Chapter 641: Zhong Pin Liang's Mission

Zhong Pingliang's Mission

Pinliang had the ultimate mission- he was going to poison the students today.

Although poisoning was a crime, he didn't feel burdened or guilty at all. To him, the more severe the crime was, the greater the excitement was as well! He had been waiting for the opportunity to leave an unforgettable mark in the school, so he was very glad to accept this job when he got it.

Now that his uncle was no longer the shareholder of this school, he didn't really care about its reputation anymore! His love for Mengyao transformed to hate. It was the same with Lin Yi.

With Jianwen patrolling around Mengyao, Pinliang knew that he was no match for his love rival, so his desire towards Mengyao died down eventually. He couldn't hit on Mengyao anymore, but that didn't mean that he didn't hate Mengyao! This time, he was certain he would make Chu Pengzhan pay. He would also give the proud Miss a good lesson.

It dawned upon him after he experienced tragedy. He woke up from his unreachable dream of hitting on Mengyao. The girl was obviously trolling him, playing with his feelings. She never had feelings for him before! Although Mengyao wasn't the one ordering him around like a clown, she didn't stop Yushu from doing it. This meant she was equally at fault!

The Misses and Lin Yi, Pinliang would never forgive them for his entire life! And there was Jianwen. Pinliang swore to make him pay when Naipao returned. The day that Naipao returned would be Jianwen's last day of living on this earth!

With the aid of Yaowang and Miracle Doctor Kang's Golden Creation, Pinliang's wound was more or less healed. He was perfectly fine, although, missing a kidney.

However, things weren't looking good for Pinliang's return. He felt that his schoolmates were all looking strangely. It was as if they were laughing at his lost kidney. Pinliang didn't know if he was being too sensitive right now or everyone really was laughing at him. Either way, he was displeased at the atmosphere!

The humiliation was just too much!

At this point, Pinliang was no longer the same Pinliang they used to know. He matured after the misfortune and learned a simple lesson. If he wanted revenge, he needed power. He needed strength before he could deal with people like Lin Yi. He couldn't just charge in by force. It would be a futile and foolish act.

Of course, he wasn't going to give up his revenge on Lin Yi. All he had to do was a scheme in the dark. He didn't think Lin Yi and Pengzhan could handle his mental attack. They were destined to fall apart mentally, someday!

The last period of the morning class ended. Pinliang and Xiaofu decided to use this chance to skip class and carry on with their mission. Pinliang didn't hide this mission from Xiaofu, as he was Pinliang's right-hand man. He had done a few numbers of pretty nasty things as well, so he wasn't stupid enough to betray Pinliang by exposing his mission to the school.

"Liang bro, so all we have to do is to spread this thing on the baskets of vegetables in the canteen?" Xiaofu asked while holding a few tiny bottles in his hand.

"Yeah, I'll scatter four and you scatter three. We'll carry this mission out separately so we won't attract too much of attention!" Pinliang said.

"But is this thing really effective? Liang bro?" Xiaofu didn't believe that the bottles he held were harmless alone, but deadly when mixed together.

"Of course. Did you know that this poison was mixed by a legendary master? This poison is called the Deadly Seven Herbs Poison. It's mixed with seven types of herbs. It had unique features as well. It was both colorless and odorless. It's totally harmless if we only consumed one of the seven herbs, but when mixed together, the seven herbs become a deadly poison. It's an ideal way to assassinate people without them knowing!" Pinliang explained cockily.

"F, that effective? Meaning all of them will die after consuming the Deadly Seven Herbs Poison?" Xiaofu was astonished.

"Exactly. Even with the help of forensics, I highly doubt that they could find the missing pieces because examining only one dish wouldn't show any signs of toxicity! I don't think that the hospital has a remedy for the poison, either. Poisoned students can only wait and die in vain!" Pinliang said.

"But, there's no harm to Chu Pengzhan, right? Even if forensics fails to find the cause of the outbreak... why would people think that the school is responsible for it? The food they examined should be harmless too, which would make the school innocent from this outbreak."

"Idiot! Do you know what terrifies people most?" Pinliang said with disdain, "It's the unknown. People fear unknown the most! Why are people afraid of ghosts? Because a ghost is a part of the unknown. No one has seen the face of a ghost before, and that's what frightens them the most! It is the same thing. If the forensics found the cause of the poison, then what happens to Chu Pengzhan's reputation. He would be the victim, and he could pretty much just spend some money to settle the case and the public would call him a good guy! Nothing would happen to him at all. Conversely, what do you think would happen when the forensics can't find the cause of the outbreak?"

"Oh, you're right!" Xiaofu realized, "The food is harmless but the students are poisoned. That is indeed terrifying!"

"That's why, before the mystery is solved, no parents would dare leave their children in the school. What if it happens again? Things wouldn't look good for Pengzhan if the parents of the students started to form an alliance and quit school!" Pinliang continued, "As for those students that died in vain because of the poison, do you think that their parents would just let Chu Pengzhan off so easily? Their children died for no reasons, and even the hospital couldn't figure out the source of the poison. There's no way the parents would just ignore this issue. And, the only thing they can do is to put all the blame on Chu Pengzhan! Hehe! You're dead now Chu Pengzhan!"

“Oh, I see! Your plan is perfect, Liang bro!” Xiaofu praised.

“Okay, it’s time to spread the poison now. The cafeteria should be done preparing their food.” Pinliang good after listening to Xiaofu’s praise.

Before Gubang was kicked out of the board of shareholders, Pinliang was the cafeteria’s regular customer. He used to have his meal first before the others.

He always skipped class, so there was no point for him to wait until the last period before entering the cafeteria. Besides, he was the niece of one of the shareholders, so the manager of the cafeteria didn’t have the balls to offend him. As long as Pinliang paid for the food he ordered, he didn’t really mind giving him food first. It was all the same. There was no loss.

Pinliang came to the cafeteria just like before, bringing Xiaofu along with him. The cafeteria’s door was still closed since it wasn’t operation hour yet, so he knocked on the door. After a short while, they heard the sound of footsteps and someone opened the door. The worker saw that it was only Pinliang so he opened the door and let him in.

Although Gubang was kicked out of the board, not many people knew about it, only the higher ranking executives were informed. Obviously, the people working in the canteen were clueless about it. They didn’t dare to oppose him.

“Master Zhong, you came! It’s been a while since you’ve visited the canteen!” the people in the canteen flattered Pinliang. These people were at the bottom of the social pyramid, after all. Getting the approval of the young masters like Pinliang was necessary. Who knew if the young masters would mention their names to their parents and recommend them for a better job?

Chapter 642: Poisoning the Canteen

Poisoning the Canteen

The cafeteria workers were so enthusiastic when they treated him. They must have not gotten the latest news regarding his uncle.

He dropped his concerns and raised his hand, “I’ve been eating outside recently. Please continue your job and I’ll head to the kitchen and have a look at the menu today like usual!”

“Alright, Master Zhong!” the worker nodded and continue on their work.

It wasn’t the first time Pinliang entered the kitchen, so they didn’t really care about it. Besides, the cafeteria wasn’t open. The dishes weren’t served yet so no matter he still had to enter the kitchen to pick the dishes he wanted.

Pinliang pushed open the kitchen door to see only one chef. He let out a breath of relief instantly! It was a rare occasion to see the kitchen to be this empty. Normally, it was filled with people, from helper to chef. However, it was different for today. They were almost done the food preparation so most of them went out of the kitchen to help get ready for the business.

To cut down the expenses, normally, a school cafeteria wouldn't hire as many workers as a normal restaurant, so most of the workers there were just part-timers.

Pinliang acted as if it were his own home when he walked into the kitchen and asked the only chef there, "How's the food going? Anything good today?"

The chef turned back to see Pinliang. He didn't like young masters like Pinliang very much but since he was working in their territory, even if he had skills, he couldn't just ignore him. He knew that Pinliang could just get him fired easily and find a replacement. His skills weren't very important here.

The chef replied, "Almost done. Left the last one stewed spare ribs with potatoes. The rest are prepared. Have a look at them yourself."

"Oh, then let me try the stewed spare ribs with potatoes first!" Pinliang walked towards the chef and looked into the pot, "Go get me a bowl, I can help you with the taste!"

"Okay, wait for me!" the chef had no choice but to obey Pinliang. He turned back and went out of the kitchen to another room. The utensils were stored in the disinfection room right beside the kitchen.

Pinliang waited until the chef gone, took out the bottle from his pocket, opened it, and started pouring the powder herb into the pot.

Meanwhile, Xiaofu started putting the powder into other dishes as well.

Since the disinfection of the utensils was still going on, the chef had to turn off the disinfection cabinet before he could retrieve the bowl. So, it took him quite some time before he returned to the kitchen. It was more than enough time for Pinliang and Xiaofu to complete their mission.

The school normally prepared six dishes with soup. It was just the right amount for the seven herbs. The poison would not work if one of the herbs was missing, so this was a success for their mission.

In fact, a student ordering a full set lunch, including the six dishes and soup, was few and far between. Unless that student was incredibly rich, no one would ever do that!

However, many students shared their food among their close friends. They couldn't afford to buy all the food by themselves so they separated the food in equal portions among their friends so everyone could enjoy the privilege of savoring a variety of food, and at the same time, they would be saving money. This was a pretty common culture in this school so there was a greater probability of students getting poisoned.

When the chef returned with the bowl in his hand, Pinliang was already standing in his previous position, next to the pot with stewed spare ribs with potatoes. Pinliang was displeased, "What took you so long?!"

"The bowl was in the disinfection cabinet. It takes some time to get them out!" the chef smiled wryly. "Master Zhong, please enjoy."

"Hmph, make it quick!" Pinliang nodded and pointed at the pot, "Get this rib. Then, I want this rib with extra fats!"

The chef hurriedly picked out the spareribs that Pinliang had his eyes set on.

Pinliang hungrily took down the spareribs. “Gosh, this is delicious. Get us two sets of stewed spareribs with potatoes and also the egg soup, get us two portions!”

“One dish and one soup?” the chef looked at Pinliang again for confirmation. After all, this was Pinliang’s first time ordering so little, he normally ordered all of them or at least four dishes. It took the chef by surprise, he had never seen Pinliang ordering only so little!

“The other dishes suck. I don’t like them! Faster, get me more meat!” Pinliang lost his patience.

“Okay, okay.” the chef realized that his question was pretty dumb. Obviously, Pinliang didn’t like the other dishes. That’s why he didn’t order them! He hastily prepared two portions of stewed spareribs with potatoes and egg soup and placed them at the table outside. Meanwhile, Pinliang and Xiaofu took the two buns from the kitchen and went out of the kitchen.

“Liang bro, I thought that the food is poisonous. Are you sure we should be eating these?” Xiaofu was frightened. He refrained himself from touching the food and asked, “Are we going to die?”

Pinliang angered, “F, I would have died if the food isn’t safe to eat!”

“Oh, but what about the egg soup. Will we get poisoned if we have that?” Xiaofu was still worrying about the food.

“Idiot, do you think I would eat if the food was poisonous?!” Pinliang glared at Xiaofu, “Yaowang said that eating only two isn’t poisonous. In fact, it will strengthen our kidney and improve overall health!”

“Oh, I see....” Xiaofu nodded, but he was still intimidated by the food, unable to touch them in the slightest.

“Eat! We are here to poison people. If we aren’t eating anything before we leave, people will get suspicious of us, won’t they?” Pinliang said and started eating up.

Xiaofu didn’t have a choice. He forced himself to wolf down the food. After a few bites, he found that the food wasn’t half bad at all and his body wasn’t reacting to anything bad, either! He let out a big breath of relief and gulped down the remaining soup....

After finishing their meal, Pinliang and Xiaofu took their leave swiftly. They were here to poison people, after all. They shouldn’t be staying any longer.

“Boss, what’s in your mind?” Xiaobo asked. After the morning class, Xiaobo turned his head to find a frowning Lin Yi, sulking.

This was the twelve grader’s last and most important semester. Their grades depended greatly on their effort now. Every second they spent was very crucial to their future, so Xiaobo wasn’t wasting a second of it. Other than greeting Lin Yi in the morning, he had been burying his head in books.

“Nothing, let’s go grab something to eat?” Lin Yi was thinking of an excuse to get close to Jianwen to get information about Lingshan.

Although Lin Yi had agreed to help Huaijun, he still couldn’t find a way to rescue Lingshan. Things would be completely different if he was still an assassin, but he couldn’t just kill him off like how he used to, could he? Even if he could, he shouldn’t involve Lingshan into the mess.

“Let’s go.” Xiaobo nodded, “Did you call sis-in-law to join us?”

Chapter 643: In a Difficult Position

In a Difficult Position

“No, I’ll call her now.” Lin Yi walked out of the classroom with Xiaobo. When Lin Yi was about to call Tang Yin, they saw Xinwen and Tang Yin coming out of class nine. Lin Yi smiled lightly and put down his phone and strolled towards the girls’ direction along with Xiaobo, “Shall we head to the cafeteria together?”

“Yeah,” Tang Yin rearranged her hair and nodded lightly. The scar on her forehead had vanished completely. It was as if she never had a wound there before.

“Lin Yi, I heard that you broke Zhao Qibing’s legs?” Xinwen had a sense of justice against bullies. She found that Lin Yi was badass and admirable! She had wanted to smash Qibing and cut him into pieces ever since he landed his feet into the slums, but Xinwen was no idiot. She knew that she couldn’t just charge right towards Qibing. He had strong masters with him after all. It would be suicidal to just confront him like that.

Tang Yin’s disfigurement had triggered Xinwen too, but she considered her anger released thanks to Lin Yi breaking Qibing’s legs. She had wanted to ask Lin Yi about the details since then, but he was injured that night and Tang Yin was also fighting with Mengyao and Yushu the same day, so she couldn’t find a good opening for her questions.

“Yeah, I broke them, and his skyscraper is also my doing. I asked my man to level it to the ground.” Lin Yi said lightly. He didn’t find this punishment heavy at all. In fact, he was generous enough to spare his life.

“F! Aren’t you way too badass? The news said that the building was leveled because of its stability and quality.” Naturally, Xinwen was well informed about the skyscraper, but little did she know that it was all Lin Yi’s doing. She had doubted it before when she watched the news on TV. She knew that Qibing wasn’t an honest developer, but who would sabotage their own company by rendering the quality of their building, anyway? Only an idiot would do that! However, it wasn’t that case after all. The truth dawned upon her, “Well it’s for a good cause. I bet nobody would want to buy their properties anymore. Ha!”

Xiaobo, on the other hand, was puzzled, but when he was told about the event, he didn’t seem to be surprised in the slightest. After all, he knew Lin Yi better than anyone here. Lin Yi was merciless towards his enemies and he had witnessed his ruthlessness a couple of times before. This wasn’t something that would make him in awe anymore.

Out of a sudden, Xinwen slowed down her pace and paused as she lowered her voice, “Lin Yi, your boss is right in front of us...”

Lin Yi had known about that from the beginning. He only shrugged his shoulders when Xinwen mentioned that out.

“Xinwen, stop it.” Tang Yin pulled on the edge of Xinwen’s shirt, stopped her from continuing what she was saying. Tang Yin didn’t want Xinwen to mention Mengyao or else people might think that she was afraid of her.

While Xinwen was talking about Mengyao, Yushu on the opposite side was talking about Tang Yin too.

“Yaoyao sis, according to my latest information, shield bro and Tang Yin are just right behind of us!” Yushu whispered, “Yaoyao sis, what’s our next plan?”

“Do you have any ideas?” Mengyao furrowed her eyebrows.

Yushu thought about it and suggested, “He’s our follower, we can order him to have lunch with us later and get him to protect us by our side!”

Mengyao hesitated and didn’t comment about it. She didn’t reject or accept Yushu’s suggestion and walked into the cafeteria. “Go get us some food. Order for more.”

“Oh, Yaoyao sis, are you trying to ask Shield bro to eat with us later?” Yushu asked.

“Don’t ask so many questions. Get going!” Mengyao replied.

Yushu went and ordered every set of dishes with three bowls of egg soup. It was just the right amount of food for Lin Yi’s appetite. All of the students knew about Yushu, so when she went to order food, nobody was there to block her. In fact, they opened up a path so that she could quickly get her food. She returned to the table with all the food unnaturally fast.

Lin Yi and his gang came in when Yushu returned, “Lin Yi!, You come over here!” Mengyao ordered.

Initially, Mengyao had wanted to make Yushu call Lin Yi over, but after seeing Tang Yin beside Lin Yi, she couldn’t contain herself anymore. She remembered the war that she declared to Tang Yin and it made her angry.

Lin Yi wasn’t expecting the Miss to call him all of a sudden. This startled him a little and looked at Tang Yin with an apologetic face.

Tang Yin’s face soured. She couldn’t believe that Mengyao was doing this in school. She even had a demanding tone! This made her uneasy. Even if Lin Yi was working under Mengyao, couldn’t she have been a little politer?

Although Lin Yi was helpless, he still walked towards the Misses with Tang Yin following behind. Tang Yin was afraid and nervous, but she was trying her best not to show her weakness in front of the Miss. She held onto Xinwen’s hand and raised her head high and proud.

“You, sit here. Eat with us!” Mengyao pointed at the seat beside Yushu.

“I.....” Lin Yi smiled wryly. He couldn’t just abandon Tang Yin, could he?

Tang Yin felt wronged. She was pissed and glared daggers at Mengyao. She didn’t know why Mengyao had to be this bossy! As far as she was concerned, Mengyao was directing her anger directly at her!”

“Even if Lin Yi is your follower, he can have his rest time during the break, right?” Xinwen was displeased. She was different from Tang Yin, she would never keep quiet when she faced this kind of situation.

“He has to protect us, even during the break!” Mengyao hmped.

“Yeah, what if someone was trying to assassinate during the break? Try to poison us?” Yushu naturally stood up for Mengyao when facing the threat. She commented immediately when Mengyao spoke up.

Tang Yin remained silent and bit her lips while looking at Lin Yi.

However, Tang Yin’s silence made Lin Yi want to stay by her side even more. He couldn’t bear to see this side of Tang Yin.....

The Miss and Tang Yin were totally fine when they didn’t know about each other. Who knew things would be this different after they both met each other!

Lin Yi was helpless. He was in a difficult position. He didn’t know what to do. One was his boss and the other was his girlfriend. Things were complicated here.

Lin Yi’s phone rang. This relaxed Lin Yi a little. The timing couldn’t be anymore better. He was troubled and was stuck between a girls’ fight. It wasn’t a bad idea to change the atmosphere by answering the phone.

Looking at the phone’s screen, Lin Yi smiled lightly. He got lucky this time. His biggest problem was solved. He didn’t have to wreck his brain for reasons to look for Jianwen anymore because Jianwen had taken initiative to look for him first.

“Hello?” Lin Yi was testing the water. After all, Jianwen left the dinner angrily yesterday so he didn’t know what Jianwen was trying to accomplish now by calling him.

Chapter 644: The Wine is Safe to Drink, Right?

The Wine is Safe to Drink, Right?

“Where are you, bro?” Jianwen sounded calm. There was no trace of anger in his tone. However, this only made Lin Yi more concerned.

“I’m in school. An bro, are you looking for me?” Lin Yi smiled coldly inside. Jianwen was definitely looking for trouble.

“Hehe, I drank too much yesterday. Please excuse me if I wasn’t being myself last night!” Jianwen smiled, “Are you free? Mind grabbing some lunch with me?”

“Now?” Lin Yi asked.

“Yeah, I’m just right in front of the middle school gate. Would you join me for lunch?” Jianwen smiled as he asked.

“Sure, wait for me right there. I’m coming!” Lin Yi couldn’t be anymore happier at his invitation. This call had saved him out from his troubles. If only Jianwen wasn’t actually holding grudges against him, he would be very grateful for him.

After ended the call, Lin Yi faced to Mengyao and Tang Yin, “I’ve got something to settle for a while, perhaps you guys can start first?”

“Oh, shield bro. Did you set an alarm beforehand just so you could avoid eating with us?” Yushu asked.

“Ha, it’s An Jianwen.” Lin Yi had gotten used to Yushu’s antics as he replied honestly.

Mengyao didn’t say anything since Lin Yi had his own stuff to settle. She, naturally, wouldn’t stop him.

“Be careful,” she reminded.

Tang Yin, on the other hand, let out a sigh of relief. Lin Yi didn’t have to pick either one of them now. In fact, Tang Yin was pretty nervous about it. Mengyao was Lin Yi’s boss, after all. If she were to insist and order Lin Yi to sit with them, no matter how depressed Tang Yin would be, she could look at a bigger picture and wouldn’t force Lin Yi to be at her side.

Despite that, Tang Yin would still be unhappy at that result. It would feel like she had lost a match to Mengyao. But now that Lin Yi had something to deal with, he didn’t have to pick a side and could pretty much make sure this situation didn’t happen again.

“It’s okay. Go do your job. I’ll be fine myself.” Tang Yin gave a light smile and forced herself to look happy and proud.

“Ordering so much, aren’t you just wasting food?” Xinwen looked at Mengyao and glanced at the food on the table. “No one is eating with you guys now. Such a waste!”

“We can eat this ourselves, can’t we?” Mengyao faced Yushu, “Shu, both of us will finish all the food here!”

“Oh.... but I’m scared of eating too much now, or else I’ll puke like the last time!” Yushu chickened out when she remembered her previous misfortune.

“Fine, I’ll eat them all myself!” Mengyao didn’t want to lose her dignity in front of Tang Yin and Xinwen. She took the chopsticks and started eating.

Xinwen curled her lips and pulled Tang Yin to the next table along with Xiaobo.

Meanwhile, Xiaobo was watching the drama with an open mouth. It wasn’t until Xinwen pulled on him that he said, “Boss..... And them?” He was flabbergasted.

Xiaobo was never told about the complicated relationship of Lin Yi, Mengyao and Yushu before, so he was lost at the moment. Xinwen walked him to the table and explained things to him.

Lin Yi stepped out of school grounds and saw Jianwen’s car parked at the side. Jianwen honked twice and stretched his head out of the window, “Lin Yi bro, over here!”

Lin Yi got into the car, and Jianwen pressed on the pedal, "I'm truly sorry about yesterday, I wasn't being myself after drinking too much. Let's go grab something, shall we?"

"Anything" Lin Yi knew Jianwen must be planning something. He could see the flash of hatred in Jianwen's eyes after Yushu's provocation. Lin Yi knew that Jianwen had already classified him as his love rival.

But, Lin Yi was too lazy to explain. He didn't come to talk about this, after all. He was here for Lingshan. He wanted to dig some information out from Jianwen.

Jianwen nodded, "Let's go to Starlight hotel then. Just the two of us. We can have a man to man talk."

On their way to the hotel, Jianwen spoke once in a while, but he never touched on the main subject. Lin Yi nonchalantly replied back as well. Soon, the car was parked at the hotel's carpark, the duo came down from the car, and under Jianwen's guidance, they came to a room, a room smaller than yesterday's.

Evidently, Jianwen had everything planned out beforehand. The wines were already placed on the dining table, and when both of them were seated, the delicacies were immediately brought out.

"Lin Yi Lil bro, I, as the big brother here, will give you a toast as an apology for not behaving well yesterday!" Jianwen raised up his cup and drank down.

Lin Yi didn't raise his cup. Instead, he waited until Jianwen finished his wine as he asked, "An bro, is everything alright?"

"Yes.... but Lin Yi Lil bro, let's drink up, and we'll talk about that later!" Jianwen poured Lin Yi a cup of wine, and poured his cup full: "Come, let's drink!"

Lin Yi nodded and raised his cup, but his jade had a reaction to it instantly, sending him signals of danger.

Lin Yi smiled coldly inside. Jianwen was really plotting something evil, but he wasn't trying to expose him. Nevertheless, he still raised his cup, tasted a little of the wine, put back down the cup, and started thinking of a counter plan.

Jianwen used a pretty common drug in the market. Once the effect of the drug had taken place, the person would experience dizziness and soon lose consciousness.

The strength of the mystic class was not strong enough to force the poison out of the body with their internal forces. Without the help of needles, Lin Yi was certain that he would be unable to remove all the poison out from his system. So naturally, he wouldn't be so stupid to just drink down the whole glass of wine knowing that it was harmful to him.

This drug was very frequently used. Lin Yi, himself, was able to neutralize the effect of the drug with his own antidote. During his old days in Africa's virgin forest, there were a lot of herbs and bugs that had the same effect as this drug. It was dangerous to not bring his antidote around in the old days, but now that he was in the city, those situations didn't exist anymore. Unfortunately, this meant that he did not bring any with him now. He lamented a little for not carrying his antidote with him like he used to.

“What’s wrong, Lin Yi lil bro, can’t you just give me some respect and drink the wine?” Jianwen panicked when he saw Lin Yi putting down the cup instead of drinking all down.

“Ha, what’s wrong?” Jianwen paused, but his face remained solemn as he waved his hand: “Didn’t I drink this just now? It’s from the same bottle, if the wine is not safe to drink, I would be in trouble first, right? Say, I sincerely want to have a proper man’s talk with you today. Why would I lie to you?”

Chapter 645: Lin Yi Fainted

Lin Yi Fainted

“Really?” Lin Yi asked in disbelief. “The cup has no problem.... Right?”

“I say, Lin Yi lil bro, aren’t you being overly cautious!” Jianwen smiled and shook his head: “But it’s okay, if you think that the problem lies in the cup then let’s switch our cups. You use mine and I’ll use yours? I’ll drink your cup of wine too without changing, what do you think?”

“Okay....” Lin Yi stood up and walked towards Jianwen with the cup in his hand when he was at the side of Jianwen, he rested his another hand on Jianwen’s shoulder as in like he was unable to stand straight properly, staring at the cup in front of Jianwen for a while, only then he exchanged his cup with Jianwen and returned to his own seat.

“Lin Yi lil bro, what you did, actually hurt my face greatly. As your big brother I have never had the intention of harming you in the slightest, but you doubted me... never mind, let’s drink up!” Jianwen gulped down the wine in the next second.

To tell the truth, the wine was actually drugged, but Jianwen had consumed the antidote beforehand, so the knockout drops was ineffective to him.

“It seems like it was my bad this time,” Lin Yi laughed at himself and raised his cup of wine but there was something in between his fingers now- it was some kind of a pill that he had found in Jianwen’s pocket. The pill was stored in a small bottle in his pocket.

Lin Yi licked the pill between his fingers. Confirming that it was the antidote of the knockout drug, only then he consumed it with the wine.

Clearly, with the antidote in his hand, Lin Yi had saved plenty of energy that would have been expended finding his way around the drug. Worse came to worst, he would have to secretly use his needles while drinking the wine.

Although, he didn’t always have the antidote with him, he would never leave the needles aside.

Jianwen smiled secretly when Lin Yi finally gave in to his scheme. You might be cunning but never would you expect me to learn from my mistakes, right? I didn’t only put the drugs in your cup but in all of them! The issue here was that I’d taken the antidote beforehand so I wouldn’t be affected!

“Lin Yi lil bro, actually your brother, me, is in love of Chu Mengyao. Since you are aware of it, I won’t explain so much to you. The point of inviting you today is to get your answer, I just want to make sure of the relationship you and Mengyao share?” No matter how much Jianwen wanted to fuck Lin Yi up, he still wished to know the truth behind their relationship.

“Ha, didn’t I tell you before? Just employer and employee,” Lin Yi said lightly.

“But, what Yushu said was totally different though...” Jianwen was slightly pissed when Lin Yi denied the claim- Mengyao didn’t deny nor confirm their relationship yesterday, that was what troubled Jianwen the most. As far as he was concerned, the relationship between Lin Yi and Mengyao wasn’t that simple.

“She always acts like that, didn’t you know?” Lin Yi shrugged his shoulder and asked back.

“Really? It seems like Lin Yi lil bro, you are still treating me as an outsider here, why can’t you be honest with me!” Jianwen got even irritated when Lin Yi didn’t want to admit to anything, “Brother, I ain’t no unreasonable person, if you and Mengyao are really a couple and Mengyao is happy and content with that, I’ll give you my blessing!”

“Thanks then, at the very least we don’t have any impure relationship as of yet. I can’t guarantee if we will have one in the future, either,” Lin Yi wasn’t trying to hide the fact from Jianwen, it wasn’t needed anyway.

Lin Yi followed and clinked his cup Jianwen’s lightly. Seeing the time was almost up for the effect of the drug to take place, Lin Yi used his hand to cover his forehead, “An bro, there’s something wrong with this wine. Why am I feeling dizzy all of a sudden?”

“Impossible, this is the same Lafite we had drunk last night, how is it impossible?” Jianwen was delighted to see the effect taking place- on the outside, he acted like it was absurd, but on the inside, he was over the moon.

Jianwen wanted to point his fingers at Lin Yi and laugh at him out loud. He wanted to make him realise that he had messed with the wrong person, to fight for Mengyao with him?

I shall cut your kidney out, and see if you still have the strength to fight!

However, Jianwen didn’t have the balls to do that straight away- he knew Lin Yi’s true strength, he was at least a golden class master and was not a person he should mess with unless he was truly vulnerable. Who knew if he would make a sudden outburst at the last second before he lost his consciousness- that would be a great loss to him if that happened.

“But... I’m feeling very light-headed right now...” he fainted the moment he finished his last sentence.

Lin Yi was an expert in medicine so he knew everything about the drug from the top to bottom. At that time, he was supposed to act like an intoxicated person, which of course it wouldn’t be hard at all for him. Even Jianwen failed to find any shortcomings with his acting. Furthermore, this drug was placed by Jianwen, so naturally, he wouldn’t suspect Lin Yi here in this situation.

Looking at the fainted Lin Yi, Jianwen couldn’t be any happier. He quickly took out his phone and called the tattooed guy who had been waiting outside the room from the beginning.

“Come in, he has lost consciousness, help me get him out!” Jianwen only gave an order and ended the call as soon as he was done.

Not long, the tattooed guy came in, “Wen bro, is it settled?”

“En, done, get him out for me,” Jianwen stood up and pointed at Lin Yi who had fainted on the table.

The tattooed guy nodded, and both of them, one on the left, and another on the right, carried Lin Yi out of the room together.

Although, the hotel was filled with customers and waiters, no one noticed Jianwen and the tattooed guy. After all, many came here to drink and of course, there were countless of drunks everyday, some were carried out, some were assisted, some were dragged on the floor, and some were nestled out... no one would notice if Lin Yi was just drunk or actually drugged.

“Lin Yi, you never saw this coming right? Fighting against me? I shall let you have a taste of losing one kidney!” After getting into the car, Jianwen threatened Linyi while glaring daggers at his still body lying on the backseat.

“Wen bro, removing his kidney... it wouldn't bring us any trouble, would it? Since he will surely find out that it's your doing after the event, will he report this to the police?” the tattooed guy couldn't put his mind at ease as he thought about the possibilities of getting caught. After all, Lin Yi knew Jianwen and after losing one of his kidneys- Lin Yi would only suspect Jianwen in this case.

“Nah, he won't. This kid is no good guy himself, he has taken lives like us. I doubt he will report this to the police!” Jianwen didn't believe that Lin Yi would report this event to the police because like what Li Cihua had mentioned, the two golden class masters were both dead under Lin Yi's hand.

“Besides, if he questions me, I'll just say that he was drunk and I left him in the hotel room, as for the culprit, I myself have no idea about it too. Besides, he wouldn't have any evidence to point his finger at us, either!”

The tattooed guy nodded- since Jianwen said that everything was going according to his plan, naturally, he wouldn't comment about it. He started the engine and drove off.

Lin Yi was awake from the beginning and had been listening to Jianwen and the tattooed guy's whole conversation. As expected, Jianwen was indeed connected to the kidney trafficking organization and now he was bringing Lin Yi to their HQ. This had saved Lin Yi plenty of time, getting closer to accomplishing his mission.

Chapter 646: Coincidence

Coincidence

Even if Jianwen wasn't bringing Lin Yi to the crime organization's HQ, Lin Yi would still find a way to follow him. But now that Jianwen himself was bringing Lin Yi over with his car, he didn't need to follow Jianwen anymore.

“Right, is Doctor Wang ready over there?” Jianwen asked.

“Everything is ready, and Doctor Wang is waiting in the operating room already. He can start as soon as the patient arrives!” the tattooed guy continued, “By the way, about the girl we caught yesterday, should we bring her to the operation room together later?”

“Oh, we don’t need to rush with that. Our top priority is dissecting Lin Yi now! We can leave Song Lingshan for later.” Jianwen’s hate towards Lin Yi had reached another level. “Is Song Lingshan awake?”

“She should be awake in any minute, shouldn’t she?” the tattooed guy calculated for a while before answering.

“Then what are you waiting for? Go get some drugs for her. She’s a golden class master y’know. Our prison door might be tougher than her, but who knows what could happen if she manages to get out?” Jianwen panicked.

“Yes, I’m on it!”, the tattooed guy jumped right out of his skin and quickly made a phone call to the sharp-nosed guy.

The sharp-nosed guy had returned to HQ last night. He was one of the favorite right-hand men of the tattooed guy, but he didn’t know of Jianwen. In fact, in the whole kidney trafficking organization, only the upper-class members like the tattooed guy and Doctor Wong knew about Jianwen at the tip of the pyramid.

“Huh? Drugs? Okay, I’ll do it right now!” the sharp-nosed guy startled lightly. What was the point of feeding her drugs, no less in their own area? No matter how loud the girl was, it was totally fine!

Yes! The sharp-nosed guy abruptly came to his senses. There was a variety of drugs in the market. Could he mean aphrodisiac? After thinking about it, the sharp-nosed guy thought the tattooed guy was talking about a love drug, right? Because at this moment, using other drugs didn’t seem to fit the condition.

Then, the sharp-nosed guy quickened his movements and went to do his job.

Meanwhile, Lin Yi who was at the back of the car heard everything. Getting information about Lingshan was a surprise to him. It was so convenient. Lingshan was locked in their prison. This was a piece of important news, indeed.

The car eventually slowed down and headed to a villa’s direction. Lin Yi had been staying unconscious since then.

After entering the manor, Lin Yi was transported on a stretcher and pushed into a place where the walls were all white, and devices could be seen resting at the corners.

Jianwen had already put on a mask, pretending to be a normal health care worker. His identity as the brain of the kidney trafficking organization shouldn’t be exposed, after all.

Lin Yi's fingertip was cut to extract some of his blood for testing. This was all part of Lin Yi's plan since these people couldn't pretty much do any harm to him. He had decided to just continue his act.

Lin Yi knew that before his kidney was cut, Lingshan should be safe, so he wasn't worried at all.

Soon, the health care workers left Lin Yi in the room, and only Jianwen and the tattooed guy were left with him.

Not long after, a guy with a white lab coat came in and handed the tattooed guy a report, "Boss, this kidney matches the other patient...."

"Oh?" the tattooed guy quickly snatched the report over, startled, and waved his hand to the guy, "You, get out now!"

"Yes!" the health care worker left the room.

"Wen bro, Lin Yi's kidney matches Zhong Pinliang's one completely. Is this a coincidence?" the tattooed guy handed the report to Jianwen and said with a surprising face.

"Oh? Perfect timing for me to pay back the favor. Go call Zhong Fabai to arrange the operation for his son right now!" Jianwen said excitedly. "Who could have thought that Zhong Pinliang lost his kidney because of Lin Yi. Now, Lin Yi's kidney is going to be his soon. Hahaha, what do we call this? It's karma!"

"Okay, Wen bro, I'll arrange the things now...." the tattooed guy nodded, "I'll get someone to change Lin Yi's cloth and push him into the operation room now?"

"Okay, you go get him changed first. I'll bring him to the operation room myself!" Jianwen stared at Lin Yi and uttered a cold breath.

The tattooed guy went out to contact Zhong Fabai for the kidney transplant operation while a group of workers went into the room and changed Lin Yi's cloth.

Jianwen, on the other hand, was sitting at the corner, staring at the vulnerable Lin Yi. There was an indescribable excitement flowing through his heart.

You dare to fight Mengyao with me? This is what you will get . It doesn't matter if it's Zhong Pinliang or Lin Yi. It's all the same!

For Jianwen to return a kidney back to Pinliang was all because of Zhao Qibing! Since he had given him enough punishments, he believed that Pinliang wouldn't hit on Mengyao anymore....

Looking at the crowd in the cafeteria excited Pinliang. He believed that these people would be sent to the hospital in no time. Just when Pinliang was about to report the good news to his father, his father called him first.

"Pinliang, where are you?" Fabai's tone was a little shaky. This was his son's first crime, after all. "Is everything going according to plan?"

"Dad, we are in the school's field. Rest assured, Xiaofu and I have successfully completed our mission!" Pinliang said proudly.

“Good!” Fabai let out a breath of relief: “Since you’ve completed your mission, I can report this good news to Master Bing now. Remember to be careful in school. Don’t allow anyone to get any pieces of evidence for your crime!”

“Don’t worry, we are acting pretty normal here!” Pinliang said leisurely.

Fabai nodded, ended the call and gave an “ok” sign to Cihua who was sitting beside him, “Pinliang has poisoned the food. Let’s just wait!”

“Not bad, Zhong Pinliang did well!” Cihua nodded: “I’ve made Master Bing greet with An Jianwen when we’ve got a suitable kidney for Zhong Pinliang. He will contact us right away. Don’t you worry. Master Bing will never treat his men badly!”

Chapter 647: Two Good News

Two Good News

“Okay, it’s all on Master Bing now!” Fabai nodded happily. In fact, if Cihua didn’t make this promise, Fabai would never allow his son to take on this risk. After all, he only had this one son, he didn’t want to see him in prison because of this stupid reason.

After the conversation ended, Cihua’s phone rang.

Cihua took out his phone and saw that Jianwen’s follower, the tattooed guy, was calling.

“Hello?” Cihua picked up the phone hurriedly. They were business partners, after all. Jianwen had brought him a sum of fortune monthly.

“Is this Cihua bro? It’s me, Wen bro said that we’ve found a suitable kidney for Zhong Pinliang. Please get him here now for the kidney transplant operation!” the tattooed guy said.

“Oh? Already? That’s great news. Many thanks!” Cihua couldn’t believe his luck! He had just promised Fabai regarding the kidney, and they already found a suitable kidney for Zhong Pinliang.

“No problem!” the tattooed guy continued, “After half an hour, I’ll send someone to the floating cloud bar to pick Zhong Pinliang. Cihua bro please help to make some arrangements over there!”

“Congratulation? What for?” Fabai paused. He wasn’t paying attention to what Cihua was talking over the phone, but now that Cihua suddenly congratulated him. Hope blossomed in his heart. The only possibility was....

“We’ve secured a suitable kidney for Zhong Pinliang. We can go on with the kidney transplant surgery right now!” Cihua continued: “An Jianwen will send someone to pick Pinliang up later at the floating cloud bar!”

“REALLY?!” Fabai said excitedly- he only had this one son, and this son of his had lost a kidney recently. The pressure had been taking a toll on him every day like a huge rock on his shoulder, but, as depressed as he was, he couldn't think of a solution for this problem. The only thing he could do was not to think about it.

However, there's something that couldn't be resolved by sitting idly. Accepting the risk of sending his son to poison the food in the school was all because of the promise made by Master Bing. He promised to find Pinliang a suitable kidney for transplantation if Pinliang would do the dirty work for him.

As for the probability of getting a matching kidney, it all depended on fate. Fabai had no control over it. His hopes were slim, but it was still better than nothing! Little did he know that Master Bing's was efficient. He had found his son a suitable kidney right after his son completed his mission!

"Master Bing would never treat his men badly!" Cihua said with a smile, "Following Master Bing is great!"

"Yeah, Master Bing is indeed a good boss!", Fabai said sincerely. He was, initially, afraid that Master Bing was only using him and thought that Master Bing wasn't taking him seriously, but things weren't what he expected. Master Bing was really doing his job properly and taking all of his men's problems into account. Fabai was devoted. He would never forget the help that Master Bing offered him, even if he was in the hospital bed with both of his legs broken. "Can I meet Master Bing now as a token of appreciation?"

"It's not needed. Master Bing is still probably resting right now!" Cihua waved his hand, "You should give your son a call first. An Jianwen's men will be here soon. Let's just focus on this first!"

"You're right!" Fabai found it reasonable. "I'll go pick Pinliang up now!"

However, Cihua's phone rang again before Fabai left. He took out his phone and glanced at the phone screen. It was the tattooed guy again. He made a gesture to Fabai indicating that he should stay for a bit.

"Hello? Tattooed bro, what's up?" Cihua picked up the phone.

"Haha, I forgot to tell you another piece good news, Cihua bro!" the tattooed guy grinned.

"Oh? What good news?" Cihua asked.

"Wen bro told me to inform Master Bing about the kidney. The owner of the kidney is Lin Yi." the tattooed guy said lightly.

"WHAT! LIN YI?!" Cihua was greatly astonished. Excitement rushed into his blood, "Really, tattooed bro, are you being serious here? Lin Yi was caught? You guys are removing his kidney?"

"Haha, Wen bro has a grudge against him, and it turned out his kidney is suitable for Zhong Pinliang!" The tattooed guy burst into laughter. "I heard that Master Bing and Cihua bro, both of you have grudges against him too, right?"

"Not just grudges. We are sworn enemies!" Cihua said with hatred. "Send regards to Master An for me, will you!"

"It's all good, I'll be ending the call now and get someone over your bar later!"

Cihua ended the call, he was so happy that he wanted to jump around. Lin Yi ah Lin Yi, it's your turn now. You deserve this, don't you? So you're gonna lose a kidney now?

Fabai, who was still standing there, heard everything this time. His face brightened up like a flower that's blooming when he heard that Lin Yi's kidney was going to be removed and given to his own son, "Cihua bro? Did he mean that they are going to give Lin Yi's kidney to my son?"

"Haha! Exactly! Even I didn't see this coming. What a coincidence! I have to inform Master Bing about this news right now. This is just too great!" Cihua quickened his pace to the room at the back of the bar.

Qibing was still sleeping soundly. Initially, he was a little pissed at Cihua for waking him up, but after hearing, his sleepiness vanished immediately. He would have stood up and celebrated if his legs weren't broken!

Qibing hated Lin Yi so much. He didn't know how Jianwen caught Lin Yi but hearing this news delighted him. It would be great to witness Lin Yi dying from a car accident!

Fabai, on the other hand, took the opportunity to show his gratitude and swore his loyalty to Qibing.

Fabai was just too pleased. He decided to go pick his son up himself. After exiting the bar, he drove his car to Songshan's first school in full speed and called Pinliang on his way to school to tell him about this good news.

Chapter 648: Happy Zhong Families

Happy Zhong Families

"Dad? Why are you calling again?" Pinliang said because he had just ended a call with his father not too long ago.

"Son, I've got two more pieces of good news for you!" Fabai said excitedly.

"Ah? What good news? Two, no less?" Pinliang heard the excitement in his father's voice but he didn't know what was causing it.

"Son, firstly, you are returning to your glorious man state very soon. Master Bing found you a suitable kidney for transplant! I'm on my way to the school to pick you up. I'm bringing you to get the kidney transplant surgery!" Fabai said excitedly.

"I've got a kidney now? I can finally get back my kidney now?" Pinliang almost lost grip on his phone and asked in disbelief, "Dad, did I hear it wrong? I'm gonna be a complete man again?"

"Yes, you heard correctly! I'm coming now!" Fabai continued, "So your effort didn't go to waste, son. Master Bing took care of us and our problems. It's all thanks to Master Bing!"

"Okay! I'll wait for you at the school gate!" Pinliang couldn't care much about Gao Xiaofu's reaction as he ran towards the school gate.

"Wait, son, this is just the first piece of news. I've got two pieces of good news!" Fabai was afraid that his son would end the call, so he stopped him first. "It's even better than the first one!"

“Huh? What news could be better than this?” Pinliang started. As far as he was concerned, getting a suitable kidney and regaining his masculinity were one of the best gifts he could’ve ever asked for. Just what news would be greater than this one?

“Haha, the news is that the kidney you are about to receive is from Lin Yi!” Fabai laughed out loud. “Lin Yi caught An Jianwen and coincidentally. His kidney turned out to be a match with you!”

“Wahahaha!” Pinliang laughed so hard that his tears came out involuntarily. “This is indeed good news. Nothing could be better than this. I’m getting Lin Yi’s kidney? How great could this be! In the future, whenever I hit on a girl, I’ll surely remember the valuable contributions he made!”

“Okay, wait for me, I’m coming to pick you up now!” Fabai was pleased to see how happy his son was.

Xiaofu, on the other hand, was chasing Pinliang. He was confused to see such a big reaction from Pinliang. After the call ended, he couldn’t hold back his questions anymore and asked: “Liang bro, what’s going on? What made you so happy all of a sudden?”

“Haha, don’t you know!” Pinliang ended the call, still overexcited, “Xiaofu, I’m gonna get back my kidney soon. My dad just called me saying they’ve found me a suitable kidney. I’m going to the kidney transplant operation now!”

“Ah! Congratulation, Liang bro!” Xiaofu was happy for Pinliang.

“Yeah, I’ll get back my manliness soon. Let’s see if those guys still laugh at me for being incomplete!” Pinliang nodded “In addition, guess the owner of the kidney.”

“Who?” Xiaofu far away from Pinliang during the call, so he didn’t know what Pinliang talked to his father about.

“Haha, it’s Lin Yi!” Pinliang solved the riddles in Xiaofu’s head, “Lin Yi’s kidney is going to be mine soon, don’t you think that’s great?”

Xiaofu was flabbergasted. They laughed it out. Both of them thought that this was really something they should be celebrating...

After the health care workers changed Lin Yi’s clothes, Jianwen dismissed them and pushed Lin Yi to the operation room.

“Lin Yi, you never thought about this, right? Your kidney is going to be removed later, and the most laughable part is that your kidney is going to be donated to Zhong Pinliang!” Jianwen couldn’t hold back his sarcasm anymore after looking at the vulnerable Lin Yi.

“Yeah, I didn’t.” Lin Yi replied.

“It’s okay, you are going to be operated very soon... EH?” Jianwen jumped in fright. How did Lin Yi reply? Wasn’t he unconscious? Could it be that Jianwen was hearing hallucinations?

Just when Jianwen was trying to confirm his doubt, Lin Yi sat up from the stretcher, wryly smiling at him...

“Y...you... how did you wake up?” Jianwen realized that he wasn’t hearing things. Otherwise, he would have visual hallucinations now, wouldn’t he? Lin Yi was awake!

“I didn’t even collapse.” Lin Yi shrugged his shoulders as he replied.

“That’s impossible! I drugged the wine. How could you not lose consciousness?” Jianwen slowly moved himself to the wall while asking Lin Yi questions. There was an emergency button on the wall.

Although, Lin Yi was awake, other than being surprised, Jianwen wasn’t panicked at all because they were in his kidney trafficking crime organization’s HQ. There was no way Lin Yi could do anything much here! All he had to do was to press the button on the wall and the knockout gas would be released, filling up the room in no time. This mechanism was built to prevent people from going on a rampage after waking up during the operation, but they never had the opportunity to use it until now.

“Aren’t your questions a little stupid? You didn’t lose your consciousness so why would I?” Lin Yi said.

“I’ve consumed the antidote!” Jianwen was glad he could drag out the time as he got closer to the wall bits by bits.

“Yeah, you are right.” Lin Yi nodded, “I did the same too. I took the antidote from you.”

“Eh?” It dawned upon him. He remembered that Lin Yi got really close to him before drinking the wine. He even patted on his shoulder a few times. Could Lin Yi steal the pill in that short moment?

“Oh well. Don’t think of hitting the button. Be a good boy and get on the operation table now!” after Lin Yi ended his small talk, he jumped down from the stretcher and swiftly used the back of the knife to hit Jianwen’s neck. Jianwen didn’t even get to make a noise before he was knocked out completely.

Lin Yi was pretty confident with his skills. He was able to control his strength perfectly. He knocked out Jianwen but didn’t kill him, making him unconscious for a period of time. Lin Yi then casually massaged Jianwen’s body acupuncture points. This would stop him from feeling pain or feel anything in his unconscious state.

Lin Yi wasn’t sure if the surgeon was going to use an anaesthetic and if the effect of the anaesthetics could work, so he gave Jianwen his helping hand anyway, just so the operation would be a huge success.

Even if there was no anaesthetic, it would be fine because Jianwen wouldn’t be awake in the next few hours anyway.

Chapter 649: Song Lingshan in Trouble

Song Lingshan in Trouble

Lin Yi took off his patient’s clothes, removed Jianwen’s clothes, and swapped their clothing. He helped Jianwen put on a surgical cap and placed him on the stretcher. If you weren’t familiar with Jianwen, you would never figure out that it was him.

After finishing his business there, Lin Yi walked out of the preparation room carefreely, and he walked down the stairs to look for Lingshan.

He didn't need to get the clothes he was wearing before coming here because there was only a box of needles and his phone. He didn't need to get anything right away. Besides, he had to be cautious. What if he accidentally stumbled on Jianwen's follower.

Lingshan's head was heavy when she woke up. She knew that she'd fallen into enemy's trap! They were obviously aware of her real identity. Otherwise, why would they lock her up and try to knock her out with incense?

The enemies were surely afraid of her strength so they had to use this dirty trick. However, there was nothing Lingshan could do. She couldn't just stop breathing, could she? As long as she breathed, it was the end for her.

The air had cleared up when Lingshan woke up. There was no trace of the drug in the air. Obviously, the enemies had underestimated the strength of a golden class master. They were stronger than ordinary people, after all. Lingshan regained consciousness a little faster than ordinary people.

The first thing Lingshan did when she woke up was to check her own body, making sure that she still had her phone and the signal emitter with her. Much to her surprise, both of the items were still with her. She couldn't help but wondered. Could it be that no one came in when she was unconscious?

Lingshan was right. Jianwen didn't send people to search her body because it was unnecessary. The whole crime organization was free from signals. Even if she had communication devices, she wouldn't be able to connect with the outside world! Besides, Lingshan, as a golden class master, was too much for Jianwen to handle. He didn't have a golden class master just yet. Naturally, he was no match to her, he wouldn't be so stupid to touch her.

Lingshan glanced at the signal bar on the phone screen to find that there was no signal. She couldn't help but smile wryly. It was just like what she assumed! With Liu Wangli's efficiency, she believed that he would have found her location by now.

The time shown on her phone now was in the afternoon. Lingshan had remained unconscious for more than ten hours.

Lingshan took a quick look around the prison cell. The defense was too strong for her. Only a late phase of the peak golden class could break through this thick iron gate. She was just a mid-phase, getting to the late phase was still far for her.

Hence, Lingshan decided not to waste her energy on working on a fruitless solution. Instead, she tried searching around the prison to look for another way out....

Suddenly, a peculiar aroma started to fill the prison air.... Lingshan frowned. Could it be that the enemy had found out that she was awake, and they were trying to drug her again?

As expected, after searching around the cell, Lingshan found two CCTV. The enemies must be using them to check on her! Lingshan didn't even try to hold her breath because she knew there was no escaping from this prison. She had to breathe. She couldn't just stop breathing, could she?

So, Lingshan went with the flow, not rejecting nor resisting, breathing in the aroma.....

However, Lingshan didn't feel dizzy at all, instead, she felt alive. She felt excited and very hot at the same time as if she had unlimited strength.....

Could the enemies have made a mistake? Did they release stimulant thinking that it was knockout gas?

Regardless of how, very soon, Lingshan realized her enemies' real intention. The gas in the prison wasn't stimulant! She only felt immense heat expanding in her body as if she was on fire and she had an intense sexual desire!

Although Lingshan didn't have a boyfriend and had never done those things before, it was still natural for her to have this physiological phenomenon! She was a normal woman, after all. She would still have wet dreams once in a while. She just had stronger self-control and a job to keep her busy all the time. Hence, she was able to control and resist it better than others.

However, with the love drug in her body, there was no way self-control would be useful here. Due to her job, Lingshan had a better understanding of drugs than the others. She knew how great the effect of the drug was!

Lingshan started to panic! What were these people trying to do to her? They wouldn't just violate her body using this method, would they? It didn't seem right, though. Even if she was drugged, her strength as a golden class master was still there. Only idiots would charge into the prison!

But why would they release love drug if it wasn't for that reason?

Initially, Lingshan could still resist the sensation, but as time passed, the more gas she inhaled, the stronger the effect was. Lingshan's eyes started to blur.... Her mind was still clear, but she was unable to control her body anymore.

"Ah...." Lingshan couldn't hold back anymore as she moaned. This surprised her. How could she just make such a seducing sound? Lingshan had always been a woman of iron character, but now she was embarrassed at herself...

However, being embarrassed was one thing, wanting to feel herself was another thing. She was close to losing herself. She was about to tear her own shirt off her body...

CCTV! Lingshan remembered them all of a sudden. She was frightened. The criminals weren't thinking of using this hideous footage to threaten her, were they? After giving it some thought, if her enemies had nude videos of her, she might as well end her life right away!

Lingshan bit her lips forcefully. The pain cleared her mind and cooled her down for an instant!

Destroying the CCTV was her priority now. Otherwise, she would be done for good. Even if she didn't die this time, she wouldn't have the dignity to be the team captain anymore. She could never work as police again!

Lingshan knew that she wouldn't be able to fight back against the effect of the love drug, so before the effect took over her, she had to destroy everything that threatened her right now!

Thankfully, the prison walls weren't tall. The CCTV was only three meters away from the ground. This height was nothing to a golden class master. It would be easy for Lingshan who was a mid-phase of the peak golden class master.

Lingshan clenched her teeth, walked to the edge of the wall, kicked the wall, and used the friction from the surface to push herself upwards. She sent a flying kick to the head of the CCTV.

“Pa”

The CCTV's head exploded. Even the wires connected to it were kicked in half. The CCTV didn't seem to be functioning anymore.

Chapter 650: The Poisoned Song Lingshan

The Poisoned Song Lingshan

Lingshan breathed out a long sigh after smashing down the remaining CCTV...

Without the CCTV, Lingshan couldn't hold on any longer. No matter how much she refused to feel herself, she had no control over her body. Her mind and body weren't connected....

Lingshan was suffering, she felt like her body was being burnt in a fire. If she couldn't release herself now, she would have an impulse.... Lingshan's breathing was getting harder and faster. She was reaching her limit soon. Her mind was no longer strong enough to control her limbs anymore....

The crime organization's HQ wasn't big. In fact, it was just three stories high and there was only one emergency exit. Very soon, Lin Yi had reached the entrance of the basement. This must be the prison the tattooed guy was talking about.

At the entrance of the prison stood a solid iron door, but Lin Yi could easily break it.

Lin Yi stood still in front of the iron door before kicking it down. He waited for his jade to send him a signal, but fortunately, there was no reaction from the jade on his chest. That meant that there was nothing frightening that could possibly threaten him. The Jade had become Lin Yi's gold finger. He had been using this jade to the fullest. It turned peril into safety.

Lin Yi sent a powerful kick towards the iron door. The iron door bent in after a single kick. Lin Yi didn't use his full power. He held back. Otherwise, he would have sent the door flying and might have injured Lingshan who was inside the prison. This was just a piece of cake to the mystic class masters.

Lin Yi, then, kicked the other side of the door, kicking the whole iron door to the ground with a loud bang!

Meanwhile, Lingshan was shocked. She stopped everything she was doing. Even her s drive died down immediately!

The disturbing noise coming from the iron door made Lingshan uneasy. She was clueless about what was going on outside, but when she saw the iron door bent in, she was flabbergasted!

How much strength did you need to bend this iron door? Lingshan was certain that even a mid-phase golden class master like her couldn't do that. Who could this guy be? How much strength did this guy have? Or perhaps it was bent with the help of machines?

However, Lingshan knew that her first guess was right when Lin Yi walked into the prison. The iron door was kicked down by force, and the guy behind the iron door was a person she knew. It was Lin Yi, the person she hated and pissed her off the most!

Lingshan didn't know why she felt relieved after seeing Lin Yi. The hatred she felt towards Lin Yi was gone. It was replaced with respect? Was it because of his strength? Because he kicked down the iron door?

Despite that, Lingshan had to admit that Lin Yi was strong. He was seriously overpowering! At this moment, she had an epiphany. She finally realized the difference between their strength, and she understood why Yang Huaijun had so much confidence in him. He was actually the real deal!

Lingshan's desire dominated her whole body the moment she relaxed. Lingshan's hand once again found her way to the sensitive areas..... This made Lingshan embarrassed and angry at the same time. She was supposed to be happy that Lin Yi came to rescue her but at the same time, she wished that Lin Yi didn't come this early!

The s drive in her body was uncontrollable and coursing through her veins. Her breathing quickened! Her sight got blurry. She inhaled too much of the drug. and it was making her lose control...

No... I can't! Lin Yi is just standing right in front of me. What am I doing?

This was her thought of consciousness. In the next second, she was devoured by her s drive. She completely sunk into her desires. It was like a dam had broke. She no longer had the authority to control her body and speech anymore....

"Ah!" Lingshan shouted as she tore her clothes off into pieces, pressing both of her thighs together like she was trying to vent something out of her body. Lingshan was stupid, she tried to get rid of her desire herself it was no use. She couldn't find a way to do that. This made her even frustrated. She went into a frenzy, tearing off her own shirt. She was going mad!

Lin Yi walked in to see Lingshan sitting on the ground, but she wasn't being herself. She was rubbing the floor like a person who had epilepsy? Just what was she doing?

Lin Yi took a good sniff at the prison's air and found something fishy with it! Love drugs! the air was filled with a common love drug. It was the same drug used on Tang Yin last time.

After identifying the drug, Lin Yi stopped breathing. He didn't want to become the next Lingshan, after all!

Mystic class masters were stronger than golden class masters. They were stronger, not only in terms of strength but also gaining another skill called the Way of the Turtle's Breath! The Turtle's Breath could regulate one's breathing like a turtle. They could live long without eating or drinking! Even when turtles sleep, their breathing becomes extremely slow. Of course, Lin Yi was unable to perform exactly like a turtle, but at the very least he could reduce the rate of his breathing, slowing it down.

That way, Lin Yi could reduce the amount of the love drug being inhaled to a minimum. Even if he inhaled small doses of drugs, it could be completely ignored. However, while Lin Yi was able to use The Way of the Turtle's Breath, Lingshan couldn't!

"You are poisoned by a love drug..." Lin Yi strode to Lingshan, unable to finish his line. Lingshan aggressively ascended her way up to Lin Yi, hugging him around his neck. She used her strength as a golden class master to make her body as light as a feather, moving swiftly around Lin Yi.

Otherwise, these highly skilled movements weren't easy to accomplish. No ordinary human could ever do this!

"Help me... I can't hold it any longer, I'm not feeling so good..." Lingshan's eyes were opened slightly. Her speech was a mess and placed a kiss on to Lin Yi.

Lin Yi furrowed his eyebrows. He couldn't believe that Lingshan's reaction was this massive. The love drug they used wasn't an intense one, so he was surprised. Everyone had a different sensitivity towards the drugs. Some people that were poisoned didn't have much reaction. Although Tangyin had a reaction, her reaction wasn't this severe!

"Don't move!" Lin Yi frowned and unlocked himself from Lingshan's grip, trying to push her down. But when he successfully unlocked her hand, her other hand found its way to grab on Lin Yi again. This dropped Lin Yi's spirit, a little.

Lingshan was embarrassed to death. Her body might not be in her control, but her head was still clear! What she was doing now was something out of ordinary. It was something so out of her character that she would have never done it with a clear head!

Chapter 651: I Can't Help You

I Can't Help You

"I didn't bring my needles. I can't possibly get you out from this situation right now. Hold on tight!" Lin Yi's needles were in his pocket, but his shirt was on the second floor. He didn't even think that Lingshan would be poisoned. If only he knew about it, he would have brought them along. "I'll bring you out now. Stay strong until we get to the hospital!"

The safety of Lingshan wasn't in the hands of Lin Yi. She wasn't Tang Yin- not Lin Yi's girlfriend. He couldn't possibly use other methods to help her, could he? Besides, in Tang Yin's case, massaging was more than enough to get the drugs out from her body because the drugs in her body weren't as much compared to Lingshan, so massaging wouldn't work in Lingshan's case. Lin Yi didn't want to waste time staying here any longer, either.

"No! I feel like the pure qi in my body is going to explode any second now. I can't hold it any longer. Help me. I beg of you, Lin Yi..." Lingshan felt like something wasn't right with her body. The training she had was spiritual and it deviated more to the feminine side, but this love drug was exactly opposing her practice. It created a resonance in her body. Lingshan felt like if she couldn't release it in time, she might die from internal explosion.

“Pure qi exploding?” Lin Yi didn’t know that the love drug had this side-effect. He had never gotten poisoned by this drug before and as for Tangyin, she was just an ordinary human. Naturally, he wouldn’t know that this situation would happen to Lingshan. Did Lingshan have such a great reaction because she was a practitioner?

“Ennn, hurry, help this Miss Braindead.... I beg you....” Lingshan was about to burst into tears. Although she was against the idea of begging Lin Yi because of her embarrassment, it was better than dying! At this moment, Lingshan was completely broken.

“I’ll be the lookout outside, so do it yourself,” Lin Yi shrugged his shoulders helplessly, and got himself out of Lingshan’s hold.

Lin Yi’s complete disinterest made her shy and angry at the same time. Was she really that unattractive? Does he really have no interest in touching me at all?

In fact, Lingshan was wrong about Lin Yi here. How could Lin Yi have no feelings for her? However, having feelings was one thing. Touching her right now was another thing. Lin Yi didn’t touch her because he had self-control. It wouldn’t be hard to have one night stand with her, and he had plenty of chances, too. But, he hated relationships without any foundations, so he pushed her away.

Of course, if there was one day this Miss. Braindead wanted to become Lin Yi’s girlfriend, he wouldn’t mind fulfilling her desires.

Lingshan wanted to scream at someone when she saw Lin Yi walking out of the prison door. She was being so straight-forward. She just hadn’t said, “I beg you, please * me!”. How dare Lin Yi ignore her completely!

Lingshan’s heart was torn. She was greatly disappointed and realized that instead of asking for help from others, she should do it with herself..... Although she didn’t have any experience, she believed that her wits would bring her to success for sure!

Hence, Lingshan stepped out of her comfort zone bravely with shame and rage taking possession of her. Although she didn’t want to do this kind of stuff in front of Lin Yi, she remembered her current situation. She didn’t have a choice. She was in the base of the kidney trafficking crime organization. Anything could happen if she was still being this indecisive here. She would really rather die than surviving if someone were to barge into the prison now!

As for Lin Yi, Lingshan couldn’t really care much. After all, her reputation was already ruined by him from the beginning. The news had reached everyone in the police station.

Lingshan was now Lin Yi’s girlfriend and pleased him in the hospital? What could she possibly care for now?

As long as Lingshan knew that she didn’t flirt him or do any lewd things with him, she had nothing to lose. Her reputation was already this bad. Nothing could make it worse...

Lingshan started to pleasure herself. Although she found her reasons unreasonable, the other side of her mind was slowly dominating her, persuading her to move forward...

However, things weren't that easy for her. The more desperate she was, the less she could feel. It was all about the focus in her mind. How could she focus on pleasuring herself when her mind was thinking all about the crime organization?

Besides, a sexual fantasy was needed to do stuff like this, wasn't it? But who should she fantasize about? A movie star? A Martial arts master?

Lingshan's gaze slowly turned to Lin Yi. He didn't have a huge figure, but he became super attractive to her. After her gaze landed on him, she couldn't move her eyes away from him anymore.... Lingshan's breathing got faster and rougher. Her eyes were fired up. At the last moment, before she had her orgasm, Lingshan couldn't help but shout: "Ahhh, Lin Yi, harder—"

"Ha?" Lin Yi who was guarding the door, got frightened by Lingshan's scream. Did...did she just undress me with her eyes?

After having her orgasm, Lingshan's eyes were a blur. She lied on the ground while letting out a few heavy breaths to calm herself down. Lingshan couldn't believe that her "First time" was in this kind of situation! She couldn't bear to look at Lin Yi now. It was too embarrassing for her. She even shouted Lin Yi's name during her climax. How could she live with this awkwardness?

"Are you done?" Lin Yi turned over and walked towards Lingshan to see that she was still wide open. Her pants were still down, and her bra was unbuckled. She had a very seducing face. It made Lin Yi's heart race a little.

Lin Yi moved his eyes away, awkwardly. He didn't want to have those kinds of thoughts now. However, it was an undeniable fact that Lingshan had a very curvaceous figure. Every part of her body was in the right proportions. A woman that practiced was indeed extraordinary.

Lingshan quickly dressed up when she saw Lin Yi walking over, but she had no energy. She couldn't even move an inch from her current position!

But, that was an intense orgasm she had. Especially when she shouted Lin Yi's name out loud. She felt like her body was flying in the air. It seemed like the pure qi from her body was released all at once. It made her extremely relaxed.

Recognizing that Lin Yi had already seen her nude, and she had done so many embarrassing things in front of him just now, there was nothing she could do about it, was there? For a girl to be seen naked was pretty normal, it was just a matter of time. Women were destined to face it sooner or later. There was nothing to be embarrassed about, was there?

"Yup, done, give me a hand, I can't get up." Lingshan stretched out her hand lazily. She saw Lin Yi furrowing his eyebrows and added, "Goodman, could you please help this Miss. Braindead over here. She's exhausted!"

Chapter 652: You Can Even Break Through Like This?

You Can Even Break Through Like This?

Lin Yi was helpless. Did her brain get damaged after inhaling all the love potion? She wasn't embarrassed at all! Lin Yi stretched his hand out to pull her up, and Lingshan started pulling her pants up and buckling back her bra, but her outer clothing was torn. It was unusable.

When she thought about her current situation, Lingshan couldn't help but feel depressed. What would her team think of her if they saw her like this? She would probably lose all her dignity, wouldn't she!

"Hey, where are you going? Please lend me your coat, okay?" Lingshan couldn't get herself to sound like how she used to. This wasn't her anymore, but she didn't have a choice. It was a conditioned reflex reaction. She had to be gentle towards Lin Yi...

"There's a pinhole camera hidden here. If you don't want them to go viral, keep it well." Lin Yi threw a small appliance to Lingshan. It was a miniature recorder, and the data inside wasn't linked to the other CCTV. It had its own storage so there was no need to worry about the information spreading.

Lingshan was taken aback as she received the appliance from Lin Yi. Her face was slightly red, but she still asked because of her curiosity, "You don't want to keep it for yourself?"

"Ha..." Lin Yi smiled faintly. He felt like Lingshan was insatiable. After getting an inch, she wanted a foot. He fast walked towards Lingshan, lifted her jaw up playfully. This was a capricious movement. He was flirting with her, "Do you really want me to enjoy myself that much?"

Lingshan lifted her eyebrows up. She wanted to fight back, but much to her surprise, she didn't feel like opposing him at all. She liked the way Lin Yi was playing with her. Could Lingshan be a masochist? Did she have a fetish for being abused?

Lingshan smiled lightly, "If you really want, Miss. Braindead here doesn't mind giving you a spectacular performance any time you wish, like just now....."

Lingshan was actually trying to be sarcastic here, but after saying it out loud, she realized how fantastic it was. It sounded like she actually enjoyed doing those kinds of things.... In fact, Lingshan didn't know if she liked it or not, but saying it made her feel wonderful.

A fox, Yushu was right. Lingshan was indeed a fox! Lin Yi quickly loosened his jaw. This woman was a little fierce, but when the time was right, her flirtatious behaviour was incomparable!

"This is the crime organization's HQ. I've done what I'm supposed to, and I believe that you can settle the rest yourself, right?" Lingshan made Lin Yi a little uncomfortable, he had inhaled a small portion of the love drug, after all. Why couldn't this girl come back to her senses and realize that she was doing a dangerous job right now? Didn't she know that even if he had  with her now, it was all the same?

"There's no signal here, can you get me out, please?" Lingshan pulled Lin Yi's hand, swinging his hand around coquettishly like a little girl.

"Really? I didn't know that." Lin Yi's subconsciously looked for his phone in his pocket, but he only found Jianwen's. It was a specially designed phone, like a walkie-talkie. Lin Yi had seen a phone like it before due to his previous job, but this phone was used for a special purpose. It was specially designed to contact others without requiring signals. This phone was just like any normal phones in the market. It used the same normal phone number like how normal phones function, but the sim card was inserted above the server and it was like a terminal of a wireless phone....

“What is this phone? Walkie-talkie?” Lingshan asked curiously.

Just when Lin Yi was about to explain, the phone rang.... Lin Yi had a glance at the number and he didn't know it. It should be one of Jianwen's followers. Lin Yi declined the call and passed the phone to Lingshan, “Use this to call your team. This is a specially designed phone. You can probably connect to the outside world with this.”

Lingshan nodded and started hitting the numbers into the phone. As they expected, the phone was connected!

“Liu Wangli? It's Song Lingshan. I demand you to get reinforcements to surround the number one factory in Thai Star North Street immediately!” Lingshan had memorized the address when she was brought here, but she lost consciousness after entering the cell. Now, however, Lingshan had regained her usual sharp senses. This made Lin Yi slightly surprised.

Lingshan ended the call and looked at Lin Yi, “You are not showing yourself again, right?”

“What's the point of asking when you know the answer? Are you Braindead?” Lin Yi asked back.

“Yeah, I'm your Miss Braindead. So what?” Lingshan looked at Lin Yi pitifully, “Give me your coat, okay? I doubt that you want people to see your thing like this, do you?”

Lin Yi was speechless. Just when did Lingshan become his thing? However, he still gave her Jianwen's coat anyway, “I'm leaving.... Right. If you got nothing better to do next time, you can consider buying these love drugs to test it out yourself.”

Lingshan paused and looked at Lin Yi with a weird face, “Test? You really want to see me perform so badly?”

“You can try to get a breakthrough.” Lin Yi said lightly, “You can even breakthrough like this? From mid phase of the golden class to the late phase of the golden class, your spiritual practice is really abnormal....”

Had she just wronged Lin Yi? Lingshan's face was burning. She was no shameless person. She wouldn't deny the things she had done nor would she make things worse. She couldn't stop having a relationship with Lin Yi because she didn't have a choice! She needed Lin Yi's help. Besides, he had seen her naked. There was no point of falling out, was there? Why not continue this relationship with him and get more benefits from it! Furthermore, she didn't have a boyfriend yet. It wouldn't bring her any mental burden in the slightest.

However, Lin Yi's next sentence made her forget her sense of shame. Her eyes widened and she stared at Lin Yi! Did she just get a breakthrough?! From the peak of the mid phase of the golden class to the late phase? Was it real? How did Lin Yi learn this? Lingshan activated her spiritual practice subconsciously. Much to her surprise, she was at the late phase of the golden class already! Although, it was just the beginning of late phase of the golden class, the difference between a late phase and mid phase was enormous!

Lingshan couldn't believe that she was able to have a breakthrough like this. Wasn't this comical? If she were to tell people about it, no one would believe her, would they? No wonder Lin Yi was giving her a weird face just now, asking her to try the love drug herself... but, how did Lin Yi learn about her strength? Even Lingshan herself didn't realise she upgraded. How did Lin Yi find out?

Could it be that Lin Yi's strength was greater than hers, reaching the peak of the late phase of the golden class.... Or even higher.... Lingshan couldn't get herself to that thought. She didn't want to believe it. Lin Yi was still young, wasn't he? How was it possible for such a young man to have such strength. The peak of the late phase of the golden class or even higher, the strength of a mystic class, how was that possible?!

Lingshan had a realization. She felt like she was the luckiest girl in the world. Did she perhaps just pick up a rare treasure?

Chapter 653: The Position in Your Heart

The Position in Your Heart

This was the kind of strength that every big house was trying to cultivate. A teen with the strength of a mystic class master was no joke. No one could predict the possibilities of their house's future, but having a master that strong with them was like an assurance, at the very least, for the following years ahead. Their house's future was confirmed and wouldn't run out of luck....

Calling herself Miss Braindead could get her so many benefits? Lingshan clenched her fist and decided to continue to pretend as one. Having a master this strong at her side was a great advantage. How could she just let Lin Yi go? Besides, her work would be so much easier with Lin Yi's help.

As she gazed at Lin Yi's back as he left, complicated emotions rose within her heart. She didn't know what kind of relationship she shared with Lin Yi. The complexity made her head throb in pain. She had never experienced such things before, until now. She got intimate with a guy for the first time. Lin Yi was the first man who had seen her private area. Lingshan felt that she was supposed to be furious over it, but things were totally opposite. She didn't have any negative feelings, other than being embarrassed. Furthermore, there was a trace of excitement when she recalled the previous event.

The sensation she felt during that moment was magnificent. Lingshan was thinking of giving it another try. Should she set a date and try it out herself? This senseless thought frightened her as she held on to the pinhole camera. This thing couldn't be leaked. Otherwise, it would be a game over for her.

But as for Lin Yi seeing her naked, Lingshan didn't feel burdened at all. She was already a Miss Braindead in front of him. She even coquetted and flirted with him, no less. So, for the first time, doing something embarrassing in front of Lin Yi didn't really trouble her. She had already lost her dignity once. It was all the same if she lost it eight or ten times. Very soon, Lingshan threw that event at the back of her mind and started thinking about the final boss of the kidney trafficking organization....

As far as she was concerned, Lin Yi could easily arrest the mastermind, but he didn't do that. Instead, his only sole purpose of infiltrating this place was just to save her! Lingshan knew Lin Yi too well. He was that kind of person who wouldn't do good deeds and wouldn't give two shits about people that he didn't know. But since he came to rescue her now, Lingshan's heart was touched. At the very least, her effort as the Miss Braindead didn't go to waste!

She had a position in Lin Yi's heart. She wasn't a nobody, and most importantly, he didn't leave her to die!

Thinking until this point, Lingshan shook her head again and scolded herself. Lingshan ah, Lingshan, is your brain really dead after being a Miss. Braindead for too long? Why are you so happy with that little space in his heart? Why are you acting like those typical mistresses now?

No, I was just trying to get help from him, so building a good relationship is necessary! Lingshan, once again, comforted herself....

Pinliang couldn't believe that today was actually his lucky day. He didn't only accomplish poisoning the canteen, he'd even gotten a call from his dad, telling him that they found a suitable kidney for him. Most importantly, the kidney belongs to Lin Yi!

On his way to the surgery room before getting injected with the anaesthetics, Pinliang was in high spirits. Initially, he thought that to get his revenge, he had to at least wait for Zhang Naipao's return. Much to his surprise, karma came to Lin Yi so quickly!

For safety measures, Pinliang's blood was tested again to make sure that his blood matched with Lin Yi's. After all the precautions, Pinliang was only transported to the surgery room.

Pinliang looked at the operating table not far away from him. There was a person laying on top, and that person was wearing a patient clothing with a disposable surgery cap on. He couldn't determine the patient's identity with the surgery room light, so he assumed that it must be Lin Yi!

"Mr. Zhong, I don't think that you should enter the surgery room. It's a surgery room, after all. Even I'm not allowed to enter without permission. What if the bacteria went in when you enter? It's fine if Lin Yi gets infected, but your son getting infected would be a totally different story!" the tattooed guy stopped Fabai from entering the surgery room.

"Alright, I'll wait then!" Fabai nodded. "Many thanks to Master An and you for finding Pinliang a kidney this soon!"

"It was just coincidence!" the tattooed guy waved his hand.

Pinliang was injected with anaesthetic, while the "Lin Yi", who was actually An Jianwen, was also injected with anaesthetic. The surgeon didn't even care or try to understand the reason why "Lin Yi" was unconscious. All he had to do now was to transplant the kidney from Jianwen to Pinliang.

After joining Jianwen's crime organization, surgeon Wong had been interacting with kidneys every day. So, for him, removing kidneys were like ABC's. In other words, he could do it even with his eyes closed.

"Shh....."

The razor-sharp scalpel cut open Jianwen's stomach in an instant, while surgeon Wong with his skill and experience cut Jianwen's kidney swiftly.

"This is really a good kidney!" Surgeon Wong couldn't hold back. "If we were to sell this kidney, it could be sold at a very high price."

Although there was a gap between the surgery room and the preparation room, the sounds could still pass through. Surgeon Wong was talking to the tattooed guy here.

“Ha, but this surgery was specially ordered by Master An. This kidney will be transplanted on Zhong Pinliang for free. No matter how good the quality is the kidney, we are not allowed to sell it!” The tattooed guy was purposely saying that our loud for Zhong Fabai. He was making sure he would remember the favor that they did for him, and the debt that he had.

“Tattooed bro, rest assured. I Zhong Fabai am not an ungrateful person. I will come and pay Master An a visit after this as a token of appreciation!” There was no way Fabai couldn’t get the hidden message behind the tattooed guy’s words. However, if his son’s transplantation was a success, he didn’t really mind paying a few hundred thousand for that.

“Haha, it’s not needed! Surgeon Wong, do your best this time!” the tattooed guy smiled and ordered surgeon Wong.

“Don’t you worry!” Surgeon Wong might have been one of the core members in the organization, but he’d never directly talked to Jianwen before. Most of the time, the tattooed guy was the one passing the messages between them. Surgeon Wong had only seen Jianwen a few times from a corner, so he didn’t know how Jianwen actually looked like. He didn’t even notice that the person on the operating table was his boss, An Jianwen. It was indistinguishable to him!

The surgery ended successfully, and very soon, Surgeon Wong sewed up Pinliang’s wound and faced the tattooed guy: “Tattooed bro the operation is a huge success. Mr. Zhong is going to be just fine! How should we deal with the source?”

Surgeon Wong was referring to Lin Yi.

The tattooed guy paused. He didn’t really know what to do with Lin Yi! Jianwen didn’t give further orders, and he would never risk doing anything either so he said, “Wait, I’ll make a call to Master An now!”

Chapter 654: Toss Aside

Toss Aside

The tattooed guy took out his phone as soon as he finished talking to the surgeon. He called Jianwen’s phone number, but the call didn’t ring for long and was ended directly.

The tattooed guy was startled. Could it be that An Jianwen had something to settle over there? But if he called him again, he might get angry so he said to surgeon Wong, “As usual, just leave them at the entrance of the hospital!”

If Lin Yi didn’t get proper medication after his kidney was removed, he could very much die from it. Although the tattooed guy knew that Jianwen was trying to give Lin Yi a lesson, he wouldn’t just let Lin Yi be killed here! If he were trying to kill Lin Yi now, he wouldn’t have just cut out one of his kidneys. He’d gladly take both, instead!

So hesitating for a little bit, he decided to use the old method, tossing Lin Yi in front of the hospital. At the very least, he would be rescued there.

After expressing his deepest gratitude, Zhong Fabai escorted Pinliang out of the room while the tattooed guy sent the father and son back. He didn't want people knowing their crime organization's location. The tattooed guy had brought them here with a back covered business car.

As for the pitiful Jianwen, he wasn't given any sympathy or concern as surgeon Wong waved his hand to order a few muscled hunks in. They grabbed on Jianwen and dragged him out like a dead corpse from the surgery room and casually tossed him into a non-branded van...

The tattooed guy, on the other hand, returned to the kidney's trafficking organization as soon as he dropped the father and son off but when he arrived their HQ, he received a call from the sharp-nosed guy.

"Tattooed bro, something bad has happened. The lady in the cell has escaped!" the guy was apprehensive. After releasing the love drug into the air of the prison, he had wanted to check on Lingshan but remembered that his boss, the tattooed guy might be enjoying himself with her. So, he refrained himself from doing so. Who knew if the tattooed guy would be furious if he found out that he was being observed when doing those things with a girl?

But the more he thought about it, the more anxious he got. He didn't know the effectiveness of the drug, so he went back to check on her. But when he returned to the surveillance room, observing he realized that the CCTV had lost its connection!

He ran to the prison in quickly, but what he saw there frightened him! The prison's door was forcefully knocked down by someone and the prisoner inside was long gone. She was nowhere to be seen!

The sharp-nosed guy's face blanched and he quickly made a call and report to it to the tattooed guy, informing him his current situation. The tattooed guy got the call when he returned to HQ.

"Escaped? How did she do that? Where to?" the tattooed guy was taken aback. That was Song Lingshan they were talking about, the Captain of the criminal police team. This was no joke! What would happen to their HQ if Lingshan successfully escaped this place and came back with her team here? Did they really have to abandon this HQ now?

"I don't know, either... the CCTV in the prison are broken...." the sharp-nosed guy said cautiously.

"Didn't I tell you to drug her? How did she run away?" the tattooed guy was enraged. Could it be that this guy had forgotten to do his job?

"I did what you ordered. I released love drug in the prison and provided you a fun time with her. Who knew she could still escape like that?" the sharp-nosed guy smiled wryly as he said that.

"What? Why did you give her a love drug? Who asked you to drug her with that?!" the tattooed guy was enraged when he heard what the sharp-nosed guy did! A love drug on Song Lingshan? Was he really out of his mind?

"It was you...." the sharp-nosed guy couldn't grasp the situation. He didn't know what he did wrong: "Didn't you tell me to drug her?"

“I told you to drug her with knockout gas, not a love drug!” The tattooed guy almost rolled his eyes. How could this guy just decide and assume everything just by himself?

“Ah? I thought you mentioned using that girl.... So I assumed that you want me to drug her with a love drug...” the sharp-nosed guy felt wrongly accused.

“Motherf*cker! We are in trouble now!” after listening to the sharp-nosed guy’s reason, the tattooed guy knew that it was just a misunderstanding. He couldn’t just put all the blame on him because he knew that he didn’t make things clear, either. This was the result of not stating things clearly, forming this big misunderstanding!

If Lingshan wasn’t unconscious, as a golden class master, there was no way she wouldn’t find a way to escape. But where did she go? Was she still within the HQ? Or had she escaped this place?

“Tattooed bro, did I do something bad?” the sharp-nosed guy knew that things weren’t that simple. As far as he was concerned, losing one prisoner meant losing one kidney, it wasn’t something to be concerned about. But the tattooed guy’s reaction told him that something huge must have happened.

“Close the main door immediately and go search for that lady!” the tattooed guy had to take action forthwith before it was too late. If Lingshan had escaped HQ and made contact with the outside world, then it would be the end of the world for them.

After giving his orders, he quickly called Jianwen again...

Before Lin Yi left this place, he went back to the room where he was brought to and swiftly changed back his clothes and tossed Jianwen’s shirt and phone in the room.

With Jianwen’s phone in the room, no matter how many times the tattooed guy called him, no one would pick up. The tattooed guy panicked, but he didn’t have a choice. He could only continue calling until Jianwen answered it.

Despite everything, he had to first inform this to Jianwen and make preparations for the worst to come. Otherwise, no one would be able to flee anymore if Lingshan reached out to the police before they caught her.

Suddenly, the tattooed guy heard a siren from the outside. He flinched. He looked out of the window to see more than ten police cars surrounding the crime organization’s HQ. Within the cars, there were even some regimental police cars! The blue and red lights that emitted from the lamps were actually a spectacular sight to see.

The tattooed guy smiled to himself. It’s over now, game over! His last struggle to save the organization was futile. Lingshan had already escaped and gathered all these people here, surrounding them!

At this moment, the tattooed guy had totally given up. He wasn’t thinking of escaping or denying what he had done so far. With this much of police forces surrounding them, unless he had the ability to stay invisible, there was no way he could run away from them, even with a pair of wings.

What truly concerned the tattooed guy was Jianwen’s absence. Where did he go? He hoped that Jianwen got away from the situation and was far away from HQ. As long as Jianwen was safe, he was fine with being caught!

Chapter 655: Bear the Responsibility For An Offence

Bear the Responsibility For An Offence

When the tattooed guy first joined House An and helped the fire wolf gang build the crime organization, he knew that this day would come sooner or later. However, the positive part was that House An didn't ill-treat people who served them, in fact, they were pretty generous treating them. All of his brothers and sisters in his hometown were highly-educated and had attended university. His old house that used to be just a thatched cottage was now a villa. Furthermore, his parents even had a pot of gold with them. They had approximately ten million in their bank accounts, making his house one of the richest families in his hometown....

His family knew that the tattooed guy was working outstation, but they weren't told about the details meticulously. The tattooed guy didn't spend much, and he didn't need to. Basically, he didn't touch the money at all. All of the money all these years, from rewards to salary, were all delivered back to his house!

The tattooed guy felt that he had earned enough for this life. As long as his siblings and parents were able to live a luxurious life, he didn't need anything else. He was a prisoner from the beginning. He wouldn't have a future and would most probably become a hobo if it wasn't for House An.

Therefore, the tattooed guy only wished for the safety of Master An now. He hoped that he was able to escape from here and look out for his family when he was imprisoned. As for the crime of the organization, he was prepared to single-handedly bear the crime on his shoulders!

In this whole crime organization, other than Surgeon Wong, no one actually knew the existence of An Jianwen. They didn't know that there was a boss behind all of it!

Of course, people like Cihua and Master Bing were aware of the fact, but they wouldn't just expose his identity to the police. All of them were working in the same field, after all.

The tattooed guy quickened his steps to the surgery room before the police charged in to see surgeon Wong's overwhelmed face.

Perhaps, surgeon Wong had the same thoughts as him. Maybe he knew that this day would come sooner or later.

"Tattooed bro, our day has arrived?" Surgeon Wong's expression was sluggish and lifeless but his tone was calm.

"Yes, it's time." the tattooed guy nodded.

"If we are caught, what crime would we be charged with?" Surgeon Wong asked.

"Death penalty or life imprisonment maybe?" the tattooed guy smiled.

"You came here to kill me, aren't you?" Doctor Wong raised his head up and eyed the tattooed guy.

The tattooed guy nodded honestly, "I don't think you can carry the sentence. You might reveal Master Bing."

"Hehe, doing the sentence is fine, but I don't think I want to carry it anymore. Letting my son know that I'm a criminal is the last thing I want now. I don't want to be known as an unscrupulous doctor that removed people's kidney..." Surgeon Wong said faintly. "My son has a dream, he wants to be a proud doctor like me, but I don't want to disappoint him.... After I die, please tell the police that I was threatened, please? That's my last request..."

"Of course!" the tattooed guy nodded. "You didn't bow to evil forces and committed suicide. I bet your son will be proud of you for sure!"

Doctor Wong smiled lightly, stood up and got out a reagent from the cupboard. This was used for killing. He had always keep one for himself. He extracted the reagent out into a syringe, then injected it into his own body without any hesitations. The money he had earned all these years was all for his son. The amount was enough for his son to study overboard.... He hoped that his son was able to pursue his dream and be a compassionate doctor...

That was doctor Wong's last thought before he crumpled on the chair.

"It's my turn now..." the tattooed guy turned around and walked out of the surgery room. The police were already using a megaphone, calling him out. He raised his hands up when he walked out of the HQ. The police were lining up like a human wall while Lingshan was standing at the first row....

But why did the coat that Lingshan was wearing look so familiar? The tattooed guy was arrested and pushed into a police car before he could figure it out...

There weren't many people in the HQ. The police were summing up the nurses and muscled men. It was like approximately twenty people and there were more than ten police cars there. It was total overkill.

However, this was still considered as a major and serious case, overkill was better than underestimating the enemy.

"Get all of them back and question them!" Lingshan waved her hand and ordered her subordinates. The Song Lingshan now wasn't the same Lingshan when Lin Yi was around. Her behavior was different as if she was not the same person. She had returned to her previous state.

"Report, there are no signs of victims in the building. The prison's door was destroyed by brute force but there's no one in there!" The last scouter came out and reported to Lingshan: "Found one corpse in there, and we believe that that person was part of the crime organization. He should be the main kidney dissector, Doctor Wong!"

"Good job, only four squads will stay behind. The rest get back to work!" Lingshan, on the other hand, obviously knew that there was no victim in the prison because there was no one when she entered and no one was there when she left.

On their way back, sitting in the police car, Lingshan was showered with compliments and praise. It was like a dream! The case was solved just like that? Wasn't that a little too fast? She was still depressed with the development of the case yesterday and today, she had gained total victory over it!

Lin Yi... just who are you? Lingshan felt that the longer she looked at Lin Yi, the more mysterious Lin Yi became. He was like a puzzle that she could never solve. After she got help from him yesterday, the big case was solved! Although there were a lot of things happening during the process, Lin Yi's capability was unquestionable!

Lingshan's attitude towards Lin Yi had changed unconsciously. Initially, she had always thought that Lin Yi was just lucky, but as far as she was concerned, it wasn't the case, after all. She thought about her previous thoughts about him and realized it was a total joke. How did she even challenge him back then? Recalling the deformed iron door astonished Lingshan. She might have entered the late phase of the golden class, and the toughness of the iron gate shouldn't be a problem for her anymore, but the ability to kick down the iron door with one or two kicks felt impossible for her.

Lingshan felt like she wasn't herself when she had to act like a Miss Braindead in front of Lin Yi last time. But now, things had changed, she had gotten used to it. She didn't have the anger she had anymore. Instead, there was a trace of unspeakable happiness blossoming too!

Was she still sane? Was she out of her mind? Why did she look like a masochist now, enjoying being abused?

"Captain Song, I'm afraid you are going to be promoted again, aren't you?" Liu Wangli was closer to Lingshan compared to the others. When Lingshan first joined the police forces, she was a squad leader, Liu Wangli's direct supervisor.

"I just got promoted to captain. How is that possible?" Lingshan might have said that but deep down, she was still expecting something to change. Even if it was not promotion, she still hoped her status would be upgraded.

"Maybe, but this is still a major case. Captain Song, you attempted a big risk to solve this case. You should at least get second class merit, shouldn't you?" Wangli smiled.

Chapter 656: Yao Yao, So Pissed Off She Fainted?

Yao Yao, So Pissed Off She Fainted?

"Let's talk about this after the trial. These might not be all the people. Some fishes might have slipped through the net?" Lingshan felt like everything was going too smoothly. The offenders weren't even trying to fight back in the slightest. This made Lingshan worried!

They didn't have any hostages with them and the police forces there. It was almost impossible for the offenders to escape, but Lingshan still felt that there was something fishy with them. Especially the main kidney dissector, Doctor Wong. Why did he commit suicide?

Was he forced to commit suicide, or was it his own will? These were something that they had to go in details with, so to say that she had successfully solved the major case, was still too early!

Mengyao didn't have a big appetite. Even though she was trying hard to finish the food, it was six dishes with soup, after all. How could she possibly finish them? Having a few bites here and there was more than enough to make her full, so she consoled herself by taking a few bites on all the dishes. At least she had taken all the nutrients equally. It was a healthy balanced diet!

Who cared if Tang Yin found her wasting food? At least, Mengyao, herself, was happy about it! At this point, Mengyao stopped herself, put down her chopsticks, and said, "Shu, I'm full, let's get back to the classroom!"

"Oh, but aren't you going to finish the food?" Yushu pointed at the food on the table.

"Nope, I'm at my limit already. You wouldn't want to see me becoming you last time, right?" Mengyao could barely move.

"Oh, nevermind then. Although you always try to kill me, I don't want to make you die...." Yushu said.

"....." Mengyao was speechless. "When did I try to kill you?"

Both of them left the canteen with holding hands. The Miss raised her head high when they passed Tang Yin's table. She didn't even care to look at Tang Yin.

Liu Xinwen, on the other hand, curled her lips, "Why are you acting like you finished all of it? See, I told you, such a waste!"

Mengyao was displeased by the comment, but she ignored her. This wasn't something that could be resolved within half an hour. Besides, there were a lot of students in the canteen now. Mengyao didn't want to become a laughing stock for them.

Back to the classroom, Mengyao and Yushu both took out their MP4 and started watching cartoons. Every afternoon, when they were free, both of them would entertain themselves with it.

"Yaoyao sis, did Zhong Pinliang come and disturb you recently?" Yushu wasn't used to it. She could always get some benefits out of Pinliang when he was still Mengyao's admirer.

"Huh, you miss him already?" without Pinliang around, Mengyao couldn't be happier.

"Oh, since he's not disturbing you anymore, does that mean that Shield bro is no longer needed? He's going to leave his post as a Shield now?" Yushu said reluctantly.

Yushu's words made Mengyao pause. She had never thought of that before and she never considered thinking in this direction! Indeed, the point of having Lin Yi around, in the beginning, was to shield off Pinliang!

Now that Lin Yi had completed his mission and Pinliang had fallen out with Mengyao, didn't that mean Lin Yi's role as a shield had finally come to an end? The Miss couldn't help but grieve over it. She didn't spend too much time with Lin Yi, but it wasn't a short amount of time either. It seemed like she had gotten used to living with Lin Yi.

Mengyao was annoyed at Yushu for mentioning that. If Yushu hadn't mentioned it, Mengyao could have acted like nothing happened, and she wouldn't wreck her brain thinking over it. Then Lin Yi would still be the Lin Yi she used to think of, her follower! But now that Yushu had mentioned it, she had to take action against Lin Yi, hadn't she?

He was a jerk, flirting around. She should fire him.... But, wouldn't it be pitiful if he was fired? Living in a foreign city, coming here alone for work. If she were to fire him right now, what could he do after?

En, out of sympathy, I'll stop myself from firing him first. I can't be this heartless, can I? That's not what a good girl will do! So, Mengyao found herself an excuse! Besides, it seems like I'm still in danger?

"Shu, Zhong Pinliang was brave enough to do such a reckless thing. We can't guarantee that he won't do that in the future! We are still in danger. A bodyguard is necessary!" Mengyao continued. "In my opinion, I think that Lin Yi gets a passing grade for a bodyguard. Let's just use him for now. What do you think? Besides, he looks kinda pitiful, being an orphan and homeless, to begin with!"

"Oh, but he can stay at Tang Yin's house!" Yushu interrupted.

Mengyao was enraged and stared daggers at Yushu. Was she doing that on purpose?

"Yaoyao sis, why are you glaring me? Did I say something wrong? Oh, I know it. You want to hit on Shield bro, so you can't allow him to stay at Tang Yin's house!" Yushu grinned: "I've finally spied on Yaoyao's sis' secret. I'm Shu, the spy 007!"

Mengyao was so pissed off. Who was trying to hit on Lin Yi? I'm the Miss here, how could I hit on him? It should be the other way round!

But, remembering the cold shoulder from Lin Yi made Mengyao's blood pressure boil up. She didn't know why, but her brain lost consciousness for a second and she fainted on the table...

Yushu saw the Mengyao lying on the table, ignoring her, "Yaoyao sis?"

But Mengyao wasn't responding at all. This frightened Yushu, "I'm not talking about that anymore. I was just joking. Don't ignore me, please?"

"Yaoyao sis, what are you doing? You can't just ignore Shu. I'm your soulmate, y'know?" Yushu thought that Mengyao was really angry at her, so she pulled on her arm coquettishly.

However, Mengyao still didn't move. Even when Yushu pulled on her, her body just casually moved around a little!

Yushu thought that something was wrong this time, "Yaoyao sis, don't scare me. Are you really that pissed off? I was just talking about Shield bro. How could you faint because of that?"

Mengyao was still lying on the table, motionless.

Yushu didn't care about joking anymore. A huge surge of anxiety kicked in. She didn't know where her strength came from, but she was able to carry Mengyao up, knocking things here and there as she clumsily exited the classroom and ran towards the infirmary room.

A human's true potential was limitless. Yushu didn't have the strength to carry Mengyao, but there was only one thought in her mind right now: save Mengyao. So, without thinking through, she carried Mengyao up and rushed out of the classroom.

There weren't that many people in the classroom, but they were all dumbfounded with Yushu's sudden action! They all thought that Yushu and Mengyao were still whispering around. They couldn't hear them clearly, and they were all greatly astonished when Yushu ran out of the classroom with Mengyao on her back! Where did her strength come from? How did she move her?

Chapter 657: Don't Love Shield Bro Anymore

Don't Love Shield Bro Anymore

"Doctor, doctor! Yaoyao sis has fainted. Please come and save her!" Yushu's tone changed. It used to be sweet and cute, but now she sounded very out of breath, exhausted from shouting for help.

She carried Mengyao into the infirmary room, and the moment when Yushu was about to place Mengyao on the bed, she noticed that there was already a number of students lying on it! Besides, the infirmary room was flooded with a lot of teachers and students. Something bad must have happened.

"Here comes another one?" the doctor furrowed his eyebrows when he saw Yushu carrying Mengyao into the infirmary room. Cold sweat dripped down his brow, "What's happened to all these people? Why isn't the ambulance here yet?"

The continuous line of students was making the doctor crazy. He couldn't figure out the cause. All of the students and teachers had the same symptoms, paleness and rapid breathing.

"Doctor Lee, what's the situation?" The dean hurried over when he heard the news. He couldn't help but frown when he saw so many students and teachers gathering in the infirmary room. "Teachers and students that are healthy, please get out. The sick ones need fresh air!"

Wang Zhifeng's words were really effective. The healthy students and teachers moved out of the infirmary room obediently, but they were all worried. They were friends and students, after all. They couldn't just leave them here so they strolled around the corridor aimlessly, worried sick.

However, there was only one person sticking around a patient, and that was Yushu. She still hugged Mengyao tightly at the corner of the bed, never letting go. Naturally, Zhifeng didn't make her go out because he knew her. The person she was embracing was none other than Chu Mengyao. This gave him a fright! Wasn't that the chairman's daughter? She was also one of the victims?

The sweat flowed down from Zhifeng's forehead like a rainfall. He couldn't care about anything except calling the principal of the school, Ding Binggong, reporting the situation!

"Principal Ding, may I ask where you are right now? Something has happened to the students. More than ten have lost consciousness, and one of them is Chairman Chu's daughter, Chu Mengyao..."

Ding Binggong went to the education department this morning for a meeting. After the meeting ended, he didn't come back to school for lunch. Instead, he had lunch with other principals outside. The moment he received Zhifeng's call, his face blanched. He only mentioned that "Something came up with the school" to the other principals and rushed out of the restaurant. He hailed a taxi and only then did he continue his call with Zhifeng, "Old Wong, what did you say? More than ten students have fainted? Including Chu Mengyao?! Tell me what's going on?"

"I just arrived here as well. I don't know about the details yet! Doctor Lee, have you figured out the problem yet? What's with this sudden commotion? Why is it happening to so many students at once?" Zhifeng asked hurriedly.

"Dean Wong, I've no idea as well. I've never seen these symptoms before. There's a possibility that this is an emerging infectious disease but I can't guarantee it. I've contacted the emergency center, and the ambulance should be here in no time!" Doctor Wong said carefully.

Ding Binggong was able to hear what Doctor Wong was explaining from the call, loud and clear. There was a buzz in his head. He had a realization: not only would the school's reputation be damaged, but this issue might even drag down the whole industry.

"Ol' Wong, I'll be right back. You've to take over until I get back. Please make sure that the students are safe no matter what happens!" Ding Binggong ordered anxiously.

"I got it. I'll try my best to control this havoc!" Zhifeng nodded with a serious face, but he knew that there was nothing he could do in this situation. While he was talking to the principal, more students were coming continuously.

It made Zhifeng's head throb in pain. He had to think of the cause of this situation as fast as possible! Otherwise, the infected students would only keep coming.

However, even Doctor Wong was perplexed with the condition. As a person who knew nothing about medicine, how could he understand?

Consequently, the only thing he could do was pray. He prayed that the ambulance would come and save the day. He prayed that the students would get proper treatment as soon as possible!

Yushu was puzzled. She thought that Mengyao fainted because of her anger, but that wasn't the case after all? Many people here had the same or similar symptoms as Yaoyao sis. Just what had happened to these people?

Yushu got more even worried now! Mengyao'd fainted because of other reasons? Yushu was panic-stricken, but her thoughts brought her to Lin Yi!

Last time when she almost experienced death, it was Lin Yi who came to rescue the day. So, she decided to find Lin Yi to rescue Mengyao this time!

Yushu took out her phone from her pocket swiftly and called Lin Yi, but after calling for a long time, she was still being directed to the voicemail box. Lin Yi wasn't picking up the call at all. Yushu tried again and again but it was still the same. No one picked up the call!

"Stupid Shield bro. Where are you? If something bad really happens to Yaoyao sis. I'll stop liking you for real! I won't forgive you for the rest of my life!" Yushu talked to herself angrily.

While waiting for the arrival of the ambulance, more students were brought in to the infirmary room again. There was a total of twenty- eight students in the room now. All of them were waiting for the ambulance!!

At this time, Doctor Lee had contacted the hospital a few more times, urging them to send more ambulances here because so many students fainted. It would take at least seven or eight cars fit all of them!

However, after this period of time, until the first class in the afternoon, there were no more casualties. It seemed like the situation had finally died down. This relaxed Zhifeng and Doctor Lee for a bit.

Ding Binggong arrived at the school at the same time as the ambulance car. The students were transported into the car one by one. Naturally, Yushu wouldn't abandon Mengyao so she followed her up into the ambulance car. Binggong and Zhifeng, on the other hand, knew Yushu, so they didn't stop her.

At the same time, Doctor Lee stayed in the school with another backup ambulance car, just in case. If something happened to the students again, he could send them to the hospital quickly.

"Yaoyao sis, you have to stay strong!" Yushu held onto Mengyao's hand tightly. Tears almost burst out from her eyes. She was extremely terrified. She had been calling Lin Yi again and again, but he didn't even pick up a single call! For the first time, Yushu hated Shield bro!

Chapter 658: The Cause of Fainting?

The Cause of Fainting?

"Shu, what happened to Yaoyao? Do you mind telling us about the situation at that time?" Ding Binggong was impatient to discover the truth. Since he hadn't gotten any useful information from Doctor Lee and Zhifeng he had targeted Yushu instead. Yushu stuck with Mengyao all the time, so he assumed that she should know the full story better than anyone.

However, Yushu's words were more or less the same as the other students. All of them went to the canteen for lunch and fainted after returning to the class not long after....

Initially, Doctor Lee had suspected that food poisoning was the cause of fainting. After all, the students fainted after having their lunch break, but this assumption wasn't possible, because when comparing the fainted ones to all of the students who went to have their lunch in the canteen, there were only 28 students that were affected!

In other words, the possibility of food poisoning as the main cause of fainting was very small, otherwise, why didn't this happen to the rest of the students? To say that only one dish was poisoned wasn't plausible as well, because it was highly unlikely to have only 28 students eat the one dish out of the whole cohort

So only by sending the students for a physical examination could they determine the cause of this mess.

On their way to the hospital, the ambulances had to run a few traffic lights. It was very uncommon to have a group of ambulances on the street so the cars moved away and avoided blocking their path instinctively. They knew that having so many ambulances at once, something serious must have happened.

Ding Binggong made some preparations before calling to Chu Pengzhan- he had to report this event to the chairman. Besides, Chu Mengyao was one of the fainted students, there was no reason for him not to inform Chu Pengzhan with this emerging problem in the school.

Pengzhan was in the middle of meeting. He didn't want to answer the phone at first, but the three words "Ding Bing Gong" were shown on the incoming call screen, and he had to answer this no matter what. After all, it was extremely unusual for Binggong to contact Pengzhan outside of the reports given weekly.

If it wasn't about public affairs, then it must have been about Chu Mengyao, Chen Yushu or Lin Yi. Something must have happened to either one of them, only then Binggong would call Pengzhan privately! Thinking until this point, Pengzhan raised his hand, indicating to the table to pause the meeting and answered the call, "Principal Ding, what's the matter? I'm in the middle of meeting..."

Pengzhan had made it clear that if Binggong did not have anything serious to discuss, he should call him back a while later.

"Chairman Chu, something has happened to the school!" Binggong said solemnly, "During the afternoon break, there were 28 students that had fainted for an unknown reason, and one of victims happened to be Chu Mengyao..."

"WHAT!" Pengzhan was so shocked, he had unconsciously risen from his chair! Twenty over students fainted simultaneously- from the opening of the school until now, news this serious had never happened before. If this serious case wasn't handled properly, the school's reputation and even the trust from the people within the industries would be heavily affected, all of them would be going down the drain for good!

However, what really worried Pengzhan was his daughter's safety! Mengyao was part of his life, how could he have the mood to continue the meeting when he heard that her own daughter had fainted? He waved his hand to dismiss the people from the meeting, "The meeting stops here, Li Fu, follow me!"

"Yes, Mr. Chu!" Li Fu nodded and followed Pengzhan out of the meeting room. As Pengzhan's right-hand man, naturally, he was able to sense the difference in the atmosphere around Pengzhan- his emotions weren't in check, it seemed like something terrible had happened.

In Pengzhan industries, Pengzhan was the only person in charge- his one word was like the nine tripod cauldrons so even if they were unsatisfied with his decision, no one would dare to voice it. Xie Guangbo and Jin Gubang had just left the industries not long ago, so there was no way the new bloods were not aware of that.

The people in the meeting room remained silent when Pengzhan left the room. They didn't leave the room instantly, instead, they waited for a moment before leaving the room and returned to their own offices.

Pengzhan, on the other hand, had his eyebrows furrowed and was still on the phone, whispering, "Is Yaoyao alright? Is she in danger?"

"Mr. Chu, I'm not sure yet, but we are reaching the hospital soon, a few more minutes drive," Binggong replied.

“Okay, which hospital, I’m coming over right now!” Pengzhan was worried but he knew there was nothing he could do about it.

“SongShan’s second hospital,” Binggong said.

The best hospitals in the city were SongShan’s first and second but Songshan’s first hospital was established first. Being older, it had earned them a higher degree of recognition than Songshan’s second.

However, Songshan’s second was actually a division of Songshan’s first, after Guan Xuemin’s son’s famous medical group founded Songshan’s first, Songshan’s second hospital was then established. The doctors were all the same- they were transferred over there from Songshan’s first hospital, and the facilities were all brand new so many youngsters preferred Songshan’s second hospital.

Songshan’s first hospital was unable to send out so many ambulance cars at once so Songshan’s second hospital had taken up the job, sending out the ambulance cars and transporting the students to the hospital.

“Alright,” Pengzhan ended the call and faced Uncle Fu, “Head to Songshan’s second hospital now! Yaoyao has fainted, and a total of twenty-eight students have fainted for an unknown reason, we have to go there right now!”

“Okay, Mr. Chu!” Uncle Fu heard that Mengyao had fainted, he quickly started the engine and drove at maximum speed to the hospital!

After five minutes, the ambulance cars stopped at the entrance of the Songshan’s second hospital accordingly, the medical workers were already standing by, waiting for the ambulances to arrive. They quickly transported the fainted ones down and sent them directly to the emergency room!

Yushu was still sticking onto Mengyao until the entrance of the emergency room but was told not to come into the emergency room, and had to wait outside patiently. She finally released her grip, “Yaoyao sis, you have to tough this out!”

Binggong, Zhifeng and Yushu were keeping watch at the entrance of the emergency room, waiting impatiently for the result.

“Principal Ding, Dean Wong, Shu!” Pengzhan came to sight and saw that the three of them were waiting at the outside, he walked with big strides towards them, face full of worry, and with Uncle Fu beside him....

“Mr. Chu!”

“Uncle Chu!”

Binggong, Zhifeng and Yushu called at the same time.

Binggong smiled wryly, “They are still being examined in the emergency room, the result isn’t out yet!”

Pengzhan nodded with a worried face, “What’s the situation in the school? First, we have to stabilize it, and make sure that the students don’t develop unnecessary panic between them.”

“Don’t worry, we’ve got it under control!” Binggong nodded, “But as for the parents... should we notify them?”

Chapter 659: Intense Argument

Intense Argument

“Of course, we have to!” Pengzhan went into deep thought for a second, “And, we shouldn’t push the blame onto others. If it were found out that the problem really lied within our school, then we have to give the parents an absolute answer! Even if it’s not the school’s problem, we have to do our job and save the students at all costs, I don’t care about the medical fees, my industries will take responsibility for everything!”

“Alright, Dean Wong, I’ll leave contacting the parents to you, note that you should not create conflicts with any of them, while trying your best to maintain our school’s reputation!” Binggong ordered Zhifeng.

“Yes, Principal Ding, I’ll contact them right now!” Zhifeng nodded and began calling the school to collect the data of the fainted students....

Soon, the parents had gotten the news and rushed their way to the hospital, flooding the corridor of the emergency room with people. Some parents were able to remain their composure and asked about their children’s condition calmly, but some didn’t give a damn as they started creating a fuss, “What happened to my son? He was still fine when I sent them to the school, how come they fainted all of a sudden? What have you guys done to my son?!”

“If something terrible happened to my son, I’ll demolish your school!”

“Who’s the principal? How do you handle your school? How did my son lose consciousness while attending it?!”

“Guys, we shouldn’t be arguing here, this is a hospital and your son and daughter are still in the emergency room. The noise we make here might affect the doctor’s performance,” Binggong and Zhifeng pleaded helplessly against the yelling parents.

“So you do know that our children were sent into the emergency room, huh?! What kind of principal are you? Letting the students faint like this, just what were you thinking? What have you done?” A middle-aged woman pointed at Binggong and reprimanded.

“Yeah, did our son receive any harsh or unjust treatment from the school? Did they faint after the punishment? We need to know the truth!” another voice added.

“The truth! The truth! The truth! We want the truth!” the other parents joined in, for their sons and daughters, they didn’t mind fighting against the school until the end.

Pengzhan frowned, observing the intense exchange between the parents. He had no choice but to stand out and put a stop to the raging parents and calm them down.

“Everyone, please be silent, let me say something, I’m the chairman of the Pengzhan industries, Chu Pengzhan....”

“So you are the chairman, huh?! You still want us to quiet down? Please be silent? The children inside aren’t even your children, of course, you are able to be this calm!” Pengzhan was interrupted by the the same middle-aged woman.

“I know right, all you chairmen have is money. The daughters and sons of you people are all princesses and princes, but our children are different, they just fainted after attending the school!” another parent pointed sarcastically.

“Although I’m the chairman of the Pengzhan industries and also the chairman of this school, my feelings are the same as you guys- I’m worried about the children inside and am praying for their safety!” Pengzhan continued, “We, as the parents of our children, should wait calmly for the examination’s result. We should not make a mess of everything- shouting and scolding will not benefit our children at all!”

“Wow, that is easier said than done! The children inside aren’t even your children, of course you are able to speak like this!” the middle-aged woman tried to find every fault in him, “You are worried? I bet you are just worried about your school’s reputation, aren’t you?”

“Yeah, you must be worried about the school’s reputation, right?” the other parents joined in.

“It’s a misunderstanding. Actually, I’ve said before, the purpose of me standing here is the same as you guys, I’m standing here as a parent!” Pengzhan shook his head, “Because my daughter, Chu Mengyao is also one of the fainted ones! I’m worried about my daughter here! As for the harsh and unjust punishments, they are all nonsense. Do you guys think that Principal Ding would dare to stand here if he really did punish my daughter? If that happened, I would’ve fired him already!”

Pengzhan’s words had stunned the parents greatly! They never expected that Pengzhan’s daughter had also been one of the victims! The assumptions they made earlier were all completely invalid. Only the teachers and principal who had the balls and didn’t wish to continue working anymore would dare to punish the chairman’s daughter!

The noisiest middle-aged woman immediately went silent- she felt ashamed after accusing others. Since even the chairman’s daughter had fainted- did she really have the right to scold others? However, as a parent, they were just concerned for their children’s safety.

“So the only thing we can do now is to wait for the examination’s result! If the school was really responsible for this, no doubt, the school will take up all the responsibility. But even if this is not the school’s problem, the school will still fully sponsor the medical fee in order to treat the emerging disease or illness of our students!” Pengzhan said.

After listening to Pengzhan, the raging parents had been slightly calmed down, his words were reasonable and they couldn’t find a way to fight back at all. Hence, they had decided to just wait for the result first.

Time passed by slowly, Pengzhan and the parents were still waiting for the results, however, the emergency room's light was still on. Twenty-over students was no a small number, things couldn't be settled in just a short while.

Out of a sudden, pressing footsteps and the loud noises could be heard and a few reporters had shown up with cameras and microphones in their hands! Within the reporters, some were bribed by Li Cihua and some were called by the bribed ones- their purpose of coming here was to get the latest news of this case. 28students had fainted and were sent to the hospital- this was a big news. Even if they weren't bribed, they were still willing to join in on the mess.

"Hello, I'm the reporter from <xx daily>, my name is Direwolf. I heard that Songshan's first school had done horrible things to a group of students causing them to faint, may I ask, are you perhaps one of the parents of the victims?" This guy was part of the group who was bribed by Cihua, he was also the leader of this action. He used to be an underground person but after getting beaten up by a special forces soldier during his mission, he was no longer recognised by the underground. Unable to survive there, he changed his profession to a reporter for the street tabloid.

It was an undeniable fact that this Direwolf was pretty nasty with his question- the first question he brought up was a direct hit to what had just happened, setting the case as an intolerable and horrible case!

Pengzhan furrowed his eyebrows- he didn't know where these reporters come from and where did they get the news. The parents were all calmed down, no one had been raging for the last while- it was impossible for them to have contacted the reporters! For them to contact the reporters before coming here was impossible as well, none of the parents would have had the time to call the reporters before learning about the situation!

Chapter 660: Notice of Critical Condition

Notice of Critical Condition

Could it be that someone let the cat out of the bag? Was it the people in the school or sworn-enemies that were trying to make things complicated? Or were there hidden messages behind this?

However, no matter who called them here, it was pointless now. Pengzhan had to find a way to handle these people. Otherwise, these reporters would surely make a mess out of it, and the school's reputation would surely be damaged heavily.

"I'm the chairman of the Pengzhan industries, my name is Chu Pengzhan. May I ask where you got this news from?" Pengzhan had to get himself out there and talk to the reporter.

"Oh? Even the chairman is here?" Great, I'll interview you directly then!" the direwolf's eye twitched and redirected his target. He was trying to lay a trap for Pengzhan to step on it. "I heard something terrible has just happened to the school under your industries. As the chairman, how do you see this matter? Was it because of management oversight? Was someone not doing their job properly, or perhaps some of the teachers were the prime suspect of this?"

This direwolf was famous for his bad-mouth. All the questions he had asked so far were all jarring to the senses.

“My friend, I don’t know how you got this so-called “horrible” news from.” Pengzhan smiled lightly. “But, the result has yet to be confirmed by the doctor. The parents here and I are in the midst of confusion. We’ve no idea what causes all this mess, so how did you learn this?”

“It’s none of your business. Naturally, someone had provided me the information!” the direwolf continued: “Even if you knew the reason, I bet that you would never admit it, would you? Hiding the truth from the parents is what you school authorities are good at. There’s no way you guys will care about the safety of the students!”

“Hey, you are wrong here. Chairman Chu’s daughter is also one of the victims, ‘kay? How could you say that he doesn’t care about their safety?” the previous middle-aged woman said. Although she was annoying, she wasn’t a bad person.

The direwolf was taken aback. He never thought that Pengzhan’s daughter also fainted! His second statement appeared to contradict the first; Pengzhan was actually very concerned of the students.

However, the direwolf was fast. A bright idea suddenly occurred to him, “Guys, have a look at it yourself. Even the chairman’s daughter is involved in this mess. We can see how poor the management is here! Do you still have the courage to send your children there now?”

“Ah!” the middle-aged woman paused and thought deeply. What he said wasn’t unreasonable. Even the chairman’s daughter couldn’t avoid this, just how terrifying it would be for the commoner’s children?

The parents started to think after they heard what the direwolf said. Even the chairman’s daughter was in danger. How much danger were their children exposed to at school?!

“Everyone, please calm down!” Pengzhan waved his hand, “Didn’t I say earlier? I don’t know the real cause of this event. Even the school doctor had a difficult time determining the cause. The only thing we can do now is to wait for the results. If the school is really responsible for it, the school will take responsibility for it! Besides, saying all these things now is just too early!”

Pengzhan’s words comforted the parents once again. Their children were still in the emergency room. The cause of this event was still unknown. Getting angry over it now was indeed slightly too early.

The direwolf couldn’t believe that Pengzhan was able to handle the problem so well. He couldn’t help but furrow his eyebrows. He was receiving twenty thousand RMB from Cihua. He had prepared to ruin the school’s reputation. Giving up now was not an option, but, at the same time, he couldn’t just say crap. Otherwise, Pengzhan’d never hold back, and he would sue their newspaper office for defamation. What he had to do now was make the parents angry. It wouldn’t be defamation if those comments were coming from the parents. He was just representing the parents, and Pengzhan would only be angry at the parents, not him!

However, the direwolf was out of tricks to play! But, he was no idiot. He pondered for a while and found another tactic against Pengzhan! Since he was unable to trigger rage from the parents now, he might as well wait for the results and see if he could attack from that direction.

Of course, he didn't know that Cihua was behind this, and he didn't know that someone to poison the students. He only knew that Cihua and Pengzhan had some bad blood, and he was sent here to ruin Songshan's first school's and Pengzhan industries' reputation.

After waiting for around half an hour, the emergency room door opened. A man with a white coat came out hastily. He saw the people outside of the emergency room and said. "You guys are the patients' families, I suppose?"

"Yes yes! How's my son?" the middle-aged woman and the parents surrounded the doctor, seeking news from him.

No matter how much Pengzhan wanted to understand her daughter's condition, he was representing Pengzhan industries now. He couldn't just behave like a worried father caring for his beloved daughter. All he could do was to wait for the parent's questions to be answered. Only then could he approach the doctor.

"Things aren't looking good here!" the doctor said. "At first, we suspected that the patients were having food poisoning, but after running some tests, we found out that there was nothing harmful or poisonous in the patient's abdomen that could make them collapse!"

"Ugh....." the parents were puzzled. If it wasn't food poisoning, what could it be?

"And the patient's symptoms are very different from other emerging diseases. Of course, this might be a new infectious bacteria!" the doctor continued, "All of the patients are unstable and their physiological functions are degrading dramatically. Even with the help of a transfusion, their condition has worsened! We've separated all of the patients to avoid further spreading of this emerging disease!"

"Ah? They haven't escaped the critical stage yet. On the contrary, their condition has worsened?" the parents were paralyzed by the news. Just what was going on? Even the hospital couldn't find a solution to this problem?

"Indeed, we've already reported this to the higher authorities and contacted the medical specialists regarding this problem. An expert's consultation will be carried out shortly, but we can't guarantee that a solution will be produced in the process!" the doctor said. "These are the medical crisis notice for the patients. Please sign on your own child's page!"

"Medical crisis notice?" The parents were lost. They didn't know what to do. They couldn't believe things escalated this rapidly up to this stage. It was just normal fainting and out of nowhere, it transformed into a notice of critical condition?

"What if we refuse to sign? We want to see children!" the parents voiced.

"We will stop treating your children if you don't sign." the doctor explained. "We can only find a way to resolve this after you sign, but we can't guarantee their full recovery. Besides, you are not allowed to get in touch with the patient now, as this might be a new infectious bacteria. According to the regulation on the management of infectious disease, we are supposed to isolate them individually."
