

Chapter 791: Compensation and Apology

Compensation and Apology

“At least this much, I think,” Wang Shubing lifted his palm up and hesitated, “Now that the bitch has connections with Kang Xiaobo and Lin Yi, she probably won’t be satisfied with eight or ten thousand!”

“Fifty thousand... It’s a bit too much, but I can accept it,” Kang Zhaoming nodded, “Alright, I’ll talk to my family and tell them to give me this amount. I’ll go see Fen tomorrow morning and get this done as soon as possible to prevent more trouble!”

“You better sign a contract with her. We compensate her fifty thousand after she signs it. She can’t look back to what happened nor can she mention this to others!” Wang Shubing suggested.

“Naturally we will have to do that. Otherwise, what can we do if she takes back what she said after getting the money?” Kang Zhaoming nodded, “My wound is too small. Should I make it more severe next time?”

“There’s no rush!” Wang Shubing waved his hands, “Master Ming, I think it’s suspicious enough that you caught a cold yesterday and injured yourself today. Such a small wound hurts so much, how much will you have to suffer if you have a bigger wound?” Kang Xiaoming pondered and he was afraid of it, “The most important thing is to settle this with Fen first!”

Today was the second time the Qibing Real Estate officially interacted with residents of the shantytown face to face. It was hosted by Li Cihua, Jin Gubang, and Zhong Fabai. The location was in a demolition office built temporarily for this in front of the shantytown.

All the residents waited in front of the office early in the morning. Everyone looked forward to this day since they thought Qibing Real Estate must’ve come sincerely. Forcefully taking down houses last time caused numerous accidents and although it was settled in private, they lost a large amount of money from it!

Those who were familiar with Mrs. Tang knew that Master Bing paid a great deal of money, so they thought that they would learn from their mistakes and discuss compensation with the residents squarely.

Li Cihua laughed coldly in his heart as he saw the hopeful faces of the residents. Their stupidity was laughable. Just because demolishing the place last time created some accidents, they thought that he would be fair this time around? How naïve!

There wasn’t a large amount of money Qibing Real Estate could spend and they couldn’t afford a large amount of money to compensate the residents. Qibing Real Estate was busy with developing and introducing their first complex out. They must make decisive choices in this complex situation. Zhao

Qibing couldn't afford to wait any longer. He had been in Songshan city for so long without any results. How could he report back to House Zhao?

Although House Zhao's members, including his father, hadn't said anything, Zhao Qibing thought that they must be disappointed in him. If he couldn't handle unruly people like this, how would he be able to reign over House Zhao?

Li Cihua's plan was simple this time. He tricked everyone in the shantytown to the office here then forcefully demolish their houses again. This time, the target was the only apartment in the shantytown: a three-story.

Demolishing single-story houses was too much effort and getting rid of them wasn't enough to frighten them. They will only be forced to accept Qibing Real Estate's compensation agreement if a group of them lost their houses!

It would only take a few bulldozers to take down the three-story building. When they finish, it would be too late for these residents to notice that something went wrong.

Fen's parents followed everyone else to the office early in the morning and left Fen in the house alone. Her leg was still injured and they were afraid that disputes during the negotiation today would provoke her...

Her parents just left yet someone knocked on her door. Fen thought that her parents left something behind and opened the door without a second thought. However, she immediately froze after opening the door.

"What? Am I not welcome?" Kang Zhaoming smiled at Fen. Damn, she looked much prettier than before. If she wasn't so single-minded on him, he wouldn't mind playing with her for a bit longer.

"You... You... Kang Zhaoming, what are you doing at my place?" Fen glared at Kang Zhaoming unfriendly.

If it was a month ago, Fen would be drowning in happiness if Kang Zhaoming came knocking on her door. But now, Fen was in another relationship, and she woke up from her obsession with Kang Zhaoming. She saw right through him and cut off all the thoughts she had for him. When she looked at him now, it was as if she was looking at a stranger!

After all, she couldn't let go of her hatred so easily! This man ruined her whole life! Although Kang Xiaobo treated her well and never gave her the cold shoulder, Fen always felt like she owed him for not giving him her first time. Whenever she thought of it, she felt ashamed.

The person who caused everything was Kang Zhaoming. Why would she act friendly towards him?

Kang Zhaoming came by himself without Wang Shubing and Zhu Xiaozhang. He needed to act this time in order to show enough sincerity in order to shut Fen's mouth. If he brought Zhu Xiaozhang and Wang Shubing along with him, he would be showing off himself as a master and hence, he didn't bring them.

"Fen, I came here today because I want to have a talk with you. Can you let me in first?" Kang Zhaoming smiled and tried to make himself sound as sincere as possible.

"There's nothing to talk about between us," Fen shook her head and closed the door.

Kang Zhaoming jumped. He couldn't let Fen close the door, or all his efforts would be in vain! He quickly grabbed the door and said, "Fen, don't close the door, I came to compensate and apologize to you!"

"Compensate and apologize to me?" Fen frowned but didn't close the door immediately.

"Fen, I was young and frivolous before and I know I harmed you. I came to visit you today to apologize to you!" Kang Zhaoming spoke "sincerely".

"Oh, I don't want to recall what happened before. You should leave..." Fen was telling the truth as she completely dropped the past behind. Although she still hated Kang Zhaoming, it was her fault for being naïve and stupid to believe a person like him!

Chapter 792: 500,000 Yuan Compensation

500,000 Yuan Compensation

However, this didn't sound reassuring to Kang Zhaoming. When it happened, he already transferred to another school, but he heard about what happened to Fen. Fen was diagnosed with mental illness because of him. How could she not hate him?

"Fen, I really came to apologize to you today. I want to compensate you as much as I can that's within my ability!" Kang Zhaoming said, "I just went past the shantytown and I think they are holding some kind of meeting outside? Isn't your family moving soon? I suppose you need money to buy a new house. Can you let me in before I talk about it?"

"What do you mean? You are giving me money?" Fen thought that it was incredible. She knew that Kang Zhaoming was an ungrateful person and she didn't believe that Kang Zhaoming was kind enough to give her money.

"Yes, I harmed you before and it's my fault. Your leg is injured and you need money to see doctors. I want to give you an amount of money to redeem for my past!" Kang Zhaoming nodded.

"Really?" Fen still found it hard to believe. Kang Zhaoming's actions and words were too strange and he acted completely different compared to before.

"Of course it's true!" Kang Zhaoming nodded, "Fen, don't question my sincerity. Well, it's inappropriate for us to stand here and talk. You don't want to let others hear what happened between us, do you? You have your own life now and we should keep the ugly past inside, shouldn't we?"

"Say it here if you have anything to say, all the neighbors went to the meeting. There is no one else here other than me," Fen still didn't want to let Kang Zhaoming in.

"If that's the case... That's fine!" Kang Zhaoming pondered. Since everyone else left, it was the same for him to talk about it here, "Fen, we are adults now and there's no point arguing who was wrong in the past. I'll compensate you 500,000 yuan, what do you think?"

“500,000 yuan?” Fen jumped. It was shocking enough that Kang Zhaoming suggested to compensate her. Now she began to question his intention after offering such a large amount of money.

“Yes. But you need to sign an agreement with me after you take the money. I hope that you keep this a secret from others, including people around you...” Kang Zhaoming said, “After all, your boyfriend is my cousin and it’s a bad influence to my family if you spill it to others...”

“That’s all?” Fen questioned. Kang Zhaoming’s excuse made sense but who didn’t know about it in House Kang? Last time at the party, didn’t he expose this himself?

“Yes. You can have a look at the agreement first if you don’t believe me. If you can follow these conditions then 500,000 yuan is yours!” Kang Zhaoming spoke as he took out a copy out, passing it to Fen.

Fen took the agreement and scanned through it. It was as what Kang Zhaoming said. He didn’t want her to go back to what happened before and didn’t want her to mention any of these to others. If she followed these two rules, she could receive 500,000 yuan as a one-time compensation.

In fact, Fen didn’t want to go back to what happened before. It was because she was too stupid before, and even if she wanted to do something about it, what could she do to Kang Zhaoming? Both of them were willing before, and she could do nothing about it!

However, Fen didn’t want Kang Zhaoming’s money. Even though she was poor, she had moral honesty. Lin Yi was Tang Yun’s boyfriend, yet she refused to take Lin Yi’s money. Not to mention that Kang Zhaoming was only her ex-boyfriend who hurt her before?

Fen also knew that her family needed money right now and at the moment, she didn’t know whether she should agree or not. Eventually, she decided to call Kang Xiaobo first.

Before Kang Xiaobo went to school in the morning, he gave a call to Lin Yi. Kang Xiaobo was worried about Fen because people from Qibing Real Estate was going to the shantytown again. However, he knew that he wouldn’t be of help if he went so he wanted Lin Yi to go with him.

Lin Yi drove Chu Mengyao’s Audi S5 today. Since Miss let him drive it, Lin Yi had no reason to turn down the offer.

Lin Yi arrived at the front gate of the school and honked a few times. Kang Xiaobo didn’t know it was Lin Yi since he never saw Lin Yi drive this car before.

“It’s Chu Mengyao’s.” Lin Yi smiled, “Get in. Li Cihua made my car explode. I’m going there to ask for money.”

Lin Yi’s verbal agreement with Li Cihua yesterday no longer stayed in effect. His car was destroyed and they ripped their relationship apart. Li Cihua didn’t believe that Lin Yi didn’t know how his car blew up, and after a series of events, their relationship became tense again. Li Cihua didn’t only give Lin Yi five million for nothing, Lin Yi even wanted to make him compensate for the car!

“uh... Li Cihua blew it up?” Kang Xiaobo was surprised.

“Long story,” Lin Yi said, “Let’s talk on our way there.”

“Sorry to trouble you!” Kang Xiaobo was embarrassed. He was Lin Yi’s follower but he didn’t even help Lin Yi. Instead, he always asked Lin Yi to help him, even with Fen’s family business.

“It’s nothing to worry about. I’m also looking for Li Cihua,” Lin Yi didn’t think it was inappropriate as he treated all his friends sincerely without asking anything for return.

Lin Yi recounted what happened yesterday. He took Tang Yun’s family to Li Cihua to ask for compensation and also told Kang Xiaobo why his car blew up.

“Damn!” Kang Xiaobo heard that Lin Yi was the one who made Qibing skyscraper collapse again this time and admired him even more. That guy built it twice and Lin Yi blew it down twice...

Kang Xiaobo was completely convinced. Lin Yi was the only one who could blow down a skyscraper and still want to ask for compensation.

Kang Xiaobo’s phone rang when they were also there. He took out his phone and it was from Fen.

Kang Xiaobo’s heart tightened. Did something happen? He quickly picked up and asked, “Fen? Did something happen? Boss and I are on our way here, wait for me, we’ll be there very soon!”

Chapter 793: Agree First

Agree First

“Xiaobo Kang Zhaoming is at my place...” Fen must discuss this with Kang Xiaobo since it was a sign of respect.

“Kang Zhaoming? What is he doing here?” Kang Xiaobo cut off all connections with Kang Zhaoming. After Miracle Doctor Kang’s banquet, the two families no longer kept in touch and their relationship as relatives got cut off too.

“He said he did something wrong to me before and he wants to compensate 500,000 yuan to me...” Fen told Kang Zhaoming’s real intentions/

“Huh? What did you say? He came here to give you money?” Kang Xiaobo froze. Kang Zhaoming changed? No way! Did he take the wrong medicine to send money to Fen?

“He also brought an agreement, saying that he’ll give me the money if I sign it...” Fen said, “The agreement said that I can’t mention what happened between us to others nor can I go back to it...”

Fen was embarrassed as she felt ashamed.

Kang Xiaobo frowned and subconsciously wanted to tell her to refuse. Although they were poor, they couldn’t lose their morals! Wouldn’t it make them look weak if they took Kang Zhaoming’s money? However, he knew that he couldn’t be selfish right now. Fen’s family needed money right now, and Kang

Xiaobo knew it. He was different from Lin Yi. He couldn't help Fen's family that much and it was a great offer to her family since they were in need of money!

"I'll ask boss and see what he thinks," Kang Xiaobo decided to ask Lin Yi. If Lin Yi told them not to accept it, then they wouldn't take it even if it would be harder for them.

However, after Kang Xiaobo told Lin Yi what Fen said, he replied without even thinking about it, "Take it, why not take it for free? It's a waste if you don't take your enemy's money! But tell her, don't sign it yet, wait till we go and check if anything's wrong with the agreement?"

"Ok, I'll tell her now!" Kang Xiaobo thought that Lin Yi was right. Why shouldn't they take their enemy's money? Lin Yi had been chasing after Li Cihua for money, yet he didn't bad about it. It looked like he had been thinking too much!

It was stupid to not take the money for his face. Kang Xiaobo quickly told Fen what Lin Yi said. Don't refuse Kang Zhaoming, but wait for them to arrive first.

"Oh, ok..." Fen heard that Lin Yi told her to accept the money and she appreciated Lin Yi! This money was important to her family. It was too significant!

Even if Qibing Real Estate compensated them according to the standard, it was like a cup of water over burning wood! Songshan city's properties weren't cheap, how do they have so many properties in distant areas?

The compensation fee was not enough for them to buy a new house but only rent one. It would be rather inconvenient for them.

"Xiaobo said he'll be here soon. Come in and wait for them. I'll sign it after they confirm it," Fen received a reply and calmed down. She let Kang Zhaoming into the room as it was inappropriate to keep standing in the corridor.

"Ok!" Kang Zhaoming thought that he will succeed after hearing Fen's words, "No rush! Confirm it and follow the conditions."

"Ok..." Fen nodded and went back in. She started reading a book and ignored Kang Zhaoming who settled on the couch.

However, Kang Zhaoming didn't mind. It didn't matter whether Fen talked to him or not. As long she took the money and shut up, he could pursue Guan Xin smoothly! Thinking that his plan half succeeded already, he was extremely delighted, "It's been so many years. Why is your house still so shabby?"

"Oh..." Fen frowned. She was about to blow up, but she thought that it was unworthy for her to get angry at someone like this. She continued to read.

Kang Zhaoming came to her place a few years ago and he said he would buy her a house. At that time, Fen was extremely touched and gave her true love and body to him like this. After Kang Zhaoming was done with her, he thought that she was clingy and immediately threw her off him.

Lin Yi drove past the shantytown and saw the tents and metal rooms set up temporarily. It had 'Temporary Office for Demolishment' written on it, as well as Qibing Real Estate's logo on it.

Lin Yi didn't stop. He could go and see Li Cihua anytime and their priority was to go to Fen's place and get rid of Kang Zhaoming.

To be honest, he didn't believe that Kang Zhaoming was kind enough to compensate Fen. With his arrogant personality, why would he lower his head for no reason? Lin Yi recalled Li Cihua, who gave Tang Yun's family an amount of money for no reason. He who was unaccountably solicitous was obviously hiding his evil intentions. That was why Lin Yi didn't let Fen sign the agreement immediately.

"Boss, why would Kang Zhaoming suddenly give money to Fen? Does he have that kind of ideas towards her again?" Kang Xiaobo sensed that something was wrong.

"I don't think so. He would be slapping his own face if he went back to Fen. I think he is planning something, but we don't know what it is yet," Lin Yi replied, "Let's go and have a look first."

"Ok." Kang Xiaobo nodded. He was relieved that Lin Yi was here to make the decisions for him.

When they were almost there, a few bulldozers and trenching machine blocked the entire path.

Lin Yi frowned and horned a few times.

The drivers of those machines were chatting on the street. They were annoyed at the sound of the horn at first but suddenly smiled when they saw Lin Yi's red Audi S5. People who drove this car must be wealthy and powerful! Workers like them couldn't afford to offend them in any way.

"Sir, you can't drive pass here right now. We are waiting for the right time to demolish this building!" A bulldozer's driver who looked like the leader of the group explained to Lin Yi.

Chapter 794: Kang Zhaoming's Real Intentions

Kang Zhaoming's Real Intentions

The leader wouldn't bother to explain it to someone else, but Lin Yi was like a young master of a family driving a sports car. Who knew what kind of background he had? Perhaps he was a familiar of Master Bing? How could he afford to offend Lin Yi?

"Taking the building down?" Lin Yi was taken aback and followed the direction to which they were pointing. Isn't that where Fen lived?

Kang Xiaobo heard these men's words, and he was shocked. These people were going to demolish Fen's house? But she was still inside!

"Boss..." Kang Xiaobo just opened his mouth to talk but Lin Yi stopped him silently. He patted Kang Xiaobo's shoulders and calmed him.

"Oh? When do you plan to do it?" Lin Yi glanced at Fen's building and asked indifferently.

"Who are you? Why are you asking so much?" The bulldozer's driver immediately glanced at Lin Yi in alarm.

“Oh, I want to wait for you guys to finish before I go there. I’m going to the old flat house there to grab some stuff. Didn’t you say this place’s getting demolished? I don’t care about the compensation, you can take down whichever house you want after I take my stuff,” Lin Yi pretended to be an extravagant master and acted.

“Oh, we start at eight o’clock sharp, we will probably be done around ten. But we are only demolishing this building down today, we are not touching the one-story houses today. You can come and grab your things tomorrow,” the man heard Lin Yi’s words and lowered his guard.

“That’s fine, I’ll come back tomorrow then,” Lin Yi turned around and drove away. He drove in a circle around the shantytown and parked at a rather hidden place.

“Boss, they are taking that building down! Fen’s still inside!” Kang Xiaobo panicked.

“It’s only 7:35 right now, we have twenty-five minutes left. That’s more than enough.” Lin Yi smiled as he got out of the car, “Let’s go see Kang Zhaoming.”

“But why didn’t you tell them that there are still people in the building?” Kang Zhaoming didn’t understand why.

“We won’t be able to see a show if we tell him. You’ll see soon!” Lin Yi spoke as he quickly walked towards Fen’s red black house.

Although Kang Xiaobo was confused, he didn’t say anything else since Lin Yi seemed confident and he trusted Lin Yi. He quickly followed Lin Yi’s steps.

“Ok boss,” Kang Xiaobo nodded. He trusted Lin Yi no matter what he said.

Lin Yi knocked and Fen quickly opened the door. Seeing Kang Xiaobo and Lin Yi standing outside the door, she was extremely delighted, “You guys are here!”

Kang Zhaoming also stood up from the couch in a hurry. When he saw the two, hatred flashed across his eyes but he immediately hid it, “Xiaobo, Lin Yi, I came here to sincerely apologize to you guys!”

Lin Yi saw the flash of hatred in Kang Zhaoming’s eyes and believed that he didn’t come here sincerely but with evil intentions.

Kang Xiaobo remembered Lin Yi’s words and didn’t reply. He turned around to Fen, “Fen, are you alright?”

“I’m fine. Kang Zhaoming came and he was quite polite, he didn’t do anything outrageous,” Fen shook her head.

Kang Xiaobo finally felt relieved. He was afraid that Kang Zhaoming attacked Fen with harassments to provoke her. She just recovered and there was no way she could stand it.

“Kang Zhaoming, is it? Tell us your intentions,” Lin Yi sat on the couch and looked at his watch relaxingly, “You have ten minutes.”

It was 7:40 right now, ten minutes later would be 7:50 and it was enough time for them to leave.

Kang Zhaoming was dissatisfied, what kind of attitude was that? I'm here to give you a lot of money but you treat me like this? How unreasonable!

Seeing that Kang Xiaobo and Fen didn't speak. He knew that Lin Yi was the leader here. He had to talk to Lin Yi if he wanted his plan to succeed, "I feel like I owed Fen a lot, so I came here. I want to compensate her to redeem my mistakes..."

"Do you think I believe that?" Lin Yi laughed coldly, "Enough, tell us your real intentions. Fen doesn't need your compensation."

"UH..." Kang Zhaoming froze in his spot. He never thought that Lin Yi's attitude to be so harsh and there was no way that he could leave now! How could he leave without achieving his goal? In other words, he had to give them his money today!

Kang Xiaobo and Fen were also shocked at Lin Yi's harsh attitude. Wasn't he chasing Kang Zhaoming away? Didn't he tell them to accept the money?

However, since Lin Yi was their leader, they didn't intervene and waited for Lin Yi to solve this.

"Fine. House Kang will advance and become one of the noble houses so I don't want any outsiders to hear any rumors about me!" Kang Zhaoming pondered for a while and said, "I want Fen to keep quiet about what happened between us to others, especially in public places like the hospital, like talking to the nurses..."

Lin Yi listened to Kang Zhaoming's half real half false statement and understood his real intention in the last part of his sentence. Hospital, nurse? Wasn't that Guan Xin? Lin Yi laughed coldly in his mind. This guy wanted to pursue Guan Xin but he was afraid of the immoral things he did in the past, plus he saw that Fen and Guan Xin were friends. He decided to come here to seal Fen's mouth with 500,000 yuan.

"See, you've done it! You should just tell us honestly. It's just to seal her mouth? Fine, we'll take it," Lin Yi waved his hands and replied impatiently. "Where's the money?"

"I can't withdraw any cash this early in the morning, but it's all in this card," Kang Zhaoming took out a bank card from his pocket and said.

"In the card? How do we if there is any money in there?" Lin Yi questioned in disbelief.

"Well... You can check it at the bank, there is a bank near here," Kang Zhaoming replied.

"Alright, we'll go to the bank and check first. If there is money in there, we'll come back to sign the agreement!" Lin Yi took the card from Kang Zhaoming's hands.

"Should I follow you there?" Kang Zhaoming wasn't assured.

"This is Fen's house, are you scared that we won't come back?" Lin Yi laughed.

"Well..." Kang Zhaoming hesitated. Considering that he was sitting in Fen's house, they won't be able to run away for here. Hence he nodded, "Fine. Come back soon, I'll wait for you guys here!"

Chapter 795: There Is Someone In The Building

There Is Someone In The Building

“Don’t worry,” Lin Yi reassured, “I won’t go back on my word after I promised you. Your agreement’s sanction is weak. You can only believe us since you have brought this money along.”

Kang Zhaoming thought that Lin Yi’s words were reasonable. The agreement was merely part of the precision, and he couldn’t restrain Fen at all. Although Fen stayed quiet, Lin Yi and Kang Xiaobo could comment on it. They have their own mouths and he couldn’t possibly make everyone sign an agreement to keep it a secret.

Kang Zhao felt relieved at this thought, “I’ll believe you. Come back soon. Do you have a TV here? I’ll watch it for a while!”

“Yes. The sun’s too bright outside. Fen, pull the curtains down and open the TV for Kang Zhaoming!” Lin Yi said.

Although Fen wondered why Lin Yi treated Kang Zhaoming so well, she followed either way.

Fen’s television was one of the oldest and thickest models at twenty-one inches. No one bought it anymore, but it was still useable.

Kang Zhaoming was delighted. He sat down on the couch and started to watch the children’s channel happily.

Lin Yi took Kang Xiaobo and Fen downstairs and it was exactly 7:55 am. The operators of the bulldozers and trenching machine were all ready to demolish this building down.

Kang Xiaobo finally understood what Lin Yi wanted to do. He wanted to keep Kang Zhaoming in Fen’s house and wait for the bulldozers to do their work!

Damn, isn’t that too cruel? Why can’t we beat him until he dies?

Kang Xiaobo glanced at the building with pity in his eyes while following Lin Yi and Fen to the parking spot.

“Oh my!” Fen covered her mouth in shock and watched in disbelief as her building immediately fell apart!

“Find a bank and withdraw all the money,” Lin Yi didn’t care about Kang Zhaoming since he thought someone like Kang Zhaoming should die. He wasn’t the one who killed Kang Zhaoming, House Kang can seek revenge from Zhao Qibing.

“But, Kang Zhaoming...” Fen has never harmed anyone before and it was hard for her to accept that Kang Zhaoming would be buried alive in front of her eyes, “And my house... I need to go and tell my parents...”

“You have 500,000 yuan already. Why are you worried about your house?” Kang Xiaobo overlooked the incident, “That kind of person is better dead than alive after hurting you so much.”

Fen sighed. Since Kang Xiaobo insisted so, she simply nodded. She remained silent as she didn't want Kang Xiaobo to misunderstand that she still had feelings for Kang Zhaoming.

Lin Yi drove Fen and Kang Xiaobo to a nearby bank and successfully withdrew all the money from the card. It was saved in a financial saving account without a registered name, Lin Yi didn't understand why Kang Zhaoming was so sure about giving his money in this way.

They used Fen's name and opened a new account and this 500,000 yuan officially fell into Fen's pocket. After that, Lin Yi drove back to the shantytown.

In the shantytown, all the residents of the red brick building exploded. They didn't imagine that Li Cihua would force another building down after what happened to Tang Yun's family! This time, it was not just a flat one-story home, but an entire building!

A group of muscular men in black clothing and black sunglasses, dressed like mafia stood next to Li Cihua, Jin Gubang, and Zhong Fabai. Although the residents were unsatisfied, they didn't dare to make a move.

Fen's parents originally thought that their house was an apartment and they would receive more compensation than others. At that time, they would ask Mrs. Tang to ask Lin Yi to help and perhaps they could find a cheap discount house at an inconvenient location.

All the other residents of the apartment had the same thought, shouldn't they receive more compensation because it's an apartment?

But now, all their dreams were shattered. They lost their homes and no longer had the advantage to negotiate with them. They must take what they were given. Even if they didn't want to, what could they possibly do?

Of course, they must take it this time. When they saw their building was demolished, the first thought that flashed across Fen's parents' mind was that Fen was still inside! They followed the other residents and sprinted towards their house!

All the other residents thought the same and ran towards their houses. All their furniture and electronics were there and they had to save whatever was left.

However, the group of muscular men blocked their way back!

Last time someone almost died and Li Cihua wouldn't let these people go back again, so he hired some of Zhong Fabai's men to block the residents.

"Let me in! My daughter is still inside! Move!" Fen's mother ignored the men and pushed them away like crazy, squeezing through the wall of men.

The man who was pushed panicked and dragged Fen's mother by the hair, pushing her back.

How could Fen's mother defend against such a muscular man? She screeched in pain as a large amount of hair was hauled off and the man slapped her on the face, "Stay there if you don't want to die!"

"Mom!" Fen just got off the car and saw that a man beating her mother. She almost cried as she sprinted towards her despite her injuries.

Kang Xiaobo was worried about Fen, and he was furious that his future mother-in-law was hurt. He rushed over ready to fight the man.

Naturally, Lin Yi wouldn't let Kang Xiaobo get hurt as he was obviously weaker than those men. Lin Yi locked his car and ran towards the men too. Before Kang Xiaobo could make a move, Lin Yi kicked the waist of the man who pushed Fen's mother. He flew and landed on the ground with a loud bang. He rolled his eyes and fainted.

Kang Xiaobo knew that Lin Yi was capable but he was still shocked by Lin Yi's strength. Although he was shocked, he didn't forget to warn him, "Boss, be careful!"

The other men didn't expect Lin Yi to make such a cruel move as soon as he arrived. They immediately dropped what they were doing and surrounded Lin Yi.

Li Cihua was watching from afar and saw Lin Yi. He was shocked that Lin Yi ran over and hit his men. He became horrified as he saw the girl named Fen next to Lin Yi called the victim "mother".

Chapter 796: Lin Yi Back at it Again

Lin Yi Back at it Again

How unlucky could this motherfucker be? Of all the people he attacked, he chose Lin Yi's younger brother's partner's mother. Why wouldn't Lin Yi be aggravated?

The agreement with Lin Yi, which was made the prior night, went up in smoke just like the car bomb. His relationship with Lin Yi, once again, shifted into hostile terms. So it was within reason that Lin Yi came to meddle in his demolition process.

However, Fabai's followers, the macho men, dared to surround Lin Yi in a beat down. Instantly, Li Cihua got scared! Motherfuckers! You dumbshits don't want to live? Lin Yi is an overwhelming force that even beat Xuanjie into bed rest mode. Now, why would these dumbshits ever want to provoke Lin Yi?

Are they looking to die? All of the macho men were beaten down onto the ground. The demolition process in shanty town was halted.

"Stop!" Li Cihua shouted as he ran over as quick as possible.

Li Cihua was always a step behind. One of the standing macho men were friends of the first macho victim, who was kicked away, and he wanted to take revenge. After making the first move against Lin Yi, his result was the same as his friend. He laid right on top of his friend with eyes rolled to the back of their head.

Li Cihua had a forehead full of sweat by the time he got over. He sighed a deep breath and spoke up. "Lin Yi, why are you here? I thought we agreed that you wouldn't interfere in the shanty town demolition."

"I'm not interfering, my friend's girlfriend's mother was attacked. How can I just stand by idly?" Lin Yi didn't explain in too much in detail, but his tone said that he doesn't put Li Cihua in high regard. "Oh yeah, where is my car money? You blew up my car, so when can I expect my compensation?"

The remaining macho men were shocked for a couple of reasons. They were amazed by Lin Yi's fighting capabilities. They couldn't even see what happened, and two men lay unconscious on the ground. Second, how could Lin Yi use such cocky tone when speaking with Li Cihua. Wasn't he afraid of Li Cihua?

"I definitely won't forget your money," Li Cihua blamed his own bad luck. These macho men could've attacked anyone, but they had to attack someone important to Lin Yi. Their relationship might be confusing, but it all boils down to being related to Lin Yi. Li Cihua spoke up "I will pay for the medical fees"

"Oh, what about the demolition fee?" Lin Yi continued to ask.

"The demolition fee, I will pay accordingly to the rules!" Li Cihua squeezed the words through his clenched teeth. This was all in accordance with their prior agreement. As long as Lin Yi didn't interfere, then he would pay a fee. If issues with Lin Yi could be resolved with money, then he would do that. Otherwise, Lin Yi would come and stir up drama.

Li Cihua had to suppress his own internal attitude when facing tyrants like Lin Yi! He took a gamble on Lin Yi's life and he found out that Lin Yi can't be beaten or killed. Plus, he even had to pay for the demolished skyscraper. At present, Lin Yi wasn't a force to be reckoned with. He could only appease the seemingly ultimate being.

"Ah, that would be fine. I'm here to supervise you," Lin Yi nodded. His visit might not mean anything to him, but to the shanty town villagers, it meant the world.

Paying compensation according to the law and regulation, wouldn't allow them to buy a newly built house, but if they borrow loans to supplement then it was possible! At least psychologically it was more satisfying.

When Fen's parents saw that Fen was unharmed, they were able to relax. Fen's mom was able to forget the pain, temporarily. She was so worried about her child that she held her tightly. "My daughter, I'm so happy you are okay. You gave your mom a scare..."

"Kangbo and Lin Yi saved me..." Fen sighed and continued. "But, Kang Zhaoming might have died from that..."

"Kang Zhaoming? How would he die from that? Are you messing with us? If that is true, then we have to thank god for getting rid of a harmful being like him!" Fen's mother laughed boldly.

Upon seeing her mother's expression, Fen knew that her mother hated Kang Zhaoming. One she heard that he might have died, she was already celebrating. Even if Fen loathed Kang Zhaoming, she witnessed his demise and it scared her since she had an opportunity to prevent it.

Fen was a kind and gentle person. Even if Kang Zhaoming was evil, she still had a big heart. She never thought of having him killed.

"Ah, long story short..." Fen quickly explained her side of the story to her mother. Including how Kang Zhaoming had offered up five hundred thousand for her to remain silent.

“Really? He really paid you five hundred thousand? Seems like he wasn’t bad to the core?” Fen’s mother said in disbelief. Never would she have thought that Kang Zhaoming would pay her daughter five hundred thousand, so it would seem like he had a sliver of decency left within him.

Fen’s mother had envied the Tang family. She had said that Tang Jucheng’s injured leg got reimbursed three million yuan. However, her Fen wasn’t able to get anything in exchange for her injuries. She didn’t expect that her dreams would be answered! Life was a mysterious thing. Things could change so spontaneously.

“I don’t know the reason why, but Lin Yi said it was just a silencing fee. He was paying me to not mention it to anyone else,” said Fen. She also added “Lin Yi mentioned that it was because Kang Zhaoming wanted to court nurse Guan Xin, so he didn’t want bad rumors spreading around. That’s why I was compensated five hundred thousand yuan!”

“Oh? Is that why? You really can’t change a person’s natural tendencies! We will definitely take the money. If we don’t take money from these type of people, who else can we get money from! The more he gives, the more we will take!”

Fen’s mother was able to relax a bit.

Fen’s mother was in a good mood. Ever since Lin Yi had arrived, Li Cihua was forced to pay accordingly to the law. On top of that, they were able to get a bonus of five hundred thousand yuan. What an unexpected gift! With the lump sum, they could buy a large apartment and still have money left over to buy electrical appliances and renovation.

Fen’s mother decided to visit Tang Yun’s mother later in the afternoon in hope of getting help to look for apartments. Since their house had been demolished, their top priority is to find a new place to live. It is not something they can delay a second longer.

Meanwhile, Li Cihua had to change his tone and policy. He started paying shantytown residents the appropriate payment. All the shanty town residents demanded was the appropriate payment. As long as it was following the law, they were satisfied.

They didn’t dream that Li Cihua would pay them more money, and they didn’t dare to oppose Li Cihua even if they were underpaid. Li Cihua’s in Songshan city was equivalent to the underworld’s number one.

Kang Zhaoming was, still sitting within Fen’s home, watching his TV. He was still daydreaming about his successful negotiation. Now he could relax and court Guan Xin properly.

The next reason to visit her had to be an external injury. It couldn’t be a light injury like last time. Otherwise, Guan Xin might pull out a bandaid for him to self-patch.

Chapter 797: Kang Zhaoming’s Tragedy

Kang Zhaoming’s Tragedy

While he was still wondering, the ground started to rumble. Could it be an earthquake?

In the next second, the ground shuddered. Kang Zhaoming felt like the building was hit by a meteor. He staggered to his feet and couldn't keep himself at a place. He swayed a little!

Kang Zhaoming ran towards the window subconsciously to see a few trenching machines and bulldozers surrounded the building!

"Hey! There are still people inside!" Zhaoming panicked as he shouted.

However, the trenching machines' and bulldozers' engines had been started. The noise was too loud for them to hear Zhaoming's voice. His voice was covered up by the noise. No one heard him.

"Stop! There are still people inside! Hey hey hey!" Zhaoming almost wet his pants when he was calling out. "I'm here!"

Ignored! He was totally ignored. In fact, no one could hear him at all!

"F*ck you guys! I'm still inside the building!" Zhaoming panicked as he used all his strength to shout out for help.

However, no one responded to him! Seeing no other options left, he had to think of one himself now. Only death awaits if he jumped down from the third floor. Even if he got lucky and survived the jump, he'd be handicapped for his whole life. Zhaoming would never risk doing something that idiotic!

But he couldn't possibly make it to the ground floor by running now, could he? The bulldozers had already flattened the entrance!

He couldn't think of anything good even after wrecking his brain. He didn't expect himself to be this unfortunate. What was this timing? They had to demolish this building by force when he came to visit Fen? He'd never experienced things like this and never did he imagine that this shit would happen to him!

Without any better options, he could only crawl under the bed. He heard that the safest place during an earthquake was under the bed.

In an instant, the three-story red building was demolished into a wasteland. Zhu Xiaozhang and Wang Shubing were filled with fear and called Zhaoming when they waited and saw no response from him.

No one picked up the phone even after the phone rang for ten times.

Kang Zhaoming was buried under the wasteland and managed to survive by hiding under a cheap bed. Fortunately, Fen's house was located on the top floor. Otherwise, the bed wouldn't be able to withstand the pressure and crushed him completely.

When the building crumbled, Zhaoming felt very dizzy and passed out when something knocked him out of conscious.

He was woken up by his phone's ringtone, Zhaoming subconsciously looked for the phone and at the same time he felt a prick of pain from his legs, it seemed like both of his legs were broken!

However, Zhaoming was still considered himself fortunate. He survived!

“Hello! Wang Shubing, come and save me. Someone demolished Fen’s house when I was inside! I think I’m buried under the wasteland and my legs are broken too. Damn it’s a living hell of pain!” Zhaoming mourned.

“Ah? Master Ming, wait for us, we are coming to save you now!” Wang Shubing was taken aback when he heard him. Why didn’t Zhaoming run out of the house when the building was about to be demolished?

Wang Shubing and Zhu Xiaozhang contacted the police and ambulance at the same time and sprinted towards the relocation office. They found Li Cihua there who was discussing the compensation with the relocating households.

“Our boss is being buried alive under the building you guys demolished. Who’s the person in charge here?!” Zhu Xiaozhang shouted cockily when he entered.

Cihua thought that commoners were unsatisfied with the compensation but when he lifted up his head, he saw Zhu Xiaozhang. Cihua couldn’t help but furrowed his eyebrows!

He knew who was Zhu Xiaozhang. He was the follower of Kang Zhaoming from House Kang. During the opening ceremony of Qibing’s real estate company, Kang Zhaoming brought Zhu Xiaozhang and Wang Shubing along to attend it.

“Zhu Xiaozhang, what are you talking?” Cihua wasn’t afraid of him. Even if Miracle Doctor Kang’s name was big but the person behind him was from House Zhao which was a lot stronger than House Kang!

“Ah? Cihua bro?” Zhu Xiaozhang knew that this relocation project was under Zhao Qibing but never did he expect Li Cihua to be the person in charge here, “Cihua bro, my boss Kang Zhaoming was still inside the three-story red building. Why did you guys demolish it when he was still inside!”

There was a buzzing sound in Cihua’s head- Kang Zhaoming was inside the building? Why the hell did he go there for?

Although House Zhao was not afraid of House Kang, they still had to give House Kang a good explanation for burying Kang Zhaoming alive, hadn’t they? Just who was Kang Zhaoming? He was no ordinary person! House Kang was actually pretty influential. Even House Zhao had to buy a batch of Golden Creation from House Kang yearly.

“What? Kang Zhaoming was inside?” Cihua became panic-stricken.

“Yeah, we’ve contacted the police and as well as the ambulance. Please ask your men to stop whatever they are doing right now, our boss is still alive. Only his legs are broken!” Zhu Xiaozhang said.

Cihua let out a breath of relief when he learned that Zhaoming was not dead yet. As long as Zhaoming was still alive, things could be resolved easily! He believed that House Kang would have nothing to complain when they paid them a large amount of money as compensation.

“Gubang, Fabai, handle the things here, I’ll go have a look at it myself!” Cihua felt like misfortunes never come alone as he just finished settling Lin Yi not long, here came another problem!

After everything was in order, Cihua left the office with Wang Shubing and Zhu Xiaozhang to the three-story red building. Luckily, Cihua ordered them to demolish the red building only, so after the trenching machine and bulldozers were done with their job, they didn't move forward to the next step!

Otherwise, Kang Zhaoming would have kicked the bucket for real!

The police and rescue team were efficient, very soon, Kang Zhaoming was rescued by the firefighters. His face was drenched in blood, during the preliminary inspection, they found out that his head was smashed with both of his legs broken. Other than that, there were no other casualties, it turned out to be the most consoling part out of all griefs!

Cihua stayed behind to cooperate the police with their investigation and while Wang Shubing and Zhu Xiaozhang went up to the ambulance and followed Kang Zhaoming to Songhsan's First hospital.

At this moment, Cihua wasn't afraid of anything as he had all the relocating residents signed the agreement even if the police were to further investigate this incident, they couldn't do anything about it. As for Kang Zhaoming, it was considered as an accident!

Kang Zhaoming was lying on the stretcher, greatly in pain as he mourned. From the moment he was born until now, he had never suffered this much- both of his legs were broken, such intensity of pain was his first time!

"F*cker, Li Cihua, I won't let you off the hook this easily!" Kang Zhaoming's eyes were full of hatred when he cursed.

"Master Ming, Li Cihua is Zhao Qibing's man, we can't possibly offend them!" Wang Shubing knew that Zhaoming was pissed but Zhao Qibing was really not an opponent House Kang could afford to offend.

Chapter 798: On purpose

"Ah, I will definitely remember this debt. Wait until the day my Kang household will become superior to their household. When that day comes, I will clear all our debts!" Kang Zhaoming ranted. He was just saying it, because there was no way he could ever actually exact revenge on Zhao Qibing.

"Master Zhaoming, I still feel that this whole situation is a blessing in disguise!" Wang Shubing shook his head as he explained to Kang Zhaoming.

"Oh? What's the meaning of that? Are you saying that my broken leg is a good thing?" Kang Zhaoming was holding back his anger as he questioned Wang Shubing.

"Master Zhaoming, just think about it. You didn't want to injure yourself to a severe degree right?" Wang Shubing asked, "Look? Hasn't the hardest part already been done for you? Guan Xin now won't have any reason to suspect anything from this accident!"

"Ah? I can see how that would work. It does seem reasonable when you say it!" Kang Zhaoming's sour mood turned cheery, "Wang Shubing, you are correct. Now that my leg is broken, I can see it as good news! This time, I can directly look for Guan Xin!"

“Oh yes, Master Zhaoming, from what Li Cihua said, they will pay you medical fees and more. Not only did you achieve your objective of getting hurt to get close to Guan Xin, but also, you were able to get compensation money! It is definitely two birds knocked out with one stone!” Wang Shubing nodded and continued, “If we injured you, you would get hurt just the same, but you wouldn’t have gotten payment!”

“Haha! We are definitely lucky! Keke! Today is my lucky day! I was able to solve so many problems and still get paid!” Kang Zhaoming laughed loudly.

The ambulance had the siren on all the way to the hospital. Kang Zhaoming was then carried into the emergency room!

Even though Kang Zhaoming’s wound was severe, he was in a good mood. Since he had to suffer regardless, it was done so quickly that he didn’t need to prolong his suffering any longer. Now was his chance to stick close to Guan Xin for as long as he wants.

Aside from the bone fracture, Kang Zhaoming didn’t suffer from any internal injuries. The operation was over quickly. For the remainder of his time in the hospital, Kang Zhaoming was placed in a patient room to recover.

“Guan Xin? What about Guan Xin? How come she hasn’t come yet?” Kang Zhaoming was eagerly laying in the bed, “Just take a look at me, my face is injured and so is my leg. With such a severe injury, you should call Guan Xin over!”

“Master Zhaoming, I will go right away!” Wang Shubing nodded. With this kind injury, Guan Xin wouldn’t just push aside her duties right?

Wang Shubing ran, as if he was on fire, out of the patient room to Guan Xin. No matter how he thought about it, Guan Xin should still be responsible for handling medical issues like this.

Coincidentally, Guan Xin was the nurse on duty. When Wang Shubing ran in, he shouted loudly in a cheerful tone, “Nurse Guan Xin, you are here! My young master got injured, he needs your help! We don’t have many friends in the hospital, so if it’s possible, can you see him?”

Guang Xin thought the Kang Zhaoming fiasco was already over. If she was bothered everyday, how could she get any work done?

“Aren’t there other nurses around to help him? I didn’t get the notice to help Kang Zhaoming,” Guan Xin pointed at her work schedule with a restrained temper. No matter how annoying Kang Zhaoming was, Guan Xin couldn’t unleash her temper.

Guan Xin kept her identity as a hospital member in mind at all times. Her actions and words could directly affect the hospital image. Especially since her father was a major shareholder of the hospital. Guan Xin was very disciplined, she never gossiped with others. As a result, not many people knew Guan Xin’s true identity. Even still, Guan Xin doesn’t want to give any reason for others to discredit her father and grandfather.

“No, and Master Zhaoming is dying in the patient room. Without any nurse to check on him, I don’t know who else to look for. I was able to find you here and we trust in you!” Wang Shubing started to spout bullshit.

“No one to check on him?” Guan Xin was shocked. Is that real or fake? Could there be a gap in the coverage? Although these type of situation is rare, when there is a burst of patients then the available nurses and doctors would have to shift from their coverage site. It would explain the lack of care to certain rooms!

Guan Xin couldn't shake off the feeling that this guy is lying. However, the price of a life is far too heavy of a price for any petty matter. Even if it was a lie, Guan Xin will do her duties as a nurse and proudly represent her family. There was no way she would standby idly while someone could be helped.

But, wasn't Kang Zhaoming sick with a cold? Then he had that small gash on his arm. These two injuries, doesn't seem life threatening?

“Yeah, can you please take a look at him? See if you can help him bandage, then contact the doctor?” Wang Shubing nodded.

“Didn't he stay in the hospital for several days to treat his cold? What am I bandaging? That is not something I am responsible for?” Guan Xin ridiculed Wang Shubing. “Could it be that his wound was reinfected?”

“This...” Wang Shubing realized that he didn't explain what had happened. It was no wonder that Guan Xin didn't know why Wang Shubing was so urgent. “It happened like this, Master Zhaoming healed from his cold and the arm injury. However, the moment he left the hospital this morning...”

“So why does he need bandaging?” Guan Xin was even more confused.

“After he left the hospital, he went to the shantytown to take care of some business. That was when he encountered a real estate developer that was bullying the locals. He injured my Boss severely. My boss suffered head trauma and a fractured leg bone. He is very pitiful. So please Nurse Guan Xin, can you take a look at him?” Wang Shubing started fake sobbing to add to his story.

“Oh?” Guan Xin was shocked, she didn't know what to say to that. It was too coincidental that Kang Zhaoming had to return to the hospital right after leaving it. Was Kang Zhaoming really doing it on purpose?

Guan Xin couldn't help think badly of Kang Zhaoming. The first time she saw Kang Zhaoming, he was still so lively. Suddenly, he had a cold followed by hospitalization. Then, he needed assistance on getting injections. Afterwards, he got a gash wound that needed treating. Now this was the latest incident!

Whether Guan Xin wanted to see him or not, she still had to check him out when asked. This Kang Zhaoming was purposely getting injured to get closer to her. If her speculation was correct, then she feels that Kang Zhaoming's actions are childish and idiotic! To self-mutilate as a way of courting a girl, there must be something wrong with that person in the head; They should go see a psychiatrist instead.

“Nurse Guan Xin, this is the hospital and we see you as a friend. Please check out his condition?” Wang Shubing continued to urge Guan Xin.

“Fine. I will go take a look,” Guan Xin was convinced that if there really was no one taking care of Kang Zhaoming, then she should pick up the slack. She couldn't have someone die on her conscious. Although, it wouldn't be a bad idea for Kang Zhaoming to die so that he wouldn't bug her again. The repercussions that would follow however, would be that it would give the hospital a bad name since she was a representative of the hospital.

Chapter 799: The One In My Household Is A Fake

The One In My Household Is A Fake

Wang Shubing saw that Guan Xin had agreed and quickly led Guan Xin to Kang Zhaoming's room.

Kang Zhaoming saw that Guan Xin had arrived, he got so excited and started acting. He hoped that it would trigger Guan Xin's sympathy so that she would care more about him. Kang Zhaoming kept howling, "Ow, it hurts so much. I'm in so much pain. My face! My leg..."

Guan Xin on the other hand just thought that she never expected for that to come from a grown young adult. Such a big man, but so weak and sobbing.

"Isn't that bandaged already? Why did you say that he was unattended to?" Guan Xin saw that Kang Zhaoming's leg had cast on and splinter to stabilize. It had been treated by the doctor and nurses; it wasn't remotely similar to what Wang Shubing had said.

"Well... I meant that there wasn't anyone to follow up with the care..." Wang Shubing was trying to backtrack. His first thoughts were to trick her into going to Kang's room. Once she was there, they could then react to the opportunity.

"His leg injury isn't some normal wound, it is too severe! It falls under orthopedic care. I can't do anything for him. There are specialized nurses and doctors for this area of care," Guan Xin continued. "I will help him contact the orthopedic nurses."

"Ah?" Kang Zhaoming was dumbfounded! What does it mean that the wound was serious? First it was too light of a wound, now it was too serious? It's difficulty level jumped straight into orthopedic?

Unfortunately, this wasn't something that he could control. He didn't want his leg broken at all.

Kang Zhaoming was angry, he wanted to curse profusely at the demolition group. How dare they break his bones. Even if it was accidental, it didn't help him in any way to court Guan Xin. What shitty luck.

"Then... Master Zhaoming's leg might have an orthopedic nurse care for that, but I'm talking about his head injury. That injury is also important, if it wasn't properly treated then it would leave behind a scar!" Wang Shubing quickly shifted the attention onto Kang Zhaoming's head. "Nurse Guan Xin, can you see how handsome Master Zhaoming is? With such a beautiful face, if it was scarred, then he will definitely be discriminated against in the future. I don't know other people in this facility so I can't trust them, I can only put my trust in people I know!"

Kang Zhaoming was surprised at how quick-witted Wang Shubing was. This Wang Shubing is definitely a good military adviser; he was able to voice out an excuse so fast, even before he, himself, was able to think of one!

What Wang Shubing had said was very true. The wound on the leg might be too severe, but the injury on the head was just a large gash. Wasn't this the exact area of expertise by Guan Xin? So Kang

Zhaoming quickly added, "Yeah, I can only put my trust in people I know. I feel that outsiders, wouldn't put my care in higher consideration. I really don't want to scar my face!"

"Oh, I can't do anything to promise you that it wouldn't leave a scar," Guan Xin pouted. "I'm not a miracle doctor, I don't have Miracle Doctor Kang's Golden Creation medicine. My family's Miracle Doctor Guan's medicine is fake. It doesn't work as described. If you are afraid of scarring, then you should apply some Golden Creation. Your household should have a lot of it!"

"Ah?!" Kang Zhaoming suddenly remembered that his household's best seller, the Miracle Doctor Kang's Golden Creation was an external wound's greatest enemy. So Guan Xin was being sarcastic when she referred to what he had said about her family's medicine, when they were at the bookstore.

Kang Zhaoming was very regretful on what he had said. He must have eaten the wrong medicine at the bookstore. How could he have forgotten about the relationship between Guan Xin and Miracle Doctor Guan? He gave Guan Xin a bad first impression! The key point was that after he had said it, there was no way to rectify his mistake. He definitely couldn't say that Miracle Doctor Guan was better than Miracle Doctor Kang! Wouldn't that would be stepping on his own household pride and family?

"Okay, well if there's nothing else. I will leave. Our hospital has a set limit. We can't get our hands on Miracle Doctor Kang's Golden Creation in the hospital. It is best if you can supply it yourself." Guan Xin spoke up and left the patient room. She was able to confirm that Kang Zhaoming had nothing else to do. He purposely sent Wang Shubing out to do his bidding. Wang Shubing was just bullshitting when he had said that there was no nurse supervision.

Kang Zhaoming was dispirited as he laid in the patient bed. Why was he doing this to himself. He thought that once he was finished with Xiaofen's issue, he could just easily court Guan Xin. From the looks of it, seems like Guan Xin had a very bad impression of him!

"God damn, how unlucky can I get?" Kang Zhaoming cursed loudly.

"Master Zhaoming, I feel that Guan Xin has her guard up!" Wang Shubing frowned. He had to choose his next words carefully, "When I went to look for her, she sarcastically asked if your hand was infected. She doesn't seem to believe me when I talk to her. You come to the hospital almost everyday, it is just too frequently..."

"Yeah that is right!" Kang Zhaoming nodded. Thinking on a deeper level, it's true that he got sick way too often and way too soon. It is hard for anyone not to suspect foul play! It was unthinkable for a normal person to get injured this often! Kang Zhaoming couldn't explain himself either, since the first two times they met were injuries he caused himself. The latest injury however, was truly an accident!

The boy who cried wolf, will teach them this painful lesson. Now, Guan Xin will never believe him! Kang Zhaoming can't fake his illness, not in front of Guan Xin's sharp eyes. He has no leverage over her!

"Master Zhaoming, if this strategy won't work, why don't we switch it up?" Wang Shubing suggested.

"Switch it up how? How can we change our strategy?" Kang Zhaoming was starting to get irritated. "So instead of me getting injured, will you take the pain on my behalf?"

"Well... Why don't we change how we look at it. Right now, Guan Xin won't believe in you even if you are injured!" Wang Shubing bitterly smiled.

Kang Zhaoming sighed. It was as Wang Shubing had pointed out. Even if he suffers through more injuries, Guan Xin won't believe in him. She was suspicious already, if they continued down this path it would only backfire. They really had to change tactics!

The problem was, how should they change their tactics? Kang Zhaoming always felt confident in the way he wooed girls. His usual method consisted of sending bouquets, sweet words, faking meetings, and then leading the girl to shop on his card. It was as easy as that for him!

This method didn't seem to apply to Guan Xin. The bouquet of flowers had been sent, but no effect. Sweet talks doesn't seem to please her either. As for the faking part, she wasn't taking the bait. Guan Xin's family condition wasn't terrible at all so she wouldn't be tempted by the small things.

"Should we look online for clues? We should see if there are any good tips?" Kang Zhaoming had heard about these love experts discuss on forums about their experiences, but he rarely visited these sites. He did not even know if he would find anything useful.

"Let's try that, I will look around too!" Wang Shubing nodded, "I will see if there are any good tips, but I feel that you, Master Zhaoming, are lacking common topics with Guan Xin. Even when you two are together, you don't have anything good to talk about!"

"That's right, but she's a nurse. You don't think that I should sign up as a nurse right?" Kang Zhaoming frowned.

Chapter 800: Nervous House Yu

Nervous House Yu

"You definitely don't have to be a nurse, Brother Zhaoming. We can ask around for her hobbies and interests!" Wang Shubing continued, "Being a nurse is her occupation, but I don't believe that she doesn't have any other interests!"

"That is right! Shubing, you are very cunning. One sentence from you can clear my foggy mind!" Kang Zhaoming was surprised. "Isn't Weibo very trendy right now? Can you see if Guan Xin has a weibo and see what her interests are on there?"

"We can do that, leave this task to me!" Wang Shubing suddenly remembered the greedy nurse from earlier. He will probably bribe her for some useful information later.

***

Songshan City, within House Yu's courtyard.

Yu Kun was currently laying down on a patient bed, all bandaged up. Meanwhile a middle aged beautiful lady sat beside the bed, wiping the tears streaming from the corner of her eyes. Another male was frowning as he paced back and forth in the same room.

"Your son has been beaten into this shape, aren't you going to avenge him? What are you doing here standing around?" the beautiful lady questioned the man pacing around. Her voice had traces of sadness with signs that she was going into a fit of uncontrollable crying at any moment. She said "The House Yu name is all for show, there is no substance to it. You are being bullied and you aren't angry at all? Yu Bide, do you even treasure your son?"

"Stop shouting!" Yu Bide motioned his hand for silence, "Do you really think that I'm not anxious? We don't even know who injured Yu Kun. The moment he came back, he fell into a coma. His lower half of the body is in critical condition, now he is practically disabled. I'm more anxious than you. I want to know what happened! However, there's nothing we can do except wait for my Second Elder to find out more!"

The beautiful lady was just scolded by Yu Bide. She remained silent as she wept tears from her face.

House Yu had been tyrannical for numerous years, they were an unchecked force so they had never suffered a blow like this. These miserable events were extremely rare occurrences for their household. All the families within the secular world paid respect to House Yu. It was outrageous for anyone to strike a House Yu member.

That was until today, not only did they strike Yu Kun, they also permanently severed his meridian so that he could no longer practice spiritual arts. He was disabled. Even if he was able to regain use of his severed parts, it would be impossible for him to recover lost ground. There was no hope for him to become someone prominent anymore.

As the second generation of House Yu, Second Elder's son, Yu Kun was expected to take the leadership role over from his dad. They had high expectations for him. So it was still a mystery as to why he was so severely beaten.

At that moment, a middle aged man hastily entered the room. There was a young man tailing him; he had a similar face structure that resembled Yu Kun. This young man had an arrogance about him that said that he thought of everyone as below him.

This was the same middle aged man who had made an appearance at the auction. He was the current leader of House Yu, Yu Bifu. He was already at the peak late stage of Mystic class; he was almost about to breakthrough into the Earth class.

As for the young man who had followed him, that was his son, Yu Shuixing. Yu Shuixing, within the Yu household, was only second to Yu Bifu in terms of spiritual arts. Yu Shuixing was at the early stages of the Mystic class.

"Second Brother, you finally came back. You have to avenge my Yu Kun..." cried the teary eyed beauty. "My Yu Kun was beaten so severely that his meridians had been severed. He's useless now! He can never train in the arts again. You need to find the person responsible and inflict the same misery on them!"

The only clue they had was from the night prior. Yu Kun had called Yu Bifu out of distress, he only said that he was severely injured, then the phone went silent. Yu Bifu immediately sent reinforcements to Songshan city to search for Yu Kun and retrieve him back to Yanjing City.

By the time the reinforcement has found Yu Kun, he was unconscious. The Yu household physicians took action to treat Yu Kun, but the results were not favorable. The physicians were able to hold onto his life, but the severed meridian was unattachable. There was nothing they could do to fix it.

Upon hearing the news of this loss, he rushed over with his son.

“We don’t even know who harmed Yu Kun. So it is pointless to talk about revenge,” Yu Bifu furrowed his brows. “Yu Kun is already at the late phase of Golden class, there aren’t that many people who are capable of harming him. In addition, those who could hurt him, are all on friendly terms with our family. So who was the one that made the move?”

“Well...” Yu Bifu thought that this mystery was very peculiar. If he had to go by a logical elimination of potential targets, those few individuals of the mortal world were all on friendly terms with House Yu, so it definitely was not them! As for the people from the hidden households, they were forbidden from interfering with events taking place in the mortal world!

“Bide, don’t be disheartened too much. Our household has mountains of resources and treasures. As long as Yu Kun can stay alive, I will use everything in my power to help him train. Even if he trains in physical arts, he can still rise to a prominent position!” Yu Bifu promised his brother, Yu Bide.

“Thank you, second brother! This is his only option!” Yu Bide sighed. This was the most optimal solution.

“There is something fishy about this! Yu Kun was sent to investigate the ruined maps, then he was beaten up. To my knowledge, the strongest physical master is Le Fu, who is also peak late phase Golden class. However, since physical arts are a grade lower than spiritual arts, then he should’ve matched Yu Kun’s skills evenly. If it wasn’t a hate fueled encounter, then they wouldn’t have fought to the extreme,” Yu Bifu continued. “I feel that the person who is responsible for beating Yu Kun, had to be a spiritual fighter above peak late phase Golden class!”

“Second Brother, do you think it is possible that people belonging to the hidden noble house, House Zhao, has started making their move?” Yu Bide quickly continued. “I heard that House Zhao has an illegitimate male child called Zhao Qibing. Qibing has been very active in the Songshan City lately. He was involved in a demolition and real estate development. Seems like House Zhao wanted to dip their feet in the money business in the mortal world, perhaps from jealousy of how much we earn. Aren’t they rushing it a bit? The House Zhao isn’t on friendly terms with House Yu, so is it possible that they sent someone to hurt Yu Kun? They have the means and the wealth for it!”

“That is hard to say. It is a possibility though. I also heard that the Fire Wolf Gang is active in Songshan City!” said Yu Bifu, “A small city like Songshan can have so many conflicting major powers! What a complicated situation! If we don’t handle this right, we will be stuck in between both parties. This wouldn’t be in the best interest of House Yu! Regardless if it is House Zhao or Fire Wolf Gang, they aren’t enemies that House Yu could win in a direct conflict in the mortal world!”

“Yeah, I agree. If it really is someone from House Zhao or the Fire Wolf Gang, then we will have to notify our Oldest Brother for help...” Yu Bide sighed deeply. He will not forget his revenge, but he knows his limit. Between a hidden household or a super gang, both aren’t groups they could go against right now!
