

BOOT CAMP 1601

Chapter 1601: Finish One in a Few Seconds

This was Ye Jian's voice. After taking care of a target, she locked onto a new target.

The 'target' arranged this time didn't need to be killed. As long as you could finish the target in close combat and successfully rescue the 'hostage' with them, activate the signal device on the soldier, and save the 'hostage,' they would clear the mission.

The soldier froze when he heard her voice.

A female Special Forces soldier!

A female Special Forces soldier killed him!

The soldier still wanted to move his body. He turned his head and looked at the female Special Forces soldier who 'killed' him. When he moved slightly, Ye Jian smiled again. "Don't move. Stay here."

After speaking, she took out the assault rifle from the soldier's hand and unloaded the magazine into her luggage. On the battlefield, she would never complain about having too many bullets.

When the soldier heard the sound of the magazine being unloaded, he got a little anxious. "Brother, don't take my weapon away. I have to return it to the armory. If you take it, I won't be able to answer to the higher-ups."

"I saw the magazine number. After we finish using it, I promise to return it to your unit." Ye Jian smiled. Her reaction was fast. She knew that she still needed to return the weapon. "Thank you for your hard work. I need to borrow the blank cartridge. I will return it when I finish using it."

The soldier frowned when he saw that she was determined to take his magazine. "My squad leader never said that you can take our things. How am I going to explain to our squad leader later? Brother, you really can't take it."

"We will contact your military unit. It will not affect you." Ye Jian comforted the young soldier and cut off all his communication. "Stay here and don't contact the outside world. Come out after we are done."

Without waiting for the soldier's reply, Ye Jian picked up the target and disappeared in the blink of an eye.

She came silently and left silently. The soldier only heard her voice and didn't see her.

She turned her head. There was no sign of the female Special Forces soldier. No one knew where she went.

What gave the soldier a headache was that she had taken the magazine of the assault rifle! How was he going to answer to the squad leader?

Then, the soldier touched his neck. There seemed to be the cold touch of the dagger on his skin. It was so close that if he had moved slightly, she could have easily cut his throat.

The soldier sighed softly. Their two classes were considered to be on par in terms of comprehensive skills in the military unit. In the end, when they faced a Special Forces soldier, it felt like they were insta-killed before they even started. The difference between them and the Special Forces was big.

He definitely wouldn't contact the squad leader again. He believed that the squad leader knew that something had happened to him.

The squad leader from the local military unit understood that another one of his brothers had been killed. He hurriedly contacted the other brothers and said softly, "Brothers, we are going to start attacking. Remember, we have 7.62 MM blank cartridges in our hands. The safety distance is five meters. Remember this. Don't shoot when you see someone in front of you! If someone dies, no one will be able to bear the consequences!"

The squad leader reminded them again and again. He was afraid that if they fought until their blood was boiling, something big would happen. "Once you are killed by them, squat down and don't move. The Special Forces will come and take away the 'hostage' on you! All of you have some backbone. Don't think that it's embarrassing to be killed. You might as well learn from how they killed you."

Chapter 1602: Worship the Strong

This was a squad leader who had wanted to become a Special Forces soldier. Hence, his voice was a little excited.

He wasn't strong enough to become a Special Forces soldier, but it was good to meet a Special Forces soldier. They needed to take back their 'hostage.' If they wanted to see a Special Forces soldier, they just needed to find their 'dead' brothers.

It looked like he needed to go out and observe where his brothers were 'killed' by the Special Forces.

The squad leader really wanted to meet the Special Forces soldiers in training. The platoon leader said that the Special Forces soldiers that came this time were not ordinary Special Forces soldiers. They were the top Special Forces in the country. They were the real sharp blades of the country. Normal people wouldn't be able to see them at all since they rarely appeared in the country.

When he heard that, he was so excited that his entire body trembled.

Last night, the two classes had an emergency gathering. Then, the brothers from the two classes each carried a 'hostage' and rushed to this forest that had caught fire not long ago. In the car, they thought that they were going to train. They only knew what they were going to do when they gathered in the mountains.

They were going to hide in the forest with the 'hostage' and cooperate with two top special forces units to complete the competition!

The platoon leader even emphasized what kind of special forces this was. They should feel honored!

As for what kind of special forces they were, he still didn't know. Now, he just felt happy that he might be able to go against them.

He couldn't say that he wanted to spar with them. He could only say that he wanted to learn from them.

The Water Ghosts of the Storm Commando Brigade never liked to cause too much of a commotion. Their training method was to be 'quiet' and solve their targets secretly.

Although they weren't good at mountain combat, they were much more free to move on the ground than water. Although they weren't too good, it wasn't like they didn't know anything.

With Ye Jian's first shot, the gunshots in the mountain became more and more concentrated. The speed of the gunshots got faster too.

Ye Jian moved faster than them. Once her target was locked on, she would not fail.

A soldier wearing a forest camouflage uniform appeared in front of them. He used the hostage target as his cover and jumped out of the forest. He appeared around ten meters away from the two members of the Storm Commando Brigade.

"Seven o'clock!" A Water Ghost took cover, and another one quickly took a shot. The blank cartridge without a bullet hit the shoulder of the soldier holding the hostage. This was an effective shooting point.

Then, the other Water Ghost that was covering them completed the second fatal shot and successfully heard a long beep from the soldier.

There were only two classes in the forest. There were ten soldiers in each class, which meant that twenty soldiers were moving around in the forest. The Storm Commando Brigade could handle one.

However, these soldiers blocked their 'hostage targets' in front of them and used them as their cover like robbers. This made things difficult for the Storm Commando Brigade.

Rescuing hostages was a common occurrence for Special Forces soldiers. Hence, even if it was difficult, they could win.

The two classes in the local military unit were suppressed by the Water Ghosts and couldn't rebound at all. They were either ambushed or killed before they could finish shooting.

"Demon King, our team has taken care of eight. How's the situation on your side?" The Water Ghost didn't know how many 'hostages' they needed to rescue. He contacted Li Jinnian secretly. "I estimate that there are two to three units of soldiers here.. If they each have one hostage target, there will be at least twenty."

Chapter 1603: Amazing, My Sister

Li Jinnian squatted beside a soldier that had just been dealt with. He said calmly, "There are two units with twenty people in total. So far, there are still hostages remaining."

“Don’t look at me. I don’t know where they are either.” The young soldier sitting on the ground muttered softly. The other party’s gaze made him unable to look back at him. His gaze was not only cold but there was also a killing intent in it. It made people flustered.

Li Jinnian didn’t expect to get anything out of him. Like Ye Jian, he unloaded the magazine from the soldier’s hand and placed it aside. He said politely, “Thank you for your hard work.”

“It’s not hard; it’s not hard.” The soldier hurriedly shook his head and replied. The squad leader asked them to learn a little, but he really didn’t learn anything. He didn’t know where he came from, but he was defeated by him easily.

As expected of a Special Forces soldier!

There were still four hostages left: the squad leaders and the vice squad leaders. The four of them were naturally more outstanding.

“Later, I will be the bait. I will carry the hostage and run in front of them. You don’t have to care if they see you. Just shoot and go out to scout the path.” The squad leader who wanted to fight with the Special Forces soldiers said to his vice squad leader and another squad leader with the surname Liu. “The two of you don’t move first. Wait for us to place our guns before moving. We must see someone before moving. If not, we will have done it for nothing.”

After he finished speaking, the squad leader sighed. “At least we have twenty brothers. We should show some results too. Don’t embarrass our platoon leader.”

The two squad leaders were hiding in a ravine.

This was a ravine that was dug when the fire was put out and prevented the spread of the fire from igniting another mountain of fir. It was one meter deep and thirty meters long. It was almost digging around the entire mountain.

The hiding spot was good. The Water Ghosts didn’t notice it for a while.

They didn’t hide it on purpose. It was an order from the higher-ups.

“Leader Fu, I think it’s a little difficult.” Leader Liu replied in a low voice. “There are no more gunshots in the forest. This means that all our brothers in the forest have been killed. It took... twenty minutes.”

They didn’t even need half an hour to kill their 16 brothers.

Leader Fu carefully stuck his head out and glanced outside. Then, he squatted down slowly. “That’s right. I wanted to rush to the side of my brothers and observe those Special Forces soldiers at a close distance. However, as soon as I thought about it, I extinguished the idea.”

There was no other reason. He was really worried that he would be killed the moment he appeared.

“Let’s drag the time. The platoon leader told us to come and drag their time.” Leader Fu looked at the time and said to Leader Liu, “Separate. If they discover us, the four of us will catch them.”

“Vice leader, let’s go to the other side.” As he spoke, he brought his vice leader to the other side of the ravine.

The Water Ghosts started a comprehensive search in the mountainous forest which was filled with the smell of smoke. They were still looking for the missing hostages. They could only receive the order to leave after they found all the hostages.

If their superior didn’t give the order, it meant that they still had hostages left.

Li Jinnian wasn’t anxious because of this. The more it was like this, the calmer he had to be. He said in a deep voice, “Let’s do a wide search. Complete the search in five minutes!”

Chapter 1604: They Who Protect the Country

How could the command center let the two teams pass so easily? The arrangements would only get more complicated so that they could observe everyone’s combat ability and see if they could adjust their tactics in time.

After giving his orders, Li Jinnian turned to look at Ye Jian, who was guarding the area. Just as he was about to speak, Ye Jian noticed his gaze and turned her head.

Obviously, she had something to say.

He pointed in front and then pointed at Ye Jian and himself. Li Jinnian didn’t ask. Instead, he looked at Ye Jian.

Ye Jian wanted to say her opinion, but she immediately understood what he meant. That was what she meant too.

They suspected that there were no more hostages in this area. They might be at the periphery.

The original plan was simple. First, it was to delay their time. Second, the commander needed to see if Li Jinnian could notice anything amiss and make the right decision immediately.

This time, the command center couldn’t see their actual combat situation. They could only watch the data. Hence, the command center could roughly estimate their performance through the length of time the two teams used.

The Snow Region Brigade was already close to the location where the two hostages were hiding. Xia Jinyuan, who was as sensitive as a leopard, made a gesture for the two of them to surround them. The two members of the Snow Region Brigade rushed out like beasts from the mountains and pounced on the hiding place of the ‘hostages.’

Bang! Bang!

Two gunshots were heard. Seven meters away, the other two members of the Snow Region Brigade completed their shooting. They were shooting at the ‘targets’ with the hostages. They took 22 minutes to complete their mission.

The Snow Region Brigade won this round.

When they completed the last effective shooting point, the command center immediately knew that the Snow Region Brigade had completed shooting all of their 'targets.' They had successfully rescued all the 'hostages.' No 'hostages' had been killed.

"Group B, complete all target shooting." The major general's voice could be heard through the earpieces of every member of the Snow Region Brigade. "They use 22 minutes to complete their mission.."

The Snow Region Brigade only knew that they were done, but they didn't know if the Storm Commando Brigade was done.

They walked in front of the local soldiers who had gathered and were cooperating with them. As Xia Jinyuan saluted, all the members of the Snow Region Brigade saluted the soldiers who cooperated with them unconditionally to express their gratitude.

"Thank you for your hard work."

"Thank you for your hard work."

Led by Xia Jinyuan, every member of the Snow Region Brigade shook hands with the local soldiers and thanked them.

They took off their combat gloves and held their hands that were also calloused. They thanked them and smiled. There was no unfamiliarity or distance between them. They were all wearing the same military uniform and protecting the country together!

After shaking hands, Xia Jinyuan organized his team again. The 22 members of the Snow Region Brigade strode towards another combat area.

The soldiers of the local forces stood straight and saluted as they watched the elite special forces leave.

The drizzle continued. The twenty-two figures, which were as straight as poplar trees, walked towards the depths of the mountains step by step with a fearless aura that even soldiers respected.

The Special Forces soldiers wearing forest camouflage uniforms and new combat helmets were indeed different from them. Every step they took made them feel that their steps could shake the entire mountain. They were firm and steady.

Chapter 1605: Meeting Her Old Classmate?

He carried 25 kilograms of combat equipment on his back and the rifle that protected soldiers' lives, the country's territory, and the citizens' safety. He also wore combat boots that were stained with yellow mud and grass dust walked forward bravely.

From the looks of it, they would only continue moving forward. Even if there were mountains of swords and seas of flames in front of them, they would not stop and move forward bravely.

The platoon leader waited until the 22 figures were out of sight before asking his soldiers to retract their hands and leave with the squad leader.

Li Jinnian and Ye Jian were already close to two of the 'targets.'

The two of them glanced at the newly piled soil and knew that there was a ditch below. Then, they looked at the mountains opposite the ditch. It was a stark contrast to the burning forest.

One was burnt to death, the other was mesmerizing in the autumn scenery, and red maple leaves were swaying gently in the drizzle.

Li Jinnian replied with an ‘OK’ gesture. He hunched his back and moved to the left. When he heard Ye Jian say ‘get ready,’ the two of them reached the ravine at almost the same time.

Ye Jian fired a shot and hit a soldier on the back. The signal device made a long beep sound. She and Li Jinnian killed one each at almost the same time.

Leader Fu’s eyes widened. He wasn’t widening his eyes because he was ‘shot’ in the back but because one of the Special Forces soldiers was familiar. It was so familiar that he widened his eyes in disbelief.

“Ye Jian.”

He called out a familiar name in a low voice. Although his voice was low, it was filled with surprise, shock, and disbelief.

How was that possible? How could he meet Ye Jian here? When did she become a Special Forces soldier?

In the first half of her senior year, she applied for enlistment in school and went back to Fujun Town to settle the enlistment procedures. On the streets, he met Ye Ying and her mother, Auntie Sun. She told him that Ye Jian had left school and left with a gangster.

Some people in the town said that they saw Ye Jian in the coastal city. They said that they saw her washing hair in a hair salon.

The rumors were very detailed. At that time, he felt that it was a pity when he heard it. Not only did her results were good, but she even won a huge award. Why did she degrade herself and become a black sheep?

Washing hair? Special Forces soldiers?

After being a hairdresser for a period of time, Ye Jian became a Special Forces soldier?

Was that possible?

He was a soldier. He knew that this was impossible!

Li Jinnian was the one who killed Leader Fu. When he heard the squad leader mention Ye Jian’s name, he couldn’t help but frown.

What a coincidence. He met a soldier who knew Azure Bird.

Ye Jian was shocked too. She actually met her former junior high classmate, Fu Dong, here.

Class Monitor Fu's name was Fu Dong. He came from Fujun Town in Anyang City in the Southern Province. He was Ye Jian's classmate in junior high and was the only male student who joined the military.

She met her old classmate at a competition. It was not appropriate to greet him!

Although she and Fu Dong were classmates, they didn't have much of a relationship.

Junior high was her toughest period of training. Besides being close to Jiaxin, Zhang Bin, Zhang Na, and Zhou Liao, the rest of the students were just acquaintances. They didn't have much to talk about.

Chapter 1606: Isn't Ye Jian a Foot Wash Girl?

Now was not the time to acknowledge her old classmates. Ye Jian pretended that she didn't hear anything and stopped walking over. She glanced at Li Jinnian and held the edge of the ravine with one hand. She jumped out of the ravine lightly.

Fu Dong wanted to wait for her to walk closer to confirm if he was mistaken. In the end, the female Special Forces soldier didn't give him a chance to take a good look and left.

Was it Ye Jian?

He really suspected that she was Ye Jian. From the second year of junior high, Ye Jian seemed to have changed into a different person. She became the brightest pearl in the class. She suppressed even Ye Ying. She was not as timid and cowardly as before.

If it was really her, did Ye Jian become a soldier after dropping out of high school? Did she perform well and become a Special Forces soldier?

No, no. How could becoming a Special Forces soldier be so easy?

When he entered the military camp, he performed well when he was a recruit. He even innocently asked the squad leader if he could enter the special forces based on his performance during the recruit training.

The squad leader pointed at an instructor who was teaching a new recruit a lesson and said, "I don't need to explain my squad leader's comprehensive ability. You've already seen it. Even an instructor hasn't become a Special Forces soldier. Kid, do you think you can do it? However, you still have potential. All the best. You might really become a Special Forces soldier."

Every recruit didn't become a Special Forces soldier. Fu Dong felt that he had no hope at all.

However, he didn't give up. He entered the military as a senior high student. He felt a little proud. He always felt that he could do it. He entered the military in the second half of his first year of senior high. He had put in a lot of effort in the two and a half years. At the same time, he understood how difficult it was to become a Special Forces soldier.

To him, there was no hope in this lifetime.

But now, he saw Ye Jian.... A girl became a Special Forces soldier. Was this possible?

A cold man's voice came from behind. It was so cold that he came back to his senses.

Fu Dong turned and looked at the Special Forces soldier who took care of him easily. His gaze landed on his armband. Unfortunately, there was nothing.

Just now, he said that he had worked hard. Fu Dong, who was still in a daze, tightened his expression and reached out his hand to hold the other party's. He smiled and said, "You're welcome. We're brothers. It's what we should do."

Fu Dong, who had been training in the military unit for two and a half years, had learned to be silent. Although his heart was filled with questions and shock, he didn't think of chasing after the female soldier to confirm if she was Ye Jian.

When the platoon leader brought them into the mountain, he reminded them, "Don't look at things you shouldn't look at. Don't ask things you shouldn't ask. Open your eyes and shut your mouth. Do your thing properly."

If it was in the past, he would have asked. However, he wouldn't ask now.

Ye Jian. If that female soldier was really Ye Jian, Fu Dong couldn't help but smile. Then, the rumor that Ye Ying's family had been hurting Ye Jian in the dark was true.

After coming out of the ravine, Fu Dong saw several Special Forces soldiers carrying heavy combat equipment walking out of the forest. They were walking very quickly as if they were not carrying any weight. They seemed so relaxed.

He looked around secretly. Although he didn't go up to confirm, he still wanted to know if that female soldier was Ye Jian. If it was really her... Fu Dong sighed softly. So what if it was really her?

Chapter 1607: Proud of You

Li Jinnian strode over and walked beside Ye Jian. "He knows you."

"Yes, we used to be classmates." Ye Jian looked at Fu Dong, who was tidying up the team. She smiled and sighed. "It's too unexpected. I met my old classmate."

It turned out that he was a junior high classmate. This was easy to handle. She was afraid that she would meet someone familiar from the same village.

Li Jinnian's gaze turned dark as he said calmly, "Azure Bird, your identity and the military unit you served are classified."

"I understand." Ye Jian nodded. She understood what Li Jinyan wanted to tell her. The Storm Commando Brigade was the same as the Snow Region Brigade. The identities of all the members and which military unit they served in were confidential. They couldn't even tell their families.

Fortunately, Fu Dong didn't confirm that it was her. After all, she had graduated from junior high three and a half years ago.

"He didn't recognize me. He just thinks I look familiar." Ye Jian didn't have any intention of acknowledging her old classmate. She didn't have any intention of showing off either.

She was Ye Jian, a female soldier who fought for her goal. What did their thoughts have to do with her?

Fu Dong had already looked around, but he didn't find any familiar figures. He didn't notice them until all the Special Forces soldiers shook hands with them.

Fu Dong watched as the fearless Special Forces soldiers left. He realized that only 21 Special Forces soldiers shook hands with him. When they left, there were 22 people.

The extra figure was wearing the forest combat uniform like a male soldier. She carried the same combat equipment and walked towards the depths of the mountain.

Her back view stood out among the tall and straight male soldiers. She was as slender as a willow tree. In the rain, she looked as majestic as any male soldier.

Ye Jian, if you are really Ye Jian, my old classmate here will congratulate you. Congratulations on becoming an indomitable soldier!

"Squad leader, what are you looking at?" A soldier asked him softly. He said regretfully, "That female Special Forces soldier. Sigh, I was killed by her. I don't even know how she found me. How can a woman be so powerful?"

If she was really Ye Jian, Fu Dong smiled and replied, "So what if she's a female soldier? Although she's a female soldier, she's a Special Forces soldier who's better than us male soldiers."

She was so good when she was studying. After she joined the military, she was still so good.

This was the old classmate he knew, Ye Jian. Now, she was a soldier. She was wearing a military uniform and carrying a steel gun. She was a soldier who fought for the country!

Fu Dong stopped thinking about it. He didn't probe further. Although he didn't confirm if it was Ye Jian, he believed wholeheartedly that his old classmate was the female soldier who didn't even shake hands with him.

As a soldier, he naturally had to protect his old classmate.

Ye Jian didn't know what her old junior high classmate was thinking at this moment. However, she knew that if Fu Dong recognized her as a soldier, he would still have the basic awareness of confidentiality.

As the squad leader, Fu Dong's performance in the military unit was not bad. This way, even if he recognized her, she wouldn't have to worry.

The drizzle was still flying around. The mountain of fir that the fire had burned was already several kilometers away from the Storm Commando Brigade. At 3:00 PM, the two teams would complete their 'support shooting..' Then, they would enter the area where the two teams would fight together and complete the '300 meters time limit of 100 accurate shots.'

Chapter 1608: A Little Awkward

Many factors affected the accuracy of a bullet, including rain and wind.

The weather that the two Special Forces from the Storm Commando Brigade and Snow Region Brigade encountered wasn't good. It rained on the sea, and when they came out of the sea, it was still raining. The wind and rain didn't stop. It kept raining and interfering.

The Special Forces soldiers, who were braving the drizzle, were drenched from head to toe. They could wring water out of their clothes. Not a single part of their bodies was dry.

Ye Jian, who was always tolerant, turned pale at around 5:00 PM. Her rosy lips turned pale. Li Jinnian was the closest to her, so he could feel her change.

"You can only rest after walking through this section. Persist for another hour." Demon King slowed down and looked at her combat equipment that was as heavy as those of a male soldier. He pursed his thin lips and whispered, "Give me the luggage. You have to hold the gun yourself."

She didn't know what would happen next. A gun could not only ensure her own safety but also protect her comrades' lives.

Ye Jian felt uncomfortable in her lower abdomen. She secretly adjusted her breathing and shook her head. She smiled at him and said, "It's all right. I can still carry it. If I can't, I will report to you."

Facing her persistence, Li Jinnian's cold gaze stopped on her face for a few seconds. He nodded slightly and said, "Sure. If there's a problem, you can reach me at any time." After a pause, he added, "I'm quite reasonable."

His last sentence made Ye Jian feel a little awkward. She quickly recalled her interaction with Demon King. Indeed, she didn't say or unintentionally express his 'unreasonable' actions before she managed to resolve the awkwardness in her heart.

"I know. I can still persevere now. If I can't persevere, I will definitely ask my comrades for help." As she spoke, a soft smile appeared on Ye Jian's pale face. "Helping each other. I know that."

The female soldier's smile appeared suddenly and caught him off guard. It didn't land lightly on his heart. Instead, it landed heavily on his heart. His heart skipped a beat...

Li Jinnian's heart skipped a beat. He calmly retracted his gaze and hummed softly. He couldn't help but stride forward and leave her behind.

Female soldiers were indeed dangerous creatures. It was the right decision not to recruit female soldiers!

The commander wanted to keep Azure Bird.... Forget it.

Li Jinnian's mind was in a mess.

After he left, Ye Jian heaved a sigh of relief. She felt a little uncomfortable, but it wasn't so serious that she needed the help.

As a woman, there would always be a few days of bleeding every month. Her time of the month should be coming soon. Her lower abdomen had been feeling uncomfortable since around four in the afternoon. Now, it was hurting slightly. For the first time, Ye Jian felt the discomfort caused by period.

In the past, she never felt uncomfortable.

Li Jinnian didn't believe her. He could tell that she was uncomfortable. How could she be fine?

But if she could persevere, she had to persevere.

They needed to rush to the combat area where the two teams would 'hunt' in advance and inspect it. Then, they needed to complete the last two tasks together. There was a time limit of 1 to 300 meters for 100 shots to be fired accurately. There was a time limit of 2 hours to the sniper team battle.. After completing these two tasks, they would officially enter the 'hunting' mission

Chapter 1609: How Should She Start

Many members of the military didn't understand why the military arranged this. Shouldn't they first arrange for 'hunting,' then carry out the 100 accurate and time-limited shots, as well as the sniper team competition?

Why was it reversed?

Although they didn't understand the military's arrangement, since it was an order, all the members must accept it unconditionally.

Even if you don't understand, you have to accept it first before coming out to understand why they made such an arrangement.

Reality proved that this was the military's intentional arrangement. They would consume all the members' stamina to a certain extent and then arrange the most physical and mental operations. This was to stimulate everyone's potential to the greatest extent so that they could improve their abilities.

As a combat commander, Li Jinnian understood the military's intention when he received the order. He believed that Xia Jinyuan was the same.

At the same time, he could quickly arrange a plan that was beneficial to the final “hunt.” He could deploy in advance and check the hunting spot. He could use this method to replenish his stamina and quickly end the “hunt.”

Now, the two teams were hurrying on their journey. For the sake of the follow-up battle arrangements, even if Li Jinnian could tell that Ye Jian was unwell, he couldn’t stop because of her.

On the battlefield, it was impossible to delay a warplane for personal reasons.

Ye Jian naturally understood too. Hence, she gritted her teeth and persevered. She didn’t want to waste the entire team’s time. Time was life on a battlefield filled with gunpowder. How could she stop for personal reasons?

She understood. As the commander, Li Jinnian understood even more.

An hour later, the Storm Commando Brigade arrived at the mountain. It was already six at night, and they were only eight kilometers away from the two combat areas.

After walking for eight kilometers, the two teams would be fighting together. They would be hunting in the east. There was a natural lake in the middle with a complicated environment.

They could rest here. There was not much time. There were only ten minutes.

Ten minutes was enough for Ye Jian to solve her personal problem. After putting down her equipment, Ye Jian asked Li Jinnian for two minutes of leave. As for a reason, she didn’t say anything. She went into the forest alone.

“There’s something wrong with Azure Bird. Her face doesn’t look good.” Big Eel drank the cold water. He frowned and looked at Ye Jian’s back worriedly. “Do you want to go over and take a look? Is she sick?”

She wasn’t that delicate. When she trained with them, she would always be in the water. They had never seen her sick or cold.

Li Jinnian narrowed his cold eyes slightly and glanced in the direction where Ye Jian left. A hint of worry flashed past his cold eyes. Her situation was indeed not good. He said to Big Eel, “Ask Big Shuttle to come over.”

The Water Ghost with the codename ‘Big Shuttle’ was the same as K7 of the Snow Region Brigade. He was a medical staff.

After listening to Li Jinnian’s description, Big Shuttle’s face turned a little gloomy. “We need to prepare some hot water for her. I’ll go to the vicinity and see if there’s any place suitable for starting a fire.”

As a medical staff, Big Shuttle could vaguely guess what was wrong with Azure Bird’s body.

“You know?” The unmarried Big Eel looked at Big Shuttle in surprise. “You are amazing. You don’t even need to take a look to know.”

Li Jinnian looked at Big Shuttle too. He used his gaze to ask his comrade how he knew. No matter how much he trusted his comrade, he still felt a little worried when he heard what he said.

Chapter 1610: Demon King Is Awkward

Big Shuttle didn't know how to answer his captain's question. This was a woman's privacy. How should he tell his unmarried commander?

As for his other unmarried comrade, Big Eel, he was easy to deal with. He said directly, "Big Eel, go to the side. Don't cause trouble."

"Why am I causing trouble? I'm just standing and listening to you. I'm not disturbing you. I'm also..."

Before Big Eel could finish speaking, he received the Demon King's indifferent gaze. He reacted quickly and turned back, walking forward. He didn't dare to stay.

After he left, Li Jinnian asked in a tense voice, "What happened?" There was something wrong with Azure Bird's body. Was it so serious that she needed to hide it from her comrades?

Ye Jian was a female soldier. Normally, her training was no different from a male soldier. But now, her body was in bad condition. As the captain, Li Jinnian had to care more.

After sending away his comrade, Big Shuttle, who was still deliberating in front of his captain, cleared his throat and said vaguely, "It's not a big deal. Captain, you just need to know that it's not a big deal. Ye Jian can solve it herself."

"What's with the hot water?" The bachelor, Li Jinnian, still hadn't reacted. It wasn't that his reaction was slow. It was just that he had never encountered such a situation before, so his reaction was naturally slow.

Big Shuttle was married. He was 31-years-old, and his child was already three. A male soldier who had a wife would always know more about women. Seeing that his wise and mighty Demon King didn't understand, Big Shuttle sighed and said, "Demon King, it's time for you to find a girlfriend. Ye Jian is uncomfortable because of what happens to girls every month. Middle school students..."

"I understand." As soon as he mentioned it, Li Jinnian reacted instantly. His expression was a little stiff as he interrupted Big Shuttle and said in his usual cold tone, "Hot water.... How do you think we should solve this?"

Big Shuttle looked around. It was not easy to solve this problem. There needed to be a fire to get hot water. It was not suitable to start a fire here. "Let's wait for Ye Jian to suggest it. We will... pretend that we don't know so that she won't feel awkward."

Pretending not to know was indeed a way to resolve the awkwardness. When Ye Jian came back, she realized that the Demon King was already carrying her equipment. Seeing that she was coming over, he said calmly, "You don't look very good. We will take turns carrying your equipment."

He didn't say anything else. His business-like tone seemed to be telling Ye Jian that they made this arrangement because they didn't want to affect their marching speed.

Ye Jian noticed a subtle atmosphere. For instance, when the Demon King was talking to her, he didn't look at her. Instead, he looked away.

This was not the Demon King's style at all.

Li Jinnian suddenly felt that he couldn't bear Ye Jian's gaze. He lowered his head and looked at the time to cover his unnatural expression. "There are seven minutes left. Have a rest."

After he finished speaking, he carried Ye Jian's equipment and left.

Ye Jian couldn't help but squint as she stared at his hasty back view. She didn't say anything. He left immediately after he finished speaking. Something was obviously wrong.

Her gaze was very realistic, especially when she was only looking at one spot. Although it was faint and not aggressive, it had a sharpness that could see through people's hearts. Li Jinnian, who was carrying a luggage bag on his back, couldn't help but walk faster.

It was good that she didn't know. If she knew, she would feel awkward. He should take care of her. When it was time to take care of her, he should take care of her so that... he wouldn't appear unreasonable.
