Chapter 741: Gave It Back

Gave It Back

CEO Wu was experienced and immediately realized that the situation was not in his favor. Li Cihua had no intention of taking revenge for him after seeing the people in the room. It looked like Li Cihua was scared of someone in it and left with his tails between his legs!

“Sorry, I got the wrong room. Uh... I’ll pay for your meal. I will pay!” CEO Wu wasn’t brainless and knew that he was seeking his own death if he stayed here any longer.

If Li Cihua couldn’t do anything, how could he possibly do anything?

“Enough. Hurry up and leave, don’t disturb us eating!” Mrs. Tang pretended to be intimidating and waved her hands, gesturing CEO Wu to leave. She was satisfied. So what if you want revenge and find helpers? Didn’t my son-in-law scare them away anyway?

Although Li Cihua was famous in Songshan, and he was a legendary character in Mrs. Tang’s eyes, now, all she saw was a coward. Mrs. Tang thought, when she becomes nobility in Songshan in the future, Li Cihua won’t even be her match!

“CEO Wu, what happened? Why did Cihua bro leave immediately after he arrived?” Little Mi didn’t follow them and wasn’t aware of the situation.

“Don’t mention it! We are unlucky. He’s someone even Cihua bro’s scared of. Admit our defeat!” CEO Wu knew his limits and didn’t force it, “Waiter!”

A waiter quickly rushed over. He made a big fuss previously and they all witnessed it. But since none of the parties spoke up, they wouldn’t intervene.

“Sir, is there anything you need?” The waiter asked.

“Put that room’s bill under me!” CEO Wu pointed towards Lin Yi’s room and spoke.

The waiter was dumbfounded. CEO Wu obviously went to pick on the people in that room. Why did he offer to pay the bill for them all of a sudden? But no matter what happened, it had nothing to do with the waiter as he quickly nodded, “Yes, sir!”

CEO Wu sighed in relief after the waiter left, “Fuck, if I knew those people were big, I wouldn’t have picked on them! I asked for this!”

“Huh?” Little Mi became discouraged at the sight. If Li Cihua was afraid, what position were they in to offend them? At this moment, she spoke fearfully, “CEO Wu, will they seek revenge from us?”

“They shouldn’t. We are not as prestigious. They will look for Li Cihua because they won’t know who we are!” CEO Wu replied with a lightheartedly.

"I think we should leave as soon as possible. If they see us here after they finish eating, they might start to pick on us?" His sweetheart was still worried.

"Who's going to pay for them if we leave?" CEO Wu replied, "I apologized honestly, and they didn't throw a fit at me. It's obvious that they didn't care, so there is no need to be afraid. Let's keep eating!"

But how did she have a good appetite? She took a few sips of her drink and waited for Lin Yi and the others to finish eating. CEO Wu was the same; he sat as if he was sitting on pins and needles, waiting for Lin Yi to finish eating...

Li Cihua got into the car as soon as he left and headed straight to the hospital. Su Jiaonang certainly knew who Lin Yi was, as he was the one who made Li Cihua and Master Bing constantly fuming for the past few days.

"Cihua bro, are we really getting the needles for him? Wouldn't we lose our status?" Su Jiaonang didn't think that Li Cihua was serious about delivering the needles back.

"What can we do if we don't? Before we think of a plan against him, we can only try to appease him!" Li Cihua sighed upset. Ever since he found House Zhao as his backer and made a fortune in Songshan city, he had never been so upset! However, he did not have a plan right now as a few skilled subordinates were either killed or injured severely by Lin Yi. He found Yaowang, yet he was incompetent too. He poisoned some people yet Lin Yi found the antidote for it. What did he have to fight against Lin Yi?

Su Jiaonang pondered and realized the situation they were in. They could only show their weakness and accept their fate.

Li Cihua ordered Su Jiaonang to grab the silver needles from the hospital and returned to the restaurant once more.

CEO Wu was waiting for Lin Yi to finish eating so that he could pay the bill, but before Lin Yi came out, Li Cihua arrived. He was extremely delighted at the sight of Li Cihua. Did he come with more people to avenge him?

But he realized his assumption was completely wrong. Only Li Cihua and Su Jiaonang came back. All the underlings that were there disappeared!

CEO Wu quickly stood up and greeted Li Cihua, but Li Cihua merely waved at him impatiently.

Li Cihua approached the room, knocking on the door carefully before entering with permission.

"Lin Yi, I brought back your silver needles," Li Cihua clenched his teeth as he placed the needles down.

"Oh, thank you. You may go," Lin Yi nodded, "Oh right, thank you for the three million yesterday, my girlfriend's family bought a big house thanks to you."

"You are welcome..." Li Cihua felt like his face was burning. He was a legendary character in the city yet he was treated like a clown.

Li Cihua didn't know how he exited the restaurant. It was too humiliating! If he knew, he wouldn't have come here in the first place. He didn't only fail to seek revenge, but he was humiliated by Lin Yi! He won't be able to sleep or eat until he made Lin Yi pay for it!

Li Cihua decided to study with Master Bing carefully and plan their revenge on Lin Yi.

After returning to Floating Cloud, he didn't conceal anything and recounted exactly what happened to Master Bing. It wasn't a matter of losing reputation or not since he had lost it all in the past few days.

"Lin Yi is too rampant!" Zhao Qibing frowned after hearing Li Cihua's words, "I came to Songshan city to start up my own business and nothing's going smoothly with Lin Yi here! I haven't earned a single cent until now but I've lost a large of money! Oh right, how are Qibing Skyscrapers going? Is it completed yet?"

"Yes, it has been completed and is in the final stages. I contacted the most professional construction team in the country, and this is the fastest speed they can deliver!" Li Cihua replied.

"If there is no way to take down Lin Yi yet, focus on our business first!" Zhao Qibing said, "Take some time to consider how to take him down. Don't rush! We need to keep demolishing the shanty town! This is our first project and we must do it well!"

Chapter 742: Are You Two Kissing?

Are You Two Kissing?

"Well, didn't we pause the project because of Lin Yi? Shall we continue tomorrow?" Li Cihua asked.

"Yes, continue. Demolish and flatten that entire area!" Zhao Qibing nodded.

"Master Bing, according to our plan's diagram, there is an orphanage right next to the shanty town. Look at the orphanage's lot, shall we make it ours too?" The ground in the shanty town wasn't built like a square but in the shape of an 'L'. The orphanage is part of it.

At first, Li Cihua didn't put his attention on this orphanage. But now that he lost a billion on building the headquarters of the skyscrapers and lost three million to Lin Yi, his pocket was emptied, making him impossible to earn the loss back with the shanty town alone.

"Orphanage?" Master Bing pondered, "What are its backgrounds?"

"None. It's a private charity orphanage, the lot was donated in the first place," Li Cihua had an in-depth understanding of the area.

"Alright. Take someone with you to discuss with them, and make it ours. We need to build high quality and modernized complexes to compensate for the loss. Otherwise, I won't be able to report it to my Dad!" Zhao Qibing heard that it was a private orphanage and overlooked it. What background could it possibly have?

"Master Bing, will we have a completion ceremony for the skyscraper?" Li Cihua recalled the last ceremony and asked.

"Of course not! Wasn't it embarrassing enough last time?" Master Bing glared at Li Cihua at the thought of it, and he couldn't contain his rage, "You want me to attend the completion ceremony in a wheelchair? Lin Yi is like a time bomb ambushing me. He can explode at any time! If I don't get rid of him, I can't rest in peace!"

"But this guy has never been injured before. Uncle Zhu was no match and Yaowang wasn't either. What else can we do?" Li Cihua was helpless, "Huh? Time bomb?"

Li Cihua's eyes shone after hearing Master Bing's words.

"What about a time bomb? Do you have an idea?" Master Bing saw the change in Li Cihua's face and quickly asked.

"There's an old saying that martial arts won't win against bullets! Why are we fighting him head on? Why don't we adopt some tactics?" Li Cihua suggested.

"You mean that we should use hot weapons against him?" Master Bing froze.

"You said time bombs and it reminded me. We can install a time bomb in his car. Won't he die from an explosion while driving?" Li Cihua finally thought of a way to take down Lin Yi.

"Installing a time bomb in his car? It is a good idea, but wasn't it hard to find the right timing?" Master Bing listened to the suggestion and thought that it was not bad at all. At least he didn't have to fight Lin Yi face to face!

Who knew whether Lin Yi's strength recovered or not? It didn't matter. If he died from a bomb, he would never have the chance to be so arrogant again!

"I think I have an idea," Li Cihua muttered to himself, "but it may cost some money..."

"It doesn't matter how much it costs. As long as we can kill Lin Yi, I don't mind spending money. If he's dead, we can earn back all the money we spend on him now!" Zhao Qibing waved his hands carelessly.

"That's great!" Li Cihua said, "When the time comes, we can ..."

Li Cihua revealed his plan and Master Bing eventually nodded after pondering for a while, "Okay, we'll do it your way! Immediately find some people to arrange this. Make it happen as soon as possible. I don't want Lin Yi to live any longer in this world!"

"Rest assured, Master Bing. Leave it to me, I have my way of doing things," Li Cihua nodded.

After Lin Yi and the others finished eating, Fatty Lai was about to pay for the bill before they were informed that CEO Wu already paid for it. Fatty Lai didn't push it and knew that it was because of Lin Yi, he offered to treat them to a meal next time.

He didn't follow Lin Yi and left in a taxi alone. Lin Yi drove Mrs. Tang back to the hospital as she had to discuss the floor plan with Tang Jucheng.

As for Lin Yi and Tang Yun, they went back to school.

"Thank you for today!" Tang Yun said.

“There’s no need to thank me,” Lin Yi smiled, “You still owe me a kiss, don’t you? When will you give it to me?”

Tang Yun blushed immediately. She wanted to refuse, but when she recalled that Chen Yushu said both her and Chu Mengyao had kissed Lin Yun before, she became frustrated. She was Lin Yi’s girlfriend yet others kissed Lin Yi before she could.

Hence, she glanced around nervously. After seeing that no one was around, she quickly pecked Lin Yi on the cheeks and replied in a hurry, “There, you have it.”

“How is that a kiss?” Lin Yi was amused.

“Why not? If I say it counts, then it counts,” It was uneasy for Tang Yun to even give a peck.

“Alright, it counts then,” Lin Yi touched his cheek where Tang Yun had kissed, and it felt nice?

But why did it feel the same when Little Shu kissed him?

Of course, he didn’t dare to say this aloud or Tang Yun will kick him to death.

After the kiss, they heard someone exclaim,

“Woah, and I was wondering why you two skipped class. You two are hiding here kissing?” Liu Xinwen yelled as she panted.

She saw Lin Yi’s car drive past her and called out, but Lin Yi didn’t hear it. Liu Xinwen chased after them to the snacks street behind the school and saw Tang Yun kissing Lin Yi!

Hence, she sprinted over as if she found big news.

“Xinwen, what are you talking about? We didn’t kiss?” Of course, Tang Yun wouldn’t admit what she did to Lin Yi. If Liu Xinwen knew about it, she would make everyone else know too.

“Was my vision blurry? I saw you kissed Lin Yi!” Liu Xinwen wasn’t convinced so easily.

“I was just whispering to him!” Tang Yun glared at Liu Xinwen, “You are making a fuss about it! Why aren’t you in class? What are you doing outside?”

“It’s lunch break right now! You aren’t at school and I was bored so I was wandering in front of the school. I saw Lin Yi’s car and called out, but you two didn’t hear me. That’s why I followed you two here!” Liu Xinwen replied.

Group Photo

“Oh, we went to buy a house in the morning,” Tang Yun’s heart was filled with sweetness at the thought of it. If her family encountered a situation like this previously, they probably wouldn’t have even survived, let alone buying a house.

But now, they had the best situation out of everyone in the shanty town. The others were still waiting to be moved somewhere else, yet her family settled down in an apartment!

Liu Xinwen was envious of her, "Yunyun, you are so lucky. My family is waiting for it too but we don't know when we will receive our compensation. Plus, we know how and how much they will give us. Nothing has been decided and everyone's worried!"

"Well, they only compensated us first because they broke my Dad's leg," Tang Yun sighed. She didn't know whether it was because of her Dad's broken leg or because she met Lin Yi. She thought about all the good things that had happened because of Lin Yi.

It was all because of Lin Yi, and that was the reason why Tang Yun often treated Lin Yi with appreciation.

"If someone would give me three million, I'm willing to break both of my legs!" Liu Xinwen was envious. Although she went overboard with her words, they were true. Those who lived in the shanty town were part of the labor force at the bottom of society. Why would wealthy people live there?

People there were either retired or jobless. They relied on small business' and hard labor to keep their families supported. Liu Xinwen's parents, they worked for others and their earnings barely supported their own family.

Not to mention buying a house, their life would be difficult even if they tried to rent a place.

"I hope the developer is kind enough to give us some money. Maybe Lin Yi could help and get you guys a special price house in a not so convenient location..." Tang Yun looked at Lin Yi. She didn't have to care about others, but there was no way she could watch her childhood friends, Liu Xinwen and Xiaofen, be homeless.

However, Tang Yun didn't want to put Lin Yi in a difficult position either, so she asked for special price houses at inconvenient locations. Houses in unwanted houses left from the buyers with bad floor plans and floors. Lin Yi had connections, so it shouldn't be difficult for him.

"Of course," Lin Yi was familiar with Liu Xinwen, "Houses in a bad location are much cheaper."

"Thank you so much..." Liu Xinwen heard Lin Yi's words and she was extremely touched. She thought that Tang Yun didn't give her heart to Lin Yi in vain. If it was Kang Zhaoming, he would never do this for them.

Liu Xinwen didn't mind the bad floor plan and location. No matter how bad it was, at least it was still an apartment, not part of the shanty town.

The three of them returned to the school. Lin Yi and Tang Yun waved goodbye in front of the third class of year twelve before Lin Yi walked into his classroom.

There weren't many students in the class. It was obvious that many didn't attend today and it was also lunch break.

Miss and Chen Yushu were sitting in their seats reading. Miss raised her head and glanced at Lin Yi when he walked in but shifted her gaze back to her book. Chen Yushu wanted to greet him but decided to stay silent and continue reading under the consideration that Chu Mengyao may not want her to do so.

Lin Yi shook his head and returned to his seat.

Kang Xiaobo wasn't here. He was most likely spending some time with Xiaofen at the hospital. Lin Yi sat in his seat and didn't know what to do.

"Yaoyao sis, Shield bro is back. Shall we take a group photo with him?" Chen Yushu took out her digital camera from her bag.

The last year of their high school was ending soon and so was their lives as high school students. There was no class today, so they brought their camera, taking some pictures and recording the last journey of their high school life.

"Why him?" Chu Mengyao was moved but opposed verbally.

"Shield bro will leave after we graduate..." Chen Yushu sounded down, "Yaoyao sis, you were right. Shield bro can't stay with us forever. He will have to leave us one day..."

Chen Yushu's words made Chu Mengyao's heart ache. Lin Yi was leaving? He will leave in the end... High school was coming to an end. He had no reason to stay here anymore.

Lin Yi chased away all those enemies in her father's company. Her troublesome pursuers, Zhong Pingliang and An Jianwen, were both in the hospital after losing a kidney. Lin Yi completed his missions perfectly.

Perhaps Little Shu and her will stay in the university's dorm. Lin Yi won't continue to live in the mansion with them.

What would he do? Rent a place together with Tang Yun?

Miss felt confusion at the thought of the possibility. He originally lived with Little Shu and her, but now he would move out with Tang Yun... Must she give away her happiness?

But, how could she keep it? Lin Yi wasn't her boyfriend or anything. Why should he stay by her side? For the 30,000 yuan salary? The thought was ridiculous to Chu Mengyao. He didn't care about three million, why would he care about a mere 30,000 yuan?

"Then let's take a photo together for remembrance..." Chu Mengyao sighed, "Text him."

Chen Yushu immediately took out her phone and messaged Lin Yi.

Lin Yi was bored and checked Chen Yushu's message when his phone vibrated.

"Do you want to go to the playground and take a photo with Yaoyao sis and me?"

Lin Yi was dumbfounded. Miss didn't want to expose their relation at school, what is on her mind today? Was it Shu's idea?

Lin Yi didn't reply and walked towards the door, believing that Chen Yushu would understand him.

After a short while, Miss and Chen Yushu followed Lin Yi outside too. In the corridor, Chen Yushu stopped Lin Yi, "Shield bro!"

Chu Mengyao hesitated but eventually stayed silent. The majority of people were aware of her relationship with Lin Yi, and there was nothing to care about. She also declared war with Tang Yun. It would look like she was afraid of losing if she kept on hiding.

As she pondered, she changed her attitude towards Lin Yi and raised her head while pulling Chen Yushu back, "Shu, let's take a photo in the corridor. We can see our class sign from here."

Chapter 744: Take A Photo For Us

Take A Photo For Us

Lin Yi took the camera and nodded.

The fifth class wasn't far from the third class, and since they were all studying by themselves, it was quiet. Chen Yushu's 'Shield bro' was exceptionally loud. Tang Yun naturally heard it since all the windows were opened in summer, and her seat was next to the window too.

Tang Yun frowned. She never figured out whether Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu liked Lin Yi or not. Perhaps one of them liked Lin Yi? Or perhaps, none of them liked him?

Liu Xinwen also heard Chen Yushu's voice and poked her head out of the classroom to check. She saw that Lin Yi was taking a photo for Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu and quickly messaged Tang Yun.

Tang Yun saw Liu Xinwen's text and felt frustrated. She replied 'I know' and shoved it back into her pockets, shifting her attention on her book again.

She only had a few months before university entrance exams, and she had to study as much as possible. Although she had a good time with Lin Yi, she didn't want to ignore her studies. If she couldn't get into a university, the distance between her and Lin Yi would increase even more. Tang Yun understood well.

Lin Xinwen saw that Tang Yun didn't reply more and waited a while longer before she left her classroom to find her.

Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu saw Liu Xinwen, but Lin Yi didn't see her since he had his back against her.

"Yaoyao sis, someone is going to expose our secret!" Chen Yushu said.

"Don't say that. It isn't a secret," She denied it, but she was nervous. Would Tang Yun come?

But so what if Tang Yun came? She wasn't doing something inappropriate, and she calmed down after thinking about it thoroughly.

Liu Xinwen stopped outside Tang Yun's window. Tang Yun didn't expect her to come for her. She was frustrated. Those two taking photos had nothing to do with her! Wasn't it even more awkward to intervene? It would look like she was spying on Lin Yi!

“Yunyun, are you pretending that you can’t see me?” Liu Xinwen rested her head on the windowsill and asked.

“What? I need to study,” Tang Yun waved the practice booklet in her hands.

“Shall we go out for a walk?” Liu Xinwen asked.

“For what?” Tang Yun hesitated. She knew what Liu Xinwen intended to do. Liu Xinwen clearly wanted her to go look for Lin Yi.

“They are taking photos and so should we. We are graduating soon. Shouldn’t we keep some photos?” Liu Xinwen said.

“What’s not good?” Liu Xinwen immediately called out to Lin Yi after responding, “Lin Yi!”

Lin Yi was a fine-tuned person. How could he not know that Liu Xinwen was looking for Tang Yun? Although he was taking photos for Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu, he secretly had his attention on Tang Yun’s side.

Lin Yi immediately knew trouble was coming when Liu Xinwen called out to him. He turned around with a smile, “... What’s up?”

“I didn’t! Stop it...” Tang Yun was embarrassed. Why did Liu Xinwen have to lie?

“Should we take one together?” Miss said. Chu Mengyao felt like she shouldn’t be stingy. It was only a photo, and she had no problem with Tang Yun joining. If she didn’t let Tang Yun join, she would seem narrow-minded.

She was the miss here and she will fight if the situation changed. If she picked on every single detail, she would be an unreasonable shrew.

“Yunyun, let’s go. I don’t think you can concentrate on studying right now,” Liu Xinwen glanced at the booklet in Tang Yun’s hands and found that she hasn’t written anything yet. She used a pencil before, but she was holding a blue ball pen in her hands.

Liu Xinwen dragged Tang Yun out of the classroom, and Tang Yun stopped acting shy. She indeed had never taken a photo with Lin Yi before. They met each other at the First High School. It would be a shame if they never took a photo together. In the future, she might regret it.

“Lin Yi, should I take it for you two?” Liu Xinwen took the camera from Lin Yi’s hands.

“...” Tang Yun didn’t know whether she should laugh or cry. She wanted to take a photo alone with Lin Yi. Why did Chen Yushu have to force herself in?

Liu Xinwen was also frustrated. However, what could she say if Tang Yun didn't oppose? She picked up the camera and took a strange photo with three people in it.

"Yaoyao sis, do you want to come?" Chen Yushu waved to Chu Mengyao.

Chu Mengyao finally walked over in hesitation and stood next to Chen Yushu after consideration.

Liu Xinwen pressed the button and a couple photo with four people was taken...

Chen Yushu wanted to join the fun but Chu Mengyao pulled her to the side, allowing time for Lin Yi to take a photo alone with Tang Yun.

Although Tang Yun and Liu Xinwen could take photos from their phone, the camera was much better than their phone. Their family's financial status didn't allow them to own a digital camera and although Tang Yun's family have some money now, she didn't have time to get one, nor did she have the intention to purchase one.

After taking a photo with Lin Yi, Liu Xinwen also took a photo with Tang Yun. In the end, Chen Yushu suggested that the five of them should take a photo together as they met Liu Xinwen at Fatty Lai's place that night.

However, they needed someone to take a photo. Although the camera had a selfie function, they didn't have a place to set it. They were troubled over it when they saw Zou Ruoming approaching their direction with a basketball in his hand.

Zou Ruoming's intention of coming to school was to eat, drink, and play basketball with his few friends in order to pretend to be cool. Of course, he didn't have many chances to pretend to be cool since he didn't want to offend Lin Yi. In the end, he could only focus on basketball.

"Hey friend! Take a photo for us!" Liu Xinwen didn't see that the person was Zou Ruoming, and she grabbed whoever came first for a photo.

Zou Ruoming almost exploded at her words. Fuck! Just because he was turned down, why did they have to bully him?

Chapter 745: House Zhong's Advancement

House Zhong's Advancement

He just restrained himself a little at school, yet people tried to tell him to take photos?

Zou Ruoming was just about to swear at them but as he raised his head, he saw Lin Yi and Tang Yun standing next to Liu Xinwen. Even Miss and Chen Yushu were there. He stopped dead in his tracks and covered his mouth. Luckily he didn't blurt anything out, or he would be in big trouble!

Other than Liu Xinwen, he couldn't mess with anyone else. He was so unlucky! He came back from playing basketball, yet he bumped into so many fierce people! But on the surface, he smiled flatteringly, "Isn't this our boss Lin Yi and sister-in-law? It's been a long time! Do you need a photographer? I'm a professional! I've attended numerous private photoshoots..."

“Private photoshoots? What’s that?” Tang Yun didn’t know what Zou Ruoming was referring to.

“Huh?” Zou Ruoming realized that he accidentally let it slip. He quickly explained, awkwardly, “I mean, photo shoots that are private in nature...”

“Oh, Yaoyao sis, isn’t a private photoshoot what we saw last time on the TV? A dating show with naked photos of female idols?” Chen Yushu asked, “Does he want to take naked photos of us?”

“Uh, no, that’s not what I meant...” Zou Ruoming jumped. Taking naked photos of Lin Yi’s women? Wouldn’t he be asking for death? “What I meant is that I’m a professional photographer!”

“Oh, take it then,” Chen Yushu didn’t continue the conversation and took a position next to Lin Yi before waving to Chu Mengyao, “Yaoyao sis, do you want to stand on Shield bro’s right side?”

Chu Mengyao ignored her and stood next to her.

Tang Yun stood still next to Lin Yi and Liu Xinwen next to her. Zou Ruoming took a group photo for the five of them and left with his tails between his legs. Who knew if Chen Yushu would settle accounts with him afterward?

In the afternoon, the majority of students returned to the classroom. Pengzhan Industry just finished their news conference. All students and their parents were informed of the situation. It was a black-hearted businessman who wanted to ruin the reputation of the school due to his failed application to take over the canteen.

It had nothing much to do with the school. The police arrested the suspect, and all the parents thought it was safe enough to send their children back to school.

The homeroom teacher, Teacher Liu, came back with a mission. She was one of the few people in the school who knew the truth behind it. Zhong Pingliang was the suspect. However, he was also a victim at the same time.

His mind became twisted due to the loss of a kidney and did the extreme things after being mocked by students.

To put it simply, he lacked love and care, so Teacher Liu decided to organize a trip for the students to visit Zhong Pingliang at the hospital.

In fact, other than Chen Yushu and Lin Yi who loved to laugh at Zhong Pingliang, everyone else more or less received advantages from him. Especially a while ago, Zhong Pingliang paid for everyone’s expenses during the trip to the beach. Who dared to mock him?

However, everyone looked at him strangely since everyone was curious about the difference between an ordinary person and a person with only one kidney.

Before the trip, Teacher Liu conducted a brief class meeting.

“Everyone, our fellow classmate, Zhong Pingliang, successfully got a new kidney and finished the transplant surgery. He is currently hospitalized and we should visit Zhong Pingliang!” Teacher Liu said, “This activity is voluntary. For those who are willing to visit him, meet in front of the school. The school bus is already there. For those who don’t want to go, stay here and study!”

The bus came here straight from the news conference, so they could head to the hospital without waiting.

It was the last year of high school, and there wasn't much time left for everyone to spend together. Everyone listened to Teacher Liu and stood up, ready to visit Zhong Pingliang.

"May I emphasize that you mustn't discriminate against Zhong Pingliang. You must give him warmth and the love of friendship! Make him feel the love from us as a group!" Teacher Liu urged, "Who would want to encounter a tragedy like this? Zhong Pingliang is unfortunate as it is, so we must not make him sad again!"

Everyone nodded. They looked at Zhong Pingliang strangely previously without knowing how much they harmed Zhong Pingliang's heart.

Chu Mengyao didn't want to visit him since she hoped that he would be dead, and it was impossible for her to care about him.

However, as Pengzhan Industry's Miss and the school principal's Miss, she had to go. Otherwise, how would others think of her? Even if she didn't care, she had to put her father's reputation into consideration.

She couldn't let others say that Chu Pengzhan's daughter was so cold and emotionless that she didn't even visit a hospitalized fellow classmate.

Hence, no matter how unwilling she was, she stood up with Shu and walked out of the classroom.

Lin Yi didn't mind as he followed Chu Mengyao. If Chu Mengyao went, he would. If she didn't, why would he go?

It was the second time for the class to visit Zhong Pingliang together. Zhong Fabai wasn't surprised when he received a call from the teacher since he knew that his scheme was successful. His son successfully gained the police and school's sympathy through cheating. He went from culprit to victim!

"Pingliang, you are becoming much more mature now! You did well this time. This is a rather good ending!" Zhong Fabai hung up the call and complimented his son, "Your classmates are on the way."

"Naturally. How can one grow without failure? I was too naive before to let Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu make me run in circles!" Zhong Pingliang nodded, "I won't be so stupid again."

"It is good if you can learn from it and get over it!" Zhong Fabai patted Zhong Pingliang's shoulders, "You will plan to give up on Chu Mengyao, won't you?"

"Talking about giving up is too early right now. But when I soar into the sky, Chu Mengyao will become my toy!" Zhong Pingliang laughed coldly, "Since she never liked me and played me like a monkey, I won't let her go so easily!"

"It's good that you have a goal but don't make any move so easily!" Zhong Fabai thought that having something to motivate his son wasn't necessarily bad.

“Don’t worry. Before I am capable, I won’t do anything stupid!” Zhong Pingliang replied, “Oh right. After I recover, I want to go to the mountains and visit Zhang Naipao! I’ll see if there’s anything I can help him with. He’s the one I can rely on!”

Chapter 746: Whose Kidney Is This

Whose Kidney Is This

“Certainly, that’s for sure!” Zhong Fabai wanted Zhang Naipao and his son to be on good terms as well. Even Heibao bro could force his way up to the early phase of the Golden Class. He believed that with proper training, Zhang Naipao could achieve that feat too. He could as well be the rising star in House Zhong! “Right, how’s your kidney? Do you feel uneasy? Although the kidney matches your body completely, we can’t guarantee that there won’t be any sign of rejection!”

“Erm.... it’s just pain. Other than pain, I don’t feel anything out of place...” Pinliang shook his head.

“Pain is inevitable with a wound that big. Just take a good rest, and we’ll ask the doctors to do a complete full body check-up for you after a few days,” Fabai continued, “An Jianwen’s kidney trafficking organization is doomed. Who knows how’s Lin Yi doing now?”

“Who knows, it’d be better if he could just kick the bucket already!” Pinliang still held strong grudges against him.

Fabai nodded. He had been staying by Pinliang’s side these two days, not around Master Bing’s side, so he really didn’t have any news regarding Lin Yi.

There was the sound of continuous footsteps nearing the ward. The students must have arrived to pay Pinliang a visit. The father and son both stopped their discussion when they heard the footsteps.

As expected, after not long came a knock from the corridor on the door, Fabai stood up and opened the door.

“Teacher Liu, you’ve come with the class to visit Pinliang. Thank you very much! It’s Pinliang’s greatest blessing to have such a wonderful teacher and loving friends around him....” Fabai opened the door, expressed his gratitude, but he couldn’t finish his sentence. His gaze was already shifted on Lin Yi who was standing right beside Chu Mengyao! Fabai widened his eyes in disbelief. It was if he was looking at a ghost, “EH! Aren’t you... Lin Yi...”

“Oh? Uncle Zhong, you’re looking for me?” Lin Yi shrugged his shoulders. Naturally, Lin Yi knew why Fabai was acting like this. From Fabai’s perspective, Lin Yi should be bedridden like his own son lying on the bed in the hospital. However, Lin Yi was standing right in front of him. It was totally normal for him to have this expression

“You.... you... why are you here?” Fabai was a little lost. Even if Lin Yi was strong, his body can’t have adjusted that quickly. This issue involved his only son’s kidney. If the kidney in his son’s body wasn’t Lin Yi’s, whose kidney could it be?

Did Lin Yi have one of his kidneys removed?

“Oh, I was injured a few days ago, but I’m all good now.” Lin Yi smiled.

Fabai let out a breath of relief when he heard Lin Yi. But something was still wrong. Lin Yi had just had his kidney removed, how could he jump around so lively? It was totally absurd!

Wait a minute, he said that he was injured a few days ago, he wouldn’t mean that clash with Uncle Zhu, would he?

“You... when did you get yourself injured?” Fabai asked subconsciously.

“When I was fighting with Uncle Zhu? You didn’t know?” Lin Yi asked back.

“Then..... Pinliang....” Fabai wanted to continue asking but suddenly recalled that the students were still around. He could only shut up. He had to invite the teacher and students in immediately! Otherwise, the police might suspect something fishy was going on! Who knew if there was still police patrolling in the corridor!

“Welcome, thank you for visiting Pinliang...” Fabai held back his doubt and let the students in.

Pinliang, on the other hand, was lying on the bed, the smile on his face was wide and bright. Just when he was about to show his gratitude towards the class, he was stunned by Lin Yi’s appearance!

Didn’t Lin Yi have one of his kidneys removed? He should be lying on the bed like me. How could he come and visit me? Just how was that possible?

“Oh, my friend, Pinliang, I heard that you are now a complete person, having two kidneys. As long as there is no rejection, I believe you can be like us now. Please don’t burden yourself mentally!” Yushu wanted to make fun of Pinliang but remembering teacher Liu’s advice, she changed them into comforting words.

However, Pinliang found the words to have a different meaning! If there was no rejection, he could be the same? What if the kidney rejected me?

“Thanks...” Pinliang just couldn’t bring himself to put any attention on Yushu’s sarcasm. Even if Yushu were to scold his mother now, he wouldn’t have any hard feelings! Because at this moment, his focus was fully on Lin Yi!

Did Pinliang really get Lin Yi’s kidney? If Lin Yi’s kidney was not transplanted, then whose kidney could be in his body?

Was Shu trying to hint something to me? Telling me that the kidney in my body right now was not Lin Yi’s. In other words, the kidney doesn’t match my body in the slightest and the sign of rejection will be appearing real soon?

Pinliang’s mind collapsed and went blank. His gaze became dull and unfocused!

His dream was completely shattered into pieces. He thought that he could become a golden class master after gaining one of Lin Yi’s kidneys. However, things weren’t going his way. He didn’t even know if the kidney was going to reject him or not!

Pinliang didn't know how he passed the time; all of the support from his friends and teacher were wasted. The words they gave him didn't reach his mind at all. His brain was troubled by the kidney, Lin Yi, and the hidden meaning behind Yushu's sarcasm!

The kidney wasn't Lin Yi's? It was most likely the case. How else could Lin Yi come to visit him while his kidney was inside his body? There was no way he would do nothing if his kidney was removed. Since Lin Yi didn't come to kill him, and even came to visit him generously,.... Could it be that....

Pinliang's mind was somewhere else. While he was in this state, the crowd gradually left the room.

The teacher and his classmates thought that Pinliang's body was too fragile to talk after the surgery. They didn't think much and left the room after seeing how he was doing.

When Lin Yi left, he looked at Pinliang for a second. Why wasn't the kid's kidney showing any rejections?

Fabai furrowed his eyebrows. He had also figured out the possibility of this upcoming tragedy. The kidney might not belong to Lin Yi! Did they transplant a wrong kidney? But now that An Jianwen's kidney trafficking organization was sabotaged, he would have a hard time finding out the truth.

Even worse, he didn't even know who to call to look into this problem. Granted that Jianwen was not caught, he must have already escaped. Getting in touch with Jianwen was impossible.

Fabai sighed. Why was his son's life so miserable? After the midst of hardships, he finally found a suitable kidney, but it was mismatched?

"Dad, why was Lin Yi here? What's going on with my kidney?" Pinliang went into a frenzy and shouted when the crowd left. "The kidney in my body. Whose kidney is this?!"

Chapter 747: Thief Couple

Thief Couple

"Pinliang, don't panic! I'll go to the doctor and ask them to give you a thorough check up and see what's wrong with your kidney!" Zhong Pingliang completely lost his calm, but Zhong Fabai couldn't. If he panicked, it would only make Zhong Pingliang worry more.

Although he was anxious, he pretended to be calm and said, "Perhaps An Jianwen thought that the person was Lin Yi. They can't possibly grab someone random and give their kidney to you, can they? A kidney worth quite an amount. They wouldn't do something that takes so much effort with no benefits!"

Zhong Pingliang heard his father's words and calmed down a little. Indeed, An Jianwen wouldn't do something like unbeneficial like this! An Jianwen would benefit more giving him a successfully paired kidney rather than a random one! Kidneys were sellable and any would bring An Jianwen a fortune, so why would he do that?

The only possibility was that An Jianwen caught someone who looked like Lin Yi and then took his kidney and gave it to Zhong Pingliang.

"Okay! We'll discuss this after the checkup!" Zhong Pingliang nodded.

Zhong Fabai didn't dare to waste a second and headed straight outside to find a doctor. Zhong Pinliang's kidney transplant wasn't performed at People's First Hospital so they didn't have related information on him. They only provided regular recovery services rather than follow up treatments.

Zhong Fabai was afraid of catching the police's attention, so earlier, he didn't make the doctors give his son follow up treats since he trusted An Jianwen. If An Jianwen said that the kidney was a good fit, then there shouldn't be a problem! Zhong Fabai also planned to give his son another thorough checkup after his body recovered a little more.

But now he had to find a doctor, quickly. Zhong Pingliang was pushed out of the room for the checkup...

At the same time, in another room at the hospital...

As expected, Liu Bojia woke up in the afternoon, just around the time which Lin Yi predicted. All the doctors were surprised since a patient who relied on a respirator to live woke up. All body indexes showed obvious improvements, and he had no other problems other than the wounds on his skin.

Wasn't this a miracle in medicine?

However, Song Lingshan didn't recount the treatment process and merely said that the police found a specialist, and the details were to be kept confidential.

The hospital had no option but to cooperate with the police and continue with follow up treatments of Liu Bojia since the police expressed the treatment's confidentiality.

After Liu Bojia woke up, he wasn't as stubborn as before. He knew that he survived a great misfortune, but it was up to him whether he will be able to live a good life in the future.

Previously, Liu Bojia didn't expect the insane murderer to be able to find him in the hospital and sneak into the room to kill him amongst the police. He didn't die this time, but he wasn't sure if he would be lucky next time or not.

If death was the only option for him, he decided that he better work with the police to survive! He knew that as long as he was alive, those people won't let him go so easily. He would rather be sentenced to jail since the jail was safer.

Song Lingshan and Chen Yutian entered the room after Liu Bojia was stabilized. They settled next to his bed.

"Liu Bojia, do you still want to keep it a secret?" Song Lingshan looked at Liu Bojia and recalled that she viewed him as a victim, but now it seemed like internal strife to her, "If a miracle doctor didn't treat you, do you think you would have survived?"

Song Lingshan was harsh. There was no need to be polite to someone like Liu Bojia. He didn't only waste a great amount of Lin Yi's pure energy, but he also created huge problems and confusions for the police.

After Liu Bojia woke up, he was informed of his situation during the coma. He was told that he relied on the respirator to live.

In short, the hospital could do nothing, but the police found a specialist to treat Liu Bojia, and he finally escaped from death.

“How much do you guys know?” When Liu Bojia asked them, his mind was filled with wishful thinking. He didn’t know much information the police held, and he could address problems selectively.

“The tomb raiding organization under the code name of Thief Couple is captured,” Chen Yutian didn’t say that the couple was shot but said that they were captured to suppress Liu Bojia psychologically. This would make him think that the police has evidence of the crime committed, “According to their testimony, you are part of the organization and you will take part in their next mission. This time, isn’t your family under attack because they wanted to silence you?”

Chen Yutian wasn’t too detailed with his story but it told the truth. The more he phrased it this way, the more Liu Bojia would think that the police has grasped the majority of information in their hands. After all, if the couple has been arrested, the police will easily know what he had done.

“Thief Couple? What do they do? Tomb raiding? Do I have anything to do with it?” Liu Bojia probed. He didn’t think that the couple would sell him out so easily. It seemed unreasonable to him since he didn’t have any conflicts with them. There were rules in the profession of tomb raiding; if they accused their fellows at random, it’s possible that others in the same profession will seek revenge on them.

Even if you were in jail, you still had a family, didn’t you? Even if they can’t take revenge on you, then they would still harm your family!

Hence, when numerous tomb raiders were arrested, they often only addressed their own problems without addressing information on other organizations and sales channels. Otherwise, their families would be harmed by those unarrested.

“Haha, you are thinking that it’s unrealistic that the couple didn’t address other things but only sold you out, correct?” Song Lingshan had worked in the police force for years and learned to observe micro expressions. As soon as she saw Liu Bojia’s expressions, she knew exactly what she was thinking.

“It’s true that I am an archaeologist, and I do contact some tomb raider organizations. However, I do not participate in any tomb raiding activities and only evaluate a few antiques they dig up in private...” Liu Bojia began to talk for himself.

Chapter 748: Request to See Lin Yi

Request to See Lin Yi

Liu Bojia believed that even if the couple mentioned him, they wouldn’t speak too much about him. They would be busy with confessing their own crimes. How would they have time to mention him?

“In fact, the couple didn’t sell anyone out at first, but we confiscated a work notebook and there were some clues in it,” Chen Yutian passed a copy of the notebook to Liu Bojia as he smiled.

Liu Bojia glanced at the copy and his expressions changed drastically.

His name was clearly written in the notebook, and it was clear that he investigated the tombs with the tomb raiding organizations...

These alone was not enough to be conclusive proof, but the key was that Liu Bojia didn't know that the couple was shot when resisting the police. Now, as soon as the police questioned Liu Bojia about the couple, there was no reason for him to keep silent!

At this moment, Liu Bojia prepared to confess everything. He couldn't keep it a secret anymore so he decided to confess it all!

"It is correct. The assassin that appeared before should have been hired by Red Tower tomb raiding group. They must have wanted me dead..." Liu Bojia sighed.

"Red Tower tomb raiding group? Did you discover the tomb together with Red Tower group and the Thief Couple?" Chen Yutian asked.

"Not exactly together, but Red Tower, Thief Couple, and Old Black. These three organizations discovered it together..." Liu Bojia shook his head, "My existence is that of a specialist because I did some research on the tomb's traps and secret passages, so Red Tower always brings me along with their operations. They will also share some things they dig up. it's more like collaboration..."

"Why did he want to kill you this time?" Chen Yutian asked.

"I've conducted some researched on the tomb, and it's extremely dangerous inside. I'm not certain that I can open the tomb but with my past experience, marvelous treasures hide beneath exceptionally dangerous tombs. I planned to come back and research more about it first, then investigate how to break the traps..." Liu Bojia said.

"What does that have to do assassins trying to kill you?" Chen Yutian frowned.

"People from Red Tower thought I wanted to take all of it, and in fact, that thought did flash through my mind..." Liu Bojia laughed bitterly, "We've collaborated for so many years. How could we not know each other well? He saw through my intentions, and he was afraid that I would expose it or take it all for myself. That's why they wanted to kill me..."

"Organise everything you know about the location of the tomb and how to break through it," Chen Yutian said.

"You want to enter the tomb?" Liu Bojia froze, "That's impossible. You have no specialist with you. I'm afraid that you won't be able to leave the tomb in one piece..."

"That's not for you to consider," Song Lingshan cut Liu Bojia's words and said, "You just have to cooperate with the police. Your attitude decides your final sentence."

"Okay..." Liu Bojia nodded and remained silent.

Since he chose to cooperate, he naturally will do what they tell him to do. He knew that he will be sentenced to an indefinite period in jail if not death sentence from what he did before. Even if he was sentenced to fixed-term imprisonment, he was already forty years old and it was hard to say whether he could leave the jail alive or not.

Before he was imprisoned, there were things he wanted to address. Although he was a tomb raider, he was a grateful person.

“The person who saved me from the assassin last time, is he your man?” Liu Bojia asked.

“Why are you asking that?” Song Lingshan was bewildered.

“My assets are worth about thirty million. I will give him ten million to express my gratitude...” Liu Bojia said, “Thank you for saving my life.”

“Your money is black and we will confiscate it,” Song Lingshan replied indifferently.

“No, I earned them righteously. I earned them through writing articles for magazine companies and working as a guide and specialist for professional exploration teams. I have an account book in my study which recorded every single earning,” Liu Bojia smiled, “All the antiques I got from the tombs are kept in the basement in my house and I have not sold a single object. You’ll know when you check there.”

“Oh?” Song Lingshan was surprised but immediately nodded, “If that’s true, the police will consider your preference.”

“And the doctor who saved me today, I’ll take another ten million out to thank him,” Liu Bojia continued, “If I’m lucky enough to leave the jail still alive, the remaining ten million is more than enough for me to live my life. My wife and child are gone. I have no one to spend this money on. I better give it to those who helped me... If I’m sentenced to death, please donate the remaining ten million to the archaeology research organizations... It’s my last wish as an archaeologist..”

Song Lingshan didn’t expect Liu Bojia to be kind-hearted.

In fact, when she thought through it carefully, the crime he committed wasn’t completely devoid of conscience.

“The person who saved you last time and today was the same person,” Song Lingshan didn’t want to lie to Liu Bojia, “Are you sure you want to give him twenty million?”

“The same person?” Liu Bojia was shocked at her words, “He’s a doctor?”

“Yes, but also no,” Song Lingshan didn’t answer the question straightforwardly.

“I... Can I see him?” Liu Bojia pondered for a while and suddenly asked.

“You want to see him? About what?” Song Lingshan sound his request odd.

“He saved me and I want to give him some benefits,” Liu Bojia replied, “Can you contact him for me?”

“What benefits?” Song Lingshan asked curiously.

“It has nothing to do with my case. I don’t have to tell you,” Liu Bojia was alone and he was to be sent to the jail. He wasn’t afraid of anything.

“Alright, I will contact him for you. However, it’s not up to me whether he’s willing to see you or not,” Song Lingshan nodded. If the benefits he talked about was given to someone else, perhaps she would ask further but didn’t since it was for Lin Yi. She hoped that Lin Yi will be rewarded since he lost a large amount of pure energy.

Liu Bojia nodded, "I'm tired and I want to rest. When I recover, I will prepare all the information about the tomb."

Song Lingshan and Chen Yutian didn't linger too long and left the room.

"I didn't expect Liu Bojia to be so obedient this time," Song Lingshan found Liu Bojia's attitude towards them surprising. She thought she had to attempt to manipulate him psychologically in order to make him tell the truth.

Chapter 749: Give You Some Benefits

Give You Some Benefits

"Perhaps after escaping death, he got over it," Chen Yutian said, "Those who experienced near-death experiences always have different views."

"Perhaps," Song Lingshan nodded and dialed Lin Yi's number.

Lin Yi just finished visiting Zhong Pingliang and received Song Lingshan's call a short while later, "What's wrong?"

"Liu Bojia is awake, and he wants to see you," Song Lingshan said.

"Me? For what?" Lin Yi couldn't think of why Liu Bojia wanted to see him.

"He said he wanted to thank you and give you some benefits," Song Lingshan replied, "He said he'll give you twenty million to express his gratitude, but he wanted to see you and give you some benefits after hearing that you were his doctor too."

"Oh?" Lin Yi was bewildered. What benefits could Liu Bojia give him? But since it was beneficial for him, there was no reason to decline. He saved Liu Bojia twice, and he hasn't gotten anything back in return!

"Is he in the hospital?"

"Yes, he's in the same room," Song Lingshan replied, "Where are you?"

"I'm at the hospital, I'll head over now," Lin Yi responded and hung up.

Then, Lin Yi texted Miss and Chen Yushu telling them that he had something else to attend to, telling them to go back with the class first.

"Yaoyao sis, why is Shield bro so busy every single day?" Chen Yushu felt like Lin Yi was always busy with all sorts of things.

"I don't know. Perhaps he's not our underling at all. He just accidentally appeared in our mansion..." Chu Mengyao realized that Lin Yi became more and more mysterious. At first, he was a worker from the countryside, but now, he was a skilled master...

"Oh, will he really leave us in the future?" Chen Yushu asked gloomily.

“Yes, he should... We are grown-ups now. We have to learn to protect ourselves. We shouldn’t always make trouble for others...” Chu Mengyao looked outside the window towards the direction Lin Yi headed to, and her heart filled with melancholy.

“But, Yaoyao sis, I don’t want to grow up,” Chen Yushu shook her head.

“You have to even if you don’t want to. You aren’t a child anymore!” Chu Mengyao pinched Chen Yushu’s face, “See, you don’t even cry when I pinch your face now, so you are not a child anymore.”

“Waah... I’m crying...” Chen Yushu cried.

“...” Chu Mengyao ignored her and turned to the side.

Outside Liu Bojia’s room, Lin Yi saw Song Lingshan and Chen Yutian chatting.

“Lin Yi!” Song Lingshan welcomed Lin Yi, “You are here? Liu Bojia just said he wanted to rest. Should I check on him first?”

“It’s fine, I’ll go in,” Lin Yi shook his head. Rest? Liu Bojia rested for so many days and he was probably full of energy now.

Lin Yi pushed the door open into the room and as he expected, Liu Bojia wasn’t resting, but drawing and writing something on pieces of papers. When he saw Lin Yi come in, he asked in confusion, “Who are you?”

“You were looking for me?” Lin Yi didn’t reply but asked back a question.

“You are the person who saved me twice?” Liu Bojia wasn’t brainless and immediately guessed who Lin Yi was.

Lin Yi nodded, “That’s me.”

“I’d like to express my gratitude,” Liu Bojia nodded and didn’t question Lin Yi’s identity. Although Lin Yi seemed young, someone like Liu Bojia who survived with skills understood well that a man’s will did not depend on his age. Since Lin Yi appeared here, it meant that he had the police’s permission. If he wasn’t the person who saved him, then who would it be?

“What a coincidence. I don’t like saving people for free,” Lin Yi shrugged, “If Song Lingshan didn’t nag me, I won’t have come here to save you.”

“Haha, what a straightforward person!” Liu Bojia laughed, “That’s great, that’s exactly what I intended to do.”

“What benefits will you give me? Twenty million?” Lin Yi looked at Liu Bojia and replied indifferently.

“I don’t think you are interested in that. You can earn twenty million with your expertise in the medical field,” Liu Bojia waved his hands. Not even the hospital could save him this time but Lin Yi did. With this ability, Lin Yi definitely wouldn’t lack money.

“Ha...” Lin Yi smiled without talking.

“Has the police told you about my identity?” Liu Bojia asked.

“No, I didn’t ask,” Lin Yi shook his head.

“I am an archaeologist, but I am also a tomb raider...” Liu Bojia briefly introduced himself to Lin Yi before continuing, “Through researching the ancient books, the tomb near Songshan is most likely the tomb of Zhang Liju, a folk holy doctor who lived in the late period of Song Dynasty through to the beginning of Yuan Dynasty. You are a doctor, perhaps the tomb will have something you need.”

“Oh? Are you telling me to go dig up a tomb?” Lin Yi froze. Zhang Juli? Lin Yi thought that he had seen this name in one of his Old Man’s books before.

“The police may go and you can follow along with your connections with the police,” Liu Bojia passed a copy of information he organized for Lin Yi, “This is the method to break through some traps in the tomb, as well as the traps’ location. Although it’s not complete, it will help you.”

“Why don’t you give it to the police?” Lin Yi took the paper and glanced at it before asking.

“It has nothing to do with my personal case. I don’t have to tell them anything it doesn’t have to do with me,” Liu Bojia smiled.

“Thank you,” Lin Yi didn’t question Liu Bojia’s words since he didn’t seem like he was lying. According to Lin Yi’s observations, what Liu Bojia said should be true, and there was no need for him to lie.

“We don’t owe each other anything then. As for that twenty million, you can take it if you want. If you don’t want it, donate it for me. It doesn’t matter where you donate it. It’s your money now,” Liu Bojia smiled and closed his eyes without further words.

Lin Yi took the paper with him and left the room.

Song Lingshan and Chen Yutian were waiting outside the room. Seeing that Lin Yi came out, Song Lingshan wanted to ask what happened but stopped herself.

“If there’s nothing else, I’ll leave first,” Lin Yi glanced at Song Lingshan as he knew that she wanted to ask what benefits Liu Bojia gave him. Lin Yi didn’t tell her about it.

“Okay...” Although Song Lingshan was curious, she knew that she shouldn’t know too much. If Liu Bojia gave Lin Yi something that was against her morals, would she intervene? Song Lingshan’s head hurt at the thought...

She had a strong sense of moral judgment and this sudden thought shocked her. Since when did she begin to worry about Lin Yi’s interests?

Chapter 750: Here Comes Trouble Again

Here Comes Trouble Again

“Huh?” Song Lingshan snapped back and asked, “What’s wrong?”

“I know,” Song Lingshan sighed, “I’m going back to the police station first. Are you staying here?”

“I’ll stay,” Chen Yutian pondered, “If I don’t, that Red Tower tomb raiding group will attempt to assassinate Liu Bojia again. I’ve already contacted the local police force. They will send people to assist me.”

Song Lingshan nodded and went back to the police station first. But on the way back, she received a phone call from Bureau Chief Chen.

However, his phone call made her gloomy. The city’s higher-ups secretly visited the supermarket and investigated the price of vegetables, but their phone and wallet were stolen! The thief was arrogant!

Theoretically speaking, the criminal police team didn’t have to take care of it since the local police stations should have been able to handle it. However, this time it disturbed the leaders of the city and Chief Chen pointed out that the thieves in Songshan city had formed an organization. They performed an organized and disciplined criminal activity, and that was why they needed the criminal police to take over it.

Although Chief Chen didn’t give her a time limit to solve the case, how could she not solve as soon as possible when the leaders of the city were involved?

Song Lingshan felt like she ran out of luck. She didn’t even finish solving this case yet another one arose. When would she get to rest! She was just promoted to the leader of the criminal police sector, and she had never seen so many cases when she was the vice leader!

Not to mention that the thief organization was formed for a long time now. They didn’t give orders to crack down on them earlier or later, but it had to be now! But since Chief Chen called her, what could Song Lingshan do other than follow his command?

However, this organization was strictly disciplined and catching a few random thieves was not enough to make them suffer a serious injury. They might even inadvertently alert the enemy!

Song Lingshan drove gloomily and pondered how she should deal with it.

After a while, Song Lingshan had no lead on how to handle it. The civic police handled the thieves previously and no records were kept at the criminal police department. It was impossible for Song Lingshan to think of a way immediately. She had to wait until she went back and checked the records.

Song Lingshan subconsciously took out her phone but smiled bitterly after realized what she was doing. Since when did she become so reliant on Lin Yi. Would she just call him whenever she was in trouble?

Previously, she only called Lin Yi when there were no other options, but whenever she was in trouble now, the first person Song Lingshan turned to was Lin Yi.

Oh well, let’s try calling him first!

Song Lingshan’s thoughts were simple; asking is better than not asking. It became a habit to bother Lin Yi. Now, she no longer felt pressure as she already owed him many favors.

Not long after Lin Yi left the hospital, Song Lingshan called again.

“What now?” Lin Yi picked up and call and wondered why Song Lingshan called him again so soon.

“Lin Yi, do you know anyone from the thief organization?” Song Lingshan asked in an attempt to get information.

“Thief organization? No.” Lin Yi replied straightforwardly.

Although it was the answer she was expecting, but Song Lingshan was still disappointed.

“You really don’t?” Song Lingshan could give up since she believed Lin Yi was capable of everything. When she pleaded him before, he always solved it.

“I don’t. Why would I?” Lin Yi became impatient, “Do you have some important matter to discuss or not?”

“Yes, yes! Goodman, don’t be mad..” Song Lingshan jumped and her voice became soft, “Can you help Miss Braindead by watching over it? The thief organization...”

“Oh, I’ll tell you when I see them,” Lin Yi immediately hung up feeling amused. Song Lingshan was bothering him whenever she ran into trouble?

Song Lingshan hung up the call angrily. He’ll tell me when he sees it? Isn’t that bullshit? Who would see people from the thief organization? Song Lingshan was on the verge of explosion when her gaze suddenly focused on someone who was standing not far from the street...

A cutely dressed girl was stretching her evil hand into a fat man’s pockets!

Quickly, the girl got what she wanted. She picked out a big wallet and started counting the money with a grin on her face.

Song Lingshan laughed coldly. She didn’t have to put any efforts into it, and she ran right into her! The girl was a recidivist. Song Lingshan bumped into her a few times but never succeeded in catching her. She wanted to see if she could get anything out of the girl this time!

Song Lingshan parked the car on the side and sneaked upon the girl silently...

Yu Xiaoke was extremely happy today. She saw a rich fat man today who got out of his BMW and kicked a little girl to the ground because the little girl was selling flowers and blocked his way. He ignored the weeping little girl and left after parking the car.

Although the others were too afraid to step up, Yu Xiaoke made the fatty her next target!

The fatty had no vigilance and Yu Xiaoke easily succeeded. She opened the wallet and he had a lot of cash on him! She counted and there was at least seven or eight thousand yuan!

Yu Xiaoke didn’t think that she was lucky enough to bump into two fat sheep on two consecutive days. Although a difficult man took her earnings yesterday, overall, she was quite lucky!

However, she didn’t lower her guard. Lin Yi reminded her yesterday that she should never lower her guard. Hence Yu Xiaoke sensed a presence when Song Lingshan sneaked upon her.

Yu Xiaoke casually shoved the cash into her wallet and threw the man's wallet into the bin next to her. The second Song Lingshan approached her, Yu Xiaoke broke into a sprint!

"Yu Xiaoke, stop running!" Song Lingshan was about to explode from fury. She thought she could catch Yu Xiaoke when she lowered her guard, but Yu Xiaoke was too alert! As soon as she stepped nearby, Yu Xiaoke ran away!

"Lingshan sis, see ya!" Yu Xiaoke turned around and grimaced at Song Lingshan, disappearing on the street.

Song Lingshan stopped in her tracks since she couldn't catch up to Yu Xiaoke. She tried to chase after Yu Xiaoke twice before and almost lost her breath.

"Yu Xiaoke, just you wait!" Song Lingshan glared at the direction where Yu Xiaoke disappeared without any temper...

Song Lingshan had learned how skilled Yu Xiaoke was at qinggong. Although she broke through to the final stage of the gold division, it was still impossible to catch Yu Xiaoke!

Chapter 751: Zhong Pinliang's Tragedy

Zhong Pinliang's Tragedy

In the hospital, Zhong Pinliang's health report came out quickly and the results made both father and son feel stupid.

The transplanted kidney in Pinliang's body was already showing signs of rejection and some necrotic scar tissue had built up around it. There was an urgent need for it to be surgically removed immediately.

"The kidney was a bad match?" said Zhong Pinliang in disbelief at the hospital health report.

Zhong Fabai was smoking and pacing back and forth in the patient room. This was certainly the worst outcome! Although there was always a possibility of the body rejecting the transplant, there was an equally likely that the body would accept the transplant. It was all a game of chance. There was always hope for the better, but at this moment, it seemed like all luck was gone.

"Fuck, that bastard An Jianwen, damn it", said Zhong Pinliang as he angrily threw a pillow onto the ground.

"Pinliang, don't be so impulsive. You are now a patient, so try not to be so angry," said Zhong Fabai who was outraged. If An Jianwen did not want to help Pinliang get a kidney, then don't do it. Why did he have to transplant an incompatible kidney into Pinliang?

Obviously, Zhong Fabai refused to believe that An Jianwen didn't know. According to what the doctor had said, if the kidney rejects within two days then was a clear sign of rejection. Didn't the surgeon do pre-surgery match testing?

"Dad, what do I do now? I just got this kidney transplanted and it's a bad match?" Zhong Pinliang was disappointed. "I thought I would become a complete man again, but it seems like..."

“It doesn’t matter now, just listen to the doctor. Just remove this kidney or else the necrotic tissue will cause a bigger impact!” Zhong Fabai made a decision: “As for An Jianwen, we will have other opportunities to get our revenge on him!”

“But I don’t want to be a single kidney person anymore. It’s too painful!” Zhong Pinliang previously had wanted to utilize his golden class kidney to transform into a master. But now, he felt like he was once again at the lowest point!

“You can take your time looking for the kidney!” Zhong Fabai said: “Let’s just follow Master Bing and do big things to earn lots of money. When you are wealthy, you can just buy an even better kidney. But, this bad one must be removed!”

“Well, this is the only way. What other choice do I have?” Zhong Pinliang clenched his fist and declared, “An Jianwen, I swear that I will make you suffer. You have made me suffer three times!”

During the kidney transplant surgery, Pinliang had three surgical cuts.

Once the decision was made, Zhong Fabai quickly notified the hospital for a kidney removal operation on Zhong Pinliang.

As for the police, they weren’t skeptical of the situation. There were always incidents with people of criminal backgrounds trying to trick others. Zhong Pinliang was just one of those many unfortunate cases. He was able to find a kidney to use as a transplant, but it was a bad match. If he didn’t extract it out soon, he might die!

An Jianwen wasn’t faring any better. He had on a bitter face as he laid in the hospital bed. He really wanted to contact Zhong Pinliang, but was unable to do so. His own kidney was within Pinliang. It was still questionable if he could get it back.

So once An Jianwen was allowed to leave the hospital, he would use his own family connections to find a more compatible kidney for himself. How will another person’s kidney ever be better than his own kidney?

An Jianwen didn’t know that Zhong Pinliang would need the kidney removed procedure. If he knew then he would cry out loud. One man’s trash is another man’s treasure.

***

News of Tang Yun’s family buying an apartment quickly traveled throughout the shantytown. Their neighbors in the shantytown, who had a good relationship with their family all dropped by the hospital to ask if Tang Yun’s mother had any other good connections.

After the removal of shantytown residents, no one knew what would happen afterward, so they had a desire to move into the same building.

“What? There was a twenty-five hundred thousand discount? And you had free appliances?” Lan Fen’s mother eyes widen. She couldn’t believe her ears.

“That is right, our Li’ Yi knows the CEO of the real estate company. The manager on duty had to follow the CEO’s wishes. Did you think I would be that lucky to have gotten a hefty discount and still get raffle opportunities?” Although Mrs. Tang didn’t explain it clearly, it was quite obvious with all the hints!

People thought she was oblivious, but she was quite clever. She knew exactly what was going on behind the scenes. She picked out the appliances, but the special prize was definitely a setup. She could tell that the manager had to bend to Fatty Lai's wishes, so that would make Fatty Lai the person in charge!

Fatty Lai treated Lin Yi with respect, like the attitude a follower would have for his boss. Mrs. Tang definitely noticed that aspect. In addition, Fatty Lai insisted on treating them for dinner, even when they were the ones who had reaped the benefits from Fatty Lai. How was that logical?

Mrs. Tang kept her mouth shut until she returned to the hospital room. That was when she started gossiping with her neighborhood friends.

"Mrs. Tang, you really found a good son-in-law!" Lan Fen's mother continued to show her envy.

"Your Lan Fen isn't that bad either!" Mrs. Tang also agreed that Tang Yun had found a good man. Lan Fen was a broken flower, and she was disabled, so being able to find a decent boyfriend was considered very lucky!

Lan Fen's mother thought about it for a while. If she considered all the facts regarding her own daughter, then she realized she couldn't compare her with Tang Yun. So being able to find a man like Kang Xiaobo, was worth eight lives of good luck.

"Kangbo and Lin Yi have a good relationship too. Your household should be able to buy a specially priced apartment too!" Mrs. Tang continued "no matter what, the most important part is the discounted price. Without money, even if you have a sweet deal for the house, it would be useless right?"

"That is right, I wonder when Qibing Real Estates will come to discuss compensation?" Lan Fen's mother shook her head and sighed. "I don't have the luck your household has. You got three million in a blink of an eye!"

"Ah, it was for exchange with by Mr. Tang's leg?" Mrs. Tang expression was cheery, without any hint of sadness as she spoke about the injury! She knew that the injury was just an excuse to get the money. In actuality, it was another issue entirely!

Lin Yi had to help Li Cihua's relative for that money. Otherwise, it would have been impossible to get the money!

"My Lan Fen also has a bad foot, so where's my money?" Lan Fen's mother sighed.

"Then you have to rely on tactics, perhaps get that Kang Zhaoming to pay up some money?" Mrs. Tang suggested.

"That's impossible? Why would he pay compensation money?" Lan Fen's mother shook her head.

They continued talking when it got interrupted by Mrs. Tang's phone ringing.

"Sorry, let me take this call first." Mrs. Tang saw that the phone number was from an unknown caller! Mrs. Tang doesn't get a lot of calls to people other than her own family.

"Hello? You are?" Mrs. Tang answered the call.

"Hello, is this Miss Wang Yujie?" Su Jiaonang tried her best to sound sincere through the call.

"I am, who are you?" Mrs. Tang was stunned, she had no idea who the caller was.

"Hello, Miss Wong. I am from Qibing Real Estates Development Company, I am the demolition team's project manager, Su Jiaonang." Su Jiaonang continued to politely explain.

"Su Jiaonang? Qibing Real Estates Demolition's project manager?" Mrs. Tang repeated the contents again. She was suspicious of this unknown caller "What do you need me for?"

Chapter 752: Compensation From Demolishment

Compensation From Demolishment

Although Mrs. Tang was aware of Lin Yin's capability, she feared those from Qibing Real Estate deeply. Those people were the same as those of mafia. She wouldn't dare to come in contact with such overbearing people without Lin Yi's protection.

"Ah, didn't we demolish your house previously? Your family's compensation has been issued. We wish you to come to the headquarter of Qibing Real Estate, Qibing Skyscrapers tomorrow morning at eight. We will discuss the amount of compensation together," Su Jiaonang said.

"Huh? We will have compensation?" Mrs. Tang was surprised. She thought the three million Lin Yi got for them included the house's compensation. Why were they compensating her again?

"Of course. We demolished your house and naturally, we will make up for it!" Su Jiaonang replied, "The amount we have in mind, for now, is two million, but we need to discuss the details with you tomorrow. If you think it's not enough, you can suggest that tomorrow."

"Ok, ok, eight o'clock, was it? I'll go!" Mrs. Tang was shocked. Would she have another two million?

"Ok. After you arrive, take the lift from the underground parking lot. Go to level two and you will see the demolition project group," Su Jiaonang hinted Mrs. Tang to ask Lin Yi to drive her there.

"Yes, I have it recorded down! No problem, I'll see you tomorrow!" Mrs. Tang quickly noted everything down.

Everyone looked at her in confusion after she hung up the call.

"Wang, what's wrong? What about compensation?" Fen's mother asked curiously.

"Wasn't my house taken down? A person called Su Jiaonang, who's part of the demolition project group from Qibing Real Estate, called me and told me to claim my compensation tomorrow at the headquarters! Two million!" Mrs. Tang was shocked by the number.

Mrs. Tang thought that her small and worn out house worth at most ten to twenty thousand. Why would they give her two million?

The first thought flashed through her mind was Lin Yi. Wasn't Li Cihua and Master Bing in charge of Qibing Real Estate? Perhaps Li Cihua became worried that Lin Yi would look for trouble again after he came back and was trying to please Lin Yi?

After a moment of thought, it was the only possibility.

“Two million!” Fen’s mother froze at the number. All the other neighbors widened their eyes in shock without knowing what to say.

“Your house worth two million” Liu Xinwen’s mother exclaimed after a while.

“Humph, they are only paying two million because they are afraid of Lin Yi! Otherwise, my house won’t even worth twenty thousand, not to mention two million!” Although Mrs. Tang pretended to be calm, her heart was filled with joy.

“That’s what I thought. Two million? Two million is enough for us to buy a mansion!” Fen’s mother shook her head, “We are more than happy to have ten or eighty thousands!”

“Don’t say that. We can always discuss it with them!” Mrs. Tang smiled.

Fen and Liu Xinwen’s mother both sighed. Discuss? We don’t have an almighty person like Lin Yi in our families. How can we discuss it with them? Will they discuss with us?

When they thought about the gap between Mrs. Tang and their families, they became less excited and left after a while, talking about how they will discuss the amount of compensation will the developers tomorrow.

Previously, they thought that Tang Yun’s family was the most unfortunate family since they tried to rebel and got punished. Now, her family was in the best position!

After Mrs. Tang’s neighbors left, she passed the good news onto Tang Yun.

“Yun, Qibing Real Estate just gave me a call and said they’ll compensate us two million!” Mrs. Tang wasn’t as excited about two million after seeing the three million she received before.

“Two million? Really?” Tang Yun didn’t believe it, “Didn’t they just compensate us three million? Why are they giving us another two million?”

“I don’t know. Perhaps they are afraid of Lin Yi? They want to pay us to please Lin Yi so Lin Yi won’t look for trouble again?” Mrs. Tang guessed, “That Li Cihua from yesterday, wasn’t he scared of Lin Yi?”

“Please him? I don’t think there’s a need to please Lin Yi,” Tang Yun became suspicious of her mother’s words, “Although they are scared of Lin Yi, there is no reason to give us that much since Lin Yi hasn’t said anything yet. Doesn’t it seem unreasonable to you?”

“How? How is that illogical? Isn’t good that they are giving us money?” Mrs. Tang thought that Tang Yun was been too careful.

“No, not that, but why would they? Mum, I think there’s something wrong...” Tang Yun felt like something was odd. Why would Li Cihua send money to them? He was unwilling to give after Lin Yi asked for you, why did he give money to them willingly now?

“You... Wouldn’t we know whether something is wrong or not tomorrow?” Mrs. Tang replied carelessly, “They told us to go to the second floor of Qibing Skyscraper at eight tomorrow morning to claim the compensation. Ask Lin Yi if he’s free or not and see if he can go with us?”

“Oh...” Tang Yun planned to ask Lin Yi what Li Cihua was up to. He gave them three million last time and another two million this time.

Lin Yi received Tang Yun’s call when he was almost at school. After he heard Tang Yun’s narration, Lin Yi was bewildered, “Is the skyscraper complete already?”

Tang Yun thought that Lin Yi would find the compensation issue strange, but she didn’t expect him to focus on the completion of the building. It amused her, “What, you want to demolish it again?”

“Ah, I will if he offends me again,” Lin Yi laughed, “His skyscraper was demolished and he’s still giving your family money? Is he stupid?”

“That’s what I thought. Do you think there’s something wrong with it?” Tang Yun was worried about this problem.

“Hm... Isn’t it stupid not to take free money?” Lin Yi didn’t think there was anything wrong, “Since they are giving money, I’ll go with you tomorrow.”

“But...” Tang Yun still thought it was unreasonable.

“Even if there’s a problem, so what? I’m here. Why would you be afraid?” Lin Yi thought through it. Even if Li Cihua and Zhao Qibing wanted to do something, they wouldn’t be able to achieve it since he had fully recovered. They couldn’t possibly kill him...

“Ok...” Tang Yun nodded in agreement after hearing his words. He was right; there was no need for her to worry with Lin Yi next to her.

With this, Tang Yun stopped worrying.

Chapter 753: Guest from House Yu

Guest from House Yu

After hanging up Lin Yi’s call, Tang Yun replied to her mother, telling her that Lin Yi will go to Qibing Skyscraper to claim their compensation with them.

Mrs. Tang felt more secure with Lin Yi’s accompaniment. Li Cihua was so afraid of Lin Yi that perhaps she could ask for more money tomorrow! Judging from Su Jiaonang’s tone of voice, it sounded as if the number could go up further?

Lin Yi didn’t take it to heart and returned to the school, feeling assured at the sight of Miss and Chen Yushu in the classroom.

Lin Yi thought that many things happened recently, and it was better to be more careful.

Lin Yi’s instinct wasn’t wrong. At this moment, an unwelcoming guest appeared in Fatty’s Lai’s office at Miracle Doctor Guan Medical Company.

Although Miracle Doctor Guan's products weren't available in the market, the entire company just began to take shape as it was completely modified from their previous trading company with a few new departments. To an experienced person like Fatty Lai, it was extremely easy.

After Fatty Lai accompanied Lin Yi and Tang Yun's family to purchase a property, he returned to his medical company.

He planned to seize the previous victory from the poisoning event and put the first product, 'Miracle Doctor Guan Injury Medicine', into the market.

Fatty Lai prepared a marketing strategy and wanted to hold a meeting with all the high-level managers of the company, but his secretary called him as soon as he returned.

"CEO Lai, a client wishes to see you. He's from Yanjing and said he wanted to discuss a collaboration with us..." The secretary said, "You see..."

"I'm back, where is he?" Fatty Lai was bewildered. His product wasn't in the market yet and someone's here to discuss collaboration?

However, the name of the company was widely spread, known for the past few days, shone brightly during the auction in Yanjing. If the client was from Yanjing then it made sense!

"He's in the client room next to chief manager's office," The secretary lowered his voice, "CEO Lai, this client looks a bit too young?"

"Ha, age isn't an indicator of one's capability. I'll decide when I meet him," Fatty Lai secretly thought, isn't Lin Yi young too? But he was far more capable than others!

Fatty Lai entered the company, and all the staff greeted him. Although the company was called Miracle Doctor Guan, they were aware that Fatty Lai held all the management power. Therefore, respect and fear him.

Fatty Lai took the lift and headed straight to the client's room. It was the first collaborator and he valued it exceptionally.

The secretary saw Fatty Lai come in and quickly stood up to greet him, "CEO Lai, you are here. This is Mr. Yu, a client from Yanjing..."

Mr. Yu? Fatty Lai's glance became sharp. His surname is Yu? Is he from Yanjing's House Yu? House Yu is seeking collaboration with him?

Fatty Lai nodded and replied to the secretary indifferently, "I know. Go do your things!"

"Yes, Mr. Lai," The secretary poured two cups of tea and placed them in front of Fatty Lai and Mr. Yu before leaving the room.

"CEO Lai?" The young man with the surname Yu seemed arrogant. He didn't stand up but merely glanced at Lai Changyi, "I'll introduce myself. My name is Yu Kun, this is my business card."

As he spoke, Yu Kun took out a business card and passed it to Fatty Lai.

Fatty Lai didn't take Yu Kun's arrogance to heart. He was a businessman and he was capable of observing and controlling emotions. He grinned as he took the business card, glancing at the words written on it: Yu's Trade and Commerce, Chief Manager Assistant, Yu Kun.

Yu's Trade and Commerce? Fatty Lai no longer questioned his identity. He indeed came from House Yu, and his arrogance could be explained!

People from House Yu was at the top of the pyramid, and their people all had a sense of superiority.

"Assistant Yu Kun, it's a pleasure to meet you!" Fatty Lai smiled as he stood up and shook Yu Kun's hand. However, he laughed coldly in his heart. There's no need to feel superior in front of me. There is no certainty that you will be as prosperous in the future. One day, you will be holding my shoes for me! When that time comes, you'll need agreement from me. You will be my underling!

No matter how almighty House Yu is, your people aren't immortal monsters! As long as you are sick and nobody else can heal it, you will be begging me in the future!

Yu Kun didn't get up and stayed sitting as he stretched his hand to shake Fatty Lai's, "There's no need to be courteous. Let's get right into it."

"Please go on, Mr. Yu," Fatty Lai nodded and settled down opposite Yu Kun, pretending to be attentive.

"Miracle Doctor Guan Medical Company's Pill of Life Extension and Toxin Cleansing and the deluxe version of the Injury Medicine shone during our House Yu's auction. I heard that your new product will be on the market soon? It's called Miracle Doctor Guan Injury Medicine?" Yu Kun spoke indifferently.

"That's right, it's in the final stage, and it will be available in the market soon," Fatty Lai didn't hide it since he had announced all of these things during the news conference.

"Hm. Although your Pill of Life Extension and Toxin Cleansing and the deluxe version of the Injury Medicine received positive feedback, we don't know if your Injury Medicine will have a bright future or not, correct?" Yu Kun looked down to Fatty Lai

"Haha, of course. We will never know how a product will sell before it's available," Fatty Lai's face was filled with smiles but, in reality, he was unsatisfied with Yu Kun's attitude. Who the hell are you? How dare you question the future of medicine my boss created? You idiot! I would've kicked you out of the room if you weren't from House Yu!

"Mr. Lai, you are a smart person. This time, I came on behalf of House Yu to give your company a benefit," Yu Kun glanced at Fatty Lai, "But before that, you must answer my questions honestly."

"Oh? What is it?" Fatty Lai despised Yu Kun even more. Was he brainless? He's here to give him a benefit? What could he possibly give Fatty Lai with such an attitude? Why did House Yu send an idiot as their representative?

In fact, there was no problem with sending Yu Kun over since he was one of the most outstanding children of the third generation. He was at the final stage of the gold division, and he was definitely a skilled man in the young generation!

Chapter 754: For the Remains of the Maps

For the Remains of the Maps

Not to mention that if it wasn't Fatty Lai facing Yu Kun, but other families who were impatient to climb up into the bigger houses such as House Kang, they would shed tears of gratitude no matter how bad Yu Kun's attitude was.

It was House Yu's prestige and people of House Yu's pride. From House Yu's perspective, there was nothing wrong with Yu Kun's attitude. A collaboration from House Yu was a charity, a blessing!

However, they sought the wrong target this time. In Fatty Lai's heart, Lin Yi was the almighty boss, and House Yu was nothing but a piece of garbage in front of Lin Yi. If House Yu was so great, why did you want to purchase my Pill of Life Extension and Toxin Cleansing from us?

"The question is simple. You once bought ripped remains of a map during House Yu's auction, may I know why you need it?" Yu Kun asked straightforwardly.

He didn't think that Fatty Lai would hide anything from him in front of House Yu's prestige. Those who attended their auction obviously knew the background. Who dared to rebel against House Yu?

"Remains of a map? What?" Fatty Lai was bewildered. When did he do that?

Fatty Lai's expressions confused Yu Kun. He practiced martial arts and he was skilled in observing people's expressions. From Fatty Lai's surprised expressions, it seemed like he didn't know much about it.

However, Fatty Lai suddenly recalled that he indeed bought a part of a map for Lin Yi. Did House Yu come for this? The collaboration and benefit were all excuses?

Fatty Lai thought that it was most likely their goal! Obviously, Yu Kun came with a goal and it was the map! What secrets did the remains of the map hide?

"Mr. Lai, an eminent person has a short memory, isn't it?" Yu Kun sneered at Fatty Lai, "You bought it during the auction, and you can't even remember that?"

"I just remembered," Fatty Lai knew that he couldn't keep it a secret to him and confessed, "But I only bought it out of curiosity. You suddenly asked and I totally forgot about it! Indeed, it was a ripped map made out of sheepskin."

"Since you remembered, that's great. Can you tell me your intention of buying it? Or perhaps, do you know other parts similar to this?" Yu Kun was eighty percent certain that Fatty Lai didn't know the usage of the map. Otherwise, he wouldn't be surprised at his question!

"I was just curious, nothing big. As for similar maps, no, I have not seen any," Fatty Lai shook his head.

"Really?" Yu Kun obviously didn't believe Fatty Lai's words. Although Fatty Lai didn't know the secret behind it, why would he buy it if he had never seen any other parts before?

"Naturally," Fatty Lai smiled.

“Alright. If that’s the case, give me the map and I will still give you a benefit,” Yu Kun decided to change his strategy and make Fatty Lai give him the map. If the map was indeed useful to him, he definitely won’t give it away. But if it was useless to him, Fatty Lai wouldn’t keep it.

“Oh, you will give me a benefit? So will Mr. Yu tell me about the benefit first?” Fatty Lai didn’t answer Yu Kun straightaway but asked.

“There’s no harm in telling you. If you give us the map, House Yu’s Trade and Commerce will take the role of Miracle Doctor Guan Medical Company’s national dealership for all your future products.” Yu Kun replied indifferently, “You just have to sit here and wait to count money.”

“Ha?” Fatty Lai stared at Yu Kun in disbelief. This is beneficial for him? Aren’t you a greedy person? Asking for the national dealership of my company? Are you stupid or am I stupid?

The future sales of Miracle Doctor Guan Medical Company’s products could be easily predicted. Fatty Lai was well aware of Lin Yi’s capability and knew how effective the products were! In other words, agents of the company would earn a fortune! Fatty Lai didn’t plan to give this power away. He had a trading company and combined it with the medical company, becoming the sales department. He had an independent sales channel. Why did he have to give profits to others?

Indeed, if it was an unknown small business, they wouldn’t have to worry about their sales if House Yu acted as their agency. House Yu had vast connections, and all of the wealthy gentlemen around the country will give them respect!

So if this were the usual situation, the company would save a lot of efforts if House Yu took over a new product. They wouldn’t only avoid fees for the sales channels and ads, but they wouldn’t even need to worry about sales! Someone from House Yu would naturally take care of all of it!

However, to Fatty Lai, it was nothing but a lion opening its mouth for a bite. How was this a benefit? It was obvious that they wanted to seize profit from Fatty Lai!

“What do you think. Isn’t the benefit great?” Yu Kun saw Fatty Lai’s shock, and he was pleased with himself since he thought his generosity shocked Fatty Lai.

“Haha, if that’s you want, then I won’t be able to make the decision. In our company, we have a marketing department and sales channel ourselves,” Fatty Lai smiled apologetically, “However, if House Yu’s Trade and Commerce would like to order a batch of products, I will give you a generous discount.”

“What do you mean?” Yu Kun’s face immediately dropped since he didn’t expect Fatty Lai to decline the offer!

House Yu took the initiative to be your agent and you refused it? Yu Kun felt like he had lost all his dignity! Not only his but House Yu’s, as well! This was something that others would beg them for, yet Fatty Lai thought that it was unnecessary!

Didn’t he know the connections that House Yu had? They only have a product which hasn’t even been introduced into the market, yet he fantasies of having his own sales channel? The market was reigned by Miracle Doctor Kang’s Golden Creation. How dare you dream of a new brand?

Indeed, you built some prestige amongst those of the upper class in the society, but aren't you daydreaming about the public approval that your brand will have without House Yu's help?

"Haha, Mr. Yu, this company doesn't belong to me alone. I am merely a manager, and I am only authorized to discuss the supply of the products in the market. As for the agency, I do not have the power to decide since the main point of our company was to be our own agent," Fatty Lai shrugged.

"Well, very well. I hope that you won't regret your decision made today!" Yu Kun glared at Fatty Lai loathly and thought, how is this man so ignorant?

Chapter 755: This Counts As A Benefit?

This Counts As A Benefit?

House Yu valued Miracle Doctor Guan Medical Company's products since they knew its effects. The deluxe version of Injury Medicine was easy to use! House Yu smelt a business opportunity and wanted to take over their agency before the company became famous. They won't have to worry about it in the future if it will bring them a great fortune!

From House Yu's perspective, it is a small company despite the good products. They thought that the company must be anxious to launch their new product: If they were working with such a prestigious clan, they would be delighted! They might even give them extra portions of the profits earned!

Yu Kun was so arrogant because of these thoughts. However, Fatty Lai rejected him. and he lost all his dignity! His initial arrogance seemed like a joke!

Fatty Lai never intended to give the authority, and he overthought too much!

"It isn't a decision I can make myself. I said that I'm only a manager," Fatty Lai smiled, "Mr. Yu, what other benefits can you possibly give us other than this?"

Fatty Lai's words sounded like a taunt in Yu Kun's ears. His face flushed with embarrassment and looked at Fatty Lai with hatred, "The remains of the map. Give me a price."

"Sorry, I don't need money. I gave it away to someone else anyway," Fatty Lai shook his head.

"You gave it to someone else? You did?" Yu Kun's good attitude disappeared. He could no longer control his emotions. He was one of the most outstanding students in the third generation of House Yu and he was worshipped whenever he went. He couldn't believe that he didn't get what he wanted here and felt humiliated after losing his patience.

"I bought it with my money. I can't give it to others?" Fatty Lai shrugged.

"Well, very well! Just wait and see!" Yu Kun stood up abruptly and paced out of the client room, "I'll show you the price of offending House Yu!"

"Offending House Yu?" Fatty Lai laughed coldly at the direction Yu Kun left. This is a student of House Yu? What the hell! He spoke kindly and modestly. How had he offended them by declining Yu Kun's overbearing demand?

If House Yu continued like this, they wouldn't survive the third generation.

Perhaps Fatty Lai was scared of House Yu before, and he was afraid that House Yu would stand in the way of his company, but now he followed Lin Yi. Lin Yi felt almighty. If he compared House Yu to Lin Yi, House Yu was nothing!

After Yu Kun left, Fatty Lai immediately called Lin Yi!

"Boss, can you talk right now?" Fatty Lai asked.

"Yes," Lin Yi just arrived at his school, and there was no class today, so no one noticed him picking up a call in the classroom.

"House Yu sent someone over just now," Fatty Lai informed, "A young man called Yu Kun, he's probably just over twenty years old."

"House Yu? Yu Kun? What did they come for?" Lin Yi took a deep breath when he heard the name.

"They wanted to know about the remains of a map that you got at House Yu's auction last time!" Fatty Lai replied, "They asked me if I knew what it was for and whether I've seen anything similar to it..."

"Oh? Don't tell me they intentionally made it an auctioned object?" Lin Yi suddenly remembered the young man who tailed him! That young man wasn't weak and he thought that the man was from House Kang. But when he thought of it again, how did House Kang have such skilled young man? Other than the noble houses, who was capable of commanding a master of gold division around?

Was he from House Yu? Did he follow him for the map as well?

"It is possible," Fatty Lai nodded, "Otherwise he wouldn't want to buy it back from me. If they wanted it, they could've bought it during the auction without going around."

"Ha..." Lin Yi smiled slightly. So the remains of that map were really some treasure, huh? Lin Yi stored it in the drawer without studying it, since he didn't know what it was used for.

Perhaps they knew the secret behind it?

"And what was funny was that this Yu Kun kept mentioning benefits. The so-called benefit was to take the agency authority. It's ridiculous, how is that a benefit to us? Isn't he the one who wants to get money from us?" Fatty Lai scorned.

"If we were just another small company, it could probably be thought of as a benefit," Lin Yi smiled and warned him, "House Yu has many skilled men. Watch out for your own safety. Don't fight them face to face."

"I know. I was neither servile nor overbearing. It was Yu Kun who was too arrogant," Fatty Lai shook his head.

"He left like that? Did he say anything else?" Lin Yi didn't believe that House Yu would stop so easily. If they really targeted the remains of the map, they would most likely act again.

"He told me to wait and see. He'll make me know the price I have to pay for offending them..." Fatty Lai said.

“Ok,” Lin Yi’s lips curved upwards. House Yu, huh? No matter you are a hidden noble house or an enormous monster, you better not provoke me or you won’t end well!

Lin Yi hung up without letting it get to him. Since House Yu wouldn’t stop here, he just had to wait for them to find him. He checked the text message on his phone which appeared before the call.

“Daddy is treating you to dinner tonight!”

The message was from Miss. Chu Pengzhan was treating him? Lin Yi wondered why and figured out it was most likely because he saved Chu Mengyao yesterday.

Since Chu Pengzhan invited him, he wouldn’t decline the offer. He texted her back, “Understood.”

Miss checked the message and never replied again.

Lin Yi felt like her attitude towards him changed after yesterday. She always looked for trouble since she disliked him, but their relationship seemed to ease a little... But, she was still keeping her distance?

The attitude she had towards him was like that of a stranger, unwilling to let him in.

Lin Yi didn’t know what his Miss was thinking and in fact, even Chu Mengyao didn’t know what she wanted her self. How will she face Lin Yi in the future? Could she let go of the fact that Lin Yi had seen her body? Chu Mengyao suffered from insomnia as she thought of her relationship with Lin Yi for the whole night.

Chapter 756: Miss’ Insomnia

Miss’ Insomnia

Lin Yi was undoubtedly the newest addition to the mansion which brought confusion to Chu Mengyao. However, after she fully accepted his existence, she became unwilling to let him leave.

Lin Yi took care of her in every single way possible. He took better care of her than her Dad and Uncle Fu! She lacked maternal love and finally found her own happiness, and she even dreamed of Lin Yi staying here forever to take care of her and Shu.

However, Chu Mengyao knew that it was impossible since Tang Yun in between them. It was also why she held hostility towards Tang Yun! She didn’t think it was because she liked Lin Yi but because Tang Yun took away the happiness which belonged to her!

If Lin Yi was gone, who would take care of her? Chu Mengyao didn’t want Lin Yi to go!

It wasn’t until yesterday when Lin Yi saw her naked body, that made her think differently. If Lin Yi was her boyfriend, would he continue to stay then? Even Chu Mengyao herself jumped at this thought.

Did she like Lin Yi? Really? But that’s impossible. It must be Shu messing around all day talking about wife and concubine, making her losing herself!

However, Chu Mengyao wanted Lin Yi to stay yet, and she didn’t know how to do that.

Who could she talk with for this topic? Chen Yushu? That girl's mouth wasn't sealed enough, and she was too imaginative. She was afraid that before she could express her thoughts clearly, Chen Yushu would think that she wanted to pursue Lin Yi. So, she was too afraid to tell Chen Yushu about it!

Her father just called telling to her to have dinner together and to appreciate Lin Yi, she texted Lin Yi while still on her phone.

Seeing that Lin Yi agreed, Chu Mengyao calmed down a little.

"Yaoyao sis, what's wrong? Why do you look so distracted?" Chen Yushu observed Chu Mengyao for quite a while now.

"Distracted? No? Perhaps because I didn't sleep well last night..." Chu Mengyao shook her head.

"Oh, why didn't you sleep well?" Chen Yushu asked.

"Because I just recovered from severe sickness," Naturally Chu Mengyao wouldn't reveal her real thoughts.

"Oh, I thought you were thinking about Shield Bro," Chen Yushu studied Chu Mengyao closely and replied.

"Why would I think about him? Do you think I'm you?" Chu Mengyao frowned and turned to the side, unwilling to look at Chen Yushu.

"Yaoyao sis, I think you are acting strange," Chen Yushu commented earnestly.

"How am I acting strange now?" Chu Mengyao found Chen Yushu annoying.

"Not sure, I'll tell you after I observe you more," Chen Yushu pondered and replied.

"..." Chu Mengyao didn't know what to say, "Then keep observing, I will keep reading."

As she finished talking, Chu Mengyao picked up a revision booklet and started reading it. Chen Yushu stared at Chu Mengyao for a while but discovered nothing. After a while, she turned to her book as well.

After school was finished at night, Lin Yi drove Tang Yun back to the hospital before driving to Pengzhan Business Hotel. It was only natural that Chu Pengzhan picked this place to treat him dinner.

Pengzhan Business Hotel seemed exceptionally busy today. All the outdoor parking was full and Lin Yi had no choice but to drive into the underground parking lot. Only customers with membership allowed to park their vehicles here.

When a manager of the parking lot saw Lin Yi with a worn out van but a diamond card, he was shocked.

Was this an odd hobby of wealthy people?

Lin Yi ignored the man's expression. In fact, he didn't intentionally drive the van here and then show off his card. This was his car. Lin Yi didn't bother to change and whenever this car broke down or got lost, he planned to buy a new one.

He took the lift from the parking lot to the VIP room upstairs. It was the same room as last time and Lin Yi knocked on the door.

Soon, Uncle Fu opened and greeted Lin Yi, "Mr. Lin, you are here."

Uncle Fu's attitude towards Lin Yi shifted from ordinary respect to heartfelt respect as he approved Lin Yi's capability. Lin Yi unexpectedly tied with Uncle Liang, but he seemed perfectly fine while Uncle Liang was still laying in bed!

All capable people earned respect. Uncle Fu was a skilled master at the gold division specializing in the physical style. He naturally respected Lin Yi, a master at the mystic division specializing in the spiritual style. It had nothing to do with Chu Pengzhan since he respected him personally.

"Uncle Fu, I'm late. Sorry to make everyone wait," Lin Yi smiled as he walked into the room.

"Look, Shield Bro is here. Can I eat now?" Chen Yushu obviously couldn't wait as her eyes were glued to the dishes on the table.

"Shu!" Chu Mengyao glared at her, "Don't be rude! Why do you look like you are starving? Be careful or you won't be able to find a husband in the future!"

"Oh, if you can, then I can too," Chen Yushu replied carelessly.

"..." Chu Mengyao was speechless.

"Lil' Yi, come and sit!" Chu Pengzhan stood up and talked towards Lin Yi.

Chu Pengzhan was convinced of Lin Yi's capabilities. His daughter was saved so quickly, and he solved the school's disaster perfectly.

"Uncle Chu, don't be so polite with me!" Lin Yi quickly gestured 'please', "Uncle Chu, please sit."

Chu Pengzhan was Lin Yi's senior and Lin Yi definitely wouldn't lose manners in front of him.

Chu Mengyao saw that her Daddy stood up and she didn't have the face to stay seated. She grabbed Shu's hands and stood up with her, "Lin Yi, thank you for yesterday."

"Yaoyao sis, there is no need to be so polite. We are a family after all. You are Shield Bro's wife, and naturally, he has to save you. Otherwise, he will lose his wife!" Chen Yushu stuffed a cream bun into her mouth and muttered.

"Shu, that's nonsense!" Chu Mengyao fumed, "How can you talk with a bun inside your mouth? Here, have another one!"

Chu Mengyao picked up another cream bun and forcefully shoved it into Chen Yushu's mouth.

"Waaah... Wah..." Chen Yushu could no longer talker and rolled her eyes.

Chu Pengzhan was amused by his daughter and Shu and laughed.

Lin Yi was used to it and shrugged, "Don't make her full to the point of bursting."

Chu Mengyao heard Lin Yi's words and immediately blushed. She recalled what happened last time and felt apologetic towards Shu. Hence, she pulled out the bun from Shu's mouth and put in a plate on the side.

Chu Pengzhan laughed as he guided Lin Yi to his seat. Lin Yi sat on Chu Mengyao's left and Chen Yushu sat on Chu Mengyao's right.

As for Uncle Fu and Chu Pengzhan, they settled down opposite the three of them.

Chapter 757: We Are Friends

We Are Friends

"Lil' Yi, today's dinner is to express my appreciation. Thank you for saving my daughter and for saving my company and my school's reputation!" Chu Pengzhan raised the glass in front of him, "This is a family dinner, so we won't drink. I heard that you drove here today, so let's drink juice instead."

"Ok," Lin Yi nodded. He filled his glass with juice and raised it too. Chu Pengzhan often had social niceties and he had to drink in those conventions. Although Pengzhan Industry was well developed, there were rules for discussing business. No matter how big or small the business was, they had to celebrate it afterward and drinking was inevitable.

Hence, there was no need to drink at a family dinner.

"It's my duty to save Yaoyao. After all, we are friends. How could I watch her die?" Lin Yi smiled, "As for others, I merely saved them at my convenience. I am also responsible for maintaining your company's reputation."

Chu Mengyao was shocked. Lin Yi treated her as a friend, not an employer?

In an instant, Chu Mengyao became delighted. It looked like when she accepted Lin Yi, Lin Yi also treated her as a friend. Then, would she have to retain her temper and interact with Lin Yi like a friend?

Would that be awkward? Chu Mengyao's face burned at the thought of what happened in the hospital yesterday. If she covered herself as his employer, she could still face him, but how will she face Lin Yi without it?

"If that's the case, I'll speak no further," Chu Pengzhan smiled, "You are right. Privately, you and Yaoyao are friends. Publicly, you are one of the company's shareholders. How could you just watch?"

Lin Yi is one of the shareholders in Daddy's company? Chu Mengyao widened her eyes in disbelief. Did daddy give shares to Lin Yi? Really?

Although Chu Mengyao didn't value money that much, she didn't think that her Daddy could give shares to an outsider so easily. Perhaps there was really an agreement between Daddy and Lin Yi?

Otherwise, why would Daddy give shares to Lin Yi? Wouldn't he hold the authority to decision making? As soon as Lin Yi's shares are transferred to others, wouldn't her father's position be in danger?

Despite all this, Chu Mengyao didn't think that Lin Yi was an ungrateful person.

Chu Pengzhan saw his daughter's confused glance and smiled at Lin Yi, "Yaoyao doesn't know that you are a shareholder? You didn't tell her?"

“I never treated myself as a shareholder, and if you didn’t mention it, I would probably forget about it...”
Lin Yi smiled bitterly.

Lin Yi’s words shocked Chu Pengzhan. Lin Yi was probably the only person to think in this way. If someone else held such a large portion of shares, they would be thinking of where to travel to and how to spend money. Who would take the 30,000 yuan salary and continue to follow Miss?

Chu Mengyao was also surprised. Lin Yi doesn’t care about it? Well, Lin Yi didn’t seem to care about the previous three million either. So he wasn’t someone who valued money?

“Yaoyao, Lil’ Yi is now the second biggest shareholder in Pengzhan Industry,” Chu Pengzhan informed his daughter.

“The second biggest?” Chu Mengyao was even more confused. It was correct that her father was the biggest shareholder in the company, but even if he split his shares into two equal portions, there wasn’t enough to be the third biggest shareholder in the company!

Her father wouldn’t possibly give the majority of his shares to Lin Yi and leave only a small portion to himself, would he?

“Yes, Xie Guangbo transferred his shares to Lil’ Yi,” Chu Pengzhan said.

It finally made sense to Chu Mengyao. So, another shareholder gave his shares to Lin Yi? Although she didn’t know the details, Lin Yi now valued over ten million, and that was an unarguable fact. With that, why would he stay in the mansion?

At this moment, Chu Mengyao was glad. Did he treat her as a friend? Is that why he stayed in the mansion?

In fact, Chu Mengyao didn’t know that Lin Yi’s mission had nothing much to do with money. Lin Yi only took on this mission because his Old Man agreed to let him retire after this one!

Lin Yi was tired of the homeless and miserable life and wanted to settle down.

“Alright, let’s not talk about it. Lil’ Yi, hurry up and eat. You must be hungry. There are no rules for a family dinner. Just make yourselves full,” Chu Pengzhan spoke as he picked up a piece of meat and chewed.

Lin Yi was hungry and when he was about to eat, he suddenly realized that there was a cream bun in his plate with a row of teeth marks and some saliva?

This... This was the bun Chen Yushu bit a while ago? Miss took it out and chucked it in his plate?

Lin Yi naturally didn’t think it was dirty. He performed CPR on her, and this was nothing. Not to mention that Lin Yi thought Chen Yushu was cute and adored her. Hence, Lin Yi picked up the bun and ate it without hesitation.

“That bun...” Chu Mengyao watched Lin Yi from the corners of her eye and warned him when he suddenly put the bun Chen Yushu bit before in his mouth.

Chu Mengyao saw that Lin Yi already ate it and there was nothing she could do. Lin Yi ate Shu's saliva? She shook her head. Does that count as an indirect kiss? Indirect? Didn't they kiss directly already?

Lin Yi gave Shu CPR, was that not a kiss?

Shu didn't really care... Huh? Chu Mengyao suddenly realized something. Shu's attitude seemed different to other boys?

Ever since she was a child, Shu did nothing but to trick and prank other boys. Only the boys who liked Chen Yushu understood how miserable life was. They were either constantly pranked by her, or they were either getting beaten to death by Chen Yutian.

However, Shu never pranked Lin Yi before? Chu Mengyao thought and realized that it was quite possible! Shu obviously treated Lin Yi differently to other boys. Although she never thought too much about it, she realized the problems after thinking through it thoroughly...

However, Chu Mengyao was unsure. Perhaps it was because Chen Yushu thought that she wouldn't succeed in pranking Lin Yi and felt happy to have a pranking partner. That's why she acted differently. Or... Perhaps, there are other reasons behind it?

Chapter 758: Blood-Curdling Screech From The Mansion

Blood-Curdling Screech From The Mansion

Chu Mengyao was extremely distracted during dinner, and she didn't even hear her father calling her.

"Huh?" Chu Mengyao stared blankly at him, "Daddy, did you just call me?"

"Yaoyao, what are you thinking? I wanted you to give Lin Yi a toast. If it wasn't for him yesterday, I don't know if I could still see you today..." Chu Pengzhan grinned.

"Ah... Ok..." Chu Mengyao raised her glass unconsciously and realized that the glass was empty.

Chen Yushu quickly filled it for her before she raised the glass again. She glanced at Lin Yi and felt shy upon recalling what happened yesterday. She lowered her eyes and said, "Thank you."

"You thanked me a few times already," Lin Yi was stunned as he rarely saw her shy side. But she seemed prettier that way? Perhaps if she wasn't his employer, he might even pursue her?

"Mhm..." Chu Mengyao replied softly and drank all the juice inside her glass, "I finished it."

Lin Yi also finished it all. It looked like she wasn't used to social niceties. Chu Pengzhan rarely brought her along to banquets of noble houses. It was probably why she wasn't tainted with unhealthy habits.

Miss was a simple and honest person. Although she seemed cold to strangers, she cared for him after becoming more familiar with him. Although she never verbally expressed it, Lin Yi could feel it.

Chu Pengzhan never intentioned to educate Chu Mengyao into a strong and independent business woman, and it was confusing to Lin Yi. Was he not planning to let her take over the company in the future? Or, perhaps he is adopting the more trendy method overseas, letting Chu Mengyao hold the shares of the company but not letting her participate in the operation of the company.

Of course, it wasn't a problem for Lin Yi to worry about. As for his shares in the company, he never really treated it with care! He didn't even care about the operation of his medical company, why would he care about Pengzhan Industry?

They had dinner harmoniously. It has been a while since Chu Pengzhan ate with Chu Mengyao, Chen Yushu, and Lin Yi together. Especially after his daughter and the company's trouble were solved, he was even more delighted.

After dinner, Chu Pengzhan had to return to the office and got off outside the company. The follow-up effects of the poisoning event hadn't completely died down yet and he had to be at the company in person to help the police and legal department gather evidence.

Like when Lin Yi came, he drove his old van back to the mansion while Uncle Fu drove Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu back in a Bentley. Lin Yi didn't want to bother Uncle Fu since he could drive both of them back, but Miss declined the offer, "Didn't I tell you to drive the SS before?"

Lin Yi smiled bitterly. Perhaps he didn't even have to consider buying a new car after this one anymore.

When these two cars stopped in front of mansion one after another, ferocious barking burst from the inside of the mansion. It was General Weiwu!

Lin Yi became tense subconsciously and touched the jade pendant resting on his chest. The pendant sent a signal, and Lin Yi entered combat mode.

General Weiwu never barked for no reason, especially when it was Chu Mengyao and him outside. If it was a stranger, perhaps it might bark. But right now, they were all people it knew well!

General Weiwu was extremely familiar with Lin Yi, Chu Mengyao, Chen Yushu, and even Uncle Fu.

Hence, something must have happened. General Weiwu's unusual barking must indicate something! Even the jade pendant resting on Lin Yi's chest sent him a signal similar to a warning.

At this time, Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu also got off the car and they were shocked at the barks.

"Don't go in yet, it's dangerous," Lin Yi shook his head at the two.

Uncle Fu also jumped down. Since he was of the gold division, he also sensed that something was not right.

Before Chu Mengyao could ask any questions, a blood-curdling screech came from inside the mansion. It was General Weiwu and it was dead silence after.

"General Weiwu!" Chu Mengyao was shocked and her heart skipped a beat. She opened the door and wanted to dash inside.

General Weiwu grew up together with Chu Mengyao and accompanied her through childhood up until now, creating a deep bond between them. Before Lin Yi came to the mansion, Chu Mengyao's only friend other than Chen Yushu was General Weiwu.

Chu Mengyao was extremely worried at General Weiwu's yelp. The only thought in her mind was to see whether General Weiwu was safe or not!

General Weiwu's screech changed Lin Yi's plan. He planned to infiltrate the mansion to check for danger, but the situation was now clearly different.

Chu Mengyao dashed in and so did Chen Yushu. Although her relationship with General Weiwu wasn't as profound as Chu Mengyao, she cared nonetheless. Not to mention that it saved their lives before!

When they were at Mountain Shuangyan, how could Lin Yi find them so soon if it wasn't for General Weiwu?

As the two sprinted inside, Lin Yi and Uncle Fu didn't fall behind.

Chu Mengyao turned the hall's chandelier on and saw that General Weiwu curled up together on the ground with blood all around its mouth, uncertain whether it was still dead or alive. Not far from General Weiwu, there stood a man in black!

After Yu Kun left Lai Changyi's company, he infiltrated Lai Changyi's mansion by the water. He didn't believe what Lai Changyi said and he must search for the piece of map himself.

However, he got nothing out of Fatty Lai's residence. He was confident in his searching ability. He even found the key to the safe beneath the floor yet there was no sign of the map. Yu Kun was certain that it was not hidden in Lai Changyi's residence.

However, Yu Kun didn't give up. According to his previous research, it told him that another two people attended the auction with Lai Changyi. One was Lin Yi, the other was Guan Xueming!

Lin Yi was the young man he met in front of the chemist. Without knowing why Yu Kun thought that Lin Yi was more problematic than Fatty Lai and Guan Xueming. It was also because of Lin Yi that his plan to follow them in secret failed!

Although Lin Yi was the youngest out of them, Yu Kun thought that he wasn't simple as he attended the auction with the other two. Hence, he began to collect Lin Yi's background information after he arrived at Songshan.

Chapter 759: Uninvited Guest in the Villa

Uninvited Guest in the Villa

Lin Yi was Chu Mengyao's follower? He was staying in Chu Mengyao's villa as Songshan's First School's student?

The result found was beyond Yu Kun's expectations. He thought that Lin Yi might have some close connections with either Guan Xuemin or Lai Changyi, but who guess that he was hired to be Miss Chu Mengyao's bodyguard?!

However, because of this reason, Yu Kun found this whole situation suspicious. Why would a Miss' bodyguard go all the way to Yanjing to attend House Yu's auction? If Chu Pengzhan as a businessman who came to the auction, it would still be reasonable. But Lin Yi? Just who was this guy? Why did he need to attend the auction?

Just what sort of relationship did Lin Yi, Guan Xuemin, and Lai Changyi have? And why would figures like Guan Xuemin and Lai Changyi be on good terms with a Miss' follower? This was totally absurd!

So after leaving Fatty Lai's villa, with all those doubts in his mind, he locked on Lin Yi as his next target! He thought that Lin Yi was more suspicious than Guan Xuemin! If the fragment of the map was not in Fatty Lai's villa, then it must be in Lin Yi's.

Yu Kun's second targeted location was Chu Mengyao's villa. With much luck, there was no one in the villa, only a dog was seen in sight.

However, this dog was smart and not looking for troubles itself. It shrank into a ball, not bothering Yu Kun.

Since the dog was not looking for trouble, Yu Kun was too lazy to be bothered as well. Hence, he started his search.

Fortunately, he started with the room on the first floor and found out that the room belonged to Lin Yi!

He could tell that much due to the laundry in the room. According to his research, Chu Mengyao only had one man in the villa staying with her under the same roof. Other than Lin Yi, there shouldn't be anyone else! He went in and searched for the items.

Lin Yi only casually placed the items Yu Kun needed in the drawer. Yu Kun was rewarded with the remains of the maps and Wannianchun box in the drawer!

This box was bought back from House Kang by Fatty Lai after the auction. Yu Kun didn't know anything about the box, but since it was placed with the remains of the map, he would just steal the box too!

Yu Kun found the items he was looking for without much effort!

Yu Kun couldn't believe that his first mission was this easy. Not only did he obtain the previous fragment, but he also found another piece inside the drawer as well as this mysterious unknown box!

Seeing how Lin Yi just casually placed the fragments of the map inside a drawer, Yu Kun knew that Lin Yi was unaware of the usage of the map and also the box. Otherwise, he'd never just simply put them in a drawer. If he knew, he would least secure them in a more clandestine place!

So he was able to deduce that Lin Yi only bid for the fragment of the map during the auction because of having another piece in his possession. He wanted to combine them together and figure out the use of this map, but just what secret could he discover with only two pieces of fragments?

Yu Kun curled his lips. Was Lin Yi a dumbass? Didn't he know that House Yu was throwing out the map on purpose? In order to lure out snakes from their hole?

House Yu already had three pieces in their possession. The one Lin Yi had bid for was one of it. House Yu wanted to collect more of the remains, so they used this method to pull the strings- attracting the people who had the remains and who knew the secrets of the map to reveal themselves! After knowing who they were, House Yu would go look for them and snatch everything they had away from them!

This method may be despicable, but the people in House Yu were all very skilful. Even if someone were to question them, they didn't have any evidence to point towards House Yu.

At this time, Yu Kun, himself, couldn't believe that things were going so smoothly!

However, when the fragments of the map and Wannianchunmu box were in his hand, the dog in the living room started barking crazily. This gave Yu Kun a good fright!

What was going on with this dog? It was all good and quite just now, but all of a sudden after touching the map and the box, this dog just had to go crazy? Could it be that the dog was barking because of Yu Kun stealing the villa's items?

Yu Kun was annoyed by the dog and didn't give much thought about it. Naturally, he neglected the car's sound from the yard!

In fact, there were always cars passing by the villa, this area was meant for rich people and normally rich people only come back late the night, so Yu Kun didn't expect the owner of this villa to return.

He still thought that the dog went into a frenzy because of him stealing the things in the villa. There was a reason why he was thinking like this. The reason was that things were already going so well. Everything was falling in the right place. Yu Kun stealing the map and the box and Lin Yi and the gang coming back at the same time.

General Weiwu didn't make a sound when Yu Kun stepped into the villa due to fear. Yu Kun was emitting a dangerous aura, and this made General Weiwu scared! It was the same pressure given by Lin Yi when he entered the villa, so General Weiwu was afraid of Yu Kun by nature.

General Weiwu was afraid Yu Kun attacking him so he shrank into a ball and didn't bother him! Of course, General Weiwu knew that Yu Kun's appearance was definitely not a good thing!

However, now that Mengyao'd come back home, General Weiwu didn't want Yu Kun to injure her. That was the reason why he had the courage to bark. It wanted to warn Mengyao that there was danger in the villa and didn't want her to enter!

Chu Mengyao was nice to General Weiwu, and General Weiwu was returning the favor. It was absolutely beautiful, nothing was wrong. However, Yu Kun misunderstood the dog's intention. He thought that the dog was unhappy with him stealing the items!

The irritation was building up in Yu Kun's heart. What a broken dog. I even spared your life when I entered, why can't you just sit still and be a good boy instead of barking? Piece of unworthy shit!

How strong was Yu Kun? Being a late phase golden class master, he sent a kick directly to General Weiwu, greatly damaging the internal organs and sent the dog to the ground, coughing out blood. General Weiwu didn't seem like he could survive the blow.

Meanwhile, Chu Mengyao entered the villa to see a half dead General Weiwu on the ground, and beside it was a man in black. Her heart jumped for a second, learning the reason why General Weiwu was in a sudden uproar!

Chu Mengyao and General Weiwu had been together since young. Mengyao was very familiar with General Weiwu's character. This dog was a coward who bullied the weak and feared the strong. The best example was Lin Yi. General Weiwu became all soft after meeting Lin Yi! Although Chu Mengyao didn't comment about it, she was aware of it and knew it better than anyone.

The good part was that Lin Yi was here to protect her if General Weiwu couldn't stand up against him, it didn't really matter.

However, the man in black invading the villa was obviously no good news. Chu Mengyao believed that if they didn't return home suddenly, General Weiwu would definitely hide well and wouldn't simply anger the intruder. Mengyao couldn't really care much if someone stole anything from her villa.

Chapter 760: Show Mercy!

Show Mercy!

But, General Weiwu barked out loud the moment Mengyao came out from the car. General Weiwu obviously tried to warn her not to enter the villa because there was danger inside!

Chu Mengyao was touched and sad at the same time. General Weiwu had accompanied her for how many years and he was lying on the cold hard ground. It seemed like it wasn't going to make it....

At this moment, Mengyao's heart almost broke. Her tears were flowing down her cheeks. She didn't give the world care anymore as she pounced to the ground, holding General Weiwu in her arms.

"General Weiwu, are you okay? Please don't die..." The feeling of losing a loved one made the Miss lose herself! She felt extremely helpless as she widened her eyes looking at the heavily damaged General Weiwu, yet she couldn't do anything about it.

"Who are you?" Uncle Fu knew how close was the Miss and General Weiwu were. This made him angry as he stared at Yu Kun with cold eyes.

"You are Li Fu, right? I've heard of you before." Yu Kun knew that he was busted but he didn't think of escaping in the slightest! Uncle Fu was right in front of him- a peak late phase golden class master, no less! It wouldn't be easy to escape just like that. Although Uncle Fu's level might be slightly higher than his, their strength was actually similar because Uncle Fu was a physical master, while Yu Kun practiced spiritual style.

If they were to go all out against each other, no one knew who would have the upper hand and so Yu Kun'd never challenge the risk since it would only make both parties in a bad shape. Before he came to this villa, he'd already done his homework, checking the people around Lin Yi. Of course, with House Yu's connection, there was no way House Yu wouldn't know about a master like Uncle Fu!

House Yu had every master in commoners' house recorded in a file. Uncle fu was just one of them.

"Just who are you? Why did you come here? You even attacked Miss Chu's beloved dog?" Seeing how sad Chu Mengyao became, Uncle Fu's mind was filled with thoughts of restraining the man in black.

"Yu Kun from House Yu." Yu Kun wasn't tight in revealing his name because Uncle fu could still get the information from Fatty Lai.

Besides, Uncle Fu didn't seem like he would allow him to leave just like this. He didn't want to fight because he knew they would only end up badly injured if they were to go all out against each other.

"House Yu? Yu Kun?" Uncle Fu startled. The person in front was people from House Yu! Naturally, Uncle Fu knew things about House Yu. His face turned ugly suddenly. House Yu was the head of the great noble houses, Chu Pengzhan couldn't even oppose them, let alone Uncle Fu!

"Li Fu, you're a physical master who has the strength of a peak late phase golden class, right?" Yu Kun eyed Uncle Fu and said solemnly, "I'm a late phase golden class spiritual master, you can't beat me."

"You're still trying to leave after all this?" Uncle Fu had a wolf by the ear. If what Yu Kun said was true, Uncle Fu really couldn't deal with him! Spiritual masters were slightly stronger than physical masters. They were probably on the same level in terms of strength! Furthermore, with House Yu backing Yu Kun, Uncle Fu didn't have the courage to tackle first.

"What else can we do?" Yu Kun said cockily after seeing the fear in Uncle Fu.

Chu Mengyao exhibited great grief at General Weiwu's condition. She was surprised and widened her eyes when the dog in her embrace moved slightly, but it stopped its movement completely soon after.

"General Weiwu, can you please don't die yet, don't die....." Mengyao never expected a day where General Weiwu would leave her. She had even planned to have General Weiwu play with her kids, the same way she played with him when she was a child.

"Yaoyao sis, don't worry.... Shield bro might have something up his sleeve?" Seeing how General Weiwu struggled to breathe, barely catching its breath, Yushu tried to comfort her soulmate who was grieving.

Yushu didn't feel very good inside, either. Although Yushu and General Weiwu weren't as close as Mengyao and General Weiwu were, all in all, they had their fun days together, and Yushu'd gotten used to having General Weiwu's presence.

A scowl flashed across Mengyao's beautiful face when she heard the name Lin Yi. She raised her head and demanded word by word, "Lin Yi, please kill this killer for me!"

"He, sure." Lin Yi heard the Miss' order and nodded lightly.

Lin Yi was able to recognize the man in black from the beginning. He was the guy who he met in Yanjing after the auction right in front of medicine shop! He linked everything up after hearing the guy's name. He was the guy who met Fatty Lai earlier, so this was the Yu Kun he was talking about!

Hmph, I haven't even started to look for you yet here you knocking on my door? Lin Yi didn't like to initiate trouble, but if someone initiated first, he would never go easy on them.

House Yu.... Lin Yi took a deep breath in. Alright, House Yu, since you guys showed up in my life once again, don't blame me if anything happens.

"You came to steal my maps?" Lin Yi strolled over to Yu Kun's direction, staring at him and asked solemnly.

“Steal? It belongs to House Yu in the first place. What’s the point in you having it?” Yu Kun was cautious when dealing with Uncle Fu, but to him Lin Yi was nothing. He didn’t see Lin Yi as a threat because Lin Yi’s name was not recorded in House Yu’s database.

So, he didn’t think that Lin Yi was a master, just a mere bodyguard of the Miss. Just how strong could he be? At most, he was just a special ops soldier or Sanda athlete- nothing threatening!

Chu Pengzhan only had Uncle Fu, a late phase golden class master by his side. There was no way Miss Chu’s bodyguard would be stronger than Uncle Fu, right?

“What can the fragments of the map do?” Lin Yi asked.

“Do you really think I would tell you? Not to mention I know nothing about the maps, either.” Yu Kun looked at Lin Yi arrogantly.

“Oh, you’ve just lost the value of your life. You may die now.” Lin Yi charged in to attack suddenly, releasing his killing intent and aura at the same time.

“Lil’ Yi, show mercy!” Uncle Fu was taken aback. He couldn’t believe that Lin Yi was really trying to kill him. He could hear the intention through his words alone, and this shocked him greatly as he tried to stop him!

How could people from House Yu die in this villa? How could things end in a peaceful way if Yu Kun died here? How could Chu Pengzhan handle it? There was no way he could afford to make House Yu an enemy, could he?

“Golden class, peak late phase....?” Yu Kun was stupefied when Lin Yi released his aura. He was hit by Lin Yi in the chest after Lin Yi ended the conversation. He wasn’t given a chance to dodge!
