

BOOT CAMP 1471

Chapter 1471: Complicated

"I'm sorry to make you worry. I've been living in Shuikou Village and have never left. When did you come to our village?"

"Some of us retired at the end of the third year after your mother's death. We wrote a letter to the town in September and received a reply at the beginning of October. At the end of December, a retired comrade especially went by before returning home. Only then did we completely believe that you really 'died' due to an accident."

Commissioner Cai let out a long sigh. "Now, I don't understand what's going on. You're still alive. Why did we receive a reply saying that you had an accident? Our comrade also said that you had an accident."

She calculated the time. At that time, she was bullied badly. As a village officer, Ye Zhifan had a close relationship with the Fujun Town government. It was normal for him to reply like this when he received the letter.

The strange thing was, why did his mother's comrades say the same thing?

"If the letter you wrote landed in Ye Zhifan's hands, it's normal for him to reply that I fell into the water and died. To be honest, I feel that it's a miracle that I managed to survive."

Ye Jian said half-jokingly. However, as soon as she spoke, Commissioner Cai's face suddenly turned dark. He asked in a low voice, "Why? Did someone come to look for you?"

In that instant, Ye Jian's heart dropped. There was something wrong with Commissioner Cai's expression and his words!

She was right. There was something suspicious about her mother's sacrifice!

"No one came to look for me. It's just that...." Ye Jian lowered her head. She was thinking about whether she should ask the questions she had to Commissioner Cai. However, could she trust him?

This was their first time meeting. Was she going to ask about the past that might involve many people?

Commissioner Cai lowered his eyes too. Hence, he didn't see the pensive look on Ye Jian's face. He heaved a sigh of relief and was about to speak when the phone in Ye Jian's pocket rang.

Xia Jinyuan called.

Ye Jian looked at the caller ID and stood up without hesitation. "Commissioner Cai, thank you for telling me about my mother. I still have things to do so that I won't disturb your work."

"There are many things about your mother. You...." Commissioner Cai straightened his clothes and stood up. He looked at his old friend's daughter and saw the determination on her face. Her gaze was sharper than her mother's. He paused for a few seconds before continuing, "If you want to know more about your mother, you can contact me anytime."

It was obvious that Commissioner Cai hesitated when he said this. After hesitating, he said this with determination in his eyes.

Ye Jian, who always suspected that her mother's death was suspicious, felt her heart heavy. She thought that she would definitely contact Commissioner Cai because he knew about her mother.

"Okay. Maybe one day, I will come and disturb you." Ye Jian took over the phone number that Commissioner Cai wrote in her notebook at the last minute. She lowered her head and took a look at it. Then, she memorized this set of numbers.

Ye Jian bowed slightly to Commissioner Cai before leaving.

The young female soldier left without looking back. Just like her mother that day, she knew that there was danger and that she might not be able to return. She accepted the mission and left without asking anything.

Ye Jian only knew that when her mother died and returned, the willow tree was green, and the peach blossoms withered. However, she didn't know that when Red Plum left, the sky was covered in snow, and the world was covered in silver. Only the red plums were blooming.

Chapter 1472: The Use of a Boyfriend

The door of the room closed slowly. The young figure walked out of his sight completely. Commissioner Cai slowly sat back on the lounge chair. His expression turned serious. Did his comrade, who was close to him in life and death, lie?

Red Plum's daughter was still alive. Why did he say that the news was confirmed?

What if his comrade really lied?

Commissioner Cai's hands, which were placed casually on the chair's armrest, gradually tightened into fists.

Red Plum's daughter was very smart. She should know something. That was why she was so careful when she spoke. If she knew something, who told her?

What would she do next? When would she call him?

Ye Jian knew that she would definitely call Commissioner Cai. She was so muddle-headed that she didn't notice anything suspicious about her mother's death in her past life. Now that she was back, she would definitely investigate it thoroughly!

Ye Jian's mind was in a mess. She walked steadily and calmly. No one could tell what she was thinking.

She would call, but not now.

“They’re out.” In the car, K7 retracted his military binoculars and said to Q King, who was resting with his eyes closed, “Aren’t you going to get out of the car to welcome her?”

The car stopped at the side of the road where the hotel’s revolving door could be seen at a glance. Xia Jinyuan didn’t need to use his binoculars. His deep gaze passed through the cold night sky and the faint light. He saw his girl walking over calmly with her head held high and chest puffed up with sorrow that no one would notice.

He placed his hand on the door lock. Xia Jinyuan didn’t plan to get out of the car at first, but he still pushed the door open.

White Crane, who was sitting in the passenger seat, was still using his binoculars to observe the situation. After adjusting his focus, he could already clearly see the face of the girl who walked out. However, just as he was about to take a closer look, the girl, who was originally looking in front, suddenly had a change in her gaze. Her gaze was like a blade and a sword as she looked straight at him.

White Crane was so shocked that he quickly put down his binoculars. He turned his head and said to K7, “Her sensitivity is quite high. I was discovered the moment I adjusted the focus.”

“White Crane, why does the major general want to groom her so much? Why can she be remembered by the Leader? Why is the military opening a door for her? When you interact with her, you will naturally know.” After saying a few ‘why,’ K7 didn’t explain clearly. He started the car and waited for his two comrades to return.

White Crane was deep in thought as he looked outside. Why? It was naturally because she was outstanding and had abilities that no one could surpass.

Before they even met, he was already frightened by her sensitivity.

The car was silent. Outside, Ye Jian saw Xia Jinyuan walking towards her and quickened her pace.

“Sorry to keep you waiting.” She stopped in her tracks and said, “I was delayed by something. It’s personal.” She emphasized her words.

Xia Jinyuan raised his hand and patted her shoulder gently. “It’s all right. Get in the car first.”

She said that she was delayed because of personal matters... Based on his understanding of her, she would tell him about it.

If she wanted to hide it, his Little Fox wouldn’t mention it.

The green belt of the hotel was filled with light and white street lamps. There were also ground lamps placed near the roots of the bushes. Although Ye Jian was standing in the light, her bright face was still hazy. Xia Jinyuan saw her expression clearly... It was filled with sorrow and heartache.

Chapter 1473: Male Sex

What happened?

Xia Jinyuan stood beside her and looked at Ye Jian intently. His right hand, which was patting her shoulder, slowly lowered. Under the cover of the night, his slender fingers touched her fingertips. The touch was so cold that he held her hand tightly.

Suppressing his doubts, he said in a gentle and low voice, "Now is not the time to think about personal matters. No matter how serious the matter is, we have to suppress it temporarily." Holding her hand tightly, the two of them walked side by side. "Besides K7, there's another comrade from the Snow Region Brigade with the nickname 'White Crane' in the car."

"I received an order from the military and a call from the Guilin police. We need to rush to Huzhou overnight and take the plane to Guilin at 6:17 A.M. tomorrow." His hand was very warm. The warmth from his palm and the tip of his finger warmed Ye Jian's cold fingers. "That's why you should forget about your personal matters."

"We are soldiers. When the order is given and the mission is carried out, our personal matters are nothing compared to national affairs. You know this without me saying it."

"Hide your sorrow and force back the tears in your eyes. Ye Jian, raise your chin and remember your identity."

It was impossible to be comforted during a mission.

Ye Jian's eyes were a little red. She took a deep breath. Thanks to the night sky and the cold night wind, she didn't lose her composure. She felt the power coming from him and nodded.

When she opened her eyes again, her eyes were clear. There was no water in them. There was no sorrow on her body either. There was only the cold aura of a soldier. She was smart and calm. She had already unsheathed her sword.

White Crane was already standing in front of the car door. When Ye Jian came over, he immediately took the initiative to shake hands with her. His actions had the elegance and poise of someone from a prestigious family. "Hello, Ye Jian. I'm the White Crane. I've always heard my comrades talking about you. Today, when I saw you, your gaze stunned me."

When he mentioned it, Ye Jian realized that the person who was watching her was White Crane.

"Hello, White Crane. I'm Ye Jian. I'm sorry for making a fuss just now." As she retracted her hand, Ye Jian had already finished sizing up White Crane. A thought kept popping up in her mind.

Why were the Special Forces soldiers of the Snow Region Brigade all so handsome? They were all so good-looking!

Not only were they good-looking, but their figures were also one in a million. They were tall and straight like pine trees and slender like green bamboo. As for their figures, there was no need to mention them. They had broad shoulders, narrow waists, and long legs. When they wore uniforms, you didn't need to look at their faces. Just their figures were enough to attract a lot of attention.

Ye Jian suddenly felt fortunate that she had a firm mindset. She didn't have much interest in men and wasn't infatuated with them. If not, she would really focus on looking at men every day when she was faced with such a group of handsome and well-built male soldiers.

After sizing him up, Ye Jian retracted her gaze calmly. She wasn't attracted by White Crane's handsome face at all. She stood tall and straight like a pine tree. When she moved, she exuded an inviolable military might.

White Crane's heart turned cold when he saw this. He had a good impression of Ye Jian. He was happy to be comrades with an outstanding female soldier.

Xia Jinyuan opened the car door and said to Ye Jian, "Let's talk in the car."

White Crane smiled at Ye Jian and got into the car. At the same time, he said to K7, "Very good!"

Chapter 1474: Extremely Extraordinary

He just met her and he said that she was not bad? K7 glanced at him. When he heard the sound of the door closing behind him, he released the brake and stepped on the accelerator. The car with good performance soared a few meters.

After settling the issue at Tongzhou International Hotel, they had to be careful about their next important mission.

In the car, Ye Jian contacted Pigeon and informed the director-general that she was safe. Then, she discussed the mission with Xia Jinyuan and the other two.

"Your mission is to find a few police officers who died in the line of duty so that they can come back in one piece to their families." Xia Jinyuan first discussed Ye Jian's mission because she would be the first to infiltrate the village. "There's a young lady called Fu Hui that will secretly help you in the village. You can stay at her house at night."

Fu Hui was the only senior high school student in the village. Her parents used to be honest farmers, but after joining the cult, they did a few things that made her conscience hurt. In order to make her parents repent, Fu Hui chose to report them.

Her report came extremely timely. The police in Guilin's Yuyang City knew that the higher-ups were secretly investigating the location of the base camp of this evil cult. Hence, they secretly sent people to investigate.

Unexpectedly, the people they sent never returned.

It alarmed them. The organization specialists and the person-in-charge of the Civil Affairs Bureau were sent to carry out the mission to attack the evil cult.

In the past few months, the number of people they caught wasn't in the unit of 'person.' They were in the unit of 'hundreds.' During the Si family's celebration, they used themselves as bait. Within two days, they caught another group of criminals who had a certain status in the cult.

Among them, "Mr. Charlie" was the most important.

According to Mr. Charlie's statement, the "big commissioner" wanted to escape overseas because of the tight situation in the country. Charlie was in charge of his overseas affairs.

That was why Xia Jinyuan and the rest drove to Huzhou overnight. They went to a mountain village in Guilin to catch the 'Grand Commissioner.'

"This is the phone of the overseas criminal, Charlie, and his voice. Listen to it first." Xia Jinyuan handed a phone and a recording notebook to Ye Jian. "During this period of time, you need to disguise as Charlie's voice and contact the Commissioner at any time. Keep him in the village and tell him that the overseas procedures are in progress."

White Crane looked at Ye Jian through the rear-view mirror. Oral skill! Ye Jian knew how to use oral skills. It was said that she could imitate anyone's voice!

It was unbelievable.

Oral skills originated from ancient times. They imitated the sounds of animals to cheat their prey to get food. During the Warring States Period, the story of "Meng Chuan barging into the valley at night" was the earliest usage of oral skills in military affairs. From the Song Dynasty to the Republic of China, it was popular on the Shanghai side.

However, most people imitate animal sounds. It was rare to imitate a person's voice.

In the mirror, he saw Ye Jian turning on the recording pen. Charlie's voice came from inside the car. Ye Jian frowned slightly and listened attentively. Her lips were moving slightly too. If you didn't look carefully, you wouldn't be able to see it.

After listening to it twice, Ye Jian turned off the recorder. "Let me try it. Do you think it sounds like this?"

"No, no, no. I don't know much about this. Also, I'm not from your country. You don't have the right to arrest me. Damn it, let go of me! I want to see my lawyer!" White Crane heard the voice and froze.

Chapter 1475: Too Shocking

If he didn't know who was sitting behind him, he would have thought that she was possessed!

Similar. Too similar. No, it couldn't be said that they were alike. It should be said that they were identical!

How could she learn it so well?

No one could compare to her with oral skills!

It could be said that Ye Jian's first move had stunned White Crane. It also allowed him to understand why the military valued Ye Jian so much that they allowed her to appear first when all the arrangements had been made.

It was too shocking!

This kind of talent could be used by the military even if she was mediocre in other aspects. Moreover, Ye Jian was a talent that developed in all aspects. If the military didn't discover her, it would be a loss for the military!

For a moment, White Crane couldn't calm down. It was their first time meeting, and Ye Jian had already conquered him.

After that, Xia Jinyuan raised his opinion. "Speed up your speaking speed. Raise your tone a little more. It's a little arrogant. Also, Charlie likes to order people. When he speaks, he's very domineering. He doesn't have to be too gentle."

"Okay, I'll try again." Ye Jian nodded. She didn't repeat what Charlie said in the recording pen. Instead, she started chatting.

At this moment, not to mention White Crane, even K7's palms, which were holding the steering wheel, were sweaty. K7 had never heard of Ye Jian's ability to speak.

The two people in the front row were stunned when they heard this. They would never believe it if they didn't see it with their own eyes. Even if they saw it with their own eyes, they still found it unbelievable!

Xia Jinyuan's talent in languages was not weaker than Ye Jian's. His expression didn't change much as he guided her. After about ten minutes, he nodded. "It's almost done. It's not a problem to communicate over the phone."

She asked White Crane, "Do you have any advice?"

"No, no! Not at all," White Crane hurriedly replied. He turned around and gave Ye Jian a thumbs up. "I can only admire you!"

This skill was amazing!

Xia Jinyuan knew what his comrade was thinking. He was as shocked as he was.

In the past, when he suddenly heard a man's voice coming out of the mouth of a young lady who looked weak and delicate he was very shocked.

Fortunately, he hid himself well and didn't let her see his expression.

Ye Jian pursed her lips and smiled. "My voice is wider than other people's. It will be easier for me to learn this." Besides the elderly and children, she had no problem with the rest.

In her past life, this was one of her escape devices. She could play several roles in a room and scare the people sent by Ye Ying and Ye Zhifan many times.

“If I want to learn from you...” When White Crane heard her opening her mouth, he subconsciously continued. After speaking half a sentence, he realized that he needed to think carefully. After pausing for a few seconds, White Crane continued, “This isn’t an easy thing to learn. It should be said that there aren’t many people in the entire country who can do what you did!”

Ye Jian thought about it and agreed.

In her past life, she learned this skill unintentionally. When she realized that she was talented in this aspect, she was shocked too.

Chapter 1476: A Couple Between Men and Women, Work Is Not Tired

“It’s a little difficult, but if everyone knows how to do it, I won’t have anything to do with it,” she teased. Her eyes were curved, and her bright black eyes were smiling.

Her words made the three of them laugh. K7 said calmly, “It’s fine if you don’t say anything, but if you do, you will amaze everyone. I know that your shooting skills are very accurate, but I didn’t know that you even know such amazing skill.”

It seemed like the quiet K7 always spoke more when he was with Ye Jian.

Xia Jinyuan was already used to it. White Crane, who didn’t know, was still a little surprised. “K7, is there any good news for you today? Within half an hour, you said ten sentences. Every sentence was more than five words.”

“He will be more gentlemanly in front of Ye Jian.” Xia Jinyuan answered for his comrade and continued, “Not just him, but G3 too. As long as they are in front of Ye Jian, they have a lot of things to say.”

The car had already left Tongzhou City. At the next junction, they would enter the highway that led to Huzhou. K7, who didn’t need any navigation, seemed to be very familiar with Tongzhou. The car made many turns and soon reached the highway.

As he entered the highway intersection, he replied calmly, “What else can a bunch of old men say? Don’t they know that the opposite sex attracts the opposite sex?”

“It looks like I need to have a chat with the political commissary. I need to tell the political commissary that our K7’s mind is a little empty and needs to interact more with the female soldiers.” Xia Jinyuan raised his eyebrows and smiled gently. “We’re a bunch of men. K7 has suffered.”

K7 continued with a straight face, “You can also ask the military for more female soldiers who are as good as Ye Jian. It’s not tiring to work together.”

“Impressive. You even know this.” White Crane was even more surprised. Who was K7? He was a man who was even more indifferent than a monk! Besides training, entering the laboratory, and reading books in the military unit, he had no other hobbies. His life was as calm as a cup of water.

In the team, there was a phrase that described K7. “The root of wisdom cuts off the root of love and goes back to seclusion in Mount Zhongnan.” It meant that the coldness on K7’s body was so cold that it reached his soul. Q King was cold too, but the coldness was different from K7’s. K7’s coldness was like cutting off his emotions.

How could he joke around with such a person? He even made fun of himself by saying that the opposite sex was attracted to him.

They had been comrades for six years. This was the first time he heard K7 say such words.

“I think everyone will be happy to have more comrades like Ye Jian.” K7 didn’t care about how surprised his comrade was. He just said what he wanted to say.

He was just telling the truth.

Xia Jinyuan, who was always open-minded and had always been a bit of a hooligan, felt that what K7 said was not unreasonable. However, if he used his Little Fox as the standard... Xia Jinyuan felt that if he really gave such a suggestion to the military, it would be too difficult for them.

He leaned forward slightly and said in a low and magnetic voice, “I can send you to the art troupe, but we don’t need to find female soldiers like Ye Jian. Let’s not make things difficult for the military.”

K7 smiled. He didn’t smile often so when he laughed, it made people nervous. It was mysterious and meaningful.

White Crane, who was amazed by Ye Jian’s performance, smiled too. He had already seen how capable Ye Jian was. Just one or two moves were enough to send waves of shock through his heart.

Chapter 1477: You’re So Cute

Finding a few female soldiers like her was indeed difficult for the military.

Indeed.

Major Xia Jinyuan, who could perfectly portray his elegance at any time, changed his sitting position. He looked at Ye Jian with a gentle gaze in his deep black eyes. He looked at the girl he loved and stared at her deeply. It was as if he wanted to carve her into his eyes. Even if he closed his eyes, she was the only thing in his eyes.

Ye Jian felt awkward under his gaze. Why was he staring at her?

In the past, when he saw her acting unnaturally, he would comfort her. After all, she had lived for two lifetimes. She had never met someone like him before.

Today, Ye Jian realized that she was dreaming. She underestimated this elegant and dangerous man.

Time kept flowing. Xia Jinyuan was getting more and more mature. His aura was better than before, so that she couldn't bear to look at him.

He was too gentle. So gentle that his gaze seemed to be filled with electricity. When she looked at him, the electricity would flow into her heart and make her breathing messy.

Receiving her glare, Xia Jinyuan raised his eyebrows elegantly. His noble look contained a shamelessness that Ye Jian couldn't do anything about. She must find an opportunity to tell him that she wasn't used to flirting with him in front of her comrades. It was too awkward!

It was fine if K7 knew about the two of them. However, White Crane didn't know. The comrades who were able to enter the Snow Region Brigade were all very meticulous. If they were not careful, they might notice something amiss. If White Crane saw something amiss, she... she would definitely jump off the car and leave!

While the comrade in front wasn't paying attention, Ye Jian glared at him and told him with her eyes, "If you continue looking, I will ignore you!"

"Cough, cough, cough..." Xia Jinyuan understood the warning in his girlfriend's eyes and suddenly started coughing.

If he continued looking she would ignore him?

Was this a warning?

He only saw her cuteness.

Xia Jinyuan, who always knew when to stop, didn't continue watching. He didn't want his girl to feel awkward and unnatural in front of her comrades.

He retracted his gaze and coughed with his fist against his thin lips. There was a smile in his dark and cold eyes.

From K7's relaxed tone, he could tell that K7 really treated Ye Jian as his comrade.

He couldn't help but look at Ye Jian through the rearview mirror. It was a little dark inside the car, so that he couldn't see her facial features clearly. However, when he looked over, he could feel that her eyes had the same spirit as his. They had the same beliefs and the same goal.

After looking at her and sizing her up for a while, White Crane understood why his comrades always praised her every time they came back from a mission.

It could be said that the Snow Region Brigade knew about Ye Jian. The comrades who had never seen Ye Jian were curious about her too. Every time they saw Xia Jinyuan going back, a few comrades would come over to ask about her.

Some comrades would smile and ask their captain when he would bring Ye Jian to their team or when they could become comrades.

Chapter 1478: Just Look Up To Her

Through the rearview mirror, White Crane looked at Ye Jian with a kind gaze. When he saw Ye Jian smiling back at him in the mirror, he couldn't help but smile too.

He thought that he was the same as K7. He looked forward to her arrival and hoped that she would become their comrade.

He finally understood why his comrades who fought together with Ye Jian looked forward to fighting alongside her again.

In her eyes, her expression, and her speech, you would feel safe from the bottom of your heart. It was so safe that you could trust your back to her on the battlefield.

The journey to Huzhou was a bit far. Even though the four of them were relaxed and didn't continue chatting, they needed to maintain a certain amount of energy to deal with the danger they were about to face.

The four of them took turns driving. Everyone only needed to drive for three hours.

Xia Jinyuan and the rest didn't mention that Ye Jian didn't need to drive and could rest all the time. They were comrades who fought together, so they could share happiness and suffer together. Since she was responsible for her comrades after driving for three hours, it meant that she could fight with them too. There was no need for special arrangements.

The night was getting darker. Ye Jian, who was in charge of driving in the early morning, had already fallen asleep. Her breathing was long and her exquisite and picturesque eyebrows even contained a sweet smile. She completely relaxed and fell asleep.

White Crane in the front row had already fallen asleep. Major Xia, who was waiting for his girlfriend to fall asleep, raised his hand when he saw the car driving into the tunnel. When the car drove out of the tunnel, Ye Jian, who was sleeping with her head on the window, had already fallen asleep with her head on his shoulder.

Major Xia closed his eyes in satisfaction.

The three of them entered dreamland.

Someone rushed into the elevator with the cool night breeze. He pressed the button for the floor he was supposed to reach. Ye Zhifan's face was as dark as the clouds.

“Why do you have to rush over so late at night? Can’t we talk about it tomorrow? What urgent matter can Ye Zhixiang and her husband have? It’s most likely related to that old woman again!” Sun Dongqing kept nagging from home to the hotel. “Listen up. If she wants me to take care of that old woman, no way!”

“Be vigilant. Don’t let her cry and make a fuss. Your heart will soften. You treat her as a younger sister, but does she treat you as an older brother? Never!”

“When she was young, she always created trouble. Hasn’t she done enough to drive a wedge between us? Haven’t you accused me many times? I have a huge grudge against her. I won’t be able to solve it in this lifetime.”

She was still talking and didn’t notice the vicious look on Ye Zhifan’s face. Ye Ying saw it, and her heart pounded furiously.

She pulled her mother secretly and said softly, “Mom, aren’t you tired after talking for so long? You haven’t stopped since we left the house to the hotel. We’re already here. Do you still want us to go back now? I know what to do. Don’t keep talking about it.”

Her voice got lower and lower as she spoke. “Can’t you see that Dad is in a bad mood? Can you at least understand him?”

Sun Dongqing had always listened to her daughter’s words. When she heard this, she snorted and stopped nagging.

Ye Zhifan didn’t want to interact with his wife anymore. It was useless to talk to her. Besides quarreling and creating a fuss, he couldn’t think of anything else she could do.

Once in a while, she would be smart.

Chapter 1479: That Pleasurable Torture

When they arrived at Ye Zhixiang’s room, Ye Ying knocked on the door. “Aunt, I’m Ye Ying. Dad, Mom, and I are here to see you.”

The moment she finished speaking, the locked hotel room opened.

Ye Zhixiang, who was wearing a black trench coat, stood in front of the family of three with a gloomy face. Ever since she confirmed that the person standing on the city wall was Ye Jian, she didn’t feel at ease for a second.

She looked at Ye Zhifan and said with trembling lips, “Brother, something big happened.”

Her expression was so ugly that Sun Dongqing, who wanted to show off her power, couldn’t help but jump in fright. What happened? The commotion made her panic.

The room was filled with the smell of smoke. Sun Yaozu, who had smoked half a pack of cigarettes while waiting, stood up. His expression was bad, but the fierceness in his voice didn't change. "Something troublesome has happened. Second Brother, we need to discuss how to solve it. Look at the television. We need to start from here."

Sun Dongqing took a glance and retracted her gaze. She rolled her eyes and said in a weird tone, "Isn't it just a trip to the capital city? Do you need to show it off to us? Do you think I haven't been there?"

Her face turned pale instantly. Her fingers trembled as she pointed at the familiar figure that she hated the most. "Dad, Ye Jian, look, it's Ye Jian!"

Ye Zhifan saw it a few steps later than his daughter. He narrowed his eyes and glared at the figure on the television.

"...This, this, this...." After the reminder, Sun Dongqing finally saw Ye Jian. She looked at her in disbelief and stuttered, "This, this, this... Isn't this the city gate tower? Why is she standing with the leader?"

Everyone wanted to know! Everyone wanted to know how Ye Jian stood together with the country's leaders!

Ye Ying, who was leaning against the bed, fell onto the bed. The photo agitated her. She was in a trance. She kept muttering, "How is this possible? How is this possible? No, no, no!"

Sun Yaozu cursed in his heart when he saw that the mother and daughter didn't believe him and kept repeating things like "no."

Damn it, I'm not asking you to listen to bullsh*t!

"Niece Ying, your aunt took a video with a DVD player. You don't believe it? Do you think I'm scaring you? Look at the video? Look here." He pointed at the DVD player on the coffee table and glanced at Ye Ying. Then, he said to Ye Zhifan, "Brother, what do you think we should do?"

"That wicked girl accompanied the leaders of the country to the celebration and even stood on the city tower to accompany them! I asked you to cripple her but you f**king sent her to the leaders of the country yourself!"

"Second Brother, if you don't give me an explanation, I won't let you off."

Sun Dongqing didn't think about what to do next. She rushed over and picked up the DVD player on the coffee table. Her hands trembled as she pressed on it randomly. "How do I do this? How do I do this?! I want to watch the video. I want to watch the video!"

Panicking. She was really panicking!

Ye Ying got up from the bed and stumbled over. Her body was trembling. "Mom, show me, show me! I want to see!"

Chapter 1480: Internal Strife

Ye Ying's reaction was bigger than anyone else present. After snatching the camera, the more anxious she was, the less she knew how to use it. Her lips trembled as she pressed hard on the function key. Her strength was so great that the tips of her fingers turned white.

How was this possible? How was this possible?

She just accepted that Ye Jian walked further and stood higher than her. She finally managed to adjust her mindset. Why did something that she couldn't accept happen again? Why?!

Ye Jian was stronger than her now. She would accept it!

As long as he worked hard, she would surpass her one day! She would return to the past and let Ye Jian only be able to look up to her!

What happened? What happened?!

Ye Ying's face was pale and she looked crazy. She was a mess.

She pressed for a long time but didn't see what she wanted to see. Ye Ying raised her head abruptly and shouted at Ye Zhixiang, "What rubbish! What rubbish did you buy?"

"How can you say that she's a quasi university student? She doesn't even know how to use a small video recorder." Ye Zhixiang glanced at Ye Ying with contempt and said sarcastically, "No wonder she's always worse than Ye Jian. She's just stupid!"

"B*tch, shut up!" Sun Dongqing, who was defending her daughter, jumped out immediately and scolded her in a sharp voice. "You're so shameless. Yingying even called you Auntie. You're a b*tch! You're not worthy!"

Ye Zhixiang wouldn't be insulted like this. When she heard this, she screamed and pounced on Sun Dongqing like a shrew. "Sun Dongqing, how dare you scold me! I will tear your mouth apart!"

She pounced over and started fighting with Sun Dongqing. She scratched her face with her hands and raised her leg to kick her ruthlessly. Sun Dongqing, who didn't expect Ye Zhixiang to attack, didn't react in time and suffered a few losses.

"Scold you? Not only will I scold you, I will hit you too!" Ye Zhixiang, who had the upper hand, scolded Sun Dongqing harshly. She didn't learn Grandma Ye's smarts, but she learned how to scold and attack people. "No wonder you gave birth to such a stupid thing like Ye Ying! She is not as good as Ye Jian, but she still thinks highly of herself! She wants to compete with Ye Jian? She won't even have a chance in her next life!"

Sun Yaozu took a look and said to Ye Zhifan gloomily, "Second Brother, why don't you care about sister-in-law? She's the wife of a provincial office cadre. Why is she acting like a shrew?"

He didn't have any intention of stopping the fight.

“It’s time for Zhixiang to be disciplined too. Mom doesn’t have the energy now so let her sister-in-law do it.” Ye Zhifan didn’t have any intention of stopping the fight. Sun Dongqing was always good at fighting.

No one expected Ye Ying to have such a crazy expression on her face. Ye Zhixiang stepped on her sore spot. The last bit of rationality she had left collapsed when Ye Zhixiang said, “She wants to compete with Ye Jian? She won’t have a chance in her next life!”

Her eyes were bloodshot and her facial features were distorted. She looked around the room fiercely. When the four adults weren’t looking, she picked up two teacups and approached Ye Zhixiang.

Just like what Ye Zhifan thought, Sun Dongqing wouldn’t suffer in a fight.

She pressed Ye Zhixiang onto the ground and sat on her like a horse. She scolded Ye Zhixiang furiously, “If you want to fight with me, you should open your eyes and see who I am! How dare you scold Yingying? Your mouth should be torn apart.”

Ye Zhixiang wasn’t someone to be trifled with. As long as she could move her hands, she would be able to hit her back.

“She deserves to be stepped on by Ye Jian! She’s as stupid as her mother... Ah!”

The scolding suddenly became a shrill scream. Ye Zhixiang, whose forehead was hit, instinctively covered her face and shouted, “Murder! Murder!”
