

Chapter 1031: A Drama That's Hard To End

"Old Yang, why don't we sit down and solve this matter properly? My daughter just fell from a building..." Deputy Commissioner Yao considered his words carefully before opening his mouth. He rejected bringing his daughter to the school because she needed to rest.

However, the Yao family didn't have a choice in this matter. They had to go even if they didn't want to.

Ye Jian, who hadn't said anything since she arrived, opened her mouth at this moment and said, "Deputy Commissioner Yao, just now, your wife said that I pushed Yao Jing down. This isn't a matter that can be solved by sitting down. I almost fell while attempting to save Yao Jing. However, your family didn't thank me. Instead, you framed me. I will not let this matter end so easily."

She came in for five minutes. The moment she opened her mouth, she caused Yao Jing's face to turn pale. Yao Jing raised her head and looked at Ye Jian angrily. "When the fox preaches, take care of your geese! What else can't you do to get Yang Heng?"

"Little Fox, you won't even kill someone for my sake so why will you do something bad for the sake of a young man you only knew for less than two months?" Xia Jinyuan smiled as he walked in. Xia Yiwei and a man with an elegant and refined aura were behind him. The man was around 35 years old.

Xia Yiwei saw Ye Jian and walked over with a smile. She said, "I knew my eyes weren't lying to me. I saw you getting off the car with Commissioner Yang but Old Sixth didn't believe me."

Deputy Commissioner Yao and Commissioner Yang knew the secretary of the governor of the Southern Province. As the director of a provincial government department, Mother Yao knew her too.

They saw her walking towards Ye Jian and giving her an intimate hug. Then, they heard her continuing, "Why did you come to the hospital so late at night? In the afternoon, I told Old Sixth to go and fetch you at night so that we can have dinner together. Old Sixth said that you are having exams so you won't be free."

"I do have exams. However, something happened so I had to come to the hospital." Ye Jian glanced at Xia Jinyuan secretly. Why was he at the hospital? Did he come to find her or was he accompanying Xia Yiwei?

Xia Jinyuan, who was standing beside her, smiled and replied, "We came to look for an old friend. This is an old classmate of my sister. We didn't expect to meet you. Is the matter this afternoon not solved yet?"

When this group of people appeared in the ward, the entire atmosphere of the ward turned a little strange. Deputy Commissioner Yao and Mother Yao's gaze kept switching from Xia Yiwei's face to Xia Jinyuan's face. Vigilance appeared in their expressions. They felt tense.

The couple was flabbergasted that Ye Jian knew the secretary of the governor of the province!

On the other hand, Commissioner Yang smiled and spoke to Xia Yiwei politely. At the same time, he mentioned what happened today. "We are all shocked. She wanted to save someone but now, they are saying that she wanted to kill someone."

"This is not a small matter. Saving someone became killing the person. We need to investigate this properly. Ye Jian, I will accompany you. You need to have an adult beside you." Xia Yiwei didn't look at Deputy Commissioner Yao and his wife's expressions. She held Ye Jian's hand and smiled. "Don't be afraid. The one that saved people won't kill anyone. The person who wanted to kill someone won't remain safe either."

What was unacceptable for Mother Yao was the fact that her family had to sit in the police car!

Chapter 1032: What Should We Do

The police car cleared the road for them in front. The sirens were so loud it felt as though the entire city could hear them.

In the backseat, Yao Jing was extremely quiet. The tips of her fingers were trembling secretly. She didn't dare to speak to her parents and didn't dare to raise her head either. That was because... a policeman with a stern face was sitting opposite her. There was no smile on the policeman's face.

"What is Ye Jian's background? How does she know the secretary of the governor of the province, Xia Yiwei? I'm so angry! I really wanted to slap her twice when I saw how arrogant she was just now."

In the ward, Mother Yao didn't make any sound. She was the director of a department but as compared to Xia Yiwei, she was nothing. The difference was so huge that whenever she saw Xia Yiwei, she didn't even have the right to speak to her!

Even her husband, Deputy Commissioner Yao, didn't speak to her!

With Xia Yiwei around, Mother Yao didn't dare to speak. Now, when she was facing a small policeman sitting in the police car, Mother Yao dared to open her mouth.

"Don't talk so much. It's easy to see that Secretary Xia came specially to support Ye Jian!" The more you speak, the more mistakes you make. Deputy Commissioner Yao was more cautious than his wife. He was afraid that if he said something wrong, the policeman sitting opposite would remember it and report to Xia Yiwei.

He didn't know Ye Jian's background. However, there was one thing he was sure of. She had a good relationship with Secretary Xia!

Mother Yao was frustrated. She got slapped by Mother Yang but she still had to bear with it and not retaliate. She thought that she could finally reprimand Ye Jian to vent the anger in her heart but Secretary Xia came unexpectedly and she had to continue suppressing her temper.

Now, they were in the car. Why can't she vent?

She frowned furiously and said angrily, "I'm filled with anger and frustration now. If I keep my mouth shut, I will get sick from suppressing my emotions!" She grabbed Yao Jing's hand as she spoke. Suddenly, she got a shock. "Jingjing, what's wrong with you? Why are your hands so cold?"

They were ice-cold as though she was holding a block of ice. There was no warmth on her palm too.

Deputy Commissioner Yao hurriedly held his daughter's hand. He furrowed his brows violently too. "Are you very cold? Do you need a jacket?"

Yao Jing didn't feel that her body was cold. It was her heart.

She raised her head. Her lips trembled slightly as she asked her father softly, "Dad, I want to know... the Secretary Xia that you mentioned, is she very powerful? Is she more powerful than both of you?"

She was whispering as she was afraid that the policeman opposite them would hear her.

"Secretary Xia is the governor's subordinate. I can't say that she's more powerful than us but she's closer to the core of power. I only see the governor a few times a year but she always appears beside the governor. All the officials she meets are exceptional people." Deputy Commissioner Yao wouldn't hide any official matters from his daughter. Letting her know about the rules of the political world early in life was good for her growth. She would know who she couldn't provoke and who she should treat with care.

Yao Jing felt her breathing getting messy. Her hands started shaking uncontrollably and there was panic in the depth of her eyes. "Dad, is that Secretary Xia helping Ye Jian? What should I do? What should we do?"

What should we do? Could they still claim that Ye Jian pushed her?

"Let's talk after we get down the car." Deputy Commissioner Yao heaved a long sigh. He exchanged glances with his wife secretly. If they wanted to solve this matter, they would need to spend much effort. They just hoped that the secretary would go easy on them as Jingjing was just a child.

Chapter 1033: Worse Than Ye Jian In All Aspects

That was right, this was what Deputy Commissioner Yao thought. He thought that Yao Jing was still a child so when she makes mistakes, adults should forgive her.

This was what he thought naturally but he didn't understand that Yao Jing kept challenging other people's bottom line! He also didn't know that to other people, Yao Jing wasn't a child anymore!

Was there a seventeen-year-old child? No! There was only a seventeen-year-old teenager!

Yao Jing was afraid. This time, she was really frightened.

Especially after she heard her parents saying that Xia Yiwei wasn't someone they could offend. Her mood fell to rock bottom. She didn't want to go back to school at all. She wanted to jump down the car directly and run away.

The sharp gaze of the policeman opposite landed on her occasionally. Throughout the journey, Yao Jing didn't have the courage to run away.

At night, Provincial No.1 Middle School was brightly lit up. In the morning, there were exams but at night, the night self-study sessions continued as per normal. The lamps of the school cast long shadows of the trees on the ground. The shadows overlapped one another and the lights kept flickering. Even the human shadows looked blurry.

Ye Jian walked beside Xia Yiwei the entire time. Xia Jinyuan was on her right. The three of them walked together so even Commissioner Yang had to walk behind them. He was on Xia Yiwei's right.

Commissioner Yang and Xia Yiwei were still quite familiar with each other so they were able to smile and have a conversation as they walked. On the other hand, Deputy Commissioner Yao couldn't find a chance to cut in even if he wanted to.

But, at this moment, he didn't have the mood to talk to Xia Yiwei either. The moment he got down the car, he kept reminding Yao Jing, "No matter what they say later, you just need to apologize. If they ask you why you ran to the roof, say that you quarreled with Yang Heng. You felt sad so you wanted to have some fresh air."

"You must never say that you wanted to commit suicide! Don't say anything about Ye Jian pushing you either!"

Mother Yao was so angry she gritted her teeth. "She really is our daughter's nemesis! Yang Heng too! He always speaks up for Ye Jian. Doesn't he know how to protect Jingjing? That girl is like a devil. Yang Heng got bewitched by her!"

"Maybe we are wrong. Ye Jian and Yang Heng... their relationship might not be what we think." A handsome and elegant face appeared in his mind. Deputy Commissioner Yao turned his head and looked behind him as his brain worked furiously. He saw the tall and straight figure who had been standing beside Ye Jian all this while. He seemed to be protecting her like a mountain that couldn't be moved.

The moment he appeared, he didn't look at anyone. The only person he had in his eyes was Ye Jian. Even when Old Yang spoke to him, he just acknowledged Old Yang casually. The arrogance in his expression was stronger than Secretary Xia's.

Mother Yao snorted in disdain when she heard this. "She's just a girl that came from the countryside. When she sees Yang Heng, she's like a fly that saw meat. How can she bear to let him go?"

“Don’t always say that she’s a girl from the countryside. Do you sense any countryside aura on her? Also, look at her portfolio. How is she worse than Jingjing? She is stronger than Jingjing in all aspects!”

“She didn’t go through grade ten. When she took her exam again, her overall score was one of the tops in the entire province. She entered Provincial No.1 Middle School and jumped directly to grade eleven! In junior high, she represented the country and went to Australia for a competition. She even came back with a gold medal!”

“What about Jingjing? What does Jingjing have? Is she better than Ye Jian in her studies? Did she represent the country and go overseas for competition? Is she able to speak fluent English?” Deputy Commissioner Yao seemed to have been enlightened by God. His entire mind became clear instantly.

He looked at Xia Yiwei and then looked at Major Xia who was standing beside Ye Jian. Deputy Commissioner Yao understood the truth before his wife did.

Chapter 1034: Solve All Trouble At Once

Mother Yao didn’t say anything. She was speechless. With such a comparison... She always felt that her daughter was better than Ye Jian but in fact, there was nothing she could win Ye Jian in!

After some time, Mother Yao gritted her teeth. She was unwilling to accept this fact so she said stubbornly, “Our daughter is still better than her! She broke the school rules the moment she entered the school and dreamt of seducing Yang Heng so that she can change her status as a countryside girl. So what if her results are good? She has a bad character! Who will lay their eyes on her?”

“Look at Secretary Xia carefully and then look at the man that has a good relationship with Secretary Xia. Aren’t women good at understanding people’s relationships? Can’t you see anything? Can’t you see what Ye Jian’s relationship with them is?” Deputy Commissioner Yao couldn’t explain what he was feeling now. They treated Yang Heng as the best option for their son-in-law and were worried that other people would snatch him away. What happened in the end? Ye Jian might not have any thoughts at all!

Mother Yao turned around and wanted to size Xia Jinyuan up. Before she could, she got frightened by Xia Jinyuan’s gaze and turned her head back.

“Mom, Dad, can you stop talking? My head is about to burst!” Yao Jing spoke softly after keeping quiet for so long. Now, all that was left in her heart was fear. Even when her parents were accompanying her, she felt afraid.

Whenever she saw the figure of the policeman walking in front of her as well as the back views of Principal Cao and the teachers, she felt so frightened that all the cells in her body started screaming and shivering.

She was afraid of the police. She was afraid of Xia Yiwei. She was afraid of Principal Cao. She was afraid of the teachers... Now, she was afraid of everyone!

She knew clearly what she was afraid of. No one knew it better than her. She was really frightened that... they would find out that she pushed Ye Jian first and that she was the one who purposely called Ye Jian to come up. That she pretended to lose her balance and try to push Ye Jian.

No, no. She mustn't be so frightened! She must remain calm, she must remain calm!

She mustn't let anyone notice that she was feeling guilty and frightened! She mustn't lose to Ye Jian! She mustn't lose to someone she always looked down on!

Yao Jing tried to straighten her back so that she wouldn't be on the losing end. However, she didn't know that to Ye Jian, she wasn't a threat anymore.

"We found a girl that has a similar background in dancing as Yao Jing. She started standing on the roof half an hour ago. Later, when you go up, you can stand in the same position as you did before and reenact the scene with the girl."

There was a cold smile on Xia Jinyuan's face. He said to Ye Jian calmly, "This trouble will remain as trouble if you let it stay. Let's solve it once and for all. Don't let these small matters make your senior high life unhappy."

When you make a mistake, you should receive adequate punishment. If they still wanted to use 'she's still a child, she doesn't know anything' as an excuse to escape punishment, they were too naive!

This time, Ye Jian had no objections. She wouldn't easily forgive someone who wanted her life. She wasn't that magnanimous.

"Old Sixth always knows what he's doing. When you didn't allow him to settle the matter because you're afraid it will affect his image, he was so frustrated his face was as black as the bottom of a pot." Xia Yiwei distanced herself from Commissioner Yang and smiled gently as she teased the two of them. "He really wanted to help you so that he could perform in front of you but you didn't give him the chance. He felt frustrated so he kept pestering me. He would loiter around my room, take out his phone, put it down, watch the television, and then turn off the television. My head hurt because he disturbed me the entire afternoon."

Chapter 1035: Are You Here To Perform A Joke

In the car, Xia Yiwei directly admitted that she was here to help Ye Jian. Now, she was teasing Xia Jinyuan. It could be seen that she really had a good relationship with Xia Jinyuan.

Ye Jian smiled and glanced at Xia Jinyuan. There was a hint of gentleness in her voice as she replied, "I always thought that I could settle the affairs in school so I felt that I didn't need to trouble him."

"Your matter is my matter. I have never found it troublesome. Also, if there's a faster, better, and more stable way of solving this issue, why take the longer path?" Xia Jinyuan was really afraid that Ye Jian would still reject him now so he said with a stern expression on his handsome face, "You shouldn't waste your time on Yao Jing. Fight a quick battle to prevent her from creating trouble in the future."

"Because of her personal affair, she pretended she wanted to commit suicide during an exam. She even forced another student to apologize to her and wanted to push you down a building. Provincial No.1

Middle School is a hundred-year-old elite school. They will never allow such a student to continue staying here! Little Fox, we must make use of this chance and stop her from retaliating.”

He didn't pause for a second and finished the entire speech in one breath. Ye Jian couldn't help but smile.

Was he really afraid that she would reject him? Wasn't he afraid of suffocating if he spoke everything in one breath?

“I understand. That's why I went to the hospital. Principal Cao had already said that this was your arrangement and agreed with it. If I really wanted to reject you and didn't want your help, I would have rejected you when Principal Cao spoke.”

Xia Jinyuan coughed awkwardly when his thoughts got exposed. “Your principal... I clearly told him to not tell you about it in case you reject me. I didn't expect him to betray me instantly.”

Principal Cao would never bear with this for the sake of the school's reputation as well as to prevent other people from getting influenced and doing the same thing.

Principal Cao was the first person to walk into the teaching building. He turned and looked at Yao Jing who was behind him. Then, he looked at Ye Jian who was walking at the back. His grip on the railings of the stairs tightened. He glanced at Yao Jing coldly before raising his feet to climb the stairs.

The wind on the roof was a little strong. When it blew on your neck, it felt a little cold.

Normally, the roof was pitch black. Today, it was lit brightly. The entire roof was lit up as though it was in the afternoon.

The moment Yao Jing came up, she noticed that all the teachers present in the afternoon had come. When she saw a girl with a similar physique as her standing at the same spot she was standing in the morning, her heart skipped a beat. The nervousness she tried so hard to suppress got stronger.

What is the school doing?

“Yao Jing, come and see if the girl is standing at the same spot you were standing in the morning.” A stern policeman opened his mouth and pointed to the roof. He looked sharply at the student that was attempting to hide behind her parents and continued in a deep voice, “Look properly!”

Deputy Commissioner Yao and his wife didn't understand what was happening. But, their instincts told them that what was going to happen was bad for their child.

“The child was frightened. How can she remember everything clearly? There's no need to be so pushy. Be easy on her,” Mother Yao said in an impatient tone. She hugged Yao Jing tightly in her arms. This place gave her bad memories. When she stood on the roof again, she still felt a lingering fear.

Xia Yiwei opened her mouth and said calmly, “A child? Director Li, is that a child you're hugging? How old is the child? Three years old? Six years old? I don't think so. She should at least be fifteen years old.”

“Is a fifteen-year-old still a child? Director Li, if I remember correctly, the World Health Organization classifies anyone that is thirteen years old and above as a teenager. Director Li, you’re not hugging a child. You’re hugging a teenager.”

Chapter 1036: A Truth That Can’t Be Changed

The moment she opened her mouth, she made Mother Yao a little embarrassed. “Secretary Xia, to parents, our child is always a child. We won’t think of classifying her as a teenager.”

What on earth was Secretary Xia’s relationship with Ye Jian? Why does she speak up for Ye Jian all the time?

In the hospital, she faintly heard Ye Jian calling Secretary Xia ‘Sister Xia’. At that time, she was fuming with anger because of Huiying so she didn’t take note of it properly. Now, when she saw Secretary Xia speaking up for Ye Jian again and again... Mother Yao’s eyelids jumped uncontrollably.

Deputy Commissioner Yao was walking in front so he didn’t notice what happened behind him. He looked at the people on the roof. The night wind was a little cold. However, there was a layer of sweat on his forehead.

The issue was getting more and more out of hand. His confidence was slithering away.

Xia Yiwei walked towards Mother Yao and lifted the corners of her lips slightly. She gave Yao Jing a mysterious smile and said slowly, “Director Li, you must be well-educated. Why do you sound like an illiterate person? In my eyes, Director Li’s child is already an adult.”

“Since she’s an adult, she needs to be responsible for her actions and words. She can’t escape from this because of Director Li’s personal opinion.”

Her forced explanation caused Xia Yiwei to squint her eyes. She sized up Yao Jing from head to toe a few times and smiled. “I can’t tell. She doesn’t seem mentally handicapped. Director Li, I feel that your daughter is extremely healthy.”

Is she saying that her smart and bright daughter was mentally handicapped? Mother Yao was so angry she couldn’t maintain the expression on her face. She forced herself to smile and explained, “Secretary Xia, my daughter is fine. She’s very healthy.”

“Director Li, aren’t you contradicting yourself? You said that your child is seventeen years old but her actions are no different from a child. Then, you explained that she’s not mentally handicapped. Director Li, are you making a fool of me?”

Xia Yiwei's face turned cold. She glanced sideways at Mother Yao sharply. There was a strong aura around her. "Since she's not mentally handicapped, she's a teenager now! You can have your own opinion but to me, Director Li's daughter is not a child. She is someone with her own judgment, own thoughts, and a teenager who can act independently!"

"Secretary Xia, my Jingjing..."

"I don't know how your Jingjing is. I only know that Director Li's daughter is amazing! She's so amazing that even when I'm standing here together with you, I can feel chills on my back!" Xia Yiwei wasn't polite anymore. This student was evil and had a vicious heart. Yet, her parents weren't educating her. Instead, they covered up for her. Why did she have to be polite with them?

Today, they could bully Ye Jian. Tomorrow, they could bully someone else! Leaving this student here in Provincial No.1 Middle School was a humiliation to the education sector of the Southern Province.

Xia Yiwei's overbearing attitude made Mother Yao speechless. Why wasn't her Jingjing a child? She was just an immature child! Even if she's the secretary of the governor, she couldn't be so unreasonable.

Xia Yiwei put on a cold face and didn't want to speak anymore. She sneered at Mother Yao. How was this person able to become the director of a department? She needed to inspect the departments carefully.

After Xia Yiwei left, the policeman that was waiting for Yao Jing's answer continued speaking, "Yao Jing, you better go and confirm the location. Also, I have to remind you that in our eyes, you're not a child too. You're a teenager! A teenager who has her own judgment, thinking, and can act independently."

Chapter 1037: But Ye Jian Is Mature

The policeman's words caused Mother Yao to fume until her liver started hurting. "Watch your attitudes! How dare you threaten my daughter? I will not let you go so easily!"

"Director Li, we are just doing our jobs. Please cooperate with us, thank you!" The policeman in charge of this case didn't take her warnings to heart. He had met many similar situations and people. He asked Yao Jing once again, "Please go now and confirm if that is the place you were standing at just now. Go and confirm with your dad."

Commissioner Yang, who came up slightly later, purposely stopped and waited for the people in front to finish speaking. Then, he turned and said to his wife, "Old Yao's family has really offended someone they shouldn't. With Xia Yiwei helping her, Ye Jian won't suffer today."

"With Secretary Xia supporting her, I can't recognize Ye Jian as my goddaughter anymore." Mother Yang sighed softly. Her gaze landed on Ye Jian and she smiled again. "It's alright. I don't have to worry that she will get bullied by the Yao family."

Yang Heng softly when he heard this. "Mom, even if Ye Jian is alone, no one will be able to bully her. Also, I feel relieved that you didn't recognize her as your goddaughter. The pressure on my shoulders disappeared instantly."

With such an outstanding younger sister, how could the elder brother not feel stressed?

But, having such an amazing friend wouldn't make him stressed. Instead, he would feel honored!

Commissioner Yang smiled and scolded his son. "Rascal, I knew that you were unwilling to accept it in your heart. Hurry up and take a look. From the looks of it, the Yao family won't be able to escape unscathed this time. Our family won't kick someone who's down. We will just speak the truth and not exaggerate. We won't say any nonsense either."

Old Yao and his wife beat their son viciously without holding back. He was already magnanimous enough to not add oil to the flame!

He glanced at his old neighbor who was saying something to Principal Cao. Commissioner Yang said, "Old Yao will not relent until he faces the grim reality. Tonight, we must let him realize that his education towards his daughter is a failure!"

"He won't feel that his education was a failure. He will only think that his daughter is still young and immature!" Mother Yang replied coldly. Then, she followed behind her son and walked towards the edge of the roof.

Just like what Mother Yang said, Deputy Commissioner Yao, who had a bad premonition the moment he came up, was explaining to Principal Cao that his Jingjing was still a child and she was immature. They couldn't scare a child like this.

This was what Principal Cao replied to him, "If I ask Ye Jian to beat Yao Jing up now, will Deputy Commissioner Yao think that the child is immature? If that is the case, I can do it. Ye Jian is very angry that she was framed so why don't you allow her to beat Yao Jing up to vent her anger. After all, she's just a child. She's immature!"

Deputy Commissioner Yao felt speechless for a long while. He naturally thought that his daughter was a child but he forgot that Ye Jian was a child too!

"What do you think? If you agree, I will ask Ye Jian to come over now!" Principal Cao's gaze turned sharper when he saw this. He shouted and called for Ye Jian. "Ye Jian, come here for a moment."

Deputy Commissioner Yao immediately stopped him. "Don't, don't, don't. Principal Cao, our Jingjing is immature but Ye Jian is a mature child. How can you ask her to beat Yao Jing up without a reason?"

"That's not right. Deputy Commissioner Yao, in my eyes, Ye Jian is just a child whereas Yao Jing is the mature one." Principal Cao repeated his words earnestly, "In my eyes, Ye Jian is a child!"

Deputy Commissioner Yao's face turned black. He said in a deep voice, "Ye Jian is mature!"

Chapter 1038: Bad Character

"In my eyes, Ye Jian is immature! She's just a child, an immature child!" Principal Cao looked at Ye Jian as she walked over. Her frame was small and her steps were firm. She looked like an unbending green bamboo. Even adults respected her. "I feel that Ye Jian is just a child. Deputy Commissioner Yao, why do you keep saying that Ye Jian isn't a child?"

At this moment, Deputy Commissioner Yao finally understood. The moment he understood, his expression turned dejected, and his gaze became dim.

When Xia Jinyuan, who was accompanying Ye Jian, saw the sudden dejected expression on Deputy Commissioner Yao's face, the corners of his lips lifted and he said to Ye Jian, "Stand at your original position. This time, you don't have to worry that someone will push you down."

"The moment I stand, Yao Jing will start crying." Ye Jian smiled as she squinted and looked at Ye Jian who was walking with the policeman to the spot she stood at in the morning. Her voice was as cold as the night wind. "It will be useless even if she cries. We will still solve the matter like how it should be solved."

"Just like what you said, I can't let her make my senior high life unhappy anymore."

"Good enlightenment. It came a little late but it's not too late." Xia Jinyuan walked beside Ye Jian and came in front of Principal Cao. He didn't keep his distance from Ye Jian even when he stood in front of Principal Cao. From his attitude, one could tell that he didn't care about the implications he had if he stood up for Ye Jian.

How could Principal Cao really ask Ye Jian to hit Yao Jing? After she came over, he said, "After Yao Jing confirms where she stood, you can stand there and repeat what Yao Jing said. You don't have to be afraid. Secretary Xia, the police, and I will be here!"

After the police tied a safety harness around her waist, Ye Jian stood at her spot. The white light shone on her. In that instant, Deputy Commissioner Yao felt his vision turning black... There was a huge distance between them. Why did Jingjing suddenly think of pushing Ye Jian off the building?

Ye Jian, who was standing in her original position, repeated what Yao Jing said in the morning. Whenever she said a sentence, Yang Heng would confirm it. The teachers at the side would nod their heads too.

Then, the girl who had a dance background and had stood there for half an hour mimicked Yao Jing and fell towards Ye Jian. Deputy Commissioner Yao had already shifted his gaze away.

That young lady had used her body language to show that... Yao Jing intentionally fell on Ye Jian at that time. She hooked her feet tightly on the reinforcing bar and used the strength on her waist to move towards Ye Jian. The distance was a little wide so her entire waist was bent.

At this moment, Ye Jian said that sentence, "Ye Jian, die." Yao Jing's face turned as white as paper when she saw the girl copying all the actions she did.

Yang Heng said in a cold voice, "The angle that that girl bent her waist at is the same as Yao Jing. Both of them have a dance background so it's easy for Yao Jing to complete such a difficult move."

“Yang Heng, stop talking nonsense! Stop talking nonsense!” Mother Yao panicked. She started shouting in a flurry, “How did Ye Jian enchant you? Why are you helping her? She doesn’t really like you! She just likes the fact that your father is a commissioner!”

Then, she said to Commissioner Yang and his wife, “Old Yang, Huiying, hurry up and persuade Hengheng. He will harm Jingjing if he continues speaking. Jingjing will die because of him!”

“Before she harmed someone, did she ever think that she would kill someone because of her actions?” Mother Yang became infuriated once again. She scolded, “My son is not biased towards anyone. Ye Jian doesn’t have her eyes on my family either! Don’t you even think of stuffing your evil daughter into my family!”

Chapter 1039: Yao Jing, You’re Over

“Your Jingjing is your Jingjing. Don’t always tell me what your Jingjing is! I don’t have to know!” Mother Yang decided to move far away after she finished shouting to prevent the Yao family from pestering her.

Yao Jing cried. She wept loudly until she was unable to catch her breath. It seemed as though she would faint the next second.

“My poor daughter, my poor daughter. They’re framing you! They’re framing you!” Mother Yao tightly hugged her daughter who was crying fiercely. As she spoke, she glared viciously at Ye Jian who was standing on the edge of the roof. This was their nemesis! She was their nemesis! Why didn’t she fall? Why didn’t she fall off the building?

“Mom, I’m over. I’m over... Mom, I’m over.” Yao Jing kept repeating this sentence. She was over, everything was over! She never thought that Ye Jian was so far away from her. She didn’t expect this distance to expose her true colors!

It’s over! Over! Everything was over!

The mother and daughter hugged each other and cried. On the other side, Deputy Commissioner Yao moved his gaze away. He already knew that... they were over! His daughter ended her own path with this move!

Even if he wanted to cover this matter up... Secretary Xia and the police were here. How could he cover it up?

Mother Yao kicked up a fuss but it didn’t stop anything. After the girl pushed Ye Jian, she slowly straightened her back. She didn’t use much force. After that, she took off her shoes and socks. There was a dark red mark on the back of her leg caused by the reinforcing bar.

“Yao Jing must have a mark on her leg too. This is a deep mark. I will take two to three days to disappear.” After the scene in the morning was reenacted, Yang Heng looked at Yao Jing. There was only coldness left in his gaze. “Yao Jing, if we are framing you, you can take off your shoes and socks now to let the police take a look.”

“Yao Jing, take off your shoes and socks. We need to take photos as evidence.”

After the police finished speaking, Mother Yao immediately pulled Yao Jing behind her to protect her. She screamed shrilly, “What are you trying to do? Are you ganging up to bully my daughter? My daughter had a huge fright in the morning. Instead of consoling her, you are pressurizing her! Get out of the way! Go away!”

Mother Yao realized how serious the matter was. She didn’t have any other ways of solving it so this was the only thing she could do.

Unfortunately, she couldn’t stop the police.

When the pale Yao Jing saw what happened, she screamed and wanted to rush down the stairs. However, the policemen that were guarding the entrance of the roof stopped her and subdued her easily.

“Let me go! Let me go! Dad, Mom, save me, save me! Mom, Mom, I’m hurting. This is painful... They’re using so much force. It’s painful. It’s really painful. Help me, help me...”

But, her parents were unable to save her. When her shoes and socks were taken off, the two greenish-purple marks on the back of her leg were revealed under the glaring white light. Yao Jing screamed louder. She even screamed, “Yang Heng, save me! Save me! Save me!”

Yang Heng’s handsome face was filled with indifference. Yao Jing challenged his bottom line again and again. This time, as he looked at Yao Jing, his heart was calm. He even thought that this day had finally arrived.

The police took photos and collected the evidence. They recorded everything and did an investigation. That night, they settled everything from this morning. Yao Jing’s screams of agony never stopped as she made her way from the school to the police car parked outside the school. Mother Yao fainted directly.

Chapter 1040: She Deserved It

Mother Yao fainted. Deputy Commissioner Yao caught his wife as she fell. He didn’t have the extra time to care about his daughter!

That was his daughter. How could he give up on her? How could he not care about her?

He pressed his wife’s philtrum and shouted her name agitatedly. In an instant, Deputy Commissioner Yao’s back was drenched with sweat. Huge droplets of sweat were falling down his chin.

Yao Jing, who was dragged away, started to scream even more miserably when she noticed that her parents didn't follow her. "... Let me go, let me go. Dad, Mom, come quick! Come quickly! Hurry and save me!"

"I'm afraid, Dad, I'm afraid... I'm scared. Mom, I'm scared... Save me, save me. I didn't do it on purpose... Yang Heng, I didn't do it on purpose. Forgive me. Please, I beg you to forgive me..."

Her pillar of support collapsed when she didn't see her parents. She kept struggling until she started kicking her legs in the air. She didn't want to be dragged into the police car. She screamed tragically and asked Deputy Commissioner Yao to save her.

Yang Heng, who was sending his parents down the teaching building, said, "Dad, drive slower at night. Mom, don't be angry anymore. I'm a guy. It's alright for me to get beaten a few times. It will heal in a few days."

"There's still half an hour before the evening study session ends. I will return to my classroom."

Yao Jing's pleas didn't receive any reactions from Yang Heng. Instead, he felt relieved. He just hoped that his last year in high school would be peaceful. He didn't want to see Yao Jing again.

"Remember to apply medicine before you sleep. If you can't reach your back, ask your roommate to help." Mother Yang reminded him and then raised her head to look up the building. Ye Jian can relax now. She didn't have to worry that Yao Jing would suddenly create trouble for her.

Commissioner Yang patted his son's shoulder and smiled. "Go for your self-study session. Your mom and I will go back first!" After he finished speaking, he left.

In front, Deputy Commissioner Yao, who was pressing on his wife's philtrum, heard footsteps coming. He immediately turned around. There were tears in his eyes as he spoke to Commissioner Yang and his family in a hoarse voice, "Old Yang, my Jingjing, can you... can you help me?"

"That child... that child... that child..." He repeated 'that child' three times but he didn't manage to finish his sentence.

He wanted to say that his child didn't do it on purpose. Her actions weren't intentional. She was just immature and still young. That was why she made a mistake. He hoped that they could forgive her this time because she was young and immature...

These words had always come out of his mouth naturally but now, Deputy Commissioner Yao couldn't say them anymore. He moved his lips for a long time but in the end, he just let out a long sigh.

Commissioner Yang didn't cause any more harm to the unfortunate man. He sighed too and said, "Old Yao, there's no need to say anything. When your wife hit my son, did she think about our relationship? She asked my son to pay with his life and said that my son is ungrateful and left her daughter to die."

“If Ye Jian didn’t repeat these words on the roof, Huiying and I won’t know it at all! Old Yao, there’s no use begging my family. I will not help you with this matter. Don’t beg Ye Jian either. Secretary Xia’s attitude is enough to explain everything.”

He heard his daughter shouting for him and then shouting for Yang Heng. She even shouted for Old Yang to help her. Two lines of tears fell from his eyes.

They were over. Everything had come to an end.
