

Forbidden Love (My Rae Of Light) Book 2

Chapter 1

'We are often let down by the most trusted people and loved by the most unexpected ones. Some make us cry for things that we haven't done, while others ignore our faults and just see our smile. Some leave us when we need them the most, while some stay with us even when ask them to leave. The world is a mixture of people. We just need to know which hand to shake and which hand to hold! After all that's life, learning to hold on and learning to let go.'

💔💔💔 Keepers Of The Lake 💔💔💔

Jason fell down the huge deep dark cliff with his already tearful eyes staring at his Rae. His right hand going straight to his heart which was already pouring out blood from where Rae had thrust her sword in. He closes his eyes with the memory of his beloved Rae face forever stuck in his memory.

Back in the cave, Avonmora eyes flew wide open for the first time in a thousand years. As she opened her eyes, Jason breaths his last.

Lucifer walked and stood beside Rae smirking as he saw Jason's eyes closed, his pale body going paler.

Jorkallun managed to crawl and jumped after his friend before they would stop him. He tried to change into his dragon form, but he couldn't. He was still weak just like Jason from the poison drink they both drank from.

He hoped King Roen, Rosa and Lillian will be okay since the poison is slowly eating them up.

What Queen Jasmine told him suddenly came to him.

"Jorkallun, I see you as someone who takes the advice of a seer seriously. What is about to come can't be changed. A day is fast approaching when darkness shall be used against light to achieve its aim. A day is coming when you will need help, when that day comes find the Lake Of Little, the lake which is hard to find, when you see it, whisper my name. There help will come to you. Remember my words always for I see doom fast approaching."

Did she really know what will happen and came to warn Jason and him but they didn't take her words seriously?

Why didn't she tell them who exactly Lucifer would use against them?

He should have been vigilant like his Sarah. And Sarah, wherever she is, he hopes she is safe. She has a strong fighting spirit and won't back down easily, but she is weak.

Jorkallun thought as he saw Jason immovable body. He stretched out his hands to grab Jason but he couldn't.

He tried moving faster than the winds trying to control the winds by slowly it down and tried to reach his friend once again but the winds kept going stronger, he tried once more succeeded this time as he held Jason's cold left hand tightly and use his other free hand to hold Jason other lifeless hand.

He didn't see the heavy rock above them that Lucifer had thrown after him to make sure it hit them there by crashing him and Jason for once since they are weak.

Saving his friend was the last thing on his mind before he was engulfed by darkness.

"Let's go back to the palace." Lucifer said placing his hands around Rae's waist.

"Why did you killed Jason?" Lolly voice sounded behind them.

Turning slowly to look at Lolly, Lucifer smiled. "Because I want Rae and to have her, Jason has to be put out of the way." He answered.

"Not at the expense of my happiness. There would have been another way out instead of asking this fool here to kill the man I love." Lolly huff out in annoyance. "My father will never forgive you for what you did to me Lucas."

"Is that it?" Lucifer asked with a raised brow. "Let's see what your father will say then." He added and made the three of them disappeared immediately.

*****

Sarah was manhandled roughly by the Amazon Warriors who were taking her to behead her as instructed by Lolly.

Her hands were securely tied behind her, they had tied her hands when they left the banquet room. One of the Amazon Warrior place her head on the wood they would use to behead her.

Two more Amazon Warriors came to hold her body as Sarah tries to fight the Amazon Warrior who place her head on the wood. Though she was weak, she was able to dispatch the Amazon Warrior sword before she was overpowered by the other two joining them.

One brought out his long sharp sword and aim it on Sarah's head.

Sarah couldn't stop the tears from coming out of her eyes as she saw her end.

She could have investigated Rae's behaviour when she started suspecting her.

She closes her eyes in final death. Oh the things she could give to see Jorkallun again if he is still alive.

Where was Tharollin when he is needed the most!?

She thought.

The Amazon Warrior raised the sword up and brought it down quickly.

I will always love you Jorkallun.

Sarah thought as she awaits the sword strike but it wasn't forthcoming. She only heard the man holding the sword fighting for his life as he struggles to breathe. The clanging of the sword on the ground told her all was not well.

She slowly opened her eyes to see what was happening.

Her eyes widened in surprise when she saw Selena.

Her right hand was up which magically freeze the Amazon Warriors around them. They were all clutching their throats and within two minutes they fall to the ground, dead.

She quickly faces Sarah and release the ropes that bind her.

It was at that moment Sarah noticed her human feet.

Selena has legs?

"We have to go now." Selena said holding Sarah shoulders as the girl stood up to her feet.

"Not without the others who have been held captive by Lucifer and Rae." Sarah said bravely.

Now that her hands are free, she needs to save the others from the dungeon they were kept. She coughed out more blood.

"Not yet Sarah, we will come back for them, when you are strong and healed from the poison wine that flows in your vein." Selena told her. "You have to save yourself first Sarah, you have to come with me because this isn't over. You have to believe me, nothing will happen to them." Selena said with assurance.

Sarah believed her. "I trust you auntie and thank you for saving my life, how I wish same was rendered to Jorkallun and Jason." Sarah said.

"Don't worry, everything happens for a reason, but we need to get out of here before Lucifer or anyone comes for us. You can't take all of them because you are still weak. Remember I am not a warrior like you." Selena told Sarah.

"Alright then, let's go." Sarah said with defeated shoulders. "But where are we going to go? If they discovered I am not dead they will turn everything upside down to fish me out of my hiding place." Sarah added in a worried tone.

"Don't worry about that Sarah, I know just where to take you for safety." Selena said smoothly caressing her niece hair gently. "Don't worry my dear, it will all be fine in the end." She added and disappeared together with Sarah.

*****

Opening his eyes Jorkallun blinked his eyes to clear the midst in it. He slowly lift up his legs and gave a silent thanks to the Creator that he could feel his legs.

Though still weak, he tried to stand to his feet which he did very slowly. Glancing around him, he saw that where he has fallen was near a little lake.

Images flashed through his eyes as he remembered what brought him here.

Jason!!!! Where is Jason!??

He looked frantically around him and caught sight of a dirty white hair. He walked slowly but painfully towards his dead friend.

Whoever that throw the stone at them really wants them dead.

He wouldn't blame Rae, she was being controlled.

Jason's body was nearly buried in the ground as the sand around him were wet by his blood which was still pouring out from his heart.

He gently but roughly pulled Jason pale body out of the ground which was half buried beside the bank of the Lake. How he managed to get the strength in pulling Jason out of the sand, remains a mystery to Jorkallun.

Jorkallun stood beside Jason's dead body and looked out across the little Lake which colour was oddly different though it appears green but when you look at the lake carefully you'd see it's white, strange, but he removed that thought from his mind as tears blurred his vision. He couldn't bear the thought of not knowing the condition of Roen, Lillian, Rosa and his beloved mate is right now. He hopes Sarah isn't dead. How would he ever face Roen and Rosa again after everything if they eventually survive the poison? Jason's death would break their hearts. He dropped to his knees, the tears falling down his cheeks as grief took him. He curled up on the bank and cried and coughs out more blood.

No this is not the way it was supposed to end.

He cleaned out his eyes with a new look of determination as the words of Queen Jasmine came pouring in his head.

He has to find a certain lake before the poison kills him finally.

Getting up to his feet, he managed to carry Jason on his shoulder and started walking away. Where he was going, he has no idea but one thing was on his mind.

Find the Lake of little and seek for help.

Somehow Queen Jasmine would have known Jason would die and have told him to find the Lake which is impossible to find.

How can he find the Lake of Little?

"Jasmine." He whispered. "Why do I even have to call out your name if I eventually find the Lake of Little?" Jorkallun asked himself as he began to walk away from the little Lake.

He had barely walk ten steps away when he heard something or rather someone who had called out his name.

He stopped and turned to look around him in caution. He looked around the clearing for whoever called him but couldn't see anyone in the grey light.

Probably it was his imagination which made him thinks someone had called his name.

He thought and was ready to continue his walk when he heard his name, again.

He looked around him carefully and finally he looked up at what he thinks was the sky, it was completely grey matching his mood. Rain, so light it was almost mist strangely began to fall and gently washed away the tears drying on his cheeks. He and Jason's were soaked to the skin but he didn't care, he closed his eyes again hoping to block out the pain he felt deep inside and more gain strength to continue.

Where will he take cover since the rain decided to fall right this minute at the wrong time?

He heard someone calling his name again; the voices were closer now coming from the direction of the lake. Opening his eyes he looked out across the lake but he could see very little in the dim light. His clothes were drenched and stuck to his body, he shivered. The heat had gone from the day and he felt cold, chilled to the bone.

He knew within him they were far away, so far away from home.

Two tall ladies appeared suddenly at the bank of the Lake and scared the dragon boy a little, he nearly fell down. They were wearing purple robes and their faces were hidden by the purple hoods.

Jorkallun walked towards them without thinking until he stood at the edge of the lake. They lowered their hood and their purple hair fell in soft curls down their back, they tucked loose strands behind their ears which were large and pointed, everything they did, they did it at the same time. The two beautiful ladies in front of him were identical, perhaps twins. Their skin was light purple and as smooth as the water beneath their feet. Their face was unlined but their large eyes were deep purple, faceted like crystals and jorkallun just knew within him they are ancient. Their gaze was piercing but they looked at him with pity.

"You called on us Jorkallun." They said together, their voice was deep and were the same tone and although they spoke out loud he also heard the words echo within his mind.

Balancing his friend body well on his other shoulder which didn't escape their piercing purple eyes.

In a twinkle of an eye, Jason wasn't on his shoulder anymore, he was floating in the air as the winds moved his dead body forward to the Lake.

"Who are you...? And where are you taking Jason?" he asked, looking behind them. For a second he thought he couldn't see Jason's body again, he closed his eyes and open them again he saw Jason's body still floating in the air. He saw a glimpse of another world and for a moment he felt disoriented like he was looking down from a great height. The feeling passed and once again he saw the lake, the rain making ripples and tiny waves on the surface. No rain fell on the women who stood before him, their robes remained dry and they were bathed in a soft light, like that of a summer sun.

"We are called the Shi, we are the keepers of the Lake and where you are is called the Lake of Little. You called the name of our seer sister and whosoever that calls her name seek for help. And for the other dead one, we are taking him to the Kingdom Of Elilannon. There we will try to heal his body and give his spirit a place to rest," They replied together turning to look at Jason's body now moving slowly towards the centre of the lake.

The Shi?

Was it fate who had brought them here without the stress of finding the Lake?

He knew very little about them from the stories he heard as a child. The Lake of Little was a myth that Fairies and Elves find it hard to believe it's existence. But here he is, in front of the myth itself talking to the keepers of the Lake, Jasmine sisters.

"He's dead? I failed my friend. I couldn't protect my good friend." Jorkallun said looking up at them. Although they looked strange he felt no fear, he knew he could trust them.

"His destiny has been written since the dawn of time. It has been written a long time ago before he was born. You are both destined to fight this together." They said, their voice was strange almost as though they were singing to him. He wondered once more if he was still dreaming or perhaps he had also died and would now be returned to those he had lost. Would he see Sarah?

"I don't know what to do, can you help him, please?" he asked, turning to see if his own body was lying on the bank still thinking he was dreaming. The sense that none of this was really happening was very strong. All he could see was the flattened ground where he had been sitting and crying but it was faint, the area was no longer dry, although light, the steady rain quickly soaked the ground. Could these Shi help save Jason?

"Come, you are weary and full of grief, in Elilannon you too may rest a while and the poison in you will be removed. Our names are Jess and Joan and we will do all in our powers to help you." They beckoned him to come with them.

Jorkallun hesitated for a moment then walked towards them, he had nothing to lose and he has to follow Jason wherever he may go, he knows Jason would have done the same if the case was reversed. They turned and moved towards the centre of the lake, they seemed to fly but he could see no wings on their backs. He looked down wondering why he wasn't wading through the lake and saw that he was walking on the water The lake was dark and smooth like glass. As he continued walking he realised it was no longer raining. He wasn't feeling that weak again and he looked up at the sky and saw it was now blue without a cloud in sight, the sun was shining and his clothes were dry. Looking back he could just make out the far bank through a grey veil. He had left his world behind and entered the immortal world of Elilannon.

Jorkallun followed the women to the gate of Elilannon. He couldn't see Jason's body anywhere in the air again and voice out his worry.

"Where's Jason?" Jorkallun asked looking around him. They were standing in a small inlet with steep embankments on two sides. A white chalk path wound its way through the grass between them to the crest of a hill and disappeared out of sight. Although nothing seemed odd or out of place, nothing felt real. Jorkallun wondered once again if he was still dreaming.

"His spirit is with our kin, I will take you to him but first I want to show you what exactly happened in your world," They said together turning to face him once more.

Do they do this thing together? Saying things together?

Jorkallun thought to himself as he stared at them.

"She killed Jason." Jorkallun said then he sighed and sat on the ground. Wrapping his arms around his knees he looked back and couldn't see his world again. He spits out blood.

"You are wrong Jorkallun, your friend has to die for a reason." They said together looking at the young man before them and feeling his grief as though it were their own.

"He's dead even if his spirit may live on in the Kingdom Of Elilannon. I was supposed to save him, to be there for him and to know when evil wants to come and I was too late, I have failed as a dragon who is supposed to be the wisest creatures." He felt so tired and alone, he rested his head on his knees.

"Far from it Jorkallun, your journey with Jason is just beginning and soon you will understand that things are not always as they seem." They said together.

Jorkallun looked down at the ground struggling with his tears. "I cannot do this, not alone. Jason is dead, he was my friend." Jorkallun looked up at the two women before him, they were strange and beautiful but he just wished they would leave him alone with his grief. He looked away from them and closed his eyes.

"No one can escape their destiny Jorkallun. Not all is as it seems, Jason had to die so you would bring him here to save him," They said sitting down next to him, one at each side.

Chapter 2

'I encourage you to remember that you are, indeed, as the stars. You glow with the same intensity. The answers that you seek outside of yourself may very well be found within the cosmic intelligence inside you. Go ahead; show the world what you are made of! Sparkle, shine, light the way, and brightly blaze as you are meant to do.'

💔💔💔💔 THE AFTERMATH 💔💔💔💔

Roen Palace:

King Roen couldn't believe what was happening, one moment he was rejoicing with his family and friends and the other moment he saw himself in the Kingdom dungeon.

He and Lillian were roughly thrown on the floor of the dungeon.

Whatever that was given to them has weakened Lillian's powers and his Wolf inside them.

Too late to cry over spilt milk.

He hoped that his son and Jorkallun are okay wherever they are right now.

Looking around him carefully once again, he could see some of his guards, the ones whom the Amazon Warriors left alive in the dungeon, with them. They were wounded and strangely enough, their wounds are not closing.

What is he going to do to help their situation right now?

Roen thought to himself.

"Please do you have any atom of idea where Taloc might have taken Rosa ot?" Roen asked Lillian softly. He was no King now, he was more concerned about his wife and son with his friend.

"I don't know my King, but I hope he won't hurt her." Lillian gasp out painfully.

"I am sorry." He whispered, he didn't even know what he was apologizing for. He tried controlling the cough threatening to come outside but couldn't, he coughed out more blood.

"It's okay Roen, we didn't see this coming. But I on the other hand knew something terrible want to happen so I prepared myself before coming." Lillian said.

"What do you mean Lillian?" Roen asked.

"I met Selena, the Mermaid goddess, who told me to get prepared. She also told me to get a certain book she once gave to Ashley and go through the spells written on it." Lillian explained remembering their encounter at the Mer-Clan kingdom on the day of the full Moon. "The book belongs to my mother which Selena borrowed."

If she hasn't thought of leaving Rae and Jason on the full moon and went straight to the Mer-Clan kingdom to stay through the night, she might not have met Selena who speaks in riddles to her, but she understands some part of it.

Though she didn't know Rae was going to be the instrument Lucifer would use against them.

"So did the book actually tell you what would happen and you kept quiet about it?" Roen demanded.

"No my King, the book shows me there is hope." Lillian replied and shove one of her hands into her breast area weakly bringing out a shiny object in a ball form. "I learnt a lot of strong spells in the book and one caught my attention. I decided to use it and removed my magic from my body." She added, closed her eyes and used one of her fingertips to burst the ball. The light inside the ball engulfed her immediately and dispersed into her body.

Lillian opened her eyes and smiled. She wasn't feeling weak unlike before. Her powers have suppressed the poison she drank a little bit allowing her to use some of her magic again.

"Now I am taking you to where we will meet Selena." Lillian said getting up to her feet and going to the dungeon door, looking out to be sure no Amazon Warriors are in sight. She turned to face the wounded wolf guards and whispered some magic spells as she waved her hands in the air. Something that appears like sawdust came out of her hands and touched the guards. "It will heal your wounds, but it will take time to heal. I and the King have a journey to make, we shall return to get you all out of here." Lillian added and went over to meet Roen, helping him stand to his feet holding him tightly.

"What about my wife, Jason and Jorkallun, won't we help them once?"

"Am afraid not my King. I am not as strong as I am since some of the poison is still in me. I cannot face Lucifer alone." Lillian answered. "But don't worry, Selena will heal both of us completely from the poison and we will plan on how to defeat the devil. It is time to go." She added and they both disappeared.

*****

Lucifer, Rae and Lolly appeared in the banquet room.

"Your father isn't here right now Lolly." Lucifer said walking out of the banquet room with Rae.

He breathed the fresh air and walked further away from the banquet room to the centre of the palace ground.

He looked up and saw the sky darkened and the air around them thicker. The gods are coming.

He smirked to himself looked around them and told the Amazon Warriors to leave his presence which they did. Soon it was only him with Rae that was seen in the centre of the palace ground.

He closed his eyes and whispered some words, his black hair was replaced with white hair and his face changed to Roen's own. His attire changing into Roen and he stood with Rae beside him as King Roen.

The gods wouldn't noticed any difference, after all he was second to the Creator himself. He wasn't given the name Lucifer for nothing.

And just as he had thought, Zeus with his son and the rest of the gods landed before him, jumping down from the sky.

"To what do I own your humble visit Zeus?" Lucifer asked the King of the gods in Roen's voice.

"We are here to investigate the priestess who lied to our name and made you order the deaths of the entire Mer-Clan." Zeus replied.

"We now know the truth Zeus, Tharollin told me everything in the Wolf festival." Lucifer told the gods. "As we speak, Tamara is at large now. She is now hiding from me." He added.

"Okay, try to call on me once she is captured, Tamara needs to be put to death for the crimes she has committed against our names." Zeus said.

"That I agree. Least I forget, she didn't kill the first Tribird as you all had presumed. As a matter of fact, she mated with him and was able to subdue him." Lucifer announced pleased to see the surprising and shocking look in the gods faces. "Yes, it is because of that she killed the Mer-Clan using your name to carry out her dirty act. But don't worry, I have sent my warriors all over the whole kingdoms to search for her. We are going to catch her soon, that's a promise Zeus." He added.

"I know you always keep to your words Roen. We need Tamara, she has a lot of questions to answer me." Zeus said.

"Of course, she shall soon be fished out wherever she is hiding at the moment." Lucifer said.

"Who is the young lady beside you?" Eros asked.

"Jason soulmate." The words tasted bitter in Lucifer's mouth.

"Very well then, we shall take our leave." Zeus said and they jumped up to the sky very fast.

Wow, that was easy. Very easy.

Lucifer thought as his face, hair and clothes changed back to his. He turned and face Rae who has been quiet beside him. He placed his hands on her hips and draw her closer to his body.

"I am glad I have you all to myself now." Lucifer said leaning his head down to kiss Rae on her lips but an invisible barrier prevented his lips from reaching his target. He tried again but he was prevented.

This shows he couldn't access all of her, even if he wants to have any sexual activity with his beloved soon to be wife, he won't succeed, the barrier will block him.

He has forgotten that there is one more thing out of the two he has to do, before he gets Rae all to himself.

One is killing the wolf, Jason is dead and the other one is to remove the wolf mark that binds them.

He will find a way to remove the Millennium wolf mark the stupid boy had marked his Rae since she is now his.

"Say you love me Rae, you love your Lucifer."

"I love my Lucifer." Rae said and Lucifer smiled at that.

"I love you too Rae." Lucifer said and wanted to continue when Taloc icy voice made an evil grin appeared on his face.

"Why did you tell Zeus that Tamara and I are mated Lucifer?"

"Oh, you were here when they arrived?"

"Yes and I overheard everything." Taloc answered. "Why did you tell them?" He repeated his previous question.

"Because I want them to know of your existence and now you will also be hunted by them."

"They can't defeat me. I once fought with them. But nevertheless, if they dared touch a single hair in Tamara, you will have me to contend with."

"Am scared now. A little boy is threatening me."

"This is not just a threat Lucifer, it's a warning."

"Well I can see I am no longer welcome here, I shall take my leave now. My work here is done. See you very soon Taloc I have important work to do." Lucifer said holding Rae's waist, they both disappeared.

"Father, what is going on and why do you call him Lucifer?"

"That's his real name. I have to find your mother and only Rosa knows where she is, and now Rosa is nowhere to be found." Taloc replied. He had appeared when Lucifer and Rae had walked out of the banquet room and his daughter filled him what had happened and how Rae killed Jason.

"Let's take him down father." Lolly whispered.

"He is a lot stronger Lolly, I will need wisdom to deal with him." Taloc replied.

"So what about Jason? Can't you bring him back to life?"

"Am sorry I cannot. Jason is dead, you better forget him."

"Mother might be somewhere around here. Rosa probably hid her in one of the rooms in the palace."

"Rosa isn't that naive, she will keep your mother in a place where no one can reach or find her." Taloc said. "We have to stay in the palace for the meantime and I will interrogate Roen on the whereabouts of my mate."

****

The Realm of The Gods:

"Something seems fishy back there father." Ares was the first to speak since they get back from the supernaturals. "Didn't you noticed it father?"

"I did." Zeus answered. "I am not that stupid Ares, Roen who I know really well wouldn't be alone without any of his guards with him. But he gave us a useful information. The first Tribid is still alive and his Tamara's mate."

"So what are we going to do now Zeus?" Eros asked.

"Artemis!" Zeus suddenly called out the goddess name and she appeared immediately.

"You called on me Zeus." Artemis, the goddess of the hunt, said bowing down.

"Yes my dear, your help is needed once again. I need you to monitor Roen's Palace and if possible trace Tamara and her Tribid lover whereabouts, once you are done with your findings, report back to me immediately."

"I will try my best Zeus." Artemis said and disappeared.

"She will be back soon with the information needed." Zeus announced.

****

Kingdom of Elilannon:

"You have to be strong Jorkallun." They said and stood up. "Come with us." With that they began walking away from him.

Jorkallun hesitated before he stood up to his feet and followed them.

"Why is Queen Jasmine colour not like you both since you said you are sisters?" Jorkallun found himself asking.

They both smiled at him. "She chooses not to stay in this form when she met her soulmate. Though she do visit us from time to time." They answered him.

"Are there many of your kind here?"

"Yes, we have our kin here." Jess and Joan both answered.

Jorkallun nodded his head and sighed sadly.

"Stop thinking of your sad event Jorkallun, you cannot change the past." They said together.

"If you want me to stop thinking about it, then you will have to promise me you will heal Jason and bring him back to life, please." he said. He stopped walking and they turned to look back at him.

"Jason will rise again, he is the only one that can revive the Lady of the North. He has been taken to a place of healing, our kin will remove the poison and so we will remove yours, but the wound in his heart was deep and it will take time to heal. Here his spirit can rest while his body recovers but for his spirit to be returned to his body a price must be paid, you know this don't you Jorkallun?" they said walking back towards him and putting their hands on his shoulder In each side.

"I will gladly give my life for his if that is the price," Jorkallun said hoping that he might not be too late.

"No that's not the price Jorkallun." They said and vanished together with Jorkallun.

Jess and Joan appeared in front of a huge crystal with Jorkallun in their middle. The crystal light was dim, one could easily see it was dying slowly.

"The light is dying slowly." Jorkallun said as he noticed the ground they were standing on was black in colour as if it was dying with the crystal. Behind the crystal were different set of doors.

"Yes." They said and touched his heart. Jorkallun suddenly vomited more blood. Once he gets himself, he wasn't weak anymore. "We've removed your poison."

"What price do I have to pay to bring back my friend alive?" Jorkallun asked cleaning his blood that was on his lips.

They pointed at the crystal together. "Here is the heart of Elilannon and the source of our powers. It is a secret known only to those that live here and those we choose to show. The crystal is dying and so are our powers in this kingdom. Each doorway is a gateway to another world born of magic. Each of these worlds like your own draws on the power of the crystal. These worlds and the crystal hold the key to the balance." They told him. "You will have to journey to one of the world and plant this little crystals. The crystal needs to be replaced in the crystal cave of that world. If planted properly it will multiply and the crystal light will shine once again. When you do that, Jason will live. That's the price you have to pay jorkallun."

Chapter 3

'Most people...are nothing but glimmers in the great darkness of time. But you...are no swift-burning spark. You are a torch against the night - if you dare to let yourself burn. Dragonflies are reminders that we are light and we can reflect light in powerful ways if we choose to do so.'

♥♥♥♥ AVONMORA AWAKENING (Part One) ♥♥♥♥

Jorkallun huff out a sigh of relief as he heard their conditions.

"Is that all you want me to, to take these crystal and plant it in the cave of the crystal?" Jorkallun inquired to be sure.

"Yes Jorkallun." Jess and Joan said together and pointed at the doors behind the crystal at the same time. "How many doors do you see Jorkallun?" They asked him together.

Jorkallun looked past the huge Crystal to the doors once again, counting it this time around. "About eight doors." He answered.

"You will have to choose which door to open, each door leads to a different world and the roads in each doors all end in the crystal cave." Joan and Jess told him.

"I will do anything for Jason to live." Jorkallun said, his teary face was filled with determination and courage.

Jess and Joan both smiled. "That's it Jorkallun." They said together. "Wait here."

They both disappeared leaving Jorkallun alone with the Crystal and reappeared once again with a full plate armor, Jess who was holding the armor lifted it up and Joan with a wave of her hand, use her magic on it. Jorkallun widen his eyes when he saw the full plate armor in his body. Joen made a sword appeared in her hands which she gave to Jorkallun.

"I am wearing an armor and you are giving me a sword, it's like you are preparing me for battle." Jorkallun said removing the sword from its sheath and swinging it expertly on the air before shoving the sword inside it's sheath.

Jess and Joan both nodded their heads together and pointed towards the doors again. "Now, Jorkallun, how many doors do you see?" They repeated their previous question to him.

Jorkallun counted it again slightly confused on why they are repeating the same questions they had asked him some minutes ago. "Like I said before, they are eight doors." He answered them.

"Any door you choose, you will get to face eight different challenges. You have to be brave Jorkallun, at the end of the eight challenges, you will see the cave of Crystal, make sure it is planted well." They told him.

"But why can't one of you go to plant the crystals in the cave of Crystal?" Jorkallun asked.

"We cannot because we are all bound to it. The Crystal is us as we are the Crystal. If the light in it dies completely, we all in Elilannon kingdom will die along with it. We cannot plant it because we are one with it. Like we told you before, Jason has to die for you to bring him here to save him and us from dying. It has been written long before you were born. You are not dead so you will be the one to plant the crystals." They told him going to stand behind the crystal which faces the doors.

"Okay, which of the doors should I open?" Jorkallun inquired as he stood next to them.

"Open one of them, follow your heart Jorkallun." They answered him.

Jorkallun stared at the eight doors in front of him not knowing which one he will open. He turned to face the two ladies by his side to see if their face or eyes will give him an answer but he was met with a blank look on each of their faces.

He should follow his heart.

He moved forward allowing his heart to lead, he opened the fourth door and saw a portal.

"You have chosen that world Jorkallun. Remember you will have to face eight challenges before you get to the crystal cave, once you plant it, your friend will be saved and you will come back. Your time starts now Jorkallun." They whispered.

Jorkallun entered the door which shut firmly after him.

Jess and Joan both sat on the crystal waiting for Jorkallun return.

****

Selena appeared together with Sarah. Sarah recognize where they are, at the Mer-clan, beside Selena's cave. Selena made Sarah to sit down on the mouth of her cave to rest.

"Wait here, I will join you soon." Selena said and entered the dark water in her cave, disappearing beneath the water, surprisingly enough, the water didn't dried up like before.

Selena didn't waste time as she emerged out of the water. Coming out of the water, her tail transformed into her human legs and she stood in front of Sarah.

She opened a big seashell she brought out along and out took a white pearl. "Open your mouth and bring out your tongue." Selena said and Sarah did as she was told.

Placing the pearl on Sarah's tongue, she whispers some words and the pearl glowed in her tongue and started absorbing the poison in her which was mixed with her blood.

The very once white pearl was now filled with blood. Selena took it out of Sarah's mouth and threw it in her cave dark water which sank immediately.

Sarah suddenly regained her lost strength and jumped to her feet cracking her bones.

At that moment, Lillian and Roen appeared next to them.

"The book helped a lot Selena, thank you." Lillian said steadying Roen so that he won't fall.

Selena smiled and quickly took another white pearl from the seashell and place it on Roen's tongue, the poison in him entered the pearl and she threw it also in dark water.

Doing Lillian the same thing.

Once they were cured Roen looked around Sarah and finally at Selena.

"Thank you for saving our lives Selena." Roen thanked.

"It was my pleasure Roen."

"Sorry to ask is my son and his friend not with you? Didn't you save them when you saved Sarah?" Roen inquired, he was worried about them.

"We didn't see them when she came to save me. I was about to be beheaded by the Amazons when my aunt saved me. And she assured me that you and Mrs Lillian together with Jason and Jorkallun are saved before I agreed to come here with her. True to her words you both are here and i also believe that Jorkallun and Jason are okay wherever they are." Sarah answered.

"Okay, thank you once again for your help Selena even though I was naive and ordered for the deaths of your entire people one thousand years ago." Roen sign sadly.

"You don't have to thank me Roen and beside you only killed 5% out of 100 of my people who live here." Selena said with a wave of her hand. "The most important thing here is that you all are alive and we must think of a way forward." She added.

"You are right because Taloc and Lucifer will soon know about our disappearance and will search for us wherever we are hiding." Lillian said.

"True, Lolly might also get enraged when she discovered I am not beheaded. There's only one thing left for us to do." Sarah said.

"And what can it be?" Roen asked.

"Let's go and meet my mother who is across the reef." Sarah said facing Selena. "We have to tell her what is going on and please do not say no aunt." She added.

Selena smiled, she knew it was time to meet him. "Fine, we are going home."

"But what of my son and Jorkallun? Will they be alright if we leave them with Lucifer and his cohorts?" Roen chip in quickly now he has regained his strength he feel like kicking someone's ass.

"You cannot escape your destiny, what is meant to be will be. They are fine and will soon join us Roen, cease to worry." Selena told him.

"What are we waiting for, let's start moving before they come after us." Lillian said.

Selena nodded her head and went over to touch Lillian's shoulders showing her where exactly to go. She removed her arms from Lillian's shoulders. "Take us there with your Portal." She said.

Lillian who was shown the great Sea of Nile nodded her head and started saying some magic spells, soon enough a large portal appeared right in front of their middle.

"The portal will lead us straight to the Sea of Nile." Lillian said.

"Sorry to ask you again Selena, is Rosa, my wife saved from Taloc hands?"

"For now, yes. Come on, we don't have much time." Selena said and entered the portal first. One after the other they entered until Lillian enters the portal last and it closes.

The portal reopened and Selena was the first person to walk out of the portal followed by Sarah, Roen and finally Lillian. Hardly has the portal closed behind Lillian that Micheal landed in front of them with his sword pointing at them.

"Who are you? Speak out before you face my wra-" Micheal didn't need to finish his words as he became shock and his sword he was holding fall off his hand. He wasn't shocked by the fighting stance the other three people did in case he wants to attack them, he was shocked to see the very face that has haunted his dreams 50,000 thousands years ago.

"Se-Se-Selena, is that really you?" He stammered as he asked.

"Who else will be standing here if it is not me, good to see you betrayer." Selena icy voice greeted his ears but Micheal wasn't bothered, he was glad to see her again and he will stop at nothing until she forgives him. After all he deserves whatever treatment she gives to him.

"I am very sorry for what i had caused you in the past Sele-"

"I am not here for you, we are here to see Tharollin or Lydia. Tharollin is near here, I feel his presence."

---

Avonmora eyes opened for the first time in many years and she tried to sit up, the first person who noticed her was Lydia who then brought the attention of Tharollin to her.

Tharollin hurried to her side and held her hands and helped her to sit upright in the bed she lay, looking at Avonmora with love in his eyes.

Avonmora who doesn't know who helped her thanked him. Stretching her whole body with her eyes closed.

"Anything for you Avonmora." Tharollin said in response to her greetings.

Avonmora closed eyes flew open to see Tharollin, she pushed him away from her very hard taking Tharollin unawares as he fell to his butt.

"Don't you ever come close to me." Avonmora said with gritted teeth.

Tharollin got up to his face not bulge about her outburst. "Avonmora my love, I know I did wrong in the past and for that I am sorry."

Standing up to her feet slowly and waiting to feel her legs she hasn't used in a while. Once she could feel her legs, she walked towards Tharollin.

"What did you just say?"

"I said I am sorry my love and I know I did wrong by not listening to you when you begged me not to open the Gate of Darkness. I am sorr-" Tharollin didn't get to finish the words when a deafening slap sounded in his ears. His face move to the left as he felt the full force of the slap, he ignored the string of the slap and faces Avonmora.

"Do not call me your love, you lost it when you ignored my plead." Avonmora said in fury as her nose flare up in anger.

"I admit I failed to listen to your plead, I have learnt my mistake and i am sorry my dear Avonmora. Please forgiv-"

Another rebounding slap whip Tharollin head to the right. As this string more than the first one, he ignored the pain and focus on Avonmora.

"Move back don't near me."

Was she not the one who came to meet me in the first place? Now she is doing as if I was the one who walked up to her and slap her.

Tharollin thought as he put a little space between them.

"Do not call me your dear, I have a name and it is Avonmora numbskull."

"Avonmora, please take it easy on him." Lydia decided to chip in pleased with the slaps.

Avonmora whip her head to her direction and regarded Lydia slowly.

"Aunt Lydia? Is that you?"

Lydia smiled. "Yes Avonmora, it's me."

"What are you doing with this boofhead here?" Avonmora asked.

"Well he has learn his mistakes and want to change to a better person." Lydia answered and at that moment, Micheal walked in with Selena, Lillian, Roen and Sarah. His wings still in his back.

"Mother?" Avonmora called out not believing her eyes. Selena smiled and walked over to her, hugging her tightly.

Sarah and Lydia wasn't left out as they also hug themselves.

"I am so happy to see you Avonmora after a very long time." Selena said as they dispatch from their hugs.

"Me too mother."

"Sarah you didn't inform me about your coming." Lydia said kissing Sarah's forehead. "But all the same, I am glad to see you."

"Me too mother."

Avonmora looked behind her mother and saw the rest she return her gaze to her mother.
"Mother, who are these goofballs with you?"

Selena smiled. "You haven't changed one bit Avonmora, they are my friends, we came here to see Tharollin."

"To see the ignoramus who doesn't know his left or right?" Avonmora said looking back at the visitors and saw Roen.

"Roen, is that really you?" Avonmora asked confusedly, she didn't understand why a king would follow Selena here unless he is here to take frozen her, again. "What are you doing here?"

Roen wanted to send a brief smile to Avonmora as he answered her question. But the look Tharollin throw at him sized his emerging smile.

"We are in trouble." He finally revealed.

"Trouble with who?" Avonmora asked.

"With Lucifer, Tharollin daughter and her cohorts." Roen answered.

Avonmora gasps out loudly and turn her head to stare at Tharollin dangerously and then back to Roen again. "You mean that this wazzock, this lamebrain here has a child from another lady?"

"No Avonmora, he doesn't mean it that way." Micheal said.

"I wasn't talking to you birdbrain."

Chapter 4

'Your need for acceptance can make you invisible in this world. Don't let anything stand in the way of the light that shines through this form. Risk being seen in all of your glory. Fairy tales are more than true: not because they tell us that dragons exist, but because they tell us that dragons can be beaten.'

♥♥♥♥ AVONMORA AWAKENING (Part Two) ♥♥♥♥

Micheal quickly made his wings to enter his back, it is probably his wings that his granddaughter and daughter saw which prompted them to call him a bird.

"Point of correction, I am an Angel and this Angel has a name." Micheal started to say when his wings was out of sight.

"That's none of my business boofhead and you are trying to change the topic here." Avonmora said and crossed her arms. "Who is the lady that this pea-brain here got pregnant?" She demanded.

"Well if you haven't called me a birdbrain you might have gotten your answer." Micheal told his daughter crossing his arms like she did and staring at her like the way she is staring at him.

Selena smiled fully knowing what is coming to Micheal. She couldn't tell her daughter yet who the birdbrain is to her.

"Did I tell you to answer my question for me twerp?" Michael closed his open mouth, his daughter calling of name is far worse than his granddaughter. "Anyway no need of talking to you tomfool, I was talking to the rest of the inhabits here." Avonmora said.

"He is trying to tell you that you are mistaking the whole thing here." This time around, Lillian said.

Avonmora turned to her direction and widen her eyes when she saw Lillian. "Lillian? I didn't know came with them."

"Yes I did, if you weren't busy insulting Tharollin and the other man you would have noticed my presence."

Avonmora just smiled. "My hair was covering my left eye so I didn't see you Lillian, sorry about that." She said and remember what Lillian had omitted out. "Hold a minute, you said I was mistaking the whole thing?" She asked and at Lillian's nod she continues. "How? Reon just said this simpleton daughter and her cohorts are causing trouble. Which means he has an affair with another woman after making me sleep for...how years now Lillian?"

"More than 1,000 years, but the daughter Roen is talking about is the one I helped you keep."
Lillian answered.

Tharollin eyes quickly left Avonmora and shot towards Lillian. "What did you say!" Tharollin and Avonmora both exclaimed loudly together.

"Rae is with Lucifer and Tamara's mate as we speak. I don't know how Lucifer gets to control Rae to do this bidding but he said he lure her into donating her blood to him. Now he made Rae poison our drinks which makes us grow weaker, killing us slowly, his other cohort took away my wife and Lucifer ordered the Amazon Warriors to throw I and Lillian in the palace dungeon. I don't know how my son and his friend, Jorkallun are coping right now because we left them in the banquet room when they drag us away to the dungeon." Roen explained sadly.

"Lillian, my baby is a girl?"

"Yes Avonmora, it is a girl and I gave her the name you want me to give her, Rae." Lillian answered softly.

"And Roen you now have a son?" Avonmora asked looking at Roen.

"Yes Avonmora, a lot have happened when you were frozen. My son and your daughter are soulmates and I think they seal their bond on the night of the full moon a few days ago." Roen answered her. "She poisoned all of us, your mother was able to remove the poison from us." He added.

"So Rae is with Lucifer and she is being controlled by him?" Tharollin inquired trying to understand what Roen is saying.

"Yes Tharollin."

"Lucifer has my daughter? No, it can't be." Tharollin said. "I will be back." He added and transformed into his dark smoke and disperse.

"I hope what I am hearing is wrong." Avonmora said after a while Tharollin disappeared. She went back to sit in the bed. "I haven't seen my daughter in years, I don't even know what she looks like." She added sadly.

"Let's say she is half of you and Tharollin." Lillian said.

"If anything happens to Rae they will have me to contend with."

"With what strength are you going to use and fight them Avonmora?" Selena said. "You forgot that you are a healer just like me and not a fighter like your aunt Lydia."

"And who said I will be the one to fight them mother? I have Tharollin, I will only do the talking and he will use his fist."

Selena laughed at that. "Don't worry, everything will be okay."

"I know mother, so what did I miss during my time in the frozen world?"

"A lot, first of all Tamara lied about the gods, she used their name to carry out her crimes. She lied about the gods ordering the king to kill all the Mer-clan people and you because of the gate which was opened by Tharollin, she took your soul and froze you at the Gate of Darkness. Later on, Tharollin came out of the gate of Darkness and met Rae, he knew she was his daughter and threatened me, I had to spill the beans and told him the truth. He has been there for Rae and even told me to remove the spell I had placed on her to conceal her true identity that shows she is you and Tharollin's child. But Rae couldn't yet so he respected her wish. The wolf festival came and I told everyone present the secret of Rae because I discovered my sister has been lying and that Sarah here who is Lydia's daughter and Jorkallun's soulmate is also a mermaid. She wanted to use Rae for sacrifice as you know, the one who would sacrifice her life is Roen's son who is a Tribid. He and your daughter are soulmates." Lillian finished her long time explanation.

"So I was frozen for over nothing and my people killed?"

"It doesn't end there yet. When Tharollin found out Rae is his daughter, he went to confront Tamara and his father, I think he saw your soul with his father and took it and he returned your soul back to you. If not, you wouldn't be awake right now. He has been here with you ever since then and couldn't leave you or Rae alone until Rae told him to stay fully with you until you wake up. He has been worried you won't forgive him for the pain he had cost you." Lillian further explained.

"So hard to take in but I won't forgive him so easily." Avonmora said. "What else are you keeping away from me?"

"The Angel is your father and he was the one who had unfrozen you at the gate of Darkness and with Tharollin's help made you come back." Lydia answered her question.

Avonmora turned to look at the man who she had insulted and called names, she smiled at him. "I hope you didn't take what I said at heart pillock, oops I mean Angel?"

"Not at all." Micheal replied with a little smile. "And this angel also has a name, Micheal. My name is Michael not Angel." He said. "For now." He whispered to himself that only he could hear it.

"Okay Michael, I am sorry if my insult got to you, don't take it at heart, Tharollin never takes my insult at heart."

Micheal nodded his head. "So what is our next step?"

"Our next step is to wait for Tharollin to return wherever he went too." Selena spoke avoiding Micheal's eyes.

"While we wait for the king to arrive, I need a bath and a change of clothes." Avonmora said getting up to feet.

"I can help with that, come on, follow me." Lydia said.

"Thank you auntie." Avonmora said going over to meet her. They started to walk away when Sarah's voice stopped them.

"I am coming too." Sarah voice was heard as she hurried to meet the two women.

"Roen are you not also coming?" Avonmora asked turning to face Roen who understand her look.

"Of course I am coming, I also need a change of clothes." He said and followed them, leaving Selena and Michael alone.

"Selena, I am sorry." Micheal began slowly. "I know I hurt you in the past, I am so sorry, please find it in your heart to forgive me." He added.

"What you did to me years back is unforgivable Micheal. I wish I had never met you in the first place." Selena said.

"I also wish I had never accepted his proposal that very day Selena. I came back looking for you after we left to explain things to you but I couldn't find you. I searched for you for days until Lydia told me you have been banished. I cried Selena, I cried but I couldn't reverse the hands of time. I did wrong I admit and I am sorry for that. I made your father banished you. I am so sorry, please forgive me." Micheal said walking slowly towards Selena as he speaks.

"You broke my heart Micheal when you choose me over power. I was hurt from the pain you caused me. I am sorry but I have moved on. Forget about me as I have done to you. The only ties we have right now is Avonmora." Selena said, it broke her heart when she said that.

"I won't give up on you Selena." Micheal said finally reaching her side and holding her shoulders. "I have changed, I don't need any power anymore, my brother can have it for all I care. What I want is you, please give me a chance, just one more chance to set things right."

"If I told you I was with your child back then, would you have stayed? Would you Micheal?" Selena asked waiting for his answers.

"No." Micheal admitted, Selena smiled briefly, that is what she admires in Micheal, he speaks the truth. "I would have still followed my brother to protect my child and you with your people. He came prepared and the mer-folks weren't ready for a battle, I have to make a decision before it could turn more bloody." He added.

"And now?"

"And now? I want to be with you and my daughter, with everyone here. I disobey my brother and came down here to search for you but I couldn't see you, even Lydia couldn't find you. It was as if you vanished and don't want to be seen. I love you Selena even after so many years, the love I have for you is still there in my heart. I love you, please don't push me away." Micheal said.

"Micheal, it's very hard to forgive one who hurts you and I don't know if I can ever forgiv-" Selena didn't get to finish her words as Micheal sealed her remaining words with his lips.

Selena tried to fight the feelings trying to emerged from where she had buried them but she find out she couldn't. She didn't know when she returned the kiss too.

The kiss was so intense and filled with passion, desire and love mostly from Michael.

Selena moaned into the kiss as Micheal hands draw her closer into his body.

The lack of air force them apart as they breathed hard staring into each other's eyes.

"I love you Selena, from now till eternity." Micheal whispered softly. She belongs to no other man than him and he is going to prove it to her. Selena wet her lips with her tongue and Micheal couldn't take his eyes off it, he quickly capture Selena's lips, kissing her like a man possessed.

Jorkallun Journey:

CHALLENGE NUMBER ONE:

Jorkallun was surrounded by a bright light which force him to close his eyes. When he couldn't feel the string in his closed eyelids, he opened it and saw himself in an open field which has nothing in it. He looks around him, lost and didn't know which direction to go. The air around him was thick and harsh.

Looking down at his hand, he knows he has to keep the crystals safe until he gets to the cave of the crystal and plant it.

He removed the bobble (hair band) he used in tying his long red hair. There is a hidden hole he made in it, he placed all eight of the tiny crystals in the hidden hole. Holding his hair once again, he repacked it into his ponytail and decided to take the right side of the field.

The air was heavy and humid, just walking through the field he could feel the moisture clinging to his clothes. It felt thick as he breathed it in, coating the inside of his throat.

For how long he walked, Jorkallun couldn't tell, he continued walking until he came to a bridge. In the bridge stood a man about 2'3 inches of height. He was a dwarf, he was so unkempt, his black hair was filled with dirt and when he smiled at Jorkallun which exposed his crooked teeth, Jorkallun knew he was full of trouble.

Looking up at the sky, he could see it was getting dark so he greeted the dwarf. "Good evening sir." And made to pass the other side which the dwarf wasn't blocking.

"You cannot cross the bridge until I say so, unless you want to die." The dwarf man told him and that stopped Jorkallun.

"And why can't I cross the bridge if I may ask?"

The dwarf man smiled. "Is your quest worth it?" He asked.

"Yes sir, it does." Jorkallun answered him.

"Would he have done the same for you if it was you lying down dead?" He asked again.

"Yes he would." Jorkallun answered without hesitation.

"Is that so? Then what is this?" The dwarf man said and wave his hands to the air, and Jorkallun saw a picture of himself lying down dead and seeing Jason talking to the keepers of the Lake, he laughed at what they told him and flung away the tiny crystal and left their presence. The picture faded and he blinked his eyes. "You see that is what he would have done if you were lying in his position."

"That's a lie, Jason can never do such a thing to me." Jorkallun told the dwarf.

"Then why did he engage your first love and stabbed you in your back?"

"It was a misunderstanding and I am in love with someone else."

"Don't you think the sisters are lying to you about planting the crystal. The crystal cave does not exist, they sent you here so you will die." The dwarf said.

"Queen Jasmine wouldn't have sent me here if her sisters are lying. Now if you are done with your cheap excuses filled with lies, I will like to cross this bridge and continue my journey."

"I see you have set your heart on this quest of yours." The dwarf said and nodded his head. "You may pass."

"Thank you sir." Jorkallun thanked and entered the bridge.

"Remember jorkallun, this is just the beginning of your journey, there will be seven more challenging in front of you and I wish you luck." The dwarf man said and disappeared.

Crossing the bridge finally, Jorkallun continue his journey.

Lucifer Cave:

Tharollin had first wanted to head straight to Roen's Palace but kicked against it and followed his instincts, he went to the cave the water man lives and a new strong scent filled the air around him. He changed into his human form and entered the cave.

He was surprised to see a man sitting down where the water man do sit and Rae sat on his lap.

"Tharollin so good to see you again."

"Who are you and where is my father?" Tharollin demanded. "What is my daughter doing here?"

"One question at a time Tharollin. The man you know as your father is dead, though he is not your father holy one. As for who I am, I am the real Lucifer who was caged for so many years by the Creator. You brought the bones to Gai but you gave him a wrong bone. Where is the bone Tharollin? Give me the bone to free me completely."

"You still haven't answer my last question. "What is my daughter doing here?"

"She is my companion Tharollin."

"I am taking her from you. Rae get up from his stinking lap and let's get out of here." Tharollin said and was surprised when Rae paid deaf ears to him.

Lucifer laughter brought Tharollin attention to him. "She won't obey you Tharollin." He said and to prove his point. "Rae my love, stand up." Rae stood up from his lap and Lucifer stood up to his feet. Walking towards Tharollin, stopping a few feet away from him.

"She can't obey you or do as you say unless I tell her."

"Then I will end your miserable life."

"You still do not get it don't you Tharollin." Lucifer said and made a knife in a dark smoke form appeared in his hands and with it he cut his other arm.

Rae clutch her arm and Tharollin eyes widened when he saw her arm bleeding from exactly where Lucifer had cut his own arm.

"If I am injured, Rae gets injured. If I bleed, she bleeds too. Whatever pain I go through, she goes through it. If I die, Rae dies too. So Tharollin before the game started, I have seen how it will end, now the bone or you watch your daughter bleed to her death."

Chapter 5

'THE FOUR HEAVENLY FOUNTAINS

Laugh, I tell you
And you will turn back
The hands of time.

Smile, I tell you
And you will reflect
The face of the divine.

Sing, I tell you
And all the angels will sing with you!

Cry, I tell you
And the reflections found in your pool of tears -
Will remind you of the lessons of today and yesterday
To guide you through the fears of tomorrow.'

♥♥♥♥ Raising Of The Fallen Angels (Part One) ♥♥♥♥♥

Tharollin didn't know what else to say again.

"The bone Tharollin or watch your daughter bleed to her death because It won't be the only cut if you don't agree to give me the bone." Lucifer said, using the knife to cut more of his arm and watches as more blood gushes out of Rae. "We are bonded like a mate Tharollin, her blood flows in me do not forget that."

"I will give you the bone if you will release my daughter from whatever spell or hold you have on her." Tharollin told him finally.

Lucifer smiled. "You know that's not possible Tharollin, first of all, give me the remaining bone and I will stop your daughter from bleeding." He said bringing the knife to rest on his other arm since the other one is still bleeding from the various cuts he had on him.

"One thing I know for sure is that you cannot kill my daughter Lucifer, you can injured her to make me succumb to you but you already forgotten that I am also darkness like you and I am not moved by this cunning act of yours." Tharollin pretending not to be concerned by his daughter's condition.

"You don't know me too well Tharollin." Lucifer said making the sword disappeared from his hand. "I made Rae killed her stupid mate with the sword I created to kill Tribid and most especially his stupid Pheonix bird. I can make Rae fight you and you won't do anything because she's your daughter. But I have other ideas." He added with a smirk and started whispering some spells, and his skin began to peel off painfully and fall to the ground. Rae skin also started peeling off and she screamed in pain and agony as she fall down to the ground rolling.

"You killed Jason?"

"I didn't, Rae did, and her stupid lover is dead forever. She pushed him off the cliff and that his idiotic friend of his jumped after him, they are both dead for all I know." Lucifer told him. "Should I remind you Tharollin that I won't be affected that much with the pains from this, but your daughter will suffer more if you don't do like I said." He added.

"You want to control her the way you and that stupid water foolish being of yours controlled me in the past? I won't allow that to happen." Tharollin said trying not to let his face showed how greatly he was affected by the painful scream of Rae.

"Oh, you've remember who you really are Tharollin or should I say Raphael?"

"Yes I have, so I won't dance around to your tune." Tharollin told him and then continues. "You should know that whatever spell you place on my daughter will weaned off like it did to me. So release my daughter from your evil hold and I will give you the remaining bone."

"I see that you are proving hard to get Raphael, but trust me, it won't be for long." Lucifer said. "You will watch and see how Rae destroy the whole supernaturals with her hands. Let me also remind you that the man who you know has your father, I killed him to rise my dead fallen angels. But to make them fully come alive, I will have to use someone blood who is powerful and closer to the Creator, you were once the messenger of the Creator and out of your seeds came Rae. I am going to use her blood to rise my angels and wage a war to the Creator. Imagine using her blood to rise more than thousands angels of mine each, she will die before it is done. Or, I can use the second way to make them come alive without shedding Rae's blood. The ball is now in your court Raphael, choose wisely." Lucifer said not minding his skin that was still peeling off.

"You won't do that to Rae because according to what you told me earlier, she is now your companion, so you won't allow her to die." Tharollin said.

"You got that all wrong. If I can kill my most trusted servant who had worked for me for many years, what made you think I cannot kill Rae?" Lucifer said. "You are still under my control Tharollin whether you like it or not." He added.

"Fine, stop the pain you are afflicting my daughter at once and I will give you the remaining bone." Tharollin finally said.

"Now you are talking." Lucifer said and immediately his skin stopped peeling off and so did Rae, her scream ceased immediately. "I have done as you've said, now the bone."

"You don't expect me to carry the last piece of the bones around, do you? The bone is not here, I will go back and bring it from where I kept it, then you free my daughter." Tharollin said and changed into his dark smoke and disperse quickly. He didn't wait to hear what Lucifer reply will be.

As soon as he disappeared, Lucifer quickly went over to Rae's fallen body on the ground and carried her with care in his arms.

"Sorry you have to pass through pains my love, I only did that so that your father can give me the last bone to set your lover free." He said sitting down and caressing Rae's arms tenderly. Rae only nodded her head weakly and it brought a smile to his lips. "I now realise why Tharollin didn't give Gai the complete bones, he remembers who he is and want to use the bone to control me, well, it is now the other way round." Lucifer soliloquy to himself. "Don't worry my love, you will rule beside me for eternity."

Somewhere in a Faraway place, inside an old looking abandoned house, Jasmine was seen removing the poison from Rosa. If she hasn't made her appearance and took the queen away, Rosa would have been a dead person by now. The poison has gotten almost into all her system and was shutting her down body one after the other, so she had fainted before she was saved.

Once she had removed the entire poison from her body, Rosa eyes opened weakly and look around her thinking she was dead. Her eyes moved to the silent figure moving around her and saw it was Jasmine.

"You saved me Jasmine." Rosa said slowly, she realized she couldn't move any part of her body only her head and eyes. It reminded her of the illness she had before she was healed by Rae. "Thank you."

"Don't say anything for now, you are still weak from the poison." Jasmine said going to meet her.

"Is everything okay? I mean is my son and everyone okay?"

"They are all fine and you will get to join them soon after you've rested well."

"Thank you Jasmine."

The need for air force them apart as Micheal and Selena tried to steady their breaths.

"Just because I allowed you to kiss me doesn't mean I have forgiven you and this should be the last time you will try to kiss me again." Selena warned, though she had missed his touch and everything about Micheal, she couldn't just forgive him yet.

"I know that Selena and I will try my best to see to it that I am forgiven." Michael said and release his hold on her, giving them some little space. "Even if it takes another 50,000 years more to convince you, i will do that Selena because the love I have for you is eternity." He added after a while of silence.

It wasn't long when Lydia, Roen, Lillian Avonmora and Sarah all returned looking fresh and beautiful and handsome with their new change of clothes.

"Did you take them to the sea?" Selena demanded as soon as she saw them.

"Nope, I took them home, you know apart from the sea, I do have another place I call home." Lydia answered.

"Oh, you took them to your husband's side, so fast?" Selena inquired.

"When you have a witch with you, everything you do will be fast. Lillian took us there and now here we are." Lydia answered.

"By the way has Tharollin return from where he went since we left?" Avonmora asked.

"No, he hasn't returned, probably what he went after is delaying hi-" Micheal stopped when he saw the dark smoke which changed back into Tharollin. "Oh and there he is Avonmora, he has returned."

"Where did you go? You just puff into your smoke and disappeared without telling us why." Avonmora said as she walked up to him, stopping once she was a few feet away from Tharollin.

"I went to see Lucifer, he has Rae."

"I told you Rae now work for him, he has compelled her to do his bidding." Lillian said.

"I was on my way to Roens palace when I decided to check on the cave my father dwells and I found a man who calls himself Lucifer and has Rae with him. When I told Rae to come, she didn't, she listened to the man and he is now, he is using my daughter to threatened me into giving him the bone." Tharollin revealed.

"What bone are you talking about?" Roen asked.

"You see the Gate of Darkness holds some of the bones of the fallen Angels. There was one particular Angel who wanted to overthrow the Creator before he was defeated by the Creator and he banished him and his angels that supported his rebellion. They fall down and the Creator messenger made a gate which caged them, and the gate as we now know is the Gate of Darkness. I don't know how they all died in there and that was when Lucifer came, he was one of the most trusted angels the Creator trusted and he uses that to his own advantage, and like the first Angel, he tried to overthrow the Creator and was defeated. He was then chained and his rebellious angels were sent out of heaven and their immortality was strip off them, they died too."

"And how does your story get connected to the question Roen asked you?" Lillian demanded.

"Because I went in there after ignoring my Mate to bring out the bones of the first Angel that wanted to take heaven out of the Gate and gave it to my father, though i didn't give him all the bones." Tharollin answered.

"You mean you gave Lucifer the bones?" Lydia asked. "Why?"

"Yes, I was promised they will unfreeze Avonmora, but not all the bones, I didn't give him all the whole bones, and maybe that's what freed him, I don't know. And now, he wants me to give him the bone I still have or Rae die." Tharollin replied.

"We can take him Tharollin, we can defeat him if we attack him together." Micheal suggested.

"He is connected with Rae, whatever pain you inflict on him, Rae will go through it. He said he will use Rae blood to wake up his fallen Angels if I do not bring him the bone, and she will die once she has shortage of blood in her." Tharollin explained.

"How did you come to know about all that? I mean the story you told us and about who the bones belongs too?" Avonmora asked, now isn't the right time to insult somebody.

"That's because i am not really a demon neither is my father Lucifer, I am an angel just like Micheal. My real name is Raphael, a messenger of the Creator, I was the one who had put the Gate of Darkness."

"Impossible." Roen said in shock.

"I was trapped by Lucifer like the way he is doing to Rae and he changed me into darkness which Rae got from me. But I got to remember my past once I came out of the Gate."

"And he has been trying to rectify his mistakes." Lydia chip in looking at Avonmora.

"Yes I have." Tharollin said. "Now we have to think of a plan to get Rae out of Lucifer grasp and face him before he rise up his fallen Angels." He added.

"Did you find out what happened to my son and his friend from him?" Roen asked.

"Yes and I am sorry to tell you this. Your son is dead and was pushed off the cliff together with his other redhaired friend." Tharollin finally broke the news. He doesn't want to tell them yet who had pushed them off the cliff.

"It cannot be. Jason can't die." Roen said trying to hold his tears from spilling. "He cannot die."

"What!!" Sarah shouted. "Jorkallun cannot die, he is a Dragon even Jason is a Phoenix so they won't die." Sarah added not believing Tharollin.

"That is what he told me, but we have to visit Roen palace to know if it's true or not." Tharollin said closing the space between him and Avonmora and grab hold of her hands. "The rest of you do know how to get to Roen palace, well we are out of here, see you all there." He added and leaned his head towards Avonmora, taking her by surprise when he kissed her, his dark smoke consumed them both and they disperse.

"Well Lillian, let's start going, I don't want to give Tharollin a breathing space to kiss my niece." Lydia said and the Witch created a portal which they all entered.

Aaron came out of his hiding place. He had come down to investigate things by himself to know when to attack when he saw Avonmora who somehow looks like Selena coming out with some people from a cave and they entered a portal which was made by one of them.

He decided to hang around a bit and wasn't disappointed when he saw them reappearing and entering the cave back.

He followed them silently and overheard their discussion.

Well, he has a plan.

Dragon Kingdom:

King Vermitrax wasn't himself. He has that feeling that something is wrong.

He hasn't heard a word from his son ever since he left with his chosen mate to the Supernaturals. Which is very unlikely of his son.

Something might have gone wrong and he needs to find out what exactly went wrong.

He is going to pay Roen a visit and if he finds out his son or mate has been hurt, then Roen and the entire Supernaturals will get prepared for war.

"I will be visiting Reon today, get prepared." Vermitrax told his general with him.

Dragons like staying on their own and hurting one of their own means war, war that no magic or spells or any stupid weapons can be use to hurt their Dragons scales.

Roen knows about it so he would think twice before hurting his son.

Chapter 6

'We come into this world and we are taught that life is a process of attainments. Or the collection of attainments. But I have since discovered that life is a process of rising above in the moments. The river wants to flow downhill or the wave wants to take you under; but you instead sit on a rock or surf the top of that wave. We essentially all have to be mermaids, every day, to live this life. There is a constant flow of water current: going up and going down. You go up to be happy.'

Roen's Palace:

Lolly stared at her father for a while and heaved out a sigh.

"You have to look for a way to make Lucas or Lucifer pay for stabbing us in our back. Moreover, he told me that you are fully aware of his plan to eliminate Jason, is that true father?" Lolly asked.

"I don't know what he is talking about Lolly, but believe me I will find a way to get back at him." Taloc told his daughter. He wouldn't have told her it was his plan with Lucifer to eliminate Jason out of the way so that he would remain the only Tribid. But with the sudden new attitude of Lucifer, he regret joining hands with him in the first place. "My major priority is to find Rosa who had strangely disappeared into thin air after the building collapses on her, find her and make her tell me the whereabouts of my Mate. If she has done something bad to Tamara, then she will die for sure." He added.

"How do you know Queen Rosa is not even dead father?" Lolly asked.

"We are somehow connected to each other. When she had cunningly took me to the same building years back to break my Soulmate connection I had with my first Mate, our soul has to be connected for the spell to work which she did. So I can feel her still breathing and hiding somewhere safe. I won't spare her if anything happen to your mother." Taloc replied his daughter. "I just need to focus more and know where she is hiding Tamara." He spoke after a while of silence.

"It is ok father, I believe mother is doing alright wherever she is right now, Queen Rosa won't hurt her like she did to your first Mate." Lolly said. "I have to go to the vampire palace to visit Dean and at least tell him what is happening." She chip in.

"Okay, be back soon dear while I concentrate more on my magic, hopefully by the time you will be back I might have an answer to the whereabouts of your mother." Taloc said to her.

"Don't over work yourself father, I am sure you will find her, see you in a few hours time." Lolly said and disappeared leaving her father alone.

Without much of a time, Taloc entered the dungeon where Roen and Lillian were kept with the help of the Amazon Warriors who knows the way to the dungeon. He got there and was shocked to his bone marrow when he couldn't find Roen or Lillian.

He checked all the whole cells in the dungeon but couldn't find them, the wolf guards are the only ones in the cells.

"Where is your King!!?" Taloc demanded but none of them could talk.

"Are you sure this is where you brought Roen?" Taloc asked the Amazon Warriors with him.

"Yes Sire, we brought him and the Witch here."

The Witch...

Does it mean the Witch wasn't affected by the poison and only pretend to be in their presence?

Taloc thought hard and left the dungeon going to the palace to think.

Jorkallun Journey:

CHALLENGE NUMBER 2:

Jorkallun continued his walk after the bridge experience and wondered what lay ahead of him. He hopes to overcome the temptations and get to the crystal cave in time and save his friend.

Having walked some distance away from the bridge, he stopped when he saw two path ahead of him. One was made of gold and the other one was made of dirt. The one made of gold was by his right and the other dirty road was by his left. He became confused as he didn't know which of the road he will take.

He was surprised when he saw the same dwarf man who he had encountered in the bridge walking towards him from the right road which was made of gold. The only difference between him and the dwarf he met earlier is their clothes.

"You again!" Jorkallun exclaimed out in shock.

"What happened to me again boy?" The dwarf man asked stopping at the Jorkallun front.

"I just met you in the bridge before crossing and now you are here." Jorkallun explained his reasons for his shock.

"Oh you met my twin brother and not me." The dwarf man said. "I know where you are heading too and I can show you the fastest way to the crystal cave, one of the paths is fast." He said after a while.

"You mean to say one of this road will lead me to the crystal cave faster?" Jorkallun asked.

"Yes. The road I just came out from is the fastest way to reach the crystal cave while the other one leads to nowhere at all. In fact look behind me and look ahead, you will see the crystal cave that you are searching for." The dwarf man said pointing behind him and Jorkallun looked behind him and saw at a far greater distance a cave made out of crystals staring back at him.

"Is that the crystal cave?" He asks in awe as he stated at it.

"Yes it is. If I were you I'd hurry up with this way because in your world there is a raging war going between the good and the bad and as we speak, evil is winning right now." The dwarf man told him.

"You know why I came here?" Jorkallun asked surprised.

"Of course, you are here to save your friends life and plant your crystals in the crystal cave, right?" The dwarf man asked and at Jorkallun nod he continues. "Then you better hurry up with the fastest way to the crystal cave and get out of this world of mine. Remember, you and that friend you want to save are needed in your world right now." He added.

Jorkallun started off the path made of gold and stopped when he remembers his mother's advice which suddenly came to him.

"Always remember Jorkallun, in life things aren't what they seemed, sometimes allow your heart to make a choice for you instead of your head, you should know that your grief path is yours alone to walk, and no one else can walk it, and no one else can understand it except you. Always choose the right path to follow my son."

He stopped and faces the dwarf man. "Thanks for your concern but you don't have to choose the path for me. I can do that myself." Jorkallun said looking once again at the two path and decided to follow the dirty one. "I am taking the other path and I will find the crystal cave no matter how long it takes me. I was told by the Shi that each door leads to the same destination I am heading too, I believe I will find the crystal cave." He said with determination and without a pause walked straight to the dirt road.

He hasn't walked that much when he saw the dirt road changing and right before his very eyes, the path became clean, very clean and he turned his face to the other road and see it covered with dirt.

"You've pass this trial jorkallun, I wish you more strength for your next trial and hope you overcome it also." The dwarf man said and disappeared.

Jorkallun continued his journey. The path ended in a forest and he entered the forest.

The forest made a path for him to continue his journey which he did.

He hasn't gone that far into the forest when he heard the scream of a lady running towards him, behind her are many warriors chasing her.

"Please save me from them." She said once she reached his side and hide behind jorkallun back.

*****

Lolly appeared inside the palace of King Darin.

King Darin was discussing with his guards when Lolly appeared, he stopped his discussion and waited until Lolly who walked towards him was in front of him before speaking.

"Lolly, what a surprise visit, it's been long you paid us a visit." King Darin said smiling though his smile wasn't reaching his eyes. "How is your father, Alf?"

"He is doing fine my King, I came here to see Dean." Lolly replied.

"Oh that's nice. I thought he wasn't your friend anymore since his mind and every thought of his is set on getting a certain girl has his." King Darin said. "Anyway, he is still in his room, you still remember his chamber right Lolly?"

"Of course my King, I cannot forget that in a hurry." Lolly responded.

"Okay, you can go and meet him. I was discussing with my guards before you came."

"Thank you my King." Lolly thanked and quickly walked towards the direction of Dean's room using the memories of the dead Lolly to locate Dean's chamber.

She stopped at his chamber and wanted to knock when the door suddenly opened and instead knocked on his forehead.

"Aww." Dean said touching his forehead.

"Sorry, I didn't know you will open the door Dean." Lolly apologize and take a good look at Dean who wasn't wearing any shirt and looks strangely more handsome to her. She just couldn't take her eyes off his chest.

"You know a Vampire has super hearing, I heard you and my father discussing and heard you coming but anyway, it's okay, no need to apologize." Dean said with a wave of his hand and gesture Lolly in.

Taking her eyes off his hot body with difficulties, Lolly entered his room. He locked the door.

"So is it just me or are just getting handsome everyday since the last time we saw and more muscular." Lolly said with a genuine smile turning to face him.

"And you look more beautiful lately Lolly." Dean said returning her smile with one of his own.

"Yeah I know, Jason do say that to me whenever he is in a good mood." Lolly said and Dean smile shrink quickly at the mention of Jason.

"So what brought you to my home Lolly?" Dean asked ignoring the sudden jealous he had when Lolly mentioned Jason's name sweetly.

Seriously, why will he feel jealous as Lolly mentioned Jason's name? He doesn't understand his feelings, he probably felt jealous because he knows Jason will be with his Rae right now.

"A lot of things Dean, first of all, we attacked King Roen and his family. My father and Lucifer planned to destroy King Roen kingdom, somehow he managed to get Rae into poisoning King Roen and his family." Lolly told him.

"Hold on, Rae poisoned King Roen and his family including Jason?" Dean asked.

"Yes but they were not the only one."

"How do you mean?"

"I mean, the Witch Queen, Sarah and Jorkallun was also there. They were all poisoned through the wine they drank from."

"Where are they right now?"

"King Roen and the Witch Queen are in the dungeon now, I ordered Sarah to be beheaded for insulting my mother who my father went in search of. Then Lucifer made us to disappear and appear in a cliff where he told Rae to kill Jason and pushed him off the Cliff, Jorkallun jumped after him. Jason is dead for sure because Rae struck his heart multiple times, but I don't know about Jorkallun, he might be dead because of the poison. It weakens their powers and slowly allow them to die." Lolly finished narrating her story.

"Hmmm, this is getting serious. What about Rae?" Dean asked.

"She left with Lucifer or Lucas as that is his other name after that."

He was glad that Jason is dead, now Lolly won't have to be talking about him.

"Something doesn't feel right, why will he take Rae with him when he fully knows I am interested in her and why will he kill Jason when he knows you love him?" Dean asked not getting the whole thing.

"I don't know the answer Dean, that is why I am here." Lolly answered. "Why will he order Rae to kill Jason is what I don't understand." She added almost in tears.

"Come here." Dean said opening his arms wide for Lolly to come into it.

Lolly walked right into his arms which encircled her firmly. Being in his arms feels right, she didn't know when she put her arms around him, breathing in his scent silent. She wanted him to hold her in his arms forever but she knows it is impossible, he loves Rae and she loves Jason.

Feeling her arms around him, Dean wanted to kiss away her sadness away but couldn't. He was in love with Rae and not Lolly, why these suddenly strange feelings he is having for Lolly? She had planned to kill him after all this are over when he overheard her discussion with Tamara. Why would he be having this strange feelings for a girl who planned to kill him once everything is over? Maybe he was overreacting.

But he couldn't deny the fact that her body fit his body perfectly, her scent, which smell like a rose flower that filled his nostrils aroused him a little and he moves back from her, breaking their hugs, before she would notice his sudden hard length. Thanking his stars he wasn't wearing his tight jeans.

"Don't worry Lolly, everything will be fine." He said trying not to look at Lolly body but failed woefully at that. Even though she is using the dead body of his friend she killed, at least she added some beauty and killer curves to the body.

"Thank you Dean." Lolly said not seeing the look Dean was given to her body as she was staring elsewhere. "By the way, where is your mother?"

"She traveled." Dean answered finally taking his eyes off the body of Lolly before he was caught.

He now understand the meaning of the strange feelings he is having lately when it comes to Lolly.

He has fallen in love with Lolly.

This is bad.

He thought as he tried to fight off that stupid sudden feelings he felt for Lolly.

Very bad.

Chapter 7

'Sometimes the things we do second time around are better and hold more value because we take the time to reflect and review, and revive them through a higher love. Don't be afraid to try again and do-over with greater wisdom, a fresh set of eyes, and a renewed hope. Life is not a straight line of first time successes. It's the road that is paved with failure and seemingly wrong turns that provides us with character, emotional grit and inner muscle to find new perspectives. The only expiry date to your dreams, intentions or goals is the one you allow to soak into your soul.'

♥♥♥♥ RISE OF THE FALLEN ANGELS (Part Three) ♥♥♥♥

"What's wrong Dean?" Lolly asked when she saw him withdrawing from her.

"Nothing, just thinking about how Lucas possess my Rae." Dean lied, he wasn't having any possessive feelings again towards Rae. It just change all of a sudden.

What is really going on with him? Is the universe trying to play tricks on him?

"Don't worry, my father will find a way to get Rae out of his grasp so that you can be with her as planned." Lolly said even though it pained her to say those words.

She was getting confused herself. Why is she suddenly feeling jealous of Rae all of a sudden? It felt like she belongs to Dean and want the vampire Prince to look at her the way he had stared at Rae on the night of the full moon. She wished with all of her heart for Dean to admire her the way he did with Rae. Jason is important to her and so is Dean all of a sudden.

Something is definitely going wrong somewhere and she will have to tell her father this sudden feelings she is developing for Dean.

"I hope he does because I am no longer understanding myself or feelings again." Dean didn't know when he said that out.

"I have to be going now. There are some things I need to discuss with my father." Lolly said.

"Okay, should I escort you out or will you do that your disappearing of a thing?" Dean said trying to sound funny.

Lolly smiled at that. "Don't worry, I will take my leave from here, send your father my regards. See you soon Dean." Lolly said still smiling.

"Hold on for a second Lolly, I want to ask if you really have your own body or you don't have, right?"

"I do have my own skin Dean, when all this is over, you will get to see me in my real skin." Lolly replied and vanished.

Dean didn't know why he doesn't want her to leave, he needs her to stay by his side forever.

Gosh!!! He wonders how he now have a soft spot for Lolly and not on Rae.

Roen Palace:

Tharollin appears outside the gate of the palace still kissing Avonmora.

He wasn't expecting the hot slap which break off their kiss as he stared with wide open eyes at Avonmora.

"Don't you ever, ever kiss me without my permission halfwit." Avonmora bellowed in anger.

Rubbing his cheeks slightly he asked, "Ouch, when did you start slapping someone? Me?"

"When I opened my eyes. I made a vow in my heart before I was frozen to make the rest of your life miserable if eventually I am freed." Avonmora replied. "This should be the first and the last time you will try such a thing with me, am I understood poop?"

"Yes ma'am, can we now enter the palace or should I go and take excuse inside?" Tharollin asked mockery.

"Lead the way bozo." Avonmora said.

Tharollin entered the palace compound first and walked a little pace forward before stopping and waiting for Avonmora to come and meet him, which she did.

They noticed some Amazon warrior's in various parts of the palace standing, though they didn't made any attempt to attack them. They stood as if they were waiting for an order.

Avonmora looked around her in awe. "A lot has changed since a thousand years. Look at how big Roens palace is." She said in admiration.

"Yeah, I was also surprised when I saw the changes, not only have they improved the houses around, they have built a school in each kingdom and also build the biggest school every Supernaturals goes too." Tharollin told her.

"Wow is all I can say, sadly I did not witness the changes." Avonmora said In a sad tone.

"You know I am sorry for what I did to you in the past." Tharollin started to say, "I am so sorry Avonmora I wish I could go back to the past and redo what I did to you. I wasn't myself when I did that. Once I came out of the gate and remembered who I am, I had to find a way to unfreeze you since the darkness in me wouldn't allow my light to shine, your father did and I-"

"Tharollin." Avonmora said stopping him from proceeding. "I am trying to forgive you which I am finding it difficult too. I can only forgive you if my daughter is here with me." She told him as they walked further into the palace.

"If that will make you forgive me, then I promise you no harm shall come to our daughter. I shall bring Rae to you safe and sound." Tharollin promised.

At that moment, they spotted a green haired man walking along the empty.

"That face, I know him. Is that not...." Avonmora started saying when Tharollin interrupt her.

"He has the same scent Lolly has when I fought her." Tharollin said to Avonmora and yelled out his next words. "Hey goofus!!!"

Taloc after leaving the dungeon was on his way to the throne room when he heard the shout of someone and that made him stop, at that moment a portal appears in front of him, blocking him.

Stepping out of the portal are Lillian, Roen, Sarah, Lydia, Micheal and finally Selena.

Taloc looked surprised when he saw them, though he doesn't seem afraid of them. He crossed his arms staring at them. He could take all of them down if they plan to attack him. He wasn't in the mood to interrogate Lillian and Roen on how they were able to remove their poison, his focus is to find Tamara.

Tharollin and Avonmora quickly went over to meet the rest.

"I knew it. I said I know this face, you are the only one who has green hair and I can't forget such a handsome face in a hurry." Avonmora said once she fully saw the face of the man.

Taloc eyes went wide in shock as he saw Avonmora. "This is unbelievable, Avonmora is that you?" He asked confusing the people in his presence.

Did he know Avonmora before?

Are the thoughts of everyone.

"No it's my look alike imbecile, of course it's me Taloc." Avonmora said.

"I am so glad to see you again after a long time." Taloc said going to give her a hug and hug Tharollin instead who came in between them.

"She is glad to meet you too." Tharollin said and pushed Taloc back, hard.

"Avonmora, be careful of him, he is the one who planned with Lucifer and they got Rae." Roen voice was heard.

The smile on Avonmora face was suddenly gone. "Nyaff, you made him hurt my daughter after I helped you in the past? Is this the repayment you promised you would do to me one day?"

"How would I know she is your daughter? I am sorry I have to idea she is your daughter Avonmora." Taloc apologize.

"You know him Avonmora?" Selena asked.

"I know him mother, I once healed this green galoot of his wounds before we part ways." Avonmora answer.

"After we part our ways, I became a killing beast and killed a lot of people. My heart turned cold. I am sorry I hurt you Avonmora, believe me I have no atom of idea she is your daughter, I wouldn't have hurt her or think about hurting her if I know she comes from you." Taloc told Avonmora focusing on her.

"And I am her father," Tharollin chip in. "We are here for you so you had better undo your own part of spell you had place on my daughter Rae." He added.

"I have no hand in Rae, I only supported Lucifer." Talk said.

"And what about my son?" Roen asked.

"He is dead, Lucifer killed him." Taloc answered.

A huge red dragon landed in front of them.

Jorkallun Journey

CHALLENGE NUMBER 3

He drew his sword out of its sheath and waited for them to get to him.

The men running towards him surrounded him, some were holding swords, others axe, spear etc.

"Little boy, give me the girl behind you right this minute." One of them who looks like the leader shouted.

"She ran up to me for help, if you are man enough, come get her yourself." Jorkallun told the man.

"You dare challenge me? No one dares to challenge me and go Scot free." He thundered. "I will teach you today not to meddle with the affairs of people, that is if you still live. Attack him!!!!" He yelled the last two statements and his men rushed at Jorkallun at once.

With his dragon strength, he grabbed hold of the girl hands and throw her in the air and was in time to stop the sword of one of the men from touching his face.

He fought them and before the girl would fall back to his arms, he had killed almost half of the men. He throws the girl once more in the air and continue his fight them. He caught her in his arms and pointed his sword at the remaining 5, excluding the leader, "if you don't want to be like your befallen brothers or friends or whatever, you had better leave here right now." He said.

"Let's go." The leader told his men remaining. "This is not the end, we shall meet again and this time I will have no mercy on you." He added and they left them.

Putting the girl down to her feet. "Are you alright?" He asked the beautiful girl in concern.

"Yes I am, thank you for saving me." The girl said.

Putting his sword back to it's sheath, "Where are you heading too?"

"I was going home when I was ambushed by them." She replied.

"Are you living in this forest and what's your name?"

"Yes, I live in this forest, it's my home and my name is Erica." The girl answered. "And you, what are you doing here?"

"I am on a mission." Jorkallun answered her. "Come on let me escort you to your house."

"You are kind hearted." She said and they started walking. "You are a very handsome young man who can have as many girls as he wants, am I right?" She asked.

Jorkallun laughed. "Actually I am not that type. I only have someone who is my mate and I love her to the core." He answered.

Erica only nodded her head and they walked in silence for a while. "Stay with me and I shall grant you your wildest desires. You seek for the crystal cave, i will take you to it if you will stay with me forever." She said all of a sudden.

"How did you know about my quest?" Jorkallun asked becoming alert.

"I know a lot of things. Do you accept to be mine?"

"Didn't you hear what i said before? I have someone who I love and cherish and she is waiting for me."

"She is dead and has gone to the spirit world." Erica said.

"If she has gone to the spirit world, once I plant the crystals the Shi will help me revive her."

"Then I will force you to stay. I am the goddess of this forest and whatever I want, I get." Erica said and stand in front of him. "I want you Jorkallun and you will do as I have said."

"Like I told you before Erica. I am on a mission. Now please excuse yourself from my way, I still have a long way to go."

"You are not going anywhere." Erica said and her beautiful face twisted all of a suddenly and soon she was a huge leaf, covering the part of Jorkallun. "This is the only path you have to follow and I am blocking it. Now you have nowhere to go."

"Who told you that?" Jorkallun said and transformed into his Dragon and quickly spit out his fire on the leafs before he flew higher ignoring the screams coming from the leaf, he flew ahead, following the path.

*****

"Your father doesn't seem like he is coming." Lucifer said getting up to his feet with care since he was carrying Rae. "We have to go somewhere, my beautiful Rae." He said and vanished immediately.

He appeared in the same tree, he had sacrifice Gar and gently drop Rae to her feet.

"This will hurt you a little my Rae." He said and slit her arm painfully, using magic to make her blood float in the air so it won't touch the ground before it floats to the tree, touching it.

He caress the wound on her arms and it closes.

He turned towards the tree and lift up his hands to the air.

Lucifer began singing.

It was time to rise his Angels.

Reon's Palace:

The presence of Vermitrax came as a surprise to Roen and he wondered if the Dragon King has been told what had happened.

Transforming back to his human form, he walked towards them, ignoring everyone as his eyes were only focus on Roen.

"Where is my son?"

"That is what we are trying to find out from him. He also has my son." Roen responded pointing at Taloc.

Vermitrax turned to look at the green haired man whose face looked familiar to me..... suddenly he remembered him. "Taloc, what are you doing here? Don't answer that, where is my son? Reon said you are holding him, the one with red hair like mine."

Taloc mouth was open in shock. "I have no idea he is your son."

He is in trouble.

"What do you mean by that?" Vermitrax demanded.

"My father had no idea that Jorkallun is your son." Lolly replied. She has appeared at the same time Vermitrax landed, none of them noticed her presence except Tharollin.

"Lolly, I have no idea Taloc is your father, I thought you are the daughter of Alf?" Vermitrax said staring at the girl who had broken his son's heart once.

"That's not Lolly, she killed the real one and wore the skin of King Alf daughter, posing as the Amazon Warrior daughter." Sarah answered and Taloc eyes landed on her. He remembered what she said before she was taken away, he wanted to ask her if she has any idea where Rosa might have kept Tamara when Tharollin sudden loud grasp brought everyone's attention to him.

"What is it Tharollin?" Micheal asked.

"Look at the sky." Tharollin said pointing at the sky which they all did.

The clouds was getting darker as the sun slowly started changing into darkness.

"Oh no." Tharollin said after a while. "I Have to go somewhere."

"Where do you want to go?" Avonmora asked.

"To see if I can close the Gate of Darkness." Tharollin answered.

"And why is that?" Vermitrax asked.

"Lucifer, Lucifer is rising his fallen Angels and those in the Gate of Darkness. Now I understand why he needed his bones."

Chapter 8

'Feeling guilt dims our light. Instead of dimming our light to make others feel more comfortable, we could just continue to shine and foster the rise of the vibrations of those around us. Being Happy and Feeling Good does not mean you have no compassion for the misery of those around you. It simply means you won't dim your light to make them feel comfortable – instead, you're going to help light the way. At first, your light may be a bit too bright for others and it may hurt their eyes, yet it's far better to shine rather than to hide your light. When you hide your light for too long, it extinguishes and you slip right back into darkness...unable to find your way until someone 'shiny' comes along to light your way and help you to find the light you still possess within, your Soul's Magnificence.'

♥♥♥♥ JORKALLUN JOURNEY AND JASON AWAKENING (Part One) ♥♥♥♥

"I don't understand you Tharollin what do you mean by that?" Vermitrax asked.

"You won't for now but I have to get to the Gate right now." Tharollin replied and quickly change into his dark smoke and disperse immediately.

"Are we going to leave him to close the Gate by himself?" Lydia asked out of the blue.

"No, I am going after him to help him and close the Gate, you can tag along if you want to help." Lillian said and made a portal opened without wasting much time, she stepped into it.

"I am going but this isn't over yet Taloc." Avonmora said and entered the portal.

"I am following my daughter." Selena said and entered the portal. Micheal follow suit.

"Wherever my sister go, my daughter and I follow." Lydia said entering the portal and Sarah entered too.

Roen entered without speaking a word.

It remain Vermitrax and Taloc with Lolly.

"I know you don't fear me and you know I don't fear you Taloc, let nothing happen to my son. We will get back to this after the Gate has been shut and I hope you will do the needful and release my son." Vermitrax said with clenched teeth, his mouth wasn't moving when he spoke. He quickly changed into his red Dragon and flew away towards the direction of the Gate of Darkness.

The portal closes.

"Are you going to tell them the truth or you will fight them?" Lolly asked staring at the empty space Lillian and co stood before.

"I can't fight them all, I will have to tell Vermitrax the truth that his son is dead." Taloc answered.

"His son jumped off the cliff after Jason who was stabbed three times to his heart. If he survive the fall, then the poison will kill him. Are you scared of them father?" Lolly asked.

"No, I am not. Your mother isn't found yet and Roen or Sarah seem to know the whereabouts of Tamara. I have to work with them for now until everything is settled, one thing I know is that Lucifer has to be stopped." Taloc responded.

"Then we are going to help them to lock the Gate isn't it?" Lolly demanded.

"Yes, at least by joining them they will understand that I meant no harm and will help them to fight as long as they return my Mate to me." Taloc replied.

"Then let's go and help them father, for Rae sake, we have to stop Lucifer." Lolly said surprising her father.

"When did you start having soft spot on Rae? Or are you doing this for her to get her out from Lucifer clutching and you either kill her or give her to that Vampire friend of yours?"

"That Vampire has a name father and for having a soft spot on Rae, aren't you also having a soft spot on Tharollin and the rest? I take over where you stop."

"Well I have my reasons, and that is to have them released your mother but i am sure you don't have any reason for wanting to help Rae, as far as I know, she is your best enemy." Taloc said locking eyes with his daughter.

"You are right father. I think I also have a reason, I feel sad for Rae when she comes to know that she killed Jason when she was being controlled by the devil." Lolly told Taloc.

"For some reason I believe that is not the entire truth, there is something more." Taloc said.

"You are right father, I think I might be having an attraction towards Dean. I find myself getting jealous at the slightest mention of Rae's name. I suddenly crave for him and want him to look at me the way he did to Rae. And the worst part of all these I think he doesn't feel the same way I do. I don't know why I suddenly feel such way towards him." Lolly finally open up.

"We will discuss that later once we are back from the Gate of Darkness. Let's go." Taloc said and grab hold of her hands into his and they both disappeared.

****

Lucifer continue to sing as his voice raise higher and higher. He left the ground and stayed mid-air still singing, he levitate Rae into the air and both of them stayed mid-air as his voice got louder. The ground beneath them open into two and the skeletons of his fallen Angels begin to come out of the ground. They surrounded them.

His dark eyeballs turned darker together with his sclera, and he slowly made Rae move towards him, taking her other arm he hasn't cut yet, he sliced open her arm and Rae blood begins to flow, dropping to the ground which was still open.

It was more hurtful this time as he cut deeper into her arm and Rae cried out of pains.

Having taken enough blood from her wounded arm, like he did to the other one. He caress it and the deep cut closed.

"So sorry my love, it wasn't my intention to hurt you or your beautiful skin." Lucifer said hugging Rae his eyes going back to normal and the open ground beneath them closes.

He made their feet touched the ground. Removing his arms around Rae, he peck her forehead ignoring the intense pain on his lips. Once his fallen angels have risen, his next mission is to find a way to break the bond that still hold Rae and her dead Mate.

He turned to look at his fallen Angels floating in the air.

He waited.

Another set of skeletons are seen joining the ones in the air.

Lucifer smiled and raised his hands up once more and opened his mouth. Instead of singing, he began saying some incantations.

****

Gate of Darkness:

Tharollin smoke appeared and quickly formed into his body. He saw some skeletons flying out and heading somewhere in the little space left before the Gate of Darkness. They were moving so fast.

Tharollin tried to close the Gate and prevent the remaining skeletons inside the Gate of Darkness from coming out.

The Gate refuse to bulge. Tharollin tried harder to close it but couldn't.

What will he do to close the gate of Darkness?

He thought. At that moment, a portal opened and Lillian and the others came out of the portal, it closes.

Vermitrax dragon was seen flying in the air and trying to use his dragon fire to burn some of the skeletons he saw. But the Dragon fire couldn't burn the skeletons, they were immune to fire.

He landed beside them and transform back to his body.

"Something is protecting them from my fire. Which means it will be impossible to kill them." He said once he was human.

"Let's first of all find a way in closing the Gate of Darkness before we think about the fallen angels." Tharollin said thinking hard.

Lillian tried using her magic to close the Gate, but it didn't close.

"It's harder than we think." Lillian said as she stopped using her magic on the Gate. She realized that the Gate of Darkness was draining her magic away. So she stopped. "It also drain one's magic too."

"What are we going to do then?" Lydia asked wishing she was a Witch like Lillian.

"Probably if Rosa was here with us, she would have found a way to close down the Gate since she is a druid." Lillian said staring at the skeletons freeing coming out of the Gate and flying to an unknown destination.

"But you were the one who had opened the Gate a thousand years ago, why can't you close it now?" Avonmora asked. "Find a way to close it Tharollin." She said.

"It's hard Avonmora. You must know that I wasn't the one who had close the gate to this level. It was Tamara who had done that. She was supposed to close the Gate completely but left part of it opened in order to deceive Roen and the rest of the Kings and Queens." Tharollin answered.

"So what are we going to do? The skeletons keep coming out very fast." Selena said.

Taloc and his daughter appeared in front of them.

"What are you doing here? Haven't you done enough?" Roen bellowed in anger.

"I am here to help Roen, whether you believe that or not." Taloc reply and turn his gaze at the Gate. "Now I understand what you mean by your words back then Tharollin." He added after a while.

"Don't call my name." Tharollin bawl.

"Easy, we don't have to cause unnecessary drama here. I sincerely want to help. Once everything is settled then we can go back to be enemy or whatever it is we are." Taloc said. "If not for anything, I am doing it for Avonmora and Vermitrax who I own a sincere apology." He added.

"...."

"Let's forget about this inspiration speech for now and focus on closing the Gate." Avonmora said cutting off whatever Tharollin wanted to say.

"Fine, but just know my eyes are on you." Tharollin huff out and focus on the Gate. Pushing it once more to close it, all his efforts proved abortive.

"Maybe I can try to hold the skeletons from coming out and you all will find a way to shut it." Taloc said going stand beside Tharollin and immediately started saying some strong spells. The skeletons trying to come out from the Gate all stopped as if something was holding them. They were moving their bones trying to release from the hold.

Lillian was surprised when she saw Taloc stopping the skeletons.

"You have to close the Gate fast, Lucifer will realize that they aren't coming and will try a higher spell, I can't hold them for long." Taloc yelled out the words.

****

Lucifer who was still chanting couldn't see any of the new skeletons coming again. Squeezing his eyes shut, he saw what was delaying the skeletons.

"Hmm Taloc, you don't know who you are dealing with." Lucifer said opening his eyes and slice one of his arm. His dark blood flow freely from his arms as they didn't touch the ground, rather they encircle the whole skeletons still in mid-air. Once his blood has encircle them, his cut close and he began chanting and broke into a song.

'Let me see how Taloc will stop that.'

Lucifer thought as his voice raised higher.

Gate of Darkness:

Taloc could feel the pressure of the skeletons as they suddenly became aggressive and started thrashing themselves against the invisible hold on them. "I can't hold them for long, I am losing my grip." Taloc said.

Suddenly an idea came to Tharollin.

"I think I know how to close the Gate." He announced with a smile.

Avonmora hit him hard on his back of his head and said. "You have this idea and didn't say anything since Tharollin."

"Well the idea just came to me now." Tharollin defended himself.

"So what's the idea Tharollin, say it fast." Lillian said.

"Michael come stand next to me." Tharollin ordered and Micheal came and stood next to him and Taloc.

"What's next?" Micheal demanded.

"I remember I once closed it with my light back then when I wasn't covered in darkness. And i opened it a thousand years ago with Darkness, I think the only way to close it is through a light from the Creator, and since you still have your light, you can do it. So close the gate with your light Micheal." Tharollin explained to the Angel. "Hopefully it will work." He added.

"And what should i do, should I continue holding them off?" Taloc asked.

"Release your hold on them and Micheal use your light quickly to prevent them from coming out." Tharollin responded.

Taloc quickly release his hold on the skeletons and many came out of the gate moving with full speed as if they heard their discussion.

Micheal quickly allowed his wings to come out and spread them wide. Tharollin and Taloc moved back so they won't get hit by the wings which seemed to grow longer and larger.

Michael whole body engulfed in a bright shining light. He shone so brightly that they thought he was the sun himself. He placed his two hands on the Gate.

"In the name of the Creator who created the universe, I command you to close and be sealed forever." Micheal commanded and the Gate obeyed him.

It closed on the remaining skeletons trying to come out, sealing the Gate forever.

Jorkallun Journey:

CHALLENGE NUMBER FOUR;

He flew ahead until he saw a huge sea ahead of him. When he got nearer to the sea, he tried to fly over it but was prevented by an invisible wall. He tried again but couldn't, he landed on the bank of the Sea and transformed back to his body.

Using his legs to see if he could touch the water but what happened in the air happened again.

Something was preventing him from passing the sea.

A beautiful lady appeared to him. She was backing the Sea as she was standing at the place the invisible barrier wouldn't let him stand.

"You wish to cross over don't you?" She asked in a whisper.

"Yes I do my lady." Jorkallun answered her.

"To pass the Sea, you will have to answer five riddles and if you get them correctly, I will allow you to pass but if you don't, you shall live with me in the Sea as my husband." The lady said. "Are you ready."

Breathing out slowly. "Ask your riddles my lady."

"I speak without a mouth and hear without ears. I have no body, but I come alive with the wind. What am I?" She asked her first riddles.

Jorkallun think and smiled. "An echo."

The lady face changed into a little frown as some part of the Sea divided by itself.

"Echo is the correct answer. My second riddle will be harder than the first."

"I am all ears."

"You measure my life in hours and I serve you by expiring. I'm quick when I'm thin and slow when I'm fat. The wind is my enemy. What am I?"

Scratching his forehead as he tried to come up with a correct answer. "A- a Candle."

The Sea divided the more once again. The frown continue to grow on the lady face.

Jorkallun smiled as he saw the sea dividing the more. It seem it only divide once you get the right answer.

"Correct." She said. "Only one color, but not one size, Stuck at the bottom, yet easily flies. Present in sun, but not in rain, Doing no harm, and feeling no pain. What is it?"

Jorkallun snorted out a little. "It's a Shadow." And smile when the Sea opened the more.

"How do you manage to get the answers?"

"Am a dragon and Dragons are the wisest creatures. Have you no more riddle again?"

"Do not gloat yet dragon boy." She said. "It can't be seen, can't be felt, can't be heard and can't be smelled. It lies behind stars and under hills, and empty holes it fills. It comes first and follows after, ends life and kills laughter. What is it?"

"I thought your next riddle will be hard not this simple. The answer is the Dark." Jorkallun answered with a smile which widens more when the Sea moved. He could see the other side where the Sea end, just one more riddle and the Sea will be completely divided.

"My last riddle. Look at me. I can bring a smile to your face, a tear to your eye, or even a thought to your mind. But, I can't be seen. What am I?"

"Memories."

"Hmmm, you've gotten all the answers correctly, you are the first person who would solve my riddles, you may pass." The lady said and disappeared.

Jorkallun entered the dry land as the sea became walls to him as he walked across.

*****

Lucifer stopped singing as he had felt what happened.

The sky seemed to be covered with skeletons as the ones which came entered the circle of his blood.

"It is time." He said and turned to face Rae. "I will need your blood once again my Rae, sorry I have hurt you enough my love." He said and cut her arm once again, he made her blood to meet with his in the air and closed the cut.

Lucifer started speaking some strange language and his blood that was mixed with Rae, entered the whole skeletons.

The skeletons eyes which showed nothing before started showing black. They are alive. Their wings made of bones spurt out from their backs.

One of the skeletons came down to meet Lucifer.

Kneeling down. "He is not here with us."

"Yes, his bones are not yet complete. But do not worry, you will not be needing him anymore, because I am now your new master."

Chapter 9

'Let today be a great day for you & your beloved ones. Let you rise knowing you are so effective, genuine, positive, immaculate, impeccable, energetic & meaningful. Let your each resolve, thought, action & reaction reflect what you truly are, far far more than what you & others think that you are. Let the goodness that you have always spread comes back to you on this day & every day. Let wherever you go & whatever you attempt to do be successful beyond your expectations. Let your day bring lot of light, joy, laughter & unexpected miracles for you. Stay Being Your Awesome Self!'

♥♥♥♥ JORKALLUN JOURNEY AND JASON AWAKENING (Part Two) ♥♥♥♥

"But that wasn't what you and him planned before you sent that man to retrieve his bones. Do you know that we have to pretend that we are fighting him for the bones in order for him to believe it?" The skeleton with him demanded.

"You don't question my orders here. You are only alive inside the gate of Darkness and I was able to make you all alive outside the Gate. Can your old master do that?" Lucifer asked.

"No, he can not." The skeleton answered truthfully. "But still yet, a promise is a promise."

"Then I have failed to keep the promise. I don't promise someone something and fulfilled it later on, no it has never been in my gene before and it won't start now." Lucifer said. "Besides, his bones are inside my pit together with the fool I and my dear dead servant brainwashed, and to think he was one of the gods irks me. Going to get it will bring me back inside the pit which I won't even try to do. Look at my neck closely and see the remaining chains bind to me, the bones are not complete because the fool fooled I and Gar, but do not worry, once I am fully released, I will bring your master to life just like the way I did to you and your brethren." Lucifer finished his long talk knowing that he wouldn't even think about bringing their master back to life.

"Okay, what about the rest of us who are still inside the Gate?"

"Forget about them for they won't be coming out of the gate for a long time. For now, I still have some unfinished business with the whole supernaturals."

"We attack them?"

"Yes, then we kill them and destroy the whole kingdoms, after that, we wage a war to heaven. We are going to finish what we started many millions of years ago." Lucifer answered with a smile. "Follow me and my new bride." He added, carrying Rae in a bride style and levitating himself, he started moving forward towards the Cave he occupied. The skeletons were behind him.

Now that he has risen them, his next job is to break the bond between Rae and her dead lover.

*****

Gate Of Darkness:

"Finally the gate has been closed at last, but Tharollin check if it's really close." Lillian said and they watched as the light surrounding Micheal faded and his wings went back inside his back.

Tharollin pushed the gate and gave a firm nod when the gate didn't bulge under his hands.

"It is finally closed." Tharollin announced.

"Thank goodness." Avonmora said.

"So how do we stop the fallen Angels?" Roen asked.

"First of all, we all go home and after that, we plan on how to take the devil down without hurting my daughter." Tharollin replied.

"Meaning?" Vermitrax demanded.

"Rae is in danger now. She is being controlled by Lucifer." Lillian supplied.

"Wait a minute, are you trying to say Lucifer is with Rae?" Vermitrax asked.

"Yes, and somehow he has her blood in him so if we hurt Lucifer, we are also hurting Rae because they are now connected to each other and are one." Tharollin reply back.

"I haven't seen Rae before but from what I heard about her through my son, I believe she is a nice girl. We have to find a way to break whatever spell Lucifer has put in her." Vermitrax said.

"My son see Rae as his younger sister so I see her as my daughter too." He added facing Taloc.

"So what happened to my son?"

"He jumped off the cliff after Jason." Lolly supply the answer instead of her father.

"That means my son is not dead." Roen muttered.

"I can't speak for your son my King because he was gravely injured by Rae on Lucifer command. Jorkallun jumped in after Rae had pushed Jason off the cliff. If only they weren't poisoned through their wines then I would have said Jorkallun might have survived the fall, but Jason....." Lolly left the remaining words unspoken as Roen and Vermitrax understood her meaning.

"I believe my son is out there alive and not dead. Dragons just don't die, weak perhaps but not death. Jorkallun is still alive, I could feel it. Plus my son wouldn't die just like that when he knows he has just found a Mate." Vermitrax said without any doubt in his voice.

"You are right Vermitrax. Jason can't die." Roen said with hope. After hearing what Vermitrax said. His hope on his son also rises. "He is a Millennium wolf remember and a Phoenix. I don't believe that nonsense Lucifer spurted out saying the poison will kill his Phoenix power. Phoenix die and come back again. I believe Jason will come back again." Roen said with determine voice.

"That's the spirit friend." Vermitrax said. "None of our boys are dead. Let's just say they went out for a long walk and haven't returned. They will come back, that I am sure of." He added.

"I can't say the same of my daughter yet. She is right there in front of me but I can't see her." Tharollin said sadly.

"Don't worry Tharollin, I caused everything and I will find a way to fix it back. That I promise you all." Taloc said.

"Well now that I am here, there will be no need to go back to my kingdom yet. My son is my first priority and keeping the whole kingdom safe comes next." Vermitrax said.

"This is Lucifer we are talking about here. Now he has risen his fallen Angels, I wonder what plans he has in stored for us." Lydia said.

"Let's head back to the palace to think of a plan." Lillian announced and made a portal opened.

Lillian entered first before the others including Vermitrax, Taloc and his daughter.

****

Jorkallun Journey

CHALLENGE NUMBER FIVE:

Jorkallun walked on until he was out of the Sea, once his feet touches the empty ground on the other side, the Same which Sea was divided came together.

Continuing with his journey, until he came to a dead end. No path lay ahead of him, just an end dead covered in thick tall brick wall that seem to have no end.

Quickly changing into his dragon form, he flew ahead but the more he flew higher, the more the wall continue rising. He was right, the wall seem to have no end. The only way now, is to find a path that leads to the other side of the wall. He flew down and changed to his human form before landing.

The wall might have a secret passway or spells or a riddle for him to get access to the other side.

Looking around him to see if there are any hidden path around, but there were none.

What is he going to do now?

He wondered and draw closer to the wall, looking at it very slowly. No stone to push, no diagram draw, nothing at all.

Does that mean there is no way to forge ahead or am I missing something?

He thought.

Suddenly he placed his two hands to the wall and it went through his hands. He quickly withdrew his both hands and stare at the wall again.

What was that?

He touched the wall again a second time and it went through his hands. When he brought it out. A voice was heard.

"Who are you?"

Looking around him as his hand went to his sword incase the voice was a distraction for whoever it is to ambush him.

"I ask again, who are you?"

It was then Jorkallun realise the voice was coming from the wall in his presence.

"My name is Jorkallun, and I am seeking for a way to get through the wall, to the other side." He answered.

"Through the wall? You want to get through me? You have to prove yourself worthy before me then I can allow you to pass through me."

"What should I do?"

"You will have to fight three people and if you win them, I will allow you to pass through me."

"Accepted."

No sooner as he said the words, the men who he had met when they were chasing the forest goddess in the forest came out of the wall. They were three in number.

"You!?" Jorkallun exclaimed in surprise when he saw the leader with two more people.

"Yes me, I told you before that we shall meet again. And you know what, the three of us will beat you to a pulp that you wouldn't find your way back to wherever you came from." The man gloat.

Bringing out his sword from its sheath. "Then let the fight commence." Jorkallun said the three men attack first.

At first they were gaining an upper hand against Jorkallun due to the fact that the leader had seen the way Jorkallun had beaten his men and memorize his fighting style. So he knew Jorkallun will come this way and had taught the other two his technique.

When Jorkallun realised that, he changed his technique and was very fast to disarm them of their swords and push them all back into the wall.

"You have succeeded and I shall keep to my word." The voice said and the two dwarfs he had met who are twins appeared on each of his side. They grab his both hands and entered the wall.

Everywhere seem to be dark and soon the sun hit his eyes as they came out of the wall to the other side.

The dwarfs both let go of his hands at the same time.

"Thank you for leading me through the wall to here." Jorkallun thanked really grateful.

"Follow us." The dwarfs said together and started walking. Jorkallun followed behind them.

They continue walking until they got to a house. It was a very big and wide house that it covers almost everywhere.

"Behind this house, is the cave you seek for." One of the dwarfs told Jorkallun.

"But you must past three challenges inside the house. Once you are inside the house Just stay alive until the next 30 minutes." The other dwarf chip in.

"Why is that if I may ask?"

"A door opened from nowhere once it's 30 minutes time, if you are quick and fast to leave what you are fighting and made for the door before it closes, you are safe." The first dwarf replied.

"And if I didn't make it on time to the door?"

"Well you are going to spend eternity fighting whatever it is in the house. Good luck Jorkallun." The second dwarf answered his question.

"Thank you for this useful information, I will keep that in mind."

The dwarfs disappeared immediately.

Jorkallun covered the short distance between him and the house.

Three challenges and he will finally reach the cave.

Somewhere in an Unknown House....

Rosa opened her eyes in tiredness and slowly sit upright in the bed she is, she noticed she was alone in the room. She quickly remembered what had happened and her tiredness disappeared. She was about to get out of the bed when the door opened and Jasmine walked in.

"My Queen I can see you are finally awake." Queen Jasmine said approaching the queen with a bowl of hot soup.

"I need to start going right away, my husband and son with the others might be in grave trouble. I have to go and help them. I don't feel weak anymore."

"It's almost evening and where you are is far away from your home. Rest for today, then tomorrow you shall go back to your palace my queen." Jasmine said reaching Rosa side and sat down on the empty space in the bed. "I made you broth soup together with your medicine, it will give you enough strength tomorrow." She added taking a spoon of the hot soup blowing it hotness away and giving it to Rosa who drank it slowly.

"Thank you Jasmine. I owe you a lot." Rosa said after taking the second spoon.

Soon the plate became empty and Rosa feels sleepy.

Putting Rosa head back to the pillow gently. "Once you are awake, I will take you back home."

Jorkallun Journey

HIS THREE CHALLENGES:

Opening the door of the house, he entered. The door shut by itself. He noticed the big house was only having one room and no other door was in sight, and he was in the room.

He saw many mud warriors in the room, in his very eyes, the mud warriors came to life and they attack him.

He remembered the words of the dwarfs and fought the mud warriors keeping an eye on the four walls surrounding them should in case a door or a portal suddenly opened in the 30 minutes fight.

He defeated all of them and they all turned to dust. It wasn't up to one minute when the scattered mud started forming into the mud warriors once again. Jorkallun braced himself and fought with them again.

At the concern of his eyes, he saw a door magically appear and opened by his left side. Fighting his way towards the open door which has started closing. He entered the door before it was closed.

He saw a man standing in the middle of the room with a sword in his hands.

"Glad you could make it here but you aren't leaving here. It's been long I fought." The man said and throw his sword up and enter his sword. The sword divided and thousands of swords came out of it and they started fast towards Jorkallun who was ready.

He fought the swords attacking him from all sides. He made sure no swords cut into him.

Until he saw another door magically opened opposite him.

Without wasting time. He dashed towards the door and entered it.

He nearly fell off from the stone he stood. In this room, were different stones littering around which was levitated into the air, beneath them was nothing only darkness. He saw no door that will lead to his final destination. He noticed the stone he was standing on started breaking and fall into the darkness. He jumped to another stone and like what the first one did, it started breaking off.

It went on like that, until the 30 minutes are over and the last door appeared.

Jumping the stones that lead to the door, he entered it swiftly before it closes.

He saw himself standing in front of a cave. Within him, he knows this is the crystal cave he had set out for.

He entered the cave surprised that it was not as dark as he expected. There were crystals all over the place, though it wasn't shining as before, but the dim light which the crystals brought was enough for him to see. There were also small creatures covering the crystal wall and they glowed with a bright light. He walked further inside the cave, his legs leading him to the final destination. He came to a dead end of the cave and saw a little sand, he bent down and know this was here he will plant the tiny crystals. Removing them from his secret hole he made in his head band, He planted the crystal. At first nothing happened and Jorkallun feared he didn't plant it well. The crystals then started to hum and glowed faintly in the dark. Little pools of water formed next to the crystal, then started to grow. Every crystal in the cave started shining brightly once again. He had done all he could, now he must return but how?

As if to answer his question a portal appeared next to him and he heard the voices of the Gatekeepers of Little Lake whispering to him to enter the portal.

Without much hesitation, he entered the portal and found himself with the sisters.

He is finally in his world.

It was at that moment he suddenly grew tired and sleepy, his feet gave way and he fell down to the ground. The sisters rushed to his side and held him on his shoulders each preventing him from touching the ground.

"I did it right? I planted it well, right?" Jorkallun asked with sleeping eyes.

"Yes you did it. Our powers are slowly returning and our crystals are coming back to life. You must rest Jorkallun for the world you entered has drained all your energy. So you must rest to regain it back." They told him together.

"What about Jason, do you keep to your promise, is he breathing now?"

"Jason is alive Jorkallun. His spirit has been returned to him. Rest now for once you wake up Jason shall also wake up."

Jorkallun finally submit into the hands of sleep.

---

Jason saw himself on a field and started walking towards a river. Once he got there, he leaned his head over the water and saw his reflection against it. He was in his Millennium Wolf form. He felt cold and he looked up.

A warm breeze stirred his long dark fur and warming his cold body. Not a cloud in sight to mess with the seemingly never ending blue sky, though it was day the moon and stars were clear and shining brightly.

Rae wouldn't have had the heart to kill him if she wasn't controlled by Lucifer. He knew Rae would cry once she gets to know what she did. How he wished he could save her and tell her over and over again that he has forgiven her.

A voice startled him as he was enjoying the feeling of peace.

"Child."

Jason looked up and saw a female Werewolf next to him. The wolf was standing on her hind feet like he did. No one needs to tell him twice that this was a Millennium Wolf. She was more beautiful than the moon on a clear, crisp night. She stopped not too far away from Jason. Her pelt reflected the night making her seem like a walking mirror. Her eyes as white as the stars.

She was large, very large. Her gentle gaze made Jason body tingle, she radiated power. "Child, what is it you are doing here before your time?"

Jason blinked at her, very confused by her question and mesmerised by her voice.

It sounded ancient, wise, and seemed to hold more than just her voice in it. Like a lot of wolves were talking all at once but hers was the strongest. Her eyes closed halfway as she took in his expression.

"I see you do not know. Jason, my child. You are not dead and yet you walk my fields as if you were."

Realisation hit him in his chest. She was the moon Goddess!

Jason quickly bowed his head to her.

"Lift your head up little one, and return to your mate. You have to save her from Lucifer." The moon Goddess told him and placed her two hands on his head. Bright light emerged from her hands and entered his head which was quickly absorbed into his body.

Jason looked up at her, how could he return to Rae if he is dead?

The wind brought back her earlier words, 'You are not dead and yet you walk my fields as if you were.....'

"You believe yourself dead. Go back to her and save her. I have strengthen your wolf to be more as mine. Go, she is waiting for you."

Jason suddenly felt light as if he was fading.

The field began to disappear. His heartbeat was heavy, but weak. He was breathing shallowly and his eyes were closed. His chest hurt and was throbbing painfully. His whole body was stiff and it was hard to open his eyes but he managed. He saw he was surrounded by strange purple people.

"Welcome back Jason." The voice of Jess and Ness was heard and Jason closed his eyes in sleep.

Chapter 10

'Staying silent is like a slow growing cancer to the soul and a trait of a true coward. There is nothing intelligent about not standing up for yourself. You may not win every battle. However, everyone will at least know what you stood for—YOU. There will always be someone willing to hurt you, put you down, gossip about you, belittle your accomplishments and judge your soul. It is a fact that we all must face. However, if you realize that God is a best friend that stands beside you when others cast stones you will never be afraid, never feel worthless and never feel alone.'

♥♥♥♥ LUCIFER AND THE MATE BOND ♥♥♥♥

Kingdom of Elilannon:

After the Shi's watched Jason drifted back to sleep, they wrapped him in thick covers and all of them, the healers and the Keepers of the Lake, stretch forth their palms over his sleeping body and crystals light, so bright, came out from their palms into Jason's body.

After a while, the healers started disappearing one after the other leaving Ness and Jess alone with him.

Soon their crystal light from their palms faded and they removed their palms from his face.

"Do you think that will heal his wound he got from the sword? You know the sword was forged from Lucifer dark blood to kill any Tribid, so do you think our magic will heal that?" Ness asked as they left Jason side and started walking out of the tent Jason was kept. They only talk to each other when they are alone.

"Yes, he is alive and breathing, that is all that matters. He was given a second chance to come back and fight the doom that will befall his kingdom. With time, the wound in his heart will heal." Jess replied. "The poison in him has been successfully removed, it remains his wound in his heart to heal." She added.

"What about his dragon friend, he did a lot for us. He restored our magic we thought we'd lost forever, he overcame the eight trials in the Land of no Return. You and I know that those who had ventured into that world don't return, but he did. We have to pay him back for the good thing he did for us, not only us but for the whole Kingdom of Elilannon." Ness said.

"You are right, he sacrificed a lot to get to the Crystal cave. So what kind of gift shall we bestowed to him who had restored our magic?" Jess asked in wonder.

"I could have suggested a gift of immortality, but he is immortal, or one of our ladies, but he is in love with another." Ness said aloud. "What kind of gift can we give to him then?"

"I can't really tell, there has to be something we can do for him to appreciate him." Jess said as she stopped walking to look at her sister who also had stopped to stare at her.

"There is one way to find out his greatest wish." They said together and disappeared.

They reappeared inside the tent Jorkallun was sleeping peacefully with about four Shi who were administering medicine into his hands that are almost dry and peel out.

Seeing the Keepers of the lake, they bowed down to them.

"Please, leave us alone for a minute." They both told them together.

The Shi's left the tent with their heads still bowed low.

Once they were alone, they walk towards him together and each went to stand at each side of his head. They touched his head together with their hands and closed their eyes.

They remain like that for a few seconds before they withdraw their hands from his head.

Ness and Jess both stared at each other.

"Could it be what I am thinking." Ness muttered.

"Yes, let's see if we could find their lost souls." Jess said to Ness.

"What if they have crossed over to the other side finally? You know souls who aren't seek for a period of time will have to cross to the other side and find the path they had chosen to walk when they were still alive." Ness told Jess.

"Well, we have to repay him back for what he did for us. So finding their souls is now our priority, we just hope it isn't too late." Jess said and they both left the tent. The healers who had been waiting for them outside the tent bowed again when they came out, they quickly hurried inside to finish what they were doing.

"Hopefully, by the time he recovers and wake up, we must had find their souls."

King Roen Palace:

The Portal opened in the courtyard and everyone stepped out.

Lolly went to meet four Amazon Warriors who are seen standing together. "Release the captives now." She ordered them and they walk towards the dungeon to release the wolves guards.

The rest followed Roen into his throne room to sit and discuss their next plan.

Sarah was stopped by Lolly before she could follow the rest in.

"Just because you and your father suddenly have a change of heart to fight alongside with us doesn't mean I have forgiven you. I will get you back for what you did to me and everyone I cared about." Sarah told her in anger when she stops.

"I know I did wrong that is why I called you here to seek your forgiveness Sarah. I was blinded by lust that I had for Jason and used that to do all this. I am sorry."

"Your sorry can't undo what you and your father did. I lost Jorkallun, though I don't believe he is dead until I see his body. Then Jason and Rae. How do you expect me to forgive you when you caused harm to three of my friends, not one but three." Sarah said.

"I will admit it, It is my fault, I shouldn't have allowed my mother showed Rae to Lucas or Lucifer that night on the full moon. If they didn't show him Rae, none of these would have happened. I am so sorry Sarah. Just give I and my father time to make this right. Lucas was able to kill Jason with a sword he said will kill a Tribrid, that is all I know."

"I will forgive you when I finally get to see the three of them together, but for now, watch your back carefully fake Lolly. I am no longer poisoned or weak, remember that." With that being said, Sarah left Lolly presence and walk towards the direction of the throne room.

"At least if this didn't happen, I won't even find out I have this weird feelings for Dean." Lolly said and walk after Sarah.

Lucifer Cave:

Lucifer and his angels landed outside the cave.

"You can make yourself feel at home, because here will be your new home until the war." Lucifer told them and he was about to enter the cave, still carrying Rae, when they heard the sound of snapping of wings in the air. This shows someone is landing.

Stopping in his stride as all his angels took their stance, ready to fight whoever it is.

Lucifer hoped it was Tharollin who have come back with the remaining bone.

The person finally landed in their midst.

But instead of Tharollin he was expecting to see, he saw a man. By his looks and white wings with lovely clothes he had worn before in heaven, it was an Angel.

His Angels wanted to attack the man but he gave them his signal not too yet. The man wasn't fighting them yet.

"What are you doing here holy one?" He asked the Angel instead.

"I came in peace." Aaron answered and stare at the girl in Lucifer's arms. Only her hair give her away and he knows the resemblance. This is Selena's granddaughter and probably the one he saw when he had spy on Micheal was this beautiful girl mother. Selena has indeed passed her beauty down to her daughters. If things had gone the way he had planned, he would have been the father of her daughter and not Micheal.

"Then state what you want fast and leave here holy one." Lucifer said making sure Rae's face was hidden since he noticed the holy Angel staring at her face. He made sure his hands wasn't touching any exposed skin of Rae to avoid the pains that he hates.

"I saw what you did back then and I followed you here." Aaron began.

"And so? If you saw what I did and followed me here, what do you want holy one?" Lucifer demanded not beating around the bush.

"Just like the way you are possessive with the lady in your arms, so am I."

"Meaning? You want my Rae? What a wonderful dream you are having." Lucifer mocked.

"I don't mean that way. I mean her grandmother. I would need your help Lucifer to get her like the way you were able to take the girl in your arms under the nose of almighty Tharollin or should just call him Raphael." Aaron said.

"How did you know she's Raphael's daughter?" Lucifer asked.

"I sent some of my Angels to track Micheal and collect the woman who is supposed to become mine and not his, and after that kill him. Then surprisingly enough, my angels encountered Raphael who fought them all and killed them except one who reported back to me. And besides, your woman somehow has the face of her father." Aaron replied.

"So you wanted to kill your brother for who?"

"Selena, Rae's grandmother. I love her and she falls in love with my brother instead of me." Aaron respond.

"You want Rae's grandmother?"

"Yes, I want her at all cost."

'Hmmm, Aaron wants his help.'

Lucifer mused to himself.

"Very well then, I shall help you get Selena from Micheal but you know for everything I do, there will be a price you must pay." He told Aaron afterwards.

"I know there must be a price, I am ready to do as you want." Aaron told him, his voice shows how he is determined to have Selena

"Then I am striking you a deal. If you can join hands with me to fight the supernaturals with your angels, then I will drag Selena to your feet and she will worship your feet for eternity." Lucifer said with a smile. "That I promise you." He added.

"Done, as long as I can have my Selena, then I will lead my Angels to war together with you." Aaron said to him.

"Good, it is done. We have a deal?" Lucifer said.

"Yes, deal."

"Aren't you bothered about the reactions of your Creator if he knows this. You are helping Lucifer, the fallen Angel that is filled with darkness." Lucifer told Aaron in wonder, waiting for his response.

"I will face my punishment when it is time. Once I have Selena than it is over." Aaron told Lucifer.

'Oh really? It is not over until I say so. I will use you and your Angels to break into heaven. It seems I will win this second time.' Lucifer thought within himself and sent a genuine smile to Aaron. 'He shall give Selena to him, but he will also use Aaron to get what he wants.'

"I will head back to my abode now, when you need my help. I shall be waiting." Aaron said.

"What if I want to send a message to you, won't your Angels stop me or better still attack me once they see me? Don't forget I am darkness and you are the holy ones."

"No one will stop you from entering my kingdom. I am the king of all Angels and they all answer to me, so be rest assured that no one will attack you once you come." Aaron assure him.

"Then you fully have my support." Lucifer said, this is exactly what he wants.

"I will take my leave now." Aaron said and fly up to the sky.

"Settled down and get prepared my Angels, we have a strong ally now that will help us defeat the Creator." Lucifer told them and entered the cave, walking further into the cave, he stopped once he got to the made up throne rock Rae was sitting when Tharollin came. He gently drop Rae there and smiled down on her.

"Now, it is time to break you bond and match your soulmate connection with mine." Lucifer said as his smile widen. "We just have to wait for the moon to come out my love, and I will finally have your body."

Roen's Palace:

Everyone was seated around the round table where kings and Queens sits to discuss the affairs of their kingdoms privately.

"So what's the plan?" Roen asked once they have settled. "Because Lucifer has to be stopped by all means."

"Stopping him by all means Roen, you should know that my daughter will be hurt if he is hurt." Tharollin said and for once Avonmora supported him.

Sarah and Lolly walked in at that moment and took the two empty seats together. They remained silent and allow the adults to do the talking and planning.

"He is right Roen, before you speak try and reason my daughter he held hostage because that is what he just did." Avonmora told Roen trying hard to control her lips from cursing the dummy.

"Then we have to find a way and remove what he did to her before we hurt her." Vermitrax throw into the discussion.

"You have spoke like a wise King Vermitrax unlike someone who thinks with his anus." Avonmora said ignoring Roen's glare.

"I think I will go and meet Lucifer." Taloc said and wanted to continue when he got interrupted by Reon.

"So that you can tell him the poison didn't kill us as you expected. How low of you Taloc, haven't you done enough already? Do you want to add more salt to the injury?"

"My King, let's first of all hear what he has to say before concluding." Lillian said. "Don't be offended by his outburst Taloc, you must know that we haven't trust you that much. So please, continue with what you wanted to say."

"Thank you. Like I was saying before I was rudely interrupted. I will visit Lucifer with the help of Tharollin since he knows where he stays. And Lucifer doesn't know yet that I have switched sides. So I will pretend and ask him how he was able to trap Rae and what to do in freeing her. He will tell me." Taloc told them his plans.

"You see why I said Roen thinks from his anus." Avonmora quickly chip in. "He stopped Taloc from saying this."

"I agree with you on this one." Lydia said in support.

"....."

"But what about his fallen angels?" Micheal said preventing Roen from speaking.

"They won't attack me, like I said he doesn't know yet I have switch side. I will pretend." Taloc replied.

"You should be careful, Lucifer is a cunning fellow." Selena warned.

"So am I." Taloc responded.

"Why are you suddenly helping us Taloc?" Roen asked. "Is there a secret motive?"

"I have told you that I am only doing this because of Avonmora and Vermitrax and If you don't shut your mouth up, I will turn this handsome face of yours to a ugly duckling."

"You wouldn't dare."

"Just say another word Roen." Taloc said his green eyes glowing brightly together with his hair. They didn't notice when Avonmora stood up from her seat going to meet them and slap the back of their heads hard, putting them to silence. Taloc growling eyes and hair stopped immediately.

"Now that we have your attention, can we please try to know when to execute the plan instead of arguing?" Avonmora said walking back to her seat majestically.

"Fine. To your question Roen, I am doing this because I am sorry and also to find my Mate."

"And where did you keep mine? She is dead isn't she? Because if she is then say goodbye to your wife." Roen said

"Rosa isn't dead Roen. Truly, I collapsed the building I kept her in and when I realised she was the one who had kept Tamara, I went back to retrieve her but she was gone."

"And you just said she isn't dead." Roen said with unbelievable eyes.

"Yes, she isn't, that's for sure. We are connected, not as Mate Roen, she had to connect with me to be able to break the bond with my first Mate. I am truly sorry Roen."

"Apology not accepted until I see Rosa."

"When do you intend to go and meet Lucifer?" Tharollin demanded. I ending their argument.

"Tomorrow."

"Then this meeting is over, it's dark now, after you succeed in getting the information, then we plan our next movement." Tharollin said.

"Okay."

"There are enough rooms in the building, just choose one to lay your heads. I will be going to my own chamber." Roen said standing up and left the gathering.

The rest also stood up and left the throne room going to the hallway to choose which chambers to sleep.

Avonmora and her mother closed their doors in the faces of Tharollin and Micheal when they had wanted to enter the room with them.

Soon they all entered their various well arranged chambers, each with different thoughts.

12 AM (Midnight):

Rosa opened her eyes feeling stronger than before. She wasn't surprised when the door to the room she was opened and Jasmine stepped in.

"It's almost morning, you are finally awake my Queen."

"It is Rosa to you and not my queen, thank you for everything. I feel strong again." Rosa said getting out of the bed.

Jasmine smiled.

"How many days was I here?"

"Three days."

"My husband and son will be worried about my whereabouts. I have to go and meet them so they will see I am not dead and save them from the poison. They wouldn't be dead by now right Jasmine?"

"No, they are not dead. A lot of things have happened when you were asleep. First, Jason is not there with them, but he and Jorkallun will come. And when you go home, try to give Taloc a listening ear, he has changed." Jasmine said. "I have prepared you your bath and the clothes to wear. After that we are leaving here to your kingdom."

"Thank you so much Jasmine, I owe you a lot."

"Please come with me." Jasmine said going out of the room to the bathroom and Rosa follow her.

1 hour Later....

Rosa was dressed in the long flowing golden gown Jasmine kept for her in the bathtub.

And came out of the bathroom to meet Jasmine standing at the door. "I am ready." Rosa announced.

"Now, let's start going. Where we are is really far and it will take us hours before we get to your Palace." Jasmine said and grab hold of Rosa hand. They started sinking on the ground.

Lucifer Cave:

Rae stood on top of the cave with her eyes closed.

Lucifer was seen moving around her in circles in a tune best known to him and he started singing. He stopped in front of her and cut his arms, forcing his dark blood into Rae's mouth and made sure she drank from it before he withdrew his arms. He started his dance once again saying some spells.

The rays of the Moon shone brightly on Rae for a minute before it faded.

He stopped his dance.

"At last you are mine Rae. We are fully one and it will be completed once I mate with you."
Lucifer said and leaned down to kiss Rae on her lips.

The painful string that vibrates all through his body he wasn't expecting that. He broke the kiss.

"What's wrong? I did the spells right, the bond should have been broken by now." He said and forcefully kissed Rae again.

He was thrown back by an invisible force.

It was through the help of his black wings that sprout out from his back that he didn't fall off from the top of the cave they are.

To his utmost surprise, he saw Rae vomiting out his dark blood until no one was left inside her body.

Standing up from where he had fallen. He stared at Rae clam face and his blood from her lips Rae licks and spit it out.

"Jason! Jason!!" He screamed to the air and face Rae.

Too bad for the lover boy. The only way to get Rae out of his hands is to remove her blood in his body and for that to happen, it's 100% Failure.

It did not work. The bond that binds Rae and Jason didn't break, which would mean one thing.

Jason is Alive.

Chapter 11

'A competitive and insecure woman will tell you that "true love" is never giving up on someone you're in love with. A confident and spiritual woman knows that "moving on" doesn't mean you never loved someone. She realizes that letting go is what God needs her to do because both your happiness and hers requires taking different journeys for spiritual growth. Letting go is sometimes the hardest thing, but it is the most "real love" you will ever experience.'

♥♥♥♥ JASON DREAM ♥♥♥♥

No, this can't be happening. He was there when she had killed him with the sword he had forged with his blood. He had witnessed single everything and even throw a big rock at him.

How can Jason be alive!!!

He is dead and gone, he wouldn't survive such a great fall from the cliff. No he wouldn't.

Unless the dragon boy who had jumped after him could have helped him. But that is impossible, the poison they had drank from the wine would have weakened his transformation and would have killed them since.

Then how come he is still alive?

"Come to me darling." Lucifer commanded Rae who walk towards him. At least he still controls her since her blood is still in him.

He carried her in bride style and flew down heading straight inside the cave. With a snap of his fingers, he made a bed appeared which he kept Rae on it gently.

"Sleep now my beautiful one." Lucifer told Rae and she closed her eyes in sleep, obeying him.

If he had succeeded in breaking their Mate bond that binds Rae and Jason, by now he would have been in bed with his bride to be.

He would have sent out some of his fallen angels and have them searched around and see if truly Jason is alive, but he won't, as long as Rae's blood flows through him, Jason or Tharollin can't free her.

He called out the name of the Angel who had spoken to him before.

"You called out my name my Lord." The skeleton fallen angel said once he landed beside Lucifer.

"Yes, I did."

"Is the bones complete my Lord? Is that why you are calling me?" The skeleton asked Lucifer with ebullience.

"The bones are not yet complete. My bride father hasn't given me the bone that will complete the full bones yet and I told you I throw the whole bones inside my pit together with a foolish god." Lucifer said trying to calm himself.

He had promised their master a long time ago before he and his angels were locked up inside the gate of Darkness to free him and his rebellious angels once he defeated the Creator. But things took a turn around when the Creator defeated him and send him with his own dead rebellious angels out of heaven. He was chained and put in a deep pit for so many years. He came up with an idea and told Gar who happens to come across him and became his servant.

Gar sent Tharollin to the Gate to retrieve the Bones which he did. Using the bones to release himself from the chains he was bound to, though only the chain that bind his neck remains to unlock and Tharollin who had cunningly hid that one remaining bone hasn't been seen since he left to bring him the bone. He had thrown the bones inside the pit together with Hermes instead of keeping it to retrieve their master back to life as promised.

He planned to rule the whole universe alone and so he had thrown the bones into the pit without a second thought.

"Sorry, I thought you called me to tell me that the bones of my master are now complete."

"As long as the bones are not yet complete, you will obey me, am I understood?" Lucifer said in fury.

"Yes my Lord." The skeleton said in total submissive.

"Good, now go and tell the rest of my fallen Angels to get ready when the sun is out. We are going to attack Kingdoms." Lucifer revealed.

"Okay my Lord. I will inform the rest." The skeleton said. "We all saw what you were doing to your bride at the top of the cave, did it work or is that why you want to attack so soon?"

"It did not work and yes, now get out of my sight before I do something you will regret." Lucifer told the skeleton.

"Forgive me my Lord." He pleaded and then continue. "Which of the kingdoms are we going to attack first my Lord?"

"The Fairy Kingdom." Lucifer replied and the skeleton flew away to inform the others.

Breaking of Rae bond will come after he has won the war and will have to kill Jason this time around with his bare hands. No matter where he is hiding, he must surely show himself when he hears what he and Rae are doing to the kingdoms he will rule one day.

He won't be the one to fish him out, Jason will fish himself out.

He went to sit in the made look throne that was made with rocks to relax his head and eyes.

Roens Palace:

The early sun has started to emerge spreading it's ray's all over the land, the sun rose in a pool of crimson and gold, spilling light all over the land and the white clouds when suddenly, the sky above was full of tumultuous, dark and ragged clouds.

Thunder came marching from far away with increasing tread. Lightning and Thunder raged with fury. A flash of forked lightning and a great clap of thunder came close upon each other. A bolt of lightning tore across the sky and a peal of thunder followed.

The thick dark clouds suddenly covered the sun and wasn't moving away, casting every lands into Darkness.

Roen who has been awake and was outside his chambers, first saw the clouds and alert the others who came out of their various chambers to see what's happening.

They were all staring at the sky with mixed feelings.

"Why is everywhere dark?" Lillian asked in wonder and magically made a big ball of light which cast away the darkness from tje palace. It was floating around the Palace in circle.

"It's the clouds that is causing it, someone is turning them into dark and making it blocks the sun." Selena said after a while.

"I think you are right Selena, someone must be doing this. I will have to check it out." Tharollin said and his black wings sprout out from his back. He was about to fly when Avonmora voice stopped him.

"Be careful out there lazy bones."

"And I thought you don't care for me anymore Avonmora." Tharollin said with a smile and didn't wait for Avonmora sharp reply when he flew higher.

Flying forward, he reached the clouds and touched one of the clouds. The one he touched turned darker than the rest of the clouds.

He now knows who had done this.

He flew back and landed back in Roen Palace, in front of them. The ball of light made it very easy for him to see them clear.

"What did you find out? Why are the clouds suddenly dark?" Lydia demanded.

"It's Lucifer handwork, though I don't know why he is doing that." Tharollin answered as his wings entered his back. "There is something he is planning."

"So are you trying to say Lucifer is doing this on purpose to get something?" Michael asked.

"Exactly, now we have to find out his reasons for doing this." Tharollin replied.

"Well we are just waking up from our sleep to see this, lets freshen up first and then we start our plan." Avonmora said walking back to her chambers. "Believe me we cannot come up with any good ideas on how to stop the dark clouds if we are still in our previous clothes and without having a bath. We shall meet in the throne room." She added dragging Lillian with her.

---

Once they entered the chamber she slept the previous night, Avonmora smiled at Lillian.

"You know why I dragged you here with me?"

"No."

"First we discuss about my daughter and secondly, you use your witch power and make a dress appear that will fit me tonweart." Avonmora said going inside the bathroom to take her bath.

Once she was through with her business, a long gown appeared inside the bathroom and she quickly wear it.

She came out and Lillian entered the bathroom to take her bath.

She soon came out wearing a different set of clothes.

"So, let's sit and talk about my daughter. I haven't had a chance to ask you about her." Avonmora said going to sit on the bed she had slept on, and Lillian sat next to her. "Did she take after me or her father?"

"Well, the both of you I will say. But Rae is very stubborn. It was because of her stubbornness Ashley transferred her from the Witches school to the Supernaturals school." Lillian said.

"Tell me more about it." Avonmora said with open ears. Lillian went on by telling Avonmora everything that involved with Rae.

"I can't wait to hold her in my arms Lillian."

"Me too. I miss her. If she was here, she probably might have first everyone to fight with Lucifer."

"Thank you for taking care of her and for everything. You are a true friend, you kept your promise you made to me and even gave her the name I wanted to give to her. Thank you Lillian." Avonmora said in sincerity and pull the witch for a hug.

"I did everything like I had promise. If the case was reversed, you would have done the same. Don't forget you help me once and I haven't repay you." Lillian said over her shoulders.

"Thanks Lillian, what you did is more than what I did for you back then." Avonmora said as they detach themselves from the hug. Getting up to her feet, Avonmora smiled down at Lillian.

"Come on, let's go and see if the others has freshen up so that we can discuss the plan they had."

Fairy Kingdom:

Queen Flora, the Fairy Queen and her Globin husband went outside when they heard the biggest uproar in their palace. Everywhere was filled in darkness and it was only with the help of the fairy Queen magical light which she used in lighten up the palace, they were able to see what lay ahead of them.

Coming out to their courtyard, they saw a man with Rae. All their Fairy and Goblin warriors has gathered to protect their queen and king as they walked majestically to meet the stranger and Rae.

Both of them were dressed as if they are going to war. Rae was holding a sword.

"What is going on? Rae what are you doing here?" Queen Flora asked.

"That question is not important, rather it should be what we want." Lucifer said.

"And what can that be?" King Noah demanded..

"Simple, surrender your Kingdom and your people to me and leave here alive." Lucifer answer.

"You want us to surrender our Kingdom and people to you and then walk away from here? Are you alright Mr?" King Noah said.

The Fairy Kingdom and the small Goblin Kingdom merged after their King got married to Flora.

"Look behind me and you will see my thousands warriors set to attack at my signal." Lucifer told them and they looked behind him to see skeletons with wings behind the stranger, they were not attacking yet.

"We are not leaving here and Rae why are you with this lunatic?" Queen Flora directed her question to Rae who didn't say a word to her question.

"This lunatic you called has a name, and Rae is now my bride, my soulmate and we are here to destroy you, isn't it so my love?"

"Yes my love."

Lucifer smiled at that. "I haven't introduced myself yet to you. My name is Lucifer, and I am here to rule all the whole Kingdoms, and yours happens to be the first I will attack."

"We are not afraid of you Lucifer or whatever you just call your name. You've forgotten that fairies and goblins has magic. You don't scare me. If it is war you want, then war you shall get." King Noah said his eyes not leaving Lucifer eyes.

"Then so shall it be. Attack!!!!!"

Some of the fallen angels flying in the air, started landing and the ones behind Lucifer ran to meet the warriors of the Fairy Kingdom attacking them.

Queen Flora and her husband quickly joined their warriors in attacking the angels, they didn't prepare for war but they tried to stop the skeletons. They used their magic to blast them but to their utmost horror, none of them were hurt.

"Go down to the houses of their people, kill them and burned down their houses. I want to see the kingdom in fire." Lucifer commanded and some of the fallen Angels left the palace and fly towards the houses the people of the fairy Kingdom dwells.

Turning to face Flora and her Husband who were fighting so hard, so hard to stop the fallen angels from leaving, all their magics couldn't penetrate or stop them.

"You should have listened to me when I told you to leave your Kingdom. And you know the worst part of it all? No one will notice the fire coming out from your Kingdom because of my darkness." Lucifer said with a smile and turn to face Rae. "I should have told you to fight them but no, where you will fight isn't in this Kingdom. You are going to fight in Jason Kingdom."

Lucifer told her.

Tharollin will regret ever coming across his way.

Kingdom of Elilannon:

The Dream:

Jason saw himself in a room with Rae.

She was tied to the wall with heavy chains.

"Jason help me to get off this chains." Rae voice came out in short gasps.

Jason tries to run to her side but find out he couldn't. It was as if he was stuck to the ground.

"Are you real?"

"Yes Jason, I am sorry for what I did to you. I hope you can find it in your heart to forgive me."

"You don't have to apologise to me my love, you were being controlled by that monster."

"Help me and untie me from this chains Jason, please."

"Where am I first of all?"

"You are in Lucifer's mind. Unchained me and I will get myself."

Jason tried to move again but he couldn't. "I can't move my legs to free you from the chains."

"You can't free me here Jason. Find Lucifer and I will be free."

Jason saw her fading away.

"Don't go yet Rae, I promise you. I will free you, wait for me, I am coming."

"I am always waiting for you Jason." Rae said and finally fade away.

"Rae!!!!" He screamed out.

At that moment, Jason eyes flew wide open. He wasn't feeling weak or pains anymore. One of his white eyeballs changed into midnight black.

"Hold on a little Rae, your Millennium wolf is coming."

Chapter 12

'Your dignity can be mocked, abused, compromised, toyed with, lowered and even bad mouthed, but it can never be taken from you. You have the power today to reset your boundaries, restore your image, start fresh with renewed values and rebuild what has happened to you in the past.'

♥♥♥♥ JASON AND JORKALLUN RETURN (Part One) ♥♥♥♥

Reon's Palace:

Avonmora and Lillian came of the chamber and walked towards the throne room since they couldn't hear any sound around them. They concluded everyone was in the throne room, they were right. Everyone was there, seated, having taken their baths and changed their old clothes.

A small ball of light was seen moving around the throne room, giving the dark room light. Taloc doing.

"The two Queens has finally grace us with their presence." Lydia announced as she banged on the round table they were seated dramatically as Lillian and Avonmora entered the throne room.

They took their seats.

"I thought you both won't be coming again." Roen said once the two women were seated. "You kept us waiting for long."

Lillian and Avonmora didn't know they had wasted much time.

"Sorry, so what's the plan?" Lillian demanded.

"We destroy the Skeletons he has risen and find a way to remove the spell he had put on Tharollin daughter." Roen responded.

"You can't kill his stupid Skeletons, they can't be killed. I use my dragon fire on them which you all saw didn't affect them one bit. My guess though is to kill Lucifer and everything will be put back in place. He was the one who had risen the fallen Angels, so when we stop him, the fallen Angels will be stopped." Vermitrax told them.

"You are right, but we have to know how to defeat Lucifer without hurting my granddaughter." Michael said.

"I will find out how Lucifer was able to use Rae blood and make her do his bidding. Tharollin will take me to his hide out and I will find out." Taloc told them.

"Tharollin, are you okay? Your body's here but not your mind." Avonmora said softly. She has been staring at Tharollin since she walked into the throne room. He was lost in thought, she could see it on his face. "Is there any problem?" She asked.

By now everyone's eyes were on Tharollin as they also noticed his face and awaits for his answer.

"I have this sudden feelings that something doesn't feel right at all. Something is happening." Tharollin finally voice out his thoughts.

He could perceive the smell of burning fire but couldn't place his hands on where it was coming from. Something was burning and the burnt smell was going stronger by each passing minute. He was concentrating to find the location where the burnt smell was coming from when Avonmora sweet voice pulled him out of his thoughts.

"Care to elaborate more on this strange feelings of yours Tharollin." Roen said.

"Don't you smell anything in the air?" He asked.

Everyone of them scented the air and could not smell anything.

"Something like what Tharollin?" Selena asked.

"Something like fire, massive fire burning out somewhere." Tharollin said and stood up from his seat. It was getting worse, "I have to go and look around to see where the fire is coming out from since I am the only one who is smelling it. You can carry out your plans without me, my Mate will fill me in." Tharollin announced.

Micheal also stood up from his seat. "I am coming with you Tharollin, just in case you may need a second helping hand." He said going to meet the dark Angel.

"Okay, just know Selena that I didn't force him to follow me just In case you didn't see him." Tharollin said as Micheal snorted out loud and followed Tharollin out of the throne room.

They flew out of the palace together, Tharollin allowed his nose to lead them.

---

"We should continue from where we stopped. Tharollin and Michael will soon be back." Lydia said and Roen opened his mouth to say something when Rosa and Jasmine appeared right inside the throne room.

Roens mouth open wide in surprise when he saw the intruders, even Lillian wasn't left behind. She was really surprised on seeing Rosa.

"Rosa! Is that really you?" Roen shouted as he slowly stood up from his seat still in shock.

Rosa smiled, "It's me Roen." Rosa replied and ran to meet him and hug him, removing him from his shock state. She smiled when she felt his arms wrapped around her, tightly.

"Thank goodness that you are back and well. I thought I had lost you forever, you know you drank the poison wine and you were taken away from us." Roen said kissing her forehead and all round her face with each word.

"I am okay, thanks to Queen Jasmine here who saved my life and took care of me these past few days." Rosa said drawing everyone's attention to the other woman. Everyone focus were on Rosa and didn't see the other woman with her.

"Jasmine, thank you for saving the life of my wife." Roen said as he detach himself from Rosa and focus on the other woman standing a few metres away from them.

"My pleasure my King." Jasmine said with a bow. "It wasn't her time to go and that was why I had saved her." She added.

"Thanks once again, please come and sit with us, we were discussing before you came in." Roen said and Jasmine went over to sit on one of the empty seats, the one Tharollin had occupied.

Rosa sat closer to her husband. She saw Sarah. "Hi Sarah, so glad to see you once again." She said with a smile.

"Same to you your majesty. Glad to have you back." Sarah said returning Rosa smile with her own.

"Seeing that you, Lillian, and my husband are save and healthy makes me happy that Jason and his friend Jorkallun are okay too, why am I not seeing them here? Where are they?" Rosa asked eagerly, she couldn't wait to see her son.

"He and Jorkallun are not here with us at the moment my dear." Roen answered, lying to her face.

"Where have they gone too?"

"Somewhere far away." Lillian replied.

"Can somebody tell me what's really going on." Rosa said her voice raising up a bit. She knew her husband is lying she is a fucking Druid, something is wrong, she could feel they are lying to her.

"To be truthful Queen Rosa, Jason is dead, he was killed by the sword forged from Lucifer blood and was pushed down from the cliff. Jorkallun jumped after him and they haven't been seen." Lillian told Rosa.

"No, I don't believe that cock and bull story of yours. My son isn't dead. Jason won't die." Rosa said.

"I believe so Rosa, I am just waiting for a miracle to come and reveal your son and my son to us. Believe me, they are not dead." Vermitrax told Rosa.

"But they were poisoned, we all drank from the wine, remember." Rosa said.

"Maybe, but the Creator may have his own plan. All I know is that my son is out there somewhere and will come back to me." Vermitrax said. "They are not dead Rosa."

"Okay, for now I will believe what you said King Vermitrax." Rosa agreed finally. "And why is Taloc here instead of the prison?"

"That's because he had repented and is on our side now. In case you don't know, Taloc helped in stopping the fallen Angels in the gate of Darkness when Lucifer had risen them up." Lillian answered.

"Lucifer has risen his fallen angels?"

"Yes, and the Gate of Darkness has finally be closed."

"When did this happen?"

"Yesterday, and now today we all woke up to see the clouds darken in our very eyes." Roen answered and it was at that moment, Rosa noticed the white ball of light floating in the throne room. She stood up from her seat and went to the open window and saw the dark sky.

She whispered some words and the dark clouds around the palace was cleared, but within a minute, it became dark once again.

She turned towards them. "We have to find the caster of the spell and end his or her life. It is the only way to clear the dark sky." Rosa told them as she walked back to her seat.

"The person who did this is no other person than Lucifer."

"Then let's go and attack him, between us, we can take him down."

"We can't attack him." Roen told her in a quiet voice which she heard.

"And why can't we attack him? Don't tell me you like the way everywhere is dark." Rosa said with wide eyes.

"Attacking Lucifer and harming him will also put Rae's life in danger. She is being controlled by him and if he gets hurt, Rae also will get hurt. So we have to remove the spell he had placed on her before attacking him." Jasmine responded this time.

"How did you know that?" Roen asked with shock eyes.

"I know things and i see things, you can call me a seer."

"But I didn't know you are a seer." Lillian said equally surprised too.

"Unless I want you to know what I really am, no one knows I am a seer, except my husband. But we have a serious issue on ground and not this."

"Yes, so what are the plans?" Rosa asked.

"Taloc planned on going to meet Lucifer to ask him how he was able to control Rae with her blood. He will tell Taloc since he doesn't know yet he is already on our side." Vermitrax explained.

"Did you just say Taloc?" Rosa demanded and at Vermitrax nods she continues. "What if he goes there and instead plan with Lucifer on how to bring us down since he realize the poison didn't work as they had expected." She added.

"Thank goodness that someone reason like me." Roen chip in.

"I won't betray you all. I am doing this because I have realized my mistake and want to rectify it. All I want in return is for you to give me back Tamara and we will not bother you or this Kingdom again." Taloc told Rosa. "That's my promise."

"And what if you go back on your words Taloc, some promises are meant to be broken." Rosa insisted.

"Not this promise. I won't break it." Taloc said.

"Very well then, since the others didn't object, then I will let this slide."

"Thank you."

"I have to start going, my husband and Dean needs to be told what's happening." Jasmine said getting up to her feet. Lolly who hasn't seen Dean's mother before became surprised when she heard those words.

Does that mean she is Dean's mother? But Dean never told her since they have been together that his mother was a seer. She was hurt that he could keep it away from her. She had been open to him and he wasn't.

"Good, tell King Darin to get ready for war at any given moment." Roen told Jasmine.

"Yeah, I will my king." Jasmine said with a smile.

"And thank you for saving my life Jasmine, I am indebted to you." Rosa standing you and going to meet Jasmine to give her another hug before she leaves.

"I have told you before my Queen, it's nothing." Jasmine said over her head. "Have got to go." She added and they detached themselves from the hug and she disappeared.

Rosa turned and noticed the new faces with them. "Roen there are new faces here with us, who are they?"

"That is Selena, the goddess of the mermaids and her daughter Avonmora." Roen said pointing at the two women. "Avonmora is Rae's mother and Tharollin mate. The other one I think is related with Selena." He added.

"Very funny Roen. I am Lydia, Sarah's mother and Selena eldest sister." Lydia introduced herself.

"Oh, nice to meet you." Rosa said with a smile which they returned.

"There is one more who is not here. He followed Tharollin out a few minutes ago, he is an Angel." Lillian said. "His name is Michael."

"Okay, so where did Tharollin and the angel went to?" Rosa asked.

"We don't know, but they will be back." Roen answered.

Davea Kingdom:

Lucifer, Rae and some of his fallen Angels left the ruined Kingdom of the Fairy and fly to the next Kingdom. He left the others to continue destroying what remains of the fairy Kingdom and join him later on.

The Davea Kingdom. ( A Davea is a creature of shadow, a special type of demon, which is periodically used by others demons, similarly to hellhounds.) And their King's name is also Davea.

Landing in the palace quietly with Rae, they saw the king looking at the darkened sky in surprise. Some of the guards were holding fire touch to use in seeing their way.

It was the sounds his fallen Angels made that made King Davea realized their presence. He saw a man and a young lady with Sekelons behind them. Looking closely at the young lady, he realized it was Tharollin daughter that Lillian had announced at the wolf festival.

"Who are you?" He asked his unwanted visitors.

"I am Lucifer and this is my bride." Lucifer answered.

"What do you want?" King Davea demanded, his warriors kept coming out ready to fight.

"Your Kingdom, kindly give it to me or see your Kingdom get destroyed in your own very eyes."

"You wouldn't dare. You can not just come into my Kingdom and tell me to leave what I had toiled hard for." King Davea said.

"I can see you all Supernaturals doesn't take my pleading serious." Lucifer said. "I hope you had prepare your warriors for the battle." He added.

"I and my warriors are always prepared for anything."

"Good, I like it when I am being disobeyed." Lucifer said. "Attack him and destroy everything."

Lucifer Selekons charge forward and King Davea warriors March forward to attack the approaching Selekons.

Lucifer smirked at king Davea and his foolish warriors, they didn't know his armies are the undead.

Kingdom of Elilannon:

Jorkallun Tent:

Jorkallun woke up feeling refreshed, he wasn't feeling that weakness he had felt before he collapsed. He saw he was inside a tent and was alone. A Shi entered his tent.

"You are awake my Lord." The Shi, a female said. "If you will excuse me, I will go and inform the Keepers that you are awake." She added and left before Jorkallun will say a word.

She soon came back with the Sisters.

"Jorkallun, welcome back." Ness and Jess both said together.

"Where is Jason? Is he alive? I hope you didn't play on my intelligence to help you plant the crystals and won't keep your promise. Don't forget i know where your other sister lives." Jorkallun said in warning. He doesn't care if he is speaking with the Shi. He hopes they didn't go back on their words.

"Don't worry yourself Jorkallun. We, the Keepers of the lake, keep our promises. Your friend Jason now breathes in the land of the living." They told him together.

"He is alive!?" Jorkallun asked loudly.

"Yes, we healed his wounds." They replied to him.

"Where is he, I want to see him?" Jorkallun said getting up from his bed.

"You will get to see him soon, two servants are outside waiting to take you to the place you will bath. After that you will be given a change of clothes and they will take you to see your friend." They told him.

"That won't be a problem. Thank you for reviving my friend."

"No, we should be the one thanking you for risky your life to plant the crystals. Thank you Jorkallun." They said to him.

And they left the tent. He soon came out and saw the two male Shi's kneeling before him.

"Follow us my Lord." They said in unison getting up their feet and leading the way. Jorkallun followed them.

---

Jason Tent:

He has to save his Mate from the evil clutches of Lucifer.

But how will he free Rae when she is chained.

Looking around him, he saw himself in a tent and look down on himself. He was wearing different clothes that don't look like his.

Where is he?

He thought.

Touching his chest, at the place Rae had thrust my sword in, he noticed the bandage on his chest, though he doesn't feel any pain again. How did he managed to survive the wounds?

He wondered.

He remembered the wolf he had met in his dream who had told him his time wasn't now.

He stood up from his bed and came out of the tent. His surroundings looked strange, wherever this is, they had saved his life.

He was thinking and didn't notice the presence of Ness and Jess in front of him.

"Finally you are awake Jason." Their voice brought his attention to them.

Jason blinked his eyes when he saw who had spoken to him. They were purple people, everything about them were purple.

"Please who are you?" Jason asked. He wasn't afraid of them. In fact he felt calm in their presence.

"Jorkallun brought you here for us to heal you. He helped us and succeed in planting the crystals in another world which enables us to revive you."

"Thank you for healing my wounds. Where is he? Has the poisoned been removed?" Jason asked fearing for Jorkallun life. They had sent him to another world to plant some Crystals without removing the poison in him. How can he survive and his friend didn't.

"The poison has been removed, he is awake and have asked after you."

"Where is he then, I need to thank him for saving my life." Jason said and saw two more purple people coming towards them and stopped once they reach the ladies who kept saying things together.

"Why don't you follow them and have your bath and change into a nice clothes in there. After that, they will bring you to where Jorkallun is." They told him and left.

Without any further delay, he followed the two purple male people.

He couldn't wait to see Jorkallun again.

Taking his bath, he took his time to scrub his body and rasin it off. He wears the clothes, a red tunic shirt, that match with his hair color, with a black trousers and boots he had seen in the bathroom and came out of it looking fresh and more handsome. The clothes fitted him perfectly.

"Take me to where Jason is." Jorkallun ordered the Shi's with him.

Without a word spoken, they started walking and no one needed to tell Jorkallun to follow them.

He saw the sisters sitting beside a table made of gold and seated next to them with his back on him was his friend, Jason. He was wearing a white tunic shirt which matches along with his hair, with a black trousers and boots, like him, they fitted Jason. It was as if they knew their sizes of clothes.

"Jason!!!" Jorkallun yelled and ran to meet his friend, Jason turned around and saw his friend. He stood from his seat, left the sisters and ran to meet Jorkallun.

They hugged each other tightly once they were within arms reach.

"I am so glad you are alive." Jorkallun said in happiness as they detached themselves and starting walking back to meet the sisters.

"Me too, thank you for saving me. Without you I wouldn't have been brought back to life."

"Don't thank me, I know you would do the same for me too."

"I am really grateful Jorkallun." Jason said as they reached the table.

"Jorkallun, I see you are happy now that you have seen Jason." The sisters said together.

"Yes, thank you for your keeping to your words and if I sounded rude to you both earlier on in the tent."

"We understand your feelings Jorkallun, you are forgiven. We have decided to repay you for what you did for us," They both said, rising from their seats and smiling.

"Jason is alive and breathing, that is more than I could ask for," Jorkallun replied.

A young woman walked quietly towards the table where Jorkallun and Jason are. She made no sound on the soft grass and they did not hear her approach.

"There are two people you would have saved but couldn't." Ness and Jess said. "Though, we are sorry we could only find one soul and the other had finally cross to the other side because she died a long ago." They told him sadly.

Who can that be? Jorkallun thought hard.

"Hello Jorkallun," said a voice behind him, Jorkallun recognised the voice and turned around with his heart in his mouth.

Jason's eyes grew wide like socket when he saw her.

"Crimson?" Jason and Jorkallun both whispered her name together.

Standing before them was Jorkallun younger sister who had died.

The Fairy Kingdom:

Tharollin saw the raging fire and realize his nose has brought him to a burning Kingdom.

He and Micheal flew down to see if they could help and know the cause of the fire. As they flew nearer to the kingdom on fire, Tharollin remember whose Kingdom it is. The Fairy Kingdom.

What happened? All the whole houses were on fire and they were screams.

The only place with light just like theirs was the Fairy palace. They flew towards it quickly.

They landed at the Palace and saw the skeletons fighting the warriors. Tharollin notice the skeletons were gaining an upper hand against the fairy Kingdom.

Michael quickly left Tharollin side to go and help in the fight. But no matter how hard they fought, the skeletons couldn't be harmed. If they pieces any of the Skeleton bones, they will magically rejoined themselves.

Tharollin decided to do the only thing that could keep them away from the palace and the kingdom since they can't be killed.

He raised his hands to the sky and darkness came out of his body and move quickly to all the skeletons in the palace and the whole Kingdom, and with one swift move, removed them from the palace and the kingdom entirely and made the darkness stand as a wall between the kingdom and the skeletons. Since they are in darkness, his darkness can prevent them from coming inside the kingdom but can't kill them.

This is the only help he could render to the already ruined Kingdom.

Chapter 13

'For everything in this journey of life we are on, there is a right wing and a left wing: for the wing of love there is anger; for the wing of destiny there is fear; for the wing of pain there is healing; for the wing of hurt there is forgiveness; for the wing of pride there is humility; for the wing of giving there is taking; for the wing of tears there is joy; for the wing of rejection there is acceptance; for the wing of judgment there is grace; for the wing of honor there is shame; for the wing of letting go there is the wing of keeping. We can only fly with two wings and two wings can only stay in the air if there is a balance. Two beautiful wings is perfection. There is a generation of people who idealize perfection as the existence of only one of these wings every time. But I see that a bird with one wing is imperfect. An angel with one wing is imperfect. A butterfly with one wing is dead. So this generation of people strive to always cut off the other wing in the hopes of embodying their ideal of perfection, and in doing so, have created a crippled race.'

♥♥♥♥ JASON AND JORKALLUN RETURN (Part Two) ♥♥♥♥

Kingdom of Elleanon:

Jorkallun didn't know when tears escaped from his eyes.

"Crimson is that really you?" Jorkallun have to ask to be sure he wasn't seeing double, he turn his gaze to Jason and asked him. "Do you see her too?" Jason who was still in shock managed to nod his head as yes to his friend question. "I thought I was the only one seeing her." Jorkallun added.

Crimson smiled, "It's me brother. I was brought back to life by the Shi's. They told me how you'd restored their magic...."

Jorkallun didn't even allow her to finish her sentence when he hugged his sister in a tight embrace. Crimson also hugged him tight not minding she was crushing his bones, they will heal.

"I missed you Crimson, my beautiful sister." Jorkallun said in a teary voice

"I missed you too brother. I am given a second chance to live all thanks to you. Please don't cry, you will also make me cry too." Crimson said as she detached herself from her brother, her voice almost in tears.

Jorkallun wiped his tears off his eyes. "I am not crying anymore."

"I can't believe this is you Crimson." Jason voice brought the red haired girl gazes at him. Unlike Jorkallun who got red eyeballs, Crimson eyes were that of a Lava.

"Jason." She whispers and Jason left his position to meet her, he hugged her tightly, Crimson return the hug.

He was there when Jorkallun had announced the birth of his sister, he watches as she grows up into a beautiful girl and a warrior. He took her like his sister and had cried for almost five years when he heard of her death.

"I have missed brother."

"Me too sis, I couldn't believe you were gone until five years later when reality drawn on me."

"I am glad to see you smile Jorkallun. We have to do this in repayment for helping us restore our Crystal." The gate keepers said together reminding the duo of their presence.

Jorkallun and Jason both turned and face the keepers of the lake. They bowed down at the same time as if they had spoken in their mind.

"Thank you for bringing back my sister." They said in unison.

"Please do not bow to us, we are only doing as instructed." Ness and Jess said as the boys straighten up. "Though we are sorry for not bringing your mother back to life. She has long crossed the other side and can't be revived. But your sister hasn't crossed over yet, we traced her soul and find it where those who have died go too. We were able to teleport her bones from her grave, fix it and put back her soul to where it belongs. We should be the one bowing to you for restoring our magic. The whole Elleanon Kingdom is indebted to the both." They told them. "Let's sit."

They made another chair appear which Crimson sat on. Once they were seated Jason ask the question bothering him.

"Why did you include me when thanking my friend, he was the one who did the whole thing, why?" Jason asked in confusion.

"That's because you also play an important role. If you haven't died, Jorkallun wouldn't have saved us. It's destiny, you died for Jorkallun to bring you here and help us to restore out dying Crystal in order to save you. So you both played your part." Ness and Jess answered him.

"Thank you for healing my wound and removing the poison and thank you Jorkallun for helping me. You are indeed a true friend."

Jorkallun smile so did the sisters.

"So how are you feeling now Jason, any pain?" Ness and Jess asked.

"No pain at all. I have a weird dream where I saw a white Millennium Wolf talking to me and telling me that my time to die hasn't come and sent me back." Jason answered also telling them his strange dream. "I woke up feeling more stronger and couldn't feel any pain in my heart area. I had to remove the bandage wrapped in chest, there was no sign of wound, everything was clear." He added.

"It's the handwork of the moon goddess, we only healed your mortal wound and she sent back your spirit to us."

"Not only that, I had another dream, this time around it's about Rae, my Mate. She brought me into a room where she was chained and begged me to free her." Jason told them.

"You saw Rae and she was chained?" Jorkallun asked with surprise.

"Yes, she told me she is trapped in Lucifer's mind and want to be set free." Jason responded.

"..."

"Sorry who is Rae? I was only told about the journey Jorkallun had to make to save Jason live and was not told about Rae." Crimson stopped Jorkallun from speaking.

"Rae is Jason Mate who Lucifer used in killing him and poisoning us. Jason was pushed down the cliff and i had to jump in after him , the words that Queen Jasmine told me came to me and when I regained consciousness, I saw I was at the Lake of Little and that's when the Shi's came to my rescue." Jorkallun explained to Crimson.

"Wow, you now have a Mate?" Crimson asked Jason.

"Yes Crimson, she is the most stubborn person I have ever met and I love her the way she is." Jason answered as the image of Rae came into his mind.

"You will forgive her for what she did to you, right?"

"Yes, she wasn't in her right mind and Rae would never hurt me for anything." Jason replied her. "She is my Mate, my better half and I have marked her as mine forever. The only thing that remains between i and my mate is by having our wedding." He added dreamily.

"Good, and what about you Jorkallun? Still with Lolly?" Crimson asked excitedly.

Jorkallun smiled widely at that. "No, am not with her. I am so much in love with another lady who stole my heart away and locked it keeping the key safely in her heart." He answered her.

"What happened between you and Lolly? Why are you not with her?"

"It's a long story which will be discussed another time, but Lolly isn't who we all think she is. My new Mate have been marked as mine and father approved of it."

"I can't wait to see my brothers Mates." Crimson said smiling at her two brothers. "I can't wait to see father too." She added.

"That's true, since Jason is healed and doesn't feel any pain, can't we go home now?" Jorkallun asked the sisters.

"No not yet Jorkallun, you will go home tomorrow, we have to be sure that the wound in his heart is healed. Tomorrow you shall leave for your world." They answered him.

"Okay, but what is the name of the world I had choose?" Jorkallun asked eagerly.

"It's called World of no Return, whoever that goes to that world never return. You are brave to have succeeded in all the eight trials you've met on your way Jorkallun." Ness and Jess replied him.

"Does it mean there were others before me whom you had seek for their help to plant the crystals in the Crystal cave?"

"Yes, but they never return. They choose their doors and will also face their own challenges, I guess they failed in one of their trials." They responded and stood up from their seats. "We have to tell our healers that you are awake and also have them bring you food to eat."

"Thank you." The three of them said to the Shi's.

"You are welcome." They said and left their presence.

Davea Kingdom:

King Davea realized they were powerless against the Skeletons which refuse to die. He watches as his kingdom was destroyed and some of his people were killed.

When Lucifer had watched his fallen Angels destroyed the kingdom, he turned to stare at the King.

"I will be back and when I do and I still see you or your stupid people in the kingdom, you will follow the ones dead to the other side." Lucifer told him exactly what he told the Fairy Queen and King.

Carrying Rae in bride style he flew out of the ruin the kingdom towards his abode. His fallen Angels following him.

"What are we going to do now my King?" The Kingdom general ask King Davea.

"We vacant the Kingdom as he instructed and find somewhere safe around one of the caves around. I will go and inform King Roen that I have lost my Kingdom." King Davea answer. He has no other option than to do as he was told.

Fairy Kingdom:

When the Skeletons Tharollin had pushed back realize they couldn't enter the kingdom because of the darkness surrounding it, they left the fairy Kingdom and headed straight to their master abode.

Tharollin disperse his darkness when he saw them leaving after struggling to enter the Kingdom.

He turned to face the Queen and her husband who were clothed with blood of their dead people. Queen Flora quickly whispered some words and the fire burning the Kingdom faded and wasn't seen. But the damage the fire had caused was visible.

"How did this happen?" Micheal asked the question in tharollin mind.

"He came to us and demanded we hand over him our Kingdom which we bluntly refused. He then asked his undead armies to fight us. He was also with Rae and left with her." Queen Flora replied Micheal.

"My daughter was here with him? Did- did she also join in the attack?" Tharollin asked wondering how he managed to say those heavy words out.

"No, she wasn't, she was just standing there with him dumbly." King Noah replied Tharollin.

"Thank you both for coming in time and saving my Kingdom. Tharollin I have always hated you in the past and you know it yet you helped me, thank you." Queen Flora said.

"It's okay Flora, your hatred didn't bother me at all." Tharollin told her.

"What else did he also tell you?" Micheal asked.

"He said he is given us a second chance for we, the ones who survived, to move away from our Kingdom to somewhere else, or he will kill the remaining survivors." King Noah answered.

"But how did you know we were in trouble. Darkness wouldn't have allowed anyone to see a Kingdom on fire." King Noah asked.

"Tharollin perceived the fire from Roen's palace, he was the only one perceiving it and I had to follow him. He was right." Micheal answered.

Queen Flora and her husband was surprised.

"What's your name?" King Noah asked Micheal.

"Micheal, I am an Angel." He responded.

"Let's go back to Roen's palace and report what we have just witnessed." Tharollin told Micheal.

"Once we have moved our remaining people to safety, I and my wife shall pay king Roen a visit. Thank you Micheal and Tharollin for the help rendered." King Noah said.

Tharollin and Michael both left the kingdom at once heading towards Roen's palace. They couldn't wait to inform the others.

Lucifer landed outside his cave and entered inside, he dropped Rae gently on the bed which was still there.

"You look more dashing in this clothes I got for you." Lucifer said. "Smile for me and thank me Rae."

Rae smiled at him. "Thank you."

"You are welcome my precious." Lucifer said sitting down on the empty space on the bed. "Face me." He ordered and Rae did as he order.

Lucifer place his hand on Rae's chest and closed his eyes. "Close your eyes Rae." He ordered and Rae did.

He started saying some words and thick darkness left his body and entered into Rae in full force. He did so for some minutes before removing his hand.

"You can open your eyes now my beautiful Rae and smile for me." He said and Rae opened her eyes sending him a smile.

His darkness in her filled her and won't make her grow hungry, it will make her stronger.

"Lie down and sleep my beautiful." He told her and Rae comply.

A Skeleton walked towards them.

"My Lord, we were stopped by Tharollin and one of the holy Angel in the kingdom you had left us." The Skeleton told Lucifer.

"Tharollin, he thinks he is wise." Lucifer muse slowly stroking Rae's hair making sure his hand didn't touch her bare skin. "Tell the rest to get prepared, we will be attacking Roen's Kingdom in a few hours time."

"Yes my Lord." The Skeleton said and left his presence.

In a few hours time, Jason Kingdom will be burnt to ashes and when he returns, he wouldn't see a place to squat.

Roen's Palace:

Tharollin and Michael both landed at the same time and hurriedly walk to the throne room.

Opening the door, Tharollin was surprised to see Rosa.

"How did you manage to survive the poison?" Tharollin asked.

"Queen Jasmine saved my life." Rosa replied him. "I was told you and Michael went out to look for something, hope you found out what you were looking for?"

"Yes Rosa." Tharollin said and faces the rest. "I was right about the fire. The fairy Kingdom was attacked by Lucifer and his fallen Angels. They had almost destroyed the kingdom before we came in. Lucifer wasn't there and I was told he came with my daughter."

"This is unbelievable. Why would he attack the fairy Kingdom?" Roen asked.

"He said he wants the kingdom and when they refused, he attacked them." Micheal explained.

"What are we going to do to stop him?" Rosa asked. "We have to do something else he will start attacking the whole Kingdoms."

"I have to go and meet Lucifer right away, you have to take me to his hideout Tharollin."

"Let's go then." Tharollin said and left the throne room with Taloc after him.

He flew higher as Taloc laviated himself up and followed Tharollin. They could see perfectly in the darkness.

30 Minutes later..

Throllin stopped and pointed at the cave a few meters from them.

"You have to go in yourself, I won't follow you. I hope you won't betray us." Tharollin told him.

"I won't betray anyone. Have faith in me." Taloc said and left towards the cave.

He landed at the mouth of the Cave and ignored the skeletons hovering around both in and outside of the cave. He teleported himself inside the cave before he would be stopped.

"Taloc, what brings you here? I thought you were busy looking for your mate."

"I was until I saw what you did to the Fairy kingdom on my way back, I must say you did a wonderful job with the kingdom."

"Sure, and Rae stood by me." Lucifer said in pride as he stared at his sleeping beauty. "What did you tell your daughter about the dead one?"

"I told her to get over Jason." Taloc replied. "I was wondering how you managed to make Rae do as you said which I didn't succeed."

"It was very simple friend, I used her blood and feed her with my darkness. As long as I breaths, she is bound to me." Lucifer answered. "And the only way to release her from my grip is if I am dead which is impossible." He added.

"Okay, I am glad you are with Rae and I am now the only Tribid remaining. We helped each other in succeeding in our goals, but my goal isn't complete yet dear friend. I am still in search of my beloved mate." Taloc fake his sadness.

"Don't worry, you will see her."

"How? I had killed the only one who knows her whereabouts."

"I wish I could help but I am in no mood for that, I have plans for a few hours from now."

"Very well then, I will take my leave."

"See you again." Lucifer said. Next time we see will be your last day on earth. He thought as he smiled at Taloc.

Taloc teleport himself back to where Tharollin was waiting for him.

"Did you get the information?"

"He said to free your daughter, he has to die."

"Save my daughter first then he shall die." Tharollin said with clenched teeth. "Let's head back to the palace." He added and disperse into his darkness, disappearing, rolling his eyes, Taloc teleport himself to the Roen's Palace.

---

Appearing at the same time. Taloc told the others his discussion he had with Lucifer.

"Then we have to find a way to kill him without it resulting Rae's death." Lillian said.

"We have to think fast, anyone should come up with an idea on how to stop Lucifer without hurting Rae." Lydia said.

"If we can separate them and I am with Rae, then when Lucifer is killed, I will quickly heal Rae and try to revive her." Selena suggested.

"Do you think it will work?" Tharollin asked.

"It's our only chance."

"Then we have to look for a way to separate them." Taloc said.

"I need to rest my pretty head, once I am awake you will fill me in." King Vermitrax said getting up and walking out of the throne room. He needs all his strength.

"I think he is right, we need to rest out head a little, maybe one of us might have an idea." Lillian said in support of the Dragon King yawning in process.

They all stood up and left the throne room. Tharollin stayed behind pacing about, thinking hard.

Kingdom of Elilannon:

After they had eaten their fill, they were taken to their tents where they fall asleep immediately.

They both slept for a very long time.

Jason was the first person to wake up and came out from his tent, he has rested well. Like before, two Male Shi's took him to bathe and gave him a change of clothes.

He wasted a lot of time in the bathroom thinking of the chains on Rae and how to free her.

He came out of the bathroom and the Shi's walked him down to the golden table and chair where he saw the sisters, Jorkallun and Crimson.

"You finally came to join us." The sisters said to him.

"Sorry, was thinking."

"It's okay, we place some sleeping drugs into your food to make you three sleep and regain whatever strength that remains hidden. You will be leaving to your world today."

"So we slept the night away?" Crimson asked.

"Yes." The sisters answer. "Come with us." They said and started walking away, Jason, Jorkallun and Crimson followed them.

They soon arrive at the edge of the Elilannon river and stopped. "Walk on the waters, it will lead you back to your world. You know the way back to your Kingdom." Ness and Jess told them.

"Thank for your bringing me back to life." Crimson was the first person to speak, hugging the sisters and started walking on the water, a thick veil opened and she walked into.

"Thank you for everything. For giving me a reason to smile, for bringing back my friend. Thank you." Jorkallun said hugging them both and ran to meet his sister.

"I want to thank you for everything." Jason told them. "I hope you visit my world to see your sister and perhaps us in the nearest future." He added and they smiled at him.

"Jason, you are stronger now. Use your strength wisely." They told him. "Farewell."

Jason nodded his head and walk on the water going through the veil.

Roen's Kingdom:

Lillian woke up to the flapping of birds wings in the palace.

Opening her door and stepped out, she saw Skeletons in the palace compound, not attacking. The light she had created made her see those things.

She wasn't the only one who heard the noise, the rest came out of their chambers to see Lucifer with Rae and their fallen Angels.

"Wow, what a surprise to see you all alive." Lucifer said very surprised. He wasn't expecting to see them here.

And Taloc who came to meet him some hours ago didn't tell him they were alive.

"Taloc you kept this away from me? You should have told me they were alive."

"I wanted to tell you that in your grave."

Lucifer smiled at that.

"Give me back my daughter right Now!!!!!!" Tharollin boom voice sent some of the fallen Angels backwards.

"And if I don't Tharollin, you cannot harm me or have you forgotten?" Lucifer said as he helped Rae's hands.

"I will kill you." Tharollin said in anger.

Lucifer laughed at that. "The only one who can do that is the Creator and not what I told Taloc." Lucifer said and continue. "Tharollin let me remind you that you are my darkness."

"He is not your Darkness Lucifer and can never be, he is an Angel of light." Michael satjd.

"But my darkness is in him holy one. I put the darkness inside him." Lucifer said. "Should I show you an example? Of course I will." He added.

Lucifer stared at Tharollin. He started whispering some words and Tharollin held his head with his hands as he tried to fight Lucifer voice closing his eyes in pain.

It went on for a minute and Lucifer stopped.

Tharollin opened his eyes which was all in darkness and roared into the sky. Dark smoke was seen coming out from all his body.

"What have you done to him!!!" Avonmora yelled out.

"All of you here are fools, a very big one. Do you want to know why I say so? I will tell you. You all have been busy looking for a way to get Rae out of my hands and kill me, but none of you remembered, not even once, that I still have control over Tharollin." Lucifer said with a smirk.

Chapter 14

'Life is to be lived, not controlled; and humanity is won by continuing to play in the face of certain defeat.'

♥♥♥♥ THAROLLIN AND A PLAN ♥♥♥♥

Lucifer laughed at their surprised faces. "Come to me Tharollin and kneel down before me." He commanded Tharollin who fought to resist the commanding voice but find it too difficult. He found his feet moving towards Lucifer, he stopped once he reached his front and kneel down before Lucifer.

"No, it can not be, you don't have any control over light, and light is Raphael." Micheal said.

"I know that holy one but he belongs to me now. Tharollin, attack them!!" Lucifer ordered Tharollin.

Turning to face them at a slower pace as he slowly stand up to his feet, they noticed the man standing before them wasn't the Tharollin they once knew. He stretched forth his hand and his dark sword made out of darkness formed in his hand. He started advancing towards them slowly.

Tharollin was trying to get hold of himself but he couldn't.

"This is not happening." Lillian whispered mostly to herself.

Michael brought out his sword from his angel wings purse that he normally keeps his sword. It magically expanded and was filled with light.

"Raphael fight it. Use your light!" Micheal yelled out the words as he pointed his sword at Tharollin stopping the dark angel from moving forward.

Tharollin closed his eyes and opened it staring at him.

"I can't control it, I told you once before I am darkness, it has encircled around me. It feeds from me." Tharollin said his voice and eyes back to normal briefly before it became very dark again.

"You got that wrong Raphael, it's not about the darkness being in you, It's about you accepting the fact that you are darkness. You weren't created in darkness, you are light. The Creator created you in light Raphael, find your light and defeat the darkness in you." Micheal told him.

"Oh just shut your mouth Micheal, he is under my control and there is nothing you can do to change that. " Lucifer told Micheal with a grin and turn his gaze to Tharollin. "Attack them right now, destroy them all and bring that stupid Taloc alive." He commanded Tharollin.

Without any hesitation, Tharollin ran towards Micheal, throwing his sword towards the angel.

Micheal ran towards him also used his sword to block the attack, Tharollin sword quickly dissolve into nothing as another formed in his hand.

Michael sword encounter with Tharollin sword when the dark angel raised it up to strike his heart.

Another sword emerge from his other free hand and he used it to thrust into Micheal stomach.

Before his dark sword could finally reach its target, Lydia prevented it from the sword Lillian had used her magic to create for her to use.

He disappeared right in front of them and reappeared at their back, kicking them hard on their back which sent them flying into the air before landing with a loud thud painfully on the ground. They groaned in pain as they lay on the ground. Thick darkness surrounded them like a cage.

He glanced at the rest and ran towards them.

Roen was the next, he changed into his huge Wolf and stopped Tharollin. They fought and Tharollin fling the wolf to one side after a few minutes of fighting him, caging him in darkness.

Sarah wanted to fight with him but was prevented from going by Selena.

"You are no match for him kid, he will kill you before he throws you out. Let the fighters fight him off." Selena told her.

"Selena create me a sword like you did to Lydia." Vertimax told the mermaid goddess who did as she was told.

Collecting the sword from her as he hold it by its hilt, he breathed fire against the shining fuller transforming it into a fire sword.

Vertimax and Taloc attacked Tharollin at once.

Tharollin leapt into the air and disappeared into the darkness in the sky.

Taloc and Vermitrax have their backs against themselves to prevent Tharollin giving them a surprise attack.

"Where are you coward, come out from your hiding place if you are not scared of us." Taloc shouted into the air. As Tharollin didn't appeared to them surprisingly as they were expecting. He was taken too long.

30 minutes later, Tharollin landed in front of them and a long whip made of thick darkness wrapped themselves in both of his hands and he ran towards them.

His whole body burning of darkness as they continue to increase in size as he approached the two men.

REALM OF THE GODS:

Artemis appeared in the presence of the rest of the gods as they had gathered to discuss why she hasn't come to inform them about her findings since she set out a few days ago.

"And we are just going to discuss about you Artemis, we thought you had been caught." Eros taunted.

Ignoring his taunt, Artemis bow her head to Zeus. "There is great chaos in the land of the Supernaturals Zeus. The man who you all had seen in Reon's palace was actually Lucifer. I also noticed the first Tribid who had caused great killings in the past is still alive but he is at the side of Tharollin. Tharollin daughter was the one who had poisoned Roen and his household with his family friends. Lucifer has risen his fallen angel once again and the Gate of Darkness has been closed forever." Artemis narrated what she had investigated.

"I said it father, I was right when I told you I didn't believe what Roen had said." Ares said.

"Then let's go straight away to help Roen defeat his enemies. He might be held captive in his own palace." Zeus said getting up from his seat.

"Yes, as we speak, they are in need of our help. Lucifer has turned everything into darkness. He and his fallen angels had attacked the Fairy Kingdom and the Davea Kingdom." Artemis told Zeus.

"Let's waste no time then, Roen needs all the help he can from us." Zeus said as the rest of the gods all stood up from their various seats. "Artemis, you are coming along."

So saying he disappeared and so did his son, Ares and one after the other they disappeared leaving the room they sat empty.

*****

Roen's Palace:

He swung his whip expertly at them and Vermitrax uses his fire sword to cut off the whip. He uses the other whip to push Taloc to the far edge of the Palace, out of sight.

Tharollin made the other whip grow longer and thicker and use it against Vermitrax. The Dragon King did his best to keep on with his fight and when he wasn't paying enough attention to his surroundings, Tharollin sneak his darkness behind him which formed into thick rope and used it to tie the dragon King body leaving him hanging in the air.

Taloc wasn't seen anywhere since he pushed him into the far edge of the Palace. It remains only the women.

"Yes!!" Lucifer shouted in happiness going to meet Tharollin. "Finish the ladies off but leave the one called Selena, do not kill her, someone wants her." He told Tharollin.

Rosa and Lillian started whispering some magic at the same time when Tharollin started walking towards their direction.

"No, do not do it Lillian and Rosa, leave Tharollin to me." Avonmora voice stopped them.

"What!?" Both Rosa and Lillian shouted and stared at Avonmora as if she has grown four heads.

"Do you want us to go down like the others Avonmora?" Lillian question.

"Trust me on this Lillian." Avonmora said and left their midst blocking Tharollin from proceeding further. He stared into Avonmora dangerously but she wasn't scared of his stares.

"Stop what you are doing Tharollin, please, you are hurting your friends, hurting me your mate." Avonmora said and moved closer to him, he wasn't moving, she continues. "I am your Avonmora, your soulmate. Do you really want to kill us, to kill me?" She added and finally close the gap between her and Tharollin.

"Don't listen to any of her word she is saying to you Tharollin, finish her up, end her life and kill the women, then come and end the ones still alive." Lucifer said behind him.

Tharollin hands changed into claws.

"Listen to me Tharollin, once you have killed us all, you will feel guilty if you regain yourself." Avonmora said placing her hands on both sides of his cheeks, ignoring the thick darkness that still emanate from all over his body. "I love you Tharollin---no, Rapheal, I love you Raphael. Do not let darkness win over you. Find your light that is still in you and embrace it."

"Funny enough, he won't listen to you, only voice he obeys is me. And he will follow my orders. Don't worry yourself, I will let him know what you said once I free him." Lucifer said in a smirk, mocking Avonmora.

"Raphael listen, it's me, Avonmora. Your Avonmora who still loves you regardless of your stupid act you did in the past." She said placing her head gently on Tharollin forehead, the thick darkness coming out of him started fading away slowly, Lucifer didn't notice it.

"Why are you not moving, kill the lady standing close to you and stop listening to the rubbish she is telling you." Lucifer told Tharollin.

Why isn't the fool killing her?

Lucifer wondered.

The darkness completely faded away and Tharollin took a deep breath smiling down at Avonmora and turned to look at Lucifer. "No, I won't kill my soulmate neither will I kill my friends." He told Lucifer with a huge smile.

"You are a fool Tharollin, a big fool. I will have your daughter kill everyone in your presence and finally you." Lucifer said with clenched teeth.

Crossing his arms and laughed. "Really? Lucifer, sometimes you have to bring down your ego and realize that you are not the only one cunning." Tharollin said.

"What do you mean?"

"What I mean is this. The game is over." Tharollin said and Michael and Lydia who had been pretending to be in pains stood up from the ground without pains as the cage formed in darkness faded, they went over to meet Tharollin. The darkness in the form of rope holding Vermitax faded and he joined Tharollin. Roen who was on the ground stood up to his feet as the cage formed in darkness faded and he stand beside Tharollin. Taloc who was just resting his back behind the building the darkness had taken him came out and join the rest. Tharollin smiled at Lucifer shocked face. "Lillian and Rosa had to play along with my Mate. I did all these just to distract you and made him bring my daughter back from you." Tharollin concluded pointing behind Lucifer who turned to look at his back. To his utmost shock and surprise, he saw Jason who grab hold of Rae's hand and vanished together with her. He was so fast in his actions.

Lucifer wasn't the only one shocked and surprised to see Jason.

Everyone except Tharollin looked surprised when they saw Jason disappeared with Rae. They hope their eyes were not deceiving them.

"No!!!" Lucifer screamed.

"Yes!!!" Tharollin scream out also. "My original plan was to make Vermitrax and Taloc quickly grab my daughter when I throw them in that direction. But when I leapt into the air and disappeared when they wanted to attack me, I saw Jason and his friend with another and quickly fill them the plan, that is why I had delayed my reappearance and have to take Taloc to the to the far edge of the palace and tie Vermitrax." Tharollin told Lucifer. "So you see Lucifer, you are not the only one that is cunning."

"How did you manage to do all these things with my darkness still in you?" Lucifer demanded in anger. He couldn't feel the presence of the brat who took his bride away.

"When I recovered my loss memory your hold on me doesn't control me that much." Tharollin answered.

"You are a fool."

"You keep saying that."

"I will turn my darkness inside you against you. You shall die a horrible death Tharollin." Lucifer said and started singing. He sang and sang and saw nothing happening.

"Oh, did I forget to mention." Tharollin began once he saw the confused face of Lucifer. "That I have exhausted your whole darkness in me? I have no darkness in me anymore Lucifer." He added and to prove his point.

His wings came out of his back, instead of his wings to come out black, the wings came out pure white.

"This is Rapheal, the messenger of the Creator, standing before you."

Chapter 15

'To be creative means to be in love with life. You can be creative only if you love life enough that you want to enhance its beauty, you want to bring a little more music to it, a little more poetry to it, a little more dance to it.'

♥♥♥♥ THAROLLIN AND LUCIFER ♥♥♥♥

Lucifer was livid with anger as Tharollin finished those words.

"Raphael!!!" Lucifer yelled out in fury.

"Lucifer!!!!" Raphael yelled out with the same energy.

"You haven't won yet Raphael, I will make you regret for double crossing me, that I promise you." Lucifer promised.

"I have my daughter with me and I am free from your evil clutches, so there is nothing I will regret here." Raphael told Lucifer. "Unless you are planning to attack Kingdoms like you did to the Fairy Kingdom." He added with a snort.

"You don't know me too well Raphael." Lucifer said. "You will pay for all these."

Jason appeared next to Raphael with Rae in his arms, she was just staring at the sky like a dummy. Two red Dragons landed protectively behind Jason and Raphael as they shrink their size into smaller dragons.

"How did you manage to survive? You were dead in my eyes before you were pushed off the cliff. The poison in you has weakened your powers so how come you are still alive?" Lucifer demanded in fury.

"That's because I still have many years to live and your sword you said killed Tribid didn't work. I am alive and here to stop you Lucifer." Jason reply calmly.

Rosa and Roen hearts were filled with joy as they behold their only son in front of them. He is alive!! They were happy that they hadn't imagined what they saw a few minutes ago, the one who had actually taken Rae from Lucifer when he was a little bit distracted was really their son. He was standing a few meters away from them.

Vermitrax couldn't contain his happiness when he saw his son dragon form. His son is alive as he had believed it. Though the other red dragon seemed so familiar to him but seeing his son once again made him forget about the other red dragon. He will get back to that once Lucifer isn't here.

Sarah wanted to scream out in joy when she saw her dragon landing beside a healthy Jason. They are both alive and well. She couldn't wait for all these to be over so she could throw herself in his arms and kissed him. Her mother threw her a look that says 'Is that the dragon boy who is always with you?' nodding her head as yes to her mother, Lydia smiled at that confirmation and focus on Raphael.

Taloc closed and opened his eyes in a sigh of relief. Jason isn't dead, his other friend isn't dead. He doesn't know about the other red dragon. All he knows is that they are not dead from the poison wine or from the sword. Now Rosa and Vermitrax will forgive him fully and maybe Rosa will release his mate to him. He will have to beg her if it will come to that. Her son is much alive and healthy.

Lolly felt no jealousy when she saw Rae in Jason's arms. Nor did she have any attraction towards Jason again. She was just staring at his back to see if her heart will pump like it always did whenever she saw him, but it didn't happen. Truly, she is no longer in love with Jason but with Dean. She thanked the Creator in her heart for giving her a second chance to start over again. She only hope Dean loves her back. It will break her heart if he doesn't love her, and when it happens, she won't blame him that much, after all she has done, she deserves it. For now, she hopes Jason, Jorkallun and Rae forgive her and let everything be bygones.

Lillian and Selena was very happy seeing Jason and Jorkallun. She thanked the Creator that they didn't die from the poison and are now back.

Seeing Rae in Jason arms Lucifer started boiling with wild anger.

"You are touching what belongs to me Wolf." Lucifer said with exasperated.

"She doesn't belong to you anymore. She wasn't even yours to begin with. You forcibly took her away from her Mate after making her killed me." Jason told him with irate. "You are the one transpassing what doesn't belong to you."

"And you think holding her has stopped her from becoming mine. I still have my control over her unlike her father here." Lucifer taunted. "Rae come to me."

Rae who has been staring at the dark sky like a dummy started fighting with Jason to let her go, punching Jason all over his chest and face, but the white haired boy didn't flinched nor release his hold on Rae. His arms tighten around her the more.

"Is that all you can do Lucifer." Jason taunt him back. "You can't have what is already mine."

Furious, Lucifer made a knife out of darkness and aim it at his heart. He smirked at Jason who was slightly confused by his sudden action.

"No I am not dying fool." Lucifer cleared up his confusion. "But she is. I don't know if Rapheal had told you that whatever I did to myself will reflect on Rae. When I thrust the knife into my heart, hers will stop beating, in that way she won't be with either of us. I will raise her back to life but this time around, she will be mine forever." He told Jason and thrust the knife into his dark heart, at the same time Raphael stretch out his arm and touched Rae's forehead, and his hand shone brightly, the rays of his light entered Rae in full force.

Dark smoke was seen leaving Rae's body and Rae finally closed her eyes in sleep.

"Now like me, my daughter is free from your clutches and darkness in her. Her blood in you has loosen its effect on her and you can't control her any more." Raphael told Lucifer with a smile. "None of us are under your bondage again."

Lucifer saw nothing was happening and thrust his knife into his heart harder, he couldn't feel the pain of the knife but Rae could have felt the pain. Nothing happened, she was just sleeping peacefully.

"Enough of this chit chat we have been having Lucifer, you are going down." Rapheal told him.

Lucifer laughed at that four statement and disappeared from their midst. Some of his fallen Angels flew up leaving the palace and some remain and attacked them.

Raphael made a long whip filled with light and swing it towards the running Skeletons heading their way, the whip encircle all of them and with a strength fit for a thousand armies join together, he flings them out of the palace and into the darkened sky.

No Skeletons was left behind. Once again the palace compound was clear except for Raphael and the rest of them.

"Let's go after Lucifer." Micheal suggested to Raphael.

"No, we won't go after him. This isn't his real plan. Though he wasn't expecting that I will be set free and with my daughter also, his plan was to come here and make you all understand that he could still control me which proves abortive." Raphael responded.

"So what are you trying to say?" Micheal asked.

"This isn't his real plan Micheal, so we have to let him go for us to really know his real motive." Raphael replied him and faces Jason. "How did you manage to survive?"

"I was stone dead but Jorkallun here saved my life." Jason answered and gave Raphael his sleeping daughter who carried Rae with care.

Jason turned and ran to meet his parents, hugging them at the same time as tightly as he could. Rosa and Roen both hug their son like their life depends on it.

"I thought I wouldn't see you again Jason." Rosa said once they detach themselves.

"Me too son, I couldn't save you. I am sorry if I failed you." Roen said.

"Father, there is nothing to feel sorry for. I am alive and seeing you and my friends are enough for me." Jason said.

Vermitrax watches on as the two Dragons changed back to their human form and his eyes went wide in shock. He was seeing his son and... and his long dead daughter.

"Jorkallun you are alive, is that Crimson I am seeing with you?"

Smiling. "Yes father, I brought Crimson home."

Vermitrax didn't say anything as he hugged his son and his daughter who had returned. Tears of joy beamed down his face. "I was hoping my son isn't dead, and here he is, and not only did he return he surprisingly came back with his sister." He said with joy.

"Jorkallun." The voice of Sarah pulled Jorkallun out of his father's embrace and he close the gap between them, hugging Sarah.

"I have missed you Sarah." He said over her head.

"Me too, I am glad you are alive Jorkallun, seeing you here with me shows that I am not imagining you." Sarah said touching all over his face.

"No you are not Sarah, I am back now and back for good. The thought of seeing you once again kept me going. I want to introduce you to my younger sister who was given a second chance to live." Jorkallun told her and took her back to where his father and sister are still standing.

"Crimson, I want you to meet my friend and Mate Sarah who is the love of my life and Sarah this is my younger sister." Jorkallun introduce Sarah to his sister.

Crimson beamed with smiles as she stared at the beautiful girl standing in front of her.

"I am so glad to see the girl who made my brother smile at the mention of her name." Crimson said and surprised Sarah by hugging her. "Welcome to my family."

"Thank you Crimson."

Raphael and Avonmora looked at their daughter.

"She has your type of hair Avonmora." Raphael said with pride.

"And your face Raphael." Avonmora said as she touched Rae's sleeping face with love.

"Did you really mean what you told me back then?" Raphael asked staring at Avonmora.

"Did I really mean that?" Avonmora said pretending to be thinking about it. "Yes I did. My daughter is back in my arms all thanks to your genius plan." She added with a smile.

Raphael smiled. "So what name will you go with, Tharollin or Raphael?" Avonmora asked.

"Raphael, I am now filled with the light of the Creator. Tharollin was a name given to me by my fake father and Lucifer, now that I have regained my light back and I have no darkness in me anymore, Raphael will do." Raphael replied with a smile and suddenly he became serious. "So can I kiss you now without you slapping me?"

"Yes you can Raphael." Avonmora said stretching out her neck for a kiss.

Raphael didn't waste any time and kissed Avonmora making sure he didn't squeeze his daughter between them.

Lydia went to meet her sister and they stared at their daughters. "The only thing missing here is our father." Lydia begin.

"Yeah, I miss father but you know I cannot go home or talk to him. He doesn't want to see my face and that's why he banished me forever." Selena said sadly.

"He misses you Selena, father regret his actions and long to see you. That was why I had sent Sarah here to look for you and look after Rae." Lydia said and thought for a while. "I know what to do Selena." Lydia said.

"And what do you want to do?"

"Wait and see, you will be happy." Lydia replied. She needed to visit their father and tell him what's happening. She saw Micheal heading their way and smile. "Micheal is coming over her Selena, give him a listening ear and remember, no one is above mistake. He made a mistake and he has learned from it. Take it from your elder sister give love a try like your daughter is doing with her own Angel." She added and left Selena once Micheal has reached them. She went to stand next to Lillian who was smiling.

"Selena I know you've heard this from me but I will still say it. I am sorry for what I did to you in the past, I just hope you will give me a second chance for me to right my wrong. I was selfish and naive back then. I am sorry Selena, please forgive me." Micheal said sadly with his head bend low.

The words of Lydia came floating in her ears. "What you did to me was unforgettable, you made my father banished me. I saved your life once Micheal and you repay my kindness and love by rejecting me in the presence of everyone over your position." Selena said and watches as Micheal raise his head up to her face with tears in his eyes.

"I regretted that day Selena, believe me this foolish Angel of yours, I am sorry."

"I have forgiven you Micheal and I am willingly to bring back into my life, but if you mess this chance, then say goodbye to me forever." Selena said with a smile.

"I won't even dream of hurting you for years to come." Micheal promised.

"I am holding to your words Micheal." Selena said.

"Can I have a hug? Have been dying to have one from you." Micheal said closing the distance between them.

Selena didn't say anything instead she wrapped her hands around him.

"I love this Lolly, everyone is together." Taloc said and his voice seemed to draw the attention of Jason and Jorkallun at once to them.

"What is this evil man doing here?" They both asked at once.

"Calm down, he has been helping us since." Lillian said. "Taloc has changed."

"Whether you believe it or not, we are not the same people anymore." Taloc told the boys.

Jorkallun and Jason both snorted at the same time.

"My father isn't lying." Lolly's voice was heard. "We are sorry for what we did to you. I have realized my mistakes and want to help. Don't blame my father, I was the one who had dragged him to this mess. I am sorry you got hurt." She added surprising Jason and Jorkallun when she apologized.

Lolly never apologize even though she was wrong. Seeing her apologizing made them believe her words.

"I hope you keep to your words and not go back to it." Jason said to Lolly.

"We are not going back to our words." Taloc assure Jason.

"But how did this happen? I mean how did you survive? I saw you fell down from the cliff after Rae thrust the sword into your heart three times." Lolly asked when she saw Jason wasn't going to attack she and her father.

"It's a long story." Jorkallun responded.

"Tell us son." Rosa said going to meet Jorkallun and pull him for a hug which he returned.

Before Jorkallun would open his mouth to tell them their journey, the gods appeared one after the other grabbing the attention of everyone.

Zeus was surprised when he saw everyone in perfect conditions, he wasn't the only one surprised.

"Artemis, are you sure of the information you gave to us?" Zeus asked turning to face the goddess.

"What information did goddess Artemis give to you?" Roen asked.

"She told us you are in trouble and fighting with Lucifer, that is why we are here. But it seems this is a family reunion and not a war zone." Ares replied.

"She is not wrong." Rapheal said and pointed towards the sky. "The sky is darken didn't that tell you all is not well?" He asked the gods.

It was at that moment they noticed the dark sky, the ball of light Lillian had created didn't allow them to see the darkness hovering above their heads.

"Oh, so where is he?" Eros asked.

"He ran away with his fallen Angels, but he will be back, I assure you." Raphael answered.

"In that case we won't be going anywhere until this is over, if it is war Lucifer want then he should get ready." Zeus said.

"Let's go inside to talk more." Roen said walking towards the throne room, he gestures to two of his palace guards to get more chairs for their visitors.

"Sure, I want to hear everything and how my daughter came to life." Vermitrax said supporting Roen.

They followed Reon including the gods and Taloc with his daughter.

Jason came to take Rae out of Rapheal arms and carried her. He doesn't want to keep her in a room alone, Lucifer might still be lurking around in the shadows waiting for the time Rae will be left alone to come and take her. He wasn't going to give Lucifer the satisfaction.

"Lillian can you create a portal that can take me to the bank of the Nile Sea." Lydia said to Lillian before she could walk with the others heading towards the throne room. They were behind. "I want to visit my father."

"Sure, are you feeling home sick again?" Lillian asked and a portal opened beside Lydia.

"No, I want to discuss something important with him." Lydia answered. "Thanks Lillian." She thanked and leapt into the portal.

Kingdom Of Angels:

Lucifer arrived at the gate and order his fallen Angels to stay behind as he entered the Gate.

None of the holy Angels standing as guards attacked him as they have been given instructions by their King not to attack anyone till further notice.

Lucifer walked towards where the palace Aaron will be at. He still remember this place like the back of his palm. He had lived here once when he was still in good terms with the Creator.

Aaron was surprised when he saw Lucifer entering his throne room. He stood up from his throne chair as he approaches.

"Lucifer, I am surprised to see you."

"Yes, I know you will." Lucifer said as he stopped walking. He was standing close to Aaron, "I need your Angels to fight alongside with mine. I was this close in defeating Rapheal and his comrades and taking Selena has a hostage when it backfired. They took away my bride. That is why I am here, I cannot do this alone." Lucifer said not telling Aaron the entire truth.

"You have my words, I and my Angels will fight alongside with you." Aaron said.

"That's great news from my new ally." Lucifer said with a smile.

"Since your bride is with them, how do you intend to get her back?" Aaron asked.

"I still have control over Rae, Raphael light is in her and has removed all the darkness she was born with. But that's Rapheal light and not hers. Rae is still under me until she uses her own light to free herself."

Chapter 16

'There is a fountain of youth: it is your mind, your talents, the creativity you bring to your life and the lives of people you love. When you learn to tap this source, you will truly have defeated age.'

Semi Final;

♥♥♥♥ JASON AND RAE ♥♥♥♥

"You are so confident that she won't use her light, why is that?" Aaron asked wondering why Lucifer have the confidence that the girl won't use her light, or doesn't she know there is light in her?

Lucifer laughed loudly at that question. "None of them will remember including her, by the time she listens to my voice, my darkness shall overshadowed her light."

"Very well then, so when do we attack them?"

"Are your Angels well trained to fight against them?" Lucifer asked.

"Yes Lucifer, but you must remember we are not going to harm anyone once we go with you, we will only threatened them and put fear into them so that they can give you what you want and what I want. Angels are known for helping and saving people not for killing them. I told you why I am going to join hands with you but do not expect me and my Angels to kill anyone. So that my punishment won't be severe once I get summoned by the Creator." Aaron told Lucifer.

"Of course my friend, your Angels won't kill anyone I give you my word." Lucifer said thinking of a plan to put the Angel to sleep so that he will lead the Angels to war himself. "They won't hurt anyone." He added.

"Then, you have my fully alliance, once you are ready to strike, let me know so I and my Angels will join you."

"Very well my friend, get prepared we might attack them sooner, it might be tomorrow or next, or even today, but all the same, I will let you know." Lucifer told him. "I shall now take my leave." He added and left the Angel presence and Kingdom. Flying towards his own cave with his own fallen Angels. He has work to do.

Gabriel who had been on duty overheard their discussion and went to meet Aaron after Lucifer had left.

"My King what you are doing is wrong and you know it. We are of light and light don't mix with Darkness, have you forgotten?" Gabriel said once he had greeted him. "Tell him you are not interested in going with him to the war he wants to start." He added.

"You don't know anything Gabriel, and you don't have the right to question my decision. I am the King here, the Creator appointed me to be in charge of all the Angels and that includes you." Aaron said to him.

"Then also think if the Creator gets to know of your alliance with the creature of darkness because of a woman. A woman who doesn't love you but your brother. For crying out loud Micheal is your brother." Gabriel said trying to make him see reason.

"Then if he truly is my brother, he would leave Selena for me and look for someone else." Aaron said getting angry.

"Why don't you do the same to him. Why don't you leave Selena alone and look for someone else like you just said. They are in love with each other and you know it, why do you want to put an end to their love?"

"I deserve her, she will be mine once this is over. Listen Gabriel, we are not going to kill anyone, we might hurt them but not kill them. Once Selena is in my arms, my alliance with Lucifer is broken, don't you get it?"

"I don't get it my king but know you are walking towards your own end, and when it is time, you will be the only one to receive your punishment because you pushed the Angels to fight alongside with the devil."

"Gabriel, mind your own business and stop poking your nose in matters that isn't your business." Aaron said in anger. "Now leave my presence and inform the others to get prepared for war. You and them all will do as I have said because I am your King."

"Sorry my King, I will go and inform the others." Gabriel said and left the presence of Aaron.

He has to inform Micheal what's Aaron is up to.

Great Sea of Nile:

A portal opened at the bank of the great Sea and Lydia stepped out of it, the portal closes once Lydia started entering the water.

The sky was still dark but with her mermaid sight, she could see in the dark.

She drives into the deep Sea and wasn't seen.

---

Lydia swim until she reaches her father's throne and luckily enough, she met him there. He was alone.

King Nile was surprised when he saw his daughter.

"Lydia, I hope everything is alright?"

"Everything is alright father, but I need your help."

"My help in what my dear?"

"Selena."

That made King Nile to sit upright from his throne and stare at his daughter in astonishment.

"Have Selena been found?"

"Yes father, I have found my sister after so many years of search."

"Where is she? I can't wait to see her?"

"That is why I am here father. You see when you banished Selena she was already pregnant with Michael child and...." Lydia begin to say but got interrupted by her father.

"Selena was pregnant? Why didn't you tell me she was pregnant?" King Nile bellowed in anger.

"I also didn't know until recently father. Now, she left and cross the reef that separate this Sea with the others. She met and made friends with the Supernaturals across the reef. With time they built up their Kingdoms. She gave birth to a baby girl and named her Avonmora who became the queen of the mermaids over there. I think Selena found lost mermaids and together they built their mermaid Kingdom. I later got to find out that there was a mermaid clan across the reef and realize it was Selena and her daughter who rules it with the other Kingdoms still building. I made up my mind to pay a visit to them but that was when Avonmora mate opened the gate..." And on and on Lydia went telling her father everything and not even leaving a word behind.

"Wait let me get this straight, the man who I thought you were cheating on with your husband is Michael?" At Lydia nod he continues. "So he freed my granddaughter from the ice?"

"Yes father. Micheal has learn his mistakes and Selena has forgiven him." Lydia replied.

"If truly my daughter was able to forgive him, I will forgive his senseless act then." King Nile said. "But, where comes in my help, for all you've just told me, everyone is safe."

"For now father, but Lucifer won't back off, he wants Rae at all cost and will stop at nothing to take her away from us like he once did. Please, join us and fight against Lucifer."

"Fine Lydia, I will help, after all I need to see Selena and her offsprings." King Nile said with a smile.

"Thank you father, oh and if you must know, Zeus, your friend and the rest of the gods are also in this fight. They are on our side, Lucifer needs to be put down." Lydia told her father.

"I will be glad to be of help."

"Father if you will excuse me, I need to go and see my husband."

"Okay, do not forget when you are ready to return back, let me know to go with you."

"Thank you Father." Lydia said and left his presence.

King Nile couldn't wait to see Selena and his granddaughter and great granddaughter.

Roen's Palace:

Once they were seated Zeus cleared his throat and asked.

"So Tharollin how were you able to defeat Lucifer?"

"I didn't defeat him. I know how he works his games and I used his game on him, he wasn't expecting it to turn around in my favour. He thinks he is the only smart person in the universe, well I proved him wrong today." The Angel answer Zeus. "And also my real name isn't Tharollin, it is Raphael." He added.

"Accept my apologies then Rapheal, but you should know Lucifer doesn't back out. He managed to deceive us, making the gods to believe he was actually Roen when we visited. My son Ares, draw my attention to certain things after we left and that was when we sought the help of our goddess Artemis." Zeus said singing praises to the goddess.

"Thank you for staying to help us." Roen thanked Zeus.

"No problem Roen, you have my support and that of the gods, though Hermes betrayed us by joining league with Lucifer but I can assure you that the rest of us are trustworthy."

"I believe you." Roen said with a smile.

Rosa stood up from her seat and went to meet Taloc touching his shoulder.

"You know, I am so sorry for what I did to you in the past, I made you evil. I broke the Soul mate connection and didn't think of the consequences. If I had thought about it, she wouldn't have died and neither would you have turned into a ravaging beast. I am truly sorry. I wouldn't blame you for wanting to kill me, I would have done the same if you had killed my mate. I hope you find it in your heart to forgive me." Rosa apologize for her wrong doings.

Taking a deep breath, he smiles at Rosa, "I have forgiven you Likarica, I was just blinded by revenge and I killed your whole people. I am sorry for what I did to you and to your Kingdom. The universe bless me with a second mate but revenge took over my mind. And I am also sorry for joining hands with Lucifer to destroy your family, friends and everything you loved. I should be the one seeking for your forgiveness and not the other way round. I am sorry my Princess." Taloc apologize.

"You are forgiven. My son is safe and sound so also is his friends and everyone. I am glad you've turn a new leaf Taloc like I did." Rosa said.

"Yes, and I am not going to change, you all have taught me an important lesson. When all this is over, I want to spend more time with my family, thank you all for teaching that forgiveness, love and family are the three most important things in life."

Rosa was pleased with his words. "For turning a new leaf Taloc, I will free your mate." She said and closed her eyes, and started whispering some spells, opening her eyes, a magical cell appeared beside her and inside the cell was Tamara.

The door of the cell opened and Tamara stepped outside as the cell disappeared into thin air.

Taloc quickly stood up from his seat and went to meet his mate, hugging her tightly to himself.

Lolly also went to join her father in hugging her mother.

"Thank you Rosa for giving me back my mate. Thank you so much." Taloc said in happiness.

"You are welcome Taloc."

Tamara was looking lost at what is happening and asked Taloc what's going on.

Taloc briefly explained what had happened in her absence.

Her gaze landed on Rosa, "Thank you for what you did my Queen and thank you for giving us a second chance, you didn't condemned me after all I did to you. You are kind and I took it for granted. I am sorry. King Roen I am also sorry for the lies and everything I did to you and your household. I am sorry Lord Zeus for using your name to tell lies to the people and kings, I hope you will forgive me. Lillian, I apologise for my mistakes and ignoring your teachings." Tamara said nearly in tears and her gaze finally landed on Avonmora. "And I am sorry Avonmora, for what I did to you. The pains that I cost you, I am so sorry. I hope you all find it in your hearts to forgive me." She said asking for their forgiveness.

"It's okay, one is bound to make mistakes but I hope you won't go back to your old ways Tamara." Zeus said speaking the minds of the gods.

"I won't, that is a promise."

"I have also forgiven you Tamara. The past is in the past and cannot be changed, we only have the present to do the right thing." Avonmora chip in holding Rapheal hands.

"My daughter is right, let bygones be bygones." Selena said supporting her daughter.

"I am sorry goddess Selena, I destroyed what you struggle to bring together."

"It's okay, it's in the past now. Just hope you won't be going back to that same direction again."

"I won't, thank you for giving me a second chance."

At that moment a knock was heard and it opened before Roen would asked who it is.

Stepping in was King Davea.

Standing up to his feet. "What brings you here Davea?" Roen asked looking at how disheveled the king looked like and blood stains were seen on his cloak he wore.

"My Kingdom was attacked by a man who called himself Lucifer. He was with Rae the mermaid girl, though she didn't join in the attack. He warned me to take my remaining people out of my Kingdom or else we will die like others. I have taken my remaining people to the cave behind my Kingdom and asked them to stay there while I come here to inform you." King Davea explained. "We fought with Skeletons, real Skeletons." He added.

"This is very bad, so bad. He came here to attack us but Rapheal played him in his own game and collect his daughter." Rosa said. "Come and have a seat." She added pointing at her own seat which King Davea gladly went to seat. Making a cup of water appeared in her hands to the surprised of king Davea, she gave him the cup which he drank quickly.

"Thank you for this my Queen." King Davea said. "But how did you do the magic?"

"My wife is a Druid." Roen answer him.

"...."

A knock was heard interrupting Davea next question and Queen Flora and her husband, King Noah walked in.

The duo were surprised to see King Davea.

They were quickly told what had happened.

"So what are we going to do now?" Vermitrax asked finally.

"We have to get prepared, I don't want anyone to get hurt since the Skeletons can't be killed." Micheal answered.

"Why don't we all visit the rest of the Kingdoms he hasn't attacked yet and tell them what's on board. And take everyone to safety in that way once he comes he won't see anyone to kill." Rapheal suggested. "Those who wishes to fight alongside with us can stay back."

"You have a point Rapheal." Davea said. "I thought your name was Tharollin?"

"Yup, but I am no longer in darkness I am now in the light of the Creator, so it's Rapheal now."

"But where are we going to put our people safe?" Queen Flora asked.

"Some can stay in the Dragon Kingdom. We have a lot of space to accommodate them." Jorkallun chip in for the first time since he was there.

Jason wasn't paying any attention to their discussion, his whole mind and focus was on Rae.

"A great idea son." Vermitrax said in support of his son.

"Since we are less busy, let's go and start informing them right away." Roen said and the rest agreed as they stood up to their feet.

"Jorkallun go home and tell your people we are expecting a huge guests, also send down some Dragons to Roen's palace. They will fly the people to the kingdom." Vermitrax told his son as he left with Roen and the others.

Jorkallun stood up with Sarah to do as instructed, Crimson also followed them.

Jason stood up from his seat and his phoenix fire wings came out of his back which surrounded him and Rae, they disappeared.

"Father, I will quickly rush to meet Dean, I want to tell him about how I feel." Lolly said stopping her father.

"How you feel for Dean?" Tamara question with surprise.

"She is in love with the vampire Prince, she just realized that now." Talic supply the answer. "You can go, just be careful."

"Thank you father." She said and disappeared.

Tamara and Taloc quickly left the throne room to meet with the others waiting for them.

---

Jason appeared in his room and gently drop Rae on his already arranged bed.

He sat down on the space in the bed and started caressing Rae's face.

Rae groaned and opened her eyes slowly.

"Rae, you are awake." Jason said smiling.

The magic bracelet Lillian had made for her which made everyone believes she is a witch was still in her wrist, she used her magic to make a knife appeared in her hand and use it to strike Jason.

Chanting;

'Must kill Jason, must kill Jason'

Jason manage to dodge the knife and knock off the knife from her hand, he grabs her two hands tightly, caging them in one of his hand and his other hand to touch her cheek.

Rae tried to free herself from his grasp forcefully but couldn't.

"Rae, its Jason, it's me, I know you don't want to kill me. I am not your enemy."

That stopped Rae immediately.

"Jason, is that you?"

"Yes it's me Rae, your Jason." He said releasing her hands.

"You are not dead? I killed you, I killed you with my hands, I am sorry."

"You were controlled, but I am not dead. I can never leave you alone in this world my Rae." Jason said and Rae wrapped her arms around his neck and started crying.

Jason return the hug crying also.

"I am never letting you go away from me again Rae. I love you till eternity."

"I love you too Jason."

---

Lucifer who has been watching everything shout.

"No!!!" He had managed to hypothesis Rae and wanted her to use the knife to kill Jason but the stupid boy had free her from his grip with his mere talks.

No, Jason has to die and this time for real.

Closing his eyes, he uses Rae's blood still in him to connect with Rae like he had done a few minutes ago.

"Kill Jason, you must kill Jason." He started chanting.

---

Rae who has been crying at his shoulders stopped crying when she heard the commanding voice again. She made another knife appeared in her hand and lifted it, her heart was trying to fight the voice but couldn't.

She raises it up and brought it down to Jason's neck.

Chapter 17

'Darkness will always try to extinguish the light. The light will always try to repress the darkness. I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.'

Semi Final 2

♥♥♥♥ MY RAE OF LIGHT (Part One) ♥♥♥♥

"Rae you wanna know something?" Jason began stopping Rae in her tracks. The knife inches away from his neck. Jason voice made the hypothesis Lucifer had on her fade away and once she gets herself, she made the knife disappeared in her hand before replying Jason.

"Yeah, please tell me, keep talking." She answered and wanted him to keep talking. It seems when she talks, Lucifer hold on her fades.

Jason detached himself from Rae obvious from what had transpired a few seconds ago behind his back, he stared into Rae's eyes. "Your father once called you his Rae of light and I fell in love with it. I know you might be angry at yourself for allowing Lucifer to control you and he uses you to kill me, I just want you to know it's not your fault. Mistakes happen so don't feel guilty about it. You should know my love for you hasn't changed and will never change. I love you Rae." Jason said to her.

"I am glad you have forgiven me and free me from the clutches of that evil man, but I am sad that he might still have control over me. I gave him my blood and he uses it against me. He might control me again Jason and I am afraid of the outcome it will bring this time around." Rae told Jason. She didn't want to to inform him of hearing Lucifer's voice in her head. She has to find a way to remove his voice from her head so that he won't control her. "His darkness has consumed me a lot before, I don't want that to happen again, I want to free myself from him or better still run away from his darkness." She added.

"Rae, you must know that you cannot defeat darkness by running away from it, nor can you conquer your inner demons by hiding them from the world. In order to defeat the darkness, you must bring it into the light. And that light is in you Rae, use your light to fight against the darkness." Jason told her and kissed her forehead tenderly. He stood up from his bed and look down at Rae. "Go and take your bath, I don't like his smells on you. You smell more like him than me. I will go and get you some of your clothes from Lillian's house, okay?" He added.

"Okay."

"I won't be long." Jason said. "And just to be sure you are safe." He made a phoenix fire to form a circle around Rae, protecting her from harm, the fire phoenix also lighten up his room. "No one can hurt you while I am gone including him." He added.

Rae smiled.

"I will be back shortly." Jason said and his fire wings engulfed him and he disappeared.

Lucifer who had watched everything was very furious. He smiled when he saw Jason disappear leaving Rae alone.

This was his chance to get Rae from them.

He disappeared and reappeared right in front of Rae who was about to walk into the bathroom and have her bath. He blocked her way.

Rae moved away from him. "What do you want from me? Haven't you done enough already?" Rae asked.

"No, I haven't done enough and I want you." Lucifer replied her and moved closer to her.

"Stay away from me or else I will beat you." Rae threaten.

Lucifer laughed out at that. "If you are looking for who to beat, that would be Jason and not me. You are still weak from my darkness I had in you and not to mention, you are mine." He said. "Now enough of this chit chat we are having, you are coming with me."

He was quickly in Rae's face and tried to touch her shoulder so that he could disappear with her before Jason's return. In his haste he had forgotten the phoenix fire emulating from her, once he reached for her shoulder, before his hands could touch her shoulder, he was thrown back by an invisible force which landed him on the ground with a loud thud.

At that moment, Jason appeared with Rae's belongings and he quickly access what was going on.

Lucifer stood up to his feet quickly and glared at Jason, if looks could kill Jason would already be dead by now.

Going to meet Rae returning his own glare at Lucifer. "I know what happened here, you wanted to transpass what is not yours. As if I know this would happen that is why I had put my fire around her for safety. That fire is me, it burns who dares touch what is mine." Jason said with a scowl and held Rae's hand and lifted up so that Lucifer could see it. "Rae is mine and can never be yours, do want to know why? Because she is my other half, my soulmate and my wife to be and you ...you want to steal what is not yours to begin with."

"Gloat all you want Jason." Lucifer began spitting out Jason's name with much hatred. "But be rest assured after I kill you and everyone who stands in my way, Rae will finally belongs to me." He added.

"I belong to Jason and not you." Rae rebuked his claim.

"Don't forget in a hurry I can still get into your head my pretty one." Lucifer said to Rae smirking at Jason.

"You can get into her head Lucifer, but you can't force her to do to your own bidding. I won't allow that to happen, I will always be with her."

"Until then Jason, I will see you tomorrow, that is if you know what I time it is now." Lucifer said and disappeared.

Jason faces Rae. "What does he mean by he is in your head Rae?"

Rae started crying.

"Talk to me, don't cry my love, I won't get mad at you, is he still controlling you?"

"Yes. When you hugged me earlier on, I heard his voice inside my head asking me to kill you, I had made a knife appear and wanted to kill you with it and then..." Rae stops as she tries to catch her breath.

"And then what happened afterwards?"

"You started talking and whatever control he has on me stopped and I was able to get absolute control of myself again. I am sorry i tried to hurt you again, please forgive me."

"Rae you don't have to beg me, it's not your fault, and since my voice was able to stop you from harming me, I will be talking to you non-stop, okay?"

Rae nodded her head.

"Now, let's go and have our bath together, I will tell the others when they are back what Lucifer had said."

---

Jorkallun soon landed in the courtyard of Roen with his sister landing by his side. Sarah was sitting on his dragon as others dragons begin to land.

Jorkallun waited until Sarah had jumped off from his back before he changed back into his human form. Crimson also changes back to her human form.

It wasn't long after they land when they saw people of different Kingdoms entering the courtyard.

Each dragon's carried 20 people on their backs and flew away to their Kingdoms. The women and children first.

The remaining Fairies couldn't fly with them because only a dragon knows the way to their lair.

This they continue to do as more Supernaturals keeps coming. Only those who choose to fight stay behind.

****

The Kingdoms In The Supernaturals;

They have succeeded in telling the rest of the Wolfs kingdoms and other Kingdoms the forthcoming war and told them to go to Roen's palace where they will be taken away for safety.

They could all see perfectly in the dark and they used that to their advantage. Lillian and Rosa couldn't risk the lives of others if they create a ball of light to guide their way. They will be putting the whole people in trouble and Lucifer will get to know what they were doing once he sees the ball of light.

They wanted it to be a surprise for Lucifer when he comes to attack the kingdom's. He will be surprised by the time he sees all kingdom's empty.

Soon all the whole Kingdoms were empty.

"Well let's head back to Roen's palace and see how things are progressing." Vermitrax announced. "All kingdoms are empty now and the people are safe."

"We haven't told the vampire King the situation on the ground." King Davea said.

"Don't worry about that, my daughter is there as we speak, she will tell him." Taloc responded.

"What about the Crocottas creatures, won't we tell them of the coming danger?" Lillian chip in.

"The Crocottas can protect themselves, they are soul eaters unless you want your soul to be used as their food, you can go." Roen said. "They lived far away from the kingdoms and they don't associate with the kind of us, Lucifer might not even know they existed." He added.

"The Crocottas can take good care of themselves, you don't need to be worried about them." Zeus said. "Since our job is done, let's head back." He added.

Agreeing with them, Lillian made a portal, which opened and one by one they step in until it remains Raphael and Micheal.

Micheal who was the next to step into the portal stopped all of a sudden and looked up towards the dark sky.

"What is it Micheal?" Raphael asked as the portal closes and disperse into nothing.

"I feel one of the holy ones calling me." Micheal replied him and closed his eyes, he opened them soon. "Gabriel is calling me. And he sounded urgent." Micheal said bringing out his wings which sprout out from his back.

"I am coming with you then." Raphael said making his own wings to spout out from his back.

Without saying a word Micheal flew up and Raphael followed suit.

They pass the dark clouds and still fly further into the sky, after a while they saw Gabriel who was sitting on a very large star awaiting the presence of Michael. From the star he was sitting down to the kingdom of the Angels were filled with light.

Micheal flew and sat opposite him. Raphael didn't sit, rather he stopped in front of Gabriel flappy his wings in the air to keep himself floating mid-air.

"Raphael! Is that really you!?" Gabriel's eyes widened in surprise as he behold the lost Angel.

"Long time no see Gabriel, it is I Raphael."

"I thought you were lost forever after we had searched for you but couldn't find you." Gabriel said.

"I wasn't lost, I was captured by an evil man who turned me into darkness, that is why you couldn't find me. Anyways, as the Creator wishes, I am now free from the evil man clutches." Raphael told him.

"So why did you sent for me Gabriel?" Micheal said bringing the other Angel's attention to him.

"That's because there is trouble but now that Raphael is here, I believe you will talk some sense into Aaron." Gabriel reply.

"Talk some sense into Aaron? What did he do this time?" Micheal demanded.

"He is joining hands with the unholy Angels. I heard him discussing with a man who calls himself Lucifer, he told Aaron of a war he is about to wage. Aaron join hands with him and promised to lend him the holy angels to fight alongside with him on the day of the war. I tried talking to him Micheal, but he has made up his mind." Gabriel revealed why he had called on the Angel.

"But why is he doing all this, dining with the devil?" Raphael asked.

"He said he wanted Selena and will have her at all cost. He wants you dead Micheal so that Selena would become his, and that is why he decided to join hands with Lucifer." Gabriel answered. "Go and talk to him Raphael, he is going out of his mind, we don't associate with darkness."

"There is no need for that. I know my brother like the back of my palm. Once he decides on something, nothing can change his heart." Micheal said. "But there has to be another way to stop him and Lucifer especially him."

"As a matter of fact there is." Raphael said drawing the attention of the two Angels to him.

"How? What other way are you talking about?"

"What I should have done a long time once I had regained my memory. I think it's time to involve the Creator." Raphael answered. "It is the only way, only the Creator has the power to do things." He added.

"You are right, but how do we seek the face of the Creator?"

"Leave that to me, I will be going to meet him and you can go back to your kingdom Gabriel. Micheal you head back to Roen's Palace and tell the rest what's happening." Raphael gave out his orders. "And thank you Gabriel for your information." He left them flying higher.

"Gabriel do call on me like you do anytime you have news. Be vigilant and put your ears down to know when they will attack, Lucifer might be here to tell him that, okay?"

"Okay. I have to be going now, but be rest assured I am not joining him to fight with anyone." Gabriel said.

"Thank you for always having my back Gabriel."

Gabriel left the star and flew towards the Angels kingdom.

Michael flew downwards, flying straight to Roen's palace.

King Darin's Palace:

Lolly appeared at the courtyard of the vampire King and asked one of the vampires guards to take her to where the king or the prince might be. It was dark but she could see. She doesn't want to go to Dean's chamber unannounced.

Before a guard will take her to the throne room, Dean was there, he ran with his vampire speed as soon as he heard Lolly's voice from his chamber.

"Don't worry, I will take it from here." Dean said and smiled at Lolly. He stretches out his hand and took her hand into his without asking for permission and lead her away.

Lolly was speechless after seeing Dean, he wasn't shirtless like before, he was fully clothed and mere looking at him, he was driving her insane.

"Where are your parents?" She asked.

"They are busy, my mum came back from her travel. Do you want to see them?"

"Yes, but that will be later since you said they are busy. Apart from that, I also came here to see you."

Dean smiled and nearly jumped in joy when Lolly said that, he composed himself. "That's nice of you Lolly."

Lolly then pretended to be tired so that the vampire Prince will carry her. Thankfully enough, his chamber is still far from where they are.

"What is it Lolly?" Dean asked in concern as he saw Lolly nearly fall down to her feet, he had to grab her before she falls to the ground.

"Just tired." Lolly fake replied weakly.

"Oh, is it okay if I carried you to my chamber then?" Dean blurt out before he could stop the words.

"Yes, feel free to do that." No sooner as the words left her lips she found her face facing his chest. She rested her head on his chest and closes her eyes, taking in a deep breath, breathing his scent.

Dean was finding it difficult as the scent of Lolly filled his nostrils. He fought hard to control his urge of slamming Lolly against a wall and take her right there. He couldn't even think of Rae anymore, all that matters to him is the girl in his arms.

He reached his room and carefully drop her on his bed. He wanted to join her in bed but instead he made to walk out of his room to get water for her but was stopped by Lolly's voice.

"Dean I want to tell you something that I have just discovered recently." Lolly said, she has to tell Dean the truth about her new found feelings for him.

"Okay, I am listening."

"I am in love with someone else and not Jason anymore."

She is in love with someone? Who can that be?

Trying to hide his hurt from showing in his face, he turned and smiled at Lolly, "Oh, I am happy for you, so who is the lucky guy then?"

Getting up to her feet and went to meet him. She stared into his eyes deeply and reply to him. "I am in love with a vampire Prince whose name is Dean. I only pretended to be weak so that you can carry me in your arms." Lolly confesses finally, she saw the shock look on Dean and nod her head. "I love you Dean, not Jason, not Jorkallun, but you." She added.

Lolly waited to hear his response which was not forthcoming. Maybe he doesn't love her.

"Sorry I told you that. I know you don't love me like you love Rae. I hope our friendship is still intact and not broken because of what I utter." Lolly said sadly. "I will wait outside your chamber for you to get a hold of yourself and forget I even told you this." She added and walked past Dean who was repeating her words all over again in his head and opened the door, coming out of the room, she closes it.

Something wet touched her cheeks and realised it was tears. Her tears. Her vampire Prince doesn't love her.

Since he is still in his room, let her use the opportunity to ask a guard the direction of the King and Queen chambers, at least that will keep her mind occupied. She began to walk away.

"Lolly!" Dean's voice stopped her. "You forgot to give me a chance to tell you that I love you too. More than I have ever imagined that I could love someone! So please don't go."

She turned to stare at Dean with teary eyes.

"What did you say?"

Dean closed the distance between them fast. "I said I love you. I couldn't tell you because I thought you were still in love with Jason." Dean told her. "I love you with all my heart Lolly and will want to spend the rest of my life with you."

"Oh, Dean!" Lolly said touching his face tenderly. "I promise to love you forever, every single day of eternity," she sighed. "Being with you is... like magic."

"You are my magic Lolly and it won't change." Dean said and leaned forward and kissed her.

They kissed passionately and could have gone further if not for the clearing of throats that greeted their ears.

Breaking their kiss but not leaving their hands, they turned and saw Darin and his wife, they were smiling at them.

"Greetings my King." Lolly greeted.

"Lolly, so good to see you again." King Darin said.

"Yes my King, I will like to see you privately."

"Okay." King Darin said walking further away from his son and wife and Lolly followed. They walked a little distance away from them.

"If you want to tell me about the love you have for my son, you don't have to, I am fully in support."

"Thank you my King, but it's not that. There is trouble." Lolly said and fill in King Darin what's happening. "The reason they are not here yet might be my father has told them I am here and would tell you my King."

"Well in that case, I have to inform my people, thank you for this information." King Darin said and left Lolly to inform his fastest messengers the new information.

---

"I should have listened to your words mother." Dean said.

Jasmine smiled. "You should have, if you had, all these wouldn't have happened."

"Yes, I am sorry." Dean said and remembered something. "Mother, the prophecy you once told me about, the one you said I will die in the hands of Rae. Will it come to pass now that I have realised my mistakes?"

Touching his arm briefly. "It will, you will die but it isn't clear if it is Rae or someone else who will kill you." Jasmine revealed.

"I deserve it, but I don't want Lolly to get hurt if she hears of my death."

"There is only one option if you want to live."

👯 SEMI- FINAL 3 👯

'Myths are different than fairy tales or legends. Legends are stories based in history and are more or less true. Myths, on the other hand, are stories containing a deeper truth—stories that transcend time. If you were to travel the world, you would find myths that are remarkably similar to one another—stories of heroes fighting the darkness with the light.'

♥♥♥♥☀️ MY RAE OF LIGHT (Part Two) ☀️♥♥♥♥

"And what can that be mother?" Dean asked anxiously. "Tell me and i will do it." He added.

"If you seek for the forgiveness of the Millennium Wolf, and he forgives you, maybe you will be safe and won't die as i was shown, that's the option you are given. Confess all you have done to him, how you join hands with Lolly and her father and if he doesn't forgive you, well you have yourself to blame. Your father and I warned you before you carried out the act. It was because of you and your stupid actions that prompted Lucifer into killing all the whole Royal family just to have Rae." Jasmine said. "You do realize everything was your fault, if you haven't showed Rae to Lucifer, he wouldn't have to think about doing all these, he would have just wage a war on us and we will fight him, then the best side wins." She added.

"I have realized my mistakes mother, I will do as you've said, I just hope he forgives me." Dean said really sorry for his past act.

Lolly came to meet them.

"Why did you want to see my father?" Dean asked taking Lolly's hands into his.

"She told him what Lucifer and his comrades did to the kingdoms he had attacked and where to keep our people safe like they are doing to the other kingdoms he hasn't attacked yet." Jasmine supply the answers shocking Lolly.

"Wait how did you know that-" she stopped when she suddenly remembered that Dean's mother is a seer. "Oh, I remember now, sorry for my silly question."

Jasmine smiled. "Let me leave you both alone and go and meet my husband. Dean don't forget what we discussed." With that she left their presence and started walking towards the direction her husband went.

"So I have been dying to ask, when did you realize you have feelings for me?" Dean asked once they were alone.

"Well on the night you showed Rae to my father and Lucifer." Lolly answered sincerely.
"Honestly speaking, I was feeling jealous of you talking about Rae, and I brush it off, but I didn't know why I felt that way was because I was growing soft feelings for you Dean. I love you so much." Lolly said to him.

"I love you too Lolly. You know if I didn't ask your mother to show Rae to Lucifer, all these problems we are facing would have already been gone by now. I am the cause."

"Don't say that Dean, Me, you, my mother and my father are also the cause, do not blame only yourself."

"My mother had once told me to wait for love or I will die by the hands of Rae, but I couldn't listen and my stubbornness resulted to this. Now she told me the only way to redeem myself and prevent death from occurring is to seek for Jason's forgiveness. I don't know if he will forgive me, we've never followed the same path ever since I set my eyes on Rae. But now that I love you, I want to rectify my mistakes." Dean said to Lolly.

"Jason will forgive you, his whole family and everyone we've offended has forgiven us. Apologize to him and see how it goes from there." Lolly said to him. "I will be with you when you want to speak with him."

"Thank you Lolly, I am really grateful." Dean said in happiness. "Well since I am doing nothing, let's visit King Roen's Palace, my parents will be coming there soon."

"Okay."

Dean surprising carried Lolly in his arms, bride style, and ran with his vampire speed to the King Wolf palace.

****

Great Sea of Nile:

King Nile was ready when his daughter came back to meet him.

"Father I hope you haven't told any of my five sisters what I told you?"

"No, I will only tell them when the war is over and Selena is back." King Nile answered.

"Thank goodness I don't want any of them to know yet. Let's be going."

"Wait, did you tell your husband it's a war you are going?"

"Yes father, he will join us with his Warriors once he sees if our side is losing." Lydia replied her father. "Let's go."

They swam out of the Mermaid Kingdom until they were above the sea.

"It's dark up here." King Nile said staring at the dark clouds.

"That's the handwork of Lucifer, if we defeat him, the darkness will clear." Lydia respond.

They swam until they reach the shallow waters of the Nile Sea, Lydia changes her tail into a human feet.

Nile did same, his tail transformed into his human feet.

"Father, I think we are going to swim in the water to cross the reef that separates the Nile Sea and the others. I forgot to tell the witch to create a portal that will bring us back." Lydia said.

"You don't need to be bothered about that Lydia. Portal or no portal I still have other means to travel to my destination. You've forgotten that I am the god of the sea." King Nile said to his daughter and whistle loudly towards the Sea.

A Hippocamp (half horse and half fish) came out of the water and Lydia smiled when she saw the half-horse and half-fish her father uses in traveling in case he doesn't feel like swimming. The Hippocamp swam towards them until it gets to the shallow water, where father and daughter went to meet it and climbed on it.

"Let's go." King Nile said. "Tell my Hippocamp where to go."

"Take us cross the reef." Lydia instructed the Hippocamp and the Seahorse did as command.

****

THE CREATOR;

Raphael flew higher into the sky until he saw the Golden Gate of Light. Entering the Gate of Light ☀️ he started walking until he reached the throne of Light ☀️ on it was the Ever Shining Light of ages, the Creator. Rapheal closes his eyes to prevent the Bright Light from blinding him. He knelt and lower his head before the Light. No one can see the Creator.

"Rapehal." A gentle voice was heard coming from the Shining Light.

"My Creator."

"What kept you so long for reaching out to me? I thought you'd allow darkness to win and rule over you."

"I am sorry my Creator, I was deceived and help a stranger not knowing he is Luci-" Rapheal begin to explain but stopped when what the Creator had said fully digest into his head. "You know?"

"Yes I know. I am not blind, I see everything Rapheal." The Creator answered. "All these years that went by, you nor Micheal has never asked for my help once."

"It escaped my mind and I thought I would handle Lucifer, but I cannot fight or defeat him without your help my Creator."

"I know why you are here, go back and when it's time, I will help you."

"Thank you my Creator." Raphael said and left the presence of the Creator. Soon he left the Gate of Light.

Flying back to the Supernaturals.

*****

Roens Palace:

Dean saw the dragons flying the people still tripping in Roens palace to safety.

He saw a flash of red hair putting children on a dragon back and hurried towards it. Dropping Lolly to her feet he hurried towards Jorkallun.

"Hey Jorkal-" he stopped short when he saw a familiar face he had mistaken for Jorkallun. "Crimson!" He shouted in surprise. Lolly was surprised too.

"Dean." Crimson said leaving what she was doing and went to hug Dean.

"How did this happen? I thought you had died, I was at your burial." Dean said in shock, he hopes his eyes were not deceiving him.

"It's a long story my friend but all I can say is my brother brought me back to life." Crimson answered and smiled at the other girl beside Dean. "Lolly, you should know that i am not angry at you for no longer dating my brother." She added as Lolly smiled at her.

"So where is your brother, I need to talk to him."

"Jorkallun! Someone is here to see you." Crimson shouted and Jorkallun and Sarah walk out from the other side of the dragon. "Dean is looking for you." She added pointing at the vampire Prince.

"Oh, hello Dean, to what do I own this august visit of yours?"

"I came here to see Jason, can you please tell him I am looking for him."

"You know his chamber, why are you telling me to call Jason for you?"

"He will want to come out once he hears your voice and not mine. Please, it's important I see him. And also don't tell him it's me that requested for his presence. Please I am begging you."

"Okay, wait here let me go and call him." Jorkallun said and left their presence.

"Hey Dean." A familiar voice said behind him. Turning around, he saw Kate.

"Hey Kate, how have you been doing?"

"Fine, what happened to us, you don't check on me again and you stopped caring."

"Sorry, I didn't tell you sooner. I do not want to hurt your feelings, but I am breaking up with you. Am in love with someone else, am sorry."

Taking a deep breath. "Who is the girl, Rae? Cus I saw the way you were looking at her."

"Not Rae but Lolly." Sarah's eyes widened in shock. When did this happen?

Facing King Alf daughter. "I wouldn't fight you. I am not that type. I wish the both of you luck in your new found love."

"Thank you Kate." Dean said. "So are you going with the Dragons to their lair?"

"Nope, I am staying behind to fight."

---

Rae and Jason has just finished dressing up when they heard a knock and Jorkallun voice.

Opening the door widely and Jason and Rae both step out.

"Someone is here to see you Jason, it's really important." Jorkallun said once he saw his friend. He didn't wait to explain further, he started walking away.

Who can that be? Jason wondered.

"Someone is looking for me Rae, let's go and see who's it." He said as he and Rae followed Jorkallun.

They came out of the courtyard and saw Jorkallun talking to Dean. Jason growled when he saw the Vampire Prince.

"What is he doing here?" He growled out the words with much venom as he finally reached their side.

"Relax Jason, he just want to talk." Jorkallun reply.

"Wait he is the person who wants to see me?" As Jorkallun nodded his head in confirmation, he continues. "I am not going to listen to any of his bull crap, if you still want Rae, you gotta fight for her here and now. And I won't show you mercy."

"I do not want Rae anymore, am in love with someone, am just here to talk."

"To talk about what?"

"I did a lot of things which had resulted in this, I am sorry. If it wasn't for me, Lucifer and everything happening now will be prevented. All I ask is for you to forgive me. I am really sorry, from my heart."

"Jason, everyone deserves a second chance, I have forgiven him, forgive him also." Rae said quietly.

"Okay, for the sake of my mate, I have forgiven you."

"For real?"

"Yeah, for real I have forgiven you."

"So we are back as friends?"

"Yup."

"Thank you!!!" He shouted nearly scary the people there.

At that moment, a portal opened closed to them and everyone stepped out of it except for Micheal and Raphael.

"Father, Lucifer was here and threatened to attack tomorrow." Jason said. "We have to stop him at all cost."

"Yes, since he said he will attack tomorrow then let's make sure everyone is out of danger." Zeus said and Micheal landed on the ground going to meet Selena before facing the others. He held Selena hand in his.

Meanwhile Vermitrax, Jorkallun, Crimson and Sarah had gone to help the people now that the vampire people were seen coming in.

"I see Lolly told you." Rosa said as she saw Jasmine and her husband.

"Yes, and my husband quickly informed everyone, so we are here."

"Where did you and Raphael go too? Where is Raphael father?" Avonmora asked.

"Gabriel, another angel in the sky, gave me a signal to come. So we left and he told us Lucifer and the king of Angels are joining hands to fight us." Micheal answered. "And Raphael went to meet with the Creator."

As soon as the words left his lips Tharollin landed.

Avonmora went to meet him and gave him a slap on his head. "Hey, what was that for?" Raphael asked massaging his head.

"For going with my father without telling me."

"Did you meet the Creator?" Micheal asked.

"Yes and he promised to help."

"Good." Selena said and looked around them. "Have you seen my sister?"

"She went to the Nile Sea." Lillian answered.

"Selena, look at who is with me!" Lydia voice was heard and when they turned to the main Gate that leads to the entrance of the palace, they saw Lydia and King Nile.

Selena and Michael was surprised and when Selena tried to remove her hand from his, the Angel didn't release it.

Lydia and King Nile soon reach where they were standing.

"Selena." King Nile said in tears going to meet her and hug her, surprising her. "I have missed you so much my child." Those words made Selena to wrapped her arms around her father, crying with him, releasing his hold on her and stare at her. "I was harsh on you and wasn't thinking straight, will you ever forgive me?"

"Father all that I have ever wanted is your forgiveness."

"I have forgiven you since Selena."

"And what about Micheal, he is sorry."

Turning his gaze to the Angel beside his daughter. "You are forgiven Micheal. I hope you keep my daughter happy."

Micheal breathed out deeply. "I will, all the days of my life." He promised.

"And is this my granddaughter?" Nile asked pointing at Avonmora who went to meet him and hug him.

"Yes father, Rae come here." Rae left Jason said and went to meet them. "And this is your granddaughter."

Nile hugged his granddaughter and great granddaughter together.

"So happy to finally meet you both."

"Grandpa, I thought you would never leave the sea." Sarah said walking up to him for her own hug.

"Sarai." Nile hugged Sarah.

"Zeus, long time no see friend." King Nile said facing his fellow god. "And you too Ares, Eros and all of you." The Sea King said in happiness.

"King Neptune, good to see you too." Zeus said happy to see his long time friend.

Lydia and Nile were filled in the latest news.

Soon they all helped Vermitrax by helping the people who didn't want to fight on the backs of the dragons.

Before long the palace courtyard was cleared of people, the few ones who remained stayed to fight.

Once they were done, they left for their chambers, the new kings and Queens joining them were given a room to stay. And since Selena and her daughter had settled with their soulmates, they shared a room.

****

Lucifer was livid with anger as he appeared in his cave.

"Get prepared, we are attacking all kingdoms, meet me at the Gate of the holy Angels." He ordered one of the Skeletons and disappeared.

He reappear in the kingdom of the Angels. He walked majestically to the throne room.

"It's time. I need your Angels." He said Aaron once he sees him

Aaron brought out his golden trumpet and came outside to the largest compound and blew it, within two minutes, all Angels has gathered with their swords. Gabriel wasn't seen.

"Today we are fighting alongside with Lucifer. You are to obey every one of his command, if you go against my orders, I will end your life. Now, who amongst you doesn't agree with me?" When no angel came out, Aaron smiled. "I thought so."

"I will like to speak with you Aaron before we go." Lucifer said and they both walked back inside the throne room.

Lucifer quickly placed his hand on the nose of Aaron making the Angel to go unconscious. He left Aaron's body on the floor and walked out.

"Your King will be joining us later and like he said, you should obey me. Let's go." Lucifer said leading the way as the holy Angels followed him.

Once outside the Gate, he saw his own fallen Angels and together they flew downwards towards the Supernaturals.

***

Roens Palace:

Gabriel who had sneaked out of the kingdom when he saw Lucifer, flew towards the Supernaturals, he was able to follow Micheal scent to Roens palace.

"Michael!!!!" He yelled out his friend's name before he even landed, he ignored the Warriors of different kingdoms in the large compound staring at him, ready to attack. Micheal and the rest who have been resting left their chambers to see who it is.

Micheal and Rapheal quickly reach him.

"What is it Gabriel." Micheal demanded.

"He is coming, they are coming."

All knew who he was referring to.

"Then we will wait for him to make his appearance." Raphael said as they started preparing their weapons. Since the fallen angels can't be killed, the Warriors will stay at their backs while Raphael, Michael, the gods and the rest will stay in front.

Since Avonmora and Selena are both healers, they stayed at the back with the warriors. Rae, who was still weak from the darkness, was with her mother and grandmother as Jason made sure his Phoenix fire surrounded Rae.

They all awaits for Lucifer presence.

---

Lucifer led his armies of Angels and they entered all the whole kingdoms, to his surprise he finds the kingdom's empty, no single person was in sight.

Which would mean Roen is harbouring them.

He flew angrily towards Roen Kingdom. His kingdom was empty, flying to his Palace he saw them.

He flew down and landed before them, his Angels still flying in the air.

"Any last words from any one of you?" Lucifer asked staring at them. They are no match for him and his Angels.

"Yes, you are going back to your cage, where you really belong." Raphael answered.

"We will see who goes to the cage." Lucifer said with a smirk and saw Rae with Selena and Avonmora being guarded by the stupid fire. "Kill them all except for those three coloured haired ladies." He ordered his angels and they attacked them.

They all fought.

Micheal and Raphael making sure they didn't hit their fellow Angels hard, but the reverse was the case for them. The holy Angels were following orders.

The witches and those with magic who stayed behind realized their powers were powerless against the fallen Angels.

Lucifer didn't attack yet, he stood on that same place watching them.

When Raphael sees their warriors are being wounded and some being killed he brought out the last bone he had hidden pointing it towards Lucifer to see it.

"You are forgetting about something here Lucifer." Raphael said, fighting a skeleton who wanted to grab the bone from him. "You know what it is, tell the Angels to stop or I will force you to do it."

Lucifer laughed out. "You are not the only one with brains Raphael, I also had thought of it and came up with a solution." Lucifer said to him and he raised up his two hands up, and just like magic, his fallen Angels started entering his body. The more they entered, the more the chain in his neck showed red.

"Stop whatever you're doing right now." Raphael commanded with the bone but nothing happened.

When about 200 skeletons had entered his body, he made one of the holy Angels to enter his body. As soon as the holy Angel entered his body, the chain in his neck broke, freeing him completely.

Then Lucifer changed into his hideous beast and gave out a loud fearing roar that had the wounded warriors running away. He expanded his size.

Nile was the first to attack the beast, calling on the whole water which formed into a sword. With it he strike the beast.

But Lucifer was quick and dodge it, he punch King Nile on his stomach and send the Sea god flying.

Nile fall down but was quick enough to get up to his feet.

"He is stronger now." He gasps out breathing heavily.

"That's because the chain in his neck is now broken." Raphael answered.

Jason ran towards the beast, changing into his Millennium Wolf form and expanded to the size of the beast. They fought furiously against one another.

Lucifer throw Jason a ball of black fire which caught him off guard and sent him flying.

He landed with a heavy thud on the ground and didn't seem to be getting up.

Chapter 19

'But my darling, there's no such thing as the light at the end of the tunnel, you must realize that you are the light.'

🦊🦊 FINALE & EPILOGUE 🦊🦊

♥♥♥♥☀️ MY RAE OF LIGHT (Part Three) ☀️♥♥♥♥♥

"Jason!!" Rae screamed out in fear and ran to meet him. "Jason, don't leave me." She pleaded but got no response from him. She touched his heart and felt it raising. He is okay.

Raphael and Micheal ran towards Lucifer at the same time Fighting him with their swords and using their lights.

The gods and Artemis were fighting the many Sekelons and holy Angels together with Lydia, Sarah, Jorkallun, Vermitrax, Taloc, Lolly, Dean, Gabriel, Nile and all the whole supernaturals kings and Queens who didn't leave.

Lillian and Rosa used their magic to bring out more balls of lights as Lucifer darkness keeps consuming them, wanting to put the palace in total darkness.

Jasmine and Tamara joined in creating more ball light but when they saw the wounded warriors and those who ran away to hid in fear, they created a magical transparent wall on them, preventing the Skeletons from harming them.

Selena and Avonmora started healing those wounded. The Warriors leave the fight for those stronger than them.

The fight between the two angels and Lucifer was furious.

"Give up now losers, you can not defeat me." The hideous beast taunt as he sent two balls of dark fire towards the Angels which countered it by their own light.

"Never, you are going back to where you came from." Micheal said.

The beast laughed evilly and some of the Skeletons left the others they were fighting and attacked Micheal and Raphael, since they couldn't be killed, they keep on increasing.

The sudden attack from the Skeletons kept Micheal and Raphael busy.

Lucifer stared around and saw everyone is busy fighting. His eyes finally landed on Rae who was still beside the Wolf that wasn't moving.

He slowly began to move towards Rae.

Rapheal was so busy trying to fight the Skeletons that keep coming his way and blocking him, so he didn't notice.

"Rae come to me now." The beast ordered standing a few meters away from Rae and Jason.

"I am not coming."

"Do not provoke me Rae, come to me now or else...." He left the uncompleted threatening words hanging thinking it will make Rae to leave her mate side and come to him. When he saw Rae paid deaf ears to his threats.

"Then you leave me with no choice." The beast closed his eyes focusing on Rae's blood in his body. He tried to use it to control her.

Rae felt the urge and tried to fight the voice in her head telling her what to do, trying to control her.

A punch was thrown on Lucifer face and he lost his concentration on Rae. Opening his eyes, he saw Jason's wolf on his feet, blocking Rae from his view.

"You will have to use a lot of your worthless dark fire to take me down before touching my mate." Jason said. Rae was able to get control of herself when she heard her mate voice.

They both ran towards each other at the same time. This time around, he made himself into two and fought the Millennium Wolf.

Rae who was still recovering from Lucifer hold heard a voice which doesn't belong to Jason in her head.

'Reach out to me, Reach out for your light Rae.' The unknown voice said in her head.

"How?"

'Close your eyes and concentrate on your inner light.' The voice replied to her.

Rae did as instructed and close her eyes. Ignoring all the sounds going around her. She felt relaxed and after a while she saw a light. She saw herself approaching the light. She stretch forth her hand to touch the bring light. As soon as her hand touched the light, the same voice came again and she realized the voice was coming from the light itself.

'You have embrace your light.'

The sudden light that emerge from Rae body stopped every fight as they all turned to her direction.

Standing up to her feet, Rae opened her eyes and the whole skeletons and the holy Angels freeze including Lucifer. Lucifer tried to break free from whatever is holding him but couldn't. His double beast disperse into nothing.

"Lucifer your time is up." Rae said, her voice softly. She wasn't the one speaking but the Creator himself.

Raphael smiled when he heard the voice, he recognized the voice which belongs to the Creator. He has come to their aid.

"I caged you but as usual you cunning break yourself free. It is finished now." She added.

Raising her right feet up, she hit it on the ground which cracked opened.

"This is where you are going to spend your eternity." Rae announced, the ground continue to break until it reaches Lucifer and cracked wide open and Lucifer fall.

Jason jumped out of the way to safer ground.

As everyone watches on with surprise, Lucifer fallen Angels where being thrown into the open ground by an invisible force. All skeletons were swallowed by the ground before it closes.

Rae raises her hand up and all the things that was destroyed was restored.

"It Is finished." As soon as she uttered those words, Rae fainted but before her body will touch the ground, Jason caught her. The light surrounding her faded.

The dark sky became cleared as they saw stars shine brightly on it.

The angels went back to their Kingdom since the one they were following has been caged. They were only following orders.

They had won the war with the help of the Creator.

Epilogue:

ONE YEAR LATER;

Everything returned back to normal and only few remembered the war. The gods returned and was coming down to the Supernaturals once in a while. The destroyed kingdoms were rebuild.

Kate went to live with her mother's sister who got married to a Fairy. She met Moses and they both fall in love.

Tamara removed the spells she had been using on King Alf, Amazon Warrior King, and asked for his forgiveness. King Alf cried when he was told his daughter had long died, he later forgive Tamara. Though he still see Tamara's daughter as his daughter and she didn't hesitate to always call him father.

Lolly and Dean became inseparable and their love for each other continue to grow. Dean later got to found out that Lolly was indeed his soulmate after he saw her real skin and her green haired hair just like her father, she was beautiful.

"You look so beautiful in your skin Lolly." He told her the night she had revealed her true self to him.

She smiles. "My real name is Taila, but I am still Lolly, King Alf daughter." She said wearing back Lolly's skin.

"So what do you say to my proposal my love?" Dean asked with hopeful voice.

"Yes, I will marry you."

---

Crimson and Gabriel grew closer and later on fall in love with each other. King Vermitrax gave out his blessings to them so did Jorkallun.

6 months after they fall in love, Crimson and Gabriel got married and Crimson went to live with him in the sky.

Though she visits the Dragon Kingdom once in a while.

Jason, Rae, Sarah and Jorkallun graduated and both boys proposal to their soulmates who said yes.

On the night of their engagement party which took place in Roen's Palace, everyone was present, Jorkallun took Sarah to the place he had wanted to commit suicide. He told Sarah the reason why (Read his reason in book 1).

"Promise me Jorkallun you will never think of suicide."

Kissing her on her lips. "I promise." He said smiling. "The man who kills a man kills a man. The man who kills himself kills all men. As far as he is concerned, he wipes out the world. The bravest thing I ever did was continuing my life when I wanted to die."

"Place your hand over your heart Jorkallun, can you feel it?" At the dragon boy nod she continues. "That is called purpose. You're alive for a reason so don't ever give up or think about suicide."

"I won't. If I had, I wouldn't be here with you." He said and caressed her stomach lovely. "I wouldn't be here to see my baby. I love you Sarah."

"I love you too Jorkallun." Sarah said and rested her head on his shoulders as they both watched the stars.

---

Rae and Jason sat by side as they watch the stars from Rosa garden. Rae legs were filled with Red Roses.

"How is our baby doing my love?" Jason asked placing his hand on her stomach.

Placing her hands over his. "He or she is fine my love."

"The stars are really beautiful tonight, they are as beautiful as you are."

Rae smiled.

"I love you Rae and I am glad you want to walk this part with me forever. I never really told you this, but I am telling you now, Land, Water or Sky, you will always be Mine forever." Jason said to her with a contented smile. "You are my Rae of Light."

"I was yours the day our path had crossed Jason. I love you." She said happily.

"I love you too my beautiful enchanting Rae." Jason said and kissed her lips then her forehead.

Rae sighed in bliss and turned to face the sky. Studying it for a moment. "The Darkness, it's still there, hovering over everyone." She said. "I just hope it will go away from everyone someday."

"Maybe the darkness won't fully go away, maybe it's there to remind us to always look at the light that surrounds us." Jason said.

"Yeah maybe. But one thing I have learnt after the war is, the strongest light is the light that shines within you. Use it to lead the way of your life. Travel light, live light, spread light, be the light." Rae said.

They both watched the Stars.

The End.....
