

BOOT CAMP 1491

Chapter 1491: Wishful Plan

If the police learned that the Grand Commissioner was trying to leave the country, he would not be able to go!

It wasn't so serious in the past. Ever since she killed those policemen, her life in the church hadn't been good.

She had received several phone calls informing that the higher-ups were secretly investigating the brothels in Yang City.

No more complications! Wang Gui must not be left alive!

Li E's expression turned cold.

However, Wang Gui had her back facing her and didn't notice anything. She was also scheming in her heart. Li E was the most trusted woman of the Grand Commissioner. If she said anything, it would definitely be true!

She rolled her eyes a few times. In the end, she couldn't feel at ease, so she smiled and asked carefully, "Do you have any news? From the tone of the Grand Commissioner, it doesn't sound good. I think he will go overseas."

Li E was able to become the most trusted woman around the commissioner. How could she be a simple person?

Hearing that, she rolled her eyes and mocked, "Wang Gui, Wang Gui, what are you up to again? I didn't even know that the Grand Commissioner was going overseas. How can you eavesdrop?" She said in disbelief.

Did Li E not know? Did the Grand Commissioner not want to bring her out?

Wang Gui's mind was racing. She never thought of going overseas. She just wanted to make use of the Grand Commissioner to get rich and lead a good life.

She didn't know that her words had brought about a fatal disaster.

She heard the Grand Commissioner saying that he wanted to go overseas and even mentioned, 'Mr. Charlie.' She knew that it was a foreigner's name. However, Li E didn't know if the Grand Commissioner wanted to go overseas.

Did Li E really not know?

The skeptical Wang Gui used her chopsticks to scoop the cooked noodles into the bowl. When Li E saw this, she snatched the chopsticks from her hand. "There's less noodles. Do you really want to feed her until she's full? Wang Gui, even if you have a problem with me, you should know your limits!"

"What can I have against you? You can do it yourself!" Wang Gui twisted her waist and ignored her. When she saw that there were less than five mouthfuls of noodles left in the bowl, she pouted and muttered under her breath, "Women are the most vicious."

Li E, who had always been cautious, didn't want to talk to her anymore. How could she let a girl who she hadn't completely abducted be full? Even if she brought her to the store and locked her up, she wouldn't let them be full.

"You really don't know that the Grand Commissioner is going overseas? Li E, let's be honest with each other. The Grand Commissioner is leaving the country. We will have to suffer for what he did." When Li E was about to carry her bowl out, Wang Gui, unwilling to give up, suddenly asked again.

"I don't know," A ruthless look flashed past Li E's eyes as she replied coldly. She was afraid that she couldn't keep this Wang Gui. She had already brought up the matter about the Grand Commissioner. If she really wanted to settle it, she needed to speak to the Grand Commissioner first.

She stopped after taking two steps. She turned and met Wang Gui, who was winking at her. "She has a phone. I'll think of a way to get it later."

"I know, I know. I told you not to bring her to me. If you want to bring her to the mountains, bring her to the mountains. I'm happy to relax." Wang Gui crossed her arms and pouted her lips unwillingly.

After listening to their conversation, Ye Jian sat down and waited for Li E to take her phone away.

Chapter 1492: Luring the Enemy Alone

Li E came out and saw Ye Jian sitting obediently. She hurriedly smiled and said, "Come, come, girl. Have a bowl of hot noodles. You can rest early after eating."

Of course, she needed to be full. Only after she was full would she have the energy to work. Storing her stamina and conserving her energy was what Ye Jian needed to do now.

While eating the noodles, there was a small accident. Li E's phone, which was placed on the table, hit the ground. When she picked it up and returned it to her, it fell into the soup. Ye Jian watched calmly as Wang Gui and she played a double game. Finally, she took the phone away.

At 8:30 P.M., Li E brought Ye Jian to the second floor to rest. She said that she hadn't seen Wang Gui for a long time and had many things to talk about.

She didn't want to have a chat. She wanted to know if Wang Gui told anyone that the Grand Commissioner was going overseas.

Wang Gui was probably going to die. She could see the killing intent on Li E's face.

Lying on the bed, Ye Jian listened to the sound of the motor and honk of the truck passing by the road. Her heart was calm.

If Wang Gui were really in trouble, she wouldn't stand up for her. She had done many evil deeds and deserved to die.

Ye Jian, who had lived two lifetimes, experienced so many things in her past life. While she was arming herself, she didn't think much of some things.

She had a strong sense of responsibility, but if she wanted to help someone who deserved to die, she wouldn't be able to do it even if she wore a military uniform.

Unless it were an order from his superior, she would never help.

Ye Jian had a clear distinction between right and wrong. She would never abuse her compassion. She could distinguish between good and evil. She could also distinguish between beauty and ugliness. Wang Gui, who belonged to the 'evil' category, would not be classified as someone she should protect.

Downstairs, Li E asked with a cold expression, "You know a lot of people. It's a critical period now. Control your mouth and don't cause trouble for the Grand Commissioner. You can't go abroad! Now that the Grand Commissioner has left, who will lead the 'God's Church'? How will the believers manage it?"

"Wang Gui, if you dare to say things that you shouldn't, the Grand Commissioner will not let you off!"

"Li E, watch your mouth! You want to smear my reputation? I'm also a backbone of the church. How can I not know what you said?" Wang Gui jumped up and slapped the table. She had wanted to quarrel with the other party for a long time. Now that she had come to her door, there was no need to be polite!

She wanted to monopolize all the benefits that the Grand Commissioner gave her. Ha, dream on!

"Did you alert the ones high above? Do you know why I came out personally? There are more and more believers in the church. Even the Grand Commissioner has to help them! If I don't work hard to earn money, how can the Grand Commissioner help them? And what right do we have to make those believers believe us and do things for us?" Li E heaved a sigh of relief when she saw that Wang Gui's expression didn't seem to be lying.

If Wang Gui didn't know what was important, the Grand Commissioner wouldn't have groomed her as a backbone.

There was another benefit to being the backbone. If something happened, they could be pushed out to block something major.

When she found out that Wang Gui didn't tell anyone, she immediately called the Grand Commissioner to see what to do.

Chen Jiafu—the Grand Commissioner—never took the initiative to contact his subordinates. Even if Li E wanted to look for him, she would have to pass the message to the backbone in the village.

“One more person knowing means there will be more danger. Charlie is still helping us with our passports. We will have to wait for a while to get rid of her.” Chen Jiafu’s rough voice came from the phone.

Chapter 1493: Entering the Net

This was a middle-aged man who had gone to primary school. He had been working overseas for the past four years. When he came back, he established the ‘God’s Church.’

Li E was relieved. “You’re right. Wang Gui knows too much about us. If we don’t take care of her, you won’t feel at ease even if you go overseas. The capital...”

She wanted to continue but Chen Jiafu, who was more vigilant than anyone else, stopped her immediately. “All right, if there’s anything, come to the village first. As for the goods you have, if they are really good, bring them to the village.”

There were too many places to use money outside. Recently, the news had been so intense that he couldn’t go out to earn money. Now, he could only wait for Charlie to settle the matter to leave safely.

He didn’t expect to expose himself after killing a few police officers!

Charlie analyzed that there might be a mole in the village who reported him to the outside world.

There was a spy in the village. Even if he decided to go overseas, he had to find them. He had already taken on so many lives. He didn’t care if there were one or two more.

He then asked about the girl’s background and if there were other people around her when she came. Li E answered truthfully without hiding anything.

Chen Jiafu had always trusted her. After asking a few questions, he hung up.

After both sides finished speaking, Li E, who had an idea in her mind, felt relieved. Since the Grand Commissioner said that he wanted to get rid of Wang Gui, she had nothing to worry about.

By the time Li E came back, it was already past 11:00 PM. Ye Jian, who was alert, woke up with a start. She heard Li E opening the door and tiptoeing into the room.

When the wind blew, Ye Jian didn’t smell the smell of blood on her body. It seemed like Wang Gui was still alive.

After entering the room, Li E didn’t turn on the lights. She only used the flashlight in her hand to illuminate the room for a moment. When she saw the girl that she lured over lying on the bed without any suspicion, she gently picked up the small bag that Ye Jian was carrying and walked out of the room.

Five minutes later, Li E returned to her room with a clean bag. She took off her clothes and laid down.

Li E, who had a lot on her mind, still hadn't fallen asleep at two o'clock in the morning. Ye Jian, who woke up after a nap, closed her eyes and continued sleeping.

After the sky was high, the tough fight started.

Before the sun rose at five o'clock in the morning, Ye Jian and Li E, who had not slept for the entire night, boarded a small four-wheeled farm truck. She sat in the middle, with the driver on her left and Li E on her right.

"It's a bit far from the mountains. Sister, if you didn't sleep well, you can rest on Sister Li's shoulder and have a good sleep." Li E yawned and chatted with Ye Jian. As they chatted, she fell asleep first.

Before they set off from Yu Yang County, the Yu Yang Police told them that they would have to take a four-hour drive from the small town to the mountains. After that, they would have to take a motorcycle, and then walk for more than 30 kilometers before they could reach the mountains.

Traffic was inconvenient since the place was surrounded by mountains. It was difficult to enter and it was even harder to come out.

Some villages needed one to walk for a day to arrive!

After alighting from the four-wheeled farm truck, they sat on a dilapidated motorcycle. After riding for about three hours, they arrived at a poor and backward mountain village. Two men who claimed to be relatives led the way and started crossing the mountains.

It took Ye Jian a whole day to reach the place where the Grand Commissioner, Chen Jiafu, was hiding.

They set off at five in the morning and walked into the village with scattered lights until seven in the evening.

Chapter 1494: Meeting

Li E didn't bring Ye Jian to see Chen Jiafu. She came here for an urgent matter. Ye Jian just wanted to lure him back. After entering the village, she arranged for Ye Jian to go to another villager's house.

This was a small village that only had 30 households. It used to represent poverty, backwardness, and old age.

But it had become a village where every family had money. Especially the sisters and relatives of Chen Jiafu. They had built two-story tall buildings and lived a good life.

An illegal organization that used and created all kinds of beneficial rumors to spread crooked theories used these methods to deceive, bewitch, and develop its members. They used these methods to spread religious teachings. They used unscrupulous means to collect money and harm social security to survive in this small village. Chen Jiafu had some intelligence.

He knew how to unite the villagers and find shelter.

The villagers had become his eyes and ears. If anything happened, the Chen family would immediately know, such as the visit of the dead policemen. Li E came up with a plan and used less than half a day to kill them.

Ye Jian, who was walking on the muddy path of the pitch-black mountain village, followed closely behind a villager. Behind her were two middle-aged women from the village. They were called 'escorts.'

Li E did not follow them. She had already gone to look for Chen Jiafu.

When they reached a small slope, Ye Jian couldn't help but raise her head and look around 300 meters away from her. That was the direction that Li E left in. A villager was shining a flashlight at the back while she walked in front towards a hundred-year-old maple tree that couldn't hide its lush leaves.

Chen Jiafu lived beside the hundred-year maple tree.

Ye Jian didn't stop. She glanced at the villagers who were following her hurriedly.

"Sister Li, where... is she going?" After taking a few steps, Ye Jian purposely stopped and asked.

The two villagers walking behind looked at each other. One of the middle-aged women replied, "She's going to her mother-in-law's house. It's getting late. We still need to go home after sending you there. Hurry up."

She didn't want to talk to Ye Jian and was extremely vigilant.

Ye Jian didn't ask anymore. If she asked again, they would feel vigilant. Also, she just needed to know that Li E's direction was indeed the location of the Chen family's house.

However, she needed to ask a few more people for confirmation, but she didn't expect Li E to arrange for her to go to Fu Hui's house!

Fu Hui was the only girl who went to senior high and who was well-educated in the village! If it weren't for her report, the Guilin police wouldn't have been able to find the origin of the 'God's Church' and where the main crimes were.

As for Fu Hui's parents, they looked honest. It was hard to imagine that their hands were stained with sin.

One man and two women, who were watching over Ye Jian, pulled Fu Hui's parents to a dark corner and muttered, "The person that Sister Li brought over will be brought back to Yu Yang county in a few days. Watch her closely. Also, tell your daughter to be alert."

"Leave it to my family. Sister Li's business is our family's business."

Fu Hui was anxious. She pulled Ye Jian into his room. "Where are you from? Why are you here with Sister Li? Do you know where this is? What's your family's number? Tell me!"

Chapter 1495: Speculation

The eyes of a person were a way to see if a person was sincere or not.

Undoubtedly, Fu Hui's worry for Ye Jian was sincere. She was very, very concerned about Ye Jian and worried about her situation.

The adults in front were still muttering to each other. From time to time, they would look towards the house. After talking for a while, the three villagers who brought Ye Jian here left in the dark.

"Ask Fu Hui to keep an eye on that girl. Sister Li has agreed on how we can settle this matter. Our son has the capital to marry a wife." Fu Hui's father couldn't contain his excitement. He whispered to his wife, "When the time comes, we can take out our family's savings and buy a set for our son in the city."

Now, all the villagers in the mountain went to the city and wanted to buy houses. Of course, they were buying houses for their sons and their families.

As for their daughters, they were never in their consideration. Fu Hui's parents were the same.

Fu Hui was originally in senior high in town. However, because of Li E's words, the couple made Fu Hui leave school and stay at home obediently.

Li E was afraid that Fu Hui, who was good at studying, would become wild after entering university and broaden her horizons. She might even help outsiders to deal with the village and might even report the Grand Commissioner.

She convinced Fu Hui's parents to let Fu Hui drop out of school and return to the village to prevent any future troubles.

In the depths of Mount Guilin, it was very normal for girls to take a leave of absence from school. Hence, Fu Hui's leave of absence didn't attract the attention of the teachers or the school.

Because of this matter, Fu Hui, who never knew anything about it, found out that her parents had committed a crime. After struggling internally for a week, Fu Hui used the excuse of going to school to get her textbooks back and reported what happened in the village.

However, the timing of her report was too coincidental. Coincidentally, the Guilin Police were investigating this matter. They were afraid that they would alert the police from the Great Hall to act rashly before they had the evidence and strength of the "God's Church." That was why their brothers died.

Fu Hui was the only student in the village who dared to fight against evil. Ye Jian admired her courage.

Although the girl in front of her wasn't beautiful, she had a kind heart and a pair of sincere eyes.

Ye Jian looked at her. She was very concerned about her. Her heart felt warm as she whispered, "Thank you for your concern. I'm fine."

Footsteps came from outside. It was Fu Hui's parents.

Ye Jian didn't reveal her identity to Fu Hui. She stood beside her obediently. She was reserved and shy towards strangers.

Fu Hui's parents were already middle-aged. Their faces were filled with the hardships left behind by their hard work. The joints of their hands were very big. This was also the mark left behind by their years of hard work.

Looking at them, Ye Jian's gaze was a little cold. Their ignorance not only destroyed this family, but also their daughter's life.

And their reason was so laughable. It was just so that their son could get a wife and buy a house in the city.

Chapter 1496: Trust Me

They didn't regret sacrificing their daughter for their son!

Obviously, Fu Hui's parents never regretted anything. They only had eyes for their son.

"Keep an eye on her. If she runs away, I might break your legs." The moment they entered, Fu Hui's father warned her in a low voice. His eyes, which were supposed to be simple and honest, were now cruel and cold. He cared about his own life and used other people's pain to fulfill his wish.

Fu Hui's mother looked at Ye Jian as if she was measuring the value of an item. She sized her up from top to bottom. Suddenly, her eyes flickered.

This lady was really good. Her eyes were big, and her skin was white. Her mouth was small, and she had a slight aura around her. The lady from the village didn't have any aura around her. Her body was clean too. One look, and you could tell that she was a virgin.

She pulled her husband, who was warning her daughter and used her eyes to signal them to talk outside.

After that, she continued, "Keep an eye on her. If anything happens, your father will get angry." The women in the mountains didn't have any thoughts of sovereignty. Their men were the ones who called the shots at home.

Fu Hui didn't know if the girl could understand her hometown's language. She felt unhappy when she saw her parents helping the villains.

She tried to persuade her parents to turn back, but she got beaten up instead. They warned her that they would sell her to Li E and buy a wife for her stupid brother if she were disobedient.

Fu Hui, who had always been filial to his parents, was extremely sad when she saw how stubborn her parents were and how they were even willing to sell her off.

She also knew that the so-called God's Church in the village was the evil cult organization in the news. Her parents were brainwashed and could never go back to the past.

"Don't take off your clothes when you sleep tonight. I will bring you out of our village. Don't ask for the reason. Just follow me." Fu Hui couldn't bear for the girl in front of her to land in Li E's hands. However, she couldn't tell her everything. She feared that she would be afraid, so she could only mumble a few words.

Ye Jian had already believed that the girl in front of her really wanted to help her. Her black eyes were as bright as the stars and as bright as the blue waves. She smiled at the girl and said softly, "Hello, Fu Hui. I'm Ye Jian. I was sent here by the Guilin police."

"Believe me. I won't let anything happen to me. At the same time, I will bring you out of the mountain village safely." Ye Jian spoke quickly and told Fu Hui what needed to be done urgently. "I need your help now. Find the person who killed the police..."

Before she could finish speaking, Fu Hui's face turned pale and fear appeared in her eyes.

She glanced outside quickly and said with trembling lips, "Why are you the only one who came? No, this place is too dangerous. You can't stay."

Fu Hui was unable to accept and believe that a girl around her age would protect her.

The land that gave birth to her and raised her had changed. The kind and simple neighbors had changed. Selfish, cold, heartless, violent... These were her neighbors now.

Ye Jian raised her hand and patted the girl who had been suffering day and night. "Trust me. The police sent me here which proves that I have the ability to handle the difficulties you're facing now."

Chapter 1497: This Is Her Light

Her voice was very soft. There was no hint of panic when she spoke slowly. There was only calmness in her voice. Her gaze was calm and gentle as she looked at her. The cold look on her face wiped away the panic in her heart.

Calm as Mount Tai, steady as a rock... Fu Hui gradually calmed down.

Fu Hui's parents, who were discussing something outside, suddenly closed the door of their house and locked it. Then, they left with the flashlight used to illuminate the dark path.

Fu Hui heaved a sigh of relief when she saw her parents leaving. They were supposed to be family. Ye Jian felt a little sad that they had come this far.

"My parents made a huge mistake. If they continue making mistakes, they will be sentenced to death. I can't persuade them to turn back. I can only place my hopes on the police. It's not too late."

Without her family watching over her, Fu Hui smiled bitterly. Her eyes were red. Under the light, tears were shimmering in her eyes.

She didn't continue talking about her matter. She raised her hand and touched the corner of her eyes. The strong girl calmly picked up important things and told Ye Jian, "The policemen that were killed weren't buried in a single place. Chen Jiafu said that they are 'sinners' and don't deserve to be reborn. If they aren't dealt with properly, they will become evil spirits and harm the entire village."

"So..." What happened next was too bloody. Fu Hui didn't even have the heart to say it.

Ye Jian closed her eyes lightly to hide the viciousness in her eyes. Their limbs were cruelly dissected... Even though she had been on the battlefield before, she couldn't say it directly.

"Chen Jiafu is very cruel. However, the villagers in our village have been brainwashed by him. They obey his orders and treat his words like an imperial edict." Actually, it should be said that it was God's decree. Fu Hui couldn't say it out loud.

When she mentioned Chen Jiafu, there was undisguised hatred in her eyes. If it wasn't for him, her parents might be a little petty, but they would never walk down a criminal path.

However, if her parents could have stuck to their nature, Chen Jiafu wouldn't have been able to do anything.

In the end, it was all because of one word: money.

"I'm not sure how many people are involved in killing the police. But I know that my parents are involved." As she spoke, Fu Hui wiped her eyes again. Her voice became lower and hoarser. "I'll get you something. Wait for me."

Ye Jian didn't wait for long. In less than three minutes, she returned to her room. There was a photo in her hand. When she handed it over, she said with a sad expression, "I found it in the pig's feces pool in my backyard."

This was why Fu Hui said that her parents were involved.

In the photo, the young man was in high spirits. He was wearing a brand new police uniform and white gloves as he saluted the camera.

"This is one of the police officers who was killed. He's only 24 years old. Fu Hui, I need your help. No matter what, I must find them so that everyone's family can see their complete bodies." A cold and stern look flashed past Ye Jian's eyes. She kept the photo carefully and looked up at Fu Hui quietly. "I need to find them tonight."

The 18-year-old Fu Hui nodded. "Okay, I'll accompany you!"

"No need. Fu Hui, you need to stay." Ye Jian smiled and shook her head. "You need to stay and cover for me. You can't let your parents find out that I left or let the villagers know my identity. I will have to trouble you for the next three days."

Chapter 1498: Fighting Together With You

Fu Hui wanted to say a few more words, but Ye Jian continued, "For your safety and mine, you must stay. You need to help me with something next. To prevent any accidents, I need to know how many dogs there are in the village, which families have them, and which families don't."

"Every family has one." Fu Hui understood why Ye Jian asked this question. The dogs in the village discovered the police officers. "My family has one too, but it's locked in the backyard."

Ye Jian frowned slightly.

It was not good for every household to have a dog. She might not have enough medicine with her.

She unzipped her jacket and unzipped the side of the jacket. Ye Jian took out the medicine she hid in her clothes. "Concentrate. This can make a dog go crazy instantly. Your dog..."

"I'll do it!" Fu Hui took the medicine and looked at Ye Jian firmly. "You make the arrangements. I'll listen to you."

Now, she could only trust this young policewoman in front of her. If she wanted to stop her parents from making more mistakes, she had no other choice.

The two girls in the building started a bold plan. Fu Hui's parents walked out of Chen Jiafu's house happily.

"Call our son and ask him to come back quickly. Aiya! Now, we can even save money on getting a wife. Do we still need to go to the city to buy a house for them?" Fu Hui's mother asked happily. She had not worked for a few years, so her body was a little plump. She looked like a kind person, but her words were harsh. "We need to settle this matter as soon as possible. This woman will only feel at ease after they marry and she gives birth to a child. We need to prepare early."

Fu Hui's father nodded. "That's right. Call our son tomorrow morning and ask him to hurry back. Oh right, tell him over the phone that we found a beautiful wife for him. She's as good as the ones outside."

The wife that the couple was talking about was Ye Jian. Their son's marriage had been settled. The two of them were even walking briskly.

At around 8:00 pm, the mountain village was pitch black. The tree branches in the mountain were like ferocious beasts hibernating. One look at them would make people nervous. The night insects chirped in the bushes, bringing a hint of peace to the village.

Li E, who was sitting in a chair, had a gloomy expression on her face. She was very unhappy with her lover's arrangement. He actually gave such good 'goods' to the Fu family!

"I haven't been able to contact Charlie for the entire day. If I can't contact him tomorrow, I will leave tomorrow night." Chen Jiafu, who didn't look good but had a pair of cunning eyes, smoked an expensive imported cigarette. He puffed out smoke rings and said in a low voice, "We made the wrong move. If we make another mistake, we will spend the rest of our lives in prison."

When Li E heard this, she took out her identification document from her bag and placed it on the table. "That means that the rumors outside are already very tight. Fine, I'll listen to you. I'll do whatever you say."

"Have you thought about how to deal with Wang Gui?"

Chen Jiafu couldn't bear to deal with his mistress who had been with him for a year. However, it wasn't a matter that he couldn't bear to do now.

Wang Gui looked at the young men who suddenly appeared at her house with fear in her eyes. Her chubby body kept trembling.

"Brothers, I really don't know. I really picked up this phone! If I lie, I will be struck by lightning and die a horrible death!" Wang Gui swore. She didn't care about the consequences anymore. She just wanted to get these vicious people to leave as soon as possible.

Chapter 1499: No Rush, Speak Slowly

Xia Jinyuan, who was wearing a baseball cap, sat lazily on the wooden sofa. His slender fingers kept playing with the dagger. Sometimes, he would throw the dagger and catch it. Sometimes, he would use his two fingers to hold the sharp dagger and swing it. Wang Gui only saw that the knife was like a piece of paper in his hands. It couldn't hurt him at all.

"Don't swear. If I want to kill you now, I just need to raise my hand. Do you believe me or not?"

According to the tracking on the phone, Xia Jinyuan brought his comrades and went straight to Wang Gui's house. Xia Jinyuan was from the Special Forces, so he had his ways to open the suspect's mouth.

As he spoke, the dagger in his hand flew towards Wang Gui's head.

"Ah!"

Screams like pigs were being slaughtered came from the room. K7 felt that it was too noisy. After catching the dagger with his bare hands, he took the sharp dagger and cut two pieces of cloth from his long T-shirt. He rubbed his hands and used the cloth to cover his ears.

Xia Jinyuan and the rest were used to it. K7 never cared about trifles.

Wang Gui, who was so frightened that she lost control of her bladder, trembled even harder. There was no color on her face. "I'll tell you. I'll tell you everything. I'll tell you everything."

Too scary, too scary. Who are these people? When did I offend these people?

Wang Gui already had some guesses, but she didn't dare to think of it.

"Yes, there's no hurry. Speak slowly." Xia Jinyuan patted his hands as he sat elegantly. There was even a hint of a smile on his elegant and handsome face. He said slowly, "If you can't explain it clearly, I'm sorry. Later, I will aim and stab you in the head as much as possible so that you will suffer less."

It was fine if he didn't say it, but the moment he said it, Wang Gui trembled in fear.

She didn't dare to swear or act shamelessly anymore. She would answer whatever the fiends asked her. Every time she wanted to avoid him, the handsome young man would shoot daggers at her. Cold sweat would appear on her back. He seemed to have seen through her lie.

In the beginning, they were just asking about her situation. But later on, when Chen Jiafu was mentioned, Wang Gui felt her vision turning black.

Here it comes. Here it comes. Her worst fear has finally come true.

These people were fierce. They were clearly the police. They were here to arrest her, Chen Jiafu, and Li E!

A few days ago, her eyelids kept twitching every night, but tonight it stopped. It turned out that this was the reason.

Wang Gui's body trembled. She cleared his throat and said in a trembling voice, "I just joined the God's Church not long ago. It's only been a year. As I'm from the county city, I know many friends. Chen Jiafu gave me a sum of money at one time and asked me to be in charge of finding out about some things in the county."

Wang Gui wasn't as easy to fool as the villagers. She didn't treat Chen Jiafu's words as an imperial edict. Now, she couldn't even save herself. How could she help Chen Jiafu escape punishment? She told them everything she knew.

"...That's all I know."

Hearing so much was enough for Xia Jinyuan and the rest. They turned off the recording pen and stood up from the sofa. Standing at 1.9 meters tall, one could feel the pressure from his height. Wang Gui lowered her head and didn't dare to move.

Chapter 1500: Search

"Leave it to the Guilin police." After hearing what Wang Gui said, Xia Jinyuan destroyed the last bit of hope in Wang Gui's heart.

She thought that as long as she cooperated, everything would be fine. She didn't care about her fear anymore. She raised her head and cried, "I've already told you everything. What else do you want? That's all I know. Didn't you say that if I was honest you would be lenient and if I resist you'll be strict? I've already confessed. Why are you still taking me away?"

Although she was smart, she was also ignorant.

She broke the law, but she thought that she would be safe as long as she apologized.

“Inform the Guilin police to control all the criminals that Wang Gui has revealed. Cut off all communication between the main suspects and the outside world.” Wang Gui was taken away. Her food wholesale shop temporarily became the base of the Snow Region Brigade. Xia Jinyuan opened the satellite map and pointed at one of the locations with his slender fingers. His handsome face was as cold as water. “Chen Jiafu’s hiding place is here. It’s surrounded by mountains and it’s inconvenient for transportation. The Guilin police will control the roads and the country stations.”

“Tonight, we will drive to the village to fetch Ye Jian. At the same time, we will control all the villagers in the village to prevent any riots.” According to Wang Gui’s statement, all the villagers in the village where Chen Jiafu was at had been brainwashed. If only Chen Jiafu was caught, all the villagers would resist. This was something the leaders didn’t want to see.

“The few of us will be the vanguard. Pigeon and the rest will be the backup while Ye Jian will be the spy. At the same time, we will protect the witness and ensure his safety. Brothers, this battle is a little special. You must be alert. Don’t let the bullets misfire.”

This time, they were facing citizens of their country. They needed to be cautious so that the citizens wouldn’t criticize them.

White Crane nodded. “You can fight, but you can’t kill. You can’t use a gun if they are bare handed. That’s basically it.”

When they were carrying out missions in the country, especially when it involved the citizens, as soldiers, they were under more pressure than when they were fighting overseas. Even if they were facing criminals, they couldn’t aim their guns at them.

This was a restriction on the soldiers of the country since they were responsible for the lives of its citizens.

The lights in the wholesale food department store were turned off. A few black figures walked out of the door and disappeared into the darkness.

The sound of a motorcycle engine was heard. The people in the county didn’t notice anything and continued living a peaceful and simple life.

Some people had already come out to shield them from the wind and rain. They blocked the potential dangers and got rid of the criminals who might end up in a dangerous society at some point in time. That was why they were safe today.

The wind started blowing, and dark clouds covered the starry night sky. Even the insects had stopped chirping. Everything in the world was shrouded in darkness. This was the darkness before dawn. It was filled with unknown danger.

Ye Jian was still awake. She sneaked out of Fu Hui’s house and started her mission according to the location provided.

The water in the pond was a little cold. Ye Jian took a deep breath and dived into the pond. Without any protection, she used her hands to search.

Fu Hui said that the woven bag was in the middle of the pond. She just needed to look for it slowly.

Fortunately, the pond was a little far away, so there were no houses nearby. The sound of the water was a little loud, but it wouldn't attract any attention. Ye Jian felt a stone woven bag in the mud, and her heart sank.

She found the first woven bag.
