

BOOT CAMP 1691

Chapter 1691: The Guilty Major

While the doctor was talking to Xia Jinyuan, the nurse tidied Ye Jian's clothes and said in a soft voice, "There are many small capillaries in her skin that have ruptured. She can use medicinal oil to cleanse the blood. There are two parts of her back that are very serious. Use the medicine early."

The nurse reminded Ye Jian out of kindness. Ye Jian didn't feel anything, but Xia Jinyuan felt a little awkward. He was the one who kicked the wound on her back.

He asked the doctor if there were any taboos and if he needed to pay attention to anything. After confirming that there were no questions, Xia Jinyuan sent the doctor off.

After the doctors and nurses left, the ward became quiet again. Xia Jinyuan's hand, paused on the doorknob. He sighed softly and turned around.

It gave him a subtle feeling of 'heroism'

It was 11:00. Xia Jinyuan poured a glass of warm water and placed it in front of the bed. He said gently to Ye Jian, "Are you hungry? What do you want to eat? I'll go to the cafeteria and pack it up."

She was indeed hungry. Ye Jian smiled and said, "Something light, like porridge."

"What else do you want to eat? You can eat buns and dumplings." Xia Jinyuan felt that he was lacking in confidence when he spoke. He had lived for more than twenty years but this was the first time he was so careful. He was afraid that he would anger his girlfriend who he had worked hard to woo.

This carefulness was mixed with indescribable sweetness and faint anticipation. It made his emotions so complicated that he didn't know how to sort them out.

However, there was one thing he was sure of. At this moment, he needed to be honest. He needed his girlfriend to tell him that she wanted the stars in the sky. He must not take the initiative to pluck the moon/

His love experience was zero. Major Xia, who had both EQ and IQ, learned to be honest when he angered his girlfriend.

Ye Jian felt even more uneasy when she saw him like this. She felt that he still wanted to make a move against her!

Shaking her head, she said, "The corner of my mouth hurts a little. Let's eat porridge. I'll swallow it without chewing."

Hearing that, Xia Jinyuan felt his heart skip a beat. His girlfriend's mouth hurt. He hit her.

The major, who was starting to feel guilty, hurriedly said, "Okay, I'll go down now." Then, he took out his phone from his pocket. "Contact me if anything happens. You can also press this pager and ask the nurse to come over."

Holding the phone, Ye Jian watched as he strode out of the ward. The suspicion in her heart got bigger. She really felt that there would be another big move coming!

The competition had ended. The Storm Commando Brigade lost. Could it be that the losing party would be punished? And as a 'captive,' would she suffer a worse punishment?

Run while carrying weights? Jump from a tall building? Capture a king cobra alive? Climb on the uneven rocks in short sleeves? That shouldn't be possible. The second training base wasn't near the sea.

Ye Jian went through the most brutal training in her mind. As she thought about it, she felt her lower abdomen tightening. Her bladder was so full that she needed to go to the bathroom.

Ye Jian's body was full of injuries but her bones weren't hurt. She was able to get off the bed alone. When she reached the bathroom, she was still thinking about the punishment waiting for her.

She persevered through all the brutal training that flashed past her mind. There wouldn't be too many problems if she was punished again.. At most, her body would feel a little tired.

Chapter 1692: The Commander-in-Chief Must Be Extraordinary

But something was wrong with Major Xia. He was too careful with her as if he was making up for something.

Ye Jian, who was washing her hands with her head lowered, didn't expect Xia Jinyuan to do this because he was afraid that she would break up in a fit of anger. Who asked her to not think in that direction? She didn't feel that his actions in the competition were wrong.

She was wrong. She used her smarts to win and used her 'life' as bait. She made a huge mistake. It was only right for her to be disciplined.

Ye Jian, who was thinking about something, raised her head and saw her face in the mirror. Her mouth, the corners of her eyes, her forehead, and her left cheek were all injured. It was a little scary.

She raised her hand and pressed the corner of her mouth lightly. From the corner of her eyes, she saw the light source of the phone beside her flashing. Then, the phone vibrated. Someone was calling.

This was Xia Jinyuan's personal phone. Ye Jian hesitated for a moment before picking up the phone.

Ye Jian opened the lid and her heart started beating faster.

The caller ID read: Old Xia.

Old Xia was equivalent to Commander Xia.

Commander Xia called. Should she pick it up or not? She wanted to, but it wouldn't be good if she did.

After hesitating for a moment, the call ended. Ye Jian, who felt relieved for some reason, didn't put down her phone since it started blinking again. The caller ID was still 'Old Xia.'

"Hello, Commander Xia. I'm Ye Jian." In the end, Ye Jian still picked up the call. She stood straight in the bathroom and accepted the call as if she was being inspected.

Commander Xia heard the voice and heard the name. He quickly looked at the number he dialed. That's right, it was his son's number. He didn't have Little Ye's number.

Commander Xia took his phone away and cleared his throat. Then, he spoke to his future daughter-in-law, "Little Ye, are you feeling better? Is Xia Jinyuan accompanying you?"

After asking so many questions, Ye Jian quickly gathered her thoughts and replied seriously, "Thank you for your concern, Commander-in-Chief. There are no more problems. Major Xia went down three minutes ago to help me get some food. When he comes back, I will ask him to call you back immediately."

Ye Jian wanted to hang up. She didn't know why but when she took Xia Jinyuan's phone to answer Commander Xia's call, she felt extremely guilty.

Commander-in-Chief Xia didn't hear Ye Jian's thoughts. His son wasn't here so he was able to talk to her.

"It's all right. I just wanted to ask him about your situation. Now that you're talking to me directly, I don't have to ask him anymore." Since the person who picked up the phone was her, he had to criticize his son. Commander Xia's tone turned serious as he said in a deep voice, "I already know about your matter. This time, as a soldier, we are really shocked that you made such a huge mistake. Whether it's me, the major general, or the navy commander, none of us can accept this low-level but serious mistake!"

Ye Jian stood up straight and accepted the criticism from one of the leaders of the military. Her expression was stern and cold. She didn't resist at all. Even though her body was hurting everywhere, she still stood up straight and accepted the criticism seriously.

"Sacrificing has always been something we have tried our best to avoid. We all know that there will definitely be sacrifices in battle. However, understanding and acceptance are the biggest differences between rationality and emotions.. As your comrades, they are already prepared to sacrifice each other. However, if one day, they find out that their comrade sacrificed because of a mistake in their judgment, Ye Jian, do you know how it will affect them and their commander?"

Chapter 1693: Obtaining a Dad Suddenly

"It's the guilt that comes with each passing day! Your comrades will blame themselves for not discovering it in advance. Your commander will blame himself for not enhancing your training."

"You sacrificed but you left more pain for your comrades. Is this what you want to see?"

Ye Jian gritted her teeth and took a few deep breaths to suppress her emotions. She maintained her voice and replied, "No, this is not what I want to see!"

Ye Jian was so stunned that the corners of her eyes turned red. How could she be willing?

"Very good. Remember what I said and remember your identity! You are a soldier. A soldier who will carry guns and fight with death all the time!" Commander Xia didn't fly into a rage. He believed that she would understand.

After criticizing her, Commander Xia's voice softened. In the beginning, it was a call between a military leader and a soldier who made mistakes. Now, it was a call with his future daughter-in-law.

In an instant, his voice became gentler. "Then, let's talk about you and Xia Jinyuan."

Her relationship with Major Xia?

Although the Commander-in-Chief's voice had become more amiable, Ye Jian didn't relax at all. "Go ahead."

Commander Xia could tell that his future daughter-in-law was a little restrained when she spoke to him. He sighed and said, "Little Ye, putting aside my identity in the military, I'm actually your elder. You have to acknowledge this, right?"

You have to acknowledge this... The change in her identity was too sudden. Ye Jian was so frightened that she almost threw her phone into the sink.

Approval... He really acknowledged her!

"Don't be too restrained. Just treat me as your father and let me talk to your daughter properly." Commander Xia didn't just hear Ye Jian's discomfort but also the faint estrangement between them. Commander Xia, who knew her background like the back of his hand, didn't get angry because of this. Instead, he advised her carefully, "If you have any grievances in the future, call me. This is my personal phone number. Remember it in your heart. If there's anything you don't like, just tell me directly."

Ye Jian: "...". She seemed to know why Major Xia was a little shameless sometimes. He probably inherited it from his father.

On the other end of the phone, Commander Xia continued to speak kindly, "I don't have a daughter. I only have Xia Jinyuan. I'm very strict with him because he's a man. As a man, he has to be responsible. And you're a girl. How can I not care about you?"

"But you're a soldier. I can't love you like a delicate daughter, but I will definitely love you like a daughter who needs me to care for her."

Ye Jian's eyes turned red when she heard this.

Dad... It had been a long time since she called someone 'Dad.' Hearing Commander Xia's kind voice, Ye Jian bit her lower lip to prevent herself from crying.

She didn't get any familial love in her past life but, in this life, God seemed to be letting her have it all to make up for it.

How lucky was she in this lifetime?

"Little Ye, this time, Xia Jinyuan was ruthless. I hope that you don't blame him. Your identities are destined to be different. The path you walk, the hardships you suffer, and the hardships he suffers are destined to be different.. As a Special Forces soldier, you need to be agile, resolute, brave, hardworking, and disciplined."

Chapter 1694: The Commander-in-Chief Who Cheated His Son With His Ability

"What you did can be said to be a huge mistake. It's a huge taboo for a Special Forces soldier on the battlefield. As the captain and a soldier, Xia Jinyuan did nothing wrong."

"Little Ye, do you understand his painstaking efforts?"

Commander Xia waited for Ye Jian's reply after he finished speaking. He knew that it wouldn't be good for anyone to do this kind of thing. Only his son would beat his girlfriend to the hospital while training.

The young couple were destined to be Special Forces soldiers. Even if they were on the battlefield, they could still fight together. This kind of marriage was one in a million. As a father, although he usually mocked and ridiculed his son, this was a matter of lifelong happiness. How could he ignore it?

Also, he really admired Ye Jian. She was one of the top female soldiers in the military. He couldn't bear to not have such a good girl in his family. He could only communicate with her in advance and let her understand Xia Jinyuan's way of doing things. That way, he could continue walking properly.

Ye Jian used the cold water to wipe the corners of her eyes. After taking a deep breath, she replied softly, "Commander-in-Chief, I don't blame Captain Xia. I understand his painstaking efforts. It's my fault. I deserve to be punished."

"Entering the hospital was just a coincidence. I had a fever since I was allergic to medicine. It has nothing to do with Captain Xia."

Commander Xia felt at ease when he heard this. He felt that Ye Jian was a sincere and magnanimous girl. He smiled and sighed, "You have too many restrictions. You are comrades and lovers. You can be more casual in your life. However, in the military unit, you need to be cautious. If you're not careful, you will make a huge mistake."

"That's why I hope that you can understand his actions."

Ye Jian listened attentively and accepted the criticism. Even through the radio, she could feel Commander Xia's concern and a father's anticipation for his children's happiness.

Hence, she replied even more sincerely. She didn't pander to Commander Xia because of his identity. "You're right. Captain Xia acted this time because I made a huge mistake. If he didn't remind me, I might not have realized it."

"The more you understand each other, the better your lives will be." Commander Xia then changed his identity to 'father.' He was concerned about Ye Jian's health and asked her how injured she was. He even heard that she had injuries on her face. Commander Xia said to Ye Jian kindly, "Don't be anxious. Just remember this. After you get married, you can do whatever you want! I will definitely stand on your side and not help him."

Caught off guard, Ye Jian's face turned red. After marriage... after marriage... she never thought about it.

In the end, Commander-in-Chief Xia added, "Since the two of you are in the hospital now, you should make use of him. Don't give in to him and don't tell him that you don't blame him. This brat climbed up smoothly. Listen to Dad and show some power to extinguish his arrogance. Ask him to do everything you want. Let him wash your clothes and feed you, so he remembers this."

Ye Jian was no longer surprised when the Commander-in-Chief mocked her son. She listened to the Commander-in-Chief's opinion carefully.

However, she needed to know what punishment she needed to receive first. As for what the Commander-in-Chief said, she could consider it.

Chapter 1695: Obedient Major

When Xia Jinyuan saw that Ye Jian wasn't lying on the bed, he pushed the bathroom door open. His girlfriend's eyes were slightly red. He looked at the wound on her face in the mirror.

This scene stimulated him so much that he gasped. A few words flashed past his mind: Something big is going to happen!

Hurry up and think about what else you need to do. You must do it perfectly. You must let Little Fox see how sincere you are in apologizing. You must let her forget that all her injuries were caused by you!

Ye Jian saw him in the mirror looking at the wound on her face. She looked at herself in the mirror and remembered what Commander Xia said. She lowered her head and smiled secretly.

Commander-in-Chief Xia only cared about how serious her injury was. He never asked how serious Captain Xia's injury was.

She disfigured her boyfriend's handsome face, especially his nose bridge. It was rare to see a girlfriend as tough as her.

She seemed to have used the handle of a dagger. Now that she thought about it, she felt a little regretful. What if she had hit his eyes with a hammer?

Ye Jian raised her hand to block him when he tried to feed her the porridge again. She immediately asked, "Major Xia, tell me what other punishments are waiting for me."

Xia Jinyuan felt his knees getting weak. "Finish your porridge first. We will talk about other things later."

He didn't dare to punish her. He was afraid that she would punish him!

Seeing this, Ye Jian, who liked to be decisive, took the bowl of porridge in his hand. She tilted her head and drank it clean as if she was drinking water.

She passed the bowl back to him. "Okay, you can speak now!"

Major Xia wanted to cry, but he had no tears. He wanted to feed her the porridge and apologize at the same time. However, his girlfriend didn't give him a chance. She didn't even let him feed her. He lost another chance to perform.

Major Xia always handled things calmly and elegantly. When he saw this, he let go of the empty bowl in his hand. Let's start. Let's settle it in advance so that he won't feel nervous.

"There's no punishment. Little Fox, the competition has ended. The captive mission has come to an end too. You have paid the price for your actions and received your punishment. I believe that after this lesson, you will remember that even if you meet someone you know on the battlefield, as long as you are enemies, you must not probe with your body."

His voice was low and serious. Ye Jian listened to him carefully.

He had sacrificed a lot for her. She saw it and remembered it in her heart. He was scrupulous in separating public from private interests. He had the responsibility of a soldier and the gentleness of a soldier.

"You taught me a lot this time. I think that I will never forget it." Ye Jian smiled. As she spoke, she raised her eyebrows slightly and teased, "I don't want to be beaten by my boyfriend until I'm lying in the hospital again. Experience it once is enough."

The corners of Xia Jinyuan's eyes twitched slightly. He heaved a sigh of relief secretly. His dark eyes were filled with deep emotions. He held Ye Jian's hand gently and kissed the back of her hand with his thin lips. Then, he slowly raised his head and looked at Ye Jian lovingly. He lowered his voice and said in an exceptionally gentle tone, "I need to apologize to you."

"I apologized to you as your boyfriend. I didn't take good care of you or protect you properly.. This is my fault."

Chapter 1696: I Can't Live Without You

The more he spoke, the smoother he became. Major Xia was someone who took responsibility for his actions. Since he wanted to apologize, he must apologize properly. He mustn't be perfunctory.

She wanted to say the words from his heart that flew naturally: "As a man, I should take care of my girlfriend. I should support you and protect you from any harm."

“I’m sorry, Little Fox. This time, I didn’t do what a boyfriend should. It’s my fault. If you’re unhappy, you can vent. I promise that I will accept everything obediently!”

Ye Jian, who had good comprehension, instantly understood why he was being careful. It turned out that since he hit her, he was afraid that she would be unhappy.

Looking at Xia Jinyuan who was so careful and nervous, Ye Jian didn’t feel proud. Instead, she felt a little heartache.

He was such a high and mighty man. For her, he lowered his status and compensated her carefully. He didn’t want her to be angry. Ye Jian, Ye Jian, you’re lucky to have met him. How can you bear to reprimand him?

Ye Jian felt her heart hurting. She sighed softly.

He had his position and responsibilities. As a major of the Snow Region Brigade, he was the captain of the entire team.

He brought his comrades to the battlefield and used the right strategy to win. They completed the mission handed over by the country. At the same time, they needed to ensure the safety of every comrade and minimize unnecessary deaths.

How to ensure the safety of every comrade wasn’t about keeping an eye on the battlefield. It was about serious and strict supervision during training/

As the captain, Major Xia had a harder time than his team members.

He was the brain and command center of the Snow Region Brigade. He played a decisive role in the battle.

During training, he had to restrain himself and manage his comrades. He had to be comprehensive, accurate, and fast. This way, as the captain, he had no choice but to punish whoever made a mistake and ensure that he could bring his comrades back safely.

Major Xia apologized to her so carefully. Ye Jian knew that her heart really ached for him.

Hearing her sigh, Xia Jinyuan thought that she was considering forgiving him.

He was a little nervous so he tightened his grip on Ye Jian’s hand. There were still things he didn’t say. He needed to say everything. “As your boyfriend, I didn’t fulfill my responsibility to protect you. However, Little Fox, as a soldier, I must treat your mistakes seriously and severely.”

“This is your punishment. As your comrade and your captain, I have to be strict with you. If you make a mistake, I can’t show mercy just because I’m your boyfriend.”

“Yesterday, they said that my biggest mistake was to teach you a lesson personally. Then, I thought about it. I would rather do it myself than let other people do it. We are comrades and will be lovers for life. How can I let other people teach you a lesson?”

“I think that we can stay together for a long time and be fine. We can walk together for the rest of our lives. We don’t want to let go of each other halfway and let the other person walk alone.”

Chapter 1697: A Real Man Can Stretch His Limits

“Also, the same mistake has happened once. We were taught a lesson by the God of Death. Ye Jian, you made the same mistake this time. I have to punish you severely because I can’t accept the fact that one day, when I send you away on a mission, you will come back dead!”

The hand that was holding hers tightened slowly. She could feel his muscles tensing up as he said these words. Ye Jian looked at him intently. She looked at the man who carried the responsibility of the country. She looked at the iron-blooded soldier that everyone respected. She looked at his dark eyes and asked softly, “In the past, who made the same mistake as me?”

“R2, a Special Forces soldier from the Snow Region Brigade. He was only 28 years old when he died. He also had a beautiful and kind wife about to give birth. If everything went according to plan, he would have gone home and accompanied his wife after he finished his mission.”

At the mention of his dead comrade, Xia Jinyuan lowered his voice. It was low and deep. There was a sorrow that couldn’t be dispelled.

“...No one can accept it. Even though two years have passed, we can’t accept it.” Xia Jinyuan’s mouth was pressed tightly. There was a hint of viciousness in it.

Ye Jian’s heart tightened when she saw his expression. His voice got colder as he spoke. In the end, it was filled with anger. “After that, the person that R2 thought was his brother sent an email to R2’s private email. He knew that we would tidy up R2’s email. The email was filled with provocation. He mocked R2’s stupid probing actions which allowed him to kill him effortlessly.”

“He was once an acquaintance. Now, he is an enemy. Even the criminals knew this but R2 didn’t. Because of this, he paid with his life. This became a scaring pain in the hearts of all our comrades in the Snow Region Brigade. They couldn’t accept it, but they had to accept this fact.”

Ye Jian finally understood why he was so ruthless to her last night. He was so ruthless that even T6 and Pigeon couldn’t stand it anymore. Yet, he still wanted to teach her a lesson.

So there was such a sad story.

“I will remember it. From now on, I will never make the same mistake again!” She enunciated each word slowly and seriously. “I will never make such a low-level mistake and lose my life!”

She didn’t blame him at all. She wasn’t afraid of him or rejected him because of this. She was still smiling gently.

His mouth was swollen too. It must be painful.

Xia Jinyuan hummed softly and lowered his head to kiss her hand. He concealed the viciousness in his expression and looked at her lovingly. "As your boyfriend, I apologize. But as your comrade, I'm sorry, Little Fox. I can't apologize to you."

"However, I'll accept your punishments now. I didn't take good care of you. I will perform well and try my best to make you forgive me for my negligence as your boyfriend!"

It was only right for a man to serve his girlfriend!

When she was surrounded and beaten up by him, she wasn't angry at all. Now that she understood so much, she couldn't be angry anymore.

However, looking at Major Xia, she couldn't help but want to tease him.

Who asked him to tease her in the past?

Chapter 1698: Try Something Else

Her gaze flickered slightly. Ye Jian smiled calmly. "Is it so easy to order you around? Won't you take revenge on me during training? After all, you're the captain. I don't dare to offend you."

"I'm willing to serve my girlfriend!" Xia Jinyuan said righteously. He took out a tube of medicinal oil from his pocket. "I went to the pharmacy to get a tube of medicinal oil that can help with blood circulation. Lie down and I'll use the medicinal oil to rub it for you. I'll apologize to your body!"

When the doctor examined her back and saw the two bruises on her back, he couldn't bear to look at them.

Ye Jian snatched the medicinal oil. She raised her eyebrows and smiled. "As a soldier, I will forgive you for what you did. But as your girlfriend, Major Xia, I'm not so easy to coax."

...

It is here! It is here! The more you fear something, the more it will happen.

Major Xia had already gotten over his initial nervousness. He sighed and said with a dotting gaze, "Come on. What do I have to do for you to forgive me?"

Ye Jian remembered the 'kneeling on the keyboard' and 'kneeling on a durian' in her past life. Her gaze moved slightly. She said with a mischievous smile, "Apologizing in words is not new. There's no sincerity. Why not try something else?"

Major Xia, who had always been sensitive to matters, suddenly had a bad feeling. He couldn't help but sit up straight. "Try what?"

“Captain Xia, why don’t you kneel down and try the bullet? The tip of the bullet will be facing down and the flat end will be facing up. Then, Captain Xia will kneel on it for ten minutes. How about that?” Ye Jian blinked her bright eyes and looked at him seriously. “I feel that I can see your sincerity with this.”

“...” This was an innovative suggestion. Xia Jinyuan, who was unwrapping the medicinal oil packaging, paused for a moment. Then, he stood up and started unbuckling his belt.

Ye Jian was dumbfounded. “Xia Jinyuan, why are you taking off your pants?” She couldn’t keep up with his pace and couldn’t figure out what he was going to do next!

Her flustered look was really cute. The young major smiled slightly. Although his handsome face was ruined, his aura was still present. He was still that elegant young major. “It’s easier for you to check if I take off my pants. Also, don’t you think that kneeling on a bullet with bare arms and legs is more challenging?”

“This is a good idea. The next time my brothers make a mistake, I can use this method. Kneel down and shoot!” Major Xia took off his pants and wore a pair of cold-proof and warm pants issued by the military unit. When he saw Ye Jian holding a pillow and preparing to throw it at him, he couldn’t help but laugh softly. “In the hospital, I will take care of my image and won’t do anything rude.”

He took off his combat pants. “Keep my pants. It’s easier for you to see the wound on my calf if I take them off. Little Fox, T6 asked me if I had any fractures after you kicked me. I pretended that I was fine. Now, I’m here to see if I’m all right.”

“Oh.” Ye Jian noticed that he was still wearing a pair of pants so she calmed down. Then, she raised her eyebrows and smiled ambiguously. “I heard that Captain Xia wants to apologize to me?”

Something was wrong! He needed to take emergency measures and stop what she was about to do!

Xia Jinyuan felt a sense of danger. He put on his clothes and quickly wore his combat pants. His belt made a clicking sound and he pulled his jacket. His clothes were neat and he looked dignified!

“Definitely not. I just ran up in one breath.. It’s a little hot. I wanted to dissipate the heat!”

Chapter 1699: Bear With It

He almost angered his girlfriend again. Fortunately, he reacted fast enough. If not, he wouldn’t be able to control the situation and would have destroyed the atmosphere.

No, no. I must be more careful. I must not anger my girlfriend.

“Come, lie down. I will rub your back. It might hurt a little, but bear with it.” He had a quick-witted and smart girlfriend. Once he provoked her, he would be treading on thin ice.

Major Xia concluded: When your girlfriend is angry, from her words to her actions, you must follow her heart!

Ye Jian controlled her laughter and continued, "Boyfriend, serve me well. Remember to prepare all the bullets when you're done. I've never seen anyone kneel in bullets. Let's see if you can kneel first. This is an experiment too. You can only promote it in the team after you succeed, right?"

"That's right. Little Fox is right. We will find all the bullets after this. Do you have any other instructions? Just tell me. I sincerely want to redeem myself."

Ye Jian felt that chatting with him was fun. He could see the smile on her face. Even though the corner of her mouth hurt, it couldn't stop her from smiling.

They were soldiers. They were in charge of guarding the sacred duty of the country.

They were comrades. They needed to help and rely on each other to improve.

They were lovers. They held each other's hands and handed each other sincerely.

Ye Jian smiled as she looked at the Major who was accompanying her. The smile in her eyes went deeper. "Captain Xia, I will remember this. We are not in a hurry. We have time to settle scores."

"Okay! I will wait for you." As long as they didn't break up, there was nothing to be afraid of! As long as she was still his, he was willing to settle scores with her!

Z7 was right. He must pamper her like a princess!

However, Ye Jian didn't want him to rub her wound. She held his bandaged hand and frowned. She asked in confusion, "Why are your hands covered with gauze? You shouldn't hurt your hands."

She didn't know where the wound on his palm came from.

"It's nothing. I accidentally hurt myself when I was hugging the tree and it broke a little skin. I was afraid that you would get angry when you woke up, so I quickly wrapped it with a piece of gauze. I wanted to pretend to be pitiful in front of you."

He said shamelessly and even clapped his hands to show that his hands were fine. Ye Jian believed him.

She said, "I almost believed you. I'll massage you later too. I know that I kicked you a few times." She laid on the bed and waited for him to massage her.

She wasn't used to having other people touch her, so it was better to let her boyfriend do it.

Xia Jinyuan had already lifted her clothes. When he saw the two palm-sized bruises on her snow-white skin, he couldn't help but tighten his grip on the bottle of medicinal oil. His gaze turned dark.

These two kicks... were indeed ruthless!

Xia Jinyuan took off the bandages on his hands and looked at his palms. He poured the cold medicinal oil on the back of his hands and rubbed them. After rubbing until it was hot, he was ready to place the back of his hands on her back. He said gently, "Bear with it. The area is a little big. I need to push the blood away."

“Yes, I can handle it,” said Ye Jian disapprovingly, but it made Xia Jinyuan’s heart ache.

He was the one who was ruthless. In the end, he was the one who felt sorry for her. He hadn’t gotten used to the change in status between a comrade and a boyfriend.

Chapter 1700: The Combat Squad

Ye Jian, who was lying down, pursed her lips and smiled. He was indeed very good to her.

Having lived two lifetimes, she understood what hypocrisy and sincerity meant.

In her past life, Ye Ying played cat and mouse with her. She didn’t end her life directly, but teased and oppressed her. Every time she found a job, she would think of ways to make her suffer. She forced her to pack her luggage and leave without her salary.

She met many bad people and many good people. That was why she knew how to be grateful and knew that sincerity was precious.

Major Xia blamed himself. She knew that, but she wasn’t angry. It wasn’t because she was magnanimous or because she wanted to give in. It was because she understood.

She had never loved anyone, so she didn’t know how to love someone. However, people needed to understand each other when they interacted. They needed to understand his identity and her identity. As soldiers, they needed to understand each other even more.

She agreed with what Commander-in-Chief Xia said. Captain Xia was a smooth person. If she couldn’t let him off so easily, how could she punish him?

She didn’t know what to do.

Captain Xia helped her wash her clothes during training. Every time the training ended, he liked to tell her to look for him in front of all his comrades. When he found her, he would pull her to a secluded place. He would immediately become gentle and massage her legs and shoulders.

He placed his sincerity in front of her. He was precious to her. She couldn’t bear to step on his sincerity.

As the medicinal oil was poured, the dull pain became scorching. Slowly, her entire back started to heat up. As the back of his hand pushed her back, the heat started flowing to her limbs and then to her brain. Ye Jian closed her eyes comfortably and muttered, “I want to sleep for a while.”

“Go to sleep. Have a good nap.” Major Xia lowered his head because of her injuries. He kissed her slender and sexy waist gently. “I will always be here. I will always accompany you. Have a good sleep, my baby.”

With Xia Jinyuan by her side, Ye Jian felt at ease. Even when she was sleeping, she felt at ease. Her eyes were closed but her expression was relaxed. In less than a minute, she fell asleep.

Xia Jinyuan couldn’t calm down for a long time. He couldn’t even forgive himself now.

The comrades from the Snow Region Brigade didn't know that their captain had passed his calamity. T6 was asking the experienced Z7, "Will Azure Bird really break up with Q King?"

"I can't be completely sure. After all, Azure Bird is different from other girls. However, it's possible." Z7 analyzed based on his experience. "Based on my experience, the possibility of splitting is half."

She couldn't resist Q King's likable mouth! Azure Bird was so innocent. She would probably change her mind because of him.

T6 heaved a sigh of relief when he heard that. Jiaxin was a well-educated girl. If he knew that he hit Ye Jian, he would have a 50% chance of being forgiven.

At the thought of this, T6 relaxed. Even the back of his chair relaxed. "That's good. That's good. It will depend on Q King's performance."

As long as Q King coaxed Ye Jian, it wouldn't be a big deal.
