Chapter 721: You'll Have It Soon

You'll Have It Soon

Chen Yushu continuously threw a few sandbags, but all of them missed. However, the last one hit the biggest Big Big Wolf standing on the last row.

"Yes! I got it! The prize..." Chen Yushu cheered. However, halfway through her cheer, she realized that the toy only swayed slightly without falling down.

"That's a shame. Little girl, you almost got the biggest price! This Big Big Wolf is a real one too, not fake!" The owner looked at Chen Yushu with pity, "Your hit was too soft. Hit it harder next time!"

"Impossible! I'm strong! I can kill a shark, how can I not hit down a toy?" Chen Yushu suddenly remembered what Tang Yun said and immediately glared at the owner, "Oi, did you do something to it?"

"Excuse me? You can't assume that! I've had this business for a few years already, and I don't fake anything. Someone got a big price last month. You can ask those who always come here. I had a Spongebob toy here last month. This month is Big Big Wolf!" The owner quickly fought back.

Those around them heard the owner's words and all nodded in agreement. It was indeed Spongebob here last month. If no one got it, why was it gone now?

"Then I'll try again!" Chen Yushu was unwilling to give up and spent another ten yuan on ten sandbags.

"He definitely did something..." Tang Yun whispered to Lin Yi.

"I know, I can tell. But it's rare that they want to play. They are always stuck at home without fun," Lin Yi replied.

Chen Yushu threw four or five and although she hit a fish toy, it wasn't worth much since it was tiny. On the sixth hit, she finally hit the Big Big Wolf toy again. However, the toy still stayed in place.

The owner didn't think that Chen Yushu was lucky enough to hit it again. He was stuck in a difficult position since he couldn't use the same reason again.

However, the owner was experienced in telling lies. Without blinking, he said, "Still not enough strength. I can see that you used all your strength, but I think it's too far for you. I suggest you go for the medium sized toys."

Chen Yushu clenched her teeth angrily. She turned around to Lin Yi, "Shield bro, help Shu! I want that Big Big Wolf!"

"I'll try," Lin Yi questioned the toy too and didn't decline her request.

The owner wanted more people to try as Chen Yushu was lucky enough to hit it twice in a row. If she still didn't get it the third time, they could definitely see something with it. He quickly followed, "Yes, a boy will be stronger!"

"Do you only have one? If I get it, what about others?" Lin Yi thought that one toy wasn't enough to share between the three. He wanted one for each girl.

"We are a business. It would be rude for us only to have one prepared. Go for it!" The owner thought that Lin Yi was just talking. He had seen many like him, who were confident in themselves? But in the end, who got anything?

"Alright," Lin Yi picked up a sandbag casually and threw it, without aiming at anything.

The owner looked at Lin Yi. * Are you pretending to be cool? It'll be a miracle if you can hit it... *

"Bang!"

The sandbag hit the Big Big Wolf toy precisely, and it fell to the ground.

"Huh?" The owner looked at the scene in front of him in shock. How did he get that? Did it fall down? He put a layer of foam glue on the shelf, where the plastic bag holding the toy was placed. Even if it fell, no one would suspect anything since the foam glue was stuck on the shelf.

However, no one had ever done it before! Perhaps it was because the foam glue was there for too long and it was no longer sticky? Was it loosened because Chen Yushu hit it twice? That's why Lin Yi got it on the first try?

The owner's heart ached, but he could do nothing! How could he find an excuse in front of so many people? The owner bought officially released toys to attract more customers, and he just gave away a few hundred yuan!

The owner found a helper once in a while to win the prize. They were his relatives such as aunties and uncles. In the end, the toy would come back to him!

After some time, when people forgot about it, he would change the plastic bag and put it out again. He could make people think that he bought new toys, and no one would question it!

However, he miscalculated it today! If he knew, he would have pretended to check it and add some more glue.

"Congratulations, boy! You are the first player to get the big prize this month!" Although the owner's heart ached, he couldn't act shamelessly in front of so many. He might as well give it to Lin Yi and promote his stall, "Anyone else who would like to try? Perhaps the next winner will be you! Hurry up and don't miss the chance!"

"Sure you will," Lin Yi passed the toy to Chen Yushu.

"Woah! You are awesome!" Chen Yushu hugged it happily.

Chu Mengyao and Tang Yun were slightly envious but didn't say anything.

After Chen Yushu finished cheering, she turned to him again, "Shield bro, you can't be unfair. You need to get one for your wife and your girlfriend!"

"..." Lin Yi planned to continue, but he hesitated after hearing Chen Yushu's words. If he did, wouldn't he acknowledge Chu Mengyao as his wife? Although, there was nothing wrong with Tang Yun being his girlfriend.

"Shu, stop the nonsense!" Chu Mengyao kicked Chen Yushu and spoke, "You should get one for Tang Yun. I don't need one."

"There are two sandbags left, I'll get another two prices, one for each of you," Lin Yi smiled.

"Congratulations, boy! You are the first player to get the big prize this month!" Although the owner's heart ached, he couldn't act shamelessly in front of so many. He might as well give it to Lin Yi and promote his stall, “Anyone else who would like to try? Perhaps the next winner will be you! Hurry up and don’t miss the chance!”

“Sure you will,” Lin Yi passed the toy to Chen Yushu.

“Woah! You are awesome!” Chen Yushu hugged it happily.

Chu Mengyao and Tang Yun were slightly envious but didn’t say anything.

After Chen Yushu finished cheering, she turned to him again, “Shield bro, you can’t be unfair. You need to get one for your wife and your girlfriend!”

“Shu, stop the nonsense!” Chu Mengyao kicked Chen Yushu and spoke, “You should get one for Tang Yun. I don’t need one.”

Chapter 723: Another One?

Another One?

The owner was replacing a new one on the shelf when he heard Lin Yi’s words, and he wanted to laugh. Wasn’t he scared of being embarrassed? One for each person? You were just lucky before. Let’s see how you can hit it off the shelf with foam glue on!

Of course, he merely thought of it and kept quiet. When he turned around, his face was joyous, “Haha, then I hope that your wish will come true!”

The surrounding people heard of Lin Yi’s words and crowded around them curiously, wanting to know whether Lin Yi was bragging or not.

Lin Yi picked up another sandbag and seemed to throw it out casually without aiming or strength.

The crowd was disappointed, but the owner was glad. They thought that Lin Yi already got a price and gave up on the rest. But something unexpected happened.

“Bang!”

It hit the Pleasant Goat toy which the owner just placed there. The toy didn’t even sway before it fell straight onto the floor.

“Huh?” The owner cried in despair, but it was immediately covered by the cheering of the crowd.

“That’s awesome! He got it again!”

“Owner, I want to play too! Give me ten sandbags!”

“Give me twenty! I don’t believe this! I, Li Tianzhu, am the luckiest person ever. How can this boy be luckier than me?”

The owner passed the toy to Lin Yi with an aching heart but sighed in relief when he heard the crowd’s quests. He was happy that the promotion worked. It brought him so many customers!

Lin Yi passed the toy to Chu Mengyao.

“You should give it to Tang Yun,” Miss took it in embarrassment. Tang Yun was there, and Chu Mengyao didn’t think that she should take it. Chen Yushu already took one, and she shouldn’t take the other.

The owner heard Lin Yi’s words and almost tripped over himself. Another one? He will lose so much money! How could he keep the business running like this?

However, he couldn’t stop Lin Yi from doing so since he would lose even more. He took money when others couldn’t hit the prize but refused to when customers got it? That would make him seem unreasonable!

The owner stood there, praying that Lin Yi wouldn’t get it again. If he lost three toys in a row, he would lose all his earnings for the past few days!

However, reality wouldn’t change because of his prayers. If it did, he would’ve become a millionaire already.

“Bang!”

The last sandbag hit the biggest fox toy without a doubt.

The owner almost had a heart attack and almost fainted. However, he’d be a joke if he actually did. He unwillingly passed the toy to Lin Yi and congratulated him, “Awesome! Three in a row!”

“So-so.” Lin Yi replied and passed the toy to Tang Yun, “This is for you.”

Compared to the other two, Tang Yun like the fox more. Seeing that Lin Yi passed it to her, she was delighted, “Thanks!”

“Shield bro, you are awesome! Can we get another ten?” Chen Yushu saw the owner forcing a smile on and laughed evilly.

“Alright, Shu, let’s looked at other things and give others a chance,” Chu Mengyao stopped after they got what they wanted. It was difficult for them to run small businesses like this. These toys together cost for than a thousand and the owner must felt despair right now!

However, Chu Mengyao wouldn’t give them any compensation since that was how the business operated. There were gains and losses. Her Daddy didn’t always earn.

Lin Yi didn’t continue and took the girls away.

The owner finally sighed in relief. There was no way he could keep his shoes dry when talking along the river. His foam glue wasn't always useful! At least, he earned more customers now. The owner didn't believe that there were people as strong as Lin Yi in the crowd! He would earn it all back!

As expected, more and more people joined the queue and the owner was happy. In an instant, a few hundred went into his wallet, yet only small toys around ten or twenty yuan were given away. The owner couldn't hide his amusement.

However, it was too early to be happy. Another boy hit the price after Lin Yi left. However, it didn't fall down.

The boy was obviously unhappy, "I also hit it. Why didn't it fall down?"

"You hit it weakly. Look at how powerful the other boy was!"

"I'm weak? I'm a trainer at a gym. How could I be weaker than that boy?" The boy widened his eyes in disbelief, "Did you do something to it?"

"What can I do? That boy just got three in a row, everyone saw it!" The owner wasn't confident.

"Exactly, why did he get three? I know why! Because you asked him to play along! You intentionally made us see it and attract us here!" The boy interrogated.

"Impossible! I don't even know them!" The owner regained his confidence as he indeed didn't know Lin Yi and the others.

"If that's true, let me check if something's wrong with that toy or not!" The boy obviously didn't believe the owner and pushed him away, walking towards the shelf.

"You can't go in there!" The owner attempted to stop the boy, but how could he win against a gym trainer? The boy pushed to the side easily and grabbed the toy. However, it didn't move an inch.

He froze and pulled it even harder. However, the only thing he saw was a large amount of foam glue on the shelf! The boy laughed coldly, "Great, so that's how you lie to people. There is so much glue on the shelf. Who could possibly hit it off the shelf from such a far distance? Aren't you scamming us?"

The owner was dumbfounded. He had no way to hide it after he was exposed, and quickly explained, "Well... I also put foam glue on the shelf, but that person got it..."

Chapter 724: Business to Discuss

Business to Discuss

"Who are you lying to? You didn't put glue on it when the other kid was playing!" The boy naturally didn't believe the owner's words. Since he put so much glue on already, how were his words believable?

"I... I really did..." The owner's heart turned cold. How could he run his business now that he was exposed?"

"I don't care if you put glue on there or not, hurry up and give me a refund. I spent 30 yuan here already. Give it back to me!" The boy became impatient and refused to listen to the owner's explanation.

"Ok, ok, I'll give you a refund right now..." The owner wanted to settle it quietly between them, but he couldn't oppose a gym trainer.

"Us too! Hurry up! I played here yesterday..."

"And me, I played here the day before yesterday..."

The owner fainted at the sight in front of him. His money box was emptied in a second and those who didn't get money fought for his toys instead. In an instant, the stall was empty...

When the owner woke up, he realized that he had nothing left! But who could he blame? He was being dishonest with his business.

Lin Yi didn't know the owner was so unfortunate after he left. But even if he knew, he wouldn't have helped as it had nothing to do with him. Right now, Lin Yi was in front of the fried mushroom stall with Miss and Shu.

"It's unhealthy, you shouldn't eat it..." Tang Yun saw that Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu were extremely excited to eat and reminded them, "You can make it at home if you want to eat it."

"True! Shield bro, do you know how to fry mushroom?" Chen Yushu considered the option since the stalls were too clean. Who knew if they washed the room and used oil discarded from bigger kitchens?

"I think so..." Lin Yi looked at the process once and learned it.

"Then you can make it for us in the future. We won't come out to eat!" Chen Yushu was delighted as she could finally eat delicious mushrooms at home.

Tang Yun rubbed her forehead in frustration. She just troubled Lin Yi.

Chen Yushu wasn't in the mood to fill herself up with mushrooms anymore knowing that Lin Yi could make it at home.

After they finished eating, Lin Yi suggested that he would take Tang Yun back to the hospital.

Lin Yi and Tang Yun couldn't do anything together with the other two here, and they were stuck in an awkward situation.

Tang Yun had similar thoughts and immediately agreed.

Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu followed Lin Yi no matter what his decision was. It had been a rewarding day for them, and they didn't want to keep shopping. They had school tomorrow, and they won't be able to wake up in time if they stayed up too late.

Chen Yutian and Song Lingshan left An Jianwen's room and she frowned, "Your friend acted strangely. I think there is something wrong."

"I haven't contacted him for a long time. If I didn't come back for business, I wouldn't be in touch with him," Chen Yutian shook his head, "But House An developed quickly, and they became the head of the five small houses..."

"They advanced to where they are now from dishonest practices. We'll take care of them sooner or later!" Song Lingshan replied.

"Haha. Do you have time to grab dinner together?" Chen Yushu asked after they left the hospital.

"No. There are too many cases I need to take care of. I don't want to waste any time," Song Lingshan immediately declined the offer, "I need to change out of my uniform too. It's too troublesome."

"In fact, I have business to discuss with you," Chen Yutian was confident. He came to Songshan for a secret mission, but because one of the segments required him to work with the police, Chen Yutian had to get in touch with Song Lingshan after getting permission from his boss.

According to the process, Chen Yutian had to contact the head of the police bureau first. However, since he talked to Yang Huaijun, and Song Lingshan was the leader of the criminal case investigation team taking care of it, it was enough of a reason to talk about it with her.

"Business?" Song Lingshan was taken aback, "If it's business then we can talk in my office, but forget about dinner."

"But it's dinner time. How can we discuss business on an empty stomach?" Chen Yutian laughed bitterly.

"Alright, quick meal for two then," Song Lingshan replied, "There's a dining hall in the hospital!"

"Alright..." Chen Yutian couldn't change anything about it, but at least they were eating together. However, it wouldn't be romantic.

The two of them arrived at the dining hall. Although Song Lingshan was in her police uniform, Chen Yutian was also in the uniform of armed police. However, no one noticed them as numerous police were guarding the hospital, and it was normal to eat at the hospital.

Chen Yutian wanted to order a few dishes in a private room, but Song Lingshan bought food for two. She was decisive and left no room for Chen Yutian to refuse.

"What do you want to talk about?" Song Lingshan found an empty corner and placed food on the table before glancing at Chen Yutian, "If you are discussing business with me, you should talk to my boss first."

"I already talked to Yang Huaijun," Chen Yutian didn't give her a chance to reject him.

"Okay. Lieutenant Chen, how can we cooperate with you?" Song Lingshan nodded and asked.

Chen Yutian felt helpless at Song Lingshan's attitude. Why couldn't she just talk to him like a friend?

"We found an artifact smuggling company when we patrolled the frontier and had a gun fight. The head is the renowned couple thief in the black market," Chen Yutian briefly explained.

"Shouldn't you be working with the local police and artifact department, not Songshan police?" Song Lingshan naturally heard of the criminals before. They were a gang of famous tomb raiders, the head behind it were a man and woman. They became the couple thief.

In fact, the wanted order for them was out a long time ago, but no one knew who they really were since they wore masks at all time.

“Theoretically yes, but we found a work notebook on them,” Chen Yutian lowered his voice, “It has a record of their next action plan...”

Chapter 725: Of Course!

Of Course!

“Eat first, then talk in my office,” Song Lingshan nodded and cut off Chen Yutian’s words. Although they were in the corner and no one noticed them, Song Lingshan didn’t want to talk about work in public due to her professional career.

Chen Yutian also nodded and quickly devoured the food in front of him. Song Lingshan didn’t talk during dinner, and Chen Yutian wanted to talk about something other than food, “You... You know Lin Yi?”

“What are you trying to say?” Song Lingshan frowned.

“You look like you are familiar with him? Is his rank high?” Chen Yutian probed.

“Higher than yours,” Song Lingshan replied mercilessly.

“Of course!” Chen Yutian replied naturally.

“...” Song Lingshan was speechless. She thought Chen Yutian didn’t want to accept it, but he said ‘of course’. Song Lingshan shook her head. He was too weak! He would never toughen up with his personality.

However, Song Lingshan didn’t know the reason behind it. If it was someone else, Chen Yutian wouldn’t necessarily lower his head, but he only admired Lin Yi!

The topic didn’t seem appropriate and Chen Yutian stopped talking since Song Lingshan didn’t want to talk to him. He quickly finished the food in front of him. Song Lingshan also trained in the special forces and wasn’t much slower than Chen Yutian.

The two of them walked to the car park after dinner. Chen Yutian drove an Audi A6 with a police number plate, the most iconic business car. On the other side, Song Lingshan drove her Leopard.

They drove to Songshan Police Station. In Song Lingshan’s office, she gave him a glass of water and sat down opposite to him on the couch, “Lieutenant Chen, you may continue now.”

“Alright,” Chen Yutian nodded. When he spoke about business, he changed from his usual weak and obedient image. Song Lingshan could stand him a little more than before. “We discovered the couple thief’s notebook. In the notebook, the date for their next plan is recorded and the location is a tomb near Songshan,” Chen Yutian said.

“Oh? There is a tomb near Songshan?” Song Lingshan was taken aback. She never heard of any cities built here during the dynasties, and the tombs around here should be small tombs of ordinary people. Tomb raiders shouldn’t find it valuable.

"I'm not sure because the notebook didn't record the detailed location of the tomb. It only mentioned Songshan city, and I think it's near here," Chen Yutian said.

"You want to find the tomb? I thought this wasn't your work?" Song Lingshan didn't understand why Chen Yutian wanted to find the tomb.

"The tomb was found by three gangs of tomb raiders. The couple thief is one of the gang leaders..." Chen Yutian replied.

"So you want to catch all three gangs at the same time?" Song Lingshan wasn't stupid and immediately understood his intention.

"Yes!" Chen Yutian nodded, "Firstly, we want to catch all of them. Secondly, we want to explore the tomb with their power. If it's valuable in their eyes, it must be unusual. If they explore it first, they can provide our archeologists with information and convenience."

"Anything we can help you with?" Song Lingshan grasped the idea, and the mission was rather dangerous. They had to catch those dangerous tomb raiders and explore the tomb with them.

"According to their notes, they found it to be extremely dangerous from the first investigation. However, more treasures must be hidden behind tombs like this. So, they didn't want to give up, but they also couldn't guarantee success," Chen Yutian continued, "Then, they contacted the famous archeologists in the country, Dr. Liu Bojia..."

"Liu Bojia?" Song Lingshan paused for a few seconds, "The Liu Bojia from our Songshan city? The free explorer, Liu Bojia?"

"Yes, him!" Chen Yutian nodded and continued, "Liu Bojia is a free explorer, special reporter, and author for numerous magazine companies on the surface, but he had secret connections with tomb raiding company."

"Liu Bojia was attacked by a murderer. I think you were aware of it," Song Lingshan suddenly realized it, "You came to us for Liu Bojia?"

"That's correct. Liu Bojia is in control of Songshan police, and we must start from him if we want to find the tomb. He's the only person who knows," Chen Yutian said, "Those gangs, including the couple, all found Liu Bojia, wanting to use him to get into the tomb. But after he conducted a detailed exploration, he gave up on the collaboration since it was too dangerous. These people are afraid of Liu Bojia spreading the news or taking the treasure by himself after he declared he was going to give up, so they tried to kill him to seal his mouth!"

"So that's why! No wonder Liu Bojia never agreed to work with the police. He knew why he was attacked. If he spoke the truth, he will be pulled into it and he would be sentenced too," Song Lingshan finally understood Liu Bojia's worries. He was secretly a tomb raider too.

"Did Liu Bojia make any confessions or give you any information?" Chen Yutian asked.

"No, he refused to work with us. At first, we didn't think too much into it, and we didn't know there was so much behind it," Song Lingshan shook her head in regret. If she knew about it earlier, she would've kept Liu Bojia safe no matter what!"

“How’s his condition right now? I heard from Yang Huaiyun that he’s rather unwell?” Chen Yutian sighed. All the clues were concentrated on Liu Bojia. If anything happened to him, how could they find the tomb with so many mountains and bodies of water around Songshan city?

“He’s still unconscious and he relies on the respirator to live...” Song Lingshan suddenly remembered Lin Yi since he agreed to treat Liu Bojia. What happened to that? Did he forget it? He could have forgotten!

Song Lingshan was bothered by the kidney trafficking company case and temporarily put Liu Bojia’s case aside. She didn’t ask Lin Yi about it, and Lin Yi acted as if he never agreed to it.

Song Lingshan knew that with Lin Yi’s personality, it was impossible to hope that he’ll contact her about it first. She had to urge him to do it.

Chapter 726: Make Him Give Up

Make Him Give Up

“If that’s the case, the situation is more complex...” Chen Yutian frowned, “What did the doctor say?”

“The doctor can’t do anything...” Song Lingshan shook her head.

Chen Yutian wasn’t stupid, and he seemed to understand something in her words. Although the doctor couldn’t do anything, from her tone of voice, someone else could heal Liu Bojia, “Lingshan, is there another way?”

“Call me Song Lingshan or Officer Song,” Song Lingshan was unhappy with his way of calling her.

“Alright, Song Lingshan, is there another way?”

“I can’t do anything, but someone can...” Song Lingshan’s head hurts at the thought of Lin Yi. Did she have to beg Lin Yi for Chen Yutian? It was fine if it was for her own sake, but it was for Chen Yutian... She didn’t want to owe Lin Yi multiple favors. It wasn’t good to pretend to be brainless all the time. What if Lin Yi became sick of it?

However, Song Lingshan couldn’t neglect it since it was business. After all, armed police and Songshan police had to work together, and she was involved in it too. Without considering her private relationship with Chen Yutian, it will be a great accomplishment for her too! Although it was teamwork, no one can deny their contribution.

“Is it too much trouble?” Chen Yutian asked carefully.

“Not too much... Let me make a call first,” Song Lingshan sighed as calling Lin Yi was the only way. If she asked Chen Yutian to ask his sister to ask Lin Yi, it might work, but it would take too much effort. After all, she asked Lin Yi for a favor first. If she told Chen Yutian to intervene, it would be bad if Lin Yi thought she used Chen Yutian to pressure him through Chen Yushu!

“Ok,” Chen Yutian nodded.

Song Lingshan called Lin Yi nervously. When the call went through, she began to regret it. She shouldn't have called in front of Chen Yutian. Wouldn't she have to act cute if Lin Yi didn't agree? What would happen if Chen Yutian heard it?

She had always been a tough girl and never did something like this before. If others heard about it, she would lose all her dignity!

However, Lin Yi picked up the call before she could think through it thoroughly. Lin Yi was on the way of driving Tang Yun back to the hospital, "Hello?"

"It's Song Lingshan. You agreed to have a look at Liu Bojia last time, will you do it?" Song Lingshan asked carefully.

"Who's Liu Bojia?" Song Lingshan guessed correctly. Lin Yi already forgot who Liu Bojia was. Song Lingshan didn't mention it since then, and Lin Yi didn't bother to keep it in his mind.

"The man who was attacked by a killer in the hospital..." Song Lingshan explained.

"That person? His situation is complicated. Leave it for now. I'm busy right now," Lin Yi hung up and parked the car at the hospital, saying goodbye to Tang Yun.

Lin Yi wasn't sure that he could save Liu Bojia as he was harmed severely. But after Feng Xiaoxiao and Chu Mengyao, as well as healing his own injuries, he realized that he could cure his own and others' injuries rapidly using his inner energy.

Liu Bojia's injuries were severe, and it will definitely consume a large amount of his energy. There was no point for him to drop level for him. Although he could recover over one night, why would he waste so much effort into saving a stranger?

Song Lingshan was frustrated when Lin Yi hung up on her. However, she figured out that there was still hope for Liu Bojia since Lin Yi didn't say that he couldn't save him.

Song Lingshan hesitated for a while and called again.

Chen Yutian didn't think it was inappropriate to call again since all capable men had tempers. One call wasn't enough to beg him for a favor.

Lin Yi didn't expect Song Lingshan to call again after he sent Tang Yun back. Lin Yi didn't sit back in the car and picked up the call outside, "What else?"

"Please help me..." Song Lingshan abruptly recalled that Chen Yutian was right next to her. She was in a rush! However, she realized that she could use this time to make Chen Yutian give up on her. That would be a big problem solved! When she thought of it this way, she no longer felt anxious. "Miss Brainless needs your help. Will you please save him? I'll repay back by making delicious food for you!"

Chen Yutian widened his eyes in shock! Was this really Song Lingshan? Was he looking at the wrong person? Since when did Song Lingshan act like this? If he wasn't sitting right in front of him, he would've thought that a girl was acting cute to her boyfriend!

How is that possible? Chen Yutian rubbed his eyes in disbelief. Song Lingshan had always been a tough girl. Why was she acting like that?

Was it a girl picking up the call? It didn't seem so since she looked like she was talking to a man. And she called herself "Miss Brainless"? Chen Yutian's heart almost exploded.

It was a shock that she addressed herself like that. The nickname seemed... to be a nickname between lovers?

Lin Yi was speechless at Song Lingshan's request, but his heart softened, "Alright, I'll go and have a look tomorrow if I'm free..."

"That's great! Thank you so much!" Song Lingshan tried to make her voice sound as sweet and cute as possible...

"You are welcome, I'm hanging up," Lin Yi hung up and got back inside the car.

Song Lingshan sighed in relief. It's done! As expected, Lin Yi will compromise when she acted cutely. When she was feeling pleased with herself, her expressions froze when she remembered Chen Yutian was sitting opposite her.

"Song Lingshan... You..." Chen Yutian looked at Song Lingshan in disbelief.

"What? Anything wrong?" Song Lingshan's expressions became natural again. She wanted to make him give up.

"Just then... That person you called..." Chen Yutian couldn't help but ask.

"It's my privacy," Song Lingshan replied indifferently, "It has nothing to do with the case, does it?"

"... Of course..." Chen Yutian smiled bitterly and looked down. Song Lingshan has a boyfriend?

"Tomorrow, my friend will come and bring Liu Bojia back. Ask Liu Bojia if you have more questions," Song Lingshan said, "I will take part in the operation when it happens."

Chapter 727: Song Lingshan's Boyfriend?

Song Lingshan's Boyfriend?

"If there's nothing else, can you leave?" Song Lingshan asked.

"Uh... We are done with public business, but can I ask you something more private?" Chen Yutian was unwilling to give up.

"What is it?" Song Lingshan knew what he was going to ask, "You can ask, but I can choose not to answer it."

"... The person you called just then, is that your boyfriend?" Chen Yutian decided to ask clearly.

"Not yet, but I'm pursuing him," Song Lingshan replied after a moment of thinking.

"You... You are pursuing him?" Chen Yutian widened his eyes.

"Why?" Song Lingshan laughed secretly, "Will you give up this time?"

“No, I just found it strange...” Chen Yutian shook his head, “you don’t usually sound like that... He’s a doctor?”

“Kind of...” Song Lingshan told the truth. Lin Yi wasn’t a complete professional doctor.

“Kind of?” Chen Yutian didn’t understand what she meant, “Didn’t you swear that you’ll find someone stronger than you? How can a doctor be stronger?”

Chen Yutian refused to accept it. Did Song Lingshan lie to him? She said she’ll find someone strong, Why did she want a doctor as her boyfriend now?

“He’s stronger than me. Who said that a doctor can’t be strong?” Song Lingshan frowned, “Your logic is wrong in the first place. He’s not a professional doctor, he’s an amateur in some situations.”

“Is that so...” Chen Yutian laughed bitterly, “So I don’t have a chance anymore?”

“You never had a chance,” Song Lingshan replied mercilessly, “First, I don’t like your attitude and second, I’m already in the final stage of the golden class. Can you surpass that?”

“Late stage of golden class?” Chen Yutian inhaled deeply. How many days had it been? A few days ago, Song Lingshan was stuck as she just entered the final stage, but now she broke through that! It’s rare to see this speed of growth in the houses!

“You don’t believe it?” Song Lingshan asked.

In an instant, she condensed all her pure energy together and the aura shocked Chen Yutian. As expected of the final stage in the gold class...

“I do!” Chen Yutian sighed, “But your friend is even stronger than you?”

“He helped me with the breakthrough...” Song Lingshan blushed at the thought of what happened in the basement. She broke through it in such an embarrassing situation! But it made sense to say that Lin Yi helped her with it as she fantasized Lin Yi at that time...

“It looks like I’m no match for him...” Chen Yutian gave up, “Oh right, don’t tell me he’s an old man? Is there anyone of the same age who’s stronger than you? Grandpa Song won’t allow you to find a husband with a huge age difference, will he?”

It was Chen Yutian’s only hope.

“No,” Song Lingshan replied lightly, “You’ll see him at the hospital tomorrow if you want to know who he is.”

Song Lingshan intentionally hid Lin Yi’s name as she thought it was better to be mysterious.

“Alright...” Chen Yutian sighed in disappointment.

Mrs. Tang held the account record of her bank card and couldn’t stop smiling.

She had never seen so much money in her whole life. Three million! A whole three million! Plus the 500,000 yuan from before, she had three and a half million! Did she just become a millionaire?

“Old Tang, look at this. Does it have five zeros on it? Thirty-five in front and seven digits in total?” Mrs. Tang asked Tang Jucheng as she held the account record dearly in her hands.

“It is 3, 500,000 yuan. You’ve shown me more than ten times,” Tang Jucheng was much calmer. Too much happened recently and since Lin Yi came, their family’s situation became better and better.

“Good jokes,” Tang Jucheng scorned at himself, “My leg doesn’t even worth a cent in their eyes. I’ve had a broken leg before and stayed in bed for so many years. Were we given a single cent? If not for Lin Yi, they wouldn’t give us 300,000, not to mention three million.”

“I was just joking!” Mrs. Tang also knew it. She didn’t know where Lin Yi got the money, but he was capable. He didn’t only break the leg of Qibing Real Estate’s CEO, but he even compensated her family!

Tang Yun walked in when Mrs. Tang was talking to her husband. Seeing that their faces were bright with smiles, she asked, “Dad, Mum, what are you talking about? You look happy!”

“We are talking about the three million! Lin Yi is great, he got us three million?” Mrs. Tang waved the bank card and account record in her hand, “Tell Mum about it, how did you get it?”

“Oh, Lin Yi taught Li Dilei’s lesson. He’s Li Cihua’s cousin and Li Cihua worked for Zhao Qibing. Then Li Cihua came begging for a favor so Lin Yi asked for three million of medical fees for Dad...” Tang Yun briefly recounted what happened and neglected details as she didn’t want her mother to worry for her.

“Huh?” Mrs Tang and Tang Jucheng widened their eyes in shock. How did it work that way? He beat Li Cihua’s cousin up yet Li Cihua gave him three million? Wasn’t Lin Yi too domineering? However, the more domineering Lin Yi was, the happier Mrs. Tang was. They won’t be bullied in the future only if Lin Yi is touch! Hence she said, “I thought that we can pick a house in an inconvenient location and go with it, but now we have money, we have enough to buy whatever we want!”

“Then we should buy a better one...” Tang Yun knew that Lin Yi could give the same amount to her family. He could ask Li Cihua for three million, but he decided to use her father’s medical expenses as an excuse.

It was also the reason to why Tang Yun couldn’t reject the money because Li Cihua should compensate her father! If Lin Yi wasn’t there, perhaps her family wouldn’t even get a single cent back.

Chapter 728: House Chen’s Crisis

House Chen’s Crisis

“Yun, what do you think of a retail house? If the neighborhood is big enough, we can open a barbeque shop and it’ll be enough to feed ourselves,” Mrs. Tang asked.

“I think that will work. You should open a business if you and Dad have nothing to do,” Tang Yun nodded.

“With three million in the bank, we’ll get 100,000 yuan of interest after saving it in there for a year. What can you do to earn so much?” Tang Jucheng thought through about it carefully and thought that it was better to save it in the bank. They would gain without loss!

“That’s true...” Mrs. Tang hesitated and didn’t know what to do, “Yun, your Dad has a reason. We’ll get a large amount of interest from saving it in the bank!”

“Uh... I don’t know much about it, should we ask Lin Yi tomorrow? Let’s see what he says.” She’d never seen this much money before and she didn’t know how to manage the finances. She didn’t want to give any advice without having knowledge about it.

Early in the next morning, Lin Yi was woken up by Song Lingshan’s call. He looked at the phone and it was only half past five. Lin Yi fumed. He was cultivating inside the jade pendant and she interrupted her.

“What’s wrong with you, calling so early in the morning?” Lin Yi yelled through the phone.

“I...” Song Lingshan felt wronged. It was half-past five and it wasn’t early for those who practiced martial arts. Waking up early to practice was extremely important. Song Lingshan had always done so in the past twenty years, “Don’t you have to wake up early to practice martial arts?”

“Practice your sister,” Lin Yi replied gloomily, “Don’t compare your situation to mine. I always woke up whenever I wanted to.”?

“Uh... You are interested in my sister?” Song Lingshan froze.

“How could I be interested in her if I’ve never even seen her before?” Lin Yi was speechless at Song Lingshan’s logic, “Do you have something you need to say or not?”

“Yes. You agreed to have a look at Liu Bojia, didn’t you?” Song Lingshan asked carefully, “I’m ready...”

“Ok. You haven’t eaten breakfast yet, have you? Shall Miss Brainless make some for you?” Song Lingshan was afraid that Lin Yi wouldn’t try his best and tell her that he couldn’t heal him although he could. She tried her best to please him.

“Make some then,” Lin Yi replied and hung up. He was used to Song Lingshan pleasing him.

Lin Yi got up and found the ingredients needed for porridge in the kitchen for Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu, set it on a timer and left.

Lin Yi also agreed to buy a house with Tang Yun’s family. He wanted to solve Liu Bojia’s problem as soon as possible so he didn’t have time to wait for porridge to cook at home.

He drove a van to People’s First Hospital and called Song Lingshan.

“You’re here?” Song Lingshan was surprised. She didn’t think that Lin Yi would come so quickly. It looked like Lin Yi didn’t let her down.

Chen Yutian also arrived at the hospital early in the morning. He couldn’t sleep well as he felt down after hearing that Song Lingshan found someone she liked. He knew that he had no hope left, and he was ready to see how capable the man Song Lingshan loved was. Of course, he held the authority to challenge him! If he surpassed him one day!

“I’m in the car park, where are you?” Lin Yi asked.

“I’m in the third impatient department, room 2119 in the ICU on the top floor,” Song Lingshan replied.

“Alright, I’ll head over now,” Lin Yi got off the car and headed towards the destination.

When Chen Yutian heard that the man was arriving soon, he couldn’t help but get nervous, “Song Lingshan, he’s here?”

“Almost,” Song Lingshan nodded. She was extremely unhappy with Chen Yutian’s nervousness. Why couldn’t he be more of a man? Even if Lin Yi was more powerful than him, there was no need to be so anxious, was there?

Chen Yutian nodded and felt like he was a failure. He pursued Song Lingshan for so many years and ended up in defeat.

He picked the wrong style in the first place. He used to act like a rich and powerful young master, but Song Lingshan never looked up to that type. When he wanted to surpass Song Lingshan’s strength, it was already too late. If it wasn’t for a great teacher’s guidance, he wouldn’t even be able to break through to the golden stage in his lifetime.

Although he was disappointed, Chen Yutian didn’t regret it. If it wasn’t for Song Lingshan’s words, he wouldn’t have picked the road he decided through today! Although he wasn’t the most powerful amongst the children of the Houses, placing at the initial stage of the golden class wasn’t weak either! At least his grandpa wasn’t disappointed in him!

He was the only son in the third generation of House Chen, and it was impossible for Chen Yushu to practice martial arts. If he wasn’t strong enough, his house would have most likely been expelled from the four great houses by House Yu after a few years!

Hence, Chen Yutian felt a sense of danger and crisis. He was too young to consider this now, but he had no choice but to look out for his family! Out of the three generations, no one else could stand solidly amongst everyone else other than his grandfather!

His grandfather practiced martial arts, focusing on combat skills, and it was different from those who practiced spiritual strength. The older he was, the purer his internal energy became. However, if his body wasn’t in good condition, he wouldn’t be able to keep up with his combat ability.

Now that his grandfather’s body wasn’t in the best condition, even if he was in his peak at the middle stage of the mystic class, who knew where he was? Wu Gonggao from House Wu had been jumping around, declaring that he wanted to challenge Chen Yutian’s grandfather. In reality, he just wanted to probe around House Chen to see what their limits were and how much strength they had left!

After settling for so long, some houses should be replaced! Naturally, House Wu wanted to get rid of House Chen and replace them through connections with houses they were close with. House Kang recently tried to climb up to House Wu, and they had the same intentions.

Although House Chen, as one of the famous houses, seemed glamorous on the outside, their position was being threatened.

Chen Yutian knew it clearly and so did his grandfather.

This was why his grandfather supported him in pursuing Song Lingshan. If they joined in marriage, those who longed for their position would reconsider their position!

However, Chen Yutian didn't succeed since Song Lingshan didn't have eyes for him. Chen Yutian called his grandfather last night, and his grandfather sighed at his grandson's late realization. What could they do about it now?

Chapter 729: Breakfast Made With Love

Breakfast Made With Love

The only thing Chen Yutian could do was to make friends with other children of more influential houses to provide his house with strong supporters. However, this kind of support wasn't firm without marriage. As soon as they had conflicts, it could easily crumble.

Chen Yutian could only rely on himself now. If he could break through to the mystic class before his grandfather passed away, then House Chen wouldn't collapse within a hundred years! However, House Song's old lady already achieved the middle stage of mystic class!

In fact, House Song's spiritual martial arts was more suitable for girls. Out of all the offsprings of House Song, Song Lingshan's older brother was only at the initial stage of the golden class and even Song Lingshan's young sister reached the same level as her brother!

Now that marriage was impossible between Song Lingshan and Chen Yutian, he wanted to see how capable the man she liked was. If House Song could obtain such a powerful supporter, then her House could potentially reach House Yu's level!

Lin Yi arrived at the room and walked inside. He paused at the sight of Song Lingshan and Chen Yutian. Why was he here?

Chen Yutian also froze at the sight of Lin Yi. Why was Instructor Eagle here?

Immediately, Chen Yutian realized that the capable person Song Lingshan talked about was Lin Yi.

Now he could make sense of the situation. Who else was so capable in their generation other than Lin Yi? If Lin Yi could help him break through the gold class, why couldn't he help Song Lingshan?

Chen Yutian always admired Lin Yi and never put Lin Yi on his own level before. In his eyes, Lin Yi was like a god! Hence, when he considered the candidates, he never put Lin Yi into consideration!

When he saw Lin Yi here, he finally realized it. Lin Yi was even younger than him. Of course, he was an outstanding youngster of this generation!

Lin Yi didn't know what little Song girl said to Chen Yutian, and he wasn't feeling awkward at all. He nodded at him, "Yutian bro, you are here too?"

Chen Yutian returned a bitter smile, "I'm one of the persons in charge of the case too, so I'm here."

Chen Yutian didn't tell Lin Yi that he was here to see who Song Lingshan liked since there was no need to look further. He wanted to challenge the man that showed up, but it was impossible to surpass Lin Yi even they gave him another hundred years!

If Song Lingshan was really dating Lin Yi, then it may be good for House Song since her house would raise! No one knew what Lin Yi was capable of better than Chen Yutian, and he believed that Song Lingshan pursued Lin Yi because of that too.

Otherwise, she would never lower herself in front of a man who was not as capable as her. She even cooked for him, and her gentle voice shocked Chen Yutian!

In his eyes, only Lin Yi was worthy for her!

However, Chen Yutian suddenly recalled something. Wasn't his sister also close to Lin Yi? And said that she wanted to be his concubine? What happened?

Although Chen Yutian didn't believe his sister's words as Chen Yushu barely spoke the truth at all, no one knew whether she was serious or not since childhood. Chen Yutian pondered silently; was Song Lingshan his sister's competitor?

However, Chen Yutian quickly shook his head. His sister was only in Year 12. Wasn't it too early to think about it?

"You haven't eaten breakfast yet, have you?" Song Lingshan took out a thermal container and passed it to Lin Yi, "I made it especially for you. Do you want to have some now?"

Lin Yi nodded, placing it on the table and opened it.

Song Lingshan's cooking skills surprised Lin Yi. Did she know how to cook? And it looked quite good?

A few jujube cakes, two pan-fried eggs, and some delicate side dishes were placed neatly inside. It was obvious that it was homemade. She most likely made it early in the morning.

Lin Yi devoured the food quickly and complemented without holding back, "I didn't know that you were good at cooking? You aren't useless after all!"

The first part of Lin Yi's sentence excited Song Lingshan, but the second half almost made her heart explode in fury. What do you mean by I'm not useless? Was there nothing else she was capable of?

She was at the final stage of the gold class, yet all Lin Yi could see was her cooking skills?

However, she didn't dare to let her anger out since she was afraid that Lin Yi would leave. Her efforts in making breakfast and pretending to be brainless would all go to waste. She smiled, "If you like it, shall Miss Brainless make it for you more often? As for other things, if I have you helping me, there's no need for me to worry over them..."

"Let's talk later, I want to have a look at Liu Bojia first," Lin Yi didn't reply to her suggestion as his relationship with Song Lingshan became weird after what happened in the dungeon. Lin Yi didn't know what she thought of it, and he was afraid that he wouldn't be able to resist the temptation.

Of course, the temptation was small, but the trouble was big. If something happened between them, he would be pestered nonstop.

“Yes, let’s do that first!” Song Lingshan was delighted. He finally asked to see the patient!

Chen Yutian’s eyes almost fell out of its sockets. He always heard that women will change for the men they liked, and it was true. Song Lingshan was like a completely different person!

Lin Yi had to accompany Tang Yun and her family to buy a house and he had to solve this as soon as possible.

Song Lingshan and Chen Yutian followed Lin Yi into ICU and watched Lin Yi checking Liu Bojia’s wounds in silence.

Lin Yi had seen Liu Bojia’s wounds before and it was severe. He wasn’t certain that he could treat him, and he wasn’t sure about using the miraculous energy inside him. He wasn’t willing to use his energy to save a stranger.

Chapter 730: Brothers

Brothers

If Song Lingshan didn’t sugar coat it, Lin Yi wouldn’t care whether Liu Bojia lived or not.

He checked Liu Bojia’s condition again; he was the same as before, neither improved or deteriorated. But it was already a miracle that he managed to maintain his current condition with a respirator.

Lin Yi instructed the two, “Get someone to take his clothes off. I need to give him acupuncture.”

“I’ll do it,” Chen Yutian didn’t give the job to someone else. Song Lingshan was a girl, and it was inappropriate for her to do it.

Liu Bojia’s patient uniform was loose, and Chen Yutian took it off easily.

Lin Yi nodded and gestured him to move away. He took out a new box of silver needles bought last night. The last box he had was used on Li Dilei and he wanted it back since it was expensive.

He quickly pierced numerous needles on Liu Bojia quickly. Lin Yi never thought of curing Liu Bojia completely but decided to repair Liu Bojia’s wounds using his internal energy. In order to prevent all of his energy drained out, like with Feng Xiaoxiao, Lin Yi used the needles to block a few acupoints first to selectively decide which points he could transfer the energy through.

As for his other wounds, the hospital could heal them.

Lin Yi transferred his energy into Liu Bojia’s body and repaired a few severe wounds. Lin Yi sighed in relief. The amount of energy Liu Bojia needed was far less than Feng Xiaoxiao, around the same amount as Miss needed. He didn’t need to give Liu Bojia too much energy to repair his wounds.

However, Lin Yi didn't do it that way. Firstly, it was too eye-catching and secondly, Lin Yi didn't owe him anything. He was already doing the man a huge favor! Using his old man's words, a thief never leaves empty-handed, and if one does make a move, he must earn something back!

"Alright, he should wake up in the afternoon," Lin Yi took back the needles on Liu Bojia's body and the entire process didn't take longer than ten minutes.

"It's that easy?" Song Lingshan watched Lin Yi pierce the needles in and massage Liu Bojia for a bit. Now he's cured? If it was that easy, why did he push the responsibility around? It was as easy as lifting his hand up yet he tricked her into pretending she was brainless so many times?

Lin Yi rolled his eyes, "Why don't you treat him if you think it's easy? How much energy do you think I lost transferring to him? If I give that amount to you, perhaps you would level up again."

Lin Yi merely wanted to scorn her for not using her brain, but Song Lingshan felt bad after hearing that Lin Yi used pure energy to treat Liu Bojia. Wasn't that way too luxurious? Why did he use it on other people? Song Lingshan heard that the pure energy cultivated oneself could help you, but she has never heard that pure energy from others also had the same effect!

Not to mention that using pure energy from her own family was limited. He had to be her future husband! Just like her grandparents, her grandpa was only at the initial stage of the gold class and if it wasn't for her grandma, how could she possibly reach the final stage of gold class?

However, Lin Yi gave his pure energy to a complete stranger, an ordinary person too. It was outrageous. At the same time, she pitied that energy. How nice would it be if she got it instead? Perhaps she could level up again!

"Sorry, Miss Brainless is wrong..." Song Lingshan grabbed Lin Yi's hands with a blush on her face, "Goodman, can you try to give me more energy next time?"

"We'll talk about it when I have time," Lin Yi botched, "I'm leaving if there's nothing else. Tang Yun's waiting for me to buy a house with her family."

Song Lingshan heard the carelessness in his voice, but she wasn't discouraged. It would be unbelievable if he agreed to give her more.

Tang Yun? Chen Yutian froze at the name. A girl's name? What's her relationship with Lin Yi? It looked like Lin Yi was popular with girls, and Song Lingshan had numerous competitors!

After Lin Yi left, Song Lingshan returned to her normal and cold expression, as if the girl acting cute wasn't her. It made Chen Yutian sigh. How could a person change so quickly?

"It looks like you have a lot of competitors?" Chen Yutian completely dropped this relationship in his heart as he knew the difference between him and Lin Yi immediately. He no longer had hope and placed himself on the same level as Song Lingshan since he could now joke with her.

"So?" Song Lingshan was surprised at Chen Yutian's attitude. In an instant, she felt like Chen Yutian acted much calmer than before. Now, they could be good friends, and she no longer felt sick of him, "You are finally giving up?"

“Yes. What can I do if I don’t give up? I can’t win against him,” Chen Yutian scorned at himself and shrugged, “I didn’t think it was him. I would’ve given up immediately if I knew, I wouldn’t even be here to lose my dignity today.”

“You know Lin Yi?” Song Lingshan heard the hidden message.

“I can’t tell you,” Chen Yutian shook his head.

Song Lingshan smiled, “You make me feel much more comfortable now. You were too soft and never acted like a man before.”

“Perhaps that’s my weakness... I had no intention to fight back under your pressure since childhood,” Chen Yutian nodded, “So I will never be your other half, probably as your follower.”

“There are so many good girls out there. With House Chen and your own abilities, what do you even need to worry about?” Song Lingshan patted Chen Yutian on the shoulders, “I think it’ll be easier if I see you as a brother.”

“Then we will be brothers from now on...” Although he already gave up, he still sounded bitter.

“How’s Grandpa Chen?” Song Lingshan hadn’t visited for a long time since their families drifted apart after knowing that Grandpa Chen wanted to arrange a marriage between the two.

“Not so good...” Chen Yutian shook his head, “Although we don’t say it, it’s obvious to the outsiders. There are too many people who’re seeking to replace my family. I can’t keep its position with my strength alone... That’s why grandpa wanted you and me to...”

Chapter 731: Awkward Scene

Awkward Scene

Chen Yutian didn’t continue since he thought Song Lingshan could understand.

“Marriage is one way out, but even if I marry you, there will be times when our families have conflicts over benefits. I won’t be able to help you then,” Song Lingshan replied, “So although we are brothers now, I don’t know if my family will, but I will definitely support you.”

“I am happy to hear that,” Chen Yutian smiled.

Lin Yi headed straight to Tang Yun’s family’s room. Mrs. Tang woke up extremely early since buying a house was a major event for her family. She wasn’t able to fall asleep till after midnight.

Mrs. Tang smiled brightly as she opened the door for Lin Yi, “Lin Yi, you are here!”

“She’s in the bathroom, getting ready. She got up early for buying a house today,” she replied.

“Have you eaten yet? When are we leaving?” Lin Yi asked.

“Not yet, we’ll grab something on the way,” Mrs. Tang said, “Oh right, there’s something I want to discuss with you.”

“What is it?” Lin Yi sat down on the couch and waited for Tang Yun to come out.

“Do you think that we should use the money to buy a retail house and opened a small business with your Uncle Tang, or should we save it in the bank to earn interest?” Mrs. Tang considered this carefully, “Wouldn’t we get 100,000 yuan annually with that amount? What can we do with so much money?”

“Uh...” Lin Yi was bad at managing finances. If he wasn’t, he wouldn’t leave his company to Fatty Lai, “I’ll ask my friend and see what he thinks? He’s familiar with it.”

“That’s good, let’s ask him!” Mrs. Tang nodded.

Tang Yun finished washing up and came out in her pajamas. She didn’t expect Lin Yi to come so early and didn’t hear his voice over the water in the bathroom. She jumped at the sight of Lin Yi.

Her summer pajamas were thin, and she wasn’t wearing a bra. Two points on her breasts were displayed as well as the curves of her body.

Tang Yun felt embarrassed as Lin Yi stared at her, but also delighted. If Lin Yi wasn’t interested in her, she would be sad.

However, it was awkward and embarrassing for her. They weren’t so intimate with each other yet, and Tang Yun quickly dashed back to the bathroom with clothes in her hands.

Mrs. Tang didn’t know what happened. What was she doing? Ignoring Lin Yi? Do you think that you are a Miss now? Mrs. Tang was furious as she pulled the door open and scolded her, “Yun, what are you doing? Why aren’t you greeting Lin Yi?”

“I... I’m changing...” Tang Yun jumped. She just took off her clothes and sighed in relief as the sight of her mother.

“So what? He’s not an outsider, what’s wrong with him seeing it? What is going on in your head?” Mrs. Tang’s urge to grab this son-in-law tightly in their hands grew even stronger. She became a millionaire not long after Lin Yi appeared. Wouldn’t they become billionaires in the future?

Mrs. Tang was delighted at the thought of being a rich woman and needed to keep her daughter with Lin Yi. If they broke up, the beautiful future ahead would shatter.

“Alright! I’m done!” Tang Yun changed into an ordinary shirt and the pair of shorts she bought last night. It fit her well.

She felt embarrassed as she left the bathroom with her mother without looking at Lin Yi. However, Lin Yi’s eyes shone since Tang Yun wasn’t in her uniform today.

Lin Yi gave Fatty Lai a call as he informed Fatty Lai last night, he was ready early in the morning, waiting for Lin Yi and Tang Yun to arrive.

Fatty Lai didn't sleep at all last night since he was working overtime to produce as much antidote as possible and finally, it was done by 2 o'clock in the morning. They immediately gave it to the hospital and to the students in the coma. All students are awake now and although they are still weak, they survived the critical period.

The effect of the medicine was great. Although it didn't heal them completely, it was already an impressive medicine in ordinary people's eyes, especially the parents. They appreciated Miracle Doctor Guan's medical company in tears and all complimented it without holding back when interviewed by reporters!

The school and Zhangpeng Group held almost no responsibility. The person who poisoned the students turned himself in and his aim was also exposed. Naturally, the parents wouldn't attack the school for the consequences anymore.

Now that their children were fine now, they couldn't keep blaming the school. After all, they would become the public's enemy if they focused on the small details in front of the selfless acts from the medical company.

Fatty Lai made it clear that he worked overtime to make and deliver this medicine because he was friends with Chu Pengzhan. What else could the parents say?

All the parents who wanted their children to transfer to another school also calmed down. It had nothing to do with their children in the first place. Why did they need to transfer?

It was clear now that the school wasn't a biochemical base. Their children didn't get sick because it lacked management but because it was attacked under someone's plans. It was inevitable. No one was certain that other schools could be safe from it either.

This event ended here and the last thing to do was a news conference held by Chu Pengzhan. After Fatty Lai was done with this, he would focus on helping Lin Yi buying a house.

"Boss, I've done arranging everything here. Don't worry, they are all our own people. We'll give a discount!" Fatty Lai patted his chest. He worked on real estate development with Lin Yi previously and there were a few under construction. One property's advance sale started today and Fatty Lai attended it himself.

Chapter 732: Parked Car Collision

Parked Car Collision

"Ah, is it here?" Lin Yi asked.

"It should be right here at 528 Chang Dong Avenue. The real estate property is called Chang Xiang Garden. When you get to the area, you will find it very easy to locate" Fatty Lai continued.

"Okay, you can run along. I will drop by in a bit to see which apartment I like. Then I'll give you a call." said Lin Yi.

After hanging up the call, Lin Yi spoke to Mrs. Tang and said “Auntie, we can go look for the apartment that you would like. As for the price, I have someone to bring it down to a more reasonable price,” “There’s another discount? That would be amazing!” Mrs. Tang loved the word ‘discount’, so the moment Lin Yi mentioned that phrase, she suddenly became very cheerful. She had heard that the real estate properties were currently doing a promotion, so there wouldn’t be any haggling on the price. Naturally, Mrs. Tang would gladly accept any discount. Who wouldn’t?

She was warming up to Lin Yi even more. If her daughter were to follow him, then she wouldn’t have to be worried about her wellbeing anymore.

The three sat in Lin Yi’s van, heading straight for Chang Dong Avenue. Even though Lin Yi’s van was not as impressive, Mrs. Tang didn’t mind it. Owning a van was decent enough. It is easy to count how many people in one hand that lived in the Grass Alleys who actually owned cars.

“Tang Yun, did you ask for a sick leave of absence?” Lin Yi was used to skipping out on school by now. However, it was a different story with Tang Yun since she was a good student. She rarely cuts class.

“Yesterday’s incident with the poison led to classes being canceled today. According to news, Pengzhan industries chairman was hosting a conference to address the issue. I heard a lot of students and parents were going to attend. So this should be considered individual study time...” Tang Yun thought of Chu Mengyao, the moment she mentioned the news conference. Her recent encounter with Chu Mengyao changed her impression of Chu Mengyao. She didn’t feel the bad aura given by rich young masters coming from her. She only had a slight ego. Otherwise, Chu Mengyao was relatively easy to get along with.

The Chang Xiang Garden was located in a very good area. Chang Dong Avenue was one of the three roundabouts recently constructed. So on the first day that Chang Xiang Garden was released to the public, many potential buyers were rushing to take a look at the authorized seller’s place. The parking area was filled with parked cars.

Lin Yi easily spotted a parking spot. As he was about to enter the space, a quick horn beamed at his rear, followed by a vulgar cursing by another man “Where did this broken j8 van come from? I saw this parking spot first. How can you just rob me of my parking spot? This motherfucker. Get your ass out here!”

Lin Yi frowned. He got out of the car. He saw a bald-headed man stick his head out of his BMW, who was continuing his cursing.

“If you can speak more politely, you won’t get into trouble,” Lin Yi glanced in the challenger’s direction.

“The fuck! You drive a broken ass van, and you don’t know the situation here?” The bald-headed man didn’t think that Lin Yi would speak back to him in that threatening manner. Out of anger and spite, he replied back “Do you think that I won’t run you over?”

After the words left his mouth, the bald-headed man put his car in drive mode and charged. Initially, he was just going to scare Lin Yi. The bald-headed man wouldn’t dare to kill someone with so many bystanders watching. He wouldn’t be able to get away!

He was afraid of going to prison. Even if he was wealthy, this type of troubles was the hardest to settle.

Lin Yi smirked. With a BMW charging toward him, instead of running, he stuck out his foot and placed it on the car hood. That was more than enough to stop the car.

The bald-headed man was shocked. How could someone stop a car with just his foot? Who is this person? He was so used to bullying his way through, but when he encounters vicious individuals, he could only feign ignorance. If he didn't even do that, then he would surely get beaten!

Even though the bald-headed man was infuriated internally, he couldn't do anything to harm Lin Yi. He got out of his car and assessed the damage quickly. The car hood had a huge dent from where the foot was before. He was even more scared than before he had gotten out of the car, but in order to maintain his facade, he didn't want to reveal how weak he actually was. Instead, he whispered coldly, "Young man, you better watch yourself!"

The bald-headed man didn't care for the chump change that would've been for reparation. He had to seek redemption of his face through payment.

He was the boss of Xin Village Car Rental, so he was quite wealthy. His purpose for rushing was to buy a house, so he didn't want to be looked down upon by anyone. Especially not by a commoner like Lin Yi.

"Ah..." Lin Yi unenthusiastically spoke up, then remained silent.

Lin Yi has learned to be careless about these type of people. There was simply no need to exert himself to be emotionally invested for them.

The bald-headed man glanced at Lin Yi, then returned to his car. He vented out loud "What kind of trashed van is this. With this country bumpkin, I will definitely teach him a lesson!"

"Boss Wu, don't get angry with the country bumpkin. If you get angry with him, then you will stoop down to his status!" The passenger in the BMW could tell that her own man wanted to clash with Lin Yi, but she couldn't say that out loud. If she spoke up and ruin his mood, then her plans to buy a house would be over.

"Yeah, you are right. It seems like they are also here to buy a condo. When we see him later. Let's sabotage him!" Boss Wu nodded in agreement. Then he reignited his car to find an alternative parking space.

Tang Yun and Mrs. Tang got out of the car and witnessed everything. They didn't understand the overall situation, but since it was resolved, they didn't ask for details.

The three of them walked to the seller's center, and the sales lady came up to greet them. Immediately, she started to introduce the good qualities of Chang Xiang Garden.

Needless to say, Fatty Lai's management skills were extraordinary. Mrs. Tang didn't dress the part of a wealthy lady, but the sales lady didn't discriminate.

"Is there any discount for buying houses here?" Mrs. Tang was most concerned with discounts. She didn't bother to wait for the sales lady to finish the routine property introduction.

As for facts about whether there are schools or stores nearby, it wasn't Mrs. Tang's main concern. She only cared about the price. As long as it was cheap. Her daughter was about to enter University, so the schools no longer concerned her.

They didn't even need to mention the stores. They always ate the leftovers and remains from the night market. They couldn't afford to go to higher class stores!

"Yes, there is a discount! Since today is the opening day, there is a 5% discount for buying apartments. If you want to buy a house, then there is a 10% discount. There is a chance of winning an interior makeover as the grand prize!" The sales lady continued.

"Could we make the price cheaper?" Mrs. Tang asked.

"This is the price set by our boss. I don't have the authority to change it," the sales lady smiled.

"Okay, then can you lead us to the apartments!" Mrs. Tang nodded and replied.

The sales lady brought them to check out a miniature model of the area. Mrs. Tang chose a nicely positioned building with ample amount of sunlight and then asked the sales lady, "If I want this building, do you have a blueprint?"

"Yes, we do. Please wait here for me!" The sales lady searched for the blueprint and handed it over to Mrs. Tang.

Right as Mrs. Tang opened up the blueprint in her hand, the bald-headed man started heading over to their direction...

Chapter 733: Can't Treat Me Like That

Can't Treat Me Like That

"Auntie, you really have great taste. This apartment is one of the best locations in the whole community. It's second only to the villas and duplex bungalows in the area. This building is not only facing a good direction, but it has no high-rise towering over it, giving it a very open outlook!" said the sales lady to Mrs. Tang.

"Little Yi, Yun, what do you think? What are your thoughts about the model of the apartment?" Mrs. Tang couldn't make up her mind. It was easy choosing the building on the miniature model since the orientation of the building would be easy to tell from the bird's eye view. Mrs. Tang chose a good building. As for the price, it was a comfortable amount that Tang Yun could agree with.

It's just that in this building, there are several types of different models. The type of flat and floor to live on was up for negotiation.

Mrs. Tang was very excited before because she thought that it was easy to buy an apartment. However, now that she was actually doing the negotiating, she discovered that it wasn't as easy as she thought. At least right now, she was starting to get confused.

Each floor had a distinct benefit unique to that floor! You can do business on the first floor. The second floor and the third floor are more accessible when traveling up and down, it's more convenient for elders. The fourth and fifth floor are the golden floors, and the sixth and seventh floors are cheaper...

It really is not easy to make a decision.

“How about you buy a three-bedroom apartment?” Lin Yi looked at the floor plan and suggested: “I think this unit is good?”

Lin Yi saw how indecisive Mrs. Tang was and suggested.

“That’s good, then let’s go with this unit. But this unit is a 120 square meter apartment, is it a bit too big?” Mrs. Tang was afraid that the flat would be too expensive

“Auntie, if you feel good about this unit, then you should hurry up and buy. There is only this flat on the third floor left, all the other ones have been sold”. The sales lady continued with, “To pick out this unit, you all have great taste.”

“Oh my gosh, only the third floor left?” said Mrs. Tang shocked. She started to be a bit anxious, was this building selling out that quickly? She wanted to take it but was still indecisive, after all, she had never had to make such a big decision in her life.

“Then just pick the third floor, the area is brightly lit and going up is convenient,” said Lin Yi with a smile.

“Oh... then the third floor it is, let’s pick this unit!” nodded Mrs. Tang. “Can we go and see the existing flat?”

“That is not a problem at all, please follow me this way!” said the saleslady nodding. Then the sales lady turned to other potential customers and said: “If there are other people who want to see the existing flat, I am going now. Anyone interested can follow me!”

“We will go too!” the bald-headed boss proudly tugged along his sweetheart.

With so many witnesses, he wasn’t afraid of Lin Yi. There were security guards on duty so he didn’t have to be afraid of Lin Yi attacking him. The bald-headed man was relying on his own background to thread through the gray areas by relying on both gangs and police of Songshan. He will definitely screw over this ignorant country bumpkin!

Lin Yi noticed that the bald-headed boss was joining in on the party, but he ignored them. Lin Yi sneered at him. He didn’t have any reason to drive away someone willingly giving money to Fatty Lai.

Several of them followed the sales lady to visit the flat. They rode on an electric vehicle that was specifically for traveling within the community. During this time, the bald-headed boss was checking Tang Yun up and down. He was slightly jealous of Lin Yi. What a beauty that landed into the hands of this poor country bumpkin. What a waste!

Then he turned and looked at his own sweetheart, and she was definitely a grade lower than Tang Yun. There was simply no comparison. If Tang Yun was his own sweetheart, he would even fork up money for a villa for her!

The bald-headed man was mulling over how to show off his qualities in front of Tang Yun. The bald-headed man believed in his judgment of character. He believed that Mrs. Tang was a classic example of a greedy woman. If he can show off his good qualities, then the mother might persuade the daughter to follow him instead.

As long as he can demonstrate his buying power. Then the bastard Lin Yi will lose his woman!

While thinking this, the bald-headed man was rejoicing internally. He was moving his hands dishonestly over the body of his sweetheart. His sweetheart was also flirtatious. She was moaning softly in the electric car. This made the sales lady and Tang Yun blush from embarrassment. What kind of people was this shameless? If you want to keep touching each other, then go home and do it. Why here and now?

Lin Yi also touched Tang Yin's hand the same way and smiled at her. Tang Yun quickly glanced at Lin Yi, she was still embarrassed. She whispered, "You can't treat me like that!"

"Ah... You are different from her. That lady by the bald man was just there for entertainment. She's a toy," Lin Yi explained.

"Then, you aren't just fooling around with me right?" Tang Yun was getting more anxious. She knew the answer already, but she still had competition like his Miss, Chen Yushu, Guan Xin, and even Song Lingshan. That was the reason why she was always so unsure of herself.

"I am just teasing you," Lin Yi laughed.

"I dislike that, it is quite vulgar," Tang Yun pouted playfully.

The bald-headed boss watched as Lin Yi and Tang Yun did their lovey-dovey playfight, and it made him jealous. This motherfucker! He must get this beautiful lady under his grasp!

Mrs. Tang's brain was filled with the views of the apartments around her. The sound of the vulgar noises went in through one ear and out the other. She didn't even notice her own daughter with Lin Yi play fighting. She was only thinking about the environment around her.

How could it be so peaceful and nice in this small community? Mrs. Tang watched as the environmentally friendly design of the building incorporated with nature. She was surprised! Compared to the shantytown, this place was a thousand times better! There was even a small park, with a pavilion nearby and a lake! Every building was beautiful. She wanted to be able to live in this small community. Would she instantly upgrade in her social class status to a wealthy person?

"Here we are!" The sales lady finally parked the electric car in front of the beautiful building.

"Oh my god, how can it be so pretty!" the more Mrs. Tang looked at the building. She loved it even more, "Even from afar, you can still see the unobstructed view of the park below, not a bad flat!"

"Yes, that is exactly why this building is a hot commodity. This flat is selling out quick! Only the third floor is left! If you like it, then take the chance to sign the contract fast. Otherwise, if you wait too long, then someone else will pull the rug from under you!" the sales lady reminded everyone.

The moment Mrs. Tang heard that, she became even more urgent. With a nod, she said, "let us go up and take a look first!"

"Hubby, this place is beautiful. Can you buy me one?" the sweetheart finally spoke up to the bald-headed boss in a lovely tone.

"Okay, Okay. As long as you like it, I will buy it for you! Whatever you want, I will give it to you!" the bald-headed boss spoke loudly for Mrs. Tang and Tang Yun to hear. This is the buying power that he could provide. Anyone that followed him would be able to experience anything their heart desired.

Chapter 734: Raise the Price

Raise the Price

"You treat me too well!" The mistress hugged the baldie's head and kissed him furiously before going upstairs with the sales lady.

Mrs. Tang walked into the new house on level three, and she was extremely fond of it. It was so beautiful! It had a bright French window, a comfortable floor plan, a large living room. It was the ideal house she often saw on the television!

Mrs. Tang clenched her teeth and decided that she wanted this. She must buy it! It's too nice!

"How much is it?" Mrs. Tang asked nervously.

"Aunty, this is 950,000 yuan," The sales lady looked at her sales book and replied.

"Huh? So expensive!" Mrs. Tang's heart ached at the price. Although she just got three million yesterday, she was unwilling to give it all out, "Can it be any cheaper?"

"I'm sorry, my limits to authority are the discounts I mentioned before. If you want more, you have to talk to my boss in person. But if you are buying one house, then he probably won't give you any more discounts..." The sales lady replied honestly.

"Only 950,000 yuan? That's so cheap!" The baldie CEO Wu opened his mouth, "What discounts do you want for that price? It's too cheap even without the discount, right?"

CEO Wu glanced at his mistress who was standing on the side.

"Of course! This amount is nothing to CEO Wu!" Xiaomi copied, "It's too cheap!"

Tang Yun was frustrated at their words. Why are they intervening with her business when they weren't buying the house? Tang Yun glared at the two.

Mrs. Tang was also furious. Did they come to make trouble?

When the baldie saw Tang Yun looking at him, he thought that Tang Yun was shocked. He was extremely delighted and lost himself feeling overly pleased, "Xiaomi, what do you think of it? If you like it, I'll get it for you!"

"I love it! Let's get this!" The mistress named Xiaoli replied delightfully.

Lin Yi laughed silently. Did these two come here to act cool? Keep going, let's see how long you can keep it up.

"Ma'am, we want this house, give us the contract!" The baldie said.

"Sir, aunty wanted this house first. Can you consider it again after she made her choice?" The sales lady was stuck between them.

“She had her eyes on it first? So what? She hasn’t bought it yet, has she? If she hasn’t, it’s not hers!” The baldie snorted, “Do you know how to get things done here? Whoever pays gets the property first! They haven’t even signed the contract yet. Hurry up and give the contract to us!”

“We are buying it! Right now!” Mrs Tang panicked. She was so fond of it and how could she let others take it first? No! That’s definitely not happening!

“We said we will buy it first, you are too late!” Xiaomi rolled her eyes at Mrs. Tang in disdain, “Look at your poor face! You won’t be able to afford it. Save your money to buy a house in the countryside!”

“We can’t afford it? We had our eyes on it first, we have the right to purchase it first!” Tang Yun was furious at her ugly words and argued.

“Oh well, there’s no point arguing with you,” the baldie wanted to make his domineering presence prominent and turned to the sales lady, “What about 950,000 yuan, I don’t want any discounts. Hurry up and give me the contract!”

“But...” The sales lady thought. If CEO Wu didn’t want any discounts, then her boss will definitely compliment her and give her a bonus, but then it would be unfair to Mrs. Tang and her family!

“Isn’t there a saying that the person with the higher price wins? We are paying more than they can pay you, why are you hesitating?” Xiaoli finished talking to the sales lady before challenging Mrs. Tang, “We don’t want discounts anymore. If you don’t want it then you can get it too. But don’t you want discounts?”

“I... I... I...” Mrs. Tang’s face blushed. How is she so unreasonable? But indeed, she wanted that discount!

“We... Don’t want it anymore!” Although Tang Yun’s heart also ached, Lin Yi squeezed her hands lightly from behind and immediately understood what he meant.

“Oh?” Baldie CEO Wu was surprised at Tang Yun’s decisiveness. However, there was no way that he could give out the house that was already in his hands. First, he didn’t want to lose his face in front of his mistress, and second, he wanted to show his dominance in front of Tang Yun and her mother.

If he ran away with tails between his legs, how could he show dominance?

He clenched his teeth as the thought of this, “I’ll give you a million! Give me the contract!”

The sales lady was shocked. She had only seen millionaires competing against each other for mansions, but she had never heard of anyone competing for ordinary properties? He even added another 50,000 yuan, that’s unbelievable!

“One million, what are you blanking out for? Don’t you want your bonus? Won’t your boss fire you if you didn’t take the offer?” Xiaoli threatened the sales lady.

“I... Uh...” The sales lady looked towards Mrs. Tang in hesitation.

“We’ll also pay one million!” Tang Yun braced herself and raised the price.

Lin Yi secretly gestured to do so, and she called out the price although she was unwilling to do so.

CEO Wu frowned. He didn't think that Tang Yun followed his price! Do they have that much money? They drove a broken van worth less than 20,000 yuan and she dared to add 50,000 yuan on top of him?

Did she want to compete against him? He couldn't back out now. How could he not pay the price Tang Yun called? He was the CEO of Xincun Taxi Company, the biggest taxi company in Songshan city with Cihua bro watching over him!

If he gave up today and left, he didn't only lose his own dignity, but also Cihua Bro's dignity!

Although he felt like one million wasn't worth it, he had no way to back out. He braced him and raised the price again, "1,100,000 yuan! I don't have time to waste with them! Hurry up and give me the contract!"

The sales lady was shocked by the unreasonable price, 1,100,000 yuan?

Chapter 735: Who Are You Calling An Idiot?

Who Are You Calling An Idiot?

Spending 1,100,000 yuan on a 950,000 yuan property? Really? You can spend the same amount to buy a house with a better floor plan and bigger in size in the building just in front of this, the location and lighting are almost the same!

"We'll pay 1,100,000 yuan too!" Tang Yun replied. When Lin Yi squeezed her hands again, she raised the price, "We'll pay 1,150,000 yuan!"

"Huh?" The baldie looked at Tang Yun in disbelief. Did she dare to raise it again? Was she pretending to be rich? Seeing that Lin Yi made some small movements behind her, he realized that it was Lin Yi who wanted to oppose him!

Alright then! He thought that 1,150,000 yuan was Lin Yi's limit. Otherwise, why didn't he call 1,200,000 yuan? He probably didn't have much money!

The baldie clenched his teeth and said, "1,200,000 yuan! Hurry up! Give me the contract!"

Although he thought paying so much for a property only worth 950,000 yuan was too extravagant, he earned respect in front of these people. It made him feel good.

It was his first step towards success. The next step was to humiliate Lin Yi, then he could talk to Mrs. Tang about taking Tang Yun in as his sugar baby.

"Oh, you can have it then, we'll look at other ones," Tang Yun received Lin Yi's secret gesture and shook her head, "This area isn't that good. Spending 1,200,000 yuan on it is not worth it!"

"Not worth it? I think you are too poor to afford it!" Xiaomi sneered. She was extremely pleased right now as CEO Wu bought her a set of expensive property.

The sales lady sighed in relief upon seeing Tang Yun's family giving up on it. If someone was willing to buy the house at a higher price, why not?

“Sir, are we signing the contract right now?” She asked.

“Of course! I finally won it from them. What if it gets taken away by someone else?” The baldie glared at the sales lady and yelled.

“Ok, let’s go back to the sales building and sign the contract...” The sales lady looked at Mrs. Tang apologetically, “Aunty, do you want to follow me back and I’ll help you pick out another one?”

“Alright...” Mrs. Tang had no other choice. She was unwilling to spend extra 250,000 yuan on a property when she wanted it to be even cheaper!

“Your daughter’s boyfriend is not good enough. What’s wrong with an extra 250,000 yuan? It’s nothing to me!” CEO Wu commented carelessly as he got on his battery-powered motorbike downstairs.

Mrs. Tang glared at him without a reply. If my son-in-law was an idiot like you, spending an extra 250,000 yuan on a house, that’s a big no-no! If my son-in-law wants to buy me a house, of course, the cheaper the better!

He saw that Mrs. Tang didn’t reply and shrugged as he hugged his mistress.

“Haha, there are plenty of houses around. We shouldn’t be afraid to find another one. It’s only 250,000 yuan, I can afford it even it costs another extra million. But can aunty accept it?” Lin Yi laughed.

“Of course not! You should find her a cheap one. If she finds out that it’s too expensive, she’ll get sick from anger!” Tang Yun sighed as she knew her mother well.

The six of them returned to the sales building and the sales lady gave the baldie his contract. All contracts were ready-made, she only needed to print it from the computer and stamp it.

The baldie took the pen and was just about write his own name down, his mistress was unhappy, “Didn’t you say that it’ll be my name? Why are you writing your’s down?”

“Oh...” In fact, he already shifted his attention onto Tang Yun! Tang Yun was so much better than Xiaomi in all aspects and so he didn’t want to invest too much into Xiaoli. He tried to play her, but Xiaomi was unexpectedly smart, pointing it out as soon as he tried.

“I forgot...” He laughed. He was just about to show off to Tang Yun and Mrs. Tang, how could he act weak now? If Mrs. Tang thought that he was too stingy to buy a house for his woman, how will she help him to persuade Tang Yun?

Xiaomi finally smiled as she wrote her name down and kissed him happily.

“Sir, you can make the payment now. Do you prefer cash or card?” The sales lady was delighted to sell a set of property. Her boss will definitely compliment her for selling it for an extra 250,000 yuan!

“Obviously card! Who’s bothered enough to take a million worth of cash on him? Only idiots who’ve never seen money before!” The baldie glared at the sales lady unhappily and swung a card onto the table.

“What the fuck? Who are you calling an idiot?” A built man with a big plastic bag in his hand suddenly appeared and grabbed CEO Wu by the neck, “Do you want to die?”

“Huh? Brother, I’m sorry, I wasn’t talking about you...” CEO Wu jumped. This large man was far scarier than Lin Yi! Although Lin Yi could stop a car with a kick, he wasn’t as big in size. In the simple mind of CEO Wu, this made Lin Yi less of a threat! However, CEO Wu jumped at the sight of this man whose body was covered in tattoos!

If the security guards came for this, he was the unreasonable one as he cursed the man first. Hence, he quickly apologized.

“Humph, I don’t have time to waste with a baldie! I can kill you with this bag of money!” The man seemed like he was in a rush and left. CEO Wu sigh in relief.

The sales lady brought the POS machine and swiped the card. She passed the receipt to CEO Wu and said, “Sir, you have a chance to draw a price! The special price is giving you free and exquisite furnishings, as well as electric appliances. The first prize is a set of electric appliances, second prize is a set of kitchen wares, third prize is a central water purifier. There are also some small prizes such as kettles, stew pot, rice cooker, and others such as an electric stove. You have a 100 percent chance to earn a prize as long as you try...”

Chapter 736: Same Price

Same Price

“Those won’t cost much. Xiaomi, go have a play if you want!” Baldie CEO Wu replied carelessly.

In fact, he wanted to take part in it, but would he be too greedy for money if he cared? If he did, his reputation could be ruined!

“Of course, I’m a lucky person!” Xiaomi was eager.

“Sir, since you paid a large amount for the property, should I notify the manager and give you two chances to draw a price?” The sales lady asked.

“This is nothing, but Xiaomi, what do you think?” CEO Wu’s mind began to race. He spent an extra 250,000 yuan for nothing before, and if he drew a special or first price, wouldn’t he earn it back?

However, he didn’t want to show his emotions straightforwardly and asked Xiaomi.

“Isn’t that a bit too much to draw twice...” Xiaomi jumped at CEO Wu’s dark expressions as soon as she opened her mouth to speak.

CEO Wu was furious. Was she a fucking idiot? Why aren’t you taking the free chance? You have money now, don’t you?

“It’s nothing, I’ll apply it for you!” The sales lady didn’t notice CEO Wu’s expression and smiled.

This time, CEO Wu was finally satisfied with the sales lady. She finally did a good thing!

The sales manager was accompanying Fatty Lai since he didn't expect the boss of the company to come here in person today. When he received a call from the sales lady, he reported to Fatty Lai, "CEO Lai, I'll go first. There's something I need to handle."

"Let's go together," Fatty Lai was free and when Lin Yi said he'll have a look around first, Fatty Lai didn't follow him. He guessed that Lin Yi didn't want to give Tang Yun's family property for free so he didn't act too passionate about it.

Manager Wang and Fatty Lai found the sales lady and Fatty Lai was confused when he saw Lin Yi, Tang Yun and Mrs. Tang on the side. When Lin Yi made eye contact with him, he immediately understood that Lin Yi didn't want him to be too obvious!

Lin Yi was being considerate for Tang Yun. Tang Yun was a strong-minded girl and she wouldn't like him giving her a free house for no particular reason. If Fatty Lai sold a house to her with discounts, she wouldn't be able to comment on anything.

"Mr. Lin, Miss Tang, Aunty Tang!" Fatty Lai greeted them passionately.

The sales lady didn't know who Fatty Lai was and she wasn't surprised at his appearance. She turned to Manager Wang, "Manager Wang, Mr. Wu and this aunty both had their eyes on a property. They had a price competition and Mr. Wu won with an extra 250,000 yuan. He already signed the contract and paid for it. Can we give him a few extra chances to draw a price?"

Manager Wang was shocked. Mr. Wu spent an extra 250,000 yuan on a house? He thought it was a joke until he read the contract the sales lady passed to him!

However, Manager Wang was puzzled at the relationship between CEO Lai, Lin Yi, and the aunty. If he agreed, would he offend CEO Lai? As he pondered, he shifted his gaze to Lai Changyi.

"You won't necessarily earn a price even if you have a few extra chances!" Mrs. Tang twitched her lips and replied in disdain.

Manager Wang heard Mrs. Tang's words and nodded as she didn't seem to mind, "Yes, you can have three chances! Sir, you may go draw the prize now!"

"Xiaomi, you go!" Baldie CEO Wu waved his hands carelessly.

Mrs. Tang had never met Lai Changyi before and didn't know what he did. But seeing that he acted politely towards her, she nodded her head in bewilderment, "Hello. You are..."

"Aunty, I am Mr. Lin's friend. He asked me to seek a special price property for you!" Lai Changyi replied.

Although Tang Yun was touched, she felt uncomfortable since she thought Lin Yi and Fatty Lai were both lying to her mother.

But as soon as she thought of her mother's personality, she immediately realized the efforts behind this. If Fatty Lai acted like he was Lin Yi's underlying, her mother probably won't spend a single cent on the house. Perhaps she would ask for a free house! If she did that, what will Tang Yun do? How could she handle it?

When she thought about it in that way, Tang Yun appreciated Lin Yi's methods.

“Is that so? Well, we had our eyes on a property and wondered if we could get a discount, but that person added 250,000 yuan and took it!” Mrs. Tang immediately complained seeing that Lin Yi brought them a helper, “Do you have another one with the same floor plans? It’s better if the price is lower too...”

“Do we have any?” Fatty Lai glanced at Manager Wang.

“Yes, yes!” Manager Wang jumped. What was his relationship with this aunty? He quickly opened his sales book and replied, “There’s a house with the same floor plan just on the side of this building, but it’s about thirty square meters bigger than this one. The price is 1,200,000 yuan...”

“What? It’s large yet cost the same?” CEO Wu also heard what Manager Wang said. His eyes widened in shock and accidentally blurted his question out loud. subconsciously. He spent the same amount of money but bought a smaller house, what kind of logic is that?

“Yes, the floor plan is the same as yours, but it’s the building on the side!” The sales lady nodded and smiled at him.

“Why didn’t you tell me earlier? Didn’t you say that this is the only one left?” CEO Wu could no longer compose himself. He just spent another 250,000 for nothing! There was another house with the same floor plan that the same price on the side. Didn’t he get scammed?

“Yes, this is indeed the last available house in this unit!” The sales lady nodded, “You had your eyes on this unit at first, you didn’t say that you wanted to see houses from other units!”

Chapter 737: Smart Tang Yun

Smart Tang Yun

“What?” CEO Wu was shocked. He never asked in the first place and began competing with Tang Yun’s family. Why would he think about a bigger house with the same floor plan?

“Can I change it?”

“I’m sorry, your information is already uploaded online. You can’t change it anymore...” The sales lady shook her head in shame.

“Oh well, I don’t need the money! I like this building!” CEO Wu clenched his teeth and comforted himself.

“Exactly! We spend the same amount of money for a bigger house!” Mrs. Tang was delighted and asked Fatty Lai, “Can we get a discount for it?”

“Yes, of course!” Fatty Lai pondered for a while, “Since the last property was sold for an extra 250,000 yuan because you were competing for you, I’ll give you a 250,000 discount for yours! So it will be 950,000 yuan and you’ll get all the other discounts promised! What do you think? Manager Wang, is that fine?”

How could Manager Wang say no to the CEO? The business belonged to Fatty Lai, and he simply worked for him. He quickly replied, "Yes. If CEO Lai says it's ok, then it is!"

Manager Wang was shocked. What relationship did these people have with Lai Changyi? He immediately cut down 250,000 yuan for them. This never happened before!

CEO Wu was already gloomy from purchasing a smaller house for an extra 250,000 yuan. He could have bought a bigger house! But he must keep his calm in order to show his wealth!

However, when CEO Lai used his own money to give Tang Yun's mother, he rolled his eyes and almost fainted. He was such a failure!

He felt like an idiot in front of them. He didn't only help Tang Yun's family, but he spent an extra 250,000 yuan for nothing! They didn't just buy a house that he liked, but bought it for 250,000 yuan cheaper!

When he was feeling upset, Xiaomi came back with a rice cooker, microwave, and kettle in her hand and showed off, "Darling, look what I got! We saved the money for appliances at home!"

"What's so good about this trash? You're thinking too small!" CEO Wu just lost 250,000 yuan and he was extremely unhappy. When he saw Xiaomi coming back with a few pieces of rubbish being extremely pleased with herself. He roared, "You can show off if it's was special or first prize, but why are you showing off such rubbish? Hurry up and go. Do you want to lose more dignity?"

He could no longer stay here. It was extremely unpleasant. He had never lost so much in his life!

Xiaomi was dumbfounded at his fury as she was dragged out of the sales building.

Mrs. Tang twitched her lips and scorned at the sight of them leaving, "What the hell. Happy now, aren't you?"

Mrs. Tang felt upset after losing the property she liked. She was fond of it but it was taken away from someone else. But now she was so happy that she could jump. As expected of Lin Yi, they immediately got 250,000 yuan off! She will laugh herself awake from her dreams tonight!

Under Fatty Lai and Manager Wang's accompany, Mrs. Tang went to inspect the house again. This time, she was much happier than before! The house was much bigger than before as it had four rooms instead of three. The other features were almost the same but there was an extra storage room. The price was the same as before, and it was definitely worth it!

"Lovely, lovely! We'll take this!" Mrs. Tang decided immediately, "Mr. Lai, our Lin Yi is so lucky to have you as a friend!"

"No, no, not at all..." Fatty Lai wiped his sweat away and thought, luckily I followed a good boss! Otherwise, how would I have so much authority right now? Even Liu Tianyi has to be polite to me! In the future, House Lai will also be an influential family, the largest too! He won't even be bothered to compare the five great houses and four small houses!

Fatty Lai looked further into the future and thought that Lin Yi would soar into the sky one day. If he followed Lin Yi's steps, wealth and rank were within his grasp!

Under Manager Wang's supervision in person, they quickly signed the contract and Mrs. Tang also got a chance to draw a prize.

"Aunty, I'll guide you there!" Who was Manager Wang? He was extremely experienced in society, or he wouldn't be able to sit in his current position. He realized that CEO Lai wasn't just Mr. Lin's friend, but he was trying to please Mr. Lin!

A discount of 250,000 yuan? That's no longer a discount, but a loss for himself!

However, Manager Wang's expressions didn't change at all, and he planned to give more benefits to Mrs. Tang.

Mrs. Tang knew that she was unlucky and never thought she could earn any prize. However, the event looked promising because it had a 100 percent success rate. That Xiaomi earned three home appliances, how could she be worse than that?

If she could get a microwave or a water heater, she would save a lot of money!

Mrs. Tang couldn't help but ask, "Manager Wang, that person could have three chances, can I also have three chances?"

If it was someone else asking the same question, Manager Wang would definitely look down on her. We already gave you a 250,000 yuan discount. Why do you care so much about these small prizes? But, Manager Wang was looking for a chance to please Mrs. Tang for Fatty Lai. How could he disagree? He immediately smiled, "Aunty, you can also have three chances!"

"Good, good!" Mrs. Tang immediately smiled.

Tang Yun watched her mother's reactions helplessly and whispered to Lin Yi after her mother left, "Thank you..."

"Why are you thanking me?" Lin Yi smiled.

"You know what I'm talking about!" Tang Yun snorted.

Lin Yi felt embarrassed since Tang Yun saw through his plan. It seemed like she wasn't brainless at all. Since Tang Yun knew that Fatty Lai was his underling, it was normal for her to doubt the discount.

Fatty Lai wasn't feeling awkward at all after Tang Yun saw through it. He laughed as he walked over, "Boss, sister-in-law, are you satisfied with the house?"

"Don't make it a loss," Lin Yi hinted.

"How is it a loss? It's the capital price. It's basically building a house for the convenience of my sister-in-law's family," Fatty Lai smiled.

Tang Yun didn't know whether to laugh or cry. Building a house at her convenience? But since it wasn't a loss for Fatty Lie, it made her feel slightly better.

Chapter 738: Big Prize

Big Prize

Tang Yun knew that she owed Lin Yi too much, yet she didn't know how to return his favors. She wasn't Lin Yi's wife, only his girlfriend. She wanted to repay him.

"Thank you," Tang Yun thanked Fatty Lai.

"No need, it's within my capability! If it wasn't for you, I wouldn't even be able to earn an extra 250,000 yuan!" Fatty Lai laughed and shook his head, "I think aunty is quite lucky. Perhaps she'll get a big prize!"

As they spoke, Mrs. Tang arrived at the prize table. She drew the first card and it was an electric water heater. Mrs. Tang was extremely delighted. A water heater cost a thousand or two and it was great that she got it for free!

"Congratulations to Mrs. Tang, it's a water heater!" The MC threw the card back to the box and congratulated Mrs. Tang loudly as he gave her a ticket for the prize.

The cards were reused. In other words, everyone could draw a special or first place prize! However, there were multiple cards with a water heater as a prize. Only the special and first prize each had one card.

Even so, these people became more enthusiastic about it as everyone had a chance to obtain the first and special prize. There was no limit on the total amount of winners who were able to win the top prizes, so numerous customers waited around to try their luck. Even the patrons who had purchased their units still remained to see if they could witness the lucky winner.

Mrs. Tang pulled out a card, written on it was an induction cooker. This cost quite a couple of hundred yuan, it was not cheap! Mrs. Tang didn't feel discouraged. She felt like she had gained this item for free!

Mrs. Tang continued to draw the raffle. This wasn't a surprise to the bystanders. There were quite a few people who purchased half a dozen houses or garages, so that increased the number of times they could draw the raffle.

The MC congratulated Mrs. Tang and gave her another chance.

This was the last chance to draw the card. Mrs. Tang felt nervous. She was hesitant about pulling out the card. She knew that the chances of winning the special or first prize were very slim, but she still dreamed big. Who wouldn't?

If she won the special prize, then she could save some money on the inner designs. She could save at least a hundred thousand!

There were still people waiting behind her, she couldn't stay in the spotlight forever. Finally, Mrs. Tang pulled out a card, but she didn't look at it immediately. She took a quick peek and read that it was an electric kettle!

Mrs. Tang was instantly disappointed. She was stunned and was disappointed as she stood on stage!

However, Mrs. Tang's card wasn't taken by the MC. Instead, it was taken by Manager Wang. With a shocked expression, Manager Wang shouted "Oh my! The special prize! Today's first special prize winner had been chosen today! Congratulations Mrs. Tang!"

Right as he announced it, Manager Wang tossed in the raffle card back into the raffle box and started shuffling it since he was afraid of someone catching on.

Mrs. Tang came back to her senses. Did she win the special prize? How is that possible? She saw the words “Electric Kettle” written on it. There was nothing written about the special prize on it.

How could it be a special prize? She only glanced at it quickly, so could Manager Wang made a mistake? Even if she wanted to reconfirm it, it was too late. The raffle card had been tossed back into the box for reshuffling. So what is going on here?

Mrs. Tang stood on stage with a dumbfounded expression, as if she did win the special prize. No one in the audience suspected anything. They only thought to themselves that Mrs. Tang had been very lucky to win the special prize.

The MC was shaken as well, but since it was Manager Wang who had announced it, he didn’t dare speak up. Instead, the MC went with the flow and congratulated Mrs. Tang. “Congratulations, you gave us a good opening day by being the first to pick the special prize! We’ve had first and second place winners, but no special prize winners until you came along!”

Mrs. Tang didn’t know what to do. She didn’t want to speak up because she had just saved a lot of money! Even if she had suspicions, she went along with it and nodded “Yeah! I didn’t think I would win the top prize either! I was just so lucky!”

“Haha, Mrs. Tang, this is your voucher. Keep it in a safe place. You can bring it over to management to claim. You will have to put in your input with our interior decoration team so they can get started on it!” the MC explained.

“Okay, sounds good to me!” Mrs. Tang happily accepted the voucher.

Manager Wang accompanied Mrs. Tang over to claim her prize. No one would have suspected that the first and second prize were also announced by Manager Wang.

The first and second prize were real winners, who picked their card. But, this big special prize winner was a fake!

Since there were no limitations on the amount of special prize winner, no one would suspect that the sales agent would cheat their own system. Even if it was a fake, it didn’t matter to the audience. There was still a chance for them to pick the special prize.

Tang Yun was also in the audience. She was stunned. How did her mother win the special prize? Was it really happening or was it just a fluke? Tang Yun had her suspicions! Other people might not understand her mother, but she could see right through her. Her mother didn’t have the expression that winners would have. Instead, she had a look of disappointment!

In other people’s eyes, the winners were usually shocked to the point where they stand dumbfounded. Tang Yun remembered the look on her mother’s face when she had got three million yuan. Her face was completely different when the situation was the same – both times she had won something for free. This was how Tang Yun knew that her mother didn’t win the big prize!

Then this special prize made Tang Yun glance at Fatty Lai. However, Fatty Lai and Lin Yi were talking about their pharmaceutical company so this scheme had nothing to do with those two. Tang Yun sighed. She is really creating trouble for Lin Yi in such a roundabout way to help her own family.

She was useless compared to Mengyao and Yushu. They don't have to make Lin Yi worry about these trivial things... From the looks of it, Lin Yi and Mengyao were a better match. Her appearance was just a mistake...

Now that this mistake had blossomed to this stage, Tang Yun couldn't pull herself out. She was already in too deep. She didn't want to leave Lin Yi, but what else could she do?

Right as Tang Yun was deep in thought, her mother returned. Her brows were raised and smiling, "Yun, your mother won the top prize! It is the special prize!"

Fatty Lai looked at Manager Wang with an approving nod. Seems like this Manager Wang has good potential.

Receiving the nod of approval brought a smile to his face. It seemed like he wasn't wrong to make the prize call for Mrs. Tang.

As for the interior design, Mrs. Tang didn't have any major requests. Back at her old house, she never needed repairs or designs so she had no idea what suggestions to add to the decoration team. So, she asked Manager Wang for help, and they settled on the modern design style!

Chapter 739: Slipped out

Slipped out

Manager Wang thought Mrs. Tang's request was simple, yet satisfying. It would allow for the design company to have a modern style.

Fatty Lai saw Mrs. Tang coming so he asked, "Auntie, is the apartment to your liking?"

"I'm very very satisfied. Lil' Lai, you are a good friend to Lil' Yi," said Mrs. Tang.

Fatty Lai smiled and said, "Haha, you flatter me, Auntie! It's almost the afternoon. How about I treat everyone to lunch?"

Manager Wang was surprised. Lai had helped lower the cost so much, but instead of Lin Yi treating him to dinner, it was the other way around? It looked like this group of people didn't have a simple background.

"How is that okay. I should be the one to treat you," said Mrs. Tang. Mrs. Tang could be stingy, but she knew that Fatty Lai had helped her a lot today, "Actually, I have something to ask you about," she quickly said.

Fatty Lai nodded, "Okay, let's go and find a nearby place to eat and discuss some more!"

As all the four people walked out of the sales office. Mrs. Tang carefully packed up the housing contract. After all, it was a few hundred thousand dollars, close to a million. It was the first time in her life that she had spent so much money and she was nervous. She was still on cloud nine. The feeling was so surreal. She thought that all of it could have been a dream.

“Want to ride in my car?” Fatty Lai drove an Audi Q7 off road vehicle today.

“No need, I drove my car today,” said Lin Yi as he pointed to his broken van.

Mrs. Tang wanted to sit in Fatty Lai’s car but gave up that notion when she saw Lin Yi, but deep down in her heart, she was still a little envious.

Fatty Lai didn’t show any signs of disgust and just walked up to Lin Yi’s broken van and sat in the back with Mrs. Tang. Tang Yun sat in the passenger seat.

Lin Yi started driving and asked, “What should we go get?”

“What about here?” said Fatty Lai. He had found a restaurant that did not look too bad. At this time it was not practical to look for a place that was too far.

Lin Yi took a glance at the restaurant and saw the BMW, that he had his footprint on, parked in front. He didn’t care though. He could still enjoy his meal. Plus, he wasn’t scared of the baldy.

Fatty Lai and Lin Yi went into the restaurant together and Fatty Lai did not pay attention to Bald Wu and his sweetheart. After all, those two were just insignificant people. There was no need to pay attention to them.

Mrs. Tang did not notice anything as she was overwhelmed with joy. Tang Yun, however, noticed Bald Wu and his sweetheart sitting on the left side of the dining hall.

“Lin Yi, is that the Wu person sitting over there eating dinner? We just got here. Would that be an issue?” said Tang Yun hesitantly. After all, we already took two hundred fifty thousand from him. Seeing him here might be a little bit awkward.

“Oh, then he should go. I shouldn’t let him affect my girlfriend’s mood,” Lin Yi said with a smile.

“Yuck, when did you become so tyrannical?” Tang Yun said embarrassed.

“Ah, let’s not care about him,” said Lin Yi, shaking his head.

Fatty Lai instructed the waiter to get a separate room. Actually, there was no need for four people to book one whole room, but Fatty Lai thought it was a necessary procedure if he was treating his guests.

After entering the room, Fatty Lai started ordering a few signature dishes before passing the menu over to Mrs. Tang and Tang Yun: “Auntie, Big Sis-in-L.... er, Miss Tang, take a look and see if there is anything you would like to eat.

Fatty Lai had accidentally misspoken, but he quickly realized it and caught himself. Mrs. Tang did not seem like she had heard anything, so he breathed a sigh of relief.

“These dishes should be enough right? We are just four people, can we even eat that much,” said Mrs. Tang. She had seen him order all the signature dishes and thought it would be enough.

“Yes, these dishes should be enough for four people,” said the waiter as he nodded. Although the restaurants hoped that they could sell more, they couldn’t let guest order more than what they could eat.

When it came to Tang Yun’s turn to order, she had only ordered a few drinks and did not order any additional dishes. With nothing else to order for entrees, Fatty Lai to ordered desserts before waving the waiter away.

Sitting not far away was Bald Wu, and he saw Lin Yi with his entourage. Bald Wu frowned: “It’s the enemy! Before at the sales office, there was a lot of people and we couldn’t do anything, and now they are coming to us.”

“Yeah Mr. Wu, these people are terrible, making us spend an extra two hundred fifty thousand!” wailed Xiaomi, who had thought that it would be great to give herself that money instead of giving it away like free money. She would have never thought that way in the past since it was Bald Wu’s money, but now that the house was hers, she felt like all that money spent belonged to her!

“If I don’t find someone to mess with them a little bit, I won’t be able to let it go,” said Bald Wu. His plan was to find someone to beat up Lin Yi, then force him to leave Tang Yun, and he could confidently reappear in her life. This would leave her and her family with a good impression. Then, I would be able to have a beautiful woman by my side in no time.

“Oh yeah, Mr. Wu, don’t you have Cihua’s support? Why not ask Cihua?” suggested Xiaomi.

“I thought of that,” nodded Bald Wu. His car rental company was affiliated with Li Cihua’s company and he gave Cihua a big commission every month. Otherwise, how could he have been able to do as he pleases in Songshan? How could he be at the top of the car rental business?

Because Bald Wu had Li Cihua’s support, all the other car rental companies were afraid to go against him. After all, who dared provoke Li Cihua?

Bald Wu dialed Li Cihua’s number.

Li Cihua had just finished accompanying his younger brother to his silver needle removal surgery. This surgery really wore out Li Dilei. After the silver needles were removed, his body was full of holes. It was very shocking!

For the sake of surviving, this had to be done, or else the pure qi from Lin Yi will burst out, and there won’t be any way to survive.

“Brother, how can I live like this. There is even a pit hole dug on my dick. I am so miserable!” Once Li Dilei’s anesthesia wore off, the pain would come, and he would wish he was dead.

“It’s fine, stop whining. Who told you to go and provote Lin Yi?” said Li Cihua as he glared at his brother. Even Master Bing didn’t how to do deal with Lin Yi. What can you do?”

“But I am not content. I want to take revenge! I want to tear Lin Yi’s dead body into thousands of pieces!” howled Li Dilei.

“Wait until Master Bing avenges you, then you won’t even have to think about it!” How can Li Cihua not hate Lin Yi? He loathed Lin Yi to the bones, but what good was that? He himself was helpless against Lin Yi and afraid of the consequences that came along with it!

Even Lin Yi’s actions were more tyrannical than himself, Master Bing’s skyscraper was rebuilt again. Recalling the events that unfolded that day, Lin Yi destroyed the building like it was nothing. All the money invested in the building was trashed.

Chapter 740: Give Me Back My Silver Needles

Give Me Back My Silver Needles

Li Dilei nodded. He could only wait for Master Bing to take revenge for him. Lin Yi was too cruel. Even his cousin wasn’t strong enough for Lin Yi!

Li Cihua comforted Li Dilei and received a call from the CEO Wu as soon as he left the room.

“Hello? Old Wu, what’s wrong?” Li Cihua asked.

“Cihua bro, I was bullied! Someone made a dent in my car and after I said your name. He didn’t even care and said, ‘who the hell does he think he is!’” He began to make up stories since he wanted Li Cihua to avenge him.

“Who is it?! Who dares to defy me in this city?” Li Cihua was already furious and roared upon hearing CEO Wu’s words, “Who is it?”

“I don’t know. I was purchasing a property today and met them at the sales center. I think they have some connections with the people there, and they gave them big advantages!”

“Purchasing a house? Alright, I’ll bring some people over right now!” Li Cihua nodded. Those who go and purchase a house themselves shouldn’t be anyone big in the city. He was unhappy, and it was great that he could find someone to unleash his anger at.

CEO Wu was delighted. He finally felt like that all the protection fees he gave to Li Cihua wasn’t in vain since Li Cihua agreed to help him when he was in trouble.

In fact, CEO Wu was rather important to the Cihua. Although CEO Wu always did things using his name, CEO Wu also brought large amounts of money to him annually. He offered five million as tribute annually, and it was a large amount to Li Cihua’s industry.

Hence, it was impossible for him to leave CEO Wu in the mess. He decided to bring people over himself to show that he cared about him. And when it was time for CEO Wu to give him tribute, he will give him more than the usual!

After a short while, Li Cihua arrived with helpers. CEO Wu was extremely delighted, “Cihua bro, here, over here!”

Li Cihua nodded and walked over, “Old Wu, you are somewhat big in the city. Why are you eating in the hall?”

“It’s only the two of us, so we wanted it to be casual. There’s no need to make a big fuss!” CEO Wu quickly replied.

“Alright, where are the people you were talking about? Take me there! I have other problems to solve after this one!” Li Cihua thought that this was too minimal, but there was no one he could currently use who was under him. Zhang Long and Li Yao were killed by Lin Yi and Zhong Fabai was in the hospital with his son. He had no choice but to solve it himself.

However, it made CEO Wu extremely touched. He was grateful, “Cihua bro, they are in that room! It is such an honor that you came yourself! Don’t worry, I will pay an extra portion for this year’s management fee!”

“With pleasure!” Aren’t you clever? I didn’t come here myself in vain, Li Cihua thought.

Li Cihua took a few underlings with him and arrived at the room. The staff there saw it, yet no one dared to approach them.

After all, those who shared the same occupation as Li Cihua didn’t look kind. Especially those underlings. They were all largely built men covered in tattoos!

“Kick the door!” Li Cihua spoke indifferently.

“Will do!” CEO Wu was finally confident. Li Cihua was here, and he had no reason to be afraid.

Hence, he kicked the door with all his might, causing a loud bang. However, he didn’t know that this small restaurant’s door wasn’t sturdy and it wasn’t locked. He used too much strength and he fell onto the ground in the room.

Li Cihua clenched his teeth in anger. What a useless man! You were here to kick their asses, yet you fall as soon as you enter? What are you doing?

Li Cihua had no choice but to follow him in. They couldn’t lose their respect!

CEO Wu suddenly fell into the room face down which shocked Lin Yi and the others. What’s wrong with him?

Li Cihua was just about to yell to show his dominance, but he stopped dead in his tracks after seeing Lin Yi in the room.

CEO Wu didn’t see Li Cihua’s expressions clearly as he was still on the ground. After he finally climbed up from the floor, he pointed at Lin Yi and roared, “Cihua bro, that’s the brat who made a dent in my car and didn’t put you in his eyes!”

Cold sweat dripped down Li Cihua’s back. Lin Yi? Why is he so unlucky? He merely wanted to help a subordinate yet he sees Lin Yi?! Of course, Lin Yi didn’t put him in his eyes. Lin Yi didn’t even see Master Bing as an opponent!

What could I do to him?

Li Cihua awkwardly stood there not knowing what to say. He wanted to take CEO Wu away by saying that they had entered the wrong room, but he already exposed their intention, making him unable to use the excuse.

“Lin Yi...” Li Cihua greeted Lin Yi awkwardly.

“Ah, it’s Cihua bro. Are you here to give me back my silver needles?” Lin Yi cast a glance at Li Cihua and replied indifferently, “I think your cousin has pulled out all the silver needles? Hurry up and give it back, that stuff is expensive!”

“...” Li Cihua’s expressions changed drastically. You want the needles back? Aren’t you going overboard? How much does a box of silver needles cost? However, he didn’t dare to let his anger out as he was well aware of Lin Yi’s capabilities. Lin Yi was a violent maniac who wasn’t afraid of anyone. He beat Master Bing, and of course, Lin Yi could beat him up too!

Li Cihua forced a smile, “It’s only a box of silver needles. Why do you care about it so much?”

“Oh, so you like it? Do you want me to give you a few more?” Lin Yi pulled out a box of needles from his pockets as he spoke.

Li Cihua saw it, and his face immediately turned white. Oh my, what was he threatening? Does Lin Yi want to attack him too? He couldn’t take it and quickly refused, “No, no, I don’t like it! I’ll go grab them for you and send it back to you now!”

Li Cihua didn’t dare to speak more as he quickly turned and left the room. Su Jiaonang and the others who came with Li Cihua saw that he left and followed after him immediately.

CEO Wu was left dumbfounded in the room. What just happened? Li Cihua came to vent for him. Why did he run away after a few words? Why was Li Cihua sending back needles?
