Chapter 761: The Miss Overwhelmed With Grief

The Miss Overwhelmed With Grief

However, in an instant, Yu Kun felt like something was wrong! How was this someone in the peak late phase golden class?

” Pfff— —”

Blood spurted from his mouth as he was sent backward, hitting the wall of the living with a loud thump while knocking down the TV at the same time. The TV screen was shattered into pieces on the ground.

Lin Yi held back half of his strength in a split second. He didn't understand why Uncle Fu would hold him back and ask for mercy, but since Uncle Fu'd spoken up, Lin Yi would follow naturally! With Uncle Fu's steadiness, he must have had his own reasons.

“Mystic...” Yu Kun was looking at Lin Yi in horror and coughed out a few mouthfuls of fresh blood again as he struggled to say the word out.

Yu Kun knew that Lin Yi reduced half of his power to show him mercy. If it wasn't Uncle Fu's “Show mercy”, he would have already died already.

How merciless! Where did this Lin Yi come from? He has the strength of an early phase mystic class? How was this even possible? How old was he actually? He didn't seem to be older than me, nor was he from a noble house. Just how did he obtain such great strength?

Despite all that, Yu Kun knew that he had to flee. Lin Yi showed him mercy once, and he might not be that lucky with a second attack!

Yu Kun hesitated for a while and threw out the Wannianchunmu box and two pieces of remains of the map away from his embrace. He, while ignoring the pain as he ran out of the villa, disappeared into the dark night.

He knew that if he didn't leave the box and the maps behind, Lin Yi wouldn't let him escape, and he would lose his life eventually!

Lin Yi stared at the back of Yu Kun as he left, not following him because he was already a handicapped person. What was the point of chasing him anyway?

After Li Dilei's incident, Lin Yi showed enormous interest in compressing his own energy. His energy could be used by others but once compressed, the moment he released the energy it was like an explosion that people could never.

Lin Yi's palm that hit Yu Kun's chest contained compressed energy, and this energy instantly exploded upon entering Yu Kun's body, like a stick of dynamite. It destroyed Yu Kun's meridians.

Even if Yu Kun recovered from the injuries, he would still be handicapped since he wouldn't be able to continue his spiritual practice anymore.

“Why can’t we kill him?” Lin Yi asked Uncle Fu. However, what really surprised Lin Yi was Uncle Fu’s real strength. He was a peak late phase golden class master!

“He was from House Yu.” Uncle Fu sighed. “We would have too many troubles to handle if we killed him just now.”

“Just because he was from House Yu?” Lin Yi frowned.

“You haven’t heard of House Yu?” Uncle Fu flinched when he saw Lin Yi’s nonchalant face.

“I know them.” Lin Yi replied faintly, “But killing him as nothing to do with his house.”

“You... aren’t you afraid of House Yu?” Uncle Fu was astonished. Lin Yi knew about House Yu, yet he didn’t care?

“Afraid?” Lin Yi said this like he was asking himself, “Never mind, he has escaped.”

There was a reason that Lin Yi was so daring in killing Yu Kun in the villa. That was because the witnesses were all his trusted allies. There was no way Mengyao and Yushu would betray him, and Uncle Fu wouldn’t too. Hence, he had the balls to crush his enemy without concerns.

Every game had its own rules. Lin Yi didn’t believe that House Yu would report this to the police if Yu Kun was killed, and so even if Yu Kun was dead, it had nothing to do with his life and it would never affect him at the slightest!

It was the same as Cihua’s golden class masters, Zhanglong and Liyao. Nothing changed after their death.

It was different for Master Bing, An Jianwen, and Zhong Pinliang. He could kill master Bing but not under the public’s eyes. As for An Jianwen and Zhong Pinliang, if they kicked the bucket suddenly, the police would surely take action and come for him. That was why Lin Yi had so many methods in countering different people with different reasons.

Listening to Lin Yi made Uncle Fu remember Lin Yi’s true strength! Mystic class! Lin Yi was really a mystic class?!

Then, where did he come from? And why did he appear beside the Miss? Where did Mr. Chu find him? Such a great master, following the Misses to school and play?

Uncle Fu was getting more and more suspicious about Lin Yi’s background. Just who was this guy?

However, since Chu Pengzhan didn’t mention anything and Lin Yi didn’t reveal anything, Uncle Fu wouldn’t ask either. He sighed faintly as he walked towards Mengyao.

Mengyao only ordered Lin Yi to kill Yu Kun in a brief moment of rage and sadness. She would regret her order if Lin Yi really killed him. She couldn’t allow Lin Yi to kill someone for her sake, could she?!

Although Yu Kun’s escape disappointed Mengyao a little, she was glad at the same time. If Lin Yi really killed Yu Kun under her order, how could she live with herself?

“Miss Chu, he was from House Yu. We can’t handle them for now....” Uncle Fu let Yu Kun leave. He had to at least inform the Miss, hadn’t he?

Uncle Fu knew how broken was Mengyao's heart. He knew that she wanted to avenge Yu Kun for General Weiwu.

"En..." She had calmed down since she had overcome the grief slightly. While she was still hugging General Weiwu, she wiped off her tears.

"Miss, General Weiwu... is probably very satisfied now after knowing that you are safe..." Uncle Fu didn't know how to comfort Mengyao: "He's already passed away."

"En..." Mengyao only casually replied. General Weiwu was completely still, not moving an inch. It seemed like it had just passed away.... Mengyao couldn't accept that fact. She needed some time.

"He, maybe it's not dead yet? I can try treating it?" Lin Yi walked to Mengyao with a smile, looking at General Weiwu.

"He's not dead yet?" Mengyao's eyes were glowing when she heard Lin Yi. She looked at Lin Yi with disbelief, but she was a little excited: "Lin Yi, you're saying that General Weiwu is still alive? You aren't lying, are you?"

"Have I lied to you before?" Lin Yi took the dog from the Miss' embrace, but he accidentally touched the Miss' chest....

They weren't exactly big, but they did feel very bouncy? It actually felt pretty good? Lin Yi was reflecting on the lingering sensation that instant.

Mengyao blushed immediately. She didn't wear a bra with a lot of sponge built within since it was summer. She only wore a thin bra, so she could easily feel Lin Yi's touch.

"Hmph!" Mengyao glared daggers at Lin Yi. "Go get him treated quickly, or else.... I won't let you go that easily!"

"If I treat him, will you let me off the hook?" Lin Yi joked.

"Oh, if he's healed, Yaoyao sis will you allow Shield bro to touch them again?" Yushu who was standing beside saw everything, including the breast touching part.

"Shu!" Mengyao was furious. "What are you talking? Why don't you let him touch you then?!"

"Oh, if you allow him to touch you, then I'm totally fine with it too." Yushu pondered and replied.

"Go play with yourself. I don't have time for you." Mengyao pushed Yushu to a side and turned to Lin Yi. Lin Yi, on the other hand, was checking on General Weiwu's condition. "How's it, Lin Yi?"

Chapter 762: Leveled Up Again

Leveled Up Again

"Sure, but it's a little troublesome..." Lin Yi smiled wryly. A lot his energy had been consumed by others in just a few days!

“Lin Yi, I beg of you, please save it, can you?” Mengyao saw the troubled expression on Lin Yi’s face. She could tell things weren’t going to be easy. She knew that even if Lin Yi was skilled, General Weiwu was close to death. How could he save it?

Lin Yi had exhausted plenty of energy in saving her yesterday, and here she was asking Lin Yi to save General Weiwu. Mengyao felt sorry and couldn’t bear to trouble him again.

“Ha, I said it’s a little troublesome, but I didn’t say I wouldn’t help, did I?” Lin Yi was looking at the Miss’s face which was filled with hope. It was pretty cute. His heart tightened slightly. The Miss was actually a caring and full of emotions girl, but she never showed it and would never expose her true feelings so easily. She always covered up her true self with a serious face.

“En...” Mengyao nodded.

“Oh my, why are you guys so flirty? Yaoyao sis, you are going to be Shield bro’s main wife anyway. Off course Shield bro has to save the dog for you, doesn’t he?” Yushu commented.

Mengyao pursed her lips and didn’t say a word. She was looking at Lin Yi with gratitude in her eyes.

Lin Yi brought General Weiwu into his room and faced Uncle Fu. “Uncle Fu, can I trouble you for a moment? Please cover me and don’t let anyone in.”

Although Lin Yi had disabled Yukun’s strength, he wasn’t sure the effectiveness of this skill. Who knew if House Yu have someone like Lin Yi who could repair Yukun’s meridians? So to make sure things didn’t go wrong, he had Uncle Fu cover for him first!

With Uncle Fu’s strength, he could at least handle the situation for a moment before he got out of the room with a strategy.

“This is what I’m supposed to do. How would that trouble me?” Uncle Fu quickly added, “You are helping Miss’ Chu with the dog. I should be the one to say thank you here!”

“Ha, this is what I’m supposed to do too?” Lin Yi smiled and went into his room.

General Weiwu was not completely dead, it just fainted. With the damage in the dog’s internal organs were, Lin Yi was confident that he was able to rescue the dog. What actually mattered here was the methods used.

Lin Yi wanted to use his own energy, but could his energy save a dog too? Lin Yi’s energy was effective towards humans, but was it effective towards dog too? He didn’t know! If his energy could be used, then saving General Weiwu became an easier task. Otherwise, he had to his old methods like acupuncture and herbs to treat General Weiwu.

“Elder Jiao, can I use my energy with a dog?” Lin Yi was afraid that sending energy into the dog would kill it. He quickly consulted Elder Jiao first.

“I don’t know. I’ve no knowledge in this, I have never tried this before.” Elder Jiao’s voice rang in Lin Yi’s ears. “However, your energy is all-purpose. Theoretically speaking, it should be effective? Why don’t you give it a try?”

“Try? Will it die with one try?” Lin Yi was uncertain with Elder Jiao’s answer.

“It won’t just die like this, either your energy is useless or you will overuse the energy.” Elder Jiao replied.

“Okay then, I’ll try.” He could only help a dead horse if it were still alive. The Miss wouldn’t exactly blame him if things went wrong as he had really given his all in rescuing the dog.

Lin Yi placed his hand on General Weiwu and slowly channeled the Art of Dragon Mastery. In an instant, a large amount of energy was sucked into General Weiwu’s body from Lin Yi.

Lin Yi was surprised. Was it effective?

However, the suction force was powerful, Lin Yi did not control or stop the flow of energy since he wasn’t how much energy was needed to rescue a dog. So, he just allowed General Weiwu to absorb as much energy as needed. Worse came to worst, he could just sleep for a night to recover back the lost energy.

Time was ticking, second by second, minute by minute, he wasn’t sure how much time was spent yet General Weiwu was still sucking his energy at a constant intense speed. It didn’t seem like he was injured to required such an enormous amount of energy. Even though Lin Yi felt dizzy, his head was already spinning a little, and it was the sign of his energy reaching zero, he still continued sending the energy without hesitation. It was all for the Miss to be happy again. He had to tough it out.

Recalling how the Miss treated him, other than holding hostility against him when they first met, she was actually rather nice to him. After accepting him, the Miss actually did care about him, didn’t she? Besides, he even touched the Miss’ breast just now?

He didn’t know when he would be able to feel them again? While Lin Yi was lingering... he accidentally fell asleep.

The energy exhausted was too much, so he entered into energy recovery sleeping mode directly.

Inside the jade, Lin Yi saw Elder Jiao. “Elder Jiao, why am I here again?”

“I’ve no idea.” Elder Jiao shook his head, “And, I’ve no idea if your energy could actually save the dog or not but the dog has absorbed quite an amount... However, I think you should take care of yourself first, get yourself recharge. What if an enemy approaches when you are in your current condition?”

Lin Yi startled and quickly activated the Art of Dragon Mastery once again without questioning again. The energy inside the jade was rushing into Lin Yi’s body with a crazy speed...

The energy inside the jade was limitless. Even though Lin Yi had been absorbing it all these while- the concentration was still very thick. All of the pores on Lin Yi’s skin fully opened to absorb the energy in the space....

The time was passing silently again. Out of the blue, Lin Yi felt that his body was bursting in energy!

Peak early phase mystic class? Lin Yi was stunned and returned back to reality from the jade! Lin Yi found out that he leveled up again from the beginning of early phase to the peak early phase. In other words, he would reach the middle phase mystic class in no time. It was so close.

What was going on?

Lin Yi felt like his strength always increased after he recharged back the lost energy. Just like the previous incident where he tried to rescue Feng Xiaoxiao, the situation was more or less the same, wasn't it?

Like what legends say "Without destruction, there can be no construction"? Could it be that in order to break through, he had to lose a large amount of energy and have it replenished?

Lin Yi didn't know if his guess was right or not but things were indeed magical! He couldn't believe that he got blessed by misfortune and gained new strength.

"Woof woof!"

General Weiwu called out to Lin Yi who was just right beside him. He flinched and suddenly remembered that he was treating General Weiwu earlier! He entered the jade unconsciously and when he woke up, he was surprised to find himself leveled up. He had been distracted all this while that he didn't even notice General Weiwu's existence!

It seemed like General Weiwu woke up before he did? Lin Yi turned his head towards the sound to see General Weiwu before his bed, squatting there like a guardian angel, guarding him. General Weiwu was very excited to see Lin Yi got back to his senses, and it was wagging its tail happily!

Chapter 763: Golden Class Dog

Golden Class Dog

General Weiwu seemed to be in very good shape?

Wait a minute, Lin Yi suddenly felt something wrong with General Weiwu? It was a lot stronger than before... this....

Besides, it was unnaturally energetic?

Other than that, the main problem was that General Weiwu's body was emitting an aura?

F!

Lin Yi widened his eyes in surprise, totally dumbfounded!

General Weiwu... was it still the General Weiwu before? Why did it feel like something was not right?

Lin Yi was looking at General Weiwu in complete disbelief. Just what was this godly-like dog? Was this still considered a normal dog? This was obviously a Golden class dog!

After the shock, he petted on General Weiwu's head. General Weiwu also slowly moved his head towards Lin Yi like he was able to understand humans better than before?

Lin Yi tested General Weiwu's strength, and no doubt, it was the early phase of Golden class!

Even dogs could be classified into different divisions?

Besides, even a dog could reach the golden class strength! Wasn't this laughable?

However, no matter how magical thing was- it was a fact now. He couldn't just deny what happened right before his own eyes. The amount of pure qi in General Weiwu resembled an early phase golden class master's strength! All of its internal injuries were healed and it was in a peak condition, better than before!

"Lil' Wei, come over here!" Lin Yi waved at General Weiwu to summon him.

General Weiwu wagged its tail, trying to please Lin Yi as it walked forward. He was aware that his new strength was thanks to Lin Yi.

"Next time, if I was not at home, you've to protect the Miss and Shu, but you can't simply use this power and get into a fight, okay?" Lin Yi was afraid that General Weiwu would use his new strength to randomly tackle people. With his current strength, one paw strike was more than enough to kill a normal person, wasn't it?

"Woof woof!" General Weiwu replied and wagged its tail as in like he understood what Lin Yi was trying to deliver.

"Good, since you are so obedient, I won't remove your power...." Lin Yi was thinking of disabling General Weiwu's strength since it was ridiculous for a dog to have the strength of a golden class. But since General Weiwu listened to his order, it was not a bad idea to have him around anymore. At least he got himself a helper?

A thought came to his mind. If he could modify a dog into a golden class dog with his energy, could he also make a normal person to a golden class master with the same method? He wondered. It was a mystery to be discovered. If his energy really had this function, he could literally mass produce a bunch of golden class masters, couldn't he?

Lin Yi raised his head to see light penetrating into his room via the window, the sky was already bright and white- a night had just passed in a blink of an eye?

Lin Yi abruptly remembered that Uncle Fu was still covering him. He wondered if Uncle Fu had returned home or not.

Lin Yi quickly got up and opened the door.

The lights in the living room of the villa were still on. Uncle Fu stood not far from Lin Yi's room, guarding the room attentively. Mengyao and Yuhsu, on the other hand, were supporting each other on the sofa, wide awake with an anxious face.

Even Chu Pengzhan came, sitting on the sofa across Mengyao and Yushu. He looked like knowing what happened last night

Pengzhan was furrowing his eyebrows as he stared at the Wannianchunmu box and the two pieces of fragments of the map on the coffee table.

Lin Yi opened the door which attracted everyone's attention as they had their gaze fixed in Lin Yi's direction. Lin Yi came out of the room, and behind him was a fully recovered and bursting with energy General Weiwu!

“General Weiwu!” Mengyao was glad to see General Weiwu safe and sound as she ran straight to the dog.

General Weiwu, on the other hand, looked at Lin Yi. Seeing no reaction from him, General Weiwu only charged towards Mengyao’s embrace.

Noticeably, General Weiwu had made Lin Yi its number one master.

Uncle Fu was bewildered to see a healthy General Weiwu walking out of Lin Yi’s room. Did Lin Yi really treat General Weiwu to full recovery? General Weiwu couldn’t even breathe properly and was close to the gate of death. Even under those conditions, Lin Yi was able to pull this through?

It was amazingly unbelievable!

However, what was more unbelievable was that Uncle Fu felt a presence inside the room. Other than Lin Yi, there must be a hidden master inside, at least the power of an early phase golden class!

Uncle Fu was alerted, could it be a new enemy?

However, this golden class master was pretty near to him. Why didn’t he sense his presence when he entered the villa?

After a moment, Uncle Fu froze and frowned. Finally, he landed his gaze on General Weiwu after checking around. Not long, his face turned exceptionally weird! If Uncle Fu was not a steady person, he might have shouted out in surprise!

Because General Weiwu was no longer the normal General Weiwu anymore. It was obviously a golden class General Weiwu!

Uncle Fu found the aura was originated from the dog!

Uncle Fu didn’t know what to say. The dog right before his eyes was really something out of his expectation. After all these years of living, he had never seen anything so magical before!

Even a dog could become golden class? Was there something else as preposterous as this?

Seeing General Weiwu playing around in Mengyao’s embrace made Lin Yi a little jealous. How nice would it be if I was the dog? I could even get intimate with Mengyao’s breast and fragrance? He thought.

General Weiwu was taken aback when he felt a threatening stare from Lin Yi behind. He got away from Mengyao’s embrace and looked at Lin Yi pitifully.

Lin Yi looked at General Weiwu and shook his head. Was he really getting jealous of a dog? It was really laughable.

“Lil’ Yi!” Pengzhan stood up and looked at Lin Yi with a serious face. “The intruder earlier, was he from House Yu?”

“Probably. But don’t worry Uncle Chu. If people from House Yu are looking trouble from you, just direct them to me.” Lin Yi said nonchalantly.

“Showing him mercy can be a blessing and a disaster at the same time...” Pengzhan sighed. “Despite all that, you still let him live. Hopefully, House Yu won’t try to bully us.”

Lin Yi nodded. Would House Yu send someone stronger to go after him?

It was definitely possible! Lin Yi looked at the fragments of the map and the Wannianchunmu box on the coffee table. It seemed like Yu Kun sneaked into the villa for the maps. As for the box, it was placed with the maps so he just grabbed the box along with the maps. It was that simple.

Otherwise, he would have mentioned the box when he was bargaining with Fatty Lai.

However, after this incident, Lin Yi realized that the fragments of the maps were actually something useful?

Chapter 764: The Miss’ Token of Appreciation

The Miss’ Token of Appreciation

Since House Yu put so much value in this map, there must be some hidden secret that Lin Yi himself was unaware of. Even Yukun as the heir of House Yu might not know about it.

That was the reason why Lin Yi asked Yukun to confirm his question, and after learning that Yukun wasn’t told about the secret, he decided to eliminate him completely.

“Mr. Chu, please stay calm. if I’m here no one will dare to harm Yaoyao and Shu.” Lin Yi guaranteed.

“En, I’ll leave them to your care.” Pengzhan patted on Lin Yi shoulder, “Since everything is resolved, I shall head back first. All of you please get some rest.”

“Uncle Chu, there’s nothing to worry now. Please return safely...” Lin Yi stood up and sent Uncle Fu and Pengzhan out.

In the yard, Uncle Fu opened the car’s door to let Pengzhan in first. Before he got into the car himself, he looked at Lin Yi, speechless.

“Hehe, Uncle Fu, I didn’t know that you have the strength of a peak late phase of the golden class.” Lin Yi sensed that Uncle Fu wanted to say something, so he initiated first.

Regarding Uncle Fu, Lin Yi had a pretty decent image of him. A peak late phase golden class master preparing food for the Misses every day. This wasn’t an easy task!

“I’m not that strong,” Uncle Fu shook his head and smiled bitterly, “As for the dog...”

“I’ve no idea this was going to happen, either. Maybe I inserted too much pure qi for a dog...” Lin Yi couldn’t help but smile bitterly when he mentioned General Weiwu! For Uncle Fu to see through the power of General Weiwu was pretty normal.

After all, General Weiwu and humans were different. It didn’t know how to hide his true power, so a practitioner could easily see through how much power did General Weiwu held.

"I couldn't believe it. I can still see a golden class dog.... Golden class master is already a rarity nowadays. What would people think if they found out that there's a golden class dog in our house? Wouldn't they be surprised to death after learning that?" Uncle Fu shook his head. "I'll leave the Miss' safety in your hand now, I shall leave first."

"En, goodbye Uncle Fu." Lin Yi nodded, sent them off and returned to the villa.

General Weiwu was back to normal. This made Mengyao and Yushu happy. Their previous unhappiness was replaced with gladness as they were playing with General Weiwu in the living room. Mengyao carried General Weiwu and walked to Lin Yi when he entered the villa. Mengyao respectfully said, "Here, General Weiwu, let's say thank you to Lin Yi together!"

"Ha?" Lin Yi smiled. "It's not needed. As long as you aren't sad anymore."

"Thank you very much, Lin Yi." the Miss said seriously. "You didn't know how important is General Weiwu in my heart.... It is very very important, you know! He's been with me for many years. Since I was young until...."

"I know, that's why I tried my best to save it." Lin Yi nodded.

Mengyao startled and pondered for a while, Lin Yi was able to tell how sad I was. "Lin Yi, you haven't gotten any rest, right? It's three now. Why don't you get a good rest first?"

"Oh, okay, you guys should get to bed too." Lin Yi was embarrassed to tell them he was sleeping earlier. After all, the Miss and Yushu were wide awake waiting for him just now.

Lin Yi returned to his own room, lying on the bed with his eyes opened. He was thinking about House Yu.

He thought that he would never have any contact with House Yu, but who knew House Yu would come to him first?

Xiao Ning.... They're your family, right?

Lin Yi sighed slightly, an image reappeared in his mind, An angelic face.

How was she doing now? Lin Yi sighed again. Just how should Lin Yi face her in the future?

In a swift moment, a few hours passed away. Lin Yi was still lying on the bed, musing on sweet nothing until he heard noises coming from the living room.

The Miss and Shu are awake?

Lin Yi looked at the time. He should be getting up now. He crawled up from his bed, pushed open the door, and saw an electrifyingly unexpected scene!

The Miss and Shu were actually preparing food in the kitchen?!

"Shu, you are such a big dummy, the internet told us to pour the oil first, why did you put in the egg first?" an angry tone came from the kitchen.

"Oh, I don't know. I thought that we have to put the egg first, only adding the soybean oil...." Yushu said softly.

“Fine, it should be healthier without oil....” Mengyao was inarticulate but before she could start working on her stuff again, another problem arose.

The rice cooker was making some weird noise!

“SHU, what did you do this time?” Mengyao sub-consciously ran to the rice cooker and listened carefully. She was shocked. She jumped up and opened the cover. Creases formed on her forehead, “Where’s the water? Are you sure you are cooking porridge?”

“Oh, I thought that water was the last thing to add...,” Yushu replied.

“You dummy, I shouldn’t have made you my assistant! With your cooking skills, don’t think of getting married in the future!” Mengyao was furious as she kicked Yushu out of the kitchen.

“Oh, Shield bro will prepare for me, I don’t have to do anything,” Yushu said with a straight face as in like it was not her concern.

“You’re planning to bring Lin Yi with you when you get married to another guy?” Mengyao widened her eyes in surprise as she questioned.

“It’s easy, all I have to do is get married to him....”

“Shu, be honest. Are you in love with Lin Yi?” Mengyao stared into Yushu’s eyes.

“Didn’t you like him too?” Yushu asked back.

“I don’t like him,” Mengyao said solemnly. “Shu, Lin Yi has a girlfriend already. Don’t mess with other people’s relationship.”

“Oh, I don’t. I want to be the second wife. So what if he has a girlfriend?” Yushu shook her head.

“There you go lying to yourself again,” Mengyao said. “Shu, what’s exactly on your mind?”

“Nothing, I just wish to be with Yaoyao sis forever,” Yushu said with an innocent face.

“Okay, I don’t want to talk to you now. Do what you want.” Mengyao’s head was starting to ache. Both of them had grown up together. Although their relationship was exceptionally good, both of them had their own secrets deep down inside. This had nothing to do with their closeness. After all, every individual had their own private secrets.

Seeing that the popcorn popping was the rice cooker, Mengyao didn’t know what to do.

Lin Yi heard the exchange of the Miss and Shu, but he didn’t step in between them.

He thought that Yushu was really unique. At first, he thought that he was familiar with Yushu’s qualities but as he pondered- he realized that he really hadn’t seen a girl with this behavior before.

Lin Yi walked to the kitchen when both of them ended their private talk. “Okay, leave the rest to me now. Both of you can wait in the living room first.”

Mengyao was taken aback when he heard Lin Yi’s voice. Yushu, on the other hand, stuck out her tongue and clapped her hand in excitement, “Oh, we get to eat freshly made meal again. Yaoyao sis, see, I told you, we are not needed when Shield bro is around.”

Chapter 765: Tang Yun's Dejection

Tang Yun's Dejection

Mengyao was looking at Lin Yi with an apologetic face, "It must have been very exhausting for you in these two days? I wanted to make you breakfast, but Shu made a mess out of it."

"Hehe, I understand." Lin Yi smiled.

After the duo left the kitchen, Lin Yi only shook his head. The girls were really not meant to be in the kitchen, were they? However, their intentions were more than sufficient. It was probably the Miss' first time entering the kitchen? Shu was probably the same.

When Lin Yi arrived, all of the electronic devices had the instruction manuals inside. It was obvious that none of them were used before, completely untouched.

It was an easy task for Lin Yi to prepare breakfast since he'd been doing it every morning. First, he adjusted the time needed for the porridge then fried some eggs and created a pickle with sesame oil. The dishes were landed on the table after not long.

Yushu was impressed by how Lin Yi's speed: "Yaoyao sis, why are we so dumb?"

"You are dumb, not me." Mengyao was also astonished by Lin Yi's efficiency.

Mengyao helped Lin Yi in pouring the porridge out while Yushu heated the milk for them.

"Lin Yi, since you didn't get much rest yesterday, why don't you get some rest and don't drive later?" Mengyao was afraid that the fatigue would affect Lin Yi.

"I'm not tired. By the way, I won't be attending school first. I got something else to do first." Lin Yi smiled.

"Something else? What are you going to do later?" Mengyao asked subconsciously.

"Qibing's real estate company said that they want to discuss the compensation for the relocation project today." Lin Yi replied.

"Oh?" Mengyao was a little unhappy when she learned that it was about Tang Yun again.

"Oh, you are going to negotiate? I wanna go too." Yushu swallowed the egg in her mouth and drank a mouthful of milk before speaking.

"What's the point of you going?" Lin Yi found it funny.

"My nickname is the Shu the negotiator, Shield bro, just let me go with you, I'll make sure your negotiation is going to be a huge success!" Yushu said.

"Shu, why do you have so many nicknames? How about Shu the spy? Mengyao kicked Yushu. She didn't want Shu to be involved in those stupid events.

“Oh, that’s just the tip of the iceberg, actually I’m an all-rounder!” Yushu continued, “Shield bro, bring me with you. I guarantee your success.”

Seeing how enthusiastic Yushu was, Lin Yi only smiled bitterly, “You really want to go?”

“En!” Yushu nodded.

“Let’s go...” Lin Yi didn’t really mind.

“Yaoyao sis, Shield bro agreed to bring me along. Do you want to join us?” Yushu was excited.

“We are in our final year already, studying is very important. We shouldn’t always skip class!” Mengyao replied.

“Never mind. It’s just a while?” Yushu said, “If I don’t go to school, there’s no point of you going to school alone, is there Yaoyao sis? We’re always together, let’s go.

“Fine.” Mengyao pondered and nodded. “Is it really okay for us to follow?” Mengyao asked Lin Yi.

“Yeah, no big deal.” Lin Yi didn’t really find anything odd bringing them along. After all, they weren’t doing anything sneaky. They were just going to discuss the compensation in Qibing’s real estate company.

After breakfast, Lin Yi gave a call to Tang Yun, informing her that he was on his way to the hospital and mentioning Mengyao and Yushu at the same time.

Tang Yun wasn’t a stingy person. She might find it unreasonable for Mengyao and Yushu to tag along, but since they were so willing to join, she didn’t really mind. Three of them had a very complicated relationship, they always meet each other frequently but they weren’t friends nor were they enemies.

After the war in Fatty Lai’s villa and the canteen incident, the trio’s relationship became like this.

On the surface, they were totally fine with each other, but on the inside, neither side lowered their guard. Tang Yun was no idiot. She knew how huge a threat Mengyao and Yushu were. She couldn’t stay at ease with them around.

Since Mrs. Tang was following them this time, Lin Yi couldn’t use Mengyao’s Audi s5, could he? It would be too cramped to fit them so, in the end, he decided to use his worn out van.

Mengyao and Yushu weren’t being picky this time and seated themselves in the van. As bumpy as it was, it was still bearable for the Miss.

Upon arriving at the hospital, Mrs. Tang was flabbergasted to see the two gorgeous beauties in the van. Her heart tightened as she eyed her daughter and lowered her voice, “Who are they? Do you know them?”

“Yeah, they are Lin Yi’s friends.” Tang Yun didn’t want to tell her mother the complex relationship of Mengyao and the Miss. It was not an easy task to explain with just two or three sentences.

“They are such beauties. You should be careful. What’s their background?” Mrs. Tang was concerned as she asked.

"I'll tell you when we get back home." Tang Yun only frowned. She didn't want to talk about it in the car. What if Lin Yi heard it? How embarrassing was that?

Mrs. Tang looked at Mengyao and Yushu again. They were as pretty as her own daughter. Besides, they were dressed beguilingly, nothing like an ordinary girl. Were they daughters of a noble house?

Since her daughter avoided the questions, she went to look for the answer herself, "Hello, you guys are?"

"Aunty, we are here to help Lin Yi in negotiating with Qibing's real estate." Mengyao didn't know how to answer but hesitated for a second and replied with Yushu's reason.

"Help us to negotiate?" Mrs. Tang startled.

"Yeah, my dad operates a company, so I'm somehow more knowledgeable in this." Mengyao continued.

She couldn't say that she was forced by Yushu who only came to have fun, could she? Who knew if dumbass Yushu would say something as irrelevant as the main wife and second wife. How awkward could that be?

"I see, thank you very much!" Mrs. Tang was tickled pink when she heard the reasons. As long as they weren't here to mess with her daughter's standing.

"It's nothing." Mengyao shook her head.

Tang Yun couldn't help but let out a breath of relief. She didn't want Mengyao to say something inappropriate that would make her mother worry. As for how was she going to explain this to her mother was not a matter to be concerned with now. At the very least, they got a passing grade and they weren't losing too much dignity.

Grateful as she was, she glanced at Mengyao with gratitude and lowered her head, not knowing what to say.

All of a sudden, Tang Yun was feeling a little dejected. Ever since Lin Yi entered her life, he'd been helping her family from the beginning until now?

From driving Zhou Ruoming away from her life to giving a helping hand to her mother's stall from the bullies to her father's surgery fee to her younger brother Xiaowei's incident and last but not least, the issues surfaced from the relocation project. Lin Yi had always been the savior of the day, settling all her emerging problems!

Chapter 766: The Commiserated Chen Yushu

The Commiserated Chen Yushu

Her house was always full of problems? And Lin Yi was always there to extend his helping hand?

However, had she given Lin Yi anything? Other than her passing grade look, what did she have to possibly compete with the others? Suddenly, she felt extremely insecure right in front of Mengyao and Yushu....

She couldn't even give Lin Yi anything, yet she was causing him so many troubles. Even today, she needed Lin Yi to negotiate.

Why was Lin Yi so nice to her? Tang Yun was lost in thought and couldn't help herself out of it.

Tang Yun didn't know how should she face Mengyao and Yushu. Perhaps they were more suitable for Lin Yi, weren't they? However, she was unwilling to give up her feelings just like that!

At this moment, Tang Yun was troubled. She thought of herself, and she really didn't have any advantage against Mengyao.

However, despite all her disadvantages, she had a self-comforting advantage, and that advantage was that Lin Yi recognized her as his girlfriend.

Tang Yun didn't want to continue this any longer... she wanted to be a useful person that could help Lin Yi in his work. But said was always easier than done, she knew nothing. How could she be of use to Lin Yi?

As eager as Tang Yun was, she didn't know how and where could she help with Lin Yi's company.

Looking at her mother, Tang Yun felt even annoyed. How could her mother not understand her frustration? She was always looking advantage from Lin Yi, wanting this and wanting that. Just who are we to Lin Yi that he should help us out all the time? If using her own body could cover everything that Lin Yi did for them, Tang Yun wouldn't hesitate to give it to Lin Yi. But she knew this was not an exchange, nor a trade....

Feelings weren't tradable. The debt couldn't be resolved just by offering her body. It wasn't that simple.

"Hu..." Tang Yun took a deep breath in. How should she pay back her debt towards Lin Yi?

An air of melancholy surrounded Tang Yun for the first time. Only by comparing herself with Mengyao could she see the distance between them. Tang Yun felt that she was unworthy.

Lin Yi, on the other hand, drove them to Qibing's real estate skyscraper. He stopped the car in the parking lot underground.

"Can't believe they rebuilt Qibing's skyscraper in just a blink of an eye? Aren't they afraid of the building collapsing again?" Lin Yi still didn't know that Tang Yun had a load in her mind as he joked.

"Oh, how I want to see the skyscraper collapse again. It was a pity I couldn't get to see it last time." Yushu looked around the parking lot and said with a disappointed face.

"Didn't the news report this before?" Mengyao said.

"Well, they didn't include the whole process. It must be super thrilling to witness the exact moment!" Yushu imagined, "Boom, the entire building collapsing. It must be so much fun."

"Okay, stop imagining, let's move." Mengyao pulled onto Yushu's hand.

On the second floor, there was a temporarily established office room meant for the relocation project, and beside the office was a monitoring room. Master Bing, Li Cihua, and Su Jiaonang were monitoring the parking lot where Lin Yi and friends had arrived in the room via the CCTV!

Qibing's skyscraper had just been completed. It wasn't officially opened yet so there were only three of them in the entire building.

"Motherf*cker, did she just say "Boom, the entire building collapsed"?" Master Bing clenched his teeth in anger. His eyes were burning in hatred and commented. "I'll give you guys a "boom", and kill you guys with an explosion very soon!"

"This girl is Chen Yushu, people from House Chen," Cihua explained Yushu's background to Master Bing. "She's always acting like an idiot. I think she's probably a little mentally retarded?"

"Hmph, I don't care who is she, kill all of them!" Master Bing snorted coldly and shifted his gaze on Tang Yun and Mengyao. "These two are really extraordinary pretty. It's such a waste to kill them just like that!"

"Indeed, it's a waste." Cihua nodded.

"But it's impossible to play with the girls with my legs right now!" remembering his legs, Qibing was furious as the blood started to boil.

"Okay, shall we head to the room first?" Cihua asked.

"En, let's go." Master Bing nodded.

Cihua pushed Qibing's wheelchair while Su Jiaonang was beside him. The trio went into relocation project's office room, waiting for the arrival of Lin Yi and friends.

After not long, Lin Yi, Tang Yun, Mrs. Tang, Mengyao and Yushu came to sight and entered the office.

Lin Yi couldn't believe that Qibing and Cihua would be here since he had only expected Su Jiaonang to be present only.

"Good day, my surname is Su, I'm the manager of the relocation project...." Su Jiaonang started introducing himself.

"Oh, you don't have to introduce anymore. I know you, aren't you the Jiaonang who had flu last time? The cloud bar manager? Li Cihua, I know him too. Aren't you from the what cloud bar as well?" Yushu didn't wait for Jiaonang to finish his introduction and interrupted. "Eh? Is that a handicapped man over there, sitting on a wheelchair? You guys aren't from the fraudster gang, are you? Why is the bar manager opening a real estate company all of a sudden?!"

"Ahem, other than running a bar, we do real estate business too!" Cihua sweated heavily, but he didn't dare to fight back since he could only explain.

On the other hand, Zhao Qibing's anger was at its maximum, but he couldn't offend Lin Yi. One had to know that Lin Yi was a mystic class master. A master who could fight against Uncle Zhu. Who knew how much strength had he recovered from the injuries? Even if he had recovered half of it, it was more than enough to wipe three of them off this planet!

So as furious as Qibing was, he could only put on a smile on his face and stay cool. "I think we had a small confusion last time but that's history now. Today, with much sincerity, we've invited you guys here to discuss the compensation together."

I'll lower myself and please you guys first. Once the time bomb is planted, let's see if you guys can be this carefree? Qibing thought.

Of course, Qibing was not afraid of the investigators, there were only the three of them in the entire building, there were only three of them in the office and Zhang Yuzhou in the parking lot. Once the time bomb was triggered and killed all of them, all of the evidence would be wiped out at the same time. As long as he denied the crime, the police wouldn't be able to do anything without evidence.

Qibing's real estate wasn't officially operating yet, so there wouldn't be any witnesses, either!

"Oh I see, so it was a confusion." Lin Yi smiled. Although he was smiling on the outside, he was trying to figure out Qibing's real intentions! Lin Yi didn't believe that Qibing was this generous. After breaking both of his legs and leveling his entire building, not only did he say that it was a misunderstanding, but he even wanted to compensate them with for their losses!

This was obviously not generosity, it was an idiotic act!

There had to be something strange going on. Lin Yi wondered what was Qibing's real intentions were. This was also the reasons why he agreed to tag along with Tang Yun.

"Of course, it's a misunderstanding." Qibing nodded with a smile. "Su Jiaonang, briefly tell them about the compensation and see if Mrs. Tang agrees with the terms or not."

"Yes!" Jiaonang nodded. "Mrs. Tang, according to our deliberative research, we've decided to compensate your family with two million RMB. Are you okay with the amount?"

Chapter 767: Shu the Negotiator

Shu the Negotiator

"Two million...." In actuality, two million was huge for Mrs. Tang. How could she not agree? However since she came with Lin Yi, she wanted to wait for Lin Yi's approval before she could agree.

"Two million? Isn't that too small?" Yushu voiced up. She didn't just come for nothing right. She wouldn't want to waste her great potential in negotiating, could she?! However, it was a fact that she didn't know how to negotiate. What she said in the morning was all bullshit. She just wanted to mess with people and have fun.

"Of course, two million is just a number we suggested. If that doesn't satisfy you, we are more than happy to discuss the right amount." Jiaonang couldn't believe that Yushu voiced up first before Mrs. Tang could.

However, there was a principle in his mind. No matter what the opposite party request, he had to stabilize them and drag until Zhang Yuzhou finished installing the time bomb!

"No matter how I see it, you should at least give them two hundred million, shouldn't you?" Yushu pondered for a moment and remembered the frequent saying in the TV, "The seller can ask for a sky-high price, and the buyer can make a down-to-earth offer." so she just blurted the number out- Jiaonang widened her eyes in surprise!

Two hundred million? Why don't you go rob the bank instead? Don't you think that two million is a lot? Was your house a bungalow or a skyscraper?

Qibing furrowed his eyebrows. He had given the order to accept Lin Yi's unreasonable demand but wasn't this ridiculous? Two hundred million? Was that supposed to be a joke? Besides, even if he agreed to pay them two hundred million, Lin Yi would never fall into this trap and would surely suspect his real intention instead!

"Hey missy, don't you think that you aren't being honest with that price?" Qibing stepped in.

"Nope, I heard that when your skyscraper collapsed with a "boom", you didn't really mind and even rebuilt a new one!" Yushu blinked her eyes. "This building is at least a few hundred million, right? So asking for two hundred million isn't that much actually!"

Qibing widened his eyes. What did this have to do with the compensation? It was two totally different things! "Boom" the building collapsed again?! Why does act as if I want to see my building being destroyed again? If it wasn't for Lin Yi, how would my building collapse?

Upon remembering the events, Qibing's blood was boiling again- he wanted to kill Lin Yi with one bite.

"This building only worthed one hundred million, and was your bungalow made of gold or silver? How did it worth two hundred million?" Qibing frowned.

Mrs. Tang, on the other hand, widened her eyes in shock as well. Did these girls really come to negotiate? Weren't they just messing around? What if they accidentally angered Zhou Qibing? Would they still pay her the compensation?

However since Lin Yi hadn't spoken up yet, Mrs. Tang stayed silent as she silently prayed for the two million. She was satisfied with the two million alone!

"If your building collapsed again, then it would be two hundred million right?" Yushu counted with her fingers. "So when is your building collapsing again? Don't forget to invite when that happens!"

"What is this calculation?" Qibing was infuriated. He wanted to ask if Yushu was here to negotiate or mess with him, but he remembered that they were going to be killed in an explosion soon. Suddenly, he was relaxed and calmed.

"Oh, how much can you pay then?" Yushu'd lost her interest in talking to him now. It was not fun at all.

"Three million, this is my limit!" Qibing pointing three with his fingers. Naturally, he wouldn't show his last card so soon. He couldn't give Lin Yi so many benefits all of a sudden, could he? He had to drag things on so Zhang Yuzhou could install the time bomb.

So selfish, no wonder your building collapsed. If you were to stay this selfish, there's no guarantee your building won't collapse again." there was only building collapsing in Yushu's mind, so everything she said was related to it.

"Even if it collapses, it's none of your business." Qibing was enraged. This girl is so evil. Why is she aiming my building? What could she gain from it?

Of course, Qibing didn't know that Yushu only wanted to see a building collapse for entertainment. If he were to find out this would he die from anger?

Mrs. Tang was taken aback, three million! Did it jump to three million in one go? Was this for real? Even this kind of negotiation tactic worked? Mrs. Tang was impressed. Was this how rich people negotiate? Was she too outdated? Yushu was actually helping out?

After this, Mrs. Tang never suspected Yushu again. She didn't care how Yushu attacked anymore. As long as she could make the compensation shoot higher- that was what mattered the most!

"Oh, Shield bro, they are only paying three million. I can't do it anymore, it's all yours now!" Yushu felt like she did pretty decently by increasing the compensation with one million RMB.

However, did Yushu's words sound kind of flirtatious?

"I can't do it anymore. It's all yours now!"

Lin Yi blushed slightly. Why did it sound like they were doing something naughty, and there was a hidden message behind those words?

Mengyao heard something off from the sentence as well but since Tang Yun and Mrs. Tang were around, she chose not to comment at this moment.

Since Mengyao was able to understand, it was also natural for Tang Yun to realize that. She eyed Yushu, not knowing if she was doing that on purpose or being ignorant? Tang Yun always thought that Yushu wasn't stupid. She was very calculative actually. Of course, Tang Yun didn't have any pieces of evidence to point that out, and in fact, she did look stupid on the surface.

"Oh, okay, my turn." Lin Yi pretended like he knew nothing.

Mrs. Tang, on the other hand, had her mind filled with the one million increments and couldn't hear anything other than topic related to the compensation.

Zhao Qibing, Li Cihua, and Su Jiaonang couldn't hear anything off with the sentence as well. They were all focused on Lin Yi, hoped that they could drag things longer for Zhang Yuzhou to set up.

"Okay, Zhao Qibing, let's end the small talk, stop adding one million by one million. Give me your bottom price." Lin Yi still hadn't figure out what was Qibing plotting against him, naturally, he wouldn't know how much could he pay too.

Until now, Lin Yi still couldn't understand why Qibing wanted him here.

Lin Yi didn't believe that he was invited here just to discuss the compensation. Unless something wrong was with Zhao Qibing's, Li Cihua's, and Su Jiaonang's brain!

Besides, Qibing just casually increased the compensation from two million to three million just like that. It seemed like the number could very much shoot even higher?

"Five million, that's my limit," Qibing said. "However, I have a request!"

"What request?" Lin Yi furrowed his eyebrows. Finally getting into the main topic?

“Don’t interfere with the relocation project anymore! I give you guys five million, you can either give your good neighbors some money or keep it yourself as you wish, but you’re not allowed to disturb our progress anymore!” Qibing went silent for a moment before speaking seriously.

Chapter 768: Five Million Check

Five Million Check

Don’t interfere with the relocation project? Lin Yi couldn’t believe that Qibing actually asked him here for this. Did he really go through all this trouble to tell him this? To say that Qibing was afraid of him sabotaging his plan again and using enough money to please him, it was probably plausible.

Seeing Lin Yi’s reaction made Qibing as happy inside. He’d been waiting for this moment. Lin Yi would surely suspect him if he just fired advantage at him. After all, Lin Yi was the one breaking both his legs. Giving him something for nothing was stupid, wasn’t it?

So while giving him money, Qibing requested a favor! Things looked reasonable now! Qibing wanted to relocate the people in the slums, and Lin Yi, the biggest threat to his relocation project, was bribed with money to not interfere with him! Absolutely logical!

So, it was like Qibing was surrendering to Lin Yi’s overpowering strength. In order to save his own face, he paid Lin Yi a sum of money using the compensation as an excuse.

In this way, Lin Yi wouldn’t suspect his real intentions anymore! Otherwise, he would be treated like an idiot, who had his legs broken and building leveled and yet still paid them three million as medical fee plus giving them another few million as compensation.

It was the international level of idiocy.

Qibing’s request put Lin Yi in a difficult position! Logically speaking, he had nothing to do with the relocation project, and he didn’t like being a busy body, but the main problem here was whether Tang Yun would allow him to do this or not?

So he looked at Tang Yun for an answer.

Tang Yun was troubled too. If it was possible, she’d like Lin Yi to help out the needing neighbors. If she hadn’t met Lin Yi back then, she would probably in the same situation with her neighbors. Or even worse because of Zhao Qibing targeting her!

However, even if Tang Yun was felt this way, she couldn’t do anything about it. As capable as Lin Yi was, he couldn’t take care of everything, could he? There were so many unfortunate families and events. How could Lin Yi take care of all of them?

Besides Qibing had made things clear. If they were willing to give their neighbors some compensation privately, he was totally fine with it.

However, even if Tang Yun distributed out the five million RMB, there were so many families in the slums. They could at most give a few thousand for each family. It was like a drop in the ocean!

This made Tang Yun hesitate.

Mrs. Tang, on the other hand, didn't really mind. Other people's issues had nothing to do with her family, right? They were poor and couldn't get the compensation because they were powerless. They didn't have a son in law like Lin Yi, who could they blame? They could only blame their own daughters who weren't capable enough!

When her man was still lying on the bed, jobless, did anyone come to lend them money? Did they find their family connections?

Basically, the slums were filled with poor people, but not all of them didn't have any connections. When Tang Jucheng had an accident, Mrs. Tang couldn't even find anyone to talk to. Otherwise, she wouldn't be empty-handed and got nothing!

On the other side of the village, there was a guy working in the electronics factory. His foot was scalded during his work and was compensated with ten thousand after finding some connections! Mrs. Tang visited that family and asked for help, but that family was so afraid of trouble. They didn't even dare to open their door to welcome Mrs. Tang!

So Mrs. Tang pondered and came out with a conclusion. Your life is not mine to care, I'll take all the money and live in my big house!

Although Mrs. Tang was thinking like that, Lin Yi was still here. She couldn't be the one talking here as she looked at Lin Yi again.

"Oh, sure." Lin Yi saw no reaction from Tang Yun, so he took the initiative and decided for Tang Yun. "But do not go beyond what's supposed to be compensated. Try your best to follow the executive standard?"

This was the last thing Lin Yi could do. He had given his best!

After all, as powerful as Lin Yi was, he couldn't just force Zhao Qibing to pay every family five million, could he? He'd surely go bankrupt in a few days instead of earning money.

"Let me reconsider this." Qibing nodded. No matter what Lin Yi said, he should just agree with him first. What could he do after the explosion?

"Okay, so when are you passing us the money?" Lin Yi nodded.

"Oh, I'll ask someone to open a five million check now and send it to you later," Qibing said.

"Isn't online transaction faster?" Lin Yi frowned lightly.

"Online transaction, ah, our company's account is close to exceeding the limit for this month. Didn't we pay you the three million earlier? If we were to send you another five million now, it'd be exceeded for sure!" Qibing had thought of an excuse formally so he said with much calm and steadiness.

"Oh, call that person then." Although Lin Yi was having doubts, he still nodded anyway.

"Okay, I'm calling right now!" Qibing answered and gave Cihua an eye signal.

Cihua understood what the signal meant, took out his phone and called Zhang Yuzhou.

“Hello? Zhang Yuzhou? Where are you?” Cihua stood up and walked to the window just so Lin Yi couldn’t hear what they were conversing.

“Cihua bro, don’t worry, I’m in a safe place.” Zhang Yuzhou continued. “The bomb is installed. When the car is activated, the time bomb will start counting down.”

“Oh, go get us prepared a five million check and send it here now!” Cihua said.

“Okay, I’m on my way.” Zhang Yuzhou replied.

In actuality, this phone call was made to make sure the installation of the time bomb was completed. As for the check, it was just a random excuse to cover up the real reason.

After not long, there was a knock on the door, Zhang Yuzhou entered the room and placed the check before Qibing. “Master Bing, the check is ready.”

“En, let me have a look.” Qibing looked at the check. Everything was fine so signed his signature on it and passed it to Lin Yi. “You can call the bank to check the effectiveness of the check.”

Lin Yi nodded and called the bank to make sure they could get back the cash form the check. After the call, he nodded and passed the check to Mrs. Tang. Zhao Qibing’s behavior was extraordinary abnormal today so he had to be cautious of everything!

As for why Qibing wanted Lin Yi to not interfere with the relocation project, Lin Yi found the excuse unreliable! In fact, during the whole relocation project, Lin Yi had only stood up for Tang Yun’s family. He hadn’t even interfere with other people’s business in the slightest!

Hence, the negotiation ended smoothly. Zhao Qibing never had the intention to keep them here any longer as he ordered Cihua. “Cihua, send Lin Yi and Mrs. Tang’s family out.”

“Okay, Master Bing!” Cihua nodded and stretched his hand out like “After you first, Lin Yi. I believe you do not wish to stay here after this business right?”

Chapter 769: Being Plotted

Being Plotted

Cihua also placed the benefit of this negotiation as his priority. This made it more realistic! He wanted to make Lin Yi believe that they were trying to come to an agreement with him which was not to interfere with the relocation project.

“He, I hope that what you guys said is all real. Don’t play small tricks with me, or else you guys won’t end well.” Lin Yi nodded. Naturally, didn’t want to stay at this building any longer. He led Tang Yun, Mrs. Tang, Mengyao, and Yushu out of the office.

Yushu, on the other hand, was a little unwilling as they parted, “Zhao Qibing, did you have the previous building collapse video recorded?”

“What?” Qibing furrowed his eyebrows. Chen Yushu was so annoying.

“Oh, nothing. I think it’s quite fun to watch, that’s all.” Yushu replied.

“No, no! Leave!” Qibing was infuriated as he waved at Yushu asking her to leave, impatient.

“Oh, that’s really a pity. Remember to invite me when your building collapses again!” Yushu said with a disappointed face.

“No next time!” Qibing almost fell down from the wheelchair. *Motherf*cker, was she doing that on purpose? Let’s see who has the last laugh when the bomb explodes!*

“Shu!” Mengyao pulled Yushu out and stopped her from bullsh*tting any further. This was the other’s territory, after all. She was afraid that Yushu would offend them and cause a big problem.

Yushu stuck out her tongue and followed Lin Yi out the office, entered the lift and came to the underground parking lot.

While the people in the office: Zhao Qibing, Li Cihua, Su Jiaonang, and Zhang Yuzhou, went back to the monitor room, observing Lin Yi and gang behind the screen. They were delighted when they saw the gang entering the car!

“Hahaha, Lin Yi is a master, what can martial arts do now? It’s all the same. You are going to die from an explosion!” Qibing roared into laughter.

“Yeah, getting the check but can’t survive to change them to cash. After the “boom”, even the check will be burned to a crisp.” Jiaonang laughed dryly.

Jiaonang was the one who suggested the idea of using a check instead of an online transaction or cash formally during the discussion. They couldn’t get back the money if it was an online transaction but by using a check, the check would burn into ashes.

“En, Su Jiaonang, you’re sure cunning. This trick is indeed pretty good. Not only can we kill Lin Yi, we also get to save such a large sum of money!” Qibing praised him.

“Ha, then we have to give credits to back to you Master Bing, aren’t you the one who cultivated me into the person I am now? Master Bing doesn’t require these skills since you do great business and earn big money! Leave these schemes and intrigues to your underlings!” Su Jiaonang said humbly.

“En, Zhang Yuzhou, are you sure there’s no problem with the time bomb?” Qibing nodded and looked at Zhang Yuzhou.

“Rest assured, Master Bing. I used this much of TNT dynamite. The explosion could even flatten the whole building to ground!” Zhang Yuzhou said cockily. “This time, I don’t believe we can’t kill him this time. The only concern is that the explosion will affect people nearby....”

“Affect people? That has nothing to do with us. Who asked them to park their cars near the broken van? They deserved it!” naturally, Qibing didn’t care about others. As far as he was concerned, nothing mattered more than Lin Yi’s death. If the innocent ones were involved, then they had to blame themselves for having an unfortunate life!

“You’re right, who asked them to park their cars near Lin Yi’s broken van? They deserve to die!” Zhang Yuzhou repeated what Qibing said. “I set the timer as twenty minutes. According to the current traffic condition, from Qibing's skyscraper, they won't reach Songshan's First Hospital, Mengyao's villa, Songshan's first school or even the nearest bank to claim the cash so in all in if Lin Yi didn't stop his car beside the road and walk away, his death is confirmed!"

"Good, let's wait for the good news then!" Qibing nodded. He was indescribably pleased! It was not that he didn't want revenge, just that it wasn't the time back then but the time had finally arrived! How was it? No matter how powerful Lin Yi is, how overpowering a master you are, you are still going to die under my hand, aren't you?

After starting the car, the jade vibrated a little, sending a signal to Lin Yi!

There was an arising problem. Lin Yi flinched but he stayed calm and turned off the engine.

"Tick.... Tick...."

Within the car, there was a feeble sound. It was the sound of the second hand on a mechanical clock! time bomb! It was what came to Lin Yi's mind.

Although Lin Yi'd arrived in Songshan city for more than a month, he still couldn't forget the cruel life on the battlefield!

There was no way a sound like this would be produced within a car and even the jade sent him a signal. Naturally, Lin Yi knew something was wrong.

In a nanosecond, Lin Yi realized the Qibing's real intention of inviting him to the negotiation today was all for this moment!

During the negotiation, they acted all obedient and at the same time ordered someone to install a time bomb under his car!

Thus, once he started the engine, driving away from the building, the bomb would be triggered once the time was up, killing everyone including himself in the car! This scheme was actually pretty well planned?

Lin Yi also understood why Qibing didn't want to use online transaction now and wanted a check instead!

During the explosion, the check would be burned into ashes too. In that way, he could even save his bank money and not losing anything. Zhao Qibing wasn't actually stupid, after all?

Lin Yi smiled coldly when the realization dawned upon him. Asking him not to interfere with the relocation project? That was also a pretty decent excuse indeed!

If Lin Yi wasn't this alert, he might have been baited. But luckily Lin Yi had never believed in Qibing's words even for a moment. He had been staying cautious all this time!

Without any reaction, Lin Yi started the engine again, got out of the parking lot and entered the main road. He quickly stopped his car at the corner of the road. This was a blind angle for the building, they couldn't see them clearly in the building.

A wicked plan already surfaced in Lin Yi's brain so he couldn't allow Qibing and Cihua to find out what he was plotting.

In fact, Qibing and Cihua were sitting on top of the world, feeling glorious contended. They didn't even notice where Lin Yi headed because it didn't matter anymore, he couldn't possibly escape death! So what was the point of noticing him? What if the police looked for them if they noticed too much? That wouldn't be a good idea!

Chapter 770: Treat You Guys to a Show

Treat You Guys to a Show

Qibing didn't believe that the police could do anything because there was no evidence. With his status, no one could possibly blame him. However, getting the police's attention was never an optimistic thing, either.

"Is everything okay?" Tang Yun asked when Lin Yi parked the car at the corner of the road.

"Ah, nothing. I think there's something wrong with the car? Let me check." Naturally, Lin Yi wouldn't mention a thing about the bomb in the car. He didn't want to cause panic within them.

Of course, Lin Yi wasn't in a hurry and was not afraid that the bomb would go off any second because he knew that Qibing and Cihua were no idiots. They wouldn't set the timer for such a short period of time. What if Lin Yi hadn't driven very far and the car exploded in their parking lot, weren't they just idiots if that happened?

"Could you please get a better car?" Mengyao had never believed in Lin Yi's broken van.

"Ha, I'll probably be able to buy one later, or I'll use your or Shu's car next time?" Lin Yi smiled and shrugged his shoulder.

"Oh, you can drive my s5." Mengyao didn't care about cars. She didn't like things like that and wouldn't be bothered if Lin Yi drove it.

However, along this road, Tang Yun's state of mind changed drastically. She realized that she should have a heart of gratitude. She wouldn't feel threatened if she had one. Mengyao and Yushu could help make Lin Yi a better person. Why was she stopping him?

Besides, there was something that couldn't be avoided even if she insisted. All she could do was to try her best to be useful to Lin Yi.

After getting down the car, he checked and found the timed bomb installed under the car. It was an old style timed bomb, dismantling it should be a piece of cake!

But in China, in a place like Songshan city, making a bomb like this was actually commendable because the high-end electronic bomb was hard to find. In a situation like this, this was the best they could offer.

Lin Yi checked the remaining time. There was still seventeen minutes left, the enemy probably set the timer as twenty minutes. After knowing the remaining time, Lin Yi didn't bother to touch the timed bomb anymore and didn't even have the intention to dismantle it, either!

Lin Yi got up the car and started the engine again.

“Okay?” Mengyao asked.

“Ha, I’ll bring you guys to a good show later.” Lin Yi started the car and slowly got back to the main track.

“Oh, good show? What show? I want to watch!” Yushu was fired up when she heard “good show”.

“The show that you wanted to watch the most.” Lin Yi found out that Yushu had a hidden talent. She could very much be a prophet herself. Almost everything she said came true.

“The show I wanted the most?” Yushu startled. She didn’t understand what Lin Yi was referring to.

“We’ll see later.” Lin Yi smiled.

Mengyao and Tang Yun were slightly hesitant. They didn’t know what Lin Yi was referring to as well. Although they wanted to know what was going on, since Lin Yi didn’t answer Yushu’s question directly, they didn’t see the need to ask further.

Lin Yi drove to an area that was wide enough to see the whole of Qibing’s skyscraper. This place was pretty far away from the building. There was a definite distance. Lin Yi was afraid that if they got too near to the skyscraper, the girls might get injured from the impact.

Lin Yi found a suitable spot and stopped his car.

“Why are you stopping here?” Mengyao asked.

“Shield bro, when are we watching the show?” Yushu asked.

“Here?” Tang Yun and Mengyao paused, but Yushu only jumped down the car excitedly and looked around.

“Yes, here.” Lin Yi nodded. “Over here, look at Qibing’s skyscraper. There’s a good show coming later.”

Mengyao wanted to comment, but after she saw the confidence in Lin Yi’s face, she got down the car with Yushu, not asking any question.

Tang Yun pulled Mrs. Tang down the car too. Mrs. Tang was lost, throwing question after question at Tang Yun.

“I don’t know, but Lin Yi said he is treating us to a show? Let’s watch.” Tang Yun told her mother.

In actuality, Tang Yun had secretly figured out what Lin Yi was about to do. Could it be that Lin Yi was going to do something against Zhao Qibing again?

Was it going to be dangerous? Tang Yun wanted to warn Lin Yi to be careful, but after seeing Lin Yi’s smile, she swallowed back the words into her stomach.

“Wait here for a while.” Lin Yi didn’t get down from the car.

“What are you doing? Don’t listen to Shu.” Mengyao was a little worried.

“Hehe, I’m just returning something to Zhao Qibing.” Lin Yi smiled as he started the car and moving towards the Qibing’s skyscraper slowly, “Yaoyao sis, Shield bro said that he’s treating us to a show? What are we supposed to watch?” Yushu looked at Mengyao and asked with questioning eyes.

“I don’t know, didn’t he say look at Qibing’s skyscraper?” Mengyao pointed at the building.

“Oh, shield bro isn’t installing a bomb in the building, is he? Hohoho, lovely!” thinking at all the possibilities made Yushu extremely exhilarated. “Shield bro is just way too nice to me. Shu loves you the most!!”

Mengyao eyed Yushu. “What are you mumbling again?”

“Nothing...” Yushu shut her mouth up.

Tang Yun frowned. Just what did this Chen Yushu think she was doing? Was she really that shameless? Blurting out anything as she wished? Even I don’t have the courage to say that out loud.

However, was Lin Yi really installing a bomb in the building? Tang Yun’s feelings told her that Yushu was right. Lin Yi did ask them to stay put and look at the skyscraper. There must be something going on in the building....

But why did Lin Yi want to install a bomb in the building? Did he really do that just for Chen Yushu?

Tang Yun knew that Lin Yi was not a shallow person, but as she looked at Yushu closely, she was indeed a very likable girl. If she was a man, she might have fallen head over heels for her?

Lin Yi calculated the time precisely. He entered the parking lot when only five minutes were remaining.

After getting down the car, Lin Yi locked the car directly and dashed out from Qibing’s skyscraper.

There was a sly cold smile on Lin Yi’s face. Trying to kill me with a bomb? Please enjoy the bomb yourself.

At the same time, inside the monitoring room on the second floor of Qibing’s skyscraper, Zhao Qibing and gang were immensely pleased with themselves.

Chapter 771: The Skyscraper Collapsed Again

The Skyscraper Collapsed Again

“We shall open champagne to celebrate Lin Yi’s death tonight. For a greater achievement in our business in Songshan city!” Qibing had been wanting to kill Lin Yi even in his dreams. Now that his dream came true, he was over the moon and didn’t know what to do.

“I think it’s about time, the bomb in Lin Yi’s car is exploding any second now right?” Zhang Yuzhou looked at his watch.

“En, Cihua, turn on the TV, we might see the news report on the TV,” Qibing ordered.

“Yes, Master Bing!” Cihua wanted to turn on the TV but he was stopped by a phone call.

Cihua subconsciously took out his phone and looked at the incoming call name. It was from Lin Yi. He pondered and answered the call anyway. Although he didn't know why was Lin Yi calling him now, it was still not a bad idea to hear how he caught up in the explosion.

"Hello? Lin Yi, what's wrong?" Cihua asked lightly.

"Cihua bro? I just remembered that I've got something to settle right now, I'm leaving my car in your place first. Please take care of it! If anything happens to my car, I'll look for you!" Lin Yi ended the call when he was done.

"Huh? What do you mean? What are you talking abo...? ...EH?!?!" Cihua was dumbfounded. His eyes were staring at the monitoring screen. He was stunned, not moving an inch, as if he was immobilized by a paralyze spell.

"What are you doing?" Qibing was taken aback by Cihua's "EH" as he complained.

"Master Bing, Master Bing, it's no good. No good at all. It's back!" Cihua was woken up by the complaint and returned back to his senses as he pointed at the monitoring screen with shaky fingers. "He's returned!"

"What is back?" Qibing startled.

"LIN YI! Lin Yi has returned!" Cihua said hurriedly. "Lin Yi's car is back to our underground parking lot!"

"WHAT? What did you say?" Qibing was shocked as he turned his head towards the monitoring screen. He was transfixed by the sight! All he saw was Lin Yi's broken van reappearing in his building's parking lot again! "Quick, get that stupid van out!"

"We don't have the key, and it's too late to push the car out by force now, only five minutes are left before the bomb is activated!" Zhang Yuzhou looked at the monitoring screen and pointed at it, shivering, "Master Bing, we should run for our lives!"

"Go dismantle the bomb and throw it away from us!" Master Bing panicked as he ordered.

"Master Bing, we don't have enough time for that. Besides, who has the balls to go there now?" Cihua pondered and suggested, "It'll approximately take us two minutes to the ground floor with the lift. We should better escape this place when we still can!"

"Motherf*cker, move your hands and legs then, push me to the ground floor! Lin Yi, you arrogant son of a b*tch! Deceiving me!" A mad glitter in his blood-shot eyes!

Cihua quickened his movements and pushed Master Bing into the lift and while Su Jiaonang and Zhang Yuzhou following behind them. They were driven into a frenzy when they reached the ground floor, sprinting away from the building like nobody was watching. Qibing couldn't care about the bumpiness of the road anymore as he rushed: "Quick, quick quick! Faster!"

Four of them finally successfully escaped the building and while they were still running, an ear deafening "Boom" could be heard from their back, following the sound of the building collapsing. A brand new high-rise skyscraper was flattened into nothing!

Qibing felt like weeping when he saw his newly built skyscraper collapsed!

“Collapsed? Again? It was like a dream to Qibing. The first building was leveled on the first day. Now the second building was gone for good on the first day as well! This speed was immensely fast. It was like a record that has never been approached and will never be approached again.

The blood in Cihua’s face drained and turned iron green. He never did he expect Lin Yi to play this trick! Leaving the car in the building in the last five minutes. Who would dare touch the van? Even if they knew where was the bomb, no one was daring enough to get near the bomb!

“F*ck! What is this bomb? Why was the power this strong?” Qibing stared at the flattened land, face blood red as he asked.

“TNT... I was afraid that a normal bomb wouldn’t kill him. After all, he’s a golden class master so I used...” Zhang Yuzhou’s voice was weak as he explained.

“, my skyscraper!” Qibing almost cried out. How hard was it to build a skyscraper this high? The first building was leveled by Lin Yi and now the second building collapsed from explosion....

However, who could he blame? Lin Yi or himself? Zhao Qibing felt like he was helpless. He had wanted to use the bomb to kill Lin Yi formally but at the end, Lin Yi was still alive and his skyscraper was flattened!”

Wasn’t this injustice? If the building and Lin Yi were both down, Qibing wouldn’t be this upset. Killing Lin Yi for the price of a skyscraper, it was totally okay! But Lin Yi was still safe and sound!

“Master Bing, I didn’t think that.... If I knew this would happen I would’ve used a normal bomb...” Seeing how ugly Qibing’s face became, Zhang Yuzhou said guiltily.

“Lin Yi, If I don’t kill you, my name is not Zhao Qi Bing! You f*cking arrogant shit!” Qibing didn’t blame Zhang Yuzhou. For every grievance someone is responsible. For every debt, there is a debtor. Zhang Yuzhou was just being cautious. He wanted to make sure that the bomb used was able to kill Lin Yi, so there was no way Zhao Qibing would blame him for being careful. He could only blame Lin Yi for being so shady, returning the bomb back to the building.

But at this moment, Cihua’s phone rang again.

“It’s Lin Yi...” Cihua looked at the screen and said carefully.

“Answer it, let’s hear what he’s about to say!” Qibing clenched his teeth.

“Hello?” Cihua answered.

“Cihua bro, what’s going on with your building? My car was still in your parking lot, aren’t you guys a little irresponsible? You guys have to pay for that!” Lin Yi sounded like he was in great shock.

“...” Cihua wanted to shout but he held back after pondering.

Qibing who was standing beside heard the whole conversation, he stretched his hand out to Cihua: “Give me the phone!”

Cihua quickly passed the phone to Qibing.

“Lin Yi? Okay, you better be prepared!” Qibing’s tone was full of hatred.

"I say, Master Bing, what are you talking about? I don't understand what you mean. Now, my car is involved in your stupid building's problem. You guys should at least pay for my loss, right?" Lin Yi said faintly. "Did you guys have anything dangerous inside the building? Do you want me to report this to the police?"

Chapter 772: Shield Bro is just too Strong

Shield Bro is just too Strong

Smoke almost came out from Qibing's head. The police? Who should I report this to? You were the one who flattened my skyscraper with a bomb, okay?

However, Qibing really didn't want the police to be involved. Who knew the police might investigate out something out of luck? After all, the explosion happened in Qibing's skyscraper parking lot, if the police were to track back the source of the bomb, Qibing was afraid that they might actually get something out of it.

"This is just a broken van we're talking now. Do you really need that little money?" Qibing loathed.

"Master Bing, there's a big difference between that little money and my car. That car of mine is a high-end car. I spent three hundred thousand for it, y'know!" Lin Yi said solemnly.

F*ck! Three hundred thousand?

Qibing almost smashed the phone to the ground! Three hundred thousand. Why don't you go rob a bank instead? Did you think that you were driving BMW? Even if that was a BMW van, it certainly didn't cost you three hundred thousand!

"Three hundred thousand, I'll pay you." Qibing didn't want to offend Lin Yi, "But please remember the event today, this is not the end."

"Ha, Cihua bro has my account number, get him to transfer the money over." Lin Yi smiled. "This time, you won't exceed the bank limit again right?"

Qibing was out of breath. He directly ended the call and smashed the phone to the ground, mercilessly.

"Master Bing, this time we are really facing bankruptcy!" Cihua couldn't care much about the phone anymore as his heart was already broken. Two skyscrapers... One was sponsored by Jin Gubang and he was just helping out with some money, but the second building was fully on his pocket. He used using all his savings to build this!

When the skyscraper collapsed, his heart bled. There was so much money was wasted! His blood, sweat, and tears were all gone now!

"Start the relocation project tomorrow! Demolish the slums and the children's home as well! Build them with houses. I want to earn back what was lost!" Qibing roared loudly. "Get the project moving, quick!"

"Yes, Master Bing!" Cihua nodded. "How about Qibing's skyscraper...."

“Forget about it! Just get a place set as our office first. We’ll rebuild the skyscraper when the slums and children’s home earn us enough money!” Qibing couldn’t care about his dignity now. He knew they couldn’t build another skyscraper right now. They’d suffered greatly, and if they didn’t start earning money now, only bankruptcy awaited them!

Qibing had wanted to show off his results to House Zhao formally, but not only did he fail to produce any significant result, but his skyscrapers were also flattened twice. It was impossible for him to be part of the Zhaos now, he could only wish that the heirs of House Zhao wouldn’t take him for a joke!

“Okay, understood. I’ll go to the slums personally tomorrow!” Cihua sighed. Fighting Lin Yi was Qibing’s business. He couldn’t do anything that could possibly harm him as his lackeys couldn’t even be considered as his opponent!

As far as he was concerned, there was no way they could win Lin Yi in playing dirty now. Today, their building was flattened and Lin Yi was still alive. How unlucky was that!

Mengyao, Yushu, Tang Yun and Mrs. Tang who were not far from the building, stared at the Qibing’s skyscraper, not knowing what would happen to the building before them.

“Yaoyao sis, is there anything wrong with this building?” Yushu panicked as she asked.

“Don’t worry, wait patiently.” Mengyao didn’t know what was in Lin Yi’s mind, either.

“Oh...” A “bomb” sound erupted when Yushu nodded her head. The following scene was like a movie special effect. The skyscraper collapsed to the ground and transformed into a flattened land!

Qibing’s skyscraper collapsed! Mengyao’s eyes widened and even Tang Yun and her mother were surprised too.

“WOW, Shield bro is just too strong!” Yushu covered her mouth in awe. It was a peculiar scene before her. She couldn’t believe that Lin Yi really did this for her! What she said earlier was just a joke because she knew it wasn’t simple to make a building collapse.

But, Lin Yi did it!

A trace of sweet happiness blossomed in Yushu’s heart. Shield bro was so nice to her. She wanted to watch the whole process of a collapsing building and here it was shield bro granted her wish! No doubt, the concubine was pampered!

Mengyao rubbed her eyes. She couldn’t believe what just happened right before her! Did the building just collapse?

Tang Yun thought that Lin Yi was too ruthless? Didn’t he just flatten their building not long ago, and here he was doing it again? Master Bing did mention that this building worth a hundred million. One hundred million just vanished into the thin air like it was nothing? How much money was that? Tang Yun was staring blankly....

Mrs. Tang felt a prick in her heart too. How wonderful would it be if one hundred million was transferred to her? Such a waste!

“Was it fun?” when everyone had their jaws on the ground, Lin Yi’d returned.

“Oh, shield bro, you are so powerful. Shu is exhilarated!” Yushu screeched. “My wish was finally answered. That was so much fun!!”

“Lin Yi, how did you do that?” Mengyao was surprised- just how did Lin Yi accomplish that task?

“Lin Yi, are you okay?” Tang Yun didn’t want to lose.

“Ha, Zhao Qibing wanted to kill all of us with an explosion so he installed a time bomb in our car.” Lin Yi didn’t mind explaining now since the danger was over now. “What I did was just driving my car back to the basement of the building...”

“Time bomb!” Mengyao flinched. “Previously you said that there was something wrong with your car, but all you did was check the bomb?”

“You’re right. I was scared that the bomb would cause panic so I didn’t tell you guys about the bomb.” Lin Yi nodded.

“Why were you doing something so dangerous? You should have escaped with us when you knew there was a time bomb in the car. Why did you send the car back instead?” Tang Yun was frightened when she heard Lin Yi. What if he didn’t calculate the time properly? The thing that will be crumpled into pieces wasn’t the building but Lin Yi if he was careless!

Did Lin Yi do this just to please Chen Yushu? Tang Yun didn’t feel good at the thought.

“You’re being too generous. Besides, if I just dumped my car beside the road, innocent people on the road would be affected.” Lin Yi shrugged. “The best location I could think of was Qibing’s skyscraper underground parking lot since it can prevent the death of innocent people..”

“Oh, then is Zhao Qibing dead?” Yushu asked excitedly.

“Nope, I warned them before the bomb explodes. Who will compensate for my car if they died?” Lin Yi didn’t think that he could kill Qibing with a bomb. Even without the call, they could still see Lin Yi driving back the car from the monitoring room.

So Lin Yi was just pranking them by making the phone call.

Chapter 773: Naughtier Than Shu

Naughtier Than Shu

“Oh shield bro, you said earlier that you would get a new car, right? It seems like you planned out everything, after all! You’re naughtier than Shu!” Yushu grinned like the cat.

“Ha, not as naughty as you.” Lin Yi smiled too.

“Definitely naughtier than me, but Shu loves naughty people the most!!” Yushu felt like Lin Yi suited her very much. He was her cup of tea. They could be a perfect pair.

“Lin Yi are you sure there won’t be consequences to flattening their skyscraper again?” Tang Yun frowned. Yushu was being so obvious. Even if you love Lin Yi, you can choose not to express it in front of me, right?

“I didn’t do that. They did everything themselves from installing the bomb to flattening the skyscraper. I still have to call a taxi to get back my compensation!” Lin Yi said as if his heart was bleeding. “That was my first car, very memorable. Do you still remember how our love sparkled there?”

“What are you talking?” Tang Yun blushed. She suddenly recalled back what happened that night. Because of the drug Zou Ruoming fed her, she was unable to control herself. That was also the first time Lin Yi touched her body? At that moment, she also confirmed her feelings towards Lin Yi, and they started dating?

Probably? Tang Yun couldn’t remember the details. She felt like she fell for Lin Yi in that instant.

The Miss was still putting on a cool face, pretending to not hear Lin Yi and Tang Yun, “Lin Yi, how do we go back now?” she asked after they finished with their little sweet talk.

“I’ve called Uncle Fu to pick you guys up. He should be on his way now?” Lin Yi continued: “On the way back home, can you please help Auntie Wong with the check when you guys pass by the bank? She has never done things like this before.”

“Okay.” The Miss nodded, her face was still impassive. Nobody could figure out what was she thinking.

Although Uncle Fu’s car wasn’t small, it could only fit five people. This meant that Lin Yi was the extra one out. He’d decided to use his own feet and let Uncle Fu send the girls to school.

Mengyao thought that they weren’t going to fit, so she asked, “How are you going back?”

“I’ve to look for Song Lingsan and ask her if any documents are needed for the destroyed car.” Lin Yi replied.

While they were talking, Uncle Fu’s Bentley came to sight. Lin Yi opened the door for Mrs. Tang to enter the co-driver seat with the girls at the back.

For Mrs. Tang’s entire life, she had never been in such a fancy car. The surface of the car was well polished. Her heart was pounding like the hooves of a deer. She had only seen this car on the TV. She never knew that she would have the luxury to sit on it?

Tang Yun, on the other hand, was feeling rather awkward since Lin Yi was not joining. Sitting with Mengyao and Yushu made her uncomfortable, but she let of a breath of relief when she suddenly remembered that she came here with Mengyao and Yushu in Lin Yi’s car.

The driver, Uncle Fu, was also showing respect towards Tang Yun and Mrs. Tang. He didn’t have a single ounce of disdain in his eyes.

In fact, even if Lin Yi was not a mystic class master, Uncle Fu would still respect people around him. This was because of Chu Pengzhan, and secondly, because Lin Yi had successfully rescued Mengyao a few times. Because of these two factors, Uncle Fu would treat Lin Yi’s friend with extra respect!

Besides, Uncle Fu learned that Lin Yi was a mystic class master yesterday. He even created a golden class dog, no less! Uncle Fu's respect for Lin Yi came from the bottom of his heart, like worshipping a strong master!

This was also the main reason why Lin Yi would call Uncle Fu to pick them up. He knew that Uncle Fu wouldn't be rude to them. As for the Miss and Shu, both of them were kind in heart. It was obvious that they would never use money to provoke and challenge Tang Yun.

In actuality, during the war of Mengyao and Tang Yun, Mengyao never mentioned a thing about her status, family, money and so on. What they argued was who was prettier, who could be in threesomes.....

Lin Yi found the whole thing laughable and at the same time, he was able to understand the Miss at a deeper level now.

The Miss wouldn't differentiate people with money and status. The first time when she met Lin Yi, she held hostility against him. It was a defense mechanism she had against strangers! Ever since she was young, the Miss never had any friends. So for her to accept a guy staying with her under the same roof was impossible. It only reflected her lonely past even more.

After knowing the Miss for a time, Lin Yi found out that the Miss was actually a very very adorable girl in person. The longer they know each other, the cuter Lin Yi found her to be.

Lin Yi started walking to school after sending them off. On the way to school, he was thinking of buying a seven-seater station wagon? Otherwise, he wouldn't be able to bring everyone out at one go.

If he was driving Tang Yun, Kang Xiaobo, Xiaofen, and Xinwen only, he only needed a normal car, but who knew if Mengyao and Yushu would want to join.

Looking for Song Lingsan was just an excuse. He didn't want Mengyao to be concerned for him, so he used that as a reason to hide the fact that he was walking to school.

Yu Xiaoke had a pretty magnificent loot in these two days. She slaughtered a fat sheep yesterday and successfully escaped from Song Lingsan's pursuit. This made her ecstatic. Yu Xiaoke felt like she was a mouse who made fun of a cat. She was feeling superb.

Today, her luck wasn't that bad, either. She met a member of the thief organization, and while the thief was happily finding a place to count the stolen money... Yu Xiaoke's face remained unchanged as she followed him. She might be a thief but she had strong principles. She only targeted uncharitable rich people, evildoing people, and also people in the same profession!

Sometimes, Yu Xiaoke would double-cross another thief.

And today the member of the thief organization was targeted by Yu Xiaoke.

Xiaoke followed the thief carefully at the back, envying how much money he had stolen to fill up that pocket on his pants. It was a fortune, probably ten thousand RMB! She didn't know where he got the money from, but looking at the size of the wallet- it was surely from a rich man!

There might be shopping cards inside the wallet too!

According to Xiaoke's past experience, many wealthy individuals had shopping cards and coupons inside their wallet that could be used directly for consumption!

Chapter 784: Unfortunate

Unfortunate

Of course, Song Lingshan only wanted to take Yu Xiaoke down without killing her. Otherwise, Yu Xiaoke may be reborn or travel into another world if Song Lingshan used her strength of a gold division master.

"Ah—!" Yu Xiaoke yelped in pain and fell back heavily on the ground. She spat out a mouthful of blood and fainted.

Lin Yi didn't expect Song Lingshan to make a move so abruptly and frowned, "Why did you do that?"

"How can I catch her if I don't injure her first?" Song Lingshan felt uncomfortable as Lin Yi talked for Yu Xiaoke.

"I told you to catch those in the thief organization, not her," Lin Yi had a rather good impression of Yu Xiaoke. Although he didn't spend too much time with her, Lin Yi respected her. How much courage and willpower did she have to support an entire orphanage by herself?

"She's a thief too!" Song Lingshan looked at Lin Yi stubbornly. She had her morals and although she was obedient to Lin Yi, she wouldn't break her morals and beliefs.

Lin Yi was surprised at Song Lingshan's expressions. Song Lingshan had always been obedient and nice in front of him but now she expressed an opinion different from his! However, Lin Yi understood Song Lingshan's standpoint after pondering for a while.

She was a soldier and Yu Xiaoke was a thief. It was only appropriate for her to punish Yu Xiaoke!

However, her standpoint was different from Yu Xiaoke. Yu Xiaoke thought that she could steal from unjust men for the sake of orphanage, yet Song Lingshan thought that it didn't matter where Yu Xiaoke stole from. As long as she committed robbery, she was a criminal.

Lin Yi nodded and didn't confront Song Lingshan.

On the side, Black Bird was extremely pleased with himself. Song Lingshan attacked Yu Xiaoke and it let out a long breath which he held in for so long. Yu Xiaoke, Yu Xiaoke, you want to send me to jail? I shall send you there first!

What about now? You are not only injured but you will also be caught!

Lin Yi wanted to check Yu Xiaoke's injuries and he bumped Black Bird lightly when he walked past by. Black Bird was busy feeling pleased and didn't notice it.

However, Black Bird began to feel like something was wrong after Lin Yi left. Why was his body feeling aroused? A strong sexual desire rose from the bottom of his heart and his eyes lost focus. He turned to Song Lingshan with sinister expressions.

It looked like he was trying to retain his desires but he could only succeed for one second before he became insane and flung himself at Song Lingshan, "Pretty little girl, give me... I want you to... play with me!"

Song Lingshan was disgusted Black Bird's yellow teeth and foul breath. Why was Black Bird so daring? How dare he molest her in front of everyone else?

Song Lingshan was wondering when Black Bird's hands reached out for her chest. Song Lingshan fumed and kicked Black Bird's crotch. He screeched and fell onto the ground while rolling his eyes. His final words were, "My other ball..."

Naturally, Lin Yi was the one who did it. Lin Yi merely stimulated a few acupoints on Black Bird's body, making his sexual desire exceptionally strong. This method could be used for impotence and lack of sexual desire, but since Black Bird already had strong sexual desires and lost himself under Lin Yi's manipulation.

The members of the thief organization found it odd. Did Black Bird lose his mind? How dare he harass Song Lingshan? Was he trying to die?

However, they could barely get themselves out of the situation. They weren't in the mood to think further.

All of them lowered their heads, scared to breathe too loudly, afraid that they would be Song Lingshan's next target!

However, Song Lingshan obviously didn't want to take it further and turned around to arrange an ambulance. Liu Wangli already arranged one for Giant Deer, but now there were Yu Xiaoke and Black Bird.

Lin Yi didn't care whether Black Bird was alive or dead as he approached Yu Xiaoke.

Lin Yi crouched down and he stretched out his hand to check Yu Xiaoke's injuries. However, Yu Xiaoke suddenly opened her eyes and gave Lin Yi a meaning glance.

Lin Yi was surprised, "You didn't faint?"

"I'm fine... I can somewhat hold on for a bit longer..." Yu Xiaoke smiled miserably, "Thank you for taking revenge for me..."

Yu Xiaoke guessed that Lin Yi was the one who did it or Black Bird wouldn't dare to harass a female officer at a time like this!

"Ha, an act of convenience," Lin Yi didn't know why but pitied Yu Xiaoke.

Lin Yi was a rather cold person and held an indifferent attitude to his enemies and strangers. He only treated his friends sincerely. However, he was deeply moved by Yu Xiaoke after two encounters.

Lin Yi was an orphan and Yu Xiaoke was most likely one too. Otherwise, she wouldn't be so busy trying to support the orphanage. In a way, these two were similar.

“Song Lingshan is coming and I have to faint now! Don’t expose me!” Yu Xiaoke suddenly blinked and tilted her head to one side, fainting on the ground.

Lin Yi didn’t help her since she asked him not to. Song Lingshan guided the medics towards Yu Xiaoke and Lin Yi quickly moved to the side.

Song Lingshan helped the doctors and nurses to lift Yu Xiaoke and Black Bird onto the stretcher, moving them to the ambulance. The thief organization was almost all captured. The one who was not arrested yet didn’t dare to escape as there were police with real guns and bullets surrounding them. They couldn’t run away even if they wanted to. The better option was to wait for the police to arrest them.

“How did you meet her?” Song Lingshan saw that Lin Yi followed her and she asked him in a low voice.

Lin Yi glanced at Song Lingshan without explaining. It was rather complicated to explain as it started from the homeless man he met last time and he wasn’t bothered to recount everything.

Song Lingshan felt wrong but she was also worried. Was Lin Yi blaming her for asking too much?

Well, indeed she was asking a lot from Lin Yi, and she relied on Lin Yi for almost all of the cases. What if Lin Yi thought she was annoying from asking too many questions?

Chapter 785: Xiaoke Sis

Xiaoke Sis

Song Lingshan couldn’t understand what was so good about Yu Xiaoke. She was just a thief, so why did Lin Yi care so much about her?

The instant when Yu Xiaoke’s stretcher was about to be loaded into the ambulance, she suddenly jumped up from the stretcher and waved her hands at Song Lingshan, “Lingshan sis, goodbye! I’m going!”

The ambulance was parked outside the area which the police sealed with tape, so there wasn’t much police guarding it. The few people who were there were only there to help the doctors and nurses. No one would imagine that a severely injured patient could run away!

“Yu Xiaoke! Stop right there!” Song Lingshan’s nose was crooked from anger. Yu Xiaoke was too cunning! She pretended to be unconscious to guard before running away!

It was obviously too late for Song Lingshan to act. Although Yu Xiaoke was injured, her qinggong wasn’t a joke. Song Lingshan regretted not putting her full power into her fist. She didn’t injure Yu Xiaoke severely enough, giving her the chance to escape!

In fact, Song Lingshan misunderstood it. Yu Xiaoke was in fact injured severely. Even if she didn’t use her full strength, not everyone could withstand an attack from a gold division master. Yu Xiaoke could escape with such wounds was because of the beliefs inside her heart. Once Song Lingshan caught her, she didn’t mind going to jail, but what about the children at the orphanage?

Yu Xiaoke clenched her teeth tightly and escaped. The responsibility of providing food and shelter for those children was a heavy burden, and she could not make a single wrong move!

“Lingshan sis, I’ll see you later!” Although she looked like she was in pain, her voice was happy. She successfully escaped from Song Lingshan again.

“Yu Xiaoke, remember this! I’m going to beat you to death next time!” Song Lingshan was furious and glared at Yu Xiaoke.

Yu Xiaoke didn’t argue back this time. She was aware of her injury and her beliefs forced her to support herself and run towards the orphanage.

Lin Yi was touched and said, “I’ll follow her and see how she is.”

“You can catch her?” Song Lingshan was delighted since she thought Lin Yi was going to help her catch Yu Xiaoke.

“No. She’s in bad shape, I’m scared that you’ll kill her,” Lin Yi replied and left.

Song Lingshan stomped her foot angrily. Lin Yi could definitely catch Yu Xiaoke, but he decided not to but to check her wounds!

However, she couldn’t intervene with Lin Yi’s actions. Although she was furious, she couldn’t oppose Lin Yi at all.

Lin Yi followed Yu Xiaoke secretly but saw that Yu Xiaoke ran towards the shanty town. Lin Yi had to admit that she was extremely fast. If he wasn’t in the mystic division and relatively fast, Lin Yi wasn’t certain that he could catch up to Yu Xiaoke.

In an instant, Yu Xiaoke flashed through the alleys in the shantytown, arriving at a shabby orphanage. She pushed the gate open and immediately collapsed onto the ground unable to get up again as she used all her strength to escape.

Lin Yi admired Yu Xiaoke’s endurance. She was so far from here yet she reached here with the last bit of her energy, which was rather rare and valuable.

It was a rather worn out yard. There was a black wooden sign with white writings at the front of the yard. But because it was old, it was rather mottled. There were a few words faintly written on it, but Lin Yi had to look close to see that ‘Shantytown’s Private Orphanage’ was written on it.

So this was the orphanage? The majority of Lin Yi’s doubts towards Yu Xiaoke disappeared. He was almost a hundred percent sure that everything Yu Xiaoke said was true.

However, he was emotionally touched at the condition of the orphanage.

Lin Yi quickly followed her and stopped next to Yu Xiaoke. He lowered his body and reached out to check her wounds.

“Who are you? Let go of Xiaoke sis!”

“Bad guy! Leave Xiaoke sis alone!”

Suddenly, a group of children ran away from the only red brick building standing in the yard, surrounding Lin Yi since they didn't want Lin Yi to step any closer.

"Xiaoke sis, what happened? Wah... Xiaoke sis, why are you vomiting blood?" A little girl saw fresh blood around Yu Xiaoke's mouth and immediately cried.

Another boy who came with the group glared at Lin Yi, "Who are you? Why did you hurt Xiaoke sis?"

Lin Yi didn't think that these children would misunderstand his intentions, but he didn't bother to argue with children weren't they weren't mature enough yet. They saw Yu Xiaoke laying on the ground and thought that Lin Yi was the bad guy who harmed Yu Xiaoke.

However, there was one thing Lin Yi could see and it was the deep connection Yu Xiaoke had with these children. This meant that everything she said before was true. She stole for the sake of these children, for the sake of this orphanage!

"What are you all doing? All of you, get back inside!" An imposing voice sounded behind them and Lin Yi raised his head. It was an old lady around fifty years old. She walked out of the orphanage quickly and stopped in front of in Yi. She glanced at Yu Xiaoke and shifted her glance back to Lin Yi before her expressions becoming more complicated.

"Dean, this person is a bad guy! He hurt Xiaoke sis!"

"Xiaoke sis is bleeding! Can we call the police to catch him?"

"Hush! All of you, get back in!" The old lady whom the children addressed as the dean scolded them, "You have nothing to do here. Go back and read your books!"

"But dean, Xiaoke sis is vomiting blood... Wah..." The younger girl cried and she was unwilling to leave.

"What? You won't even listen to me now? Get back in, now!" The old lady scolded the little girl and pulled her over away from Lin Yi. She then spoke to an older boy, "Ken, take your brothers and sisters back inside!"

The boy named Ken glanced at Yu Xiaoke full of worries, but he didn't dare to oppose the dean's order. He finally gathered the children and took them back inside the red brick house.

Chapter 786: She'll Be Dead If I Don't Save Her

She'll Be Dead If I Don't Save Her

Obviously, these children were worried about Yu Xiaoke's injuries. They saw blood, so how could they stay calm?

The old lady finally looked at Lin Yi after all the children left, "Did Xiaoke steal your money? Even if she did, you were too harsh... And you even followed her here... I'll return the amount she stole from you, but I hope that you can let her go... She's a good girl, I believe you can see it. She steals money for the sake of this orphanage. If I wasn't so useless, I wouldn't let her step outside..."

The old lady didn't want the children of the orphanage to know that their respectful Xiaoke sis worked hard every day to earn money for them was in the way of robbery. Only the lady knew about it and no one else.

That was also why she asked those children to go back inside since it was better to hide this from them. It will affect their perspective, and it was bad for their growth.

Lin Yi immediately knew that the old lady mistook his intentions. She treated him as the person who was robbed and injured Yu Xiaoke. He followed her here obviously for the sake of taking what was taken back.

The old lady was fully aware of Yu Xiaoke's skills. Although she wasn't too powerful, the person who injured her must be an extraordinary person! Since Lin Yi could harm Yu Xiaoke, he obviously practiced martial arts. Although she couldn't tell what level Lin Yi was at, she stayed on guard.

So, she explained and hoped that Lin Yi could understand their difficulty.

"You misunderstood me. She didn't steal my money," Lin Yi shook his head.

"She didn't steal it?" The old lady was surprised, "Why did you harm her if she didn't steal your money?"

Her tone of voice became serious and she looked alarmed. In an instant, an imposing aura surrounded her.

"A Gold division master?" Lin Yi was surprised but shook his head, "You aren't at the gold division yet... But your aura tells me otherwise... Odd..."

Lin Yi immediately sensed the old lady's capabilities the moment she let out her aura. It was the first stage of the gold division! However, although her aura showed that she was at the gold division, Lin Yi sensed that something was wrong. Her energy wasn't heavy, and she at most reached the halfway mark of the gold division. It was as if something sealed half of her pure energy.

"You... You know about the gold division?" The old lady's expressions changed drastically and glared at Lin Yi without blinking. She didn't expect Lin Yi see right through her. Was he a master too?

"I didn't hurt Xiaoke, Song Lingshan was the one who injured her," Lin Yi didn't answer her question about gold division but explained why Yu Xiaoke was harmed.

"Song Lingshan? Song Lingshan from the criminal police department?" The old lady obviously heard of this name before.

"Yes. Please make some space. She's severely injured, and she will die if I don't save her," Lin Yi ignored the lady and squatted down to hold Yu Xiaoke's hand.

The old lady was ready to fight with all she had under the tense situation, but Lin Yi looked like he didn't want to fight with her at all. He squatted down and completely exposed all his weaknesses to her. The old lady didn't know what to do.

Should I attack him or not? The old lady thought that she had the absolute advantage if she attacked from this angle. At least, she could initiate the attack and take the initiative in her own hands. However, Lin Yi said he didn't harm Yu Xiaoke but came to save her?

Although the old lady didn't believe Lin Yi's words, the way he held her hands didn't look like he wanted to harm her either. She calmed down slightly but still stayed alert.

Lin Yi checked Yu Xiaoke's injuries. Song Lingshan's attack only shifted Yu Xiaoke's internal organs, and she could recover after resting for a period of time. However, Yu Xiaoke used the last bit of her energy and ran back to the orphanage, making her situation worse. She had internal injuries and if they weren't treated, she will be left with residual effects even after she healed.

"Find me a quiet room and don't let anyone disturb me!" Lin Yi carried Yu Xiaoke up and ordered the old lady.

"You... Are you really going to save her?" The old lady naturally didn't believe Lin Yi as it was their first encounter. She didn't know what was Yu Xiaoke's relationship with Lin Yi so she hesitated.

"If you can treat her, I'll let you do it," Lin Yi replied indifferently.

"I..." How did she know how to treat injuries? Without Lin Yi, her first decision would be sending Yu Xiaoke to the hospital.

Perhaps Yu Xiaoke's wounds were stimulated when Lin Yi lifted her up. When the old lady was hesitating whether she should believe Lin Yi or not, Yu Xiaoke woke up and opened her eyes with difficulty. Seeing that Lin Yi was carrying her, she froze for a second and said, "You are kinder after all. Are you sending me to the hospital? Did Song Lingshan come after me?"

"Xiaoke, how do you feel?" The old lady didn't expect Yu Xiaoke to wake up and asked in delight.

"Master..." Yu Xiaoke forced a smile, "I'm alright. Song Lingshan attacked me..."

Yu Xiaoke fainted again after finishing her sentence. She thought that Lin Yi would definitely save her and the dean was here. He didn't have to force herself anymore.

The old lady heard Yu Xiaoke's words and saw that she didn't hold any hostility towards Lin Yi. She finally put her heart at rest and guided Lin Yi to an empty room, "This is Xiaoke's room, it's separate from the children. No one should be able to disturb you here... But can you really save her?"

Lin Yi frowned. Since this old lady was Yu Xiaoke's master, and she genuinely cared about her, Lin Yi tried not to act too impatient.

"I can. Leave first," Lin Yi replied.

"But..." The old lady was unwilling to do so since she didn't fully trust Lin Yi. She was afraid that Lin Yi would hurt Yu Xiaoke! Yu Xiaoke was rather pretty and Lin Yi could have evil thoughts. What if he did something wrong to Yu Xiaoke when she was unconscious.

If Lin Yi knew what she was thinking, he could only laugh bitterly.

"You can watch if you want to," Lin Yi didn't chase her away. Since she was at the gold division, she should be able to see how he would save Yu Xiaoke.

Chapter 787: Xiaoke's Boyfriend?

Xiaoke's Boyfriend?

For the past few days, Lin Yi has had fun using his pure energy to save others. Other than pathological changes of the organs, such as Liu Zhenhu's heart disease, his energy could heal anything. When he healed other's outer wounds, the effects were especially obvious.

Lin Yi silently used The Art of Dragon Mastery and the energy produced inside his body continuously rushed into Yu Xiaoke's body. Yu Xiaoke's injuries weren't too severe and she didn't require a large amount of energy, so Lin Yi didn't feel the exhaustion. After a while, Yu Xiaoke's face seemed rosier than before.

The old lady widened her eyes in shock. Lin Yi only held Yu Xiaoke's hand yet her situation became better and better. How was that possible? That looked illogical!

Suddenly, the old lady recalled a shocking possibility... When she was young, she was also injured severely. Her martial arts were discarded from her, and she almost died. Her teacher gave her all her power and skills to her in order to save her!

After she did that, she also reached the end of life like an oilless lamp.

The old lady appreciated her master and because of it, she learned the unimaginable way of passing one's powers onto another one. Was Lin Yi passing his powers onto Yu Xiaoke right now?

What kind of relationship did Lin Yi and Yu Xiaoke have for him to do that? Why would normal friends do that? If it was the old lady, she would sacrifice herself without hesitation to save Yu Xiaoke's life, but that was because of the deep connection she had with Yu Xiaoke!

But why would Lin Yi sacrifice so much? Was he Yu Xiaoke's boyfriend? The old lady suddenly thought of this possibility and began to question it. If this wasn't the case, why would Lin Yi sacrifice himself for Yu Xiaoke? Is he stupid?

The old lady confirmed her assumption. Yu Xiaoke was eighteen years old, and it was an appropriate time for her to have a boyfriend. She neglected this and treated her like a child when Yu Xiaoke was no longer a child!

Yu Xiaoke held too many responsibilities, supporting the entire orphanage herself. She was too tired. With comfort from a boyfriend, perhaps it would help release her pressure!

Of course, the old lady was strict about Yu Xiaoke's boyfriend. However, when she saw that Lin Yi used his pure energy to save Yu Xiaoke, the old lady immediately stopped questioning anything about Lin Yi.

"Phew..." Lin Yi breathed deeply and let go of Yu Xiaoke's hand.

The amount of energy Yu Xiaoke required was far less than Feng Xiaoxiao, Chu Mengyao, and General Weiwu. Although Lin Yi lost some pure energy, it was as light as a feather to him.

"Alright, she should wake up soon," Lin Yi sighed in relief. He had his own standard in handling things. Although he could help Song Lingshan solve different cases, he could also prevent Song Lingshan from catching Yu Xiaoke, "I'm going first."

“What? You’re leaving now?” The old lady was confused. Of course, she was confused since Lin Yi used his pure energy to help Yu Xiaoke, yet he looked indifferent and it was shocking to her.

There were two possibilities for this situation. First, Lin Yi’s power was far beyond her imagination and second, Lin Yi didn’t use his pure energy. If he didn’t, then what was it?

The old lady was also confused that after he spent so many efforts to Yu Xiaoke, he should stay here and wait for her to wake up and at that time. Yu Xiaoke must be shedding tears of gratitude.

Wasn’t that also something that young couples did? But Lin Yi didn’t look like he cared?

“I’m busy, have to go,” Lin Yi nodded, “Oh right. If Song Lingshan gives her trouble again, tell her to call me. This is my number...”

As he spoke, he wrote his number down on the calendar next to Yu Xiaoke’s bed.

“Wait... May I ask, was it pure energy you used when you treated Yu Xiaoke?” The old lady questioned.

“You can say that,” Lin Yi nodded.

“Yu Xiaoke can use your pure energy?” Although she wasn’t too powerful, she knew that the energy of different sects was completely differently and couldn’t be matched and used across the different sects. Forcing pure energy into another body was not only unbeneficial but extremely harmful!

Lin Yi and Yu Xiaoke weren’t familiar with us, not to mention the old lady. Hence, Lin Yi had offered his best to save Yu Xiaoke

Lin Yi decided to help Yu Xiaoke because he respected the girl. Although it was hard, she was optimistic and found joy in hardships every day. She stole so much money, yet she didn’t use a single cent for her own enjoyment. She wore the cheapest clothes, and her room was shabby. It had an old and broken iron window, worn out table, and she didn’t even have a closet. The only luxury in her room was the computer on her desk.

The thick monitor was already out of trend now, and the pc case was missing a side. Both the keyboard and mouse were of the oldest style, but they were wiped neatly. It looked like someone didn’t want it and donate it here.

To a young and beautiful girl, makeup, dressing table and others like closets were a must, yet he saw none in Yu Xiaoke’s room. Other than a Dabao’s SOD facial cream, the only thing left was hand cream in a container made from shells which weren’t seen often nowadays.

It was hard for Lin Yi to imagine that the girl lived like this every day. She had so much money, and yet she never touched any of it?

As for the closet, it was a large cardboard box on the ground. There were a few shirts in it. Other than underwear, she only had two to three sets of outer clothing to change.

If Lin Yi could, he wanted to help Yu Xiaoke generously. Not helping Yu Xiaoke herself, but help all the children in the orphanage!

When Lin Yi walked out of the room, he saw the boy called Ken hid secretly from a short distance and stuck his head out. When he saw that Lin Yi discovered him, he quit hiding and walked out apologetically, "Brother, I'm sorry for misunderstanding you..."

Chapter 788: Yu Xiaoke's Admirer

Yu Xiaoke's Admirer

It was obvious that Ken overheard the talk between Lin Yi and the dean of the orphanage. Lin Yi was surprised. This child dared to disobey the dean's words and eavesdropped on them?

It wasn't because Lin Yi wasn't on guard but because there was nothing he needed to hide in his conversation with the dean, so he didn't bother to prevent others from eavesdropping on them. Not to mention that there were no strangers around the orphanage, Lin Yi decided to relax.

"You know about Xiaoke's situation?" Lin Yi looked at Ken in surprise.

"Yes... I know some, but Xiaoke sis is a good person. Although she steals money, she steals from those bad guys..." Ken was the oldest child out of everyone, around fifteen years old. It was normal for him to understand it, "I... Can I ask you something?"

"What is it?" Lin Yi didn't repel the orphans here and he didn't mind spending a while to talk to them.

"Are you Xiaoke sis' boyfriend?" Ken hesitated and asked shyly and in embarrassment.

Lin Yi felt strange towards the boy's question. Why did he sound jealous and envious? His facial expressions also sold his intentions. Lin Yi was amused, "You like her?"

Ken jumped at Lin Yi's question, and his face immediately flushed red. He clenched his fists and his breathing sped up.

He avoided eye contact with Lin Yi and didn't spend for a long time, "All the mature boys in the orphanage admire Xiaoke sis and want her to be their future wife..."

Ken's words indirectly answered Lin Yi's guess. Although he didn't admit it, it meant the same thing.

"Ha..." Lin Yi smiled and studied Ken carefully. From his height, he didn't seem like he was fifteen. He was taller than 170cm, but his young face exposed his real age.

It was normal for him to have feelings for girls at this age. Yu Xiaoke was pretty, and all these children admired her. They chased after her as if she was an idol, and it was understandable for them to feel this way.

"Don't tell me you do perverted things while holding her photo?" Lin Yi thought that Ken was interesting, and he couldn't help but tease Ken.

"What? No, that's impossible!" Ken immediately panicked and glared at Lin Yi, red-faced, "Xiaoke sis is like a goddess in our hearts! How is it possible for me to do that?!"

“Just wondering, you know. Why are you so angry?” Lin Yi laughed. It looked like Ken wasn’t lying, he probably admired her more than he liked her.

“Well, we all know that we aren’t good enough for Xiaoke sis. She’s kind and beautiful, we hope that she can find a boyfriend who can protect her and give her happiness. A boyfriend who won’t let her be so tired every single day...” Ken suddenly raised his head and looked at Lin Yi, “And we can’t do that... Can you?”

“Me?” Lin Yi was surprised and shook his head, “It’s only my second time meeting her...”

“Huh? You are not Xiaoke sis’ boyfriend?” Ken was shocked, “Then why did you save her?”

“It’s between us adults. Children shouldn’t ask...” Lin Yi didn’t know whether to cry or laugh and tried to make Ken leave, “Go back and focus on your studies. When the dean comes out, we’ll see how she’s going to scold you!”

“No! I’ll go now...” Ken was terrified as Lin Yi mentioned the dean. He grimaced at Lin Yi and returned to the red brick house.

Lin Yi shook his head. After all, Ken was still a child.

However, Ken’s words moved Lin Yi. It wasn’t a great long term plan for Yu Xiaoke to keep stealing. Could he help to bring some benefits to the orphanage?

Lin Yi didn’t like helping others that much, but he changed his attitude this time as he felt sympathetic towards those children.

...

In a not so luxurious room in People’s First Hospital, Kang Zhaoming was lying in bed with IV fluids while cursing gloomily.

He just woke up not long ago. The old man in the morgue who pushed a body out scared him and he fainted. Zhu Xiaozhang and Wang Shubing later carried him to the room.

Kang Zhaoming didn’t wake up after he was injected with some glucose and medicine, “Fuck, who’s he trying to scare with that body?”

“Master Ming, do you want Xiaozhang and I to beat that old man up for you?” Wang Shubing asked carefully.

“Fuck off! That’s useless! What can we solve by beating him? We have to compensate him if he’s injured! You moron!” Kang Zhaoming glared at Wang Shubing, “Right, where’s Guan Xin? Did she come and gave me an injection?”

“No, it was an extremely manly and fierce woman. Her chest was biggest than my butt...” Wang Shubing shook his head.

“Shit. Go and ask when Guan Xin is on shift and get her to me!” Kang Zhaoming ordered, “I can’t catch a cold for nothing! I don’t only suffer, but I also have to pay for it!”

“Who am I supposed to ask? I don’t know anyone in the hospital, it’s not like the East Sea here...” Wang Shubing sighed, “Master Ming, we don’t know anything here!”

“Do you need me to tell you that you can use money to bribe them? Ask someone who knows about bribes with money!” Kang Zhaoming scolded unhappily, “Like that damn woman you mentioned before. Give her some money and I don’t believe that she won’t tell you about it!”

“It... it’s true!” Wang Shubing nodded, “I’ll go and ask later...”

Before Wang Shubing could finish his sentence, the door to the room opened. The woman they mentioned before came in and roared, “Is the patient awake yet?”

“Yes, yes. Aunt, are you here to check?” Wang Shubing wanted to ask her questions and became extremely polite.

“What are you talking about? Who’s an aunt? I’m not even married yet!” The nurse glared at Wang Shubing and almost slapped him.

“Uh... I’m so sorry, I didn’t know you were this pretty until I came close to you!” Wang Shubing jumped and immediately changed his saying, “I have bad vision, please forgive me!”

“That’s right!” The woman glared at Wang Shubing and approached Kang Zhaoming, “Aren’t you find now? What’s wrong with youngsters these days. You are hospitalized for a small cold. You are fine. You can leave today!”

Chapter 789: Kang Zhaoming Mutilation

Kang Zhaoming Mutilation

“Ah... Can I still stay for two more days...” whispered Wang Shubing, “Nurse, can I speak with you privately?”

“Speak with me privately? If you have something to say, then you can just say it right here. I am very busy!” The nurses did not have a good impression of Wang Shubing since he had previously called her aunt.

“Eh...” Wang Shubing stuck his hand in his pocket and took out a few hundred dollars. He didn’t know where his wallet went, so he didn’t have much money left. From a quick glimpse, there was about four hundred left. The Majority of the cash was in change, and he didn’t have enough time to withdraw more money from the bank. With this, he continued to speak, “Nurse, can you satisfy my request?”

“What is the meaning of this? Have you watched too many x-rated videos in Japan? I am a proper person. Don’t mix me up with your perverted fantasies!” The nurse glared at Wang Shubing. “Not to mention, with so little money, you want me to throw away my pride? You must be dreaming?”

“Ah?” Wang Shubing was shocked. Who would’ve thought that the nurse would misunderstand him! Even she gave herself to Wang Shubing for free, he wouldn’t want it. He had a request for her, so he only toned down his voice and said “Sorry, miss nurse, you misunderstood me. I’m not thinking about anything perverted. I just want to ask you for information!”

“Information? What is this all about?” The nurse realized it was a misunderstanding, so her attitude lifted. If it was four hundred for information, then it was worth her time to listen to this request. As long as the information he was requesting was within reason. However, if it was regarding hospital secrets, then she would have to decline.

“So it is like this, my Boss... the young master here...” Wang Shubing pointed to Kang Zhaoming laying in the bed and continued. “He wants to court one of the nurses working in this hospital. I’m not asking for any hospital secrets or anything...”

“Ah, you should’ve started with that!” The nurse snatched the money out from Wang Shubing’s hand and shoved it deep into her scrub pocket. “Ask away, I’ll tell you what I know!”

The nurses are allowed to talk about these types of situations. As for the money, she saw it as just red envelope money. She was still doing activities that are still within her job description. She didn’t feel like she did anything wrong by accepting free money.

“That nurse is called Guan Xin. She is also part of the surgical department?” Wang Shubing quickly added.

“Guan Xin, I know her. She is the beauty of the surgical department. What do you want to know?” The nurse didn’t know any real background surrounding Guan Xin, so it didn’t matter what she said.

“Nurse sister, my Boss is staying in the hospital so he can get closer to Guan Xin. Can I know what Guan Xin is responsible for so we can interact with her more? Even if we can’t speak with her, can miss beautiful nurse help do us a favor to aid us?” Wang Shubing had a hard time asking this favor from the nurse.

“Oh, so simple. Guan Xin is responsible for external wound bandaging. Things like needle injections are out of her jurisdiction. If you wanted to see her, then you need external injuries. Even if you die from a cold here, she won’t come and see you!” The nurse spoke up.

“So it is like that. It seems like we went the wrong way about this!” Wang Shubing glanced at Kang Zhaoming. Seems like the cold was all for naught. He didn’t even get a chance to see her.

“In that case, if you had nothing else to ask me, then I will leave. You can think up ideas on your own,” the nurse strutted out the room. With a few sentences, she earned four hundred, what a steal!

“What the fuck!” Kang Zhaoming was clearly aggravated. He violently smacked his bed. “If I knew it was going to be like this, then I would’ve done research first so I didn’t need to suffer!”

“Yeah, young master, let’s just focus on healing your body from the cold first...” Zhu Xiaozhang sighed his response.

“Heal? That nurse didn’t say that at all! I’m almost fully healed! We need to hurry and bring my intimacy level with Guan Xin sooner!” Kang Zhaoming was in a hurry. Every time he closed his eyes, he could see Guan Xin with the bitch Fen being together. That was the source of his insecurity. He didn’t know what their relationship was, so he had to act quickly. He wasn’t sure if Fen had spoken up about their precious relationship history.

Honestly, Fen might not have said anything about her past since it was a shameful event. No one in the right mind would confess. But, then again, the bitch was a little psychotic? On second thought, anything she said would be bad news for him!

So Kang Zhaoming decided it was best for him to get with Guan Xin as soon as possible. As long as he had intercourse with her, it would be checkmate.

“Master Zhaoming, there is one thing you can do, but you would have to suffer for a bit...” Wang Shubing hesitated before offering up another suggestion.

“Oh? You are saying that...” Kang Zhaoming’s eyes lit up.

“Master Zhaoming, you just need to open up a small cut, then have Guan Xin bandage it right?” Wang Shubing suggested.

“That is right. Come on, let’s do it now!” Kang Zhaoming stuck out his forearm and said: “here do it!”

“This...” Wang Shubing didn’t dare to take action. If it was anyone else, he wouldn’t hesitate. However, he was going to injure Kang Zhaoming. This was a little above his pay grade. What if he accidentally cut too deep and left a scar. Could he afford to risk such actions?

“What’s wrong? Hurry!” ushered Kang Zhaoming.

He had a duty he needed to fulfill in Songshan City. This was his first mission for his family so Kang Zhaoming didn’t want to fail. He knew his position in the family. If he didn’t even do this, then he doesn’t have any footing within the family.

“Xiaozhang, you should do it instead...” Wang Shubing suggested.

Zhu Xiaozhang has bigger balls than Wang Shubing, which was why Xiaozhang was the bigger brother of the two. Xiaozhang’s nickname was Cocky Brother Zhang, but never as cocky as Kang Zhaoming.

“Quickly! Why are you hesitating?” Kang Zhaoming rushed. “Over there, I just used that needle from the IV drip. Use that to stab me!”

“Okay, if you say so Master Zhaoming. Bare with the pain!” Zhu Xiaozhang picked up the sharp needle off the table. In one swift move, he created a small gash on Kang Zhaoming’s arm.

“Ahh...” Kang Zhaoming gasped for air. It was truly painful, but he had asked for it. He couldn’t really blame Zhu Xiaozhang.

“Is that okay?” Zhu Xiaozhang asked. He wasn’t sure if he should continue injuring Kang Zhaoming.

“So do you think this is fine?” Kang Zhaoming held onto his injured arm. “Let’s quickly find Guan Xin to treat the wound!”

Kang Zhaoming still had his IV drip attached. He pulled the IV needle out and dashed out from his room.

Kang Zhaoming was quite lucky. Guan Xin didn’t take off today and was on-duty in the surgical department.

Chapter 790: Probing Guan Xin

Guan Xin

“Nurse Guan Xin, help! My boss cut his hand. Can you please treat him?” Wang Shubing pushed open the nurses’ office and spoke to Guan Xin.

Guan Xin lifted her head. She didn’t expect Kang Zhaoming and his friends to come again. She felt disgusted. How could she not know what Kang Zhaoming wanted? She already had someone on her mind and she wouldn’t ever lay her eyes on Kang Zhaoming!

Although the person she liked had someone on his mind, Guan Xin still wouldn’t like Kang Zhaoming.

Although she disliked him, she couldn’t ignore his request. morally. She was the only nurse on shift, so she had no choice but to stand up.

Guan Xin frowned. Kang Zhaoming was much smarter this time. Last time he didn’t even see her and this time he injured his own hand. However, Guan Xin had to treat him first since all severe injuries had to be treated before making up for the medical fees.

“Can I see it?” Guan Xin asked.

“Here. Guan Xin, I’m so unlucky. I caught a cold yesterday and injured my hand today. Ahh, so unfortunate!” Kang Zhaoming lifted his injured left hand up and spoke.

“...” Guan Xin looked at Kang Zhaoming’s hand injury and she was speechless. Why did he need to treat such a tiny wound? An ordinary person would just put some cream or a band-aid on. Why was Kang Zhaoming so spoiled?

“What’s wrong?” Kang Zhaoming saw Guan Xin remained silent and asked in confusion.

Guan Xin didn’t reply but she was certain that Kang Zhaoming did it on purpose. Perhaps he even made the injury himself! She was upset at the thought of it. How could he do that!

Guan Xin opened the cupboard, found a band-aid and passed it to Kang Zhaoming, “Here, stick it on yourself and it’ll do.”

“Huh, do it myself?” Kao Zhaoming froze.

“How do you want me to treat such a tiny wound?” Guan Xin questioned back.

“Well...” Indeed, the wound was too small and it wasn’t wrong for her to give him a band-aid.

“Well... Can you help me with it?” Kang Zhaoming didn’t want to let any chances to get closer to her slip through.

“Isn’t your other hand fine?” Guan Xin frowned.

“But... I’m a patient and you are a nurse, you should help me right... It’s not like I won’t pay for it...” Kang Zhaoming felt wronged.

“Oh, I’ll give you that band-aid for free as a friendly act,” Guan Xin ignored Kang Zhaoming and returned to her desk, picking up a book to read.

Kang Zhaoming didn't have another plan so he stuck on the band-aid himself. He secretly wondered how he could loosen Guan Xin's mouth and ask what was the relationship between her and Fen.

However, he didn't know how to start a conversation on it.

"Why are you still here?" Guan Xin asked in confusion. She waited for a while and found that Kang Zhaoming was still standing in her office.

"Uh... Nothing, I was thinking of going now..." Kang Zhaoming replied, "Oh right, I wanted to see you yesterday, but I saw that you looked like you were going somewhere with a girl whose leg was injured?"

"Mhm..." Guan Xin replied meaninglessly.

"Uh... Is she your friend?" Kang Zhaoming asked carefully.

"Does it have anything to do with you?" Guan Xin didn't understand what Kang Zhaoming was trying to say.

"Uh... Nothing..." Guan Xin's words made Kang Zhaoming's heartbeat anxious since he thought that she meant something deeper.

"Is it related to you?"

Was that a question or rhetorical question? Perhaps she knew the relationship between Fen and him? Kang Zhaoming became even more anxious. Shit, that bitch was such an incompetent woman. If she really told what happened between them to Guan Xin then he would never have a chance.

Kang Zhaoming wasn't too discouraged at Guan Xin's cold attitude. He had his way of pursuing girls. When he started pursuing Fen, Fen acted coldly too. But didn't she fall for him in the end?

So, Kang Zhaoming was certain that he could make Guan Xin love him. However, the main obstacle was Fen. If Fen said what happened between them, it would make Guan Xin stay on guard. Then he really won't have a chance anymore.

Kang Zhaoming stomped after he left Guan Xin's office and asked, "Did you find out anything?"

"Master Ming, I think Guan Xin knows something about it?" Zhu Xiaozhang said.

"That's what I thought. I thought she meant something else? Does she know what happened between Fen and me or not?" Kang Zhaoming was frustrated but he couldn't ask Guan Xin straightforwardly.

"Master Ming, I don't think she knows what happened between you and Fen," Wang Shubing shook his head.

"Oh? Why do you think so?" Kang Zhaoming's expressions immediately changed.

"Master Ming, if you think about it, Guan Xin won't act so coldly towards you if she knew what happened. She should hate you if she knew. The first time you asked her about Fen, she wouldn't only say 'mhm' if she knew what happened, wouldn't she scorn you?" Wang Shubing analyzed.

"That makes sense!" Kang Zhaoming nodded and sighed in relief, "That's good. There is no problem if Guan Xin doesn't know about it"

“Master Ming, we can’t let our guard down. Even if she doesn’t know now, perhaps she’ll know after spending more time with Fen. We must act as soon as possible!” Wang Shubing suggested.

“Mhm. Weren’t we discussing this a while ago? What ideas do you have to make that bitch shut up about it?” Kang Zhaoming was still worried about Fen spilling the tea. If he didn’t take care of it, she was a time bomb.

“Honestly speaking, if you want to make her shut up, I think the only way is to give her some money to seal her mouth!” Wang Shubing hesitated, “I’m afraid that Fen cannot get over both psychological and physical harm as it was severe. She must loathe you so she will only keep quiet if we give her money!”

Kang Zhaoming was unwilling to give money away, but what Wang Shubing said was correct. Nothing was more reliable than money in life. Fen would only shut up if he gave her money!
