Chapter 661: Accompany Yaoyao Sis!

Accompany Yaoyao Sis!

The parents crumpled the notice paper in their hand while Pengzhan was transfixed by the doctor's words! He wasn't thinking about the school anymore. Only his daughter's safety was in his mind now!

As far as he was concerned, his daughter was much more important than his company. It was totally fine to lose his company because he was able to rebuild it. He was not young anymore, but he wasn't going to die yet. As long as he worked with his heart in it, he could get back everything! However, things were different with his daughter. If his daughter were to lose her life now, then he would have lost his purpose of living....

The doctor's words came as quite a surprise to Pengzhan. Never did he imagine that this misfortune would bestow on his daughter. If he could take his daughter's place, he would gladly do so.

While the parents were all in a panic, there was only one person in excitement, and that person was Direwolf. He had finally thought of a way to counter!

"Guys, please open your eyes. Can't you see how dangerous Songshan's First School is? An infectious deadly bacteria came out of nowhere. Could the school be the base for this biochemistry experiment?" Direwolf made his voice loud. "Even Chairman Chu's daughter wasn't excluded from this, how horrible could this be? The children are still unconscious, yet they still couldn't find the reason for this incident! Think about your children this morning. They went to the school healthy and happy, but in the blink of an eye, what is in your hand right now? It's the notice of medical crisis! I'm not being pessimistic here, but let's be honest. How many patients have survived after receiving this notice? This is just living hell, especially when people passed away without learning the actual cause of it!"

The parents were low-spirited and angry at the same time. They regretted sending their children to Songshan's first school. They thought that Songshan's first school was the most elite school in the whole city, but who knew that they actually sent their children to die!

Direwolf quickly ordered his underlings to take videos and record the scene!

Meanwhile, Pengzhan had lost his will to defend himself because his heart wasn't into it anymore, Mengyao's safety was his priority. He couldn't even care how Direwolf defamed his company and the school because he didn't have time for that!

However, with this, Direwolf was able to record down the whole scenario. He was able to get the parents side, fighting against the school's management system....

"Yaoyao sis is going to be fine! I wanna see Yaoyao sis, where is Yaoyao sis? I wanna go meet her!" Yushu ran to the entrance of the emergency room. This was a very long and narrow pathway, the isolation room was at the end of the emergency room. The nurses in the room were spraying disinfectant to kill the surrounding bacteria. They were taken aback when they saw Yushu charging in!

“You... what are you doing? You are not allowed to come in! This is the Infectious Disease Intensive Care Unit. You have to leave this place!” the nurse quickly stopped Yushu’s movement.

But Yushu would never listen, would she? She only had one thing in her mind.

It as for Yaoyao sis to be safe. Even if she was in danger, she’d have to stay by her and accompany her! As for the infectious disease, she couldn’t care less about it!

The doctor who was standing in front of the emergency room was startled by Yushu’s bold action. He came back to his senses after a while and shouted: “Come out now, you can’t enter this place. It’s deadly!”

Yushu didn’t give two shits about it. She didn’t know where and how her strength came from. The two nurses were unable to stop her as she ran to the end of the emergency room. There was a row of isolation rooms there, and each of the isolation room was built with walls of glass.

Very soon, Yushu was able to locate Mengyao. She didn’t care about the nurses and doctors. She charged into it.

“Yaoyao sis, Yaoyao sis, how are you? Stop scaring me!” Yushu ran towards Mengyao’s side, holding her hand as she burst into tears.

With Yushu’s lead, the other parents joined in after a brief hesitation. All of them entered the room where their children were.

The doctor and nurses couldn’t help but smile wryly! After all, they were able to understand their impulse. The parents did that out of love. They cared for their children. Their children’s safety came first before them. They couldn’t care much about infectious diseases anymore!

“Since you guys have entered this place, don’t think of leaving now. Stay here until the isolation ends!” the doctor stood outside of the emergency room helplessly and shouted: “All of your actions are restricted temporarily!”

The parents didn’t really mind, as long as they could stay by their children’s side. Even if they didn’t restrict their movements now, they wouldn’t want to move an inch from their children, either!

Pengzhan and Uncle Fu entered the emergency room as well. Pengzhan entered the isolation room where Mengyao was, Uncle Fu followed behind without any hesitations! This showed how loyal he was to Pengzhan, even risking his only life!

“Yaoyao!”

“Miss Chu!”

Pengzhan and Uncle Fu rushed towards Mengyao’s side hastily to see Yushu holding onto Mengyao’s hand, sobbing. Pengzhan couldn’t help but sigh.

Yaoyao and Shu grew up together. Although they weren’t related by blood, they were even closer than real sisters. If anything bad really happened to Yaoyao, he believed that Shu wouldn’t feel good, either! She might even collapse from it!

Mengyao's face blanched- there wasn't a trace of color in her cheeks. There were a lot of wires connecting her body, Pengzhan might not understand the numbers shown on the screen, but he was certain that it was absolutely not a good one!

"Shu, don't get too close to Yaoyao, you might get infected...." Pengzhan as a senior, naturally, reminded Yushu to get away from Yaoyao. Otherwise, he would feel sorry for Yushu's parents if she were really infected because of this.

"No, I won't leave, I've to accompany Yaoyao sis!" Yushu shook her head, "I wanna wait here until Yaoyao sis wakes up!"

Pengzhan stopped persuading Yushu after hearing the determination in Yushu's words,

Direwolf and the gang started gazing at each other when the parents charged into the emergency room. Those parents were brave enough to enter, but they weren't! This infectious disease was not a joke. What if they really died after entering the room?

However, Direwolf, as the leader of the gang, had given them some benefits. Retreating now was not an option! So they suggested, "Wolf bro, why don't you enter and interview them. We'll wait for you here?"

"Fine, retreat!" the direwolf was a person that cravenly clung to life instead of being brave against death. How could he just risk his neck for only twenty thousands? He shook his head and retreated with his gang. Even if they stopped interviewing, the materials in his hand were more than enough to demolish Pengzhan industries' reputation!

"Unknown terror"

With these words alone, Direwolf believed that no one would dare step into Songshan's first school ever again! Who knew if these terrors would return? It was even better if the hospital failed to produce any solution.

Chapter 662: Guan Xuemin's Opponent

Guan Xuemin's Opponent

Due to the influences and seriousness of this case, after reporting it to the health authorities, they had quickly gathered the renowned doctors in the medical world and formed a group of experts for this case. All of them were on their way to the Songshan's second hospital.

Guan Xuemin was one of the people in charge of this group of experts. In normal circumstances, Xuemin'd never accept to visit the patients, but things were different this time. It was a big case, an unknown situation, no less. Naturally, the respected and experienced Guan Xuemin was invited!

Soon, the group of experts entered the emergency room and started analyzing the conditions.

"I think that this is a new unknown virus!" one of the experts said. He was the chairman of the Songshan's medical association, Zhang Weikang. "We have to report this to the international health organization. We need to get the experts from the other countries to do research here!"

“Doctor Zhang, isn’t it a little too early to conclude that this is the cause of an unknown virus?” Xuemin, on the other hand, had a different opinion, “According to the school staffs, the occurrence of the illness happened to the students at the same time, and there are only a few infected patients compared to the school. If this is the cause of an unknown infectious virus, don’t you think that the timing was too perfect? Could it be that the virus had a discussion and agreed to attack at the same time?”

Xuemin’s word was incisive, but he was able to point out the most important key in this case. This was not the cause of an unknown infectious virus! However, Xuemin ended his analysis with a joke making an uproar in the room....

Zhang Weikang’s face changed slightly. He was never on good terms with Xuemin, to begin with. Although he was the chairman of the Songshan’s medical association, people in the medical world knew that he was no match to Xuemin. If they were only measured on medical skills, Guan Xuemin would win immediately!

“If that’s the case, may I ask for your brilliant opinion, Miracle Doctor Guan?” Zhang Weikang smiled coldly, emphasizing the word “Miracle Doctor” on purpose. It might seem like nothing was going in the exchange because Xuemin’s company was Miracle Doctor Guan Medicine Company. However, mentioning it now was extremely sarcastic.

Although Xuemin could hear the sarcasm in Weikang’s tone, he couldn’t care less! He was an educated person. Fame and glory weren’t important to him. This was also one of the reasons why he rejected the offer to be part of the Songshan’s medical association. Otherwise, Zhang Weikang could have never been the chairman of the Songshan’s medical association.

“In my experience, I think that the possibility of poisoning is slightly higher!” Xuemin continued, “The illness showed up after they had their lunch. Besides, the time for the occurrence of illness was close too. As for the symptoms, it’s very similar to poisoning as well.....”

“Ha!” Weikang uttered a cold breath, interrupting Xuemin. “Miracle Doctor Guan, your analysis is indeed explained but too bad. Even though you are a miracle doctor, you should at least read the case report before voicing your opinion, shouldn’t you?! Or else, you are not only wasting our time, but you are also wasting the patients’ time to be rescued as well! It’s written very clearly in the case report, there were no toxic components in their stomach. May I ask how is this a food poisoning case?”

“There is nothing strange about it. The toxic components were fully absorbed by the body.” Xuemin wasn’t annoyed in the slightest. Learning takes a lot of skepticism. He was glad that someone came and doubted him.

“Absorbed? You mean, the patients only absorbed the toxic components and left the food in their stomach unabsorbed?” Weikang burst into laughter, “According to your logic, these people must have very powerful stomach function, don’t you think so? They were able to differentiate what is toxic and what isn’t? They could even pick up the toxic components to be absorbed specifically?”

Zhang Weikang’s words made people laugh in the group, but these experts weren’t siding any of them. They wouldn’t just casually join into an immortal fight like this.

“In some medical ancient scrolls, I’ve seen something like this existed!” Xuemin didn’t take the sarcasm seriously as he explained, “There were examples of people using Chinese herbs, mixing it with insect poison to produce a certain type of poison that could allow the toxin to be absorbed speedily!”

“Medical ancient scrolls? Shall we just ignore the fact that these medical ancient scrolls might be fake, and even if it was real, there was no guarantee that the contents written in it are reliable? There’s no way we could figure it out, could we?” Weikang didn’t really buy what Xuemin said. “Please do not forget that the hospital has reported this to the police and the police have taken actions against the canteen. Moreover, when they ran a test on the food, there were no toxic components in it! Besides, there were a lot of students in the canteen, how do you explain the numbers?”

“First, I couldn’t deduce how they poison it. This is the job of the police. I was just giving out my personal opinion.” Xuemin said.

“Whatever. I personally still think that we should report this to the international health organization. This case is out of our reach! If you still insist that this is food poisoning, please bear the responsibility when things turn bad!” Weikang wouldn’t risk his reputation and future just for these mere students. He didn’t have to take any actions anyway. Directly reporting this to the international health organization was the easiest way. Professionals would be sent over to take over the case, and even if students died from the cause, it had zero connection to do with him.

Xuemin sighed. Although he had read this in the medical ancient scrolls, he couldn’t find any solutions to it. It was categorized as one of the poisons in the thousand, under the same section as venomous insect’s poison. The introduction was unclear and the information was little.

“Let’s visit the patients first before deciding.” Xuemin sighed again. Nevertheless, since he had arrived, he couldn’t just do nothing, could he?

“If you wish to visit them, go alone. This is an infectious disease! Without any safety precautions, I advice not to get near them!” Naturally, Weikang wouldn’t want himself to be infected. He was a coward, after all. He had a bright future ahead of him, and he really didn’t have to risk his life for these students, “Of course, whoever wishes to go in, please do!”

Within the experts, there were still many that have a sense of responsibility as a doctor. After hearing what Weikang said, they were totally stunned! Why would a coward choose to become a doctor? Doctors were supposed to save lives, fighting at the edge of life all the time!

In every field, there was always a black sheep in every flock. They had the same thought as Weikang, behaving cowardly at the back.

“Professor Guan, we will follow you!” many experts stood up.

“It’s not needed, I’m fine alone. Actually, the reports are written pretty clearly. You guys can know the results without examining the patients.” Xuemin didn’t want them to get involved. After all, food poisoning was just one of the guesses. What Weikang said was not unreasonable. There was no way Xuemin would allow them to risk their lives with him, “I’ll just check on their conditions the traditional Chinese medical way!”

Chapter 663: Thousand Year Poison

Thousand Year Poison

Xuemin exited the meeting room after he finished his last sentence. He walked towards the emergency room in fast steps. The doctors in the emergency room immediately recognized the familiar face of Xuemin when he reached the entrance of the emergency room. Xuemin's reputation in Songshan's medical world was pretty high. Besides, some of the doctors there were once his students. They naturally respected him.

"Professor Guan, you came!" the doctor in charge of this emergency room was Doctor Sun who was also Xuemin's student. He welcomed him warmly, "You are visiting them personally?"

"En, I'll just check them out." Xuemin nodded, "Bring me there."

"Erm....." Doctor Sun hesitated. If this was really an acute infectious disease, then it would be dangerous. However, they knew Xuemin's character. He didn't fear death at all, so Doctor Sun brought him in after a briefly hesitating

One of the parents was able to recognize Xuemin as they shouted, "Miracle Doctor Guan is here, my son is saved!"

"What? Miracle Doctor Guan? Which Miracle Doctor Guan?"

"Of course, it's none other than Guan Xuemin, the Miracle Doctor Guan!"

"Miracle Doctor Guan medicine company is very popular recently. I heard that their miracle remedies are going to be in the market soon!"

The parents couldn't hold back their excitement when they heard Xuemin's arrival. Xuemin's name was very well known after all. His name had the "Miracle Doctor" title. If he was here to visit, it meant that their children's safety was guaranteed!

Hence, all the parents surged out and started pulling on Xuemin, "Miracle Doctor Guan, please have a look at my son...."

"Check on my son first, please I'm begging you!"

"My son first! He's the only heir in the third generation...."

"Please look at my child first, please, I'll kneel down for you now! I only have my one daughter, her mother died after giving birth to her. I can't bear to lose her....."

In just a split second, the parents made havoc in the emergency room. All of them wanted Xuemin to treat their children first.

Pengzhan, on the other hand, was able to see everything clearly in the isolation room, but he didn't join them. Although he was extremely worried about Mengyao's safety, the other parents were also concerned about it. As the chairman of the school, there was no way he could fight with them for it, could he?

Moreover, as long as they could find the cause of this illness, rescuing the rest shouldn't be a problem!

Doctor Sun felt the pain in his head when he saw the behaviour of these parents. He voiced out: “Guys, please be quiet. You guys are just wasting our precious time. Why not let Professor Guan choose himself! As long as we learn the cause of this illness, saving the children shouldn’t be a problem anymore!”

Doctor Sun’s word cleared the riddles in their heads. All of them stopped what they were doing and allowed Xuemin to make the choice himself.

Meanwhile, Xuemin didn’t look at any of the parents’ anxious eyes and casually walked into the nearest isolation room. There were two parents who exploded in joy. It seemed like they were the parents of the child’s isolation room.

Xuemin didn’t bother them. He started doing his things when he was beside the unconscious student...

After ten minutes, Xuemin shook his head lightly. The patient’s pulse was weak. In other words, the patient’s overall physiological function was degraded. Their sign of life was weakened too. If this continued, the patients could only last until tomorrow before they died.

However, Xuemin didn’t have a choice. This illness was like an old man who was reaching the end of his life. All of his life force was almost fully consumed and he was heading towards a dead end! Theoretically speaking, they were beyond saving!

But the patients were just ten over years old. They weren’t old and feeble. This was just totally absurd! Nothing had happened to them before. It had to be food poisoning. What else could it be?

Xuemin had confirmed his thoughts. As for the idea that it was a viral infection, Xuemin didn’t hold much hope in it. It was just one of the possibilities, nothing else.

Poisoning.... Thousand year poison.... Could it be real? If it was a real thing, how were these children poisoned? Who struck gave it to them? Accidentally or intentionally? Xuemin couldn’t get it. He was trying his best to recall the ancient scrolls he read, trying to figure out a solution to this....

However, even with him wrecking his brain, he couldn’t think of any solutions... Did he really have to give up on this? They were twenty-eight students here. Xuemin really didn’t want to witness them dying.

Suddenly, a man appeared in Xuemin’s mind! He quickly took out his phone and hit the phone with numbers. At this point, he could only ask help from him. There were no other alternatives!

After Lin Yi retrieved back his clothes and phone, he left Jianwen’s kidney trafficking organization.

Jianwen’s HQ was built on the outskirts of the city, no cars would pass this area normally. Lin Yi still had to return school so he had to walk himself to the nearest roadside to hail a taxi or public transport.

While waiting for the taxi, Lin Yi took out his phone to find out that there was a ton of missed calls!

Lin Yi only then remembered that before he pretended to be knocked out, he turned his phone to silent mode just so Jianwen wouldn’t answer the calls if his phone rang. He forgot to turn the silent mode off even after leaving the kidney trafficking organization.

After checking the missed call list, he found out that it was mostly all from Yushu. Lin Yi was puzzled. He didn't know why was Yushu looking for him. She even made more than ten calls! Could it be that the Miss was actually looking for him? Recalling the Mengyao's and Tang Yin's fight this noon gave him a fright. Could the Miss and Tangyin be fighting again?

Thinking about it, Lin Yi quickly called back.

The sudden ringtone made Yushu jumped out of her skin. Even Pengzhan and Uncle Fu were quite taken aback by the sound.

Yushu took out her phone, looked at the screen to find out it was Lin Yi. She quickly answered: "Shield bro, where did you go? Why didn't you answer my calls? Yaoyao sis is dying soon.... Sob sob, I've decided not to befriend with you anymore since you didn't answer my calls!"

Mengyao is dying? Lin Yi flinched. Mengyao was still fine when he left. He had just left for a few hours, how did things escalate so fast? Just what had happened in the meantime?

"Shu, calm down. How's Yaoyao? Where are you guys?" Lin Yi asked.

"We are in Songshan's second hospital's emergency room. Come here quick, shield bro. If Yaoyao sis dies here, I don't wanna live anymore!" Yushu was in a hurry, but since she was able to contact Lin Yi now, she felt that there was still hope for Mengyao. Lin Yi was invincible in Yushu's perspective.

"Okay, I'm coming over right now!" Lin Yi hastily hailed a taxi, told the taxi the direction, and spoke back to Yushu, "Shu, I'm on my way to the hospital now. Can you please fill me in what has happened to Yaoyao?"

Chapter 664: Speeding to the Rescue

Speeding to the Rescue

"Okay!" Yushu knew that she could save Lin Yi some time if she could fill him the information now so she started from the canteen.....

Lin Yi frowned after listening to Yushu. Mengyao just fainted suddenly for no reason? Even with Yushu's explanation, he couldn't determine the illness. He had to visit her.

"Sir, can you please drive faster?" Lin Yi was worried about Miss' safety. Living with the Miss all this time had made them closer! He had developed some feelings for the Miss! Although Lin Yi was taught to be cold-blooded by his master and old man since he was young, he's a human after all. Unlike plants and trees, he had feelings and emotions.

Mengyao was not only his employer now. Lin Yi had already treated her as a friend of his! Otherwise, Lin Yi would never be this distressed. No doubt he was Mengyao's follower, but he was never Mengyao's personal doctor. When Pengzhan hired him, he wasn't informed to take care of her personal health, either!

However, things had changed, Lin Yi was worried about the Miss from the bottom of his heart. That was the reason why he urged the driver to be faster.

There was still a certain distance before reaching the Songshan's second hospital. With their current speed, it would take at least an hour before he reached the destination.

"Pal, this car has been with me for five years. It's not that fast anymore. It's dangerous to speed, too. Moreover, I'm afraid of speeding!" the driver smiled wryly, "I know that you are rushing to the hospital. Here, why don't you get on another car when I drive you to an area that is more populated? You don't even have to pay me."

After hearing the driver, Lin Yi couldn't help but shake his head. This area was still far away from an area with cars. Lin Yi couldn't afford to wait anymore, "Let me drive, I'll still pay you the money, and a bonus of five hundred RMB."

Lin Yi opened his wallet, calculated, took out the seven hundred RMB, and placed it on the bridge. It was around two hundred RMB from here to Songshan's second hospital so for Lin Yi to pay seven hundred RMB was actually more than enough.

The driver paused for a second and asked: "Pal, do you have driving licence?"

Lin Yi took out his licence from his wallet and showed it to the driver.

"Okay, it's all yours!" the driver collected the seven hundred RMB joyfully, stopped his car by the roadside, and swapped places with Lin Yi.

The driver's decision was understandable. Even if Lin Yi wasted more petrol with his way of driving, the money was able to cover that. He had even counted in the money for violating the traffic rules. How could he reject this offer?

After Lin Yi stepped in the car, he adjusted the gears, loosened the clutch, and started the car in one go smoothly. The car only accelerated after exiting the lane, non-stop accelerating.

Lin Yi's driving surprised the driver! It wasn't long until Lin Yi hit the fifth gear, stepping at the pedal at its limit. The car was speeding like a dislocated horse that was sprinting!

Although they were outside of the city and no cars were in sight, there was still speed limits for this road. A traffic speed camera would have surely taken the evidence, but the good news was that there was no traffic speed camera on this road..

However, when Lin Yi arrived in the city area, his speed didn't seem to go down. Contrarily, it was still accelerating. There were more and more cars in sight. The driver warned, "Pal, slow down. It's dangerous! Besides, there's sentinel ahead here. There are cops!"

"Don't worry." Lin Yi said lightly and continue accelerating. The car was like a blur, swiftly shuttling between the cars! After Lin Yi finished his sentence, the car had just completed a drift. This gave the driver a heart attack!

Drift? It can't be true, right? This stuff was only seen on TV. He never knew that he was able to witness drifts with a broken car like his? Could this guy be a professional racer?

While he was still thinking about the possibilities, there were sirens around the car. It seemed like the monitoring center had finally found out and sent someone to stop him!

“Pal, the police are chasing at the back. Stop the car!” the driver was petrified. This was the end for him. Were they going to detain his car now? This seven hundred RMB wasn’t enough for the fine....

Lin Yi frowned slightly. He didn’t think that the police were this efficient. They locked on his location in an instant! He could only call Song Lingshan now. The good news was that Lingshan was finally out of the kidney trafficking organization meaning her phone was usable, so Lin Yi quickly made a call.

“Hello? Song Lingshan?” Lin Yi didn’t wait for Lingshan’s response as he continued: “My car is being chased by the police. I’m heading to the hospital to rescue someone, tell them to leave.”

When Lingsahn received Lin Yi’s call, she thought that he was going to ask her about the kidney trafficking organization. She didn’t think that it would be a different thing! But this time, Lingshan wasn’t displeased by Lin Yi’s command. She didn’t ask about the details, “Your car plate number?”

“What’s your car plate number?” Lin Yi asked the driver.

The driver was flabbergasted. This man knew Song Lingshan? With the driver’s knowledge, he shouldn’t have known who was Lingshan in his profession, but he did watch news on the broadcast. Coincidentally, he heard that the new captain of the criminal team was Song Lingshan who had done splendidly in the bank robbery case. He had a good impression of her. Not long ago, a criminal was caught again by this Song Lingshan, so the driver thought that this new captain of the criminal team was pretty capable.

But little did he know that Lin Yi was acquainted with Song Lingshan. His tone wasn’t polite either when he was talking to her. Just who was this guy?

Lin Yi didn’t have the time to consider what was in the driver’s mind so he told Lingshan the numbers directly.

Lingshan, on the other hand, jotted down the numbers and made a call to the police command center. She couldn’t just ignore Lin Yi’s problem, could she? Besides, Lin Yi had made it clear. He was heading to the hospital to save lives. Wait a minute. A hospital? To rescue?

Lingshan suddenly remembered her subordinate reported about the news in Songshan’s first school! However, she had her hands full with the kidney trafficking case, so she sent one of her leaders there.

Could it be that Lin Yi was going to rescue the poisoned students? The possibility was pretty high because Lin Yi was also the student of Songshan’s first school, and he was also hired by Pengzhan! But this was not what Lingshan had in her head, so she didn’t ask much.

In an instant, she realized something. Lin Yi didn’t call her Miss Braindead just now. He actually called her by her full name, and this gratified Lingshan tremendously! Was he too busy to ridicule her, or was it a change between them? Lingshan wondered.

Damn, who cares. As long as she was in good terms with him, Lingshan didn’t want to think about their complicated relationship anymore. She tossed the thought in the back of her head.

Chapter 665: Just How Strong are You?

Just How Strong are You?

When Lin Yi drove through another street, the sirens were nowhere to be heard. It seemed like they were informed not to continue their pursuit.

The driver was looking at Lin Yi in great admiration. He only came back to his senses when they reached the hospital. Was he the God of racing?! He looked at the time. It just took nineteen minutes! This was a miracle, and it was astoundingly unbelievable!

He never thought that his old run-down cheap car had the potential of a sports car. Was his car even faster than a sports car?

Lin Yi's phone rang when he got down from the car. Initially, he thought that Yushu was calling for his whereabouts but the screen only showed Guan Xuemin's name.

Lin Yi picked up the call while walking into the hospital, "Hello, Grandpa Guan, what's the matter?"

Lin Yi was worried about the Miss' safety, but he had to stay polite talking to Xuemin. He still sounded a little restless as he wanted to end the call as soon as possible.

"Lil Yi, where are you? If you are free, can you come over for a while?" Xuemin heard the unsettled tone in Lin Yi's voice. It seemed like Lin Yi had his hands full. This made Xuemin's heart jumped a beat!

If Lin Yi was unable to come, things would really be hopeless.

"I'm in Songshan's second hospital. Something has happened to my friend. I'm rushing over to rescue her right now. I'm afraid I don't have time to come!" Lin Yi replied hastily, "I'm truly sorry, Grandpa Guan. I'll call you when I'm done here?"

Lin Yi pushed the door open and entered the emergency room when he was conversing with Xuemin. There was one doctor who was trying to stop Lin Yi, but who knew Lin Yi's speed was inhuman? Just in a blink of an eye, he had already entered the room.

Xuemin startled upon hearing Lin Yi's reply. Lin Yi was in Songshan's second hospital? Why was there an echo when he spoke? Xuemin lifted his head up to see a shadow charging towards his direction. Wasn't that Lin Yi?

Lin Yi came? Could it be that Lin Yi's friend was one of the poisoned victims? Xuemin relaxed when he thought of this possibility. If that was the case, then the students could be saved now!

Xuemin quickly got up and followed, "Lil Yi!"

Lin Yi flinched when he heard someone was calling his name. He listened closely and found that it was Guan Xuemin's voice! Lin Yi looked at his phone. The sound wasn't coming from it but it was from his back!

Lin Yi turned back, surprised, "Grandpa Guan, why are you here?"

"Is your friend one of the fainted patients?" Xuemin didn't answer Lin Yi's question and asked his question hurriedly.

“Oh?” Lin Yi paused as realization dawned upon him. “I got it now. Grandpa Guan, you are looking for me because of these students, right? Nevertheless, even if you have people you know here, I have to meet my friend first. I’m sorry. I’ll visit your friend after I’m done with mine!”

Lin Yi made himself clear. Although their relationship was pretty close if Guan Xuemin wasn’t the one who fainted, Lin Yi had to check the Miss first.

“Hehe, I don’t have any acquaintances here. Go, go meet your friend. As long as you can determine the cause of this, then saving them would be so much easier. I was just invited by them to check on the students.” Xuemin waved his hand to Lin Yi, asking him to put all his focus on his friend first.

Lin Yi nodded. It seemed like he had misunderstood Xuemin. Xuemin was just worried about the students’ condition.

“Alright, I’ll meet my friend first then!” Lin Yi nodded and started looking for Mengyao’s room. Not long after searching, he saw a room with Pengzhan, Uncle Fu, and Yushu. That room had to be Mengyao’s isolation room.

Lin Yi pushed the door open. Pengzhan was ignorant of Lin Yi’s medical skills. He thought that Shu was just simply desperate. He really never thought that Lin Yi could rescue his daughter. Uncle Fu, on the other hand, was in deep thought. He knew that Lin Yi’s strength wasn’t simple. After all, he killed two golden class masters at ease. Just how sharp were his skills to beat that feat?

When Lin Yi started working for Pengzhan, Uncle Fu suspected that Lin Yi had a late phase of golden class strength. But recently, he heard that Lin Yi had a face-off with Zhao Qibing’s bodyguard, Uncle Zhu. The news surprised Uncle Fu to a great extent! Naturally, Uncle Fu’d heard of the big name of Uncle Zhu. His name was pretty well known in the early underworld days. He had the strength of an early phase mystic class, after all. Basically, no one could stand against him!

After that, Uncle Fu heard that Uncle Zhu was hired by a family, but little did he know that he became Zhao Qibing’s follower. Even if a master didn’t have any breakthrough for this whole time, their strength wouldn’t diminish. They definitely had someone in the early phase mystic class strength! However, Lin Yi didn’t seem to have any injuries after getting a direct hit from Uncle Zhu. This blew Uncle Fu’s mind!

Just how strong was Lin Yi? Could he have the strength of an early phase mystic class as well? They could only fight each other if they had the same strength! Of course, if Lin Yi were a middle phase mystic class master, Uncle Fu would’ve died from the fight!

But Uncle Zhu was still alive, and Lin Yi wasn’t injured. That was the strangest part of the whole thing! If Lin Yi was a lot stronger than Uncle Zhu, not having any injuries after the fight was possible, but if the difference between their strength was that great, there was no way Uncle Zhu could survive from that hit, could he? Perhaps he would’ve kicked the bucket already?

With the strength of a middle phase mystic class, if they were to fight seriously, one would inevitably be killed, and the other injured, of course! However, Lin Yi wasn’t injured and Uncle Zhu wasn’t killed. There were only two possibilities, either Lin Yi didn’t use his full strength or Lin Yi’s medical skills were superb, and he healed himself in no time!

Uncle Fu felt that the first possibility was rather small because Lin Yi was enraged at the moment. How could he show mercy to the enemy? Furthermore, after breaking Qibing's legs, he seemed to have other business. If he didn't think that Uncle Zhu was a threat, he could've continued what was left behind after taking down Uncle Zhu, but he didn't and chose to retreat!

Most importantly, Lin Yi was indeed injured that night. He even stayed at Fatty Lai's house to treat his injury! Although Uncle Fu wasn't there and didn't know how severe his injuries were, he knew that it wasn't light.

This was the reason why Uncle Fu suspected that Lin Yi must have incredible medical skills up his sleeves.

Chapter 666: Both are Possible

Both are Possible

"Professor Guan, Lil' Yi, you guys came!" Only Pengzhan noticed this detail. No matter what happened, Lin Yi was still a junior, so he put Xuemin's name before Lin Yi.

"I'm just following Lil' Yi, it....." Xuemin was a scholar, so he never cared about his reputation or appearances. If Lin Yi was better than him, then he was better. He would never try to cover it. However, before he could finish his sentence, he was interrupted by Yushu.

"Shield bro, you've finally arrived! Faster, check on Yaoyao sis. You have to make her recover!"

Lin Yi nodded, his expression was dignified when he held onto Mengyao's hand to check her pulse.

Weak, it was extraordinarily weak. It was no different from a dying old man! However, looking from Elder Jiao's perspective, the energy was just flowing out of Mengyao at supernatural speed. When a person lost all their energy, that was the moment they reach the last phase of life.

Lin Yi frowned. Her condition was absurd. There were a few possibilities that could have caused it. One, it had to be the individual's problem. Someone could be born with an incurable disease but Mengyao didn't seem to have it.

The next possibility was a malignant disease, cancer as an example. But judging from Mengyao's previous condition, she wasn't even close to having such a thing.

Other than that, there were two unusual possibilities. First, she was hit by a master, causing all of her internal organs to be critically damaged, resulting in this ageing sign. The second was poisoning. There was a certain type of poison that could rapidly damage the organs' function, killing one faster.

Lin Yi hadn't read the reports yet. He didn't even have time for that as he asked Xuemin, "Grandpa Guan, what do you think?"

Xuemin quickly answered Lin Yi, "The experts have two directions. For now, they suspect that these students are either infected by some unknown bacteria or food poisoning."

"Bacteria? Poison?" Lin Yi nodded. "Both are possible."

“Both are possible?” Xuemin startled. He couldn’t believe that Lin Yi actually agreed with the bacteria’s theory. This surprised him a little.

“I had once studied parasitic poison pretty thoroughly in the past. Actually many poisons from the parasitic disease are actually a kind of bacteria, and the infected ones have the same experience as these students.” Lin Yi continued, “Despite that, back to the source. This is still poisoning. Parasitic poison can still be considered a poison.”

“I see!” Xuemin’d never heard of a parasitic poison. He only realized he was being biased after listening to Lin Yi’s explanation. What Zhang Weikang said wasn’t all wrong, either! Of course, it was just pure coincidence for Zhang Weikang to hit the bullseye while plotting something bad. This was also something out of his league.

Lin Yi was just analyzing, He wasn’t certain that Mengyao was actually poisoned, but he could easily make her conscious. The tough part was to maintain her consciousness after waking her up!

“Grandpa Guan, is there anything wrong with the food in the stomach?” Lin Yi was actually assuming that, but he still asked anyway.

“Not at all!” Xuemin said: “At least, that’s what was written on the report. The food is not poisonous, but there are a few types of poisons from herbs or insects that are undetected by the chemical tests!”

Lin Yi nodded, “I know about that, I’m actually pretty good at poisons. Tang’s Poison Incantations has basically covered all the poisons in the world and detoxifications as well.”

As a matter of fact, Lin Yi had evidently made a great deal of research regarding poisons. His old man was one of the main reasons why he was so good at it. Lin Yi hadn’t had an idea why was his old man so obsessed with poisons and parasitic poisons. But, it made Lin Yi an expert in making poisons and antidotes too.

“Tang’s Poison Incantations?! You have read Tang’s Poison Incantations before?” Xuemin’s expression changed instantly, looking at Lin Yi with unbelieving eyes! He had once read an ancient book where the name of Tang’s Poison Incantations was recommended when Thousand Year Poison was mentioned!

Tang’s Poison Incantations, as its name implied, it was from Tang’s sect, one of the mysterious books. The Tang’s base was in Sichuan, also called as the Tang’s fort. They were very famous throughout the world because of their poisons! However, their works had failed to be handed down from past generations. Sometimes, we could only see it in some Wuxia novels or movies. The existence of this sect was still a mystery until now, so even Xuemin himself was unsure if Tang’s Poison Incantations really existed or not. These types of medical ancient books weren’t documented conservatively, after all. The events mentioned in it were absurd, some were true and some were false, there was no way to differentiate it!

“Yeah.” Lin Yi nodded. There was more than just Tang’s Poison Incantations in his old home. They also had the Book of Five Poisons and some poison-related books could be found there too.

Xuemin got even excited at the thought that Lin Yi might be the descendant of a medical noble house. How was he able to have access to these lost ancient medical books? Of course, Xuemin knew the best that this was not the time for questions, so he compressed the excitement in his heart down and asked, "Then, can you save them?"

"If they were really poisoned, then I'm positive. Let me try first." Lin Yi didn't answer the question completely. Before leaving the mountain, his old man said that he had already mastered one-third of his capability. It was more than enough for him to live a carefree life in a mundane world of strife. However, Lin Yi wasn't overconfident. Who knew if he could really make things right?

As things stood, Lin Yi wasn't concerned about Mengyao's safety at all. As long as he could continuously supply the pure qi into her body, the energy that Elder Jiao said, he could pretty much keep Mengyao's life limitlessly. Even if he was unable to undo the poison, he could make his old man come down to rescue her.

Although his old man was always bragging how good he was, like being the number one miracle doctor in the whole world, Lin Yi knew that his old man was a real deal. Although there was still a gap between him and his old man, they were just on different levels...

Lin Yi silently activated the Art of Dragon Mastery within him, sending energy into Mengyao's body. Luckily, her body wasn't like Xiaoxiao. She wasn't a black hole who sucked every last bit of energy out of Lin Yi.

Mengyao was a normal person so not much of energy was needed. The energy he needed was just a drop in the ocean. This relieved Lin Yi! If Mengyao were to suck his energy dry like Xiaoxiao, then he couldn't save Mengyao. He needed time to recharge back, didn't he?

After the energy entered Mengyao's body, she quickly regained back the traces of life. Her whole body was hyped in energy. Not long, her eyelashes started to move. Yushu, who was beside Mengyao, glared at Mengyao with opened eyes. She could see the change in Mengyao, as she hoorayed in surprise, "Yaoyao sis, are you waking up?"

Chapter 667: It was Healed Instantly

It was Healed Instantly

Mengyao opened her eyes, looking at Yushu with questioning eyes. She felt that she'd a good nap just now. Her body was full of energy. It was a pleasant sensation, "Shu, did I fall asleep? Eh? Where is this place. Weren't we in the classroom?"

"Oh! Yaoyao sis has finally woken up! Thank God. You got me so worried!" Yushu didn't answer Mengyao's question as she pulled onto Mengyao's hand and hoorayed happily again, "Hoo! Hoo! Shield Bro, you are so strong! I've decided to be your friend again!"

While she was speaking, Yushu suddenly gave Lin Yi a hug and briskly pecked a kiss on his face.

As startled as Lin Yi was, he didn't dwell on that thought for long when he saw the excitement in Yushu's eyes. She was always acting in such a manner, so Pengzhan and Uncle Fu didn't think that as an issue as well. Their attention was placed on Mengyao instead!

“Yaoyao, you’re finally awake, that’s great! How do you feel?” Pengzhan couldn’t believe that Lin Yi was able to rescue his daughter in such a short time. This was unbelievable and out of his expectation! He was completely perplexed. How did Lin Yi save his daughter? He didn’t seem to have done anything, other than just hold onto Mengyao’s hand for a moment.

Xuemin, on the other hand, was taken completely by surprise. What had Lin Yi done? How did he save a person on the edge of death to full recovery? Mengyao was energetic, no less. Could this really be a miracle in medical history?!

Only Uncle Fu had a different thought. He was aware of what Lin Yi did just now but it was still too absurd to be real! Other than that reason, he couldn’t find any better explanation for it!

In the world of martial arts, there was a legend saying that one could surge one’s body energy to another vessel through some masteries! This happened when someone was badly injured and another party came to rescue by sending the injured one his pure qi.

Of course, this technique had its limits. The injured one and the person supplying had to practice the same martial arts. If both parties were training different martial arts, their pure qi would differ from each other. Consequently, if they were to forcefully accept the pure qi, it would have a negative effect on the injured one, damaging instead of healing!

So how did Lin Yi do that? If Mengyao was a practitioner, he could understand. If their energies were similar, it would still have healing effects. However, Mengyao was no practitioner. She was just an ordinary person, so how did Lin Yi do that?

Uncle Fu was bewildered by the fact. Of course, as curious as he was, he knew that this art might involve with Lin Yi’s sect secret. It was a taboo for a practitioner to spy into other’s business, so Uncle Fu would never bring the questions up. Even though he was curious, he’d just bury it deep within his heart.

“I’m good. Besides, I feel so much energy flowing inside me now! By the way, why am I here?” Mengyao asked curiously. She wondered how did she end up on a hospital bed? Even her dad and Uncle Fu were here to visit her? Wasn’t she in the school just a second ago?

“Yaoyao sis, we were talking this afternoon, and out of the blue, you fainted! That scared the hell out of me so I sent you to the school infirmary, but it turned out that many students had fainted as well...” Yushu explained. “You don’t remember a thing?”

“Kinda. I was very dizzy that time, and fell asleep just that...” Mengyao recalled.

“Yeah, yeah, those doctors have even made a notice of critical condition for you. That’s totally ridiculous!” Yushu complained angrily. “I thought that I’d never see you again, but as soon as Shield Bro arrived, you were healed instantly! What kinda bullshit doctors are they. I’m gonna give them a good scolding later!!”

“Hehe...” Mengyao felt warm upon seeing the concern of Shu towards her. However, she was confused about what was going on. Naturally, Mengyao wouldn’t think that these doctors were charlatans. They must have their reasons to decide that, after all! Lin Yi must be the one who rescued her. It wasn’t as simple as what Yushu said! She turned her gaze towards Lin Yi and thanked him gratefully, “Lin Yi, thank you very much!”

"It's nothing...." Lin Yi smiled bitterly. Mengyao waking up now was just temporary. Lin Yi could feel the energy being lost in Mengyao's body as they spoke.

There was only one word to describe the rate at which her energy was being consumed losing speed.

Insane!

He believed that Mengyao wouldn't hold very long before losing conscious again!

"Lin Yi, why don't you have a look at the other students?" Xuemin thought of other victims outside.

"Yeah, lil Yi, can you lend a hand to other students as well?" Pengzhan knew that for his daughter waking up wasn't as simple as he thought. He didn't know if Lin Yi was willing to save the others like how he saved his daughter, so Pengzhan could only ask him a favor...

The noise in Mengyao's room caught the attention of the parents from the other isolation rooms. They walked out of the room to see Mengyao sat up from her bed. In a second, they rushed into her room.

"Miracle doctor, please save my son, I'm begging of you!"

"Yeah, Miracle doctor, let me kneel down for you. Please go and save our son!"

The parents didn't see clearly who brought Mengyao back to life, but it had to be either one of them in this room, so they called the person Miracle Doctor without a thought. The hospital had already given out the notice of the critical condition. If a person could wake the patient up, who could it be other than being a Miracle Doctor himself?!

Lin Yi saw the desperate eyes of the parents and looked at Pengzhan. He understood why Pengzhan had asked him for help! If these students were to have unexpected misfortune happened to them, then Pengzhan's industries and his school would most probably be associated too!

What Lin Yi and Pengzhan didn't know was that the Direwolf had started taking action as soon as he returned. After reporting to his workplace, he even asked them to post it on the newspaper, writing the poisoning event in the school and uploading the news into the newspaper's website page.

This third-rate tabloid was under private management so it wasn't that well-known. The director was still depressing on how to raise the popularity of the newspaper, but after seeing this breaking news, he would obviously never let this golden opportunity slip!

Hence, he agreed on the spot. He gave the Direwolf the role to follow up this case. He allowed the progress of the investigation to be shown on the internet and newspaper simultaneously! This gratified the Direwolf greatly. The title was set as "Unknown virus flooding in Songshan First School, could the school be a biohazardous ground?". The news went viral immediately on the net!

There was no denying that Direwolf was very treacherous. The title alone had attracted countless people's attention! While the content was impressively written, he turned a news report to a horror novel, adding his personal opinions for the cause of these twenty-eight fainted students!

Having an unknown virus in the news went viral and raised a new uproar of the people who were concerned with infectious disease....

The school might have been cursed, and the fainted students were sent to the hospital but the doctors were unable to identify the problem. Worse of all, a critical condition notice was given directly by the doctors, no less!

Chapter 668: Tang Yin's Hesitation

Tang Yin's Hesitation

He even said that the school was originally a biochemistry research centre and that it had been cultivating tons of virus. He said that these students were the unlucky ones who accidentally touched the source of this virus, resulting in this biohazard!

Of course, this was just a speculation of the Direwolf. It was just his personal hypothesis. To sue him for defamation was just a waste of time since he had already stated clearly it was just speculation! The truth was still unrevealed until the police started doing their job!

So, he was able to find mistakes! Lastly, the Dire Wolf even warned the public about the safety of the school. Even the chairman's daughter was unable to avoid this misfortune, where could the parents send their children to school in the near future?

It was an unlucky day for the twenty-eight students today. Will your son draw the short straw tomorrow? Love life, and stray away from Songshan First school!

When the news went out, the parents of the students in Songshan First School went into a frenzy. All of them rushed to the school trying to get their children away. They wanted to stop their children from attending school. In a situation like this, who would be brave enough to allow their children to continue the study there?

Who knew if God unleashed its fury on their children tomorrow?

The principal and Dean weren't in the school. Only the vice principal stayed back to control the scene. However, he didn't have enough power to stop the parents. They were the parents of the students after all. How could he not approve it?

Hence, most of the students had left the school. There was less than one-third of the students. As a result, the class could no longer be continued. The vice principal announced the temporary closure of the school, sending all the students back home.

Lin Yi wasn't around, so Kang Xiaobo went to look for Liu Xinwen and Tang Yin instead. Both of the girls' parents didn't come and pick them up due to their unavailability. Tang Yin's parents were still in the hospital and Xinwen's parent was busy plotting a strategy against the relocation project.

"Did Boss contact you?" Xiaobo asked Tang Yin.

"Nope." Tang Yin shook her head. "He might be busy now."

Tang Yin didn't want to be seen as a girlfriend who would only spy on her boyfriend's actions. If Lin Yi didn't say anything, she wouldn't make the move first.

“Tang Yin sis-in-law, did you know? Mengyao is one of the twenty-eight fainted students. The hospital has already sent out the notice of the critical condition. She can’t probably survive until tomorrow. No one is going to fight with you over Lin Yi now!” Xiaobo lowered his voice as he spoke.

Xiaobo was in the classroom the whole time. He saw the whole process of Yushu carrying Mengyao out of the classroom. He was confused that time, but now that the news was spread out, Xiaobo knew that Mengyao must be one of the victims. As angelic as Mengyao was, he was just showing his concern over beauty. Now that he had a girlfriend, he sided with Tang Yin. Of course he wouldn’t want to see Mengyao showing any threats towards Tang Yin. If Mengyao were to die here and now, it would be a pity. But on the positive side, Tang Yin would be rival-free, wouldn’t she?

“Huh!? She..... fainted??” Tang Yin couldn’t help but taken aback by Xiaobo’s words. She never expected this to happen on Mengyao. Although she didn’t like Mengyao, she wouldn’t wish for her to die! She was just a little pissed off at Mengyao’s superior arrogance. If something bad were to happen to her, she would obviously pity her. After all, Mengyao was just nineteen, just at the age of blossoming...

“Yeah, I witnessed the whole scene myself! Aye, life is full of uncertainty!” Xiaobo sighed. Mengyao was still arguing with Tang Yin this lunch break, and in a blink of an eye, she was laying on the hospital bed.

“This....” Tang Yin hesitated, she was really hesitating!

When Tang Yin heard that Mengyao was sent to the hospital, Lin Yi’s superior medical skills came to her first. He should have his ways to handle this. However, if Lin Yi, her boyfriend, was treating her love rival, she would feel awkward, unwilling and uncomfortable inside!

But, she couldn’t just ignore a life, could she? She might be her love rival, fighting for Lin Yi fair and square, but this didn’t mean that Tang Yin would be in the inferior side. Now that she was Lin Yi’s girlfriend, she clearly had an upper hand. Mengyao was just Lin Yi’s employer!

Tang Yin felt relieved. It would be best for her to call Lin Yi now, wasn’t it? After all, Mengyao was Lin Yi’s employer. Since she had gotten the news, how could she just refuse to save a life?

“Tang Yin, what are you thinking? Don’t tell me you are worried about Chu Mengyao?” Xinwen saw the hesitation in Tang Yin’s face as she asked.

“Xinwen, I’ve to tell Lin Yi about this. He has medical skills. I bet he can heal Mengyao. I can’t just ignore her.” Tang Yin said as she pulled out her phone. This phone was smashed once but it wasn’t broken yet.

“Ah? Tang Yin, are you insane? Mengyao is dying. You will have no rivals after this. How can you call Lin Yi to heal her now?” Xinwen looked at Tang Yin with doubtful eyes, trying to touch her forehead to check whether she had a fever or not.

“Xinwen, this has nothing to do with that. I’m not afraid of her fighting over Lin Yi! I can’t just ignore a life...” Tang Yin bit her lips. She might have said that she wasn’t afraid of her, but she couldn’t help but feel uneasy. After all, the Mengyao was pretty as her, but Mengyao had a good background. Mengyao even said so herself. Living with Lin Yi gave her an advantage. In other words, both of them were at the same starting line. No one was losing on either side. However, the most important piece lied beside Mengyao. Chen Yushu who had been wanting to be a concubine all her life. Furthermore, she’d been spouting nonsense about 3P all this while!

As innocent as Tang Yin was, she knew the meaning of 3P. She had heard the boys in the classroom talking about this a lot. It seemed like a huge attraction to men. Who knew if Lin Yi was able to hold back his desire from their seduction?

“Aye, look at yourself. You are hesitating!” Xinwen saw the uncertainty in Tang Yin’s gaze, but she shook her head, “Never mind, just do as you wish!”

Tang Yin nodded as she called Lin Yi.

Lin Yi was troubled when all of the parents charged into the room, he didn’t know how to explain everything. Technically speaking, since Pengzhan had spoken up, Lin Yi wouldn’t have a choice but help the rest, but he hadn’t actually figured out the correct method to save them.

Lin Yi sighed helplessly. His phone rang when he was about to speak. This gave him an escape route from this mess. He gave an apologetic nod to Pengzhan as he picked up the call, “Tang Yin, what’s going on?”

Normally, when Tang Yin was fine, she wouldn’t call Lin Yi in the day. She would only message at most.

“Lin Yi, where are you? I heard that Chu Mengyao has fainted and was sent to the hospital. Hurry up, go and save her.” Tang Yin clenched her teeth.

“En?” Lin Yi startled. He didn’t expect Tang Yin to purposely give him a call for this. Lin Yi smiled, it seemed like Tang Yin’s and the Miss’ relationship wasn’t that bad, after all. At least, they weren’t unmixable like fire and water!

Chapter 669: Unable to Save!

“Alright, I’m ending the call now.” Tangyin didn’t want to disturb whatever Lin Yi was doing now.

“Ha, okay, I got it.” Lin Yi said with a smile.

Lin Yi was just standing beside Mengyao so she was able to hear the contents of the call very clearly. Even she herself couldn’t believe what she had heard as she displayed a dumbfounded expression—she had never expected Tangyin would call Lin Yi to come and save her!

The Miss was feeling somewhat bad inside; she was originally a person who was cold on the outside but warm on the inside. Even though her attitude might be all proud and aloof, this was all due to her environment growing up. It wasn’t a big deal at all as she was a kind person in nature.

So when The Miss heard that Tangyin was worrying her, she was overwhelmed with guilt. If she were in Tangyin’s shoe, would she allow Lin Yi to save her? Would she? She couldn’t find an answer for that...

Actually, if their roles were swapped, Mengyao would still ask Lin Yi to go for the rescue. It was similar to the previous time when they had first met An Jianwen in the theme park. Although Mengyao wasn’t pleased with Jianwen’s approach, she didn’t want to see him die when his symptoms acted up.

From this point, it was obvious that Tangyin and The Miss both shared the same qualities; they were both kind-natured.

“Help me thank her...” The Miss had wanted to say this before Lin Yi ended the call but the words couldn’t make it out, so she had waited until the call ended.

“Ha...” Lin Yi nodded. For The Miss to go against Tangyin less in the future was what Lin Yi would be naturally glad to see.

While Lin Yi was answering the call, the parents didn’t dare to disturb him because—from Xuemin and Pengzhan’s mouths—they learned that the miracle doctor who had pulled the tricks out was this unbelievably young man, so all of them waited for Lin Yi to end the call before surrounding him.

“Miracle doctor, can you please have a look at my children? Just tell me the fee, I can pay as high as Chairman Chu can, even if my house goes poor, I’ll still pay you for sure!” This parent thought that Lin Yi had been hired by Pengzhan as a miracle doctor.

“Yes! I’m begging of you, please have a look at my children, we won’t let you do the job for free!” Another parent begged.

“I have a company. Although my company is not as big as Chairman Chu’s, I do still have a few million assets throw around. If you agree to save my child, take as much as you wish, just tell me the price!” A well-dressed man said.

“It’s not that I don’t want to save them, it’s just that I am unable to.” Lin Yi felt the pain in his head and he could only tell the truth now.

“Ah?” the parents were all started, even Xuemin and Pengzhan were both taken aback—they didn’t know what Lin Yi meant. Unable to save? Could it be that Lin Yi didn’t want to?

Meanwhile, only Uncle Fu was guessing silently. Lin Yi might have really used his own pure qi to awaken Mengyao but this method greatly reduced the person’s strength. If it wasn’t someone he treasured with utmost importance, no one would throw away their strength just to save a nobody!

Uncle Fu was a physical master and didn’t have any pure qi in his body. Even if he did, unless Pengzhan or Mengyao was injured, he wouldn’t simply use that method to save others! Now that Pengzhan and Xuemin were asking Lin Yi to save them, they were obviously putting Lin Yi in a difficult position!

“Miracle doctor, you can’t just do nothing when a life is in danger!”

“Yeah, that’s not what a miracle doctor should do...”

The parents were starting to panic, but they couldn’t afford to be rude. After all, Lin Yi didn’t have an obligation to save their children so the parents were flattering him and urging him to save their children at the same time.

“As I’ve said, it’s not that I don’t want to save them, but I am incapable of saving them as I am now.” Lin Yi shook his head.

“Incapable? But didn’t you just wake the Chairman’s daughter up...”

“Yeah, yeah, miracle doctor, didn’t you just heal back Chu Mengyao?”

The parents started to doubt Lin Yi's reasoning. They thought that Lin Yi didn't want to save their children as he kept rejecting their requests.

"Not good, sis Yaoyao is fainting again!" Yushu cried suddenly, pulling onto Mengyao's hand panickedly and looking at Lin Yi. "Shield bro, shield bro, come here, why is sis Yaoyao fainting again?"

Yushu's call surprised Pengzhan, Uncle Fu, and Xuemin at the same time and while the parents looked perplexed at the once again fainted Mengyao, they didn't know what was going on.

"As you guys can see, I didn't actually heal her, I just woke her up for a moment." Lin Yi smiled bitterly as he caught onto Mengyao's hand, checking her pulse. It was very weak—as weak as the moment when he had arrived. Even if her pulse was stronger by a little now, it didn't make a difference at all.

Mengyao's energy was drained out and not much was left. But the positive side was that the energy lost during her unconscious state was a lot slower than in the conscious state. Even if that was the case, it would be tough for her to stay alive until tomorrow.

"Ah?" the parents only then understood what Lin Yi meant. He didn't actually heal Mengyao, but had just woken her up from her unconscious state for a while.

"Lil Yi, what's going on here?" Xuemin and Pengzhan were puzzled as they looked at Lin Yi for an answer.

"Shield bro, what should we do now! Sis Yaoyao has fainted again; she should be fine, right?" Yushu was worried.

"She's fine for now. As for the way to save her, I'm still working on it, can you guys please move out of this room?" Lin Yi took a look at the parents. "After I figure out the solution, your children will eventually be saved as well."

Lin Yi's words calmed the parents down. At the very least he wasn't refusing to save their children! That being said, all of them didn't want to disturb him and quickly moved out of the room, giving Lin Yi some peace of mind.

On the other hand, Pengzhan hesitated and asked: "Lil Yi, should we go out as well?"

"Ugh...that's not needed for now." Lin Yi shook his head. He was very frustrated on the inside. As knowledgeable as he was in the field of poison and ways to counter it, he still lacked some experience. All these years he had been training outside and didn't have any interactions with poisons, so even with all the knowledge in his brain, he still didn't know where to start from.

Now he didn't know what poison was in Mengyao's body and was not sure where the source had come from, so he could only learn that from her body. If he were poisoned, what would his old man do?

Lin Yi frowned and started recalling what his old man would do in the situation. When he was small, he had been bitten by some venomous insects, fairly close to handing his life up to the skies. At that time, his old man didn't know where the source of the poison was and couldn't identify the type of poison with the symptoms alone.

Right, his old man had used acupuncture to force the toxins out of his body at that time!

Chapter 670: I've Got a Solution Now

However, Lin Yi was discouraged at the thought of using acupuncture to force the toxin out since acupuncture had a lot of results. If the needle was poked into a wrong spot, it could have totally different effects!

He was a practitioner, and in terms of physique or willpower, he was a lot stronger than ordinary people, so he was able to tolerate the pain in the process of forcing the toxin out via acupuncture. This method relied on the fine needles to control the pure qi in the body, using them to force the toxin to gather at a spot and excrete the toxin out via urination. Enduring the whole process was a living hell. The person needed very precise physical capabilities because if the person failed to withstand it, that person would eventually lose energy and might die during the process.

Ordinary people had no way of using this method since they didn't have much pure qi in their body. The level of pure qi in their body and a practitioner's body was drastically different. Hence, too much pure qi was unable to move the toxin at all.

Of course, if this was just a normal poison that wouldn't threaten one's life, even without using too much of pure qi, the same goal could be reached by using needles or messaging techniques.

However, Mengyao was an ordinary person and the poison she suffered was a deadly one. Lin Yi couldn't bring himself to risk her life! If things really couldn't work here, he could just extend Mengyao's life by inserting his energy into her body. Then he could just bring her to his old man, believing that his old man must have solutions to this puzzle.

En? A thought flashed across Lin Yi's mind! If Mengyao could use his energy, it meant that Lin Yi could just keep on inserting his energy into Mengyao's while doing the acupuncture technique on her at the same time!

And since the source of Mengyao's pure qi solely depended on Lin Yi, as long as he didn't stop inserting the energy into her body, then the drawbacks of this technique would never happen on her!

Thinking until this point, Lin Yi was delighted. He couldn't believe that at last he still had to rely on his energy. He really had to thank Elder Jiao. If it wasn't for him, Lin Yi would never understand that his training for this was this useful.

However, Lin Yi suddenly felt troubled. After all, in order to force the toxin out via acupuncture, he had to take off all Mengyao's clothes. The Miss wasn't his girlfriend. If it was Tang Yin, things would be so much easier, but would the Miss allow this?

Besides, he couldn't take her clothes off when she was unconscious, could he? And, during the whole process, Mengyao's cooperation was of utmost importance. She had to stay awake throughout the procedure.

"Grandpa Guan, can you please ask the hospital to prepare a closed room for me. I need absolute silence for the acupuncture treatment. No disturbance is allowed!" Lin Yi stayed silence for a while and requested.

First, he was really afraid of any disturbance. Second, if Mengyao was willing to cooperate, he couldn't just allow others to look at her naked, could he? Hence, a closed room was needed.

“Not a problem!” Xuemin nodded. If they were in Songshan’s First Hospital, then Xuemin’s authority would be lesser since it was public-private joint management, but they were in Songshan’s second hospital which was privately-managed. In other words, his son, Guan Xiaoxiang was the boss of this hospital. Even the dean of the hospital had to listen to him. With Xuemin’s status in the medical world, he could probably do anything here. Even if he was just a normal person without any fame, it was still an easy job in this hospital.

Xuemin called the dean of the hospital, and very soon, the hospital had prepared them a completely closed room in the emergency room.

The hospital workers quickly pushed Mengyao into the closed surgery room. Pengzhan, Uncle Fu and Xuemin, on the other hand, were smart enough not to follow her in. As curious as Xuemin was to learn how Lin Yi was going to treat Mengyao, he gave up his curiosity when he heard Lin Yi say he didn’t want any disturbance.

“I wanna accompany Yaoyao sis!” Yushu didn’t want to leave as she rushed into the surgery room.

“Shu, don’t trouble Lin Yi. Come out now!” Pengzhan knew that Yushu was worried about his daughter, but at this moment, he had no choice but to show his dignity as a senior and stop her from disturbing Lin Yi.

“No! Shield bro. You won’t chase me out, will you?” Yushu looked at Lin Yi with pitiful eyes, but her tone was full of determination: “I must accompany Yaoyao sis!

“Ke, you don’t have to leave. You can stay down to help me out.” Lin Yi never intended to let Yushu leave the room from the start. After all, she needed her help if Mengyao refused to cooperate later.

“Yeah! Shield bro you are the best!” Yushu was happy that she could at least do something for Yaoyao sis in this situation.

Pengzhan let out a sigh of relief when he heard Lin Yi. Making Yushu his assistant put Pengzhan at ease since he knew that Yushu would never do any harm to Mengyao.

Lin Yi locked the room after entering. The room was perfectly sound proof. They couldn’t even hear a sound from the outside.

“Shield bro, are we going to save Yaoyao sis now? What should I do?” Yushu was in a hurry.

“During the acupuncture treatment, I’ll need to have Yaoyao to take off her clothes, but she might not be mentally prepared. Can you please persuade her to cooperate later?” Lin Yi asked.

“Oh, okay!” Yushu nodded. “But, I say, Shield bro, are you trying to feast your eyes on Yaoyao’s body with this opportunity?”

“Ha.....” Lin Yi smiled. “If that was my intention, why would I try to discuss this matter with her? May as well ask you to take off her clothes now.”

“Oh, you are right too!” Yushu thought for a moment before continuing. “What’s the point of discussing then, I’ll take her clothes off now whether she agrees or not!”

“Maybe we should ask first.” Lin Yi waved his hand to stop Yushu and grabbed onto Mengyao’s wrist, channelling the Art of Dragon Mastery. The energy in Lin Yi’s body was transferred into Mengyao’s body at an immense speed.

After not long, Mengyao’s eyelashes started to move again. Once again, she was awakened, but she was aware of the difference this time.

“I..... Did I just faint over again?” Mengyao opened her eye and looked at the unfamiliar surroundings. They weren’t in the same isolation room. But the good thing was that the people in front were still the people she knew, Lin Yi and Shu.

“The toxin in your body is destroying the energy in your body very rapidly. I can only wake you up by giving you my energy, but this is just temporary. The moment I stop transferring energy to you, you’ll go back to being unconscious in the next minute.” Lin Yi explained.

“Ah!” Mengyao was shocked. So that was the case. She thought that she fully recovered earlier, “So what’s going on here?”

“You are probably poisoned.” Lin Yi said.

“Then... can I recover from this?” Mengyao asked.

Chapter 671: Does Yaoyao Sis Suit Your Taste?

Does Yaoyao Sis Suit Your Taste?

“Of course, I’ll use acupuncture treatment to force the toxin out, but I need your cooperation.” Lin Yi said.

“How should I cooperate?” Mengyao asked.

“Take off your clothes. Otherwise, I can’t do it.” Lin Yi said.

“Ah! No way!” Mengyao flinched and sub-consciously rejected.

Take off her clothes? Her face reddened. How could she agree on that? At the very least, she couldn’t accept that.

This was related to her purity. A girl’s body, how could she just allow any random man to see it?

“You can imagine me as a doctor here.” Lin Yi knew that the Miss would react this way, not willing to take off her clothes in front of him that. Previously, she had just drunk a sip of his drink and she made a big fuss out of it. She was very different from Yushu in this matter. The Miss viewed this as something significantly more important. This was also the reason why Lin Yi didn’t dare to take off her clothes before getting her agreement. He didn’t want the Miss to have a knot in her heart.

Mengyao frowned, and Lin Yi was right. He was now taking the role of a doctor, but how could she just imagine him as a doctor? Wasn’t she just deceiving herself? If her naked body were to be seen by Lin Yi, just how was she supposed to face him in the future? How could they just stay under the same roof after this? How awkward would that be?

Besides, she still had to get married someday, hadn't she? Lin Yi's assumption was right; Mengyao was a person who took this matter seriously. She wanted to keep her body as pure as possible for her future husband.

Lin Yi shrugged and looked at Yushu. It was her job to persuade the Miss now. Since Mengyao had just woken up and wouldn't faint any time soon, Lin Yi moved himself to the corner and sat on a chair, quietly waiting.

"Yaoyao sis, you've to take off your clothes, and be a good girl!" Yushu knew that she had to work her hardest in persuading Mengyao now.

"Hehee." Mengyao couldn't hold back her laughter when she saw Yushu acting like a "Little senior", advising her. Normally, things were in the opposite. She was the one telling Yushu to be a good girl and behave properly, "Shu, you've to know, a girl's body, shouldn't simply be seen by any man!"

"It's not simply, and only Shield bro will have a glance of it. It doesn't matter at all!" Yushu said.

"No means no, I can only allow my future husband to see!" Mengyao continued, "A girl's chastity is of utmost importance. We should rather die than show it to others!"

"Is that so!" Yushu turned her eyeballs around, but her expression was sorrowful.

"Yeah, I say. Lin Yi can only treat me with my clothes on. Even if he fails to bring me back to recovery, I won't blame him for that." Mengyao smiled and patted Yushu's head.

"I'll take your clothes off for you!" Yushu said as she moved her hands.

"Shu!" Mengyao couldn't believe that Yushu didn't listen to what she said just now. Why couldn't her soulmate just understand her? She quickly stopped her, "What are you doing? Didn't I tell you? A girl's body is priceless. You can only show it to your future husband...."

"You are right. Shield bro has seen my body before meaning that I've to marry him now as his concubine! Since I'm the second wife, you must be Shield bro's main wife so he is your legal future husband now. So it shouldn't be a problem. Just show it to him earlier. He's going to see everything anyway in the future, am I right?" Yushu asserted eloquently.

"Ah?" Mengyao widened her eyes. Yushu's claim made her angry and want to laugh at the same time, but there was no doubt that what Yushu said was all true. Lin Yi had really seen Shu shirtless. He had even touched her boobs and kissed her before. They were pretty intimate....

However, Mengyao still couldn't accept Yushu's theory about the main wife and the second wife. Wasn't that theory too far-fetched and implausible? Suddenly, Mengyao remembered what she promised Yushu. She promised to stay forever with Yushu and be sisters for the rest of her life. She felt that her head was getting heavier. Thinking too hard had taken a toll on her, and she collapsed once again.

"Oh, since Yaoyao sis is not answering, I assume that you are too shy to agree, kay!" Yushu rubbed her hands, getting excited to take off Mengyao's clothes. Not long, Mengyao's clothes were all peeled off and a white sheep was presented.

Although Lin Yi didn't go near them, the surgery room wasn't big in the first place and with his impressive listening ability, he was able to hear the whole conversation. However, he chose not to stick his head into it and pretended not to hear a thing. What made Lin Yi want to laugh was that Yushu took advantage of Mengyao when she lost her consciousness. Lin Yi didn't stop Yushu because he could hear the difference in the Miss's concern. She had softened at the end of the conversation. They couldn't persuade her completely with the short of time, but since Yushu had peeled off her clothes, then Mengyao would have to accept now.

"Shield bro, come over now. I've removed Yaoyao sis's clothes!" Yushu shouted to Lin Yi excitedly. After knowing that Lin Yi had found a way to heal Mengyao, she wasn't worried anymore.

Lin Yi wanted to laugh at how Yushu sounded. She made him look like a huge tyrant and she was her accomplice, aiding him to take advantage of Mengyao!

Lin Yi strolled towards them, and his breath was surprisingly unstable. Even though he had put in a lot of effort in restraining himself and he was now taking a role as a doctor, he tried his hardest not to think in a dirty direction. However, the person right in front of him was the Miss. How could he not have a bee in his bonnet?

To say that Lin Yi had no feelings for the Miss was impossible. He had been interacting with the Miss and Yushu day and night, and it made Lin Yi grow quite fond of them. His thoughts should remain as thoughts. He couldn't really just do anything inappropriate to them, could he?

Mengyao's skin was crystal white. After Lin Yi landed his gaze on top, he couldn't afford to move down anymore. This was his first experience enjoying a girl's body openly, after all. Although he had seen Yushu's before, the situation was rather awkward, so he didn't get to feast his eyes on it clearly. With Song Lingshan, he didn't dare to peek at that time. But, it was different now. He could enjoy the scene as much as he wanted....

"Shield bro, does Yaoyao sis suit your taste?" Yushu sensed the difference in Lin Yi as she asked.

"....." Lin Yi was no idiot like An Jianwen who'd fall into these cheap tricks. He didn't say anything and took a deep breath in to clear his thoughts, "Let's start."

"Oh!" Yushu was a little disappointed when she saw that her trick didn't work, but she was over the moon at the fact that Shield bro wasn't as stupid as An Jianwen because Mengyao would never fall in love with someone that stupid.

Lin Yi grasped onto Mengyao's wrist, activated the Art of Dragon Mastery, and channelled the energy into Mengyao's body. Once again, Mengyao slowly became conscious.

Chapter 672: What Are You Guys Doing?

What Are You Guys Doing?

After waking up, Mengyao felt a breeze sweeping across her body. She quickly stretched her hand to grab on something only to realize that she was not wearing anything! "Shu! What have you done?" she questioned furiously.

"Oh, Yaoyao sis, you are awake!" Yushu grinned like the cat. "Shield bro and I are going to treat you now. Don't move. We are starting now!"

“You!” Mengyao was shy and angry at the same time, but she couldn’t do anything about it, could she? Since her clothes were all down, Lin Yi already saw everything. This made Mengyao depressed. Although, the reasons given by Yushu were reluctantly acceptable, she should have given more time for Mengyao to consider, shouldn’t she? Taking off her clothes without her permission was just being unreasonable!

“Yaoyao, I’ll start the acupuncture treatment in a short while. This might be immensely painful and you might be completely worn out during the process, but despite all that, you can’t give up and don’t move too much.” Lin Yi stopped the girls’ argument and went straight to the point.

“Oh...” Mengyao had to accept reality. She felt better after seeing Lin Yi’s expression. He acted like a proper doctor and didn’t have a lustful longing in his eyes.

“I’ll gather and force the toxin into your excretory system and you will have the urge to urinate.” Lin Yi continued, “But, you’ve to hold onto it. Don’t let it go. Just tell me when you reach your limits.....”

“Ah.... Oh....” Mengyao’s face was burning red. The statement was just too much for her. How could she not feel embarrassed about it? However, she knew that Lin Yi was trying to save her, so she nodded to his orders.

“Shu, when Yaoyao is at her limit, get the disposable cups to store her urine.” Lin Yi pointed at the place where they placed the surgical supplies.

“Oh, can’t she just pee on the ground? It’s okay, isn’t it?” Yushu looked at the disposable cup. She felt like this mission was impossible, and she doubted herself.

“I’ve to use the toxin in Yaoyao’s urine to determine the antidote. They are still twenty-seven unconscious students outside, after all. I can’t just ignore them.” Lin Yi continued: “Regardless of Grandpa Guan’s request or Uncle Chu’s industries’ reputation, I’ve to get the twenty-seven students back to recovery.”

“Oh, I got it!” Yushu nodded. “Yaoyao sis, tell me when you are about to pee. I’ve to go get those cups here!”

Mengyao wanted to dig herself in a hole. Her face was boiling, but as shy as she was, she was completely moved when Lin Yi said he was taking the urine for research in order to save her father’s company reputation! She felt nothing but warmth!

Not only did Lin Yi have to save her, he still had to take care of her father’s company reputation and also save the remaining twenty-seven unconscious students! Lin Yi was only hired to be her shield, and he didn’t have the obligation to do all these. Thirty thousand RMB per month was too little compared to the amount of work he had been doing!

It didn’t matter if it was Mengyao or Shu, when either of them was facing difficulty, Lin Yi was always the first person to show up. He was superb in every field. It was like he knew everything and he could do anything. Every time when Lin Yi was around, he was able to make the girls feel protected and at peace!

This was no longer the job of a follower anymore. Mengyao didn’t know how could she appreciate Lin Yi more. At this moment, she would rather to not have the employer and employee relationship with Lin

Yi. She wanted him as a friend! However, if they were just friends, would Lin Yi still take care of her the way he was doing now?

Did he really think of her as his friend?

Naturally, Lin Yi didn't know that the Miss was worrying about the matter. He took out the needles, sterilized it, and said: "We are starting now."

Mengyao nodded while Yushu was standing beside the bed with the cup in her hand.

Lin Yi walked around Mengyao. He wanted to find a comfortable spot for him to start the treatment, but no matter which side he went to, it wasn't suitable. This was because he only had one hand to insert the needles, and the other hand was occupied, holding onto Mengyao's wrist while sending energy into her body continuously. Consequently, there wasn't a perfect spot for him.

"Can you spread your legs open. I need to stand in the middle?" Lin Yi hesitated before suggesting. That was the only spot he was able to insert the needles while holding onto Mengyao's wrist properly.

However, this posture was just too ambiguous with Mengyao shirtless and Lin Yi in between her legs. It was like an exercise where the man was on top and the woman was at the bottom....

When Mengyao was about to agree, she realized what it would look like. Her face turned as red as blood. She didn't know if Lin Yi was doing it on purpose or not. Why was he suggesting such an embarrassing posture?

However, believing that Lin Yi was no lecherous man, he must have had his own reasons to suggest this. Besides, when he had the opportunity to peek on her in the villa, he didn't cross that line. This was also one of the reasons why Mengyao was able to accept it.

Besides, if Lin Yi was really thinking of something dirty, as furious as Mengyao would be, she would also be tickled pink by the fact that Lin Yi was finally enlightened. His head was finally screwed on properly. He knew that there was someone better than Tang Yin in the house!

"En...." Mengyao answered powerlessly. She knew that Lin Yi must have his own reasons for this suggestion. She didn't question him, but she closed her eyes and slowly spreading her legs open....

"Right, let's start then!" Lin Yi forced himself to keep his eyes on the appropriate spot, ignoring the scene. He stood between Mengyao's legs.

"Oh?" Yushu's curiosity kicked in when she saw the posture Lin Yi and Mengyao were doing. Why did it look weird? It looked like they were doing something?

Yushu recognized the pose: "Shield bro, Yaoyao sis, are you both ready to have  now?"

"Ha?" Few black lines were appearing on Mengyao's forehead when she heard Yushu. She reacted unconsciously, closing her legs and sandwiching Lin Yi's legs but she quickly opened back upon touching them. How could she have done such an embarrassing movement? How was she supposed to live now?

Lin Yi's forehead was full of black lines as well. Yushu was just too good in associating, wasn't she? She had to say everything that she thought of. Even if Shu was thinking like this, she shouldn't just speak anything in her mind, should she? How awkward would Mengyao feel? Besides, Lin Yi was about to fantasize things himself. Now that Yushu had let the cat out of the bag, Lin Yi couldn't fantasize anymore, could he? "Shu, don't joke around. You will make me lose my focus here!" Lin Yi coughed dryly.

Chapter 673: You've to Tough It Out!

You've to Tough It Out!

"Oh...." Yushu quickly kept her mouth shut when she saw how serious Lin Yi's face was.

Mengyao let out a sigh of breath, glaring daggers at Yushu. Have ? Only in your wildest dreams! Let's see if Lin Yi will have sex with you one day!

Lin Yi stretched his left hand out holding onto Mengyao's right wrist, and slowly activating the art of Dragon Mastery. Lin Yi, once again, could feel his energy flowing into Mengyao's body. Although he just administered it a moment ago, the energy in Mengyao's body was already reduced by half!

The sensation she felt earlier was the same as this time. It was a surge of soothing heat entering her body. The warmth removed her fatigue and made her energetic.

Mengyao couldn't help but feel fascinated. Lin Yi was indeed not an ordinary person! She didn't know how her dad found her such a capable man. His capability was extraordinary. Did he really work for the thirty thousand RMB? How could a person like that be willing to be her follower?

However, her thought was interrupted by a needle. Lin Yi started inserting the needle into Mengyao's body at a very fast pace. Mengyao was chicken-hearted when she saw the long needles penetrating her skin, but much to her surprise, she didn't feel any pain. Consequently, her fear dissipated.

"You might feel the heat engulfing your whole body, but do not panic. this is just a common phenomenon.

"En, it's starting to heat up now...." Mengyao put down her shyness when she saw the seriousness in Lin Yi's eyes. She started giving Lin Yi her full cooperation. After all, Lin Yi was doing all this for her!

Yushu, on the other hand, was staring at Mengyao with wide eyes, not blinking at all. "Oh, Yaoyao sis, your skin is getting redder now. Why does it look like a big lobster?"

"Shu, don't fool around!" Mengyao eyed Yushu. "Don't distract Lin Yi's attention!"

Mengyao got very angry at Yushu after hearing what Yushu said. Lin Yi subconsciously had a peek at Mengyao's body, and this made her extremely uncomfortable.

"Oh.... I'm sorry!" Yushu blinked shyly. "Shield bro, you shouldn't look at Yaoyao sis body anymore, there are still many chances in the future! First of all, you've to get Yaoyao sis treated. Otherwise, you won't get to see anything if Yaoyao sis died here!"

"CHEN YUSHU!" If Mengyao wasn't lying on the bed, she would have kicked Yushu to the outer space, leaving her to the aliens.

"Oh-oh-oh, I don't know anything, and I didn't say anything..." Yushu quickly shut her mouth.

Lin Yi, on the other hand, was trying his best not to burst into laughter. This pair of sisters were just too amusing, and they were indeed really close. When Mengyao fainted, Yushu was the one who showed the most concerns, but when she realized that Lin Yi was able to save Mengyao, she got back to her playful self instantly.

“Yaoyao, let me feel the temperature under your armpit.” It was Lin Yi’s first-hand experience in forcing the toxin out, no less to an ordinary person. It was difficult so he had to be cautious with every step he took. Otherwise, things would surely go south.

“Ah... sure...” Mengyao agreed bashfully as she nodded.

Lin Yi stretched out his right hand to Mengyao’s armpit, but the moment his hand touched Mengyao’s skin, she subconsciously reacted to the touch as she moved her arms. This pushed Lin Yi’s hand to her boobs. The softness of the boobs pleased Lin Yi very much.

Mengyao’s chest might not be big. It was even considered as small, but after all, she was still in puberty. Things might not stay like that forever. Who knew if they would grow into the perfect size in the future? But, there was no denying that her boobs were actually pretty nice to grab.

As much as Lin Yi wanted to feel them up, he refrained himself from doing so as he moved his hand towards the armpit, measuring the temperature. En, it should be enough for the next step now.

Yushu moved her lips, trying to say something, but when she saw Yaoyao’s murderous stare, she stopped and closed her lips.

“We’re done. We can move on to the next step now.” Lin Yi removed all the needles from Mengyao’s body and he speedily inserted them into another acupuncture points. “You will feel intense pain later. I’m gathering all the toxins to your excretory systems with the pure qi. You have to tough it out. If the pain is unbearable, you may shout as much as you like.”

“En.” Mengyao nodded and said firmly. “I’m good at this.”

After a while, Mengyao’s face started to tense up in pain because she felt like there were ants crawling in her body. It felt like the ants in her body were shifting towards something in her abdomen.

It was painful and itchy simultaneously. She felt horrible and wanted to hold onto someone’s hand. Since Lin Yi was holding one of her wrists, she didn’t dare to simply move. All she could do was clench her teeth as she tried to endure all the pain by herself.

“Shu, go hold onto Yaoyao’s hand.” Lin Yi saw the painful expression of Mengyao. He’d long forgotten how intense the pain was since the last time he had been poisoned was ten years ago. However, as far as he was concerned, the intensity was much weaker compared to what his old man gave...

“Oh, okay!” Yushu quickly grasped onto Mengyao’s left hand. “Yaoyao sis, if you are really in pain, you can pinch my hand as hard as you want. I’m not afraid of pain at all!”

“Ha...” Mengyao looked at Shu and forced a smile. “I’m fine. It’s not that painful, actually. I can manage it. I’m sure.”

However, you could easily see the lies in Mengyao’s words. Her expression had totally sold her out, looking completely unconvincing.

“She’s going to be fine.” Lin Yi said lightly, “I could handle this kinda pain when I was nine, and she’s nineteen now.”

Mengyao was annoyed by the comment. I’m a girl, alright? But although Lin Yi was a guy, he was just a boy back then. How could she lose to a kid?! So, Mengyao clenched her teeth and was determined to tough it out at all cost. How could she afford to lose?

In actuality, Lin Yi was saying that on purpose just so he could encourage Mengyao to overcome her limits. Otherwise, she wouldn’t probably make it out alive.

“I... I’ve to go to the washroom....” Mengyao finally had the urge kick in.

“You’ve to bear with it or else the toxin will fail to gather at one point of your body!” Lin Yi said quickly. “If you were to excrete it now, you won’t be able to release the remaining toxin anymore!”

Chapter 674: It’s Raining Again

It’s Raining Again

“Oh.... sure. I’ll hold it in then!” Naturally, Mengyao wouldn’t let all of Lin Yi’s effort go to waste.

Lin Yi was still transferring energy into Mengyao via his left hand while his right hand was busy with the needles and acupuncture points. Mengyao, on the other hand, was getting paler and paler. Her forehead was drenched in sweat. It seemed like the whole process had taken a great toll on her.

“Yaoyao sis, you can do it. You are the best. You’ve been Shu’s idol this entire time.” Yushu was still holding Mengyao’s hand as she cheered her up.

“En....” Mengyao smiled bitterly. Her voice had changed, “Shu, I’m in great pain!”

“I know. If I could, I would have taken your place!” Yushu said sincerely.

“Ke, how would I allow you to take this for me? Luckily it was me this time, not you....” Mengyao smiled. “Don’t you worry. I’m not that fragile. I can handle this!”

Lin Yi allowed Yushu to stay in this room for this reason. She’d undoubtedly keep talking to Mengyao, cheering her up, and making Mengyao stronger in terms of tolerance. Otherwise, Lin Yi would lose his head trying to encourage Mengyao to tough things out.

Mengyao’s urge was getting stronger and stronger as time passed, but she remembered what Lin Yi said and forced herself to hold her pee. She suppressed the urge down painfully. What will happen if the toxin wasn’t excreted out? Not only would she have wasted Lin Yi’s effort, but she would have also suffered for nothing.

So, Mengyao was determined to hold it in. However, no matter how hard she held back, there was still a limit to everything. At last, Mengyao’d reached her limits as she screamed, “Nooo, I can’t do it anymore. Shu! Quick!”

“Oh, I’m coming!” Yushu had put aside the disposable cup when she was told to hold onto Mengyao’s hand, but things had taken a wrong turn. She was panicked and she didn’t know where she put the cup, “Cup, where’s the cup? Where did I put it just now?”

“Faster, Shu! I can’t hold it any longer!” Mengyao had assumed that Shu would instantly bring her a cup when she requested one. Who knew she would lose the cup? Wasn’t she trolling her now?

“I found it! I’m coming!” After a search, Yushu finally found the cup. The disposable cup was just on the floor behind her. She quickly picked it up and ran towards Mengyao.

Lin Yi, on the other hand, loosened his grip on Mengyao’s wrist, inserted the last needle, and backed off a little.

“NOOO—” Mengyao was about to tear up in tears, her pee was going to burst out soon. How could she hold it any longer? Not caring about Shu anymore, she released her pee.

When Lin Yi took two steps back, he could feel a jet of water flowing down from above, showering his whole head and covering his whole face....

Mengyao, on the other hand, witnessed the scene as well, seeing herself squirting Lin Yi with her pee. She was so embarrassed that she almost dug a hole for herself to hide! She hated Yushu for being so unreliable in such an essential place.

Mengyao wanted to discontinue the stream, but how was that possible? Once it was released, it was unstoppable like a flood. It was a mission impossible! She had enough of the pain just now!

Lin Yi was totally dumbfounded by surprise as he stood at the same spot stupidly, staring at the Miss with his eyes widened.

“Move aside!” Mengyao started to panic when she saw Lin Yi staring at her, unblinking. She almost fainted at the sight.

“Ugh...” Lin Yi returned to his senses, dodging aside and smiled wryly. Could this be karma? He remembered that time that he once peed on Zhong Pinliang, Gao Xiaofu, and Feng Xiaoxiao. It was his turn this time!

However, at that moment, it was kinda thrilling? Lin Yi suddenly remembered a scene in the movie... Could this be the legend of....

Yushu was taken by surprise as well. She didn’t expect Lin Yi to be soaked! By the time she returned, she quickly moved in front of Mengyao, trying to store the pee.

“Oh, the surgery room is raining too. Yaoyao sis, you are way too violent!” Yushu commented while doing her job.

Mengyao couldn’t believe her ears. Yushu still had the time to joke around as she eyed Yushu and said in an unpleasing tone, “Why don’t you just die from this?”

“Oh, I won’t be disgusted by this. I’m totally okay with it.” Yushu said nonchalantly. “See, Yaoyao sis, you made a mess on me too!”

“Shu, you don’t have to collect it anymore.” Lin Yi tossed the unhealthy thoughts to the back of his brain and informed Yushu.

“Oh? Not needed anymore?” Yushu was startled.

“En...” Lin Yi smiled bitterly. “At first, I was thinking of using the pee to do an analysis, but now that I’ve tasted the pee, we’ve saved ourselves plenty of time. I know what the poison is.....”

Initially, Lin Yi thought that he didn’t have any disturbing fetishes or unhealthy obsessions, but he felt nothing when they were talking about this topic. Could it be that it was because the person who peed on him was the Miss? Or was it because of himself? Did he feel something towards the Miss?

Mengyao couldn’t bear to be in the daylight when she heard Lin Yi tasted her pee. It’s over now. She was doomed. Why couldn’t she hold for a little longer? Why couldn’t she just hold it until Yushu arrived just now? Just how was she supposed to face Lin Yi in the future? How was she supposed to interact with him?

“Wah, Shield bro, you are impressive. Just by tasting the pee, you are able to determine the poison!” When Yushu heard that she didn’t have to collect the pee anymore, she casually let go of the disposable cup and the cup hit the ground.

Splash!

The pee was flooding the room.

Mengyao was a little speechless. Why couldn’t Shu be more careful with hygiene? How could she just toss the cup like that? However, she instantly understood Yushu’s actions when she remembered that her pee already stained the whole room. It was on the floors and the walls. Everything was soaked in pee.

“I’m heading out first. Yaoyao should be fine now.” Lin Yi saw the awkwardness from Mengyao, so he thought that it’d be better for him to leave them behind and move outside first. “Shu, let Yaoyao rest for a bit then help her with the clothes.”

“Oh, alright!” Yushu nodded.

Mengyao wanted to say thank you, but the words wouldn’t leave her mouth. She really didn’t know how to communicate with him now. She really had no idea!

Lin Yi casually used his hand to brush across his drenched hair. Luckily, it was odorless. Otherwise, he would be in a difficult position again. After opening the door, he dashed out quickly, not letting Chu Pengzhan, Guan Xuemin, and the rest to peek inside. He closed the door instantly

In fact, even if they were given the opportunity to peek closely, they wouldn’t have the chance to see Mengyao at all because there was a screen around the bed.

“Lil Yi!” Pengzhan and Xuemin walked up. They looked like they were expecting something.

“Uncle Chu, Yaoyao is alright. She’s just resting inside with Shu for a while. They should be out very soon.” Lin Yi knew what was in Pengzhan’s mind, so he told him before Pengzhan could ask.

Chapter 675: Poison Recipe

“That’s great, that’s really a great news!” Pengzhan couldn’t hold back his excitement when he heard Lin Yi and wanted to charge right into the surgery room but was immediately stopped by Lin Yi. Although, Pengzhan was Mengyao’s father, she was a grown up now. It wasn’t so appropriate for him to see his daughter naked! And most importantly, if Pengzhan went in now, then Lin Yi’s secret would be exposed as well- seeing his daughter in the nude.

“Uncle Chu, please slow down first. Yaoyao is in a poor condition, why don’t we wait for her here?” Lin Yi said.

“My apologies, excuse me for being inconsiderate!” Pengzhan nodded and stopped his movement.

“Miracle doctor, have you treated Chu Mengyao? Can you please come and visit our child over here?”

“Yeah, Miracle doctor, I beg of you, can you please save our children now?”

The parents were delighted to hear the news after eavesdropping on Lin Yi’s conversation with Pengzhan. They didn’t dare to interrupt their conversation earlier, afraid that it might piss off Lin Yi and make him reject their requests. They finally had the courage to open their mouths as soon as Lin Yi was done with Pengzhan.

Lin Yi looked into the eyes of the parents, he could understand their feelings, but he really didn’t have the time to do acupuncture for them one by one. First of all, he was exhausted. Second, they were female students as well. They weren’t even acquaintances, asking each of them to take off their clothes was too much, wasn’t it?

Besides, Lin Yi didn’t want to shower in pee again! He didn’t have any ill feelings towards the Miss’ pee but it was hard to say for the others.

“I’ll definitely save them, but I’ve just used up all the antidote, will discuss this with Grandpa Guan in making the new ones,” Lin Yi turned to Xuemin after talking to the parents. “Grandpa Guan, let’s go to a place with fewer people.”

Lin Yi’s words were half false half true, this made the parents doubt him a little. The parents were over the moon when Lin Yi said that he was willing to lend a hand but when he said that the antidote was used up, they couldn’t help but get worried over the situation. However, since Lin Yi had promised to make the antidote, hopefully, it wasn’t a lie!

“Fantastic!” Xuemin was on cloud nine- it seemed like Lin Yi must have learnt of a way to counter this problem but saying it out here wasn’t too fitting.

Lin Yi and Xuemin returned to the isolation room where Mengyao was, he locked the door and said to Xuemin, “Indeed, it is a type of thousand year poison called “The Deadly Seven Herbs Poison.” The making of this antidote was lost since the Ming Dynasty, but during the end of the Qing Dynasty, the Tangs recollected the data and remade a brand new antidote. Although the new antidote isn’t as effective as the old one, by using a larger dose, it can remove the toxin completely within three days. After the detoxification and with a month of resting and adjusting, anyone can get back to full recovery.”

Lin Yi didn't care to bullshit and went straight to the point.

"Oh? Deadly Seven Herbs Poison!" Xuemin eyes widened, flabbergasted at what he heard, "There are still people in the world who know how to make this poison?"

As far as Xuemin was concerned, the Deadly Seven Herbs Poison was a legendary existence, not only did the antidote lost its way to the modern era, the recipe of the poison was long gone as well, it wasn't recorded at all! But how did Lin Yi know this poison recipe and even the antidote?

"Ke, common people are clueless but not those ancient medical noble houses, they would definitely have at least a clue or so," Lin Yi replied lightly. "At least for the antidote, I'm certain that they are ignorant of it.

Xuemin was moved after listening to Lin Yi. "We, are we hand-making the antidote now?"

"En, I'll write down the poison and antidote recipe for you later," Lin Yi continued, "Hand the poison recipe to the police but let's not spread the antidote recipe anymore! You've to go pick up the herbs personally and go to Fatty Lai's drug manufacturing factory for refinement. If it's possible, try to have the antidote created before tomorrow morning, the students can at least endure until tomorrow night, but if it's any further than that, it's unpredictable!"

Xuemin couldn't believe that Lin Yi just passed the poison and antidote recipe to him just like this- he was overwhelmed by this unexpected favour! How much trust did he have in him! Having the Deadly Seven Herbs Poison recipe alone was considered rare already, but Lin Yi had the whole set of both the poison and antidote- this was a priceless gem in the medical world!

"Okay, I'll make sure everything goes well!" Xuemin nodded earnestly.

"This is a golden opportunity to publicize the company, can you talk to Fatty Lai about this, see if he has any brilliant ideas!" Lin Yi wanted to use this sensationalism to publicize Miracle Doctor Guan Medicine Company's name, but he was not an expert in this field.

"Hehe, I'm pretty sure Fatty Lai will do an excellent job with that, I'll talk to him later!" Miracle Doctor Guan nodded.

Lin Yi didn't continue and started scribbling down the recipe, passed it to Xuemin and immediately left the room. Mengyao and Yushu, on the other hand, were out of the surgery room already, and talking to Pengzhan. Mengyao seemed to be in a good shape, she was perfectly fine.

When Mengyao saw Lin Yi, she gave him the cold shoulder and ignored him completely.

Mengyao was feeling rather guilty inside- she'd wanted to show her gratitude by saying "thank you" properly, but the words just couldn't come out! She could overlook Lin Yi seeing her naked and touching her but she couldn't ignore the fact that she made Lin Yi drenched in her pee, how could she just act like nothing happened between them?

She was pretty conflicted inside- she couldn't accept herself for doing that.

Lin Yi was able to tell what was in the Miss' mind, so he avoided interacting with her to save her from the awkwardness. Yushu, on the other hand, was hyped as usual, complimenting how incredible Lin Yi was and how Mengyao had toughed things out.

However, Yushu wasn't a person who would show her other side to everyone- she didn't even mention a word about Mengyao being naked and Lin Yi who was soaked in her pee.

"Lil' Yi, thank goodness we have you this time!" Pengzhan was slightly overactive when he saw Lin Yi walking towards their direction, he patted his shoulder emotionally, "If it wasn't you.... Mengyao wouldn't have..."

"Ke, Uncle Chu, this is what I should do," Lin Yi smiled humbly- he wasn't trying to claim any credits out of this, "Besides, I never thought of Yaoyao as an outsider."

"Nice!" Pengzhan nodded, "That being the case, Lil' Yi, you are officially part of the House Chu now, half of my business is now yours!"

The crowd was flabbergasted by the statement! They couldn't believe what Pengzhan had just said! They thought that Pengzhan must have taken an immediate liking to Lin Yi after he saved his precious daughter's life.

Mengyao was stunned as she looked at her father- she never saw this coming. She did not know that her dad would just give half of his property just like that! Mengyao however, did not feel that irritated by the idea, perhaps because the person was Lin Yi. She knew that he was worthy of the reward... but why, why was her dad being so nice to him?

Chapter 676: A Bad Start

A Bad Start

"Ha, yeah!" Looking at Guanxin's expression, Zhaoming knew that she must have misunderstood him, thinking that he was roaming the hospital just to create a chance encounter! He quickly clarified, "I'm here for a friend today. He was staying in this hospital, but after searching for a half day, I called him only to learn that he was discharged!"

"Oh, I see. Get moving then. Go visit him. I've to continue my work here." Guanxin didn't want to continue this conversation any longer.

"En, I'm on my way. Here, you can have this bouquet of flowers. Bringing them around will only be a drag to me!" Zhaoming handed the fresh flowers to Guanxin.

"You bought roses for a patient?" Guanxin was no idiot. There was no way she would believe Zhaoming's lies.

"Ugh.... Ha, the patient is a girl...." Zhaoming startled, but his reflexes were quick.

"You bought roses for a female patient? Is she your girlfriend?" Guanxin smiled.

"Eh?" Zhaoming couldn't believe that even though Guanxin looked all harmless and tamed on the outside, her words were razor sharp. She found flaws in all his words. She was like that in the bookstore and even now too! This girl wasn't easy!

“Huh, no way, girlfriend? It’s my bro’s girlfriend. I was just helping him to pass the flowers to her!” Zhaoming was quick-witted as he replied, “Ha, its actually like this. My bro was arguing with his girlfriend that day, and he kicked her out of the house because he was angry. His girlfriend had to stay outside for a night and as a result, she got sick from it, so he felt bad but couldn’t lower his pride to apologize. So here I am, helping him out! But they are all probably good now, wasting my time for this errand!”

After explaining, Zhaoming felt like a genius!

“Oh, since this bouquet of flowers is not needed anymore, let me help you to put them in the vase.” Guanxin knew that Zhaoming wouldn’t leave her alone if Guanxin refused to accept the flowers, so she received them from Zhaoming and placed them in the vases along the corridor.

Zhaoming knew that he couldn’t say anything and replied sulkily, “Ha, you’re right. Just place them here, it’s pretty! Guanxin, I gotta go, keep in touch!”

“Bye.” Guanxin nodded and returned to the office. She felt that she did a very stupid choice for going to the washroom now. otherwise, she wouldn’t have to meet this nuisance.

Zhaoming sighed. He felt he should change the way how he approached her! Normally, according to Zhaolong’s experience, people like Guanxin who’d never had a boyfriend before were all innocent. They were easy to get. However, Guanxin was different, and he was having a hard time hitting on her.

After Zhaoming left, a nurse came, Li Xiaomei. She was a very good friend of Guanxin and couldn’t help but curl her lips after seeing the roses in the corridor: “He’s rich, isn’t he? Ninety-nine roses are at least three hundred RMB. How could you just throw it away like this!”

“It’s his money anyway, who cares?” Guanxin smiled. “Why, is he your cup of tea? Should I introduce him to you?”

“Nah, as much as I want to get into a rich family, he’s obviously not my cup of tea. He looks like a playboy. I’m afraid he thinks of women like toys. He would just throw them away when he’s done with them. How could I just offer myself to him?” Li Xiaomei didn’t even glance at him.

Li Xiaomei was well aware that her beauty was worthless if she were to be beside Guanxin; the difference was just too vast! She knew that she would never reach her standard, so instead of getting played, finding a hard worker that could support her for the rest of her life was a smarter choice!

As for Li Xiaomei’s dream of getting into the rich family, Guanxin didn’t approve nor did she oppose it because everyone had their own way of living. Xiaomei was born in a not so wealthy family. No one could blame her for wanting a comfortable life. On the contrary, for Guanxin to look for a person who truly loves her was also her own freedom.

“So, even you are able to see through him, how could I accept his flowers then?” Guanxin shook her head. “Okay, shall we continue our work. We might get scolded when the head nurse catches us chatting here!”

“You are the Miss. I mean, who would scold you? Do they think that they can get away after scolding you?” Xiaomei and Guanxin were friends since their school days, so she knew Guanxin’s family background very well. She knew that her father was the biggest shareholder of hospitals and her grandfather was none other than the famous in the medical world, Guan Xuemin the Miracle Doctor Guan!

“Hehe, others are ignorant of my real identity. Even if they knew, I don’t think they will categorize me as special,” Guanxin replied while working on what she left behind just now. “If you don’t want the bonus anymore, please continue standing there and do nothing.”

“Fine fine, I’m coming!” Xiaomei quickly followed Guanxin and started working. “Before I get a sugar daddy, I still care about the bonus very much!”

Zhaoming left the hospital with low spirits and went up a Porsche Cayenne. Both his lackeys were inside, Zhu Xiaozhang and Wang Shubin.

“Master Ming, how was it? Did you give her the flowers?” Zhu Xiaozhang asked.

“Lil’ Zhang, aren’t you asking a stupid question? Just look at Master Ming’s hands, they’re empty. Obviously, those flowers were delivered!” Wang Shubin said.

“F*ck, don’t mention that shit. A f*cking bad start again!” Zhaoming waved his hand dismissively and seated himself in the co-driver seat.

“What’s wrong, Master Ming? Your flowers.....” Zhu Xiaozhang was startled with Zhaoming’s reaction.

“The flowers were delivered, but to the hospital!” Zhaoming was pissed. “The girl isn’t easy, and she’s insanely quick-witted too. She may look all gentle and soft on the outside, but she’s super smart! Damn, I was dismissed and my flowers were left in the corridor!”

“Ah?” Xiaozhang and Shubin were both looking at each other, speechless. They thought that if Zhaoming were to be serious, there was no way he would fail. However, it wasn’t the case—he failed miserably, twice in a row, no less!

“Next time, I think I’ve to change my way of approaching her. A chance encounter is too cheap, she won’t fall for it!” Zhaoming waved his hand. “Let’s discuss, think of something good, and produce a decent idea!”

“This.... Don’t we always throw the money when it comes to hitting on girls?” Zhu Xiangzhan was brainstorming, but he couldn’t think of any good strategy. He was an arrogant man who always spends his money without a care in the world, so all the gold diggers always came flying to him.

“Idiot, Guanxin is obviously not a gold digger. In fact, her family is rich. She doesn’t even care about money. All of our previous tactics won’t work on her!” Zhaoming glared daggers at Xiaozhang. “Can’t you think of something more useful?”

Chapter 677: A Bad Start

“Ha, yeah!” Looking at Guanxin’s expression, Zhaoming knew that she must have misunderstood him, thinking that he was roaming the hospital just to create a chance encounter! He quickly clarified, “I’m

Chapter 678: Tank Top Bro

Tank Top Bro

“Ugh..... Ming bro, I have an idea!” Wang Shubin who had his mouth closed finally opened his mouth. “But this idea of mine requires Ming bro to suffer a little!”

“Oh? You have an idea? Tell me about it, depending on the usefulness, I don’t mind the suffering!” Although Zhaoming didn’t want to suffer, as far as he was concerned, hitting on girls should be fun. What’s the point of hitting on them if he had to suffer? Wasn’t he looking just looking for trouble? He’d rather not hit on that girl since there’s plenty to choose, why her?!

However, Guanxin was different. Getting Guanxin and obtaining the pill’s recipe from Miracle Doctor Guan medical company are his current missions. In order to have a status in the house, he had to complete them no matter what! Although Zhaolong wasn’t holding much hostility against him now, Zhaoming knew that things would be different when his grandpa died. If he continued being this useless, he was afraid that Zhaolong would show him his true colors.

“Master Ming, think about it. Guanxin is a nurse in the Songshan first hospital, right?” Shubin started to break things down.

“Cut the crap. Aren’t you being extra now?” Zhaoming was displeased. “Of course, she’s the nurse of Songshan’s first hospital! Didn’t I tell you last time?”

“Master Ming, I haven’t finished speaking yet!” Shubin continued, “Guanxin is a nurse of Songshan first hospital, so who do you think she’s always with?”

“Doctors?” Zhaoming processed. “Damn, you’re not telling me to be a doctor are you? I’m not interested in that shit!

“Master Ming, how can you become a doctor within a day?” Shubin smiled bitterly. “I, Wang Shubin, am your adviser and only good ideas will come out from my mouth!

“Oh? What do you mean?” Zhaoming relaxed when he heard that it wasn’t about being a doctor.

“The patient! Nurses have to come in touch with patients the most every day. What I’m suggesting here is that you should be a patient!” Shubin said.

“You are asking me to fake being sick and get close to Guanxin?” Zhaoming’s eyes brightened for a second. It was indeed a great idea. Why didn’t he think of this earlier? If he became a patient, then getting close to Guanxin would be perfectly justifiable!

“Faking is not an option. As you said, Guanxin is no idiot. If you were to fake it, do you think that she won’t notice that?” Shubin waved his hand. “If you really want to get sick, you’ve to do it the hard way. This is the suffering I was talking about!”

“For real..... En, this is indeed a plan!” Zhaoming nodded, “Then how should I get sick?”

“This... normally, common cold fever can get you into the hospital already, as long as you pay them. There’s no way the hospital will reject you, will they?” Shubin continued.

“Okay, cold fever it is then, this is easier compared to other sicknesses!” Zhaoming agreed that staying in the hospital was his only option in getting in contact with Guanxin. “But.... I don’t think getting a cold is easy these days?”

Zhaoming looked at the sunny weather outside. It was April now; the weather was only getting hotter. Getting cold in this season wasn’t easy, either.

“So that’s why you have to go suffer now? I know there’s an ice hockey arena nearby. Shall we visit that place for a bit, Master Ming?”

“Sure!” Zhaoming clenched his teeth. For the girl and the status, he had to endure this! He had to really succeed this time. Some sufferings were inevitable!

Hence, Zhaoming and gang reached the ice skating arena with all might, shocking the crowd greatly as they entered the ice arena!

Zhu Xiaozhang and Wang Shubin were both wearing thick thermal ice hockey wear, and while Zhaoming went in with a tank top and shorts. He clenched his teeth as he seated himself at the audience area.

“Damn, there’s a hunk!” The people in the ice arena were all dumbfounded when they saw Zhaoming.

“Isn’t that insane? This is what we called the tank top bro!” a lady took out his phone, ready to upload Zhaoming’s picture into the net and go viral. The new generation of “Bro” was born!

Zhaoming was almost freezing to his death, but after hearing the praise from the crowd, his vanity was gratified. He even made a pose for the lady to take a picture of him.

“Look at him, how great is his body. He’s freaking wearing tank top and shorts here!” a guy with spec said in an envious tone, “We can’t possibly do it. Our body is too sensitive to the coldness now!”

Zhaoming was over the moon when he heard that. You see, bro has played a lot of women too because bro is a living legend!

When Zhaoming was at the peak of his satisfaction, a chill went down his spine suddenly. He couldn’t hold back the sneeze as he exploded: “Aaaachooooooooo-”

The snot went flying out, uncontrollable, making a huge scene. The snot was all sticky and disturbingly disgusting.

“F, he’s not a hunk but a show-off. I still thought that he didn’t feel the cold at all!” The people who were astonished by Zhaoming earlier couldn’t help but look at him with disdain.

Meanwhile, the girl with the phone changed her face instantly. It seems like “Tank top bro” is becoming “Show off bro” or “F*ck boy” now!

As for the guy with spec, he was now looking at Zhaoming with pity. “Bro, you are even inferior to me? I didn’t even sneeze with my frail body. Aren’t you a little noob?”

Zhaoming was embarrassed and angry at the same time. His face reddened, but he couldn’t fight back. However, Zhu Xiaozhang couldn’t continue looking at the scene anymore as he stood up and pointed at those people and said cockily. “What the f*ck are you guys looking at. Didn’t you people know what is training? Master Ming here is practicing. What do you idiots know?”

Practice? Did he come all the way here to practice how to shoot snot? Are you guys stupid? The crowd were shaking their head, speechless and left Zhaoming aside.

Although Zhaoming’d lost his dignity today, he knew that this was all for the plan to work. He couldn’t just give up halfway. It was better to tough things out! He had to make sure that he got a cold before leaving!

‘Aaachooooo-’ Zhaoming sneezed again.

In Songshan’s mass media, under Direwolf’s lead and guidance, had serious problems. The public was all attacking Songshan’s first school, making them sound like a demon high school terror base!

In fact, other than the previous interview, Chu Pengzhan and Ding Binggong had with the Direwolf, they hadn’t contacted any media yet. As much as the media wanted to enter the emergency room, the hospital wouldn’t allow them to. So, even the latest development was unknown to the news broadcasting media. However, they couldn’t back down and admit defeat, so they took what remained from the Direwolf and made some alterations and republished. Even the TV station was making a news report regarding the same issue. Hence, all of the parents of Songshan first school started to discuss changing their children’s school.

Chapter 679: News Conference

News Conference

After all, the media’s power was horrifying. They could control those people who were unaware of the truth, and people chose to believe their story. Since the school was this terrifying, who wanted to keep their children studying here?

However, at intense times like this, Doctor Guan medical company’s CEO, Lai Changyi announced an urgent piece of news conference!

Doctor Guan medical company had been the center of attention for the media and rumors' since its establishment! Although their "Doctor Guan injury medicine" was yet to hit the market officially, the company's name was already famous!

It was caused by no other but the auction which was hosted by House Yu in Yanjing. The news of the company demonstrating extraordinary deeds only spread amongst those influential families and wealthy merchants, but soon, it was known by the media which made continuous reports about it!

These reports didn't lack marvelous sayings which they heard. They included things like the Doctor Guan medical company already grasped the technology of reviving the dead and regrowing bones... Of course, these all came from the Pill of Life Extension and Toxin Cleansing.

Fatty Lai didn't deny these rumors either as the reports were a mixture of real and fake unofficial news. After they hyped it up like this, they didn't even need to promote themselves anymore since the company's name was made known by the media!

So when the company scheduled an urgent news conference, Songshan's medias immediately arranged reporters to attend the conference.

Although the media's attention was all on the group of students in the coma from the First School, Doctor Guan medical company's news conference was also rather important. The media who didn't take advantage of the coma event had all their attention on this conference, wishing to collect some first-hand information.

The conference was inside the new building Fatty Lai built. It will be the general headquarters for Doctor Guan medical company, Fatty Lai also donated the construction and trading company below selflessly, combining them with Doctor Guan medical company.

The construction company will be in charge of constructing factories for Doctor Guan medical company, and the trading company will be in charge of sales of their produced medicine.

What Fatty Lai gave was all of his assets. His wife was reluctant to give everything up, but he wouldn't consider a woman's opinion. His wife had long hair but short wit!

It was just the beginning. Wouldn't he have everything he wants after following Lin Yi? Lin Yi's medical expertise was close to perfection, and he wasn't exaggerating when he said that he could resurrect the dead. As Lin Yi's underling, how would he lack in benefits?

Fatty Lai felt a sense of satisfaction he had never felt before at the sight of the reports' seats, which were almost full. When he was operating his own company before, he had to bribe the media, but it was barely a third of the number of reporters who showed up today.

But now, he didn't have to invest anything. These reporters flooded the venue with one news alone. It couldn't be helped; Doctor Guan medical company was already famous before its product event hit the market!

"Thank you to all the reporter friends who are here to participate in Doctor Guan medical company's news conference. I am Lai Changyi," Fatty Lai grinned as he stepped onto the stage and announced, "The main focus of this conference is about the group of students in a coma in the First School! If you guys came for our company's new product, I'm afraid you all will be disappointed!"

All the reporters under the stage froze at Fatty Lai's words! The First School's students in coma event; why did Doctor Guan medical company organize a news conference for that? Shouldn't the First School or Pengzhan Industries host the conference? It would even make sense if the police held the conference, but the only group who had no connections with the event hosted a conference to announce information about the coma event. The reporters couldn't help but find it strange.

Although they wondered why, these people were still extremely excited. They weren't only not disappointed but glad that they came to the right place! Since the coma event was the headline that every media fought to report, how could they be unhappy if the conference was related to this event?

"First, I would like to say that all the rumors that have been spreading are fake. A horrifying school with an unknown virus and biochemistry base? They are all ridiculous rumors!" Fatty Lai was aware of Lin Yi and Miss Chu's relation, so he didn't only need to give publicity to his company but restore the First School's reputation!

The reporters were speechless. They all reported news such as "a horrifying school with unknown virus and biochemistry base", but they were merely following the trend. Now that Fatty Lai denied it entirely, they all cheered up.

"After our company's clinical research and analysis, we have found the cause of those unconscious students."

"Poison!"

His words shocked all of the reporters present.

"Didn't the hospital say that it wasn't caused by poison? They couldn't find the cause of students in a coma, could they?" A reporter couldn't help but ask.

"Indeed, they are unable to find out that they were poisoned the normal way because the students were intoxicated by a thousand-year poison!" Fatty Lai continued, "As everyone knows, Doctor Guan medical company is a company that focuses on developing medicine. Whether it's the ability to develop or our specialist team, we are at an advanced level even internationally! Hence, after the continuous efforts of our specialist team has put into research, we were able to confirm that this thousand-year poison is a strong poison made up of seven Chinese herbs. It is called Deadly Seven Herbs Poison, a thousand-year poison which has been lost for years! After the poison is ingested, the body will absorb it rapidly and destruct the body's ability to function physically. If not treated in time, they will die in three days! Since the poison is made from Chinese herbs entirely, it's difficult to detect using the normal chemical method, so this is the reason why the hospital failed to find the cause upon initial examination! Because numerous Chinese herbs are like seasoning, it wasn't suspicious at all!"

Lin Yi himself discovered the poison, so all the so-called specialist team efforts put into research Fatty Lai mentioned were all nonsense to create publicity for the company. However, the reporters didn't know, and Lin Yi didn't care about fame, so Fatty Lai took advantage of it to promote his company!

Chapter 680: Fatty Lai Seizing the Opportunity

Fatty Lai Seizing the Opportunity

“Deadly Seven Herbs Poison!”

“Thousand-year poison!”

“You can’t detect it? It’s similar to seasoning?”

All the reporters exclaimed. What Fatty Lai said seemed too unimaginable and they couldn’t accept the saying. Wasn’t it too unrealistic? He is even using a thousand-year poison as an excuse?

“Really? If it’s a thousand-year poison, why were the others unaware of it? How did you manage to research and analyze it?” A report began to ask questions. This reporter was with Direwolf, his underling! Direwolf was busy keeping up with the coma event’s reports, using his underlings in the conference.

“Haha, I’ve already said that this thousand-year poison is lost. In other words, no one knows the compound of this poison. Only a few main herbs have recorded it on ancient books!” Fatty Lai began to talk nonsense again, “We confirmed seven types of herbs from the analysis and after comparing it to the herbs recorded, we were able to confirm it that it was the lost Deadly Seven Herbs Poison!”

“Oh? Then what are the seven herbs? If it’s lost, then how was someone able to use the poison?” Direwolf’s underling didn’t want the direction of the rumors to change and continuously asked sharp questions.

“I am sorry that I cannot provide you the compounds of the poison. First, it is confidential and second, what if it’s taken advantage by malicious people after we publicize the compounds of the poison?” Fatty Lai smiled, “However, we already provided the compounds to Songshan’s police. As to why someone used it to poison students even if it has been lost for years, it’s up to the police’s investigation. We are just a medical company, and it is not within our field!”

Fatty Lai’s words made the reporters below the stage laugh, yet Direwolf’s underling was furious. He panicked, “Did you make up a random poison to make you famous? What thousand-year poison. It’s only for the sake of restoring the First School’s reputation and for creating publicity for your company. Can you make an antidote for this thousand-year poison? If you can’t, what’s the point of having the compounds to the poison? Who knows if it’s real or fake?”

Although the Direwolf’s underling wasn’t polite with his words, he asked what numerous reporters wanted to ask. In fact, they questioned the liability of Deadly Seven Herbs Poison since it sounded unrealistic and exceeded the standard cause they could accept.

“Haha, since it’s a thousand-year poison and the recipe for it is already lost, how is an antidote available?” Fatty Lai smiled and paused here intentionally.

“If that’s the case, are you admitting that you are merely using this to create publicity?” Direwolf’s underling’s eyes shone and continued to raise difficult questions.

“That’s not what I said. I’m only saying that even ancient documents don’t have the recipe of the poison recorded down. Naturally there won’t be a recipe for its antidote,” Fatty Lai made a face, gesturing them to calm down before continuing, “However, although we do not have the antidote right now, through our company’s specialist team’s hard work and numerous experiments, we finally made an antidote targeting the poison. Right now, the factory is working over time to rush the production of antidotes. By tomorrow morning, the first batch of antidotes will be produced and used on those students in the coma!”

“Wha—” Everyone, including the Direwolf’s underling, exclaimed. Did they really make the antidote? Is it only for publicity?

Even the hospital was unable to do anything against such strange symptoms of the coma, but Doctor Guan medical company diagnosed it as a thousand-year poison. Not only that, they even made an antidote for it. The company was really as marvelous as what the rumors said!

“Of course, the antidote is not a product for sale under our company, but it is specifically made to target the poisoning event. We will not take a single cent!” Fatty Lai continued, “We will gift them to those students in the coma without asking anything for return. This is also the societal responsibility that each medical company should take. Earning money comes second but saving lives comes first!”

Fatty Lai’s words earned all the reporters’ respect. This was a kind-hearted medical company. If it was another black-hearted company, they could only not provide it for free, but raise the price. If they sold the batch of antidotes to Pengzhan Industries, they could sell it at an insane price!

Everyone knew that if this event wasn’t settled, the First School under Pengzhan Industries would get negative impacts. However, if a medical company used this opportunity to raise the price of the antidote, they could earn quite some profits!

“Next, I will announce our new product, Doctor Guan’s injury medicine’s function, effects and the release time...” After Fatty Lai finished talking about the poisoning event, he naturally utilized this chance to promote his company’s own product.

All the reporters listened to Fatty Lai’s introduction carefully, and they were ready to report it in detail when they went back...

After the news conference held by Doctor Guan medical company, the tides turned and all the rumors that spread previously began to change. All social media were ready to blame the criminal and at the same time, felt sympathetic towards the First School. They also gave Doctor Guan medical company favorable reviews.

Now, even Direwolf was unable to change the situation. Although he took Li Cihua’s money, he couldn’t swim against the current, could he? Now that the truth was revealed, everyone was condemning the criminal and praising Doctor Guan medical company. Direwolf couldn’t continue to attack the First School, right?

Even his newspaper office’s editor in chief told him to draft a report denying his previous reports and condemning the criminal and praise Doctor Guan medical company! Well, he couldn’t act against other major media, could he?

Direwolf had no choice but to give Li Cihua a call.

“Cihua bro, It’s Direwolf!” He sounded unconfident, “I tried my best to attack the First School and Pengzhan Industries, but there’s nothing I can do. Doctor Guan medical company is too difficult to deal with. They found out the cause of the students in the coma. They said something about being poisoned by Deadly Seven Herbs Poison, and they made an antidote for it. There's no way I can lie through my teeth!"

"What?!" Li Cihua was shocked after hearing what Direwolf said, "What did you say? Doctor Guan medical company found out the cause of the students' coma? They created an antidote?"

"Yes. Cihua bro, what should we do now? I didn't complete the mission you gave me... Then the money..." Direwolf didn't want to return the money since he did do quite a lot for him. Who knew that Doctor Guan medical company would intervene?
