

BOOT CAMP 1041

Chapter 1041: Too Late To Regret

He and his wife always thought that their daughter was still young and still a child. Even if she made a mistake, everything would be fine after she apologized. This was how they felt so they naturally thought that this was what other people felt too.

This was what he and his wife always felt. No one had ever shown any objection. Everyone just laughed and forgave their daughter. They also told them that Jingjing was just a child.

They always thought this way. Even today, this was what he and his wife thought.

But, what happened in the end? They might think that their daughter was a child but not everyone felt this way.

Secretary Xia didn't, Principal Cao didn't, the teachers in the school didn't... Those people that didn't have to please him all felt that Jingjing wasn't a child!

Deputy Commissioner Yao only realized this now. He felt regret. It was too late for him to understand now. Everything was too late.

Mother Yao's philtrum had turned red and swollen from all the pressing. She opened her eyes and her pupils stopped moving for a few seconds. Then, she grabbed her husband's arm forcefully and shouted in a hoarse voice, "Hurry, hurry! We mustn't let them take our daughter away! Hurry up and stop them! Stop them!"

The moment she opened her mouth, Commissioner Yang and his wife's faces turned cold. Mother Yang didn't want to stay here a second longer. She walked straight forward.

A kind mother makes a wastrel. Yao Jing became like this because her parents doted on her too much!

"Old Yang, why are you still standing there? Our son has returned to his classroom. We should go home too." Were they supposed to stay here and let their mood get worse?!

Yao Jing was about to leave the school premises. When she noticed that her parents hadn't come, she was so frightened she changed her target of pleading to Ye Jian. "Ye Jian, I'm sorry, I'm sorry. Please forgive me. I didn't do it on purpose. I know my mistake. Please forgive me. Please forgive me this time."

Only Yao Jing's screams could be heard in the quiet school premises. She was anxious, flustered, and scared... She begged her parents but it was useless. She begged Yang Heng but it was useless. Now, she begged Ye Jian.

She needed to be forgiven. The last time, she scolded Ye Jian's mother but everything was fine after she was forgiven.

"I was wrong, I was wrong. I don't want to be taken by the police. I don't want to enter the Youth Detention Center. I don't want to be locked up like a criminal. Ye Jian, please, I beg you, as schoolmates, please forgive me this time."

Until now, Mother Yao still hadn't understood the situation clearly. Hearing her daughter's tragic cries, she staggered and wanted to chase after Yao Jing. However, Deputy Commissioner Yao pulled her back and said, "Don't chase anymore. It's useless."

"Why is it useless? Let me go! Let me go!" At this moment, Mother Yao was just a mother that was willing to give up everything for her child. Well, if she didn't always mention Yang Heng and Ye Jian. "Jingjing is framed. The police didn't investigate anything. They just listened to their side of the story and said that Jingjing wanted to kill Ye Jian!"

"Song Huiying is blind so she couldn't see what that little bitch really is! She even helped Ye Jian to target our Jingjing! I..."

She didn't need sympathy. Someone who always blames her mistakes on others didn't need any sympathy.

"Deputy Commissioner Yao, I suggest that you bring Director Li to a psychologist tomorrow. Until now, she hasn't woken up yet. She's still immersed in her own world. I'm afraid that there's something wrong with her mental state."

Xia Yiwei, who came down later, stood behind them and said seriously, "Ye Jian is part of the Xia family. If I hear Director Li saying anything bad about her again, don't blame me for being impolite."

Chapter 1042: She's Too Frightening

Deputy Commissioner Yao covered his wife's mouth directly and hurriedly replied, "She probably suffered some stimulation so she's talking nonsense. Secretary Xia, please don't take it to heart!"

Ye Jian was part of the Xia family!

Even if her husband didn't cover her mouth. Mother Yao was astounded. How could Ye Jian be part of the Xia family?

That was impossible! Impossible! How could it be?

How could a country bumpkin be part of the Xia family?

Secretary Xia said it personally so it had to be true! If not, why would she stand up and speak for Ye Jian...?

"Did you hear that? We got worried for nothing." Commissioner Yang naturally heard this sentence too since he was walking in front. He sighed and said to his wife, "It's fortunate that we didn't recognize Ye Jian as our goddaughter rashly. If not, it will be embarrassing!"

Why will it be embarrassing? Mother Yang smiled. "I really like Ye Jian. I don't care if she belongs to the Xia family. I like her and it has nothing to do with other people. Why is that embarrassing?"

She wasn't scheming anything and didn't want anything from Ye Jian. She just purely likes her. Nothing was embarrassing about this.

The sound of papers flipping was heard in the classrooms. Outside, Yao Jing's repenting could be heard faintly. Ye Jian stood on the fourth level of the teaching building and stared at the direction of the school gate with a cold gaze. Under the flickering lamps, she could roughly make out the outline of Yao Jing struggling along the way.

"The truth is, this might not be the end. The Yao family will probably appeal. Deputy Commissioner Yao won't give up on his daughter," Ye Jian spoke in an indifferent tone. She showed no intention of helping Yao Jing.

Not all mistakes could be forgiven with 'I'm sorry'. She shouldn't think that it was natural to be forgiven for any huge mistakes she made as long as she apologized.

Yao Jing still wanted to use an apology to exchange for forgiveness. She was so naive it made Ye Jian feel like laughing.

Xia Jinyuan stood beside her and held her hand gently. He smiled and said, "They won't. The Yao family will accept their punishment. They won't dare to appeal. Yao Jing will definitely enter the Youth Detention Center. The Yao family doesn't have any ways to change this ending."

"Are you so sure?" Ye Jian smiled and looked at him. "Will you settle the issues outside?"

If they didn't even dare to appeal, it could only mean that Xia Jinyuan had settled the issue. If not, based on how Deputy Commissioner Yao and his wife doted on Yao Jing, how could they bear to let her enter the Youth Detention Center?

Xia Jinyuan didn't deny it. As he nodded, his gaze was sharp and slightly furious. "We have to let them know what's the consequences of offending someone they shouldn't." Didn't they bully Little Fox because she had no parents? Didn't they bully her because she didn't have anyone helping her? Well, he would let the Yao family see who they had offended.

There was no need to use his private rights this time. Everything would be solved by going according to the normal procedures. The Yang family would apply pressure on them and the school would take its stand too. As for him, he just needed Xia Yiwei to show her concern about this matter occasionally and then investigate Deputy Commissioner Yao and his wife's background. Everything would be easily settled.

Even if the Yao family wanted to appeal, they needed to have the energy to! If not, they might land themselves in jail instead of getting an appeal.

At 8 pm, the evening study session was still ongoing. All the students sitting in the classroom heard Yao Jing's shrill cries. When he heard Yao Jing begging Ye Jian for forgiveness, Luo Ran from Grade Twelve trembled furiously.

Yao Jing... Yao Jing was also chased away by Ye Jian!

She was even brought away by the police... She wanted to commit suicide in the morning and got brought away by the police in the evening... Luo Ran lowered his head even more.

Chapter 1043: Untitled

Luo Ran always felt that his family was rich. With money, there was nothing he couldn't solve. However, what happened that night taught him a lesson. Many people were wealthier than his family in the Southern Province. There were even more people that were wealthy and powerful. He provoked someone richer and more powerful than his family. If the person wanted his life, he could do it with a snap of his fingers.

He was the boss of the underground world of the Southern Province, Third Master Hou. The Luo family was nothing in his eyes.

The students in the classroom whispered among each other. Luo Ran could faintly hear the name 'Yao Jing' appearing in their conversations occasionally. Even the students that had good results were softly discussing Yao Jing. They were all guessing what Yao Jing did. She shouted for help and then talked about the police. Then, she mentioned Ye Jian... Luo Ran glanced at them from the corner of his eyes. Up until the end of the evening study session, he didn't participate in their conversation.

He didn't dare to participate. As long as it was something to do with Ye Jian, he would move as far away as possible... A girl who knew how to play with knives, a girl who said that she would kill someone and really dared to kill a person, a girl who had the ability to kill a person and had the support of a powerful figure in the underground world... This was a girl that he couldn't provoke! His family couldn't provoke her either.

Luo Ran's classmates didn't notice his silence. When the school bell rang, the students in the class gathered in small groups and left the classroom happily. No matter which grades the students were in, they had one common topic today. Yao Jing, who wanted to commit suicide in the morning, was said to be taken away by the police!

"Those frightening screams were so anger-pacifying!" An Jiabin was someone who only wanted to know the ending and didn't care about the process. Once the school bell rang, she hugged Ye Jian's shoulder and laughed until her facial muscles started cramping up. After she finished laughing, she cleared her throat and pretended to be serious. She said in a low voice, "That is a little impolite. Am I taking too much pleasure in other people's misfortune?"

Ye Jian didn't deny it.

She wasn't just taking too much pleasure. She laughed so much that her feet were almost floating.

"You can just smile in your heart. You should keep a low-profile outside." Ye Jian smiled and said calmly. She walked on the cobblestone path where lights and shadows scattered on it. Ye Jian's expression seemed a little cold. Yao Jing would have been taken away by the police sooner or later. If they caught her now, she wouldn't have the chance to harm other people in the future.

An Jiaxin never asked Ye Jian what happened this morning or this evening. In the past, she was an extremely curious person. Now, under the influence of Ye Jian and Zhang Bin's constant reminders, she wasn't as rash as when she was in junior high anymore. Her curiosity wasn't so strong either.

Although she really wanted to know what happened, if Ye Jian didn't tell her, she wouldn't specifically ask.

She knew the results already so the process wasn't so important anymore.

Ye Jian didn't know how to start explaining what happened to Yao Jing. Also, Yao Jing's issue had already spread throughout the entire school. As one of the parties involved, she didn't have the habit of discussing the issue behind other people's backs.

Everyone knew what happened. There was no need for her to explain the reason and the process in detail. After some time, people would know the truth.

Yang Heng had the same attitude as Ye Jian. He didn't like to talk behind other people's backs too. No matter what his classmates asked him, he just smiled at them. He used his smile to reject their questions. After a few times, no one asked him anymore.

Since the parties involved didn't say anything, no one was able to get any information.

Wang Dandan didn't have a good time either. Her classmates surrounded her and wanted to understand what happened in the morning. Why did Yao Jing want to commit suicide and why was Ye Jian involved? They didn't understand why Yao Jing got taken away by the police in the end.

Chapter 1044: Lifetime Partner

Too many people asked her so Wang Dandan was at a loss of what to do. In the end, her form teacher who had sprained her ankle appeared and saved Wang Dandan from her predicament.

The form teacher of Class Six received an order from the principal so after she pulled Wang Dandan away from her classmates, she said, "I know that you, Yue Mei, and Yao Jing have a good relationship. You know clearly what happened to Yao Jing today. I hope that you can remain silent about this matter. Don't tell people what you know and don't make guesses of what you don't. Do you understand what I mean?"

The school didn't hide the matter purposely but they couldn't watch at the side and let the matter progress without doing anything. When they needed to control the matter, they would. The school wouldn't let the parents of the students question the school leaders as well as the quality of their education.

Their hundred years of reputation mustn't be damaged by Yao Jing!

Wang Dandan was in a daze the entire day. Even now, she hadn't regained her senses. She said softly, "I understand. Don't worry. I was Yao Jing's classmate from junior high to senior high. I won't say bad things about her in front of other students. I also won't speak up for her."

Yao Jing wanted to push Ye Jian off the building but in the end, she fell herself. When Yang Heng looked for her and told her about this, she didn't believe it. However... it was the truth.

Even if she didn't want to believe it, she didn't have a choice.

This side of Yao Jing made her scared even though she was Yao Jing's friend. For Yang Heng, for a mere guess that had no evidence, she was ruthless enough to murder a schoolmate... This was terrifying!

In front of the form teacher, Wang Dandan expressed her thoughts honestly. At the same time, she was telling her form teacher that her relationship with Yao Jing was just normal. She wouldn't speak up for Yao Jing and wouldn't discredit her.

As a businessman's daughter, she always weighs and considers her relationships clearly.

Wang Dandan was Yao Jing's best friend. However, today, her best friend got terrified by her friend's ruthless and evil heart. She didn't dare to continue this friendship anymore.

This was because this matter concerned a human life. If there was a bigger interest in the future, Wang Dandan's entire family might be implicated.

The wind at night was colder than the day. In November, the Southern Province had entered Autumn. The temperature of the night breeze was like that of the start of winter.

The street lamps on the campus continued shining brightly. The students that usually loved to hang around Swan Lake chose to take the shortest route back to their dormitories in unplanned unison. They whispered to each other until the lights in the dormitories started lighting up one by one.

The night passed and dawn came. After one night, Yao Jing's issue got submerged in the exams the next day. No matter how curious other people were... they wouldn't let it affect their exam.

The grade twelve students had three days of exam. Grade ten and grade eleven students had only two days of exams so the third day was a holiday for them. That afternoon, after Ye Jian finished her exam, she carried a paper bag and walked out of the school gates.

In the past, she said that she would wait for him to come back personally to take the military uniform back from her. Then, they would watch thousands of gold maple trees together.

Now, that he was back, she would realize her promise.

Xia Jinyuan had already waited outside the school gates for a long time. As groups of students walked out of the school gate, he started looking for the girl that he was waiting for.

The clean school uniform and the blue-and-white color combination caused Ye Jian to look clean and proper. She was like a lotus dabbled with morning dew. Her beauty was elegant and refreshing. Even when she walked among the students, she still attracted other people's attention, especially his... He could not see any other people's presence.

Xia Yiwei said that a twenty-three-year-old man doesn't know what kind of lady he needed. They were young and immature. When they were passionately in love, they would keep sticking to their partners and think that they had found a partner to spend a lifetime with.

Chapter 1045: You Who Protects The Country

Once the passionate period was over and their mentality got more and more mature, they would realize that this lady wasn't suitable for them.

As she was saying this, she sounded sad and tired. While she was persuading him, she was convincing herself to give up her seventeen-year relationship too.

Other people might not know what kind of lady they wanted when they were 23 years old because they matured too late. They only started maturing at 23 years old and started thinking about their future at 26 years old. Maybe at 30 years old, they would finally understand what kind of wife they want.

But, he was different. He started becoming mature when he was 14 years old. At 17 years old, he started thinking about his future, and at 20 years old, he knew what kind of wife he wanted!

At 23 years old, he could say with confirmation that this young lady who was walking towards him naturally was the partner he wanted for life! That wouldn't change until his death!

"It looks like you didn't do too bad on your exam. Your mood isn't affected." As he opened the car door, Xia Jinyuan smiled and said to the girl that he wanted to spend the rest of his life with, "You had the aura of a king returning to his country."

Ye Jian replied in a mocking tone after she got into the car. "I'll prefer it if you say that I'm returning in triumph."

"That's right. Returning in triumph is more suitable for you." Xia Jinyuan smiled. He preferred this phrase too. He liked returning in triumph with his comrades for their missions every single time.

After getting into the car, he didn't start the engine immediately. He told her his plan first. "We will go to Mount Dalang first. The maple trees have turned yellow now. We can climb the mountain and admire the scenery."

Then, he turned his head and looked at Ye Jian with a deep and gentle gaze. There was a hint of seriousness in his deep voice. "I'm back, Little Fox. I didn't miss the chance to enjoy the yellow maples with you together."

"Actually, I've already thought about this before. If we miss the chance this year, we can watch it next year. If not, there's the year after that. One day, you will accompany me to see this mountain of Autumn scenery," Ye Jian replied to him in a serious tone. Her beautiful eyes had the resolution no other girls had. "I will definitely wait for the day to come."

Since she had already decided to date him, she would use 120% of her sincerity when interacting with him. No matter what the future looked like, she would be sincere when they were dating. She wouldn't be even a little perfunctory.

She had never dated for both her lifetimes but she understood that sincerity was important in a relationship, especially when she was interacting with a comrade like him. She mustn't take it casually.

Ye Jian knew what Xia Jinyuan sacrificed for her. She remembered them in her heart. She had never dated before so she was like a child that just started learning how to walk. She was working hard earnestly.

She didn't want to disappoint him or make herself regret.

Sincere words were always heart-warming. The gentleness in Xia Jinyuan's eyes turned into a pool of water. It seemed to be seeping out of his eyes.

His little fox didn't know how to coax people but she knew how to say things that moved his heart. She always touched his heart unexpectedly and made him want to hug her tightly. He didn't want to say anything. He just wanted to hug her silently and he would feel extremely happy.

Ye Jian couldn't help but smile when she saw Xia Jinyuan. Her eyes turned into a crescent and she stretched her hand out. "Welcome back, my comrade."

His heart was still palpitating. The young major lifted his hand and clenched his fist. He lightly bumped Ye Jian's fist and smiled as he said, "I've recovered my identity and my mission is completed. Little Fox, I'm here to take my military uniform back."

At this second, Ye Jian's eyes turned red. Tears started filling up her eyes.

For their country's sake, the young major in front of him was willing to sacrifice the fact that he might not be able to recover his identity even if he dies after becoming an illegal mercenary so that he could execute a decapitation strike overseas.

Chapter 1046: Untitled

The civilians living in peaceful times would never know that their country had a group of soldiers that weren't able to have their names remembered even after they sacrificed during a mission. They used their bodies to protect their country.

She lifted the corners of her soft lips slowly. The smile at the edge of her lips was gentle. It bloomed slowly like a flower. "You are a dignified soldier. Hence, you should wear this military uniform that represents your identity."

The maple leaves on Mount Dalang had turned yellow, golden yellow, just like the color of the medals. When the wind blew past, the maple leaves rustled. Ye Jian looked at the young major standing beside her. She felt calm in her heart.

Xia Jinyuan, you are my goal. One day, I will wear this military uniform too and look at the thousands of maple trees with you once again!

She didn't hide her gaze. Xia Jinyuan, who was looking at the scenery on the horizon, lowered his head and saw the emotions in her eyes as well as the perseverance that never disappeared.

When Xia Yiwei said that at 23 years old, he still didn't understand anything, he replied to her earnestly without a second of hesitation, "The love I want doesn't need to be romantic. I don't have to be indecisive about it and I don't have the time to quarrel either."

"My love has battles, has fearlessness, has companionship, and I trust Ye Jian, even more, to pass my life to her. Xia Yiwei, Hou Zi and you have never written wills before, right? You have never thought that you might not be able to see each other in the future anymore, right?"

Xia Yiwei was flabbergasted. She exclaimed, "Xia Jinyuan, you're a major now. Do you have to go on the field during practices?"

Xia Jinyuan smiled when he heard this. "You're my sister but you don't understand me. However, Ye Jian does. Xia Yiwei, do you think I will let go of a girl that understands me?"

"I met someone that knows me, understands me, and supports me. At 23 years old, I will grab onto her tightly. I will write a will before I leave every single time because I don't know if I will come back alive."

"Thus, I don't have the time to be romantic like you. I can only make use of the time I have left to date properly."

The love of a Special Forces soldier wasn't romantic. He wasn't able to give her much romance either. Who would want this kind of love? Who would dare accept this kind of love?

When he met someone who dared to want, dared to accept, and dared to love a Special Forces soldier, he knew that she was the one he wanted for life.

He looked at the lady that dared to love him and dared to set him as her goal. Xia Jinyuan hugged her tighter. He smiled with his thin lips. The smile never disappeared.

Xia Jinyuan only had three days. Ye Jian personally buttoned the last button for him and tidied his collar. She looked at the tall and straight man standing in front of her like a pine tree and nodded in satisfaction. "Not bad, it looks like I still prefer the Captain Xia who wears his uniform."

His domineering aura became more obvious after he wore his military uniform. Ye Jian helped him to wear his military cap. Under the cap, his eyes were black and deep. His gaze was as sharp as swords. This Xia Jinyuan... was hard to forget once you see him.

Xia Jinyuan finished wearing his outfit. His gaze was gentle as he used his eyes to silently outline her face. Then, he carefully observed her movements and etched every single one of her smiles in his heart.

He slowly lifted his hand and placed it on her face. His slightly warm thin lips landed on her forehead and he smiled and said, "I will also help you to wear your military uniform one day. Little Fox, I will wait for the day to come."

Chapter 1047: Untitled

Ye Jian had passed the nervous stage of interacting with Xia Jinyuan. She wouldn't feel anxious anymore when he got close to her and wouldn't reject him when he wanted to get more intimate. She just felt a little awkward. The years of interaction and rounds of working together finally allowed Ye Jian to take a huge step towards him. She didn't just try to accept Xia Jinyuan's love. She tried to like him too.

When his kiss came over, Ye Jian closed her eyes lightly. She was too embarrassed to look at him straight in the eye. After he finished speaking, Ye Jian said in a tense voice, "I can wear my own clothes. I won't need your help, Captain Xia."

Allow him to help her wear clothes? ... You need to take off your clothes before you could wear them. Don't think that she didn't know what he was thinking!

Major Xia always teased Ye Jian so when she heard what he said, she naturally went the wrong direction.

Normally, Xia Jinyuan had this intention. But, this time... he didn't mean any of that at all. He just purely wanted to help his girlfriend wear her military uniform and wanted to watch the sunset with her as they held hands and stood on the high mountains.

Yet, when he didn't have the intention, Ye Jian started thinking too much on reflex. This caused him to laugh. He pinched her nose intimately and said, "You're thinking too much again. However, I don't mind it."

This time, he was really teasing her.

Ye Jian realized that she was thinking too much so she broke free from his hug and changed the topic calmly, "I didn't expect the view on the 23rd floor of Hotel Caesar to be so good. You can watch the sunrise in the morning and the sunset at night. It looks like Brother Zi put in much thought when choosing the location of the hotel."

"Do you like it? If you like it, you can come over anytime. The scenery on the 23rd floor is beautiful. Besides the people Brother Zi trust, other people can't come up." Xia Jinyuan knew that she was feeling awkward again and wanted to continue teasing her. However, when he saw her admiring the scenery seriously while trying to resolve her awkwardness, his heart melted.

Ye Jian smiled. "I don't have so much time. I want to use my time wisely so that I can live a fulfilling life. I don't want to waste any second of it." After a short pause, a stern look appeared on her face. "From this mission, I can see that there's still a wide difference between me and the Special Forces. Since my goal is you, Captain Xia, I'm not afraid to tell you that you're my goal. At the same time, you're someone I want to surpass."

One sentence was enough to show Ye Jian's ambition. Xia Jinyuan didn't laugh at her. Instead, he supported her goal of surpassing him. "Not bad. This is how you should think in the military. You must continue surpassing them if you want to walk further and stand at a higher position."

“Little Fox, I will wait for you to surpass me. However, please remember that while you’re working hard, I’m working hard too.”

That’s right, Xia Jinyuan wouldn’t wait at the same spot for Ye Jian to catch up. While he held her hand and helped her to grow, he would continue moving forward.

If Ye Jian wanted to surpass an ace soldier, an ace Special Forces soldier, she couldn’t do it within a day. She needed to work hard continuously and use her strongest foundation to welcome her military uniform and reach her own peak!

“That’s right. While I’m improving, you’re improving too. Since I want to surpass you, I need to put in more effort.” Ye Jian was grateful for Xia Jinyuan’s reminder. Some things could only be understood after many setbacks but he taught her everything. One sentence from him could prevent her from taking many wrong paths.

Chapter 1048: Untitled

She didn’t want to miss this outstanding man.

She didn’t want to miss him and didn’t want to become his burden either. She hoped that she could fight beside him as well as the other respectable comrades. Thus, she must work hard!

Xia Jinyuan liked her determination. After contemplating for some time, he told her his idea. Surprisingly... his thinking was the same as what Ye Jian told Principal Chen.

Starting inferno training!

He felt that Ye Jian could start inferno training now. There was no need for her to continue her intermediate training. He had been observing her secretly during the missions. After the most recent mission ended, he felt that Ye Jian was able to strive for harder training. Even G3 and the other soldiers felt that Ye Jian could start the inferno training.

Once she passed her inferno training, she wouldn’t be just an ordinary soldier. She would be an actual qualified Special Forces soldier.

“You can consider this. You can mention this to Uncle Chen too and see how he wants to arrange it for you. You also have inferno training as part of your four-year training program. However, Uncle Chen had aimed to groom you into a world-class sniper.”

“You can be a world-class sniper or an ace Special Forces soldier. Little Fox, you can set your goal to becoming an ace Special Forces soldier.”

There was already a Q King but there was still a king lacking. He hoped that Ye Jian would be able to sit on this ‘throne’.

Ye Jian remained silent for a while after she heard his suggestion. She didn’t expect both of them to have the same thoughts without any discussion beforehand... Was this chemistry?

Thinking about the inferno training that was going to start, Ye Jian smiled and said, "I do plan to start my inferno training soon. I will not be training at the motorized infantry training grounds on Saturday and Sunday anymore. After school ends on Friday, I will leave with Uncle Chen and come back on Sunday."

She smiled. Xia Jinyuan smiled too. They thought of the same thing.

However, there was still a problem they needed to solve. It was the lodging problem.

He asked, "Inferno training is not the same as intermediate training. Most of the important training will be held at night while the morning training is just a complement to it. How do you plan to arrange your night training? It's not convenient for you to live in the school."

Xia Jinyuan had already thought about this problem and made ample preparations just in case.

Ye Jian hesitated for a moment before saying, "I haven't been going for the evening study sessions recently. This will affect the other students in my class. After discussing with Principal Chen, we've decided to move out of the school after my mid-term results come out. I'll be renting a house in the small district behind my school. I will not need to take leave from Mrs. Tong in the future."

There was a rule that all the students living in school had to go for the evening study session. In the past, Ye Jian met with special circumstances so the school agreed to let her take leave. However, this would more or less have some effect on the entire class.

They were all staying in school so why could she escape from the evening study sessions?

If this continued, the students would find it unfair and it would affect the collective honor of the entire class.

Since Ye Jian raised this question, Xia Jinyuan smiled. "There's no need to wait until next week. You can move out this week. Xia Yiwei has a house behind Provincial No.1 Middle School. It stayed empty and no one has been living in it. The furniture has all been laid out and all the daily necessities are there. You can move in at any time."

"You don't have to reject me. No one will be living in the house anyway. If you stay there, you can help her to take care of the house. Also, I feel that it's more convenient for you to move out of the school. You won't affect your classmates too."

"All the students living in school have to go for the evening study sessions. No matter how good your results are, your classmates will have some grudges against you if you continue not going to it. Rather than making them unhappy, why don't you move out first?"

Chapter 1049: Untitled

"Also, you only have two years in senior high. Since you decided to start the inferno training, you cannot waste any time. There's no need to waste your time on unnecessary things."

"The house is available anytime. If you want to move in, I can look for Xia Yiwei now to get the keys."

He planned this so that it would be more convenient for Ye Jian to move out of her school. The moment she wants to move out, she would have a place to stay. There was no need to look for a house.

Actually, when Ye Jian said that she would temporarily stay in school, he felt that it wasn't a long-term plan. However, she was resisting him at that time. He had many constraints when dealing with such matters so he didn't dare to interfere too much.

Now, his identity was different. As her future boyfriend, he had enough confidence to consider the future of his future girlfriend.

Ye Jian's first instinct was to reject him. After listening to what Xia Jinyuan said, she heard him continuing, "Uncle Chen is almost 50 years old. Little Fox, you need to grow up quickly so that Uncle Gen and he won't have to worry too much and enjoy their retirement."

The sentence directly struck at Ye Jian's Achilles' heel. There was no way she could say anything to reject him.

Xia Jinyuan waited for her to nod in agreement. The resoluteness of a soldier was revealed at this moment.

First, he asked Ye Jian to call Principal Chen and ask him if he had already informed the school. The school had already agreed to let her move out temporarily. Then, he called Xia Yiwei and said that he wanted to borrow her house to let Ye Jian live in. In actual fact, he was just taking back the keys that he left with Xia Yiwei for two months.

Principal Chen had already informed the school and Mrs. Tong too. Ye Jian just needed to find a house and she would be able to move out.

When Principal Chen heard that Xia Jinyuan had a house, he laughed and replied, "We will not be polite with him. Let's live there for two years. Major Xia can decide on the expenses."

Xia Jinyuan wouldn't take any money. The same evening, Ye Jian's textbooks were moved into a brand new bookcase before 7 pm.

Within two hours, Ye Jian had moved out of her school.

At 7 pm, Xia Jinyuan, who had only three days of rest, needed to rush back to report at the chemical defense regiment. While Ye Jian was still tidying her room, he had already left without bidding farewell.

"Jian, Major Xia treats you really well. He has an outstanding character too. Uncle Gen and I don't have anything against your relationship. However, there's one thing we have to tell you. No matter how outstanding Captain Xia is, that's his business. You mustn't relax at any time. You must always remember that you're a soldier and you need to work hard on your own. You are a soldier that doesn't need to rely on any connections!"

Xia Jinyuan taught Ye Jian how to become an outstanding soldier. Uncle Gen and Uncle Chen taught her how to be strong and independent. They taught her self-love and self-respect!

Women are not dodder flowers. They can have indomitable spirits too and can stand up proud too. All the efforts she put in wouldn't be wasted. It would pay off!

Ye Jian has always etched their words into her heart. When she heard this, she nodded seriously and said, "Don't worry. No matter what Major Xia's identity or status is, I will not think of relying on him. I will think about relying on myself to fight for what I want!"

"Good child. We always believe in you!" Why did Uncle Gen and he have high hopes for Ye Jian? Not only did she have outstanding abilities, but her character was also good too!

Abilities are necessary but character is a must!

In her past life, Ye Jian had no one to rely on. She was used to being a loner. This lifetime, she came back to life, bringing her regret and hatred from her past life with her. Her main focus wasn't on revenge. After experiencing so many hardships, she finally understood that the thing that would allow her to have a foothold in society was her own capabilities.

Chapter 1050: Untitled

Even if she wanted to take revenge, she would do it when she knew that she had the ability to!

This lifetime, Ye Jian had never given up the thought of destroying Ye Zhifan and his family. She worked hard to improve herself continuously so that one day, she could take down Ye Zhifan and his family with a single strike!

She never gave up. She was always working hard so that Ye Zhifan would know that she wasn't someone easy to bully!

Ye Zhifan already knew that Ye Jian wasn't easy to bully when she tore the notification for her admittance to Municipal No.1 Middle School. Now, after his daughter, Ye Ying, was forced to leave Provincial No.1 Middle School because of Ye Jian, Ye Zhifan warned his wife, Sun Dongqing, multiple times against touching Ye Jian.

On the day of the grade twelve students' exam, Ye Zhifan knew the details of why Yao Jing got forcefully expelled from the school. Ye Zhifan sat in front of the dining table and poured himself a cup of white wine. He took a sip of the white wine and said to Ye Ying who had a gloomy face, "It's lucky that you evaded her attention and stopped contacting Yao Jing. If not, you might be implicated this time."

He didn't expect his niece to be so powerful! She actually forced Deputy Commissioner Yao and Director Li's daughter to be forcefully expelled from school. He had asked his daughter to make friends with Yao Jing initially because of Deputy Commissioner Yao!

Yet, his niece caused Deputy Commissioner Yao's daughter to get expelled!

Ye Jian... who on earth is secretly helping you?

Ye Ying was pushing her rice around with her chopsticks. Her gaze turned vicious as she turned and asked Ye Zhifan, "Dad, is there no response from the Yao family? Did they just allow Yao Jing to get bullied by Ye Jian like this?"

"They had no response. It seemed as though they agreed with the verdict. They didn't plan to fight with Ye Jian and didn't plan to get an explanation from the school." Ye Zhifan always told Ye Ying all these things. Knowing them was better than not knowing anything!

A sinister look flashed past her eyes. Ye Ying gritted her teeth and her tone became eerier. "I don't believe that an orphan who can only do things with my consent in the past has become so powerful now! Dad, have you found out who's helping her?"

"There must be someone. She doesn't have such huge power! Could it be that the military unit is supporting her unconditionally? Besides knowing how to study, what is she good at?"

That's right. Besides being good in her studies, Ye Zhifan didn't understand what other merits she had!

"That's why we can't touch her now. Before we find out who's helping her, we mustn't act rashly. I'm really happy that you transferred schools. If you fight with her face to face, Yingying, no one will be able to take advantage of her!"

Ever since Ye Ying transferred school, Ye Zhifan felt more at ease. He felt a little regretful sometimes but when he saw his daughter smiling more and more and heard the teachers of Provincial No. 2 Middle School praising his daughter, the regret in his heart disappeared.

Now, after hearing that the daughter of Deputy Commissioner Yao was expelled because of Ye Jian, the last ounce of regret disappeared.

He even felt fortunate that he was decisive enough and didn't let Ye Ying stay in Provincial No.1 Middle School.

Half of the bowl of rice got pushed out of the bowl by Ye Ying. She bit her lower lips until a row of teeth marks were seen. Even Yao Jing couldn't win Ye Ying. How... how is that possible?

As Ye Ying recalled what happened in the past and remembered how she suffered because of Ye Jian, her gaze turned malicious.

After some time, she said, "Dad, you're right. Before we find out who's helping Ye Jian, we mustn't make any move. Also..."

She took out the piece of jade tied around her neck. A vicious look flashed past her eyes. "We mustn't let Ye Jian take this piece of jade away. Grandma mustn't take it away too!"
