

BOOT CAMP 1671

Chapter 1671: Don't Even Think About Letting Her Admit Defeat

Admit defeat?

Ye Jian bore with the pain and smiled coldly. Admit defeat? She had already lost completely in her past life. In this life, she wouldn't be able to admit defeat.

She had been entangled with them for almost half an hour. She didn't know how the Demon King was doing.

Without Q King on the scene, with Demon King's combat skills, he still had a chance of winning against the members of the Snow Region Brigade! In addition, Sea Anemone and Sea Urchin were scouts from the army. They would provide many benefits to the members of the Storm Commando Brigade who were not familiar with snow warfare.

She couldn't admit defeat. The Demon King's 'hunting' mission hadn't ended. She tried her best to restrain Q King so that Demon King would have more hope of defeating the Snow Region Brigade!

She needed to think of a way to stop Q King. At the same time, she needed to escape.

She tilted her head and crossed her arms to block Xia Jinyuan's fist that was aimed at her face. Her voice was vicious as she replied straightforwardly, "I don't want to!" Then, she raised her leg and kicked his lower abdomen.

This kick caused T6, who was kicking over, to feel pain for Xia Jinyuan. There was a thin membrane between his abdomen and his chest. Those who knew combat knew that as long as they hit this place, they could definitely make their opponent roll on the ground in pain.

Also, Ye Jian's leg strength was quite strong. She must have specially trained it to make up for the lack of strength in her arm. If it wasn't for their thick skin, IT would have broken their bones!

T6 felt his teeth hurting.

How painful would that be?

Fortunately, he only staggered a few steps. He shrugged his shoulders and twisted his neck. Without any hesitation, he raised his leg and kicked Ye Jian again.

It was fine if she didn't admit defeat, but she needed to admit her mistake!

Look at the real battlefield! Look at the real life and death struggle!

Looking at the pair of black eyes that were shining with a strange light, Xia Jinyuan unconsciously raised his thin lips a little. However, the coldness in his black eyes didn't subside at all. He stared at Ye Jian fiercely.

You are so beautiful, so good, and so stubborn. Why did you make such a low-level mistake?

Thinking about Ye Jian's mistakes, Xia Jinyuan's gaze turned colder. He gestured at T6 and the two of them attacked from the front and back again. When T6's fist and Xia Jinyuan's right leg hit Ye Jian, Pigeon, who was watching at a close distance, pursed his lips and couldn't help but sweat for Ye Jian.

The navy commander and the major general sitting in the command center held their breaths at this moment. They were waiting for Ye Jian to escape from THE hopeless situation!

But this time, it will be difficult! Both of them had shown their strength. It would be difficult for her to escape again.

Before they could think of the word 'difficult,' the two senior generals suddenly clapped their hands and said in unison, "Good! Beautiful!"

Ye Jian was already hugging T6's waist. Her right leg was placed between his legs. Then, she hooked his left leg and used a Mongolian wrestling move. T6 fell!

That's right, she really tripped the 1.8 meters tall and strong T6!

Bang! The two of them fell onto the snow. When T6 fell, he pulled Ye Jian along and shouted, "Lock!"

The dagger that Ye Jian had been holding in her hand moved horizontally towards T6's neck. When the tip of the dagger was close to his neck, an extremely sharp leg wind came from her back.. It landed heavily on her back along with the wind.

Chapter 1672: Captain Xia, You're in Trouble

Xia Jinyuan kicked Ye Jian's back again.

Ye Jian, who was falling forward, gasped because of T6's helmet. Her entire body was in so much pain that she felt as if she had been run over by a car. She rolled down from T6 and grabbed a handful of snow with her hands, scattering it on the black figure's head.

At this moment, Ye Jian was in so much pain that her vision was a little blurred. The only thing she could do was to use the wind to clear her mind so that she wouldn't get dizzy from the pain.

T6 rubbed his neck and got up from the snow... That was close. Just now, his throat was almost 'slit.' What a scary Azure Bird. She was vicious.

However, if they were to encounter such a difficult situation on the battlefield, they would only think of killing the person.

Although Azure Bird was vicious, this was the truth.

Also, Q King was forcing her so that she would realize the cruelty of the battlefield. She needed to rely on her own abilities to win and not use her 'sympathy.'

They were all like bullets. There was no sympathy. There was only life and death.

Ye Jian grabbed two handfuls of snow and threw them at Xia Jinyuan. Besides being dazed by the snow for a second, Xia Jinyuan's speed didn't change at all. He didn't even pause for a second. On the battlefield, he was a fearless soldier who fought for victory!

His right hand had already grabbed Ye Jian's ankle. Like a crocodile that had just come out of the water, he bit his prey tightly. His handsome face was cold and ruthless. He wanted to drag Ye Jian on the snow.

Now, he was telling her very seriously and responsibly what the captive would experience! He was testing her with his life on what would happen!

"Q King must be angry." The major general of the army narrowed his eyes. His expression was serious as he stared at the screen. He said in a deep voice, "He wants Azure Bird to remember that the person she's most familiar with is the one who's fighting with her. Her previous actions are undoubtedly seeking death."

"The correct way should be like now. As long as there's still a breath of life and a glimmer of hope, we need to work hard."

The navy commander nodded in agreement. "That's true. Nonetheless, Azure Bird's performance is remarkable. As long as she can still stand up, she will fight back. One against three, specifically three male Special Forces soldiers. It's already impressive that she lasted for half an hour."

"Yes, but it's still difficult to escape." The major general didn't think that Ye Jian had lost completely.

When Xia Jinyuan grabbed her ankle and dragged her away, she was able to retaliate and escape again. This showed how strong her desire to escape was.

As long as she didn't admit defeat, there was still a chance of survival!

T6 retracted his fist and gritted his teeth so hard that a few of them broke.

"You don't have any energy left, Azure Bird." T6 gritted his teeth and shook his hand. He and Xia Jinyuan cooperated well. They attacked from both sides and front. Although his face and body were hurting from Ye Jian's beating, it didn't affect his speed.

Ye Jian didn't have much energy left. She could faintly feel her legs trembling. It was painful. Every part of her body hurt. The punches in her chest seemed to have hit her organs.

"You can admit defeat, Azure Bird." Xia Jinyuan, who blocked her path of retreat, opened his mouth coldly. His gaze was sharp as a sword as he looked at the swaying figure. He said coldly, "This is the battlefield. Do you still dare to stretch your neck over?"

Chapter 1673: Is It Over?

Little Fox, your intelligence should be the great wisdom of devising strategies and battling thousands of miles, not the petty intelligence of a villain!

Ye Jian's arm was trembling. She took a deep breath and tried her best to clench her fist. Then, she punched T6 again.

She didn't want to talk to them. She would rather use all her strength to fight!

He watched as Ye Jian got knocked down again and again and stood up again and again. The battlefield was near the edge of the forest.

Every time Ye Jian stood up again, she would face the two people who were attacking her fearlessly. She gritted her teeth and endured the pain in her body as she threw punches and side kicks. She accepted the challenge calmly.

She would escape and the time for her to escape was getting closer and closer. As long as she was near the edge of the forest, she would definitely escape!

The light in Xia Jinyuan's dark eyes was very light. It flashed past quickly. He looked at the forest that was filled with snow thoughtfully. A cold smile appeared on his thin lips.

Very good, she still hasn't given up on escaping!

Most of the time, it wasn't that you didn't have the chance to escape. It was that you didn't last for long and gave up on survival and chose death.

Realizing Ye Jian's plan, Xia Jinyuan pursed his lips. He rolled his combat boots in the snow and suppressed the strange look in his eyes. The young major gave Ye Jian one last blow.

"Q King!"

"Azure Bird!!"

T6 and Pigeon shouted. They watched as their familiar figures flew out like kites with their strings cut and fell heavily into the snow. Their hearts trembled as they shouted.

Pigeon had already run over. Before he ran, he didn't forget to glare at his captain. Wasn't he too ruthless? Even if he had a 'captive' plan, he couldn't be so ruthless!

"Q King, are you crazy?" T6 scolded in a low voice. "You could have caught her just now. Why did you kick her one last time? Aren't you afraid that she will be heavily injured?"

Seeing Pigeon running towards him, Xia Jinyuan's eyes trembled. He closed his eyes when T6 wasn't looking. When he opened them again, the last glimmer in his eyes disappeared.

He looked at T6 and said in a cold and soft voice, "It's better to be heavily injured by me than to be captured by a real enemy. I don't want to see her heavily injured more than any of you. I don't want to see her lying motionless in the snow!"

“But I would rather teach her a lesson now than... and not...” There was a hint of hoarseness and bitterness in his cold voice. It was low and heavy like bitter melon juice. It was bitter, sour, and forbearing... It made T6’s heart sour instantly.

He looked at his captain and then at the figure that had not stood up. He released his clenched fist and took a deep breath. “Can we end it now? Can we bring her back?”

Was it over? Could they bring her back?

Xia Jinyuan didn’t manage to catch Ye Jian. He glanced at T6 coldly and walked forward.

“Azure Bird, Ye Jian! How are you? Are you okay?” Pigeon had already run to Ye Jian’s side.. Just as he was half-kneeling and reaching out his hand, his hand froze.

Chapter 1674: No Way Out

When he squatted down, he realized that Ye Jian wasn’t lying on the snow. She was leaning on the snow with her elbows and her right leg was slightly bent... This was a jump!

Azure Bird, she didn’t give up on escaping!

“Pigeon, you broke the rules.” Ye Jian raised her head and smiled at Pigeon who was concerned about her. “You should be standing at the side and watching.”

It wasn’t the end yet. She could still open her eyes. Her hands and legs still had strength!

As long as there was a chance of survival and a trace of strength, she would not give up!

As a male soldier, Pigeon was shocked. At this stage, she could still continue!

Female soldier, Azure Bird, how much respect do you have for the male soldiers?

At this moment, Pigeon was completely convinced.

He really admired her.

He admired this female soldier who was more tenacious than a male soldier. He admired this female soldier who never lowered her head and never admitted defeat!

Seeing that she had finished jumping and was rushing into the forest, Pigeon opened his mouth and closed it slowly.

After Ye Jian entered the forest, Pigeon said softly, “Q King is waiting in front. Azure Bird, you can’t escape.”

“I really only respect Azure Bird. She can still escape in this state.” T6, who walked over, had a shocked expression on his face too. He turned his head and said to Pigeon, “Do you accept it?”

T6 was already amazed by Ye Jian’s tenacity. Just now, if he had stopped Q King for another 30 seconds, the bunny would have escaped under the three of them.

The muffled sound of snow hitting the ground came from the forest. Pigeon looked at T6, who didn't plan to follow him in, and nodded to show that he was impressed. He retreated to the side.

The dead had no right to speak. They could only speak in their hearts.

Ye Jian saw the tall figure that suddenly appeared in front of her and clenched her fists out of habit.

Her black eyes were brighter than the stars in the night sky. She stared at Xia Jinyuan who was determined to catch her alive.

What were her chances of winning?

Ye Jian couldn't answer herself. She only knew that she didn't want to become a 'captive' and fall into his hands.

"Too slow! You need to be like me!" Facing Ye Jian's slow attack, Xia Jinyuan kicked her chest at lightning speed.

Do you know how it feels to be surrounded by soldiers?

Just like this, she wanted to escape but there was no way out!

The military boot kicked Ye Jian's arm that was blocking her way. Ye Jian gritted her teeth and stabbed the dagger that never left her hand towards him.

"Do you know what will happen if a female soldier becomes a captive? Your body will be harmed, your mind will be suppressed, and your will will be destroyed. They might even make you think that your birth was a mistake." Xia Jinyuan evaded the dagger. He wanted to hit the dagger in her hand, but the dagger slid past his chin.

His skin hurt a little. Although the dagger wasn't sharp enough, the person holding it used all his strength and treated it as a weapon that could really hurt people. Hence, it could hurt people too.

Xia Jinyuan touched his chin. It should be bleeding. It hurt a little. However, she had punched his chin a few times. It was alright to let some blood out.

"Azure Bird, how long can you last? Your strength has been exhausted. You can't hold on much longer." He teased her patiently like a cat teasing a mouse. However, his fist was still so fast.. It hit Ye Jian's shoulder heavily.

Chapter 1675: Waiting for Your Safe Return

Captain Xia, the ace soldier, grabbed Ye Jian's shoulder with one hand when she was staggering a few steps. He raised his long leg and cooperated perfectly with his hand and leg. He threw Ye Jian into the snow again.

After a moment of spinning, Ye Jian, whose face was covered in snow, could be said to be at her most miserable moment.

“What other ways do you have to escape from me? Do you want to use your little tricks?” Xia Jinyuan, who threw Ye Jian into the snow, looked at her coldly. He pursed his thin lips into a straight line. “Are your little tricks useful in a battlefield where you have to fight for your life?”

He was forcing her to understand the cruelty of war more clearly. He was forcing her to bathe in flames again in her blood and tears.

Her nose was filled with snow, so she could only breathe heavily. She had to bear with the pain in her chest.

“It’s useless. There’s no smart thing on the battlefield!” She replied to him loudly. She forced her voice out of her chest and passed through her throat. It had the smell of blood.

Her reply didn’t end. The torture continued. Ye Jian could feel the viciousness and anger from him. She knew that Xia Jinyuan was determined to teach her a lesson.

In the past, he told her seriously and responsibly that they were lovers and comrades. When she made a mistake one day, he would never show mercy because she was his lover.

On the contrary, he would be harsher on her!

If you want to become a real Special Forces soldier, you will have to put in more sweat and tears than you think.

The amount of blood you have to shed is greater than what you think!

Before entering the Snow Region Brigade, Ye Jian had already experienced Xia Jinyuan’s harsh punishment.

“You knowingly committed an offense, which is another crime!” Xia Jinyuan shouted coldly. He grabbed her collar and pulled her up from the snow. However, before he could do anything, Ye Jian, who was standing up, resisted again.

She immediately twisted her body to the side and grabbed his wrist that was pulling her collar.... She realized her mistake. He taught her a lesson because she made a mistake. She accepted it, but it didn’t mean that she gave up resisting!

Now, the two of them were enemies!

She lowered her head and used the flexibility of her waist to drill under Xia Jinyuan’s wrist and spin it again. As a result, Xia Jinyuan tightened his arm. To prevent her from twisting his hand, he had to let go.

She was so tenacious and strong. Xia Jinyuan was elated.

He knew that his Little Fox wouldn’t give up even if she was in a hopeless situation. As long as there was a chance to escape, she would grab it.

If she made a mistake, she needed to be punished. He was more willing to see how she would correct her mistake.

My lover, my comrade, I will watch as you carry the gun and leave. I will also wait for your safe return!

I will be looking forward to it full of hope. I just wanted to wait for you to come back while drenched in blood. Then, you will appear in my vision again. I will hold your hand and hug you again!

Looking at his lover who broke free from his grip again, Xia Jinyuan smiled faintly.

Xia Jinyuan, who didn't consume too much of his stamina, attacked harder and harder. In the end, he pressed the back of Ye Jian's neck with one hand and held her hand with the other. His actions were brutal as he pressed Ye Jian against the tree, pressing her face tightly against the cold and rough bark.

What followed was the real end!

Chapter 1676: Soldiers Should Be Like This

"Azure Bird, I told you very clearly that you will become our captive." He placed his hand on the back of Ye Jian's neck and leaned sideways to suppress her body. His thin lips were close to Ye Jian's ear. His voice was cold as he said, "Now, do you still want to run? Do you still have the strength to run? Do you still have the guts to use the same method as when you killed White Crane?"

The first sentence was all foreshadowing. The main point was the last sentence.

Ye Jian struggled a few times but she couldn't break free. She didn't waste her energy anymore and replied calmly, "No, I know my mistake."

"You dare to use such petty tricks to deal with White Crane. Azure Bird, you have disappointed too many people!" Xia Jinyuan didn't release his grip. Instead, he pressed harder on Ye Jian's neck.

Fortunately, Ye Jian was wearing a helmet. If not, her facial features would be distorted by him.

"Neither Uncle Chen nor Uncle Gen teach you to be like this. Neither did I. Neither did the military unit. No one did! And you, you could have defeated White Crane, but you used that method. Do you know that on a real battlefield, your enemies would like your suicidal behavior?"

He was right. She could have won, but she used the stupidest method. This time, he taught her a lesson so that she would learn from her mistakes.

"Did I show mercy because I know you? Did I show mercy because of our identities? No, because I'm a soldier. As long as I stand on the battlefield, even if it's my father, son, lover, friend, or brother, as long as we stand against each other and face each other in battle, I won't show any mercy. I won't stop because of the other party's probing!"

"Azure Bird, remember your identity. You are a soldier!"

He lowered his voice and spoke in her ear word by word. Ye Jian, whose face was hurting from the tree bark, closed her eyes and took a deep breath rhythmically.

That's right, when the person they were most familiar with became enemies one day, there was no such thing as mercy. They could only fight to the death!

Ye Jian's chest heaved up and down rapidly. She panted heavily. The cold wind blew into her dry throat like a knife. Her throat hurt. She listened to him quietly and accepted his criticism.

"He is showing viciousness towards the enemy." The major general pressed the teacup tightly with one hand. He exerted a little too much force. The edge of the teacup was imprinted on his palm. "Azure Bird's resistance is admirable. She persevered with the unyielding character of a soldier."

At this moment, even the technicians were looking at the slender figure. She was really... good!

A soldier should be like this!

Ye Jian didn't know that her resistance had won the favor of the high-ranking general again. She was calculating the time in her heart.

Being captured didn't mean that her brain was captured. It had been 38 minutes since she was discovered. The progress on Demon King's side should be very smooth. Unfortunately, she couldn't delay any longer.

There was still some time before the competition ended. Her stamina was almost exhausted, so she couldn't escape from Q King for the time being.

If she didn't want to become a captive, she could only rest and wait. If she had the chance to escape, she would grab it.

"You're a captive now, Azure Bird. Enjoy your treatment as a captive." After reprimanding her, Xia Jinyuan used the ropes to tie Ye Jian's hands from her shoulders to her wrists. Then, he tied a dead knot to prevent her from untying the ropes and leaving.

After that, he purposely walked in front of her and turned on the searchlight on his helmet.. Looking at the bruised and swollen face, he secretly tightened his slender fingers.

Chapter 1677: This Boyfriend

Ye Jian also saw the man standing opposite her clearly. Oh, his face was bruised too. He was bleeding from the corner of his mouth and the corners of his eyes were green and purple... Looking at him like this, she didn't need to think to know that she was the same.

"Q King, do you plan to wait here for the battle to end?" Ye Jian looked at him and reminded him calmly, "There's not much time left before the battle ends."

She was still in good spirits. Xia Jinyuan slowly released his clenched fist. Then, he curved his thin lips slightly and gave a savage smile like a wild beast. He pushed Ye Jian out.

Her face was already so swollen. Her body... might be even more swollen.

Especially the few kicks he gave her. He was afraid that not only were they swollen, but they were also purple.

His heart ached. Of course, it hurt. But he had no other choice!

She even dared to risk her life. How could she be so rash? She didn't care about the consequences!

Hard training wasn't just about killing enemies. You had to come back safely!

T6 saw that the pressure was almost as low as the explosion. When Q King appeared, he couldn't help but grumble in his heart. He had already caught her. Why was he still so stressed?

He went up carefully. "Can we go back now?"

T6 glanced at the tied-up Azure Bird from the corner of his eyes. He felt his eyes hurting.

What a good Azure Bird. What a powerful Azure Bird... Something big almost happened just now. Fortunately, Q King noticed it in advance.

"What do you think?" Xia Jinyuan glanced at T6 sharply. His eyes were filled with daggers and swords. "We came out for 35 minutes and we're still not back. Are you planning to let the Demon King destroy all of us?"

At first, he planned to finish Ye Jian within 30 minutes before going back to support his teammates. Now, he looked at Ye Jian. Major Xia couldn't help but purse his lips.

This time, he wasn't angry because of Ye Jian's mistake. It was time to feel sorry for her.

The exciting 'captive' plan of the Snow Region Brigade ended. The navy commander took off his cap and touched the top of his head several times. He heaved a long sigh. "It's already very good. It's impressive that she could last for 35 minutes."

One versus three. If they could last for 35 minutes, that was all what all soldiers could do.

"That's right. There's still time before it ends. Although Azure Bird was captured, she didn't admit defeat. As long as there's a chance, she will definitely think of a way to escape." After the major general finished speaking, he instructed, "Ask the accompanying military doctor to prepare. After this ends, immediately check on Azure Bird's body."

Xia Jinyuan never showed mercy when teaching his soldiers a lesson. Ye Jian made such a serious mistake too.

The last few kicks were ruthless. Ye Jian's injuries... might be a little serious.

The 'hunting' mission continued. Li Jinnian looked at the time. Forty-five minutes had passed. If Ye Jian had escaped, Q King should have returned long ago. He wasn't back yet. This meant that she was captured.

“Contact them and exchange hostages.” Li Jinnian pursed his thin lips and looked at the members of the Snow Region Brigade with the codename Z7. “One for one.”

He had already lost contact with Azure Bird for 45 minutes. Q King had already taught her a lesson. Now, Azure Bird was his person. How could she fall into Q King’s hands?

One for one. The ‘captive’ plan was a tie!

Z7 heard that and said, “Demon King, you should kill me directly.”

It was too embarrassing! It was better to kill him than to be a captive!

Chapter 1678: This Love

His request was ignored. Li Jinnian waved his hand and asked his team members to tie him up tightly. They would carry out the ‘captive exchange’ at the end of the ‘hunting’ mission.

In the military compound, Commander Xia had drunk many cups of water. Whenever he saw his son hitting Ye Jian, his heart would pound furiously. He almost had a heart attack.

Ruthless! Too ruthless!

Wasn’t he afraid that he would scare his wife away?

The ‘captive’ plan only required him to catch her. He didn’t need to beat her up. Was this brat stupid?

Commander-in-Chief Xia didn’t know that Ye Jian made a mistake. Hence, when he saw Xia Jinyuan attacking Ye Jian, he wanted to pull out his gun and shoot him for his future daughter-in-law!

“This brat, this brat...” Every time he took a sip of the strong tea, Commander Xia would scold him secretly. Because the highest-ranking leader of the country was still around, no matter how much he scolded him in his heart, Commander Xia’s expression was serious and his military might didn’t change.

The highest-ranking leader of the country saw the viciousness of the male soldiers and the tenacity of the female soldier. After everything ended, he said to Commander Xia, “Our military unit has them. I’m very happy to have such a soldier. I can see hope for tomorrow.”

“I’m afraid that the female soldier is injured. When the time comes, the military must call the female soldier and comfort her. Don’t let her have any trauma.”

“After it ends, the military will definitely send their regards,” Commander-in-Chief Xia replied seriously.

That was a must. She was the future daughter-in-law of the Xia family!

He needed to call Xia Jinyuan personally to comfort her. He also needed to reprimand Xia Jinyuan. If he chased Ye Jian away, he would not let him off!

The competition was coming to an end. The two teams in the forest started their final ‘life and death battle.’ Ye Jian and Z7 didn’t join them. However, as captives, they didn’t know their place and kept thinking about how to escape.

Unfortunately, the guards were too strict. In the end, they didn't manage to escape.

Xia Jinyuan gave Ye Jian her first time experience as a captive.

The red and green dots representing the two teams disappeared faster in the middle of the night. When the battle ended, there were still 12 members of the Snow Region Brigade and only eight members of the Storm Commando Brigade.

The result was obvious.

The wireless communication was no longer split into Group A and Group B. The major general of the army didn't wait for the two teams to meet and exchange their captives. He directly entered the channel and instructed Xia Jinyuan, "Bring Azure Bird to the command center to inspect her body!"

That fellow from the Xia family was really ruthless at that time. Azure Bird must have been seriously injured!

At this moment, K7, who was guarding Ye Jian, said to everyone, "Azure Bird has a fever. She was fed a strong medicine for fever, but she's allergic to the medicine. She has rashes on her neck and wrists."

The two radio stations were silent. Then, the major general shouted, "What are you waiting for? Send her to the hospital!"

On the other side, Xia Jinyuan turned into a tornado and ran over. "Bring her over! Hurry!" She was allergic to fever medicine! Something big was going to happen!

Ye Jian didn't know that she was allergic to fever medicine. Before she took it, K7 even asked her if she had any allergies to medicine. She replied firmly, "No."

She didn't in her past life, but she didn't know that she would have one in this life!

At first, she wanted to eat two pieces. However, K7 said that there was no need for that so she ate one piece.

Fortunately, she only ate one piece. If she ate two pills, she didn't know what would have happened.

Chapter 1679: How to Explain

The redness on Ye Jian's skin was one of the most common symptoms. In her past life, she ate fever medicine, but she didn't have any symptoms. However, in this life, she never thought that she would be allergic to fever medicine.

"My head isn't feeling well." Ye Jian touched her forehead. She didn't wait for the military doctor to come over. She just 'slept' casually. She didn't know what was happening outside.

When K7 recalled what happened, he remembered that his mind was blank for at least three seconds. He thought that... Ye Jian had an allergic shock.

K7 has always been cold. The entire team thought that he had left the mortal world and become a fairy. At that moment, he panicked. Fortunately, his mentality was strong so he didn't panic. His first action was to check Ye Jian's pupils and report her situation to the team.

When the major general and the navy commander heard that Ye Jian's condition was very bad, they didn't just send the military doctor over. Instead, they immediately contacted the helicopter team and sent Ye Jian to the hospital for treatment.

The faces of the members of the Snow Region Brigade and the Storm Commando Brigade turned dark. However, they couldn't all rush to Ye Jian's side. Li Jinnian's team would go to the gathering point after the competition.

Xia Jinyuan ran from the mountain. Before he reached the bottom of the mountain, he saw the searchlight in front of him light up. K7 hugged his head and leaned down. Ye Jian's hands were hanging down too. He ran up while stepping on the thick snow.

"Ye Jian!" This scene made the unyielding Special Forces soldier's eyes pop out. His usual calm expression was like a complete piece of white paper that was suddenly torn into two. He was no longer the elegant and noble young major he was at any time.

K7, who was running with all his might, heard the familiar voice but lost his composure. His tense expression softened.

The two of them would be much faster together.

Then, he saw his captain, who was always calm at all times, suddenly stagger and roll down from high ground.

K7 pursed his lips. Now, he knew how to be anxious. Why didn't he pay attention to Ye Jian's situation when he was fighting?!

Xia Jinyuan's knees were weak. He rolled down in a way he never did before. After the impact subsided, he stopped rolling and stood up.

At this moment, Xia Jinyuan was in a sorry state. Drenched in snow, he got up and jumped from the slope. He ran a few meters and stood in front of K7. "Pass out or sleep?!"

His knees were weak. When he opened his mouth, his deep and cold voice trembled.

As he rolled down the slope, the huge impact didn't make him dizzy. His mind was still clear.

K7 didn't place Ye Jian in his arms immediately. Instead, he walked past him and reminded him coldly, "Slap the snow on your body."

His comrade's reaction caused Xia Jinyuan to calm down. He quickly patted the snow off his body and wore his helmet properly. Then, he rushed towards K7 and hugged Ye Jian carefully.

He lowered his head and saw the lifeless face. Then, he saw the bruise at the corner of her mouth. Xia Jinyuan pursed his lips even tighter.

“High fever, drug allergy, flushed skin, rapid breathing... The initial diagnosis is skin allergy.” K7 glanced at his captain coldly and said in a low voice, “Q King, you were really ruthless this time. I’m afraid you beat her up a lot.”

“Q King, the captive plan didn’t say you needed to be so fierce..” Even K7 felt that it was too much.

Chapter 1680: There’s a Reason

Xia Jinyuan’s attention was on Ye Jian. He carried her and rushed up the mountain again. He needed to reach the landing point of the helicopter and ensure that Ye Jian would board the plane immediately to the hospital for treatment.

Xia Jinyuan didn’t tell all his comrades about the mistake Ye Jian made. At that time, he said that his favorite was still the ‘live’ Azure Bird. J5 guessed that Azure Bird might have done something. Now, when he heard that K7 didn’t understand Q King, J5’s voice came from the earpieces. “K7, Q King won’t come and take care of Azure Bird for no reason. Ask him what happened later.”

From the looks of it, Q King had taught Azure Bird a lesson. It was so bad that even K7 didn’t like it.

J5 had mixed feelings. How was he going to end this?

How was he going to face her when she woke up?

The members of the Snow Region Brigade fell silent because of J5’s words. That’s right. As the captain, Q King wouldn’t take care of Azure Bird for no reason. If any of his comrades were taken care of by Q King, it would be due to a fatal mistake.

What fatal mistake did she make?

Everyone thought of this point and looked at each other. Then, they looked at the other team leader. The Demon King should know the reason.

Because the communication between the two teams was connected, the members of both teams could hear J5’s words. Hence, the comrades of the Storm Commando Brigade all looked at Demon King. The Q King they knew was not a brutal person. He was just like the Demon King. He did everything for a reason.

So, why did Azure Bird get punished?

This was the question in the hearts of the 39 members of the two teams. However, they didn’t get an answer even after Ye Jian was sent to the helicopter.

Since Xia Jinyuan didn’t say anything, Li Jinnian wouldn’t say anything either. There would be a summary meeting later. Any questions would be answered during the meeting.

Major Xia, one of the parties involved, accompanied Ye Jian to the helicopter. The military doctor accompanying them in the cold cabin quickly conducted a simple checkup on Ye Jian. When he took off Ye Jian's helmet, the military doctor couldn't help but gasp when he saw the bruise on her face that couldn't be covered by the paint.

"You hit her so hard that she's going to have a concussion!" The military doctor couldn't help but complain. At first, he wanted to complain more, but the young major glanced at him coldly. He was like a demon. He swallowed his words.

Xia Jinyuan seemed to have calmed down. However, his fists were still clenched tightly. When he saw that the military doctor was still in the mood to speak, his gaze turned cold. "Please check the patient first before speaking up for justice."

They were soldiers who walked on the edge of life and death. They always understood when and what was most important.

Something had already happened to Ye Jian. He wanted the military doctor to take effective measures as soon as possible.

He pressed his fingers on the large artery on Ye Jian's neck and felt the pulse that represented life. That was how he felt at ease.

K7 walked over. He saw that Xia Jinyuan's eyes were red. As for his hand... K7 couldn't help but frown. He took out the first-aid kit from his combat vest and took out anti-inflammatory medicine, hemostatic powder, and disinfectant gauze. He said to Xia Jinyuan, "I'll carry her. Take care of your hands."

Staring at the unconscious Ye Jian, Xia Jinyuan replied without turning his head, "No need."
