

Bodyguard 251

Chapter 251 – Let an Accident Happen to Her

Were running out of time. You give Zhang Yuchu a call- tell him that it doesnt matter what he does as long as he causes trouble. Best way to go about this is let something happen to the Chu Mengyao girl, so that Chu Pengzhan stops focusing on the company! I only need some time to have authority over the company, along with the support of the shareholders! Jin Gubang said to Jin Maosheng after some thought.

Understood, dad! Ill contact Zhang Yuchu right now. Maosheng nodded.

Be careful of that Lin Yi- the bastards messed our plans up twice already. Gubang warned.

Well need to think up a flawless plan this time Maosheng was thinking how hed get Mengyao into an accident- he was someone more evil and ruthless than his father, after all He liked to solve problems with accidents.

Dropping the chandelier on Pengzhan in the parking lot was one such example of the accidents hed caused- hed also killed off the electrician who helped him with another accident.

Jin Maosheng was a violent man- hed never agreed to kidnapping Mengyao in the first place. As far as he was concerned, killing the girl off would destroy Chu Pengzhan instantly, and troubling himself over company affairs would be the last thing on his mind. The Jins would then swoop in and steal away the chairman seat amidst the chaos.

Maosheng dialed in Yuchus number as he walked out his fathers office. As much as he preferred to be dealing with Li Cihua directly instead of Yuchu, who was just his underling, Maosheng understood that he wasnt at that level yet.

House Jin still wasnt powerful enough to be in the same world as the person behind Li Cihua- what they were doing here, after all, was just so that the Jins could have control over Pengzhan Industries and pave the path for Master Bins company- that person wouldnt have involved himself at all if it werent for that.

The price for Jin control over Pengzhan Industries was the extraction of real estate from the company- all for the sake of Master Bin, the bastard son of that person.

Pengzhan Industries was involved with trading, real estate, general merchandise, hotels, entertainment, clothing lines Taking real estate out of that combination would damage the company, but it was a meager price to pay for the chairman's seat at the top of Pengzhan Industries.

Maosheng was the son of a large shareholder of Pengzhan Industries- to think that someone like him amounted to nothing in the eyes of that person sent melancholy down his spine Was that house really that monstrously powerful?

Mister Jin, whats the matter? Yuchu was currently flaming over the father and son of House Jin- the failure of the robbery was completely due to Gubangs lack of investigation, the fact that he hadnt looked into the person protecting Mengyao That was the cause for their loss! And now they were blaming his men??

It infuriated Zhang Yuchu- he was, at the end of the day, Cihua Bros man. He wasn't just someone Jin Gubang could scold as he pleased.

Yuchus voice started pissing Maosheng off as well- it wasn't as if they weren't giving anything in exchange! Cutting the real estate company out from Pengzhan Industries was massive- that was three to four hundred million kuai right there!!

Mister Zhang, I hope you understand that we're in a partnership here- there's no subordination involved in the slightest! This job gets done and both Master Bin and I get what we want. Maosheng was a formidable man himself- he was harsher than even his father. The usurpation this time around was due to him, as well. Yet I don't lose anything should things go downhill- it'll be the same, us Jins would remain shareholders in Pengzhan Industries. But do you think Master Bin would just let things slide on your part?

..... Yuchu froze- why hadn't he considered this before? He'd been so hung up on the Jins pinning the failure on him that he'd forgotten- the consequences for failure would be as bad as the rewards for success would be good!

Yuchu broke into a cold sweat with that in mind. Jin Bro, what're you saying? We're both after mutual benefit at the end of the day, aren't we! Don't say stuff like that! Rest assured- I'll give it my best!

Maosheng smiled coldly at the response- the guy would've kept dragging things if he didn't scare him a bit. Haha, of course, of course. That old fox Chu Pengzhan's on alert now because of what happened- he's constantly pulling back company rights! My father's being really passive about it, too!

Then What do we do? Yuchu asked. He wasn't even part of the guys company, what was he telling him this for?

Should some kind of accident befall Chu Pengzhan's daughter he'd probably pull his focus away from company affairs. Maosheng said faintly. Storms gather without warning, don't they, Yuchu?

Yuchu paused at the words- Maosheng intended to shed blood. Yet Yuchu himself wasn't one to cower away from such things; none of Cihua Bros men were.

Don't worry, Jin Bro. I know what to do- it won't be long before you hear the bad news. Yuchu agreed directly- offing a person, after all, was easier than kidnapping them.

Alright then- I'll make sure to check the news. Maosheng said before hanging the phone up. That's more like it.

Naturally, Yuchu phoned Li Cihua first.

Cihua Bro, it's me, little Yuchu! Yuchu said after the call connected.

Ah, little Yuchu. Why're you calling at this hour? Don't you know I'm sleeping? Cihua was a man who slept during the day- it was something his followers all knew. He only kept his phone on in case the boss backing him up called.

Cihua Bro, Jin Maosheng called- he wants me to kill that Chu Mengyao girl. Yuchu explained.

Ah. Ill leave it to you- remember not to have any direct confrontations, that girl has a master with her. Just causing an accident should be enough. Cihua said casually, evidently not thinking much of one human life. Also, Master Bins coming soon. Wrap things up as soon as you can- the real estate company of Pengzhan Industries is the welcoming gift for him!!

Understood, Cihua Bro! Ill get to it right now! With Cihuas approval, Yuchu was clear to go all out- from what he could see, it didnt matter how good that Lin Yi was, he wouldnt be able to protect Chu Mengyao if he played dirty and in the shadows.

Hed been so careful before, too, trying to keep the girl alive Things changed after that phone call with Maosheng, and it was time for her to have a clean death.

Chapter 252 – Out of Her Mind

Lin Yi walked into the villa to see Mengyao and Yushu in the living room- the tv was off, and the two looked like they were waiting for him so they could give him a scolding.

Be careful Shield Bro, Yao Yaos jealous! Yushu warned as she ate some mandarin orange.

Shu!! Mengyao turned to glare at her. Whatre you talking about?! Whore you calling jealous??

Oh no, Yao Yaos angry now, too. Shield Bro, good luck! Ill shut up now. With that, Yushu shut her mouth.

Shu You Yao Yao had put on her scolding face to teach Lin Yi a lesson already, but Yushu was ruining everything here! She wasnt really in the mood to be scolding anyone anymore. Shu, are you falling in love with Lin Yi ever since that confession? Whyre you always standing up for him?

Oh, are you hoping that Id fall in love with him, Yao Yao? Yushu chewed her orange casually. You and me- we have to marry the same man anyway!

Mengyao really wanted to kick Yushu into space at this point- what did she think she was doing, they were really off topic now! She turned back to Lin Yi, who looked pretty casual himself, as if whatever was going on didnt concern him.

What the hell was she even doing in the first place, butting into Lin Yis affairs? What did it matter to her what the guy wanted to do?

Him hitting on girls and playing delinquent didnt affect her own agenda- as long as he kept Zhong Pinliang away from her, it counted as doing his job. Mengyao waved her hand, irritated. Lin Yi, just mind your image at school- I dont care what goes on between you and Tang Yin, just As long as you keep Zhong Pinliang away from me

Oh, dont worry about that- the guys pretty overwhelmed now. He wont be bothering you anymore. Lin Yi nodded.

Alright then, thats fine then. But you have to tell me in advance before you go out in the future- I dont wanna not be able to find you when Im looking for you! Mengyao didnt know what was up with her anymore- was this about Lin Yi being with another girl, or was this about his unprofessionalism?

Alright. Lin Yi nodded without thinking.

The relationship between Mengyao and him had thawed. Lin Yi valued the mission, and despite not knowing what the mission actually was, it was a job that set him up for life. He had Old Lins blessing on top of that, too- it was a mission he'd complete without fail.

Then go do your stuff, Shu and I have a concert to watch. There's food in the kitchen, go eat them yourself if you want! Shu and I have eaten already. With that, Mengyao dismissed Lin Yi with a wave of her hand.

Eh? Yao Yao, you said you wanted to go bungee jumping and push Lin Yi down! Why aren't you talking about that now? Yushu interjected suddenly.

Shu!! Mengyao couldn't believe this- she was just saying that out of anger! Of course she wouldn't push Lin Yi down like that, that'd be murder! She glared at Shu. What's in their head of yours, Shu, what's wrong with you? I obviously didn't mean that!

But I wanted to go bungee jumping! How about we don't push Shield Bro down, but just go bungee jumping? Yushu asked, her eyes on Mengyao.

Ah Lin Yi shook his head- Yushu was such a riot. None of the conflicts in this house could get serious with her around. Although, Lin Yi wasn't expecting Mengyao to be so pissed to the point where she wanted to push Lin Yi to his death..?

Mengyao cleared her throat, getting a little embarrassed because of Yushu. Lin Yi, don't listen to Shu- I'm not thinking of pushing you at all.

Oh.. I'd be fine if you wanna push me. Lin Yi said as he imagined getting pushed down by the Miss. Mm.. that'd be pretty nice..

Hm? What was that? Mengyao didn't quite catch that.

Nothing. It wasn't something Lin Yi dared repeat.

Yao Yao, Shield Bro said he wanted to be pushed down by you. Yushu, on the other hand, heard Lin Yi's words loud and clear

Wha?! Mengyao froze as her face started to redden- as innocent and unexposed as she was, even a young girl like her understood what push down meant in that context. She started getting pissed as well. Lin Yi, what did you say?!

I just said I'd be fine if you wanna push me Lin Yi sweated a little- he did mean it in that way, but he definitely didn't say it like that. I mean, it's not like I'd die or anything from a fall like that Mengyao frowned as she thought about it- Lin Yi did say I'd be fine and nothing about getting pushed down. With that, she turned back to Yushu. Shu!!

Oh Yushu stood up from the sofa, thinking of running away when her legs, numb from sitting cross-legged the whole time gave under her weight She then started falling

Shu- Lin Yi!! Mengyao leaned forward to try and catch her, but couldn't quite make it- Yushu was falling head first to the ground, and Mengyao called out to Lin Yi without thinking about it

Okay Lin Yi reached his hand out and caught Yushu

Shu, dont say stuff like that! Theres a man in the house! Mengyao glared, her scolding mood back. Are you planning to just let him just feel you up if I dont ask him to let go?

But I cant just drop and fall on the floor, right?

But what? Whyre you focused on me, Lin Yis touching you right now! Focus on him, focus on paying him back! Mengyao said, exasperated.

This girl got her brother to beat that Wu Xiaocan up after hed insulted her a bit, but Lin Yi touching her boobs was fine? She was acting as if nothing was happening! Was this soul mate of hers out of her mind?!

Chapter 253 – Had It Become Real?

Ah.. So Yao Yao, youre saying he should take responsibility? Yushu blinked blankly.

..... Mengyao didnt know what to say anymore. Youre not gonna ask your brother to beat him up?

Oh, well Shield Bros touched me already that time I got stuck in the fence. Yushu said after some thought. Yao Yao, maybe we can just write this down, and leave him alone if he listens to us and be a good boy.

Yeah, that sounds good. Naturally, Mengyao agreed- it wasnt her who got touched, so why would she mind when Yushu was fine with it?

Both times were because I saved you! Lin Yi wasnt too happy with what was going on here- this girl was trying to cause him trouble after hed saved her twice!

Oh. Well call it even then, but Shield Bro, come bungee jumping with us this weekend! I havent tried it before, you know! Lets go together. Yushu didnt mind- she had Lin Yis secrets against him, so it didnt really matter.

Sure Lin Yi had planned to reject her, but he did touch her, and in front of his Miss, too Hed be lucky enough if Mengyao werent causing him trouble- bungee jumping compared to that was nothing.

Mengyao didnt know what Yushu was thinking. She waited for Lin Yi to go eat before whispering to her. Shu, do you really have a crush on Lin Yi?

Ah? No.? Yushu said as she peeled her orange.

No? You let him touch you..? Mengyao frowned, sighing internally- Lin Yis probably seduced her already! She didnt react at all when Lin Yi touched her!

But it wasnt on purpose! Yushu was starting to find it odd herself She seemed to really get along well with Shield Bro? She didnt even care about getting touched and was even talking about bungee jumping, as if it wasnt a big deal

You. Mengyao didnt know what to say anymore Could her best friend have fallen for Lin Yi after that one confession..? Had it become real for the both of them?

Zhang Tongtian was leaning back in his chair as he called Sun Jingyi, a triumphant look on his face.

Hello? Miss Sun? As far as Tongtian was concerned, Jingyi might as well be on his bed already- unless she wanted to stop doing trading in Songshan!

With his connections in the city, Tongtian only needed to release the footage to the media, and Jingyi would be done for, along with her company!

Putting the departmental punishments aside, there was the simple fact that no one would go to their company for business anymore! No one would trust a company this unsafe!

The purchasing managers all understood what that meant- why would they go to Jingyis exposed company when they could get their rebates from safer ones?

Yet Tongtian didnt know the sort of background Jingyi had- the girl had come to Songshan alone not to rely on her familys influence, but to cut herself off from them!

The Sun House She couldnt stand those people anymore, fighting with each other for her grandfathers wealth- what happened to family? Her grandfather wasnt even dead yet, one could only imagine how much worse off things could get when her grandfather died.

Jingyis parents had died young, and her grandfather had been her parent figure growing up. Her relationship with her grandpa was closer because of that, they were actually family The other Suns, on the other hand, treated her as public enemy number one, since she was the one most likely to inherit that fortune- it discomfoted her too much, and compelled her to come to the outer city and start her own empire!

Chairman Zhang, what do you need? With the memory card in her hand, Jingyi wasnt scared of Zhang Tongtian in the slightest anymore- her voice was calm and casual as he spoke, no longer tense.

Miss Sun, have you forgotten? Im hosting a press conference today- Ill be exposing some companys rule-breaking! Tongtian said. Miss Sun, would you be interested in participating?

Tongtian smiled coldly. Sun Jingyi This is your last chance. Dont make me put you and your company to ruin!!

Oh? How could I reject an invitation from Chairman Zhang? Jingyi said faintly. When and where is it?

9 AM today, in my companys conference room. Id advise Miss Sun to come earlier, we can discuss the contents of the press conference before it happens! Tongtian hinted.

I apologize, I have something to attend to here- Ill be lucky if I manage to get there on time! Jingyi wondered why this Tongtian was still so triumphant- hadnt he noticed his missing memory card? Did he have a backup?

That'd be really bad. She'd gotten Lin Yi to steal the memory card for her because Tongtian was bad with technology! From what she had heard, the guy didn't even know how to use computers or cameras, he'd gotten that footage by hiring a private detective to do the deed for him! He should have just left it in his bag after watching the footage once.

Jingyi's guess wasn't off- Tongtian did check his camera again this morning, and saw the memory card still safely inserted. He wasn't tech-savvy, and just left it at that without looking into it further.

Tongtian was a social but gruff man. His company sold computers, but he himself couldn't even find the power button.

Alright then. I hope you won't regret it! Tongtian hung the phone up after a cold hmph. The damn woman was just asking for it!

Jingyi walked into Tongtian's conference room a little after nine o'clock- Tongtian was looking really displeased as he watched her walk in, wondering how she'd hold up when he exposed her.

Tongtian had made his decision- the girl didn't know when to give in, and this was her well-deserved punishment.

Miss Sun, you're quite late. Tongtian said neutrally as he nodded.

Chairman Zhang. Why would my tardiness matter in your company's press conference? Jingyi asked faintly.

Miss Sun, do take a seat. Tongtian said with a cold chuckle as he seated himself at the host table.

The majority of these reporters were on good terms with the company- he'd even used his connections to get a couple of reporters from big news companies. This exposure would make quite the news.

Chapter 254 – Ruin

Tongtian felt no remorse in ruining her at this point- the girl had clearly made her mind up.

Welcome, everyone. I understand that all of you present are either friends or friends of friends- none of you are outsiders, so let's skip the pleasantries! Tongtian said after clearing his throat.

We're all ready, Chairman Zhang! A reporter who'd been pre-informed said as he turned the camera to the big screen in the meeting room.

Alright! Tongtian nodded. I've gathered you here today to expose to you scum of the trading world! This person has ignored all rules and morals, a leading example of cancer in the industry! What do you say we should do to people like that?

Remove the tumor! People like that aren't fit to be in the trading business! A couple of pre-informed people spoke standing up.

Chairman Zhang! We're all waiting for your exposure!! Let us see who this person is! Pigs like that aren't fit to trade!! Another man said with a raised fist.

It was actually only a couple people saying the words- these were all people who have had prior contact with Zhang Tongtian. The others were really here for the drama.

Secretary Li, play this footage! Tongtian said as he handed the camera to his secretary- it was the first time the camera had left his hands!

He didnt want the footage to be leaked prematurely- he wouldnt be able to blackmail Jingyi otherwise.

He was also untrusting of the people around him, fearing that Jingyi mightve bribed them so as to remove the footage!

This was the first time hed passed the camera to anothers hands!

Everyone! Eyes on the screen! Tongtian said with a gesture as the secretary connected the camera to the screen

And the moans and huffs of a couple in bed filled the room

It wasnt uncommon for the sound to come before the footage, and during that one second everyone wondered what kind of video this was, Tongtian included. He didnt remember audio like that when he watched it?

The screen was then filled with two naked figures- the male was fat and the female voluptuous But why did that man look so familiar..?

Everyone turned their gaze to Zhang Tongtian, instantly realizing who the main character of the video was!

Jingyi gasped before lowering her head, not daring enough to look at what was on the screen- but she was still very much pleased at how things were turning out! The date on the screen was yesterdays, when shed asked Lin Yi to steal the footage for her.

And Lin Yi mentioned that hed played around with the camera during the job- this had to be what Lin Yi had recorded!

She was still pretty troubled over Lin Yis sudden dominance over her last night, but the Jingyi now was bursting with joy! What a payback this turned out to be!

Zhang Tongtian, on the other hand, was as humiliated as one could get! His face reddened after recovering from the shock. Secretary Li! What is this?! What have you put on the screen?!

Chairman Zhang, this is the camera you gave me I just connected it to the screen The secretary said innocently.

Ha Hahaha. Hahahaha Laughter could be heard resonating throughout the room- the people connected with Tongtian didnt understand what the hell was going on, but the others were brimming with excitement- this was quite the exposure!!

Shut it off! Turn it off right now!! Tongtian flared as he roared at his secretary.

The secretary felt wronged, but went and shut it down anyway.

Whats going on? What happened? Wheres the footage?! Tongtians darkened face looked very pissed off.

Chairman Zhang, is this the cancer scam you were talking about? Jingyi said with a cold smile as she stood up. You called all of us here just to see your performance? Forgive me, but I dont find pleasure in that vulgar footage. Goodbye!!

With that, Jingyi turned and walked out of the room- there was no point in staying there anymore. The other people started leaving as well, not feeling too comfortable staying there- what was this Zhang Tongtian even doing, calling everyone here to see him star in a porn video? Was the dude an exhibitionist or something? Did he want to show how manly he was?

Tongtian clenched his jaw as he looked at what his perfectly planned press conference had developed into- as pissed off as he was, there was nothing he could do about it!

He felt that something was wrong, but didnt know what Why had his footage turned into porn of his lover and him?!

It had to be Sun Jingyi! That woman, it had to be her! He didnt know how shed managed it, but his guts told him concretely that this had to be linked with Sun Jingyi!!

Why would she be that calm and composed otherwise, as if it didnt matter to her?

Sun Jingyi Zhang Tongtian gritted with a clench of his fists- he vowed that very moment that Jingyi would pay

In class five of Songshans First School, Lin Yi yawned. He actually had trouble sleeping last night After all, touching a girls boobs for the first time was a very memorable moment to remember.

He thought that hed be sharing that memory with Tang Yin, but never had he expected that itd turn out to be Chen Yushu! It was an emergency situation and an accident, but Lin Yi still felt it regardless

To tell the truth, he might very well have hit on Yushu if she werent Mengyaos soulmate But the problem here was that she was! The best friend of the Miss had to be pretty hard to get.

Boss, whats wrong? You look out of it today. Xiaobo had planned to talk to Lin Yi about Fen, but wasnt sure if he should after one look at Lin Yis face.

Xiaobo, just say what you wanna say. Im fine. Lin Yi shook his head, trying to throw the fatigue off. He could use the Art of Dragon Mastery to remove the exhaustion from his body, but it was more than just fatigue- he was just troubled, and not in the mood.

Just what kind of relationship did he have with Chen Yushu? Lin Yi was feeling a little odd...

Chapter 255 – Requesting Backup

Boss, I think Fen still hasn't let that Kang Zhaoming bastard go yet. Xiaobo's fists were clenched as he spoke- he looked very furious.

Hm? What do you mean? Lin Yi blinked. How was Fen still thinking about that person after what he'd done to her? What the hell?

Man, boss You don't know, but Fen looks weird when I bring up Zhaoming with her Xiaobo sighed. I'm guessing that she's trying to forget Kang Zhaoming, but can't. He was her first man, so it's normal for her to have a strong impression of him, but why doesn't she see what kind of a disgusting person that Kang Zhaoming is?

She knows. Lin Yi said. But it's just as you said- it's hard for her to forget. I think you should let her meet Kang Zhaoming one more time; she might be able to move on after that. Best way to go about it is let her see just how cruel Kang Zhaoming could be.

But boss, wouldn't that be too much for Fen? She's just recovered Xiaobo said, worried.

Maybe, maybe not. But as long as you have me it's fine. Lin Yi said. She'll never walk out of that trauma if she doesn't confront it.

You're right! Xiaobo nodded. Boss, I wouldn't have to worry about Fen's sickness acting up again with you here! But where do I find Kang Zhaoming? My second grandpa moved to the capital a long time ago.

There's gotta be a way, right? Lin Yi said faintly. Xiaobo, you need to be more confident and stop thinking of yourself as Kang Zhaoming's replacement. That way Fen might start to gradually accept you. If you just rely on you looking like your cousin to get with Fen, then that's gonna be pretty sad!

Don't worry, boss! I won't embarrass you! Leave Fen to me! Xiaobo announced.

You've decided? To be with Fen? Lin Yi asked.

Yes! Boss, I'm sure of it this time! Xiaobo nodded his head solemnly. Last night I spent the night with Fen

Ah? For real? Lin Yi's eyes were wide open- he wasn't expecting his follower to be even stronger than he was! All he'd done was hold Tang Yin's hand and touch Yushu's boobs so far, but Xiaobo's at that stage already.

Wait, boss, it's not like that I was just accompanying her Xiaobo sweated. Nothing happened between us.

..... Lin Yi was speechless. And then?

We chatted a lot, and I know what's on her mind now Xiaobo said. Boss, you're right- she can't move on. She knows it's impossible at this point, but she just won't move on unless Kang Zhaoming says it to her face!

Since we're talking about him, you know that this would ruin your relationship with your cousin, right? You sure that's fine? Lin Yi asked.

I don't think of him as my cousin anymore- look at what he's done. Kang Zhaoming's an animal. Xiaobo said with a cold laugh. I'd go beat him up if it weren't for my second grandfather's sake.

You can beat him up, but not now, at least. You're not there yet. Lin Yi reminded.

I know Xiaobo sighed. Guys the young master of the Kang house, while Im some poor relative of Miracle Doctor Kang.

Zhang Naipao hadnt come to school today, and only Zhong Pinliang knew where he had went. Even Gao Xiaofu was left out on this.

Hed only gotten a long-term sick leave from the school, and told his family ambiguously that Zhong Pinliang had something big he needed him to do With that out of the way, he went up Springstar Mountain under the escort of some of Zhong Fabais men

Pinliang glared at Lin Yi with toxicity. You keep showing off Well see how you die when Zhang Naipao comes back from that mountain!!

Pinliang felt more at ease at that thought. Lin Yi was a dead man walking anyway- let him enjoy the time he had left all he wanted! With that, a shred of pity started showing on Pinliangs gaze.

Mengyao, you have time this Saturday? My dad gave me three 3D movie tickets, wanna go? Fabai had told him to get with Mengyao as soon as possible- itd be bad for the Zhong family if his uncle Jin Gubang planned something else and didnt need their cooperation anymore.

I told you not to call me Mengyao, do you not have ears? Mengyao was pretty disgusted by how familiar with her Pinliang was acting.

Pinliang seemed oblivious to what Mengyao was thinking of him as he pulled over his chair, lining it up with Mengyaos to sit beside her. Heh heh, then Ill call you Yao Yao?

Why dont you go die? Mengyao frowned. What do you want?

I wanna go watch a movie with you this Saturday! Its The Son of Heaven in 3D, an international film! Pinliang said as he pulled three movie tickets out.

No time, Ive got stuff to do Saturday. Mengyao rejected directly- she was going bungee jumping with Yushu, after all, and even if she were to go watch a movie shed most definitely not watch it with Zhong Pinliang! The guy was even more irritating than Lin Yi!

Hm? Mengyao paused at the thought- hadnt she thought of Lin Yi as more irritating than Pinliang a while ago? When had she reversed their rankings? Mengyao shook her head, not sure what was going on.

We could go on Sunday Pinliang continued.

Mengyao couldnt take this anymore. She nudged Yushu who sat beside her, hinting her to get Lin Yi.

Yushu chuckled as she sent Lin Yi a text. Yao Yaos in trouble, requesting backup!

Lin Yi wasnt sure how to react to this text, but he stood up and started walking towards Zhong Pinliang anyway. He did promise Mengyao yesterday that hed take care of Pinliang whenever the guy was being annoying, after all.

Where are you going, boss? Xiaobo asked, curious- why did Lin Yi stand up all of a sudden?

Washroom. Wanna come? Lin Yi asked.

Yeah, wait up! Xiaobo stood up as well, and saw Pinliang blocking their way. Heh, Zhong Pinliangs screwed!

Lin Yi walked towards Pinliang with quick steps, and Yushu started laughing- the idiot was still harassing Yao Yao!

Chapter 256 – Why Don't You Change Your Seat

Whats the matter with you, are you deaf? I told you not to block my way. Lin Yi said coldly as he stood behind Pinliang.

Truth be told, Lin Yi wouldve disintegrated the guy into ashes long ago if he werent looking for a peaceful, stable life in Songshan.

You.. Pinliang was about and turn around to say something when he was suddenly airborne- he landed with a smack on the teachers desk and cried out in agony.

Why dont you change your seat, this isnt a good spot for you. Dont make me kick you out the window next time. Lin Yi warned after kicking Pinliangs chair away.

This kid had better know his place and leave Mengyao alone- he didnt want Yushu to be summoning him to beat Pinliang up so much.

Pinliang stared at Lin Yi with toxic rage, but kept his mouth silent- for whatever he said now would only prompt further beatings by Lin Yi!! He had nothing he could do against him right now, and all he could do was wait.

Pinliang kept quiet as Lin Yi walked past him, issuing yet another warning. Remember what I said. Sit in front of me and Ill make you fly all the time.

..... Pinliang gritted his teeth- when had he ever been threatened like this?!! There just had to be this Lin Yi, someone neither he nor even the Heibao Bro he was so proud out could beat!! He couldnt do anything to the monster, nothing at all!!

He didnt want to change seats, but Lin Yi had spoken- Pinliang himself understood also the validity of his threat should he keep his current seat.

That bastard Lin Yi was an absolute madman!! He trampled on anything he wanted to without one shred of concern when he got cocky, even slapping Zou Ruoming in the face right in front of the dean!! The news had spread throughout the entire school at this point, and Pinliang knew his place- he was in no position to be pissing someone as crazy as Lin Yi off

It seemed hed had to stay away from Mengyao from the time being That was the only way to get out of the bastards line of sight, to move to a corner. Hed just move his seat back after Lin Yi got taken care of!

Lin Yi was the only one whod dare go against his wishes in the class, anyway- he could move his seat to wherever he wanted to, and no one would say anything.

Boss, Im really starting to doubt your background- Are you really from the mountains? Xiaobo asked as he walked out the classroom with Lin Yi.

I have an elder here, hes in the board of directors for the school. Lin Yi explained simply.

Oh, so thats why! Thats why even the dean couldnt do anything to you! Xiaobo said, understanding everything instantly. The luxury car you were in that morning, does that belong to this director as well?

Yeah. Lin Yi nodded.

Damn!! Xiaobo was starting to get excited. I never knew how powerful your background was! I always thought you were a poor student like me!

Ha.. Lin Yi only smiled, refraining from explaining anything.

Ones background, in actuality, didnt have too much an effect- Zhong Pinliang was a good example of someone with a strong background, why couldnt he slap people in front of the dean?

At the end of the day, Wang Zhifeng was helpless against Lin Yi because he had his secret against him!

Ah, boss- werent you going to the toilet? Xiaobo asked, wondering why Lin Yi wasnt heading in the washrooms direction.

I was just getting annoyed at Zhong Pinliang, wanted an excuse to teach him a lesson. Lin Yi said honestly- he didnt need to go at all, and Xiaobo would notice if he did walk to the washroom with an empty bladder.

Ah, I see. Ha, Zhong Pinliang Thats what he gets for being so cocky all the time! Xiaobo said violently, as if he were the one who beat Pinliang up.

Werent you going to the toilet? Lin Yi asked.

I just wanted to come take a walk with you. Fens stuff is quite troubling. Xiaobo explained.

Alright, lets walk then. Lin Yi nodded as he strolled with Xiaobo in the hallway.

The twelfth graders usually all had something to do- they were either on duty cleaning the classroom or just studying. Even those with family connections, or even the ones who just werent planning on going to college, were either playing basketball or at internet cafes playing video games. No one just went for a walk in the hallways.

They reached class fives door and saw Tang Yin walking out with a water bucket and heading to the bathroom to have the dirty water changed.

Xiaobo walked over quickly. Sis-in-law, let me (tell me if you prefer Miss Lin)

Ah?! Tang Yin jumped, almost dropping the bucket. Wh-what did you call me?

Sis-in-law! Xiaobo repeated, as if there were nothing wrong with it. Didnt boss announce who you were to him in front of so many people yesterday? You didnt deny it, sis-in-law!

Dont call me stuff like that! Tang Yins face reddened as she handed the bucket to Xiaobo. Hurry and go get clean water!

Oh, heh heh, sure thing! Xiaobo said as he waddled over to the washroom, bucket in his hands

Dont mind him- the guys just like that. Lin Yi said as he put both his hands on the wall, surrounding Tang Yin in.

Yeah I know Tang Yin said shyly. S-Stop that Were at school

It was an unconscious movement, but Lin Yi realized how lovey-dovey he was being with her upon hearing Tang Yins words- it was as if he were leaning for a kiss. He pulled his hands back awkwardly. What if were not at school?

I I Lets not talk about this. Tang Yin, naturally, didnt want to discuss that topic with Lin Yi. Shed been troubled enough as it was the past few days because of the guy, especially last night, where she couldnt fall asleep as that scene of Lin Yi slapping Zou Ruoming while holding her hand kept popping up Did this count as her falling in love with him? Tang Yin didnt understand, but couldnt stop herself from thinking about it

Haha Lin Yi laughed a bit, but stopped teasing her. To Lin Yi, Tang Yin was completely different from a woman like Sun Jingyi- Jingyi was like a cunning fox, and Lin Yi, naturally, wouldnt do stuff like this to her. Tang Yin, however, was the type of young girl he just wanted to pamper with care.

Ah look, Xiaobo seems to have gotten into trouble Tang Yin was panicking and looking left and right, afraid that someone might see her together with Lin Yi, when she noticed Xiaobo get in trouble.

Xiaobo was about to walk in the washroom when he collided with a fat student who was coming right out the door...

Chapter 257 – Accepting A Confession Makes You A Couple?

Xiaobo, naturally, wasnt a match for the fatty- he fell on his ass right after the collision, and the bucket of water splashed onto the guys pants It looked like the fatty had just pissed himself.

Are you blind?! The fatty raged right away- hed just finished a cigarette, and out of nowhere came a bucket of dirty water! You wanna fucking die?

The fatty was a mini tyrant in the twelfth grade, albeit someone who was only known in his own class He was nowhere near the level of the Big Four tyrants at the school, but pushing some regular students around werent beyond his capabilities.

And today, the fat mini tyrant decided to blow off some steam on Xiaobo.

How can you blame me for that? At most were both at fault, couldnt you have opened your eyes? Xiaobo was starting to get angry as well- he was no unreasonable man, and was just about to apologize when the guy started yelling at him.

Open my eyes? Which class are you from? Dont you know the big name Yu Dafa? The fatty said with a glare.

Yu Dafa? Xiaobo paused and took a closer look- it was Yu Dafa! Yet a sense of disdain surfaced as Xiaobo looked at the man. He looked down at the bucket, and dumped what remained of the dirty water on Dafas head!

You! Are you fucking insane?! Yu Dafa exploded that instant as he pointed at Xiaobo.

Hurry up and scram- my boss and sis-in-law are waiting for a bucket of clean water, so dont blame me if my boss comes walking over because youre wasting time. Xiaobo said as he slapped the Dafas hand away.

Your boss and sis-in-law? Dafa paused- what the hell was this guy talking about?

Right behind me! Xiaobo said as he pointed his thumb behind his back.

Dafa looked at where Xiaobo was pointing, and saw Lin Yi and Tang Yin standing not far away from them- his stomach and legs cramped up- he almost fell!

Bro Youre saying Lin Yi Bro is your boss..? Dafas tone turned friendly that instant.

After all, everyone knew who Lin Yi was- the newest Big Four tyrant, solidly sitting on the two tyrants below him! Who was Dafa to even think about crossing a character like this..?

The head of the Big Four had graduated, and since then became a legend at the school The last Big Four, on the other hand, was a demon in middle-school, practically flipping the school upside down after just attending the school for a couple days! Hed transferred away long ago, but still remained a legendary Big Four at the school!

There were only two tyrants from that monstrous group left, and both of them were now under Lin Yis feet! Lin Yi had outstandingly stepped up to the first seat, the First Tyrant of a new generation!! A mini tyrant like Yu Dafa was nothing compared to that!

After all, he was far below Zhong Pinliang and Zou Ruoming already- how could he ever stand up to Lin Yi?

Of course. Im Kang Xiaobo, the sole follower of my boss- remember this face, and open your eyes next time!! Xiaobo said with a hand on his hip.

Yes, I understand Dafa nodded quickly.

Go get me a bucket of clean water! Xiaobo said as he handed Dafa the bucket.

Right away! As far as Dafa was concerned, serving Lin Yi was a form of honor, something he could boast about in the future- he could say that Lin Yi had asked him to do something before! Lin Yi was pretty much half his boss now

With that, he waddled into the washroom and got a bucket with clean water back. Bo Bro, I wouldnt dare let you do the work! Ill get this to the boss personally!

Xiaobo nodded as he contemplated his status at the school now- hed risen up here on Lin Yis boat! Would Dafa be acting like this if it werent for Lin Yi? Get him a bucket of water? Hed be lucky if the guy didnt beat him up!

Dafa walked up to Lin Yi and Tang Yin with the bucket of water. Boss, sis-in-law! Waters here!

You are? Lin Yi asked curiously. Who was this person?

Boss, Im called Yu Dafa! Ive made a bit of a name for myself here in our grade, but of course, its nothing compared to Boss Lin Yi! Dafa introduced.

Oh. Lin Yi nodded. Alright, got it- you can go now. Thanks!

Dont mention it at all, boss! Just call me if you need anything at all, Im from class ten! Dafa said respectfully.

Tang Yin wasnt expecting a big shot like that to come pledging loyalty to Lin Yi- what made her even more shy was how he called her sis-in-law as well! Tang Yin still remembered how this Yu Dafa wrote a love letter to her once, and how disgustingly mushy it had been- the guy was now practically bowing!

All this, due to Lin Yi A transfer student whod been here less than a month.

I Im gonna go back now- I still need to clean the curtains! Tang Yin said to Xiaobo and Lin Yi as she picked the bucket up from the ground.

Kay. See ya. Lin Yi nodded, and walked back to class with Xiaobo.

Zhong Pinliang was pretty obedient- he had moved his seat to where Gao Xiaofu was, in a corner far, far away from Lin Yis seat. It seemed that he really did fear getting sent flying.

Yao Yao, I just think Shield Bros so cool!! Yushu said as she tugged at Mengyaos shirt. Look! Zhong Pinliang moved his seat right after he taught him a lesson! You dont need to worry about getting harassed anymore!

Yeah, hes so cool! Why dont you go let him touch your boobs again! Mengyao said, curling her lips.

Yao Yao? Could you perhaps be jealous? Maybe you should let him touch yours next time? Yushu said with a big grin.

Im not an idiot! Mengyao said with a glare. Is he my boyfriend? Why should I let him touch mine? You let him touch yours if youre so willing, go ahead!

Well, Shield Bro did accept my confession, so I guess he does count as my boyfriend? Yushu started thinking about it- since they were technically a couple, she didnt really lose anything if her boyfriend was the one who had touched her. Yes, that had to be it

Mengyao was going insane- did the girl lack something in her brain? What was wrong with her, who talks like that??

It was Saturday morning, and Lin Yi woke up to Yushu patting him. Yo, Shield Bro! Wakey wakey, were going to the theme park today!

Theme park? Lin Yi remembered then that hed promised to go bungee jumping with the Miss and Shu- he got up half-awake and went to the bathroom to freshen up. Both Mengyao and Yushu were ready to go by the time he walked out his room.

You drive Shus Beetle and follow behind us- Shu and I will use my car! Mengyao instructed after a look at Lin Yi.

Okay Lin Yi was thinking that theyd all be able to fit if they used Heibaos old van- why the trouble with two cars? He then remembered that the Miss probably hadnt been in a vehicle this crappy ever since that kidnapping last time.

Chapter 258 – Suspecting That It Might Be An Insider

Lin Yi drove behind Mengyaos Audi S5 silently as he kept an eye on the rear view mirror.

Someone was following him again- Li Cihuas men? A cold smile formed on Lin Yis lips as he recognized the car. It was the one that had followed him last time- did they think he wouldnt notice with tailing skills like that?

This Cihua person was quite interesting himself, sending more men after getting two of them killed that night.

Lin Yi didnt confront the stalkers and acted as if he didnt even know. He wouldnt mind giving them a car accident if they did anything suspicious.

Songshan Theme Park was located in the southern district of the city, built at the end of the year 2000. It had had a couple hundred million rmb invested in it, and was one of the most popular attractions within the city.

Mengyao parked her car in the underground parking lot of the theme park while Lin Yi parked to the side. He was following Mengyao into the elevator when he saw the black SUV that had been tailing them drive in as well- they didnt take a parking ticket, much to Lin Yis surprise, only showing a small plastic identification card at the counter.

Lin Yi found that odd- did the people in that car have some sort of connection to the themepark?

Yao Yao, is this theme park private or public? Lin Yi asked.

Its a jointly owned attraction, both public and private. Why? Mengyao didnt understand.

Jointly owned? Invested by what company? Lin Yi continued, maintaining the topic.

Its Uncle Chus, Shield Bro! Yushu said shortly.

Oh? Lin Yi paused- so the people in that car were from Pengzhan Industries? That had to be the case, that was why they werent charged for parking their car! It wasnt a military or police car, too, since it had a normal licence plate.

Dads company invested in it, but its being managed by a sub-company. Mengyao explained.

Then we could have free parking, right? Lin Yi asked.

Mengyao looked at Lin Yi as if he were an alien- she was a young mistress, but calling Uncle Fu for a parking ticket that costed a few kuai? Wouldnt that just be trouble?

Ha Lin Yi smiled faintly- the people in the car probably didnt care about that money either, since theyre working with Chu Pengzhan and all

But having free parking was a proof and representation of status- it had to be what they were going for.

And Lin Yi was right!

Inside the SUV was Zhang Yuchu, who had a wide smile on his face. Amazing, Jin Bro- you dont even need to pay for parking!

The theme parks built with our companys investment, and I happen to be in charge of that. Maosheng said casually as he pocketed his card. Of course Id use a privilege like this if I have it.

Of course! Yuchu said with a laugh. But, since were in Jin Bros territory itll be much easier! I was still worried about how we should go about this, but theres no problem now!

I wasnt expecting them to come to the theme park either. A cold smile formed on Maoshengs lips. Ive some trusted people in here, I can get them to help later!

These trusted people Would they keep quiet about this? Yuchu was still worried- murder was a big deal, after all.

Keep quiet? They wouldnt dare say anything. Maosheng said disdainfully. Theyre all getting their money illegally- I throw the number of their pocketed money out and its a death sentence for them.

Its fine then! Yuchu nodded. They wouldnt need to worry about getting betrayed if they were in the same boat.

Get someone with some wits to tail the three, and constantly report their location. Ill see what I can do for the accident. Maosheng said.

No problem. Yuchu called out to a very common looking youth at the back of the car. Lil Ma, youre up!

Yes, Yuchu Bro! Ma said as he got out of the car to tail the trio.

Maoshengs face turned dark for an instant- he was an extremely cautious man. He didnt know who this Ma person was, but the guy had seen his face today- his first course of action after finishing the job was have him offed. He couldnt allow even the slightest risk to exist.

The person behind Li Cihua was a godly figure, but even he wouldnt help Master Bin out if things got real serious. The man was his bastard son, but his wifes house was a powerful family as well. A bastard son this grown up would cause big shit should he ever get found out. Maosheng understood that, and made sure to constantly have backup plans.

Yao Yao, do we go bungee jumping now? Yushu was very much looking forward to the bungee jumping- the attraction was part of Pengzhan Industries, but this was the first time the two have visited ever since the opening. The bungee jumping valley hadnt been properly constructed yet.

Bungee jumping from the start? Mengyao had been pretty pent up these past couple of days, and as much as she'd like to blow off some steam, bungee jumping right away wasn't something she could take very well.

It was a dangerous and exhaustive thing, after all- Mengyao wanted to have some fun at the other attractions first.

Then let's walk around first. Ah, Yao Yao! Why don't we go to the haunted house? I heard they built one, it's really scary! Yushu suggested.

Haunted house? Mengyao frowned- why did Yushu like childish attractions like that? Haunted house? Who'd ever get scared at the stuff inside, they were all fake. Who'd even go there in the first place?

Yeah, it's really scary! I heard that a lot of young couples go there, and the guy gets to take advantage of the girl when she gets scared! Yushu said seriously.

Shu, are you crazy? Mengyao was speechless. So you wanna go with Lin Yi and let him take advantage of you?

Nope, I'm not scared but I think you'd be, Yao Yao! Yushu said.

Me, scared? Mengyao got even more speechless. You think I'd get scared at the kid stuff inside? Well let's just go in and see who'd get scared then! But let me tell you now, Shu, don't get pissed or anything when you get felt up!

Hehe, don't be so sure who's gonna get felt up, Yao Yao! You never know! Yushu laughed. She'd looked at Pinliang's recording of the haunted house on his phone before- she wouldn't be afraid because of that.

Mengyao had been there as well, but she couldn't care less about Pinliang, so only Yushu watched. Pinliang had actually wanted her to help persuade Mengyao into going into the haunted house with him, but Yushu never did such a thing after finishing the video.

Chapter 259 – Scaring People

Ma, who was following Mengyao and Yushu from a distance, had heard the conversation.

Lin Yi had noticed Ma stalking them long ago, but didn't want to expose him. As far as he was concerned, Ma wasn't a threat at all- letting him tail them would allow Lin Yi to see what he wanted. He might even bait the person in charge of the whole thing out.

After all, there was no point in offing this little character if it wouldn't even affect said person. The guy wasn't even one-third of the way to the golden class, he had to be someone unimportant.

Yuchu Bro, from what I've heard, they're gonna go to the haunted house. Ma's mission was to report the trio's movement to Maosheng and Yuchu.

Haunted house? Alright. Yuchu said. I'll discuss this with Jin Bro first, I'll tell you what to do later.

Maosheng had heard Ma's report, but he couldn't quite think of a good approach on the spot. There really weren't many accidents he could cause in the haunted house. An assassination was out of the question, thatd only get the cops focused on the case. It wasnt what Maosheng wanted to see happening.

Tell Ma to get to the ticket counter for the haunted house, make it so that they give tickets out slower! Dont let the kids go in too fast! Maosheng said after some thought.

Alright. Yuchu then relayed the words to Ma. Jin Bro, what do we do now?

What do you think? What are the type of accidents in a haunted house that could cause death? Maosheng decided to brainstorm with Yuchu.

Hm Haunted house Yuchu couldnt think of anything on the spot either. Other than scaring people there isnt really anything much Everything there is fake!

Scaring people Maoshengs lips stretched into a dark smile. I know, heh heh. Why dont we put on costumes and scare them to death?

Thats a good idea- everything in there is dead, and scaring people doesnt do much, but if we put on costumes and call their names heh heh heh Yuchu nodded in agreement right after hearing the suggestion. Isnt there that saying? You scare people by calling their names! It makes sense!

(untranslatable saying sorry)

Lets go prepare, then. Well scare these two girls to death! Maosheng grinned. It wasnt a very serious suggestion, but Yuchus agreement to it touched his heart. It was true, you scare people by calling their names! It was an old saying, it had to be right.

Whys this haunted house only letting three or four people in at a time? Mengyao said impatiently as she looked at the entrance- at the rate they were going who knew how long itd be before they got their turn! She shouldve contacted Uncle Fu beforehand and she wouldnt have to wait this long in the first place!

Dont worry, look at all these people, its gotta be good! Yushu didnt really mind. Ooh, Yao Yao, look- that couple that just came out, they look so pale!

Thats what youre gonna look like in a couple minutes! Mengyaos tone wasnt very friendly. Maybe we should go to another attraction?

Lets wait a bit more, its just two or three more groups and itll be our turn! Yushu didnt want to give this up that easily. Think about it, Yao Yao! Itll only be scary if you go in the place in small groups! Whats the point if you go in with a lot of people? Wed outnumber the ghosts in there and itd be you scaring the ghosts, thered be no point!

Thats true Mengyao found herself agreeing with Yushus argument- it was true, theyd just be sightseeing the ghosts if there were too many people.

In the control room behind the haunted house were Maosheng and Yuchu, all dressed up. Maosheng was now a vampire, and Yuchu a zombie- Ma pasted a piece of skin on his face, and became a faceless void!

(really wanted to make a dota reference, shouldve been faceless one)

Were ready, tell the guys at the front to let Chu Mengyao in directly! Yuchu said to Ma.

Yes Ma mumbled unclearly- he was a faceless void, after all. He pulled his phone up and called the people at the front of the line. You guys can leave now!

The two groups of people in front of Mengyao hung up and started leaving. Its so slow, lets go play something else!

I know, jeez. Lets go! Another guy said.

With that, the two groups left.

Eh? What the- Yao Yao, whats wrong with them? Theyre right up! Theyve been waiting so long, so whats with that? Yushu asked, puzzled as if she were looking at a bunch of idiots.

Who knows? But its good, its our turn next! Mengyao was puzzled as well, but it was actually good news for them.

Lin Yi, on the other hand, looked at the groups coldly, smiling. So theyd started- what were they planning to do in the haunted house?

Next An employee said as he opened the entrance to the haunted house. You three? Are you three together?

Yes, is it our turn? Mengyao asked.

Yeah. Give me the ticket and go in. The employee said as he received the tickets, throwing them into the ticket bin without even looking at it. It disgusted Lin Yi a little- couldnt he put a little more effort into his acting? Was he this excited about getting them into the place?

Mengyao, Yushu, and Lin Yi walked through the door, and it closed shut. Wails in agony and pain could be heard moments later. Haaaa..Aa..a...aa.

Mengyao shivered involuntarily- she knew it was fake, but the atmosphere they were in made her go cold regardless.

Shu, hold onto me and dont go wandering off! Its pretty scary in here! Mengyao was acting the big sister, but the quake in her voice changed the context entirely. Shed meant it as support for Yushu so that the girl would be less afraid, but now it sounded like Mengyao was the one who needed someone to hold on to!

Hehe, you scared, Yao Yao? Yushu, on the other hand, was pretty brave- the wails didnt affect her too much.

I didnt say that! Mengyao would never admit to being afraid. This is all fake, meant to scare people with! Whats there to be afraid of? Lin Yi, you walk behind us! Dont stray far!

Ah Lin Yi smiled. There were a lot of concaves and convexes in the haunted house- everything looked real, but that was all mostly due to the lighting effects, making them stand out more. It was like watching a 3D movie, except they were physically in it.

Chapter 260 – Ghost Hunter Chen Yushu (Part One)

Lin Yi remembered his time in the primitive forests- every step was taken with extreme caution as poisonous bugs and large beasts surrounded him. That was scary, not child's play like this haunted house attraction.

Would any survivor of said forest be afraid of ghosts?

Oohh A granny with bleeding eyes drifted past Mengyao, who jumped in shock as she held on to Yushu's hand tightly, full of regret. She wouldn't have come if she'd known how scary this would be!

Hehe, Yao Yao, this is all fake! Yushu reached out at the granny, and her hand passed straight through. See? It's fake! It's just a 3D projection!

Oh Mengyao only started calming down after Yushu's demonstration.

They were only at the beginning- the deeper they went the scarier it got. Other than the things flying at them out of nowhere were zombies that popped out of caskets. Mengyao did not have it easy the whole journey.

Blerghhh.. A rotting corpse sat up all of a sudden and sprayed black blood in Mengyao's direction..

Ahh!! Mengyao cried out as she jumped back, bumping into Lin Yi. You... What're you doing behind me!

You told me to stand behind you... Lin Yi shrugged. That was just a light mist, it's not real.

Oh Mengyao was a little embarrassed- she'd asked Lin Yi to stand behind her in case something attacked them from the back, but she did realize that the black blood was yet another projection after what Lin Yi had said. Nothing was real.

She started getting braver after getting jumped on a couple times, but came to understand that everything was fake! They were only visuals, so what was there to be afraid of if she couldn't even touch them? Yushu was skipping around swiping at the projections, and Mengyao started to follow suit, kicking and punching along with her excitedly.

Mengyao felt someone pat her shoulder all of a sudden. Lin Yi, what're you patting me for? Come on, I'm trying to have fun here

Another pat and Mengyao turned around, a little upset. Lin Yi, you- Ahh!!!

There was a faceless void touching her shoulder! The faceless creature wasn't scary, but its hand was touching her, it was a real hand touching her!

Yao Yao, what's wrong? Yushu turned away from her ghost slapping- there was a faceless void patting Mengyao on the shoulder.

Hm? Yushu found the scene odd- weren't all the stuff here supposed to be projected images? Why did that faceless void seem so real? She walked up to Mengyao quickly and grabbed at the faceless void's skin mask. Hm?? It's touchable? Did they add real props?

Im faceless void Im gonna eat you Ma growled lowly, troubled that Yushu was just grabbing his face like that. Yuchu Bro did instruct him to play along, so he made sure not to act rashly and just act the part.

Lin Yi only looked at Ma, evidently intrigued. From the shoes this faceless void was wearing it was clear that this was the guy that had been tailing them earlier. He had an idea what these people were trying to achieve here.

Were they trying to scare Chu Mengyao to death by putting on scary costumes..? What were they even thinking, didnt they know about Yushu jumping around all the time? Mengyao wasnt too brave, but with Yushu by her side getting scared to death was next to impossible.

Yet Lin Yi could tell that this Ma was only here to scare people as a monster. He was very weak, but Lin Yi maintained his alertness all the same, ready to react the instant Ma made a move.

He reckoned that they wouldnt go as far as to murder in a public setting And if that really had been their intention, they couldve done so in any other location instead of waiting for them to enter a haunted house.

Yao Yao, this faceless voids pretty realistic! Look at that piece of skin, you can even pull on it.. Yushu said as she stretched the skin with all her might, pulling it a few centimeters out.

Ow. Ma almost teared up at the pain- why wasnt this girl scared of him at all? She was even pulling at his face, how brave was she?!

Is that so? Mengyao wasnt scared anymore, and reached out to pull at the other side of the face as well. With that, the two girls stretched the face from both directions.

I Im faceless void Im gonna eat you Mas voice was starting to shake

Cant you be a little creative with your lines? Yushu said, speechless. Yao Yao, move aside! Ill take care of him!

Alright! Mengyao dodged to the side as Yushu shot her leg up at the faceless voids crotch.

And Mas eyes rolled white as he fainted from the pain

Heh! Yushu waved her fists in the air excitedly. Look, Yao Yao! I killed a faceless void!

Shu, you cant just break their model like that! What if it doesnt move anymore? Mengyao, naturally, didnt think that it was a person- she thought that Yushu had broken it with her kick.

Uh It should be okay right? Its your dads theme park, someone will fix it if its broken! Yushu said after some thought.

Thats true Mengyao didnt really mind- it wasnt anything important, after all. As far as she was concerned, they could just throw it out if it was broken.

Some distance away, Maoshengs face twitched while Yuchu sweated. Wasnt this girl too much..? She was pulling at Mas face and even sent a kick up his tender parts Jin Bro, what do we do? Yuchu asked.

Looks like well have to get violent. Maosheng said with a cold smile. Lets go!

Yushu continued waving her fists about as she searched for the next target, but learned that only the faceless void was real, much to her disappointment. Everything else wasnt even touchable..

Lin Yi looked at Ma pitifully as he walked by. Yushu sure was violent- shed put down the guy before he even did anything

All of a sudden came a zombie and vampire, surrounding Mengyao as the zombie closed in on her face.
Chu Mengyao Chu Mengyao!!
