581 Clarified Misunderstandings

Clarified Misunderstandings

Suddenly, Liu Xinwen turned quiet- she slowly put her phone away, keeping a poker face and remained silent.

“He.. what did he say?” Tangyin was starting to panic, and butterflies were hitting the bottom of her stomach- still anxiously staring at Liu Xinwen.

“Lin Yi...” Liu Xinwen acted a long face, “He’s worried sick, and rushing over now!”

“OMG...” Tangyin’s heart was warmed and her face flushed, “You... did that on purpose! Don’t you scare me like that again!”

After looking at her mother’s overjoyed face, she confirmed that Liu Xinwen was doing that on purpose! Liu Xinwen was a little far away when she called Lin Yi, so although TangYin was able to see her she couldn’t hear her. Her mother though, was standing beside XinWen, so naturally she was able to hear everything from the call.

“Yinyin, it seems like Lin Yi still loves you. I say, is there any misunderstanding between you guys?” Liu XinWen was rather calm- she knew that Lin Yi wasn’t freaking out just for show, it was from the bottom of his heart!

Lin Yi had always been calm and had his composure in check but just then, he seemed a little lost and extremely nervous during the call. Could it be that Lin Yi was freaking out because of TangYin?

“I.. I don’t know,” TangYin was a little embarrassed but her heart was blossoming, did Lin Yi really cared about her? Did he really love her? Even though her face was disfigured, he was still rushing over? But, what’s with Feng XiaoXiao then?

TangYin's heart was puzzled, she didn't know if it was because of her face, but she refused to continue in her thoughts....

"Ya- Yin, I can see Lin Yi still loves you very much, why not I talk to him and ask him about his girlfriend? Let's see what exactly she's after and ask Lin Yi again!" Mrs. Tang continued, "I heard that for many noble houses, marriage wasn't always a pleasurable experience, they were just connected because of the business. Normally, they would have their true lovers outside of the house, their wife would just be a show for the family. If Lin Yi is having the same issue, here's your chance Yin!

"Mom, don't speak nonsense!" TangYin's broken heart had almost recovered so even if her mother was fooling around, she was okay with it.

After leaving the school, Lin Yi got into his own car and the engine was roared into life as he headed to SongShan's first hospital. In the meantime, he made phone call to Fatty Lai, "Fatty Lai, are you back yet?"

"Just came back, I'm on my way to our company, thinking about the conference for our new product. Our sales are over ten million now!" Fatty Lai said happily. They had gotten so many orders in just one day! Of course, the orders were mostly from the houses that had attended the auction- they were the first ones to know about their products after all.

"Do you have any injury medicine with you? Get one for me and send it to SongShan's first hospital, second block, room 512. Make it quick," Lin Yi hesitated and added, "also, get me a bottle of painkillers."

The injury medicine was currently being mass produced so Fatty Lai had a lot of samples with him but the painkillers hadn't been introduced yet so he only had a few samples with him. As for the Special Edition of the Injury Medicine, it was still out of stock because Lin Yi had just returned to SongShan so he didn't have any time to create one just yet.

The Special Edition Injury Medicine however, wasn't needed yet because TangYin's injury was new, a normal version was more than enough to have the same effect.

In fact, SongShan's first hospital also applied Miracle Doctor Kang's Golden Creation to their patients but the point was that the medicine wasn't meant for commoners- they couldn't afford the price and the stock was limited. Even with money, SongShan's first hospital wouldn't be able to get the medicine into their own hands right now so they didn't bother mentioning this to TangYin.

"Alright, I'm coming over right now!" Fatty Lai didn't ask about the details. He just followed his boss's orders obediently.

LinYi didn't give two shits about the traffic lights- he stepped on the pedal when the traffic light was red. He didn't care if there was fine or he was being captured, Fatty Lai would settle everything for him. He had to get to TangYin as fast as possible.

He fast-walked into the room.

When he entered the room, he couldn't remain his composure when he saw TangYin, ignoring Mrs. Tang and Liu Xinwen, he quickly grabbed onto TangYin's hand, "TangYin, what happened? Why are you so careless?"

TangYin looked into LinYi's heartwarming eyes, her face flushed- she was on cloud nine but she was too shy to express her true feelings as she tried to pull away from Lin Yi, "You.. let me go! Why are you here? What if XiaoXiao finds out?"

"Feng Xiaoxiao?" LinYi startled.

"She.... if she's your current girlfriend, what am I?" TangYin was puzzled by Lin Yi's reaction but she was still jealous as she asked.

"She? My girlfriend? When did she become my girlfriend?" Lin Yi wasn't sure whether he should be laughing or crying, "You are my girlfriend, how did she become mine?"

Lin Yi's answer startled Mrs. Tang and Liu XinWen!

TangYin's mouth dropped open as well but she was over the moon with Lin Yi's answer! TangYin had prepared for the worst- she was even prepared to be Lin Yi's mistress.

But, Lin Yi's answer had taken TangYin by her surprise. She really didn't care if Lin Yi was feeding her with lies or sincerely treating her, she was just delighted to be able to hear that from Lin Yi himself. At the very least, she knew Lin Yi still cared for her.

"She told me that she's your girlfriend and the money you gave was the break-up fee....." TangYin said everything so softly, including the part where she smashed her own phone.....

"....." LinYi was speechless, his head was full of black lines, the money he gave had been twisted like this! Such coincidence, Xiaoxiao crapped out some sh*t about a break up fee at just the right timing! "How could you not know who is Feng Xiaoxiao? She's crazy and her words could not be trusted at all. How can you just believe her words?"

"I...." TangYin had been woken up from her elaborate imagination after his explanation- she had wronged Lin Yi, it was just a misunderstanding. She was ashamed of herself for accusing her boyfriend. What if she had believed him that time, things wouldn't have turned ugly if that's the case.

But, a girl's heart was rather sensitive, especially TangYin who had just fallen so deeply for Lin Yi- she was afraid of losing Lin Yi's love. She couldn't be blamed for the timing and coincidences.

On the other hand, Mrs. Tang was in seventh heaven to see that it was just a misunderstanding! She couldn't help but complain about her daughter internally, why was her daughter so stingy back then? Even if Lin Yi and Xiaoxiao had a connection, she shouldn't abandon herself to despair, should she? How could her daughter just give up so easily? She should fight for her future and seize her own happiness!

Fortunately, Lin Yi came to clear the confusion in their heads- the misunderstanding was finally clarified.

Chapter 582: Lin Yi's Rage

Lin Yi's Rage

"But I... my face... It's ruined now..." TangYin started feeling dejected again as she remembered her situation. Lin Yi may like her, but would that still stay the same once he saw her face?

TangYin did not know. After all, Lin Yi must've approached her at the start because of her face, right?

"Haha..." Lin Yi started laughing all of a sudden.

"W-What are you laughing at? At me?" TangYin looked at Lin Yi with anger.

“So what if it’s ruined?” Lin Yi shrugged.

“Alright, my question is, do you still want me?” TangYin fixed her eyes on Lin Yi.

“Obviously. Why wouldn’t I?” Lin Yi nodded.

“Uh..” Tang Yin didn’t quite know what to say anymore- what did Lin Yi mean?

Fatty Lai burst into the room that instant, panting from the long run- it wasn’t easy for someone of his stature to even be running.

“Boss, I’m here!” Fatty Lai held two boxes in his hands as he waddled over. He lowered his head and saw TangYin in the hospital bed, giving him quite the fright “Sis-in-law?! What happened to you?”

That was what Lin Yi was trying to find out, too. He haven’t had the chance yet, but now that the misunderstanding had been cleared up right before Fatty Lai brought the medicine, Lin Yi decided to deal with TangYin’s treatment first. He didn’t want her to be disfigured.

“Let’s talk about that later,” Lin Yi took the boxes from Fatty Lai and turned to TangYin, “TangYin, I’m going to apply some medicine.”

“Okay..” Tang Yin nodded without even thinking about it- her entire mind was fluffy and sweet, and she knew for a fact that Lin Yi would never harm her. She’d cooperate with him on anything.

Lin Yi reached behind TangYin and helped her up before removing her bandages, much to Mrs. Tang and Xinwen’s surprise.

“L-Lin Yi, what are you doing?” Mrs. Tang didn’t know what Lin Yi was planning, taking the bandages off like that.

“Treatment,” Lin Yi replied, his hands created a blur as he undid the bandages. He might’ve touched the injury abit as TangYin flinched slightly, creating a frown on her face.

On TangYin’s forehead was a terrifying wound- it’d been closed up, but was still intimidating nonetheless. Lin Yi felt a prick in his heart. Why was the girl so careless? She’d really be disfigured if he didn’t have the Injury Medicine with him.

“Don’t worry, it’ll stop hurting soon,” Lin Yi opened the box of painkillers and took them out, applying it on TangYin’s forehead. The painkillers were both miraculous whether applied on the outside or consumed.

Mrs. Tang was worried, but she didn’t think that Lin Yi would want to harm her daughter. Despite not knowing just what he was up to, Mrs. Tang let Lin Yi continue doing what he was doing.

If he really didn’t like her, he’d just leave her alone- why go so far in the first place?

Xinwen, on the other hand, was much more composed. She remembered Lin Yi’s shocking display of acupuncture when they were with Fen in the hospital. TangYin told her that he knew medicine too, so what Lin Yi was doing right now was a treatment for sure.

Having had the medicine applied, Tang Yin found that there wasn’t any pain in her forehead anymre, much to her surprise. She looked at Lin Yi, dumfounded.

Lin Yi swiftly took out the stitching in her forehead, and the wound opened up, fresh blood flowing out. Not panicking in the slightest, Lin Yi quickly applied the Injury Medicine and stopped the blood.

Having finished the familiar procedure, Lin Yi rewrapped the bandages and smiled at Tang Yin. "Alright, you don't have to worry about getting disfigured anymore."

He normally wouldn't bother using the painkiller if it was for that assassin Qiqi, or even Lin Yi himself- this sort of wound was nothing to concern themselves over with, just the Injury Medicine would be enough.

But Tang Yin hadn't received any personal training- pain like this was hard for her.

"What? I don't??" Tang Yin was at a loss for words- she found it hard to believe.

"You don't," Lin Yi nodded, "This is my company's first line of medicine, Injury Medicine. It has the same effects as Miracle Doctor Kang's Golden Creation Medicine.

Mrs. Tang didn't believe Lin Yi at first, but the explanation cleared her doubts. Miracle Doctor Kang was a name they all knew, and the medicine he mentioned was a very limited product, a miracle medicine that was near impossible to acquire. She'd heard that it could speedily heal wounds and not leave any scars.

"Haha..." Tang Yin let go of all the burden in her heart, and could feel herself falling in love even more. Being his girlfriend really was the best, she didn't even have to worry about disfigurement anymore...

"If it starts hurting or throbbing, just drink a bit of this painkiller," Lin Yi said as he handed the painkiller to Mrs. Tang. "One night should be enough before you remove the bandages."

"That fast?!" Mrs. Tang's mind started working something out during her surprise. "Yi, your Uncle Tang had his legs broken as well, would it be possible to let him recover faster?"

"Uncle Tang, too?" Lin Yi paused, his face turned a little more solemn. He had originally thought that Tang Yin's injury was an accident, so while it hurt him to see her like this, he didn't think much about it.

But Jucheng being injured as well... Lin Yi started to think that something was up, especially when Mrs. Tang said Jucheng 'had his legs broken.' "What happened? Why are Tang Yin and Uncle Tang injured?"

"It... It's like this..." Mrs. Tang wasn't thinking of letting Lin Yi stand up for them or anything- as far as she was concerned, the fiends were pretty much gangsters who did whatever they wanted. They weren't people normal citizens could cross.

She only told Lin Yi because their house was destroyed- she needed his help! Otherwise, where were they supposed to live from now on?

She didn't hide anything as she told Lin Yi what happened, including her greed when she asked for the store. After all, something had to have caused this tragedy.

Lin Yi's face turned many shades darker, the terrifying anger within him evident in his face. These people have stepped over his bottom line, and Lin Yi directed all this rage towards Master Bing.

“Fatty Lai, who is this Zhao Qibing?” Lin Yi turned to look at Fatty Lai, who noticed the violence in Lin Yi’s eyes, despite the calmness in his voice.

Chapter 583: Welcoming Ceremony

Welcoming Ceremony

“Boss, this Zhao Qibing is a young master famous in our city- his family background is very mysterious, and I heard that’s because he has something to do with the hidden noble houses. Songshan’s Li Cihua, himself, is under him!” Fatty Lai explained quickly, worried that Lin Yi would rush into things. “They say he’s a bastard son, but there’s no proof.”

“What’s a hidden noble house?” Lin Yi didn’t put much attention to what Fatty Lai said before.

“A hidden noble house is beyond even the four great noble houses and the five small noble houses. Nobody knows the names of these houses, except for House Yu, who people say is a part of the hidden houses. They say that House Yu might be a hidden house itself, except they’ve just put themselves in the open!” Fatty Lai said very seriously. “But the hidden noble houses are stronger than normal noble houses, so they rarely meddle with the world’s affairs.”

“Okay.” Lin Yi nodded, “No need for all that, just tell me where Zhao Qibing is.”

Fatty Lai paused and helplessly understood that Lin Yi had already steeled his heart on getting to Zhaobing.

“Zhao Qibing established the Qibing Real Estate Company in Songshan, and the Qibing Tower had just finished its construction. Zhao Qibing’s planning on hosting a welcoming ceremony in front of the tower, and he’s invited many big names. I, myself, have gotten an invitation too.”

“Welcoming Ceremony?” Lin Yi chuckled coldly, “Fatty Lai, help me prepare some demolishers and trenching machines. We’re paying Master Bing a visit.”

Lin Yi’s voice was assertive and completely confident, so Fatty Lai understood that it didn’t matter what sort of background Qibing had backing him up- there was no stopping his boss’ rage now.

Fatty Lai had also made up his mind that he’d join this charge as his boss’ follower- it was only natural after he’d pledged his life to following Lin Yi. It didn’t matter what hidden noble house Qibing was in.

“Yes, sir!” Fatty Lai was originally involved in the real estate industry in the first place, and naturally he had machinery like demolishers on standby. It was no trouble at all.

Lin Yi’s words came to Tang Yin as a shock, “Lin Yi, what are you going to do? Don’t get into trouble...”

“I’ll take a look at Uncle Tang first,” Lin Yi didn’t respond to Tang Yin directly. He understood what she was thinking, but he’d already made his mind up. Of course he wouldn’t just let someone run free after what they’d done to Tang Yin.

Lin Yi’s deflection only made Tang Yin certain of his intentions. She worried that Lin Yi wasn’t a match for those people, especially after the whole hidden noble houses thing Fatty Lai just talked about! This was a figure more powerful than the four great houses and the four small houses, of course she'd be nervous. Now that she wasn't disfigured anymore, she just wanted to spend time with Lin Yi in peace, she didn't want him to get into trouble!

"Lin Yi..." As moved as she was, Tang Yin was more focused on Lin Yi's safety. What would she do if anything were to happen to him?

"Ah..." Lin Yi smiled faintly, "He should've thought of what'd happen before he did this to you."

"D-Don't kill anyone..." Tang Yin knew what Lin Yi was capable of, that he didn't care about the consequences, acting as if he was constantly in rage- she didn't want anything happening to Lin Yi, and she'd rather not have him stand up for her at all!

"Killing..." Lin Yi paused. He had actually already put Master Bing on his blacklist already, but Tang Yin's words reminded him of something.

If this was the old him, Qibing was nothing but a small annoyance, something he could just get rid of on a whim.

He didn't have to care about the consequences after carrying out the kill, but doing so in front of an audience and under broad daylight seemed rather difficult. Plus, there were a ton of laws that could easily turn a living man into a man scheduled to die- there was no reason for him to become fugitive just for Qibing.

"I won't kill him today." Qibing had already been labelled as a dead man even before Lin Yi spoke those words- if he wasn't going to die today, then he would, some day. But Lin Yi wouldn't say anything about that to Tang Yin.

"Let's go take a look at Uncle Tang first."

Tang Yin sighed in relief. She didn't catch the subtlety in Lin Yi's words, but at the very least, she knew he wouldn't be killing Qibing today. But what sort of consequences would befall him after he'd punished the man?

Mrs. Tang went with Lin Yi to Jucheng's room, who was rather taken aback by Lin Yi's presence- he thought that Lin Yi had broken up with his daughter after all. He didn't understand why Lin Yi was still treating him with respect like he used to.

But Mrs. Tang was there too, so Jucheng didn't say much. He decided he'd ask in more detail afterwards.

Lin Yi checked Jucheng's situation- he had only broken some bones which had already been reconnected. There wasn't any large concerns, but he quickly wrote down a prescription for Mrs. Tang, "Use this and buy some herbs and ingredients, let him take it every morning and night for a month and he'll be fine. His damaged nerves is still a problem for now though, I'll need to go back to my hometown for the medicine."

"Alright, understood!" Mrs. Tang carefully received the recipe, full of gratitude. She'd witnessed first-hand how he had erased her daughter's pain, so her trust in Lin Yi right now was infinite!

If Lin Yi said it would be fine, then it would definitely be fine.

After saying his goodbyes, Lin Yi left the hospital while his face grew darker by the second. Lin Yi didn't know what these hidden noble houses were, but he never recalled being scared of anyone before, no matter what house they came from. He decided to deal with Qibing first, before anything else.

"Boss, the machines are ready, and I've contacted the demolition team too," Fatty Lai had a good idea what Lin Yi was up to.

Lin Yi nodded, "When does the ceremony begin?"

"Tonight at six," Fatty Lai replied.

"Oh, it's started already. Let's go then," Lin Yi said, after looking at the time on his phone.

Fatty Lai got on Lin Yi's run-down van instead of his own car- taking on the role of a navigator.

As for the demolition team and the machines, he had already called them be on standby near the tower.

The unpleasantness from this morning was pushed to the back of Qibing's mind. He felt that it was a pity for such a heavenly girl to lose her beauty like that, but something like that wouldn't result in him merely losing his interest!

As far as he was concerned, the barbarians in the slums were no different than ants. He could get rid of them without any trouble, but he had something more important to attend to- today was the Qibing Real Estate Company's big day!

Qibing's identity may be mysterious, but all the powerful people in Songshan understood that this man had a very powerful house backing him up, especially when a man like Li Cihua was acting as his follower. Many of the participants of this ceremony all came to pay their respects.

Chapter 584: An Eye for an Eye

An Eye for an Eye

Among the people present were An Jianwen and Su Taizao, along with the descendants of the five small noble houses! The four great houses weren't based near the Jiangshan area, and couldn't make it to the event. Though one young Sun, from one of the great houses' Sun family did attend.

Wu Chentian was also in the Songshan area, but his grandfather Elder Wu had just left the hospital- so he had to attend to that first.

But even so, just these people were enough to give the ceremony substance!

An Jianwen, Su Taizao, and the people from the five small houses, along with the person from House Sun, had immense connections in society, and that resulted in them bringing over an ample amount of people. The great hall of the Qibing Hotel was bursting with energy.

Qibing stood on the stage and raised a high toast, very pleased with what he was seeing. These people represented the different powers not just in Songshan, but even the state- this meant that his career plans in Songshan would be nothing but successful.

“Thank you all for coming to the Qibing Real Estate Company’s Opening Ceremony! Let me offer you this toast- let us celebrate tonight!” Qibing said as he raised his cup higher, “Let’s all head to the Qibing Tower for the opening event after a toast!”

The guests raised their glasses as well and drank to Qibing’s toast when a loud sound gave everyone a fright- a loud rumbling followed and the ground began to shake.

Someone shouted, “The tower’s fallen, it’s collapsed!”

Qibing looked in the direction of the sound and looked out to see Qibing Tower crumbling and surrounded by many bulldozers and trenching machines. They continued their destructive path to the facilities around the tower, along with the parking lot and forest park- it was a chaotic mess.

It was only a moment’s instant before the skyscraper had been completely demolished.

Qibing’s eyes were wide open as if he’d seen a ghost- he snapped awake an instant later and realized that someone was tearing his tower down!

He didn’t care about the guests anymore. With a couple of quick steps, he charged out the hotel with the dutiful Uncle Zhu inches behind him.

Lin Yi was standing between the tower and the hotel, his cold eyes watching as the landscape became flat.

Since Qibing tore down Tang Yin’s house, it was only natural Lin Yi would tear down Qibing’s tower.

Fatty Lai had raised buildings for many years, but leveling a newly constructed skyscraper was a first. He felt a burst of excitement at the tower’s instant demise- only his boss could manage something like this.

“Who are you people? What do you think you’re doing?” Qibing’s eyes were flaring- who were these people, coming up and destroying his tower without a second word? It was only natural he’d be so angered.

“You’re Zhao Qibing?” Lin Yi looked at Qibing coldly.

“That’s right,” Qibing took a deep breath and regained his composure. This person in front of him knew who he was, and that meant he knew the sort of background he had.

And despite that, here he was, tearing down his skyscraper. What did this mean?

He wanted to tear Lin Yi to pieces because of the humiliation he had caused him- this was an opening ceremony, and doing something like this during an opening ceremony was an especially insulting embarrassment!

“I’m Tang Yin’s boyfriend,” Lin Yi nodded as he spoke faintly, “You tore her house down. Now you still owe me a pair of legs- also, I’ll have to disfigure your face.”

“Tang Yin?” Qibing paused, realizing who the girl was upon hearing the key words. ‘Tore her house down’ and ‘disfigurement’ could only mean the pretty lady he had his eyes on this morning!

But he didn't think Tang Yin would have a boyfriend like this- he was quite something. After all, not every person was capable of amassing this many bulldozers and trenching machines in such a short period of time.

Lin Yi didn't give the man the chance to talk. He started walking towards Qibing, "You're not gonna survive the year."

"Uncle Zhu, kill him!" Qibing didn't see Lin Yi as a threat- this man had cost him his reputation in front of all these important people, and nothing short of his death would give him relief. He wouldn't be able to raise his head from now on if he couldn't even do this much.

As for the consequences of murdering Lin Yi, Qibing had nothing to worry. Everyone present knew who he was, and they'd never do something like reporting him to the police. In the first place, the people here weren't exactly good men, either. It was unlikely they would report him.

Lin Yi didn't listen to Qibing as he continued walking towards him.

A swift palm came from Uncle Zhu, and an instant of intensity flashed through Lin Yi's eyes as he received the palm with his own.

A thundering sound erupted, and Uncle Zhu staggered a few steps, blood splurged from his mouth as his breathing froze. He raised his eyes in disbelief as he stared at the man before him- this was a mystic class master! This man was a mystic class!!!

"Hm," Lin Yi continued walking towards Qibing.

Qibing was in equal disbelief- he understood just what sort of strength Uncle Zhu possessed- he was an early phase mystic! This was rare among the houses, and it was because his father spoiled him that he had assigned Uncle Zhu to him.

But a master like Uncle Zhu was coughing up blood after just one move from Lin Yi.

How was that possible? This young man couldn't be older than twenty years old!

Uncle Zhu wanted to throw himself in front of Qibing, but the palm he had taken from Lin Yi had actually caused him internal damage- he hadn't even recovered his breathing yet, and couldn't even speak, let alone move!

Fear finally took over Qibing. As cocky as he was, he was no idiot- a person who could send Uncle Zhu staggering back was a monster he had to run away from, no matter how embarrassing it would be.

With that, he turned and started running.

Lin Yi was standing in front of him.

"Leave your legs," Lin Yi said calmly.

"I'm a son of House Zhao! You can't do this!" Qibing threw his status out as a last defense, "My father is Zhao Guangyin."

“Who’s Zhao Guangyin? Don’t know him. Zhao Kuangyin’s brother?” His hand slapped against Qibing’s head, distorting his face and covering his whole face in blood, the wound was immediately hidden by the red.

A slap from Lin Yi wasn’t something to mess around with- Qibing fainted instantly after tumbling to the ground.

He was awake the next instant, however, as the crisp, piercing pain of the bones in his legs breaking woke him.

He fainted after hearing the cracking sound.

Lin Yi wanted to do something else when he felt his body get heavier- he took a deep breath to support his own weight.

Chapter 585:– Lin Yi, Injured

“Release Master Bing right now!” Uncle Zhu had recovered by this point, and had launched his body in front of Lin Yi. “Early phase mystic class- I know your strength. You may be a little stronger than me, but I’m ready to sacrifice myself to protect Master Bing.”

Lin Yi only smiled coldly as he looked at Master Bing, who lay on the ground unconscious. “I’m done here. Leave Songshan- I don’t know when I’ll suddenly remember the things this man has done!”

A threat- a naked threat! Uncle Zhu’s face darkened. How long had it been since he’d last received a threat after he’d entered the mystic class? This class was extremely rare in the world, but it was a fact that this young man, who was no more than twenty, possessed the same sort of strength!

“There’s a limit to how cocky you can be. You’re not strong enough to have an attitude like...” Uncle Zhu hadn’t finished when Lin Yi had already turned around to leave!

Ignored- this man had blatantly ignored him! Uncle Zhu’s face only turned uglier, but there was nothing he could do. Fighting it out with Lin Yi wouldn’t be wise- there was no guarantee who would be the one to die.

Him holding his ground right now was already enough straining as it was- he felt like he would collapse any moment.

Lin Yi got into the van to see Fatty Lai giving him a thumbs-up. “Nice, boss, breaking Zhao Qibing’s legs in a situation like that!”

“Start the car!” Lin Yi spat out a violent splurt of blood, splattering it all across the windows before starting to cough endlessly.

“Boss, what’s wrong?!” Fatty Lai shouted, taken aback. He’d only seen Lin Yi being a badass the whole time, he had no idea that he was actually injured!

“Start the car and go- find somewhere quiet,” Lin Yi ordered as he tried to stabilise his breathing.

Fatty Lai nodded, not dragging on any longer. He started the car and left the area in a whisp of smoke.

He'd wanted to get Lin Yi to hospital, but remembered that Lin Yi himself was a miracle doctor- what was the point of going to a hospital in the first place? He must have had his own reasons for wanting a quiet place.

And so, he decided to head to his own villa.

Lin Yi had only put on a front the whole time, filled with thoughts of paying Qibing back for Tang Yin's sake. He had hidden the damage he had taken when he received Uncle Zhu's palm, and while he did want to continue his revenge on Qibing, he couldn't hold out any longer!

Never would he have thought that even a bastard son had a mystic class master guarding him! Were mystics just everywhere, or was it because of the sheer strength of the hidden noble houses?

He had heavily underestimated his opponent. He had wanted to make Qibing die within the year, but couldn't make it happen.

Originally, Lin Yi was good at making people die a slow death- saying that Qibing wouldn't die today didn't mean he wouldn't die tomorrow, or anytime after that!

Lin Yi had an indescribable discomfort within him- his insides were all repositioned! The spiritual trainer at the mystic level possessed the same clashing strength as Lin Yi did, but Lin Yi had managed to hide the damage he'd taken only because of the Dragon Mastery training he had gone through. He barely managed to disfigure and disable Qibing before giving way to Uncle Zhu.

Fatty Lai didn't bother locking the door after reaching his villa- not that anyone would steal a car parked in front of his villa in the first place.

He helped Lin Yi into the house, giving a glare towards his frightened wife who was just about to ask what had happened. He got Lin Yi to the guest room, and Lin Yi smiled bitterly, "Guard the door- don't let anyone disturb me."

"Alright, boss!" Fatty Lai quickly nodded and did as he was asked.

Lin Yi fell onto the bed and entered the jade space- he could only absorb a huge amount of pure energy in order to quickly revert his injuries. Fortunately for him, he had a treasure like this up his sleeve- any other normal human would only be able to wait for their death if they didn't have a pill with them.

In truth, Uncle Zhu himself felt that he wasn't that far off from dying!

Li Cihua, on the other hand, finally came running over after Lin Yi had left. After all, he was fully aware of just how strong Lin Yi was- being able to kill off two golden class masters, himself. He didn't know what level this Uncle Zhu was at, but he had been protected Master Bing after all- he had to be stronger than the two golden masters Cihua had. Could he actually be a mystic..? Cihua just couldn't fathom it.

Lin Yi had sent this man into coughing out blood and this man, himself, was mystic level strength... Just what kind of monster was Lin Yi?

"Master Bing, how are you?" Cihua ran over to first check on Qibing's injury. Uncle Zhu dying was just exactly as it was, but Qibing's death would cause something catastrophic.

“Master Bing’s fine, his legs are just broken! I can’t hold out much longer, hurry and help me contact my master, have him get Yaowang to save me!” Uncle Zhu knew his current situation- without the help of special pills or medicine, he wouldn’t survive a couple days using just his natural recovery rate.

Cihua jumped in a fright before quickly making the call...

Jianwen, Taizao, and the people watching at the back, on the other hand, were shocked at how daring Lin Yi was. He did something like that right in public! Naturally all the people present, including Cihua, weren’t aware of how strong Uncle Zhu was!

They’d surely fall into a panic if they learnt that Uncle Zhu was a mystic, of which Lin Yi managed to beat with one attack. They didn’t even see Lin Yi get hurt, and just assumed that Uncle Zhu was an incompetent bodyguard!

Despite the many people, no one stepped closer, as they were all aware of the mysterious strength behind Master Bing- it’d only humiliate him and the strength behind him if they went over, and no one wanted to cause that. The Qibing Tower opening ceremony had become a joke already at this point. The entire tower had completely gone down!

Cihua didn’t think that Lin Yi would be this extreme. Not only did he flatten Qibing’s new skyscraper, he even broke his legs! Just how tyrannical could the man be?

Cihua considered himself quite a tyrant in Songshan already, but he really wasn’t on Lin Yi’s level at all!

He remembered the threats he had made to Lin Yi, and regret and fear hit him. If Lin Yi really wanted to pay attention to Cihua, he would lose his Floating Cloud Bar too, just like that! Cihua sighed- it seemed he had severely underestimated his opponent. Having been hired by Chu Pengzhan, the man was now, evidently, no common man.

The call finally connected, and Cihua looked at Uncle Zhu as he tried to keep himself together, “Boss, It’s Li Cihua...”

Chapter 585 – What Strength

“Oh, Lil ‘Li. Is something the matter?” A slightly deeper voice questioned, belonging to the man Qibing had mentioned- Zhao Guangyin, the master of House Zhao. Behind him was the elder of the family, also the reason Why Guangyin wouldn’t just blatantly accept Qibing as his bastard son.

“Boss, it’s bad! Master Bing’s been attacked, his face is injured and his legs are broken! Uncle Zhu also received injuries as well, and the Qibing Tower’s fallen!” Cihua said, unable to hide the shock in his face.

He was greeted by silence by the other end, followed by a dumbfounded voice. “What was that? Bing had his legs broken, and Mister Zhu was injured? That is not possible- Mister Zhu is an early phase mystic class, a rarity. Are you alright? Master Bing wouldn’t just cross someone like that, would he?”

His mouth dropped in shock. He had expected that Uncle Zhu was an extremely powerful person, being Master Bing’s direct protector, after all. He wouldn’t be assigned a master weaker than the two Golden Cihua received, that was a certainty.

But hearing it directly from Guangyin made it even more shocking- Uncle Zhu was a mystic!

A mystic that was heavily injured by one palm from Lin Yi? A mystic who struggled standing up after one attack?

What was Lin Yi then? Was he stronger than early phase mystic class?

“Give me the phone, I’ll talk to the master!” Uncle Zhu channelled his inner strength and adjusted his it, regaining some physical stamina in the process.

Cihua panickedly handed him the phone- at this point, Guangyin would only believe it if Uncle Zhu himself said it! Cihua himself wasn’t fully convinced that a nineteen year old kid like Lin Yi could beat Uncle Zhu down, that would be chaos! Were mystics not worth anything anymore?

“Mister Zhu? I’m Zhao Guangyin- what’s your situation?” Guangyin still couldn’t believe that Uncle Zhu was injured- it was simply unfathomable. How did Qibing manage to meet an opponent like that just after a couple of days in Songshan?

A master capable of injuring a mystic could only be one of those old farts who had hidden themselves away from all involvement in the world- people who just wanted to pursue higher strength! They wouldn’t trouble themselves with meddling in things like this!

“Master, it’s me- I have two more days at most. The injuries are internal, please have Yaowang save my life!” Uncle Zhu’s voice was very weak. “Without special medicine there isn’t enough pure qi in the whole natural world for me to recover!”

“What!” Guangyin finally believed Cihua at this point- Uncle Zhu was injured, and it was critical! Hearing that he could still hold on for two more days did, however, give Guangyin some relief. As long as he could recover from it, it would be fine.

Uncle Zhu was only a little over forty, after all, and was one of the masters in the household that had the highest potential of entering the earth class! It’d be an absolute waste if he died like this, especially if it was because of his bastard son. Even his position as the master of the house would be threatened too.

Guangyin took in a deep breath, “How’s Bing?”

“Nothing life-threatening, but he has two broken legs and a disfigured face. If Yaowang came here personally, there shouldn’t be anything permanent.” Uncle Zhu said.

“I’ll have Yaowang sent there right away. Also, I want to understand the full story of what happened.”

(Yaowang means ‘King of Medicine’, but I don’t know if that’s his name or if it’s a title as of this moment.)

“It’ll be better if Li Cihua explained it,” Uncle Zhu wasn’t too aware of the full story himself- he was just in charge of Master Bing’s protection after all, and had never cared about the company or the sort.

As a result, he still didn’t understand how Master Bing managed to piss off the wrong guy! After all, while the hidden cottage might not put too much value on a mystic, the mystic class masters were still an untouchable existence in the Surface World! They were people that all noble houses had to pay their respects to!

How many days had it been since Master Bing arrived? What had he done to deserve an opponent of this strength, a mystic at the same level as Uncle Zhu? Uncle Zhu,, himself could sense that Lin Yi's training was more purer than his own as he couldn't stand much of a chance against Lin Yi, even though they were both under the same level.

He'd probably cough up blood again if he realized that Lin Yi had just entered mystic two days ago- it hadn't even stabilized yet! It took him almost ten years after entering the mystic class before he was an early phase peak. Only after that, could he start aiming for the mid phase!

Cihua took the phone, much more composed now after realizing that both Uncle Zhu and Master Bing were fine for now. He started from Qibing's plans on the slums, how he'd had his eyes on Lin Yi's girlfriend, to how he tore down her house and ended up injuring Tang Yin and Jucheng. Lin Yi had come for his revenge.

Naturally, Cihua, himself, had a very personal hate against Lin Yi- Lin Yi was the reason for the death of his two golden masters! He hadn't received new masters as replacements even until now, and he couldn't even carry himself the same way when he walked around anymore!

Would he be in this situation if it weren't for Lin Yi? What angered him the most was the fact that Pengzhan Industries would have become a part of Master Bing's business if it weren't for Lin Yi! If he knew that all that would happen he would not have helped Jin Gubang pay for the funds and construct a new headquarters for the Qibing Real Estate Company in the first place!

And so Cihua added a couple more bits of information after his explanation, "Boss, the two golden masters I had before also died under this kid's hands! We can't let him go! If it weren't for him, the real estate company we prepared for Master Bing would've been in our hands long ago, most likely along with Pengzhan Industries also being under our control! But this kid's the one who's blocking us left and right, and now he's injured Master Bing and Uncle Zhu! We must do something about this!"

Cihua had thought that the information would enrage Guangyin, but the man was only calm and his voice, dull, when he spoke, "This Lin Yi... We'll stay away from him for now. I'll have Yaowang make his way there first- we'll act after we have more information on him."

Pissed off as he was, Guangyin was no idiot. Lin Yi was someone capable of injuring Uncle Zhu- in other words, he was above the mystic level.

But what did it mean for a boy younger than twenty to be a mystic master? Guangyin didn't buy that Lin Yi had acquired that strength through just training and effort!

After all, even hidden noble houses like his poured their most valuable resources into nurturing a master. Let alone the four great houses and the five small ones- none of them had a mystic master under twenty years old!

Chapter 586 – Master of House Zhao

And so, it was very possible that Lin Yi had an extremely powerful noble house backing him up- just which hidden house was he from?

In order to deal with Lin Yi, he had to make sure he understood who he was dealing with. If he were to act recklessly and just get rid of Lin Yi, things would turn very sour if his guesses about Lin Yi's hidden family turned out to be true. If he really were a master nurtured by a hidden house then it wouldn't be surprising if they had pushed away all consideration and went all out against his own house!

Mystic at twenty? The potential there was infinite- the boy could very well go into the earth class or even become a sky class master! The house Lin Yi belonged to would lose their minds if the Zhaos just killed him off.

But there was still the possibility that Lin Yi had just gotten lucky. Maybe he'd eaten some miracle pill, or maybe he'd managed to breakthrough under some coincidental circumstance- if that were the case, then killing Lin Yi off was the optimal solution. Keeping him around living for any longer was too much of a threat.

It was the first time Cihua heard the master use a tone like that, but he replied normally nonetheless after a brief pause, "Alright, understood."

The ambulance arrived, and Cihua helped Uncle Zhu and Master Bing get to the hospital simple medical procedures first. Then it was up to Yaowang to personally come treat them properly.

Guangyin put down his phone and sighed. A moment later, he stood up and quickly walked outside his room, his face solemn as he headed for a solitary villa.

"Young master, you've come." An old man appeared all of a sudden, just as Guangyin reached the door. His words were courteous, but there was no sign that he would let Guangyin enter the villa at all.

"Elder Bi, I'm here to see my father," Guangyin didn't react negatively at all, treating the old man with respect instead. After all, Elder Bi was one of the few masters in the Zhao family, their last line of defense. He had fought with Guangyin's father shoulder to shoulder to make it to where they were now, but he hadn't married, nor did he have kids. Now Elder Bi only accompanied Guangyin's father, loyally acting as his right hand man.

"Please wait for a moment, young master. I'll inform the master," Elder Bi nodded and entered the villa, leaving Guangyin standing there respectably and completely unmoving.

He came out a while later and nodded to Guangyin, "Young master, the master asks for you to enter."

In actuality, Guangyin was already the master of House Zhao. Elder Zhao had retired from the position a couple years ago, pouring all of his heart into reaching a higher plane.

But in Elder Bi's eyes, Elder Zhao would always be the master, and Guangyin, the young master.

Guangyin didn't think much about what Elder Bi chose to call him. After all, while he may already be the master of the house, there were still things he needed his father's counsel on. He may have the authority to use the mystic masters in the family, but earth class masters like Elder Bi were above his control!

Guangyin walked in respectably and saw that Elder Zhao had already seated himself in the living room, quietly enjoying a cup of tea in his hand. Guangyin bowed to greet his father, "Father!"

"Mm. Did you need something?" Elder Zhao had been focusing on his training, searching for ways to break out of the earth class- he very rarely concerned himself with the house's affairs.

Guangyin would only interrupt him if it was something very important.

In truth, hidden houses didn't concern themselves with the surface world at all. Although they may have some companies or representatives on the outside, and even descendents, none of those would be as powerful as the great houses and small houses!

The great houses and small houses were there to earn money for their family in the first place, and the hidden families never really had very high materialistic standards. Along with the inheritances from past generations, they didn't even need companies on the outside to sustain themselves.

The functioning companies on the outside weren't just for nothing- the profits they earned were all given for the sustenance of the family, and were not to be used in meddling with the foundations of their ancestors' businesses if possible. This would guarantee the noble house's prosperity.

The main point was that there was an agreement among the hidden noble houses that they wouldn't involve themselves with the surface world's affairs. Everything would fall into chaos if the place was filled with Wulin masters- the other noble houses wouldn't be able to do anything if that were to take place.

What they were truly after was the peak of martial arts- they wanted a long life, immortality and strength. In comparison to the colors of the outside world, towards the outside world, they didn't hold much motivation nor interest.

"Father, Bing's legs have been destroyed, and Mister Zhu is heavily injured..." An event this big had to be reported to the Elder.

"Oh?" Elder Zhao's eyes turned cold. "Zhu is a mystic, isn't he? How was he injured? Who else could have a master like that, other than the House Yu branch?"

Elder Zhao's words gave Guangyin a sudden thought- his own wife was from the Yu family! Did she find out about his bastard son and sent someone against Qibing?

His face changed at the thought, showing a little nervousness. "Could it be the Yu family? Did Yu Xiaojin's learn about Bing?"

Xiaojin was Guangyin's wife, a Yu, the family's youngest daughter. Elder Yu especially loved her- it was very possible that Xiaojin would make that move.

"Xiaojin knew of Bing a long time ago- she never did anything because she understood the big picture. As long as you didn't bring Qibing home, she'd have one eye shut regarding the whole thing. She wouldn't send anyone against Bing," Elder Zhao said, "Unless Bing's existence threatened her son's position- your youngest son's position."

"So it isn't the Yu family?" Guangyin paused, not realizing that his wife had known all along! He smiled bitterly at the thought. The Yu women were really quite something.

It was but an alliance marriage, but she'd given so much on her part these past years, taking care of him and living under the same roof together. It was hard to imagine that she was once a young miss of the Yu family.

"I didn't say that. Elder Yu is someone who would never take a loss, and Jin was his favourite. It's possible he'd send someone against Bing for her sake," Elder Zhao shook his head, "Don't put too much hope on the boy- I don't have faith in him. He's but a boy playing prince. Naturally, we Zhaos wouldn't just take this insult without a response... I know what to do- spread the word and list the man as wanted. We'll think this over if one of the families claim him as their own, but if no one speaks up, it'll mean that he's not from a hidden house!"

Guangyin paused, impressed by his father's methods. It was true- if this Lin Yi really did belong to a hidden house then they would come out against the Zhaos to defend him.

Chapter 588: Young Woman of House Yu

Young Woman of House Yu

Naturally, if no one said anything, then House Zhao could very well just go ahead and have Lin Yi wiped out.

Still, Guangyin leaned towards the possibility of House Yu's involvement- it was just too much of a coincidence for Qibing to have a mystic come at him after tearing a house down in some slums. Weren't masters supposed to be rare?

Guangyin believed that to be the case- and so he decided to first go to Xiaojin after getting back. After all, she was the main wife, and she knew about Qibing- if the Yus really were responsible, they'd make a statement about it.

Guangyin bid farewell to his father and returned to his villa. He met with his wife and told her about Qibing, also earnestly apologizing and asking for her forgiveness for the mistake he'd made when young.

Xiaojin didn't say anything, only smiling lightly and shaking her head after her husband finished speaking, "I knew about Zhao Qibing a long time ago- I just wanted to see when you'd come and be honest with me. My father was aware as well, so I don't think House Yu had a part in this. We'd have made a move long ago if we wanted to."

Guangyin acted as if the news came as a shock- he sobbed gratefully, "Jin, so you knew! I... I don't know what to say..."

"Our marriage may be an alliance between our houses, but we've developed feelings for each other these past years, and we've had kids. I'll let the past go, but I have one condition- that son of yours may never return to the Zhao family," Xiaojin said, making things clear.

"He won't," Guangyin instantly promised.

"As for that Lin Yi... I'll help ask my brother if he's from the Yu family," Xiaojin said.

Guangyin let out a breath of relief- it'd be much simpler if House Yu weren't the ones responsible. They were a titan among the hidden houses after all.

It came as a shock all those years ago, when the bastard son cast out from House Yu, one of the four great noble houses, founded a House Yu on his own, turning the original family into the New House Yu's vassal! Although it sounded like a joke, that was the solid truth.

Of course, it was said that a miracle chanced upon Xiaojin's father, the bastard son that was cast away from the original family- he had actually broken through the earth class in one swoop, turning into a sky class master!! This was more than ten years ago, and no one knew how strong the man was now.

As for what existed beyond the sky class... Only that legendary mystery who had wandered the world knew.

House Yu was an entity everyone envied, but also a soaring mountain no house could imitate or overcome. After all, they also had luck on their side.

Lin Yi became a wanted man soon after- however, only the hidden houses knew. Guangyin hadn't even bothered asking the four great houses and five small houses in the outside world as there was no way they would have someone like Lin Yi in the first place.

Somewhere in a heavenly setting with clear waters, were a couple of ancient-styled European structures.

A young lady with the appearance of an angel sat before the window- seeming to be drawing something on a drawing board, her eyebrows occasionally locking into a frown and her lips edging into a smile.

She quickly closed the drawing board and tidied up her hair when she heard footsteps outside her window. After quickly neutralising her expression, she turned around just in time to see the door opening.

Her heart tightened, but the edges of her lips curled up into a beautiful curve as two dimples appeared on her white and flushed face, "Brother, why didn't you knock?"

"Heh, you didn't lock the door anyway, right?" A handsome boy walked into the room with wide strides and a smile on his face.

"Hm? Why's your face so red, sis? You haven't been thinking about anything obscene, have you?"

The girl pressed her eyebrows together, "Brother! What kind of nonsense are you saying!"

"Hehe, let me see what you drew?" The boy skipped his way to the girl and reached for the drawing board on the table.

The girl's heart tightened once again as she held on tight to the drawing board, but was nowhere near strong enough to resist the boy. It was a little frustrating, "Let go!"

The boy didn't let go- he only pulled harder.

The girl didn't want the art she'd been working on for nearly a month to be ruined- she had to let go, but her eyes were still filled with rage as she glared at the boy.

"Ha! I knew it, you were being a pervert! See, they're holding hands! Hahahaha!" The boy started laughing loudly.

“Give that back!” The girl snatched the drawing away from the boy as he laughed.

It was a very delicate drawing. In it was a girl and a boy holding hands as they ran happily in a beautiful field- the girl was the young lady herself.

“Sis, dad received a phone call earlier, a name was mentioned...” The boy looked at the girl, smiling.

The girl tensed up a little, but hid her emotions, “Who? What does it have to do with me?”

“You don’t wanna know? Fine then, I’ll leave,” The boy turned around, preparing to leave.

“Brother, hurry up and tell me- what did dad say?” The girl started to panic as she glared holes into him, “I’ll ignore you if you don’t say it now!”

“Dad received a call, I think it was our youngest aunt asking if we had a Lin Yi in our Yu family... That’s all I heard, I don’t know anything else!” The boy quickly spat out all he’d heard.

“Aunt? She called?” The girl paused, not understanding why she’d ask something like that, “What did dad say?”

“Dad said he didn’t know the person...” The boy shrugged, “He’d probably act like that even if he did though...”

The girl wanted to pick up the phone and call her aunt right away, but that would just complicate things. She gently put the phone down and spoke softly, “Brother, help me.”

“Of course I’ll help you,” The boy smiled, “Lin Yi’s my buddy, I want him to be my brother-in-law, too! Don’t you worry, leave it to me! I’ll get you more information!”

Fatty Lai stood guard in front of Lin Yi’s door, nervous. He didn’t know what had happened to Lin Yi, but still didn’t dare interrupt his healing with his questions.

“Old Lai, who’s in there? Why are you so nervous? Why’d you bring some stranger back to our house?” Fatty Lai’s wife asked with a weird look on her face as she stared at the door

“What do you know?! That’s my boss, I’m his follower now!” Fatty Lai glared, “Stop talking so much and make me something to eat, I’m starving!”

Mrs. Lai didn’t say anything after seeing such a scary attitude given from her husband- she quickly went to prepare him some food.

In truth, she was worried that this person her husband brought home, who was coughing up blood, might die in their house- that would really be the worst.

Chapter 589: The Call From Miss

Mrs. Lai was afraid of taking up any responsibility which resulted in her questioning her husband, but after seeing the determination in Fatty Lai, naturally, she wouldn’t voice up anymore.

In reality, Fatty Lai was a relatively smart guy so his wife knew that he wouldn’t just bring a stranger hanging onto the edge of his life without reason.

Fatty Lai was roving back and forth in front of the room, and his wife quickly got him a bowl of warm noodles. While Fatty Lai was savoring two mouth full of noodles, the phone that Lin Yi left behind started to ring.

Fatty Lai looked at the incoming call and he answered the call immediately after seeing it was Tangyin, "Hello, Sis-in-law!"

"Fatty Lai? Where's Lin Yi? Why isn't he answering the phone?" Tangyin was extremely worried for Lin Yi- he had left for few hours already, there were no phone calls and he never came back. There was no way Tangyin wouldn't be worried about him.

After all, their misunderstanding had just been cleared not long ago- this was the moment for them to bond, to be together like a glue sticking to each other and of course, Tangyin was missing Lin Yi's love and embrace too right now.

"He..." Fatty Lai panicked, "Boss is fine, he's just a little tired and resting now."

"Resting?" Tangyin startled- she found the reason strangely odd, "Fatty Lai, tell me, how's Lin Yi now, get him to answer the phone!"

"Sis-in-law, boss is really just tired, he needs some rest..." Fatty Lai didn't want to lie Tangyin but Lin Yi had specifically warned him not to mention anything to Tangyin.

Fatty Lai was in a difficult position- he didn't know how to respond Tangyin. After all, Tangyin and Lin Yi's relationship was special, normal reasons wouldn't have the same effect against her.

"FATTY LAI, tell me now! If not I'll ask Lin Yi to not bother with you ever again!" Tangyin's heart was pounding rapidly while she threatened him.

"Eh!" Fatty Lai flinched, he was tormented- Linyi told him not to mention anything to Tangyin while Tangyin use Lin Yi to threaten him. This made Fatty Lai lost- this was a tough nut to crack, he didn't know what should be done.

"He's fine, in the progress of recovering.... Please do not forget that my boss is also a Miracle Doctor himself."

"Ah! Linyi is injured?" Tangyin startled, "Where are you guys now?"

"In my house, don't be worry, sis-in-law, Lin Yi will be awake in no time. I'll tell him to get back to you....." Fatty Lai explained.

"No, I must come now, where's your house?" Tangyin was anxious, she felt bad- Lin Yi was injured because of her. How could Tangyin stay in the hospital and not visit him?

"Erm.... Okay then," Fatty Lai couldn't reject her, could he?

"I'll get my wife to pick you up, it'll be safer in the night."

"A...alright," Lin Yi's life might be at risk- this wasn't a time for Tangyin to be polite as she gladly accepted the offer.

“My wife is driving a red Porsche with the plate, Song A1234A,” Fatty Lai told Tangyin about the details, he didn’t want Tangyin to get in the wrong car, it would be a big mistake for him if that happened.

After ending the call, Fatty Lai summoned his wife, and told her about his situation. Although Mrs. Lai was suspicious, she didn’t question him as she drove her car to the hospital. As far as she was concerned, Fatty Lai was treating the stranger inside with generous amount of respect, he had to be an important figure.

However, the phone rang again after a few seconds from Tangyin.

Fatty Lai took out the phone and looked at the incoming call again. Much to his surprise, it was shown “Miss”!

Who was this Miss? Fatty Lai was puzzled but for his boss to name someone “Miss” - her identity must be of utmost importance. Hence, he picked up the call immediately.

“Lin Yi, where have you been? Why aren’t you coming back this late? Did you know that my dad is waiting for you!” In normal circumstances, she wouldn’t make the phone call herself but since Lin Yi didn’t inform her before leaving today, naturally, she was displeased. Besides, her father was here, waiting for Lin Yi to return home for a dinner- he wanted to treat Lin Yi as a token of appreciation for saving her precious daughter.

Chu PengZhan industries had kept Pengzhan out of hands until now, so he had planned to drink with Lin Yi but he didn’t seem to be coming back after waiting for a half day so Mengyao got her phone up and called him.

Normally, she would order Yushu to give Lin Yi a call but now that her father was beside her, she decided that she should be the one calling instead.

Fatty Lai jumped in shock upon hearing the girl’s tone- just who was this miss? How could she talk to his boss like that? Who was her dad anyway, telling Lin Yi to head over for dinner? Could it be that he was Lin Yi’s leader?

Fatty Lai was puzzled- he didn’t know who was the girl on the other side of the phone.

“Ugh, sorry, this isn’t Lin Yi speaking...” Fatty Lai said cautiously.

“Huh? Not Lin Yi? Where’s Lin Yi then?” Mengyao didn’t expect the receiver to not be Lin Yi.

“Erm... May I ask who are you?” Fatty Lai wanted to confirm the Miss’ identity first before revealing the fact to her.

“I’m Lin Yi..... erm, I’m... I’m his Boss!” Mengyao wrecked her brain and couldn’t think of their relationship so she just blurted ‘his boss,’ “And, who are you?”

Fatty Lai was flabbergasted- Lin Yi’s boss? Was she my boss’ boss?! Fatty Lai answered hastily, “Big boss!”

“Big boss? What do you mean?” Mengyao was perplexed.

“Lin Yi is my boss, and you are my boss’ boss, naturally, that makes you my Big Boss!” Fatty Lai explained.

“Owh, I don’t care who you are, I’m looking for Lin Yi,” Mengyao was lost because of Fatty Lai’s explanation.

“WHAT? Lin Yi is injured?” Mengyao was astonished. How did this happen? She couldn’t help but get nervous, “What happened? Is he alright?”

“Er... I’m not sure about that, but he was spitting up blood.... He’s recovering in my room, I’m not allowed to check him either...” Fatty Lai answered carefully- she was Lin Yi’s boss after all, he wouldn’t want to mess things up here, would he?

Fatty Lai wasn’t to be blamed for believing Mengyao’s identity. After all, Lin Yi, himself, named her “Miss” in his phone.

“Spitting up blood?!” MengYao felt a prick in her heart, her head started aching as well, “Where is he now? I’m coming over right now!”

“Ugh.... it’s so late at night now, I’ll get a car to pick you up?” Fatty Lai didn’t dare to drag things any longer- she was his boss’ boss after all.

“I’ve got a car myself!” Mengyao interrupted, “Just tell me where are you guys now, quick!”

“Leadshore residences , A9-1 Villa....” Fatty Lai revealed his own address.

Chapter 589 – The Miss and Tang Yin

Mengyao didn’t continue the conversation and ended the call.

Mengyao was anxious- other than her parents and soul mate, Yushu. She had never been so worried before, after learning that Lin Yi even coughed out blood- her heart almost exploded.

She always had complaints and opinions about Lin Yi, but all of them were transformed into concern at this moment.

“Dad, Lin Yi is injured, I’ve to go see him,” she pulled Yushu along with her after informing her dad.

Initially, when Pengzhan heard that Lin Yi was injured- he also wanted to check him out but after seeing her daughter’s anxious face, he hesitated and chose to sit back down, “Be careful.”

Pengzhan was very satisfied with her daughter’s reaction, their relationship was heading to a better direction- it wasn’t a relationship between a miss and her follower anymore, it was something different.

On the other hand, Yushu was eating hot toffeeed sweet potato- it was best eaten when hot. Lin Yi wasn’t home yet, but with Yushu’s attitude, nobody would blame her for starting the meal first.

“Nyom nyom nyom.... Yaoyao sis, why are you pulling me?” Yushu just filled her mouth with a slice of sweet potato, she almost choked when MengYao tried to drag her along. MengYao rolled her eyes at that, Yushu was sitting at the dining table, enjoying the meal, not really giving a care about her surroundings so she wasn't aware of the information exchanged between Mengyao and her father.

"Your shield bro is injured, aren't you coming?" Mengyao glared at Shu and thought, why aren't you getting fat, eating so much everyday? Or perhaps all the nutrients were transported to her boobs? Her voluptuous hourglass figure was indeed pretty attractive .

"Ah? I'm coming, how is he injured?" Yushu jumped up from the fright and followed Mengyao behind.

"I don't know," Mengyao shook her head, she went to the garage, drove her Audi S5 and headed to Leadshore residences.

Uncle Fu's Bentley was tailing behind their car. Uncle Fu and Pegnzhan were worried of the girls' safety at night so they were just making sure of their safety.

On the other hand, Mrs. Lai went to pick up Tangyin.

It would take a much longer time for Tangyin to reach here because there was still a distance between Leadshore residences and the SongShan's first hospital, going back and forth would consume a lot of time.

"Lai Changyi?" Mengyao was able to recognise him when she entered the villa- she might not know many people but she had accompanied her dad to numerous famous entrepreneur parties so she was able to recognise some well-known names, Lai Changyi was one of them.

Additionally, with his extra big stature, Mengyao's impression of him was even greater.

"You... you are big boss? You know me?" Fatty Lai was surprised, getting along with the big boss was beneficial.

"My name is Chu Mengyao, not big boss, such a disgraceful name," Mengyao frowned, "Where's Liny Yi?"

Fatty Lai then pointed at a closed room, "Inside there, but I'm not allowed to go in, he asked me to guard the door for him."

"Just what's going on?" Mengyao was worried of Lin Yi but since Lin Yi had forbid people from entering, it would be best for her to not enter. Who knew if she would trouble him and worsen his condition after entering the room.

Fatty Lai didn't have the balls to hide the truth- he revealed everything from helping Tangyin to revenge to fighting Qibing's bodyguard. As far as he was concerned, Mengyao was Lin Yi's boss, so she should at least know about Lin Yi's girlfriend, shouldn't she?

"Tangyin?" Mengyao heard that Linyi was injured because of Tangyin, she was displeased, she didn't feel good! He was her shield after all, why was her shield protecting some other girl? He was injured because of taking revenge too! Did he ask for permission before doing such a reckless thing?

Did she allow him to go? The point was that she thought that Tangyin had broken up with Lin Yi! She turned back and looked at Yushu "Shu the spy 007, I thought you said that they were broken up?"

“Ugh...” Yushu was a little pissed off at Tangyin as well. It was totally understandable if Lin Yi was injured because of Yaoyao sis but now that their shield bro was injured due to some stupid revenge, it made Yushu unhappy! Her mouth turned into a pout.

After looking at Yushu’s expression, Mengyao knew that her source was probably inaccurate. She eyed Yushu and stopped her questioning, her heart was getting more and more uncomfortable. She wanted to check on him but she wasn’t allowed to enter. All she could do was wait stupidly outside of the room.

Fatty Lai didn’t dare voice out anything when he saw Mengyao’s silence- he just stood beside Mengyao and waiting for her orders.

After a while, outside of the villa, came a car sound. A girl came fumbling out and was no doubt, Tangyin.

Tangyin was hospitalised just before coming here, she was still wearing her patient clothing with the bandages swathed on her forehead. Mrs. Lai and Xinwen came after her.

“Fatty Lai, how’s Lin Yi? Where is he?” Tangyin rushed to Fatty Lai and threw questions at him. Although, Mengyao and Yushu were standing beside him, she subconsciously left them out of her sight because Lin Yi was her only priority at this moment .

“Hmph! He’s not dead yet!” without waiting for Fatty Lai to open his mouth, Mengyao shrugged coldly. She was enraged when she saw Tangyin!

Lin Yi was injured because of this girl, so when she saw Tangyin- she was unable to control her fury, as she looked at her with disdain. She got even more angrier when she saw Tangyin falling and knocking herself over before reaching the villa.

It’s just that Mengyao had forgotten that she came in the villa the same way Tangyin did.

Tangyin was one of the top three school beauty, naturally, she was able to recognise the other two. She had even talked to Yushu before, how could she not know her. But the question arose, why were these two school beauties in Fatty Lai’s house?!?!

Chapter 590 – War for Love

Besides, both of them actually came for the same reason- they were here because of Lin Yi. Tangyin started first, “You guys....”

When Mengyao was about to open her mouth, Yushu winked at her and stood in front of Mengyao, proudly saying, “Let me introduce you, this is Yaoyao sis- she is shield bro’s girlfriend!”

“Shield bro? Who’s that?” Tangyin couldn’t get her.

“Shield bro, naturally, is Lin Yi. Hee hee!” Yushu laughed cunningly.

“Lin Yi? Girlfriend?” Tangyin’s eyes widened, she thought to herself, Lin Yi was my boyfriend, alright? When did Mengyao become his girlfriend? What’s going on? If this was a phrase said by Xiaoxiao- it was understandable but things were different this time- this was from Chu Mengyao, herself, and Chen Yushu.

She was shocked but she knew something was up. How did Lin Yi have connection with the both of them? It was impossible.

Mengyao only glared at Yushu but the word “girlfriend” made her eyes light up- she thought she would hate it, but the word somehow became melodious to her ears and she didn’t reject the title in the slightest.

“Fancy meeting you here, my name is Chu Mengyao and I’m Lin Yi’s fiancé,” Mengyao gracefully stretched her hand out, lifting her head as elegant as possible and looking down at Tangyin with immense superiority. Right this minute, her gorgeousness as a Miss had multiplied by infinity.

On the other hand, Tangyin was impressed by Mengyao’s presence- staring at her blankly. She’s Lin Yi’s fiancé? Tangyin was simply unable to accept this, everything happened too fast for her to process it, was she really Lin Yi’s fiancé? The most famous Miss in the school, chairman’s precious daughter, she was related to Lin Yi??

Despite the fact that she was flabbergasted, Tangyin didn’t bend down- she stretched her hand out to meet Mengyao’s, “I’m Tangyin, Lin Yi’s girlfriend. I didn’t know Lin Yi has a fiancé, are you sure about that?”

After seeing Mengyao’s position, Tangyin half-believed her words- if Mengyao wasn’t related to Lin Yi, she wouldn’t have bothered coming here! However, saying that she’s Lin Yi’s fiancé, Tangyin wouldn’t tolerate and believe that in the slightest!

She had fallen into Xiaoxiao’s trap once, so her alertness was still rather high- she wouldn’t just believe in others’ words so easily again. Even though her opponent was the supercilious Miss, she would still charge forward to attack!

This was her first time, fighting for her love- she didn’t want to have any misunderstandings with Lin Yi ever again, just because of these unworthy events.

“I’ve heard of you,” Mengyao said faintly. Undeniably, Mengyao’s words had given her the upper hand- it meant that Lin Yi was on better terms with Mengyao that’s why he had talked about Tangyin with Mengyao, there was nothing to hide between them. On the other hand, Lin Yi did not tell Tangyin everything, including the fiancé part, their bonds weren’t as close as to Mengyao and Lin Yi.

“Really? Let’s be honest here y’know, our relationship has been already recognized by the public in the school, when did you become Lin Yi’s fiancé?” Tangyin’s attack was pretty eloquent. She didn’t fight last time because she didn’t want to, and she didn’t have to.

But after having a taste of losing her loved one for a few days, she felt that she had to take initiative in fighting for her love now. It didn’t feel good and she had suffered for a few days because of losing Lin Yi. She wanted to clarify that she was the real girlfriend here, and it was even known throughout the school!

Now that Tangyin was fighting back, and her attack was pretty effective against Mengyao- making Mengyao unable to fight back. She started the war due to her competitiveness- she disliked losing, and she especially hated losing to Tangyin.

In fact, she was never Lin Yi's girlfriend and her guilt was already starting to build up since she said she was Lin Yi's fiancé, but she couldn't just admit defeat after blurting out all those lies, could she?

"So what? Yaoyao sis and shield bro's marriage was decided by their family. They didn't have to announce to the world, did they? Isn't that right, Yaoyao sis? Yushu was always fighting with Mengyao but when both of them were standing on the same line facing the same enemy, naturally, Yushu would stand up and fight back for her.

"Arranged marriage?" Tangyin flinched, she was right, it was very common for rich houses. Now that Yushu had mentioned it, the possibility of arranged marriage was actually pretty high! After all, Mengyao's identity was the biggest evidence, if she wasn't related to Lin Yi... why would she fight in this nonsense?

"Ya. Didn't you know? Shield bro and Yaoyao sis's relationship is skyrocketing! They are getting more and more intimate- they even kissed, y'know!!" Yushu said cockily, "So have you guys kiss before?"

Mengyao and Tangyin were both dumbfounded by Yushu's words but Mengyao remained silent and just looked at Tangyin arrogantly with a straight face.

"We..... We did too!" Tangyin looked at Yushu and said the word one by one clearly, "Just so you know, we always kiss!"

Tangyin was mentioning about the hospital's rescue moment, she promised to give Lin Yi a kiss when he completed his mission. Although, the kiss hadn't been given out yet, Tangyin thought that it was the probably about the same anyway. So she did not back down and just mentioned it bravely.

Xinwen came along with Tangyin but she was totally puzzled with the current situation. Of course, she knew the big names, Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu, they were the school beauties after all, but their conversation with Tangyin staggered her.

No doubt, the most insane thing that tripped her was that Tangyin admitted to kissing Lin Yi. She had been investigating how far both of them had went, and which stage they were in now. And to no avail, she found that their progression had not moved at all. However, today she learnt that both of them had been moving forward to the kissing stage.

"Owh, kissing isn't that important actually. Shield bro always hugs Yaoyao sis and harasses her boobs at the same time!" Yushu released even more dynamic information after hearing Tangyin.

Mengyao wanted to say that Lin Yi hadn't touched her boobs before but she knew that Yushu was fighting for her face so she remained silent as in like she agreed in silent acquiescence.

"Lin Yi touched my boobs too!" Tangyin was starting to panic, and lifted her boobs subconsciously, "See my boobs are way bigger than hers, I bet her boobs aren't really nice anyway!"

In normal circumstances, Tangyin would never allow herself to be this vulgar but she was pressured by Mengyao and Yushu, and the words flew out from her mouth with no self-control.

But after the words were delivered, even Tangyin herself, was stunned. Did I really say that out? How could I be that shameless? She was literally comparing her boobs with Mengyao, how shameless could she get!

On the other hand, Xinwen stood frozen- 'Was this really the good girl I knew? What happened? That was totally crazy! Both of them were just hurting each other!'

Chu Mengyao's body was considered balanced but her boobs were just a little lacking, that was her weak spot and she hated it the most when people talked about her weaknesses!

Chapter 591 – The Great Chen Yu Shu

Tangyin had accidentally hit the jackpot- this made Mengyao descended into embarrassment. She stared at Tangyin as if she was about to eat her, "So what if my boobs are small? I've got a big ones living in my house! You have just yourself, is that enough for you? Her boobs are even way bigger than yours?"

While Mengyao bragged, she pushed Yushu right in front of Tangyin as if she was presenting a part of her own assets. Since Yushu had personally declared she was Mengyao's soulmate- she cooperated, lifting her boobs with a cocky face, "Why don't you have a good look at my boobs? Do you admit defeat now?"

"Lol, it's none of your business. Lin Yi wouldn't even touch you anyway?" Tangyin found Mengyao really stupid- as soon as she couldn't fight anymore, she would push her soulmate in front her.

"Why not? Shield bro always touches me! He's even kissed me!" Yushu looked at Tangyin with disdain as if she was just a kid, how disgraceful.

What utter bullshit. If Lin Yi was truly Mengyao's fiancée, she could at least believe in that slightly, but saying that Lin Yi was so messed up, that he was with both of them, this was absolutely absurd.

"Oopsss, I forgot to mention the fact that Yaoyao sis is Lin Yi's main wife and I'm his second wife! It's a buy one free one package, worth every penny!" Yushu blinked to Mengyao, "Isn't that right, Yaoyao sis?"

"Certainly! We've agreed upon this promise ever since we were young," Mengyao nodded solemnly.

"Huh?" Tangyin was taken back, what was this logic? Main wife, second wife? The point was that even Mengyao agreed with this logic...

Tangyin felt that either this was a drama or both of them really had down-syndrome!

Tangyin felt that it would be rather likely for Lin Yi to take her as a second wife. After all, she wasn't born as a noble, and Lin Yi had even gotten injured because of Tangyin. He had sacrificed so much for her so she wouldn't mind being Lin Yi's second wife, if that's what it took for them to be together!

At the very least, Lin Yi's love for her was sincere and pure from the bottom of the heart. As long as Lin Yi took care of her, she would accept it, albeit reluctantly!

But to say that Yushu was Lin Yi's second wife, Tangyin found it unbelievable. Chen Yushu was also born a noble, as high class as Mengyao. Her brother was a Major and her background was even extremely mysterious! Both of them were like angels bestowed by the heavens in the school, how could they share the same husband?

The first thought that came to Tangyin's mind was that both of them were fooling with her. Although she was impressed she did not believe in the slightest as she said sarcastically, "Main wife and second wife? That's very creative of you!"

"I know right, how do you feel? Are you perhaps jealous of us?" Yushu acted like she didn't get the sarcasm at all as she continued, "Both of us are very generous, even if you are Lin Yi's girlfriend, you could only be his second wife.... Wait a minute, you would be second wife number two, I'm the second wife number one!"

Yushu's reply made Mengyao sweat, weren't you ashamed of your own words? But thanks to Yushu, Mengyao was able to stand firm like a mountain, otherwise, she would have to admit defeat already.

Tangyin was speechless, how on earth could someone be that shameless? Shouting out so proudly about being the main wife and second wife. Tangyin was unable to fight back against Yushu's shamelessness! However, she didn't want to lose either, she glared at Yushu "What's the point of being the main wife and second wife? You guys have to at least see who's got him first, right? We have had xxx before! You guys are nothing with just the title!"

"Eh!" Xinwen's mind was blown away. Tangyin and Lin Yi had advanced to that stage already? They even had xxx before? What in the world was she talking about- that was too fast, wasn't it?!

Tangyin's words choked herself in surprise but it wasn't like she could turn back anymore, could she? If she gave up now, all her efforts would turn into nothingness.

So she had decided to initiate the attack first, she couldn't allow herself to be behind Yushu all the time, could she?

"What's that.... We've been staying together under the same roof for a quite some time, right, Yaoyao Sis?"

"Yeah, we live together," Mengyao said enthusiastically- it was a fact after all, she wasn't lying, they were really staying together under the same roof.

"We always have s** parties, and we do 3P all the time! Do you know what's 3P? Men love it the most, you are always alone, what can you provide him? He's enjoyed his life to the fullest with us!" Yushu hadn't processed everything she said through her brain, so she was able to crap everything out with a straight face, however black lines were starting to appear on Mengyao's forehead. She wanted to stop Yushu's nonsense, but it wasn't a good time to do so as she reluctantly admitted to Yushu's words once again.

Tangyin flushed immediately- she didn't expect such vulgarity from Yushu! She hadn't even tried to run away from the nonsense but the things she said were getting more and more fishy.

After all, a girl's reputation was very important to them, they couldn't just ruin their image and destroy their reputation like that. If they were like Tangyin, Lin Yi's girlfriend, things wouldn't turn ugly if the rumors spread out because it was totally normal for girls to have xxx with their own boyfriend.

However, Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu, they were misses of the noble families, were they completely abandoning their reputation? If they weren't somehow connected to Lin Yi, were they able to say all that daringly? Although Tangyin was pretty sure the 3P thing was completely impossible, their relationship with Lin Yi was definitely not normal for sure!

Tangyin could insist that she was Lin Yi's real girlfriend now she wasn't Yushu's opponent so she decided to walk down the stage. After all, there was no way she could find something as erotic as 3P, she didn't know how to continue the war anymore.

"3P or whatever, that's disgusting!" Tangyin felt like she had been wronged, she had underestimated Yushu but her eyes were still on her, not showing any inferiority.

"You have never tried it before, that's why you wouldn't know!" Yushu said confidently, "Basically, we have a 3P on a daily basis."

"Stop bragging!" Tangyin didn't believe her, she felt that Yushu's words were beyond logical, "Lin Yi would never stay with you guys!"

"You don't believe us? Let me show you some evidence then!" Yushu got her phone out, opened her album folder and raised her phone to show Tangyin right in her face, "Here, this is our kitchen, and Shield bro always makes breakfast for us in the morning!"

"This is our living room, we always watch Tv together.... Right, this sofa, this was where we have our 3P! Look at this, this is my ***! If you're still in your own world, look at what I'm wearing, this is the exact same lace!"

"Owh, there you go, Yaoyao sis is here! She was in the reflection of the mirror!"

Yushu found a picture with Mengyao in it as she pointed to Tangyin excitedly.

At first, Tangyin thought that Yushu was full of lies until she saw Mengyao in the picture. The blood in her face drained and she clenched her teeth, she was out of cards and just stood, silently staring at Yushu's phone.

Chapter 593: Who's Braver?

Who's Braver?

"How're you going? Do you believe us now? Ah, this is our villa's yard, this is Shield bro's car, you've seen this before right. This is my Beetle and this is Mengyao's Audi S5!" Yushu explained, "Actually we do have our 3P photos but it's not in this phone. If you wish to see it, I can show you on my laptop."

"Hmph!" Tangyin shrugged off her gloat and just glared at Yushu angrily. In fact, Tangyin was very frustrated inside- she wasn't sure of Yushu's words. But her instinct told her that she couldn't believe her, not even one word.

Tangyin believed that Lin Yi wouldn't betray her- even if he really had a fiancée, he would tell her the truth honestly. What was the point of Lin Yi cheating on her anyway? If he really had one, he could at least inform Tangyin and she would let go of him automatically- there was no point going through all these troubles just to ask her to leave.

Despite all that, Lin Yi's car was really in the pictures shown in Yushu's phone and that yellow beetle- that was the car he used when he drove to Tangyin's home for the first time, how could Tangyin forget that?

And the Audi S5, Tangyin had seen it before as well- he had been standing beside that car in the night market street.

To tell the truth, Yushu wasn't exactly educated about anything sexual, she didn't know what lovers did on the bed, and it wasn't like she could say that she already had a baby, could she? That would be ridiculously off topic and she wouldn't have been able to answer if Tangyin asked about the baby's whereabouts.

So, when Tangyin stopped talking and resulted to staring, Yushu did the same.

All of them were glaring like tigers watching their prey, but the silence was deafening. Nobody knew who had the upper hand! But it seemed like Yushu and Mengyao had asserted themselves as the powerful party and Tangyin was the one in the dire state.

Frankly, both the misses were feeling very bad inside. After all, Yushu had just blurted out nonsense without thinking.

On the other hand, Fatty Lai had fled away from the war from the beginning- he was hiding at the very far end. He didn't wish to be the middleman because both parties were equally important, one was Lin Yi's boss and the other was his sis-in-law, he couldn't afford to make a bad impression to either side!

He knew that Tangyin was his sis-in-law but Mengyao and Yushu were speaking like they were the real deals, and Yushu even had a ton of evidence to prove herself as well. From that, Fatty Lai assumed that their relationship with Lin Yi wasn't that simple, either.

Hence, the best outcome was to hide himself, not helping either side, that was the smartest decision he had ever made.

After the commotion settled down, only then did Fatty Lai start strolling over slowly, "Alright, no matter who's the main wife, you guys are all my boss' women which means my sis-in-law!"

Mengyao's subconscious fought back, who's sis-in-law? But then she remembered all the things she said to Tangyin when they were fighting, her face remained solemn but internally, her whole body was dancing.

Tangyin saw that Mengyao and Yushu weren't fighting back so she just lifted her head and remained silent.

"Ah!" Tangyin flinched, Mengyao and Yushu were also startled by her. The three of them had forgotten their purpose of coming here until Fatty Lai came in to remind them. Lin Yi was still lying inside the room and there were fighting some pointless war. Was this really the moment for them to be fighting?

No one knew if it was Fatty Lai that snapped them out of their world or if it was because the misses had nothing else to comment.

In short, the living room became total silence.

There were two parties sitting separately in the living room, one of the parties was Mengyao and Yushu, they ducked into a corner and started murmuring to themselves.

“Shu, how could you say something so dirty just now? 3P? Did you read too many dirty books?” Mengyao lectured.

“Owh, Yaoyao sis, so you know 3P too? You must’ve read a lot of dirty books as well!” Yushu said nonchalantly.

“Don’t change the topic!” Mengyao eyed Yushu, “With all that nonsense just now, did that consider as doing bad things?”

“Nothing is bad. Shield bro is Yaoyao Sis’s from the start! He was the one who went to flirt with all the girls, wasn’t he?” Yushu thought that her actions were righteous.

Mengyao sighed. She didn’t know if they were doing the right thing or not.

On the other hand, Tangyin was pulled aside by Xinwen- she had wanted to interrupt their war a couple of times, but stopping her best friend during the war didn’t seem fit. Tangyin was still worried sick about Lin Yi’s condition. Who would be in the right mind to speak politely anyway?

During the war, Tangyin was just trying to protect her pride, she didn’t really care about anything else.

Fatty Lai realised that letting the girls stand in front of the room didn’t look good so he got his wife to help him carry four sofas for the guests to sit on.

Time flew by, second by second, but there was zero movement in the room. Tangyin wanted to check him out but was afraid that she would disturb him, Mengyao was also thinking the same thing too.

“Yaoyao sis, I’m hungry,” Yushu heard her own stomach growling, she wanted food.

“Hold on for now, we’ll get back and eat when Lin Yi is back!” Mengyao wasn’t sure of her real intention either but she made her voice loud and clear just so Tangyin was able to hear.

“Okay, but I want to eat Shield bro’s cooking, his food is yummy!” Yushu co-operated.

“He’s been the one making breakfast for us daily, hasn’t he? He is injured now, let’s wait till he recovers, okay?” Mengyao said. Mengyao didn’t know when she became so prideful, she was never a fan of showing off before.

Tangyin was pissed off with the other misses, who did they think they were? Why was Lin Yi cooking for them? She was unable to hold back anymore as she added, “Xinwen, have you eaten Lin Yi’s barbecued chicken wing? It was definitely worth a try, he even gave me his recipe! My family’s barbecue stall is now using his recipe too! Right, Lin Yi even made me shark meat before, you have eaten before right?”

Xinwen could only sigh, Tangyin, why were you jealous? You were the prettiest among the three of us..... But putting Tangyin with those misses, they were all extraordinarily angelic, none of them were inferior to each other.

“Shark meat! We’ve eaten before too, but that shark was caught by me and Lin Yi together though!” Yushu interrupted.

“Hmph!” Tangyin once again did not buy it.

While all of them were arguing about food, Tangyin and Xinwen’s stomach started growling as well, and here came the sharp-witted Fatty Lai. He walked towards them and said, “Sisters-in-laws, all of you must be very hungry right now. Don’t worry, I’ve asked my wife to prepare some food for you guys. I know that you guys are worried about my boss but you guys have to at least fill your stomach, right? Otherwise, boss will be very upset about it.”

Chapter 594: The War Started Again

The War Started Again

“I want to eat barbecue chicken wing!” Yushu’s desire for chicken wing arose when Tangyin mentioned about it earlier.

“Shu! There’s no barbecue chicken wing here!” Mengyao eyed Yushu and looked at Fatty Lai, “Sorry to bother you.”

Mengyao showed her ladylike demeanour as the Miss of a noble house.

“Same here, we don’t mind eating anything,” Tangyin replied politely.

“Alright, I’ll get my wife to prepare some noodles right away!” Fatty Lai relaxed- he was afraid that the misses would be picky eaters.

For a fleeting moment, four hot bowl of noodles were served in front of the girls by Fatty Lai.

Mengyao, Yushu, Tangyin and Xinwen were all as hungry as hunters, they stopped their war and started savouring the noodles. Mengyao and Tangyin were both eating gently with manners but on the other hand, Yushu and Xinwen never gave a care in the world when they ate, the sight of them was messy.

Fatty Lai always had to entertain his customers, he rarely had the chance to eat so he would always eat something before going to the bed, naturally, noodles were the best option because it was easily made so Mrs. Lai had mastered the technique in preparing a quick satisfying noodle. It was far more superior than the restaurant’s noodles.

After finishing the noodles, Fatty Lai cleaned up the bowls while the girls continued staring at each other with widened eyes, the intensity even stronger than before....

The war started again.

Mengyao sensed no movements inside the room as she got even more worried and complained: “Why didn’t you stop Lin Yi for avenging you? If you have stopped him, he wouldn’t have to be injured, would he?”

“How could I stop him? He was avenging me, it meant that he loves me, cares about me, I should be delighted instead!” Tangyin continued, “Or else, why didn’t he get injured because of you?”

“Who said so? He shielded me from a bullet, right Shu?” Mengyao was mentioning about the bank robbery but he was actually shielding Guanxin instead of Mengyao that time.

“Owh, Shield bro jumped into the sea just to rescue me too and we even fought the shark after that!” Yushu continued.

Fatty Lai sighed as he dragged his wife to the corner, observing the exchange, he didn’t have the balls to fall asleep. Who knew if they would start a fight after all?

“Old Lai, who are these people?” Mrs. Lai was lost since the beginning, she didn’t know their relationship and names, she only knew that the injured guy was Lin Yi, her husband’s boss and a Miracle Doctor who had saved her father-in-law’s disease.

He was also the founder of Miracle Doctor Guan Medicine Company, so she knew that Lin Yi was a very powerful figure- she respected him very much like the way how Fatty Lai did.

The problem was that there were four ladies in her house, and three of them were insanely fine-looking. Other than that, three of them admitted that their relationship with Lin Yi was complicated, making Mrs. Lai headache.

“I... I think we have to leave this to the boss to settle. Personally, I’m not very sure about their relationship with boss, either.....” Fatty Lai smiled bitterly, “Let’s just observe from a distance, as long as they don’t fight, everything will be fine.”

After passing the phone to Fatty Lai and ordering him not to mention his condition to Tangyin. He locked himself in the room and immediately fainted on the bed in the next second.

At this moment, Lin Yi had transported into the jade.

This was Lin Yi’s first time fighting someone as strong as the Uncle, getting injured was inevitable. Fortunately, he had his jade with him- he could recover with incredible speed or else he’d have been gone for good.

“Huu—” Lin Yi felt the energy in his surroundings rush into his body with an immense speed, his organs were being recovered and rejuvenated as he let out a long deep breath.

The sensation was remarkable- it was like an orgasm before breaking through, make him moan unwillingly....

This was Lin Yi’s second time going into a deep sleep, the first time was getting all his energy sucked by Xiaoxiao. At this moment, he was totally cut off from the real world, he couldn’t feel or sense anything at all from the outside.

As the time passed, Lin Yi's damaged organs had totally recovered inside the jade space, he let out a loud roar as he stood up energetically.

Lin Yi tested both his arms. Unbelievable! It was totally recovered!

Lin Yi naturally knew that how severe his injury was, even with the help and medicine from his old man in his hometown, he would not have been able to walk down from the bed for at least three months. But in the jade, he had recovered in such a short period of time. It could be considered as a miracle.

"Elder Jiao, have I fully recovered?" Lin Yi asked- he still couldn't believe the fact that it was done so easily.

"Yeah!" Elder Jiao nodded.

"There's a healing effect inside the jade as well?" Lin Yi asked. At first, Lin Yi thought that getting into the jade was his ability. In fact, he never expected to be transported into the jade automatically after he fainted.

"Nonsense, you are able to heal people with your energy, what makes you think that you can't heal with your own energy?" Elder Jiao rolled his eyes, "Can you at least ask something above the kindergarten standard?"

"Alright, does that mean that the energy that I absorb in the real world will also recover my injury, bit by bit?" Lin Yi asked.

"Logically speaking, yes," Elder Jiao continued, "But that was also one of the kindergarten standard questions. Besides, the energy in your world is fairly thin, you wouldn't be able to sustain your energy capacity, you would probably use it up faster than you would recover so there's no way you would survive with that injury."

"Oh...." Lin Yi nodded, if Uncle Zhu did not have a magical pill, he would probably die from the injury, "One more question, why do I feel like I'm stronger than I was before? Although, my phase is still the same, I can feel my power getting stronger."

"Excellent question, you've improved, that's a primary school standard question," Lin Yi sweated, "Without destruction there can be no construction. Your skeleton and organs were greatly damaged, furthermore, they were repaired and reconstructed inside the jade. Naturally, with the aid of the pure energy in the jade, your body would be a whole lot stronger than with the thin energy in your world!"

Lin Yi was enlightened- it seemed like the purity of the energy was a major factor in his recovery. This jade space was indeed really handy.

"My injury was pretty severe and it was recovered in such a short time, that's too amazing!" Lin Yi exclaimed.

"Short? It's been nearly ten hours," Elder Jiao said faintly.

"WHAT? Ten hours?" Lin Yi startled, he thought that it was just two hours at most.

Tangyin must be very worried for him right now, Lin Yi thought to himself.

Chapter 595: Lin Yi's Headache

Lin Yi's Headache

Other than that, Lin Yi recalled that he didn't inform the misses about his whereabouts before leaving. Would Miss also be looking for him?

With that thought, he rushed back to the real world.

Lin Yi gave himself a good stretch and examined his body- his almost destroyed body was now fully recovered and was in its peak condition. Nothing was wrong with his body but instead, he was lot more stronger than before, just with a terrifying blood stain on his shirt.

Lin Yi climbed out of the bed, rushed to the door and opened it. He was stunned!

Because there he saw the Misses and Tangyin, all three of them waiting in the living room! Why were all of them here?

"Lin Yi, are you fine? Is the injury really bad?" Mengyao stood up first as she strolled towards Lin Yi, her voice was gentle and great tenderness could be seen on her angelic face.

A shiver went down his spine when he heard Mengyao's voice! Was that Miss? What was that voice? Could it be that Lin Yi was still sleeping? Was this all a dream?

Mengyao didn't know what happened to her, in front of Tangyin, she wasn't being her usual self- she became the gentle wife, worried about Lin Yi. Especially after seeing the blood stain on his shirt, Mengyao was even more annoyed by Tangyin, as he was injured because he was avenging her!

"Lin Yi, I'm sorry, you wouldn't be injured if it wasn't for me!" Tangyin naturally disliked losing too, she ran over and held onto Lin Yi's arm.

How could Mengyao allow herself to get close to Lin Yi? But this time, she grabbed onto Lin Yi's other arm. On the other hand, Yushu jumped into Lin Yi's embrace, "Shield bro, we've been so worried about you! Are you okay now? If yes, let's go back home and do a 3P again!"

"Eh!" Lin Yi flinched. What was going on? Go back home and do a 3P? Was Shu having a fever, or was she just being horny?

"Lin Yi, she said that she's your fiance. Mengyao is the main wife and Yushu is the second wife." Although, she was worried for Lin Yi, she couldn't let the questions plague her mind anymore.

"Ah? Main wife, second wife?" Lin Yi's eyes widened, what was this for?

"She's right, Lin Yi, tell her, aren't you my bodyguard? Your job is to get those small fry away from me." Mengyao was feeling bad, now that Lin Yi was awake- their lies were going to be exposed soon but she couldn't lose to Tangyin, could she?

"Erm..." Lin Yi looked at Mengyao- he was puzzled as to what had happened to Mengyao today, why was she forcing him?

“They said that you guys always kiss and have 3P all the time,” Tangyin found the word vulgar but she couldn’t care that much anymore, she wanted to learn the truth at all costs.

“When did we kiss? 3P? That’s impossible,” Lin Yi sweated, he thought to himself, “Though I really wanted 3P, but who would I have a 3P with?”

“Shield bro, you dare to swear that you didn’t kiss me and Yaoyao sis before? You even kissed her until she had a bun in the oven, she vomited after that!” Yushu said, “And, didn’t you kiss me on the beach?”

“Really?” Tangyin was looking at Lin Yi with sorrowful eyes.

Lin Yi was confused- he didn’t know when and how they started a fight with Tangyin but things were obvious, both of them were trying to lie to Tangyin here.

“Damn! That was indirect, okay? I drank the drink that you had drunk before, was that considered as a direct kiss to you?” Lin Yi was a little speechless, “If that was enough to make a girl pregnant, then the all the girls on the whole street would be pregnant already! And, Shu, I was giving you CPR, it couldn’t be considered as a kiss, could it?”

After hearing Lin Yi’s explanation, Tangyin was on cloud nine- she had finally gotten to know the truth, they were somehow connected but it wasn’t in an impure direction. At the very least, Lin Yi cared about her and he explained to her accordingly. Regardless of whether it was real or fake, Tangyin was overjoyed.

Mengyao flushed when she was exposed by Lin Yi but Yushu didn’t really care about it, “Shield bro, why didn’t you co-operate with us?”

“Co-operate?” Lin Yi smiled bitterly, “Why are you and Yaoyao here?”

“Yaoyao sis heard that you were injured, she dragged me along with her. Yaoyao sis was very very worried for you, yaknow! By the way, when are we going back for 3P?” Yushu said with a straight face.

“3P again? Why are you so shameless? Lin Yi just said that he has nothing to do with you guys, why are you still sticking on my Lin Yi?” Tangyin started to panic, what was this Yushu doing? Wasn’t that seducing?

Even though Lin Yi didn’t like them with all these seductions, anyone would do the deed, wouldn’t they? After all, Tangyin knew how gorgeous these two beauties were.

“Owh, are you perhaps jealous? Now that you can’t have 3P, you are forbidding us to have one?” Yushu smiled to Tangyin.

“What.... Can’t have 3....3P? I....I’m taking over the other role!” Tangyin felt alarmed as she blurted.

Lin Yi was puzzled. What a day, What happened to the good girl Tangyin? How did she become so bad-tempered all of a sudden? And even the arrogant Miss had joined the game as well?

But aside from Mengyao and Tangyin, he didn’t find anything odd with Yushu, she was like that from the beginning, weird and always acted stupid.

“Arghhhh– my head is throbbing in pain–” Lin Yi hit his forehead and fell on the ground, flat.

He really was having a headache, it wasn't that severe but the fainting was definitely an act.

Lin Yi fainting horrified the girls- only then did they remember that Lin Yi had just woken up, his injuries might not have fully recovered yet. Starting a fight now even caused Lin Yi to be unconscious.

When Tangyin and Mengyao were about to help Lin Yi up, they heard Yushu say, "Ohhhh, Shield bro, why are your eyeballs moving? Are you perhaps acting?!"

Lin Yi was just trying to play with them, so his acting wasn't natural enough, but he didn't expect for Yushu to instantly catch him out, "Yaoyao, Shu, don't be a troublemaker anymore!"

"Huh? Sorry, I'm a nuisance to you!" Mengyao's face turned cold, displeased, "Lin Yi, I want you to follow us back home, right now!"

Mengyao had really lost all her face, Lin Yi asking her not to be a troublemaker meant that she was not to stir up trouble with his relationship with Tangyin. How could Mengyao accept this? She was the self-centered Miss after all.

"Woohoo, let's go back home and 3P," Yushu clapped her hand with excitement.

"Yaoyao, can you guys go back first? I've got something to talk with Tangyin," Lin Yi smiled bitterly.

"Lin Yi, who are these people?! Why do you have to listen to their orders?" Tangyin exploded, "You guys are snatching my boyfriend here, aren't you guys ashamed of your own actions?"

Chapter 596: Miss' Declaration Of War !

Miss' Declaration Of War !

"Erm...." looking at Tangyin's frustration- Lin Yi knew that he was the one that caused all this mess or else Tangyin wouldn't just explode like that.

"Of course, Lin Yi has to listen to me!" Mengyao got the upper hand, "My dad is still waiting, follow me home right now!"

Lin Yi was in a difficult position, Chu Pengzhan was there?

Logically speaking, Pengzhan was his employer- if he wanted him home, he had to follow the orders but he couldn't just leave Tangyin like that, could he?

"Sure, but I've to explain to Tangyin for a bit," Lin Yi said that with a serious face, making Mengyao unable to fight back. She pursed her lips, and glared at Lin Yi fiercely, thoroughly pissed off.

"Damn you Lin Yi, are you against me now? I'm going to cut your salary!" she thought to herself.

Tangyin smiled at her victory- no matter what relationship they were in, Lin Yi still cared about her the most. She had won this match.

Lin Yi strolled beside Tangyin and whispered, "It's okay, I've to go back with them now. Yaoyao's dad and my old man were acquainted. I came to Songshan city for a mission from my old man so I'm supposed to protect Yaoyao in the dark. She's considered as my employer now so I've to follow her orders...."

"Owh..." Tangyin felt bad for Lin Yi, why didn't he tell her about this before? Besides, Lin Yi was staying under the same roof with the two big beauties, he might not like them now, but it'd be hard to tell in the future?

Tangyin's heart was filled with insecurity and complexity.

"Allow Fatty Lai to send you back, I'll go and find you tomorrow," Lin Yi squeezed Tangyin's hand.

Tangyin nodded sweetly but she looked at Mengyao with an added alertness.

"Lin Yi, we have to go now," Mengyao knew that he had revealed her role to Tangyin- this made her a little embarrassed, being Lin Yi's fiance turned into a big fat joke.

"You should go, your employer is still waiting..." Tangyin gave Lin Yi a generous smile, she knew that girls shouldn't be stingy especially when her rivals were the great Misses.

Although, Lin Yi had explained their relationship to Tangyin, her sixth sense told her that she should be careful of the Misses because Mengyao and Yushu were probably in love with Lin Yi or else they wouldn't have fought with her for nothing and ruined their reputation like that just now.

However, Tangyin was a brilliant girl – she purposely forced Lin Yi to expose Mengyao's real identity. In fact, Tangyin did that just to tell Mengyao that she was no match against her after knowing their relationship.

Mengyao bit her lips as she pulled Yushu with her and when she was about to go outside, she stopped beside Tangyin and declared softly, "I've decided that Lin Yi will only be my man, I'll use all my tricks to get him. Don't you dare come to me crying when he abandons you!"

"Owh, if you come crying to me, I will at least let you be the second wife number two!" Yushu chuckled.

Tangyin didn't say anything as she stood there still. She was confident- she knew that Lin Yi wouldn't betray her. She smiled faintly and said half jokingly, "If you want to be a second wife so much, and Lin Yi agrees, I don't mind actually."

Lin Yi's hearing was impressive, naturally, he heard the exchange between the three of them clearly! But, Lin Yi only had one thought in his mind, Miss had gone crazy! Tangyin too!

However, Lin Yi remained silent as he followed the girls out of Fatty Lai's villa into Mengyao's Audi S5.

Lin Yi looked at his own car... guess he could only retrieve his own car tomorrow. Miss then sat herself in the back seat, leaving the driver seat empty, obviously hinting for Lin Yi to be the driver for this ride. Lin Yi sighed as he got into the driver seat and drove back home.

After Lin Yi left, Tangyin only let out a breath of relief- it was a huge relief for her as she jumped to Xinwen's embrace. Tangyin gritted her teeth and only focused on one thing- she couldn't show her inferiority in front of the Misses! Although she wasn't born in a wealthy family, Lin Yi still loved her! This was the reason why Tangyin fought this war till the end.

Tangyin was inexperienced about love and fortunately, Mengyao didn't have any experience too. Needless to say, Yushu was just fooling around and speaking nonsense without processing it so the three of them were even.

However, Tangyin was unable to hold on any longer, she usually dislike fighting and didn't fight at all so she had used up all her energy. She was finally able to relax herself after the Misses left them behind.

"Yinyin, what happened?" Xinwen was frightened.

"It's nothing..." Tangyin smiled bitterly, "I'm just a little exhausted, Xinwen, tell me, was I doing a bad thing just now? Do you think that Lin Yi would think of me as a stingy person who gets jealous most of the time?"

"Nope! Yinyin, your performance startled me completely, you were so impressive. I almost didn't know who you were!" Xinwen said happily.

"I'll allow you to be sarcastic then!" Tangyin sighed again. Now that she recalled what happened, she couldn't believe that she fought head on with the Misses, was that really the good girl Tangyin she used to know?

"Haha, right, Yinyin. Which stage are you with Lin Yi now? Did you guys really have sex?" Xinwen had been wanting to ask this for quite some time but she held back her curiosity until now.

"No! I was just lying to them.... Since they lied to me first...." Tangyin flushed red, and couldn't finish her sentence.

"You scared the hell out of me, I thought you were no longer a virgin, that was too fast, y'know!" Xinwen relaxed, "Alright, so which stage are you guys in now?"

"We just held hands...." Tangyin had returned to her usual self. If this Tangyin was sent out during the fight, perhaps she wouldn't have been brave enough to stand up against the Misses, would she?

"Only started holding hands!?" Xinwen was a little demotivated- she couldn't believe both of them were advancing at such a slow pace, "By the way Yinyin, you have to be careful of the Misses, if they were to stand together and seduce Lin Yi, you would probably suffer a huge defeat! Although, your relationship with Lin Yi is official, they are a buy one free one package, aren't they? They could play 3P!"

"....." Tangyin couldn't help but rolled her eyes at Xinwen, "Yuck, Xinwen, what are you talking, Lin Yi would never like those disgusting thing...."

"How sure are you? You don't even know what a man thinks!" Xinwen said firmly, "I heard that 3P is a very alluring thing to men, you really have to be alert of them. Especially, Chen Yushu, she's a smart and daring girl, she will do anything to reach her goals. Don't regret when your boyfriend is snatched away from them...."

Chapter 597: After The Injury

After The Injury

"It....wouldn't...." Tangyin was speaking like that but she was panicking inside. She found Xinwen's advice off topic, but it wasn't unreasonable. She thought to herself, to remember to ask Lin Yi about it one day! "Talking about bravery, no one had beat you, okay?"

"My bravery was different from hers..... How should I put it?" Xinwen might be rough and rude but she was tender in some ways, especially with her. She was good at looking through people, "She has that cute and innocent appearance, but it's most probably an act! Though it might really be her true nature; so innocent, so pure, so flirtatious or she could be a very brilliant yet lecherous person....."

"What is this mess!" Tangyin's face reddened, "Why am I caring so much about others!"

"Haven't you heard before? There has never been an unbreakable couple, but only a lazy mistress!" Xinwen said solidly, "Yinyin, you have to defend your boyfriend!"

"Alright, alright, I got you...." Tangyin had accepted her advice, but so what? It all depended on Lin Yi's behaviour in the end.

Mrs. Lai sent both of them back to the hospital, and things were as Lin Yi promised- she didn't feel any pain at all and she could very much remove the bandage after today. Before leaving, Fatty Lai handed Tangyin a bottle of painkiller because Tang Jucheng needed it for his broken legs.

At the same time, at the back of the Solid Cloud bar was a private area, Qibing and Uncle Chu were both lying on the bed, Qibing was awake, crying in pain while Uncle Zhu was closing his eyes, recovering.

"Master Bing, please bear with it a little longer. Yaowang is on his way, he should be here in no time!" Cihua said with a sigh, he didn't think that Lin Yi would be this extreme! Cihua considered himself quite a tyrant in SongShan already, nobody had the nerve to oppose him but after knowing Lin Yi- he knew that he wasn't even up to his level at all! Lin Yi didn't even give two shits about small fry like him in the slightest!

"Motherf***ker! Who is this Lin Yi anyway? How dare he break my legs, what did my dad say? Is he sending people after him?" Qibin was unable to accept this humiliation!

He had just arrived SongShan to expand his territory, his company hadn't even officially opened yet and here was Lin Yi who kicked him in the butt, levelled his skyscraper and even broke both of his legs, how could he allow him to stay in SongShan city?

If he didn't tear Lin Yi into pieces, how could he still lift up his head in SongShan city from now on?

"Master is investigating Lin Yi's real identity....." Cihua smiled bitterly, "But I heard from Uncle Zhu that Lin Yi was a mystic class master, this class is rather rare even at Master's side!"

"Mystic class? Lin Yi is mystic class?" Qibing froze, he was passed out earlier so he didn't know what Uncle Zhu was talking about but it gave him a fright after learning the news!

Uncle Zhu was injured too- but Qibing didn't seem to care because he was in immense pain with his legs being broken. He thought that Uncle Zhu's injury was because of the bulldozer or trenching machine, so he didn't give much thought to it.

“Exactly, early phase of the mystic class!” Uncle Zhu replied with his eyes still closed, “Master Bing, Lin Yi is just as badly injured like me. If he doesn’t have any special pill, only death will be waiting at the other side or he could abandon his strength and return to a normal being.”

“Owh? Does that mean that if Lin Yi doesn’t have a special pill with him and now would be our greatest opportunity to ambush him? With his current condition, he couldn’t have the strength to fight us, could he?” Cihua was a cunning person- he got Uncle Zhu’s hidden meaning immediately.

“Hahaha, his current condition isn’t much better than mine! Even with the help of the pill, and treatment from Yaowang, he would require at least half a year to reach his original strength and that was an idealistic assumption,” Uncle Zhu continued, “In fact, even with a tiny error or a lack of a pill supply, he would be done for good!”

“Fantastic! Let’s fight him before he gets back to his fullest, we can’t afford to have him recover!” Cihua had wanted revenge ever since their encounter but he wasn’t given a chance to speak up, but now that he was aware of Lin Yi’s condition, there was no way he’d let this golden opportunity to slip away from him that easily. Most importantly, he was able to please Master Bing with this revenge, killing two birds with one stone!

“Let’s wait for our Master’s decision,” Uncle Zhu was loyal to the family- the decision maker was still Zhao GuangYin, he was just stating his opinion to them.

Cihua nodded, indeed, without Guangyin’s order, he couldn’t be reckless! His only option was to wait for Yaowang now.

.....

Lin Yi carefully drove the car while his Miss’ face stayed as cold as ice. Yushu, on the other hand, was still showing a face of ignorance and playing with her thumbs- failed terribly at examining the atmosphere. She might have felt it but that wasn’t enough to affect her at all.

“Yaoyao sis, are you really going to chase Shield bro officially now?” Yushu asked, still playing with her fingers.

Lin Yi sweated- the declaration was loud and clear to him because of his good hearing but he had to pretend that nothing had happened. Now that, Yushu asked Mengyao directly, things were going to get awkward.

Miss wanted to chase him? Lin Yi didn’t buy that. He just thought that something was wrong with Miss’ brain so he just acted like he was clueless about their whispers.

Mengyao’s face changed- anger flashed across her face when she eyed Yushu, she returned a calm and steady response, “Lin Yi, don’t listen to Shu. The words just came out themselves when I was in a fight with Tangyin! You are my follower and you were injured because of her. That pissed me off the most! I was doing it on purpose really, don’t take it seriously....”

“Haha, I know, I didn’t take it seriously at all,” Lin Yi smiled and nodded at Mengyao, that’s my Miss.....

Disappointment could be found in Mengyao’s eyes, her heart was bitter- that was her first declaration in chasing a guy and he wasn’t taking her seriously at all...

"If something like this were to happen again, next time you've to inform us first, got it? You are my man... ughhh you are my follower so you have the responsibility in protecting my safety!" Mengyao continued, "Let's say, what if, I'm in danger? What if Shu was stuck in the fence again? And, what if we need you and you're injured?"

Chapter 598: The Low-spirited Miss

The Low-spirited Miss

"Okay...." Lin Yi smiled bitterly. He thought to himself, 'was Shu really that idiotic to fall into the same thing twice?'

"Woohoo, I can crawl between the fences now when I've got nothing better to do," Yushu said immediately.

"....." Lin Yi almost swerved off the road.

"And, you have to report to me first, before having any intimate actions with Tangyin!" Mengyao wasn't being herself when she said this.

"Ugh.... it's not needed, right? I've got my own privacy....." Lin Yi sweated.

"Of course, it's needed!" Mengyao continued, "What if something happened to us when you were having s** with Tangyin, and both of you couldn't stop? In other words, you have to report to me first...."

"S**?!" Lin Yi smiled bitterly, "I've to report that as well?"

"Of course! We have to monitor your private life as well. Y'know, Shu and I are clean and pure, if your private life is too intense, we have to consider firing you!" Mengyao said with a straight face.

"Alright..." Lin Yi nodded, Miss was in for a fight today, Lin Yi didn't wish to cross her, so he decided to agree with her first.

"So Yaoyao sis, are we going for a 3P later?" Yushu was disappointed when she saw that Mengyao chickened out.

"Stop fooling around," Mengyao sent Yushu a glare, "If you wish to play so much, why don't you go play with yourself?"

"I can't play with myself!" Yushu said depressingly, "Yaoyao sis, you are going back on your own words."

"Alright Shu, let's not talk about this first when you are still young. I shall play with you when we get bigger, alright?" Mengyao's head was aching because of Yushu.

"Alright, let's play when we get bigger," Yushu giggled.

"Sure!" Mengyao replied helplessly.

Lin Yi could only smile bitterly- he couldn't find any way to interrupt the conversation's flow?

“Uncle Chu is in the house?” Lin Yi changed the topic because he really had no idea how to join their conversation.

“My daddy wanted to treat you for a meal and you made him wait for more than ten hours!” Mengyao pointed at the window, “The sun is appearing soon.”

“Haha, my bad. I’ll explain everything to him later,” Lin Yi smiled bitterly.

“Hmph!” Mengyao brushed him off, “Drive faster, we still have a feast waiting in the house.’

Lin Yi remained silent. Mengyao’s Audi S5 was considered similar to a Ferrari so the velocity was pretty high. Now that it was midnight and there weren’t any cars in sight, they were able to reach maximum speed in no time.

“Ah!” Mengyao screamed, the sudden speed gave her a fright.

Yushu, on the other hand, was basically dancing in the car, “Whoa, it’s so cool, we’re on a roller-coaster...”

“...” Mengyao was speechless, she thought that Yushu’s nerve system was lacking something, and she lacked of the nerve to be scared, didn’t she? How could she not know what was horrifying?

In the blink of an eye, Lin Yi stopped the car at the entrance of the villa- Pengzhan and Uncle Fu got out when they heard the sound of the car. Pengzhan and Uncle Chu went back home earlier after confirming Lin Yi’s condition with Mengyao on the phone.

After all, it wasn’t suitable for Chu Pengzhan to wait in Fatty Lai’s.

“Yi, are you alright?” Pengzhan was shocked when he saw Lin Yi get down from the driver’s seat. Mengyao told him that Lin Yi’s condition was pretty severe, he even coughed up blood from the injury, but other than Lin Yi’s blood stain, Pengzhan couldn’t see anything serious with Lin Yi, he was as fit as a fiddle!

If he didn’t have the blood on the T-shirt, Chu pengzhan might have even think that Lin Yi was never injured, the only evidence was the blood stain.

“I’m fine, don’t forget I’m a doctor too,” Lin Yi shrugged, “I appreciate your concern, Uncle Chu. Sorry to keep you waiting!”

“As long as you are safe, it doesn’t matter!” Pengzhan said sincerely, “I was very worried earlier, although, your old man sent you here to help us out, I wouldn’t know how to answer your old man if something really happened to you.”

“It was my bad this time, I underestimated them, sorry to trouble you Uncle Chu,” Lin Yi said shyly.

However, Lin Yi did not guarantee things wouldn’t be repeated again because he knew that he had involved Zhao Qibing into the game- Qibing would surely come back for revenge.

“It’s okay, the food is ready but it’s not hot anymore. Despite all that’s happened, let’s drink for a little, at the same time I want to thank you for saving Yaoyao and Shu,” PengZhan said.

All of them went into the villa, Lin Yi had a shower and changed himself while Uncle Fu heated up the food. On the other hand, Mengyao and Yushu were sitting at the dining table, waiting. Pengzhan pulled Lin Yi over to sit when he saw him coming out from his room.

Mengyao was sitting at the dining table, still amused from what had happened. She recalled back the abnormal things she did, was that really her? She couldn't believe she was actually jealous of Tangyin. She even declared proudly to Tangyin that she had been hitting on Lin Yi.

How was this possible? It was beyond belief! She must be dreaming- she pinched herself to only find out that it wasn't a dream, they were in the reality.

Her face reddened unwillingly as she recalled.... Chasing Lin Yi? More like Lin Yi chasing her! But what if Lin Yi really hit on her? Would she accept? Would she reject immediately, or give him a chance? Mengyao was looking forward for the unlimited possibilities.

But she got embarrassed when she recalled her unrepresentable actions. This had really exceeded her mental capability, everything she said was under exasperation and her brain wasn't processing her words in the slightest. How bashful.

"Yaoyao, Shu, let's offer our toast to Lin Yi, be grateful to him for rescuing you guys," Pengzhan said.

"Owh, okay!" Yushu raised the cup.

On the other hand, Mengyao was still in her own world- she didn't hear her father.

"Yaoyao?" Pengzhan frowned, what was his daughter doing? He didn't know where his daughter's attention went to.

"Huh? Daddy? Anything?" Mengyao got back to her senses and looked at her father, lost.

"Give a toast to Lin Yi, he saved both of you after all!" Pengzhan repeated. He thought that her daughter was dizzy since they didn't sleep for the whole night.

"Owh, okay," Mengyao flushed, she raised her cup but wasn't daring enough to look at Lin Yi. Her heart was troubling her, would Lin Yi do this much for her as well? If they weren't in an employer and employee relationship....

Chapter 599: A Load On Miss' Mind

A Load On Miss' Mind

"Thanks to you, Shield bro, we were saved. What would you think if Yaoyao devoted her heart to you as a token of appreciation?" Yushu blinked innocently.

"Shu, my dad is around, what are you talking about?" Mengyao panicked as if someone just stepped on her tail and she glared at Yushu.

Yushu stuck her tongue out- she had been joking all this time, the words had just slipped out of her mouth without her remembering Pengzhan who was sitting beside her. Fortunately, she didn't have enough time to blurt out the buy one free one package, it was such an embarrassment.

“Hahaha,” Pengzhan laughed lightly, his expression still the same, “Now that we have Shu with us, the atmosphere is getting merrier. Yaoyao, it’s your turn now.”

Lin Yi rescued Mengyao, couldn’t she at least say a thank you to Lin Yi? Being grateful to the rescuer was an unquestionable moral truth but for Miss to make herself give Lin Yi a toast, she was simply unable to do so. After all, she was the one who wanted to brutally kick out Lin Yi, wasn’t she?

At the very least, she had already allowed him to stay with her under the same roof, but giving him a toast was too much for her- didn’t that mean she was willing to compromise? After offering the toast, there was no way she could give him anymore attitude in the future, could she?

However, no matter how unwilling she was- she had to do it because her father was now staring at her. She couldn’t help but forcefully raise her cup, and drank the toast directly like she wasn’t honouring Lin Yi and was just drinking by herself, “Thank you!” she said after drinking.

Lin Yi didn’t bother- Miss was passionate and cold at times, that was her personality. He then raised his cup and smiled, “That’s my job.”

Seeing Lin Yi’s blank face displeased Mengyao- at the end of the day, she was still a Miss. She was his employer, he should at least show some happiness when she gave him the toast, shouldn’t he? Ultimately, Mengyao had never given a toast to a man before- Lin Yi was the first.

However, she couldn’t voice her unpleasantries as she internally sulked and cursed Lin Yi – jerk Lin Yi, broken Lin Yi, why couldn’t you just treat me a little better? Was I inferior to Tangyin? Even if I lose to her a little, what about Shu? If both of us were together as a combo, how could he not be attracted to us?

Despite all that, Lin Yi still went out to flirt with other girls- unacceptable! Mengyao was pissed off at Lin Yi for ignoring them completely!

This was something Mengyao couldn’t tolerate as a Miss, who was Tangyin anyway? She didn’t even have the right to be their opponent in the slightest. How could both of them lose to Tangyin? Either, Lin Yi was blind or both of them, Mengyao and Yushu weren’t alluring enough.

“Yaoyao, how’s Yi in school? Was he able to catch up in the class? If he isn’t able to follow, you and Shu should help him out, after all, he just transferred to this school, tutoring might be needed,” Pengzhan said randomly.

“Huh? What?” Mengyao was still bad-mouthing Lin Yi internally- she didn’t realise her dad was talking to her until her father started staring at her again.

“Haha, Yaoyao, what are you thinking? You’ve been in your own world for quite some time,” Pengzhan asked with a laugh.

“Nothing..... I’m not thinking about anything,” Mengyao flushed.

“Woohoo, Sir, I’ve got a report. I know what Yaoyao sis is thinking!” Yushu raised her hand like they were in the classroom, and she was the student.

“Owh? Shu, tell me about it,” Pengzhan was in a good mood so he asked Yushu.

“Yaoyao was thinking about love!” Yushu said solemnly.

“Thinking about love?” Pengzhan was taken back- he didn’t know he should be laughing or crying, “Yaoyao, why are you thinking about love?”

“SHU! I’M GONNA KILL YOU!” Mengyao didn’t want to admit it but Yushu had hit a jackpot- this made her frustrated! Besides, she wasn’t thinking about love- she only wanted Lin Yi to care about her, was that considered as love?”

“Woohoo, Yaoyao is going on a rampage....” Yushu was startled and started running away.

“Hahaha.....” Pengzhan was used to the girls fighting- they had been fighting since young after all. Yushu always dared to speak about anything she desired, and while Pengzhan had witnessed her bravery, he didn’t mind at all.

Lin Yi could only shake his head when this happened. Yushu was still Yushu in every occasion, her attitude never changed.

Naturally, Mengyao couldn’t afford to let herself run loose- she was also used to Yushu’s idiocy already so she stayed where she was and it wasn’t like she could just leave the dining table when her dad was around, could she?

“Dad, don’t listen to Shu, she was the one thinking about love!” Mengyao was afraid of creating misunderstandings so she quickly explained to her father.

Pengzhan was once again taken back, if Mengyao had just left the topic aside without explaining, he wouldn’t be suspicious but now that she had explained herself- Pengzhan could no longer just ignore that, could he? Normally, Mengyao would just ignore Yushu’s joke, and she wouldn’t even bother explaining.

But, it was different today, she even explained with her face flushed- Pengzhan found something was up but he wasn’t going to ask her directly in the dining table, he decided to ask her privately after the feast.

“Well, Lin Yi, I heard that Zhong Pinliang’s kidney was taken, what actually happened? Is this event somehow connected to you?” Pengzhan changed the topic.

Although, Zhong Fabai didn’t want to announce his son’s misfortune, people with some backgrounds in SongShan City were well informed.

All of them were discussing about the misfortune. Who did this to Zhong Pinliang? How heartless could this guy be?

“Nope, but I think that it has something to do with An Jianwen,” Lin Yi told Jianwen the details about the kidnapping and the next day his kidney was taken so Lin Yi assumed that it was Jianwen’s doing.

But what concerned Lin Yi was why An Jianwen chose to cut Zhong Pinliang’s kidney? He remembered that Lingshan mentioned about the organ-trafficking crime organization and he even had firsthand experience in sabotaging the next of the crime syndicate. Could it be that An Jianwen was part of that criminal organization?

“Uncle Chu, who is this An Jianwen actually? His house seems to have some connection with you guys,” Lin Yi asked.

“An Jianwen’s house was very powerful in SongShan before, their business was massive and through business, our Houses got to know each other, so our relationship wasn’t that bad either. An Jianwen was the youngest son in House An and he was on pretty good terms with Yaoyao at that time....” Pengzhan continued, “They could be considered as childhood friends....”

“Who’s his childhood friend?” Mengyao suddenly interrupted him as if she didn’t want people to misunderstand their relationship.

But after finishing her comment, she felt weird- why was she explaining? So what if they were childhood friends?

Chapter 600: Can’t Kick Him Out

Can’t Kick Him Out

“Hahaha, anyway you guys played together when you were small,” Pengzhan looked at her daughter dotingly and said with a smile, “But, I heard that House An got themselves a strong backer after that, and they were moved to Donghai. Since then, An Jianwen became the person in charge of their business here, though he had just returned from overseas.”

Mengyao stared at Lin Yi- this guy wasn’t paying her any attention at all. He didn’t even care if An Jianwen and her were childhood friends. How could he not show any concern for her?

In the end, Lin Yi’s reply just tore a hole in her chest- he didn’t even give two shits about the “childhood friend” topic.

Lin Yi only nodded, “Uncle Chu, have you heard of the organ trafficking crime organization? Some people call them, ‘the kidney removing organization’.”

“Kidney removing organization? Are you suspecting that An Jianwen is connected to this criminal organization?” Pengzhan frowned, “But, House An really did start some sort of illegal business after moving to Donghai and they became filthy rich in just a few years.”

“A little, otherwise why would An Jianwen have his kidney removed as punishment?” Lin Yi continued, “At the end, this is none of our business, as long as they don’t come to our doorstep.”

“Indeed, we should get as far away as possible from these people,” Pengzhan nodded, “Well, anyway, Lin Yi tell us about your injury- how did you get so badly injured? Yaoyao said that you were avenging your friend.”

Mengyao wasn’t able to thoroughly explain over the phone, so Pengzhan only knew that Lin Yi was fine before he came back.

Although Pengzhan hadn’t interacted with Lin Yi for a long time- he knew that Lin Yi was a capable person. He excelled in every mission from bank robbery to the kidnapping, so he had full trust in him.

If Lin Yi chose not to go to the hospital and heal by himself- Pengzhan believed that he was able to pull it off so he came back with no worries.

Since, Mengyao wasn't speaking clearly that time- she only said that Lin Yi was avenging a female student and got injured so Pengzhan didn't know that the female student was Lin Yi's girlfriend.

"Owh, I know all about this- Shield bro exploded, he was unable to contain his anger as he broke the legs of Master Bing!" Speaking about violence greatly excited Yushu, "It's a shame that I couldn't watch the live show!"

"Master Bing?" Pengzhan was , and looked to Lin Yi in shock: "The master Bing Shu is mentioning, wasn't Zhao Qibing, was he..?"

"It's him," Lin Yi nodded.

"How did you cross him?" Pengzhan couldn't help but smile bitterly, "Yi, this Master Bing isn't normal, I heard that he's the bastard son of a very powerful figure, they are all overwhelmingly strong, even Li Cihua is his follower...."

"Uncle Chu, don't worry. I'll never drag you guys down because of this, if Zhao Qibing holds this against you, just direct everyone he sends to me," Lin Yi said firmly without hesitation.

"Yi, what are you talking? How could I leave you to die when something ominous is happening to you?" Pengzhan thought that Lin Yi had the wrong idea- he became a little displeased.

"Haha, Uncle Chu, you have misunderstood my intention," Lin Yi smiled wryly, "What I meant was that I'm confident that I can iron out this issue."

"Alright, but I'm not going to ignore this," Pengzhan nodded- he realised that Lin Yi didn't mean to continue this conversation anymore so he stopped.

After the meal, Lin Yi and Uncle Fu handled the dining table, while Mengyao was called to a room alone with her father. After all, they hadn't met for quite a while, they had to spend time together as father and daughter.

"Yaoyao, how's your study?" Pengzhan sat himself on the sofa and asked casually.

"It's been fine Daddy, y'know I'm not a nerd and studying with Shu isn't boring at all. I don't feel any stress around her... it's just that we've got plenty of homeworks to do recently..." Mengyao was a smart girl and Yushu was too- both of them were happy go lucky people that were just going through twelveth grade.

"That's good. Basically, you can enter any university you wish with my money, but if you were to get in with your own strength, the significance would be totally different.

"En, I know- I do not wish to use your name in getting into a university as well, people would surely look down on me if I did so," Mengyao said proudly.

From this point, it showed that Miss' true nature wasn't bad- she was just a little arrogant but she was completely different from those young masters and mistresses. Some young masters were proud that their families were rich-their families were able to send their heirs to university without needing good grades, building on the young masters' cockiness, and delighted their vanities when they needed to boast.

"Right, how's Lin Yi? Is everything okay with him around?" Pengzhan asked.

"Ahh... Lin Yi huh....." Mengyao clenched her teeth, "Daddy, that guy is a jerk!"

"Jerk? How is he a jerk?" Pengzhan startled.

"He..... he....has been flirting around! He's supposed to be my follower and following me around but he found himself a girlfriend in school, now the school has become a total chaos....." Mengyao said with hatred, "He isn't fit to be my follower, his private life is a complete mess and he doesn't follow my orders! And right, she's the one Lin Yi was avenging. Such an undisciplined follower!"

"Ah? Such a jerk!" Pengzhan shook his head after listening to Mengyao, "It seems that Lin Yi truly is a hateful jerk!"

"I know right, daddy, you think so too?" Mengyao was over the moon to see her father siding with her.

"En, you are absolutely correct!" Pengzhan nodded and said with a serious face, "If that's the case, I shall fire him right now, we can't let that hateful jerk be around us, can we? Yaoyao, I'm going right now, just wait for daddy!"

Pengzhan stood up and walked to the door.

"Ugh....." Mengyao stunned, firing Lin Yi? Honestly, Mengyao only wanted to complain, the thought of firing Lin Yi didn't even reach her mind at all. She only wished that Pengzhan would pressure Lin Yi from flirting with other girls, kicking him out wasn't necessary!

Mengyao subconsciously stood up and blocked her father, "No!"
