

BOOT CAMP 1021

Chapter 1021: Avenge My Daughter With Your Life!

No one knew if Mother Yao heard her husband's screams. She just raised the water pipe and continued hitting everyone until her hair was in a mess. She shrieked and roared. All the teachers couldn't get close to her immediately.

Mr. Xiao saw that she was still charging at him so he couldn't remain standing on the roof anymore. He hurriedly jumped down and pulled Mother Yao back with another gym teacher.

The policemen on level one rushed up. They moved really quickly and within three minutes, they ran all the way to the roof. However, within these three minutes, many things happened too. In a blink of an eye, a student fell and another student was dangling in mid-air.

"Policemen, hurry, hurry. This way, this way. Hurry up and pull the student up."

The teachers heaved a sigh of relief when the police came up. When Mother Yao turned crazy, they weren't able to match up to her strength.

Ye Jian could come up herself but since Yao Jing risked her life to put on this act, she should at least cooperate with her...

Ye Jian gave a cold smile when she heard Mother Yao acting like a maniac. The bigger the fuss, the better it was.

The police didn't dare to waste any more time. Two policemen twisted Mother Yao's hand and snatched the water pipe from her. They pulled her hands behind her and pressed her down.

Their actions were fast and vicious. They didn't care if she was a government official or not. When they pushed her down, they weren't polite at all. At the same time, they warned her in a low voice, "Don't move!"

"What are you trying to do? Do you know who I am? Get off me! Get off me! Old Yao, Old Yao! Push Ye Jian down! Push her down! I want her to pay with her life. I want to avenge Jingjing!"

"What an arrogant tone. You are asking other people to pay with their lives. The bureaucracy of the Southern Province is such an eye-opener." Someone walked over slowly. His slender figure got closer step by step. Every single step was filled with an unstoppable presence. The moment he opened his mouth, his tone was so stabbing that it lowered the air pressure around him.

He walked over to the policeman who snatched the water pipe from Mother Yao. He said calmly, "This is a murder weapon. Keep it properly."

The policeman was still trying to save Ye Jian. Someone was pushing Ye Jian's feet at the bottom and on top, a policeman was tying a rope to his waist as he prepared to grab her arms and pull her up.

When the man walked closer, a few police officers on duty wanted to raise their arms to stop him but they got frightened by his cold and sharp gaze and pulled their hands back.

When he walked past Mother Yao, he glanced at her. Then, he walked to Yang Heng without stopping.

“Xia...” Principal Cao recognized the young man that astounded everyone with his appearance. He didn’t have the time to say anything else as he shouted immediately. “Ye Jian got pushed by another student. The police are saving her now.”

Xia Jinyuan didn’t need the policeman. He pushed one hand against the roof and jumped up lightly from Yang Heng’s side. He was standing on the roof now.

He bent down and grabbed Ye Jian’s wrist tightly with his slender hands. He turned his head and said to Yang Heng calmly, “Thank you. You can let go now.”

When Yao Jing pushed her down, Ye Jian wasn’t shocked. When Mother Yao wanted to kill her to avenge Yao Jing, she wasn’t astounded either. However, when she saw Xia Jinyuan appearing in front of her, when she looked at the handsome face that could only be seen faintly as he was standing against the sun,... she was stunned.

He... why was he here? Didn’t he say that he would need at least half a month or one month?

It had only been a few days. Why was he here?

‘I came back just in time. If not, I won’t know that you’re being bullied.’ Xia Jinyuan grabbed Ye Jian’s arm with one hand and pulled her up easily without any help from the policeman.

Chapter 1022: Little Fox, You’re Being Bullied

Ye Jian didn’t hide it from him. When the distance between them was the shortest, she whispered, “I didn’t get bullied. I’m just beating them at their own game.”

“Do you need to do this?” Xia Jinyuan’s voice was exceptionally cold. The chill penetrated straight to the bone. “Why are you using this method? Little Fox, what if you really fall?”

Ye Jian gave a small smile. “No, I won’t allow myself to fall. The silver wire in my hand will help me so I won’t fall.”

From the moment Yao Jing stared at her with a sinister and evil gaze, she knew that Yao Jing didn’t just want Yang Heng’s apology. She had other plans against her too.

Also, when Yao Jing asked her to stand on the edge of the roof and said that if she went up, she would let bygones be bygones, Ye Jian knew what her plan was.

Yao Jing was indeed hard on herself. She was so ruthless that she was willing to risk her life to scheme against other people.

She wasn’t just ruthless. She was also smart and attentive to details. It sent a chill down other people’s backs.

She stood on the roof for half an hour. Towards the end, she pretended to get exhausted and let all the teachers see that she was tired. She allowed everyone to see her staggering and suddenly falling backward.

Then... if any accidents happened, she could just blame it on her exhaustion.

Her plan was thorough but unfortunately, she schemed against the wrong person.

Xia Jinyuan raised his eyebrows. He carried her and jumped down from the edge of the roof. He gave a thin smile and said, "You can just solve this problem once and for all. You don't have to worry about clearing things up. I will take care of it."

"Things have already reached this state so there's actually no need for you to appear. I can take care of it myself." Ye Jian didn't reject him. Instead, she replied to him honestly, "I have enough evidence to prove that Yao Jing didn't want to commit suicide. She did everything because she wanted to push me down."

She was only around seventeen years old but she was evil enough to harm a student's life. Yao Jing was hopeless.

At first, Ye Jian wanted to allow Yao Jing to create trouble under her eyes. But, what Yao Jing did had exceeded her tolerance level. In that case, she should take care of her properly.

"Also, after her mother kicked up such a huge fuss, I think the school won't bear with them either," Ye Jian spoke softly. Her calm tone was firm and composed. "Captain Xia, I can deal with something like this."

"The young man that grabbed me just now is called Yang Heng. He got hit by Mother Yao a few times and she even asked him to pay with his life. Captain Xia, this time, things won't be solved with just an apology from Yao Jing."

Since she was able to take care of this, Xia Jinyuan didn't have to appear. This time, she wasn't facing the Yao family alone. The school and Yang Heng were both on her side. The Yao family wouldn't be able to get away with just an apology.

Xia Jinyuan didn't say anything. A cold smile appeared at the edge of his lips and he said gently, "That's good. You can take care of matters in school. I will take care of the matters outside. As the director of a department, I have to let other people know how arrogant she is."

The two of them only interacted for a short period of time. They jumped down and stood on the ground stably. Principal Cao and Mrs. Tong were the first to come over. They watched Ye Jian with a tense expression until she landed on the ground safely. Then, they finally felt at ease.

"You're such a disobedient child!" Principal Cao started scolding her as he felt the lingering fear. "Do you know how dangerous it is? Why did you go up when she asked you to?"

Chapter 1023: Let's Settle Our Scores

Mrs. Tong didn't look at the man that saved Ye Jian. Her gaze was fixed on Ye Jian. She held Ye Jian's right hand and pulled her sleeves up. This was the hand that Ye Jian used to grab the reinforcing bar. She said, "There was obviously something wrong with Yao Jing. Why did you still give in to her? We will save her but you have to take care of your life too!"

"All the teachers are here! We were all watching! Do you need to listen to the things Yao Jing's mother said? We all know that what she said was unreasonable! Look at your arm! It's so badly bruised!"

Her arm kept rubbing against the edge of the roof so it was normal that she would get hurt. But, to Ye Jian, this was nothing.

She pulled her hand back and accepted Principal Cao and Mrs. Tong's reprimanding earnestly. She replied, "At that time, I just want to know what she wants to do so that I can coax her to come down. I didn't think so much."

"I didn't expect her to push me suddenly. I was so anxious when she pushed me... I don't even know how I fell. Fortunately, I grabbed the reinforcing bar."

She spoke in a soft voice and with an earnest expression. Mrs. Tong's eyes started tearing up as she looked at Ye Jian.

Yao Jing wanted to commit suicide but her parents still forced Ye Jian to pay with her life in the end. Ye Jian went up to save Yao Jing but the other party didn't thank her. Instead, they felt that since their daughter fell, Ye Jian should fall too... How could they act like this? How vicious were they?

"Principal, as Ye Jian's teacher, I have to ask for an explanation for my student. I want to ask Yao Jing's parents! I want to ask them how they could say such shameless things?"

Xia Jinyuan pulled Ye Jian behind him to protect her. His dark and black gaze was giving off a cold light. He said, "I hope that the school will bring justice to Ye Jian. This matter won't end just because the other student fell."

"As the principal, I will not let this matter end so easily either," Principal Cao replied with a stern face. He continued, "I will go down and take a look at Yao Jing's condition first. I took a glance just now. They were setting up the jump cushion just now."

Coincidentally, the voice of the policeman below sounded on the intercom. The policemen on the roof spoke in the intercom. "We have already saved the student on the roof. How is the student below? What's the condition?"

"She's fine. She's conscious but she's in fright." All the teachers on the roof heaved a sigh of relief when they heard the policeman's reply.

Mother Yao also heard that her daughter was fine. Her crazy gaze slowly lit up and she said in a loud and hurried tone. "My daughter is fine! My daughter is fine, right? Is she fine?"

“She’s conscious. The doctor is inspecting her to see if she’s hurt.” Since the student’s mother asked, the policeman replied truthfully, “You can go down and take a look at her. She’s currently on the stretcher.”

Mother Yao rushed out and dashed all the way to the ground floor. Deputy Commissioner Yao, who was still sitting on the ground because of the pain in his tailbone, bore with the pain and stood up. He hurriedly ran down the stairs with his large tummy.

The form teacher of Class Six had twisted her ankle so when she heard that Yao Jing was fine, she couldn’t maintain her posture anymore. She sat down on the cement floor with one hand on her chest. She closed her eyes and panted heavily.

Fortunately, she was fine. Everything had finally ended.

To a form teacher, as long as her students were fine, everything was fine.

To Principal Cao, this matter had ended but he still needed to attend to other matters.

“May I ask if she needs to be sent to the hospital?” Principal Cao asked the policeman politely. His expression was solemn.

The policeman immediately asked on his intercom. After some time, a reply came. “We will only know after we do a thorough inspection at the hospital. But she looks normal on the outside.”

Chapter 1024: A Bad Man Coaxing A Student

We will only know after we do a thorough inspection at the hospital. But she looks normal on the outside.

When Xia Jinyuan heard this, his gaze became sharp. The change was noticeable. He said to Ye Jian, “When I came up, the jump cushion was pumped halfway. If she fell a minute earlier, the jump cushion wouldn’t have been able to save her.”

“She wanted to push me down but in the end, she ended up falling herself. Even if she didn’t die, I think that she must be frightened to death.” Ye Jian moved her right hand. This year seemed to be dogged by misfortunes. Her old injury had just healed but she received new injuries already.

Xia Jinyuan grabbed her wrist when she moved it slightly... Mrs. Tong, who finally regained her senses, wanted to ask Ye Jian a few questions. When she raised her head, she noticed that the man who saved Ye Jian just now, the unfamiliar man that had a cold and oppressive aura that made people scared to look at him, was holding the hand of her favorite student. From her angle, she could see the man’s face clearly... There was an unusual gentleness on it.

What was his.... relationship with Ye Jian?

When he was saving Ye Jian, she heard him shouting, “Ye Jian!” This proved that they knew each other.

They knew each other... How did they know each other?

The way he looked at Ye Jian was different. The more she looked at him, the more she felt that they were... in a relationship!

When this thought flashed through Mrs. Tong's mind, even her breathing became deeper. Ye Jian was only in senior high. The man didn't look like a student! Ye Jian had seen little of the world but she was dating a man from outside?

Was she being fooled?

Mrs. Tong was on her guard. She quickly walked beside Ye Jian. She didn't ask anything about Yao Jing because she was afraid that Ye Jian was fooled.

"Ye Jian, you can return to your classroom to take the exam first." She was speaking to Ye Jian but her eyes were fixed on the unfamiliar man who was handsome enough to make ladies' hearts flutter. Mrs. Tong smiled. "Thank you. Ye Jian still needs to take her exam. Do you want to release your hand first?"

In the teacher's eyes, the man was handsome and was pulling her student's hand. This man must be a bad person.

Major Xia had an elegant and handsome face so even though his expression was sharp and his aura was cold, to Mrs. Tong, he was a... bad man that was trying to coax her favorite pupil.

"Nice to meet you, Mrs. Tong." Xia Jinyuan knew that Ye Jian's form teacher was looking at him with vigilance. He smiled and said, "I know Ye Jian. We are comrades from the same military unit."

He couldn't say that he knew Ye Jian and they were in a relationship, right? Comrade was the best way to reply to her.

Ye Jian didn't feel flustered when he opened his mouth to introduce himself. In front of the teacher, Ye Jian believed that Xia Jinyuan knew what to say.

After he finished speaking, Ye Jian smiled and said, "Mrs. Tong, I have known him for a few years. I knew him when I was in the military unit."

Ever since the previous time Commander Liu and Commissar Yan came to visit the school, Mrs. Tong knew that Ye Jian grew up in a military unit. Thus, when she heard this, the vigilance in her heart disappeared. "No wonder you could save her so quickly. You even scare the people in your military unit."

So he was a soldier. No wonder he was able to save Ye Jian without help. That meant that their relationship in the military was good. Looking at their interaction... their relationship was good.

It should be the relationship between comrades, right? A romantic relationship... That was quite impossible.

Major Xia was still a little suspicious but she stopped thinking that Major Xia was a bad man trying to coax her student!

“Your form teacher thought that I was a bad man trying to fool her student.” The cold expression on Xia Jinyuan’s face diminished a little because of the teacher’s sharp eyes. This teacher had good eyesight. She managed to see the crux with one look.

Chapter 1025: She Pushed Me Twice

Ye Jian didn’t reply to him. She just smiled as she looked at the major who had turned gentler. Then, she saw Principal Cao turning to speak to her.

A student wanted to commit suicide so the police had to be at the scene to understand the situation. After Principal Cao knew that Yao Jing was fine, he told the police everything he knew. Then, he said to Ye Jian, “Yao Jing is fine. You can go back to your classroom and prepare for your exam. The mid-term is very important. It will be used as the guide for the requirements for direct admission. You have to focus on the exam. The leaders of the school will take care of the matter and inform the students later.”

The mid-term examination was still ongoing. He didn’t want the police to ask Yang Heng and Ye Jian to stay because they wanted to investigate the scene.

Then, he spoke to Yang Heng with a stern expression. “The school will inform your parents and ask them to come over. Do you have any thoughts about this?”

If Yang Heng didn’t want the school to inform his parents, they wouldn’t do it for now.

Ever since Xia Jinyuan appeared, Yang Heng had been observing him secretly. He shifted his gaze back and pursed his lips to suppress his anger. “I don’t have any thoughts about this. The school can inform my parents at any time.”

This time, Yao Jing got overboard! He couldn’t bear with her anymore.

He glanced at Ye Jian. She was standing beside the elegant and tall man calmly. Yang Heng walked over and looked straight at Ye Jian. “Did Yao Jing push you once or twice?”

Yang Heng didn’t beat around the bush and asked Ye Jian the question directly. Principal Cao and the policeman’s expressions changed immediately.

Push her once or twice?

Yao Jing wanted to push Ye Jian off the building?... She wanted to push Ye Jian off the building?

“Yang Heng, you have to take responsibility for your words. Do you understand that?” Principal Cao didn’t ask him what happened. Instead, he reminded Yang Heng that he needed to be aware of his words and not make careless remarks.

Sometimes, a sentence was enough to ruin the reputation of a person. It was enough to push him into living hell!

What Yang Heng said revealed too much information. Principal Cao was unable to accept it instantly. He wasn't able to understand why... why Yao Jing wanted to push Ye Jian off the building. What was her motive?

If what Yang Heng said was true, that meant that Yao Jing wanted to kill Ye Jian! She even put her thoughts into action!

This was murder! Murder!

Yang Heng didn't shift his gaze. His expression didn't even change. He asked Ye Jian seriously and earnestly once again. "Did Yao Jing push you once or twice just now? I want to confirm it."

"Twice." Ye Jian squinted slightly. She continued in an equally serious and earnest tone. "The first time, she said 'Ye Jian, die'. However, she didn't manage to make me fall so she got anxious and pushed me again. You saw what happened at the end. She lost her balance and fell. I fell along with her too."

"I was lucky enough so she didn't achieve her goal."

"That's too bold of her! That's so frightening! This student is too scary! Too scary!" Principal Cao shouted indignantly. He was extremely furious so his normally amiable face turned red with anger. Following a slew of reprimands, his chest heaved up and down violently and he continued, "The two of you can return to your classrooms first. The exam is the most important thing now."

Principal Cao looked at Yang Heng whose expression had turned cold from the questioning. Then, he looked at Ye Jian who still managed to maintain her composure after this frightening experience. His anger towards Yao Jing got stronger.

They didn't have such a female student in Provincial No.1 Middle School! This murderer didn't belong to their school!

There was no use in persuading her to leave. They would expel her directly and turn her over to the police!

Chapter 1026: What Is Your Relationship?

The policeman was astounded when he heard this too. His gaze shifted back and forth between the two students. Then, he looked up and said, "We will investigate this matter clearly. The two of you can return to your classrooms now."

"Police officer, Yao Jing isn't afraid of heights. She learned ballet as a child so her sense of balance is not bad. She won't have a problem standing on the roof for half an hour to an hour." When Yang Heng walked down, he continued providing evidence to the police. His tolerance towards Yao Jing was negative now.

Xia Jinyuan smiled and whispered to Ye Jian who was beside her. "This boy's voice sounds a little familiar."

"Captain Xia, I don't think that it's just a little familiar to you. When he opened his mouth, you started sizing him up twice." Ye Jian exposed him without mercy. Then, she smiled and replied, "He has known Yao Jing for more than ten years. Unfortunately, Yao Jing is too stubborn. Whenever he spoke to a girl or got close to any girls, Yao Jing would secretly target the girl."

“In the past, I wasn’t close to Yang Heng but I got targeted by her for no reason. She even wanted to kill me. What an unexpected misfortune!”

It had nothing to do with Yang Heng. They didn’t have any close interaction in school but Yao Jing somehow started hating her. Wasn’t it an unexpected misfortune to get targeted by this paranoid maniac?

The most pitiful person was Yang Heng. He must feel so pressured to have such a scary childhood friend!

“The students now are indeed worrying. At this young age, she wanted to kill someone over such a small matter. If Provincial No.1 Middle School doesn’t take care of this matter properly, the school’s hundred years of reputation will be destroyed.”

The policeman started questioning Yang Heng about the details. On the other side, Xia Jinyuan stayed beside Ye Jian and whispered to her, “Little Fox, your winning rate this time is high. Provincial No.1 Middle School is a famous school that has been around for a hundred years. It’s an icon of the education industry in the Southern Province. Principal Cao is an upright man. He won’t cover this up. The girl that wanted to kill you is harming herself in the end.”

“If a person is evil at heart, living is hell to them. Yao Jing has a black heart. She deserves any consequences she will get.” Ye Jian looked at the time. Fifteen minutes had passed since the second exam started. “I need to go back and take my exam first. You can take a walk around the school. I will look for you in the afternoon.”

Major Xia wasn’t in a good mood. He rushed over here and this was what he saw. He knew this girl called Yao Jing. He knew Yao Jing’s parents too. They humiliated Little Fox in the past and thought that everything had ended because of an apology... What happened today wouldn’t be solved as easily as before.

The last time, he wasn’t present. This time, he was. He couldn’t interfere with what happened in the school but he could do something outside.

“Go and take your exam first. In the afternoon, you will probably have to go out of your school with that male student for a while. Don’t care about anything else and focus on your exam first.” After he finished speaking, he pinched Ye Jian’s cheeks intimately with his slender fingers. Then, he leaned forward. The smile on his handsome face was as gentle as the water in a lake. “Take your exam properly. I will make a move first.”

There was no reason for him to stay here. After he finished talking to Ye Jian, he turned and looked at the young man that kept secretly observing him. “Thank you for just now.”

This man knew Ye Jian in the military unit. He even made such intimate interactions with her. Was it just because they knew each other?

Were they comrades? Ye Jian wasn’t a soldier so how could they be comrades?

As he wondered in his heart, Yang Heng maintained the expression on his face and replied honestly, "That was what I should do."

On his birthday, Wang Jin said that he saw a man walking out of Ye Jian's room... Was it him? That might be possible.

Chapter 1027: This Has Become A Huge Issue

Ye Jian didn't like to have physical contact with other people. This man didn't just have physical contact with her once but Ye Jian didn't push him away at all. She didn't even show any signs of resistance.

It was obvious that this was how they interacted normally. Ye Jian was already used to it.

When he went back to his classroom, Yang Heng thought about this for a few minutes before he picked up his pen and started doing the script. He didn't hope to have a high score for his maths exam this time. He left the last few questions blank. He could only rely on his other subjects now.

At this moment, Ye Jian had started doing her English script. She missed her listening comprehension so she couldn't hide her ability this time.

When the English exam ended at 12.20 pm, An Jiaxin rushed to Ye Jian's side like a gust of wind and asked, "Why did I hear that... Yao Jing jumped down the building?"

After the math exam, the school asked the students to stay in their classrooms but every class had someone who needed to go to the toilet. Also, Mother Yao shouted and screamed so loudly that the students managed to hear something.

Ye Jian packed her stationery and asked An Jiaxin back, "How is your exam? Were you able to solve all the math questions?"

Before the school says anything, Ye Jian wouldn't talk about Yao Jing.

"This time, my math is alright. Finally, I don't feel that I will die after the exam." An Jiaxin didn't probe further. She spoke confidently as she talked about her two exams. "I will definitely pass my exam this time!"

To her, she just wanted to pass her exams!

In the afternoon, news that someone fell off the building started spreading among the different classes. They didn't know exactly who fell off but after the exam ended in the afternoon, all the grade eleven classes knew that the female student was Yao Jing from Class Six.

Wang Dandan witnessed the entire scene so she went to the hospital immediately after the exam. She didn't dare to stay in school.

She was afraid! This had become such a huge matter! It had exceeded her endurance limit.

The entire grade eleven knew what happened. After some time, the grade twelve classes would find out too. The grade ten classes would be the last to know it.

Just like what Xia Jinyuan said, a student planning to commit suicide would affect the reputation of this hundred-year-old elite school.

Yang Heng's family wasn't the only ones that knew Deputy Commissioner Yao. Other students' parents knew him too. They were all working in government departments.

"No, no. It's just a conflict between the children. Our Jingjing was unhappy and wanted to cry during the exam. She was afraid that she would affect the students in her class so she left the classroom."

"Commit suicide? That's impossible! You must have heard wrong. My Jingjing is an outgoing child. How could she do such an extreme thing?"

"That's right. She just went to the roof to cry. Why will she jump down the building? Hahaha, no, no. We are fine. We are really fine. Thank you for your concern. Goodbye."

Within an hour after the exam ended, Deputy Commissioner Yao's phone started ringing. Mother Yao just shut her phone directly. She didn't want to receive such calls at all.

"No, no. It's just a conflict between the children. Our Jingjing was unhappy and wanted to cry during the exam. She was afraid that she would affect the students in her class so she left the classroom."

What kind of people are these? Why were they asking these kinds of questions? Why couldn't they talk about something good?

"Come, open your mouth." Mother Yao cut the apple she peeled into small pieces and poked them with toothpicks for Yao Jing to eat. Yao Jing was on an IV drip. "Finish the apple and have a good sleep."

Deputy Commissioner Yao's phone rang again. Mother Yao said angrily, "Old Yao, Jingjing needs to rest. Can you shut off your phone? Don't affect her rest."

"Do you think that I don't want Jingjing to rest?" Their daughter narrowly escaped death. Before he could be happy, all his friends started calling. Was he able to shut his phone now?

Yao Jing ate the apple in small bites. The sinister look on her face hadn't disappeared. She asked her parents when she heard their conversation, "Does everyone know that I fell off the building? Did they say anything else?"

For instance, who pushed her down?

Chapter 1028: Uproar

Deputy Commissioner Yao's expression was serious. He looked at his daughter for a long while. In the end, he couldn't bear to scold her so he just sighed and said, "Jingjing, you're destroying yourself along with the other person."

"Ye Jian didn't fall so I can say that she pushed me down. I don't mind if I get harmed." Yao Jing's expression was eerie as she bit the apple as though she was biting Ye Jian's bones. The chewing sound was crisp and fierce. "Also, I made Yang Heng apologize! Let's see how he will face me in school."

At this moment, someone suddenly pushed the door open. The person didn't open the door lightly. Instead, she forcefully pushed the door with both hands.

Mother Yang dashed in with cold eyes. She didn't give Deputy Commissioner Yao and his wife a chance to react. Mother Yang had a good temper but this time, she walked to Mother Yao and lifted her hand... A slap landed on Mother Yao's face.

Mother Yang used her full strength to slap Mother Yao. Mother Yao, who was still holding the apple in one hand and wanted to smile and welcome Mother Yang, fell back onto the chair. A red handprint with some white parts inside appeared on Mother Yao's face.

"There are four wounds on my son's body. Li Shuhe, not only do I want to hit you now, I want to charge you for intentional injury!" Mother Yang was exceptionally infuriated. At the peak of her anger, she appeared calmer than before. "Your daughter wants to commit suicide but you want my son to pay with his life! Let's see how you want to let my son pay for your daughter's life!"

The slap stunned Mother Yao. It also shocked Deputy Commissioner Yao.

Then, he immediately said to Commissioner Yang who was standing in front of him with a steely face. "Old Yang, this is a misunderstanding! Misunderstanding! It's all a misunderstanding!" After that, he said to Mother Yao, "Sister-in-law, you have misunderstood us. You misunderstood us!"

Father Yao and Mother Yao were astounded. Yao Jing was flabbergasted too. She laid on the bed and opened her eyes wide. She looked at Mother Yang in disbelief... Aunt Song, who always treated their family well, actually hit her mother.

How was that possible? Why would Aunt Song hit anyone?

A series of footsteps were heard outside the opened door. Every single step came with an intimidating aura. Yao Jing raised her head and looked at the door with a confused expression. When she saw who the person walking in front was, panic appeared on her face in an instant.

"Uncle Yao, is it a misunderstanding that I got hit by Aunt Li? Aunt Li rushed up and started to scold and hit me without caring about what happened. Is that a misunderstanding? Yao Jing forced me to apologize by threatening to commit suicide. Is that a misunderstanding?"

Yang Heng didn't walk over alone. There were still a few policemen and two teachers from the school. Ye Jian and Principal Cao were behind them.

Deputy Commissioner Yao's expression turned dark when so many people came suddenly. He said to Yang Heng with a dark face, "Hengheng, Jingjing got pushed down from the sixth floor. She's still taking the IV drip now. Why did you bring so many people here?"

He glanced at Ye Jian. His intention was obvious. Ye Jian was the one who pushed Yao Jing down.

“Old Yao, today, I found out that you’re good at giving a false account of the truth.” Commissioner Yang suddenly laughed. He was smiling but his gaze was icy. “All the teachers knew that Little Ye and Yang Heng went up to save your daughter.”

“Instead of thanking them, you frame them instead. Old Yao, let’s settle this properly today. You can’t just end this matter haphazardly like the past.”

Mother Yao, who was stunned from the slap, finally woke up from her daze. She threw the bowl of apples on the ground and pounced on Mother Yang. “Song Huiying, how dare you hit me. I will fight with you! Let me fight you!”

Chapter 1029: Someone’s Support

The arrogant Mother Yao had never been slapped in front of so many people before. Mother Yang slapped away all her ego. How could she bear with it?

She dashed over in anger and embarrassment. She stretched her hands out and wanted to scratch Mother Yang’s face.

Yao Jing wanted to continue acting weak but when she saw her mother getting hit, she couldn’t care about the IV drip on her hand anymore. She cried and shouted, “Mom, don’t do this! Don’t do this! Don’t!”

How could she fight with Aunt Song? When children fought, they could reconcile with each other. Once adults fought, they would become enemies!

She finally managed to force Yang Heng to apologize and make him promise to not ignore her in the future. She did so many things to break the stalemate. She mustn’t let their parents become enemies!

“Yang Heng, hurry up and pull Aunt back. My mother hasn’t regained her composure because of me. Can you pull Aunt Song away first? We can discuss everything after I get discharged from the hospital.”

They mustn’t quarrel. They mustn’t quarrel. Even if they do, they mustn’t do it in front of everyone!

Also, it was weird that policemen came too. There was something wrong with the school too. If they really wanted to take a look at her, why wasn’t her form teacher or her classmates here?

Why did they ask Ye Jian to come? Also, why did those teachers come too?

Suddenly, Yao Jing felt anxious for no reason. Her mind started working furiously. She was grabbing her mother tightly at first but she changed her position and hugged Mother Yao’s waist instead. Then, she wept loudly. “Mom, I’m hurting, I’m hurting. Don’t be angry anymore, okay? I’m hurting so much!”

Something wasn’t right! They weren’t here to look at her condition! They came empty-handed. How could they be visiting her?

The entire ward was in a mess. Mother Yang stood in the same spot. Even when Mother Yao charged at her, she remained composed and just stared at Mother Yao who was shamelessly kicking up a fuss. She pulled Yang Heng's wrist and pulled his sleeve up quickly. A hideous whipping wound was revealed.

"This is the wound on my son's arm. It's the lightest injury among all the wounds. Li Shuhe, do you think that my slap just now was a little too light?"

Mother Yang spoke calmly. Her gentle eyes turned a little sharp because of her son's injury.

This wound caused Yao Jing to feel even more anxious. Her heart started pounding furiously. What... what happened? Did her mother cause the injury on Yang Heng's arm?

When did it happen? Why didn't she know about it?

"Yang Heng, take off your jacket." Mother Yang was never an aggressive person but because of her son's injury, she became firm. She unzipped Yang Heng's school jacket after she finished speaking and lifted his clothes inside.

Ye Jian, who was standing at the back, saw how bad Yang Heng's injuries were... There were two greenish-purple wounds on the sides of his shoulder. What was more horrifying was the bruise right in the middle of his back. It was green and purple and blood capillaries could be seen on the surface of his skin.

She was hanging in mid-air at that time so she did hear that Mother Yao was hitting people. She also heard Mother Yao's cursing at that time but she didn't expect Yang Heng to get hurt even when there were so many teachers present!

Deputy Commissioner Yao had nothing to say. Even he was shocked by the wound on Yang Heng's back. Why was... his injury so serious? His wife was beating Yang Heng to death!

After Yao Jing saw the injury on Yang Heng's back, she covered her mouth unconsciously to prevent herself from shouting.

Chapter 1030: Who Pushed Who?

Mother Yao, who was worried that her daughter was hurting, froze on the spot. Her gaze started fluttering.

Why was it so serious? Did she use so much strength at that time?

She didn't feel that she hit him so many times? She remembered that she only waved the pipe for a while. Why did it become like this... This young man was too delicate.

"Li Shuhe, if it wasn't for the fact that we have known each other for so many years, I won't just slap you once." Mother Yang didn't lose her composure after she slapped Mother Yao. The scholarly aura around her was still present. She suppressed her anger as she looked at Mother Yao's guilty gaze. She seemed to be thinking of a way to explain her actions. Mother Yang turned and said to the policemen, "Police officers, I want to request a medical report. We will go by the law."

What are government officials most afraid of? They were afraid of lawsuits!

A second ago, Mother Yao was still claiming that she wouldn't take things lying down. Now, she immediately changed her tone and said, "Huiying, I'm sorry. I'm really sorry. I wasn't able to think clearly at that time. I was agitated and furious so I lost my mind and did inappropriate things. I will apologize to Hengheng. I'm at fault. I shouldn't have done that!"

Then, she immediately looked at Yang Heng and said in a guilty tone, "Hengheng, you saw what happened just now. Jingjing was standing on the edge of the roof and would fall at any moment. I was so worried that I only wanted to pull her back as soon as possible. When Jingjing got pushed, I was in shock. My mind was blank at that time. I was only thinking about Jingjing."

"Can you forgive me this time? I didn't hit you on purpose. I didn't know that I was hitting you. I even hit Uncle Yao. Good child, please forgive your aunt this time. I really didn't hit you on purpose."

Yang Heng didn't care about the injury on his body. Mother Yao's apology was negligible. It wasn't important to him.

However, when she said that 'Jingjing got pushed', Yang Heng's gaze turned cold. "Aunt, let's not talk about you hitting me. Why did you say that Jingjing was pushed? Who pushed her?"

"Who else can it be? Besides Ye Jian, who can it be?" Mother Yao was eager to change the topic so that her old neighbor wouldn't keep dwindling on this topic. She pointed at Ye Jian and shouted, "Ye Jian, you're so evil-hearted! You actually pushed my Jingjing down for Yang Heng's sake!"

"How ruthless must you be at such a young age? Don't you feel sorry for the military unit that groomed you? Don't you feel sorry for your mom? You're vicious! To climb higher, you even dared to kill someone! Why are you still in school? Principal Cao, I strongly advise Provincial No.1 Middle School to expel her!"

Principal Cao's face was grim. After listening to Mother Yao, he sneered and said, "You're absolutely right! She's so evil at such a young age. Our school shouldn't have a pupil like this. We can't let there be a black sheep!"

"That's right. Provincial No.1 Middle School has been around for a hundred years. No such thing has ever happened before. For the reputation of the school, let's end this issue today." Commissioner Yang spoke sternly. Then, he said to Deputy Commissioner Yao, "Old Yao, we should rush back to the school."

"We need to know who pushed who."

Commissioner Yang's words held a certain power. His words were enough to cause a change in the Yao family's expressions.

"Uncle Yang, I..." Yao Jing's face was pale as she spoke. She forced back the panic in her heart and tried her best to look weak. "I think that I might have to stay in the hospital for observation."

Commissioner Yang smiled and replied, "It's alright. We just asked the doctor a moment ago. He said that you can leave now. You don't have to stay here."
