

BOOT CAMP 1751

Chapter 1751: A Bloody Lesson

Their current location was not a barren desert. Some plants grew there, but the colors of the plants seemed a little dull.

One shouldn't underestimate these plants, though. They were all covered with spikes that could pierce into the flesh.

In the past few days, the members of the two teams had been pierced by them many times. Luckily, their combat uniforms were thick and they wore thermal suits inside. Even if they were stabbed, they would only have a needle-sized wound.

Since Li Jinnian said he would punish her on the spot, then... Xia Jinyuan looked around, then looked at Li Jinnian. He pointed at the plants. "Here?"

"Uh-huh," Li Jinnian replied. At the same time, he pressed his stopwatch and looked at the figure running toward him. His thin lips moved slightly as he said coldly, "You're five seconds late."

He seemed to know that there was nothing wrong with her body and that she was in a good state of mind... Ha, after two hours of rest, she was late to gather at one in the morning!

Three minutes and five seconds had passed. Before Ye Jian managed to run over, she felt Xia Jinyuan's gaze sweeping toward her like a bullet. It was so cold that it made her heart turn cold.

"You're late," he said before stepping aside and giving his seat to Li Jinnian. Li Jinnian would be the one to decide the punishment for a soldier who was late. As for the punishment... she would be the one to suffer.

Demon King Li's punishment would always be in line with his code name. It was filled with demonic nature and could not be any harsher.

Being late by five seconds was nothing to ordinary people. Who had never been late before? That was very normal.

But for a soldier, five seconds late on the battlefield was a significant delay. The speed of a bullet was three seconds. If you were five seconds late, the enemy's bullets would have already swept over.

Ye Jian took a deep breath and walked to the front of the team to 'report'.

No one looked at Ye Jian. No one wanted to ask her why she was late. They all knew that Azure Bird was a very punctual and strict female soldier. However, if she was late, she was late.

There was no reason or need for an explanation. She was just late.

A minute passed. In the end, Xia Jinyuan was the only one who didn’t move. He stood tall and straight.

“Roll down from here.” Demon King Li never liked to talk nonsense. He pointed at the sand slope with thorny vegetation and said indifferently, “Three rounds. After you’re done, go back to sleep.”

It sounded easy to roll three times on the thorny vegetation. But in reality, Ye Jian didn’t want to be punished like this.

Ye Jian hugged her head and rolled down the slope. Her body ran over the sharp and thorny plants. The sharp thorns pierced into her clothes and her flesh... It was like a thousand swords piercing through her heart.

Moreover, she couldn’t roll in the same position. She climbed up from the bottom of the sand slope and walked to the top of the sand slope. Then, she rolled down from another position. After the third round, there were countless small bloody holes on Ye Jian’s body.

Her punishment for being late was considered light.

“If there’s a next time, Azure Bird, your punishment will only get worse.” Li Jinnian’s gaze was cold and sharp as he looked at the female soldier whose face was bleeding from being stabbed. His tone was calm as usual. “I hope there won’t be a next time.”

Chapter 1752: This Is A Little Awkward

One punishment was enough for her to remember her lesson, so how could there be a second punishment?

Despite the pain all over her body, Ye Jian still stood upright and replied, “There won’t be a second time!”

“Remember what you said.” Li Jinnian lowered his eyes and glanced at Ye Jian. As he turned to leave, he glanced at Xia Jinyuan, who hadn’t left. He then left with a cold aura.

Xia Jinyuan, who had been observing the entire time, waited for Li Jinnian to walk farther away before walking over. He looked at Ye Jian who didn’t move for a long time and sighed softly in his heart. He reached out and held her hand. His slender fingers rubbed it. After a while, he said, “Sit down and remove the thorns that are stuck to your clothes.”

She rolled three times in a row across the thorny plants. There were a few times when he saw that she could not bring herself to continue rolling. However, after a while, she would resume rolling even more aggressively than before.

Ye Jian touched her butt and smiled bitterly. “I can’t sit. There are thorns on my bottom.”

“...” Xia Jinyuan turned his body and looked at her bottom. Then, he asked her, “Can you take them out yourself?”

Ye Jian took a deep breath and pursed her lips. “I’ll try.”

After trying, she realized how difficult it was. Some of the thorns had pierced through her combat uniform. She had to take off her pants.

Major Xia never thought that he would observe his girlfriend’s butt from a close distance. It was done in such a way too... It was quite special.

“Don’t move. It’s all in your flesh.” Major Xia, who maintained a cold expression, held the curved needle that was used to stitch wounds. He picked out the broken thorns one by one. His eyes were focused on the broken thorns. He didn’t look away.

Ye Jian had taken off her pants. Her face was even redder than an apple. She couldn’t control herself.

Major Xia was still calm. After he finished plucking the second broken thorn, he saw a bead of blood oozing out from the wound. He wiped the bead of blood away.

After wiping, he felt Ye Jian’s body stiffen. He also reacted.

In other words, he had casually touched his girlfriend’s butt just now. It was an unintentional move, but because of the position, it was a little awkward.

Her snow-white skin was covered in dark red beads of blood. It was too dazzling and impossible to ignore.

“I don’t mean anything else. The wound was bleeding, so I wiped it off,” Xia Jinyuan explained calmly so that his thin-skinned girlfriend wouldn’t be shy.

Ye Jian, who had buried her head into the pillow of her sleeping bag, grunted. She sounded fine, but even her waist was red.

She was obviously shy again.

Her hip was the landing point. There were a total of four broken thorns that had pierced into her flesh. After picking them all out, Xia Jinyuan broke out in a hot sweat. Ye Jian was the one punished but in the end, he was the one who suffered.

Next was her left and right shoulders. Xia Jinyuan secretly adjusted his breathing before he managed to suppress his blood pressure.

“Uncle Chen said that you’ve never been late. I’ve trained with you for so long, but I’ve never seen you late. You’ve always been very vigilant, but you were late today.” Despite training under the wind and rain, her skin was still as fair as snow. It was still glowing like a pearl, so tender that it looked like a peeled egg. When he touched it, it was as smooth as silk.

The small dark dots on her shoulders were a little eye-catching.. There was no need to chat as Xia Jinyuan's gaze would shift to the few broken thorns

Chapter 1753: Do You Believe That There Are Past Lives?

Hearing his words, Ye Jian felt bitter in her heart. After a while, she said softly, "Captain Xia, do you believe that there are past lives?"

Those things had been buried in her heart for too long. She originally thought that it would be suppressed with time and that she would forget them after she reincarnated. But in the end, she discovered that those hateful eyes and the humiliation would not be forgotten because of this. Instead, as time passed, it would only ferment. In the end, it was like a rotten bone that could not be removed.

Then, would it be better to say it out loud?

But would he believe her?

Xia Jinyuan answered her, "Are you going to tell me that the reason you were late today was because of a dream?" He looked up slightly. The searchlight on his helmet shone on her beautiful face. Xia Jinyuan's deep and dark eyes seemed to be able to see through people's hearts. However, he couldn't see through the deepest secret of the person in front of him. "Tell me what kind of nightmare you had."

Ye Jian controlled her thoughts and looked at the man. She pursed her lips and said softly, "I dreamed that I was molested."

Xia Jinyuan frowned and looked up at Ye Jian again. He said calmly, "Was it me?"

"No." Ye Jian shook her head. The bitterness in her heart didn't decrease. If it were him... Ye Jian felt that she could still accept it. After all, he was so pleasing to the eyes.

However, she did not know him in her previous life. Therefore, even if it were him, she would resist all the same.

Xia Jinyuan stopped what he was doing and stared at the woman he loved. "If it wasn't me, who was it?"

The major, who did not know the truth, only paid attention to one thing—she did not dream about him molesting her. She actually dreamed about another man!

"A..." Those memories were extremely painful. It was so painful that she felt her stomach churn as soon as she recalled them. It was so disgusting that she wanted to vomit. "A very disgusting guy."

No matter how capable Xia Jinyuan was, he couldn't have guessed that the dream Ye Jian was talking about was something that had happened in her previous life.

Therefore, he raised his hand and flicked her forehead. "If it wasn't me, Azure Bird, you could have taken out your dagger, pistol, and rifle to kill him!"

Then, he asked worriedly, “Did you get rid of him? If you didn’t, you can continue your dream in the second half of the night. Then, you can dream about me too and let me personally get rid of this guy!

“He dares to molest my girlfriend? He’s courting death!” Even though it was just a dream, Major Xia’s voice was filled with killing intent.

The sad Ye Jian was amused by him. She looked at his handsome side profile and replied with a smile, “I killed him. I stabbed him in his heart and pulled the dagger out... I killed him.”

“That’s right. That’s the way it should be. There’s no need to be afraid of dreams. You can settle it however you want!” Major Xia felt relieved.

Looking at him, Ye Jian’s smile deepened. Everything was so beautiful when she was with him.

At this moment, Principal Chen, who had been hospitalized for a few days, only had one thought in mind—discharge!

“Why can’t I be discharged? I know my own body well. Do you think I don’t know if there are any problems? Old Yan, you have to listen to me!”

After staying in the hospital for a week, Principal Chen could not stay any longer. Whenever he thought about what had happened in the army, he was eager to go home. He did not want to waste even half a second.

Chapter 1754: Home

After being discharged from the military for more than ten years, Principal Chen had never allowed himself to rest. The military unit arranged for him to be the principal in Fujun Town. He had been guarding the oil depot in the school. Later, he met Ye Jian and spent all his time teaching her.

He had never rested for a day, nor had he ever allowed himself to relax. Even if he could no longer wear that green military uniform openly, he still treated himself as an active soldier.

After being hospitalized for so many days, it could be said that Principal Chen had rested for the longest time since he joined the army. Therefore, it was even more painful for him to stay in the hospital than to be punished.

However, he was still the principal of a high school for more than ten years. With the scholarly aura around him, his speech was much more refined.

Seeing Commissar Yan sitting in the ward unmoved, Principal Chen could only use his emotions and reason to analyze it. “There are a few good recruits this time. If we train them well, they’ll definitely achieve something. I have to hurry.

“Look at me. I’ve been staying here for a week. If I don’t go back now, they’ll get too relaxed. How can I let that happen? Training should be done day after day. I can’t give up halfway.

“I won’t take matters of my own body lightly. I won’t disregard my own body either. I’ve been hospitalized for so long. It’s really okay. It’s just a stomach hemorrhage. It’s not a big deal. The surgery has been done and I’ve recuperated. Let’s settle the discharge procedures today.”

No matter how well he put it, Commissar Yan was not moved. “You have to continue to take care of yourself. We’re not doctors, so we don’t understand the situation well. But the doctor said that you had gastric hemorrhage this time. If you were sent here half an hour later, you would have lost your life.

“You love the new soldiers, but you have to think about the girl. She just sent Uncle Gen away. Do you want her to send you away as well? Brother, you have to think about the girl. If she has to send off her closest kin one after another, it’ll be more painful than cutting out her heart.

“Listen to the doctor. You’ll be discharged after staying for 20 days. As long as you cooperate well and recover well, you’ll leave immediately after 20 days.”

Even Commander Xia was alarmed by Principal Chen’s fall. He ordered them to take good care of him no matter what. They couldn’t be careless!

Commander Xia had called him and Old Liu personally. He didn’t even alert the people in the provincial military district!

Not many people knew Principal Chen’s special identity. Even the leaders in the provincial military district didn’t know about it. Only the regiment commander and the political commissar who were stationed deep in the mountains of Fujun Town knew.

Since Commander Xia had personally called, Commissar Yan and Commander Liu wouldn’t let Principal Chen leave the hospital even if he wanted to.

Principal Chen wanted to leave the hospital but when he heard Ye Jian, his cold expression softened.

Having undergone surgery, he did not look too good. His face was a little pale and he had lost a lot of weight, making his face look even more angular. The strong military might between his brows appeared a little harsh.

Thinking of Ye Jian, Principal Chen’s gaze softened.

After Old Yan said so much, Principal Chen finally caught the main point.

He was right. If he really left all of a sudden, how could the loyal girl accept it? Moreover, her mother’s sacrifice was very suspicious. He had to help her.

Half of his desire to get out of the hospital disappeared, while the other half made him continue to bargain.

Chapter 1755: Plan

In the end, it was still impossible.

How was it possible for him to cut down the 20 days of hospitalization?

“Brother, you don’t have to bring this up again. It’s useless. I still insist on having you stay here for 20 days.” Yan Zhengtuan looked at Principal Chen who was lying on the bed and sighed. “Brother, talking to you is more tiring than talking to 10 new recruits.

“Don’t insist on being discharged. We’ve already informed the hospital that you must be hospitalized for 20 days. As for...”

There was a knock on the door. Then, someone came in carrying fruits. “Yan Zhengtuan is here too. Principal Chen, are you feeling better?”

The person who came in was not very welcome, which explained why Commissar Yan and Principal Chen’s expressions became much colder. Principal Chen said indifferently, “Director Ye, you’re very considerate. My body is fine. There are no major problems.”

Ye Zhifan could tell that the two of them were treating him coldly. However, he wanted to mend his relationship with Principal Chen so he had to put in more effort.

He put the fruits on the bedside table and sat down without being invited. He asked with concern, “Stomach bleeding is not a small matter. Principal Chen, you have to take good care of yourself. The girl is close to you. If she knows that you’re lying in the hospital, she’ll be very anxious.”

Principal Chen scoffed at this man’s intention to get close to him.

However, he would not show too much displeasure on his face. When he heard that, he smiled coldly and said, “Of course, she’ll be anxious. The girl is a loyal child. She knows in her heart who treats her well and who treats her badly.”

This was a warning to Ye Zhifan to stop playing tricks. He shouldn’t think that others would forgive him just because he wanted to get close to them.

Ye Zhifan pretended that he didn’t understand what he meant. He sighed softly and said sadly, “Yes, that’s why she can’t forgive me after my family treated her like that.”

That cowardly niece of his had grown up in a single night. After that, she didn’t give him any chance at all. He didn’t even know where to start!

The more she did that, the more he feared her. He was sure that if he didn’t get rid of her, she would become a big problem and the biggest obstacle to his daughter’s future!

But it was even harder to get rid of her now.

Even if it was difficult, he had to think of a way!

First, he would start with the people closest to her so that she would think her closest family member would no longer help her and instead help Ye Ying. Ha, she was loyal to her family? Then, he would let her be betrayed by her closest family member.

Ye Zhifan was a capable person. Not only did he want Ye Ying to join the military through Principal Chen, but he also wanted to suppress Ye Jian.

Ye Zhifan was a scheming person. That was how he managed to get to where he was today with the jade pendant.

Principal Chen didn't want to talk about Ye Jian with him. After hearing his hypocritical words, he changed the topic and said to Commissar Yan, "Old Yan, go back first. I'll take good care of my body for Ye Jian. Go back, I'll rest for a while."

"That's fine. You rest first. I'll leave with Director Ye." Commissar Yan stood up and pulled Ye Zhifan along. "Director Ye, let's go first. The patient needs more rest to recover faster."

Ye Zhifan's eyes darkened. He knew that they were chasing him away so he didn't feel awkward at all. He stood up and said calmly, "Principal Chen, have a good rest.. We'll visit you again next time."

Chapter 1756: Ungrateful

He stood up and lowered his gaze slightly. He said condescendingly, "I wanted to know more about the girl from Principal Chen. It seems that I came at the wrong time. I can only come another day."

Learn more about the girl?

Principal Chen and Commissar Yan's faces darkened. This man didn't have good intentions at all.

The two of them didn't reply and just looked on indifferently. They were both soldiers. As long as they focused their attention slightly, even their gazes would have a sense of truthfulness, so much so that it made others feel fear.

Ye Zhifan, who had been an official for 20 years, was very experienced. He maintained a polite smile and continued, "When my sister-in-law died, she left some things behind. I handed them to my wife at home but she later told me that she lost them.

"A few days ago, I went home to clean up my old belongings and found these relics in a large closet. I wanted to hand them to the girl personally. How about this, Principal Chen? When you're feeling better, I'll hand my sister-in-law's relics to you. I'll have to trouble you to hand them to Ye Jian."

If they chased him away today, they wouldn't have another chance.

Ye Zhifan smiled and looked at Principal Chen quietly. He waited for a reply.

Ha, if he did not mention these things, Chen Dongfeng would chase him away.

Principal Chen would not chase him away. Hence, he said calmly, "It turns out that you didn't carelessly throw the things away. It's just that your family is too casual that you thoughtlessly misplaced the belongings of a martyr."

Although his voice was faint, his gaze became sharper. He stared coldly at the righteous official. Principal Chen's face gradually turned cold. "How ungrateful. Director Ye, you really deserve it. Sun Xueqing sacrificed her life to get a position for you so that her daughter could be taken care of by both her uncle and aunt. In the end, you accepted the benefits but forgot about your duty.

“I don’t know if you and the people involved have a conscience or not, but I think you must have a clear conscience. Otherwise, why would you casually place Sun Xueqing’s belongings?”

Ye Zhifan’s expression turned cold. There was a trace of ruthlessness in his eyes.

Did Chen Dongfeng know something? Did Grandpa Gen mention something to him before he passed away?

It had to be. Otherwise, it would be impossible for him to say something like ‘You accepted the benefits but forgot about your duty!’ He must know about it and that was why he dared to say it!

That was right. Even his niece knew that he had Sun Xueqing’s jade pendant. How could Chen Dongfeng not know?

Ye Zhifan’s cold expression only lasted for a few seconds. In the blink of an eye, he was back to his scholarly and honest self. Ye Zhifan sighed and said, “I can only explain the misunderstanding to Ye Jian personally. Principal Chen, I won’t disturb your rest. I’ll come and visit you next time.”

As expected of an official! He was so blunt and ended the conversation in just a few seconds. Principal Chen nodded his head coldly. “Okay, I won’t send you off.” He had to remind Ye Jian not to let her guard down.

Before he left, Principal Chen asked him to take the fruits he brought with him. In the end, Commissar Yan took the fruits with a smile and distributed them to the nurses outside the ward. He said to the nurses with a smile, “This is Mr. Ye’s treat. Don’t stand on ceremony.”

Ye Zhifan almost couldn’t hold himself back. However, when he thought about Ye Ying’s future, he could only endure it.

Chapter 1757: An Accident

They were not showing him any respect at all. One day... One day, he would make them beg him obediently!

A trace of viciousness flashed past Ye Zhifan’s eyes. He got into the car but did not leave immediately. He thought about the conversation in the ward just now. The viciousness in his eyes grew deeper. There was even a hint of killing intent.

After a long time, as if he had made a decision, he took out his phone and pressed the button for a long time with his finger. When the killing intent in his eyes became too strong, he took out a private phone and called a number from his contacts.

When the call connected, Ye Zhifan’s elegant face was covered in dark clouds. There was a vicious look on his face. “I can handle your matter, but you have to solve a problem for me.”

At 11 o'clock, Commander Liu received an urgent call from the soldier on duty. An accident had happened to Principal Chen during his infusion and he was in the midst of emergency treatment. The situation was very dangerous!

Regiment Commander Liu was shocked and immediately drove to the hospital.

Far away in the Northern Frontier, Ye Jian was revising her textbook. For some reason, she felt flustered. Then, the pain made her bend her waist. Her lips turned pale.

Xia Jinyuan was drawing an experimental model for her. He paused while thinking. When he looked up, the pen fell from his hand. He grabbed Ye Jian, whose complexion looked bad.

Her body trembled, and her lips had lost all color. Her pulse quickened, but her body temperature remained normal.

"Azure Bird, breathe! Take deep breaths!" Xia Jinyuan was not flustered. He dealt with the emergency calmly. However, his handsome face was tense. "Listen to my commands. One, two, three! Deep breaths!"

At the same time, he turned on the wireless communication device and immediately contacted K7. "K7, there's something wrong with Azure Bird. Come over quickly!" After saying that, he placed one hand on Ye Jian's chest and said in a deep voice, "Breathe in deeply, Azure Bird! Follow my rhythm!"

He did not help Ye Jian stand up and quickly placed her on the ground. He uncapped the portable oxygen tank that had just been delivered to the highlands and pulled out a breathing mask to cover Ye Jian's mouth and nose. "One, two, three. Breathe, breathe!"

K7, who was running over, saw Ye Jian lying flat on her back. Xia Jinyuan was doing a simple breathing procedure. K7 rushed over and knelt on the ground. He immediately did a simple check-up on Ye Jian and asked Xia Jinyuan, "What's the situation?"

"I was explaining things to her. Everything was normal. I was drawing an experimental model when I saw that her body was trembling..." Xia Jinyuan quickly told K7 what he saw. "Two minutes ago, everything was fine."

K7 narrowed his eyes when he heard Ye Jian's sinking heartbeat. This situation... Why did it seem like she was suffering from angina?

Did Azure Bird have heart disease?

His gaze landed on Ye Jian's chest. Xia Jinyuan seemed to know what he was thinking. He said in a low voice, "No, she's quite healthy. She doesn't have any congenital illnesses or heart disease."

"I'm fine, I'm fine..." Ye Jian's senses gradually recovered. She grabbed Xia Jinyuan's hand and took deep breaths. Her eyes shone brightly. "Q King, can you contact my family?"

The feeling of panic was too similar to... It was too similar to the feeling she had when Grandpa Gen was seriously ill last time. She was afraid... She was very afraid!

Xia Jinyuan grabbed her hand. "Where else are you feeling uncomfortable? K7 is here. Tell him! We'll talk about the rest later."

Chapter 1758: Her Support

She did not feel uncomfortable at all. After her heart rate suddenly accelerated, she gradually calmed down as she took in deep breaths. However, her heart seemed to have been gouged out and there was a large hole left behind. It was so empty that even her fingertips could not help but tremble.

K7 retracted his stethoscope and said to Ye Jian softly, "Is this a recurring problem? Or was it sudden? Or perhaps it has happened before but very rarely?"

He still needed to confirm if Ye Jian had some sort of heart disease. If it was persistent and frequent, it must be a hidden disease.

Xia Jinyuan had always been very confident about Ye Jian's health. He was sure that she did not have any heart disease. He held Ye Jian's hand tightly and said in a steady tone, "K7 is our team's military doctor. Answer his questions. Don't hide anything."

Actually, he should be called a forensic doctor, but he constantly pushed himself to his limits. Hence, he was a forensic doctor as well as a military doctor.

"It's only happened once. Before my grandfather fell seriously ill, I had a similar panic attack. Other than that, it has never happened again. Before entering the military academy, I did a detailed check-up and confirmed that I have no hidden heart disease." A pair of strong hands held onto Ye Jian, making her feel like the man was an immovable mountain that she could rely on. Even her voice was much more stable than before.

K7 stood up and gestured for Xia Jinyuan to help Ye Jian up. There was no need to lie down anymore.

After they both stood up, he said, "Your body is fine, but to be safe, go to the hospital for a health evaluation after training."

"You must be very worried about your family. It's been a long time since you contacted them, so your heart is racing and you're flustered."

Xia Jinyuan agreed with K7's explanation. However, he knew that Ye Jian's sixth sense had always been sharp. When Uncle Gen was in critical condition, she was in a similar situation. He happened to be beside her. He pursed his lips and placed an arm around Ye Jian's shoulder. He said in a low voice, "I'll contact the major general first. You and K7 can sit for a while. Let's put your studies aside for now."

They could not contact their families directly. They could only go through the command center first and then see if they could learn about the situation through the command center.

Ye Jian knew that her request was against the rules. Just as K7 said, she was indeed very worried about Uncle Chen. Ever since she joined the training, she had never contacted him. Now, she had a bad feeling. She could not calm down. She just wanted to know if Uncle Chen was okay.

“There’s no need to just stand here and wait. Let’s move around.” K7 saw that she was just standing there. His eyes, which were usually calm like water, occasionally showed a hint of anxiousness. He, who was not a kind person, was consoling her.

When Li Jinnian came over, he saw Ye Jian squatting and jumping on the spot. K7, who was a forensic doctor and a military doctor, was standing beside her. Xia Jinyuan had asked him to come over and tutor Ye Jian. He also told him about the situation just now before rushing over.

From the looks of it, the situation was still alright.

When K7 saw the demon king coming over, he heaved a sigh of relief. He did not know how to interact with female soldiers or what to say. Ye Jian did not think much of it, but he felt uneasy.

Li Jinnian, who also graduated from National Science University, was famous in the university. It was not difficult for him to tutor Ye Jian. After seeing Xia Jinyuan’s experiment, he spoke in a cold voice and started tutoring Ye Jian.

Chapter 1759: His Strength

Although Li Jinnian was a cold person, he was the same kind of person as Xia Jinyuan. As commanders, they could handle any problem calmly.

He did not ask Ye Jian what had happened just now. Since she was so anxious that Xia Jinyuan’s expression darkened, asking further would only make Ye Jian, who was quietly learning, panic again.

“The construction and formula are equivalent. Before the experiment, line up all the formulas and possible accidents. If you fail midway, you can immediately look for problems with the completed steps and the formulas.

“It’s impossible to cross the line here. The reason why quantum entanglement is known as the ‘ghost-like transport effect’ is because of the phenomenon obtained during experiments. The most common form of a multi-system quantum state is an entanglement state. Therefore, you’re wrong.”

Li Jinnian was very knowledgeable. Ye Jian’s experiments were divided into categories, and Li Jinnian calculated step each one by step. He wrote down a lot of equations, and soon, three sheets of A4 paper were filled back to front.

“The concept of the entanglement state first appeared in Schrodinger’s 1935 thesis on ‘cat state’. You can borrow the copy of this thesis from the National Science University Library. It’ll be helpful for your quantum communication.”

Li Jinnian was as strict and serious as he was during training. His entire body was filled with a cold aura. Sometimes, when Ye Jian asked him questions, she had to observe his expression first.

Ever since she was reincarnated, Li Jinnian had only ever looked at her with such a gaze. It had to be said that her self-esteem was slightly hurt. She thought that she could ace all her classes but in front of Li Jinnian and Xia Jinyuan, she paled in comparison.

Facing Li Jinnian, who graduated so many years ago and had such good professional knowledge, Ye Jian paid full attention to his explanation. In front of this young major who was 'cold' even in terms of aura, Ye Jian had always been reserved. She was not as relaxed and carefree as when she was with Xia Jinyuan.

Ye Jian, who had thrown herself into a sea of knowledge, seemed to have forgotten what had just happened. She followed Li Jinnian's train of thought and occasionally raised her opinion. She did not even realize that the clock was ticking.

What she did not know was that before Xia Jinyuan got Li Jinnian to come over, he had said, "Demon King, use your professional knowledge to distract and stall Azure Bird. No matter what, you have to calm her down first. When I have a definite answer, I'll come back immediately."

Hence, Li Jinnian was trying his best to remember what he had learned in the past to stall Ye Jian.

Fortunately, Ye Jian was from the same university as him and in the same department. Otherwise, no matter how capable he was and how knowledgeable he was, he would not be able to drag this out for a few hours.

Quantum mechanics was the best course he had ever learned. He had even won many awards before. Hence, Li Jinnian felt that he could still complete the task Xia Jinyuan gave him.

"The positivity state of photons in the quantum system, the spin of electrons or atoms, the energy level of atoms or quantum points, and many other systems with two states can be used to create the 'entanglement state'. Do you know who proposed the 'entanglement state'?"

Not only did he explain concepts to her but he would also ask Ye Jian questions from time to time. This made Ye Jian, who just started her course, more energetic. She was even afraid that she would miss half a word of his.

Chapter 1760: Weeping Blood

Hearing this, she replied calmly, "Schrödinger first mentioned the term 'entanglement state'. It refers to a type of multi-particle system or a free-range system that can't be expressed as the superposition state." Fortunately, she had a good memory. Although she had just entered university, her seniors would test her from time to time when she entered the laboratory. Therefore, she did not have any problems answering such questions.

Also, he previously said that Schrödinger's 1935 thesis on 'cat-state' had mentioned it... Why did it feel like he was teasing her?

Li Jinnian glanced at the female soldier who looked especially serious when she turned her head. The corners of his mouth curled up slightly. She was indeed listening attentively. After nearly two hours, she still hadn't gotten distracted.

Just as Ye Jian had guessed, Li Jinnian did want to tease her. No, he was not teasing her. He wanted to ease the tension between them.

It was clearly a discussion about knowledge and experiments, but her expression... It was as if she had entered a training state. Every time she interacted with him, her entire body would tense up. It was as if he would do something fierce to her the next second.

Her behavior puzzled him.

Xia Jinyuan was clearly more vicious than him. Why was it that Ye Jian could get along with him so easily? Besides being a little harsh during training, he had never treated her harshly either. Why was she so tense when she was with him?

However, Ye Jian did not sense that Li Jinnian was trying to lighten the mood. She only felt the pressure increase.

Seeing her expression tighten, Li Jinnian could not help but frown. He was sure that he had not said anything harsh just now!

It seemed that it was not her fault but Ye Jian's. She was not used to interacting with him.

Thinking of this, Li Jinnian no longer thought about it nor tried to lighten the mood. His handsome face remained indifferent as he continued to write a series of complicated, deep, and incomprehensible calculations.

Ye Jian turned her eyes to the side and focused all her attention on the paper. She did not expect Li Jinnian to tease her just to lighten the mood.

After waiting for nearly two hours, Xia Jinyuan finally received a call from Commander Xia. This call made his expression turn cold.

The little fox's sixth sense was accurate once again!

Uncle Chen was still in the midst of emergency treatment because of the infusion! His life was in danger!

"The nurses and pharmacists who administered the drug are being detained. The military district has sent people to guard the place. At the same time, the police are also conducting a close investigation. We won't know the exact results until the police finish their investigation on whether this matter was caused by someone or if it's just an accident."

Xia Jinyuan did not hide it from Ye Jian and told her everything he heard. "Uncle Chen was hospitalized because of gastric bleeding. Before this, he told Commander Liu and the political commissar to keep it a secret from you."

Ye Jian was someone who wanted results. Once she knew the results, she would be able to be calmer. She would not lose her cool because of the sudden news.

The color on Ye Jian's face faded. Her eyes were as clear as the moonlight as she stared at Xia Jinyuan. When she asked this question, her voice was calm and without a trace of a tremble. "It has been more than two hours since he entered the operating room. It seems that the situation is not as simple as it seems. The problem with the infusion is directly causing the functions of each body part to fail. There will also be complications. Uncle Chen is on the verge of death this time."
