

BOOT CAMP 1151

Chapter 1151: Who Is Ye Jian's Biological Father

More than ten years had passed. This issue made him so angry in the past that he felt like murdering someone. But, now, he had sorted out his thoughts. His daughter was good at studying and was a positive and motivated person. If he really gave birth to a son, he might not be as good as his daughter now.

He just mentioned this issue because he wanted to stimulate Grandma Ye.

Grandma Ye didn't know that he just wanted to stimulate her purposely. To get more help for her daughter in the future, she had to suppress her anger no matter how furious she was.

"It was my fault in the past. Zhifan, if you want to blame someone, blame me. It has nothing to do with your sister. I know my mistake. I can only try my best to compensate you. If you can't forget about it, blame me instead."

This was an ungrateful soul that wouldn't get close to her no matter what. When she needed a favor from him, he started to put on airs. She had to bear with it. She needed to bear with it!

Who knew that this child she carried home from the branch family will go so far in his career?

"Look at what you're saying. You're my mother. How can I blame you? Fine, let's not talk about what happened in the past." Ye Zhifan knew where his boundaries were so he stopped the topic. Grandma Ye said that she could only compensate him now. Her intention was clear.

That year, when he knew that his wife had done the sterilization operation, he went to look for Grandma Ye the moment he came back that night. That day, many things happened.

That was the night he knew that he was not Grandma Ye's biological son. Her reason for not wanting his wife to bear a second child was simple. She didn't want a daughter-in-law that was not related to her by blood to give birth to a baby boy.

To suppress this matter, Grandma Ye suggested splitting Sun Xueqing's pension into two. One for him and the other for Ye Zhixiang. As for the piece of jade, she would pretend that she didn't see it and leave the village with Ye Zhixiang. She wouldn't interfere in any of his matters, including the election for official positions in the village. She wouldn't care about it anymore.

As for him, he would stop faulting her and would stop having any ideas of giving birth to a baby boy. At the same time, he would take care of Ye Jian using the piece of jade as trade. He could give her food but he mustn't let her have any future!

After so many years passed, the only thing that went wrong was stopping Ye Jian from having a good future.

However, there was one more thing he didn't ask clearly that year. Ye Zhifan thought for a moment and asked directly, "Elder Brother[1] isn't Uncle's son, right? Where did you send Uncle's son to?"

This question caused Grandma Ye's expression to turn dark immediately. "Zhifan, this isn't part of our transaction! Your Uncle's son is Ye Jian's father. He died when he was outside!"

Her reaction was a little exaggerated... Ye Zhifan lowered his gaze and smiled as he continued, "Don't get angry. I heard that intelligence is hereditary so I thought of asking since Ye Jian is so good at studying."

"Elder Brother isn't smart. Sister-in-law is smart but she isn't as smart as Ye Jian. Also, don't you find it strange that Ye Jian doesn't look like Elder Brother at all? She looks 60% like Sister-in-law. As for the other 40%, I don't know who she looks like."

Grandma Ye's expression wasn't just dark. There was a hint of eeriness in it too. "Before I left the village, I reminded you many times that you must watch over that wicked girl carefully. You can't let her succeed in anything!"

As she spoke, she gritted her teeth with contempt in her expression. "Your sister-in-law became pregnant less than a month after she married your brother. Then, she had a premature birth. It was obvious that she got pregnant before getting married. She married into the family with other people's child."

[1] By 'elder brother', it can also mean the elder child of that generation.

Chapter 1152: Ye Jian's Grandma Isn't Simple

Ye Xinfan, Ye Jian's father, was a humble village man.

When he was young, Ye Zhifan wasn't afraid of his elder brother. He felt that his elder brother wasn't really smart. After finding out something that he didn't know, Ye Zhifan nodded without a hint of astonishment and said, "No wonder Jian doesn't look like Elder Brother. She isn't Elder Brother's child."

Her looks weren't like his elder brother, her intelligence wasn't like his elder brother, and her way of dealing with matters wasn't like his elder brother either. It was believable that she wasn't his elder brother's child.

What about his uncle's son? The old people in the village said that when his aunt came back with his uncle, the entire village was flabbergasted. Even when she walked or spoke, there was a holy aura around her. She was so beautiful that the notorious gangster in the village wanted to snatch his aunt.

Ye Zhifan looked at Grandma Ye while maintaining his composure. He realized that her eyelids were trembling furiously as she purposely tried to lower them so that he wouldn't see the expression in her eyes.

It looked like Grandma Ye was frightened of his uncle as well as his uncle's son.

His aunt was a foreigner that came back with his uncle. When she walked and talked, she felt like a goddess... That meant that his aunt had an enchanting and elegant aura in the past.

A normal family wouldn't be able to groom such a beautiful and elegant daughter. Since his aunt came from a good family, why did she return to the village with his uncle?

Also, that time was chaotic. People were fighting with landlords and fighting with capitalists... Many wealthy families let their daughters marry poor peasants. That was how Grandma Ye married into the Ye family.

Could it be that his aunt was in the same state? An outsider that came back with his uncle to that poor village... Ye Zhifan squinted as he thought about this.

Ye Jian suddenly became tough in grade eight. He suspected that someone was helping her. Could it be... his aunt's family came to look for her and treated Ye Jian as his aunt's granddaughter? Were they grooming her secretly?

That was possible!

At the side, Grandma Ye's emotions were slowly dissipating. She said, "I raised your elder brother so I do have some feelings for him. If that wicked girl is really his child, I wouldn't ask you to raise her so poorly!"

There was a sinister look on her face and disdain as well. "Only Sun Xueqing knows who that child belongs to!"

"Mom, Aunt's side..." Ye Zhifan still wanted to ask Grandma Ye about the past but the school bell signaling the end of the first exam rang. Grandma Ye interrupted him forcefully and said, "The exam has ended. Go and urge the guard. Ask him to call the teacher again."

It could be seen that Grandma Ye didn't want him to talk about his uncle's family.

Ye Zhifan felt that he had a clue to investigate so that he would know who was helping Ye Jian. However, he didn't plan to tell Grandma Ye.

Mrs. Tong was carrying the exam scripts back to her office when an invigilator who had already ended came over and told her, "Mrs. Tong, Ye Jian's grandma is outside the school. There are some things she wants to talk to you about."

Ye Jian's... grandma?

Mrs. Tong was surprised. Ye Jian had a grandma?

She thanked the teacher for passing the message and went to the school gates directly.

Through the school gate, she could see an old lady standing outside wearing a modified dress from the republican era of China. There was a lady in red beside her. From afar, she gave off an elegant aura.

It was Ye Ying's father. He was now in the provincial office.

“You are Mrs. Tong, the form teacher of my granddaughter, right?” Grandma Ye gave an amiable smile as she greeted Mrs. Tong kindly. “Thank you for taking the effort to make this trip. I’m Ye Jian’s grandmother. I haven’t seen my granddaughter in a long time and miss her terribly... Sigh, I just want to take a look at her and see if she’s doing fine.”

Chapter 1153: Complicated Previous Generation

As she spoke, she raised her hand and pressed the corners of her eyes. Mrs. Tong noticed that this old lady, who had an elegant aura around her, was using a silk handkerchief to wipe her tears.

She looked at the old lady’s attire again. There was no crease on her outfit and exquisite flowers were sewn on her sleeves. She was wearing a navy blue pleated skirt that reached her ankles such that her shoes could be seen. She continued looking down. Mrs. Tong realized that even the shoes the old lady was wearing were embroidered shoes. From her entire appearance, you could tell that this was a wealthy person.

Such a wealthy grandmother... Mrs. Tong had some thoughts in her mind. She replied politely, “You’re being too kind. Based on what I know, Ye Jian is an orphan. Before she entered grade eight, she lived with Mr. Ye’s family. Even though you said that you’re her grandmother, I’m really sorry. I’ve never heard her mention it before.”

“Mrs. Tong, can we talk inside? Some things can’t be explained properly while standing.” Grandma Ye had already noticed that this teacher was protective of Ye Jian. It was understandable. That wicked girl had good results. Teachers would always protect good students.

Ye Zhifan opened his mouth. “Mrs. Tong, my mother misses her granddaughter. She came all the way here because she wants to see Ye Jian. If you feel that there’s any problem with this, you can ask around first. You can confirm if my mother is really Ye Jian’s grandmother. How about that?”

Mrs. Tong smiled when she heard him asking her to confirm this old lady’s identity. “Mr. Ye, you’re speaking too highly of me. I don’t need to confirm anything. I’m just doing the basic checks. As a teacher, I have the responsibility to protect the safety of my students.”

She really couldn’t believe them. The appearance of this wealthy grandmother was so sudden. How could she not be suspicious?

“Mrs. Tong, are you afraid that we will abduct Ye Jian? My mom and I sat for more than ten hours in the car so that we could take a look at Ye Jian. Why are you stopping a grandmother from seeing her granddaughter? Don’t you think you’re caring too much?”

Ye Zhixiang’s tone was very aggressive so Mrs. Tong replied in a deep voice, “Miss, I’m a teacher. I have my responsibility. Please be more polite. Thank you.”

Ye Zhixiang’s face turned red and white when she was refuted by a teacher. If Grandma Ye didn’t open her mouth now, she might have started arguing with Mrs. Tong.

“Mrs. Tong, I’ve waited outside for half an hour. You’re suspicious because you are a good teacher. It shows that you’re really concerned about my granddaughter.” Grandma Ye used her silk handkerchief to wipe the corners of her eyes again. She said in a choked voice, “This child had a hard life. Fortunately, she met you. With someone like you taking care of her, she will be able to grow up smoothly.”

“Let me thank you. Thank you for taking care of my granddaughter. Thank you, thank you...”

This old lady kept apologizing at the start. Now she was crying and kept thanking her. Mrs. Tong was still suspicious but she finally invited the three of them into her office.

“Ye Jian still has an exam later. It’s inconvenient for you to meet her now. You can take a sit in the principal’s office first. I will ask her to come over after she finishes her exam.” Mrs. Tong was always cautious about Ye Jian’s matters so when this old lady popped out suddenly with Ye Ying’s father bringing her in... Whenever Mrs. Tong remembered how Ye Ying treated Ye Jian in school, she would feel uncomfortable.

She needed to let Principal Cao know and ask him to greet them.

Principal Cao was stunned too when he heard about Grandma Ye. He didn’t know that Ye Jian had a grandmother either. As he was pouring some water, he told Mrs. Tong secretly, “Go and call Old Chen over. Tell him that Ye Jian’s grandmother is here.”

Chapter 1154: An Old Lady That’s Hard To Deal With

Old Chen was the clearest about Ye Jian’s matter. Before he comes, he would keep quiet and find out why this ‘grandmother’ came.

She didn’t appear for the past few years and suddenly came when Ye Jian was going to take her university entrance examination. Her intention was unknown and it felt a little suspicious.

Mrs. Tong took the chance to go to the library. Since the old lady came, she must have something to do with Ye Jian. However, she didn’t know the old lady’s intention.

Principal Chen, who was tidying a new batch of books delivered to the library, placed the books in his hands down when he heard that Ye Jian’s grandmother is here. He smiled and said, “Thank you for coming to find me. I’ll go over immediately. There’s no need to tell Ye Jian about this. Don’t affect her exam.”

“Don’t worry, I will take care of Ye Jian’s side. However, her grandmother came along with Ye Ying’s father. You will probably have to use some effort to deal with them.” It was inappropriate for her to say bad things about her past student’s parents so Mrs. Tong reminded Principal Chen implicitly.

She had such a wealthy grandmother but Ye Jian never mentioned her before. It felt strange just thinking about it.

Principal Chen wasn’t flustered at Grandma Ye’s arrival. After Uncle Gen told him everything, he had a deeper understanding of Ye Jian’s family matters. Also, during the Chinese New Year, they wanted to shift Ye Jian’s registered residence. Principal Chen anticipated Grandma Ye’s arrival.

Since she came now, he should go and meet him.

He thought back on all these years where Ye Jian persevered alone. No matter how tired or hard it was, she never thought of giving up. She did everything so that she could build a path towards her future. In the end... some evil people jumped out to create a fuss. They just didn't want to see her leading a good life.

"It looks like they will continue kicking up a fuss in the future." Principal Chen sighed. An eerie gaze flashed past the eyes of this world-class sniper. Even if they kicked up a fuss, he would make sure they have a hard time!

How dare they try to destroy Jian's future? They needed to pass him first!

In the principal's office, Grandma Ye complained until her voice started trembling. There was sorrow on her amiable face as she cried and said, "My granddaughter was never close with me ever since she was young. She is stubborn and will remember small things for a long time."

"That year, I wanted to take her away but she didn't agree. She wanted to stay with her uncle. It's good to have an uncle taking care of her so I didn't persuade her. I felt that since her uncle will take care of her and they are in the village, she will be comfortable staying there."

"However, the older she got, the more independent she got. She quietly goes against my son and doesn't acknowledge him as her uncle. She doesn't acknowledge her aunt either and now, she doesn't want to acknowledge her own grandmother too."

"She did whatever she wanted and never gave any leeway to her family. I worried so much about her. I prayed for her every day and hoped that she would be safe and everything would go smoothly for her."

As she spoke, Grandma Ye touched the red sandalwood Buddha beads on her wrist that had become shiny because of her constant touching. She quietly muttered, "Amitabha." Then, she continued, "Now that she became so outstanding, I feel that my prayers had been answered. It was all worth it."

Ye Jian became outstanding so her prayers were answered and everything was worth it?

Was she saying that Ye Jian's results were the effort of her prayers?

Principal Cao, who was waiting for Principal Chen to come, wasn't someone who would get easily led by an old lady. He smiled warmly and replied, "Believing in Buddhism is good. First, we ask for inner peace. Second, we ask for a smooth life. Third, we wish for safety and fourth, we hope that our wishes will come true."

Chapter 1155: Where Is The Justice!

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

She spoke for five minutes but Principal Cao just replied to her indifferently. She couldn't even sense his attitude. Grandma Ye sipped some water from the disposable drinking cup on the coffee table.

It seemed like that wicked girl was well-liked by the teachers and the leaders in school. This was a little troublesome. If everyone liked her, the possibility of using her relative card to ask the teachers to lecture that wicked girl was very low.

"Principal, can I go and take a look at her classroom? I will only look and not disturb her. Is that alright?" Grandma Ye made a decision and immediately changed her plan to prevent the principal from noticing her intention. "I don't want to lie to you but I came here once last year but didn't manage to see her. The child is getting older. It's hard for us to educate her now. Sigh, we can only ask the school to teach her properly."

Outside the door, Principal Chen knocked on the door with an icy gaze. When he heard Principal Cao asking him to enter, he pushed the door and went in.

Before the door closed, Principal Chen smiled and said, "Who is Ye Jian's grandmother? I raised her for four years and have never heard her saying that she had a grandmother. No one told me that she had a grandmother either. Principal Cao, don't lie to me."

"You don't know about it too?" Principal Cao understood his intention and stood up from behind his office table. He introduced, "This lady says that she is Ye Jian's grandmother. You have been teaching in Fujun Town town for many years. How can you not know about this?"

Even Old Chen didn't know that Ye Jian had a grandmother. There was something amiss here!

Principal Cao restrained the emotions in his eyes and turned to introduce Ye Zhifan, "This is Ye Jian's uncle. I recognize him. As for this lady, she says that she's Ye Jian's aunt. Old Chen, don't tell me you don't know her too."

When he claimed that he didn't know them, even a thick-skinned person like Grandma Ye felt her face turning warm.

Both of them were saying that she didn't care about the wicked girl and that there was something wrong when she suddenly came to find her!

"I do know Mr. Ye. He was the town mayor of Fujun Town in the past. We are old acquaintances." Principal Chen laughed heartily. He stretched his hand out and shook hands with Ye Zhifan politely. "Long time no see, Mr. Ye."

Ye Zhifan held his hand politely. "It has been a while, Principal Chen. My mother just came back from the coastal region and she wants to see her granddaughter. However, the school doesn't believe her. She's old and can't stand any stimulations. She just wants to see her granddaughter before leaving."

“So this is Principal Chen. I know you, I know you.” Grandma Ye stood up. She was just halfway through her sentence but she already started wiping the corner of her eyes. “I know you, you’ve been taking care of my granddaughter. Thank you, thank you so much.”

Another person taking care of that wicked girl. He didn’t look like someone easy to communicate or deal with.

She would act first and see what he had to say!

Where is the justice? She came to see her granddaughter but was treated like a liar! If they don’t allow her to see Ye Jian today, she will not leave!

Principal Chen sat on the guest chair and smiled as the old lady thanked him. “So this is Jian’s grandmother? You don’t look like her. You look as though you came from an entirely different world. You are dressed so lavishly, how can Ye Jian be your granddaughter? She never changed her uniform throughout the year and she used all the subsidies given by the school to buy study materials. She had to calculate all her money before spending it.”

Grandma Ye’s heart skipped a beat when she heard this... This was bad. The man in front of her probably knew about their family matter. Her gaze dropped unconsciously as she looked at her attire. Grandma Ye bit her lips secretly.

Chapter 1156: Who Do You Think You Are

No wonder that wicked girl was getting more and more disobedient. Someone was guiding her!

No, she must get that wicked girl’s registered residence today. If she continues letting Ye Jian stay outside, she would become even more outstanding in the future! She will definitely come and create trouble for her family!

“Principal...” Grandma Ye wanted to open her mouth to speak up for herself. Principal Chen lifted his eyelids slightly. The maliciousness in his gaze almost caused Grandma Ye to bite her tongue when she closed her mouth.

Principal Chen remained calm. Nothing amiss could be seen on his face. “I observed Jian secretly when she studied in the town’s middle school. She wore the same pair of sandals and the same pair of sneakers for two years. On the other hand, Mr. Ye’s daughter had new clothes every season and many pairs of new shoes. One could tell that her grandmother and her father loved her dearly.”

“Madam, you must have recognized the wrong person. Jian is a poor lass. How can you be her grandmother? You are getting old so your memory must not be very good.”

“Also, Mr. Ye, you’ve received education before so you should know that the university entrance examination is coming. The students of grade twelve only have forty more days to study before their university entrance examination. No matter what’s happening outside, you can’t let it affect the students’ studies. If I remember correctly, your daughter, Ye Ying, should be having her university entrance examination this year too, right?”

Throughout his entire speech, Principal Chen was smiling. He didn't say anything inappropriate. Other people would only think that he was saying the truth and had no other intention. He was just expressing his opinion without any personal attacks.

People who were unfamiliar with them wouldn't think too much. They would just feel that the old lady was getting old and muddle-headed.

Those that knew some insiders' information would understand the meaning behind his words. As a grandmother, you dressed so nicely and are so wealthy. Yet, your granddaughter didn't have any new shoes or new clothes for an entire year. Even her school fees were sponsored by the school. How could you be so shameless to still claim that you are Ye Jian's grandmother?

Principal Chen had a good rhythm when he was talking. There were a few times when Grandma Ye and Ye Zhixiang wanted to interrupt him but they were all stopped by his next sentence. They could only listen to him without any chance of cutting in.

After he finished speaking, Grandma Ye's expression was extremely bad.

No, she couldn't use her relative card anymore. She can't continue using it!

If no one knew her family matters, she had the confidence that she would be able to convince the teachers. Now, there was a person who knew everything speaking up for Ye Jian. The more she spoke, the worse the teachers and leaders' impression of her would become. She needed to change to another method.

While Grandma Ye was still thinking about what method to use so that she could gain the upper hand again, Ye Zhixiang had already opened her mouth impatiently. "Do we have to let you know if my mother is Ye Jian's grandmother? We are just looking for Ye Jian. We are not looking for you. I advise you to not care about things you shouldn't care about! This is other people's family business. What does it have to do with you?"

Ye Zhixiang, who was finally able to open her mouth, continued in a proud and arrogant tone, "This is my family matter. Our family will take care of it. Why are you interfering in our family matter? You are just an outsider!"

Grandma Ye didn't stop her. Although her attitude was a little aggressive, what her daughter said was right.

Principal Chen glanced at Ye Zhixiang coldly. The killing intent of a sniper could be seen in his eyes. Ye Zhixiang got so frightened her heart dropped. The arrogance on her face disappeared.

Chapter 1157: A Great Theater Play

“It is indeed inappropriate for an outsider like me to interfere with your family matters. Also, I don’t know you so why will I care about your family matters?” As compared to Ye Zhixiang’s impudence and arrogance, Principal Chen appeared more refined. “Since you recognized the wrong person, there’s no need to look for Ye Jian anymore.”

“Principal Chen, what you said just now made me ashamed. Indeed, I have not taken care of my granddaughter properly for the past few years. I didn’t expect her to get angry at her aunt and run away from home.”

The edge of Grandma Ye’s eyes was red from all the wiping. She stopped arguing that she didn’t take care of Ye Jian and started repenting instead. “...I’m getting old so I can’t supervise many things. I just want to take a look at my granddaughter. Principal Cao, I beg you, let me take a look at my granddaughter.”

“I miss her terribly. She hasn’t come home for so many years and every time I call her aunt, she would say that everything was fine at home and Jian was doing fine too. She asked me not to worry. I believed her, I believed everything. However, everything was a lie. My granddaughter ran away from home and the most infuriating thing is that Ye Jian moved her registered residence out. I can’t answer to my eldest son and my daughter-in-law who sacrificed.”

Grandma Ye stopped using her silk handkerchief to wipe her tears. She laid on the armrest of the wooden sofa and started crying. As she cried, she glanced at Ye Zhifan.

If they didn’t force Ye Jian to come now, they will have to kick up a huge fuss such that the entire school knew what was happening!

Ye Zhifan sighed and slowly opened his mouth. “Principal Chen, my mom had been living with my younger sister in the coastal region. After Ye Jian ran away from home, my wife was afraid that my mom would get angry so she kept it from her. She told my mom that Ye Jian was doing fine in the family.”

As he spoke, he gave a bitter smile. “I need to bear responsibility too. I thought that since my mom wouldn’t come back, I will keep it from her for as long as I can. Also, the school takes care of Ye Jian well. Since we are unable to educate her, the school could do it.”

Her fists came quickly and furiously. Even Ye Zhifan didn’t manage to react in time and suffered a few punches on his shoulders. “You are her uncle. I handed her over to you so that you can take care of her. However, you forced her such that she doesn’t even want to acknowledge her biological grandmother. You are cutting a piece of meat off my heart. How will I answer to your elder brother and sister-in-law in the future?”

As compared to Sun Dongqing’s unreasonable fussing, Grandma Ye’s method was more brilliant. It was so real Principal Cao almost believed her!

Fortunately, before he opened his mouth, he glanced at Principal Chen who was beside him and managed to swallow his words in time. He sat on his office chair and waited quietly for the old lady to finish her act.

40 minutes had passed since the language exam. The school campus was still very quiet. After she handed in her script, Ye Jian hurriedly walked out of the teaching building and headed towards the office building.

A moment ago, her music teacher told her that her grandmother had come to look for Mrs. Tong. She asked if Ye Jian wanted to take a look.

Her grandmother? What grandmother did she have? Someone who didn't care about her ever since she was young and even told her son-in-law, "It's unlucky to kick her to death in the house. Take her outside. It's snowing heavily and the snow will cover her up. Everything will be settled then."

Did she need this kind of grandmother?

Ye Jian went to the teachers' office and realized that no one was there. After thinking for a second, she quickly walked towards Principal Cao's office. Mrs. Tong needed to mark the exam scripts and Grandma Ye wouldn't leave the school campus once she entered. The only place she could go to was the principal's office.

Chapter 1158: I Will Not You Off Easily!

The principal's office was upstairs. Ye Jian climbed two steps in one stride and reached the entrance within three minutes.

Voices could be heard. Ye Jian, who was preparing to knock on the door, got stunned for a moment. A sharp look appeared on her beautiful face. Even her eyebrows were tainted with iciness.

"I want to see my dear granddaughter. I haven't seen her in many years. If I don't see her today, I won't leave the school. My granddaughter, your grandmother is here to see you... your grandmother is here to see you."

She was crying and shouting. She seemed to be addicted to acting!

Mrs. Tong caught up with her from behind. When she noticed that Ye Jian wanted to knock on the door, she grabbed Ye Jian's wrist immediately and said, "Why are you here? Hurry up and go back to your classroom to take your exam! Let the adults deal with adult matters. You're just a child. Don't get implicated."

Ye Jian looked at Mrs. Tong and then listened to the shameless things Grandma Ye was saying inside. She pursed her lips tightly and whispered, "Mrs. Tong, the person inside is indeed my grandmother. However, she isn't my grandmother too. My family matters are a little complicated. If I don't explain things clearly to Principal Cao and Principal Chen, Grandma Ye will take advantage of them."

She took out a bunch of keys attached to a school card. "Mrs. Tong, can you help me to take something very, very important from my house..."

She whispered the item she hoped Mrs. Tong could get for her. Mrs. Tong's expression changed immediately. She exclaimed, "Ye Jian, you... What do you want to do? Why do you want to bring that? I can't understand what you want to do."

The item she wanted to bring was extremely important. As her teacher, Mrs. Tong was dumbfounded.

"I don't know if I will need to use it but listen to her unreasonable complaints. She even mentioned my father and mother, saying that she didn't take care of me well so she felt sorry towards them... Mrs. Tong, today, they came over..."

The cries inside got louder. Grandma Ye shouted, "I can't even keep the only child of my eldest son. I can't even keep her registered residence. She became other people's daughter now. I feel so ashamed now. I can't answer to my eldest son."

"Today, they came over because they want to get my registered residence. If my registered residence lands in the hands of a bunch of people who doesn't want me to become outstanding, Mrs. Tong..."

Before Ye Jian finished her sentence, Mrs. Tong took the keys in her hand. "Okay, I will cycle there and bring it as quickly as possible. If your parents saw you from Heaven, they won't want you to get harmed by a bunch of heartless relatives!"

Principal Chen's gaze got darker. Who told Jian about this? Who distracted her during her exams and made her run all the way here?

Before Principal Cao could ask her to come in, Grandma Ye, who was still acting a second ago, stopped crying instantly and stood up. She rushed towards the door.

She opened the door while calling "my dear granddaughter, my love." She seemed to be so excited by Ye Jian's arrival that she didn't know what to say.

When the door opened, Ye Jian saw a plump figure rushing over. She tilted her body slightly and dodged Grandma Ye's hug. Then, she slipped into the office agilely.

Grandma Ye grabbed at air and almost fell to the ground. She took much effort before she managed to stabilize her body. Inside the room, Ye Zhixiang couldn't suppress the hatred in her eyes when she saw Ye Jian walking in. "Ye Jian, where is your conscience? You son of a bitch. What have you been studying? If my mom fell and got injured, I won't let you off easily!"

Chapter 1159: What Are You

She said 'my mom' and not 'your grandmother'. Principal Cao's gaze flickered slightly. From one sentence, he could tell that their relationship was very bad. Ye Jian's relatives didn't treat her like family.

No wonder Old Chen didn't say any good words to these people. She was discriminated against by her relatives at a young age. Fortunately, she met Old Chen. If not, her life would be ruined!

That was the truth. In her past life, Ye Jian was controlled by Sun Dongqing and Ye Ying so she didn't meet Principal Chen. Hence, her life was ruined.

Principal Cao finally knew what was happening. He pretended to be stern and said to Ye Jian, "Ye Jian, hurry up and hold the old lady. Even if she isn't your grandmother, we need to respect our elders."

"I'm sorry. I'm not used to having physical contact with people I'm not familiar with." Ye Jian apologized naturally. Then, she said to Ye Zhixiang, "I studied so I know that a person should be virtuous. That is why I didn't start quarreling with Ms. Ye today."

When Ye Zhixiang heard this, she didn't shout at Ye Jian or have the guts to slap her like she did in the hotel in the past. She glared at Ye Jian with unease and hurriedly went to hold Grandma Ye who was a little dizzy.

"Mom, why did you get up? Don't you know that you have high blood pressure so you shouldn't get up abruptly?" Her voice was just loud enough for everyone in the office to hear. "No matter how excited you are, you need to take care of your health. Don't let Brother and I worry."

Ye Zhifan, who got named, agreed and said, "Mom, Ye Jian is here. You can sit down and talk to her properly." His gaze landed on Ye Jian. "You don't have to acknowledge me but you have to acknowledge your grandmother. Your father is her son and you're her granddaughter. In this world, no granddaughter would disregard their grandmother."

"You're in grade twelve now. You can't be as ignorant as you were in grade eight. Just now, you said that you studied and know that a person should be virtuous. Since you understand it, you should know that you shouldn't make your grandmother sad."

Principal Chen didn't like what he said. He looked at Ye Zhifan with a meaningful smile. "Mr. Ye is wrong again. As compared to Ye Ying, Ye Jian, who is groomed by Uncle Gen and me, is more sensible and well-mannered. No matter what the situation is, she will always look at the big picture."

"Principal Chen, we are talking about Ye Jian now. Please don't mention my daughter again!" Ye Zhifan gave a stern expression and said in a low voice, "My daughter isn't your student now and she isn't studying in Provincial No.1 Middle School. What right do you have to say that she is worse than Ye Jian?"

"Then, may I ask Mr. Ye what right do you have to say that I am ill-mannered?" Ye Jian rebutted, "I don't have any relationship with Mr. Ye. What right do you have to reprimand me?"

Ye Zhifan bit his cheeks as he choked on his own breath. He was starting to grow fat so his face wasn't as handsome as when he was young. There was a layer of gloominess on it too. After some time, he replied with one sentence, "Glib-tongued!"

He needed to take care of his image in front of the principal of Provincial No.1 Middle School, Principal Cao. After all, there were education conferences in the province and all the principals of famous schools interacted with the high-ranking officials of the same province frequently. If Principal Cao mentioned this matter to the governor of the province one day and talked bad about him behind his back, he would be reprimanded.

Grandma Ye's turbid eyes turned even darker. Her legs seemed to be shaking as she sat down. She kept glancing at Ye Jian as though she was trying to look at someone else through her.

So alike, she looks more and more like her mother now!

She looked as though she was carved out of the same mold as her mother. Their features were similar but she looked more exquisite and beautiful. She was more charming as well.

Chapter 1160: Aren't You Afraid Of Getting Struck By Lightning

Her aura was similar to her mother's too. However, she was more stubborn!

Looking at this face, she recalled how Sun Xueqing didn't give in to her and didn't listen to her when she wanted to educate her. Grandma Ye felt a ball of anger trapped in her heart.

Fine, she hasn't tamed anyone for so many years. She doesn't believe that she can't tame an 18-year-old young lady today!

"Zhifan, I'm fine, I'm fine. Mom is fine. As long as Jian is happy, I'm fine. I'm getting old. It's alright for me to suffer a little." Grandma Ye gently wiped her tears. She quickly touched the corners of her eyes with her silk handkerchief that had a lotus sewn on it. Then, she held the handkerchief in her hand as though she was preparing to wipe her tears at any moment.

Her gaze landed on Ye Jian and didn't move away for a long time. When Ye Jian finally raised her eyebrows and looked at her, Grandma Ye moved her gaze slightly before staring at Ye Jian again with a meaningful gaze. Then, she slowly and naturally retracted her gaze haughtily.

No matter how powerful she was, she was just 18 years old. She wanted to see how Ye Jian was going to maintain her 'good student' image in front of her principal now.

As for Ye Zhifan, his interest was lifted. When Grandma Ye decided to act, she pulled out one method after another. She was many times smarter than Sun Dongqing, who only knew how to kick and shout.

They might really be able to take Ye Jian's registered residence booklet today. As long as they get her registered residence booklet, he will be able to openly change her university preference as her guardian! At that time, she won't even be able to enter a third-tier university!

Ye Zhixiang saw how powerful Ye Jian was in Hotel Caesar so she chose to keep quiet. She glanced sideways at Ye Jian with a look of contempt. She was waiting for a good show.

Looking at the expressions on the three people's faces, Ye Jian lifted the corners of her lips slightly. She stood obediently beside Principal Chen and whispered, "Uncle Chen, she's not my grandmother. I don't have a grandmother. I don't have an aunt either. Even more so, not an uncle."

"Don't be afraid. I know everything. You shouldn't have come. You should just take your exam without worrying about anything." Principal Chen sighed. Then, he said to Principal Cao, "I will leave with Ye Jian now. You can take care of them."

"Jian, you... you... Do you want me to kneel? I will kneel for your mother and father! I will kneel for them! Your grandmother will kneel in front of you." Grandma Ye could be harsh with herself. She didn't have a choice. She promised Ye Zhifan that she would get Ye Jian's registered residence before she took her university entrance examination. If she can't do it, she will kick up a huge fuss until all the teachers and the students in the school have a bad impression of her. That way, this wicked girl won't be able to take her university entrance examination peacefully.

After she finished speaking, she really kneeled on both knees. Then, Ye Zhifan hurriedly squatted down halfway to hold his mother's arm. "Mom, don't make things difficult for us! Why are you kneeling in front of Ye Jian to beg for forgiveness? How is Ye Jian supposed to face her teachers and classmates in the future?"

Ye Zhixiang obviously didn't expect her mother to be so harsh on herself. She was stunned for a moment before she screamed shrilly, "Ye Jian, you bastard! Are you still human? Why did you make your grandmother kneel in front of you? Aren't you afraid of getting struck by lightning?"

Her voice was shrill and loud. Even people outside the office could hear it.
