at an inappropriate time. He looked at sun Jingyi gently and politely said, "Nice to meet you, beautiful lady. Let me introduce myself. I'm Tagan long, the eldest son of the Tagan family in ruiledah town. I'm a golden class mid phase master. It's a pleasure to meet you!"

"I'm sorry, we have to capture the spirit beasts now. Young master ta ganlong, please don't be distracted. It won't be good if you delay the important matters." Jingyi said faintly, a little unapproachable. "You're only a mid phase golden class master. I heard that the fire Lion can fight against golden class Masters. Master taganlong, you have to be careful."

Tagan Long's face showed a hint of anger-he didn't think that sun Jingyi would be so insensible. He was the young master of the Tagan family, one of the most powerful people in this town, and everyone was fighting to answer him. (To be continued.)

Chapter 2219: capturing the fire Lion

This sun Jingyi really didn't know what was good for her! He was also looking down on him, a mid phase golden class master!

Taganlong wanted to say that he wasn't golden class mid phase, but Earth Class, but his father had told him to hide his strength and not reveal it. He had to pretend to be a rich kid to confuse others, so he could only keep it in.

Taganlong shook his head. He had been acting like a good-for-nothing for so long that he was getting into character. However, he was able to control his emotions very well!

In fact, he was a very smart person. However, even the fifth and eighth guardians didn't know about this. They only knew that young master taganlong had deliberately suppressed his strength because he was afraid of the jealousy of the other clans. However, they didn't know the core secret of the Tagan clan and the schemes they had been plotting over the years ...

"You're right, the fire Lion is more important." Taganlong seemed to have heard sun Jingyi's words. He remembered the importance of the fire Lion, and walked away with a dark face. However, he had already made up his mind. After this mission was over, he would capture sun Jingyi no matter what!

He was indeed lecherous, and while taganlong was pretending to be a rich kid, he was also lecherous. However, he didn't bring sun Jingyi back for lecherous reasons, but for ... A very important reason!

Lin Yi was a little speechless-was this guy that stupid? How dare he talk to Jingyi like this when he was just standing there? Didn't he know that in the world of cultivation, there were a few people who would kill someone because of a single sentence?

It was just that Lin Yi didn't want to make an enemy out of the Tagan family right now. He still had to go to the Wulong haote mountains to look for clues about sun Jingyi's parents. If the matter was over, Lin Yi would've killed Tagan long ago and run away with sun Jingyi.

"Hmph!" Returning to the side of the fifth Guardian, Tagan long coldly snorted, his dissatisfaction completely expressed on his face.

“Young master taganlong, that Zhang naipao will be our main force in a while, don’t mess with him now, or he won’t be able to do anything.” The fifth guard lowered his voice and said to young master taganlong, “It’s just a daughter. When the time comes, just give him some pills and see if he doesn’t obediently give you his woman to play with. In the world of cultivation, there are many things that betray their friends for a pill.”

“That’s true!” Tagan long nodded after hearing the fifth protector’s words, and didn’t rush to talk to sun Jingyi.

As far as he was concerned, sun Jingyi was already in his pocket-if Lin Yi was willing to risk his life for a spirit gathering pill, then he’d give him a Foundation pill, Meridian opening pill, small recovery pill, and the like-he’d be able to send sun Jingyi to him.

“Hu hu ...” The eighth Guardian suddenly let out a long howl! This was the signal that they had agreed on beforehand. If it was sent out at this time, he had probably already succeeded!

“Everyone, be on guard. Get into position and prepare to capture the fire Lion!” Lazlo shouted.

Other than Lin Yi, all the other adventurers were on high alert, ready to strike at any moment.

Sure enough, a loud sound rang out, and a fiery red little lion, driven by the eighth Guardian, quickly ran over.

He didn’t know what special technique the eighth Guardian used to force the little fire Lion to run here, but this surprised Lin Yi. Normally, a spirit beast without a contract wouldn’t be so easily controlled by a human, unless he had some special method.

“Roar ...” The little fire Lion roared and entered the ambush circle of Lin Yi and the others. However, the little fire Lion didn’t stop. It wanted to break through the encirclement and escape through the gaps!

But at this moment, the green-robed expert who was closest to the little fire Lion also made his move!

“Bang!” The green-robed expert’s palm landed on the little fire lion’s body. The little fire Lion staggered back from the impact. Although it was not seriously injured, it was obvious that the green-robed expert’s full-force Palm had made it suffer!

“Roar!” The little fire Lion let out an angry roar and pounced towards the green-robed expert, wanting to take revenge for that palm.

The green-robed expert had already probed the bottom line of the little fire lion’s strength. Although he couldn’t kill the little fire Lion, the little fire Lion definitely couldn’t do anything to him. Even if the little fire Lion went berserk, he would at most suffer some light injuries. It was impossible to cause him any trouble.

“Little thing, you don’t know what’s good for you. Grandpa will give you another slap!” The green-robed expert vented all his anger towards the white-robed brawny man on the little fire Lion and slapped it again!

However, this time, the little fire Lion was clearly prepared. It knew that the green-robed expert was not to be trifled with. When it pounced over, it nimbly dodged the green-robed expert’s palm and its four legs stomped on the green-robed expert’s chest with force!

“Bang!” Caught off guard, the green-shirted expert was stomped on by the little fire Lion. The blood in his chest churned. Although he was not injured, he was still in pain!

“Bastard! Little bastard, you’re looking for death!” The green-shirted expert did not wait for the little fire Lion to leave. He gathered power in his arms and punched out with both fists at the same time!

“BOOM!” “BOOM!”

The lion was sent flying by the angry master in green, flying into the middle of the Four’s encirclement. It struggled on the ground for a while before getting up, obviously injured!

This green clothed expert’s angry fists were not that easy to take.

The little fire Lion seemed to know that it was no match for the green-robed expert and immediately turned around and ran towards the middle of the mountain! However, it was wrong. In front of it, there was an even more powerful man in white waiting for it!

Just as the little fire Lion was about to break through the encirclement, the white-robed brawny man blocked the little fire lion’s path.

He was the master with the highest level among them. Naturally, he could not lose face like the green-clothed master. He could not afford to lose face like this. Hence, he attacked first before the little fire Lion could pounce on him!

“Little thing, Grandpa will play with you!” As the white-robed man spoke, he kicked the little fire Lion!

He had mistook the fire Lion for Lin Yi, and he knew that he couldn’t take revenge for Lin Yi’s slap and kick, so he vented his anger on the fire Lion!

“Bang!”

With a loud bang, the little fire Lion was directly kicked into the air by the white-robed strong man. It flew up and coincidentally landed heavily at the feet of the black-robed man!

This time, the little fire lion’s injuries seemed to be even more serious than before. Moreover, the little fire Lion was struggling on the ground. Before it could get up, it was kicked up by the black-clothed expert again ...

These people were kicking the little fire Lion like a ball, and Jingyi couldn’t bear to see it. After all, the little fire Lion didn’t have any intention of attacking these people, it just wanted to run away, and these people were harming it! (To be continued.)

Chapter 2220: not helping

Of course, the strength of the Man in Black’s legs was much weaker than the man in white ‘s. The little fire Lion didn’t get kicked back this time, but fell in the middle of the encirclement. The little fire Lion struggled a few times before jumping up again. This time, it ran towards Lin Yi!

The three of them weren’t to be trifled with, and the little fire Lion had high intelligence. It knew that running in their direction was asking for trouble. The only way was to try Lin Yi’s side!

However, Lin Yi couldn't just go easy on the Tagan family like that-he had to put on an act. This wasn't the time to fall out with the Tagan family yet, and he planned to pretend that he'd stay on the mountain and help the Tagan Family Search for the fire Lion after the mission failed.

The Tagan family would definitely agree to a free labor like this to keep watch on the mountain, and they'd think that Lin Yi was just greedy for the Qi gathering pill and didn't want to give it up. It wouldn't raise too much suspicion.

Lin Yi's body was very fast, and in an instant, he was in front of the little fire Lion, blocking it and sending a palm towards it!

The little fire lion's eyes flashed with shock. It didn't expect that Lin Yi's figure and speed were the best among the four. Looking at Lin Yi's fierce palm, it must be hard for it to survive. The little fire Lion subconsciously wailed.

Lin Yi's palm landed on the little fire lion's body, but the little fire Lion was surprised to find that it didn't feel any pain. Instead, a pure Qi entered its body and quickly healed all the injuries it had suffered!

The little fire lion's injuries weren't that serious in the first place, and Lin Yi used the art of Dragon mastery for the second time. The healing speed was extremely fast, and the whole process was completed in an instant!

After Lin Yi healed the lion, he suddenly exerted force and "sent" the lion flying. It looked like it was sent flying, but Lin Yi did it skillfully-the lion didn't suffer any damage at all.

And when Lin Yi sent it out, he sent a voice transmission to it,""I can't let you go from my side. You still have to find a breakthrough yourself. But if you're injured, you can come back and I'll help you heal!"

The little fire lion's eyes flashed with shock. Although it wasn't strong, it was very intelligent. This was the advantage of a spirit beast bloodline. It naturally understood Lin Yi's words, but it was very surprised. Why did Lin Yi let it go?

And Lin Yi seemed to be very powerful, healing her instantly? Why could humans also heal spirit beasts? Weren't only healing-type spirit beasts able to heal spirit beasts? It was confused, but it knew that this wasn't the time to ask questions. It had to put on a disguise and not let down Lin Yi's good intentions!

After the little fire Lion fell heavily to the ground, it pretended to struggle in pain for a long time before it got up. However, this time, it was full of confidence and began to attack the green-clothed expert! As far as it was concerned, injuries didn't matter-as long as Lin Yi was here, it could heal instantly!

As long as it could delay for some time, its father, the Great Fire Lion, would definitely come to look for it when he saw that it was missing.

The strongest practitioner here was only an Earth Class late phase peak, not even the Hidden House Yu, house Zhao, house you, and house Tang's elders. They wouldn't even be able to notice Lin Yi's little actions!

With Lin Yi's guarantee, the little fire Lion didn't even think about running away anymore. Under the siege of these people, it was very difficult to escape! On Lin Yi's side, it couldn't choose. Lin Yi helped it, but it had to run away from Lin Yi, which was the same as harming Lin Yi!

Therefore, the little fire lion's initial escape had turned into an active provocation. It fought with the green-clothed expert, then the black-clothed expert, then the White-clothed strong man. This cycle repeated and tired the three of them out, but the little fire Lion became braver as it fought.

"Fifth Guardian, what's up with this little fire Lion? You seem to be full of energy?" Tagan long asked impatiently.

"I'm not sure ... But according to the records, a little fire Lion shouldn't be so energetic. Could this be a purebred little fire Lion?" The fifth guard couldn't see any clues, and could only guess that this little fire Lion was naturally stronger.

"That's good. The stronger this little fire Lion is, the more face I'll have when it becomes my contractual spiritual beast." Tagan long nodded.

The fifth Guardian rejoiced in his heart. If he had known that the little fire Lion had so much energy, he would have made the right choice by looking for adventurers to exhaust its energy.

However, if they were unable to exhaust the little fire Lion within a certain period of time and instead provoked the Great Fire Lion, these adventurers would definitely become the sacrificial lambs of this operation! the fire lion was a kind of spirit beast that clearly distinguished kindness and hatred. it was very grateful, but also very vengeful. when the fire lion arrived, these four people would all die!

On the contrary, the ones who didn't make a move might suffer the Great Fire lion's revenge, but it wouldn't kill them all. It was just a warning. As long as they protected young master Tagan, it wouldn't be a problem for him to suffer minor injuries.

He had a lot of healing pills on him, so it was easy to treat minor injuries.

Whatever the fifth Guardian knew, the eighth Guardian naturally knew as well. He and lazli watched from the side, extremely anxious. They wanted to help, but they didn't dare to. First, they were afraid of the fire lion's revenge, and second, it was useless even if they did!

With his earth-class mid-phase strength, he would definitely be able to seriously injure the little fire Lion! However, this wasn't the result he wanted. Once he used his full strength, the little fire lion's meridians would definitely be broken. If the meridians were broken, then the contract pill would be eaten. If it couldn't be refined and integrated into the meridians, it would be equivalent to eating for nothing, and it wouldn't achieve the effect of the contract.

But if he didn't go all out, then what was the difference between him and these golden class Masters using up the little fire lion's energy? These four people were enough. He was not willing to take the risk in case the big fire Lion bore a grudge.

The lion's main targets were the green, black, and white-robed men. It would only attack Lin Yi once in a while.

However, to these people, there was nothing strange about it. The little fire lion's intelligence was very high. It could definitely see that Lin Yi was the strongest person. It would rather fight with the other three than Lin Yi. It only fought with Lin Yi occasionally when it was forced to.

From the way Lin Yi sent it flying and landing, it had to struggle for a long time before it could get up-it was clear that it suffered the most at Lin Yi's hands! (To be continued.)
