

BOOT CAMP 1481

Chapter 1481: Escape

Holding two porcelain cups in her hand, Ye Ying smashed Ye Zhixiang's head, face, and mouth ferociously. She didn't say a word. She just kept hitting Ye Zhixiang.

Damn it!

She said that she was not as good as Ye Jian. She deserved to be hit!

Whoever dared to talk about her like this deserved to die!

Sun Dongqing was stunned. She was stunned by Ye Ying's ruthless actions. She looked at her daughter, who was hitting Ye Zhixiang again and again. She couldn't react at all.

She wasn't the only one who was stunned. Even the fierce Sun Yaozu was shocked. Who would have thought that a young lady would be so ruthless? She smashed a porcelain cup on someone's head.

This was trying to kill someone!

Everyone in the room was 'frightened' by the scene in front of them. It happened too suddenly, and they weren't mentally prepared at all. Because it happened too suddenly, they didn't have any foresight. Even Ye Zhifan's mind went blank for a few seconds.

"Ye Ying!" Ye Zhifan was the first to react. He rushed forward and grabbed Ye Ying's shoulder with his arm. He pulled her back forcefully and pulled her to the ground.

Ye Ying couldn't take it anymore. "I want to kill her! I want to kill her! Let me go! Let me go!" She struggled to get up from the thick carpet. She waved the two porcelain cups in her hands that were stained with blood. Her eyes were red as though she was possessed. "I want to kill her! I want to kill her!"

Ye Zhifan couldn't control her anymore. The back of his hand was hit too. He hugged Ye Ying and shouted at Sun Yaozu, "Why are you still standing there? Take the cup away from her!"

Then, he said to Sun Dongqing, "Call 120!"

Ye Zhixiang screamed in pain. Blood kept flowing out from the gaps between her fingers. The carpet... was soaked in blood!

If anything happened to Ye Zhixiang today, his daughter would be ruined! Completely ruined!

Sun Dongqing climbed down from Ye Zhixiang's body and found her handbag. She pulled out the emergency number.

Sun Yaozu reacted too. He rushed up and snatched the cup from Ye Ying's hand. Then, he kicked Ye Ying's chest. "Damn it! I didn't expect this person to be so ruthless!"

His wife was beaten up. Even if he didn't have many feelings, he wouldn't allow her to be bullied!

Ye Zhifan didn't have the time to stop him. He watched as his daughter fainted on the spot. Her eyes rolled back and she fainted.

He heaved a sigh of relief.

There were no screams from Ye Ying in the noisy room. Only Ye Zhixiang's screams could be heard. Sun Dongqing looked at the blood flowing out from between her fingers. Her heart pounded furiously.

Things were getting out of hand!

"Take our daughter away. Hurry!" Ye Zhifan was panicking too. However, he knew that he needed to clean up this mess. He needed to take his daughter away as soon as possible so that the medical staff wouldn't see her. "Take our daughter's passport and go straight to the airport! Just fly somewhere and don't stay in the provincial city! Call me immediately after you buy a plane ticket to any city!"

He wouldn't let go of Sun Yaozu so easily. He would send his daughter away before he could react!

Sun Dongqing, who was in a panic, listened to her husband's arrangements. Her hair was messy as she rolled up her handbag and took over her fainted daughter. Then, she carried Ye Ying, who was at least 165 centimeters tall and weighed around 94 pounds, and left the hotel quickly.

Chapter 1482: Good Influence

Initially, he came because of Ye Jian, but Ye Zhixiang ended up in the hospital in the end. Her nose bridge was broken, and her head, forehead, and chin were all heavily injured. The back of her hand was smashed, and her bones cracked... When the results were out, Ye Zhifan's hand was trembling as she held the diagnosis.

"It's hard to explain this matter. Yingying is in big trouble." He muttered softly to himself, "She gave Sun Yaozu a handle. Trouble is coming."

Ye Zhifan sat down tiredly. He closed his eyes and sat quietly like a statue.

Ye Jian, whom he wanted to cripple, became an important figure. She accompanied the leaders of the country to the city tower to watch the celebration. She groomed herself meticulously and wanted to become an illustrious daughter.

He couldn't understand how things ended up in such an embarrassing state.

He wanted to ask Ye Jian what happened in the second year of junior high. Why did she suddenly wake up and improve so much?

She worked hard and made it big. However, she couldn't sit still.

The dragon jade pendant, Ye Xinfan, Sun Xueqing... Ye Zhifan, thinking about the past, placed his hands on his face and buried his head deeply. His back, which was always straight, bent down too.

Ye Jian, who was thousands of miles away, didn't know what was on Ye Zhifan's mind. She was still sleeping soundly with her head on Xia Jinyuan's shoulder. K7 and White Crane didn't even notice that they were changing shifts.

At two o'clock in the morning, Xia Jinyuan gently held Ye Jian's shoulder. His movements were slow and gentle as he let her lean against the car window again. He said to White Crane sitting behind him, "Let her rest her head by the car window. Change her pillow left and right. She won't fall down."

White Crane, who didn't know anything about the two of them, nodded and said, "I will pay attention to adjusting her position."

K7, who was sitting in the front row with his eyes closed, blinked. J5 and V7 always said that Q King was shameless... He was indeed shameless!

Ye Jian felt that it was funny. He really knew how to find excuses!

At five o'clock in the morning, Ye Jian prepared to change shifts with Xia Jinyuan. She drove to the Huzhou Airport to catch the earliest plane to Guilin's Yang City.

The plane tickets had already been booked. The four of them boarded the plane at 7:15 A.M.

The news came from Pigeon that the director-general would also take a plane to Guilin. After a night of interrogation, he managed to pry out a lot of clues from Charlie's mouth as well as the crimes that weren't discovered. The director-general was furious!

"Pigeon's interrogation skills have improved again." Knowing the results, Xia Jinyuan smiled at White Crane and said, "He said that they were easily frightened. He didn't even use any big moves before they confessed."

White Crane thought of Pigeon's interrogation methods and sneered, "There are specialists in the field. He's a psychologist, after all."

There were many talents in the Snow Region Brigade. Any one of them would be better than the average person. Every one of them had several titles.

Ye Jian, who was sitting in the middle, had a calm smile on her face. She watched the two of them talking quietly. Her comrades were so powerful. How could she fall behind?

When you are with the strong, you will chase after their footsteps wholeheartedly and learn from them. This is to motivate yourself so that you can constantly improve and grow. This is the principle of 'One is marked by the company one keeps.'

The plane landed at 10:30 A.M. Ye Jian got on an old and dilapidated bus and headed to the small mountain village deep in the mountains. It was already 1:00 P.M.

The car was heavily overloaded. Ye Jian, who was sitting at the back, pushed open the window and let the fresh air blow away the dullness in the car. Occasionally, her gaze would land on the woman at the front and then move away lightly.

This was her target.

Chapter 1483: Trouble

Ye Jian glanced at her secretly and retracted her gaze calmly. She lowered her head and took out a small silver phone from her pocket.

The signal in the mountain wasn't good. Before they left, Major Xia and the rest thought of this problem. White Crane gave her a small instrument the size of a palm specially used to receive signals. Once she entered the mountain, she would be able to receive a signal once she turned it on.

Her fingers were lazily playing with the keyboard on her phone. The clicking sound of the keys could be heard from time to time. It was a message that she was very bored and frustrated.

Sitting with Ye Jian was a young man who was a worker returning to the village. He was a little reserved and didn't dare to lean on his seat.

Every time he glanced at the pretty and young girl beside him, he seemed even more nervous.

Ye Jian felt bad for him.

After playing with her phone for a while, Ye Jian lowered her eyes and covered them. Then, she casually placed her phone in her pocket and closed her eyes with a 'preoccupied' expression.

Ye Jian's target looked at her secretly many times. She sized up Ye Jian's attire and observed her expression.

In the end, she seemed to have confirmed something. She opened her exquisite handbag with her hands that were painted red. She fumbled around in her bag for a while before retracting her hand.

"Hold on tight, hold on tight," The driver said loudly, reminding the passengers to stand properly to prevent falling when the bus made a sharp turn.

As the bus started to turn, the people in the bus started to fall in one direction. Then, they fell in the other direction. After two consecutive turns, the passengers on the bus swayed over and over again.

Some people wanted to get on the bus halfway. They probably didn't want to stand in front, so they squeezed their way to the back. The passengers who got squeezed said, "Why are you squeezing? There are no seats at the back!"

"I like to stand at the back. What can you do to me?" The person who got on the bus was a sloppy man. He used the simplest and crudest language to reply to the passengers who were talking about him.

Someone reminded softly, "Don't provoke him. The hooligans in this area usually rely on stopping foreign cars to earn money for their livelihood. If they sleep on the road without paying, they won't be able to get up. The villagers call him 'Old Rascal.'"

Most people wouldn't provoke such a person. They were afraid of getting into trouble.

The man with the nickname 'Old Rascal' wasn't angry. Instead, he felt proud. He squeezed his way to the back and exchanged glances with the woman that Ye Jian was staring at. He saw the woman looking at Ye Jian.

Old Rascal immediately looked in the direction of her gaze. When he saw Ye Jian, his dirty yellow eyes widened. Something good had come.

Sister Li's was a good judge of character indeed!

The two of them exchanged glances silently. Old Rascal walked over to the young man sitting beside Ye Jian and said, "Stand up. I want to sit here."

His voice was just like his nickname, shameless and barbaric. "I'm counting to three. If you don't stand up, I'm going to hit you."

The young man was naturally unwilling. However, when he saw the man suddenly taking out a small knife from his pocket, his expression changed. He lowered his head and hugged his old backpack tightly. Then, he stood up silently.

Ye Jian didn't open her eyes. As the bus shook, her body swayed too. She maintained her balance and didn't move left or right.

Chapter 1484: Undercover

"Little girl, it's so tiring for you to sit like this. Come, lean on Big Brother's shoulder. I guarantee that you will be able to sit comfortably." After sitting down for less than two minutes, the sloppy Old Rascal started speaking rudely. "Don't be embarrassed. When you go outside, you need to rely on friends. Don't you agree?"

After he finished speaking, he reached out and wanted to hug Ye Jian's shoulder.

His action caused a cold look to flash past Ye Jian's eyes. She opened her eyes and stared at him without any fear like a newborn calf. "You better take your dirty hand away. If not, I will call the police."

After getting on the bus, this person exchanged glances with the target. Was he going to play a duet?

Ye Jian's face was tense. She stared coldly at the man who wanted to touch her. She needed to enter the village to meet Fu Hui. After the police investigation, the only person who could make the commissioner feel at ease was his mistress, Li E.

The woman's name was Li E, the mistress of the cult leader, the 'Grand Commissioner.' Every month, she would rush to the mountains from the city and tell the Grand Commissioner everything that happened in the city.

The man who wanted to touch her was definitely someone that Li E had purposely called.

"Aiya, a little girl from the city is different. She likes to call the police for no reason." Old Rascal didn't dare to pull his hand over. Sister Li was staring at him. He had evil intentions, but he didn't have the guts.

He placed his hand on the back of Ye Jian's seat and licked his lips. He smiled wretchedly. "Little girl, we are too far away from the police. They can't control us. Also, I feel bad that you can't sleep well on the bus. I want to lend my shoulder to you. I'm just being kind."

Normally, Ye Jian would beat him up. Now, she had to bear with it and pretend to be afraid.

Ye Jian pursed her lips and looked around. She needed to confirm if there were any other accomplices of Li E in the bus.

Several passengers who met Ye Jian's gaze turned their heads away. They misunderstood that the girl that Old Rascal was embroiled with was asking them for help.

Li E misunderstood too. However, this was the misunderstanding she wanted.

"Big Brother, let me change seats with you." She stood up and walked over. At the same time, she reached into her bag and took out two 100-yuan notes. "This is my sister. She came to visit my relatives. She was a little awkward just now and was a little unhappy. Sorry, Big Brother, let me change seats with you. Is that okay?"

Li E, who was wearing heavy makeup, was 36 years old. Her facial features were delicate and pretty. She was very recognizable.

She was wearing a black shirt inside and a black knee-length leather jacket outside. There was a red scarf around her neck and a pair of tight black jeans underneath. She was also wearing a pair of leather boots. She looked especially western among the villagers who were dressed simply. In the words of the villagers, it was obvious that she was from the city.

When she took out the money, everyone on the bus thought that she was Ye Jian's sister.

At first, Old Rascal didn't dare to accept the money. However, Li E forced the money into his hands, and he took it happily. He played with the knife and said deliberately, "Why didn't you say so earlier? If you had said so earlier, we wouldn't have gotten to this."

After receiving the money, he immediately got up and asked the driver to stop the bus and let him down.

There was no way he would give the money away after getting it. Even if it were Sister Li's money, he would accept it. It was normal for him to collect some money.

Chapter 1485: Who Is The Hunting Eagle

The moment he got out of the bus, the atmosphere became more relaxed. Li E sat down and said to Ye Jian earnestly, "Girl, you must be careful when you go out alone. The world has changed and there are too many bad people. Why are you so bold as a girl?"

"I saw that you were dressed well and even used a phone. Which village are you going to visit?"

Besides being the mistress of the Grand Commissioner, Li E also had another identity. She was the boss of the Golden Bath Center.

The identity of this person came from Charlie.

She had been working in the fish market for a long time. She used all kinds of illegal and brutal methods to force young ladies to enter illegal professions.

Now, Ye Jian was the girl she wanted to deceive.

As the mistress of the leader of the evil cult organization, she had the support of the Grand Commissioner. She hired the members of the evil cult organization to look for girls. Then, she used all kinds of names to deceive the fisherman.

She controlled the girls' personal freedom and used threats and promises to make them willingly sell their bodies to get money.

It was precisely because they were deceiving those girls that no one noticed them. No girls chose to call the police because they were willing to stay after tasting the benefits.

Li E's life was also very rough. When she was young, she didn't like studying and always thought about leading a good life. After dropping out of junior high, she entered society and got a boyfriend who was twice her age. She was young and ignorant and thought that she had found someone to rely on.

Unexpectedly, her boyfriend turned around and sold her to a snakehead who specially organized the girls to go to the sauna and foot baths in Zhehai.

This was the first time Li E, who had resisted, received a guest. Because of her pretty appearance, she received a total of eight hundred yuan from the first day she was forced to go out to the reception. The snakehead took the money and gave her four hundred yuan.

That was a higher income than working in the city. From then on, Li E no longer ran away and no longer thought of leaving. She became a lady sitting on the stage.

Li E was used to the life of a drunkard. She walked further and further away. When she was 30 years old and no longer young, she met a wealthy man willing to spend money on her.

Although he didn't look good, he could bring her to high-end places. He could buy a car and a house just like that.

Li E followed this man for six years. She became the lady boss, the old procurer, and accepted those girls who were as arrogant as she was in the past and liked to reap what they sow.

Who wouldn't listen to her? She would defile, beat, and lock them up.

In Li E's words, who was to blame for their bad luck?

She couldn't even remember how many girls were beaten to death and crippled by her for the past four years. But so what? If she didn't behave herself back then, she would have been beaten to death.

That was why if they did not accept their fate, they would end up in a miserable state.

The bus swayed as it drove. Some of the villagers in the bus started smoking while the familiar ones started chatting loudly. The entire bus was noisy.

There were whispers about what happened just now, but they didn't dare to let the person in the bus hear it.

Ye Jian had already told Li E everything. "I don't want to go home. It's boring. Sister, where is this bus going? I didn't look at it and jumped onto the bus directly. I don't even know where it is going."

Chapter 1486: The Hunt Begins

Li E smiled even more sincerely when she heard this.

She liked this kind of girl. She was innocent and arrogant. More importantly, she ran away from home.

"It's good to be young since there's no burden at all. This car is going to a small and beautiful county city. There are many mountains around it. Many foreign tourists love to come to our place to play. Take my husband's family as an example. When I married him, I was mesmerized by the scenery in his village."

Li E was a chatty and smart woman. When she heard that Ye Jian didn't even plan where she was going, she started seducing Ye Jian secretly.

If Ye Jian were really a girl who didn't care about the affairs of the world, she would have believed entirely in Li E, who gave people the impression of being generous and kind.

No wonder the Grand Commissioner had so many mistresses but only trusted Li E. Her glib tongue and outstanding social skills made it easy for the Grand Commissioner to value her.

Ye Jian tilted her head and asked excitedly, "Is it really so beautiful? Where is it? Is there anything to eat? Are the people living there good? I heard that the people in the village like to raise dogs. If I go over, will I get bitten by dogs?"

There's a chance! The fish has taken the bait!

Li E hurriedly said, "It's beautiful. It's very beautiful. You won't want to leave after seeing it. That place is the most beautiful mountain village in our small county city. There's food and lodging. The villagers are very kind. There are dogs, but as long as you don't run around, they won't bite you."

There were dogs and villagers as cover-ups for the Grand Commissioner. Once they were discovered, the difficulty of escaping would increase, and the entire village would surround them.

This was what happened to the few police officers who died.

"I see. I'm most afraid of dogs." Ye Jian's eyes flickered. She sighed hesitantly. "I have nowhere to go. I don't want to go to places with dogs. Sister, do you have hotels in the county city?"

If Li E kept a close eye on her, she would definitely find a way to restrain the dogs in the village. Then, she could contact the senior high student as soon as possible.

When their ugly faces were exposed, she would first knock down the guard dogs so that Major Xia and the rest could sneak into the village.

Every sentence had a deeper meaning. Ye Jian started her plan.

To Li E, what Ye Jian said was nothing. She replied straightforwardly, "What's so difficult about that? We can just lock the dogs up." After she finished speaking, she pretended to be surprised and said, "Hey, girl, do you want to visit my husband's village?"

She thought that she was the one who was fishing, but she didn't know that she was the one who was caught. Ye Jian's bait was hooked.

The reason why they rushed to Yuyang from Huzhou was because the police had a grasp of Li E's movements and knew what plan she would execute.

Ye Jian was a female soldier sent by the military to assist the Yuyang Police. The military gave her the mission to lure Li E into the enemy's belly.

Ye Jian was very patient. She didn't retract her net immediately. Her target was too cunning. She needed to be careful.

After chatting for another ten minutes, Ye Jian nodded and agreed with a smile. She said, "Sister, you're such a good person. I'll disturb you for a few days. I won't stay for too long. When you leave, I'll leave with you."

The smile on Li E's face got deeper. She didn't expect to gain so much. A few hours of driving was worth it!

Chapter 1487: Luring the Snake Out of Its Hole

Then, she looked at the fair and beautiful girl. Her black eyes were as bright as the stars in the sky. When she looked at people, there was a hint of seduction. Suddenly, Li E felt a little upset.

She was young and beautiful. As for herself, she was old and weak. She lived her life carefully, afraid that her lover would abandon her. In the end, she didn't have a place to stand.

Then, she thought about the 'goods' in her hands. Comparisons were odious.

The 'goods' in her hands were the best in her family.

Tsk, tsk, tsk. Now, she has learned something. Compared to the girl in front of her, the "goods" at home were like clouds and mud. They could be thrown away!

It seemed like she had to raise the standard of collecting "goods." If not, when the customers got tired of playing, she would have to close the door.

"Life is about freedom and happiness. I think that you are an open-minded person. If you feel uncomfortable, you can walk around. When you come to our village, I will play with you. I will find a few villagers and bring you to hunt wild chickens and rabbits." As Li E spoke, she wanted to hold Ye Jian's hand to show her affection, but she didn't manage to.

Pretending to be very interested, Ye Jian clapped her hands and said excitedly, "Really? Like on television, hunting with a shotgun?"

Throughout the years of training, there were thin calluses on the palms and fingers. The calluses on the thumb and index fingers of the left and right hands were obvious to anyone who touched them.

Li E was a criminal who had a pistol to protect herself. She might know the ropes.

Li E didn't mind that she didn't hold her hand. She smiled and replied, "Yes, I'm using a hunting rifle. However, the hunting rifles in our village are different. Sister Li will let you take a look."

There were guns. The number was unknown.

Ye Jian picked up the mineral water bottle and took a small sip.

Foreign organizations provide guns and ammunition. They needed to find out if all the dangerous things prohibited in their country were in the village.

Hence, she had a few things to do before contacting Major Xia.

Meet with Fu HuiFind the bodies of the officers who died.Find out where the prohibited weapons are, and estimate the number.Picture the terrain of the entire mountain village. Find out if the entire village is a member of the evil cult and if there are any reinforcements from neighboring villages. However, you can ask Fu Hui first.The dogs in the village must be dealt with collectively.

Ye Jian sorted out the things she needed to do. Her expression didn't change. She looked at Li E who was trying to fool her. Her eyes turned cold.

According to the information, Li E had committed heinous crimes. She sent people to torture, taint, and kill the disobedient young ladies who were kidnapped. There was no other way for such a person other than death!

Li E, who continued to befriend Ye Jian, didn't know that she was in danger. In order to coax Ye Jian, she followed her obediently. Her saliva had dried several times.

The old and dilapidated bus finally arrived at the small town. When Li E got off the bus, she stared at Ye Jian and tried to scare her, "The small town is a little messy. Don't run around. If you get pestered by the local gangsters, Sister Li won't be able to save you."

Ye Jian replied nonchalantly, "I can ask the police for help. I'm not afraid."

Look at this naive girl. She wanted to look for the police. This is a small place. The police are family!

Li E didn't say anything. She just gave Ye Jian a meaningful look and pointed at a food grocery store on the other side of the road. "That's opened by Sister Li's sister-in-law. Let's sleep at her house tonight and go to Sister Li's husband's house tomorrow morning."

Chapter 1488: Sowing Discord

Guilin was located in the hinterland of the Southwest of China. It was connected to the five provinces and was the entire transportation hub of the Southwest. From Huzhou to Guilin, it was equivalent to crossing more than half of the country, from the North to the Southwest.

The small town that Ye Jian will live in was located at a remote location in Guilin Province. It was surrounded by mountains and had beautiful scenery.

At night, the entire town was pitch-black. There were no street lamps.

Sitting in a room filled with all kinds of food smells, Ye Jian lowered her head and sipped the hot water that she had just poured out of a hot water bottle. A woman in her thirties with slightly dark skin was talking non-stop.

Li E introduced this person to her as her sister-in-law. Her name was Wang Gui.

Her name was correct, but her identity was different.

Wang Gui was one of the mistresses of the commissioner. She was in charge of contacting the small county city and the village. She immediately reported what Li E heard from the city to the commissioner.

She had two thin and willowy eyebrows. When she spoke, her gaze would flicker from time to time. One look and you could tell that she was an uneasy lady.

She was as enthusiastic as Li E. The moment she saw Ye Jian, she was stunned for a moment. Then, she welcomed her as if she was an honored guest. After a while, she complimented Ye Jian as a goddess. Anyone who heard that would feel elated.

Ever since she entered the room, Ye Jian had been drinking cups of water without stopping.

Ye Jian was calm. No matter how much they complimented her, she didn't feel anything. However, she pretended to be shy. She held her breath and made her face look a little red.

The more she acted like this, the lower Li E's vigilance became. She secretly gave Wang Gui a provocative look and a smug smile appeared on her face.

Wang Gui relied on herself to follow the Grand Commissioner for a year. Every day, she tried her best to take over Yu Yang's shop. If she succeeded, she would be able to bully Li E.

Pfft! Wang Gui, you're still too young to fight with me!

Wang Gui, who was angered by Li E's gaze, felt a prick in her heart. She felt a dull pain in her chest. Unknowingly, the smile on her face froze.

The powder on her face was a little thick. Under the faint yellow light, one could see the wrinkles on her eyes and lips.

She pursed her lips and slapped her forehead exaggeratedly. "Oh my, look at my memory. I haven't forgotten to ask if you have dinner after chatting for so long. You must have not eaten. It will take five to six hours to reach our county from the city."

Wang Gui was smart. She didn't vent her anger immediately and changed the topic.

Didn't Li E say that she wanted to bring the 'goods'?

She couldn't go head to head with her. She had no choice. Li E was the woman the Grand Commissioner trusted the most. She needed to rely on her to earn money. Even if she had an unclear relationship with the Grand Commissioner, she didn't dare to be presumptuous in front of Li E.

Ye Jian, who was drinking the water, glanced at the two of them secretly. As her gaze moved, a hint of understanding flashed past her eyes... Wang Gui and Li E were not on good terms.

"I'm not hungry. Girl, are you hungry?" Li E gritted her teeth secretly and turned her head. She smiled and said to Ye Jian, "I don't have much appetite after sitting in the car for a few hours. I didn't even care if you were hungry."

Wang Gui knew how to be a good person? Pfft, what is she!

Ye Jian didn't need to say anything when she was drinking water. She just needed a smile. She was able to provoke the two of them easily.

Chapter 1489: Insider

Ye Jian smiled at Li E. Wang Gui, whose chest was hurting, stood up and said lightly, "Let me cook some noodles for you. My husband went to play some cards tonight, so he asked me to cook dinner early. I can only let my sister eat noodles."

Li E stood up too and apologized with a fake smile, "Thank you for your hard work. I will sleep upstairs with my little sister tonight."

Then, she looked at the open door. As she walked towards the door, she said, "Who would still go out to buy things so late at night? If the door is open so late at night, the little sister from the city might be a little scared. I'll lock the door."

This was to prevent Ye Jian from leaving.

At this moment, no matter how unhappy Wang Gui was with Li E, she had to agree. "Sure, lock it. Recently, the streets have not been peaceful. The local gangsters in the county are getting more and more lawless. They even dare to come to other people's shops to ask for money."

"Brother likes to go out at night to play mahjong. Be careful when you're alone at home. Don't get bullied." Li E's words were sarcastic. She was a promiscuous woman. No wonder the gangsters in the county liked to come to her house!

The door was locked. Li E said, "I will go to the kitchen to take a look." She felt at ease leaving Ye Jian alone while she followed Wang Gui into the kitchen.

Ye Jian looked at their back view as they left. The smile on her face turned cold. Then, she stood up quietly.

It was not difficult for her to deal with Li E and Wang Gui.

"Hey, our house is small. Don't dirty your clothes." Wang Gui, who was washing the pot, said in a weird tone. Her strength was so great that it seemed like she wanted to wipe off a layer of Li E's skin. "The Grand Commissioner called. Tomorrow morning, he will send someone to fetch you. He asked for you to bring everything."

She wondered how the commissioner was doing. He really missed a woman who was almost 40 years old!

Li E didn't enter the kitchen. She leaned against the door and flicked the cover lazily. "I brought everything. Did he say anything else?"

"He didn't say anything else. Based on your stupid idea last time, you managed to get rid of a few policemen who entered the village. Now, you've kept the Grand Commissioner busy!" Wang Gui washed the pot even harder.

She probably took the blame for someone she didn't like.

Li E's expression darkened when she heard her mention the previous incident. "Hasn't everything been settled? Why? Is there a problem?"

Outside, Ye Jian clenched her fists tightly. Her black eyes were cold and sharp.

Li E killed the police officers!

Ye Jian, whose back was against the cold wall, let out a sigh and continued listening to the conversation inside.

Suddenly, Ye Jian moved and returned to her original position at the fastest and lightest speed.

Li E walked out gently and glanced outside secretly. When she saw that Ye Jian was sitting properly, she felt at ease and returned to the kitchen.

“What’s there to see? She’s already in your hands. Can she still escape?” Wang Gui grabbed the onions and sprinkled them into the bowl. She turned her head and looked at the cautious Li E. She lowered her voice and mocked, “I don’t know if there’s a problem, but I know that the county hasn’t been very quiet recently. My mahjong buddy at the bus station said that she doesn’t look like an ordinary person.”

Li E’s heart skipped a beat when she heard that. Ever since the police officers in the village were dealt with, she had never felt at ease.

It turned out that she would only be able to come two days later. When she received the call that day, she immediately left. She didn’t bring anything but her passbook.

Chapter 1490: Eavesdropping

“You’re overthinking. What’s wrong?” Suppressing the panic that suddenly rose in her heart, Li E did not reply angrily, but she paid attention in her heart.

Whenever there was an unusual person or a good car in the county city, Wang Gui’s friends would inform them beforehand. If they said that there was a problem, there might be a problem.

Ye Jian narrowed her eyes. Major Xia and his men needed to provide cover.

The criminal with the real name ‘Chen Jiafu’ had a huge influence in the small county city. The evil cult forces covered the small county city like a net. It was no wonder that the police were so cautious that the director-general asked the military for help.

Without military support, it was difficult to control their influence!

“If you say that there’s no problem, I’ll take it that there’s a problem. How are you going to deal with the ‘goods’ outside? Do you really want to bring them back to the Grand Commissioner?” Wang Gui placed the pot on the gas stove and turned around. She looked at Li E, who was leaning against the door. The corners of her mouth twitched, and she snorted in contempt.

She was almost 40 years old. Why was she still acting young?

If she stayed outside, she would be a newbie. Why was she pretending?

She received a text this afternoon. It said that she brought a ‘good item’ with her. The text said that it was amazing. Tsk, tsk, tsk. She felt sick of it when she saw it.

However, she realized that Li E was not exaggerating this time. The lady outside was as beautiful as a fairy.

“I was wondering why you suddenly became so generous. You even wanted to bring a young and beautiful girl back. Aren’t you afraid that the Grand Commissioner will kick us out of the country?”

Wang Gui's words were always unpleasant. Li E couldn't be bothered to argue with her. Her expression changed when she heard the last sentence. Wang Gui even knew that she was going overseas!

Not many people knew about this. Wang Gui was someone who could never know!

Li E could not help but stand up straight. If even Wang Gui knew about it, then did anyone else?

The water in the pot boiled until it was steaming. Wang Gui, who placed two handfuls of noodles down and stirred them with a vegetable spoon, didn't notice that Li E's expression was a little dark. She turned sideways and looked at the door. She waved her hand and asked Li E to come to her side. "Last week, when I sent the oil, salt, rice, and vinegar over, I unintentionally heard the Grand Commissioner contacting the outside world. He said that he wanted to arrange a time of departure as soon as possible. Do you think that the Grand Commissioner wants to go overseas?"

Ever since she dealt with those policemen, there was a lot of news outside. She heard that even the capital city was alarmed. She didn't know if it was true.

It turned out that she had eavesdropped. Li E heaved a sigh of relief.

She needed to ask if she had told other people. For instance, Wang Gui's husband who was being a 'cuckold.'

None of the people sent out came back. There was no news at all. It was obvious that they were either caught or dealt with by the police.

There was supposed to be a fire at the Tongzhou International Hotel the night before, but there wasn't.

Mr. Charlie called and told her that the director-general had not checked into the International Hotel. However, the Tongzhou police had surrounded the hotel!

If he didn't use his identity as a foreigner to enter the hotel and bring the six members who were responsible for arson away, the police might have caught all of them.

They were being watched so closely that they started to set up traps to catch them. Even Yu Yang might have been infiltrated. Maybe... even the small county city had sent people to investigate!
