Chapter 821: A Destined Tragedy

A Destined Tragedy

“Manager Wang, I already explained to the customer but he insisted me to show you their membership card...” Chen Lili explained, “Didn’t you say we will try to satisfy our customer’s request the best we can? Even if it’s unreasonable, we have to report it...”

Manager Wang nodded. If the customer insisted to do, Chen Lili didn’t make the wrong decision, “Pass the card, I’ll have a look first.”

Manager Wang wasn’t a vase to be able to climb to the manager post of the market department. He knew that the customer who insisted must have a background. If he was a friend to Pengzhan Industries, he mustn’t neglect their request and had to seek advice from Chu Pengzhan’s assistant, Uncle Fu.

Chen Lili passed Chu Mengyao’s card to Manager Wang. There was a machine in the office and the information of the cardholder was displayed the moment he swiped it.

“Ssss...” Manager Wang breathed deeply after seeing the name of the card. Chu Mengyao. He knew exactly what these three characters represented. Isn’t she the young Miss of the company? Did she come to shop in person?

Manager Wang thought it was unbelievable. She just had to tell Uncle Fu what she wanted and he will take care of it, why did she come by herself?

However, he recalled that she always acted modestly and never really asked Uncle Fu to come and buy things for her. She came by herself without announcing it, Manager Wang found out through the shopping records on Chu Mengyao’s card.

Manager Wang immediately understood that she didn’t like making it public. This time, she had no choice as the design she wanted was sold out and that’s why she gave her card to Chen Lili to show him!

“Let’s go, I’ll go myself!” Manager Wang picked up Chu Mengyao’s card and turned to Chen Lili.

Chen Lili was bewildered as she didn’t know why his reaction was so strong after seeing the membership card. Did it have some sort of secret behind it?

Manager Wang didn’t explain it to Chen Lili. Since Miss was a modest person, she most likely didn’t want her identity to be revealed, or she could’ve called Uncle Fu to solve her problem! Or, she could ask the shop assistant to pass on her identity without being so subtle.

Manager Wang walked out of his office and ordered another staff to take the clothes out of the display window. This shocked Chen Lili. Did Manager Wang really agree to sell the display sample? This had never happened before!

However, she didn't dare to ask as Manager Wang didn't explain. She walked with Manager Wang to the VIP section for luxury brands in the clothing department. Manager Wang walked over quickly and took out Chu Mengyao's card, "Whose card does this belong to..."

"It's mine," Chu Mengyao didn't bother to hide her identity and nodded at Manager Wang friendly.

"Hello, Miss Chu, this is your membership card!" Manager Wang politely returned the card to Chu Mengyao and informed, "I already sent someone to pick up the sample in the display window for you. It will be here in a short while, could you please wait for a moment?"

"That's fine, thank you," Chu Mengyao knew that Manager Wang recognized her, "Sorry to bother you. I can wait here myself, you should go and do what you need to do?"

"It's fine..."

"Oi, granny, when are you going to twist your head off? We bought the same clothes for you!" Chen Yushu saw that it was settled and she immediately called out to Gou Huli.

Granny? Who's granny? I'm only in my thirties! It's the most beautiful time of my life! Chen Yushu's words almost made Gou Huli explode! How did she become a granny? She was already furious that Manager Wang appeared out of nowhere and agreed to sell them the sample in the display window, Chen Yushu called her granny completely provoked her.

"Who are you calling granny?" Gou Huli glared at Chen Yushu and yelled.

"Oh, I don't know! Whoever is the oldest here is the granny!" Chen Yushu winked and replied innocently.

"Humph!" Gou Huli snorted unhappily. At this moment, she wasn't in the mood to argue with Chen Yushu and the others, but she was concerned to why the sample was sold to them!

She had asked this before specifically and the samples were not to be sold. The shop assistant, Chen Lili, also stated it, but Manager Wang agreed as soon as he came!

However, didn't this mean that she lost her bet the moment Manager Wang agreed to sell the product? How could Gou Huli let this happen? She was confident to watch these people lose their faces, take them home to humiliate them and to make them her free labor!

Now, the situation changed and she was going to lose! Doesn't that mean she would have to twist her head? How could she twist her own head off? Her expression became still, and she stared at Manager Wang sinisterly, "What's going on? The samples are not for sale, why are you selling it?"

Manager Wang looked at her and didn't know what she was here for. However, he still explained, "Naturally we have our rules, it's our decision to sell it!"

Manager Wang's subtle message was that although you are our VIP guest, you can't possibly intervene with our normal operation! You are asking too much!

"That's going back on your words! I'm going to report you! I will report you to the upper management! Don't you know who I am? How dare you ignore my opinion! I'm telling you, your president of the chamber of commerce in this small city has to act upon my husband's wills, not to mention a small mall like yours!" Gou Huli roared whilst pointing at Manager Wang.

Report him? Manager Wang didn't care as it was no use. He sold something to the young Miss, even if she reported him to Chu Pengzhan, he wouldn't be in any trouble. As for the other things she said, Manager didn't necessarily believe it. Even if the president of the chamber of commerce couldn't control whether he sells the sample in the display window or not!

Chapter 822: People From House Xiao

People From House Xiao

"Filing a complaint is your right, but to sell or not to sell this clothing is our decision to make." Manager Wang said courteously.

"Right! Remember this! You guys better be careful!" Gou Huli had no leverage over them—she would only become a laughing stock if remained here. Who knew if they would demand her to twist her head off once Lin Yi and gang paid for the clothing?

How could Gou Huli wait for something like this to happen? Hence, after saying her last word, she turned around and left quickly.

"Wait a minute, we haven't given you back the clothing." Lin Yi called.

"I don't want that anymore! I'll let you guys go this time! But remember what you guys did, I won't allow this to end like this!" Gou Huli warned, her sound full of hatred.

"You don't want it? That can't be. You see we've gotten you the same shirt you demanded. Don't you owe us something?" Lin Yi said lightly.

"Oh-oh, let the show begins! Everyone, please gather here, this old hag is going to perform a trick-twisting her head off! This performance is even greater than the clown you see in the circus!" Yushu shouted.

"I said I don't want the shirt, what should I perform? Gou Huli glared daggers at Yushu: "I'll remember you, you better wait! I'll deal with you guys next time!"

After ending the bullshit, Gou Huli ignored Lin Yi and Yushu as she escaped quickly with big steps towards the lift.

"Should we let her leave?" Lin Yi looked at Chu Mengyao.

"Whatever, no point arguing with people like this." Mengyao shook her head—she didn't seem to mind at all.

Lin Yi shrugged his shoulder since the Miss didn't intend to continue, of course, he wouldn't care about the woman too. In his eyes, Gou Huli was just contemptible clown creating troubles, but there seemed to be hidden meaning behind her words. The man she was referring to seemed to have some sort of power? However, he'd no idea was she bullshitting or not.

“That no fun. Some old hags just have to be this shameless, turning back on their words.” Yushu felt bored when the performance was called off.

Gou Huli staggered to her feet, almost falling to the ground and accidentally twisted her ankle. This made her so angry as she clenched her teeth. She’d planned to consider carefully before making a decision formally but she was at her limit now—she was so pissed off that she had to release her anger and unleash her fury no matter what!

She took out her phone when she entered the lift and called her man.

“Husband, I was bullied in Songshan city! Not only did they use a water hose to splash me with water, they still refused to pay up and even humiliated me asking me to twist my head off!” Gou Huli was shameless enough to sling accusation first. “And there was this b*tch, she dared to call me an old hag, your wife is so pretty and young, how was she an old hag?!”

“What’s going on? Who are these people?” The man on the opposite side of the phone frowned but he knew how nasty his wife was so he didn’t believe her words completely as he asked back. “If you didn’t provoke people, why would they bully you? Just what was going on? Tell me the truth! Don’t you dare lie to me! Don’t think that I don’t know what a person you are?”

“Hmph! There were these two cleaner and a gardener, while they were messing around in the yard and I was on my way to the newly bought villa, I was splashed by them with their water hose from head to my face...” Gou Huli saw that her husband didn’t believe her words, she could only complain. “And I was thinking that our villa needed some cleaners to tidy up the place so I tried to threaten them to pay up for my shirt otherwise they have to work us one month, but who knew they would accept...”

“So why did you say people humiliate you?” the man snorted and asked.

“How could these lowly servants pay up for my shirt? You know that yourself, this shirt was bought from the VIP section in Pengzhan tower, excluding the one that was used for display, I’d bought the last one of this design!” Gou Huli explained. “I was certain that they couldn’t buy it! So I made a bet with them, if they were able to buy one, I’ll twist my head off in front of them and if they couldn’t get one, they’ll have to work for us one month...”

“At the end, they were able to buy it?” The man was speechless—how could she just crap whatever she liked? Twisting her head off?

“Yeah, I couldn’t believe that even these lowly servants, each of them has their diamond membership card. Their master is so generous to them!” Gou Huli was pissed. “However, having a membership card doesn’t mean anything! I thought that even having hundred membership card, once the stock was sold out, it was impossible for them to get the same one!

But when the manager came, he sold the clothing to them! I’m so pissed off. Manger Wong must be wrong in the head, standing up for those slaves!”

“Slaves? Servants?” the man was so furious at his wife. “Do you have a brain? How could cleaners and gardener have a diamond membership card?! From what I know, we only get one because we are from a noble house. They were giving us one out of friendship, how could those cleaners get one then?”

“Because their master is kind to them?” Gou Huli was confused and didn’t get what her husband was trying to point out.

“Master? Are you seeing things correctly, those people are not that simple! Could you even afford to give your house cleaner one diamond membership card? Giving them a normal membership card is already considered very generous!” The man was enraged. “All of them have their diamond membership cards. Besides, they even know the manager there. Obviously, they are the masters of the villa! You just made a scene after entering the area for a while? Those three were evidently powerful in this area, how could you not notice that?”

“Huh? That can’t be?” Gou Huli startled. “But they wore pretty cheaply made clothes, and do the masters of the villa do the cleaning themselves?”

“People clean to strengthen their body. And they can use their leisure time to do whatever they like! When my old man was still around, didn’t he grow the vegetables himself? Why didn’t I see you calling him servant?” the man was infuriated. “You good for nothing, making enemies the first day you arrived!”

“Hmph! So what, they are at most just rich masters in this area, look at their age, they aren’t even matured yet! Besides, even if their old man stepped forward, what could they do in front of House Xiao? They are worthless! Xiao Ji, I was being bullied until this extent. Are you sure you don’t want to avenge me? You may as well let me die! I’ve been following you since I was eighteen, staying in the shadow all the time until your wife passed away. Wasn’t my life miserable?! Even today, now that I was being bullied. You didn’t even stand up for me yet scolded me for nothing. Sob sob sob, I don’t wanna live anymore!” Gou Huli acted like she was crying.

Chapter 823: Chu Meng Yao’s Identity

Chu Meng Yao’s Identity

“Fine! Stop crying! We’ll talk about this when I get to Songshan city! I’m in Donghai right now, Xiao Ben and I are about to visit House Kang later. Let me settle the things here, and then I’ll stand up for you afterward!” Xiao Ji was helpless.

“So you expect me to endure this until you come here? I was bullied the moment I entered this area. What will people think of me!” Gou Huli didn’t want to wait any longer. She was extremely pissed, and she wanted to give Lin Yi a good lesson!

“What do you want?” Xiao Ji asked helplessly.

“I can’t just let it go. Don’t you have anyone in Songshan city? If not, hire some gangsters to hurt them!” Gou Huli said.

“You don’t even know their background and you want to hurt people?” Xiao Ji frowned.

“What background could they probably have? Just some stupid kiddos!” Gou Huli said with disdain. “Even if they have some sort of background, how could they compete with us, House Xiao? We are one of the noble houses in Yanjing, after all. In this lowly place, who wouldn’t give us respect!”

“It’s not like that. We are here to build up our business. After all, we still need the support of the local despots. If we were to offend them now, even if House Xiao is one of the noble houses, we are in a foreign land. What should we do if people don’t give us face?” Xiao Ji’s voice was deep.

“Hmph! How dare they! We shall allow Uncle Pi to eliminate them! We have a mystic class master backing us, I don’t think these upstarts can do anything to us.” Gou Huli smiled coldly and cockily.

“You do know that Uncle Pi is our House’s figure of worship. If our old man was still alive, letting Uncle Pi hurt them wouldn’t be an issue. But Xiao Ben and I, with Uncle Pi, have boundaries in between us now. After our father passed away, we weren’t that close anymore. As for why Uncle Pi is still staying with us is all due to our father. Otherwise, do you think we can make a mystic class master stay with that little amount of money we earn in these months? Aren’t you dreaming? Xiao Ji explained.

“This... what should we do? I’ll try to endure then. Your wife is going to become a ninja turtle very soon! People will surely talk bad about our house sooner or later, saying that House Xiao is nothing without their old man! Even some random upstarts aren’t their opponents!” Gou Huli still unwilling to give up.

“Fine! You go check out their background first, see who are these people before we proceed to the next step! I’ve to pay the old man of House Kang a visit first before we can continue what is in our hand!” Xiao Ji was irritated. “It’s not like you’re unaware of House Xiao’s current situation, people might see us high and almighty being part of the four big and five small noble houses. But in fact, we aren’t even equally matched to House Kang now! Look at our business in Yanjing? How much was profited from selling all of them? This time, coming to a foreign land to build up a business is consider turning over a new leaf for House Xiao! House Xiao’s current condition is pretty severe, without House Kang’s support, we might even face a bigger crisis ahead! Can you at least understand our current dire situation, prodigal woman?!”

“I.....” Gou Huli finally shut her mouth up. She knew their situation well just that she was unable to accept the fact! She just became the daughter in law of House Xiao recently, not even two whole years. Just when she started enjoying the luxuries in life, House Xiao fell into poverty. She couldn’t accept it and wanted even more to abuse the power of House Xiao. She wanted to get all the power and respect she could get before it was too late.

Xiao Ji ended the call before Gou Huli could continue.

Gou Huli was so pissed that she wanted to smash the phone in her hand right here right now but remembered that it was the latest iPhone she bought recently. It was a few thousand yuan. She held herself back instead. After House Xiao had fallen, Gou Huli’s monthly pocket money was less than before, when she was just a mistress! However, she didn’t have a choice. With their current situation, there was no point in complaining, either.

Gou Huli had decided to inquire about their information and confirm their background in residential estate property management. She was an overbearing person from the beginning. How could she not teach those kids a lesson? How could she stand up tall and proud being the daughter in law of House Xiao if she didn’t make them pay?

Hence, with anger and displeasure, she went down the building, entered the parking lot, drove her car and went full speed to the villa. Arriving at the residential estate property management and walked in like a boss.

In the property company, one could easily get whatever information of the residents to their hand, given that the information wasn't confidential.

So without much effort, she found out the villa's owner name, Chu Mengyao!

Chu Mengyao? Gou Huli startled at the familiarity. Wasn't it the surname of one of the cleaners? And another cleaner beside was calling her "Yaoyao sis". Could it be that she was the owner of the villa, Chu Mengyao? That can't be, right? She was the owner of the villa?

Gou Huli was taken aback greatly. It was no surprise that she would react like this, after all, Mengyao and Yushu weren't wearing anything decent at that time. It was just some casual sportswear, and while Lin Yi was wearing some very old fashioned shirt, it was no different from a worker, an appropriate uniform for a lowly gardener. However, as things stood, it seemed like they were the owners of the villa?

No wonder three of them had their diamond membership card. They were young masters, after all! But Gou Huli was more even pissed after finding out their real identity! If they were the owners of the villa, why didn't they fight back when she called them lowly servants? Were they trying to play dumb to take advantage of me?

"Hey, tell me, what sort of background does this Chu Mengyao have?" Gou Huli waved her hand to call the guard over and shouted.

Although Gou Huli'd completed her renaming procedure documentary work here yesterday, no one in this management didn't know how big a tyrant she was. She might call herself a rich lady from Yanjing city, ordering people around with her fingers, but she was as overbearing as a crab!

(Why a crab? Because crabs don't walk the straight and Gou Huli make any sense.)

She came to the office during the lunch break yesterday, not giving a care to the worker's lunchtime, she threw one of the worker's lunch box away and urged him to complete the procedure for her.

The workers had no leverage over tyrannical residents like this. They couldn't possibly offend them nor speak up so they could only endure the suffering and follow the orders.

"Chu Mengyao is the Miss of Pengzhan industries..." this was no secret in this area, so the guard wasn't trying to hide the fact from her as well.

"What? She's the Miss of Pengzhan industries?!" Gou Huli widened her eyes and looked at the guard in surprise. "Are you serious?"

"Yes, everyone here knows about this...." the guard had no idea why Gou Huli was being so dramatic but he didn't dare to question.

Chapter 824: House Xiao's Decision

House Xiao's Decision

"This little b*tch! Pretending to be a pig trying to devour a tiger? I won't allow you to escape this easily!" Gou Huli finally understood why manager Wong took out the shirt from the display, how could she not sell the shirt when the Miss of Pengzhan industries requested it?

Gou Huli walked out of the property company, ignored the guard completely, went into her car and started calling her husband again, pissed.

"What do you want again?" Xiao Ji picked up the phone, rather irritated. He regretted his previous decision of bringing Gou Huli into his house. When she was still his mistress, things like this had never happened before.

"Husband, I finally found out their true identities. One of the cleaners is really the owner of the villa, her name is Chu Mengyao, the Miss of Pengzhan industries!" Gou Huli said.

"See, didn't I tell you? What cleaner, how did you offend her?" Xiao Ji furrowed his eyebrows. "Pengzhan industries? Isn't that Chu Pengzhan's business?"

"Was this Chu Pengzhan powerful?" Gou Huli sensed the uneasiness from her husband's voice as she asked cautiously.

It's not considered powerful but Pengzhan industries are one of the renowned big companies, now that you have offended them, we have made ourselves another enemy!" Xiao Ji was displeased. "Call me later, I've to ask Xiao Ben about this case."

"Okay!" Gou Huli didn't dare to comment as she quickly ended the call. She didn't put Pengzhan industries in her eyes, she thought that even if Pengzhan industries was one of the renowned big companies, it was not a big deal. They could very much use this opportunity to display their strength and gain a higher position!

After Xiao Ji ended the call, he told Xiao Ben the fight Gou Huli started in Songshan city. He wanted to discuss and plan his next step with his brother. Although Xiao Ji was the elder brother, the decision-maker was Xiao Ben! Xiao Ji's character was more careless compared to Xiao Ben who used his brain to think and plan.

"Brother, what do you think of this? How should we solve this problem?" Xiao Ji told Xiaoben everything from arriving Songshan city to offending the Miss from Pengzhan industries. "It was your sis-in-law's fault, getting into trouble on the first day...."

"Oh? Got into trouble?" Xiao Ben shook his head and smiled lightly. "This trouble is perfect, House Xiao is still a stranger in this foreign soil. Making friends with House Kang is not enough! Many big companies still haven't heard of House Xiao's reputation and this trouble is the golden opportunity for us to show our prestige. Since sis-in-law has found us one, shouldn't we be happy about it?"

Xiao Ben was taken aback, puzzled. "Brother, you mean, we are making Pengzhan industries our enemy?"

"Not really." Xiao Ben waved his hand. "But we will make them bleed and force them to give us some benefits. What's the point of making them our enemy? When House Xiao hasn't had a place to stand right now, and House Xiao is still in a mess both domestically and abroad. It's not an ideal time to make enemies just yet! What we should do at this moment is to pressure them to compromise with us, make them pay us a fortune and force them to give us some share of their properties. This could help House Xiao to prevent starting right from scratch!"

"Brother, your idea is so well-planned! Not only can House Xiao get some benefits out from it and we could also avoid starting a war with Pengzhan industries!" Xiao Ben nodded but he still had doubts in mind as he asked. "But will Pengzhan industries bend so easily?"

"Hmph! Putting House Xiao's big name in front, what can they possibly not bend down to power? Besides, we can say that Chu Pengzhan didn't put House Xiao in his eyes as he allowed the kids to bully sis-in-law! If they refused to pay or give us some benefits, even better, we can have Uncle Pi to visit them!" Xiao Ben snorted a cold breath. "This daughter of Chu Pengzhan is just too cocky, hahaha, this is a golden opportunity to blackmail them!"

"Brilliant!" Xiao Ji suddenly felt confident when Xiao Ben mentioned Uncle Pi in their plan! He heard that Chu Pengzhan had a bodyguard, his name was Li Fu but he was just peak late phase golden class physical master. He was nothing to Uncle Pi as their strength was a whole division of difference! Now that they had Uncle Pi, he believed that Chu Pengzhan would have nothing to say anymore!

House Xiao was one of the noble houses, after all, how could they allow a mere businessman to bully them? These people would never know House Xiao's true strength if their strength wasn't displayed properly!

"Okay, we should go pay House Kang a visit first." with just a few words, Xiao Ben settled the whole issue Xiao Ji was concerning about, this made Xiao Ji at ease as his problems were all solved at once. Formally, he thought that his wife was a trouble maker, making enemies on the first day she arrived in Songshan city and the arising trouble would affect House Xiao's development! But his brother effortlessly settled the case from bad news to great news. En, he thought that his wife wasn't actually half bad, either! Being overbearing earned them some benefits. When he reached home, he should properly praise his wife for real and encourage her to continue her immovable tyrannical behavior!

"Uncle Pi is still not here yet?" Xiao Ji looked at the watch and asked.

"I've already sent people to pick him up in the hotel, without Uncle Pi, I'm afraid that Miracle Doctor Kang this cunning old fox will play tricks with us. House Kang's and House Xiao's relationship isn't that close anymore." Xiao Ben sighed.

House Kang's attitude made the Xiao brothers worried.

The Xiao brothers knew what House Kang was plotting. Their aim was unquestionably obvious. The so-called marriage was just a bridge for them to reach the title of the noble house, but since House Xiao was slowly crumbling recently, House Kang didn't see House Xiao as useful anymore!

After House Xiao sold all their business in Yanjing city, they decided to move to Songshan city was all due to this marriage. First, they wanted to urge this marriage to come true as soon as possible. Second, Songshan city was a small city. The competition wasn't as big as Yanjing!

The Xiao brothers had nowhere to advance in Yanjing. Their old friends that their grandfather made in the old days didn't want to be involved with them. Even House Yu refused to see them as a noble house now! All in all, this was all due to not having a person who could stand up and lead the house as House Xiao had no masters!

They might have Uncle Pi, a mystic class master existence but he was just a figure of worship in their house. He couldn't be considered as House Xiao's true strength. House Xiao was a business based house formally, but during the glorious and prosperous days, their old man had Uncle Pi's full support so they were blessed and granted a noble house title.

However, now that the Xiao brothers no longer had their grandfather around, Uncle Pi's attitude towards them had changed. Hence, House Xiao became weaker and weaker days by days! Xiao Ji and Xiao Ben regretted their actions for not practicing martial arts when they were young. If they had at least one or two golden class masters in the house, things wouldn't be this dire!

But they were unable to bear hardships as a practitioner has to go through a lot of trials and tribulations in order to gain strength. They thought that their grandfather and Uncle Pi would always be around and House Xiao would never fall into poverty. But it was too late for regrets, nothing could be changed at this point!

Chapter 825: House Xiao is Visiting

House Xiao is Visiting

A business car with Yanjing's car plate came to sight. Eventually, Uncle Pi had arrived.

The Xiao brothers got into their own car, leading the way with the business car at the back following them to House Kang's villa.

"Dad, the people from House Xiao have arrived. Should we go welcome them later?" Kang Guifeng received the call from the Xiao brothers and informed his dad who was in the study room.

"Oh? They've arrived? Hmph, it seems like they are pretty impatient!" Miracle Doctor Kang curled his lips with disdain. "I heard that House Xiao is an empty shell now?"

"Indeed, according to my report, House Xiao has sold all their business in Yanjing and prepared to play their last bet in Songshan city." Kang Guifeng nodded.

"Why Songshan city but not Donghai city though?" Miracle Doctor Kang asked.

"Perhaps they are only left with a small amount of money. It might not be enough for them to look impressive in Donghai. After all, there are a lot of rich people there. They might outshine them completely.

Kang Guifeng's guess was precisely correct as House Xiao was thinking the same as well.

Besides other than House Kang, there was another hidden noble house in Donghai city, House Zhao. House Xiao couldn't even look impressive with these two houses around so they chose to move to Songshan city instead. They could very much use their remaining power and become the big tyrant in that small place.

Miracle Doctor Kang nodded. "Go welcome them, but don't make it too grand. After all, House Kang's current power isn't inferior to House Xiao, either! We are on the same path. House Xiao isn't doing any good recently, and aren't we facing the same thing too?"

"Yeah, we're damaged pretty severely too, Miracle Doctor Guan and Fatty Lai dug a big hole for us to step!" Kang Guifeng continued. "We'll have to see if Kang Zhaoming can get the recipe from House Guan now!"

"En, right. Is there any news from Zhaoming?" Miracle Doctor Kang asked.

"Zhao Qibing was relocating the slums, and accidentally injured him but I heard that Zhaoming wanted to solve this issue himself, asking for compensation." Kang Guifeng answered. "As for the development of his relationship with Guanxin, there's no news yet."

"This kid, didn't he always brag about how good he was in chasing after girls? What is taking him so long?" Miracle Doctor Kang was rather impatient as he asked. "Right, was his injury serious?"

"I've no idea, but Kang Zhaoming didn't mention a thing about it, he's probably fine I guess?" Kang Guifeng shook his head.

Not long after, the Xiao brothers came in with Uncle Pi. Miracle Doctor Kang didn't want to show his face formally, but after hearing that Uncle Pi was here too, he came down because he was frightened, "Please excuse my manners, Uncle Pi, Xiao Ji, Xiao Ben, this man is old now, he suddenly dozed off without realizing the time!"

"It's okay, no big deal!" Xiao Ben waved his hand with a smile like he didn't mind and stood up with Xiao Ji as they greeted. "Both of us are juniors, how could we have the honor to have Miracle Doctor Kang to welcome us? You're being too humble!"

But Xiao Ben was smiling coldly inside, this old fox. Would he even come down if he didn't know that Uncle Pi was here?

In fact, things were like how Xiao Ben assumed, Miracle Doctor Kang knew how powerful was Uncle Pi was. There was no way he would ignore an existence like Uncle Pi! Who knew if House Kang would require help from Uncle Pi in the future? Once they reached a certain level in the society, the conflicts and problems between houses wouldn't be settled using normal methods.

In the martial arts world, naturally, noble houses would use martial arts to settle the conflict. Even people like Li Cihua and Chu Pengzhan, many things were settled underground. Not to mention it was a conflict between noble houses!

Hence, the method used between noble houses was fairly simple, those who could win with their fist was the winner. As for Uncle Pi, he was a mystic class physical master. Of course, no one would have the balls to underestimate him!

"Well well!" Miracle Doctor Kang was beaming when he greeted Uncle Pi. "Pi Lao, your gracious presence brings light to our humble dwelling!"

“Miracle Doctor Kang’s name is like a rumble of thunder piercing the ears, a very well-known reputation.” Uncle Pi eyed Miracle Doctor Kang, he didn’t even stand up when he greeted back. He only looked at him and said faintly. His expression was solemn, and he didn’t look impressed.

Miracle Doctor Kang felt awkward but he didn’t comment about it as he made a laugh, sat himself down and started weather talking with the Xiao brothers. “Xiao Ji, why did you guys come to Donghai city all of a sudden? Is there anything that House Kang can offer you guys?”

“Hehe, actually it’s like this, Miracle Doctor Kang as you know that after our father passed away, our business in Yanjing became a mess. Our father did something careless before he kicked the bucket, the business was at sixes and sevens!” Xiao Ben wasn’t trying to hide the truth as it was unnecessary because House Kang could find out themselves whether he lied or not. “Without destruction, there can be no construction. With this thought, we sold all the business in Yanjing and are trying to start over again in Songshan city!”

“Indeed! Changing to a new location, changing the environment and closing the gap between us is a smart move.” Miracle Doctor Kang nodded and laughed coldly inside. If Uncle Pi wasn’t at your side, what could you guys probably have?

“En, secondly, I want to ask about the marriage of Xinyan and Zhaolong....” Xiao Ben mentioned the purpose of their visit.

He wanted to get House Kang to their side as soon as possible. House Xiao might have the reputation of a noble house and the strength of Uncle Pi but they couldn’t always let Uncle Pi do the job for them, could they? If the marriage was a success, many people would befriend them and give them a lot of respect.

“Why the rush though? Xinyan is still studying in high school. Isn’t it too early for marriage?” Miracle Doctor Kang continued, “Of course, I personally would love to see them together and strongly agree with this marriage but Xinyan is just too young. She hasn’t reached the age to be a wife by law, right?”

“Haha, Miracle Doctor Kang, you really do know how to joke. These laws are nothing in the eyes of a noble house. However, they can get engaged first. Shall we do the arrangement for them?” Xiao Ji interrupted Miracle Doctor Kang with a laugh.

“En, you are right!” Miracle Doctor Kang nodded. “Sure, I’ll ask Zhaolong and have him set the date of engagement later.”

Miracle Doctor Kang didn’t really mind the idea of engagement. After all, engagement wasn’t marriage, they could very much call it off anytime they see right. Once they found another powerful support or became stronger themselves, House Xiao would be abandoned.

Xiao Ji and Xiao Ben understood the change in Miracle Doctor Kang’s tone. If Uncle Pi wasn’t around, this marriage would have gone south!

After saying their goodbyes, Xiao Ji and Xiao Ben left the villa with frustration. There was a saying, if a tiger went down to level land, it would be insulted by dogs! A man who lost their position and influence would be subjected to many indignities!

Recalling back the time when Miracle Doctor Kang himself brought Kang Guifentg and Kang Zhaolong to visit them. He had so much honor and respect towards them. But things took a big turn, and Miracle Doctor Kang's attitude had changed completely.

Chapter 826: Troublesome Girl

Troublesome Girl

After Gou Huli left, Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu didn't insist on buying the clothes from the display window. The design was obviously for young married women, but even if it wasn't, Chu Mengyao didn't want to wear the same clothes as that shrew, Gou Huli.

Manager Wang saw that Chu Mengyao no longer wanted it and Gou Huli left filled with anger. He almost figured out the story. Gou Huli probably agitated Miss and caused this scene.

Manager Wang didn't ask further and pretended he didn't know anything, "Miss Chu, would you like to have a look around? If you need anything, please contact me anytime! This is my business card..."

"Okay, Manager Wang, don't let us keep you here," Miss took the business card and passed it to Lin Yi.

Manager Wang was surprised at Lin Yi. He heard that Chu Pengyao found a son-in-law who was the second-biggest shareholder of the company. However, he had never attended any meeting with the other directors. Is it the person standing to Miss? The second-biggest shareholder of the company?

However, the way he dressed was rather unpresentable. Even so, he didn't dare to look down as wealthy people had strange hobbies. Looking at Miss, she was wearing ordinary sports clothes handed out by her school and he was unable to judge her identity by clothes alone.

Chu Mengyao didn't want to keep shopping as there was nothing she needed to buy. Hence, she turned to Chen Yushu, "Shu, what are we going to do now?"

"I don't know. I was happy because she was going to twist off her head, but that old woman is a liar," Chen Yushu complained, "It's so boring! Can we go and see what's fun here?"

"What's fun around here?" Chu Mengyao didn't think there was anything interesting to do around the business district.

"There is a Tiandi Wonderful Time Arcade not far from here. I want to go and have a look..." Chen Yushu replied.

"What's so good about arcades? There are so many gangsters there and it's dangerous!" Chu Mengyao replied without thinking through it as she often used this excuse to prevent Chen Yushu from going to arcades previously.

"We have Shield bro now, there's nothing to be afraid of!" Chen Yushu said, "If any gangsters harass us, Shield bro will beat them up!"

Chu Mengyao heard Chen Yushu's words and paused. Indeed, with Lin Yi there, they wouldn't be in danger as a group of young gangsters wouldn't be able to harm Lin Yi.

“Lin Yi, Shu wants to go the arcade,” Chu Mengyao turned to Lin Yi.

Lin Yi was surprised. Since when did Miss ask for his advice? She had never done this before. It looked like she became more mature after what happened at the hospital.

“It’s the weekend, we can go,” Lin Yi didn’t really mind, “Since we are already out, it’s fine if you want to go.”

Lin Yi thought that he would be pulled into it if these two girls went home and continued cleaning, it was better for them to go and bully those NPCs!

Chu Mengyao wanted to see what an arcade was like. Wouldn’t people laugh at her if she said she had never been to an arcade before for so many years? It was the life Shu and she had before Lin Yi came into their lives. They looked bright and gorgeous on the outside, but their lives were extremely boring.

The three of them left Pengzhan Business Tower, Lin Yi drove towards the direction Chen Yushu pointed towards and they arrived at a large entertainment center. Computer games, pool, and Internet cafe were combined into one, attracting many young adults here. They could tell that it was rather popular looking at the number of people going in and out.

On the first level, half of it was computer and video games, the other half was the pool. Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu had never come before. It was something they’ve only seen on tv before.

“Lin Yi, can you go and buy some game coins for us?” Chu Mengyao knew that they needed game coins to play here.

Lin Yi nodded and headed towards the counter.

Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu began to look around the arcade, planning which games they wanted to play.

“Beautiful girls, do you want to play together with us?” A few bad boys at the door had their eyes on Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu as soon as they walked in. After the two girls were left alone, someone approached them, a red-haired young adult.

Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu were always under the spotlight no matter they went. Although they were only wearing ordinary school uniform, they felt more like students. It made the gangsters think that they didn’t have any backgrounds.

Chu Mengyao glanced at the red-haired boy coldly and ignored him. However, Chen Yushu replied curiously, “Oi, why is your hair red? Was it like this when you were a kid?”

“Hey, you wanna know? I don’t mind telling you in details in a place without people,” The red-haired boy saw the girl with big boobs answering, and he immediately became excited.

“Not really,” Chen Yushu shook her head, “I just thought it looks bad. Makes you look like a turkey.”

The red-haired boy was unwilling to listen to such ugly words, “Girl, what do you mean? You don’t have to play with me, but why do you have to be so mean?”

Chu Mengyao was annoyed. Chen Yushu was such a troublesome girl! She got into trouble as soon as she arrived here! Without Lin Yi, they would be in big trouble already. In fact, Chen Yushu wasn't stupid as she wouldn't get herself in trouble if Lin Yi wasn't here.

The Red-haired boy's words attracted quite a few others and surrounded Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu in the middle.

"What do you want?" Chu Mengyao frowned. Why are these people so ruleless? Weren't there any security guards here?

Chu Mengyao never came to places like this and she didn't know that there were no security guards here but only a few gangsters who watched over the venue. If there wasn't a big problem, those people wouldn't come here.

"She said bad words to our Red Fur bro, what do you think we want?" A bald gangster with a cigar in his mouth pointed at Chen Yushu.

"Fine, that's her fault, I apologize for her, alright?" Chu Mengyao didn't want any troubles.

"Alright? You say it's alright and it is? How about this, let the girl play with Red Fur bro for a while and we'll let it go!" The baldie said.

"Don't go overboard!" How could Chu Mengyao agree to this kind of requests? Make Shu play with them?

"Overboard? Is it your first time here? You shouldn't come next time if you don't know the rules! But this time, you have to follow the rules!" The red hair replied indifferently, "Play a game of car race with me. I won't do anything to her, at most touching her boobs. If the others know that someone offended Red Fur and left, it's hard for me to stay here!"

Chapter 827: Leaving Like This?

Leaving Like This?

"Huh?!" Chu Mengyao widened her eyes. That's doing nothing? How could she let him touch Shu?

"No way!" Chu Mengyao immediately refused Red Fur's suggestion.

"I don't want to be forceful, that's not fun," Red Fur was mad as Chu Mengyao turned down his kind offer.

"I don't want to make a big fuss over it either," Chu Mengyao was talking about Lin Yi. These people would all end up on the ground if Lin Yi came to solve the problem.

"Fine. I'll give you another choice. One of you have a car race game with me, if you win, we'll let this go, if you lose, both of you will have to stay with me tonight!" Red Fur looked like he could eat Chu Mengyao up for sure.

He heard Chu Mengyao's words and thought that she was afraid, which was why he gave an even worse option. Everyone here knew that he was a god at car racing and no one could win playing the game with him.

"Oh? And if you lose?" Lin Yi suddenly appeared behind Red Fur's back without knowing when and spoke into Red Fur's ears. Red Fur jumped back in terror as he thought Lin Yi was a ghost.

Red Fur turned around and raged at the sight of Lin Yi, "Brat, where did you come from? Do you want to butt into my business?"

"I'm with them," Lin Yi replied indifferently, "Answer me, what happens if you lose?"

"How would I lose?" Red Fur laughed coldly in disdain as if he just heard a funny joke.

"Since it's a race, it has to be fair. If they lose, they spend the night with you, and if you lose?" Lin Yi ignored Red Fur's laugh and asked in the same tone.

"They will spend time here with me if they lose, if I lose, obviously I'm going to spend time with them?" Red Fur laughed lewdly.

"If that's the case, there is no need to compete. Let's go," Lin Yi turned around to Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu, "This guy's brainless. He doesn't even understand simple logic like this. It's not fun even if you win against an idiot like him."

"Mhm, that's exactly what I thought!" Chen Yushu nodded in agreement. Since Lin Yi came, she was no longer afraid of Red Fur.

Chu Mengyao covered her mouth and laughed. Although Lin Yi was rather harsh with his words, but Red Fur was unreasonable since he was the one who started it, not them!

"Brat, are you going to leave like this? Who do you think you are?" Red Fur was rather annoyed at Lin Yi's attitude. He was quite a character here in the arcade yet someone dared to not give him face, "Fine then, since you are here, I won't let you leave!"

"Don't look for trouble for yourself," Lin Yi didn't mind Red Fur as he didn't put this type of person in his eyes.

Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu became more confident and they followed behind Lin Yi.

"Shield bro, how much game coins did you buy? Is it enough?" Chen Yushu seemed like she already forgot about Red Fur as she stared at the game coins in Lin Yi's hands excitedly.

"Fuck! Keep them here!" Red Fur didn't want to cause any problems here as the owner had quite the background, but he would lose all his reputation today if he did nothing to Lin Yi's arrogance!

Red Fur spoke as he stretched his hand out towards Chen Yushu, but instead, his hand was grasped tightly by someone else before he could even touch Chen Yushu.

"I said, don't look for trouble for yourself, don't you understand?" Lin Yi looked at Red Fur coldly.

Red Fur fought to break free from Lin Yi's grasp, but he realized that his arm was like being held in metal pliers as he was unable to move at all! He immediately became terrified, "Let go of me! Fuck your Mom!"

Kaa.... Lin Yi strengthened his grasp even more. Although Lin Yi didn't know who his mother was, Red Fur's words still agitated him. If he put a tiny more strength into it, Red Fur's wrist will become useless.

"Ahhhh!!" Red Fur screeched grimly. He felt like his wrist was going to explode from Lin Yi's grasp!

"Let go of Red Fur bro!" The baldie saw Lin Yi held Red Fur down and he panicked. Lin Yi's right hand was occupied and the baldie seized the opportunity as he swung his fist from Lin Yi's back. As long as it hurts, Lin Yi would let go of Red Fur's arm!

"Lin Yi, be careful!" Chu Mengyao was shocked and quickly warned Lin Yi.

The baldie laughed coldly. There is no use to warn him! Unless Lin Yi let go of Red Fur and turn around to block the attack, he will definitely hit the target!

However, the baldie's cold laugh didn't stay long enough before his expressions froze as he was sent flying.

Lin Yi's leg kicked backward in an unbelievable angle and strength, almost forming a ninety degrees angle at the back of his body, sent the baldie flying backward, hitting on the arcade's wall heavily!

The other gangsters who wanted to sneak an attack like the baldie all hesitated. The angle and strength of the kick were too unbelievable. An ordinary person could perform a back kick, but that must be done under the circumstances when they were close enough, and the kick wouldn't too be powerful. Hence, it was impossible to send someone flying as Lin Yi did!

Red Fur wasn't stupid and knew that Lin Yi wasn't easy to handle after merely one attack. He knew it was a bad idea to keep his hard attitude and his tone became softer, "Bro, where do you hang out? Who's your boss? Perhaps we all know each..."

"My boss is standing right there!" Lin Yi used his other hand to point at Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu, Chen Yushu even raised her hand and waved at Red Fur.

"What the fuck, how dare you tease me!" Red Fur subconsciously thought that Lin Yi was teasing him. Whose boss were two women? Nonsense! Red Fur immediately raged, "I don't know who you are with, do you know whose territory this is? It is Zou Ruoguang, Guang bro's family territory! You dare to make a fuss here, are you sick of being alive?"

"Zou Ruoguang?" Lin Yi paused. No wonder the name of the place sounded so familiar, it was under Zou Tiandi.

At this time, Red Fur's subordinates went to invite Zou Ruoguang here as they could no longer keep the situation in control here. Lin Yi was obviously stronger than all of them, the baldie was still lying on the ground no knowing whether he was dead or alive, Red Fur was also under Lin Yi's control. These subordinates didn't dare to make a move and could only seek help from Zou Ruoguang.

Zou Ruoguang was rather impatient. A noble master came from Donghai city today and they were just discussing a collaboration with Tiandi Industries. Zou Ruoguang was accompanying the noble master playing pool today yet they were interrupted by Red Fur's subordinates.

Chapter 828: Said Something Wrong

Said Something Wrong

"What happened?" Zou Ruoguang looked at the baldie impatiently.

"Guang bro, someone is making a big fuss in the video game room. The person caught Red Fur bro, can you please go and have a look?" The baldie replied carefully.

"I'm sorry, Master Jun, I think I need to go and have a look," Zou Ruoguang heard that someone was making a problem in the arcade and caught Red Fur, he couldn't stay seated. Although Red Fur wasn't exactly his subordinate, he was one of the pillars here. Red Fur specialized in car racing and many would come to challenge Red Fur, bringing the arcade more business.

"Oh, let's go and have a look together then," A rather handsome young man dropped the pool pole in his hands, "It's boring to just play pool, this might be fun!"

Zou Ruoming sighed in relief as Master Jun didn't seem unsatisfied towards him, "Since Master Jun is interested in it, shall we go together?"

Master Jun was called Zhen Yingjun. His father, Zhen Dazhou, was a renowned entertainment star in Donghai city. He owned quite a few entertainment centers and the direction of their operation was similar to the operation style of Zou Ruoguang, hence they were discussing a potential collaboration.

Zou Tiandi couldn't expand his business further with Li Cihua's pressure, and it was the same for Zhen Dazhou. Although he was doing quite well there, there were too many big characters in Donghai city which restricted Zhen Dazhou's expansion. These two families clicked well and planned to build a vessel for gambling on the sea between Donghai and Songshan, relying on operating illegal gamblings to earn profits.

Of course, these families both started as entertainment centers and they were well aware of gambling and the profit. It was the safest to have a ferry for gambling on the sea as it was easy to avoid inspections, earning money from it shouldn't be too difficult.

However, Zhen Dazhou was obviously more powerful than Zou Tiandi and this time. Zhen Dazhou was the main operator. Zou Tiandi was the support. It was financially impossible for Zou Tiandi to build a luxurious ferry for gambling so he only occupied a small portion of the shares. Meanwhile, Zhen Dazhou held the majority of it.

It was also why when Zou Ruoguang and Zhen Yingjun hung out together. He treated Zhen Yingjun as his leader, flattering him by calling him Master Jun.

Zou Ruoguang and Zhen Yingjun followed the baldie out of the billiards room into the game room next to it with a few gangsters following behind Zou Ruoguang. Zou Ruoguang wouldn't make the move himself if someone was looking for trouble here, neither did he have the guts to do it himself. He just had to give orders and his subordinates would take care of it.

Zou Ruoguang wanted Zhen Yingjun to see his domineering side and immediately yelled when he stepped into the room, "Who dares to make a fuss in Zou Ruoguang's territory? Do you want to die!"

Lin Yi didn't expect Zou Ruoguang to come here so soon but it saved Lin Yi the trouble. Lin Yi seized Red Fur's arm and lifted his head to look at Zou Ruoguang, "That's him. I caught him for you."

"Huh!" Zou Ruoguang heard Lin Yi's voice and finally realized that the person who caused the problem here was Lin Yi! Zou Ruoguang secretly thought to himself; how could Red Fur be so senseless? He could've offended anyone but Lin Yi, the god! Wasn't he asking for it?

"Guang bro! Save me!" Red Fur saw Zou Ruoguang and immediately yelled as he thought his lifesaver was finally here.

Zou Ruoguang was annoyed. Who are you yelling at? I'm in a hurry to tell Lin Yi that I have nothing to do with you. Save you? Do I look stupid to you?

However, Zou Ruoguang reacted quickly. He heard Lin Yi's words and knew that Red Fur was the one who offended Lin Yi. He followed what Lin Yi said, "This red hair doesn't look like a good person. How dare you make a fuss in my territory! Go, beat him until I don't recognize who he is!"

All of Zou Ruoguang's subordinates knew who Red Fur was, and they were shocked at Zou Ruoguang's order! Beat Red Fur? Didn't Guang bro say it wrong? They all looked at Zou Ruoguang in confusion.

"Guang bro, did you say something wrong?" The baldie asked in bewilderment.

However, Zou Ruoguang ignored the baldie and ordered his men, "What are you all standing there for? Move! I'm feeding all of you useless people, you never move when I give the order!"

"Do we beat Red Fur?" Zou Ruoguang's subordinates finally reacted to his words and asked unconfidently.

"Cut the crap, hurry up!" Zou Ruoguang no longer cared for Zhen Yingjun. In his eyes, Lin Yi was far more important than Zhen Yingjun. If he didn't take care of a god-like Lin Yi, it would be disastrous for him! Zou Ruoguang ran towards Lin Yi politely, "God Lin, you are here?"

Zou Ruoguang's words shocked everyone there. Especially Red Fur and the baldie who stared at Zou Ruoguang foolishly. He knew who Lin Yi was? And the way he addressed Lin Yi... Wasn't it too much?

"Pfff..." Chen Yushu heard the way Zou Ruoguang addressed Lin Yi and almost burst into laughter, "Hahahahaha, Shield bro, how did you become a god?"

"I don't know," Lin Yi shook his head and let go of Red Fur.

This time, Red Fur no longer dared to do anything to Lin Yi as his face was filled with shock. No matter how stupid he was, he could see how polite Zou Ruoguang was towards Lin Yi. He was afraid of getting beaten and begged bitterly, "Guang bro, sorry, I'm sorry, I shouldn't have looked for trouble..."

“Take him away!” Zou Ruoguang was afraid that Lin Yi will be angry at him didn’t have time to waste with Red Fur. He waved his hand and his men dragged Red Fur out of here.

“God Lin, I’m so sorry, there are always some people here without eyes. Please don’t mind them!” Zou Ruoming flattered Lin Yi and spoke carefully.

“Oh, this is your family’s?” Lin Yi didn’t mind it. Even if Zou Ruoguang didn’t come, he wouldn’t have minded. He would at most put Red Fur down to the ground.

“Yes, yes. I was just playing pool over there. I’ve heard that God Lin is here, so I rushed over to see if there’s anything I can help you with?” Zou Ruoguang asked carefully.

“Oh, nothing. You can go and play,” Lin Yi waved his hand, gesturing that Zou Ruoguang could leave as he had nothing to say to Zou Ruoguang. If he was here, Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu definitely won’t have a fun time.

“Okay. If there’s anything you need, feel free to come and find me in the billiards room!” Zou Ruoguang knew that Lin Yi was telling him to leave but wondered who those two beauties next to Lin Yi were. How come he had never seen them before?

Chapter 829: Master Jun’s Thoughts

Master Jun’s Thoughts

He didn’t know who Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu were. Zou Ruoming also never mentioned these at home, hence he was unaware of Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu’s identities. He thought they were merely Lin Yi’s ordinary friends without overthinking their relationship.

It was because Lin Yi didn’t speak to them in a familiar way and Lin Yi already had a girlfriend. It was always why he didn’t treat them as politely as Lin Yi and left after a simple greeting.

“Zou bro, you know that kid? What background does he have to make you so polite?” Zhen Yingjun’s vision stayed on Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu as he was feeling jealous of Lin Yi. From all the years of experiences he earned from playing with girls, those two girls were the best amongst others.

One was pure and beautiful, the other was petite and cute. Although they were only wearing ordinary sports uniform, it was not enough to cover their beauty.

Zou Ruoguang was older than Zhen Yingjun and hence, Zhen Yingjun called him Zou bro.

“He’s called Lin Yi. He’s extremely skilled in martial arts, not a good person to offend!” Although Zou Ruoguang thought it made him sound weak, he couldn’t pretend to be strong in front of Lin Yi.

“Skilled? So what?” Zhen Yingjun replied in disdain, “No matter how skilled he is, he can’t win against many! There’s no need to give respect to someone like this!”

“Many?” Zou Ruoguang laughed bitterly, “I’ll put it this way, my family’s golden class master, Uncle Yan, was injured by him...”

“One who is brave and loves fighting, he has no future in front of him,” Zhen Yingjun’s reply was still filled with disdain, “Even if he can win against golden class masters, can he win against guns and bullets? That’s impossible!”

Zhen Yingjun’s family took part in the mafia, much bigger than Zou Tiandi. They had a large amount of illegal hot weapons and from his perspective, martial arts was nonsense in front of him as it was nothing before guns and bullets.

Zou Ruoguang shrugged. Since Zhen Yingjun didn’t believe him, there was no need for him to say more. After all, they were only collaborating right now and House Zhen was the leader, it was inappropriate to speak more.

“Those two girls are quite nice. Are they his women?” Zhen Yingjun asked curiously.

“I don’t think so,” Zou Ruoguang shook his head, “Lin Yi has a girlfriend, I’ve seen her before.”

“Oh, so they are ordinary friends then?” Zhen Yingjun nodded, “I have my eyes on them!”

“Master Jun, it’s fine if you use normal methods, but don’t force it. I’m afraid Lin Yi will intervene...” Zou Ruoguang didn’t forget to warn Zhen Yingjun.

“I know. I have gotten many girls, isn’t it easy for me to get two little girls?” Zhen Yingjun didn’t take Zou Ruoguang’s words seriously as he never took Lin Yi seriously.

Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu played video games for a while and found it boring. It was either car racing or shooting games, it wasn’t even as fun as playing games at home.

“Yaoyao sis, how are you doing? How many levels did you pass?” Chen Yushu finished using the last game coin in her hand, patted her hands as she stood up without looking interested, “It’s boring. It’s just one person who keeps on fighting, what’s so fun about that?”

“I don’t know, I don’t think I have passed one level?” Chu Mengyao wasn’t good at games and she was playing a game which required her to pass different levels. She spent quite a while on it but she was still on level one and she had used up quite some coins.

Lin Yi was amused watching from aside. Arcades earned money from girls like them. Many people could use one coin to pass all the levels, they wouldn’t even be able to afford electricity bills let alone earning profits.

“Boring, let’s go and have a look at other games,” Chen Yushu stood up as she gave up trying to continue the current game.

“Okay,” Chu Mengyao came to have a look around to increase knowledge, it didn’t really matter whether it was fun or not.

Lin Yi didn’t play and followed behind Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu. There were many games Lin Yi haven’t played before, but the majority of them tested their reaction speed which wasn’t a difficult task for Lin Yi.

“There are a lot of people over there, can we go and check it out?” Chen Yushu discovered that one of the arcade’s corner was rather popular, many people suddenly cried in joy and disappointment.

Lin Yi, Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu walked over and found out that there were a few gambling machines. They were different in kinds but they were all related to gambling.

This kind of machine was already illegal but the profits it could bring was extremely high. It was the major income earning machine for numerous arcades. No wonder Zou Ruoguang decided to do this against the law.

Although some people earned money here, the majority lost. Only a minority of people earned an amount and all the others were disappointed.

“Yaoyao sis, this looks fun! Can we try?” Chen Yushu thought it was much more interesting than those monster-killing games.

“Shu, I think it’s gambling. You can’t go,” Chu Mengyao immediately saw through the nature of these machines.

“I just want to try for experience, I won’t be addicted!” Chen Yushu was rather curious.

“Let her try,” Lin Yi believed in these two girls’ self-control. They didn’t have any bad habits and they were never addicted to anything. Lin Yi thought that Chen Yushu was curious and will find it boring after a few turns.

After all, they didn’t lack money and they didn’t love it either, it was difficult to feel the excitement losing and earning money could bring.

“Shield bro said I can...” Chen Yushu looked at Chu Mengyao with puppy eyes.

“This is all I have left, if you lose them, you can’t buy more to play this,” Chu Mengyao hesitated for a while before passing the remaining coins to Chen Yushu.

Chen Yushu took them and went to the gamble machines excitedly.

It was obviously unrealistic to earn money with merely a few coins. The result was almost the same as what Lin Yi predicted; Chen Yushu inserted four or five coins in but they were like stones falling into the sea, she only had one left.

“Ahhhhh, did I just lose them all?” Chen Yushu looked at the last coin in her hand unhappily, “Can’t you let me win at least once?”

Lin Yi shrugged. Although he knew how to do a lot of things, he wasn’t capable of controlling gamble machines. There must be a control system behind this kind of electronic equipment and it was impossible for Lin Yi to find the control system and change its data within a short period of time.

Chapter 830: Temptation

Temptation

“Enough Shu, this is the last one, you can’t keep playing this!” Chu Mengyao also expected this to happen and she wasn’t surprised.

Chu Mengyao was born into an influential family. She often heard of uncles in the family who went to gamble in Macau. Majority of them lost and came filled resent, hence she understood that gamble was a scam since she was young.

Chen Yushu inserted the last coin into the machine unwillingly but the result was still disappointing; the coin was eaten by the machine again.

Chen Yushu was furious as she watched the coins that came out of other people's machine and kicked the machine.

Bang!

The machine didn't budge yet her feet began to hurt, "Trash! What a scam! How can I, the luckiest and invisible Shu, never win once?"

"Alright Shu, I've told you that this is all a scam, you didn't believe me," Chu Mengyao laughed, "You lose nine games out of ten, it's better not to touch this kind of things."

"Fine..." Although Chen Yushu agreed to what Chu Mengyao said, but she was unwilling to give up, "Shield bro, beat it up for me!"

"Huh?" Lin Yi heard her words and looked at the machine strangely. He pointed at himself, then at the machine, "It?"

"Yes!" Chen Yushu nodded.

"Heh..." Chen Yushu's words moved Lin Yi. He walked over and kicked towards the place where the coins come out.

The electric circuit inside the machine was simple and the machine itself was light. Lin Yi's kick made the machine skip once on the ground and the exit chute for coins was broken, game coins started pouring out in an instant...

As for Chen Yushu's kick, it was nothing compared to Lin Yi's kick.

"You'll have to do this if you want to win..." Lin Yi pointed at the machine which was flooding with coins. It was illegal in the first place and hence, Lin Yi didn't feel bad about destroying it at all.

"It's finally giving me coins! Shield bro is the best!" Chen Yushu didn't care about losing a few game tokens before, but she was angry because she felt like she was scammed. Now that Lin Yi revenged for her, she cried happily.

Lin Yi's kick shocked all the other players. They've never seen anyone who dared to do this at the arcade! Wasn't he looking for death? Does he not put those gangsters who watch over the place in his eyes?

However, those people who recognized Lin Yi from before had nothing to say. They've all witnessed Zou Ruoguang's attitude towards Lin Yi and no one dared to say a word.

The manager heard the loud bang and ran over to check, but he didn't interrupt Lin Yi. He ran to the billiards room and reported everything to Zou Ruoguang.

Zou Ruoguang heard it but he was glad, "Alright. It's just a gambling machine, thank the lord that he didn't smash this entire entertainment center down."

The manager heard Zou Ruoguang's words and quickly sprinted back, secretly glad that he didn't intervene into it as it looked like Zou Ruoguang didn't plan to stop Lin Yi at all.

As for those game tokens on the floor, Chen Yushu didn't care about it at all. She was just glad that she let her anger out. She didn't mind if she could exchange money with these coins as she was sick of the games here, there was no need for tokens if she didn't plan to continue playing.

"Yaoyao sis, can we play pool over there? What do you think?" Chen Yushu gave up on all the entertainment projects here as she couldn't find anything fun to play.

"Pool? Shu, you know how to play pool?" Chu Mengyao asked in confusion.

"Nope, but I've seen it on TV! All the pool players looked cool, so it should be fun, right?" Chen Yushu replied as she merely wanted to see what it was.

"Fine," Chu Mengyao nodded in agreement.

Billiards room in the early stages was facilitated badly, and the majority of people there were gangsters. However, the introduction of the World Cup of Pool was accepted by the public and became the entertainment of many successful men.

Of course, all kinds of people hung out in the billiards room of an entertainment center. There were gangsters here, so were some young masters here. Those successful men had special pool clubs for them and there wasn't a need for them to come to an entertainment center like this.

Lin Yi followed Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu to the billiards room opposite the games room. Lin Yi made a big fuss previously and Zou Ruoguang didn't only not do anything about it but treated Lin Yi politely. All the gangsters here who saw it took back their thoughts on Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu as they didn't want to get themselves into unnecessary trouble. If they were beaten up like Red Fur, it would be too unworthy.

However, that excluded one person. His thoughts towards Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu didn't only cease but increased even more. That person was Zhen Yingjun, and the more he looked at the two girls, the better they became in his eyes!

Girls like them could be discovered but could not be sought; it was not easy to have one girl like this in a huge school, Zhen Yingjun felt fortunate to meet two at the same time! He felt like heaven was watching over him to give him two beautiful girls at once!

With his experienced judgment, Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu were highly likely to be virgins without being explored by men. Zhen Yingjun felt like he would be sorry for heaven's arrangements if he didn't make a move on two such girls!

Zou Ruoguang sensed Zhen Yingjun's obsession and frowned. Honestly speaking, he didn't want to offend Lin Yi in any way since he knew he couldn't afford to do so. As for this Zhen Yingjun, he couldn't offend him too. He heard that House Zhen had great influence in the Donghai regions. They owned a renowned influential group with guns and firearm, and it was filled with big characters. Zou Ruoguang was merely a gangster and he could only watch from afar as it was far out of his grasp.

“Master Jun, are you tempted?” Zou Ruoguang asked carefully.

Chapter 831: Challenge A Game of Pool

Challenge A Game of Pool

“Of course. Why? Are you afraid of that Lin Yi?” Zhen Yingjun replied in disdain, “If those two aren’t his girlfriends, what has it to do with him? I’ve told you, I won’t do it forcefully! This is Songshan, I’ll give you, Zou bro some face!”

Honestly speaking, Zhen Yingjun didn’t put Lin Yi in his eyes at all. No matter whether he was a master of golden class or green class, Lin Yi was nothing in front of his father’s army. Why did Zou Ruoguang have to be so careful with someone who could be killed with one bullet?

Zou Ruoguang couldn’t do anything about Zou Yingjun’s stubbornness. If Zhen Yingjun didn’t plan to get those two girls forcefully, Lin Yi wouldn’t blame him for it. For the time being, he could only try to keep himself out of this. As for whether Lin Yi will be annoyed with Zhen Yingjun’s actions or not, it had nothing to do with Zou Ruoguang as the two families were merely collaborating together.

Lin Yi requested a pool table, paid for it and watched Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu play from aside.

Although it was their first time playing pool, they had seen quite a few pool competitions on TV as they grasped the gesture quite well.

They didn’t know the details of the rules but it didn’t matter as they weren’t competing against each other professionally. They had one color each and took turns, whoever finish hitting all their balls into the hole wins.

Zhen Yingjun watched the two playing pool and a flash flashed through his mind. He thought of a way to hit on them and he headed towards them.

“Beautiful girls, do you need a pool coach?” Zhen Yingjun tried his best to make his side look as sincere as possible. When he watched from the side, he could tell that both Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu were newbies in playing the pool. It was clearly their first time and hence he thought of this method.

Chu Mengyao lifted her eyes and glanced at Zhen Yingjun without expressions. She was curious; didn’t he see the consequences of that Red Fur? How brave was he to try hitting on them?

Chen Yushu didn’t think too much as she was having fun. She was lucky and got a few good shots yet Zhen Yingjun interrupted her, she immediately became dissatisfied and waved her hands while frowning, “I’m good at it, there is no need for you to teach!”

Zhen Yingjun wasn’t discouraged but continued to introduce himself, “I am Zhen Yingjun, the Vice President of Donghai City’s Pool Association. I’ve won many prizes in the province’s pool competitions!”

“Huh?” Chen Yushu paused for a second before glancing at Zhen Yingjun then asked Chu Mengyao, “Yaoyao sis, what did he just say?”

“He said he’s really handsome(1)...” Chu Mengyao was speechless. He had such a large face yet he complimented himself handsome during the first meeting with others, how shameless was he?

“Handsome? I don’t think so! He’s not as handsome as Shield bro!” Chen Yushu studied Zhen Yingjun for a while before waving her hands impatiently, “Oi, move, don’t get in my way!”

Zhen Yingjun fumed. How dare they ignore him? Amongst those who played pool in the province, who didn’t know who Zhen Yingjun was? However, he tolerated as he recalled that it was their first time playing pool so they didn’t know who he was, “My name is Zhen Yingjun, I didn’t say I look very handsome!”

“Oh, is that so? Great, at least you know that. If so, why don’t you change your name to Zhen Nankan(2)?” Chen Yushu asked curiously.

“Ahem! Let’s not talk about this problem first. Shall we talk about pool first?” Zhen Yingjun was unhappy. Although he wasn’t too good looking, he wasn’t ugly either! Aren’t I a handsome man? He didn’t want to continue the topic and changed it to pool, “That’s not how you play pool. It should be played...”

“Shush! You are so annoying!” Chen Yushu was annoyed as Zhen Yingjun continued to pester her, “I am Queen Shu of pool. I don’t need you to teach me? Stop getting in our way here. How can you teach me with your level of skills?”

“My level of skill?” Zhen Yingjun was mad at Chen Yushu’s doubts. He wasn’t stupid; since Zou Ruoguang told him that Lin Yi was a character, he wouldn’t try to offend Lin Yi so obviously. Since he was by himself, he couldn’t possibly with a fight against Lin Yi, so he kept an ordinary attitude towards picking up the girls, unlike Red Fur who was rather pushy, “I am the vice president of Donghai city’s Pool Association!”

“Oh, there are plenty of vice presidents who lost to me,” Chen Yushu thought Zhen Yingjun was extremely annoying as she knew exactly what he wanted. However, the way he approached them was rather gentle and she couldn’t do anything against it.

“What?!” Zhen Yingjun’s brain stopped working by the overwhelming anger as he thought he was rather skilled in pool. Although his original intention was to pick up on these girls, how could he neglect the fact that they were insulting him? In the Pool Association, he was treated and complimented like a star, yet a beginner insulted him like this, it made him feel extremely humiliated!

“Fine, do you dare to compete with me?” Zhen Yingjun held his anger back and asked.

“Why would I?” Chen Yushu questioned him back.

“I... You...” Zhen Yingjun was lost for words as he couldn’t answer Chen Yushu’s question. Exactly, why would Chen Yushu compete against him?

“Enough, stop bothering me playing pool!” Chen Yushu waved her hands and ignored him as she continued to play with Chu Mengyao.

Lin Yi watched everything happen from the side but he didn't intervene. Although Zhen Yingjun showed indecent intentions towards Chu Mengyao and Zhen Yingjun, he hasn't done anything overboard so there was no need for him to come and do anything.

Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu should be able to solve this problem themselves. If they needed Lin Yi to solve all small problems like this, they would become flowers in a greenhouse and it was not good for their growth!

He will have to leave one day as he can't possibly protect them all their lives. Although he had the urge to protect these two beautiful girls for their entire lives, Lin Yi could distinguish the distance between reality and his ideal.

Not to mention whether Tang Yun will agree or not, even if she did, they can't possibly live with Miss and Chen Yushu together. Then, he can bring his Old Man over and they live happily ever after together as a big family?

Chapter 832: The Ball's Alive

The Ball's Alive

Chen Yushu and Chu Mengyao thought it was inappropriate to solve the problem like this. It wasn't ideal to provoke the enemy. Was it because they knew that they had Lin Yi behind their backs?

Lin Yi always thought that Chen Yushu wasn't brainless, but rather smart. It was why she provoked Zhen Yingjun without worrying because he was here with them.

"10,000 yuan for a game, do you dare to compete with me or not?" Zhen Yingjun roared as his pride in pool was challenged.

"We didn't bring that much money here today. We are not competing with you!" Chen Yushu replied, full of regrets.

"I don't need you to give me money. If you lose, you just have to admit that I'm good at pool and you have to learn how to play pool from me!" Zhen Yingjun wasn't stupid and didn't say that they have to sleep with him if they lose, he thought it was better to take things slow.

"Oh?" Chen Yushu pondered for a while and thought that it was worthwhile. She turned to Chu Mengyao, "Yaoyao sis, are we going to compete with him?"

"Compete with what? Are you certain that you can win?" Chu Mengyao knew that she couldn't win against Zhen Yingjun. He was telling them how skilled he was and it didn't sound like he was boasting, hence Chu Mengyao never planned to compete with him.

"I don't know..." Chen Yushu pondered for a while. It was possible that two of them can't win against Zhen Yingjun by himself, but they couldn't back out now that they've talked big. If they backed out now, Zhen Yingjun may think that they were afraid of him. Chen Yushu couldn't help but to turn her head around towards Lin Yi, "Shield bro, will we win?"

"Maybe..." Lin Yi shrugged, "..."

“Fine, I will! But Yaoyao sis and I will both compete against you! If we win, you have to give us 10,000 yuan each!” Chen Yushu thought Lin Yi had it under control and nodded to accept Zhen Yingjun’s challenge.

Lin Yi immediately smiled bitterly as he didn’t finish talking. He wanted to say “Maybe... Maybe not...” but Chen Yushu cut his sentence off.

“No problem!” Money was not a big problem to Zhen Yingjun, “How do you want to compete? Snooker?”

“What’s snooker?” Chen Yushu didn’t understand what it was.

“It’s a type of way to play pool...” Zhen Yingjun laughed coldly inside. You don’t even know what snooker is yet you dare to play with me? You’re only looking to get beat.”

“Oh, if you are competing with me, you have to play it my way!” Chen Yushu didn’t mind, “We pick a pattern each, whoever finishes hitting all the balls into the hole wins!”

“If that’s the case...” Zhen Yingjun thought that it was almost the same as ordinary pool but without rules to minus and plus points. However, it didn’t matter as he was confident, “Fine, whatever you say!”

It was obvious that he was professional. Although he made Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu feel uncomfortable, he was indeed skilled. Without any doubt, Zhen Yingjun quickly hit all his balls into the pocket, yet Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu only got one in by luck.

“So?” Zhen Yingjun didn’t expect himself to win so easily. They were obviously newbies who didn’t know any skills.

“All proper competition was best of three, you just won one, why are you so pleased?” Chen Yushu was dumbfounded. Didn’t Shield bro said she could win? Why did she lose? She turned her head towards Lin Yi in panic.

“Fine, best of three it is!” Zhen Yingjun didn’t mind. With Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu’s nonexistent skills, he would definitely win even if they won 100 games. Hence, he didn’t mind winning one or two as he thought the win was in the pocket, that was also why he needed these girls to lose willingly, “Next game, you two can have a turn each after my turn! If the two of you can hit all the balls into the pocket together, it will count as your win!”

Zhen Yingjun won a game and tested their level, he wasn’t afraid to talk big.

“Okay...” Chen Yushu wasn’t as confident this time. She expected Lin Yi to help them turn this around but she lost as Lin Yi didn’t appear.

Lin Yi had no choice but to get up, approached the pool table and put both of his hands on the side of the table.

“What are you doing?” Zhen Yingjun didn’t expect Lin Yi to suddenly intervene in it. He thought that he had to be a gentleman all this time without being pushy. What was Lin Yi doing here?

“Nothing, just gonna watch,” Lin Yi replied indifferently, “Why? Can’t I watch you guys play? I’m making sure that you are not cheating.”

“Fine! Go ahead!” Zhen Yingjun heard that Lin Yi just wanted to check whether he was checking or not and he didn’t care. What could Lin Yi do just by watching alone? On the contrary, if he chased Lin Yi away, he would look guilty!

Previously, Zhen Yingjun thought that Lin Yi was going to replace either Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu. If that was the case, Zhen Yingjun would never agree as he didn’t know how skilled Lin Yi was. How could he let Lin Yi ruin his opportunity to win two girls over?

However, Zhen Yingjun neglected Lin Yi as Lin Yi didn’t look like he was going to intervene. He turned to Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu and said, “You guys can start, I’ll give you three turns!”

Normally, a skilled pool player could hit one ball into the pocket from the break shot, but obviously, Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu were incapable of doing so. Hence, having the break shot didn’t give them any advantages. Zhen Yingjun said that he will let Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu three turns each. Letting the opponent six shots was enough to show how overly confident Zhen Yingjun was.

“Bang!”

Chen Yushu took the break shot. The balls were scattered all around the table messily yet none fell into the pocket.

Chu Mengyao was up next. She aimed at one of her balls towards the direction of the pocket, but it was far from its distance due to problems in aim and strength.

It was then Chen Yushu’s turn. However, her light shot didn’t make a ball fall into the pocket, but made the ball strike around like crazy as if it was alive...

Chen Yushu was shocked, so was Chu Mengyao. Even Zhen Yingjun widened his eyes in shock! What was happening? Why didn’t the ball stop? How could Chen Yushu possibly be so strong to make the ball spin none stop?

Chapter 833: You Are Dead

You Are Dead

Although Zhen Yingjun was confused the cue ball which Chen Yushu touched showed no signs of stopping, but it was still spinning around the table as if it had a motor inside it. Although the ball didn’t fall into a pocket, it hit a few other balls that belonged to both sides into the pocket.

Zhen Yingjun played pool for so many years he had never seen anything like this before. It wasn’t a cue ball, but an elastic ball. It didn’t matter how strong the player was, it wasn’t impossible to achieve something like this.

Chu Mengyao looked at the naughty ball on the table in surprise. She lifted her head to look at Chen Yushu and Chen Yushu looking extremely excited. She immediately understood that Shu wasn’t the one who did it. They have been sisters for so long and they could tell each other’s thoughts through expressions alone. Although Chu Mengyao couldn’t see through everything clearly, she could tell in easier, unimportant situations.

She then turned around to Lin Yi and saw a bitter smile on his face. Was it Lin Yi who did this? She played for so long yet she never achieved a shot of 'elastic ball' before, yet she did it as soon as Lin Yi came?

Chu Mengyao pondered.

If she wasn't wrong, it was indeed Lin Yi who did it! Lin Yi wasn't too sure of how he could help Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu win and he was just testing stout.

The first thing Lin Yi thought of was the strange 'pure energy' within his body, it was also the 'energy' which Old Jiao mentioned. Since the energy was almighty, could he possibly transfer it onto the ball? According to the law of conservation of energy, energy cannot be created out of anything and it cannot disappear. It could only be transformed into another form, or transferred from one object into another. During the transfer or transform, the total of the energy does not change.

In other words, Lin Yi's energy could become the energy needed to move the ball. Of course, the energy inside Lin Yi wasn't created out of nothing, and no masters could do that.

The pure energy in their bodies came from the natural and spiritual air of heaven and earth, the mnemonic chant for their cultivation was a way to turn the natural and spiritual air of heaven and earth into their own energy. The process they undergo was to transform the energy of the natural world into their body's energy.

However, Lin Yi's energy came from the space within the jade pendant and he transformed the energy in the space into his own.

After Chen Yushu hit the ball, he tried to see whether his energy could be used for the ball or not. Hence, he put both of his hand on the edge of the table and silently used the Art of Dragon Mastery. In an instant, the ball seemed to become alive and immediately started spinning on the table...

It could be used! However, it was Lin Yi's first try and couldn't control the amount of energy being transferred into the ball. In a blink of an eye, he sent too much energy into the ball. How much energy did he need to transfer to make a small ball move? Only the tiniest amount was needed and the ball couldn't stop as Lin Yi overdone it.

Although the first try was a fail, it proved the possible success of the operation. It was also surprising that his energy could only be used in objects which were using energy. The table and other balls which stayed still couldn't absorb his energy!

The other balls which were affected by the 'elastic ball' didn't absorb Lin Yi's energy as Lin Yi stopped using the Art of Dragon Mastery. Hence, the energy only influenced the cue ball!

"Holy shit, I'm freaking sick! I can do something like that? I'm a genius!" Chan Yushu finally exclaimed after the shock, "I am Genius Shu! I'm good at anything I do!"

"Impossible! How is that possible? That's illogical! Is there something wrong with the ball?" Zhen Yingjun didn't believe that Chen Yushu could do this and it was even unbelievable for professional players to do this!

“Just because you’ve never seen it before, it doesn’t mean it’s impossible!” Chen Yushu looked at Zhen Yingjun in disdain, “I told you that it’s a piece of cake to beat you. I went easy on you last game, now that I’m giving it my best shot, you are dead! If you want to argue, show us a same shot of what I just did!”

Chen Yushu’s unconventional shot attracted the majority of the players in the room over as they have never seen something like this before, The ball spun on the table for more than a minute yet it still showed no signs of stopping.

When everyone was exclaiming, it was also unimaginable. The person who performed this must be a master out of all skilled masters!

Zhen Yingjun’s face turned black but he couldn’t argue back as he couldn’t do this! Zhen Yingjun’s lips twitched and fought back unhappily, “You were just lucky. See if you can do it one more time!”

“Why should I? I helped you get your balls into the pocket, aren’t I helping you?” Chen Yushu wasn’t sure whether she could it again herself. Although she looked confident, she was making everything up. She was pondering whether it was Shield bro who helped her and she couldn’t be too full with her words, “If I do it again, it will be my win. You have to admit defeat!”

“But...” Although Zhen Yingjun didn’t believe that Chen Yushu could do it again, he didn’t dare to make the promise. What if she did it again? That means he must admit defeat!

Seeing that everyone was crowded over there, Zou Ruoguang also wanted to have a look. But after he saw it, he immediately stepped back. Damn, you could play pool like that? He operated this entertainment center for many years and he was also rather skilled, but he never saw this before!

It wasn’t pool but a miracle. A miracle that happened only when God Lin was present! Both his father and he lived under Lin Yi’s shadow as they thought Lin Yi was almighty. Now that this happened, Zou Ruoguang thought it was rather normal.

Chen Yushu’s ball finally stopped and almost half of the balls fell into the pocket. Some belonged to Zhen Yingjun, some belonged to Chen Yushu, but overall, Chen Yushu was leading by one or two balls.

Chapter 834: Sent The Ball Flying

Sent The Ball Flying

Chen Yushu was excited as she got the advantage.

When Chen Yushu finished her turn, Chu Mengyao was up next. This time, Lin Yi controlled his energy carefully, hence nothing seemed strange other than making Chu Mengyao looking stronger than before.

Lin Yi sighed relief. It looked like he could control the energy smoothly.

It was Chen Yushu’s turn again. However, what happened last time didn’t happen this time. It was an ordinary shot which made Zhen Yingjun sigh in relief. It looked like Chen Yushu’s last performance was merely by luck, or she could’ve done it again.

It was finally Zhen Yingjun's turn and he was extremely pleased. Judging from the current situation, he could end the game with one shot as it was easy with the skills he had.

Zhen Yingjun leisurely found the first target, stooped down and pushed the cue stick out elegantly.

In the instant that his stick hit the cue ball, Lin Yi transferred energy out.

In the end, Zhen Yingjun's cue ball soared into the air from the table like a rocket! It was a perfect jump ball.

The crowd didn't react in time and the cue ball hit one of the audience's face with a loud 'bang'. His nose immediately bled and two of his teeth fell out. The person howled in pain, widened his eyes and cursed at Zhen Yingjun while pointing a finger at him, "What the fuck, don't you have eyes? Where are you aiming at? You made my front teeth fall off!"

"Sorry, sorry, I'm sorry..." Although Zhen Yingjun usually acted arrogantly, he knew that he was in Songshan, not his own territory and it wasn't ideal for him to get into trouble here. His principle in picking up on girls was to do so in a civilized manner and he couldn't be too pushy. Hence, he took out his wallet apologetically and gave 3,000 yuan to the man, "This is for your medical fees as my compensation!"

The person was jobless and his eyes shone when he saw 3,000 yuan. He took Zhen Yingjun's money, moved to the side while covering his mouth and stopped complaining.

Zhen Yingjun didn't have time to waste with the others right now. His goal was to defeat Chen Yushu and Chu Mengyao so that he could prove that he was skilled enough to teach them, the only way was to avoid troubles with money.

Unlucky! Zhen Yingjun secretly thought to himself. He was panicking and used too much strength to achieve a jump ball. However, ordinary people couldn't do this and it was sick to watch after he unintentionally hit one.

It looked like he was being too neglected. He caused this as he didn't properly control his strength, he must be more concentrated next time!

"Alright, it's my turn again!" Chen Yushu waited for Zhen Yingjun to lose face before placing the cue ball back on the table, ready to start.

Chen Yushu aimed at a ball and hit it!

It was undeniable that the angle was quite good. The cue ball hit one of her balls and pushed it out. It was so close to falling into the pocket but because Chen Yushu didn't use enough strength, the ball was rolling extremely slowly on the edge of the pocket.

"Go... go... go..." Chen Yushu panicked. The rolling speed of the ball was becoming slower and slower, almost stopping at the edge of the pocket.

Lin Yi smiled lightly and pushed some energy into the ball. The ball which almost stopped suddenly soared into the pocket as if it was injected with stimulants.

“Huh?” Zhen Yingjun was still pleased and he was ready to tell Chen Yushu that it was because of her strength and that the ball would fall into the pocket if she used a little more power. However, the lack of strength caused the current situation.

However, Zhen Yingjun never expected the ball to run into the pocket right before it was about to stop! What was happening? Did someone do something to it?

It was impossible; there were so many people standing the table. If Chen Yushu was to do something, the audience must be able to notice it. Even if others couldn't, he was staring at the ball yet he discovered nothing wrong.

“Wahahahaha!” Chen Yushu saw the ball falling into the pocket and waved her hands happily in excitement, “I told you I am Shu, the Queen of Pool! See, using a tiny bit more strength is a waste, using a tiny bit less wouldn't do it! I used just the right amount of strength!”

Chu Mengyao found it strange from the beginning. How did a skilled player like Zhen Yingjun make such a mistake? And he even injured a bystander?

Chen Yushu's ball was obviously going to stop but suddenly moved and fell into the pocket, Chu Mengyao couldn't help but suspect that everything was Lin Yi's doing! Although she didn't know how Lin Yi did it, she knew how marvelous Lin Yi was.

“That was dangerous,” Zhen Yingjun could only reply so, “It's a bit dangerous, you should use more strength next time!”

“Use more strength? Like you? Hit someone else's face with the ball?” Chen Yushu glanced at Zhen Yingjun and questioned him back.

“Huh!” Zhen Yingjun's face blushed red as stayed silent as he clenched his teeth.

It was Chu Mengyao's turn and she randomly hit the ball. It was her first time and she wasn't skilled enough. Since she knew that Lin Yi was there to help them, she knew that Lin Yi will do something about it at the right time.

However, the ball Chu Mengyao hit couldn't possibly fall into the pocket, but it bumped another ball on its way. The ball was Chu Mengyao's and according to Lin Yi's judgments, the path of the ball could head to the pocket. Hence, Lin Yi transferred some energy into the second ball after the first ball stopped. It was the same as Chen Yushu's ball; it was just about to stop but abruptly began to move and landed in the pocket.

Zhen Yingjun was dumbfounded. What was that? Was it a supernatural power? There was no other reason other than this explanation as it was impossible to say that someone did something. Everyone was standing around the table and no one could touch the balls, how could they achieve it?

Chapter 835: Genius Shu

Genius Shu

Zou Ruoguang opened the billiards room. Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu were merely customers here. It was impossible that there was something wrong with the table!

Zhen Yingjun began to sweat at the thought. He was a rather superstitious person; he subconsciously thought that something unclean caused the mischief upon seeing something so unbelievable.

Chu Mengyao was also confused as she didn't believe she did that herself. Her glance shifted from the table to Lin Yi's face and tried to find clues, but Lin Yi was still in a relaxed manner with his hands leaning on the table and there was no sign of him making any move...

However, although Lin Yi didn't look suspicious, Chu Mengyao knew that Lin Yi was the most suspicious one.

"Nice! Yaoyao sis is almost as good Genius Shu!" Chen Yushu yelled in excitement.

Zhen Yingjun's expressions turned dark. He didn't believe that the Vice President of the Donghai's Pool Association could lose to two beginners. He started to panic since Chu Mengyao's side only had three balls. He couldn't let them hit any more balls into the pocket!

Luckily the rules they made were one turn each, instead of continuous turns. Whether they hit the goal or not, there was no second turn.

It was Zhen Yingjun's turn and he didn't dare to neglect anything. He treated it seriously and ended up performing a jump ball. He remembered that he didn't use to strength at the time. Was he zoning out?

This time, Zhen Yingjun used a normal amount of strength and hit the cue ball carefully. However, the cue ball soared into the air again, hitting the man who was standing on the other side of the table.

"Bang!" The ball didn't hit someone's face this time but hit a rather muscular man's chest. The muscle man yelped in pain and covered his chest while pointing at Zhen Yingjun furiously. "You bastard, do you how to play or not? Are you doing it on purpose or not? You hit someone just then and now me? Are you fucking blind?"

Zhen Yingjun was flabbergasted. Since when was he so strong? He just hit the ball normally, why did it turn into a jump ball? How did it fly from the table? He didn't even use that much strength!

"I..." Zhen Yingjun had no idea what was happening. He didn't think he used too much strength, what on earth was going on?

"What? You have the guts to do it, but you don't have the guts to admit it? Why aren't you talking?" The muscle man continued to pester.

Zhen Yingjun glanced at the muscle man. If you were in Songhai, I'm going to order someone to get rid of you straight away. How dare you act so arrogantly in front of me? However, he was in Songshan and didn't want to cause any problems. How unfortunate, he secretly thought. Zhen Yingjun took out his wallet and counted another 3,000 yuan for the muscle man, "I'm sorry, I didn't do it on purpose. This is your medication fee..."

"That's more like it!" The muscle man wanted money in the first place. He had thick skin and his injury was much lighter than the man who was hit in the face. It only bruised him and it wasn't a problem for him at all! However, he saw that Zhen Yingjun decided to use the money to calm the other man. How could he let go of a chance to scam money?

“Alright, it’s my turn again!” Zhen Yushu excitedly picked up the cue ball and placed it on the table, “Aren’t you skilled? You hit two high difficulty jump balls in a row. How awesome!”

“So so!” Zhen Yingjun replied in annoyance, “You can’t even hit one if I asked!”

“Even if I can, I wouldn’t! I have to compensate them if I hit someone!” Chen Yushu’s mouth twitched as she looked at Zhen Yingjun in despise.

“Humph! If you can, it’s on me if you injure someone!” There was no way that Zhen Yingjun could believe Chen Yushu. She couldn’t do that!

“Really? It counts if I hit someone with the ball?” Chen Yushu asked.

“Yes. This is a jump ball. You can’t possibly do it without years of experience in playing pool!” Zhen Yingjun tried to restore his reputation by masking his mistake into a high difficulty skill.

“Fine, if you want to see a jump ball, I won’t do a normal shot. If I hit a jump ball, you have to count it as I got one ball into the pocket!” Chen Yushu said, “What do you reckon?”

“Fine! If you hit a jump ball, I’ll count it as one ball in!” Zhen Yingjun didn’t believe that Chen Yushu could accomplish it, “But what if you can’t do it?”

“Then... I’ll take one of my balls out from the pocket!” Chen Yushu pondered for a while and replied. She wasn’t afraid that she couldn’t do it. She didn’t believe Zhen Yingjun did all that by himself. From her view, it must be Shield bro’s doing! Hence, she could do whatever he did and she didn’t mind having a bet with him!

“Okay, that’s deal! Go ahead!” Zhen Yingjun was pleased and thought, you will never be able to do it!

“Well, you see, I am a kind person and I don’t want to injure innocent people. How about I aim at you?” Chen Yushu aimed the cueball towards Zhen Yingjun’s direction.

“Humph, whatever you want! I don’t have to pay if you hit me!” Zhen Yingjun replied casually. How could Chen Yushu possibly hit him? Unless she used her hands, she won’t be able to achieve it with a cue stick.

Chen Yushu didn’t say anything else and hit the cue ball after aiming at Zhen Yingjun.

In an instant, the ball soared across the air and flew towards Zhen Yingjun’s face!

Zhen Yingjun never expected Chen Yushu to hit a jump ball and didn’t plan to dodge it at all. When he realized that something was wrong, it was too late. The cue ball hit his face with a loud bang and dented his forehead. He was extremely dizzy and almost fell down!

“Argh!” Zhen Yingjun screeched, “Impossible! That’s definitely impossible! This is not real! You don’t know how to do that!”

All the bystanders on the side began to laugh. How stupid was Zhen Yingjun? You thought that you were the only special one? Aren't you happy now? Now you've finally taken the consequences of your arrogance? His forehead was now swelling but he asked for it!

However, Zou Ruoguang's body turned cold... From his point of view, it was definitely God Lin's powers. Otherwise, why would such supernatural things occur? It was even rare to see three continuous jump balls in a professional game!

Chapter 836: Master Jun Reneged

Master Jun Reneged

"See, I did it! It's my win! That's one ball for me!" Chen Yushu didn't think that she could do it, but she thought she could at least try. Whether she could succeed or not, it all depended on Shield bro. And Shield bro did it perfectly.!

Chen Yushu finished speaking and threw one of her balls into the pocket.

Zhen Yingjun took a deep breath. He was unwilling to accept the reality but, there was nothing else he could do. He had already promised and he could not only complain about his misfortune, but he had to accept that Chen Yushu won the round!

"Fine, it's my go now!" Zhen Yingjun breathed deeply. This time, he couldn't make a mistake or he would lose this game as Chen Yushu only had two balls left.

Usually, Zhen Yingjun wouldn't treat seriously to win against two beginners. However, the situation was different now since the game was extremely eerie!

He hit two jump balls previously but logically speaking, he didn't use too much strength. Was the cue ball too light? Zhen Yingjun couldn't understand why as he gave up and decided to hit it lighter.

Zhen Yingjun aimed at his ball and hit it.

Lin Yi felt like Zhen Yingjun used less power this time and he transferred less energy than the last two balls. This time, Zhen Yingjun's ball didn't fly out of the table, but it still jumped slightly. It skipped the ball he aimed at and the cue ball rolled into the pocket.

"Huh?!?" Zhen Yingjun was speechless. He purposely didn't use as much strength but it still happened? However, he didn't injure anyone this time but hit his cue ball into the pocket.

Luckily, he didn't have to compensate for someone and get scolded again. However, his expression was still dark as he lost his dignity again!

"Woah, sick! You hit your ball into the pocket? Are you perhaps color blind?" Chen Yushu looked at Zhen Yingjun in surprise.

"Humph! I just didn't control my strength properly, it won't happen next time!" Zhen Yingjun snorted coldly and didn't want to argue with Chen Yushu. If he continued to argue with her, it would make him look unconfident, so he wanted to prove her wrong by displaying his true skills!

There were no penalty rules playing with Chen Yushu. Whether he sent the cue ball flying or hit it into the pocket, there was no free ball. It would be Chen Yushu's turn again.

Chen Yushu noticed that Shield bro couldn't change the path of the ball, but he was only able to change the strength of the ball. She wasn't certain that she could aim the remaining two balls towards the pocket so she decided to hit the cue ball to a better position, making it easier to aim.

Lin Yi saw that Chen Yushu didn't aim for her ball this time but hit it somewhere else, he could more or less guess what she wanted to do and controlled the ball so it stopped at a great position for Chu Mengyao.

As long as Chu Mengyao aimed accurately, she could easily hit the ball of her own into the pocket.

Chu Mengyao figured out that Lin Yi had been helping them from aside and Shu seemed to know it too, or she wouldn't have done that. Without Lin Yi's help, it was impossible for Chen Yushu to control her strength so accurately that the ball stopped at the best position.

Chu Mengyao didn't need Lin Yi's help and easily hit the ball into the pocket. After her turn, it was Zhen Yingjun's turn!

Zhen Yingjun felt nervous. His opponents only had one ball left but still had quite a few balls left!

This time, Zhen Yingjun didn't dare to use too much strength. After he aimed at the ball, he lightly pushed the cue ball out.

However, it was still a jump ball!

Zhen Yingjun was going crazy. How was it possible that every single ball was a jump ball?

He watched at the cue ball jump up and smashed into the ball which he aimed earlier, making the ball spin randomly for a few seconds before stopping.

This time, Zhen Yingjun indeed hit his target, but because the direction was wrong, the target ball didn't fall into the pocket.

"What the hell, that's so weird!" Zhen Yingjun couldn't help but curse. He thought it was too unbelievable. Did he strength increase explosively all of a sudden? He didn't even use that much strength but why did it look like he did? What the hell was happening?

Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu only had one ball left. Chen Yushu decided to use the old method and hit the cue ball to a position for Chu Mengyao so Chu Mengyao can hit it into the pocket. This time, Chu Mengyao didn't put in a lot of strength since she was nervous, but the last ball fell into the pocket successfully under Lin Yi's added energy.

Chu Mengyao knew that she didn't use enough strength but the ball seemed rather powerful and ran into the pocket itself! She thought that it was probably Lin Yi's doing again.

"See, we won! Look at you. And you said you are professional and you want to teach us? You can't even play yourself!" Chen Yushu looked at Zhen Yingjun as she was rather pleased, "You think you are good just because you can hit a few jump balls? I can not only hit jump balls, but also 'elastic' balls!"

“Don’t we have one more game? We won a game each, we are tied!” How could Zhen Yingjun admit defeat? He thought that he just didn’t perform well this time. Not because Chen Yushu was good at pool.

“Fine, one last time! I’ll make you lose willingly!” Chen Yushu wasn’t afraid of losing at all with Lin Yi’s help, “Are you going to let us have three turns each?”

“No, I underestimated you last time, I won’t let you have three turns this time!” How could Zhen Yingjun do that again? Although Chen Yushu looked at a beginner, she was extremely lucky. He was too scared that she would hit a few balls in by luck and continued, “Not only that, only one of you can play. You two can’t play together anymore!”

Zhen Yingjun wouldn’t let them play together again. They worked together perfectly as one hit the cue ball to a good position and the other hit it into the pocket, he would definitely lose if they continued to play like this! In order to restore his face, he couldn’t let them continue like this!

Chapter 837: Explosion

Explosion

“How can you be so shameless?” Chen Yushu glanced at Zhen Yingjun and asked.

“I’m not, I was being modest. This is the deciding game. I can’t go easy on you anymore!” Zhen Yingjun defended.

“Hah...” The crowd watched them all laughed loudly. Wasn’t that shameless? He thought the girls were beginners so he talked big, but now he didn’t want to go easy on them because they were skilled? It was obvious that he was being shameless about it. How could he defend himself?

Zhen Yingjun blushed upon hearing the laughter. However, he didn’t care that he was getting scorned for the sake of his reputation. It would be more shameful if he, the vice president of Donghai City’s Pool Association lost to two beginners! He would die from embarrassment if the news spread!

So, losing face in front of a small crowd today was better than losing face to a wider extent.

Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu were annoyed. He saw through their plan and now, they could no longer have one person hitting the cue ball and the other aiming for the pocket.

“Well, since you are changing the rules, I want to change it too, or it’s not fair!” Chen Yushu rolled her eyes and immediately thought of a good idea.

“What do you want to change?” Zhen Yingjun asked.

“This time, we won’t distinguish different patterned balls. Whoever hits more balls into the pocket wins, how about that?” Chen Yushu asked.

“Fine. So you agree to what I said before?” Zhen Yingjun was slightly taken aback as he thought there was no used for Chen Yushu to change the rules. Even if he didn’t allow Chen Yushu to move the cue ball, without distinguishing different patterned balls would make it more convenient for Chu Mengyao to find a target.

However, Zhen Yingjun took Chen Yushu's suggestion as she settled for the second-best. No different patterned balls, no using cue balls to find their patterned balls, they only needed to hit the balls! But did she think that she could hit them into the pocket like this?

"Yes. So, who's going first" Chen Yushu nodded in agreement.

"I'll go first. I let you go first twice and it should be my turn now!" Zhen Yingjun stood up and walked towards the table without any room for negotiation.

The crowd looked at him with even more scorn than before. He thought he could bully two beginners and let them go first arrogantly. Now he didn't want to because he thought they were skilled.

Zhen Yingjun decided to use less strength this time since overdone it last time. He would be fine as long as he didn't hit a jump ball. Now that there were no different patterned balls, it was more beneficial to him as he could get one ball in at the first try.

He used less strength and pushed the ball out. He thought, it should be normal this time, right?

The result was within Zhen Yingjun's expectations this time. The cue ball didn't fly away this time, but the cue ball stopped after moving a short distance forward.

"Huh?" Zhen Yingjun was shocked. What happened? Why did it stop moving? Did he not use enough strength this time? But that's impossible, he only used a tiny bit less strength than last time, why is the difference so big? It was a jump ball last time, why did it only move a few centimeters forward this time?

Zhen Yingjun rubbed his eyes and wanted to see if it was an illusion! However, it was real this time. Lin Yi didn't 'help' him this time and it was his own and original strength.

With the amount of strength he used, the cue ball only moved so far.

"Hahahahaha!" Chen Yushu immediately laughed loudly. She pointed at the ball and her stomach was aching from laughing too hard, "I let you go first but it looks like you didn't even have a turn!"

"It's an accident!" Zhen Yingjun blushed but didn't know what happened.

"Accident?" Chen Yushu didn't believe Zhen Yingjun's explanation but she said nothing. She stood next to the pool table and spoke to Zhen Yingjun, "Watch, I'm going to get it all with a break!!"

"What?" Zhen Yingjun froze. How is that possible? He quickly asked, "We don't have that rule, do we?"

"I didn't say that, if I shoot another elastic ball, wouldn't I get all of them?" Chen Yushu looked at Zhen Yingjun as if he was an idiot.

Zhen Yingjun was flabbergasted. He finally understood what she meant by no his or her balls. She wanted to perform another 'elastic ball'! Because the shot was too miraculous, he never thought that Chen Yushu could do it again! Hence, when she wanted to change rules, he never even thought of it. Now he finally knew what she wanted to do with that change in rules!

But could she do it again? Zhen Yingjun didn't believe that she could as the shot was beyond the knowledge of normal pool. If she said she could perform another jump ball, it was possible, but even a professional player at worlds couldn't do this!

"You can do it again?" Zhen Yingjun asked in disbelief.

"I don't know, but I should be able to if I try, right?" Chen Yushu blinked and lifted her hands in the air, "Shield bro, please bestow your power upon me!"

Chu Mengyao almost laughed at her words and Lin Yi looked speechless.

Luckily the crowd didn't know what Chen Yushu meant. They thought she was just trying to encourage herself as everyone knows that players always say some strange words before their turn. Just like weight lifting athletes, they always yell out some words to encourage themselves the moment they lift the weights up.

After Chen Yushu did that, she pushed the cue ball out. It seemed ordinary as the ball touched a random ball and stopped.

Lack of strength. When the crowd thought that Chen Yushu couldn't do it again, and when Zhen Yingjun sighed in relief, the cue ball was exploded with strength and began to strike other balls on the table rapidly...

It was another elastic ball!

The ball continued to strike around as if it had infinite energy. Of course, one ball acting so wasn't so strange as it happened once already, but what was in front of them was even more appalling!

Chapter 838: Admit Defeat

Admit Defeat

The current situation on the pool table was that not only the ball Chen Yushu hit became an elastic ball, but all the balls which the elastic ball touched became elastic balls too. The balls struck against each other on the table until all of them fell into the pocket.

Lin Yi was afraid; what if the only elastic ball fell into the pocket accidentally? Hence, he continued to transfer energy into the balls on the table and let it continue to move until all the balls fell into the pocket.

In an instant, all the balls became hysteric, it was as if one of those pinball video games and shocked everyone there.

"Impossible! That's not possible! That's illogical. It doesn't fit with the law of conservation of energy!" Although Zhen Yingjun acted arrogantly, he wasn't an idiot. On the contrary, he was quite knowledgeable and he was not an idiot like other young masters. He finally roared at the outrageous scene in front of him, "Look, everyone, how is this possible? Don't you think it's against common sense?"

However, everyone looked at Zhen Yingjun as if he was an idiot after he spoke up. What do you mean that it's impossible? It was already happening before their eyes yet you are still asking. Aren't you talking nonsense?

"What do you mean? Seeing is believing. Are you blind?" The gangster whose teeth was hit replied unpleasantly. His teeth were hit but the amount of money he got was the same as the man who was hit in the chest, he was unhappy and wanted to embarrass Zhen Yingjun in front of the crowd.

"Exactly. All kinds of strange things happen in this world. It's not impossible just because you have never seen it happen before! Do you admit defeat?" Another person agreed.

"You-!" Zhen Yingjun almost fainted from rage, "Arghhhhh! Fuck! What do you know? You are all illiterate! This kind of ball doesn't even exist!"

"Doesn't exist?" The crowd was angry being called illiterate, "Aren't you hallucinating? It is happening right before your eyes but you say it doesn't exist? Ahh... How unfortunate. He is so young but he became an idiot!"

Zhen Yingjun watched the number of balls became less and less on the table yet he could do nothing. Although he didn't know what was happening, he couldn't find any loopholes since no one touched the balls on the table. Even if someone did touch it, he didn't believe that one person could control every single ball and make them move continuously!

"Hah!" Zhen Yingjun let out a long sigh. He knew that he would be losing his face if he stayed here any longer. He lost this game and there was no way for him to turn this around. He hasn't even had his turn yet but all the balls struck around and fell into the pockets themselves. He decided to admit defeat as it was his loss no matter how long he waited, "Fine, count it as my defeat. Isn't it just 200,000 yuan? I'll give it to you guys!"

Zhen Yingjun was aware of the situation. If he decided to go back on his words right now, he would lose his reputation. If these people spread the news that the vice president of Donghai City's Pool Association lost the game and ran away shamelessly, he would have no face to see the others!

Zhen Yingjun opened his wallet and found out that he didn't have enough money. He turned around and spoke to Zou Ruoguang who was standing not far from him, "Zou bro, lend me 200,000 yuan first, I'll withdraw some cash and give it back to you soon!"

Zou Ruoguang didn't dare to disobey him and quickly took 200,000 yuan from the counter, "Master Jun... Here you go..."

Zhen Yingjun took the money and passed it to Chen Yushu, "Here, I lost. But don't let me find out that you cheated in any way, or, humph!"

He didn't threaten them in public, but he was already frustrated and didn't plan to let Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu go so easily. However, he didn't want to do it in public and planned to do it secretly.

Zhen Yingjun had no reason to stay here any longer after giving them money. He became even more frustrated as he saw the despise on the crowd's faces. He strode towards the fridge at the counter and took a bottle of drink out. He chugged the bottle down and his anger ceased a little. He didn't pay for the drink and turned around, exited the entertainment center from the side door!

He suppressed his anger down and needed some air. His entire body was screaming uncomfortableness if he continued to stay here. He felt like he lost respect from losing the game. He didn't tell Zou Ruoguang to accompany him but left the place alone.

Chen Yushu didn't care about this money. If she did, she wouldn't have ignored all those game tokens she got from the gambling machines. She only cared about the exciting feeling she obtained from winning the game!

"I, Shu the Genius, is amazing!" Chen Yushu passed 200,000 yuan to Lin Yi, "Enough, enough. It's boring, too easy for me. I'm hungry, let's go home and eat!"

"Hah..." Lin Yi took the money and followed behind them, heading towards the side door of the billiards room. If they left through this door, they could leave the entertainment center without crossing the gaming room.

"What genius? Didn't you still need Lin Yi's help?" Although Chu Mengyao didn't know how Lin Yi did it. It was Lin Yi's doing and she was certain of it.

"Oh, I know. Shield Bro was standing next to me and I became Shu the Genius after he gave me his power!" Chen Yushu replied carelessly.

"..." Chu Mengyao was speechless. Why did she feel like Shu was even more arrogant than Zhen Yingjun? How was she a genius?

Zhen Yingjun just left the billiards room and bumped into an old lady who collected scraps. She was an old lady who suffered residual effects of stroke. Her mouth was crooked and one of her legs was crippled. She was holding a knitted bag, picking up plastic water bottles and drink cans with difficulty.

"Young man, can you please give me your plastic bottle?" The old lady saw Zhen Yingjun coming out of the billiards room with an empty plastic bottle in his hands and asked. Usually, everyone would give it to her as it was troublesome to find a bin, so they preferred to give those to her kindly.

However, Zhen Yingjun was furious and an old lady whose body was half-paralyzed approached him. She made him jump and even wanted his plastic bottle. Zhen Yingjun immediately raged and threw a kick towards the knitted bag in the old lady's hand!

Chapter 839: Shu the Prophet Appears Again

Shu the Prophet Appears Again

How could the old lady withstand Zhen Yingjun's attack? She was old and didn't have too much energy, plus half of her body was disabled, her grip loosened and the bag flew out, leaving the bottles scattered on the ground.

"Ahhh!" The old lady screamed and looked at Zhen Yingjun in horror yet too afraid to fight back. She thought she bumped into one of those gangsters here as the others were just as unreasonable as him!

The old lady could only swallow her anger and glanced at Zhen Yingjun full of resentment. She lowered her head and walked unsteadily as she picked up the fallen bottles with difficulty.

“Fuck, such bad luck!” Zhen Yingjun threw the bottle in his hand in front of the old lady and growled fiercely, “Take it! You rubbish collector!”

Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu, as well as Lin Yi just left the billiards room and saw this scene from afar. Miss frowned and thought that Zhen Yingjun was too vile. How could he bully such a vulnerable old lady?

But before she could speak, Chen Yushu complained first, “Oi, how are you so vile? Do you know what public ethic is? How can you treat this grandma like this? Can’t you see that she is crippled and disabled?”

“Is that your business?” Zhen Yingjun became even more furious and thought that this girl was intervening too much. Was it any of her business that he kicked the old lady?

“Won’t you grow old one day? Can you make sure that you won’t be disabled? If you are disabled and others treat you like this, how would you feel?” Chen Yushu humphed.

It was at this moment when Lin Yi discovered that Chen Yushu was also a warm-hearted person. Her and the miss were both good people.

“Humph, I have more than enough money. Why would I collect rubbish? Not to mention that I’m perfectly healthy, why would I become disabled? That’s nonsense!” Zhen Yingjun replied in disdain.

“There is much nonsense in this world. Have you seen an elastic ball before today? In front of me, the almighty and beautiful Shu, nothing is impossible!” Chen Yushu winked, “Perhaps you will become someone like the grandma, and her illness will transfer onto your body! Am I right, Shield Bro?”

“Crazy!” How could Zhen Yingjun believe Chen Yushu’s nonsense? He humphed unhappily and turned around to leave.

“Wait, why is your back dirty?” Lin Yi walked over and patted Zhen Yingjun’s back carelessly. Under the sun, a dazzling light flashed between Lin Yi’s fingers but immediately disappeared. It was the light which reflected off silver needles.

“What do you mean?” Zhen Yingjun froze, “What are you doing?”

“Nothing. It must be my imagination. It’s the old lady whose back got dirty,” Lin Yi turned away without another word and approached the old lady, seemingly to pierce his silver needles randomly on her back and took it out.

All these happened in an instant and Zhen Yingjun didn’t worry at all, but Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu froze in their spots.

They saw the silver needles in Lin Yi’s hands! Chen Yushu only made the previous comment as she recalled that Lin Yi was a doctor, so she wanted to see if Lin Yi could punish Zhen Yingjun. She thought that if he could heal General Weiwu’s severe wounds, he must have a way to punish Zhen Yingjun.

“What the hell...” Zhen Yingjun complained but realized that his mouth became crooked! What happened? Zhen Yingjun lifted his hand and mouthed his mouth in horror, but he found out that a corner of his mouth was tilted to one side. What was more horrifying was that he couldn’t control it as he felt nothing at all! This mouth no longer felt like his mouth...

“What happened? What happened to me?” Zhen Yingjun yelled unclearly. Because his mouth was crooked, he could no longer pronounce words.

On the other side, the old lady suddenly discovered that her leg was no longer crippled! She exclaimed surprisingly, “My leg, how is my leg recovered?”

However, she became even more surprised as she realized that her mouth was back to normal, she was able to communicate normally! What on earth just happened?

Zhen Yingjun was shocked by the old lady’s changes and wanted to try walking. But as soon as he tried to move his leg, he abruptly realized that one of his legs no longer listened to his control. He stumbled forward and almost fell onto the floor!

“My leg, why can’t I control my leg? What the hell happened?” Zhen Yingjun yelled in horror.

Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu were both shocked. They didn’t imagine that Lin Yi healed the old lady’s illness within such a short amount of time and moved the same illness onto Zhen Yingjun!

Chen Yushu was surprised. She merely mentioned it but Lin Yi did it miraculously! Chen Yushu was delighted; Shield Bro surely treated her well! If this continued, she would become Fairy Shu and she could do whatever she wanted to!

“Hah! Look how accurate my words are! I am Shu, the Prophet. I said you will be disabled to experience what grandma felt but you didn’t believe it. What now? The illness on grandma transferred onto you! Wahahahaha!” Chen Yushu pointed at Zhen Yingjun and laughed loudly, “Which angel brother sent this miracle, it’s great!”

Zhen Yingjun thought it was shocking but after hearing Chen Yushu’s words, he looked towards the old lady and she was back to a normal person! However, his condition was the same as the old lady!

What happened? Was he punished by heaven from above? He recalled the series of events happened today and he glanced at Chen Yushu in shock. Was she human? Was she an immortal who descended just to punish him? Otherwise, why was everything connected to her so strange that it was beyond the conventional?

Transfer of illness was not part of modern science nowadays! It would be possible if it was an infectious disease, but why was disability infectious?

Zhen Yingjun felt nothing but terror as he recalled the details.

“You... You... What the hell did you do to me?” Zhen Yingjun widened his eyes in horror at Chen Yushu. He was a rather superstitious person and as soon as an idea like this formed, it became more and more unbelievable.

“I didn’t do anything!” Chen Yushu shrugged, “I just gave you a prophecy. Would you like another one?”

Chapter 840: Treatment and Making an Illness

Treatment and Making an Illness

“No need, no need!” Zhen Yingjun was afraid of Chen Yushu now. He wouldn’t even be scared if someone pointed at him with a gun, but this kind of unknown terrified him. There was no way that he wanted another prophet from her. If Chen Yushu said he would die in a car crash, then maybe he would...

Zhen Yingjun thought that it was the best not to stay here, and he no longer dared to think about taking revenge as he thought that the person in front of him could not be controlled by humans. What happened? Was she an immortal who sent a miracle down!

If not, how could the elastic ball be explained? Now he thought back to it, those balls he hit must be heaven’s arrangements! Otherwise, there was no way that it happened that way? Then he recalled the strange balls. They were lacking energy yet they struck around as if they were injected with stimulants. How could that be explained?

He didn’t think it was a big deal, but the more he thought about it, the scarier it became. He had been battling with immortals. How could he possibly win?

Zhen Yingjun looked at the disabled old lady who now returned to normal, yet he became disabled himself... He didn’t dare to think about what might happen next and crippled away. This place was too scary. He will invite a few “immortals” over for a ritual to disperse of the bad luck on him after he went home!

He didn’t think that his lip was crooked, nor was he crippled. He thought that it must be because he was possessed by something unknown and he wanted a ritual done on him!

“I know! I know! Little girl, you must be an immortal sent from above! Only immortals like you have this kind of power!” The old lady wasn’t stupid and when she saw her illness suddenly transferred onto the body of a bad man, how could she not know that it was Chen Yushu’s doings?

How could an ordinary do this? She must be an immortal! Hence, the old lady subconsciously treated Chen Yushu as a fairy and she was about to bow to thank her.

Chen Yushu jumped. How could she let the grandma give her such courtesy? She quickly stopped her, “Grandma, please don’t, it’s not my work, to be honest...”

No matter how thick-faced she was, she didn’t have the face to pretend to be a fairy in front of grandma.

However, the old lady didn’t believe her. She only believed what she saw. If it wasn’t for Chen Yushu, the evil man wouldn’t be punished, and her illness wouldn’t be gone.

Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu couldn’t do anything and left quickly. If the old lady decided to stop. They wouldn’t bear such courtesy.

Chu Mengyao finally asked curiously after getting in the car, “Lin Yi, how did you do it?”

“Yes, yes. Shield bro, how did you transfer that grandma’s illness onto Zhen Yingjun?” Chen Yushu asked in confusion.

“Hah...” Lin Yi shrugged as he started the engine, “That old lady’s illness is merely the residual effects of a paralyzing stroke. In simple words, her meridians were blocked and it can be healed through acupuncture. It’s just that her family is too far to take her to the hospital.

Just like what Lin Yi said, the old lady’s condition wasn’t a sickness, but the result of blocked meridians and it could be healed through acupuncture. However, Lin Yi had to transfer some energy onto her if he wanted to heal her through one treatment. However, he didn’t tell Chu Mengyao and Chen Yushu this as they wouldn’t understand even if he did.

“What about Zhen Yingjun? Why did he suddenly get the same illness as grandma?” Miss knew Lin Yi was an amazing doctor as both her poison and General Weiwu’s wounds. It was exactly the saying that it was easy to treat an illness, but hard to prevent illness. How did Lin Yi make Zhen Yingjun sick?

“Oh, it’s the same concept. I used acupuncture to seal a few meridians,” Lin Yi explained briefly. He used his energy to deal with those meridians and created the illness they saw.

“No wonder!” Chen Yushu finally understood what happened, “I didn’t imagine there were so many principles behind it. Shield Bro, what about the pool balls?”

“I used pure energy,” It wasn’t easy for Lin Yi to explain this and he pushed it on pure energy.

“Oh...” Chen Yushu knew about pure energy but didn’t understand it in depth. She heard Lin Yi’s explanation and didn’t continue to question him.

Zhen Yingjun didn’t dare to stay there any longer and went to look for his father, Zhen Dazhou in panic.

Zhen Dazhou saw his son’s condition and jumped. He was just fine when he left this morning, how did he become like this now that he was home? What on earth happened?

“Dad, today was such a strange day! I’ve never encountered such unconventional things!” Zhen Yingjun didn’t hide anything and recounted everything to his father, “Dad, how is that possible? That’s unconventional! Is it something dirty messing with you?”

“Well... That’s possible!” Zhen Dazhou’s business was blood-filled and he was rather superstitious. He heard Zhen Yingjun’s words and thought that it was too outrageous. Elastic balls? That’s beyond their knowledge! “You mean that those two women might not be human, but witches?”

“Possible!” Zhen Yingjun quickly nodded, “Those two girls were too beautiful; how could ordinary women be that breathtaking? I’ve had numerous girls yet I’ve never seen people like them. Now that I thought about it closer, there’s something wrong!”

Zhen Dazhou breathed deeply and turned around to Zou Tiandi, who didn’t speak a word, “Tiandi bro, what do you think?”

Zou Tiandi didn’t know what happened and didn’t know who Zhen Yingjun was. He wondered if his son, Zou Ruoguang, was also doomed like Zhen Yingjun and he wasn’t paying too much attention, “I think Dazhou bro’s guess might be possible. Didn’t he bump into something dirty?”

“Tiandi bro, do you know any exorcists? Can you ask him to perform a ritual for Yingjun?” Zhen Dazhou didn’t dare to let this drag on and it was better to solve it as soon as possible. However, he never even thought of going to the hospital as what Zhen Yingjun described was something supernatural. How could he be sick?

Even so, getting sick won't make his mouth crooked and leg crippled. Has anyone heard of this kind of illness at all?

"I don't know any, but I can find someone if I ask around! As long as you can afford it, you shouldn't be afraid of unable to find someone?" Zou Tiandi was also nervous. House Zhen's brat caused so many troubles, especially that he caused such a big problem on his first day back. He must call Ruoguang and tell him to stay away from Zhen Yingjun so he won't get dragged into it too!
