

BOOT CAMP 1351

Chapter 1351: Friends For Life

If Sun Dongqing came over and saw Ye Jian interacting with so many officers like family, she might do something crazy. In the end, he would be the one cleaning up the mess.

Ye Ying's throat was twitching as she nodded repeatedly. However, she felt a little guilty. A second ago, she was thinking about how good it would be if Sun Dongqing was here. She even wanted to mention it but when she saw Ye Zhifan's expression, she didn't dare to.

Ye Ying always knew who she could rely on in her family.

The father and daughter continued appearing at Uncle Gen's memorial service. Ye Zhifan couldn't help but lower his head when he saw the soldiers standing guard outside. He even restrained his authority.

Ye Zhifan looked at Uncle Gen who was lying on a bed of white chrysanthemums. He felt uncomfortable as he put down a stalk of chrysanthemum.

If he knew that Uncle Gen knew so many outstanding officers, he wouldn't have allowed Ye Jian to go with him. Instead, he would have let his daughter visit him frequently.

Unfortunately, he found out too late. Ye Jian, who was groomed single-handedly, had become his immediate family that everyone recognized. Seeing that every bowing guest would comfort Ye Jian, Ye Zhifan could only sigh.

The memorial service lasted from 3 pm to 5 pm. Uncle Gen didn't like to be extravagant when he was alive. Before he passed away, he told everyone not to inform too many people. According to his last words, the military unit didn't make too much of a fuss. A legendary Class A Master Sergeant that even the highest-ranking leader had to call 'old squad leader' had passed away. Only the people from the military unit sent him off.

Major General Yang from the army couldn't get away because of the base. Hence, he personally called to express his respect.

The people entering and exiting were all soldiers in military uniforms. An Jiaxin, who had been watching Ye Ying, didn't even dare to breathe loudly. She stood carefully in a corner and observed Ye Ying's whereabouts determinedly.

"Why are you standing here so sneakily?" Someone suddenly patted An Jiaxin's shoulder from behind. Her heart skipped a beat. She turned her head and patted her chest lightly. "It's you. You scared me."

T6 raised his eyebrows. "You have a good memory. You still remember me."

"I'm not stupid," An Jiaxin muttered. She ignored the man who was said to be a soldier and looked at Ye Ying again. Where is she? Her bright eyes widened.

She searched the dark green crowd hurriedly. One second ago, she was still there. One second later, she was gone.

Dressed in casual clothes, T6 followed her gaze and looked into the crowd. Seeing that she was looking for someone, he asked, "Who are you looking for? Do you need my help?"

"Finding a very annoying person. I was keeping an eye on her at first. But when you patted me just now, she disappeared!" An Jiaxin was a little anxious. The memorial service was coming to an end. Commander Liu was recounting Uncle Gen's glorious deeds on stage. Uncle Gen's body would be cremated soon. She mustn't let Ye Ying ruin things at the last moment!

If she didn't say who she was looking for, T6 wouldn't be able to help her. He asked her softly, "Tell me about the person you're looking for. Two people are better than one."

That's true!

An Jiaxin immediately told him what Ye Ying and Ye Zhifan were wearing. Then, she said in a serious tone, "This father and daughter are very bad to Ye Jian, especially that woman. She bullied Ye Jian since she was young. When you find her, tell me immediately!"

Dressed in casual clothes, T6, who was close to a pure girl, had a clean temperament like a next-door big brother. In addition, he was handsome. An Jiaxin had seen him three times, but she didn't think that T6 was a soldier.

He really didn't look like one!

Chapter 1352: Shameless

After she finished speaking, An Jiaxin urged him to hurry up and look for her. "Help me take a look over there. We mustn't let the father and daughter get close to Ye Jian. We mustn't let him get close to the general who is said to have the highest military rank!"

"Lieutenant general." T6 corrected her and said, "In that case, I'll bring you to the lieutenant general. Maybe the person you're looking for has already found the lieutenant general."

Commander-in-Chief Xia suddenly appeared in Anyang City and at the memorial service of a Class A Master Sergeant. There would always be people who would find a chance to greet him.

Seeing that she was thinking for Ye Jian, a smile flashed past T6's eyes. After the memorial service, he would ask for her contact details.

She may seem careless at first glance but she was actually very meticulous. The first time they met on the last day of the university entrance examination, he didn't manage to get any personal information. The second time, he came to Fujun Town with Xia Jinyuan and met her in town... Similarly, there was nothing wrong with her. She was staring at him with a gaze that said, "You're a bad person. I won't fall for it." This caused him to quickly reflect if she had discovered his thoughts.

The third time they meet, it shouldn't be considered going too fast... to ask for her contact information.

T6 thought to himself as he brought An Jiabin towards Commander-in-Chief Xia. Before they got close, they heard An Jiabin gritting her teeth. "Shameless! Shameless!"

Ye Jian couldn't get away so the two of them shamelessly tried to gain connections!

"No, I have to expose those two hypocrites. I can't let them get close to him. Ye Ying still wants to enter the military unit. Don't embarrass the military unit!"

T6 couldn't help but look at An Jiabin as she looked at the Ye family with disdain.

"Do you hate those two people?" T6, who wasn't too sure, asked. If he asked, it meant that he would understand more about her and know more about her. "Do you hate them so much that you don't want to see them?"

An Jiabin glanced at the young man who always talked to her. If she rushed up so recklessly, the lieutenant general with the highest rank would probably ignore her.

"Do you know that lieutenant general?" If she didn't want to cause any trouble, it would be best if someone introduced her.

He knew Commander-in-Chief Xia. At the commendation ceremony, he even received the medal personally.

T6 nodded. "I do. If you want to find those two people, I can bring you there." This matter concerned Ye Jian so he needed to take care of it. "Don't be too impatient when you see the lieutenant general. Listen to what those two people say first."

Ye Jian and Xia Jinyuan didn't notice that Ye Zhifan had brought Ye Ying to look for Commander-in-Chief Xia. Commander Liu finished his eulogy with red eyes. As he mourned, a platoon leader and ten soldiers took off their military caps and bowed to the old squad leader. This was their last group of soldiers to show their tribute.

"Everyone, take off your caps!"

It's time for the send-off. Commander Xia didn't listen to what Ye Zhifan said anymore. He took off his cap with a solemn expression and looked at the old squad leader who was lying among the white chrysanthemums. First bow, second bow, third bow.

Ye Zhifan was a little anxious. The coffin was going to be carried away later. This lieutenant general might leave too... but he hadn't made the connection!

When An Jiabin saw this, she immediately stopped in her tracks and sneered at Ye Ying. Disgusting people shouldn't appear at Grandpa Gen's memorial service! They even tried to find a chance to squeeze Ye Ying into the military, how shameless!

Chapter 1353: Things Wicked People Do to Get Attention

“The lieutenant general ignored them. You can rest assured.” T6 saw Commander-in-Chief Xia walking in front and reminded him softly, “The lieutenant general has guards around him. The two of them won’t get close easily.”

As for how the two of them got closer... T6’s gaze darkened. He needed to mention this to Xia Jinyuan.

No one was walking around casually. They watched as the eight lieutenants lifted the flag-covered coffin again. Ye Jian, who was holding Grandpa Gen’s black and white photo, couldn’t help but tighten her grip.

Uncle Gen, who chose to be cremated, would eventually lie in a small urn... and be sent to the martyrs’ memorial park to rest.

From now on, she wouldn’t be able to see the old man who would send her to the village entrance every time she went out and would only go home when he couldn’t see her.

From now on, she wouldn’t be able to hear the old man’s kind voice or bright laughter anymore.

“Let’s go.” Xia Jinyuan gently held the girl whose willpower made his heart ache. He said gently, “We need to send Uncle on his last trip. We need to send Uncle to his old comrades’ sides.”

Ye Jian took a deep breath and nodded slightly. That’s right. Grandpa said that he missed his old comrades very much. He wanted to return to their side and sing the song of the long march together so that they could relive the hard times together.

The coffin was carried by eight lieutenants. Ye Jian was still walking at the front. The only difference was that she was accompanied by Xia Jinyuan and Commander-in-Chief Xia.

Ye Zhifan wanted to chase after them but when he saw this, he immediately pulled Ye Ying to the martyrs’ memorial park.

This was Ye Zhifan’s ability. He knew that it was useless even if he followed them now. He decided to go to the cemetery and wait for them. He wanted to see if there was anything he could help with.

Ever since Ye Ying saw her father talking to the lieutenant general who was said to be the highest-ranking officer in the military, she couldn’t help but admire him. She didn’t express her opinion casually anymore. If not, why would there be the saying “the older, the wiser”?

“When you reach the memorial, find something to do. Be more obvious and agile. You must let the lieutenant general see what you are doing, even if they only look at you once. Yingying, that will be their impression of you. Do you understand?”

The convinced Ye Ying listened to his advice readily.

She knew that her father was capable but she had never seen someone as powerful as him. When the senior official looked at her, her knees almost buckled. But her father was able to talk to the lieutenant general!

Ye Ying was extremely proud. If she could get close to the lieutenant general, she would have no problem entering the capital city's political regiment! At that time, she would teach Ye Jian a lesson!

Her heart was filled with hatred. Somehow, she felt emboldened.

What happened today left a shadow in Ye Ying's heart. Now, when she thought about how Ye Jian had a military rank before even entering the unit, she felt so frustrated that her heart hurt.

At 6 pm, Ye Jian came to the martyrs' memorial park with an urn covered with a folded flag. She walked one step at a time to the grave where Uncle Gen will be buried. However, she realized that even the tombstone had been carved.

"Uncle Gen knew that he wouldn't be able to make it. He even asked Commander Liu and Commissar Yan to prepare everything behind my back. He didn't want to make you sad." Principal Chen's voice was hoarse. It was so gritty that you needed to listen carefully to know what he said.

The last handful of soil was filled up. Ye Jian's eyelashes trembled slightly as she kneeled. She tried her best to suppress her trembling voice and smiled while crying, "Grandpa was afraid that I would get distracted during my training. He endured it even when he was sick."

Chapter 1354: How Embarrassing

"Good child, it's good that you know." Principal Chen placed the chrysanthemum in his hand on the newly filled soil. He looked at the kind-looking old man in the black and white photo and smiled too. "Uncle, you can meet your old comrades now. Ye Jian and I will visit you frequently to accompany you."

Xia Jinyuan put down the white chrysanthemum in his hand and kowtowed respectfully. "Uncle, I'm afraid that I won't have much time to visit you. Please forgive me. However, if Ye Jian wants to come back and I happen to accompany her, I will definitely come back with her to visit you."

After the last farewell, white chrysanthemums were placed on the tomb. The kind old man kept smiling as he looked at them. It was as if he was still alive. His pair of wise eyes silently encouraged every soldier.

When it was Ye Zhifan's turn to put down the flowers, he brought Ye Ying and stood beside Ye Jian. They reached the cemetery in advance and wanted to express their gratitude. However, they were stopped by the soldiers. They didn't let them pass even after he revealed his identity.

His plan to show his face was ruined. He was furious. When he saw Xia Jinyuan patting Ye Jian's shoulder to comfort her, Ye Zhifan had an idea.

Since everyone's eyes were on Ye Jian, he would have to borrow her limelight!

"Ye Jian, the dead can't come back to life. Take care of yourself." He sighed and spoke to Ye Jian in a gentle tone he had never used before. "If you're tired, the door to my house will always be open for you. You're welcome to come back anytime."

Ye Jian didn't move but An Jiaxin, who had been following behind Ye Ying, moved. She put down her white chrysanthemum and kneeled to kowtow. As she walked past Ye Ying, she grabbed Ye Ying's wrist and dragged her away.

Ye Ying, who was suddenly dragged away, screamed uncontrollably. She realized that she had lost her composure and immediately shut her mouth. She saw who was pulling her and tried to pull her hand back. "An Jiaxin, let go! Let go!"

"Save it, Ye Ying. How can I let you go if I want to drag you away?" An Jiaxin exerted all her strength to drag the shameless Ye Ying far away. "All you think about every day is to torture Ye Jian. Do you think you can enter the military unit with a broken heart?"

An Jiaxin knew that Ye Ying wanted to enter the military unit. However, Doctor Zhou said that Ye Ying had heart disease so she couldn't enter the military unit unless she found connections.

If not, she wouldn't know what Ye Ying was planning today.

She dragged Ye Ying away. When Ye Zhifan realized what was happening and wanted to pull his daughter back, a tall man blocked his hand. It was obvious that he was trying to stop him. He reminded Ye Zhifan in a low voice, "Stand firm, sir. It's not good to fall in front of so many soldiers."

With T6 making the move, he naturally succeeded.

Ye Jian ignored Ye Zhifan. When he appeared at the memorial service, she understood what the Ye family was planning.

If she opened her mouth now, with Ye Zhifan's scheming mind, he would definitely pretend that she was very familiar with him. She would ignore him and let him act out his scenario.

"Ye Zhifan, I don't want to embarrass you at Uncle's funeral. Please leave." Principal Chen wouldn't let him be. He walked around from Ye Jian's right side and made a gesture asking him to leave, "You can leave now."

Xia Jinyuan wasn't so polite. He called the guard over and said coldly, "Take this man away."

He still wanted to use Ye Jian? That would depend on whether he had the ability or not!

Chapter 1355: Ridiculous

Xia Jinyuan wasn't so polite. He said that he wanted to "take" Ye Zhifan away. From this "take", one could tell how disdainful he was towards Ye Zhifan.

The guards were all hardworking people. As they stood in front, their killing intent was revealed. They weren't like Xia Jinyuan and the rest who knew how to restrain themselves.

Ye Zhifan trained his temper well so he had some skills. When he heard this, his face turned dark but he still maintained the demeanor of an official. He looked at the young major who was not polite to him and narrowed his eyes slightly as if he was thinking about something. Then, he gave Ye Jian a meaningful smile. "It looks like Uncle will be able to attend your wedding soon."

This man was a major at such a young age. For a second lieutenant like Ye Jian to be able to get close to him, he was out of her league.

If the major was just an ordinary major, it would be fine. However, this person gave him an unfathomable and noble feeling. This feeling was not good!

The people Uncle Gen knew were all high-ranking officers in the military unit. Normal soldiers wouldn't be able to catch his eye... He was just afraid that this major was the son-in-law that Uncle Gen picked for Ye Jian!

She was already more capable than Ye Ying. Now that she had a capable and powerful spouse, Ye Zhifan couldn't help but purse his lips.

With a capable and powerful spouse helping Ye Jian, his daughter would have to live under Ye Jian's shadow for the rest of her life. What scared him even more was that he didn't know what the person behind the jade would do.

He still didn't know who the person behind the jade was. What was his motive for promoting him like this? Even after he got promoted, Ye Zhifan never felt at ease.

He was afraid. He was afraid that one day, he would fall from the clouds. He was afraid that one day, Ye Jian would be so powerful that the person behind the jade would find her. He was even more afraid that everything he had now would be gone one day.

That was why he was anxious to let Ye Ying excel and suppress Ye Jian!

The more he thought about this, the more things didn't go according to his plan. Ye Zhifan's heart couldn't help but pound when he saw the soldiers comforting Ye Jian after placing the chrysanthemums.

Commander-in-Chief Xia looked at everything coldly and asked Commander Liu, "Has Ye Zhifan not stopped until now?"

Ever since he knew that his son liked a senior high student, Commander-in-Chief Xia, who didn't seem worried on the surface, had actually asked about Ye Jian's family situation. Hence, he knew Ye Zhifan. However, today, he met Ye Zhifan in person, not as a photo in a file.

"I heard from Old Chen that he wants to send his daughter to the capital's political regiment. You know that although the capital's political regiment is a civilian regiment, its requirements are many times higher than that of ordinary soldiers."

Commander-in-chief Xia asked personally so Commander Liu told him everything he heard during this period. "Ye Zhifan's daughter is suitable to enter the military arts troupe. Unfortunately, during her junior high examination, she was diagnosed with heart disease. During the military training in grade eleven, she even caused a scandal in the provincial chemical defense regiment. Her personal results and overall performance were recorded."

“She has heart disease and a stain on her file. It’s hard for her to enter the military unit, let alone the capital’s political regiment. Ye Zhifan knew about this too so he tried to use connections to get his daughter in.”

Because of Ye Jian, Commander Liu and Commissar Yan would pay attention to Ye Zhifan’s movements.

Chapter 1356: Hateful

“I heard that he has already been promoted to the position of the Director of the Construction Bureau. It looks like his personal ability is not bad.” Commander-in-Chief Xia’s focus was only on Ye Zhifan. As for his daughter with heart disease and a tainted record, it was impossible for her to enter the capital city’s political regiment.

However, it was not impossible.

Commander Liu’s expression was a little dark as he replied in a low voice, “It’s not bad indeed. Also, he has outstanding political achievements. He’s cautious and doesn’t have the corrupt way of doing things in the bureaucracy.” It was just that the speed at which he rose was a little astonishing. Especially in the past five years, the speed at which he rose was unbelievably fast.

“Cautious and doesn’t have the corrupt way of doing things in the bureaucracy?” Commander-in-Chief Xia raised his voice slightly. There was a hint of abnormality in it. “Jingguo, I’m afraid you’re only looking at the surface.”

Jingguo, Commander Liu’s name.

“Based on the speed of his promotion, it’s true that he’s cautious. He didn’t leave behind any evidence that can be criticized. However, his way of doing things is questionable. If he was a righteous person, he wouldn’t have any devious thoughts.”

During the memorial service, he used his identity as the representative of the entire village of Shuikou Village to pass the guards and used the introduction from the mayor of Fujun Town to come to him... From this, it could be seen that this person was extremely cautious that he didn’t invite criticism. He tossed the criticism on other people.

At that time, the town mayor of Fujun Town said, “Director Ye is too cautious. He is clearly representing the entire village to attend the memorial service of the old squad leader but he didn’t go up to give his eulogy. Lieutenant general, if I didn’t stop him, Director Ye would have left with his daughter.”

The private plane landed in Fujun Town. As the town mayor, he needed to appear in person and also make some arrangements. Hence, the town mayor of Fujun Town got to talk to Commander-in-Chief Xia.

As for how the mayor of Fujun Town found out that a senior government official was at the memorial service and that Ye Zhifan was preparing to leave with his daughter... Only Ye Zhifan knew about this series of coincidences.

Ye Zhifan spoke up for himself cleverly. "Sorry to disturb you. I wanted to leave earlier but the town mayor stopped me." He even smiled bitterly after he finished speaking.

If he didn't know Ye Jian's family background, Commander-in-Chief Xia would have thought that it was the rashness of the town mayor of Fujun Town and not Ye Zhifan.

He let other people be the bad guys and left the image of a good person for himself... He was too cautious.

Commander Liu didn't have much contact with Ye Zhifan. The few times they met was because of Ye Jian. Thinking about Ye Jian's relationship with Xia Jinyuan and the fact that she was the daughter-in-law that the Commander-in-Chief had chosen, Commander Liu pondered for a moment and said, "Ye Zhifan is not a simple person. His daughter has always been targeting Ye Jian. She always made things difficult for Ye Jian in school."

"We have communicated with Ye Zhifan but the result is the same. Commander-in-Chief, forgive me for being blunt but if his daughter really enters the military, it will be disadvantageous to Ye Jian. Do you want the military or the local forces to take note of her? Like father, like daughter."

The main point was the last sentence, "Like father, like daughter." The father knew how to find ways to secure personal gains, his daughter would definitely learn from him.

"I will take note of it." Commander-in-Chief Xia nodded. His gaze landed on the tomb of the old squad leader that had gone to eternal sleep. He said, "Thank you all for taking care of the old squad leader and Ye Jian all this time. In the future, let Xia Jinyuan take care of Ye Jian. When you guys are free, come and toast the old squad leader often and tell him that Ye Jian is fine."

Chapter 1357: Plan

The funeral was coming to an end. After Commissar Yan finished the last eulogy, the four lieutenants walked to the grave with two wreaths in their hands. They placed the wreaths and saluted. The entire military unit saluted the old squad leader for the last time too. The old squad leader, who had dedicated his entire life to the military, would forever rest here.

It only took half a day for Uncle Gen to be buried. Everything was done according to Uncle Gen's wishes and they accompanied Uncle Gen on his last journey.

Ye Jian watched as the soldiers left one by one. She whispered to Xia Jinyuan, "I want to accompany Grandpa alone. Captain Xia, please tell the lieutenant general. Thank you."

She hadn't had a good chat with Uncle Gen since she came back. She wanted to tell him what kind of training she had during the summer vacation. She really wanted to be alone with him and tell him everything in her heart.

Xia Jinyuan looked at Ye Jian intently. He raised his hand and touched her cheeks with his slender fingers. He said softly, "Okay, we will wait for you outside the memorial park. Ye Zhifan is still outside. I will go out and settle his matters first."

“Okay. Remember to hide your identity. Ye Zhifan is cunning and shrewd. Be careful not to get tricked by him,” reminded Ye Jian.

Ye Zhifan was a calculative person. He was able to figure out a thing or two from just a few words. When talking to him, one needed to guard one’s front line first.

He continued, “He got close to the commander-in-chief probably because he wanted to send Ye Ying into the military unit. There are so many high-ranking officers in the military unit today. We must be wary of him pretending and letting other people think that he is close to the commander-in-chief.”

Ye Jian had never let down her guard against Ye Zhifan. However, she always remembered what Uncle Gen said. She should lay low until she reaches a position that Ye Zhifan couldn’t touch.

Xia Jinyuan didn’t want her to worry so he stroked her eyebrows. “I know. Have a good chat with Uncle.”

Ye Jian believed in Xia Jinyuan’s ability. She gently moved his hand away and smiled. “Go. Thank you for the trouble.” With him around, Ye Zhifan wouldn’t be able to cause too much trouble.

Ye Jian looked up slightly. The smile on her face got deeper. She asked Xia Jinyuan, who had not left, “When did T6 come?”

“He’s staying in Fujun Town for the summer vacation. He will only return to the military unit in the middle of September.” Xia Jinyuan raised his eyebrows when he saw his comrade guarding An Jiabin closely. It seemed like he was really planning to woo An Jiabin.

“I’ll go over first. I’ll pick you up in an hour?”

Ye Jian looked at the time. “There’s no need to fetch me. I will come down myself. Captain Xia, please help me take care of Uncle Chen. I’m a little worried.” Uncle Chen hid his sadness deeply in order not to let her worry. However, no matter how deep he hid it, she could still see it from his tired eyes.

She always took care of the people around her and cared about those who cared about her.

“Okay. You don’t have to worry about what’s happening outside. I’ll take care of everything.” The soldiers had already left. Xia Jinyuan patted her shoulder lightly and turned to leave.

The surroundings became quiet. At six o’clock in the evening, the golden and orange sunset spread out beautifully. The faint golden light also fell, illuminating the mountain and the water as if it was plated with thin gold, making them look more magnificent.

The sun had already sunk completely. A crescent moon was already hanging in the sky. Half of the sky was cold while the other half was like fire. The beauty of these two different sky sceneries was something even a master would find hard to draw.

Chapter 1358: Quiet Wind

Ye Jian’s eyes were red as she looked at the old man’s black and white photo. She said softly, “Grandpa, during the summer vacation, I went to the seaside for training. I entered the only frogman commando team in my country that doesn’t belong to any military district.”

“The training was tough. After the first day, the captain made me wear specially-made shoes and run along the beach. I climbed over the reefs and ran while carrying weights. Fortunately, when you and Principal Chen were training me in the past, I had sandbags tied to my calves so I didn’t embarrass myself on the first day.”

“Captain Xia told me that the captain who trained me is a capable person. His training is known for its harshness. The comrades in the military unit call him ‘Demon King’. However, I don’t think it’s his comrades who gave him this nickname but instead, it’s his codename.”

“The training was indeed harsh. For the first ten days, I only had about three hours of sleep every day. The rest of the time, I was training, diving training, weight-bearing diving training, underwater shooting, combat training, and carrying weapons to swim in rubber diving suits from one island to another overnight.”

“It was tough, but it was fulfilling too. I’ve learned professional knowledge that I’ve never learned before. Grandpa, I like this kind of training. It’s interesting. I can endure it no matter how hard it is. After I sleep, I can continue. My comrades in the team all said that I’m too scary. They feel pressured.”

That year, when Grandpa saved her from the Ye family, he secretly asked Principal Chen to groom her. He trained with her in the mountains and in the cold. When the heat was unbearable, he even accompanied her to the desert. It was not until she slowly stood firm and gained Uncle Chen’s approval that he gradually let go.

It could be said that she was able to achieve what she had today because of Grandpa Gen’s guidance. He was like a lamp. No matter where she went, he would light up her path and tell her not to stray and lose herself.

He knew that she hated Ye Zhifan and his family. He was afraid that she would do something out of line at such a young age. He kept reminding her to look into the distance and find the right path first. She shouldn’t be so impatient. She shouldn’t hit a rock with an egg and ruin her roots.

All these memories seemed to have happened yesterday.

“After the training ended, I didn’t really want to leave. Captain Xia told me that he will send me over during the winter vacation. He also told me that I probably won’t have much time to go home during the four years of military school. I have to train during both holidays.”

“Grandpa, I feel that the military unit is grooming me to be a Special Forces soldier at the frontline. I want to be a Special Forces soldier like Captain Xia too. I want to return with blood and leave with a smile.”

Even without the old man’s reply, Ye Jian felt that the old man who always loved her was always by her side when she saw the kind smile on the old man’s photo.

Ye Ying’s screams could be heard from the foot of the mountain. It sounded as though someone was cutting her flesh. Ye Jian smiled and said, “Grandpa, the Special Forces should be having a hard time.

Captain Xia always reminded me that my current training is just basic training. What do you think is the real training?"

"I really want to see what the real Special Forces training will be like. So, Grandpa, I will not disappoint you." Ye Jian touched the tombstone lightly. The cold touch caused her eyes to tremble slightly. Grandpa had left but she will always remember his words. No matter what happens, she would never do anything to disappoint Grandpa!

Chapter 1359: A Laugh in Your Face

"I will come and see you next time. Ye Zhifan and his daughter are here. I need to go down and deal with them. You're right. As long as I stand up, Ye Ying can only watch. In the future, she can only watch me."

The last sentence was cold and sharp.

Ye Ying, who was dragged away by An Jiaxin could not free herself no matter how she struggled. Also, soldiers passed by occasionally. She didn't want to embarrass herself so she didn't dare to struggle too much.

An Jiaxin took advantage of this and pulled her forcefully. She didn't stop talking. "I know that you're shameless but I still helped you to save some face. Don't thank me. I only helped you this time because your surname is Ye!"

Listening to An Jiaxin's mocking words, Ye Ying wanted to scold her back a few times. However, when she remembered Ye Zhifan's advice, she restrained herself.

An Jiaxin pulled her to the bottom of the park. Just as she was about to pull her outside, Ye Ying got anxious and screamed, "An Jiaxin, if you don't let go of me, don't blame me for being rude!"

"Show me what you will do to me. I'm waiting!" An Jiaxin wasn't afraid of her threats at all. She shouted, "Don't be polite with me. Just show me what you can do! Let everyone see if you can become a military arts soldier with your capabilities. Also, didn't you say that you have heart disease? Ha, I've never heard of anyone with heart disease joining the military!"

Ye Zhifan, who was chasing after them, heard this sentence. He glared at An Jiaxin angrily. "Student, can I trouble you to let go of Ye Ying's hand first? I think you must be tired after dragging her all this way."

T6 turned around and said with a half-smile, "Mister, you don't have to be so nervous. Jiaxin doesn't have any bad intentions. She's just reminding you out of goodwill. She's right. Those with heart disease, regardless of gender, don't meet the requirements for enlistment."

"Yingying, come here." Ye Zhifan didn't want to say because he knew that his daughter didn't have heart disease!

An Jiaxin released her hand and retorted, "Director Ye, if Ye Ying wants to enter the military unit, the entire class will say that it's impossible! If she really enters the military unit, it will be a huge piece of news in Fujun Town!"

Ye Zhifan was a government official. How could he bicker with a child? He smiled and said, "You children always worry about things that have nothing to do with you. Uncle will bring Ye Ying away. You can play among you young people."

The lieutenant general hadn't left. He needed to hurry over. Fortunately, the town mayor of Fujun Town was accompanying him. If not, he wouldn't have an excuse to meet the lieutenant general!

He lowered his head and said to Ye Ying, "Not bad, you didn't argue with her just now. When we meet the lieutenant general later, don't talk about these messy things. Just express your yearning for the army and respect for the soldiers appropriately. As for the rest, I will arrange it."

An Jiaxin's expression changed a few times when she saw that the father and daughter were still trying to gain connections. T6 saw Xia Jinyuan coming down with Ye Jian and reminded her, "That's enough. You have completed your mission today. Leave the rest to Ye Jian and her boyfriend."

Hearing this, An Jiaxin didn't chase after them. She stared at the backs of the father and daughter of the Ye family and gritted her teeth. "How can there be such shameless people? It's disgusting!"

"You worry too much. Ye Jian will take care of her matters." T6 wanted to 'kidnap' An Jiaxin and bring her to him so he decided to take her away first. "I saw that you brought your luggage with you. Where's your luggage? Where did you leave it? Ye Jian still needs to go back to Shuikou Village. You won't be going back, right? Will you report directly to the school?"

Chapter 1360: The Villain's Tricks

An Jiaxin didn't know the young man's thoughts. She told him the truth. "I'm not going back. I'll take the train to school tomorrow. I left my luggage at the hotel. I'll go to the hotel tonight too."

Such an honest girl, he should kidnap her!

One after another, thoughts popped up in T6's mind like bamboo shoots after a spring rain. The more he looked at the girl in front of him, the happier he felt!

As expected of someone who can hang out with Ye Jian. Her qualities, looks, and intelligence were truly not bad!

She was bold and courageous! She was able to beat up the daughter of a director of the Construction Bureau without trembling. Wasn't she bold?

"Why are you looking at me?" An Jiaxin felt that something was wrong with his gaze. Out of instinct, she kept her distance. "Aren't you Ye Jian's boyfriend's friend? Why aren't you going over? Why are you following me?"

She didn't know if her expectations were too high but she didn't feel that this person was a soldier.

Ye Jian's boyfriend was a soldier so she had seen him in military uniform before. However, when An Jiaxin looked at T6, her suspicion got stronger.

He wasn't pale but he wasn't tanned either. His looks were passable and wore clean clothes... However, he wasn't as clean as the soldiers she saw before!

...Is he a fake soldier?

An Jiaxin was guessing randomly. Although T6 couldn't guess what she was thinking, from her expression... his instincts told him that she wasn't thinking positively.

He immediately straightened his face and said, "Ye Jian and I are comrades. I followed her all the way here. Now, Ye Jian and the rest don't have the time to take care of you. We have a rule in our military unit. Your comrades' friends are your friends. They are not free now so I have the responsibility to take care of you."

That was an extraordinarily dignified excuse!

However, it would only work if An Jiaxin had listened to everything. Halfway through, she blinked and smiled. "No need. I think you should help Ye Jian now. That Ye Zhifan is not easy to deal with. As for Ye Ying, she acts everywhere she goes. Someone needs to watch her. Go help Ye Jian, I can go back to the hotel alone."

T6, who was rejected, didn't pester her. He nodded and said, "Yes, I was only planning to drive you to a place that can hail a cab easily. It's not easy to get one here. It's not safe for a girl like you."

An Jiaxin's face was burning. She misunderstood him.

"Oh... Thank, thank you," she mumbled, embarrassed. Her face burned even hotter.

Fortunately, her feelings don't show on her face. Her face was burning hot but she looked the same as usual. It couldn't be helped. Her skin was healthy. There was no sign of redness!

T6 laughed in his heart. He didn't care if Xia Jinyuan saw him or not. He made a hand gesture and left with An Jiaxin.

Xia Jinyuan was happy to see that his comrade didn't even need him to reply before leaving with An Jiaxin. He couldn't help but smile. This fellow forgot his friends when he saw a girl!

"...Ye Jian, I won't stop you. I won't interfere with what you want to do. But, shouldn't you give in to me?" Ye Zhifan's expression turned ugly as he spoke. He was furious. "I'm representing the entire village to attend Uncle Gen's funeral. No matter how much you hate us, you can't be rude."

"Uncle Gen just went and you already dare to be so presumptuous. Ye Jian, do you want to disappoint Uncle Gen?"
