

BOOT CAMP 1201

Chapter 1201: A Gentleman Uses His Mouth, Not His Hands

Shrimp. This was easy to cook. He could remove the guts and steam it.

Saltwater fish could be easily prepared like the shrimp too.

Meat needed to be stir-fried. It won't work, he doesn't know how to properly control the heat. Pork ribs are fine, boil it with soy sauce and fresh ginger... This is also simple.

"Buy more. My classmate will come. She has a big stomach." Ye Jian reminded him in a low voice. She also chose live shrimps with him.

Hearing this, the smile on Xia Jinyuan's face deepened. Once their relationship was clear, he could finally enter her life as her boyfriend and be closer to her world.

"An Jiaxin has always been curious about who my boyfriend is. I don't know if she will have any impression of you when she sees you later. However, I guess she won't have any impression of you." Ye Jian smiled and said. She walked beside Xia Jinyuan. Occasionally, their arms would touch each other intimately. Anyone who saw them would know that they were lovers.

Xia Jinyuan didn't have any impression of her classmates but he knew about An Jiaxin. He knew that this girl helped Ye Jian a lot so he smiled and said, "You two must have a good relationship since you've been classmates since the second year of junior high."

"Yes, our relationship is very good. She helped me a lot in school and took the initiative to integrate me into the class circle. She also told me that if I want to integrate into the environment, I can't be special first." When she talked about her good friend, Ye Jian's expression became gentler. Her eyes were moist. She was nourished by friendship and love. Her beautiful face glowed with a bright and moving radiance. Xia Jinyuan couldn't help but land a peck on her cheek.

Ye Jian glared at him. "You can't always touch me after confirming our relationship."

"Little Fox, I used my mouth just now. A gentleman uses his mouth, not his hands." Xia Jinyuan's expression was extremely gentle. Happiness could be felt from every part of his handsome facial features. "Your friend is very good. She taught you to integrate into the group and let you have a sense of belonging in the class. We need to thank her for her help."

The hurdles in her previous life had taught Ye Jian that she was not very sociable. She was a bit of a loner. Even when she smiled, there was a sense of distance.

However, Ye Jian would never think that she was unsociable. She would even think that it was good to be alone.

She did not care about how the people around her looked at her, nor did she care about what happened in class. She would enjoy her life alone and walk her entire student life with her tenacious spirit.

Xia Jinyuan didn't want to see Ye Jian like this.

Independence was a good thing. However, there would definitely be problems if one was independent but also a recluse! No matter how good her results were, she would still be isolated and ostracized by her classmates. No matter how outstanding her abilities were, she would still not be recognized. Even if she joined the military, she would not be able to reach the peak.

He could not take care of her in school and could only use another method to guide her.

When the first-years in Provincial No.1 Middle School were divided into classes, he specially suggested to Principal Cao to see if he could assign An Jiabin to Mrs. Tong's class so that Ye Jian would have an old classmate to accompany her.

Now, it seemed that his suggestion was correct. An Jiabin was an outgoing person. She was good at socializing and took care of Ye Jian in school. She didn't encounter any problems that he was worried about. She maintained a good relationship with her classmates.

Xia Jinyuan had a plan in his heart. He held Ye Jian's hand in his own way, leading her to grow and fly high. He used his way to silently protect the growth of the girl he loved.

Chapter 1202: I'm Ye Jian's Boyfriend

"An Jiabin is a very important friend of mine. I promised her that if I have a boyfriend, I will tell her first." Ye Jian chose a piece of pork rib and smiled gently. "She likes pork ribs. Shall we make braised pork ribs together?"

Braised pork ribs were a little difficult. Xia Jinyuan pondered for a while and replied, "You can try it. It should become braised pork ribs if it's cooked with soy sauce."

They bought the groceries and headed back home. When they reached the third floor, Xia Jinyuan suddenly carried Ye Jian, who was caught off guard, and ran all the way towards the fifth floor with a low laugh. "Although I can't carry you back from the outside, I can bring you back from a short distance."

Although Ye Jian was a little shocked, she quickly hugged his neck and let him carry her home.

She did not know how to date. She only knew that she could not bear to reject him when she saw how happy he was.

The sweet interaction lasted until An Jiabin came back. One of them was cooking in the kitchen, while the other was setting up the utensils in the dining room. As she retrieved the key, the door was pushed open. After the examination, An Jiabin smelled the fragrance in the room and her half-dead look was gone. She screamed excitedly, "Fragrant, fragrant, fragrant. It's too fragrant! There's fish, beef, and duck. My Jian... It's so fortunate I followed you! Come, give me a kiss!"

The tightly shut kitchen door was pushed open. A handsome and tall figure walked out. An Jiabin, who was about to pounce on Ye Jian, suddenly braked. She almost tripped over her right leg.

"My boyfriend. Last time, you wanted to know which man I kissed at the back gates. He's the man you wanted to know." Ye Jian introduced him generously. She once said that if she had a boyfriend, she would introduce him to An Jiaxin first. "You've seen him before. Look carefully and see if you have any impression of him."

An Jiaxin was confused...

Student Jian had always been quiet. She was a good student in the school. She did not accept love letters or gifts from any boys. She did not flirt with any boys. She was the best student that the teacher could trust!

And now, this top student told her that she had a boyfriend! She even brought her boyfriend to her rented house and... made her boyfriend cook. The two of them looked at each other and smiled, instantly giving her a strange feeling that they were actually an old couple.

Xia Jinyuan smiled politely and said, "Hello, I'm Xia Jinyuan, Ye Jian's boyfriend." He extended his hand and said the last sentence elegantly, "It's nice to meet you."

He, he, he, he... He's so refined. He, he, he... He's so polite. An Jiaxin was even more confused. Her brain had temporarily stopped working. She reached out her hand mechanically and said dryly, "Hello, I'm An Jiaxin, Jian's good friend."

Ye Jian watched her reach out and retract her hand stiffly like wood. She hugged her good friend's shoulder and asked with a smile, "Do you recognize him? Do you really not have any impression of him? Last time, you said that there was only one handsome man I've seen. He was the one who instructed us in junior high..."

An Jiaxin, who had finally recovered from her daze, covered Ye Jian's mouth. "My little ancestor, save me some face. I know, I know, I know." Jian was too honest. She was really worried that she would quote her words "so handsome that it made my mouth water".

She lowered her voice but Xia Jinyuan could hear every word clearly. He maintained his composure and smiled. "The two of you can wash your hands and eat. Rest for a while after eating. I will wake you up twenty minutes in advance."

Chapter 1203: The Petty Major Xia

An Jiaxin only felt her stomach hurting as she ate. Comrade Xia who was sitting opposite her exuded an aura that made her afraid to speak.

However, he was not being serious. He had a slight smile on his face throughout the entire process. He was as elegant as a noble young master with a good upbringing.

Even so, she didn't dare to be presumptuous. One word: scared! When she thought about how the other party had once stood on the podium with a cold face talking about national security, his icy gaze sweeping across her like a knife sticking to her skin... Besides being scared, An Jiaxin was only scared!

She ate her food quietly and glanced at Ye Jian from time to time. An Jiaxin realized sadly how hurtful the difference between them was. Her Jian was not afraid at all and could still talk happily.

That made sense. Why would she be afraid of her boyfriend? What was there to be afraid of?

As she thought about it, An Jiaxin suddenly felt that her Jian was amazing. Not only was she good at studying, but she also had good taste in finding a boyfriend. Only she could find and only she wasn't afraid of a boyfriend who has such an overwhelming aura that scared people!

There was no mention of the morning's exam at the dining table. An Jiaxin finished her lunch as quickly as she could and immediately slipped back into the guest room, leaving space for the sweet-looking couple.

When she sat opposite the two of them, she was no different from a big light bulb. It was better for her to leave quickly. As for the table full of good dishes, An Jiaxin silently touched her stomach. Sigh, stomach, you'd better behave yourself. You're not destined to enjoy it.

"Your classmate seems to be a little afraid of me." Xia Jinyuan slowly peeled the prawns for Ye Jian. On the first day of their relationship, he preferred having their space.

Little Fox's classmate was so frightened that she only ate the rice and not the side dishes. She finished a bowl of white rice in five minutes and went back to her room to rest.

Ye Jian glanced at him. "Don't you know why Jiaxin is afraid of you?" She smiled. There were no ripples in her eyes. It was clearly intentional.

His girlfriend was smart enough to see through his little scheme. Xia Jinyuan replied calmly, "We'll treat her to a meal next time. Today is meaningful. I have to mark today as our first-day anniversary."

There was no choice. Major Xia was occasionally petty.

She pitied An Jiaxin for not being able to enjoy a sumptuous meal.

Ye Jian smiled and nodded. She needs to treat Jiaxin to a big meal next time. "You can go to the master bedroom to rest later. I'll go to Jiaxin and ask her how she did in the morning."

In return, Young Master Xia let out a long sigh. Luckily, he had a long vacation this time. It was so long that he had to personally send Little Fox to Demon King Li's training camp. She would be fine after the exam.

Ye Jian pursed her lips and smiled when she saw this. She quickly kissed his handsome face. "This is compensation. I'll go to her first." Love was important. Friendship was equally important.

In the room, An Jiaxin was lying on the bed and flipping through her textbooks. When she heard the door open, she immediately turned her head and smiled maliciously. "How does it feel to conquer the major who taught us the defense class, Student Jian? Isn't it... very satisfactory?"

At the age of 18 or 19, regardless of whether it was boys or girls, there would always be some dirty jokes in private. The only difference was that boys were straightforward while girls were reserved.

“What kind of satisfaction are you referring to?” Ye Jian didn’t understand the meaning behind her words. Instead, she replied seriously, “If you mean happiness, then I’m indeed satisfied. It’s also very satisfying when we train together.”

Chapter 1204: Why Is the Difference So Great?

An Jiaxin held her head. How could she forget that Jian was innocent in some aspects?

But what did training together mean?

At this moment, Ye Jian didn’t plan to hide some things from her anymore. She laid on the bed and looked at her good friend who had never asked her anything and always helped her. She said softly, “Jiaxin, I want to tell you something.”

“Huh, what’s the matter? Why are you so serious?” An Jiaxin, who was frightened by her stern face, quickly stopped smiling and frowned. “Did something happen? Did something happen between you and Comrade Xia? Did he bully you?”

Instantly, her face darkened. She felt that as soon as Ye Jian said “yes”, she could immediately rush out and cause trouble.

Her reaction warmed Ye Jian’s heart. She hurriedly said, “No, I’m telling you about my university application and my future plans. I feel bad for not telling you.”

“WTH, you scared me to death. I thought it was something big. If you didn’t tell me, you didn’t tell me. What’s there to feel bad about?” An Jiaxin immediately relaxed and smiled. “You always have your own plans. If you can’t tell me your application, you must have your reasons.”

An Jiaxin was definitely a friend worth befriending. She appeared to be carefree, but in reality, she had a lot of principles. Becoming friends with her was not only a kind of luck but also a way to learn how to conduct oneself.

Ye Jian reached out her hand and hugged her friend who she trusted. “My goal is to join the military so I only applied for one school and that is the Chinese Academy of Sciences. If we want to contact each other, we can only contact each other through letters. You can leave a message on QICQ too. If I can go online, I will reply to you as soon as I can.”

Today was probably a good day to be dazed. An Jiaxin knew that she was dumbstruck again.

Her friend’s goal was to join the military camp, and... she only had one university aspiration: to get into the Chinese Academy of Sciences.

Was the Chinese Academy of Sciences she was talking about the “National Science University” and “National Arts University” among military academies? The Chinese Academy of Sciences that was especially difficult to enroll in and only had three or four vacancies in the Southern Province this year?

What the... WTF!

“I’m a little dazed. Let me calm down first. Calm down.” An Jiaxin took a deep breath and let out a long breath. Then, she asked carefully, “Is it because of your boyfriend that you want to join the military?”

Ye Jian smiled. “No, I was influenced by Grandpa Gen and Principal Chen. Didn’t I have a big fight with Ye Ying and her mother in the second year of junior high? After everything was settled, Principal Chen came to talk to me. At that time, I felt that I was too wretched to be bullied by Ye Ying’s family. I needed a way out. That was why I wanted to join the military.”

“At first, I just wanted to not live too cowardly. But later on, I completely fell in love with it. I liked the roars when I trained with the soldiers. I liked picking up guns and hearing the sounds of bullets being fired. I liked wearing jungle camouflage and fighting alongside the soldiers.”

“Jiaxin, I’ve already been on this road for four years. I’ll continue walking for numerous four-years until I can no longer wear my military uniform.”

An Jiaxin looked like she was listening to a fantasy tale. Four years... Jian was already determined to join the military four years ago. Oh my god! Wasn’t she only in her second year of junior high school then?

In her second year of junior high school, all she thought to herself all day was, “I wonder if there is any new delicious food at the concession stand. I should try it later.”

Chapter 1205: We Have to Be Good Forever

Or she would think: I have to ask my mom for an extra dollar tomorrow. The spicy jerky in town that costs fifty cents for two tastes especially delicious!

Also: Why isn’t Friday here yet? I want to watch TV tonight!

While she was still thinking about these things, Student Jian was thinking about joining the military and getting into university!

The difference! The difference is hurting again!

“You can never find me during the winter and summer holidays, right? Actually, I was always training with the soldiers in the army. It’s much more fulfilling than spending my days watching TV at home.” Ye Jian’s voice was very soft. It was like flowing water. An Jiaxin didn’t feel uncomfortable when she heard it.

An Jiaxin clicked her tongue when she heard that. Suddenly, she laughed. “Hahaha! Then wasn’t Ye Ying asking for it when she caused trouble for you during the National Day of our Second Year? I knew it. You were so exemplary when you did the demonstration with the instructors. You looked better than the instructors. So you were already training at that time.”

“There’s also shooting. Amazing! Even the political commissar said that you’re amazing! It turns out that you’ve already touched a gun and hit a target!”

With today’s confession, An Jiaxin understood the things that she couldn’t understand in the past.

Unbeknownst to everyone, Ye Jian was not only studying hard but also working hard on her goal.

As she spoke, An Jiaxin became a little melancholic. “I didn’t expect you to sacrifice so much in secret. We only saw your bright and beautiful side. Who would have known that you suffered behind our backs?”

“I didn’t suffer much. I fought for my goal. The entire process was like sowing seeds before harvesting.” Ye Jian didn’t feel that she had suffered much. Instead, she felt that she was enjoying it.

Enjoying the process of harvesting and looking forward to the final outcome, there was an indescribable motivation that kept urging her not to stop, not to let down the life she had reincarnated in, to take back what she had lost in her previous life and what she had not experienced. She wanted to walk her path and not let down her life.

She hugged An Jiaxin lightly with both hands. Seeing the faint melancholy on her good friend’s face, Ye Jian lowered her voice gently again. “I’m different from you. If I don’t work hard, I’ll be suppressed by Ye Ying forever. I’ll live under her shadow forever.”

“As for you, your brilliance is something I will never be able to learn. You have friends in groups of three to five. Every time they mention you, they would say ‘An Jiaxin is very good’. You have parents who love you and friends who are willing to play with you. You also have very good results. Jiaxin, I want to thank you. You have helped me a lot in the past few years. Thank you very much.”

Ye Jian, who wasn’t good at expressing her feelings, said so much in one breath. An Jiaxin’s eyes widened as she listened. Her hand reached for Ye Jian’s face. “You’re my Little Jian, right? It’s not someone else, right? Is there something wrong? You’re different from usual.”

Ye Jian whose emotions finally leaked out didn’t know whether to laugh or cry. “We will be apart in a few days. We don’t know when we can meet again. I finally feel sad for once but you think that I’m not the same as before.”

“Student Jian, you should just maintain at the same height that I look up to as before.” An Jiaxin rubbed her nose. Her eyes turned red as she continued. “You’re good as you are right now. People who know you don’t need too much explanation to keep believing in you.”

“What kind of relationship do we have? We have to be good friends forever. Although you are quite mysterious sometimes, I always understand that you treat me and the rest of the girls in our dormitory sincerely.”

Chapter 1206: Thank Those Who Looked Down on Me

There were still tears in her eyes. She giggled again. “However, I think you treat me the best since we have been together since junior high. I support you in joining the military! Ye Ying is nothing compared to you!”

As long as she could beat Ye Ying, An Jiaxin would feel great satisfaction.

Her giggle turned into laughter. She rolled back and forth on the bed. "This is too satisfying. Do you think Provincial No.1 Middle School will put up a banner with the words 'Grand Congratulations on Student Ye Jian's enrollment into the Chinese Academy of Sciences' on it? Hahaha! Ye Ying and her family will be so angry that they will vomit blood. Hahaha! Just thinking about it makes me happy."

Ye Jian saw that she wasn't angry when she hid things from her. She heaved a sigh of relief. At the same time, she couldn't help but smile. "Yes, Ye Ying will be angry when the time comes. I was in the same examination hall as her today. She even came to me specially and said that I'm definitely not as good as her."

"Cough, cough, cough..." Her laughter turned into a series of loud coughs. Ye Jian was so shocked that she hurriedly patted her back. "Look at you. You laughed so hard that you got short of breath. Get up and talk."

Holding Ye Jian's hand, An Jiaxin coughed until her eyes were filled with tears. She said 'tragically', "I got shocked until I almost got a heart attack because you released such shocking news."

"How unlucky is Ye Ying to be in the same exam hall as you? She's asking for trouble. Don't hide it. You have to suppress the enemy at such a critical moment."

"What's that saying about being a soldier? Ah, yes. It's 'to be kind to your enemy is to be cruel to yourself'. You must not be kind! However, you must be wary of petty people. If she plays petty tricks again and wants to use some tricks to implicate you in the examination hall... Therefore, you must be on your guard! Be extremely careful!"

Ye Jian took out a piece of tissue paper and passed it to An Jiaxin to wipe her tears. She smiled and said, "Actually, I was looking forward to her playing some tricks in the exam hall. She fought with me for so long but I didn't really get to teach her a lesson. So I was looking forward to it."

"Hey, hey, hey. You've become bad." An Jiaxin immediately understood what she meant. The two girls laughed on the bed.

There was a knock on the door. Xia Jinyuan's low voice was heard. "You have exams in the afternoon. You two can rest now."

The two of them chatted in the room for half an hour. If he did not remind them, they would probably continue chatting until the exam begins.

An Jiaxin had already covered herself with a blanket from head to toe, pretending to be asleep.

Ye Jian couldn't help but laugh. She was really afraid of Xia Jinyuan.

Ye Jian closed her eyes. She was thinking about Ye Ying's expression in the exam hall today. She must have wanted to play some tricks in the morning but failed because she handed in her paper early.

Once she goes back to tell Ye Zhifan and Sun Dongqing that they were in the same exam hall, there might be other tricks in the afternoon.

Ye Zhifan did all he could to move her registered residence back. The reason why he did this was simple. He didn't want to see her getting further and further away. He didn't want to lose control over her and didn't want her to surpass Ye Ying forever.

In order to achieve his goal, he even invited Grandma Ye out of the mountains but the result was the same.

During the process, she really thanked Grandma Ye and Ye Zhixiang for the rumors. They said that she and Hou Zi were her sugar dating. In the end, they alarmed Hou Zi and made him step out to settle this matter. Hou Zi subdued Ye Zhifan, who had never given up until he achieved his goals, such that he didn't dare to make another move.

Chapter 1207: I Want Her to Lose Everything

Now that he had the chance to make all her efforts go to waste, and even disqualify her from the university entrance examination, Ye Zhifan would not give up so easily. Ye Ying will take action in the afternoon.

Ye Jian, who was lying on the bed, closed her eyes in contemplation. Ye Zhifan, who was sitting by the hotel bed, quietly listened to his daughter.

"Dad, I want to take a gamble. If I lose, I'll admit it! But I still have a 50% chance of winning. Dad, I want to try." After finishing her lunch, Ye Ying didn't even care about taking a rest. She gritted her teeth and looked sinister. "As long as there's a chance, I want to try. I won't let her step on my head again."

"Dad, I've always remembered how she kicked me out of Provincial No.1 Middle School!"

Sun Dongqing sat at the side. She looked at her husband and daughter. After a while, she couldn't help but say fiercely, "You have to teach that wretched girl a lesson. Otherwise, she will think that my Ye Ying is easy to bully."

If her husband hadn't said that he didn't want her to go to Provincial No.1 Middle School to look for trouble as that would affect his reputation in the government, she would have long gone there to look for trouble!

"Go and clean up. Don't cause trouble." Ye Zhifan didn't agree immediately. This was a big matter. He couldn't afford to have any mishaps when it concerned his daughter's future. He reprimanded his wife and said to Ye Ying, "Yingying, although the risk is 50%, Ye Jian's ability is beyond my expectations. Yingying, I can say that you don't have the 50% chance."

Suddenly, Ye Ying raised her voice and said sharply, "Dad, are you saying that I'm inferior to Ye Jian? Even you think that I'm inferior to her?"

"Who said that? Who said that my Yingying is not as good as that wretched girl?" Sun Dongqing, who was clearing the table, jumped up and pointed at Ye Zhifan's nose. She started scolding him, "Ye Zhifan, let me tell you. Don't compare my Yingying with that wretched girl. My Yingying is a future top student of National Science University and National Arts University! Her form teacher said that as long as she performs normally, it won't be a problem for her to enter top schools!"

"What school can that wretched girl get into? I think she should thank the heavens even if she becomes a third-rate undergraduate!"

Ye Ying got even angrier. If Ye Jian could only get into a third-rate undergraduate course, would she have to play tricks during the university entrance examination?

"Mom, can you not interrupt? I'm talking to Dad. Can you go back to your room and rest?" Ye Ying's voice was filled with anger. "Dad, I don't care how much chance I have, I must try."

"If it really fails, I'll just repeat a year! If it succeeds, you should think of a way to escalate the matter and let the Education Bureau make an example of her. Ye Jian will be banned from taking university entrance exams forever!"

"You have to think about the jade pendant in our hands. If the person behind the jade knows that Ye Jian is better than me, will he abandon our family and support Ye Jian?"

Ye Zhifan didn't say anything else but this sentence scratched his heart.

Footsteps could be heard coming from the corridor of the hotel. It was the parents who were accompanying their children to the school to begin the afternoon examination.

Ye Zhifan listened to the footsteps and the parents' advice for their children. When the surroundings became so quiet that only Ye Ying's anxious breathing could be heard, he said, "Be careful."

When the sun was at its hottest in the afternoon, Ye Jian stood at the school gate and looked at a "boy" who was wearing the uniform of Provincial No.1 Middle School that kept following them. She retracted her gaze and smiled at Xia Jinyuan who sent her over. "Go back and wait. You don't have to stand under the sun. I'll come out on time in about an hour. Go back and rest first."

Chapter 1208: The Brothers' Once-in-a-Lifetime Event

No matter how clean he was, she still felt that he had not rested well.

"Okay, I'll watch you go in." Xia Jinyuan looked at the "boy" who was wearing the school uniform of Provincial No.1 Middle School. He smiled. "I'll pick you up in the afternoon."

An Jiaxin looked at her friend, who had a sweet look on her face. She couldn't help but feel lost again.

Ye Jian, who had fallen into the river of love, has indeed changed. She was no longer as unreachable as before. The smile on her face was like a blooming flower.

"Being in love changes a person. She's smiling like a flower."

She wanted to be in a relationship too... She wanted to be in a relationship like Jian and be good in her studies at the same time! She was afraid that she would not study hard after being in a relationship!

An Jiaxin, who didn't even notice that she had said that out loud, ended her thoughts silently. Suddenly, she felt her hair stand on end. She felt like she was being stared at by a ferocious beast. She raised her head and looked around, but there was nothing...

Xia Jinyuan and Ye Jian silently retracted their gaze from the man who was less than two meters away from them. T6 was here and he was shamelessly wearing the school uniform of Provincial No.1 Middle School and mixed in with a group of students!

"I'm getting a bad feeling. I need to enter the classroom." An Jiaxin rubbed her arms and said softly to Ye Jian, "I felt something staring at me just now... Could it be Ye Ying?"

"Cough." Xia Jinyuan raised his fist and cleared his throat. He turned his body and looked at T6. Brother, please restrain yourself.

T6 blinked his eyes and raised his eyebrows at An Jiaxin. It was obvious what he wanted to say. "This girl is not bad. Introduce her to me."

Xia Jinyuan retracted his gaze. His lifelong problem had been solved. His brothers' lifelong problem... He needed to bear some responsibility for it.

However, it was a little too hasty to think that she was not bad with just a single glance.

T6, who was filled with joy, watched as his comrade retracted his gaze mercilessly. He felt so jealous that he wanted to rush up and introduce himself.

T6 lowered his head silently when he saw Ye Jian pulling the girl who had delicate features and especially striking eyebrows behind her and blocking his line of sight. They were working together to bully him.

"I'll go in first." Ye Jian didn't stay any longer. She held An Jiaxin's arm and led her out of T6's sight.

"It was so weird just now. I felt something staring at me but I couldn't find the source. Do you think it's because of Ye Ying?" An Jiaxin didn't forget the goosebumps on her body. She walked a few steps and looked behind her.

Ye Jian smiled. "It's nothing. Maybe you are getting a little nervous about the exam later. Don't be nervous. You have always had a good foundation in mathematics. Mathematics was your strong point in junior high, not to mention in high school where you got into the top ten in the level. Entering the university that you dream of is not a problem."

The two of them walked further and further away. T6 went up to Xia Jinyuan and said with a smile, "That's Ye Jian's good friend, right? She's quite a good girl. I think she's to my taste. Want to come out for dinner tonight together and introduce her to me?"

"You have a strong motive. You're shameless enough to wear a high school uniform." Xia Jinyuan removed the hand that rested on his shoulder. He sized up T6 who was still pretending to be a student and said mercilessly, "You want a girlfriend even though you're dressed like this? It would be weird if a girl likes you."

Chapter 1209: Take the Exam Seriously

T6 asked humbly, "Your brother, me, is inexperienced. Give me some hints. I secretly took this set of clothes out from my cousin's closet. I have to return it later."

Xia Jinyuan remembered that T6 was from the Southern Province once he said that.

"I can't help you with this. You have to ask Ye Jian. Also, why did you come to Provincial No.1 Middle School? Your purpose doesn't seem to be simple."

"Fifteen days of vacation. I suddenly remembered that Ye Jian is in Provincial No.1 Middle School. I was thinking of coming over to take a look and settle my marriage matters in the meantime. My family keeps rushing me. How old am I? I'm only 27 years old! Is it so hard to get a wife?" T6 had been back for three days. Other than the first day he spent with his parents, the next two days were spent going on blind dates!

Xia Jinyuan accidentally asked T6 about his troubles. Comrades were meant to go through thick and thin together. T6 didn't mind telling all his 'troubles' to his comrade.

"Change your clothes before you talk to me about blind dates. Otherwise, I'll feel like I'm talking about blind dates with a high school student. I don't want to talk to you at all."

"Go, go, go! Let's go change my clothes! I need your advice urgently. Also, I truly think that the girl just now was not bad. It made my heart feel like it was being electrocuted." T6 immediately said seriously when he saw Xia Jinyuan's cold gaze. "To put it in simpler terms, I felt a spark."

Xia Jinyuan raised his eyebrows. "Why didn't you faint from electrocution? I can immediately get her to come back and give you mouth-to-mouth resuscitation!"

T6, who had been silent for a while, gave his comrade a thumbs up. "That's a good move! You didn't tell me just now. How could I have thought of that? Why don't we use it tonight? I'll pretend to faint and you pull the little girl over to give me mouth-to-mouth."

Xia Jinyuan felt that it was getting difficult to continue the topic. When he meets someone who was more shameless than him, he would usually only have one thought: To beat him up.

However, today was the first day that he had confirmed his relationship with Little Fox. It wasn't appropriate for him to start a massacre. He should let him off. He looked quite pitiful.

After entering the classroom, An Jiabin didn't know that she had "electrocuted" a Special Forces soldier. With a serious expression on her face, she spread out the exam papers and adjusted her mindset as quickly as possible. Then, she started the afternoon math exam.

The invigilator did not immediately use his penetrating gaze to inspect the examination hall. He only reminded them to take the exam well and seriously. Then, he stood by the aisle and stopped talking.

Ye Jian was the fastest student in the entire examination hall. Other students needed to stop writing from time to time to think. After she finished reading the questions, she had already calculated the answer in her heart. She just needed to write in the blank space.

The teachers from different schools knew about Ye Jian from the Provincial No.1 Middle School. Whenever they saw her identification card, they would observe her immediately.

During the exam, they would stop by Ye Jian's table and watch her answer the questions.

Half an hour later, Ye Jian finished answering her questions. The invigilator looked at her in shock. He couldn't accept her speed of answering questions without thinking.

Initially, he thought that she would have wrong answers. However, when he finished silently calculating the answers, he realized that there were no wrong answers at all.

Ye Jian was not anxious that the invigilator was not moving away, but Ye Ying was.

She did the questions for a while and glanced to the side from the corner of her eye. Seeing that the teacher did not leave after a long time, she was so angry that she bit her lower lip until there was a bite mark.

Ye Jian knew that someone was sizing her up. She remained calm and answered the questions one by one without giving herself any chance to be distracted.

Chapter 1210: Let You Be Smug for Now

Because the invigilator blocked Ye Ying's line of sight, she couldn't see Ye Jian's speed of answering. She didn't see that Ye Jian had already started working on the questions in section C and D.

After the invigilator left, she glanced over and saw Ye Jian stopping her pen to think about the last two problems. Ye Ying sneered in disdain.

Didn't they say that she was quick at answering questions? Didn't they always hear the students from Provincial No.1 Middle School saying that Ye Jian handed in her papers in advance?

It must be a bluff!

How could that speed be considered fast? What a joke!

Ye Ying had always been conceited. Moreover, she was doing well in Provincial No.2 Middle School. Every time she took the exam, she would solve the questions very quickly. This made her even more unwilling to believe that Ye Jian could solve the questions faster than everyone else.

"I'll let you be smug for now, wretched girl!" Ye Ying muttered softly. A vicious look flashed across her eyes. She didn't look at Ye Jian anymore and quickly resumed answering the questions. If she wanted to frame someone, she had to finish it herself!

Ye Ying believed that she would be able to win Ye Jian with her outstanding grades!

Ye Ying was not stupid. It was just that she would become a little crazy whenever she encountered Ye Jian. It became easy for her to make wrong judgments and wrong choices.

But this time, even Ye Zhifan agreed to this. Ye Zhifan was also betting on Ye Ying's future because of the jade pendant.

If she lost the bet, with Ye Ying's intelligence, it would not be a problem for her to get into university after repeating a year. If she won the bet, he would make sure that Ye Jian would never be able to get the jade pendant back. He would also make sure that she would never be able to make a comeback.

This was a gamble on life. Ye Zhifan was not only betting on Ye Ying's future but also his own.

He knew that the reason why he was promoted from a village official to a provincial government official was because of the jade pendant in his hand. Between his daughter getting into university and his career, Ye Zhifan chose his own career.

As long as his career was successful and his daughter was able to get into university, it would not be a problem at all! It would just waste a year.

Ye Zhifan didn't have much hope that Ye Ying would stop Ye Jian from taking the university entrance examination. He had never won when he went against her. Now, there was Hou Zi behind Ye Jian. Additionally, he couldn't confirm if his aunt's family had come to look for her. He also needed to pay attention to his image as an official. He had to be careful when dealing with Ye Jian.

Letting his daughter make a move was the best choice.

Whether he could win or not depended on fate. Ye Zhifan, who was standing outside the school, took a sip of cold water and stared at the school with a malicious gaze.

Ye Jian, don't blame me for being ruthless. If you want to blame someone, blame yourself for being too outstanding and threatening our entire family. We can only be happy if you are gone!

The crickets were still calling out tirelessly. The parents were fanning themselves with large fans and trying to ease the worries in their hearts. "I don't know if this year's Mathematics examination is difficult. Last year's Mathematics examination was too difficult. A colleague of mine said that a few students fainted in the classroom."

"What a sin. All three years of hard work went down the drain. It was all in vain."

"That's right. Nothing must happen this year. We don't want any children to pass out from nervousness. The parents will be upset and the children won't be able to accept it when they wake up."

"That's right. An army of thousands crossing a single-plank bridge, all hoping to get into a university. Sigh, nothing must happen."
